

Plans Progressing For Recreational And Community Center Project

Recent meetings of a Committee to study and plan a Recreational Project and Community Center has now moved to a point of action to determine membership possibilities necessary to secure funds for construction.

Conferences have been held with the Farmers Home Administration officials and preliminary requirements have been met, including a letter of request for consideration of financing. The request has been granted and in a recent meeting with officials of Farmers Home Administration, the local committee was advised they were to proceed.

Architects and engineers have met with local representatives to develop cost estimates and technical assistance on the project.

Longtime Eula Resident Dies

Mrs. Nellie Harrison, 86, of Eula, died at 5 p. m. Thursday in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Bernadine Nixon in Big Spring. She had lived with her daughter the last three years.

Mrs. Harrison had been a Eula resident since 1918.

Funeral was held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at Eula Methodist Church with burial in the Eula Cemetery.

Bailey Funeral Home of Clyde was in charge of arrangements. Born Sept. 18, 1879 in May Pearl, Texas, she was a member of the First Christian Church of Abilene. Her husband died in 1938.

Surviving are two sons, E. E. of Eula and R. C. of Waxahatchie; two daughters, Mrs. C. C. Warren of Cherry Valley, Calif., and Mrs. Nixon; and two granddaughters.

Pallbearers were Ralph Brock, Reo Jolly, Rufus Miller, Rob Farmer, J. D. Battles and T. C. Godfrey.

Mrs. Lewis Rites Held Tuesday

Funeral was held at 3 p. m. Monday at the College Church of Christ in Abilene for Mrs. B. R. (Lucile) Lewis, 61, who died in Gastonia, N. C. Gordon Teel, minister of the Los Angeles Church of Christ officiated. Burial was in Elmwood Memorial Park.

Born Jan. 11, 1904 in Callahan County, she married Byrd Ray Lewis Aug. 24 near Clyde at the home of her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Walls.

After her marriage she taught school in Denton Valley and in Eula for two years before moving to Paducah, where she taught for six years. They moved to Greensboro, N. C. in 1943 and lived there five years. They had lived in Gastonia since 1948.

She had been a school teacher in Gaston County for the past ten years. She was a member of the Church of Christ and active in church affairs.

Survivors include her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Everett Ferguson Jr. of Abilene; one son, Dr. Donald E. Lewis of Gastonia; three sisters, Mrs. W. H. Dawkins of Huntsville, Mrs. G. P. Holland and Miss Gladys Walls, both of Abilene; four brothers, George Walls of Ventura, Calif., Ted Walls of Clyde and N. Walls of Houston and R. A. Walls of Huntsville, slides grandchildren.

Weekend guests in the home of Mrs. W. V. Walls were Mrs. J. Davis of Odessa, C. E. Mills, Mrs. Jean Walls and Mrs. Raymond White, all of Houston. They attended the funeral of Mrs. B. R. Lewis in Abilene.

Land has been secured to a term-lease basis from the City of Baird, on the old water field property west of Baird.

Preliminary plans call for a Community Center building designed to accommodate clubs, organizations and individuals with several meeting rooms of varied floor space or partitions whereby several meetings may be carried on at the same time. A nine-hole golf course, tennis courts, playgrounds, picnic area and other recreational facilities designed for family recreation is planned.

A non-profit Corporation will be formed to negotiate with the City and Farmers Home Administration and to govern the facility when complete.

As preliminary estimates are prepared, membership will be determined, based upon requirements for loan retirement and operating costs. Family membership will be offered to anyone in the area and it is planned to have forms available shortly for space to make suggestions as to various forms of recreation to be included. The committee will, of course, call upon individuals and organizations for suggestions on the building before final plans are submitted.

It is believed this will be a most opportune time to complete this important project that will add much to our area.

Mrs. Kavanaugh's Rites Held in Baird

Funeral for Mrs. Della Viola Kavanaugh, 84, was held at 11:30 a. m. Friday in Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home chapel at Big Spring. Rev. R. W. VA Allows Assistance For Education

Children of both living and deceased veterans studying under the Orphans Education Assistance Act will receive in November the new education allowances signed into law last week by the President, according to Jack Coker, Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco.

At the same time, Coker pointed out that the new law removes a restrictive provision for eligibility under the Orphans Education Assistance program. The provision had previously required that the qualifying death or disability result from the "performance of duty." The new law strikes out the "performance of duty" provision.

The VA Manager estimated that more than a thousand children throughout the nation may now become eligible because of this change.

The increase in monthly education assistance allowances rates which go from $110 to $130 a month for full-time study will affect between 20,000 and 30,000 students in the current school year. Almost 80,000 children have taken advantage of the orphans' study program to date, Coker said.

While those who were previously denied eligibility must file new claims, no filing is necessary to obtain the increased allowance rates. These payments are automatic and require no correspondence with the VA.

CROSS PLAINS TO HOST SCS TOUR; OMAR BURLESON MAIN SPEAKER

The world has only an average of six inches of top soil to feed and clothe its inhabitants. In appreciation of those people who are helping to conserve this vital top soil through soil conservation projects, the City of Cross Plains plans to host an Appreciation Tour, Byron Richardson, Callahan County judge, told members of the planning committee Friday in a meeting at Odom's Cafe in Cross Plains to finalize plans.

Richardson and A. J. Young of Coleman were in charge of the meeting. Twenty-four members were present, and represented the Turkey Creek, Central Colorado, Middle Clear Fork, Brown-Mills, Upper Leon and Lower Clear Fork Soil Conservation Districts; the City of Clyde, the Brown, Mills, Callahan, Coleman and Taylor Commissioners Courts and the Cross Plains Chamber of Commerce.

CARNIVAL A SUCCESS

The Grade School Halloween carnival was a huge success this past Saturday night. A large crowd turned out and everyone seemed to have a good time.

M.F.T. wishes to thank everyone who had a part, in any way, in this project for this year. A total of $803.00 was made during the carnival.

The Appreciation Tour will be an all-day affair, beginning at 10 in the morning, Nov. 9, at the Callahan County Junior Livestock Show Barn one mile North of Cross Plains, on State Highway 204.

Guests will be welcomed by J. B. McCord, Chairman of the Central Colorado Soil Conservation District, which is the parent district. A report of progress on the Jim Ned, Upper Pecan Bayou and Turkey Creek watershed projects, and a tour of the sites of floodwater retarding structures is planned for the morning.

Guests will be returned to the Show Barn for lunch, and in the afternoon, hear an Appreciation Response by Judge Richardson, and an address by a visiting dignitary. Jack Scott of Cross Plains will make the introductions.

Invitations to attend the Appreciation Tour have been issued to a number of VIP's, including Gov. John Connally, and Congressman Omar Burleson, and to all interested persons in the Central Colorado, Brown-

Board Named For Medical Center Push

An eight-member temporary executive committee to coordinate and supervise fund-raising for the proposed Community Medical Center in Baird has been announced.

Appointed were Mrs. A. E. Dyer Sr. of Baird, Mrs. Weldon Isenhower of Putnam and Mrs. Frank Windham of Oplin and Baird, all with ranching interests; Bob Norrell, president of First National Bank of Baird; Baird Mayor J. L. Ault; S. L. McElroy, store clothing owner; Rupert Jackson, Baird attorney; and Raymond Young, Baird insurance man.

The group will meet next week to organize and make preliminary plans for the drive, to raise approximately $40,000 in the Putnam, Rowden, Admiral and Baird areas to finance the proposed medical center.

There will be no federal or state grants involved in the project.

When the fund goal has been reached, subscribers to the center will elect a permanent executive committee.

The program is being planned in cooperation with the Sears Foundation, which is providing technical and professional assistance.

Building of the 12 floodwater dams on the three watersheds has been cited by the National Soil Conservation Service as an outstanding example of cooperative effort. Land for the sites was acquired from some 50 land owners without the necessity of a single condemnation suit. Ten of the floodwater dams are located in Callahan County and two in Brown County. Money to build the dams was provided by the Soil Conservation Service and local taxation.

A joint inspection of fenced areas, spillways and structures as made annually by representatives from the participating districts to assure proper maintenance.

"We are proud of the people who have pioneered our soil conservation program," Judge Richardson said, "and we want to show our appreciation to these far-sighted, dedicated men who have given of their time, effort and means to make the program possible."

The public is invited to attend.

The weather continues to be good for making hay, however some clouds are moving in that have moisture, so the drying and hay baling will probably be slowed down.

To my surprise, when I called the L. V. Harris residence, Van answered the phone Monday. I suppose he is doing as well as could be expected, at least he said it was good to be back home once again.

Lynda Crawford was home from Howard Payne College this past weekend. She told how she enjoyed visiting in the home of her roommate, Becky McClure. They so arranged their visit to be during the State Fair at Dallas. Becky lives at Hurst, so it was very easy for them to drive to the fair grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Rutledge and family of Oil Center, N. M., visited Mrs. Medford Walker the past week.

How to build a port for a storm

A little stockpile of U. S. Savings Bonds can turn into a mighty snug harbor in an emergency.

If an emergency never crops up (and we hope it doesn't), you're ahead considerably more than your Bonds cost you.

Bonds earn interest at a guaranteed rate. At maturity, you get back $4 for every $3 you invest. And your investment is backed by the United States of America.

And there's that quiet satisfaction that comes from knowing your Bonds are helping Uncle Sam build the cause of freedom throughout the world.

So get with the millions of Americans who have found Bonds a safe port in a storm. And a solid base for the future of their families.

- Quick facts about Series E Savings Bonds
- ✓ You get back $4 for every $3 at maturity
 - ✓ You can get your money when you need it
 - ✓ Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed or stolen
 - ✓ You can buy Bonds where you bank, or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work

OPLIN OBSERVATIONS

DAPHENE FLOYD

William Betcher was home a few days last week on vacation visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Betcher Jr. William was in the process of being transferred from Jal, N. M. to Andrews.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Floyd were guests last Tuesday night for a fish fry in the home of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lee Floyd of Vickie. Other guests were a sister, Mrs. Ruth Rogers and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Lillie Floyd of Pecos.

Friends were happy to hear that Jack Landers, who is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Breeding, had been dismissed last Saturday from the hospital. Jack had been hospitalized for the past six weeks after being injured in a car accident at Lubbock.

Mrs. M. C. Miller was hostess for a Stanley party in her home last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Lillie Bross of Eula was the agent and books for the party amounted to a little over fifty dollars. Refreshments were served cafeteria style to guests.

Oplin friends were sorry to hear that Mrs. Joe Warren of Baird suffered a severe stroke last week and was hospitalized in Callahan County Hospital. Last reports were that she was on the critical list. Mr. and Mrs. Warren are former residents of Oplin.

Mrs. Lowell Johnson has been doing a good job of "baby sitting" in her home for a young nephew, Sidney Grant of Lawn, while his mother, Mrs. James Coy Grant does a few weeks of substitute teaching.

Donation to the Oplin Cemetery fence fund, Mr. and Mrs. Alex McWhorter, $10.

Fat Bucks Await Texas Hunters

A Texas Parks and Wildlife Department biologist, on location in the Hill Country, said prospects definitely are good for the coming deer season. And the negative angles that stymied the 1964 shoot may not prevail again this fall.

This man is Rod Marburger, who headquarters at Kerrville.

He said deer just don't seem to be as spooky as last year when the herds, although overpopulated in many areas, kept safely behind the unseasonable heavy vegetation and circumvented hunters operating from blinds.

Marburger said the difference in the summer may make the difference with the sportsmen's luck because deer generally had ample feed throughout the summer. This contrasts with the 1964 summer when deer were on short summer rations because of a drought. Then came the lush fall growth from good rains, and the deer apparently gorged themselves and kept to the dense cover, safely separated from the baited areas and specially planted oak fields.

Now, said the wildlife biologist, deer just don't seem to be so jittery because of a normal summer diet, and definitely are in superb condition.

Marburger said the overdue killing frost in the Edwards Plateau country seems to be part of the mild fall pattern which has permitted leaves and other vegetation to provide more protective cover. But he doesn't consider that a major factor in the average hunter's experience afield.

Prospects, he decided, definitely are good, both from a venison and trophy angle in the popular Hill Country range.

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE

By OMAR BURLESON

WASHINGTON — Communists all over the world never lose an opportunity to exploit dissension and controversy. Methods used have been a part of their creed since the original Manifesto.

Their latest effort, as determined by the Senate Internal Security Committee, has been to infiltrate groups opposing our Government's Vietnam policy.

A document just issued, entitled "The Anti-Vietnam Agitation and the Teach-in Movement," concludes that "the control of the anti-Vietnam movement has clearly passed from the hands of the moderate elements who may have controlled it at one time, into the hands of Communists and extremists who are openly sympathetic to the Vietcong and openly hostile to the United States." Under this influence they have called for massive civil disobedience, including the burning of draft cards and the stopping of troop trains. This was the central theme of the National Vietnam protest movement in meetings October 15 and 16.

The Committee report says, "The evidence is overwhelming that the world Communists apparatus in the United States, in Moscow, in Peking, in Hanoi, in Havana and elsewhere, have been able to exploit the anti-Vietnam agitation and the teach-in movement for the purpose of confusing their own people, for the purpose of fostering the impression that the majority of the American people are opposed to the Administration's policy in Vietnam, and for the purpose of attacking the morals of American servicemen in Vietnam."

No one suggests that, under the the Constitutions, Americans do not have the right of freedom of speech and freedom of assembly. Because of these freedoms, the radicals are able to agitate and foment by going beyond the right to do so, to the point of committing treason.

Some organizations originally formed for legitimate purposes have found that control had been taken over by Communists and their sympathizers. Some of these have sought to demarcate their position on various issues, including Vietnam, and to repudiate Communist support. In the case of the so-called teach-ins, absence is noted of any such effort by supposedly the non-Communist leaders to prevent or limit infiltration and participation by the Communists. A significant number of people of known Communist background or with long records of association with Communist fronts have been able to play a prominent role in the movement.

The great majority of the teach-ins have had absolutely nothing in common with procedures of fair debate or the process of education. In practice, they have been a combination of an indoctrination session, a political protest demonstration, and endurance contest, and a variety show. In most meetings of the "teach-ins" there has been open distribution of Communist literature.

In May of this year a "teach-in" in Washington started off with what was supposedly a pretense of impartiality. During the progress of the meeting, this pretense was abandoned in favor of a totalitarian one-sidedness, with panelist after panelist and speaker after speaker excoriating the Administration and calling for the mobilization of a national movement of protest on our policy in Vietnam.

This particular meeting received complete support from the Communist and pro-Communist publications in the United States, including the Worker, the People's World, the National Guardian, and the Militant.

What all this adds up to, concludes the Internal Security Committee's Report, is a global effort on the part of the Communists to force the withdrawal of American troops from Vietnam by means of a massive psychological warfare attack.

In this effort, the Communists are exploiting all the idealism of honest critics to bolster their position. The only thing that has changed from similar efforts during the past many years is the cause. Even this is the same if we consider that the greatest cause of all Communist activity in the United States is to bolster the international gains of world Communism.

Copies of this effort are being furnished to as many of our libraries as possible. This Report should point up the fact that a small number of these vocal militants, through news media, appears to be a great voice.

SCHOOL MISADVENTURES AND UNUSUALS

BY VEDA YARBROUGH

Hi neighbor! How are you these nice days?
We were very sorry to hear this morning of the death of Mrs. R. F. Webb Sunday morning in an Abilene Hospital. Mr. Webb was a teacher in Putnam school for 16 years, and a teacher in Abilene schools at the time of his death. Mr. Webb was loved by all who knew him. He married Miss Johnnie Ruth Eubank while teaching in Putnam. To all the family of Mr. Webb, our deepest sympathy.

We were also sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Lee Park this morning. Mr. Park lived in Knox City. Mrs. R. L. Clinton of Putnam is a daughter of Mr. Park. Our deepest sympathy to all his family.

Last Wednesday, Burette and John May Ramsey, Linda Hughes and I went to San Angelo to see Stella Hughes and her little son. He is a very smart little boy and his name is James C. Hughes. Everyone is so very proud of him.

Saturday, Fay and Emmett Wood and I went to Big Spring to see Mack Wood and family. We came back Sunday afternoon. The Mack Woods' have moved about 3 miles out of Big Spring. I like out where they live. It is out in the hills and cedar breaks.

Mrs. Mary Ramsey is still in St. Ann Hospital in Abilene. She is doing OK.

Fay Wood and I visited with Mrs. Hollis McKinney, who is in Graham Hospital in Cisco. I hope she is feeling better now.

We also saw Mr. and Mrs. Halbrook while in Big Spring. I see some cotton picking going on in Mr. Roggenstein's field, the kind that pull those white trallers behind them. John Mc finished defoliating the cotton here on my place this morning.

Mr. Bill Jeter and daughter Miss Frances Cook of Dallas had supper Monday night with Burette and Johnny Mae Ramsey. They came to Mr. Webb's funeral.

Hope the weather stays pretty now for a while so we can get the cotton out.

Guess I better get to work so be good and I hope to see you next week, if the goblins and witches don't get me.

ROWDEN ROUNDUP

Hunting Trade Zone Has Brisk Pace

AUSTIN — The panting has not begun yet but the nimrods are beginning to breath pretty hard, judging by that never failing barometer -- want ads as monitored by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

The gunners can compete with the hot poll in the modest day-hunting areas or as depleted in a Houston paper, they may play it posh and respond to: "First time offered; Executive's private deer and fishing preserve, loaded with deer, 50-acre stocked lake."

A different sort of pitch was made with: "Hunters, 5-acre plat, midst 160,000-acre forest, plenty game."

Or if the sports just decide to move in for keeps, a Corpus Christi ad offers a "926-acre cow ranch and hunting ranch" where "hunting is the best."

A more modest approach in a Fort Worth paper: "20 acres . . . deer, quail, dove, turkey, javelina . . . $2500 all cash."

One San Antonio bid was discriminating, seeking only "sober hunters."

An Austin paper worked on the back-to-nature weaknesses with: "Old shack, and 40 acres. Lots of deer and other game."

The same newspaper featured a "Hunters" special with two portable buildings with all the comforts." And a Houston ad stressed "New portable camp-house, sleeps 4, stove, icebox, sink, butane or elec. lights."

And they described feed pens, oat patches, new blinds, plus a plaintive bid via a Dallas ad: "Business man wishes to participate in deer lease."

For those with a tired back already, a San Antonio ad offered: "Young donkeys, ideal pack animals."

Miss Jennie Harris Honored at Banquet

Miss Jennie Harris was guest of honor at the first annual Sunday School banquet to be held by the First Baptist Church. Miss Harris has taught in the Sunday school for 14 consecutive years. She was to retire this year, at the age of 81, but is substituting in the senior adult department.

Bro. Richard Lewis, pastor, made the recognition and presented the honoree with an orchid corsage. She was unaware that she was to be the honored guest.

There were 47 Sunday school teachers and officers present. An autumn harvest theme was carried in in decorations. A yellow floral centerpiece of gladiolas and chrysanthemums highlighted the head table. Autumn leaves, pumpkin, ornamental gourds, and fruit provided the table decorations.

Sunday school superintendent Albert Lovell served as master of ceremonies. John McAnelly, music director, brought special music. Rev. Robert Holt, Abilene-Callahan Area Baptist Missionary, brought a message on Improving the Sunday School.

Mrs. Lola Appleton visited her granddaughter and family at Sanderson over the weekend. Mrs. T. O. Dulaney accompanied her as far as Iraan where she visited her sister, Mrs. Bob Miller.

Federal Funds to Aid Screwworm Barrier

Congressional action on an appropriation bill providing funds for continuance of the screwworm barrier zone on the Mexico and Texas and New Mexico borders in late October drew widespread praise from United States livestock producers.

Fred Wulff of Brady, president of Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, particularly commended the Texas congressional delegation in the House and Senate for its support of the legislation.

"Screwworm eradication has been one of the most important programs of this century in improving livestock industry of Texas," he said. "Much credit is due to the hundreds of men who have contributed their time and money to making screwworm eradication a success, and the efforts of our elected representatives in seeing that the program is continued as an international program promises multiple benefits for the livestock industry in the years ahead."

Dolph Briscoe Jr., of Uvalde, president of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, said that funds provided by the appropriation bill gives hope that the time will not be long in coming when the screwworm will exist only in men's memories. Long range plans call for moving the barrier zone south through Mexico and other Latin American countries, thus forever ridding North America of the troublesome and expensive pest.

Ervin Lee Bates left Oct. 18 for basic training in the U. S. Marine Corps, San Diego, Calif. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bates of Baird.

Al/c and Mrs. David McIntosh and children, Belinda and Brent, left Oct. 31 for Trenton, N. J., where they departed by air for three years duty in Spain.

UNION USUALS AND UNUSUALS

BY VEDA YARBROUGH

Hi neighbor. No, the witches did not get me last week. They may have got my news as it did not make the paper last week.

The weather here is real nice, kinda "fallish" if that it a word. Anywey real nice and pleasant.

The Halloween carnival and coronation last Thursday night was real nice and very pretty.

Visiting Saturday night with the Burette Ramseys were Mr. and Mrs. John Farmer of Fort Worth, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Alvey. I suppose they played some 88.

Linda Hughes and I visited in Cisco Monday. Had dinner with Fay Wood, and in the afternoon Fay, Linda and I visited with Mrs. Mary Ramsey and Lula Isenhower. We are so happy that Mrs. Mary is getting along so well. She left the hospital last Friday and went to her daughters in Cisco. So good she can see and walk by herself. She is getting anxious to go home.

Visiting in the home of Mark and Ollie Burnam over the weekend were Mary Everett and Dian and evin Burnam of Hobbs, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brown and son Nevin of Copperas Cove and James and Gayle Isenhower of Paducah.

We are very sorry to hear of the passing of Mrs. Hershel Wagley's mother, Mrs. Harris. She had been ill for quite a while. Our deepest sympathy to her family.

We are glad Mrs. Hollis McKinney is feeling some better. We hope she continues to improve.

Well, I see some cotton trailers in Mr. Roggenstein's field, the kind you pull on your shoulder. Think the cotton here at m place is about dead enough to machine.

Mrs. Clint McIntyre of Clyde visited Sunday with John and Roma McIntyre. I visited a while Sunday with the Mc's.

Mabel Carrico and I were in Baird Friday afternoon. We went to see D. A. Yarbrough a while. He is doing fine and he showed us his apple crop. He has one apple tree in his back yard and it had one apple to stay on till it was ripe. He has one pecan tree, but it is still too young to produce pecans, but maybe someday it will.

Well, guess I better get busy so be good till next week and I hope to see you then.
