Say, you boys—

"Take time to be polite. A gentle "I thank you," "If you please," "Excuse me," etc. even to an inferior, is no compromise of dignity, and you know

True politeness is to say
The kindest things in the kindest way

THE REG'LAR ARMY MAN.

He ain't no gold-lace Belvedere
To sparkle in the sun;
He don't parade with gay cockade
And posies in his gun.
He ain't no "pretty soldier boy,"
So lovely, spick and span;
He wears a crust of tan and dust,
The reg'lar army man,
The marchin', parchin',
Pipe clay starchin',
Reg'lar army man.

He ain't at home in Sunday school,
Nor yet at social tea;
And on the day he gets his pay
He's apt to spend it free.

He ain't no temperance advocate,
He likes to fill the can;
He's kinder rough, and may be tough;
The reg'lar army man.
The rarin', tarin',
Sometimes swearin'
Reg'lar army man.

No state'll call him "noble son,"
He ain't no ladies' pet;
But let a row start anyhow,
They'll send for him, you bet.
He don't cut any ice at all
In fashion's social plan,
He gets the job to face the mob,
The reg'lar army man.
The willin', drillin',
Made for killin',
Reg'lar army man.

There ain't no tears shed over him
When he goes off to war,
He gets no speech or prayerful
"preach"
From mayor or governor.
He packs his little knapsack up
And trots off with the van
To start the fight and start it right,
The reg'lar army man.
The rattlin', battlin',
Colt or Gatlin',
Reg'lar army man.

He makes no fuss about the job
He don't talk big or brave;
He knows he's in to fight and win
Or help fill up a grave.
He ain't no "mama's darling," but
He does the best he can,
And he's the chap that wins the scrap,
The reg'lar army man.
The dandy, handy,
Cool and sandy,
Reg'lar army man.

R. H. McALPINE.

Charley Phillips and wife recently took an offing to Roswell and had a very enjoyable and restful time. They hired teams and were driven around the country two days. Says where the water reaches every thing is vernal, but other places dreadfully scorched. Says things are costlier in Roswell than in Amarillo, but trade was dull.

"Miss Florence, where is Cornie Cornelius?"

"Don't know."

"Did Miss Jo leave last night?"

"Yes, she has gone."

"Well, that accounts for it. Mr. Wolfin is looking for another delivery boy."

Mrs Tuck Cornelius, who had three of her ribs broken some 3 weeks ago by being thrown from a buggy in a runaway, is doing as well as could be expected. She can sit up but not walk.

Mr T. W. Taylor is here from the famous State of Van Zant county, prospecting. He is an affable gentleman and the News would be glad to see him suited in a good little ranch not too far from town.

The first load of melons of the season was brought in this morning by our esteemed and energetic stock farmer, Mrs Meyers, five miles north of here, and was bought by Mr Shaw, at the New York Bargain House, who is in the lead in building up his town and county.

Judge Withington, of the L S and W J Clarke of the L X, the liveliest pair in stock, are in town today.

Judge Withington is general manager of the L S Live Stock Ass. And his friend W J Clarke says Withington is the last of that firm name.

Withington says that the city authorities have given Clarke a $10 option to remain or abdicate Amarillo before another sun—but for the News to say nothing about it.

Mr H A Martson, of Clarendon, has accepted a position with the Amarillo Steam Laundry, and will relieve Mr Frank of some of his duties so that he may devote more of his time to college work. Mr Martson is a fine business man and everyone will be glad to welcome him to Amarillo.

Reporter: "Geo. Wolfin, give me some news."

W. "Got none!"

"Put your thinker to work."

"Got no thinker."

It is truth, we are selling Ladies' waists and wraps at actual New York cost. Smith Walker & Co

Judge Madden is under the weather, as to health, and says he is going to take in an outing so soon as he can find an out-of-the-way place lying around loose—or words to that effect.

I beg to say to the people of Amarillo and surrounding country that I am here for the purpose of establishing a marble and granite shop here. I am a life long marble and stone cutter and carver, and shall not solicit the patronage of the people on any other plea than high character of work, best quality of material and the lowest prices, and I propose to guarantee satisfaction in every case. Do me and yourself a favor getting my prices. G. B. Powell.

I am closing out my entire stock of Shoes, Hats and Gloves at actual cost, for cash. I will discontinue the above line of goods, in order to give my whole attention to Groceries. It will pay you to see me before buying. C. O. WOLFLIN.
