

CLARENDON PUBLIC SCHOOL TO CLOSE THE LAST WEEK IN MAY —WILL GRADUATE CLASS OF 10

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL SESSION IN THE HISTORY OF THIS CITY COMES TO A CLOSE FRIDAY, MAY 28TH—
SUPT. NELSON TO RETURN NEXT WEEK, AS WILL MOST OF THE FACULTY

Without the shadow of a doubt the most successful session in the history of the Clarendon Public Schools will come to a close on Friday evening, May 28th, when a class of ten will appear in their graduation program and will receive their diplomas at the hands of Supt. J. E. Nelson, who has so universally pleased the people of Clarendon in his guidance of the school during the past nine months.

Examinations and tests are already beginning and will receive their final completion at the usual counting of the days until vacation comes, as has been done in ages past and will continue to be done until the end of time. The largest enrollment ever enjoyed by a Clarendon school has been enrolled this year, the number at this time being 743, which is approximately 100 more than the total enrollment of the 1919 session. This heavy enrollment has taxed the capacity of the rooms and the teaching force to the very utmost and the accomplishments for the year have been little short of marvellous and could never have been attained except for the splendid co-operation of the teachers in the grammar and high school has accorded the superintendent. The problems for the next year are already puzzling the board of trustees and Supt. Nelson, as the latest scholastic census gives promise of the enrollment next year being far in excess of the high water mark attained during the present session. The census of 1919 was only 668, yet the enrollment has reached the number of 743 as listed above. The census this year shows 724, and figuring the same proportionate increase in new pupils and those transferring in for the term beginning next September, the enrollment in 1920-21 will reach the total of 805. This indicates that two extra teachers will be needed on the faculty for the next term, to handle the natural increase in enrollment. One extra has been badly needed this year as every teacher has had more pupils than could well be served. It is a vital problem and should command the attention and constructive efforts of every citizen.

There has been no regular program for the commencement exercises announced as yet, but on the information The News has been able to gather the following is a forecast of the programs that will mark the close of the school year:

Sunday, May 23rd—Commencement Sunday.
Tuesday or Wednesday, May 25th on 26th—Class Day.
Friday Evening, May 28th—Graduating Exercises.

Also some time during the week will be presented a recital from Miss Houk's class of music.

A prominent speaker will be secured to make the annual address to the graduating class.

Those to whom diplomas are to be awarded this year are:

- Virginia Marley,
- Helen Martin,
- Mary Cagle,
- Mary Hallett Benedict,
- Roberta Waldron,
- Henry Dever,
- Douglas Doshier,
- Oswald Coleman,
- Dorothy Smith,
- Ola Grogan.

Clarendon people will be pleased to know that Supt. Nelson has been re-elected as head of the school for 1921 and the board with his assistance are working on the problem of securing the faculty for the next year. Most of the teachers will remain in the school which bodes well for the continuing work of the organization. The list of teachers will be published in these columns just as soon as they are obtained from the board.

1919-20 has been a great year for Clarendon Public Schools and all evidences point to a greater in 1920-21.

AFTER A ROAD FROM THE EAST TO WEST

W. L. Sonntag and M. A. Rex were in town Monday in the interest of building a railroad from Childress via Turkey, Quitaque, Silvertown, Tulla, Dimmitt and other points west into the coal fields of New Mexico, and expressed themselves as being very confident that this was the most practical route for a road across this part of the country. These gentlemen were on their way from the west to Childress and the towns between here and there, and promised us they would have something definite for us to consider in a short while. They are pleasant business men, and we understand they have had to do with the construction of several railroads, and are here representing capital sufficient to build the road as indicated above.

There is no question about the great need of a railroad through this portion of the country, nor the fact that it would pass through the finest strip of undeveloped country in the State of Texas, today—Silvertown Star.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Beville will leave Friday night for south Texas. Mr. Beville will attend grand lodge of the K. P.'s at Galveston next week, later going to Austin, San Antonio and other places attending to legal matters of his profession. They expect to be away for at least two weeks.

TUESDAY LUNCHEON EN- DORSES A LARGER BUD- GET FOR CHAMBER

The principal feature of the Tuesday luncheon was the unanimous endorsement of an increased budget for the Chamber of Commerce work for Clarendon. Some time ago the board of directors looking into the future and seeing the needs of the work voted to enlarge the present budget of about $4000 per year to something near $6000, and the wisdom of their action was given this wholesale endorsement by the business men attending the luncheon as set forth above.

A very pleasant feature was the presence of the first president of the Chamber of Commerce, in the person of Mr. J. E. Walker, formerly of this city, but now of El Centro, Cal. Mr. Walker is in the state for a few weeks on business and arrived here on the Tuesday morning. He was given a hearty welcome and the luncheon by Acting President Story and responded with a talk of the progress of our city, the future of Clarendon and the extent of Clarendon's publicity, which he asserted had spread to the Imperial Valley of California. He praised the work of the organization and wished us continued success.

A very inspiring talk was also heard from W. T. Hayter, whose arduous and varied duties has kept him from being a regular attendant at the luncheons. Mr. Hayter said he was in the work with his heart and money, and hoped for the time when he would be able to give his time as well.

Committees were arranged for, to work the membership of the Chamber of Commerce for the increase in monthly assessments and it was decided to give from four to five o'clock for that afternoon to the work.

Late reports assure the success of the drive and soon a new membership campaign will be launched which is intended to bring into the organization many who are not in business, but whose interests are prospering by the work of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce.

LOCAL CIRCLE MEMBERS MEET WITH AMARILLO CIRCLE

A large crowd of members of the local Woodmen circle members journeyed to Amarillo Friday to meet with the circle at that place. Among the number to go were: Mesdames J. J. Conroy, Chas. Speed, Ed. Speed, Mutt Ingram, Guy Taylor and the Misses Lola Mahaffey, Eula Naylor and Ina Naylor. The men folks to go along for the "eats" were: Charles Speed, Slaton Mahaffey and Wofford Mahaffey. The entire crowd to the individual member shone brightly under the direction of the meeting one long to be remembered for the many pleasant surprises in store for the visitors.

THE ARMENIAN RELIEF DRIVE ALL NEXT WEEK

CAMPAIN POSTPONED IN FEBRUARY IS SCHEDULED
FOR NEXT WEEK—COUNTY
QUOTA IS $4900

Beginning Monday, May 10, and continuing throughout the week the drive for funds in the Armenian Relief Campaign will be conducted in earnest under the direction of Rev. C. N. N. Ferguson.

This work should have been done in February but at that time there was considerable influenza and other sickness in the county and it was thought best to postpone the campaign.

To those who are acquainted with the urgent needs of the luckless Armenian peoples the appeal for funds will meet with instant response and surely no one will refuse to assist when the conditions which these Christian people of the near east are facing is fully explained. The tragedy of the war is the fact that although the Turk was defeated yet the allies have not yet been able to stop his devilish work in persecuting the humble Armenian, and even if this were not the case the ravages of the war period were of such a nature that it will take ten years of careful nursing to heal the minds and spirits of those who have been martyrs to their faith as well as victims of a merciless race.

Donley County is asked to raise $1000 as her quota. This means an average of a little over fifty cents for every grown person in the county. But you know, that no collection was ever a success on the average basis. Every man and woman who can do so must give and give liberally in order that the full amount may be turned in to the Texas headquarters.

Give to the Armenian Relief Fund.

John Harris, prominent ranchman of the McLean county was over Friday to see the folks and attend to business.

Mart McCracken saw the circus along with the crowd Wednesday.

CLARENDON PRECINCT'S CONVENTION

243 MEN AND WOMEN PRESENT
AT PRECINCT CONVENTION
HERE SATURDAY AFTERNOON
STEAM ROLLER WORKS WELL

The national administration was endorsed in the Clarendon precinct convention which met at the court house Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m. 243 men and women were registered, as qualified voters and in the organization of the convention under the gavel of Precinct Chairman A. B. Beville, Leon O. Lewis was elected secretary.

The fireworks started when M. M. Noble made a motion that a committee be appointed to draft resolutions to endorse the Wilson administration and name delegates to the county convention. Hon. A. T. Cole offered a substitute motion that a committee be appointed to bring in resolutions reaffirming Democratic principles. The substitute was tabled promptly and by a decisive majority. From this point on the convention became noisy, speakers were heckled and voting was taken on motions with a great amount of applause.

The committees appointed under the original motion which carried by a heavy majority were Mess. M. M. Noble, J. B. McClelland and Dr. B. L. Jenkins on resolutions. Mess. J. T. Patman, J. W. McQueen and Homer Mulkey were named as committee to nominate delegates to the county convention.

On retirement of the committees for consultation, Judge Cole made a motion that a delegation from this precinct be instructed to vote for Wm. Poindexter as against W. P. Hobby as delegate-at-large to the San Francisco convention, when the matter came up in the county convention, and on second being heard spoke to his motion, much jeering and heckling interspersed, but he insisted on his right to be heard and held the floor until he had finished. Frank Harrington urged that the convention table the Poindexter endorsement as he was no friend of the administration and should have the matter at the hands of those who were its friends.

Dr. Jenkins also made a short talk in which he asserted his loyalty to the administration but warmly defended Judge Poindexter's record as a Democrat and as a prohibitionist challenging anyone to show where Poindexter's record was better than that of the administration should be repudiated.

On vote the Poindexter endorsement was tabled with the usual majority. By this time the committees were ready to report and Secretary Lewis read the resolutions as follows:

Whereas, the time approaches when the Democrats of the United States must select its standard bearer and write its platform for the campaign of 1920, and

Whereas, there is now a very strenuous effort being made to discredit the marvellous accomplishments of the past 7 years of Democracy and

Whereas, there is urgent need of harmonious co-operation and unceasing effort, therefore,

Be it resolved, that we, the Democrats of Donley County, Texas, in their family recently moved here from Willington, S. C. For a number of years, Mr. Morris has been a regular reader of The News, and has been buying property north of Hedley along the river until now he owns something like five thousand acres of good old Donley county land. At present the family is living at Hedley, but they may decide to move to Clarendon. Should they do so our city will be large gainers by their acquisition.

SOUTH CAROLINA FAMILY MOVES TO DONLEY COUNTY

Monday of this week The News was favored by a visit from Mr. R. F. Morris and son, J. H. Morris, who with the other members of their family recently moved here from Willington, S. C. For a number of years, Mr. Morris has been a regular reader of The News, and has been buying property north of Hedley along the river until now he owns something like five thousand acres of good old Donley county land. At present the family is living at Hedley, but they may decide to move to Clarendon. Should they do so our city will be large gainers by their acquisition.

Mr. Morris is considerably interested in the oil development of this section and is the president of the Texas-Carolina Oil Co., of Willington, S. C. His son, J. H., is a director in the concern. If the development comes this summer like it is generally expected to, it is altogether probable that the Texas-Carolina Co. will have a large share in it. There is every chance that Clarendon will be the headquarters for its activities. Mr. Morris has had his land surveyed by a prominent geologist, whose verdict gives him added faith in the belief that oil is to be found along the Salt Fork. The News predicts that if oil is found this summer—as we believe it will—that Mr. Morris and his concern will become one of the leading factors in the development of this county.

CLARENDON WOMAN PRESIDENT OF FIRST DISTRICT P-T ASS'N

Wednesday afternoon, late, a telegram was received here by Supt. J. E. Nelson of the Clarendon Public Schools, from Mrs. Odos Caraway, announcing the election of Mrs. John T. Sims, of this city as president of the First District Parent-Teachers' Association which closed its annual convention at Sweetwater yesterday. In addition to the honor bestowed upon Mrs. Sims the convention voted to meet in Clarendon in May, 1921.

Mrs. Sims and Mrs. Caraway attended the meetings as delegates from the Parent-Teachers' Association of this city and the former's election to the highest office of the convention is a proper recognition for her ability and services in the local and district work.

CLARENDON SURPASSES DALLAS SCORE

TAG DAY IN CLARENDON PROV-ED THE LIBERALITY OF OUR
CITIZENSHIP AND THEIR RE-LIEF IN EDUCATION

The tag day drive for the Better Schools Campaign observed in Clarendon last Saturday, May 1st, was a great success. About twenty high school girls working under the supervision of the Parent-Teachers' Association canvassed the town during a good part of the day and succeeded in pinning tags on the majority of our citizens as well as on many who were in town from different parts of the county. We are proud of the industry and dependability of our high school girls who perhaps more than anybody else were responsible for the great measure of success with which this drive has met, and we are also proud of the willingness with which the people responded to the call for help in our Campaign for Better Schools in Texas. In order to give our people an idea of how well we have done in this drive, we might say that the Dallas Public Schools organized, and held tag day as we did but that we raised nearly five times as much money in proportion to our population as did Dallas.

Below are the names of those who sold tags, together with the amount of money secured by each:

Lacy Nobles.....	$33.43
Maud Cook.....	18.05
Mittie Cole.....	7.45

PIG TRUCKS FOR COUN- TY ROAD BUILDING AR- RIVE THIS WEEK

The big four wheel pull three ton PWD trucks to be used for county road building arrived Tuesday, both being brought down by W. E. Bray and E. A. Anderson from Amarillo. These trucks have enough power to pull any dray, grader or gravel wagon that will be used for road work hence are a valuable acquisition. This is the beginning of an active road building campaign to be pushed by the county commissioners this season.

LOCAL RESTAURANT IN- CREASES SPACE TO CARE FOR ITS BIG BUSINESS

Workmen have been busy the last few days on the back end of the building occupied by Caraway's restaurant where forty-five feet more will be added to the floor space now in use. The kitchen and bakery will be moved back and the entire front end remodeled and modernly equipped to care for the increase of business due to a rapidly growing town.

FARM HOME BURNS TUESDAY WITH TOTAL LOSS—ASHTOLA

The farm home of Mrs. J. F. White burned about eleven o'clock Tuesday the fire originating from an oil cook stove. Mrs. White was absent from the kitchen but a few minutes after starting the fire and the kitchen was in flames before she hardly knew it. Though help arrived immediately nothing was saved and no insurance was carried either on the home or household effects.

Miss Anne Ligon, senior in the Expression department of Clarendon College, will present the book, "The World and His Wife" next Monday evening, May 10th, 7:30 p. m., at Clarendon Auditorium. This promises to be one of the interesting and entertaining programs of the year. The public is cordially invited to be present.

DONLEY COUNTY PUPIL REPRESENTS PANHANDLE AT THE AUSTIN MEET

Those interested in educational matters in the Panhandle will watch for reports from Austin this week with more than passing interest on account of the declamation contests that will occur in that city, and too, because of the fact that Miss Verne B. Goldston of Clarendon has the honor of representing Donley county, and the Panhandle district in that meet. Miss Verne B. Goldston won over all in junior declamation contests in Donley county, later winning in the district meet at Canyon which entitles her to take part in the big event at Austin this week. Miss Myrta Houk accompanied our representative on the trip leaving here Saturday night.

PROMINENT LADY DIES SUDDENLY MONDAY NIGHT

After having taken a prominent part in the Boethian class luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. building Monday and attending to other duties as usual in her benevolent way for which she was known and loved by a host of friends, Mrs. J. W. Martin was suddenly taken ill about ten p. m. Monday night passing away within an hour. Friends were shocked Tuesday morning to learn of the sudden demise having to administer every kindness to the saddened husband and three small children left to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother.

The deceased was a faithful worker in the First Christian church taking an active part in furthering the cause of her Master at every opportunity. Interment was made in the Claude cemetery Wednesday. The News joins with the many friends of the bereaved family in expressions of sympathy in their dark hour of sorrow.

INTERESTING CLUB MEETING AT GILES

The Woman's Co-operative Club of Giles met as usual with our Demonstrator, Mrs. Chitwood. An interesting meeting was held with quite an enthusiastic crowd present. Our main subject for discussion was cutting and designing patterns. Mrs. Dora Barnes was also present and gave an interesting talk. A committee was then appointed to make out a program for our next meeting which will take place May 28th. We are looking forward to quite an enjoyable and instructive meeting.

The executive committee having met previously and examined the credentials of the precinct delegates, the following personnel made up the convention: Y. E. McAdams, Hubert Zeigler of precinct I, E. W. Grogan, M. M. Noble, R. H. Beville, holding proxy for W. P. Cagle, G. C. Davis, Joe M. Warren, H. B. Kerbow, Paul Shelton, Mrs. Mollie Gray, Mrs. M. M. Noble, Mrs. Lelia Beville, W. T. Hayter, F. Cook from Lelia Lake, T. N. Naylor from Bray. Besides these there were a goodly number of Democrats who were interested spectators.

W. T. Hayter was elected secretary and the chairman of the county executive committee was elected as chairman of the convention.

On motion a committee consisting of M. M. Noble, T. N. Naylor and J. B. Pickett were appointed to bring in a list of nominations of the delegates from Donley County to the state Democratic convention at Dallas the latter part of this month, May 25th. While the committee was out for deliberation a number of old fashioned Democratic talks were made by the members and visitors of the convention.

The committee on delegation to the state convention nominated the following: A. M. Beville, Sr., F. A. Story, Mrs. Wm. Gray, G. T. Adams, W. S. Noble, Ed. Dishman, Ras McAdams, W. M. Moseley, Ernest Wood. Mrs. M. M. Noble was later added to the list.

A. M. Beville presented the resolutions to the convention which had been adopted in the precinct convention of Clarendon on Saturday before and spoke for their adoption. The resolutions were unanimously adopted. Also the resolutions of the Clarendon precinct endorsing Wm. P. Hobby and one woman for delegates-at-large from the state convention at Dallas to the San Francisco National Convention were adopted without opposition.

Mr. Beville made a short address to the convention noting the presence of the lady delegates from the Clarendon precinct and for the convention assured them of their welcome.

A vote of thanks was also tendered the chairman of the county executive committee for his work on behalf of the party.

Following this very harmonious session the Donley County Democratic Convention adjourned after having been in session a little over one hour.

Jess Adams, editor of the Plain-view News, was at Amarillo and came prepared to meet the editors of the Canadian Record, Clarendon News and Childress Index. When that "alfalfa tea" story was told why Jess Adams just left the convention hall and returned with two cases of that celebrated beverage. He made good by giving the members of the Panhandle Press Association a bottle each, and made them drink it. Braswell, Loomis, and Haskett figured out the tea. It has the taste of Dr. Pepper, a kick like Bevo and an after effect like Jack Rabbit bitters. Personally the editor of this paper cannot commend the concoction, but Jess Adams says that it will make a man feel fifteen years younger than he really is. There can be an improvement in the tea and gyp water is the only thing that can make it more delicious.—Childress Index.

STAND OF CANDIDATES ON THE LIQUOR QUESTION

Westerville, O., May 1.—In a statement issued today, on a viewpoint of having a President favorable to the Eighteenth amendment and its enforcement, Dr. P. A. Baker general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of America, said the league is making a careful investigation of the records of candidates with a view to opposing all "wet" sympathizers.

Governor Lowden of Illinois and Herbert Hoover, are the only aspirants for the presidency to receive the league's stamp of approval in the investigation which Baker says is not completed.

"Governor Cox of Ohio is thoroughly wet," the statement declares. "If he should be nominated at San Francisco the prohibitionists would oppose his election in every voting precinct in every state outside the solid south."

Senator Harding of Ohio, Baker said, "usually votes with the dregs but always talks for the wets."

"Governor Edwards of New Jersey is not really a candidate," Baker said. "He is simply running as a side partner to Governor Cox."

Senator Hiram Johnson, Baker said, is being supported solidly by the liquor interests of California.

DEFINITION OF A CHRISTIAN

In the confusion of the advance the chaplain was separated from his outfit. Night found him in No Man's Land without his bearings and aimlessly seeking his own lines. He stumbled into a broken trench and flopped when voices reached him. Friends or enemies? Had he blundered into the Hun lines? Uttering a prayer, he made ready to do or die, when a sharp voice cut the death-like stillness: "Who in hell led that last ace?" "Thank God, I'm among Christians," the padre murmured.—Red Diamond.

This editor had planned for the past several weeks to attend the Panhandle Press Association, which convenes today (Friday) and tomorrow in Amarillo. We were honored with a place on the program and had our little speech all mapped out, but on account of the shortage of labor, and the increase of work in the shop, we found it impossible to take leave for a few days. Of course we know everything will pass off nicely without our presence, but nevertheless, it is with keen regret that we can not mix and mingle with the gang of newspaper men who will assemble together in this occasion.—Lynn County News.

CARMACK'S TRIBUTE TO THE SOUTH

"These people, sir, are of high and noble lineage. The blood of old heroes who fought at King's Mountain and New Orleans, is in their veins. They are the sons of the sires who blazed the pathway of civilization through primeval forests of America and built a temple of liberty in the wilderness of the western world. In whatever sphere of duty, it has pleased God to place them, whether in the quiet walks of peaceful station of civil power and duty or amid the stars of death on the red field of battle, they have everywhere exhibited those high qualities of American manhood that have made glorious the history of the republic. I speak for my native state, for my native south, a land that has known sorrows; a land that has broken the ashen crust and moistened it with her tears; a land scarred and riven by the plowshares of war and billowed with the graves of her dead; but a land of legend, a land of song, a land of hallowed and heroic memories. To that land every drop of my blood, every fibre of my being, every pulsation of my heart is consecrated forever. I was born in her womb, I was nurtured at her breast, and when my last hour shall come, I pray God that I may be piloted in her tender and encircling arms."

A QUESTION OF LEGS

We once knew a man who was practically legless, yet he worked in the fields on a rented farm and made money. How did he work? He trained a horse to work to a slide and sitting on that slide he planted his crops. (He plowed the land with riding plows and cultivators. That was easy.) When his crop came up he used the slide, sitting in a chair, to weed and work them. When gathering time came that horse and slide and cripple were there again. Bye and bye that man took up an idea that he ought to have a better chance and so bought the horse. He put the horse to a buggy and then announced for a county office. Good and true men were running against him, but when the story of his chopping cotton from a chair on a slide, when his very legs were in his way, got to the voters, there was not enough left of his worthy opponents to call it a race, for he was elected like a whirlwind had blown him in. Sitting in a chair in this town a few days ago was a man who cannot walk, unless he uses crutches. The man was cutting weeds and cleaning that yard, too. Some of us would not cut weeds if we had as many legs as a centipede, for we just haven't got the pep, it seems.—Stamford Leader.

J. E. Walker, former business man of this city and until February active President of the Chamber of Commerce, dropped in town Tuesday in time for the regular weekly luncheon of the business men of the city and to look after a little business while he visited among his many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker left here in February for El Centro, Cal., where they have spent the winter, where Mrs. Walker is still residing and where Mr. Walker will join her after he finishes his business affairs in Texas.

Mr. Walker was for a long time a member of the grocery firms of Walker & Walker, Walker Gro. Co., Walker & Shelton, Walker, Shelton & Clifford, the last firm selling out early in the year to the present firm of Shelton, Watts & Sanford. He has business interests in Grandview, Clarendon and Stratford.

Another probable reason for Mr. Walker's return to Texas at this time was to attend the May ceremonial of the Moslah Temple Shriners at Fort Worth and to enjoy the spectacle of the Clarendon novices crossing the burning sands.

WILSON DELEGATES WILL HAVE CONTROL OF STATE CONVENTION

Dallas, May 4.—With returns shortly before midnight showing complete counts from democratic county conventions in about half of the 250 counties in Texas, it appears that delegates favoring the endorsement of the democratic administration under Woodrow Wilson will have full control of the state democratic convention May 25. In returns from these democratic counties the administration faction secured at least 1000 votes in the state convention, while the faction opposed to the national administration and during the recent campaign headed by former Senator Joseph W. Bailey, secured less than two score votes.

The state convention is composed of 1,400 votes from the state's county conventions.

Of the counties reporting up to midnight, three sent delegations to the state convention uninstruced, the voting strength of these three counties being 27. They are Lampasas, Navarro and Grimes.

In all the conventions instructing their delegations for the administration strong resolutions were adopted approving the policy of its leader. Frequent resolutions approving the administration of Governor W. P. Hobby were also reported and in several instances the name of William G. McAdoo was mentioned as the popular democratic presidential preference.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

All things both great and small, For the dear Lord who loveth us, He made and loveth all."

And furthermore, that we give her every assurance that we feel her loss a personal one. Be it further resolved that a copy of the resolutions be given her, and a copy be sent to the Clarendon News.

PERSHING TO BE IN AMARILLO, MAY 23RD

Washington, May 1.—If General John J. Pershing, leader of America's victorious forces overseas comes to Amarillo on May 23, as he now intends to do, Amarillo may see the next President of the United States. At any rate it will see a big, whole-souled, good-natured American gentleman.

General Pershing is one of the most human and companionable of men. If he seemed a man of iron when he was about the grim business of smashing Germany's arms, it was because the work required a man of iron. But back in this country, his military career capped by the most brilliant feat of American arms, John J. Pershing is again his natural self.

Pershing's happiest moments since he returned to America have been attending post meetings of the American Legion. Military regulations won't permit a general of the army becoming unduly intimate with soldiers of the line in wartime, but the former soldiers are in mufti now, and they call him "Buddy" and he likes it. Speaking at a meeting of an American Legion post here the other day General Pershing said: "While crossing the country down in Georgia, I was made 'citizen' of a small town. Later on as I was speaking to a group in another village, one of the old men spoke up and said the people had decided to promote me to the rank of Colonel. Still later, another group in Alabama did me the honor to raise my rank to major. So it went until I reached Detroit where the commander of the Legion post said I had been given the highest rank of all, that of 'Buddy.'"

General Pershing will return to Washington from Panama on May 15 and according to present arrangements will leave five days later for Roswell, stopping only at Amarillo en route. It is assumed that the American Legion Post there will have charge of his entertainment as the posts have every place he has visited since returning to this country. In his recent tour of the south the United Confederate Veterans aided in his entertainment. When the General returned to Washington he brought a great fund of stories about his association with the old veterans in gray during his Southern trip. His favorite joke on himself is what a Confederate veteran said to him at Fort Worth.

General Pershing has learned to speak in public in the last three years and he cannot yet be said to have the oratorical powers of a Daniel Webster. But at Fort Worth he was rather pleased with the speech he made. As he turned to leave the platform he passed a line of Confederate veterans and stopped to shake hands with them. A Lee veteran called him aside: "General Pershing", he said, "I fit with Lee and I know a fighter. I've heard Bob Ingersol and Ben Tillman and Morris Sheppard and I know a speaker. Now, General, it is my opinion that you are a better speaker than you are a soldier."

General Pershing likes the Confederate Veterans. In an address at Boston recently, he said: "I pay highest tribute to those gallant men of the Confederacy, who shed blood upon the battlefields of this country for a cause they believed in. And I want to say that nowhere is there a group of men who have more patriotically supported us in the great conflict just ended. I know how they feel, how loyally they did their share during the terrible days of the greatest struggle that has shaken the earth—the battle against an autocracy that sought to smother civilization and, by the sword, substitute might for right."

The visit of General Pershing to Amarillo comes just two weeks before the Chicago convention, which may turn to him to break a deadlock. Indeed, it is more and more coming to be the opinion in Washington that the choice of the Republican convention lies between General Pershing, Governor Sprout of Pennsylvania, Governor Goodrich of Indiana and Senator Knox of Pennsylvania.

The bitter contest between the active Republican candidates has engendered a feeling that will make it impossible for any of them to be nominated. But if the nomination goes to Pershing it will go unsolicited. He has steadfastly refused to enter any road of self-seeking, his only statement being that if the progressive element of the Republican party with which he is naturally aligned sees fit to nominate him he will accept. He will not raise a hand to obtain a vote, and should John J. Pershing be the Republican nominee and victory perch on the banners of the G. O. P. this fall the country will have a soldier for President, but not a militarist. He recently expressed his opinion on militarism in an address at Lincoln, Neb.

"Militarism in the American Republic is impossible," he said. "Militarism is an autocracy and autocracy is built for a selfish purpose. Is there any one in America who is going to build up an autocracy for selfish purposes? Not while we who love the flag and who love liberty stand and present a united front against any movement that has for its purpose the destruction of American institutions."—Amarillo Tribune.

A MILLION MILES OF PUBLICITY FOR CLARENDON AND DONLEY COUNTY

That was the statement made by Secretary Keen Tuesday morning in the office of the Chamber of Commerce.

"One million miles of productive publicity for Clarendon and Donley County is not only a possibility but the easiest snap in the world to put over and over she goes. There are a lot of ways of creating a psychological atmosphere of growth and pride in a city but none of them touch as many folks or leave quite the impression of continual Automobile Publicity."

"Do you remember that big Mitchell that came thru about four days ago with the two Oklahoma pennants on the back of it? What was your unconscious impression? Why simply that that guy seems proud of the fact that he is from Oklahoma—it must be a better place than I thought that it was. Now if he had had Sanke Creek, Phluggersville or some other seaport town on that same pennant you would have known that he was proud of his little burg and that you would like to see the place."

"Folks are just built that way and we are proud of this neck of the woods and believe me we are just getting started at being proud of it. Why the Lelia Lake bunch are strutting around with their thumbs in their vests declaring that they have the beauty center of Donley County—and therefore—of the Panhandle—and I am telling you that alfalfa, the lake, and those trees sure do set off the number of modern farm homes in that little burg too. You ought to go down—but that brings us to another proposition in our million miles of publicity. In a few days we are going to load up about 200 strong in car gas wagons and run down to Lelia Lake for some evening. Leaving here about 5:30, taking along some onions, prunes, and pickles—Lordy, how I wish we had a band—and just go down and say howdy to them—look at their pigs wade in their lake, and have one sector of a time."

"Now of course to do that we would have to have Clarendon written all over our cars I have ordered 100 Donley County, Clarendon pennants and we are getting a lot of streamers for the back of the cars. Sixty days from today we want a Donley County pennant on every car in Donley County—with Lelia Lake, Helley, Clarendon, Giles and the rest of them filling out the address. Then we are going to have an Automobile Park for the Tourists of this summer where they can spend the night, a day or a week, with free wood, water and shade trees—we are already working on that. When a car spends the night with us and pulls on the next morning we want a banner across the back of the car that says "We visited Clarendon and found it good. Drop around if you are ever down that way." A few of those wandering around in Arizona, California, Montana, New York State or the Free State of Arkansas will be the best grade of constructive publicity that we could put out at any cost.

"With every car in Donley County carrying publicity over every mile that it travels and with several thousand tourists cars carrying publicity all over the United States—do you think that we will fall short of our million miles of publicity. But that is not all we are going to check up on this distance. Take the name and address of every car owner in the county that passes thru—take his meter reading and each month send him a card asking for the new meter reading—a million miles did you say—why surest thing in the world and then some."

Some of our readers may wonder if such publicity is of value to a town or county—and some of them may even call it foolishness but if they will stop and think of the better known products, the biggest sellers in the retail stores and the article that is always asked for by name, they will know that it was almost entirely thru the power of suggestion constant repetition of that name on the screen of the eye that builded up that demand for that article. One of the best examples of that is the trade-marked piece of clothing known as B. V. D.—what do those three letters stand for? And yet every man, woman and child over two years old, knows what B. V. D.'s are. Same thing of Post-toasties, Grape-nuts and any number of standard articles. It worked on them and made millionaires out of their promoters. Why shouldn't it pay just as well for Clarendon and Donley County? It will.

Mrs. Louie B. Gerner and baby left Sunday night to join the husband and father at Dallas where they will make their home in the future. Mrs. Gerner has spent a delightful visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ground of this city.

LOCAL SALESMEN VISIT AUTO FACTORY IN CLEVELAND, OHIO

In order to better acquaint themselves with the more technical parts of the cars they were selling, the Motor sales people decided that a member of their firm should visit the factories at Cleveland and see just how these excellent cars were turned out. Henry Taylor, one of the firm was the lucky man to go. Local agent Redwine of Hedley likewise was interested in the trip and made one of the party, likewise Homer Taylor, brother of Henry. Nine days were consumed in making a thorough inspection of both the Cleveland and Chandler factories. The trio watched the workmen assemble Cleveland at the rate of one every hour and fifteen minutes while an hour and forty-five minutes were consumed in assembling the big Chandler. They were agreeably surprised to see a Chandler manufactured complete every five and a half hours since they have orders booked far ahead for future delivery—like-wise Cleveland. The factory managers had over five hundred salesmen from all parts of the country to contend with at the same time. Not a man was disappointed with the elaborate banquets and other entertainment provided to say nothing of the instructive visit to the inside factory workings. The trio returned home Tuesday night more enthusiastic than ever and feeling well repaid for their journey.

Mr. and Mrs. Oma Scoggins will leave the last of the week accompanied by Mrs. W. Bairfield for a visit with his grandmother and other relatives near Jacksonvile. Omar expects to see some of Arkansas before returning. The party will be gone for some time.

R. S. Harris, of the sales department of the Buick motor company of Oklahoma City, was in town Wednesday looking after advertising as related to his particular line.

Claude Berry, formerly of the Claude country but now a farmer near Lelia, was up for the circus Wednesday bringing his family along that they might also enjoy the circus.

Dr. Curl, dentist of Claude and soon to establish himself in this city, has been here the past few days getting matters shaped up to locate permanently.

SIDELIGHTS ON CONVENTION OF FEDERATION OF WOMEN AT AMARILLO LAST WEEK

None of the women attending the convention wore overalls, beg pardon, denim. And some of them who were here only two days brought two hats. Of course, they had two or more of everything else. They were all "all dressed up."

D. W. Hume in address: "If you want big things done in a big way, get women to do them. Women have been the potent factors in every big movement of the last thirty years."

Every woman who attended the convention will give her husband this little hint when she returns home: "Dear, do you know that the husband of the president of the club of our district sent her a bouquet of flowers each day she was in Amarillo at the convention."

"I have no use for a woman who shirks her home life for clubs, churches or anything else."—Mrs. M. P. Bewley of Fort Worth.

"Ladies and gentlemen," began several of the speakers. They did not know that the only two men in the house were merely newspaper reporters.

"The most highly prized possessions of the ideal woman are her husband, her children and her home"—Mrs. M. P. Bewley of Fort Worth.

"I want to impress it on you fathers," said one speaker in the course of her remarks. The only two men present were bachelors.

Mrs. R. E. Buchanan of Ft. Worth declared that every woman present at the session Friday night was jealous because Mrs. Phebe K. Warner of Claude was over at the Court House addressing a meeting of men. She referred to the gathering of Administration Democrats.

"Mrs. Bewley, do you mean when you say 'There is no use for anything not to be good to look at, that we women have the right to whatever we please to make ourselves beautiful?" asked Mrs. R. E. Buchanan of Fort Worth, following an address by Mrs. Bewley of Fort Worth. "If women take care of themselves physically and do not try to take the burdens of the world on their shoulders they will not have to use powder and paint to be beautiful," replied Mrs. Bewley.

To insure pure milk for babies, there should be women on every health board; the men are not careful enough, according to Mrs. Ethel Parsons of Austin.

One speaker on the program remonstrated with the delegates for not concluding their reports in the two minutes allowed by the constitution. She used more time than any of the delegates and repeated two separate statements three times each.—Amarillo Tribune.
