Mrs. Hayes One Of The Proudest Women In Amarillo

"I'M CERTAINLY GRATEFUL FOR HAPPINESS ORGATONE HAS BROUGHT TO MY HOME"

"I am one of the proudest women in Amarillo today, and I just want to tell the people it's all because of what this wonderful Orgatone has done for my husband said Mrs. G. R. Hayes, of 119 N. E. Fifth Street, Amarillo, Texas.

"He had suffered so much during the past four years with stomach trouble that he had almost given up hope of ever finding anything to give him relief. His appetite was fairly good but what he did eat would just stay in his stomach and make gas and misery for him. Constipation bothered him continually and his liver was very sluggish.

"He had tried many different kinds of medicine and treatments but every thing failed to help him until he began on Orgatone. He began taking Orgatone and from the very first he felt better. His sluggish worn out feelings soon disappeared. He has such a big appetite now that he can hardly get enough to eat and his digestion is fine. He has already gained strength and says he never felt more peppy or better. He sleeps good every night and goes to his work bright and cheerful all the time. I'm certainly grateful for the happiness Orgatone has brought to my home by restoring my husband's health. I honestly believe it will help anybody."

Genuine Orgatone may be obtained in Clarendon at the Stockings Drug Store.

New Mexico Rancher Markets Wool and Mohair at Home

Raised in the saddle and a successful rancher until cattle took a slump a few years ago, E. C. Hill, a rancher near Monument, New Mexico turned his attention to goats, later adding sheep.

After stocking up with wool and mohair producers he was handicapped for a market. His ranch was in an isolated section some seventy miles from the nearest railroad. The genius of the man with the help of his faithful wife found a market for all their wool and mohair by installing machinery for the manufacture of Navajo blankets, saddle blankets, rugs of both plain and hooked patterns, cinchas for the cowboy, etc. In fact he catered to the stockman. Bright colors were used and quality put into every article that was marketed.

Hill's fame soon spread and the demands for his products grew until they are known all over the southwest. Mail orders pour in and the firm enjoys a good business locally. This is another instance where a handicap proved to be an asset when it befell an honest couple possessed of plenty of energy and common sense.

These ranch people have been enabled by this venture to acquire more stock, a better home, hundreds of acres of additional ranch territory and a credit second to none. And here is the best part of the story: being childless, Mr. and Mrs. Hill opened their home to a homeless babe who is now the sunshine of the household where she will be provided for in the years to come surrounded by the best environment to be had in the average American home.

Mr. and Mrs. Meade Halle of Plainview visited in the W. H. Youngblood home Sunday.

Miss Agnes Teague of Plainview visited in Clarendon over Sunday.

Misses Cecelia, Adeline and Claudia Atteberry of Pampa visited relatives and friends here over Sunday.

Miss Helen Cook departed for Boulder, Colo. Wednesday night. She will attend the summer school of the celebrated college of that city.

Governor Moody is reviving an old custom in vogue back in the days of duellists by having a body guard composed of reserve army men accompany him on occasions of state.

If the legislature had anything to do with this, the Apostle is not at all surprised as it appears that the lawmaking body of Texas has gone "haywire" this season.

Not to be behind the times, it is suggested that our county judge be provided with a bodyguard armed with fly swatters as that is all the danger that he is likely to meet with.

Fifty years ago a few unfortunate were punished for witchcraft. Today the same class is confined in a state hospital provided by a more civilized people. And still some folks say the world is getting no better. On with the soxless brigade!

The Calgary Stampede, Epic of Early Frontier Days
Of Canadian West, To Be Held July 8-13, Inclusive

For a week in July of each year the entire populace of Calgary, thriving city in Alberta, casts off its conventional modern clothing and dons chaps and 10-gallon hats in honor of the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede, a relic of the Last Great West and one of the finest exhibitions of horsemanship in the world. This year's Calgary Stampede will be held July 8-13, inclusive, and Guy Weddick, its manager, well known impresario of the Canadian West, has announced that it will be "bigger and better" than ever. The attendance at the Stampede has increased by leaps and bounds ever since its inception in 1912 when it was witnessed by a few inquisitive thousands, for by 1922 it had reached the 100,000 mark; it had doubled that by 1925; and 1928 saw 220,000 people cheering and reveling in this exhibition of the prowess of the plainsman. Several world-celebrated personages will donate prizes for the major cowboy contests in 1929, among them being the Prince of Wales, E. W. Beatty, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and Sir Thomas Lipton, British yachtsman and sporting enthusiast.

The various events scheduled include bronco-busting, steer decorating (once known as bull-dogging), calf-roping, wild steer riding, wild horse and chuck-wagon races, wild cow milking contests and races in which buck Indians and squaws demonstrate that the red man has lost neither speed nor stamina with the depletion of the numerical strength of his tribe. The Indians camp at Victoria Park, Calgary, and are a picturesque phase of a really remarkable exhibition. During the 1927 show a buxom squaw, suitably engaged in house-work in her brave's tepee, was informed that the squaw race in which she was to participate was the next event on the program. Rushing from her tepee, an apron still tied round her waist, she jumped astride an Indian cayuse and won first prize—her apron whipping behind her in the breeze.

Temple of Truth
By the Apostle

Some two weeks ago John Beverly told the world thru the Leader columns that he had raised the first string beans of the season. The Apostle backed John for all it was worth but we covered too much territory as evidenced by the following letter:

Dear Sir: I am thinking you covered too much territory when you tell the world you had beans from your garden May 26th. We had beans April 15th.

The truck crop has been very good this season. Tomato shipping is in full blast. Last Tuesday Hazelhurst, (my shipping point), shipped 96 cars and Crystal Springs shipped 94 cars of tomatoes. Hazelhurst has shipped an average of 90 cars each day for several days.

Your friend,
E. H. Gerner.

John Beverly is sore. Sore because Ed rubs it in and asks him to leave the Panhandle breezes for the sultry climate of old Mississippi in order to prove it. John went go and here and now challenges one Ed Gerner to a mortal combat, duel or whatnot. He proposes to Ed that they use Mississippi pumpkins and John reserves the right to choose a hillside as a dueling ground and further reserves the right to take the upper side of the hill. If Ed wants any pumpkin fight, he can probably find John somewhere in Texas provided John does not get wind of an acceptance before he is caught or hemmed up.

O. C. Hill, who keeps up with the latest fads the women folks bring out and is highly in favor of soxless ideas if it will save expenses. O. C. states that he married on $1.50, spent seventy-five of that for a few yards of ticking and crammed the thing with straw and has enjoyed a blissful married life for over a half century with that humble beginning.

BODY OF BILLY DIXON TO BE REMOVED FROM TEXLINE AND INTERRED AT ADOBE WALLS SITE

Plans are rapidly being completed for the anniversary ceremony June 27 at 2 p. m. at Adobe Walls in Hutchinson County, Texas, at which time a flag raising will be held by Boy Scouts of the Panhandle and the body of Col. Billy Dixon will be interred with ceremonies on the old Adobe Walls site which he helped make famous.

Adobe Walls is the site of one of the most famous battles between the pioneer settlers of the west and Indians, and was perhaps the last desperate threat made by the Redskins to drive the white man out of the Panhandle. The historic site is now surrounded by the Coble ranch, who recently donated the battle grounds to the Panhandle Historical Society.

18 CHILDREN IN 9 YEARS. THE PRESIDENT WILL BOSS. STRANGE OLD CHINESE. McNARY ASKS ADVICE.

Let ladies who feel they really "can't afford more than two children with everything so expensive," consider Frau Alfred Voellner, of Damm, Germany. Twenty-eight years old, she has eighteen children, all under nine years of age. She had a boy in 1920, a girl in 1922 and four sets of quadruplets in 1923, 1925, 1927 and 1929, sixteen children in four births. All are alive, ten boys, eight girls.

It was said here during the war that because conquerors no longer dragged women away into slavery, Germany would soon recover.

Frau Voellner confirms that. Washington says President Hoover intends to be the boss of his party. He might well, since it gave him 22,000,000 votes. Republicans of the South are told the Republican party must be reconstructed there on a sound, permanent basis, on the assumption that the war is past and forgotten, and that the South will join Republican prosperity, politically, if the Republicans behave themselves.

Selling Federal offices to the highest bidder is to be stopped.

Some Congressmen insist that President Hoover must write a farm relief bill and let the party pass it. The President will probably say, "No, you write it and pass it. If it isn't too foolish I will sign it."

It is not easy to confer to a disorganized industry, millions of men on millions of farms, producing without method or plan, the prosperity enjoyed by well organized quantity production industry that pays good dividends.

A very old Chinese statesman named Wu Tze-Hui was one of three that on their word of honor, guaranteed the life and safety of Li Chai-sun, governor of Canton.

Li Chai-sun was executed by the Nationalists, in spite of the guarantee. The aged Wu Tze-hui considered himself disgraced and killed himself, although he had nothing to do with the execution of the man guaranteed. Many Westerners will find it difficult to understand that suicide.

Senator McNary, head of the Committee on Farm Relief, asks John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Henry Ford, Charles M. Schwab, J. P. Morgan, Paul M. Warburg and Owen D. Young to give advice.

Senator Warren of Wyoming Leads Senate Service Men

The schoolboy impression that the new American Government which emerged from the Revolutionary War was composed almost entirely of eximite men and that in later years public officialdom has been running almost entirely to nonmilitary figures, seems to be all wrong.

Take, for instance, the United States Senate. When that branch of Congress first set up in business in 1789, with Rhode Island unrepresented, only seven of its twenty-four members had seen military or naval service. In the present Senate there are nineteen out of ninety-six. And the first Senate had as its presiding officer John Adams, whose military experience was so scanty as to be almost indiscernible, while the Ninety-Six is presided over by no less than a

Gen. Philip Schuyler of New York was the outstanding soldier-Senator of the First Congress, and the only one among all his senatorial colleagues whose military achievements have lived in history.

Warren ranked as a "noncom" throughout the war between the States, but he now serves alongside of one General and a handful of Colonels. The General is Senator Tyson of Tennessee, a West Pointer who saw combat service in the Spanish War before he led the Thirteenth Division in France.

He holds a Distinguished Service Cross, as does Senator Means of Colorado, likewise a veteran of two wars. Means is commander in chief of the Spanish-American War Veterans.

Veterans of Other Wars. Other veterans of the war with Spain include Senator Broussard of Louisiana, Edge of New Jersey, Wadsworth of New York, Greene of Vermont, Oddie of Nevada and Neely of West Virginia.

The World War veteran roster includes Reed of Pennsylvania, a Major overseas; Goff of West Virginia, who served the judge-advocate's office; Pepper of Pennsylvania, a Plattsburg graduate; both Iowa, Senators Steeks, who was a Captain overseas, and Stewart, a "top-kick" of the marines; Robinson of Indiana, a Major in the army of occupation; Hawes of Missouri, who was in the intelligence corps, and Bingham of Connecticut, who commanded the fly-

Reduction in -- Electric Rates

Lower rates for electricity for domestic and commercial purposes have been made voluntarily by the West Texas Utilities Company. The cost per kilowatt-hour has been reduced and the number of kilowatt-hours in each block before the next lower rate applies has been lessened. Based on the number of rooms in residences the new rate gives the small householder the same advantages of a lowering scale, as consumption increases, that larger users enjoy. The new rate enables consumers to make economical use of the many convenient and labor-saving electric appliances.

THE NEW RATE FOR RESIDENCE

12 CENTS per Kilowatt-hour for first four Kilowatt-hours used per room per month.
9 CENTS per Kilowatt-hour for next four Kilowatt-hours used per room per month.
5 CENTS per Kilowatt-hour for all energy used in excess of the above amount.
(Minimum Monthly Bill $1.50 per Meter)

Determination Of Number Of Rooms

The room count is based upon the ordinary real estate rating, and in making the count, alcoves, unfurnished attics, bathrooms, cellars, hallways, laundries, closets, pantries, open porches, garages, barns and outbuildings will not be counted. Premises with less than three rooms, real estate rating will be classed, will be classed as 3-room premises; those with more than seven rooms will be rated as 7-room premises. THE NUMBER OF OUTLETS AND APPLIANCES DO NOT AFFECT THE RATE.

Table Showing the New Net Rate and Number of Kilowatt Hours In Each Step

Size of Residence	First Step—12 cents per Kilowatt hour for FIRST—	Second Step—9 cents per Kilowatt hour for NEXT	Third Step—the New Five Cent Rate
3 Rooms or less	12 Kilowatt hours	12 Kilowatt hours	For all Kilowatt hours used each month over total of first and second Steps— Per Kilowatt hour 5 CENTS
4 Rooms	16 Kilowatt hours	16 Kilowatt hours
5 Rooms	20 Kilowatt hours	20 Kilowatt hours
6 Rooms	24 Kilowatt hours	24 Kilowatt hours
7 Rooms or more	28 Kilowatt hours	28 Kilowatt hours

(You will note how few Kilowatt-hours per month need be used before you reach The New LOW FIVE CENT RATE.)

COMMERCIAL RATE

12 CENTS net per kilowatt-hour for the first 45 hours of maximum demand.
10 CENTS net per kilowatt-hour for the next 45 hours use of maximum demand.
5 CENTS net per kilowatt-hour for all energy used in excess of the above amount.
The new rate makes liberal use of electricity for all purposes in commercial establishments inexpensive. Minimum Monthly Bill $1.50 per Meter.

(Further explanation of rates will be gladly given per request.)

Memphis, Texas
Editor Donley County Leader—

Well here I am again writing to one I never saw sure is lovely, isn't it—When I was nineteen years old, not so many years ago, that is leap years, I corresponded with a man in Illinois that I got acquainted with through a matrimonial agency and we sure had a swell time while it lasted—However about the third letter he asked me to marry him and I absolutely refused, so we quit. That is he quit, for I wrote him three letters, afterwards but he did not reply. But say Mr. Editor, I nearly saw you in Clarendon last Sunday and you did not know it, did you? I drove to Claude on a little lark and stopped in your city on the return trip. We were in a drug store on the corner and the nicest fat boy waited on us, he sure was pleasant to us and also the old man in there. You bet we will stop there again. I met a lawyer and asked him where I could find you, he said that the "Burro barn" was closed. Is that the name your joint is called really, and that you and Uncle Jake had likely gone into hiding to escape the bootleggers and he didn't smile when he said it either. Who is Uncle Jake? Do tell me if he is the jolly old coddler that stopped here for dinner a few weeks ago. I sure like him for an elderly gentleman, but of course I prefer young men naturally. I'll bet you like young chickens better than old hens, now don't you? Most men do and that is no mistake. Why do so many lawyers never get their hair cut? I guess it is because they are afraid of women—and you know it says in the Book of Genesis that Mr. Sampson had his hair cut by a woman and died of exposure—Well, the lawyer I saw there hasn't taking no chances—But say if I ever marry, and it will not be this week or next, and want a divorce, I will go to some long haired lawyer and to no old justice of the peace. I don't like that kind of mackerell a tall and I'll tell you why, when I see you and don't want to put it in black and white I'll say this much now, and that is I never seen no justice of the peace, who cared a dern for a poor working girl. Maybe Judge Trubill is an exception, but I have never seen him.

By the way, it was just too funny—I believe I seen that cattlemen that was no lonely taking a bath at Sulphur Springs, sitting on a bench in front of the drug store—He was talking to another good looking cattlemen sitting on the same bench and called him "Tom" and asked him where they could rustle a few mavericks, or some name that sounds like that—What does "maverick" mean? It doesn't mean anything a poor working girl shouldn't know does it? Any how the feller called "Tom" told him not talk so loud.

Say, Mr. Editor, if ever I get married and I sure will the first chance, I am going to marry me a cattlemen. They have so much time to sit around and visit and I don't want no man that never has time to entertain his little wifey—Am I right? Well, I will tell the world I am. And listen if I cannot get a cattlemen, I will not go to no Donley County State Bank, Farmers State Bank or First National Bank, to get me a man that is always loafing there. You can bet your sweet life on that—That's me. Some of the girls say I am too particular for a poor working girl and that I should take the first fellow found running round loose, like a garage man or auto salesman, of course you can never tell what a woman will do, but auto men get to talk to too many women to suit this chicken. Well, if I do marry an auto salesman I will hang around the garage a whole lot. No man will ever fool me you bet. I like auto mechanics, however, as there is nothing wild about them.

Say, I almost forget to tell you of an exciting experience we had coming home. Near the little burg of Hedley we found a Clarendon fellow on the road side who said he had too main poisoning from eating something. I didn't believe from a big daily in Washington, a word he said, for if there was anything wrong with his main toe, why didn't he have his shoe off doctoring it.

Have been writing to you to cause you to smile and to cheers you up, but have kept the sorrowful part for the last—Last week I told you about a big offer I had D. C. I have accepted the offer and by the time this reaches you, I will be on my way to the Capitol. Will spend a week seeing the sights and then to work and you will know, I cannot write for more than one paper. The editor of the big daily has written me, that I will not be allowed to write for the Leader any more. So good bye till you have a big oil town up there and you are putting out the Daily Leader, then it may be I will be good to you again.

Yours Devoted One
A Poor Working Girl.

Poor Working Girl Letter Excites Much Comment

Those who have had an idea that the "Poor Working Girl" articles occasioned only passing notice would be surprised to know just how much curiosity has been aroused about the simple matter.

Tuesday a swell looking Memphis girl called at the office and talked on many subjects but never brot up the subject of letters. The writer was larry about broaching the subject and she finally left while the entire crew of the working force stood with open mouth and bated breath.

Here are two letters that are typical of those received from time to time.

A shot at the "Poor Working Girl"

Editor of the Leader—

Isn't it strikingly peculiar how similarity expresses itself in one form or another? Now for instance the "Poor Working Girl" as one reads through her lamentable discourse, there seems to appear in each mind a mental image of NOT a poor working girl—but rather the silly sayings of a mighty man, enjoying mental supremacy, but shrouded in sheep's clothing.

Old Billy Boy.

Clarendon, Texas
Another slap at the "Poor Working Girl"

Editor Leader—

Dear Sir:—As we read more of the poor girl article from Memphis, Texas, we begin to wonder if she really wants us to accept her ignorance as expressed, or is she taking advantage of an opportunity to become more intimate with the young men of Clarendon. No one knows, no one can even guess, a mere conjecture would be entirely out of place. The very best that we can hope for is that this prodigious character will retain herself within the city limits of Memphis and no longer allow Clarendon people to be victims of wilful deception.

A modest young Clarendon girl.

"BEE LINE" TOURISTS MISS MANY SCENIC BEAUTIES

In talking with R. O. Branch of Oklahoma City Saturday, the Leader man was impressed with what he had to say about the Palo Duro canyon. Mr. Branch and family had been on a long trip to the mountain region and took a side trip to Palo Duro from Amarillo. It was his opinion after looking at the Devils Den and the Kitchen and other scenic wonders, that Palo Duro had more to offer than the mountains proper.

His opinion was based on scenic beauty alone. The family spent 3 days in the Canyon and took more pictures there than they had on the entire trip other places.

Should a road be made thru the Canyon, thousands would visit it each season according to Mr. Branch who happens to be a traveling salesman and is conversant with about all that is to be seen in the matter of landscape beauty.

COURT HOUSE LAWN BEING DRESSED UP NICELY

Donley county tax payers often make remarks here of late complimenting the court house janitor for the excellent work on the lawn. Grass has been set on a thoroughly prepared seedbed and is coming to an excellent stand. Shrubbery has been placed to good advantage and the success with which the care taker has met in including shrubbery to live, is something for which any man should be proud. For many years it has been a difficult matter to get trees to grow on the lawn.

It is evident that the present man on the job knows what he is doing and takes a just pride in his work. Mr. A. O. Yates has the matter in charge and is receiving many compliments for his excellent service rendered the county.

The county commissioners decided some time ago to force the inmates of the county bastille to work on the lawn rather than lay out a fine in jail. County Judge J. J. Alexander reports that he is having no luck in enforcing that plan as the boys pay off rather than work. In past years, the county was forced to feed and care for fellows who had no conscientious scruples against doing time in a small county jail, and especially during the winter months.

Not so any more in Donley county. At any rate the plan can be put into effect any time the boys break in a can't or won't pay off.

MACHINE SHOP BRANCHES OUT AFTER BUSINESS

The Clarendon Welding & Machine shop owned by H. M. Parker here, has in his employ a genius in the person of E. S. Nuckells who remade a case hardened part for the Leader's big news press Saturday.

The piece required was not only large, but also had to be made accurately. Mr. Nuckells did the job just right and saved a trip to Amarillo. His experience of over fifteen years in some of the largest machine shops enabled him to handle our job easily.

Since it is possible to get work done right at home which we learned by mere accident, the firm, is now advertising the fact so that our machinery owners may all know that this work can be done in Clarendon at a great saving in time.

Very often a part will break on the larger machinery used in wheat harvest, or on some kind of gas engine. The owner beats it for Amarillo where he believes the nearest shop is located upon which he can depend to do the work.

In looking over the many perplexing jobs repaired or duplicated of broken parts at the shop, one is suddenly brot to realize just what a valuable asset a good workman may be to a community. This may be free advertising, but since the Leader family includes hundreds of farmer friends, we want to tell them what we have just found out that they may get all the service possible from reading the Leader.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lane have as their guests this week a son, Marvin Lane and family of Kim, Colo. and daughter, Mrs. Tom Horton and family of Pampa.

TAKE UP THE PRINTER'S BURDEN

Take up the printer's burden— It is an awful load.

And gathers weight the further He travels on the road;

Bills payable in plenty, Subscribers in arrears—

The troubles that beset him Would drive a burst of tears.

Take up the printer's burden—

A form knocked into pl, The editor arrested

For publishing a lie; A lyno filled with joint vice,

The foreman far away, Upon some big excursion,

The devil is to pay.

Take up the printer's burden—

At last the paper's out, John Smith's wife had a baby,

Two rowdies had a bout; Brown's children had the measles,

Miss Flipper's dog is dead, Mrs. Tattle had a quilting

And not a word was said.

Take up the printer's burden—

He puffs the old dead town; He calls the women beauties,

And lies just like a clown; He lauds the city fathers

And prints their pedigrees; They pay him back by cutting

His publication fees.

Take up the printer's burden—

Give him a little rest; With all his imperfections

He doubtless does his best, About his knavish neighbors,

He tells not half that's true, Believing that the devil

Will some time get his due.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Thornton
