Judge Link Gives Interesting Data On Cotton Production Over Long Period

Lint Production And Total Bales Produced Is Shown Over a Period of 143 Years. Comparisons Are Noted in Prices, etc.

In the year 1790 the United States produced 3138 bales of cotton which brought an average of 26 cents per pound. The first one hundred thousand bale crop was in the year 1801, when the country produced 100,418 bales which brought an average of 19 cents per pound, an increase of 2700 bales over the preceding year (1800) when the price was 44 cents per pound. It was during this period, to be exact, March 14th 1794, that the cotton gin was patented by Eli Whitney of Massachusetts.

The first half million bale cotton crop was 1825, when 533,000 bales were produced and brought an average price of 12.20 cents per pound. This was an 83,000 bale increase over the preceding year (1824) when 450,000 bales were produced, bringing an average price of 18.60 cents per pound.

The year 1835 saw the first million bale crop, which sold at an average price of 16.50 cents per pound.

1826 was the first year that cotton sold for less than ten cents per pound, the production this year being 732,000 bales which brought an average of 9.30 cents per pound.

1842 saw the first two million bale crop which brought 7.20c. The first five million bale crop was raised during 1875 and brought 13 cents per pound. 1897 saw the first 10 million bale crop which sold at 5.60 a pound.

1898 produced an 11 million bale crop which sold at 4.90 a pound, the lowest price in the history of cotton. The highest price paid for cotton was 101.50 per pound, paid for the 1863 crop of 449,000 bales. This was quite a drop from the 4,491,000 bale crop of 1861, the first year of the Civil War, which brought 31.30 cents a pound. The year 1898 was another record year in cotton, when the average lint per acre was 220.6 pounds. This is the all time record, the next being 1933, when the average was 216 pounds per acre. The all time low was probably 1921 when only 124.5 pounds per acre was produced.

The ten year high price for cotton was the period 1861-1870, when the ten year average price was 45.41 cents per pound. The next ten year high was at the beginning of the country's history, the period from 1791 to 1800, when the average price was 35.60 cents per pound. The ten year average 1911 to 1920 was 18.91 cents per pound, and that from 1921 to 1930 in-

Sheriff Explains Federal Liquor Law

Any one caught with intoxicating liquor, in any amount not bearing a government stamp, is subject to a federal prison sentence of five years, according to Sheriff Guy Pierce who says the law went into effect the 11th of this month.

J. M. Shields, U. S. Department of Justice, Dallas, Texas has charge of all such liquor violators in this district. Local officers have only to report the matter to the Dallas office, and a man will be sent at once to take charge of and transport the accused to Dallas. Trials in such cases will come up in the federal court.

SCHOOL RALLY AT HEDLEY GETS OUT BIG CROWD

Visitors From a Distance Almost Outnumber The Home People

Supt. S. R. Steele presided as toastmaster at the school rally and banquet held at Hedley Thursday night. The banquet was served in a most creditable manner by students of the Home Economics department of which Mrs. Glass is instructor.

Interesting school talks were made by Bryan Dickson, deputy state superintendent, county superintendent Sloan Baker, J. D. Willson of Wellington and others.

Judge S. W. Lowe spoke on general topics and kindly responded to a second request for an expression on special topics when urged by Supt. Steele. Sloan Baker was also asked for a second talk on special topics.

S. G. Adamson as a member of the school board, represented that body in an excellent talk at the banquet.

In the contests, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bain carried off two prizes. The first for having been married the longest time of any present, that period being 39 years. They

FUNERAL RITES RED EVANS HELD HERE ON MONDAY

Popular Rancher Suddenly Died Early Sunday From Heart Attack

Following a heart attack, W. J. (Red) Evans passed away at the Allen Creek Camp 5:30 Sunday morning. Funeral services were conducted at the family town home Monday afternoon with Rev. L. L. Swan, rector of the Episcopal church in charge.

Those attending the casket were old time cowhand friends and his employer. They were John Blocker, Allen Jeffries, Joe Horn, Karl Adams, Jake Chamberlain and W. J. Lewis, owner of the Rowe ranch where Mr. Evans had been employed for some ten years. The Buntin mortuary had charge of the funeral arrangements.

He is survived by his widow and three adopted children. The children are Melvin, Hollis and a daughter, Kedron, sons and daughters of his wife by a former marriage.

His brother, H. L. Evans of Austin and a sister, Mrs. Gail McKnight of Oklahoma and a noted artist, were here for the funeral service. Also Harry McCutcheon and Mrs. Lon Rorie of Turkey, brother and sister of Mrs. Evans.

Born in Austin September 19, 1882 Red Evans liked the cow business from his early boyhood and drifted west arriving in Donley county at the age of twenty-five. He worked for the Collinsons, J.A.'s, Shoe-Bar and other ranches for years. During the past ten or more years he has been foreman of the Rowe ranch.

Few funeral services in Clarendon were more largely attended than that of Red Evans Monday. Son of the old west, he was true to his convictions, honest and conscientious in his treatment of his fellow man, beloved by those of his intimate acquaintance and will be greatly missed.

Hedley Owls Win Sectional Basketball Championship

Outplayed from the first whistle, the Pampa Harvesters, defending champions, passed out of the district picture there Saturday night and the Hedley Owls took their place.

Hedley defeated the Harvesters 22 to 19 after losing 33 to 22 Friday night. Hedley made only three free throws in the opening stanza according to the Pampa News, while the Harvesters went scoreless. The half time score was 8 to 3 for Hedley. The teams were tied at the third quarter, 14 to 14 but Hedley showed the better condition and staged a nice rally to win.

College Library Improvement Goes Steadily Forward

At this time six young ladies are working in the College-High school library of the Clarendon schools under the supervision of the Dean, W. A. Clark Jr.

The books are being reclassified, recatalogued and accession giving a complete reference to every book, its author, cost, where purchased or by whom donated, and its replacement value.

The young ladies employed on this CWA project are Misses Willie Glenn Parten of Waxahachie, Joyce Johnson of Eastland, Leone Merritt, Nova Cook, Ruth Donnell and Ailene Mann. The two first named are experienced librarians.

Postoffice And Banks Get Vacation Today

By order of the postal authorities, postmaster Chas. H. Bugbee complied today with a closing order of windows at the postoffice all day. Mail was put into the boxes but no mail handed out. "Orders is orders," said the postmaster in discussing the matter Wednesday when he showed a Leader reporter his letter of instructions.

RURAL SCHOOLS GET $18,112.75 OF STATE FUNDS

Practically Every District In County Now on Cash Basis Again

The largest sum paid into the common school district depository was paid in this week when $14,683.75 was received. To this is added the $3 apportionment of $3,429.00 making a total of $18,112.75.

The following schools are now on a cash basis: Giles, Windy Valley, Fairview, Jericho, Smith, Bray Watkins, Midway, Skillet, Ashtola, Martin and Hudgins. All the other common school districts are on a sound financial basis except one, that being McKnight.

Superintendent Baker has received notice that the state has approved the purchase of $875 worth of McKnight auditorium bonds, and will go to Austin this week to further the sale of the bonds to the state which lacks only the approval of Attorney General Allred at this time.

Rural aid allowed upon the inspection of Bryan Dickson the past week is as follows: Chamberlain $345; Windy Valley $205; Goldston $452; Midway $78; Hedley $873; Lella Lake $1666; Sunnyview $242; Bray $231; McKnight $330.

Some of the above schools will have to complete minor requirements before the money will be paid into the district. Teachers and trustees in each instance are advised of the conditions to be met.

Some of the schools were refused state aid due to the large delinquent tax against the district. It is said that the state department presumes that all, or a greater percentage of back taxes will be paid soon. For that reason some schools are without state aid, the department believing that no aid will be necessary.

Stranger Injured In Auto Wreck Sunday Night

Edgar Fuller was taken to the hospital about 9:30 Sunday night suffering from a shoulder injury following a collision of his car and one driven by Kelly Chamberlain west of town.

The injured man gave his address as Denver and had a commission as an officer of the theft bureau of that state. His companion, uninjured, claimed Houston as his address.

Both cars were badly damaged. An Amarillo party came down in response to a call, and took the men on to Houston. Kelly Chamberlain suffered only minor injuries.

C. H. S. PUPILS TO PRESENT PLAY TUESDAY NIGHT

Annual Presentation Will Have Ten Seniors In Drama-Comedy Cast

There will be plenty of hearty laughs in "The Final Ballot," a play selected by the seniors for their annual play to be given at the College Auditorium next Tuesday night, the program to begin promptly at 7:30.

The pupils in the cast are Wilma Dee Smith, Willie Buchanan, O. C. Watson Jr., Isabel Wright, Robert Nichols, Ruby Dell Scoggins, Ruth Burkett, Marie Underwood, Harry McCracken and Billie Walker.

There will be three acts of this comedy-drama play, all filled to overflowing with thrillers and episodes that will make a wooden man laugh, so say those who have been practicing at rehearsals the past week.

This is the only big event of the kind for the seniors. It is an annual affair and consequently every effort possible is put forth to beat the seniors of the preceding year. The admission charge is twenty and thirty-five cents, all of which will go to meet financial demands made upon the class members.

EUROPEAN WAR CLOUDS GATHERING.

War materials are being purchased in large quantity by France, England, Russia and Japan. Scrap iron and nitrates are the principal items just now. Materials from the Atlantic seaboard Japan bound, are being shipped via the Panama canal.

Should war break, it will hardly be worth while to urge America to enter a "war to end war" the second time. If ever a nation had an opportunity to attend strictly to its own business, it looks like America will have that opportunity in the near future, or with the coming of warm weather at the latest.

POLITICS—BIG AND LITTLE.

We often hear people say that politics are mixed up in this, that and the other thing with which some of us have to deal almost every day, and on which they base condemnation. The idea of politics being driven out of the general scheme of life, is a dream.

Anything in which the general public, or even a part of them, participate has politics mixed up in it either factional, personal, commercial or some other brand. This is equally true whether it be preachers, lawyers, doctors, teachers, newspaper men or any other profession or trade. More especially is this noticeable in the small towns, though generally regarded as of a petty nature.

AMERICA BECOMES AIR-MINDED.

Alleged crookedness has placed America in a position to appreciate the inefficiency of her federal aviation department. Mail contracts have been annulled. The training and ships so badly needed will come through the government taking over her air mail routes. It appeared to be impossible to interest national lawmakers in air preparation as the principal line of defense in case of war, or in avoiding war by making other nations afraid. Now the president comes to the rescue. Reserve men of the aviation corps formerly in the employ of the private corporations carrying air mail, will be in charge of a number of government ships. Others will learn newer and better methods until the nation shall have a full fledged air corps second to no other.

Big ship construction for war purposes is alright for those selling materials, but the ships are worth very little to the nation owning them. One bombing plane could sink a fleet within a few hours. A bombing plane costs about $35,000. A first-class battleship costs about $37,500,000.

DONLEY COUNTY'S RURAL SCHOOLS.

That period in which a rural school was generally regarded merely as a training station for school teachers has passed, in Donley county at least. The teacher talent present at the annual banquet here Friday night of the Teacher-Trustees Association, was a pleasant revelation to those who were not conversant with the rural school situation of our county.

In most of the communities, an effort has been made to provide some means by which the elders are brought in contact with the pupils and teachers in a public way that permits of a better acquaintance, and consequently a better understanding. A better understanding always means more cooperation.

In some schools where athletic contests are not possible, or deemed advisable, literary society programs have been arranged in which the elders share a place on the program.

The progressive measures adopted in Donley county's rural schools are due in a large measure to the qualifications and enthusiasm of the county superintendent, Sloan Baker. He has been fortunate in securing the assistance of the county School Board, the president, W. A. Poovey, being one of the foremost school enthusiasts in this county for several years.

Rural school trustees have also done much to improve the quality of their schools by selecting talented teachers of character, rather than basing a selection on political or sectarian reputations.

The Teachers-Trustees Association of Donley county, whose membership is made up of the rural teachers and rural trustees, has meant much toward welding the interests of those interested in rural schools of the county. This was the first county to effect such an organization, the idea being originated by the county superintendent of schools.

REPORT OF TEXAS PRISON SYSTEM.

The annual report of manager Lee Simmons of the Prison system of Texas speaks volumes for his excellent stewardship. The system was first organized in 1849. There has been a ten percent escape of prisoners from that time up until 1931. Since that date, the percent has fallen to about two percent. This late record includes the Ferguson farm where 125 trustees are kept without guards, a system in vogue since January 1933, and only four escapes.

During the three years preceding the Simmons administration there were 1,694 escapes from a prison population of 12,732. The past three years with a prison population of 16,446, there have been 516 escapes.

In speaking of his views regarding prison management, Mr. Simmons says: "My policy will always be to look after the human side first, and the business side second. There is no need, however, for any conflict of the two. My conviction is that the more we look after the human element properly, the better the results from the business standpoint. This view is contrary to that of many who think that a prison system is to make money, when in reality its mission is to remake men."

Educationally, the prison system has been making rapid strides the past few years. In 1929 only 136 were being schooled. The number is 2,420 at present. During the past year, 696 men were taught to read and write.

In the classification of students, 760 are illiterates or below the third grade; 330 in the third grade; 322 in the fourth; 213 in the fifth; 173 in the sixth; 144 in the seventh and 203 are taking special subjects. Of the instructors, 275 are inmates.

The net operating loss of the prison system in 1929 was $1,442,625.09. In 1933 this dropped to $458,254.23. The income of the system is confined almost wholly to farm products. The above record is a monument to the financial genius of Manager Simmons through three years of the most devastating period of farm history.

EDITORIAL MUSINGS

Truth Tensely Told. To those good readers who received statements and who have not yet responded, Reporterman would say this week: We have stayed with you through the depression; we know you haven't much money at this time, but we believe in you and we are expecting your remittance soon. We are going to expect you to make some sacrifice, if necessary, to pay your Reporter dues, and we expect to continue making this newspaper so invaluable that you can't keep house without it.

Financial Progression. The man who used to slip a five dollar gold piece away in a sock now and then, used to be praised as one who carried in mind the proverbial rainy day. Now he is condemned as a hoarder. It is reported that those who grip their silver too closely may be placed under the same condemnation. All of which tends to prove that time makes ancient good uncouth, and that private interest sometimes must make way for the common good, even though the workers for private interest may not always know the why and the wherefore.

Corporations Won't Trade. County weeklies of a decade ago did "swap" the advertising and subscription for whatever it might be. The change came and with it

All of which tends to prove that time makes ancient good uncouth, and that private interest sometimes must make way for the common good, even though the workers for private interest may not always know the why and the wherefore.

Corporations Won't Trade.

County weeklies of a decade ago did "swap" the advertising and subscription for whatever it might be. The change came and with it new business methods. Today a newspaper property is worth money and it is valued as such. There is much expense attached to its operation. Swapping it out with everyone would land it on the rocks.

Editor Speaks Positively. These candidates for office are the most pleasant people you can meet, and the pity is that there are not more of them running. There is one thing you can always bank on, and that is this editor will never "throw a wet blanket" in the way of any prospective candidate for office. To run for an office is somewhat of an education in itself, therefore a man or woman who makes the race will always learn something whether elected or not.

Strictly a Home Product. Sometimes people speak lightly of the country newspaper, but it is one of the most potent and uplifting factors in our national existence. The great dailies have their mission, but their scope is too big to touch very closely the inner things of life.

Same Way in Texas. No love, no friendship, no kindness is ever wasted. And if they be not appreciated or reciprocated by the person upon whom they are bestowed, it comes from some other least expected source from which we have no claim. There is no such thing as loving in vain. True, one can love someone who does not return that love. But for every unrequited love another bigger love is born. More people you like, the more people will like you. The more you give, the more will be yours to give. The more smiles you put into circulation, the more you will have bestowed upon you. Love, friendship and smiles are like currency. If they are hoarded, no one gets the benefit of them; if they are kept in constant circulation, every one benefits, and again, like money, they always accumulate something in the transit.

Food For the Thoughtful. Emzy Pieratt, of Lorenzo, this week makes his formal announcement as candidate for the office of County Clerk of Crosby County.

Statecraft Crudity. The story of an old-time Congressman who rode to Washington on a cow is being retold. And he probably shot her husband when he got there.

Mr. and Mrs. Sloan Baker visited her sister, Mrs. Hick Daniels at Amarillo Saturday. Mr. Baker also attended the Supts' convention while there.

Mrs. R. W. Scales of Hedley is a patient in an Amarillo hospital where she underwent a major operation Friday. She is improving as rapidly as could be expected.

Sunday was a great day. Parents hunted their children out of the yard with a hoe for the first time in several years. A report comes in from Groom stating that milk pen calves were blown up on the side of the barn where they staid until the wind died down.

A farmer at a banquet this year here gently hinted that after a fellow worked hard all day, he naturally wanted more than could be laid on a plate at one time. He also objected to some one slipping ice into his coffee. He found no objection to sleeping through the speeches as he was used to hearing calves bawl.

Besides being good citizens, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bain have lived in Donley county about 40 years and reared 11 children—all good citizens. This couple won the prize at Hedley for having been married the longest of any couple present at the banquet.

Suddenly three figures emerged from the shadows, marked their prey and then attacked him.

Three to one is powerful odds, but the wayfarer held his own. One by one his assailants landed with a thud on the ground, battered and bruised, their clothing torn. A policeman rushed up.

"Fine work," he said, addressing the hero, who was calmly lighting a cigarette. "Ju-jitsu?"

"No," answered the hero, "Just a dancing instructor."

After listening to some folks rant rather than talk, you naturally come to the conclusion that they arrived here by spontaneous combustion rather than being born naturally.

The birthday episode was great. During the week every one who wrote or gave me a present will be thanked either in person or by mail. The list of gifts were somewhat different this time in that it included eats along with sox, ties, shirts, etc. Jelly, jam, preserves and relishes were included. But why the corn cure? Ain't got any corns. The letters included business, the neighborly kind, and the kind that praise. Some of them will be published with only the initials as promised. A lot of them will go into a scrap book kept through the years. Some brought smiles, some tears and some a good laugh. It's funny the different ideas some folks have about a fellow. Anyhow, it is all being enjoyed to the fullest, and I thank every one of you a million times over. I just hope that I may live up to the standard of opinion set by some of my very closest friends.

Speaking of a newspaper giving a man a boost, how about the Amarillo News claiming that Mr. Giles was born in "White" county, Texas?

Bachelor Bill says that marriage is that station in life when a woman quits leaning on a man's shoulder, and begins jumping on his neck.

Gyratin' around with that bunch of school marms and the men teachers Friday night disclosed the fact that not any of them are plain dumb. Some are really intelligent even if they don't act like it. When they pounced into the latter part of the program there was a spontaneous outburst of satire, wit, repartee, levity and plain foolishness that we all relished—exes as well as those in the harness.

George Kavanaugh as toastmaster was prevented from becoming roastmaster when he would be suddenly seized with flights of oratory. Some one would throw a bombshell into his camp that fairly floored him—witty as he is, or was. When R. C. (Bob) Weatherly hung a "toga" on to him designating him "Mr. America," his egotism knew no bounds, except by one Dennis Smith who was later to be dubbed the "mocking bird" of the crew known as the Association. Each one of them strutted their stuff amid cat-calls, cowbells, quartets, sextets, duets, banquet and dele-gets if anything. Both men were praised in every language including the scandalous.

Just about the time we guests began to think we ought to have a chance to show how little we knew, Sid Thomas launched into a spasm of oratory relative to his Ashtola school that threw a wet blanket over the whole crowd. He told of teaching boys to cut hair which wasn't so much, but when he advocated shower baths, that was entirely too much. Baths in the winter time are out of reason as well as season, and shower baths in the open as mentioned put a damper on the enthusiasm. Some claimed other teachers were jealous of Sid because he had induced the government to put up hard money to teach the boys something practical. With waving arms and flushed faces other teachers sought to convince Sid that he was wrong in 99 and 44-100ths of his ideas, but he stuck to his job while we older fogies cheered him on to do his worst. It was a great moment in Donley county history to hear a teacher talk about practical things.

Seriously speaking, the readers of the Leader are going to hear more about the practical side of that Ashtola school—no foolin'.

G. G. Reeves, in order to cast off his dignity before eating four plates of salad, resigned his office, the highest in the organization. While he was on the salad, Slayton Mahaffey was elected on a no-salad ticket and proceeded to "exort" his policies and plans to make a better organization out of it than Reeves had ever done.

When some one yelled out for the trustees to speak, Bill Barker got so excited he swallowed a batch of brown mule. We never could find out whether he would or he wouldn't. During his fit of coughing, some one thought he was making a speech as he grew red in the face and threw his arms wildly, but there was too much speaking going on to hear any one. The crowd refused to quiet down until Dennis Smith lulled them to sleep again with one of his cradle songs. At this point most of the crowd left for the midnight show while six teachers were standing on chairs arguing about a basketball contest.

Seriously speaking, very little of the above really occurred. Better get a report from the front page article. It is more nearly the facts. But let me say right here in conclusion, that it was a big event and put over in great style with a sane, sensible bunch of teachers striving to build up better rural schools all over the county.

EGGS' WHITES ARE NOW CONTROLLED

77,000 Eggs Are Broken to Make Possible a Better Feed.

The feed that goes into the hen largely determines the quality of the eggs produced. Every poultry raiser knows this and if you are on good enough terms with him he will demonstrate to you why certain feeds produce deep colored yolks and others light colored yolks. At the same time he will admit that it is hard to control the exact shade of the yolks the year around.

Feed manufacturers have long ago discovered that the success of a poultryman depends upon pleasing his market, so they have tried to provide a feed mixture which will produce the kind of eggs that will bring poultrymen top prices. The problem of shading the yolk is only one part of the secret.

More difficult is the selection of feeds that will produce the ideal white for each egg. Thin watery whites are not ideal. The white must be thick and firm and stay close to the yolk in the poaching pan or on the straight "up" orders.

To solve this problem Purina Experimental Farm of Gray Summit, Mo., several years ago began a record egg breaking and testing experiment. Many combinations of feed were fed to specially selected flocks. Eggs from these hens were numbered for easy identification and then the eggs were broken and compared to the specifications that had been set up by egg market experts.

In all of these feeding experiments the first objective of the feed was not overlooked. Feed is meant to produce, first of all, eggs in quantity. Only after this requirement is satisfied can the quality part follow.

More than 77,000 eggs were individually handled and broken in this exhaustive search for the ideal combination. One dozen or one hundred dozen eggs broken from hens fed on the egg quality formula finally adopted look as alike as peas in a pod. The full meaning of such a feed can only be fully appreciated by poultrymen who have had the ingenuity to work up a special market for their product and who know the advantages of an increased income that American preference for quality makes possible.

Changing birds over to this new feed is simple. Pullets on the range are changed over at eighteen weeks of age. Scratch grains are decreased gradually in proportion as the new feed replaces the other feed. Laying hens can be changed to the new feed at any time of the year, according to the poultry experts at the Purina Experiment Farm. As is the usual practice in changing a flock's ration, two weeks should be allowed for making the change and no change should be made during extremely cold weather or when birds are in peak production.

Local H. S. Girls Given Chance To Win Scholarships

University scholarships will be the goal of high school girls of this city who compete in a nation-wide essay contest just announced in detail to local teachers of home economics.

has been conducted annually since 1924 under the supervision of teachers in hundreds of high schools throughout the country, according to the National Live Stock and Meat Board, its sponsor.

National, sectional, and state winners are selected each year. Miss Merle Green, a Levelland girl, was the state champion of Texas last year.

Contestants have until March 15 to get their essays in. These essays, judging from past years, will cover a wide range of subjects such as, meat in the balanced diet.

the preparation of meat, meat in the economy budget, the importance of the live-stock and meat industry, etc.

Selection of the winning essays will be in the hands of a committee of eminent home economics authorities whose names will be made public at a little later date, according to the announcement. Dr. Louise Stanley, chief of the federal bureau of home economics, headed this committee last year.

Teachers say they have found this type of competition of value not only for the scholarships its affords but also for the training it provides in the interests of better home-making in the future, according to the Board.

Wake Up Your Liver Bile — Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute, 25c at all stores. © 1931, C. M. Co.

RATIONS A·B AND C HAD SAME ANALYSIS... CHICKS HAD SAME PARENTAGE

DIFFERENCE DUE TO AMOUNT OF EACH INGREDIENT USED

Source: Purina Mills Research Report 1452

Greater Knowledge Brings Improvement in Feeding

Chemists can analyze any food product and tell you exactly how much protein, carbohydrate, fat, fibre, and minerals are contained in the various feeds for livestock and poultry. Thus for many years livestock and poultry feeds were judged according to their chemical analysis. Even today state inspections of feed are on that basis. Lately, however, more advanced research has proved that chemical analysis is not sufficient to be a true index of feed value.

"For years scientists have known that proteins from different sources, such as linseed meal, soy bean meal, meat scrap, fish meal, and dried buttermilk vary widely in their effectiveness on chick growth and development," states Dr. H. J. Smith, Director of the Research Work of Purina Mills. "In our Laboratory and on our Farms, we have devoted much of our research efforts for several years toward discovering the protein combinations which best supply the needs of baby chicks and growing poultry. To the best of my knowledge, not any one previously and very few since have investigated in as comprehensive a manner as we have the problem of the exact proportions to be used for best results."

Poultry raisers now have available a mash that is as far advanced in its way as modern transportation. Any poultry breeder can see by the accompanying chart how chicks from the same parents, hatched on the same day compare under the old and new method.

The results shown in the chart are typical of a score of "repeats" of the original. Each test was conducted under the careful direction of qualified research men, who observed in every detail the rigid rules of scientific procedure.

The practical application of this newer knowledge of feeds in chick raising comes in having broilers ready to sell at earliest ages, and produced at a lower cost per pound. Too, pullets mature earlier under the new methods, having 19.84 eggs to their credit before pullets fed under ordinary methods start to lay. Research of this kind means much to a poultry flock owner because he can translate the results obtained into the kind of action that means profits to him.

is not recorded by the money he keeps!

Wealth is not the currency you have in your pockets - - - wealth is the value of your property. Money is simply a medium of exchange - - - a handy but not necessary thing to have in closing deals.

Long before money was ever invented, men were wealthy and prospered. It can do it now. Let's set the wheels of trade going by using this newspaper's classified ads.

What Is This Japanese Girl Doing? Here's a Puzzle for a Quiet Hour

It is common in foreign countries to see women side by side, "cleaning" their clothes by washing them together in streams or ponds, on boards or flat rocks at the water's edge.

COURTESY AMERICAN HOME

In India the men often do the washing. They trade out to a good sized rock and slap the wet garments against it as though they had a grudge against them.

We may smile at such antiquated methods of washing clothes but the American washboard is equally behind the times when we take into consideration the ease and economy with which washing can be done by the washing machines which are available for families of any income.

I notice where my friend, Howard Rhodes, is getting to be mighty important around Goldston. I just wish to warn him not to be too popular.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turnbow visited with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Easterling until bedtime Tuesday night.

Wind Clock Latest Aid To Flying

A newly invented "clock" that can tell the direction and velocity of wind at a glance is the latest aid to airway weather reporting developed by engineers of United Air Lines, who are installing the new device at all stations along the Chicago-Kansas City - Fort Worth-Dallas airway, where wind data is valuable to landing of company planes.

THE DRIVER HAD AUTO KNOWN

A certain young man was recently speeding merrily along the road when he caught up with a party of children on their way to school.

"Do you like school?" he asked her. "Yes sir," she replied. "Do you go every day?" "I haven't missed a day this year," the little girl replied.

BRICE (Velma Lemmons)

Brice was nearly blown away Saturday, Saturday night, and Sunday by the terrible sand storm. I do believe it was the worst sand storm we had had in three years, at least, I know it was the worst since I have been in the west since I have spent my winters here.

Mr. and Mrs. Holley spent the week-end with home folks at Ashtola. Brice pupils and teachers visited Lakeview Friday for the Ball Tournament. The ball players went back to be with them Saturday.

Why the Sudden Change to Liquid Laxatives? Doctors have always recognized the value of the laxative whose dose can be measured, and whose action can be thus regulated to suit individual need.

The public, too, is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that a properly prepared liquid laxative brings a perfect movement without any discomfort at the time, or after. The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

Why Get Up Nights? Lax the Bladder With Juniper Oil, Buchu, Etc. Drive out the impurities and excess acids that cause irritation, burning and frequent desire. Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUKETS, the bladder laxative, also containing Buchu leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Get a 25c box from any drug store. After four days if not relieved of "getting up nights" go back and get your money. If you are bothered with backache or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep.

Our Weekly CHURCH CHAT

Minister First Christian Church
"The Comfort of Faith."
Isalah 40.

Israel has paid the penalty. Exile is the land of broken hearts. Especially was this so to the Hebrews, in whose mind patriotism and religion were inseparable. Religion was localized. Only at the sacred shrine in the holy city was communion found. The return from exile was a spiritual triumph, it was a coming back to God.

I. Exile lies round the corner. Babylon may be found in your own heart. To forget God is to forsake happiness. The source of comfort is faith in God. The prophet's inspired message to a restored Israel was, "Behold your God!" Jesus said "Let not your heart be troubled, ye believe in God, believe also in me." Comfort and faith are inseparable. Life without God is exile.

II. Israel had been exposed to heathen thought and practice in Babylon, and the prophet is eager to correct and direct their understanding of God. Faith in God is essential, but it must be the right kind of faith in the right kind of God. God is not the offspring of a man's theory or mind, if this be true one god would be as good as another—a theory that ends in spiritual and moral chaos. God is not a generalization, an abstraction, an idea or an idol. God is Creator, Preserver, and Benefactor

DOROTHY DARNIT

By Charles McManus

III. We need a larger conception of God in our time. He is not just one of ourselves. He is the Lord God Omnipotent, who is "Great in power" and hath "weighed the mountains in scales." To believe in such a God is to confess one's own frailty, to bow in penitence, and to seek His blessing. Beware of patronizing God. The words of the prophet are a warning, "To whom, then will ye liken God?" After all is said and done, the secret of comfort lies in the kind of God in whom we believe, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

IV. With this in view the prophet emphasized the stability of this comfort. Has ever the love of God been more tenderly portrayed? "He shall gather the lambs in his arms and carry them in his bosom." Exile comes and goes, but God remains the same, waiting to welcome his people home. Our Sunday subjects are: "The Idler" and "The Source of the Sinners Trouble." Don't miss these two lessons.

the rural schools to the satisfaction of those most interested.

W. A. Poovey, president of the County Board and who never disappoints on occasions of this kind, discussed fully the past history and present plans of the Board relative to helping make Donley county schools better.

"Why I Like to Teach" was aptly told by Miss Zell Rogers and a short, concise speech that clearly indicated that she was master of her subject.

Sid Thomas, principal of the Ashtola school swept his audience off its feet when he spoke on schools as a community builder. Under his guidance the more advanced pupils of Ashtola are taught, carpentering, motor mechanism, barbering, etc. by actual practice. As instructor, he and his pupils have established a precedent for practical instruction for hundreds and possibly thousands of rural schools of the state.

The school condition of the county was the subject upon which Sloan Baker spoke. As county superintendent of schools, he has advanced many original ideas that have met with popular favor and resulted in much good. The county is indebted to him for the very organization known as the Teacher-Trustee Association, the first in the state. That this idea has met with popular favor is attested to by the large number of teachers and trustees attending the first annual meeting of its kind Friday night.

The Teachers-Trustees Organization was explained fully by its president, G. G. Reeves, he having been vested with the responsibility of the presidency since its inception. Thoroughly conversant with his subject, the speaker explained in minutest details the workings of the organization and the benefits that could be expected.

A very enjoyable feature of the program was that of the singing and readings, the talent being supplied from the profession of which there seemed no end as in the case of good speakers.

A musical reading by Miss Eunice Johnson, with Miss Agatha Taylor at the piano, almost brought tears, so tersely was life pictured with its pathos. As an encore number the sun came from behind the clouds and the audience cheered lustily.

Quartet singing by Frank Berlinger of Hudgins, Clarence Jackson of Chamberlain, Dennis Smith of Midway and Elbert Bowen of Ashtola was one of the 'highlights' of the entire evening's program, and the audience was kindly favored with encores equally pleasing. Dennis Smith, dubbed the "mocking bird" of the organization, sang several numbers, one of which he composed a few moments previously. He "stormed the citadel" with his singing and captured the entire army of admirers.

Miss Nova Cook delighted with her reading in dialect in which she displayed unusual skill and tact in meeting with popular approval. Her contributions are always enjoyed by her audience.

Due to his entry into politics, G. G. Reeves resigned as president of the organization, and H. Slayton Mahaffey of Midway was elected his successor. Mr. Mahaffey is a member of the school board of his district and an enthusiastic school man.

The round table discussions held the meeting to a late adjournment, but left an enthusiastic lot of school workers, both in and out of the profession, more determined than ever to place the rural schools of Donley county in front rank in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston Miller and son Eldon of Canadian spent the week end visiting Mrs. Otis Jackson and Mrs. Eula Cox.

Peru, and outlying possessions of the United States including Hawaii and Alaska.

The Museum has attracted scientists from many states, the objects of paleontological and archaeological importance bringing many writers, both of history and fiction have found valuable materials in the Museum files.

Hundreds of visitors, according to Dr. Debo, come to the Museum to see exhibits which they have read about in newspapers, some of such visitors coming from several hundred miles away. Art exhibits which are hung at intervals in the Mary E. Hudspeth Gallery bring many people.

However, the majority of those who come may be included in three classes, school children, the people whose efforts made the museum possible, and people who come because of interests in special materials. There are more visitors on Sunday afternoons than on Tuesday or Thursday, since most people are not free to come on week days.

New Warehouse Constructed For Shamburger Yard

The gap across the north end of the Shamburger lumber yard is being built in this week giving another fourteen hundred square feet of storage space for net wire, paling and barbed wire fencing material. The work is being done by John H. Watters and Roy Clampitt.

Geo. E. Ragland, manager of the yard, has also had a number of changes made inside the main building adding much to the appearance of the paint storage room and other storage space where piping and windmill supplies are kept.

By changing of windows and adding more glass space, it is now possible to see every section of the yard from the office. Mr. Ragland states that business has improved considerably the past month, and that a larger stock and greater variety will be added to take care of the increased demands.
