Judge Lowe Announces New Plans For Resumption of Highway Construction

The Judge Has Assurances of Both Highway And Attorney General's Departments That Highway 5 Work to Begin With Letting of Contract This Week

Following his trip to Austin from which he returned Tuesday, Judge Lowe is enthusiastic over the early prospects of a resumption of work on Highway 5, and the completion of the work across Donley county.

Upon investigation, the Judge found that a proposition was made the County Commissioners by the highway department back in 1932 whereby the county was to secure funds from the highway department to pay for a part of cost of right-of-way across the county. The deeds to this land was not secured in time to comply with the contract, and there the matter rested until this week.

At this time the county has received all of the $15,000.00 from the highway department and this money has been paid out for right-of-way. Since the county has not a property valuation of six million dollars, the county cannot issue warrants to the amount of fifteen thousand dollars without advertising the fact in a legal notice to the taxpayers. This notice appears in this issue of the Leader.

Should ten percent of the property taxpayers demand a vote on the matter in a petition to the county commissioners, the matter would be further delayed.

The present tax rate is 74 cents on the hundred. The legal limit is 75 cents per hundred. Judge Lowe stated Wednesday that since funds could be legally taken from other county accounts where it is not needed, there would be no increase whatever in the tax rate. It could only be increased one cent a hundred at the most should an increase be found necessary, but he feels sure that no increase will be necessary to meet the requirements of the highway department.

The $15,000.00 borrowed and for which the county is now indebted, is to be repaid with warrants, $5,000.00 each year during 1935, 1936 and 1937 with interest at 4 percent.

The Highway Department is extremely liberal in making the warrants date from August 1st of this year. This means that the county will not have to pay the interest on the money already borrowed and used. The sum received as a gift is the interest at 4 percent on $7,000 since November of 1933, and on $8,000.00 for two months.

In a phone conversation with Judge Lly at Abilene Wednesday, Judge Lowe was assured by Judge Ely of the highway department that advertisements for bids on the remainder of Highway 5 would be made this week. When the bids are approved, work will begin soon and rushed until the highway across the county is completed.

This is a stroke of good luck for Donley county in the opinion of a number of citizens who have long waited and hoped for a completion of the highway from the east county line to connect with the highway as partly completed from Clarendon to the west county line.

Judge Lowe reports that he was treated with every courtesy by the attorney general's department, and that Judge Christopher, who has the legal work of the highway department, accompanied him to the offices of the highway department and assisted in the rushing of the plans through that work might begin with the least possible delay.

Judge Lowe is also being congratulated for his efforts in getting matters untangled, all of which means much to Donley county. In this connection the county commissioners are also due a lot of credit for faithful and efficient service in holding down the expense to the taxpayers in highway building.

PAMPA LAWYER SPOKE SATURDAY FOR CLINT SMALL

Crowd Demands Further Explanation Calling For Judge Link

The following is substantially the account of the speaking here Saturday on the north side of the Antro hotel as reported in the Amarillo News Monday.

"Two weeks from today the voters of Texas will go to the polls to elect men to fill the offices of this state. More important than the office is the man selected. For the most important of this state, the governor, we need a real man. That man is Clint Small," John Sturgeon, Pampa city attorney, told a large group of Donley County citizens as he spoke here Saturday afternoon in the interest of Senator Small's candidacy for governor.

Judge J. R. Porter introduced Sturgeon, a former East Texan, who actively campaigned for Senator Small four years ago.

"I am not here to make any argument against any man in the race. I am here representing a man who is capable of making Texas a good governor," Sturgeon said.

Knows Panhandle Problems

"It is my appeal to you to vote for a man who has been reared in your immediate vicinity, for he knows your problems and troubles and will be in a position to better serve you, his neighbors and friends.

"Unknown in a large portion of Texas four years ago, Senator Small ran a good third. If the Panhandle and West Texas will stay with Small this time he will be elected. He now has almost unbelievable support in Houston,

UPTON PARDON IDEA IS AGAIN BEING PUSHED

Was Convicted Here in 1922 On Charge of Murdering Daughter of Solomon

A brother of Houston Upton was over from Hereford over the week end interviewing the members of the jury that gave his brother a 99 year sentence in the district court here in 1922 on a charge of murdering a girl in Floyd county. The case was brought here on a change of venue.

Members of that jury residing in and near Clarendon are J. D. Pope, T. R. Adkins, J. M. Acord, Rudolph Wiedman and J. C. Estlack. So far is known, neither member of the jury was willing to sign an application for pardon of Houston Upton.

It developed from the testimony that Upton went to the Solomon home and shot two girls in bed near midnight. He later went to a nearby school house and attempted to suicide by shooting, but survived after several weeks in which his condition was critical.

He was defended by Kenneth Bain of Floydada, P. A. Martin of Plainview and Judge Link. Judge A. J. Fires, then an attorney in private practice at Childress, led the prosecution.

The trial consumed the week. The jury was divided for more than two days, a part of the men favoring the death penalty.

Another murder charge still is pending for the killing of the second girl. It is said that the party here to interview the jurors was of the opinion that his brother could beat the last case by proving that it was an accident.

J. S. Solomon, father of one of the murdered girls and for many years a justice of the peace at Floydada, is critically ill at this time with little hopes for his recovery.

The brother of Houston Upton and W. A. Gentry, both of Hereford returned here Wednesday in an effort to secure the signatures of the jurymen who sat on the case. It is reported that W. A. Gentry, J. W. Gatewood and Fred Ballew have signed the petition for a pardon. Other members of the jury here refuse to sign.

N. W. Williams, M. L. Solomon and W. H. Henderson of Floydada, came over Wednesday when they learned of the effort to petition Upton out of the state prison. Mr. Solomon is a brother of the murdered girl and the other men are related by marriage. They expect to interview the jurymen before returning home as a means of protesting clemency for Upton.

Rev. Chasteen is an able speaker and has conducted many successful meetings during the past thirty two years. It is also possible that Rev. Billie Reaves, formerly of the Vawter Evangelistic Party will conduct the singing.

PURYEAR MAKES STATEMENT HOW HE LEGISLATED

Calls Attention to Many Bills That Affect Our Panhandle Citizens

In talking to the people of the district, John E. Puryear has the following to say:

"In answering my opponents criticism in regard to questioning teachers and other state employees, the law only carries out the constitution that they can't be asked what denomination they belong to. That is taking denominationalism out of state jobs and school jobs and not as my opponents are representing.

As to automobile registrations, we had a bill reducing it to $3 and one to $5 and on cutting it one-third. The one-third reduction passed the House but was killed in the Senate.

As to old soldiers pensions, this bill is also being misrepresented as it was only to cut off some of the late widows and get the fund to where the veterans could get their money which they are not now able to do since there are 1,800 veterans and 8,000 widows on the roll and we are collecting the constitutional limit in taxes of 7 cents on the $100.

Why spend millions of dollars to have cotton classers when the man who buys will only buy on his own judgment? This move would be only to create some more political jobs and cost the taxpayers many dollars.

As to young members in the Legislature attending Texas University, they are never present when needed, and seldom know what goes on.

We gave the school fund $19 per capita, but since the fund was $5 in the red, the state board set the per capita at $16, and at the end of this year we should have only a $2 deficit, and then be able to pay $17 next year.

I am for school apportionment on an attendance basis, and we tried to pass a bill to that effect,

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitlock made an extended trip to east Texas the past week to visit relatives and friends, and included Mansfield, Louisiana in their itinerary. The Texas points visited were Joaquin and Teneha where stops were made.

No definite date has been set for the opening of this plant, but it is likely that it will be opened as soon as the district Home Demonstration arrives to supervise the installation of equipment. At that time more detailed information regarding this project will be published.

LOWE EXPLAINS HIGHWAY STATUS DONLEY COUNTY

Legal Hindrances Are Being Cleared Up to Permit Work to be Rushed

To those who may not be familiar with all matters concerning highway matters in this county, I believe it would be well to make the following explanation of the intention of the Commissioners Court.

In 1932 Donley County through its Commissioners Court accepted a proposition made by the Texas State Highway Commission to purchase a right-of-way through the county provided the State Highway Department would construct and complete the road. In addition to this the State Highway Department proposed to appropriate $15,000.00 to assist the county in the purchase of this right-of-way providing that Donley County would repay the highway department at the rate of $5,000.00 per year for three years, the first $5,000.00 to be paid back Feb. 1st, 1933, the same amount one year later and the last five thousand one year after the second or Feb. 1st, 1935.

When Feb. 1st, came the surveys had not been completed and the deeds had not been secured and no money had been advanced. It therefore, developed that Donley County could not repay an amount for it had received no money.

Donley County received its first money from the State Highway Department on or about Nov. 15th, 1933 and the remaining portion about May 15th, 1934. The county has received this money and has used it in the purchase of the right-of-way and it seems now

$520 IN PRIZES ARE OFFERED IN THREE-DAY RODEO

The public still has a strong liking for the daring sports of the old west. No more skilled actors ever appeared before any crowd than bronc riders, trick ropers developed by the stock industry on the range.

Leonard Stroud as the only living man who can stand on his head and rope four horses at one and the same time, will have direct charge of the three day show that is expected to bring hundreds to Clarendon on August 16, 17 and 18.

Five hundred and twenty dollars will be given away in prizes to include bronc riding, calf roping, steer riding, bulldogging steers. In addition to the above contests, $100.00 will be given to any one who can ride "Amarillo Boy" successfully.

Black Diamond, the famous jumping horse will put on stunts that are not to be seen outside a big circus. Chief, is only a horse, but he is educated. His stunts are astounding. These and many other attractions will be here over the three days.

A complete three-day program will appear in the Leader in the near future. In the meantime, turn to page seven of this issue of the Leader and learn more about what Leonard Stroud has in store for you.

Fire Destroys Farm Home With No Insurance

Fire of an unknown origin starting in the kitchen destroyed the farm house on the J. H. Hurn farm west of town about 11 o'clock Sunday night.

The six room building was practically new being built by I. R. Eggs a few years ago. The building and contents including the windmill tower are a total loss as no insurance was carried.

The place is in charge of Robt. Ayers and family who are working the land this year. Only two members of the family were at home when the fire occurred, the father of Mrs. Ayers and a hired hand, both of whom escaped with difficulty, the fire having gained such headway when they were awakened.

SMALL SCANDALIZES THE PANHANDLE.

There has been a great hue and cry that all the Panhandle voters should support Senator Small in his gubernatorial aspirations principally because he is a West Texas candidate. In view of the fact that this pressure has been brought to bear upon the good citizens of our section, we here enter a protest in the interests of common decency.

Senator Small never did have the backing of the Panhandle simply because he happened to reside in Amarillo, except in the minds of a very few citizens, most all of whom had been imposed upon through a lack of information as to the real objects of the candidate and his questionable tactics for securing the coveted position.

This writer visited a number of west Texas towns over the week end in an effort to ascertain the true facts relative to the standing of Senator Small. He found in every section prominent citizens who are disgusted with Small's misrepresentation. They formerly supported him in his first campaign, and were heartily for him this time until the true facts began to develop. His strength has pitifully waned over the west during the past two weeks when his "home folks" began to realize that most of his bid for votes was based on hypocritical misrepresentations.

When Senator Small assumed a pious air, apparently for campaign purposes, and went over the state protesting loudly against race horse betting among other things, he knew full well that he was playing the part of the hypocrite since he voted to permit race horse gambling in Texas.

When the first racing bill known as House Bill 12, 43 Legislature, page 312 came before the State Senate of which Small was a member, it carried a provision of an increase of the state's portion of a licensee's commission from 8 percent to 25 percent. Small voted against this bill and that is what his backers keep harping about.

Later, another horse racing bill known as House Bill 167 was proposed in the 43 Legislature as recorded on pages 1790 to 1794 of the Senate Journal. Small voted for this bill as shown by the state records.

In connection with this matter let it be known that every rich man connected with horse racing, or having ownership or financial interest in racing stables, is backing Small. Amon Carter, principal owner of the Star-Telegram and a racing advocate, is backing Small with his publication as is well known to every reader in this section.

And yet Small chases over the state appealing to good citizens to help "him" save the young folks from the awful consequences of race track gambling.

In his Granbury speech over the radio (unless the radio misquoted him), Small made the statement that Allred did not prosecute the Mid-Kansas Oil & Gas Co. suit that brought to the school children of Texas $1,073,500.00. Small declared that the suit was settled during the administration of Claude Pollard after being prosecuted by Dan Moody and Lee Bobbitt, three successive predecessors of Jimmie Allred. As a matter of fact Small knew as a lawyer that Jimmie Allred filed the suit during his second administration. Here is what the state records show:

"Suit of State of Texas vs. Mid-Kansas Oil and Gas Company et al, No. 52,748 was filed in 98th District Court on July 18th, 1933 by Attorney General James V. Allred, who personally appeared and represented the State in said suit. Receipt for sum of $1,073,500.00 dated October 26, 1933 signed by James V. Allred by R. W. Yarbrough, assistant attorney general, appears on margin of minute book 49, page 492, civil minutes 98th district court.

Geo. H. Templin, District Clerk, Travis Co., Tex." Let it be further said that a photograph of the above check was printed in the Donley County Leader in the issue of May 31, 1934.

These are just two of the many reasons why the Panhandle will repudiate and condemn Senator Small at the polls on July 28th. We want all that is rightfully ours in a political way, but we want it honestly and do not expect to use fraudulent methods in fostering upon the citizens any man unworthy of any consideration whatsoever.

Polls Indicate McCraw Steadily Gaining

Austin, July 19.—Stimulated by a half-dozen newspaper polls which gave him as high as three to one majorities over his nearest opponent, William (Bill) McCraw, candidate for attorney General, said this week that the people of Texas are showing decisive preference for a people's lawyer rather than a utility-controlled candidate. McCraw, endorsed by labor and other groups in all sections of the state, spoke at Fort Arthur Monday and at Beaumont Tuesday. He spoke at Austin Thursday night before a rally that included delegations from 15 Central Texas towns. The clean fighting candidate will run far ahead of his rivals in the July 28 primary. Mrs. Effie Wilson Waldron, in charge of state campaign headquarters here predicted after studying results of newspaper polls of the race over the state. Labor paper polls at San Antonio and Houston gave McCraw 75 per cent of the vote. The Fort Worth Press poll gave him a three-to-one lead, and a straw-vote at Fairfield showed him running four-to-one there.

Sweeping down through the eastern portion of the state, the former district attorney of Dallas county addressed crowds that totaled more than 10,000. Brennan was his high-spot where 5,000 people heard him.

McCraw's stand on the labor question has heartily been received by labor as well as other groups in the state. He declared that labor "has the choice between me, who has a thorough knowledge of labor through actual experience, or Walter Woodward who admits he'll have to put up a special branch in the attorney general's department to be able to understand what it's about.

"The first time Senator Woodward voted on the child labor amendment," McCraw told his audiences, "was when he was asking re-election and he cast his 'aye' in its favor. But the second time, which was not election year, he did an about face and voted against it. The third time the ament was up for vote Woodward had announced for the attorney generalship, so he voted for the amendment, but only after he had already seen that 17 'nays' had doomed the amendment.

"I was educated in the school for fair treatment for labor. My father is a laboring man. I got my start in his little printing shop and I am still proud of my pressman's union card."

Directing his fire at Woodward's "intimate connection with the utility chains," McCraw charged that labor is "spurning him, like other Texans, because people are finding out that the big utilities hold so many strings on Sir Walter Woodward that they play him like a puppet."

Referring to a letter from a "high utility official which Woodward is using in his campaign," McCraw declared that he knew "Woodward represented the utilities, but now I see by that letter that the utilities are representing Woodward."

McCraw promised his aid to Texas towns seeking lower utility rates, pointing out that "I, with no entangling alliances, can do this. Woodward, attorney for the big utilities, cannot because a man cannot serve two masters."

WHAT DOES BREW-DATED MEAN?

Just this — that now anyone can select a beer and know that it is FULLY-AGED.

As the ageing vats are filled with Blatz Old Heidelberg Beer, each vat is sealed and marked with the exact date the beer was brewed.

Then months later, when this beer is bottled, the BREW-DATE is placed on every bottle — the Blatz guarantee that Blatz Old Heidelberg Beer is fully-aged.

Of course, unaged beer can be sold a trifle cheaper — but you'd miss that mellow flavor, that full body and smooth strength you'll find only in Blatz Old Heidelberg "BREW-DATED" Beer. If it's brew dated, it's Blatz!

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

When a Houston man's best girl married the other fellow, he sent them a wedding present labeled "carving set." Inside the box they found three chisels and a mallet.

The fellow who fills this column with nonsense each week has a crepe myrtle in blossom with a heliotrope or lavender color. The blossom is similar to the white or pink except as to color. Does anyone know of another such crepe myrtle?

People are like that some times. Occasionally some fellow will drop in and for the lack of anything else, tear sheets off the paper roll. Others will chew up the gum paper that has a glue coating made from horsehide. I'll bet either one would like limburger.

A lot of these bifalutin' dinners have more implements parked around the plate than they have grub, counting all the little dabs that are brought in a piece at a time.

A lady down state calls her county agent husband "Theory" because he seldom works.

"The less you have to do with some people, the less worse off you are."

Dr. McCoy says women might reduce by going on a strict vegetable diet. All we got to say is that the elephant ain't doin' much yet towards slimming up.

Struck by a bee, a man down at Canton Sunday wrecked his car, dislocated his shoulder and broke his arm. He better be glad it wasn't a hornet.

They are certainly legging for Mrs. Ola Legg for school superintendent down in Hale county.

If it doesn't rain pretty soon, this country is goin' to ossify. Several old fossils already walking around.

Talk about confidence, perseverance, grit and determination, Clint Small still has two supporters in Donley county—Homer Mulkey and Odus Caraway.

A few years ago we were all het up about the English sparrows taking the country. If it can't rain within a month, they can have our part of it.

Now scientists claim that a grapefruit is a lemon with a middle-age spread. (They used to call them bay windows, but they are not all bay!)

Asked to explain what caused hiccoughs, a local doctor defined it as being a "message from departed spirits."

Another bright idea born of this hot weather is to turn the wheat fields into golf courses. Limit each player to a gallon of corn a day. That makes a market for both. Those too old and too young to play, can caddy or cuss. The tax could be cut down to the salary of the government agent who makes a survey because he would not be expected to know any more about it than any other agent does his job. Think it over and "come up to see me some time."

Speaking of the rich land in Arkansas, there is a story of a gawky son being instructed to stick the pumpkin seed in the ground and run before the vines covered him up. Not getting in for cowmilking, the old man became alarmed and went to look for the son. He found the son alright, but he was fast in a crack of the rail fence. It seems that he ran his best but a vine ran up his pants leg. By the time he reached the fence the pumpkin in the seat of his pants filled the crack in the fence—almost.

It didn't work out the same way in Texas. When an Oklahoma woman gave away her daughter's dresses to make her stay at home, they started a Ft. Worth nudist colony over here. A lot of people think that four track highway from Dallas to Ft. Worth is a part of Arlington Downs.

Twenty years ago a ladies' store advertised hats, ribbons, flowers, feathers, laces, collars and cuffs. Now they advertise—well it ain't none of our business anyhow.

Next thing we know Clint Small will be claiming that the station that broadcasted his speech misquoted him on 'hoss racin'.

A fellow campaigning for T. M. Pyle Monday said Flop had been during his 12 years as city marshal, knocked down by cars 21 times, struck by fenders thirty times, run over six times, and parked on once for 17 minutes. All during which he never got riled, performed his official duty and never missed a day on the job. Now who will come forward with a word in behalf of his competitor for the constable's job.

These Ball Bearings Earn Real Money
THE PINION SHAFT runs on ball bearings shown at points 1 and 2.
THE SPINDLE has two more at points 3 and 4. These ball bearings are in every McCormick-Deering. Six sizes for 1 one or 100. Hand, belt, or electric drive.
... they make it easy to turn the McCormick-Deering Cream Separator at full skimming speed.
CREAM separator experts say: "One of the most common causes for loss of butterfat in cream separators is skimming-bowl under-speed, caused by old-fashioned plain bearings that bind and drag and make the machine hard to turn."
It's easy to run the McCormick-Deering Ball-Bearing Cream Separator at the right speed to get all the butterfat. The ball bearings and automatic oiling eliminate friction. No dragging—no lost profits.
We are out in the country demonstrating every day. On request we will stop at your farm to let you try the machine.

Some one has said that the best way to break a bad habit is to drop it. Absenting yourself from your church services is a bad habit. It is bad not only for you, but for your family, your church and community. Drop that habit next Lord's day and attend the services of your church. Keep the windows of your souls so clean that the light of hope and joy can shine in. Think how much the church does for you, your children and your neighborhood. What are you doing for the church? Who supports the church for you? How long would the church last if all her members were like you? How many preaching services would we have if all went home after Sunday School like you? How many evening services would we have if all went in for an evening of pleasure like you? Give your soul a chance. Be faithful to your church.

WILL C. (Bill) McDONALD MAKES STATEMENT

In making the race for Tax Assessor and Collector, I have endeavored to see every voter in the county, but know I have failed to do so in quite a few instances. It is to these in particular I address this article:

I would like your consideration of me on my qualification only, and have this to say: I am a Donley County man, having lived here 26 years, 22 of which I have been engaged in farming, cattle raising and in business in Clarendon. I have owned both farm land and city property and feel that this 22 years experience has given me a knowledge of values that fit me to act as your Tax Assessor.

The addition of Tax Collector to the Assessors office has no doubt caused some confusion, but it is in the same status as a few years ago when the Sheriff collected the taxes. The office of sheriff was considered the more important of the two, so now the Assessors office is the more important and will be considered as such.

I am qualified to do the office work as Collector, having had a number of years of book-keeping experience.

I will say for the benefit of those who do not know me personally, I am 44 years old, am married and have four daughters and live in Clarendon, and win or lose in this race I expect to continue a resident of Donley County.

Fire Destroys Two Story Building Near College

A fire alarm was too late Wednesday morning to permit the fire department to save anything of the two-story residence west of the girl's dormitory.

The fire started before 2 a. m. and consumed the building and contents with only insurance on the building which was owned by a loan company. The Gibbs family occupied the residence at the time of the fire.

Any one having clean old silk stockings or under garments to give to the American Legion Auxiliary, please call Mrs. Nathan Cox or No. 362-M.

Now is the time to get your jelly, jam and other sweet things ready for Welfare Committee. We wish to begin to gather them up by Oct. 1st.

Mrs. T. F. Ladd and sons R. J. and Eugene of Mosquero, New Mex. were guests of their daughter and sister, Mrs. G. E. Norwood and family here over the week end.

Low Family Makes Visit To Central Texas

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Lowe and children returned home Tuesday after a visit with relatives at Dallas and a business trip to Austin.

One of the most enjoyable treats of the vacation trip was a family reunion at the home of Mrs. Lowe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Aiken at Lipan. A stop was made for a visit with relatives at Wichita Falls.

In summing up the crop prospects, Judge Lowe is of the opinion that we are better off here than any other place that he saw on the whole trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Whit Carhart of Greenville are guests of her mother, Mrs. R. A. Chamberlain.

Miss Pauline Sanford returned from a weeks visit with relatives at Wichita Falls Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Whitlock, Mr. C. A. Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Garrison and daughter Frankie and Price Whitlock motored to Turkey Tuesday to take Price back to work.

ALLRED STRIKES BACK AT ENEMY IN AUSTIN SPEECH

Refers to State Records As Proof of His Statements in Explanation

The scope and depth of Jimmie Allred's talk from Austin Tuesday night heard here over KRLD station at Dallas, found the speaker in fine fettle fortified with every assurance of victory.

Allred chose to take official records as a basis with which to refute the charges that had been brought against him. He dwelt at length on his oil suits and backed his assertions of numerous victories with court records.

His "million dollar" oil suit which his opponents claim was decided before Allred took office as attorney general has been explained time and again. He showed that this suit was brought by him and a decision rendered in 1933, and backed his proof by using court records.

Those candidates denouncing me for not using the power of my office against hot oil violators and saloons are inconsistent, for they should be running for Attorney General if they believe that. But I am not a policeman. The Attorney General is not the sheriff of San Antonio, nor a Ranger in the East Texas oil field. I do not have a policeman's job. When the railroad Commission brings me evidence I prosecute, but I can not watch day and night, 13,000 oil wells.

"Local authorities over the State, whose duty it is to enforce the prohibition laws, have never asked me for any help. The Governor has some powers for he could send the Rangers, but I have no authority over Rangers. If I did have, I think I would set half of them to watch the other half." Here there was applause and laughter.

Allred further explained that he had no authority to supersede the authority of a district attorney in the prosecution of any case, and that it was the duty of his opponents, if they were sincere in their claims, to lay the matter before a sheriff, district or county attorney, or a grand jury, the only legal means whereby prosecutions for gambling, liquor selling and similar crimes may be begun.

J. R. (Dick) Bain Makes Statement to Public

To the Voters of Donley County:

It is my desire, to meet personally every voter in Donley county, but my time is limited and I also have to make a living for my family while conducting this campaign, and since I am not sure of seeing all of you, I take this means of explaining a few things which I think you should know.

I am a native of Wise county, Texas where I was born in 1897. Our family moved to Donley county 2½ years later and this has been our home since. I was reared on the farm and did a little ranch work along with farming. I married in 1919, bought a farm and have been a taxpayer since that date.

Elected a county commissioner in 1927, it was my pleasure to serve the people of Donley county in that capacity four years. For the past three years I have been engaged in the filling station and gasoline business meeting with some success for which my family and I are truly grateful to the many friends and customers who have made this success possible.

I truly appreciate the support given me in my race for sheriff four years ago. You are invited to search my record for honesty and fair dealing because it is upon that basis that I am making the race for sheriff at this time. I am in no way obligated to any person or persons. If elected I can and will do my best to perform the duties of the office fairly and impartially toward every one.

Should you hear any rumors against my interests, I only ask that you investigate them thoroughly before arriving at a decision. You know the American people like fair play and a square deal, and I know you do too in Donley county. Political rumor is a cheap form of fraud to defeat a deserving candidate wherever used.

Every effort will be put forth to see each voter between now and July 28th. In the event that I do not, I shall be grateful for your support and influence just the same, and please bear in mind there has been every effort made to assure you of my continued intention of residing in your county helping in every manner possible to show a high sense of appreciation for every favor shown me and mine in off years as well as the political years.

Thank you one and all, I am respectfully yours,

J. R. (Dick) Bain

S. T. Nichols and family and W. H. Miller left Wednesday morning for Houston where they will visit relatives.

Hon. Ray Johnson of Amarillo was here today on a Small schedule to visit several towns below the Caprock.

After talking for more than an hour, Allred called attention to the distribution of "yellow sheets" being passed among the crowd of listeners. He recalled the fact that the same tracts were assumed in his last race for the attorney generalship. The scandalizing sheets bore the "toe mark" of having been printed by the "Gladewater News" at Gladewater, Texas. Allred announced that they had been printed by the Terrell Printing company at Temple, Texas. A statement on the four-page sheet gave the information that more could be had "free of charge" by writing the Temple printing concern.

Allred was enthusiastically applauded throughout his talk. He paid his respects to lobbying as his home people knew it, called attention to a former legislator of that county who was in the employ as a lawyer for the Humble oil company while the legislature was considering bills regulating the oil company.

Aged Man Dies Saturday On Way Down Town

Stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage near the Glascoe home about 2:30 Saturday afternoon, Joseph Evans fell to the sidewalk and expired within a short time.

Mrs. Glascoe was first to reach the stricken man and was bathing his head with water when Mr. and Mrs. Jerome D. Stocking came by. Mrs. Stocking, a graduate nurse, instantly recognized the critical condition of the stricken man and suggested that a physician be called at once.

Dr. J. W. Evans, a brother was called and arrived a few moments before his brother passed away.

The body was prepared for shipment by Buntin & Son and forwarded to Hannibal, Missouri that night. The body was accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Evans.

The deceased was a native of Ohio being born on September 19, 1865 making him past 68 years of age at the time of his death. He had been making his home here with the doctor for several years and resided on the doctor's farm west of town for several years before moving to town. He was a kindly old gentleman, attended strictly to his own affairs and spent a great deal of time reading since he was partially disabled by a stroke some few years ago. He was on his way to the public library at the time death overtook him.

ALLRED GREETED BY BIG OVATIONS IN BELL COUNTY

Temple, Texas, July 18.—Attorney General James V. Allred and his progressive program for Texas government apparently were far ahead of the field as the race for governor swept into the last lap of the First Democratic primary.

Less than a week intervenes between Texas voters and the ballot boxes that will be brought out July 28.

While other candidates grabbed at straws, claptrap, baseless charges and empty promises, forgetting to mention their own qualifications for the office of governor, Attorney General Allred steadily pushed his plans for a wiser state government through the campaign field.

A few of his supporters were ready for a premature celebration of victory. "Jimmie Allred is so well thought of by the many Texans who believe in him that he could go right into the run-off without making another address," said one observer here. "Every time he speaks now, his lead is increased that much more. The voters can't hear him without wholeheartedly endorsing his forward-looking program."

Allred, steadfast to the first plank in his platform which declares he will take to the people themselves the problems of their government, lengthened his speaking schedule in order to appear before as many groups of citizens as possible.

Expressions of confidence in his victory have showered on Allred by telegraph, telephone and letters from all parts of the state this week. A conviction in the public mind that Allred's election will mean regulation of utilities, suppression of crime, equalized taxes, a government representative of the people rather than of monopolies, and a broader concept of official duty, was easily discernible.

Allred unfurled his banner with a resounding snap before a homecoming audience at Wichita Falls last week. Local newspapers described his appearance at Wichita Falls as unique in the political history of North Texas. One of the largest crowds that ever attended a political rally in that section gave him a tremendous ovation. Scores of listeners swarmed over the speaker's platform, and all but carried the Attorney General off on their shoulders at the conclusion of his two-hour address.

Allred himself, silently happy, broke the reticence to make predictions that marked his campaign thus far. Declaring that the future of Texas was more at stake than his own political fortunes, Attorney General Allred said: "It's not my way to make predictions. But I can say that I've never seen things looking more favorable. Even in my last race for Attorney General, when I was given more than 600,000 votes, there was nothing to compare to widespread endorsement given my program in this campaign."

Following his address here Wednesday night, Allred was scheduled to speak in Tyler Thursday, at Edom and Longview Friday, at Mount Vernon and Clarksville Saturday. However, he probably will make additional speeches not now on his schedule.

Cemetery Association Has Great Need of Funds

Secretary Walter W. Taylor is authority for the statement that the funds for hiring a cemetery sexton have long since played out. It is further learned that the sexton, U. T. Dever, who has labored faithfully for the past twelve years in that capacity, has not been paid anything for something like two months.

This is a matter that should concern every one who has an interest out there. No one is expected to help a great big lot, but most all who have relatives or friends buried in the Citizens cemetery, can help a little.

This is a matter that is seldom if ever neglected. It is merely an oversight due in some instances to carelessness. No one would think of permitting others to look after our personal interests. No one who could afford it would for a moment neglect the hallowed spot made sacred by the burial of some loved member of the family.

This is a critical matter. The sexton cannot go on working without pay. He and his family must live. He has been faithful and loyally performed a duty imposed in him as a sacred trust.

See Mr. Taylor now—today. Do your part toward relieving the tension at a time when the plant life that beautifies your cemetery needs attention more than it has for years on account of the drought.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes these good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. 50¢ at drug stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

 Some stay at home because they say.
 The weather's cold or tough;
 And some to vent a little spleen,
 Because they've got a "huff."

Some stay away because they've long
 In single harness tarried,
 And some because, as they protest,
 They're settled down and married.

Some keep from church because they find,
 The members "cold and funny"
 Who never clasp them by the hand
 Unless they're after money.

And some bewail with pious face,
 "The worldliness and sin
 That find lodgement in the church,
 Keeps them from entering in.

Alas! Alas! Excuses grow,
 To drive our thoughts from God
 And turn us from the house of prayer,
 And the path our Saviour trod.
 From "Girlhood Days."

Friends how many of the above excuses have you offered or made trying to justify your self. Not one of the excuses will stand or be accepted by the Heavenly Father on that day when you must appear before Him to give an account of your life and actions. He has left you without excuse, (Rom. 1:20. 2:1). An excuse that is not an excuse is a lie, and God will punish all liars. In this day of new deals and square deal, we plead with you to give God a square deal and He will give you a square deal with many blessings. Make up your minds now to attend church services and stop fooling yourself.

Our Weekly CHURCH CHAT

W. E. FERRELL
 Minister First Christian Church

"Why They Don't Go To Church"

Excuse making is one of the oldest arts of men. For over six thousand years men have tried to justify themselves regarding religious affairs by making excuses. Do you know the origin of excuse making? You will find it way back in Eden. When Adam had sinned, he tried to excuse himself. "The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree and I did eat." He tried to lay the blame on God; Eve tried to lay the blame on the serpent; and down to the present time, men and women begin to make excuses when they are questioned about church attendance and other religious activities.

An unknown author expresses the thought in the following verses:

Some stay at home because it's cold,
 And some because it's hot,
 And some because they are getting old,
 And some because they are not.

Some stay at home to entertain,
 And some to cook the dinners,
 And some because they are good enough,
 And some because they're sinners.

Some stay away because their hat,
 The milliner has not finished,
 And some because their liking,
 For the minister has diminished.

Some stay away because their clothes
 Are looking old and shabby;
 And because their special type,
 Of piety is "flabby."

Some stay at home because they have,
 A farm and lots of stock
 And therefore cannot spare the time
 To gather with God's flock.

Some stay away because their beaux
 Care nothing for the church;
 And some because their special friend,
 Has left them in the lurch.

And some declare they don't enjoy
 The singing of the choir;
 And others 'cause their fellow saints,

Does A Sheriff's Record Mean Anything?

In asking your support for Sheriff of Donley County, I have a few facts I would like to present. First it is impossible for me to see each and every one personally, to solicit your vote and I take this means of reaching you and asking each voter for your support. I am very thankful to the people for all past favors extended me. I have tried hard to merit your confidence. In the beginning when I announced, I said that I would run on my past record. Just a few words as to that record: You will admit that Crime in the State and nation has been on the increase and still is. Statistics will bear me out in this, yet Crime has decreased in Donley County. Fifty Per Cent, this I can prove, also Expenses for the Court and Sheriff Office, has decreased Fifty Per Cent in the last Three Years. The records are here in the Courthouse to show anyone that cares to look at them. By keeping down Crime the expense of the Court and Sheriff Office reduces itself. We have not lost a single Case in District Court in Two Years and over Fifty per cent of cases tried has been pleas of guilty where it did not take the expense of a Pettit Jury. I was in a neighboring County a few days ago and that week they had Five burglaries, more than we have had in Donley County, the last year. I have had one Automobile stolen and taken out of the County in the last Three years, and it was recovered the next day. All that I ask is to look around and see what other Counties have along this line. When I first ran for Sheriff I said that I would do the job if it took Twenty-Four hours a day to do it, and what success I have had I lay to just Two things: the backing of the People and being on the job. I spend all my time in Donley County, Seven Days and Seven nights a week. I think by keeping down the little things you want have the big things happening. As to Liquor I think you all know how I stand on that. In talking to prisoners in jail that I have had here for various offenses, I have asked them why they did the thing they did and everyone answers, "that I got to drinking and running with the wrong Company." It seems that this is the best place to start getting in bad. In asking for a Third term don't you think that a person that has had a little training and experience if he can prove where he has done the job is far more able to make you a Sheriff than a new man regardless of how good a man he is. I do not think a person rates anything, a Second term or anything else, if he or she cannot do the job. Any profession in the world has to have training and experience before you can practice your profession, except a Sheriff, which seems to me of all professions the Sheriffs office needs trained men.

I think I am better qualified now to side step mistakes and make you a better Sheriff than ever before. There was an article came out in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram about Two Months ago. This article was worked out by an Officers' organization as to rating of Sheriffs in Texas, and standing of counties in their districts. Of 254 Sheriffs in Texas, the sheriff of Donley County was rated second, and Donley County was rated the cleanest in the Panhandle. This article was read by several citizens of the County. I didn't read it myself, but Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Johnson, Auther Ransom of Giles, and Mr. and Mrs. Pin Johnson and C. L. Kenzie of Hedley, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Heckman of Clarendon, did read the article. There is just one thing I ask when you go to the polls to vote, and that is to ask yourself "who will make you and your County the best Sheriff," and then vote for that man.

Whitefish School Votes Against Consolidation

Voting on a proposed school district consolidation with Alameda independent school district Saturday, the citizens of the Whitefish turned down the idea by a vote of 22 to 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Holland Sr. and son Lee and Mrs. W. D. Van Eaton returned from Mineral Wells Wednesday where they have been taking treatment at the Milling Sanatorium.

Cotton Checks May Arrive During The Week

In a personal letter to a friend here, an employee of that department in Washington is of the opinion that the cotton checks will arrive here within about a week.

Practically every other Panhandle county has received cotton checks and the receipt of the money at this time will help to relieve the tension of the dry weather.

Frank Whitlock and family returned the first of the week from a visit with relatives in east Texas and Louisiana.

LOWE EXPLAINS—

(continued from front page) that the reasonable thing to do is to change the dates of the order to meet the actual conditions. It is readily seen that this is no new obligation, merely the setting of future dates of paying an obligation the county had previously made.

The law provides that the Commissioners court has no authority to issue such warrants without publishing notice and this additional explanation, in my opinion, should be made in this connection. The tax rate of the county will not be raised because of the issuance of the warrants, perhaps I might say that the law would not permit the rate of this county to be raised more than .01 on the $100.00 valuation. The county rate is now .74 and .75 is the limit, so no increase is expected.

The fact of the whole thing is, the county now owes an obligation of $15,000.00 to the State Highway Department which according to the minutes were due to be paid in three installments in 1933, 34, and 35. In this connection the Commissioners Court proposes to set the dates of payment to 1935, 36 and 37.

The State Highway Department feels so confident that there will be no objection to this issuance that they have advertised for bids on contracts for grade and drainage purposes on the remaining portion from Clarendon to the Hall County line. This statement I am authorized to make by phone to Judge R. W. Ely of Abilene, stating that a letter was in the mail to the effect that bids had been authorized to advertise based upon the ground that no objection would be raised by the citizens of the county.

Any additional explanation that I might be able to make I will be glad to do so for any one desiring to ask me further about it.

S. W. Lowe Judge Lowe received the following explanatory letter Wednesday which is here printed for the information of the public.

Hon. S. W. Lowe Clarendon, Texas Dear Judge Lowe: I have before me the opinion of the Attorney General requiring you to give notice before issuance of warrants to take care of the indebtedness to the Highway Department. We assume that you will take care of this matter as outlined by the Attorney General, and we will go ahead and let a contract in your county at the next meeting of the Commission.

When you have given notice as required by law, the Highway Department will accept warrants due in one, two and three years, and bearing interest at the rate of four (4%) percent.

Yours very truly W. R. Ely, Member State Highway Commission but were opposed by East Texas representatives and could not get the law passed.

We cut state government expenses $13,200,000 and would have lowered the advalorem some but the general fund was $19,000,000 in the red when I went into office, and is now approximately $4,000,000.

I killed the bill repealing refund on gas used in tractors, also one that would have taxed farmers one dollar on every sale of cotton as long as it staid on the statute.

I killed three times a bill tax in natural gas 2 cents a well, and that is almost all the well owner got at the well.

I was co-author of a sour gas bill and amended it to apply to sweet gas which gave some money to men who had never gotten a thing for their gas.

I was co-author of the bill lowering the dock on a bale of cotton so it can't be docked unless weighing less than 400 pounds.

I fought for a moratorium for farmers and home-owners since we had to give the banks and insurance companies one.

Who will fight to hold taxes down most, a man who pays quite a few taxes or one who pays none? As a representative handles millions of dollars of taxpayers money, why not select a man who has made a reasonable success of his own business rather than one who has not made a success of his business?

Dean and Mrs. W. A. Clark left for Austin Wednesday accompanied by George McCleskey and Chas. Walker.

(continued from front page) Beaumont, all sections of East and Northeast Texas, and in the Rio Grande Valley. If he goes into the runoff it will depend entirely upon the loyalty of his home people." Sturgeon declared that a misstatement of facts and half-truths had been broadcast throughout this section claiming that Senator Small had voted for the race horse gambling bill.

"At this point Clint Small voted against the bill and every phase of it whenever it was brought before the Senate for a vote. The senator voted against the present law straight down the line. Do those who are opposing Mr. Small tell you when the real bill was introduced, he voted against it all the way through?"

"Do those who oppose our senator tell you that it was he who wrote the gasoline tax refund bill which brings back to the farmers of the Panhandle almost a million dollars annually in tax refunds on gasoline used on the farm?"

"It depends entirely on us to elect a man who knows our needs and who is honest with the people he serves," he concluded.

At the conclusion of Sturgeon's remarks, a large number began calling for Judge Link to "clarify" matters. The Judge then mounted the truck and propounded to Sturgeon a number of questions which he did not deem it wise to answer, and sat in a car listening to Link's remarks as he proceeded to explain facts according to state records.

The crowd of about 150 was clearly an Allred majority crowd as may be judged by the applause when Judge Link explained the facts in the campaign as relating to Jimmie Allred.

The "rally" presented a "political anomaly" in that an Allred supporter supplied the truck for the Small speaker, and an Allred supporter introduced Mr. Sturgeon. The crowd was most respectful to the visitors throughout, orderly and quiet and merely demanded the facts before dispersing.

In reporting the rally here, the reporter for the Amarillo News adroitly omitted Judge Link's remarks in reply to Sturgeon though the reporter as well as Mr. Sturgeon remained to hear Judge Link's remarks.

Mrs. M. W. Mosley visited in the J. B. Mosley home at McLean Tuesday. Her grandson J. B. Jr. returned home with her for a short visit.
