FORMER RESIDENT REPORTED TO HAVE DIED IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

Unconfirmed reports, received here Wednesday by friends, were that Paul Hollingsworth, former Clarendon resident, had passed away in an Army hospital in Washington, D. C. last Thursday and his body was being sent to West Monroe, La. for burial.

No definite details could be learned by the Leader at press time in regard to the cause of death or funeral services.

Mr. Hollingsworth was an employee of the local Post Office for several months prior to leaving Clarendon early in 1947. He reentered the Air Corps soon after leaving here and had been stationed at Ft. Worth up until about two weeks ago. He held a Master Sergeant's rating. Paul was raised at West Monroe and graduated from the high school there and later attended Baylor University.

SERVICES TODAY AT McLEAN FOR MOTHER OF LOCAL MAN

Funeral services were set for 3 p. m. today at the McLean Baptist church for Mrs. M. D. Bentley, mother of Bill Bentley of this city.

Mrs. Bentley, age 71, passed away some time Tuesday afternoon apparently from a heart attack. She was feeling fine at the noon hour but was found dead in bed late in the afternoon by Mrs. Fred Bentley, a daughter-in-law who lives next door. Mrs. Bentley has been a resident of McLean since 1905 and has been a member of the First Baptist church for 32 years.

Surviving are her husband M. D. Bentley of McLean and two sons, Fred, also of McLean and Bill Bentley of Clarendon. Many here will remember Mr. and Mrs. Bentley celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary November 7th of last year.

POST OFFICE CLERK IN TEMPLE HOSPITAL

Ernest L. Hunt is in a Temple hospital. Information received by Mrs. Hunt Wednesday indicated that he would be home in about ten days following a minor sinus operation.

Relic Of Clarendon's Pioneer Days Bobs Up Again This Week

Early this week when the brick pavement began to develop a sink in the middle of the main street almost in front of the Beach Auto parts store, there was much speculation as to just what was causing the defect in the pavement.

Fate has a peculiar way of reminding folks of the hoary past. When workmen began removing the brick and foundation, they discovered a sink almost perfectly round and about eight feet deep that clearly resembled a well. No sooner had this information gained headway, than Mr. W. H. Patrick, president of the First National Bank and who has been employed on the same nearby corner for more than half a century, recalled that a well existed at that point in Clarendon's pioneer days. He described the well and fixtures in detail.

The postmaster J. C. Estlack came along, looked down the hole and declared that he watered his pony at a well in this location in 1889. At that time the rope used in the well had an oaken bucket on each end. The water trough was nearby at the southeast corner. He again stated that he watered a pony at the well in 1893 when a windmill was doing the job. Later the mill was removed and a pump installed. His story was later checked with that of Mr. Patrick, both men declaring the statements as being a matter of early history.

Then Miss Ann Bobo further report which is very much in dis-clined the historical fact by stating that water was hauled from this well to supply the famous Attebury hostelry north of the track, this well and the one at the southwest corner of the Courthouse Square being the source of water supply for the Attebury hotel.

Other old timers recall the well, a matter that had been forgotten by most of them until the caving incident developed.

Several loads of sand were brought in by trucks before the excavation was filled.

Major W. W. Buck, whose historical data is in keeping with western stories, stated that he and Mr. Buster Colwell had seen thousands of Indians get water at the well. Mr. Colwell could not be contacted today to verify this date since Major Buck did not state the number of Indians which he killed at the time the Indians were trying to drink the well dry to starve out the early settlers and thus compel them to return to northern regions from whence they came.

Crockett W. Taylor, long a resident of Clarendon, and who came here in the late 80's, was just as positive that no well existed, and that he doubted even the Indian story. The majority of the old timers are as one in stating that the well did exist, and the readers of your Donley County Leader can take it or leave it just as they wish.

Wonder what would happen if some of us had to live with someone with a disposition just like our own.

People seem so changeable, sometimes good, sometimes bad, depending mostly on which side of the bed that I get up on.

Quoting in part from a letter by Dr. J. A. Hill of Canyon, to the Graduate Club; not to me. "No man could have sweeter memories than mine. I see on the horizon the inevitable sunset. Will I be thought egotistical if I say it is beautiful? God and country have been good to me and mine. I love them both. I shall go down to the end with humble gratitude that through the offices of a kind Providence and the generosity of a country whose foundation is laid in the Christian virtues my "Lines have fallen in pleasant places." Great words from a good and great man.

A girl is taking a chance these days when she tries to pick a husband, but when she gets to the point that she has to take what is left, it's too bad. Anyway, I heard of one old maid that finally got engaged and her young niece was telling her that she didn't think she was doing very well with the man she was getting.

"Auntie," said the niece, "looks like you could do better than that?"

"Well," said her aunt, "go to yonder thicket and walk straight through it one time and bring me the straightest little tree that you can find." So off she ran and soon she was back with a very scrubby little sapling.

"Is this the best little tree that you saw," said Auntie.

"No," said the Niece. "I saw some nice ones at the start, but I kept thinking I would find a better one, but soon I was nearly out of the thicket and I had to pick one from the ones that were left."

"And so it was with me honey," and so it was.

This summer if I make any wheat, I will get real busy. If I make any money I will want to take a trip. How about the Editors of the Claude, Clarendon, Vega and Canadian papers doing a guest column each. Maybe Uncle Jay would do one, and George Young, and Mr. Nordyke. Maybe even Mr. Deering of the Farmer-Stockman. I wonder if they would volunteer or would we have to draft them. If anyone writes in and says that it would be a good idea, from the Readers' standpoint, I'll do it, if I never get to write the column again. Goodbye Uncle Zeb, goodbye. I hate to do it, but if the readers want it, I will. Goodbye Uncle Zeb.

I only hope the folks in Donley County enjoyed the Farm Bureau Supper as much as I did, and I did get that coconut pie. Was glad to meet Mr. Al Gerner, and all the other friends of the little column, and I hope they were not disappointed with me. I meant to make a date to eat watermelons with some of the folks this summer. I hope they ask me back then. Everyone was so nice; one lady, thinking that I was single offered to introduce me to some of the eligible ladies, but I had to confess about Mama. Anyway, thanks Mr. Holly Wood for the invitation, and best wishes to Donley County in the Farm Bureau queen contest. Thanks again.

Marilyn and Karlyn Stewart, small twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stewart underwent tonsilectomies Thursday at Amarillo. They are doing fine.

Annual Clean-Up Drive Set For Next Week, May 3-8

COMMUNITY "B" AND THE 1948 AAA PROGRAM

AAA Community "B" is that part of the county west of Clarendon around the Ashtola and Martin communities. 87 Worksheets cover the farms and ranches in this part of the county. The Committeemen who serve their neighbors in this AAA Community are: Pink M. Marshall, Pete Land and Willie D. Brandon.

Farmers and ranchers in Community "B", like those all over the county, know that it is not the planning but the actual carrying out of practices that gets the conservation job done. The conservation practices already under completion in Community "B" are as follows:

4200 pounds of Austrian Winter Peas seeded last fall on farms belonging to or being operated by H. S. Mahaffey, Pete Land, Geo. Bulman, Horace A. Green, Kermit Evans and Earl Hodnett. Edd Mills and Horace Green seeded 100 pounds of Hairy Vetch each. This is a new winter legume for this part of the state and producers all over the county are watching the results.

More than 15 miles of large ridge type terraces have been, or are now being, constructed on 8 farms. Those owned or operated by E. E. Patterson, Earl Hodnett, Raymond Waldrop, Kermit Evans, H. S. Mahaffey, J. E. Eastering, John Neyland and Guy Sibley. AAA has assisted in the payment for more than 4000 feet of diversion terraces constructed for O. T. Hill, Van Knox, J. E. Eastering and W. H. Morrow.

Since the specifications require that AAA assistance be offered on the drilling of wells only on ranches with more than 2 sections of non-crop pasture land, the McMurry Brothers and W. R. Kelley are the only producers who have asked for assistance on this practice.

Richard Cannon is constructing an earthen dam on his place and Mr. Mahaffey has seeded 6 kinds of pasture grasses this spring.

Everything that every farmer can do—with or without assistance of the AAA or other conservation programs—will not be too much. Although people in the United States are eating better now than they have in the past, it is not impossible that we may be at the turning point where production cannot keep up with population increases. Certainly we are speeding up that day when we will come to that turning point if we allow our land to get away from us. Every farmer has a responsibility to the county to do his part in saving our soil.

Because this problem is so serious, the AAA Program has been provided to help farmers get this job done. Farmers using this assistance are cooperating in a national fight to save the land to keep our soil producing the abundance needed to keep the nation well fed.

POISON 'HOPPERS EARLY SAYS COUNTY AGENT

It will only be a short time until grasshoppers will begin to hatch out and county agent H. M. Breedlove is asking that all farmers who notice hatches in numbers large enough to cause damage to poison them as soon as the hatch is noticed. "The time to kill grasshoppers with poison is when they first hatch out and cannot fly," he said.

MILK COWS TESTED FOR BANGS DISEASE

Many farmers, ranchers and dairymen have requested that they would like to have milk cows tested for bungs disease. H. M. Breedlove, county agent, is asking that every one wanting cows tested for bungs disease to call by his office so that he can have a list of all persons requesting this service and get the cows tested all in one day. The cattle are tested by the assistant state veterinarian and a charge of two dollars per head is requested for the testing.

Breedlove says that as soon as he gets a sufficient number of people requesting the testing of cows that the work can be done.

WILL REMEMBER THE DATE SEOUL, KOREA — Army Day, 1948, is a date which Maj. and Mrs. Frederick E. Herrick of 1606 Grove Avenue, Lake Charles, La., will long remember. On April 6, their first child, named Helen Elizabeth Herrick, was born at the 34th General Hospital here. Major Herrick is officer-in-charge of the XXIV Corps Communications Center, 76th Signal Service Battalion, United States Army Forces in Korea. His wife is the former Margaret Joy McCann.

Every person in Clarendon is urged to participate in the Clean-Up Week campaign which is slated for all next week.

People are being asked to clean-up their stores and alleys, their homes, yards and alleys and to assist in cleaning up vacant lots in order that we may have a cleaner and more decent place in which to live.

Gather up all the old tin cans, bottles and other refuse that cannot be burned around your place and have it piled up at the end of the alley behind your home by Monday morning, May 10th at which time the City truck will make a complete round of the city and pick up everything that is placed out to be hauled off.

The City is cooperating in every detail but desire that everyone understand that they will only make one trip to each section of town and if you don't have your trash placed as designated above, you will be required to haul it off yourself. The latter statement is mandatory and some type of action will be taken if the trash is not hauled off, the city officials stated.

They pointed out also that everyone is to stop using the city ditch as a dump ground and the same mandatory measures will be followed in this case. They stated that it was their intention to use every method required to keep the City of Clarendon just as clean and sanitary as possible.

Almost every citizen has a wholesome pride in his home city, its streets, parks and buildings. Homes and surroundings freshly painted, with well-kept lawns and gardens increase property value and intensify community interest. Cleanliness creates faith, courage and confidence, and insures healthy living conditions.

Thorough spring house cleaning for city and home is being encouraged at this time as real hot weather is not far off and that is the time when more serious diseases and epidemics crop out. Good housekeeping and ordinary sanitary principles indicate the necessity of prompt removal of all waste material in and around the neighborhood of yards and homes to lessen the spread of disease, notably diseases effecting infants and children.

In our environment hygiene, don't forget that the accumulation of the winter's debris represents a distinct menace to the health, particularly to little children. At home the yard should be carefully cleaned from the front to and including the alley. All accumulated weeds, leaves, tin cans and other trash should be collected; all burned that can be burned and the remainder placed where the City truck can pick it up and haul it away, for it is such places that flies lay their eggs and rear their young. The common fly does not have a long flight range, so it is possible for a neighborhood to free itself from this pest. In fact the absence or presence of flies is an excellent indication of the sanitary condition and attitude of the neighborhood, it was revealed by a health official recently.

"Let us all enter this city-wide clean-up program here in Clarendon next week, determined to make our city a healthy place to live, and one that we will be proud to say is "Our Town," one city official stated.

WANTS FRIENDS TO KNOW HOW RETONGA AIDED HIM

"Every Bite I Ate Seemed To Turn Against Me," States Mr. Lee McClung, Who Found Retonga to be Everything Claimed for It. Tells of his Case.

"When I find something good, I like for my friends to know about it, and that's the way I feel about Retonga," says Mr. Lee McClung, prominent Hill County farmer who lives at 101 Smith St., Hillsboro, Texas. He gratefully states:

"Every bite of food I ate seemed to turn against me and form terrific gas pressure in my stomach. I suffered tortures from sharp, cutting pains in the pit of my stomach and at times it would seem to swell up as tight as a drum. At night it seemed to be worse and at times I thought the pressure would cut off my breath. I was on edge most of the time and I couldn't seem to get a good night's sleep. In the mornings I had to drag myself out of bed.

"I certainly found Retonga to be everything claimed for it and I'm thankful for the prompt relief it gave me. I can eat anything I want to now and not have to worry about that gas forming on my stomach. Once more I know what a good night's sleep can mean to a fellow, and I don't feel on edge like I did. I'm more than glad to recommend Retonga to anyone suffering like I did."

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, borderline Vitamin B-1 deficiency, and constipation. The active ingredients of Retonga are purely herbal, combined with Vitamin B-1. You can get Retonga at Rexall Drug Store.—Adv.

CITY-COUNTY LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

The Library has been a busy place the past ten days as it is necessary to arrange the sections alphabetically. This requires considerable time and much dusty work. Mrs. Roy Long, and Mrs.

Bushnack have generously contributed their time several afternoons in helping arrange the books of fiction shelves, and this section will likely be completed this week.

The readers will be delighted with several contributions received recently. "The Ides of March" by Thornton Wilder has headed the fiction list in the New York Times Book Section for three weeks, and was also a late book of the month selection. Mrs. Edith Speed Barnes gave her copy to the Library last week. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bain dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Sayre, "Living Biographies of Great Composers" by Henry Thomas and Dona Lee Thomas. This will be enjoyed by both grown-ups and students. The Mothers' Club gave a cash donation the past week that was applied immediately on an order for some juvenile material for both boys and girls. Then a memorial fund check in memory of Mrs. Burton will aid in supplementing this list. Mrs. Burton thoroughly enjoyed her work with children and students.

The children's corner has quite a few attractive books. It was necessary to use about forty dollars to supply the needs there, as these books are not only expensive, but poorly bound. At present the little tots' corner is a colorful array of animal stories, and tales of little folks. It is quite amusing to watch them select their books and turn to say "Mother, I haven't read this Peter Rabbit, or this Sallie Mandy, have I?" You see Mother reads to them, and they think they have read them. In fact they can reproduce the story very clearly in most instances.

This has been the week again, and the material was not equal to the demand. Some day we may possess a dictionary that is a recent unabridged edition, but I wanted one at South Ward about twenty years and it is not there yet. A Copy of "Who's Who" would be useful too. These dreams will all be realized some day, and I am happy that Mrs. Burton's efforts resulted in developing a Library that is a solution to so many needs of our town. Books are such wonderful companions to acquaint ones self with daily.

SILENT AS A PRAIRIE NIGHT

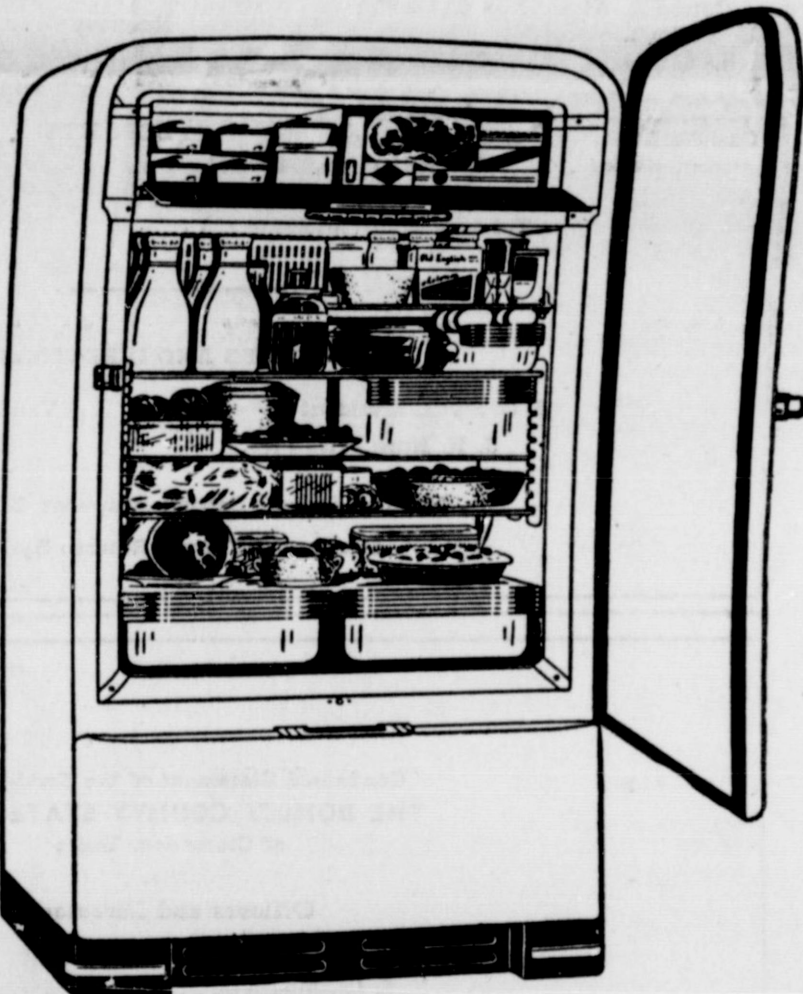

SERVEL Stays Silent Because It Freezes With No Moving Parts!

Come see it—the famous Servel Gas Refrigerator with no motor, no valves, no piston or pump, no machinery, in its freezing system. Just a tiny natural (or liquid) gas flame does the work—with no noise, no wear. So Servel IS silent . . . STAYS silent. And, too, because the Servel Gas Refrigerator has no moving parts in its freezing system there's nothing to grind . . . to wear out. So Servel is longer lasting.

But that's not all . . . with Servel's silence and long life you also get the beauty of modern Servel styling. For Servel is beautiful . . . and, practical, too! It has every new convenience to save you marketing time, make food storage easier. Fresh foods and frozen foods are right at home in a Servel Gas Refrigerator retaining the wholesomeness and freshness so necessary to good, tasty eating.

More than two million families (thousands in the Panhandle) are enjoying silent Servel Gas Refrigeration today. Ask any of them, and they'll say, "Pick Servel. We know from experience, it stays silent, lasts longer!"

And, for those of us in the Panhandle, Servel's operating cost is so small as to be almost negligible. That's because we are fortunately situated near the heart of the world's largest gas fields and so enjoy gas rates which are among the lowest in the entire nation.

CO-OP TRACTOR TIRES
CONTROLLED: QUALITY — PRICE — CONSTRUCTION

The unusual lug design of this big husky tire is what gives your tractors more pull, less waste motion. Firmly buttressed to the heavy undertread, these deep rectangular lugs are powerfully braced to give extra years of service. They bite in, they forge ahead, regardless of soil conditions.

Each lug meets the soil squarely, assuring a full bite of the tread from shoulder to shoulder.

Scientific spacing and curvature of the lugs forces mud and clay out as the wheel turns. Mud pockets don't form. You get positive traction in any type of soil.

Strong plies of powerful cord fabric give this tire the inner strength to support the massive lugs, take punishing treatment without weakening of the tire.

TRANSPORTATION OF SCHOOL CHILDREN, A BIG BUSINESS

AUSTIN—Public school busses travel Texas roads a distance equal to 2,160 trips around the world every nine months. The 6,074 busses which transported 346,051 pupils traveled a distance of 54,000,000 miles during the 1946-47 school year.

That transportation of school children is a big business was pointed out by Charles H. Tennyson, public relations director of the Texas State Teachers Association. During the 1946-47 school year there were 6,074 busses driven by 5,750 men and women. They were paid approximately $3,000,000 for their services. While 238,821 of the pupils are attending schools receiving supplemental support from the state in the form of equalization funds, 107,230 are in districts which receive no additional help from the state. The state supplemented transportation aid last year in the amount of $9,702,040, Tennyson said.

Persons seeing an occasional yellow bus on the highway, or even parents of children transported to and from school, can hardly realize the magnitude of the public schools' transportation system, Tennyson pointed out.

A total of 230 of the state's 254 counties have school districts which own and operate their own school busses, he said.

"The development of the public school transportation system is the result of the public's demand for better educational facilities for their children," Tennyson emphasized. "Should Texas ever get a good rural road system, our schools will improve proportionately. Many of our schools with their present inadequate teaching and physical facilities will then have modern efficient school systems for the youngsters of the state. An increase in the school bus transportation system in Texas is, therefore, inevitable, for each year a great many more schools consolidate and the development of county-wide districts is becoming more common in Texas. The cost of our transportation system will of necessity increase accordingly. Hundreds of our present school busses are both inadequate and unsafe, a condition which we hope to see remedied as soon as possible."

SKYLINE TIDINGS

By DODO
(the flightless bird)

With the wind and rain there still has been lots of activity going on at the old airport this week.

Mr. Joe Jones and Mr. Clyde Cope flew to Dallas Tuesday morning to get repairs for his Luscombe.

Weldon Busnach received his private license Wed. Congrats. Busnach!

We had more Stinsons cluttering up the field last Wed. night. There were ten of them forced down due to the thunder storms. They remained over night and you probably heard them when they left Thurs. morning.

The only thing that flew out here last Sat. was the dust and the wind.

Sunday was a very busy day at the field. There was quite a bit of local activity going on at the field. Mr. L. L. Wallace had his wife up trying to convince her that this flying wasn't so bad. She is just a little shy on the turns. That airplane is not going to fall just because you tilt it a little, Mary.

A group of pilots from the field flew down to the Mousier ranch and landed on the new field there. Even Gene Bryan made it in safe!

Matt Taylor made a business trip to Pampa and Vega Sunday morning in John Jay's BT-13.

Mr. Joe Jones and Dr. Winton Welch went to Amarillo and took their physical exams for commercial pilots. The doctor says that they will live another year now! Ten bucks, please.

When are we going to get that breakfast down on the ranch, Willard. I am getting hungry again!

Quinn Aten of Lelia Lake has really taken to this flying like a duck to the water. We are glad to see you interested, Quinn.

Texans Asked To Give Freely To Cancer Fund

HOUSTON — Texans are contributing $268,200 to cancer control work in their own state. That's the amount sought for use in Texas by the Texas Division of the American Cancer Society, which during April is campaigning for a total of $447,000 in the state. The remainder will go for a national research program ($111,750) and the national education program and operational costs ($67,050). But 60 per cent of the money Texans are asked to give will be used for information centers and cancer clinics in Texas, according to former governor W. P. Hobby, state chairman for the fund drive. Nine tumor and cancer clinics in the state are now being assisted by cancer society funds. Others are being opened, and very shortly officials expect every section of Texas to have a convenient clinic for the early detection and treatment of cancer. In many of these same cities information centers are open—in Texarkana and El Paso and other cities all across the state. New ones are being planned every month—these all to be supported by the April drive. It's all part of a program designed to tell people that many cancers can be cured, if caught in time. Cancer Society people feel that folks who have cancer now should not wait for present-day research to find a cure, but should act immediately. So they're emphasizing the fact that many cancers can be cured with what we now know, and that there are certain specific danger signals which often indicate cancer. If these are obeyed, cancers can be removed by surgery, X-ray, or use of radium, and many a life spared. These information centers are the first part of the cancer service paid for in Texas by contributions to the society. Patients who receive the information and go to their doctors for his examination are referred to cancer clinics for diagnosis. If they are unable to pay for treatment then such treatment is arranged for them, and after their cancer is removed a Cancer Society representative maintains contact with them for at least five years. And if it is needed, care is furnished them in their own homes. Mr. Hobby announced that a campaign organization has been completed in nearly all of the state's 254 counties, and that workers are making progress in their two-fold plan to raise funds and tell the truth about cancer at the same time. Prominent businessmen, club women, civic workers, and professional men are county chairmen throughout the state. Local bankers serve as depositories, keeping all funds collected locally until those funds are turned in to the state treasurer. Reuben Harmon of San Angelo visited in the home of his parents last week, who have been ill. Mrs. Earnest Wilson and little daughter visited Mrs. Sam Lowe Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Thompson were in Memphis Sunday. Mrs. Frank Bourland and Mrs. Ross were Amarillo visitors Tues. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bourland visited relatives in Wellington Sunday. Mrs. F. G. Patching was taken ill and was taken to St. Anthony Wednesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Williams of Amarillo visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank White Sr. Sunday. Mr. F. A. White returned home Friday from a trip to South Tex. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Christian of Claude were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank White Sr. Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Drew Wilkenson of Pampa visited with Mrs. Sam Lowe. Arline Dozier of Amarillo visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dozier and friends the weekend. Mrs. Monica Harvey was in Amarillo Wednesday for medical treatment. Mr. Horace B. Hill is at Carey this week attending to business. Bill Todd and J. G. McAnear are attending the Furniture Convention at Dallas this week. Mrs. Ruby Bromley attended lectures of the "new look" hair styling given by Peter Raffa of Denver, at Amarillo Sunday and Monday.
