

Commission May Designate Road Through County

Delegation From Brownwood Joins San Antonio Delegation in Asking Action.

Delegation from Brownwood has made a strong case for the designation of the highway through the county. Judge W. R. ...

...the state highway commission ... Monday of this week seeking designation of the road from Brownwood south to Richland as a state highway.

...people from the three counties appeared before the commission ... Monday of this week seeking designation of the road from Brownwood south to Richland as a state highway.

...the commission, however, the new designations should be completed of a number of roads already designated but not yet given the applicants.

...the commission gave considerable consideration to the route proposed by Leo Ehlinger, district attorney, and spent much time in discussing the merits of the proposition, but failed to take any action.

...O. B. Martin, commissioner from San Antonio, appeared before the commission and secured details for Brown county farmers, although it was emphasized by Cobb that the plan may be modified later.

...As tentatively set up in the plan, land rentals will be paid on retired cotton acres at the rate of 3 cents per pound for the average five-year production. Land producing an average of 125 pounds of lint per acre for the years 1928-32, for instance, would be entitled to a rental of $3.75 per acre.

...The minimum payment would be $2.25 per acre for a production of 75 pounds of lint per acre, and the highest would be $14.00 per acre. Land rental payments are expected to go to land owners, with landowners making satisfactory arrangements with tenants.

...In the case of large properties where fewer tenants may be needed next year the Government will probably urge landlords to allow the dismissed tenants to remain in their houses and to work food and feed crops for their living out of the retired acres.

Clubs and Bullets End Arab Riot in Palestine

Galloping through the streets of Jaffa, Palestine, a swinging long clubs at turbaned Arabs, finally opening fire as some of the 8000 rioters themselves drew guns, British police finally quelled one of the bloodiest of the anti-Jewish demonstrations in the Holy Land. This picture, rushed by airplane to London and transmitted to this country by Bartine process over Western Union cables, shows police dispersing a group of Arabs in hand-to-hand fighting. Note the wounded at upper left. Twelve were killed and 110 wounded in the two-hour battle which began as an Arab protest against increasing Jewish immigration.

County To Gain $25,000 Through CWA Truck Hire

Brown county this week gained something more than $25,000 in Civil Works money through action of the members of the commissioners court in going to Austin and securing approval of the state Civil Works Administration to pay for truck and team hire from the civil works money. This is the estimate of County Judge Courtney Gray, who headed the group appearing before the state organization Monday. With him were all members of the commissioners court and a number of interested Brown county citizens, including President Gus Rosenberg and Secretary Chester Harrison of the Brownwood chamber of commerce.

"It will cost approximately $400 a day to hire trucks and teams for the civil works projects in Brown county," Judge Gray stated. "The present program calls for eleven weeks of work, and at $2,400 a week this will mean that $26,400 additional money will be spent in this county."

More important than the actual money saved, the action of the state body means that the work will be carried through as planned. Up to this time trucks and teams were paid by the commissioners in the various precincts from their road and bridge funds.

"We have on hand only about enough money to run for 15 days," said Chas. B. Palmer, commissioner of Precinct 4, where eight teams and eight trucks are at work. "The road and bridge fund then would have been depleted, and we have no funds with which to carry out our part of the program." Nearly 100 men are working in Mr. Palmer's precinct.

The same situation existed in all other precincts in the county.

TIME TO BUY NEW AUTO LICENSES IS ALMOST HERE AGAIN

The new 1934 automobile licenses will be put on sale in Brown county December 1, by County Tax Collector Lee Meek. Owners of automobiles that have been licensed for 1933 can purchase the new plates any time after the first of the month, but they must not be attached to the automobile, according to the wording of the law, until after the first of the year.

Those registering new automobiles after December 1, must pay the tax for the one month of 1933, before they can purchase the 1934 license, Mr. Meek explained. A 1933 receipt must be presented before the new plates will be issued.

Farmers Tax Cheaper
Farmers who own trucks, and who use them exclusively to bring their products to market, or to carry supplies from town to their home for their own use, by making an affidavit that this is the only use to which they put their trucks, may secure a 50 per cent reduction in the truck license fee, next year, Mr. Meek stated. The last legislature passed this law, which will cut the license cost of trucks for farmers in half, and it is now in operation, but for 1933, applies only to such trucks as have not been in use this year.

The new plates were received by Mr. Meek's office some time ago, and everything is in readiness for the annual registration rush. The new plates are orange background, with numerals in black. This county has been allotted 5,800 sets of plates, numbered from 119-001 to 124-800.

The 1934 truck licenses, which also have been received by the tax collector, are reversed as to color of passenger vehicle plates. The truck plates have a black background and orange numerals. There are 950 sets of the truck plates.

Other plates are: 6 motor bus plates with numbers from 176 to 180; 175 trailer and tractor plates, 3471 to 3645; 25 dealers plates, 717 to 741; 15 motorcycle plates, 602 to 616; 3 side care plates, 163 to 165; 75 chauffeur badges, 2231 to 2305.

Provisions Of CWA Work Given By Local Board

Provisions under which Civil Works Administration projects are being undertaken in Brown county were outlined this week in a statement from the Brown county administration board. The statement, in substance, follows:

The purpose of the President as outlined at Washington is to get entirely away from the dole, and put to useful work all unemployed men. The goal in Texas is to put 191,000 men to work by December 1.

Under the Civil Works Administration plan, work projects to be approved must be socially and economically desirable, of a permanent nature and of benefit to the community.

Men employed must work directly under the supervision of the city or county authorities. Men to be employed must be enrolled under the National Re-employment Service. When assigned to duty under civil authorities they may be discharged for inefficiency or other just cause by the officials under whom they work, and when so discharged, cannot again be put on the rolls. However, they have the right of appeal to the county administrative board.

None of the funds can be used for the construction of buildings. The funds may be used for repair of rural school buildings, but not for construction on such buildings. Only projects will be approved that can be started quickly. Except for men occupying executive or supervisory positions no man may work more than 30 hours in any one week.

No one under 16 years of age may be employed. The maximum of human labor shall be employed in lieu of machinery.

Each of the community clubs has held its own Achievement Day and each has elected officers for the new year. New officers of the county council will be installed at this time.

Following is the program for the Brownwood program:

BROWN COUNTY WHEAT CONTRACTS APPROVED

All applications for wheat contracts from Brown county farmers were approved this week by the board of review at Fort Worth, according to word brought back from Fort Worth by County Agent C. W. Lehmburg, who spent the first part of the week in that city in the interest of Brown county wheat growers. Mr. Lehmburg returned to his office Wednesday.

A total of 136 wheat farmers in this county made applications for contracts with the government to reduce their 1934 wheat acreage and Mr. Lehmburg stated that the board of review praised the manner in which the local community committees had handled the applications in this county.

Now that the applications have been approved, a revised budget will be drawn up by the central committee for this county, and forwarded to Washington for approval. After this, the contracts will be issued to farmers in this county, and first payment of 20 cents a bushel on the 1933 crop will be made. An additional payment will be made about June, 1934, according to plans announced from Washington.

28 CARS TURKEYS MOVE TO MARKET

Twenty-eight cars of turkeys were shipped from Brownwood during the past week to Eastern Thanksgiving market. The shipments represented approximately 50,000 turkeys.

Price for the Thanksgiving market was somewhat lower than had been expected and many growers held their birds back for the Christmas market. This was encouraged by buyers where the birds failed to grade No. 1. Dressing for the Christmas market will begin about December 4.

PECAN GROWERS TO HOLD MEETING IN BRADY NEXT WEEK

The West Texas Pecan Growers' Association will hold its second annual show and convention in Brady, Tuesday and Wednesday, November 28 and 29, according to announcement of officers. An interesting and instructive program has been arranged, and the pecan show will be one of the best ever held in Texas, surpassing the annual pecan show at the State Fair of Texas.

W. T. Millican of The Bend is president of the association, and Miss Elma Petty of Brownwood is secretary.

H. G. Lucas of Brownwood, is president of the National Pecan Marketing Association, will be on the program Wednesday discussing "Building a Marketing System for Pecans."

Projects For Added Work Are Prepared

Engineer Leo Ehlinger this week had completed plans for eight additional county projects to be submitted for construction under the direction of the Civil Works Administration, using CWA labor. The projects include all important lateral highways, and all school bus and mail routes in the county that were not included in the first projects submitted from this county.

The projects call for expenditure of $5,000 each for labor, with additional sums for truck and team hire. They will be kept here until called for by the Civil Works office at Austin, under whose direction they were drawn up.

You've heard much about coming-out parties for social debutantes, and you'll soon learn what's really back of them when you see the new film being prepared on the advice of Alice Leon Moats, above. Miss Moats is a former "deb" herself, and an authority on social behavior.

LEGION DRIVE IS GAINING MEMBERS

Isham A. Smith Post, American Legion, now has more than 75 per cent as many members for 1934 as were enrolled during the entire year of 1933, according to figures compiled by John A. Collins, post commander. The drive for membership will end Saturday, November 25, and it is hoped that by that date the local post will have secured more members than during 1933.

A movement is on foot to charge an initiation fee for new members and all who have dropped out of the legion through non-payment of dues for one or more years, Collins stated.

At the present time, the annual dues are the same whether a member paid last year or not. Many are thus encouraged to drop out for a year or two and come in only when the legion is conducting some financial drive of benefit to the ex-service men, such as the bonus fight of a few years ago, which brought many into the fold, Collins pointed out.

By charging an initiation fee continuous payment of dues each year would be encouraged.

SANTA FE SENDS CHECK FOR TAXES

The Santa Fe railway has forwarded Brown county a check for $10,218.91 in full payment of 1933 state, county and school taxes. The check was received recently by Lee Meek, tax collector. The railway company is the largest taxpayer in the county, and always is prompt in making full payment of taxes. Check for city taxes also was received recently from the Santa Fe.

Collections this year have been better than last year by 50 per cent, Mr. Meek said this week. There has been a marked improvement in the payment of both current taxes and back taxes.

New Cotton Plan To Be Based On Rental of Land

Price of Rental to Range From $2.25 to $14 per Acre; Based On Average Yield.

The new cotton plan to be offered growers who sign government contracts for 1934-35 provides for total payments of $120,000,000. Of this, 90 millions are to be paid in the form of land rentals, and 30 millions in "parity" payments, according to the explanation given county agents at the annual meeting of county agents in College Station last week, by C. A. Cobb, chief of the cotton section of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. C. W. Lehmburg, county agent of Brown county, attended the meeting and secured details for Brown county farmers, although it was emphasized by Cobb that the plan may be modified later.

As tentatively set up in the plan, land rentals will be paid on retired cotton acres at the rate of 3 cents per pound for the average five-year production. Land producing an average of 125 pounds of lint per acre for the years 1928-32, for instance, would be entitled to a rental of $3.75 per acre. The minimum payment would be $2.25 per acre for a production of 75 pounds of lint per acre, and the highest would be $14.00 per acre.

Land rental payments are expected to go to land owners, with landowners making satisfactory arrangements with tenants. In the case of large properties where fewer tenants may be needed next year the Government will probably urge landlords to allow the dismissed tenants to remain in their houses and to work food and feed crops for their living out of the retired acres. For other necessities tenants may be able to work as day laborers for the landlord.

The "parity" payment promised is one cent per pound for 30 per cent of the average five-year production. It may be more. There is expected to be 30 millions of dollars available for these parity payments on 6 million bales of cotton, or $5 per bale. This money is to be divided between the landlord and tenant according to their existing share agreements. A third and fourth tenant, for example, would get three fourths of this payment or about $3.75 per allotted bale.

Mr. Cobb expressed the belief that full details of the new plan will be available in the counties late in November and asked county agents to complete the sign-up campaign by January 15th.

Bailey and Connally

Interest in state politics in Texas took on new life this week with the announcement of Joseph Weldon Bailey, Jr., that he would oppose Tom Connally for the United States Senate in the 1934 elections.
The announcement was not unexpected, but the interest it created is evidenced by the fact that almost every Sunday newspaper in Texas displayed the news promi-nently on page one.

Within the past fifty years there have been three dominant personalities in Texas politics, each occupying the center of the stage for a time. Jim Hogg, Joe Bailey and Jim Ferguson have commanded personal followings in three politically successive generations that have made personalities loom larger than issues in the eyes of Texan voters for the past half century. Hogg lived to see political leadership wrested from him by the legislator from the old Fifth Texas district, whose melodious voice and charming personality appealed to the imagination of his fellow Texans even more than his profound knowledge of governmental affairs. Hogg combated Joe Bailey till the last, and almost from his death bed issued a defy to his political enemy and a call to his followers to defeat the Balley issues and candidates. Bailey in turn, finally saw his own followers fall away under the sway of an argument pitched to the key of the man "at the forks of the creek," and while Bailey's loss of power in Texas was in no wise the result of his disagreement with Jim Ferguson, he often deplored the personal following attracted to the Ferguson banner. A magnificent figure in state and national politics, Bailey never lost an election until his ill-advised race for governor, in which he was defeated by Pat Neff.

Such is the background from which the young Joe Bailey steps into the state political picture. Two years ago he was the leading candidate among some 30 or more for congressmen-at-large, and since he previously had been an unknown it is evident that he bears a name that must be reckoned with, even now.

What the outcome will be in Bailey's campaign against Tom Connally cannot be predicted at the present time, but Texas is sure to witness an interesting political campaign, possessing much of the flavor of the campaigns of old. Connally is a distinguished figure, an able campaigner, a worthy senator. He will not relinquish his seat without a struggle with his young antagonist. And many issues will be brought forth.

Prohibition will be the main issue between the two at the outset, and since it is occupying so much the minds of voters at the present time, it may dominate the campaign. It is to be hoped that it does not, for there are many other, and more important, problems that should be decided.

Both candidates go into the field with apparent weaknesses. Bailey had an opportunity to heal the Bailey-Ferguson breach and become the Ferguson candidate, but he muffed this opportunity at the convention of the repeal forces in Austin earlier in the year, and the end of the convention found Ferguson more than ever before outspokenly Anti-Bailey. Whether prohibition forces will force a fusion of these two camps remains to be seen, but Bailey will be handicapped without the Ferguson support.

Bailey's position on NRA legislation also leaves much to be desired. He was not a supporter of President Roosevelt's recovery program as he sat as a member of the lower house, and those who believe the President was right surely cannot believe that Bailey is entitled to advancement to the senate.

As for Senator Connally, he has three vulnerable positions at the outset. His opposition to veteran legislation more than a year ago antagonized the ex-service men of the state. His lukewarm stand for prohibition was very unsatisfactory to ardent prohibitionists, and his amusing conduct as chairman of the committee investigating the Overton election in Louisiana leaves him open to ridicule, the most disheartening thing any candidate for any office must face.

At this time, the race for United States Senator bids fair to overshadow all other campaigns in Texas as the new election year swings into view, and from present indications, it is going to be a hot campaign that will prove of interest to all Texans.

Pessimists and Optimists

The Houston Post remarks editorially that "unfortunately, there are too many of two kinds of people—congenital pessimists and inherent optimists—and both, in the extremity of their opinion, have been profoundly impressed by the NRA." The natural consequence of such extreme opinion is described as "a sour wagging of heads by the chronic creak hangers and a lot of joyful rope skipping by the children of sweetness and light both being premature."

"To those who neither considered the new deal damned at the outset nor felt it was the millennium," the Post declares there is "much for assurance and satisfaction" and counsels sober-thinking people to "stop and take stock." Reports from thoroughly reliable sources, which none has denied show very conclusively "neither a dark promise that the country is headed for the abyss nor a bright promise that a new Golden Age will dawn with the morrow, but there is sufficient indication of ultimate recovery to moderate the fallacious opinions of the extremists, so that they may share with the average American a spirit of increased faith."

It summarizes that upwards of 4,000,000 men have been returned to living wage; that total pay rolls in reporting factories increased from $1,156,000,000 last March to $1,468,000,000 in September, a rise of about 30 percent. Prices have risen 12 percent, thus reducing the net wage rate to 78 percent. An increase of 27.9 percent in the employment index from a year ago is of record, with an attendant rise of 43 percent in factory pay rolls which amounts to $40,000,000 more in weekly envelopes. Automobile sales increased 150 percent, and other increases in commodity consumption were: Wool, 210 percent; cotton, 115 percent; pig iron, 245 percent. Business failures fell from 502 in the last week of October, 1932, to 257 for the last week of October, 1933, compared with the 5-year average of 457 per week for the period 1928-1932. And farm prices in October and early November are steadily ascending wheat being around 81 cents from 45 cents a year ago. In the same period cotton has come up from 6.4 to 9.5, oats from 26 to 46, rye from 47 to 80, with a crop shortage due.

"There you have a picture of progressive recovery, slow but steady," says the Post, and adds:
"Recall what the President said:
'Our troubles will not be over tomorrow, but we are on our way.' What is needed is not extremists either ballyhoo boys or mourners at the national bier, but Americans with patience, forever firm in the faith."

Minerals fed sows by 4-H club boys in Wheeler county are proving wonders to the dads according to the county agent who reports 179 farm boys raising club pigs.

Because she made and sold 250 cakes this year in the Home Demonstration Club market in Sulphur Springs, Mrs. Roy Matthews has been able to purchase a new oil range.

State certified cotton seed made 5.1 bales of cotton on 7 acres for Richard Weischell of Garfield, De-Witt county, reports the county agent. He stored the seed separately until after ginning season and then ginned it clean for next year's seed.

TEXAS FARM NEWS

COLLEGE STATION—A "bought in Texas, used in Texas" plan for supplying needy Texans beef this winter has been worked out by C.
X. Crane, of the Federal Emergency Relief Corporation, Lawrence Westbrook, of the Texas Relief Commission, and the Extension Service of Texas A. and M. College. As explained to county farm and home demonstration agents in their annual meeting here last week it is planned to buy six million or more pounds of beef from Texas farmers for slaughter and canning at 15 to 20 central points located in the heart of areas where relief is most needed.

Texas is the first and only state to try out this plan of supplying its own needy from its own resources with money supplied from Federal funds, Mr. Crane said. If it succeeds the plan may be used in purchases of butter, and eggs and possibly other food stuffs.

Federal relief authorities have allocated about $500,000 to Texas for the purchase of beef this winter above regular requisitions, and this money, less a small administrative expense, will be paid Texas farmers and ranchers for 20,000 or more fat cutter cows. Regular market prices will be paid but the saving in freight and commission due to the fact the slaughtering will be done in the areas where the cattle are bought will be given to the producers. Purchasers are to be distributed as widely as possible over the state and between farmers.

Purchases are to be allocated to counties and experienced buyers are to be employed to do the buying. All slaughtering is to be done by commercial killers at points where there are slaughter and re-there are R. F. C. canneries. At transportation.

The unemployed are to be given jobs in these canneries which are to help in securing the supply of cat-thousands of demonstrations by county agents. Meat will be canned into roasts, stew, hamburgers, chili and hash.

in the corn-hog adjustment program according to advice received from the Agricultural Adjustment Administration by E. M. Regen-

Texas hog farmers may sign corn-

The new corn-hog plan calls for a 20 per cent cut in the corn acre-

WOMEN MARKETERS TO MEET SATURDAY

Members of the Brown county marketing association for poultry products will meet Saturday at 10 o'clock in the office of Miss Mayesie Malone, home demonstration agent. It was announced this week.

The organization was formed about one year ago by women in the county who have canned poultry products for sale. Work during the past year has been largely along lines of building up a sufficient quantity of products to interest buyers, and also in standardizing the packing and the products so that he products of all members would be uniform.

Recently the products of the women of this county have been approved and can now be marketed under the A-H label. Approval was given by Texas A. & M. College.

A large quantity of poultry products now has been canned and is available for sale. The Saturday meeting will be for the purpose of discussing prices for the products and market outlets.

The order for Brown county canned products has been increased by the organization, through A. & M. college. It is hoped to interest local merchants in marketing the products and selling them at retail to Brownwood and Brown county buyers.

Mrs. E. A. Daniels is president of the association, the first cooperative marketing organization formed in Brown county, and Mrs. E. D. Kirkpatrick is secretary.

MAKING Smart CLOTHES

HERE you have a choice of two grand coats in one pattern. That's what we call a bargain. The coat on the left is the one you should go for if you want to use fox or some other long haired fur. As you see it has the new boya collar which is the smartest way of massing your fur close to your throat as you should this season. The coat on the right will win if you are going to use a short haired fur such as Persian lamb or mink. You may also trim this coat very effectively with fabric fur. It has a ripply ascot scarf and interesting detail at the sleeve top worked out in the fur. This pattern may be bought at your favorite department store.

Beauty Brevities

Hot oil hair-and-scalp treatments are twice as effective if steaming is a part of the process. Give the hair a rousing brushing, strand by strand, holding the hair away from the head. Part it at various places. Along the parting trickle hot olive or mineral oil, using a large medicine dropper for the purpose. Follow with a friction until your elbows ache. Then wrap over the head a Turkish towel that has been wrung out of hot water.

After three steamings, cover the head with a dry towel, go to bed. In the morning shampoo with melted soap and use a bath spray for the rinsing.

Leftovers Have Possibilities

"Anyone can be a fancy cook, but it takes a good cook to be a plain cook." Nowhere is this homely saying more true than in the use of leftovers. It is the person who can transform the bits of this and that, that are tucked away in the refrigerator after a meal, into interesting dishes next day, who deserves the credit for being a truly good cook and good manager.

Often we are admonished not to add too many expensive foods to refurbish a small amount of left-over food—and this is good advice too—for it is not necessary—it is the skill in combining and seasoning that determines the success of left-over dishes—"the touch of this and that"—the combination of seasonings that matters. If the food to be used does not have a distinctive and definite flavor, it must be highly seasoned in its next appearance—if it tends to be dry, it must have something added to moisten it. Nowhere is the ingenuity of the cook so tested as in planning and serving left-over dishes. And nothing will be as great a help to you in doing it as a shelf supplied with spicy condiments, such as tomato ketchup, Worcestershire sauce—the masculine favorite—prepared mustard and other condiments.

Below are a few suggestions that will be helpful:

COLD SLICED MEAT
Slice the cold meat and place it in a frying pan with a small amount of butter; brown very

Eating Alone May Prove To Be Task

Somehow, it seems to be psychologically impossible for a woman to cook a decent meal for herself when she's alone. A man, faced with cooking a solitary dinner, will pitch in and broil himself a whole steak, cook potatoes and make coffee. (Such a meal, incidentally, is a man's idea of heaven. If men were left to themselves they would probably live exclusively on steak and potatoes.)

But women are so glad to be relieved of a meal now and then they prefer to get along on ice-box pickins rather than do any cooking. This is all very well if it doesn't happen too often, but women who eat solitary lunches every day in the week must have adequate nourishment.

One bright woman has gotten around the problem rather neatly. She has a bowl of breakfast food for lunch, with milk or cream or half-and-half. If she has fruit in the house, such as peaches, bananas, or berries she adds those. If there is a bit of hash left from last night's dinner, or creamed chipped beef, she serves it over a split shredded wheat biscuit. And there is only one dish to wash. Although she supplements with whatever she may find in the ice box, shredded wheat is always the mainstay of the meal, and she is sure of getting all the vital elements in 100 per cent whole wheat.

In fact, this lady is perhaps smarter than she realizes, for breakfast food with fruit and milk is a perfectly balanced combination. Many mothers make it the standard lunch when children are home during the summer, as it is cool and refreshing and practically no trouble at all to serve.

FRUIT PUDDING

Twenty-four marshmallows, 4 tablespoons grapefruit juice, 5 tablespoons grapefruit pulp, 6 lady fingers, 1 cup whipping cream. Heat marshmallows with juice in double boiler. When marshmallows are soft and partially dissolved remove from heat and beat until cool. Fold in whipped cream. Line bottom of a refrigerator tray with split lady fingers. Place pulp over lady fingers and spread the whipped cream mixture on top. Freeze for about three hours. Serves 10.

NOTE: Other fruit juices and pulp may be substituted for the grapefruit.

Where Horses Originated

The earliest known progenitor of the horse was the eohippus, a four-toed creature about the size of a house cat. Fossil specimens of the eohippus have been found in the Lower Eocene formations of the West.

QUICK COTTAGE PIE

Two tablespoonfuls butter, 1 to 2 cupfuls diced left-over meat (beef, pork or veal), 3 tablespoonfuls flour, 1 medium size can vegetable soup, left-over mashed potato. Melt butter in a frying pan and brown left-over meat. Sprinkle over the meat the flour, and blend well. Add vegetable soup and stir until thick and boiling. Pour into a baking dish or casserole and cover with a layer of left-over mashed potato that has been made fluffy again by beating up with a small amount of hot milk. Place in a 375-degree oven—that is a moderate oven—to brown, about 15 minutes.

CUBAN SAUSAGE

Two teaspoonfuls finely minced onion, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 cupful cooked sausage (about), 6 eggs well beaten; 3-4 teaspoonful salt 4 tablespoonfuls tomato ketchup, dash of pepper. Place onion in a frying pan with butter and brown slightly. Crumble cooked sausage and add. When thoroughly heated, add eggs, salt, ketchup and pepper, stir gently until eggs are cooked and serve on slices of buttered toast. (Uncooked sausage may also be used in this recipe.)

BREADED COLD MEAT
Spread slices of cold meat with either prepared mustard or tomato ketchup; dip in dry bread or cracker crumbs—or crumbled rice flakes—and brown in a generous amount of butter. Serve garnished with preserved sweet onions.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED Apple Annie, an old apple vendor on Broadway and a good luck charm for Dave the Dude, a gambler, is educating a daughter in a European convent. The daughter, Louise, thinks that her mother is a society woman because of the letters that Annie has written. Louise notifies Annie in a letter that she is coming to New York with the man she loves, Carlos, and his father, Count Romero. The Dude decides to help Annie out of her predicament and manages to get her an apartment at the exclusive Hotel Marberry. Annie, with the help of beauticians, is transformed into a real dowager queen, of whom Louise may be proud a friend of Duke's. Judge Blake—who looks like a judge, but is really a billiards shark, poses as Annie's distinguished husband. Mr. Henry Marville, the Dude becomes David Marville, supposedly Blake's brother. After entertaining the Romeros for several days, in which time Happy McGuire, a henchman of Duke's, has to do away with an inquisitive reporter, the Judge informs Duke that they are going to have a reception, which is astonishing news to him. It proves to be, however, the Count's idea. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY "Who's coming, brother Henry?" the Dude repeated. "Oh, just a few of our friends. It's to be a small affair—about a hundred—a hundred and fifty people, perhaps."

"Happy and I are going over first. The rest of you follow ten minutes apart. Don't come in more than four at a time. And don't forget this—you palookas—you're supposed to be gentlemen. Come on, Happy." Happy and the Dude walked out of Missouri Martin's club, leaving behind approximately one hundred men and women dressed in evening clothes. It was the evening of the reception, and cars were lined for two blocks in a row ready to transport the "guests" to the Hotel Marberry. As the Dude walked out, Smiley rolled up to him. "Look out, Dude," he said. "Cops! They been trailin' you all day." Dude was startled, but quickly recovered his poise and dropped a coin in Smiley's cup. He turned abruptly and walked back into the cafe. He walked quickly to a phone booth and called Blake at the Marberry. "Hello—hello—listen, Blake—we're in a jam. We're stymied here at Missouri Martin's. The place is surrounded by cops." "Cops!" The Judge's mouth dropped open. "I don't care for that at all, my dear Dude. Would you suggest that I fold my tent and silently scam into the night?" The Judge had not noticed that Annie had come up behind him and was listening. "Don't hidge," Dude answered threateningly, "outa that place. Just stay where you are and stall till I figure something out." "Just as you say, Dude. But I hardly relish being left holding that well-known bag." The Judge hung up, slowly, pondering the turn of events. Annie touched Blake's shoulder. "What is it, Henry? What's happened?" "Why, nothing, angel. Nothing at all." The Judge decided to minimize it for Annie's sake and finally succeeded in quieting her fears. Time passed and still no guests arrived. The Count began to grow impatient, and with each passing minute Annie's heart sunk. She cried in Judge Blake's arms. There was only one recourse for Duke and he took it. He left Missouri Martin's and in ten minutes he and Happy were in Police Headquarters before the Commissioner. The Dude pleaded with him to take away the police surrounding the cafe. "Sorry, Dude. Can't do business. Something tells me you know something about those reporters. So I'm afraid you're gonna have a police escort till they show up." The Commissioner was adamant. The Dude's face hardened. "Okay, if that's the way you feel about it, I'll tell you something. You're right. I have got those reporters! But they're not gonna show up till I'm good and ready, see? Now will you do business?" The Commissioner grinned. "Sure we'll do business. Hey, Mac! Frisk these two guys—we're gonna book 'em." (TO BE CONTINUED)

I wish to correct a mistake I made in my last write-up. It was Mrs. Roy Tongate instead of Mrs. Lewis Tongate who died of gunshot wounds last week. A surprise birthday party was given Mr. S. J. (Sam) Riggs at his home on Salt Creek on last Wednesday night the 15th by his daughter, Mrs. Courtney Riggs Sisemore that being his 74th birthday. Those present for the occasion were Mr. Bill Sawyer and his three daughters, Etta, Mickie and Lela, Mr. and Mrs. Thomson and daughter, Louise and Mr. Thomson's nephew, Mr. Way, Mr. and Mrs. Hy Poxs, Mrs. Elia Nixon all of the community and Mrs. Nixon and son, Billy Jack and Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Sisemore of Brownwood. Hot chocolate and gold and silver cake were served, the chocolate and cake being brought by Mrs. Sisemore. Everyone had an enjoyable time and departed at a late hour wishing Mr. Riggs many more happy birthdays. Mrs. W. M. Moore is home from the hospital after a major operation, reports from her bedside is that she is doing nicely. Friends of Mrs. W. M. Harris, who formerly lived here on the Charlie Baird place but who recently moved within five miles of Hamilton, Texas, were grieved to hear of him committing suicide on Monday afternoon the 20th by shooting himself at his home, dying at 10 o'clock the same night. Funeral services were to be held at this home and burial was to be made at Linton Springs. Several of his friends and neighbors went from here, namely, Miss Mayesie Malone and mother of Brownwood; and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Fortson, Mrs. Luther McHan, Mrs. J. A. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Thomson, all of this community. Everyone here are in deep sympathy with Mrs. Harris and daughter, Rena. Friends of the community who have an interest in the Staley cemetery are urged to attend a working there on Wednesday, Nov. 29 and anyone else who wants to go it will be greatly appreciated. Lunch will be spread at the noon hour and everyone bring tools to work with; also a few wagons and teams. Miss Keron Ruth Sullivan of San Angelo and Fern Abrogast of Elkhart, Indiana, were guests of Mrs. C. L. King last week end. Mrs. Joe Fortson is suffering from a broken arm. A truck backed into them while in Brownwood Saturday. She had her arm out the car window when the accident happened. Mr. and Mrs. Quince Wilson and visited relatives at Owen Sunday. Mrs. Lora Emerson and children of Brownwood spent Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Gotcher. Charles L. King accompanied by S. A. McKee and Burt Huribirt of Dallas have returned home from a deer and turkey hunt at Junction. They reported a fine trip and lots of game. Mrs. Mattie Brown of Brady is here for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Warren Fortson. Mrs. Cull Earp and her aunt, Mrs. Gilmer, spent Tuesday with Mrs. George Griggs and sister, Miss Mae White. POST OFFICE ASKS FOR EARLY MAILING

"Shop and Mail Early" is the plea of the local post office, which has issued instructions to Christmas patrons of the office. Detailed instructions regarding mailing of packages, including time for mailing foreign parcels in order that they will reach their destinations before Christmas, can be obtained from the office of George Kidd, postmaster.

"During the Christmas season the volume of mail increases approximately 200 per cent," says a statement from James A. Farley, postmaster general.

"It is a physical impossibility to handle this great mass of mail matter efficiently and promptly within a few days. Therefore to assure delivery of their Christmas presents, cards, and letters by Christmas Day the public should shop and mail early. Do your Christmas shopping so that you can mail your gifts, greetings, and letters to relatives, friends, and loved ones at least a week or 10 days before Christmas, according to the distance. This will not only make it certain that they are received before Christmas Day, but will be a great aid to your postal service and to postal employees and enable them to spend the Christmas holiday with their families."

There will be no mail delivery Monday, December 25.

GOVERNOR PARDONS MISS JEWELL CASEY

Governor Miriam A. Ferguson this week granted a full pardon to Miss Jewell Casey, former bursar of Howard Payne College, who was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary on a charge of embezzling funds of the college. Miss Casey was sentenced in December, 1931, and was released on a furlough in March of this year.

She was indicted by a Brown county grand jury in four counts, charging embezzlement in November, 1931. She became bursar at Howard Payne in 1929. According to a statement she made when she was arrested in July, 1931, she estimated she had appropriated about $50,000 of the college funds for her own use over a period of five or six years.

day. The purpose of the revival is to line up new members for the church and also for the pastor to get better acquainted with the members of the church and the people of the community. A special invitation is extended to everyone to attend these services.

A Good Citizen

A good citizen is one who supports his Government, as well as the forces for the upbuilding of his Home Town. We want the co-operation of every citizen of this community in increasing the efficiency of the power and light facilities in every direction, for only by the co-ordination of our efforts and by the support of our patrons can the Texas Power & Light Company succeed.

The public requires service to the end that the community may grow, develop and prosper. Without the service furnished by a proper, adequate, up-to-date system of electric power and light, no community can develop as it should. You are interested in the prosperity and consequent growth of your electric light and power system in order that your community growth and development may not be retarded.

As a Public Servant, with a whole community to serve, the Texas Power & Light Company recognizes that it has a public trust to discharge. It realizes that while the Company and the public have mutual obligations, the rights of the public must come first.

This Company is proud of the property as it stands today. It represents an achievement of thrift, good management and progressiveness. It thinks you should be proud of your electric power and light system. It believes that you are, and that every citizen who is open-minded and fair will be glad to help us rout ill with candor, confront prejudice with facts, and in the friendliest spirit help us face problems which only cordial co-operation can solve.
