Clarendon FFA To Sponsor County Poultry Exhibit At Tri-State Fair

Members of the Clarendon Future Farmer Chapter will sponsor a Donley County entry in the Poultry Division of the Tri-State Fair according to J. R. Gillham, chapter adviser. Chapter members will assist anyone desiring to exhibit poultry at Amarillo in selecting and fitting the birds for the show and will provide transportation to and from the show. For a period of twelve years, prior to 1947, the local chapter sponsored the entry of the county poultry breeders in the Amarillo Show and the local county entry copped the blue ribbon each of these years.

County poultry exhibitors are being encouraged to exhibit their birds at the Donley County Fair, September 15, 16 and 17th, and to allow the local youths to take the top birds directly to the Amarillo Show at the conclusion of the local show. Bill Mears, Homer Thomas, and J. R. Gillham are the poultry committee for the local show and all people interested in exhibiting at Amarillo or the local show should contact one of these committees or one of the F.F.A. members for information.

The White Laced Red Cornish Poultry Association of America will hold its North Cap Rock Area Poultry Show in connection with the Donley County Fair. H. E. Parmenter of Lakeview is secretary of the area organization and will help with the exhibit of these birds at the Donley County Show.

Dove Season Opens Today, Sept. 1st

Today marks the opening of the Fall hunting season with the Mourning Dove as the legal bird to be hunted at this time.

The Dove season opens at noon today, September 1st, and will close at sunset on October 15th. Bag limits and shooting hours, and other basic regulations, are the same as last year. Shooting will be confined to afternoon hours only and the limits are ten per day and ten in possession.

All hunters are reminded to follow safety rules closely because of the anticipated influx of gunners in the field and they should always obtain permission from landowners before entering the latter's property to hunt. Remember too, that it is unlawful to hunt from any public road and it is also unlawful to open the quail season prematurely. A quick pot-shot may cost you plenty as Game Wardens and other officials will be making a closer check this year.

Mrs. Ben Sullivan and daughter Bendell left for their home in Ft. Worth Saturday morning after visiting her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Watson.

Weather Pulls Dirty Trick

Instead of receiving a nice soaking rain Monday night, right at the time when it is badly needed, we received one of those early spring whizzers. It was one of the worst recorded here for this time of year, and it certainly didn't help crops any either. Some spotted areas received some moisture this week but the showers didn't cover enough territory to do much good.

Tommy Saye, our official weather observer, released the monthly data yesterday afternoon. Our moisture total for the month was .70 inch. Last year we received 4.01 inches. The total so far this year is 19.01 compared with a total of 16.01 for the entire 12 months last year.

We have had only three days during the month with temperatures of 100 or over. We hit an even 100 on the 5th; 103 on the 10th which was the hottest day of the month and 101 on the 29th. The coolest day of the month was 86 on the 30th; the hottest night was 74 on the 10th; the coolest nights were the 13th and 30th with 57 degrees.

His mother, Mrs. Harrison Simpson, who has been assisting them with their moving problem, is visiting in their home this week.

The Leader joins in welcoming Gordon and his family back to Clarendon where we are sure they will enjoy making their home.

Strict Tests Through Every Process Assure Safety of Salk Polio Vaccine

For the first time in history, a vaccine is protecting millions of human beings from paralytic polio. While the Salk vaccine will not work in every case, American children are being safeguarded against the dread disease, with no more risk than they would take in a vaccination against smallpox or a typhoid shot. The Salk vaccine must pass elaborate tests under the watchful eye of a government inspector at every stage of production. Then the final packaged vaccine approved by the U.S. Public Health Service for distribution. Here are shown a few of the steps that assure American parents their children are being given a safe vaccine.

This technician is filtering dead cells and all other foreign matter from polio virus after it has grown on animal tissue in glass containers.

Virus is "cooked" in tank with formaldehyde (from bottle) until it is rendered harmless, after which it must pass exacting safety tests.

Animal tissue in tubes is inoculated with vaccine and let stand. If any live virus remains, it will multiply here, hence can be detected.

This expert is examining tissue after contact with vaccine, to determine absence of live virus.

It's all over and it didn't hurt a bit! Salk vaccine makes this little girl safer now from paralytic polio. And her parents feel better too.

It is true that women make a dollar go farther. They will drive clear across town to spend it.

Many a girl has married some poor dope only to find out that he really was poor.

Bozo, who is a Bell H-12 'copter under that clown costume, tips over a barrel, rolls it down the airfield, then rights it again—the better to show the maneuverability of the helicopter. STATE FAIR OF TEXAS

The new Agriculture Show of the 1955 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 7-23, will show how the consumer benefits through agricultural research to improve Texas crops.

"Your Stake in Agricultural Research" will be the theme of the show, which is presented by the State Fair in cooperation with the Texas A&M System. Circus-style decorations will carry out the motif of "The Greatest Show From Earth" under the "Agricultural Big Top".

Central features of the show will include a merry-go-round displaying the amount of different Texas agricultural products used by the average family in a year, and a "know what you're buying" demonstration on selection and preparation of foods. Outstanding 4-H teams from all over the State will put on demonstrations in the 4-H Club exhibit.

A "menagerie" exhibit will offer a peek into the future of Texas agriculture, showing nine new and coming crops which have recently been produced or which are now being developed by research. Such unfamiliar crops as sesame, red grapefruit, hybrid onions, Southern peas and coastal Bermuda grass will be displayed. Individual exhibits will be devoted to grain sorghum, cotton, progeny testing of beef cattle, sheep and wool, poultry, insect control, disease control, farm mechanization, soil building, dairy management and forestry.

All of the exhibits will carry out the gay circus motif. For example, a fat cigar-smoking rooster will be the "barker" in the poultry exhibit, where cage-layers will be an attraction. A big elephant pulling a circus wagon will demonstrate that "it takes power to do the job" in the display on advances in mechanization. A magician with a wand will point out the magic of legumes in the soil building exhibit.

The Agricultural Show also will include exhibits of the Texas A&M System, Texas Technological College, Future Farmers and Future Homemakers. A king-size map of Texas will show the different types of soil common to the various sections of the state.

Now & Tomorrow With The Atom

By BILL JURY
General Electric News Bureau
Hanford Atomic Plant

(The following is the sixth of a series of seven articles disclosing the highlights and sidelights which have accompanied the nation's development of atomic energy. Prepared at the Hanford atomic energy plant, the series deals with the human things which followed in the wake of the first historic announcement that man had harnessed the atom. It touches upon the things which lie ahead.)

In the industrial world of the next decade, radiation from the widespread use of radioactive materials for peaceful purposes may exceed by tens of millions of times the world's present supply of radium.

But radiation hazards on any foreseeable scale are controllable, according to one of the nation's foremost experts on radiation, and eventually workers should be able to protect themselves from "normal" radiation in an atomic plant just as they now guard themselves from acids in other industries.

Dr. Herbert M. Parker, General Electric company scientist at the Hanford atomic energy plant near Richland, Washington, has said that people working in future power plants or factories using radioactive materials easily can be protected from external radiation. Harm from radioactive materials deposited inside the bodies of human beings also can be prevented, but this may involve imposing excessively high safety standards, at least until some of the present unknowns have been solved.

Dr. Parker, who has been working on radiation protection ever since the beginning of the nation's atomic efforts 12 years ago, points out that the atomic energy industry was spawned in safety—at the expense of considerable investments in radiation protection.

Safety precautions at the plutonium-manufacturing works at Hanford by necessity are all-encompassing, and some of the protective clothing worn by employees are grotesque and weird by today's fashion standards. But much of the paraphernalia is just as vital to the safety of the Hanford employee as the diving helmet and the air hose are to the salvage diver.

The plastic, man-shaped radiation barriers developed at Hanford and later copied by other nuclear research industries here and abroad enable a man to enter a contaminated area, operate instruments, perform maintenance and repair work, or accomplish other tasks that must be done but can't be done remotely from the outside.

Since termed the "plastic man" outfit, the suit is connected to the outside by means of a tunnel which serves as an entrance and exit for an employee and also provides him with a means of obtaining clean air from the outside. In effect, it provides a little island of safe space in the midst of an area contaminated with deadly radioactive material.

At present, there still is a considerable monitoring force at Hanford and other atomic plants whose duty it is to "make sure" for thousands of workers that an area is safe and to prescribe precautions. But in the future, scientists predict, there will come a day when workers will be able to deal with the problems of radiation, just as they now guard themselves from acids, and recognize the danger of walking under ladders.

SOCIAL SECURITY NEWS

Some people have misunderstood the provisions of the 1954 Amendments to the Social Security Act, according to John R. Sanderson, Manager of the Amarillo Social Security Office.

"We have been asked quite often if one cannot qualify for benefits as a farmer because he is already age 65 or over," John R. Sanderson said. "The answer is that the farmer already 65 or past that age, who is continuing to operate a farm, will qualify sooner than the younger farmer but the fact that they are 65 alone does not entitle them to benefits. Age does not disqualify an individual from entering into the program. If he is actually operating a farm, he is eligible to participate by keeping his records in 1955, paying his social security tax on his farm income in 1956, and then doing the same thing for 1956. This second payment, made in 1957 would qualify him for benefits if he is already age 65 or older," Sanderson added.

The answer to all questions about social security can be secured by contacting the representative Nat Houston or Floyd B. Ellington of the Amarillo Office who will be in Clarendon on September 12 and 26th, at the Court House, at 9:30 p. m.

Bro. and Mrs. J. W. Reynolds of Tyler, Texas were Clarendon visitors last week. Bro. Reynolds holding revival services at the Missionary Baptist Church.

HEALTH NOTES

Texas State Dept. of Health

AUSTIN — For the first time the National Office of Vital Statistics has issued tabulations of fatal accidental poisonings by age, sex, and kind of poison, said Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer. A total of 1,497 such accidental deaths occurred in one year.

Petroleum products (including kerosene) and aspirin and salicylates were involved in 40 per cent of the deaths in infants through 4 years of age, 165 such deaths. Dr. Holle declared this indicated that parents are not as aware of the dangers of these substances as they are of such substances as lye, iodine, phenol or strychnine. It should also be pointed out that three out of four fatal child poisonings occur at ages 1 to 2. This indicates that prevention of these accidents involves keeping poisons away from children rather than teaching them about poisons.

Any item that can be poisonous should be kept out of reach of children. This includes medicines, kerosene, insecticides, cleaning fluid and many other items. Adults should never attempt to take medicine in the dark. Always read the label to make sure the medicine you wanted is not something poisonous.

In the 25-44 and 45-64 age groups, there are sizable differences between male and female accidental poisoning deaths. There were considerably more barbiturate deaths of women in the 25-44, while in both groups most of the alcohol poisonings occurred among men. These two agents accounted for 58 per cent of the accidental poisoning fatalities for persons 25 years of age or older.

FARM NEWS

from the County ASC Committee

ONE ADDITIONAL VARIETY OF WHEAT ADDED TO UNDESIRABLE LIST

We have now received a telegram from the Washington Office adding one additional variety to undesirable list applicable to this State. We quote the telegram in its entirety, which we believe is self-explanatory.

"BLUE JACKET, A VARIETY OF HARD WINTER WHEAT, HAS BEEN ADDED TO THE LIST OF UNDESIRABLE VARIETIES UNDER THE 1956 WHEAT PRICE SUPPORT PROGRAM. BLUE JACKET WILL BE SUBJECT TO THE SPECIAL 20 CENT BUSHEL DISCOUNT WHEN PRODUCED IN YOUR STATE.

ADDITIONAL ACP PRACTICE APPROVED FOR DONLEY COUNTY

The following practice has been approved for Donley County which we think will be of great benefit to the land.

F-1. Application of cotton burs to cropland for the control of wind erosion.

This practice is applicable only to cropland which is subject to wind erosion. Burs must be distributed evenly over the land and must be applied at not less than one ton per acre. Heavier applications are recommended. Maximum Federal Cost-share: $2.00 per ton, not to exceed $6.00 per acre. A prior approval is required before this practice is started. You may come to ASC office for additional information on this practice.

SMALLER COTTON CROP FORECAST

The Department of Agriculture forecasts a lower cotton production for 1955, along with record yields per acre. This takes into account reports on cotton acreage measurements completed through late July, which covered about 86 per cent of the allotted cotton acreage.

COUNTY COMMITTEE ELECTED FOR 1955-1956

The County Committee elected on August 23, 1955 were: Ross Springer, chairman, Forrest Saw-year, Vice chairman and Leo Smith, regular member. THIS OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 5th.

Local FFA Chapter Boasts Large Membership

For the first time in the history of the local F.F.A. Chapter, which was organized in 1925, the membership of the local group will reach sixty, according to J. R. Gillham, Chapter adviser. The local organization had only forty-two members each of the 1939-1940 and 1940-1941 school years when it won the national F.F.A. contest. An unusually large first year vocational agriculture class is responsible for the large number of chapter members this year.

Chapter officers will be selected during the week of September 5th-10th, and the annual program of work for the chapter will be adopted at an early date. Chapter members started to work this week on cleanup and preliminary work on their chapter farm and have been busy repairing and repainting equipment in the chapter room. Plans are being formulated by the chapter members for participation in the Greenbelt F.F.A. District Leadership Contests to be held at Memphis in November, and representatives of the local chapter will participate in each of the six contests to be held in the district event.

THE LION'S TALE

By Carl Allmond

Cooler weather Tuesday, but still there were too many absent; a lot of good work for the attendance committee. There were nearly as many buttons left in the rack as were taken out. May be they were forgotten—if so, you were counted absent. There is more fun and fellowship when everyone is present.

Just one Tail Twister Tuesday, and he was lonesome. When he looked one direction, he should have been looking the other.

Wes Izzard's Tuesday column should make every member proud he belongs to such an organization.

W. W. Pinkerton, Supt. of Schools and president of Clarendon College was introduced by his right hand man, Drennan, as the speaker for the day. Mr. Pinkerton made an appeal to the Lions Club and to the community for our support. He stated that this is a "must," in any school system if the proper results are obtained. Further, he expressed his belief that Clarendon would have another girls' winning basketball team, and also a boys team. Some of these players will need part-time employment. Anyone having extra work for a boy or girl, please notify president Pinkerton or Drennan at once. The college opens Monday, and it will be necessary for some students to know, before coming.

The following is first of a series of "What a Lion Should Know," and the community might like to know.

LIONS' CODE OF ETHICS.

To show my faith in the worthiness of my vocation by industrious application to the end that I may merit a reputation for quality of service.

To seek success and to demand all fair remuneration or profit as my just due, but to accept no profit or success at the price of my own self-respect lost because of unfair advantage taken or because of questionable acts on my part.

To remember that in building up my business it is not necessary to tear down another's; to be loyal to my clients or customers and true to myself.

Whenever a doubt arises as to the right or ethics of my position or action towards my fellow men, to resolve such doubt against myself.

To hold friendship as an end and not a means. To hold that true friendship exists not on account of the service performed by one to another, but that true friendship demands nothing but accepts service in the spirit in which it is given.

Always bear in mind my obligation as a citizen to my nation, my state and my community, and to give them my unswerving loyalty in word, act and deed. To give them freely of my time, labor and means.

To aid my fellow men by giving my sympathy to those in distress, my aid to the weak, and my substance to the needy.

To be careful with my criticisms and liberal with my praise; to build up and not destroy.

Guests Tuesday were: George Caddel, Amarillo; D. D. Todd, (Bill's nephew), El Monte, Calif.; C. A. Frank, Hutchinson, Kansas, and Allen Homer Estlack, Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Hodge and Nedra, also Mr. and Mrs. Bob Barker and Rhonda of Borger returned home Sunday night after a vacation on the west coast. While away they visited Mrs. Hodge's mother, Mrs. Floyd Zeller of Burbank, Calif., her sisters at north Hollywood, Long Beach, and Los Angeles.

Mrs. Clyde Marshall and daughters, June and Brenda, and son, Rocky, of Downey, Calif., also Mrs. J. T. Easterling of Compton, Calif. are visiting their mother, Mrs. W. F. Barker, Mrs. J. H. Easterling, and other relatives and friends.

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS

Uncle Zeb

As I remember we promised to tell more about our trip. In the rush to get caught up again with our work sometimes we think it might be better to skip the vacation. Guess not though. Actually, we did have a thought of turning back once when we were nearly to our vacation spot. It was lunch time and all the gang went into a fairly nice looking place to eat. Highlight on the menu was a pair of tender sirloin steaks advertised for only seventy-five. Someone made the suggestion that we just eat a round of these; give him our vacation saved up money and head back for Texas. It would have taken care of my surplus.

But we still get a thrill when we think of the mountains, the trees and of course the mountain streams. Somehow God is just a bit nearer, seemingly, as we sit amid these wonders. Anyhow, sitting there just sort of day-dreaming we wrote down our thought one day. We are still too lazy to try and correct the thoughts into a poem, but just as they sort of run through our mind in skippy poetical form we pass them on to you:

MAGIC OF THE MOUNTAINS
There is magic in the mountains,
Standing nobly high and wide.
All our troubles seem to vanish;
Mid their vastness seem to hide.

Somehow there midst His creation
The Creator seems so near.
Just to look on His Handiwork
Kind of soothes our doubt and fear.

Take the tall and slender aspen,
And the great and mighty pine,
Do you suppose they ever argue,
Over what is thine or mine?

No, there's Creation here a plenty
All our needs are well supplied.
Just to sit among these splendors
Makes us better satisfied.

Last night we had the joy again of attending the Farm Bureau Barbecue in Donley County. Still under the expert barbecuing of county agent Flip Breedlove, but this time held in the new Fair Barn in Clarendon. Along with the good feed and the friendly fellowship came the choosing of a Farm Bureau Queen to represent the county in the district. We always feel sorry for the judges on such an occasion. Anyhow, we want to congratulate Miss Patricia Ann Knox from the Ashtola community on being chosen the winner. Runner-ups were Joan Marie Lane of the same community and Marilyn Ayers of Lelia Lake. Two other beautiful girls helped make the contest more interesting; Christine Shields of Lelia Lake and Elwanda Gresham of Clarendon. Always glad to get to make this trip each year.

About the time we left on our vacation; just about one day before our brother-in-law from New Mexico came by to see us. This is the one with the beans; this year he let us down; came by and ate up our bacon and made a lot of excuses only as to why no beans. We'll get even tho'. We usually do.

Anyhow, his wife teaches in the Albuquerque school system now, and tells the following experience which happened in a class in another school in those parts a few years back. Almost all of the class were Spanish speaking boys and girls and according to instructions she was working hard to teach them to speak English. She would hold up a ball and say the word. Walk them to the door and explain door and walk and run, etc. It was a slow and painstaking task at the start naturally. Anyhow, Horse and boy end up in same position. It's excitement galore at the Boys' Ranch Rodeo to be held at the Ranch on Labor Day weekend, Sept. 4 and 5 at 2:30 each day. The boys will participate in all events and several special acts and several hundred ex-Boys' Ranchers are expected for the Homecoming event.

one day she was working desperately with a little fellow. She had gone through all the regular procedures and seemingly little had been accomplished.

One rather deep thinking young chap in the back thought he had a solution that might help. "Mees Miller", burst out. "Why wouldn't it be much easier for you to just learn Spanish, rather than try and teach us all English?" Me wonder, meself, sometimes.

Boys' Ranch Rodeo September 4 & 5th

Homecoming for ex-Boys' Ranchers to be held during Labor Day week end Rodeo, September 4 and 5.

Several hundred boys who have made their home at America's First Boys' Ranch, Amarillo, Texas, are expected to visit with Cal Farley, Ranch founder and president, other staff members and their buddies during the 11th annual Boys' Ranch Rodeo. Many boys are in the service and overseas and although they will be unable to attend they have sent their regards to their friends. Almost 1200 boys have lived at the Ranch in the past 16 years.

All ex-Ranchers are urged to attend the Rodeo and reunion and bring their families. Many boys have already responded and are looking forward to the homecoming celebration, the first ever held at the Ranch, but it will be an annual event in the future.

The 220 cowhands who make their home at the Ranch now are planning a real show for the ex-Ranchers and other folks. The Rodeo is open to the public and tickets will be on sale at the Ranch on the two days of the Rodeo at $1.25 for adults and 75c for children.

Every Rancher from the little fellows on up will participate in at least one event and in addition to the prizes in each division the youngsters will be participating for the title of All Around Cowboy. Special acts such as trick roping and riding and clown acts will be presented by the boys. They will put on as fine a show as seen anywhere. The show will begin at 2:30 each afternoon.

Ex-cowhands planning to attend should write or contact Boys' Ranch, Box 1890, Amarillo, Texas, or Phone DRake 44687.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

ACROSS AMERICA

The Rogers family really travelled across America when we came home. You could almost call it an all-American trip, all things considered. Our plans were all set to leave at 8 a. m., and we left on schedule at 12 noon. We headed northwest through Maryland and into Pennsylvania then turned due west into Ohio. Everything went fine until we reached Washington, Pennsylvania, and found out all of the motels were full, that is all but one, which was the last one in town. I don't know how we do it, but we have never had to sleep in the ditch yet. Washington, Pennsylvania, is an old town. Some of the people out here in our country think we have some narrow streets. Well, to really appreciate ours, all you need do is to drive one of the old Eastern towns. Many of the streets are paved with cobble stones, and it is just like riding on a corduroy highway—shakes your teeth out. You can also appreciate natural gas when you see the soot covered buildings. They were cleaning the statue on top of the court house at Washington, Pennsylvania, and it was a brilliant gold sitting atop what looked like a pile of coal the rest of the court house was so black.

We headed west the next morning through Ohio and into Indiana. The crops were wonderful, and I never saw so much corn in my life. It is going to be a record breaker. Too bad we couldn't eat it then. We had more trouble trying to find a place to eat from Zanesville, Ohio, west. Some of you enterprising restaurateurs look that over. They sure need some good eating places all along Highway 40 clear into St. Louis. Part of the road through Ohio is divided into 4 lanes, and most of it through Indiana is the same. The highway goes right through the center of the main cities. I have never been able to understand why highways in the Midwest and East all go right through the towns, while out in this country where the traffic isn't nearly so heavy, millions of dollars are town and get a few snacks for the children while we were waiting for supper. It was about five miles. As we were driving along, the boy said to me, "Daddy, do they raise camels in Indiana?" I said, "Well, I wouldn't think so." He said, "Well, there's some out in that field". I looked up and sure enough four big camels were out in a road side pasture, eating hay. My first thought was that some farmer had really gone into the diversified field in earnest. It turned out, however, that the animals were circus camels. So, as far as I now know, Indiana doesn't yet raise this type of animal.

The next night we spent in Rolla, Missouri, which is a town that has been cut completely off the highway. If you are going to spend the night there, you must intend to, nothing accidental about it. The roads through Illinois were not good, but they got much better in Missouri until we neared Oklahoma. The roads narrowed down and traffic was heavy, but they are working on shape before long. Tulsa was our stop, and we found it growing like most of our West Texas towns. We used the Turner Turnpike to Oklahoma City, then Highway 66 to Elk City where we turned across through Sweetwater and Wheeler. These roads were all in excellent shape. You can sure tell Texas highways when you hit them. They are all in fine shape.

The children were sure glad to get home. They haven't stopped a minute and probably won't, until it is time to go back to school. The country and the folks look mighty good to all of us. We are always willing to let a good rain ruin a drouth program. Give the Panhandle rain and you will never have to worry about anything but surpluses. But, it is much easier to worry on a full stomach. At least I've always found it that way.

DONLEY COUNTY SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

The Board of Supervisors of the Donley Soil Conservation District had their regular meeting last Thursday, August 25th. Board members attending were: J. R. Porter, Chairman, Cap Morris, Secretary, T. C. D'Spain and W. P. Doherty, members. J. A. Tollett, the other member, has been ill and has been unable to attend the last few meetings. Others present were Jack Gray, Clerk for the Board, Jay Gould, Soil Conservation Service representative, and Flip Breedlove, County Agent.

Besides routine business, the Board discussed a number of subjects affecting the farmers and ranchers of the District. Definite action was taken on the following.

Motion made and passed to have Curtis Pryor, Certified Public accountant, to make the annual audit of the District. Texas State law requires that each Soil Conservation District in the State have an audit as of August 31st each year.

Motion made and passed to have signs erected near the District boundaries on the main highways. These signs will be put up as a joint project with the adjoining Districts and will read "Entering Donley Soil Conservation District" on one side as a car enters this District, and "Entering Hall County Soil Conservation District" on the other as a car leaves this District near Memphis and near Brice. The other two signs to be erected will be on highway 70 near Jericho and on highway 287 near Ashtola. The cost of these two signs will be shared by the Gray Co. Soil Conservation District and the Staked Plains Soil Conservation District, and will have their respective names on them. Purpose of erecting these signs is to focus the attention of people passing through the District on the soil conservation work done in the District. Needless to say, it is hoped that this work will be a credit to the District and leave a favorable impression with those passing through.

The Board also voted to enter the 1955-56 Soil Conservation contest sponsored by the Good-year Tire and Rubber Co., obtain a sample Teaching Packet sponsored by the Association of Texas Conservation District Supervisors and contact the three Agricultural Teachers to see if they would be interested in using the packets; adopted the revised Land Capability Guide for the High Plains part of the District.

The next regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors is scheduled for September 8, 1955.

GABE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

"Love Is Eternal" by Irving Stone was presented to the Library by Patti Lane in memory of her father. If you have not read this book we have two copies and it is well worth your time.

I notice that "A Many - Splendored Thing" by Han Suajan is to be filmed. We have the book that was published in 1952, and the September issue of the "Woman's Home Companion" has the condensed story.

One of the junior readers brought us twenty "funnies" and eight of his books as a contribution last week.

Our Book of the Month is "The Vows of the Peacock," by Alice Walworth Graham. It is a novel of the Royal succession in fourteenth century England.

Mr. Will Clower who was a former Clarendon resident, has produced a book, "What Price Fortitude" that we shall possess soon. Quite a few of his friends will be happy to read his book, as well as those who did not know him.

We have a few new books arriving each week. Also have the best of magazines, for only twenty-five cents you can read with us for three months.

STATE FAIR OF TEXAS

"The Family of Man," a gigantic assemblage of photographs from all over the world—depicting the entire sweep of man's whole existence—will be shown at the 1955 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 7-23.

The collection has been described as "the greatest photographic exhibition of all time." The unique exhibition will occupy virtually all of the gallery space in the Museum of Fine Arts on the Dallas fairgrounds. Admission to the show will be free.

The exhibit was created by Edward Steichen, dean of American photographers, for the Museum of Modern Art in New York where it has been seen by over 300,000 people.

Mr. Steichen and his assistant, Wayne Miller, spent 2½ years assembling the tremendous exhibition. They examined 4 million pictures taken in all corners of the world by photographers of every nationality. It required five months to go through the LIFE magazine collection alone. Finally, they selected the 503 pictures which comprise the exhibit—representing 273 photographers, amateurs and professionals, famous and unknown, in 68 countries.

"The Family of Man" is tremendous in scope as well as size, and is said to have a tremendous emotional impact on its viewers. Its message is the universality of human life everywhere—the basic oneness of the human race, in spite of wars, language barriers, differences of religion, culture and race.

Each photograph shows some aspect of an experience or an emotion which is common to the whole "family of man". For example, there are 18 separate studies of happy children playing "ring around the rosy"—in 12 different countries.

Carl Sandburg, noted poet and author and Mr. Steichen's brother-in-law, has written the introduction to the exhibition, concluding with a poem: "There is only one man in the world and his name is All Men. There is only one woman in the world and her name is All Women. There is only one child in the world and the child's name is All Children."

Agency has announced that it will send two copies of the complete show on overseas tours, one to Europe and the other to the Far East.

It's more than a gift... it's a friendly offer to get you to try Purina and see why so many thousands of Purina feeders get up to 40% more fall eggs than U. S. average.

And think what EXTRA egg money can mean to you. Last fall 1,033 women sent their daily egg records to Purina. These showed that the EXTRA eggs above U. S. average in four fall and early winter months were 3 dozen per pullet. At 40¢ a dozen, the EXTRA eggs brought in $120 EXTRA egg money per 100 pullets.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — Whether a special session of the legislature is called on school integration apparently hinges on a Texas Supreme Court decision still to come.

Filed by the anti-integration Texas Citizens Council in a district court at Big Spring, the suit seeks to bar payment of state fund to bi-racial schools.

Atty. General John Ben Shepperd says the court decision holds the key to whether Texas laws must be changed immediately or already-integrated schools must backtrack. Decision by the district court can be carried directly to the Supreme Court and possibly be settled by the time school starts.

Should the court hold payment to integrated schools can be made under existing laws, there apparently would be no urgent need to change them, at least in that regard.

Shepperd said he welcomed the Big Spring suit since it promises to clear up the difficult legal situation.

Gov. Allan Shivers says he will call a special session "if necessary." He apparently was awaiting three developments:

He asked his newly formed citizens' advisory council on school integration to investigate and report to him on several questions, including the need of a special session.

He asked Shepperd to prepare an official ruling on legal questions.

And the decision in the Big Spring court case may set up conditions to determine need of the session.

In July the Board of Education voted to continue regular payments to local districts, whether segregated or not. It left racial policy up to local officials.

Since then, some 30 districts have announced whole or partial desegregation plans.

A university of Texas student committee also has taken on the segregation problem with a poll of student opinion on acceptance of Negro students outside the classroom. Graduate courses have been open to Negroes since 1950. Regents have ordered full desegregation in September, 1956.

KKK Talk Challenged

Attorney General Shepperd's claim that efforts are underway in Texas to revive the Ku Klux Klan brought a challenge last week.

Sen. Jimmy Phillips called on Shepperd to name names, but Shepperd declined. Names will be given prosecutors and grand juries when sufficient evidence is gathered for convictions, Shepperd said.

State Senator Killed

Death of State Sen. Wayne W. Wagonseller of Bowie cost Texas liberals one of their leaders.

Wagonseller, killed in a three-car collision in Fort Worth, was buried last week in the State Cemetery at Austin with full military honors. Services were held earlier in the Senate Chamber.

A World War II veteran, he served two terms in the House before beginning his Senate career in 1951. Friends in Tyler recently had boomed him as a candidate for attorney general. He had been associated with Loyalist Democrats and had supported Ralph Yarbrough in the latter's two unsuccessful races for governor.

Giles Pleads Guilty

One of the biggest news breaks of last week was Bascom Giles' plea of guilty in criminal district court at San Antonio to two charges in connection with a Bexar County block land deal.

Giles' guilty plea concerned charges of consenting to accept a $30,000 bribe. He pleaded not guilty to a third account, of accepting the bribe. The state waived this charge and Judge Buck Jones imposed a six-year prison sentence. It is to run concurrently with a three-year sentence given Giles earlier at Austin on a charge of theft of $6,800 from the veterans' land fund.

Giles has appealed the case, which affords at least 90 days' delay in final disposition of the sentence.

Awaiting trial in San Antonio were Arthur McKenzie and C. V. Wynn, San Antonio land operators, indicted for offering the $30,000 bribe to Giles.

Other suits now pending against the former land commissioner are a civil suit at San Antonio, seeking recovery of $35,000, and nine additional charges in Austin, on other transactions. He also faces trial in Zavala County on another land case.
