

Principals In Oklahoma Shooting That Cost Lives of Two Mexican College Students

Left to right, Deputy Cecil Crosby, Sheriff Elmer Byrd and Deputy William Guess examining arms, claimed to have been seized after the killing of Emilio Cortes Rubio and Manuel Garcia Gomez, Mexican students, at Ardmore, Okla., about midnight Sunday. Below Salvador Cortes Rubio, who was with the two dead youths when they were fatally wounded by Guess, Emilio Rubio is a cousin of President Ortiz Rubio of Mexico. Salvador Rubio is also a relative of the Mexican president. Ortiz admitted he did the shooting, claiming the youths pulled guns when they sought to question them as they emerged from a parked car on an isolated Ardmore street. Both Guess and Crosby have been charged with murder, Salvador Rubio, the surviving member of the trio, said the officers did not reveal their identities and denies his companions pulled guns.

HOME NEAR ROCHELLE HIT BY STORM; REPORT SAYS SEVERAL PEOPLE INJURED

Reports received at 4:30 p. m. today from Rochelle and Brady stated that the home of Jack Whitehead, three or four miles south of Rochelle had been destroyed by a small cyclone and that several injured people were being taken to hospital in Brady.

The Frisco telegraph operator at Mercury said that three cars bearing injured people had just passed through Mercury on their way to Brady.

It was stated that three cyclones had struck in that section of the country during the afternoon.

Neither the telephone operator at Brady nor Rochelle could give further information at that hour than the fact that the Whitehead home had been destroyed and that the cars were bearing the storm victims to Brady. Telephone connections with the immediate section of the country in which the storm struck could not be established at the time.

A heavy rain, accompanied by heavy thunder and lightning began falling in Brownwood at about 4:45 this evening.

Sherman Senator Is Opposed To Special Session Legislature

AUSTIN, Texas, June 11.—(AP)—State Senator Jake Loy of Sherman declared here yesterday he was opposed to a special session of the legislature until some "definite remedy" for the ills of the oil industry had been suggested.

"I would like to have facts and a remedy before I would agree to spend several thousand dollars of the people's money for a special session at this time," he said.

The senator said he had watched "press reports of the propaganda campaign for a special session now being waged" but that up to this time "not a single definite constructive piece of legislation has been offered that would in any way relieve the distressed situation in the industry."

WORK AT DAM PROGRESSING NICELY TODAY

Although a rise from the headwaters of Pecan Bayou threatened work at the site of the new dam being constructed eight miles north of Brownwood Wednesday the peak of the flood was passed without any damage having resulted from the rush of water. At 9 o'clock Wednesday morning the peak of the flood was reached and at that time the water lapped only about six inches over the retaining dam.

At available workmen were placed at points along the dam where water was threatening and by rapidly increasing the height and strength of the retaining dam any disaster to the work being done there was averted. All water of the bayou is being diverted around a dredged channel prepared to care for all flow of the bayou during construction. Banks of this channel caved badly but no damage was done.

"A bridge below the site of the dam was partly washed away but was being placed in first class condition today and was to be ready for use this afternoon. A crew was kept busy strengthening the dam during the Wednesday and was settled on an additional five foot rise about that experienced Wednesday can be cared for without any damage to the forms placed at the damsite."

Forms have been constructed over a prepared base for the concrete conduits through the center of the dam and concrete pouring was started today on the main arch after having been discontinued Wednesday. The concrete work will be completed in 75 working days it is believed.

The entire contract is to be completed by June 20, 1932.

DEE HAN HEARING IS DUE BE COMPLETED DURING DAY

MATAMOROS, Mexico, June 11.—(AP)—Completion of the hearing for Dee Han of Weslaco, held in connection with the fatal shooting of Miss Mina Clark of La Feria Sunday night in a cabaret at Rio Rico, was expected here today before Judge Jesus Rojas. The hearing is similar to one in justice court in Texas, its purpose being to determine if the defendant shall be held for trial. Policeman Arnulfo De La Rosa testified yesterday that Miss Clark was shot as he and Han were scuffling over the officer's gun. He said Han snatched it and attempted to shoot him.

TOTAL TUESDAY RAIN HERE IS NEAR 2 INCHES

Rain totaling 1.90 inches fell in Brownwood Tuesday afternoon and night, and according to reports received today the rain was about generally over this section. The rains were accompanied in some districts, by high winds but not much damage has been reported. The rain in almost every section took the form of near water-spouts or cloudbursts, with an inch or more of rain falling in some cases in only a few minutes.

The first rain fell in Brownwood at 2:30 in the afternoon and .90 of an inch was registered. The second rain started about 8 o'clock and 1 inch was registered in Brownwood. Both times the rain fell in torrents and was blown about by the strong wind.

People on the roads during the rains say they could not see the road ahead, the rain fell so fast and thick. Several automobiles on the roads were "drowned out" by the rain, as were a number of cars parked on the streets of Brownwood.

Some damages to crops have been reported, but it is thought the rain will be of enough benefit to growing crops to offset the damage done to the crops for harvest. Most damage was done to the corn crops, which in some parts of the county were beaten down by the hard rain. Farmers say they think most of the corn will straighten up again with sunshine. Shocked grain in many fields in the county was blown over.

Car Blown 75 Yards

Earl Looney of the Looney Mercantile Company, was three miles south of Indian Creek when the rain in the afternoon came. He stopped at the home of Gilbert McMullen and while he was in the house the wind blew his car about 75 yards and ran it into a fence and mud hole, but the car was not damaged. The roof was blown from Mr. McMullen's barn and a number of fruit trees were blown down.

The wind was also fairly strong in Brownwood and a number of trees in the residential sections were blown down, but otherwise no damage has been reported.

Virtual Elimination Of Catholic Church In Vera Cruz Likely

VERA CRUZE, Mex., June 11.—(AP)—Virtual elimination of the Catholic church in the state of Vera Cruz was foreshadowed today in a bill passed by the legislature to limit the number of priests to one for every 100,000 inhabitants.

The effect of the measure, the most drastic anti-religious legislation enacted in Mexico since the church-state conflict was settled two years ago, is to leave the city of Vera Cruz with only one priest and the state with less than 10.

In approving the measure, the legislature said the church had kept the masses of people in a state of ignorance and that restrictions on church activities was to remedy this condition.

A $12,500,000 wheat crop, the heaviest in eight years, is reported in the state of Coahuila, Mexico, this season.

Shield, Here for Sentence, Says Will "Die Like a Man"

Joe Shield said in a statement to reporters for The Bulletin at the county jail today that if he must go to the electric chair he will "die like a man."

Shield was convicted a year ago this month for the murder of his wife, Opal Mae Shield, on May 16, 1930, at Brooksmith but was not tried for murder of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Shields, on the same date, for which he was indicted.

He has been in the penitentiary at Huntsville for the past several months and was returned to county jail last night by Sheriff M. H. Denman, Deputy Jack Hallmark and Mark Langford, who left for Huntsville Monday. He was returned here to receive sentence from District Judge E. J. Miller.

At first Shield said today that he had no statement to make but then he said, "If you put anything in the paper about me just say that if I do go to that chair I will go like a man for the sake of my two little girls. I am not afraid of the chair and for the children's sake their daddy will go like a man."

Shield said he did not have anything to say to the people of Brownwood and Brown county except that he did not believe he got justice in his trial. He commented very bitterly on the trial as a whole and the circumstances surrounding it.

Shield shows the pallor of his long confinement at Huntsville but outwardly he is as cool as during his trial, saying he knows he killed his wife and her parents before he thought and believes he defended his home, "like any real man would; still loving his wife and adoring his two children." He was neatly dressed and smoked a cigarette while he talked.

He said, "If all the truth was known the people of Brown county would have a different look on this matter. He said that all he really wished was that the whole truth concerning the events before the fatal May 16 were known and then the people would think different of the trial."

He said further that he had no intention of killing anyone when he went to Brooksmith and that he only went to get his two little girls. He said that he and his wife had agreed that each would keep the girls three months and that she had them from February 15 to May 15 and that after receiving the answers he did when he went for them on May 16, he did the shooting.

"I only defended my home and my rights, and if a man can not defend his own home what kind of man is he? I defended my home and if I had gotten justice I would not be here now," he said.

In speaking of the trial and what transpired during the trial he said that "nothing was ever proved against Joe Shield's character. Of course I have done things that I am sorry of, but who hasn't while growing up? I quit my wife and she did not quit me, but if I could have seen things then as I do now, more for the sake of my little girls, nothing could make me do the same thing again."

"I did not get justice in such a quick trial and if the higher courts had known all the facts concerning the trial and what led to what happened they would have given me a new trial," he declared.

WIND DAMAGES SEALY HOSPITAL AT SANTA ANNA

SANTA ANNA, June 11.—(SP)—A heavy rain of about two inches fell here Tuesday night about nine o'clock accompanied by a terrific wind which assumed almost storm proportions, doing considerable damage to buildings and crops. Garages and out houses were torn down and some blown away, windows were blown out of many residences and shade trees were badly damaged.

Debris of torn-up signboards was piled around over parts of the town and many roofs were damaged, causing the rain to come through and damage household goods and wall paper.

The greatest damage reported from any one building so far was from the Sealy Hospital which sustained considerable roof damage and almost all the windows on the west side of the building were reported as being blown out.

It is reported that the operating room was practically ruined, including many surgical instruments and fixtures.

An operation had just been completed and the patient (a lady) had just been removed from the room when the windows and skylights crashed in and another lady relative of the patient, received a number of cuts about the face and arms from the falling glass. The volunteer firemen responded to a call for help to remove patients and beds from those rooms which were damaged by the storm and water.

The rain will greatly benefit many crops and will enable the farmers to plant quite a bit of cotton which had not been planted on account of dry weather. The threshing of the grain was just getting started in a big way when the storm came. A big Nash sedan driven by W. H. Melton of Santa Anna, was literally picked up by the wind on the highway a few miles west of here during the storm and set over in the ditch alongside the road, breaking several glasses in the car. No hail was reported in this immediate section. The property damage in Santa Anna will probably amount to hundreds of dollars.

FORMER CROSS PLAINS WOMAN TAKES POISON

AUSTIN, Tex., June 8.—(AP)—Evidence that a mother's last earthly thoughts were on her four children was revealed today in a coroner's inquest of the death of Mrs. Beulah Chiles, 37.

Letters to the four, addressed and sealed, were found in the woman's room where she was discovered in a dying condition. The letters were wrapped in a sheet of paper, the wrapper bearing the woman's last known request: "Please mail these letters just as they are," a dime for postage was nearby.

Justice Frank Tannehill, who conducted the inquest, refused to open the letters addressed to J. H. Chiles, Nuel Ike Chiles, Miss Lorena Chiles and Carl Lamont Chiles, Jr., at Cross Plains. A verdict of death by poisoning was returned by Tannehill.

SCHUMANN-HEINK IS CHARACTERIZED AS HARD WORKING WOMAN

LOS ANGELES, June 11.—(AP)—Madame Ernestine Schumann-Heink was characterized as a "hard working woman" by her own testimony on record in a civil action here today.

The case was a combination of two suits filed by the singer and her son Ferdinand, seeking to collect $86,000 from Edwin Carewe, motion picture producer, for an alleged breach of contract involving a film featuring the Prima Donna and the son. Carewe claimed making the picture was contingent on certain financial arrangements.

W. I. Gilbert, attorney for the plaintiff was questioning Madame Schumann-Heink yesterday about the contract.

"Ask my agent," her voice rang.

The interrogation turned to dates. Wearying at the flow of questions, she turned with a stately dignity to the judge, asked and won permission to speak.

"I am a hard-working woman," she said. "Maybe I am a famous woman, but I earned every cent I ever made in my life. This contract ruined my whole season at the Metropolitan Opera House and my concert work. How can I remember dates? I do everything myself. I have no secretary, no maids like lots of people. I may be just a dumb-bell but I can't help it."

The Madame left the witness chair and swept out of the court room door with a grace gained of many years on the concert platform.

COMMISSIONERS SEEK TO MAINTAIN FORMER TAX RENDITION LEVEL

County Judge Courtney Gray said Monday that there were about 300 people in this county who had rendered their county and state taxes lower than for last year.

Speaking of the renditions, Judge Gray said that the collections of state and county taxes in Brown county for last year totaled approximately 67 per cent of the total, whereas during previous years with considerable larger valuation on all property the collections had been approximately 95 per cent collected.

Judge Gray said that the court had not anticipated raising any renditions above that of 1930 except where it was clearly shown that the 1930 rendition was too low.

On the other hand the court did not believe it wise to lower any renditions but would attempt to keep all at the last year level. He said: "It has been the policy of the court to hold the renditions where they were last year because of the necessity of meeting interest and sinking fund expenses on road bonds and outstanding warrants and to defray the necessary expenses incidental to the operation of the county government."

"The court did not increase the rendition when the values of all property was inflated and now we can't decrease the renditions because of the depressed times."

"The county is necessarily losing two or three million dollars in tax rolls by reason of the collapse of the oil industry in this county and the withdrawal of a good many stocks of goods and other property from the county."

"The county has heretofore been operated on an absolutely economical basis and the collection of 1930 taxes is only 67 per cent where during previous years with considerable larger valuation about 95 per cent was collected."

"However in spite of the short collection and payment of several thousand dollars on outstanding courthouse and jail warrants and other indebtedness the commission-

Service Company Complimented By Adjutant General

Service Company here of the Texas National Guard made high score of 20 units in the regiment in the last official government inspection made May 23, according to word received here by Captain Rex Gaither.

A very complimentary letter, commending the company on the high showing in the inspection, has been received by Captain Gaither from Adjutant Charles Dobbs.

It is quite an honor for a company to be scored among the high-achievers in the inspection but to make the high score is a decided honor. It is said. This is the first time a local unit has made the highest score in the inspection.

Officers of the 142nd Infantry will hold the usual officers' conference which follows the inspection every year in Abilene this year, according to Captain Gaither. The purpose of the conference is to discuss and check up on the good and bad points made by the various units. Captain Gaither will discuss at the conference the winning of high score by the Service Company. The local company was able to make the high showing only through the co-operation and loyalty of the officers and the men, he declared. About 65 officers will attend the meeting.

Officers from Company A and the Service Company will attend the conference. Those from the Service Company will be Captain Rex Gaither, Lieutenant William D. King, Lieutenant Bland Harper and Lieutenant Harry Knox. Company A officers who will attend are Captain E. M. Davis, Lieutenant Albert Hoffman and one other lieutenant to be selected later.

UNIT OF A. A. A. IS NOW BEING FORMED HERE

C. H. Fitch, manager of the Emergency road service department and Mrs. Joylette Patterson, field representative of the American Automobile Association, are in Brownwood to establish a local branch of the A. A. A. here. The branch will include one service station, one cafe, one hotel and a bureau of information. Several local people who are members in other places have already joined the local organization before it was completed.

Abney & Bohannon Automobile Company have been designated as the official service station here and will be the A. A. A. representatives in Brownwood. Plans are now under way for the affiliation of a hotel and a bureau of information. The bureau will be established at some place here and one person will be in charge of the work at all times.

Following the designation of Federal Highway No. 67 the A. A. A. started negotiations for the establishment of headquarters at all large places along the route and also stations in small towns. With the location of Brownwood on Highway No. 10, Highway No. 67 and the Canada-to-Gulf Highway this has been especially set as headquarters of the organization.

Plans are outlined to Hilton Burks and active members of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday at which time Mr. Fitch told the men that the present plans call for a fully equipped service station and information bureau here because of its logical location Brownwood will benefit greatly from the standpoint of the large volume of tourists to be routed over the above mentioned highway by the 48,000 information bureaus and service stations in the 1,076 A. A. A. clubs throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico.

The A. A. A. is an organization sponsored for the betterment of tourists and is operated without profit and has been in active service for more than 29 years throughout North America, the organizers here declared. Its service is used by more than a million and one-half members, affecting some 3,000,000 motorists.

The plan of the organization is to establish a branch in each of the cities on Highway No. 67 and No. 10 and to prepare for all tourists who are planning on visiting the Mountains, Mexico and other points of the southwest.

Mr. Fitch said this morning that millions of dollars were spent in Canada last year by tourists and that at present Mexico is building roads and highways for the accommodation of tourists. The increase of travel into Mexico the tourists business in the border states will see a large increase, especially along federal designated highways.

Mr. Patterson and Mr. Fitch will be in Brownwood for several days completing the arrangements for the A. A. A. headquarters here and will have definite announcements concerning the other A. A. A. establishments soon.

Oklahoma Firm Is Prospective Buyer Of Bulk Oats Here

Hilton Burks, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce received a letter from the Sayre Wholesale Company of Sayre, Oklahoma, Monday asking information on bulk oats in this section. The company stated that they would be interested in purchasing oats in carload lots and asked Mr. Burks to give them the names of farmers who might wish to sell oats this way.

"The letter in full reads as follows: 'We want to buy cars of bulk oats. Could you give us the address of farmers in your territory who have them for sale. 'What do they ask for them in your territory? O. B. cars,' and was signed by the Sayre Wholesale Company."

News of his passing cast a pall of gloom over all Brownwood last night and today. Mr. Hopper was considered one of the most beloved men in the city. People said as they recalled the many kindly acts he had done, "Stewart Hopper was a friend to all mankind."

Members of the department went to the scene and after an investigation searched two houses near the place where the robbery was committed but failed to find any clues.

Still Siezed And Arrested Made In Liquor Raid Here

Members of the police department, accompanied by federal prohibition officers from San Angelo, raided the produce house of W. O. McCully across the slough bridge on the Comanche road, at 9:00 o'clock Saturday night and according to the officers' statements secured a still, whiskey and equipment for making whiskey.

McCully was arrested and placed in the city jail where he remained until this morning when he was taken to San Angelo to answer charges in federal court there. A 50 gallon still, copper coils and a receiving barrel were included in the equipment taken. About 20 gallons of liquor was confiscated and two 55 gallon barrels of mash destroyed.

The still was buried in an outbuilding near the produce house. The operation of the still, according to Bert Hise, chief of police, was done in three places. The still was operated in one building and the liquor was piped from the still, underground to a barrel bedded in concrete underneath the produce house. By use of a pump the liquor was taken from the barrel to the second story of the building where it was placed in charred kegs and bottles, Mr. Hise said.

The barrel buried into the concrete was emptied and destroyed while the other barrels were destroyed or taken to the police station. Chief Hise said that so far as he knew this was the first still to ever be seized in the city limits of Brownwood.

Announcement has been made from Fort Worth that Rev. W. R. White, D. D., secretary of the Texas Baptist General Convention, has accepted the call to the Broadway Baptist church there.

Dr. White, it is stated, telegraphed his acceptance from Atlanta, Texas, where he is conducting a revival meeting at this time. It was not learned when he will assume his new duties, and it may be necessary for him to wait until his successor as secretary of the Convention has been chosen.

Dr. White is a graduate of Howard Payne college, and his friends in this territory are much interested in his work.

Ohio Mother Awaits Death Sentence For Murder of Another

JEFFERSON, O., June 10.—(AP)—Mrs. Julia Maude Lowther, 23-year-old domestic and mother of a boy of seven, today awaited the sentence that will order the electrocution of a woman in Ohio for the first time.

A jury of 12 men yesterday convicted her of first degree murder for the slaying of Mrs. Clara Smith, 28, of Ashtabula, wife of the man with whom she carried on a 10-day romance. By failing to recommend mercy, the jury made the death sentence mandatory under Ohio law.

Tilby Smith, 27, husband of the slain woman, also is under a death sentence. Mrs. Lowther on the witness stand confessed lying in wait on a lonely road near Ashtabula the night of May 29, 1930. As Smith drove his wife to the appointed place in his truck, Mrs. Lowther stepped from concealment and fired the fatal shot. Mrs. Smith died with one of her two small children in her arms.

Attorneys for the defendant pleaded for mercy on the ground that Mrs. Lowther was blinded by love of Smith. The woman had testified they wanted "to go away together."

The defense announced a motion for a new trial would be filed today. Upon completion of the new capital at Juneau, Alaska, the headquarters of the United States agricultural stations will be removed to it from Sitka, leaving the old capital stripped of its last government bureau.

Germany Faces Collapse

AN APPEAL for modification of the Young plan of reparations payments has been made by Germany to the creditor nations, and by them passed along to the United States, the largest creditor of all the nations involved in the world war.

The Young plan attempted to make provision for such periods of depression as the present, by permitting Germany to give ninety days notice of inability to meet certain payments designated as "postponable."

Under such circumstances, there seems nothing to be done except to readjust the payments scheduled for Germany on the reparations account, although that may involve a readjustment of payments made by all the nations on their war debts.

The Next Congressional Race

ONE STUBBORN member of the Legislature defeated the free conference report on redistricting during the closing days of the Legislature, and unless Governor Sterling calls a special session to attend to the matter Texas next year will elect three congressmen-at-large. The Legislature struggled with the redistricting problem for four months, encountering much difficulty as it endeavored to adjust the districts according to population without disturbing the tenure of office by the present eighteen congressmen, and after the House and Senate had passed bills differing in some important respects a conference committee met and attempted to adjust the two bills.

A period of six years was spent in redistricting following the 1910 census, and congressmen-at-large were elected until 1916. There was no reapportionment following the 1920 census, but the 1930 census gave Texas three additional members of the House of Representatives. In the absence of redistricting, these three will be elected from the state at large, and all may come from the same city or county. Moreover, in the election of congressmen-at-large under present regulations, the three leading candidates for the nomination in the first primary will be nominated, no runoff primary being required. Senator Puri attempted to remedy this situation by offering a bill during the recent session which would have required candidates for congressmen-at-large to offer themselves for places 1, 2 or 3, with a runoff race for each place.

Congressmen-at-large sometimes are very able men, and some of the present members of the House were first elected from the state at large during the six year period following the 1910 census. Sometimes, however, they are not so able, and are actually worth little to the state, their principal value being to add their votes to their party's strength in the House. It is regretted that redistricting was not accomplished during the long legislative session. Texas needed it, in order that each of the twenty-one representatives of this state in the next Congress might be definitely identified with a district and its people.

Bonds in Demand

PROMPT oversubscription of the Treasury Department's offer of $800,000,000 in eighteen-year 3 1/2 percent bonds seems to have surprised Secretary Mellon and other national financial experts. The demand was for approximately six times as many bonds as were offered. Mr. Mellon reports, although it is thought probable that some of the prospective investors padded their subscriptions in anticipation of an excess demand.

This tremendous popular demand for low interest bearing securities the government is interpreted as meaning that a great many investors with idle money are seeking safe securities at low interest rates probably as a reaction from the frenzy of 1929 when so many millions of dollars were invested in speculative ventures offering large returns. Encouraged by this response to the first offering of long-term bonds, the Treasury is expected to renege most of its short-term obligations with similar issues during the next few months. More than a billion and a half dollars worth of short-term notes will mature before December 1st.

TEXAS AND TEXANS

By WILL H. MAYES, Austin, Texas. "All Texans for all Texas"

Quitters or Winners? Whoever originated the slogan, "Quitters never win; winners never quit," said something for all of us to think about. When times get dull, or we face repeated disappointments in whatever we may be trying to do, most of us are tempted to quit and start at something that looks less difficult.

Ingratitude Somebody must have hurt the feelings of the editor of the Midlothian Argus by sending out a town for printing. That paper says: "Just about 52 times a year the Argus points out the advantage of patronizing home enterprises and when we go into a store and see printing that was done out of town, we can't help but feeling that we have been robbed of a reward due us for our efforts."

No Hard Times There Carizzo Springs people wonder what all this talk about hard times means. The town is in the middle of a great artesian well irrigation district and grows strawberries, oranges, vegetables and many other good things to eat. New residences are springing up all the time and all over the town. Plenty to eat and plenty of money in plenty of homes make a people plenty contented.

Building Water Reservoir Taylor doesn't want to get scared again by threatened scarcity of water like it has been at times past. Contracts have been made for a huge concrete reservoir that will hold a sufficient amount of water to supply the city over an extended drought whenever it may come.

Laredo Onion Crop The Laredo section this season shipped slightly more than 1,000 cars of onions, receiving approximately $700,000 for them. Last year 1,620 cars were shipped, but the returns were not so large as for the smaller crop this season. The experience of the Laredoans is, "The more you make, the less you make."

Immigration Station The United States has acquired a block of ground in Galveston on which to build a $250,000 immigration station. This will serve as a general clearing house for immigrants and to hold deportees until ship transportation can be arranged for them back to their native lands. With that kind of a station for them, immigrants should get a favorable first impression of the shores on which they have landed, even if they may have to go back home.

Texas Wool Shipments San Angelo alone will ship this season 27,000,000 pounds of wool concentrated there. The Texas production is estimated at 50,000,000 pounds. The crop has been sold at prices ranging from 16 to 20 cents. Texas can grow enough wool to clothe the entire world comfortably, but no woolsen cloths are made in the state.

Cool Hill Country A statement was published that Brownsville, the southernmost United States city, was the coolest place in the United States on May 28, when the temperature there was 83. Kerrville, the Hill country resort, accepted the challenge, stating that the Kerrville temperature that day was 65.

Wanting Roads Six to one was the vote in Real county favoring an $85,000 road bond issue. Federal and State governments are expected to supplement this by at least twice that amount. Real county doesn't believe in waiting for a road bond constitutional amendment. That it is too slow and too uncertain for these help-themselvs westerners.

Yoaquam Tom-Tom The Yoaquam Tom-Tom drew 35,000 people, it is said, including the Governor and numerous other state officials. The Tom-Tom bids fair to rival the Turkey Trot of its neighbor, Cuero. Both festivals have unique names, worth much to their towns for publicity purposes.

The society visited the Philanthropic Sunday school class of which Mrs. Lowrie is a member.

The time was spent in singing and instrumental music till the hour arrived for the honoree to receive the many beautiful gifts from the members of the missionary society. The Sunday school class presented her a beautiful leather purse.

Mrs. Lowrie has a host of friends here who hate to know she is moving away, but all join in wishing her much happiness in her new home.

GIRL MARKET CASE GIVEN NEW ANGLE

SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 11.—(AP)—Charges that attempts had been made to obtain false testimony in behalf of Jesse H. Shreve, wealthy real estate operator, and one of the four defendants in a "girl market" case here, precipitated an investigation today.

The charges were disclosed yesterday when Mrs. Mary A. Siens filed suit for divorce against E. Byron Siens, oil promoter and sportsman, alleging her husband had asked her to "lie on the witness stand" and then abused her because she refused to do so.

Mrs. Siens told investigators her husband had informed her and Miss May Cornell of Chicago, a visitor in their home, that he expected the two women to give perjured testimony, if necessary, in favor of Shreve.

John P. Mills, who became a state witness after he had pleaded guilty to contributing to the delinquency of two girls in bringing them to a hotel here attended by Shreve and Alexander Panagias, theatre magnate, testified that he and Shreve agreed to pay William Jobelmann and Olive Clark Day, co-defendants $200 to bring the girls to San Diego.

Mills denied he had said in the presence of Mrs. Siens and Miss Cornell that he wanted Shreve to "take care of a couple of my friends" who were coming from Los Angeles October 30.

District Attorney Tom Whelan said Mrs. Siens mentioned the purported conversation in outlining to him the testimony she and Miss Cornell had been asked to give.

Siens, who was held for questioning, denied having had any difficulty with his wife on anything to do with testimony for Shreve. Shreve declared there was not a word of truth in the woman's story.

Sportsmanship Is Displayed By Miss Nichols On Flight

NEW YORK, June 11.—(AP)—The tradition of sportsmanship between trans-Atlantic fliers founded in 1926 by Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd has been upheld by a woman.

In the summer of 1926, Colonel Lindbergh, Clarence D. Chamberlin, and the members of the Byrd expedition were pushing preparations in a race to be first into the air. Lindbergh won but Byrd was ready a few hours later.

"Will you start after him right away?" Byrd was asked while Lindbergh was still somewhere over the Atlantic.

"No," Byrd replied. "Slim got away first and until he lands in France the sky is his and we will make no attempt to share the honor that is his due."

Today Ruth Nichols, who is to attempt the first solo flight across the ocean by a woman and who seems likely to be first in the air of all this year's aspirants for Atlantic air honors, has made as gallant a gesture of sportsmanship as did Byrd five years ago.

She has offered to share the weather data gathered at her expense and by her organization with Laura Ingalls, who is preparing in California for a trans-Atlantic flight. The offer has been accepted by Miss Ingalls' representatives, who however, insisted that the expense be shared as well as the information.

PARIS, June 10.—(AP)—Captain Frank Hawks, American speed flier, landed at Le Bourget airdrome at 4:30 a. m., central standard time today after a flight over the Alps from Lausanne, Switzerland, in one hour and forty minutes. Two hours later he took off for Rome.

Federal Farm Board Counsel Discusses Marketing Problems

MANHATTAN, Kas., June 11.—(AP)—Stanley Reed, general counsel of the Federal Farm Board, said today agricultural producers should look beyond government purchases of surplus for a solution of marketing problems. Reed was on the program for a discussion of the financial structure of cooperatives before the American Institute of Cooperation in session here. Government purchases "may be helpful in emergencies, but they are not the final answer to the difficulties," he said. He held that stabilization provisions of the agricultural marketing act, while important, "have received attention from the public entirely out of proportion to their relationship to the co-operative movement." The Farm Board Counsel said it was essential there be harmony between the co-operatives and the Board in working out a system of marketing "that will carry back to the producer the greatest financial benefit from his crops." Winfield Day, Jr., Chicago and Miami school boy golfer, won the spring tournament of the Miami Country Club.

PSYCHOLOGY TO BE PRO WEAPON

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(AP)—A self-styled "Unsociological, undisciplined professor from the Bible belt" has undertaken the task of making psychology a prohibition enforcement weapon. Fred N. Gregg, professor of psychology and education at Nebraska Wesleyan University, is holding classes at the Prohibition Bureau daily for 24 picked men from the 12 prohibition districts. In two weeks they are expected by him to return to their headquarters well versed in the mental gymnastics of the human race. Ideas acquired here are to be passed along by them to the more than 2,000 agents who will compose the federal enforcement division beginning July 1. A class room atmosphere pervades the hall in which the professor presides. Charts relating to the science of teaching and to the relationship of instincts, emotions and intelligence hang upon the walls. Along with these, Professor Gregg brought specially prepared diagrams depicting the effects of alcohol upon the human brain. Although not actually teaching prohibition to the agents, the professor came from the west with an assertion that the people on the Eastern Allegheny slope think inhabitants of other sections "naive." He said he believed Easterners do not sense the dry sentiment of the rest of the country.

Contributions Are Being Received In Flood Swept Area

MEMPHIS, Texas, June 11.—(AP)—Voluntary contributions were being received today by J. Claude Wells, chairman of the Hall County Red Cross chapter, for the aid of farmers in the vicinity of Turkey and Quaque, 40 miles to the south-west, whose crops were destroyed by a cloudburst Monday night. A drive for funds and for seed to replant the crops was begun in Memphis today and a similar drive was under way in the Turkey country, directed by Garland Coker, chairman of the Red Cross there. Henry M. Baker, state manager of the Red Cross in Oklahoma, went to Turkey yesterday to conduct a thorough survey for headquarters in St. Louis, but immediate relief is needed due to the lateness of the planting season, Wells said. Aid from the national organization is expected later, he said. J. H. Jackson of Shamrock, who gave four tons of unthreshed maize, was the first to make a donation. Wells estimated that the 300 families in the 65,000 acre area would need an average of $40 worth of seed to the family, or a total of $12,000 worth. "Farmers in the flood area are in desperate situation, having had crop failures the two preceding years," Wells said. "Voluntary contributions of seed or money will be gladly accepted. The need is urgent."

Rev. Hal Wingo Speaks On Love At Calvary Revival

The following report is given The Bulletin today from the revival services at Calvary Baptist church. "Quite an increase in attendance was observed at the service at Calvary Baptist church. Beginning the service promptly at the appointed hour Hal Wingo launched out immediately on the subject of love. He read from the third chapter of Ephesians and took his text from the 19th verse: 'To know the love of Christ.' "He made explanation of the family of God, the kingdom of God and the church of God but stated that it was impossible to really define the love of God. God dwells in man and Christ does not personally dwell there but may dwell there in the form of the Holy Spirit. While love is indefinable yet it is active, it is perfect and unchangeable. The love of God is a burning compassion for the vilest sinner. If we could get the world to see this God really loves the unlovable, sinners would fill the auditorium. It is observed that the man who lives closest to God will go the farthest to win a lost soul to Christ. Our trouble is that we have failed to let the world know that God really loves the sinner. "God's love is unending. When all others fail us God will take us up. He related a striking illustration of a mother's love and emphasized the fact that God's love surpasses the mother love. "God's love is unchangeable. I preach an eternal salvation because I believe in an eternal God. His love never changes but he is always ready to forgive and thus too his love is a reclaiming love. He related at this instance the case of Peter being reclaimed and made a personal plea for the backslider to let God reclaim his life. "A personal urge was given to the lost and it was easily observed the Holy Spirit was working. A number of people requested prayer. An after meeting was held and a great group of men poured out their heart to God in earnest prayer for the lost. There is a deep conviction in the heart of the Christians that victory is coming in this evening service if not sooner. "You are urged to be present at the prayer meeting at 7:45. There is a group for all ages. Preaching services at 8:15. Come and worship with us and help win the lost to Christ."

Remington Relates Turtle Discovery

Following the publication of a crawfish story in yesterday's Bulletin Clarence Remington, local peace officer, comes along with another story concerning water habitats. He says, and claims proof for the statement, that he saw the biggest turtle in this country Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Remington said that while returning from Brady he saw a large turtle more than half a mile from any water. He shot the turtle in an effort to make it get its head out of its shell he climbed upon its back with both feet and then the turtle had strength enough to turn around with him on his back. Mr. Remington said that the turtle's legs were as big as a man's arms and that it was more than two feet across the back. He thinks this story surpasses any mere crawfish being found on the streets after a rain. ANOTHER TELEVISION DEMONSTRATION MADE THAT IS CONVINCING

CHICAGO, June 11.—(AP)—Another of those rather convincing television demonstrations, this one with a receiver that puts the picture on a small screen, has come outside the radio trade show. The outfit over which pictures were picked up from the transmitter of 29XAF, companion short wave station of WMAQ, owned by the Chicago Daily News, was designed for possible home use. It had a small frosted glass screen at the top on which the radio movie could be seen. This was four inches square. By removing the glass and placing a larger screen in front of the set, pictures up to two feet square were reproduced. The complete outfit was housed in a cabinet about three feet tall and placed on a small table. The projection was made possible through the use of a lens disk only eight inches in diameter and a crater type of neon lamp developed by Lloyd P. Garner, director of research of the Western Television Laboratories. It operates on only 15 volts. Focusing apparatus is incorporated to clear up the picture when its size is changed. Today delegates to the Radio Manufacturers' Association convention spent in viewing the exhibits and discussing marketing plans at private meetings, having concluded the business of the convention yesterday with the election of Clark Colt of Chicago as president.

Chinese Minister Resigns Post For Political Reasons

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(AP)—The Chinese legation announced today that Minister Chao Chu Wu had resigned his post. Legation attaches declined to go into details but said the resignation was for "political reasons." The minister was said by legation attaches to be "out of sympathy with the Nanking government." They withheld further information until a conference with newspaper men called for today at 3 p. m. Acting as a special commissioner, Minister Wu conducted negotiations with the Washington government on the subject of extra territorial privileges accorded Americans in China under treaties, before his appointment as minister plenipotentiary. He was appointed special commissioner in 1927 when the nationalist cabinet was formed. He formally presented his credentials to President Hoover as minister to the Washington government March 26, 1929. The minister since then has played a prominent part in the Chinese American extra territorial negotiations and has been an outstanding exponent of abolition of those privileges which accord to Americans in China in effect the same rights they would have were they in their native country. The resignation of Minister Wu leaves the legation again in charge of Yung Kwai, attached to the legation for more than a quarter of a century and charge d'affaires ad interim on the many occasions when the military situation in the Eastern Republic has left him representing virtually no government. The average production of 2,143 dairy cows on test in Tennessee improvement associations in April was 544 pounds of milk.

Mexican Government Permit Given Goat Gland Specialist

DEL RIO, Texas, June 11.—(AP)—H. L. Munal, business manager for Dr. John R. Brinkley, "Goat Gland" rejuvenation specialist formerly of Milford, Kans., said today a Mexican government permit for a radio station at Monterey, held by Brinkley, had been cancelled but that the permit for a station at Villa Acuna, opposite Del Rio, was not affected. Brinkley, whose broadcasting station permit in Kansas was revoked by the Federal Radio Commission and his medical practice license, by the Kansas State Medical Board, recently started construction of an 80,000 watt broadcasting station at Villa Acuna. Munal explained that before work was started in Villa Acuna, a Mexican holding company interested in operating a radio station at Monterey but that a permit for a site at Villa Acuna was obtained later and the Monterey permit was no longer needed.

Grand Jury Probes Ritchfield Deficit Los Angeles Today

LOS ANGELES, June 11.—(AP)—The district attorney's office today was investigating an alleged loss of $54,219.091 to the Ritchfield Oil Company of California and the Ritchfield Company, its holding concern, through asserted irregularities by their officers. Deputy District Attorney Bonner Richardson said the matter would be presented to the grand jury if evidence of culpability was found. Both companies are in receivership. A report on the asserted losses charging "acts which appear to constitute violations of the corporate securities act and other penal laws" was submitted to the prosecutor's office yesterday by the state corporation commissioner, Raymond L. Haight. In addition to violations of the securities act, Haight specifically accused four former Ritchfield officials—C. M. Fuller, J. A. Talbot, R. W. McKee and A. M. Kelley—of "unauthorized withdrawals" from the company, largely for personal use. "Such charges, if substantiated, would be in effect, charges of grand theft," Richardson declared. McKee and Kelley last night issued statements saying they had arranged to pay off their debt balances. McKee's debit balance as of

UNITED STATES WILL BE ASKED TO AID EUROPE

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(AP)—Economic forces born of the world war, but swollen to gigantic proportions by the general depression of today, face the statesmen of the world.

On the surface, Europe alone is involved in the new uprising of the war reparations problem. The known developments have centered in Germany and England with heads of those governments in intimate conference and France a vitally interested onlooker.

Yet it is on Washington and the Hoover administration that world attention is focused, looking for a sign that America again is ready to lend aid to a new attempt to iron out the tangle of reparations, interrelated debts, disarmament, tariffs, budgetary deficits and all other elements involved in an international economic crisis in 1931.

Out of the Anglo-German conference at Chequers, official residence of Prime Minister MacDonald, European observers drew the impression that a new move had been set afoot looking to "international collaboration" to meet the situation.

That phrase was construed as meaning American collaboration in a conference where Germany's world war reparation liabilities to the former world allies could be reviewed simultaneously with the situation as to the war debts owed by those allies to their former war associate, the United States.

Hands Off Policy
America exacted no reparations payments from Germany. Under four Presidents, Wilson, Harding, Coolidge and Hoover, she has declined to consider the question of allied reparations from Germany and allied war debts to her as interlocking.

The conclusion drawn by European observers of the Anglo-German conferences in early June was that Chancellor Brüning and Foreign Minister Curtius of Germany had been informed that there could be no scaling down of reparations unless there also was reduction or abatement in war debt payment schedules for the former allies.

Presumably it was left to German initiative to find a way to induce Washington to consider some action of that kind.

Added Arms Limitations
Out of Washington happenings, vague as they may be in throwing light on administration purposes, not only foreign but usually well informed Washington observers have gleaned possible significance. President Hoover's insistence on further arms limitation, so quickly disclosed in his initiation of the London naval parity move and emphasized in his recent speech, lends color to the idea he is prepared to go far to attain that end.

It remains to be seen whether the new phase of the reparations tangle, crystallizing in the German government's struggle with increased taxation in the face of rumbles of political revolt under any added burden, offers Washington an opportunity to trade some form of war debt revision for an international pact, backed by the Kellogg-Briand universal treaty against war as an agency of national policy, actually cutting down the armies and military taxes of the world. There have been no intimations from official sources to that effect in Washington.

Wheat Crop Outlook "Bullish", Declares Farm Board Leader
KANSAS CITY, June 11.—(AP)—James C. Stone, chairman of the Federal Farm Board, terms the wheat outlook "bullish" today. "It is bound to be," he explained last night. "What growers will not continue to produce wheat to be sold at less than cost. It isn't natural."

Stone, Edgar Markham, his assistant, and Stanley Reed, general counsel for the Farm Board, arrived here on their way to Manhattan, Kas., where Stone will address the American Institute of Cooperation Friday.

The Resurrection and the Ascension

Text: Luke 24:25-40, 56, 57. Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken.

Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went; and he made as though he would have gone forth.

But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us; for it is toward evening, and the day is spent. And he went in to tarry with them. And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures? And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the two gathered together, and saying that they were with him.

Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon. And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread. And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and said unto them, Peace be unto you.

But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself; handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have. And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet. And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.

And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven. The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for June 14, The Resurrection and the Ascension, Luke 24:25-40, 56, 57.

By Wm. E. GILROY, D. D., Editor of The Congressionalist
THE text of our lesson is from the beautiful story of the walk to Emmaus, and the whole story, of course, must be ready to get the proper setting for the portion specially designated as the lesson. The story is one that has very special significance in many respects apart from its specific teaching. It has an important bearing upon the question in many minds. Did Jesus really rise from the dead? Or have we in our records of the Resurrection, as some apparently believed even at an early day in the history of the church, "cunningly devised fables"?

PETITIONS ARE CIRCULATED FOR A SOIL SURVEY

Petitions are being circulated among the farmers of the county for a soil survey of Brown county and if every community in the county will join in the petition the United States Bureau of Soils in cooperation with the Agriculture Experiment Station will make the survey without any cost to the county.

With the completion of the county water project with its irrigation facilities the farmers should know what kind of soil they have and what it will grow best. The Brown County Water Improvement District No. 1 requested the survey from the director of the Agriculture Experiment Station at College Station, it is pointed out. The director says the government cannot make a soil survey of any county unless the farmers of the county sign petitions asking that the work be done.

The petitions have been sent and can be secured at the bank at the bank at planket, W. F. Timmin's store at Zephyr, C. W. Parker's store at Indian Creek and from the county agent's office at Brownwood. W. R. Chambers and J. W. Moore are handling the petitions in the northern part of the county.

A number of farmers have already signed the petitions for their respective communities, and all farmers interested in their farms are expected to sign, it is said. In signing the petition the farmer agrees to cooperate in the soil survey with the field forces of the agriculture experiment station.

Disciples' Faith Revived
Perhaps it should be said, quite frankly, that all such speculations and materialistic questionings are apart from the spiritual interest of the record. The important fact is that the disciples experienced a real consciousness of the presence of Jesus which revived their drooping faith, quickened their religious experience, and re-established the trust that they had had in Jesus of Nazareth as the Redeemer of Israel, and the Savior of the world.

Must not faith come to us in much the same way? We shall not see the bodily form accompanying us on the daily way, but we shall see the same real and sincere as that of these disciples who were on the way to Emmaus, we shall undoubtedly experience the reality of the presence of the Master and know with assurance that he is not dead but living. The depth and reality of that experience does not depend upon the outward manifestation, nor does the power of the Master depend upon external proof. The evidences of his presence in the world, and of his power, are, after all, as real as they were in days gone by.

The Power of Faith
Only the other day I sat beside a man with a remarkable experience of Christian life and achievement. I talked to him and heard him talk. He had just come back from the most terrible scenes of the remote famine-stricken districts of China. He had gone up into areas that were infested by bandits where no traveler was safe and where not even the authorities of the law could penetrate. Yet in this region he had carried in great sums of money without losing a dollar and large quantities of food among starving people with only very slight loss.

What was the power that this man had? It was the power of a sublime faith and a complete consecration that gave him unlimited courage. The rickings of his life were nothing, and even violent men respected him as they realized the completeness of his unselfishness and his courage. A life like that makes the Master as real as he was to these men at Emmaus. One could not sit in the presence of that man and hear him talk without feeling that the Master was near. It is the embodiment of the spirit of Christ in the souls of those in whom he lives today that is the surest evidence of the Resurrection and of the fact that Jesus who was crucified on Calvary is the eternal Christ, living forever to guide and inspire us.

Six Men Relate How They Escaped From Sunken Submarine

WEIHAIWEI, China, June 10.—(AP)—The story of six men who made a remarkable escape from the British submarine Poiseidon after it had sunk in the Yellow Sea yesterday was revealed today.

Two members of the crew emerged from the sunken submarine two and one-half hours after it had been struck by the Chinese coastal steamer Yuta and four others reached the surface more than three hours afterward, all through the Davis escape apparatus. They were picked up by boats from British warships, attached to the British far east fleet.

Whether these rescues affected the casualty list was not known. The British admiralty said 18 men were missing and 31 were saved, two of whom later died from their injuries. Other advice said there were only 18 aboard.

The Poiseidon's parent ship Midway, the aircraft carrier Hermes and the cruisers Berwick and the Cumberland went to the scene, ten miles off the north shore of the Shantung peninsula, and located the wreck in about 120 feet of water. Efforts were being made to raise the submarine.

When the Yuta struck the Poiseidon, engaged in training maneuvers, she tore a huge hole in the latter's side and she sank rapidly in about twenty fathoms of water.

The $10,000 two-story Dept. of Rhyolite, Nev., houses the only family left in the mining camp, which once had a population of thousands.

Many uses of the soil survey are named. It is valuable to the individual farmer because it gives him a better idea as to the differences which exist between the various soil types on his farm. It indicates to him the possibilities of growing other crops than those he has been growing, where such possibilities have been demonstrated on the same character of soils in other localities either by other farms or by experiment station investigations. In the same way it gives him information as to the practices of cultivation, fertilization, and rotations on his soil types as developed on these soils in other areas. It gives the farmer a broader view of his soils and their relations to agriculture by comparing his soils with similar soils in other regions.

REDS BITTERLY OPPOSE ADDED GERMAN TAXES

BERLIN, June 11.—(AP)—Communist violence against the new emergency taxation decrees in four widely separated cities gave Chancellor Heinrich Brüning food for thought today.

The most serious disturbance occurred in Mannheim last night when radicals resented authorities' efforts to break up their mass meeting. Throwing up a barricade in the streets, they fired on police and firemen and stood them off until the arrival of reinforcements.

Pavements were torn up, street lights were smashed and thoroughfares were darkened before the battle was over. Traffic was disrupted and merchants closed their shops. Many arrests were made but no one was known to have been injured.

A police force was sent to Kassel by shots fired from the dark as authorities were attempting to break up a communist demonstration. The officers also were bombarded with beer mugs, flower pots and stones from nearby houses.

"Down With Brüning"
In Frankfurt-on-main and Gelsenkirchen, police were occupied all evening in dispersing red groups which marched through the streets shouting "down with Brüning." Arrests were made in both cities.

Chancellor Brüning and his foreign minister, Dr. Julius Curtius, arrived home from their conference with British statesmen in London to find the storm clouds gathering in opposition to their latest measures to place the Reich on a firm financial foundation.

They discovered that not a single political party, not even their own, had approved the tax decrees and that the press was almost unanimous in clamoring for a reduction in reparation payments to lighten Germany's load. The life of the government was said to depend on the refusal of the social democrats to join in the demand of other parties for the conviction of the Reichstag.

The chancellor was understood to have been advised by American Ambassador Frederick M. Sackett on the journey here that the American people are strongly averse to an international conference to revise the Young plan. The chancellor is expected to await the coming of Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson, before taking any formal action.

These troubles have to do with overweight, but the alterations of the body's lipids, which cause them, or indirectly affect the promotes control sufficient to preventive in many cases.
