OUR BOYS WITH THE COLORS

Of all the demands made by labor unions, the one requiring employers to collect union dues from the employees takes the prize. Presumably the dues are to be held out of the weekly pay envelopes and turned over in a lump sum to the union secretary.

In other words the employer is to be saddled with the responsibility and expense of collecting the funds used to put the squeeze on himself. How's that for adding insult to injury? And some of the union big shots had the nerve to insinuate the employers were unreasonable in refusing.

The mere fact that such propositions are made indicates that our labor situation has already gone to a ridiculous extreme. Looking back a half century we are willing to concede that labor was getting too little as its share of industry's return, and had too little protection besides. Now we have reached the opposite extreme. Labor not only gets all the protection but it demands more than its share of the return. It has been pampered so much that it claims the right to be uncompromising.

That attitude is apparent in the appeal to President Truman to use his executive power to bring General Motors officials into immediate negotiations over the union's demand for 30 per cent wage increase. The joker in the appeal is that the union, not the company, has shown most of the obstinacy to date. GM made a compromise offer but the labor bosses turned it down. They aren't looking for negotiations. They want unconditional surrender.

In the end they may discover that the whole hog or none policy will backfire. Public sympathy isn't as favorable as it used to be. Average people believe in fairness. They were for the unions when they believed workers were entitled to a better deal.

One of the most constructive moves toward ending the industrial war was that taken by the American Iron and Steel Institute in replying to the charge of huge hidden profits. It explained that the funds referred to were reserves set aside for replacing worn equipment, furthermore that the estimate was not excessive because it met with the approval of Uncle Sam's tax sleuths. It further stated that profits, after approved allowances for reserves, amounted to only 5 per cent. Hence the company claims it is not able to boost wages without boosting prices.

No person with an ounce of judgment will deny that a business must build up a fund to replace equipment. That applies even to the business of running a home—unless replacements are bought on the installment plan, in which case the reserve is built up instead of before.

Neither will anyone deny that 5 per cent profit is high. On a normal investment it is hardly sufficient to compensate a man for his risk. It would be interesting to learn how many labor agitators are willing to invest their savings in an industry paying that rate of profit, especially when the stability of the company is threatened by strikes.

The real merit in the institute's statement is that it lays the cards on the table. It is the first step toward what may develop into a permanent settlement of labor problems.

An arrangement can be reached whereby management will divulge the financial status of the business and share the profits with labor. That way no one would have a right to complain. Stockholders would receive a reasonable dividend, labor a reasonable wage, and additional profits could be divided between them. Both would be treated fairly and both would realize a reward for efficiency.

In the past many an organization has operated on that system, and with few exceptions they weathered the industrial storms. Other organizations ought to get smart and do likewise. The days of huge profits are past anyway. Between labor unions and excess profit taxes the greedy industrialist hasn't a chance.

We have been hoping all along that labor troubles will be settled without government intervention. If it should not be, we hope that a profit sharing method will be prescribed, not just a blanket order for one faction to meet the other's terms.

We must by all means preserve the system that made this country great. Thrifty people must have an inducement to continue investing their savings and ambitious workers must have an incentive to make greater efforts. To industry that means cooperation. (Continued on Page 4)

Bond Quota Short; War Chest Drags

The Victory Loan Drive, scheduled to come to an end on Dec. 6, has been extended through December 31. It was announced by leaders this week.

Cooke county lacks approximately $150,000 in E bond sales of reaching the $460,000 quota, it was estimated.

Muenster, running at about the same speed as the county proper, needs thousands of dollars worth of bonds to reach the appropriate quota of $85,000.

In like manner, the local war chest drive lags, with very little donated toward this campaign's quota.

The chairman asks that all those who have not bought their victory bonds, and who have not donated to the war chest, do so at the earliest possible date so that Muenster, who has never felt an assignment so far, will not be found wanting in these two important drives.

Hot Lunch Program Gets Underway At Parochial School

Sponsored By P-TA, 365 Students Ate Served On First Day

The hot lunch program at the Parochial school was introduced Monday, Dec. 3, and the first meal was served to 365 students. The following day ten more responded, bringing the total to 375.

Sponsored by the Parent Teachers Association of Sacred Heart school, the project was most enthusiastically welcomed by parents and students alike. All are enthusiastic over the way things have worked out and the manner in which the program is being handled.

The parish hall is headquarters for the project and students go there in relays at regular intervals of about 10 minutes, to avoid confusion at serving time. There is room for all to be seated at once.

With the exception of additional stoves all necessary equipment is installed and in use. The stoves are expected shortly. In the mean time the regular stoves in the kitchen are being used. They serve the purpose, but are short on oven space, and as soon as the new ones arrive, muffins, sweet breads and other desserts will be added to the menu. The meals are well balanced and tastily prepared.

There is a campaign on throughout the regular to raise a fund for the Sister Kenny Infantile Paralysis Foundation, which would make this treatment available to every child stricken with this dread disease. Every cent of money raised during this drive will be used to fight polio.

Containers, in which to drop voluntary offerings, have been placed at the Bank, Fishers Market, FMA Store, Ben Seyler garage and Clara's Cafe.

Governor Coke R. Stevenson has named Saturday, Dec. 8, as Sister Kenny Day in Texas. It is pointed out that any contributions made in this campaign will be deductible from income tax.

CITY PURCHASES STREET ROLLER

A Pierce 3-ton self propelled street roller has been purchased by the city of Muenster for use on streets and roads. The city council approved the purchase at its meeting last month and it was announced at the session this week that the machine has arrived.

The council agreed that this is a worthwhile investment and will pay for itself many times in the work that it will accomplish on city streets.

Billy Ray Hellman Undergoes Delicate Eye Operation

Other Muenster Sick Folk Reported As Improving This Week

Billy Ray, 3 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Hellman, underwent a delicate eye operation at St. Joseph's hospital in Fort Worth Monday. The little boy was blinded last summer in an accident and the operation grafted a live pupil in the sightless eye. Reports from relatives Tuesday were that the operation was successful but that two weeks must elapse before it is definitely known if the operation has brought back his sight. He will be confined to the hospital this week then spend a week at home before reporting back to his doctor. His parents and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Hellman were with him during the operation and his mother remained with him during the week.

Mrs. Joseph Danglmayr underwent a major operation at Saint Paul's hospital in Dallas last Monday and in spite of her advanced age stood the surgery as well as could be expected. Her condition is reported as satisfactory.

H.P. Hennigan is confined to St. Vincent's hospital in Sherman where he is having dental surgery done. He is still in a weakened condition from a recent major operation and the extraction of his teeth has weakened his further.

Leo Mosler is still confined to St. Vincent's hospital and is undergoing treatments for ailments which have afflicted him for the past several months.

Mrs. Loyal Burchfiel was taken to a Gainesville hospital Sunday when she became suddenly ill with what was thought to be appendicitis. Up to Tuesday she had responded well to treatment and it was said an operation would not be necessary.

Little 5 year old Judy Trubenbach, who submitted to a spinal operation at Baylor Hospital in Dallas two weeks ago, emerged from the surgery in excellent condition and since then has made remarkable progress toward recovery. She is now being given X-ray treatments. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alois Trubenbach and other members of the family are attending her bedside.

Clara Mae Sicking, who was seriously ill last week from lock jaw, is reported recovering this week and will be moved from a Gainesville hospital to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sicking, this weekend if no complications develop. She sustained only a minor scratch in a fall, but tetanus set in.

Mrs. J.E. Lane and Mrs. John Beard, who have been seriously ill with heart ailments, are reported much improved this week. Mrs. Lane has her daughter from Pilot Point with her and attending Mrs. Beard's bedside are her two sisters from up north.

Alvin Hartman is back at his classes at Sacred Heart High School after being in the Gainesville sanitarium last week receiving Penicillin injections for a bone infection in his arm. The arm was injured in a fall about four years ago.

Edgar Klement is recovering normally from a minor operation performed at Gainesville sanitarium Tuesday.

Joe Fette, who has been laid up about a month on account of poisoning in his system, will be able to resume his oil field duties by the end of the week. A large abscess that formed under his left arm was lanced and drained last week.

Jack Tuggle resumed his work at Ben Seyler Motor Company Monday after being off duty for a month during which time he underwent a minor operation at Veterans' Hospital in Dallas.

Ed Eppert left Tuesday for Marlin to spend about ten days for his health. His sons, Bill and Walter, drove him to that health resort.

KIWANIS CLUB OF GAINESVILLE SHOWS SOIL MOVIE HERE

Fifteen members of the Gainesville Kiwanis club were in Muenster Monday evening to present a soil conservation program and movie in the parish hall. The program was well attended by farmers of the Muenster area. Highlighting the evening's entertainment was the motion picture "It Can Happen Here", revealing the effects of soil erosion and how to combat it.

Flying Interest Is On Increase Here; Planes Bought, Field Leased

Telephone Company Has Annual Meet, Officer Election

Will Improve Lines And Service; Rates To Increase January 1

Stockholders of the Muenster Telephone Company gathered in the parish hall, Saturday, Dec. 1, for the annual general business meeting and for the election of officers for the ensuing year. G. H. Hellman, president, was in charge of the session.

Much important business was discussed at this meeting and changes were made in the officer personnel.

The board of directors formerly composed of 18 men was cut to seven. They are G. H. Hellman, J. H. Otto, W.T. Richter, Felix Becker, Henry Fette, Jake Horn, Jr., J. M. Weinzapfel.

Directors then reelected G. H. Hellman president, W. T. Richter treasurer and Jake Horn, Jr., secretary, and named J.M. Weinzapfel as vice president.

In its post war planning the board of directors has decided to make substantial improvements and to give better service. It was explained that monthly service charges have been so low that no reserve accumulated to take care of contingencies and depreciation. Since the ice storm last winter the line has gone down to where very specific improvements are imperative.

To make this work possible, the rates will be raised. The new monthly rate schedule will go into effect on January 1, as follows: $1.50 for each telephone connection for party lines; $2.00 for individual lines in the city of Muenster, and $3.00 for business establishments in the city, plus federal tax. In addition all patrons who are not shareholders in the corporation will be required to make a security deposit of $10.00 for each box. This deposit will be returned when connection is discontinued. It was pointed out that this deposit is similar to that required for a gas, electric or water connection usual with utility companies.

These new arrangements, it was shown, will provide funds to make the planned improvements.

The Muenster Telephone Company is a local business, built and owned by local citizens. It was organized almost 40 years ago and has grown steadily.

CREDITS EARNED BY CPL. RAY WILDE IN ARMY GET DIPLOMA

Cpl. Ray Wilde, stationed with the army in Bremen, Germany, following completion of courses in the Army Education program which he attended in England, has been advised by the Dean Registrar of Saint Mary's University, San Antonio, that the courses have been accepted by the university in complete fulfillment of all requirements for his graduation from that university with the degree of Bachelor in Commerce. A copy of the letter was sent to the parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Wilde.

The degree will be conferred officially and the diploma will be issued at the next graduating exercises of St. Mary's on May 28, 1946. The faculty extended congratulations on completion of the work and expressed the hope that he could be with them at the commencement exercises.

Ray entered the army in May 1943, shortly before his scheduled graduation from St. Mary's. He would have completed his four years' college course in three years, plus a six weeks' summer school period. He was called before he could finish and when given the opportunity on the army program, made the most of it.

Misses Anne and Laura Huchtons, who have been nursing in Dallas, are back in Muenster for an indefinite stay with their mother, Mrs. O.J. Huchtons.

To Build Hangar In Near Future

Two Local Men Get Agencies As Airplane Dealers For Community

Muenster citizens, a goodly number of them, have their heads in the clouds and their minds in the sky, and it is apparently more air minded and air plane conscious.

Some dozen young men have been taking regular flying instructions during the past few months and several of them have already soloed.

Two local businessmen have plane agencies and an airport with a hangar, is in the process of becoming a reality.

Eddie Schmitt's land, east of the city on the highway, has been selected for the airport location and already planes are coming in and taking off from the spot. The land has been leased by Emmet Fette, and he will have a hanger built as soon as materials now in transit, arrive. He has also purchased an Aeronca Chief for delivery in January.

J.B. Wilde has the agency for the Piper Cub and has one demonstrator on the field. Another is expected in a short time. Ben Seyler awaits confirmation from Taylor Craft any day making him the local dealer for that model and he, too, will have at least one at the field as a demonstrator.

Meanwhile the group of plane lovers are making plans for the future that promise to be both entertaining and profitable. The leaders of the movement are reluctant to discuss these plans until they are more definitely worked out and they have the assurance that things will materialize as anticipated.

RECORD ATTENDANCE MARKS THANKSGIVING OBSERVANCE HERE

Favored by fair, balmy weather, and a general abundance of loose nickels, Muenster responded with its traditional generosity at the annual Thanksgiving Day observance last Thursday. The net result, $1,300, is regarded as successful and a gratifying addition to the parish plant funds.

During last Sunday's services the pastors expressed their thanks to every person who took part in raising the substantial donation. First mention was made to the St. Anne's Society, sponsors of the day's activities, who spent long hours in the kitchen preparing the fresh country sausage and baked turkey dinner that was served at noon and for supervising the entire affair. Also thanked were the dozens of others whose willingness to work enabled the sponsor group to carry through. The hundreds who came to enjoy themselves also received a word of praise for their generous spirit.

As usual school children and their parents, along with a good representation of out of town friends and relatives kept attendants busy at refreshment counters and other concessions during the afternoon, and evening. At night the young set came in, more than 250 couples strong, for their annual Thanksgiving dance. Music was furnished by that all time favorite orchestra, E.K. Brooks and his boys from Depson.

ED PELS' CAR IS STOLEN FROM MAIN STREET MONDAY

Ed Pels' car, a 1937 tudor Dodge was stolen about dark Monday evening from in front of Ben Seyler Motor company where he is employed. Ed said he noticed the car at its usual parking place shortly before six, and when he was ready to drive it home a short time later it was gone.

Thinking that perhaps a fellow employee or a member of his family had taken it for a short time he investigated but learned that no one knew anything about it. Then he notified the authorities, who immediately went to work. Up to Wednesday morning no reports had been received.

"Me... I'm staying in the Army!"

THERE ARE PLENTY OF REASONS... AND HERE THEY ARE!

- "First, I keep my present grade. That means a lot.
- "By reenlisting for 3 years I can pick my own branch of service in the Air, Ground or Service Forces, and can go to any overseas theater I wish.
- "I get my mustering-out pay, even though I'm reenlisting. Also, I get $50 a year reenlistment bonus for each year I've been in the Army. My dependents receive family allowances for the full term of my enlistment. And I'll be eligible for GI Bill of Rights benefits when I get out of the Army.
- "My food, clothes, quarters, medical and dental care are all supplied to me. And I can learn any of 200 skills or trades in the Army schools.
- "All of us who are reenlisting are going to have from 30 to 90 days' furlough at home with full pay and our travel paid both ways. And we'll have 30 days' furlough every year with pay.
- "Any time after 20 years I can retire at half pay increasing year by year to three-quarters retirement pay after 30 years of service. And the time I've already served in active military or naval service counts toward my retirement time. Added up—reenlistment seems pretty sound to me!"

JANUARY 31, 1946
AN IMPORTANT DATE FOR MEN IN THE ARMY

ation and efficiency. To the nation it means prosperity resulting from an abundance of goods.

Bringing about such an arrangement is entirely within the government's jurisdiction. Existing solely to safeguard the welfare of its citizens, it has a duty to protect the interests of capital and labor alike. The only way it can exercise that duty is by laying down a formula prescribing a fair division of the fruits of their joint efforts.

If some such method is not adopted, either voluntarily or as a result of official edict, we stand a chance of ending in serious trouble. Continued animosity will result sooner or later in victory for one faction. Then either labor will lose its gains of the past few decades or investors will lose their incentive and the government will become the owner of all productive equipment. It's industrial slavery or socialism, one of which is as bad as the other. Being pushed around by a sweat shop owner is about the same as by political henchmen.

Democracy is based on another standard. People do things voluntarily and they work together because they know that doing so is the best for everybody concerned. That's the way we want it.
