

President Stallman guest speaker at County Farm Bureau convention

The Cooke County Farm Bureau held their annual convention on Monday, September 13 at the Center Restaurant. After the serving of a steak dinner, members had the pleasure of listening to Texas Farm Bureau president Bob Stallman speak.

"The message about agriculture isn't all that pleasant," Stallman began. "Across America you hear that there are good times. Everything is rosy in the urban and suburban areas. But just outside, in rural America, it can be called a crisis." The president noted that farmers and ranchers don't have a lot of control over government actions, no control over market and other situations, but Farm Bureau is here to help work on solutions to all the problems. "We (Farm Bureau) can't do it ourselves. We need your support," Stallman continued. "68% of the people believe the government should help agriculture. We have the public's support." Stallman said the main purpose of Farm Bureau is to improve net farm income - to help make this a better world for agriculture as we enter into the millennium.

Gene Hall, also of the Farm Bureau state office, told of his recent trip to Cuba. "It is no longer advisable to use food as a weapon of diplomacy, but should be used for peace." The trip is a step to encourage Congress to change their embargo policy with Cuba, who imports food products from Europe and Asia, when they could ship just a few hundred miles from Texas Ag producers. Hall had dinner with Fidel Castro. Going "with mixed emotions," he discovered that Cuba welcomes the chance to trade with the United States.

Getting into county business, Martin Krahl was presented a plaque for 35 years of service as a Cooke County Farm Bureau director. Taylor Vestal noted the county, so far this year, had 418 new members and 2715 renewals. Mike Bartush reported for the Young Farmers and Ranchers, and Karl Haubold told of the meetings he attended as a member of the Ag Lead Program.

Robert Klement, policy development committeeman, noted that Texas Farm Bureau is rewriting the state policy book over the next 5 years and submitted several resolutions from the county to the state.

Rudy Zimmerer named directors re-elected to the board - Carl Enderby, Leonard Hartman, Tim Hartman, Ed Knight, Robert Klement, Kenny Sicking, Albert Zimmerer, and Rudy Zimmerer, and nominated three new directors Keith Colterayah from the Callisburg area, Karl Haubold from Southwest Cooke County, and Rudy Schumacher from the Era community.

New officers were also named: Edmund Knight, president; Robert Klement, 1st vice president; Tim Hartman, 2nd vice president; Kenneth Sicking, secretary/treasurer.

All directors and wives were nominated to attend the state convention in November in Corpus Christi. Door prize winners were Gloria Klement, Albert Zimmerer, Jana Colterayah, Martin Krahl, and LaVerna Nortman.

County president Tim Hartman closed the meeting noting that the meeting was attended by the largest crowd in a long time. Then, President Stallman was presented with a gift basket from Fischer's Meat Market.

King to conduct town hall meeting in Lindsay

State Representative Phil King announced that he will conduct a Town Hall meeting in Lindsay. King, who represents part of Cooke County in the Texas House, is holding this meeting as a continuation of his monthly meetings where citizens have a chance to voice their concerns with state government. The meeting is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 28 at The Wooden Spoon in Lindsay.

"I hope that by conducting his meeting at night I can visit with some of the people who could not attend our previous lunch meetings," explained King.

King's Town Hall Meetings are characterized by some brief remarks concerning various issues followed by an extensive questions and answer session where citizens have a chance to speak with the Representative. Past Town Hall Meetings have addressed issues such as the recent legislative session, an overview of the new laws that took effect Sept. 1, education funding, and

Fuhrman awarded Texas Telephone Association's highest award

During the Texas Telephone Association's (TTA) annual conference in Dallas, Alvin Fuhrman, president and general manager of Muenster Telephone Corporation, was awarded the organization's highest honor, the Neville Haynes Award. This award recognizes the lifetime commitment of certain individuals who have made outstanding contributions for the good of the industry in Texas and the association.

Mr. Fuhrman was recognized for a quiet commitment to the industry and his community that has spanned a career of 50 years - all with the same company.

During that time, he went from telephone repairman to president, owner, and manager of Muenster Telephone Corporation. Under this leadership, the company has grown from its original five employees to one with more than 45 employees. In addition, the company has grown from the local telephone service provider to a complete telecommunications company providing cable television, Internet, long distance, and wireless phone services to many communities in North Texas.

John Navarrett, president of TTA, graciously acknowledged Mr. Fuhrman as "a visionary who works to see his visions become reality" and as "a recognized leader within the state and national communications industry." During his 50 years of service, Fuhrman has served on the TTA Board of Directors since 1972, TTA's Historical Committee, chairman of TTA's Convention and Member Services Committee, United States Telephone Association's Small Company Committee, and president of Texas Independent Pioneers Association.

Also attending were Alvin's wife, Gracie, his son, Gene Fuhrman, and nine of his longtime employees.

NCTC's 75th birthday draws large crowd

North Central Texas College (NCTC) celebrated its 75th birthday last Saturday with a large enough variety of activities that everyone should have found something of interest. There was a fashion show, antique car show, clowns, bands, arts and crafts, poster contest, free haircuts, and children's rides. There were a variety of computer short courses available, as well as other hands on classes such as soap making. Concluding the festivities was a fireworks display.

It was estimated that about 4,000 people attended the celebration; 1300 partook of the free barbecue meal. It was standing room only for the popular planetarium and fashion shows. Reportedly people really enjoyed the Christmas decoration classes with participants from wall to wall. Lego Dacta class was a favorite with the kids.

Historical Commission presents benefit dinner and style show

Members of the Muenster Historical Commission are hosting a Dinner and Style Show on Saturday, Oct. 2 in the Community Center. Proceeds from the event benefit the organization's Museum Restoration project.

Garments modeled during the style show are from the inner-outer wear line manufactured by Frybrant, Inc. in Muenster. Models for the fashions are local men and women.

Catering the event is Rohmer's Restaurant. The meal is a Mexican buffet. Happy Hour begins at 6:30 p.m. followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $15 each - $30 per couple.

Orders from the line of garments modeled can be made from a catalogue that guests will receive after the show. Forty percent of any orders placed from the show goes to the Muenster Museum. Christmas is just around the corner and this fun evening is also a good time to do some early gift shopping. Frybrant has donated a variety of items such as body lotions and lingerie laundry detergent suitable for gift giving. The proceeds from these sales also goes to the museum.

It is the goal of the Muenster Historical Commission to have the museum moved from its old location to the Seyler home on Main Street by Dec. 8 when an open house is planned. The Seyler home is being renovated to house the museum. It was donated to the community by the Seylers' daughters. After the move the museum will be known as the Ben and Aggie Fette Seyler Muenster Museum.

A limited number of tickets are available at the Muenster Enterprise. Please come by and purchase yours to support the new Muenster Museum and have an entertaining evening out at the same time!

Muenster ISD Board to reconsider drug program

by Janie Hartman

The Muenster ISD Board of Trustees met last Thursday hoping to take action on the proposed drug program. An attempt to implement the plan failed after approximately 30% of the affected parents refused permission for their children to be tested.

Superintendent Steve Cooper noted that the board needs to reconsider the program. Very few forms came back with comments, though one noted was "We'll take care of our business at home, you take care of yours." Board president Clifford Sicking suggested that the forms should have included the question "Why or why not?" the parent supported the plan. "Some people would say there is a problem and would like the school to help, but they'd handle it at home." Sicking also noted that some believe there is a lack of confidentiality in the district. "Looks like we have to shelve the program and send out questionnaires," Sicking added. No action was taken on the drug program.

In the superintendent's report, Cooper noted, "We are in the new facility!" Lower grades continue to shift from building to building, with all classes hopefully settled within a week. The board decided to have an open house for the new high school, Sunday, October 3, from 2-4 p.m.

Cooper also noted that Muenster will sponsor the district golf meet, junior high district track meet, and the elementary academic meet.

Gwen Trubenbach, elementary teacher noted there are 248 students in grades K-5 and 23 in pre-K. The largest class is the fourth grade with 42 students.

Several action items were on the agenda. The board unanimously voted to accept the Cooke County Appraisal District's budget for 1999-2000. There was an approximate 6% increase.

In other action:
 • The board approved several transfers. The district now has a total of 71 transfers.
 • Gainesville is starting a full Alternative Education Program (AEP) and wants county schools to take part. Cooper noted that Muenster can approve this program as an option. If there is an AEP student, the district can send them to Gainesville. Last school year Muenster's AED students were taught from 4-8 p.m.

Sicking asked for a motion to make Gainesville's offer available. It passed unanimously.

• Approved FIXX-MY-PC for data hook-up in the new high school. They had the low bid of $12,450.

• The lease from the city for the water well was approved. The cost of $600 a year includes utilities paid by the city and any repairs by the school district. "If we would water the football fields with city water, it would be like watering with gold," said Cooper.

• Monday, September 27 was the date set for public hearing on tax rate/budget.

• The board amended the 1999-2000 budget an additional $20,000, to take care of all the "extras" in the building project.

Employees and Directors of Muenster State Bank achieved 100 percent participation in the current United Way Fund Drive, representing MSB above are from left, Henry Weinzapfel, Kathy Boone and Ben Bindel (United Way volunteers), Pam Sidwell, Cindy Koesler, Carla Truabenbach, Jan Endres, Brenda Gresh, Jeannene Walterscheid, Shellie Hoedebeck, Robert Weinzapfel, and Lillian Walterscheid. September rebates drop for Muenster

Texas Comptroller Carole Keeton Rylander issued a total of $187.7 million in monthly sales tax payments to 1,097 Texas cities and 118 counties, a 3.9 percent increase over the $180.5 million allocated in September 1998. Year-to-date, payments to cities and counties are running 6.2 percent ahead of last year. "Sales tax collections continue to expand as Texas communities gain new businesses and new jobs," Comptroller Rylander said. The sales tax rebates included $172.5 million to Texas cities. Thus far in 1999, rebates to cities are 6.8 percent higher than for the same period in 1998.

To date in 1999 Muenster rebate total, $161,458.64, is 3.69 percent less than this time in 1998. Gainesville September rebate of $263,615.01 dropped 16.15 percent from September 1998. To date this year, Gainesville has received a total of $2,554,913.11 in sales tax rebates. That is up 3.22 percent from this time in 1998. Lindsay's September rebate of $6,132.07 is up 5.88 percent from last year. To date the Lindsay total this year is $71,388.20, an improvement of 49.08 percent from September 1998.

Oak Ridge's September 1999 rebate of $7,447.33 went up 21.41 percent from September 1998. Payments to date to Oak Ridge, $55,788.85, improved 52.59 percent from a year ago.

Muenster mentioned in Texas Treasures column

by Janet Felderhoff
 Houston Chronicle travel writer Syd Kearney and Chronicle photographer E. Joseph Deering recently toured the Red River Valley. Muenster was among the stops made by the pair.

In the Sunday, August 29 issue of the Houston Chronicle, Kearney mentions Muenster and its German heritage, tells of Germanfest, and mentions Fischer's Market and Bayer's Kolonialwaren as places visitors might be enticed to sample a taste of German food such as sausage or strudel. He also mentions eating at two of the city's "dining rooms", The Center and Rohmer's Restaurant.

Deering took a photograph of Duane Haverkamp making sausage at Fischer's Meat Market. The photo was featured along with Kearney's column.

Texas laws help keep Muenster and Cooke County beautiful

by MaryLee Alford

Junk, within view of the public, is like a disease that eventually destroys the attractiveness, and thus the economy of a community. Some cleanup and beautification laws once protected only areas in counties of 125,000 or more. Because we all have the right to equal protection under the law, we are all now protected against the eyesores and economic destruction of trashy and junky properties. State and Federal law makes it a crime to junk and trash highways and property adjacent to the highway, even in the countryside.

An offense is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $500 or more than $1,000. Each day of the rule violation is a separate offense. Therefore, if a violator doesn't clean up or screen his/her junk for 30 days, the fines will be between $15,000 and $30,000. Fines could be enough to bankrupt a person or business, in which case the property may become available for sale to someone who would take pride in the property, thus improving the city and county. The legislation considers acquiring interest in and improving strips of real property within, adjacent to, or within view of the interstate or primary system a means of protecting and providing for the general welfare of the traveling public and promoting the safety of citizens.

"Junk" means old or scrap copper, brass, rope, rags, batteries, paper, trash, rubber, debris or waste — junked, dismantled, or wrecked automobiles or automobile parts; or iron, steel, and other old or scrap ferrous or nonferrous material. An establishment which stores junk falls under the definition of a junkyard. A person is in violation if any portion of the junkyard is within 1,000 feet of the nearest edge of a right-of-way of a highway in the interstate or primary system.

The legislature declares that it is necessary to regulate the erection and maintenance of outdoor advertising and the establishment, operation, and maintenance of junkyards in areas adjacent to the interstate and primary systems to promote the health, safety, welfare, morals, convenience, and enjoyment of the traveling public, and to protect the public investment in the interstate and primary systems.

These laws found in the Transportation Code, the Highway Beautification Act of 1965 and the Health and Safety Code are there to protect us. All we need to do is enforce them. We can't be so overly concerned with one person or one business that we ignore our community as a whole. People who love and want to protect Muenster for its future generations will comply. The only people who will be upset over these laws are those breaking them.

The Friends of Muenster Public Library are selling chances on a Murray Rock Canyon mountain bicycle, to support the building fund of the new library. Donations are $1.00 each or six for $5.00 and are available from board members or at the library. Pictured with the donated bike is library volunteer Teresa Fowler. Fun and education day sponsored

The Gainesville Police and Fire Departments will sponsor a public safety day on Oct. 23 coming together with the Texas Department of Public Safety, Cooke County Sheriff's Department, and Cooke County EMS to give the public a day of fun and education.

Gainesville High School has donated the use of its football field for the activities. Each department will be on hand for the public to meet and ask questions. The departments will also have important information to hand out that covers anything from fire safety to crime prevention to first aid. Some equipment such as a fire truck, patrol unit, and ambulance will be set up for the children to look at. A flag football game is planned for the public's entertainment. All the departments have divided into two teams and will compete for a trophy. It will be the Fire Department versus the Police Department, with the other departments mixed in. The game is scheduled to begin at 3 p.m.

Several other activities have also been planned. The Gainesville High School has the half-time entertainment planned. A 19" color television will be raffled off at this time. After the game the Cooke County Youth Center is sponsoring a Punt, Pass 'N Kick competition. Those wishing to participate need to contact the Youth Center. Several other organizations plan to set up booths to add to the fun.

The gate will be opened from 2 p.m. until after the Punt, Pass 'N Kick competition (about 6 p.m.). Admission is free, but donations are appreciated. All proceeds from the games and raffle will go to the Littlest Angels. All organizations who have fund raisers are asked to donate some of the proceeds to this charity.

Further information may be obtained from Officer Fleitman with the Gainesville Police Department. Information about this event can be obtained from the police news section of the police department's web site www2.nortexinfo.net/gpd.

Muenster ISD holds magazine sales

New books for the Muenster ISD School Library are a big bonus of the annual magazine sales drive through QSF (Reader's Digest). Students from grades 1-12 may be asking friends and family to renew favorite magazines this coming week.

Competitive prices help the program. For example, if you order Motor Trend for two years for $17.94, 40% or $7.18 stays with the school library to purchase new books and computers.

Another feature is MAGNET which requires no purchase. Students turn in seven names and addresses of out-of-town friends and relatives who may order. QSP sends information to these addresses one time and then destroys the list. The school library receives 40% of any sales.

The sales program began Wednesday, September 22, and officially ends Monday, Oct. 3, but orders can be taken any time by calling 759-4614, ext. 607.

Lindsay slides by Muenster to win homecoming

Injuries were a key factor in Muenster's 17-9 loss to Lindsay last Friday night. The Hornets, still without running back Bryan Miller, also missed starting quarterback Casey Walterscheid, and lost an already injured Darren Hennigan in the second half. "We have to get healthy," noted Muenster Coach Gordon Martin with district play beginning in three weeks.

"It was a sloppy game," Coach Charlie Meurer said. "We turned the ball over too often and had too many blocking errors. We have to eliminate those problems to improve."

Lindsay started the opening possession of the game from their 31 yard line. Two short runs by Adrian Anderle were followed by a fumbled ball. Dillon Sicking covered for the Hornets on the 30 yard line.

Darren Hennigan picked up 2, Mitch Endres 9, then Hennigan another 8. But a quarterback sack by Blake Crutsinger put the Hornets in 4th and 5 situation on the 13 yard line. Nick Silmon kicked a 12 yard field goal to give Muenster a 3-0 lead with 8:02 remaining in the first period.

After the kick, Anderle picked up a quick 25 yards, then lost six. An incomplete pass and a quarterback sack by Angel Hernandez forced the Knights to punt. Cody Secrest's kick put the Hornets on their 16 yard line.

It was four downs and out for Muenster. The Knights, assisted by flags and a short gain from Adam Anderle and Nick Fuhrmann, moved into Hornet territory. But then a lag and a 10 yard quarterback drop took Lindsay back to midfield. On 3rd and 20, Adrian Anderle gained seven. Then a fake punt run by Skyler Shauf was fumbled with Mitch Endres recovering on the 17 yard line as the first quarter ended.

Muenster was forced to punt after they couldn't move against the Knight defense.

Two plays later Adrian Anderle tip-toed down the turf for a 59 yard touchdown. Brad Minnix added the point after and the Knights were up 7-3 a minute into the second quarter.

Hennigan picked up 15 yards, but the next play, Muenster fumbled the ball. Josh Goldsmith covered for Lindsay on the 34 yard line. Anderle had the honor again two plays later as he scampered over the goal line on a 27 yard play. Minnix's good foot again sailed the pigskin through the uprights to give the Knights a 14-3 lead.

Starting their next drive on the 21, short runs by Hennigan moved the Hornets out to midfield. An Endres to Craig Hartman pass was good for a 10 yard gain. Endres gained 3, then was sacked by Blake Crutsinger for a 4 yard loss. After a fumbled play, the Hornets punted on 4th and 13.

Adrian Anderle took the next five runs for 30 yards before the Knights ran out of downs and punted. Mitch Endres got sacked by Minnix before the time clock announced the half-time break.

Muenster got the 3rd quarter kick, and assisted by a 15 yard penalty, the Hornets moved to midfield. Crutsinger and Randy Sikes caught Muenster in the backfield two plays, then Tommy Arendt picked off a Hornet pass to put the Knights on the Muenster 33. Adrian Anderle quickly moved the ball to the 13, but after three minus runs, Brad Minnix hit a 28 yard field goal to give the Knights a 17-3 lead with 7:54 on the clock.

Casey Walterscheid, playing for an injured Darren Hennigan, picked up 11 yards, but a clip brought the play back. Walterscheid ran two more times for 7 yards, but a quarterback sack by Secrest and Sikes forced a punt. Silmon's 49 yard kick put the Knights on their 14 yard line. The next play, Randy Grewing covered a fumbled ball putting Muenster in excellent field position on the 14.

Three plays, defended by Anderle, Jonathan Bengfort, Minnix, and Sikes took the Hornets to 4th and 12. A quarterback sack by Cody Secrest caught Muenster for a 10 yard loss.

Muenster was given another chance, when the Knights fumbled again on the 20 yard line. Walterscheid gained 5, but a fumbled ball lost two. Two incomplete passes, the second broken up by Minnix, ended the scoring threat as the final quarter began.

The Hornet defense held Lindsay to a 4 yard gain, booting the ball on 4th down. Three plays later Arendt covered a loose ball for the Knights. After two incomplete passes and a 13 yard loss on a fumbled play, Lindsay punted again. A high snap caught the punter scrambling for the ball. The attempted kick went 5 yards and Muenster took over on the 29. A flag moved the Hornets to the 18, but a fumbled ball caused by pressure from Crutsinger set the Hornets back 12 yards. Preston Henry's pass defense stopped another Hornet threat, but on 4th and 18, a quarterback keeper by Mitch Endres found the end zone. The PAT play failed for a 17-9 score with 4:55 still on the clock.

The Knight offense worked on the clock with runs by Anderle, Shauf and Anderle running the clock down to 1:39 before punting the ball to the Hornet 19.

Endres and Walterscheid mixed six runs with two incomplete passes to get to the 42. A fumbled ball, with just seconds on the clock was covered by Jonathan Bengfort to end the game in the Knights favor.

"I felt our defense played extremely well - well enough we should have won," noted Coach Martin about the Hornets. Martin noted defensive standouts - Grant Hartman, Danny Felderhoff, and John Flusche, and kicker Nick Silmon on offense.

Muenster will host the Alvord Bulldogs while Lindsay travels to Valley View this Friday night.

"Alvord is a young team, getting better every week," noted Coach Martin. "We have to execute our offense to be successful." The Bulldogs lost a dozen lettermen from their 6-5 playoff team last season. Players to watch include backs Bradley Hartfield and Dusty Matthews. Jay Smith and Ryan Haggerty will control the offensive line. Action begins at 7:30 p.m.

The Valley View Eagles are coming off a 20-14 overtime victory over Paradise last Friday. The Eagles have previously lost 42-2 to Jacksboro and 42-0 to Gunter, before getting their first win over the Panthers.

"Valley View has vastly improved. They have a good quarterback and skill people. They are better than last year," Meurer noted.

Wildcats claw Tigers

Friday night, the Sacred Heart Tigers took on the Wildcats in Santo and came home with another notch in the loss column. The 21-0 defeat gave the Tigers 0-4 for the season.

"When you go into a game out-manned, the thing you cannot do is beat yourself," noted Sacred Heart Coach Kris Hogan. "We beat ourselves by field positioning and not playing with the desire needed to win a football game."

There was an exchange of punts before Sacred Heart threw an interception to set up Santo's first score. A 2 yard run by Josh Hendricks and a kick by Cody Bridges gave the Wildcats an early 7-0 lead with 7:24 on the clock.

Starting their 3rd offensive possession inside their 20 yard line, the Tigers were unable to get the needed 10 yards and punted. A minus one yard kick put the 'Cats on the 21. Two plays later Stephen Hofbauer covered a loose ball and the Tigers regained possession on the 19.

Runs by Josh Walterscheid and Matthew Nasche took the Tigers to the 35 before Sacred Heart ran out of downs and punted. The Tiger defense led by Travis Fuhrmann and Jeff Hartman forced a punt to end the first quarter.

Starting on their 38, Nasche ran for 4 yards, then passed to John Yosten to get to the Santo 46. Nasche picked up 9 yards before being dropped for losses. A 15 yard punt was not returned from the Savoy 30. Two plays later, Hendricks scored on a 59 yard run. The PAT kick gave the Wildcats a 14-0 lead with 7:17 remaining in the 2nd period.

It was three runs, a clip, and kick for the Tigers. Two plays later Fuhrmann covered a loose ball near midfield. The next play, Santo picked off a pass to regain control.

Sacred Heart's defense, including a quarterback sack by Fuhrmann returned the ball to the Tigers after four downs.

The Tigers got in a few good runs by Keith Felderhoff and Charlie Moser, but flags kept them in Tiger territory. Santo played out the final minute before the half-time break.

It was punt, punt, punt before the Tigers got a drive going. Five consecutive Felderhoff runs for 15 yards were halted on a 4th down play. Santo took over on their 29, running into the final quarter. From the one, Hendricks scored. The PAT kick was good to give the Wildcats a 21-0 lead seconds into the 4th period.

Fumbles and flags hurt the Tigers next offensive attempt, booting the ball to the 29 yard line. The next play Adam Klement covered a fumble.

Again Sacred Heart could not get the needed yards and punted. Santo booted it back putting the Tigers on their 46. Felderhoff picked up a first down, then 8 more before the Wildcat defense stopped the drive.

Tiger tackles by Jack Biffle and Fuhrmann returned the ball to Sacred Heart after 4 runs. Felderhoff ran for another 18 yards before the game ended.

"Not being able to control the line of scrimmage hurt both offensively and defensively," said Coach Hogan, who noted that the Tigers struggled offensively when quarterback Matthew Nasche went out early in the 2nd half. Nasche should be full strength by the next Tiger game.

Wink still waiting for first win

Another 2A team toppled the Wink Wildcats last week. It was the third loss for the highly-regarded Wildcats. However, the biggest loss came during the contest against Iraan, which Wink's starting quarterback suffered a concussion and was unable to play last week against Plains. The backup qb threw 4 interceptions in Wink's 19-8 loss to Plains. Randy Tankersley is the new coach at Wink.

Muenster JV conquers Knights

The Muenster Junior Varsity Hornets took advantage of Lindsay's mistakes and earned a 24-14 victory last Thursday night.

Muenster's opening kick took a Hornet bounce. Nathan Bruce returned it to the 20. The Hornet defense held, forcing a punt. A high snap on the punt allowed Paul Fleitman, Tyler Walterscheid and Brad Felderhoff to cover the ball inside the 5 yard line. The next play Chris York ran in for 6 points. The extra point was no good. With 7:32 on the clock the Hornets led 6-0.

Bruce again returned the kick, then ran for no gain when stopped by Nathan Hess and Fleitman. On 3rd down, Paul Fleitman sacked Lindsay quarterback Rhett Rimmer, causing a fumble, which Adam Bayer covered on the 15 yard line. Two Brett Howell runs later, and the Hornets scored again. York ran in the extra points for a 14-0 score with 5:08 remaining in the first quarter.

Bruce returned the kick to the 30 yard line before being stopped by York. Two plays later, Chris York intercepted a Lindsay pass and ran it in for another touchdown. A Howell to Kevin Hermes pass added an extra 2 points for a 22-0 Muenster lead with 4:13 on the clock.

Again Bruce returned the kick to the 31 yard line, where he was stopped by Hermes. Chris Horner and Brandon Ferguson made short gains before Lindsay was forced to punt. The ball took a Muenster bounce to the 44 yard line.

Three plays later, Muenster fumbled a pitch back and the Knights covered at midfield.

Johnathan Krahl got in a good run as the second quarter began, but the Knights had to punt the ball away a few plays later. Shawn Hess tackled the punter, forcing a fumble.

Daniel Rohmer covered on the Knight 31 yard line.

The next play Howell ran up the middle, fumbled the ball into the end zone, which Bruce covered, giving Lindsay the ball on their 20 yard line.

Fleitman caught Bruce in the backfield, then tackles by Hess and Cody Mack forced a short punt. Next play a fumbled pitch was covered by Chris Horner. From their 32, Rimmer, Krahl, and Horner made short runs. A fumbled snap on fourth down gave the Knights a first. Horner made another first down before being stopped by Bobby Fisher.

Lindsay continued to move down field, led by Chuck Hines, Horner and Ferguson. Ferguson then scored and added the extra points for a 22-8 score with 2:56 remaining in the first half.

Chris York returned the kick to the 25 yard line. York then brought the Hornets to the midfield in 3 runs. Chism Cain then scored on a 42 yard run. Cain kicked the extra point for a 29-8 Hornet lead with 1:10 on the clock.

Lindsay's attempted drive ended at the buzzer when Brett Howell intercepted a pass.

Muenster took the opening kick. Mack and York steadily moved the ball to midfield. Howell then broke several tackles before Ferguson stopped him at the 20 yard line. Defensive plays by Dustin Etter, Bruce and Krahl gave the ball to the Knights on their 21.

Rhett Rimmer, on a keeper up midfield, raced for 79 yards to the end zone. The extra run was stopped short for a 29-14 score with 3:43 remaining in the 3rd quarter.

Muenster moved the ball down field reaching the 20 yard line before losing the ball to the Knights to end the 3rd period.

Runs by Horner kept Lindsay's offense alive before running out of downs.

Muenster got in a few good plays, before fumbling the ball. Mitch Creed covered for the Knights. A few bad plays and an interception by Tyler Walterscheid stopped Lindsay's drive. The Hornets took a knee and allowed the clock to tick down.

Muenster had an open date this Thursday. Lindsay hosted Valley View.

Abilene symposium offers wealth of quail information

The bobwhite quail is here today, but may be gone tomorrow. To understand why, and what, if anything, can be done, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Texas A&M University department of wildlife and fisheries sciences have organized a statewide symposium in October in Abilene.

The symposium, "Preserving Texas' Quail Heritage into the 21st Century," will be held October 13-15 in the Abilene Civic Center, 415 Pine St.

"As quail hunters and land managers, we must try and halt, and hopefully reverse, the decline in bobwhite numbers. Education is a prerequisite. The goal of this symposium is to provide a forum that will ultimately result in a better 'appreciation' of Mr. Bobwhite and his habitat needs.

"If you're interested in quail, this is one conference you don't want to miss. Seating is limited to the first 300 people who register, so make reservations early."

A minimum of five Continuing Education Units (CEUs) will be available for persons holding a private (pesticide) applicator's license with the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Participants are encouraged to pre-register. Pre-registration fees are $75 per person and must be received by October 1. Registration after October 1 and at the door will be $100 per person. Registration fees include a copy of the symposium proceedings, three meals and refreshments. Pre-registration for the optional pre-conference tour and fish dinner is $10 ($20 after October 1). No refunds will be given.

Football contest continues

Duane Haverkamp won Week 3's football contest by correctly guessing 28 games. Carol Grewing finished in 2nd place with 27, and Ted Heers in third place with 25, after winning a 3-way tie. Heers missed the final Muenster vs. Lindsay score by 11 points. Also guessing 25 and their point spreads were Wayne Klement with 14 points and Barbie Barnhill with 25.

Correctly guessing 24 winners were Mark Grewing, Charles Edwards, Damian Krahl, and Brian Rohmer.

Every contestant was given the SMU vs. Kansas game because it wasn't played, while everyone missed UNT's big win over Texas Tech.

Only two correctly picked Valley View to win and four Gainesville. Four picked Sacred Heart, three Muenster, and seven Callisburg to win.

Weekly winnings can be collected at: 1st, Schilling Oil; 2nd, Hennigan Auto Parts; and 3rd, DI One Stop.

Young Stingers end contest 0-0

Muenster hosted the Young Squires of Lindsay last Thursday in a scoreless 7th grade duel.

Chase Cain booted the opening kick. Jacob Fuhrmann returned the ball to the Lindsay 41 yard line. On the first play from scrimmage, Justin Wolf caused Squire quarterback Trinity Otto to lose control of the ball. Lindsay recovered and the next play Otto picked up 27 yards. Otto, two plays later, ran 46 yards to the end zone, but a holding flag brought the ball back. Muenster defense then took control of the game and on 4th and 9 Mark Moster sacked the quarterback for a 5 yard loss, allowing the Stinger offense to take to the field.

Muenster went nowhere on the first two runs, then the first play of the second quarter a Cain to Derek Felderhoff pass covered over 20 yards, but a flag nullified the play. Cain found Felderhoff again for eight yards, but Muenster punted on 4th and 11. A short kick set the Squires on the Muenster 38 yard line.

Wolf pulled the ball from the Lindsay runner, but the Squires recovered for a 5 yard loss. James Fanning and Aaron Walterscheid allowed only a 3 yard gain. Then a fumbled pitch put the Squires in a 4th and 14 situation. Jacob Fuhrmann was stopped by Felderhoff for a short gain and the Stingers took over on their 38 yard line with 1:36 remaining in the first half.

Sean Fuhrmann picked up 2, then after an incomplete pass, Cain found Felderhoff open for 6 yards. On 4th and 2, a pitch to Fuhrmann was good for a first down in Lindsay territory. A quarterback sack set the ball at midfield as the first half of play ended.

Jonathan Rohmer kicked the 3rd quarter start. Cain returned it to the 40 yard line, but Alfrey stole the ball and Lindsay took over.

A quarterback keeper lost a yard when Wolf and A.J. Fleitman caught Fuhrmann in the backfield. A flag and 7 yard run by Otto gave the Squires a first down on the 28 yard line. Otto gained another 4, then Wolf, Fleitman, and Craig Hopper sacked the quarterback for a minus 5.

Walterscheid caught a reverse play for another 2 yard loss, giving the ball to the Stingers after a 4th and 15 run came up short.

From the Muenster 25 Cain picked up 11 yards before Jon Rohmer caught him from behind. A pitch back to Fuhrmann gained two, but the next two plays were unsuccessful as the final period of play began. On 4th and 5, Cain punted. The ball took a Muenster roll to the Lindsay 34.

Ryan Dickerson picked up 3 yards for the Squires, but on 4th and 12, a high snap on a punt attempt allowed Fuhrmann to tackle punter Rohmer on the Lindsay 21. Three plays later, Cody Anderle covered a fumble on the 17. Two runs by Otto and an offside call gave Lindsay a first down on their 30 yard line. Otto then broke away to midfield before Clint Miller stopped him.

With 20 seconds on the clock and ticking, Stinger Wolf charged through the line. Lindsay fumbled and Fuhrmann covered for Muenster's ball.

Going to the air, a pass from Cain to John Fredrick was good for a 9 yard gain, but with 5.9 seconds on the clock, a fumbled snap ended the game 0-0.

Squires stung by Muenster

Last Thursday, the 8th grade Squires of Lindsay traveled to Muenster and returned home with a 14-8 loss to the 8th grade Stingers.

Action began when Justin Barnhill's kick was picked up by Mitchell Ward and returned to the 36 yard line. Mitch Ward picked up 5 yards, then was held to 3 when stopped by Kirk Hartman and Cameron Walterscheid. On a 4th and 1 attempt, a fumbled snap turned the ball over to Muenster.

Jared Britain quickly picked up 8 yards on 2 runs, then John Sturm picked up a 1st down.

A flag and tackles by Squires Adam Krahl and Daniel Fuhrmann returned the ball to Lindsay on downs. Brent Mercer chased Ward around in the backfield for a loss. The next play Fuhrmann got in a good run, but a holding penalty brought the play back. Two plays later a Sam Hellinger to Ward pass was good for a 20 yard gain as the 2nd quarter began.

Daniel Russell and Joseph Dangelmayr put Lindsay in a 4th and 3 predicament, but Fuhrmann was allowed to get to the 25 yard line before Hartman pulled him down. The next play, Ward found the end zone for a Lindsay touchdown. The extra point pass from Hellinger to Josh Sandmann gave the Squires a 8-0 lead with 5:06 remaining in the first half.

John Sturm returned the Squires kick 20 yards to the 39 yard line. Two Mercer runs quickly put the ball on the Lindsay 45. A quarterback sack and a pass broken up by Sam Hellinger forced a Muenster punt. A fumbled return, covered by Daniel Russell put the Stingers 12 yards from pay dirt.

Mercer ran for 4 yards, then Sturm got the Stingers to the one yard line. On first and goal, Jared Britain scored. The extra point failed for a 8-6 game with a minute on the clock.

A short kick to Mark Schreiber put the Squires on their 35 yard line. Ward ran for 11, then two flags left Lindsay with a 1st and 20. The buzzer sounded as John Sturm rushed the Lindsay quarterback for a fumble.

Muenster's offense took to the field to begin the 2nd half. Runs by Britain, Sturm and Mercer, and a Kyle Endres to Jared Ledbetter pass moved the Stingers to the 17 yard line. Britain picked up another 5, then Mercer scored on a 13 yard run. Sturm added the extra points on a run up the middle to give Muenster a 14-8 lead with four minutes on the 3rd quarter clock.

After fumbling the kick return, the Squires drive started on their 37 yard line. Endres dropped Ward for a loss, then Sturm caught Mical Webster after a short gain. Nathan Sicking rushed the quarterback for an incomplete pass, forcing the Squires to punt.

Short runs could not make up the yards lost by penalties and Muenster punted as the final period began.

Lindsay's next drive ended after 3 plays, when Jared Ledbetter covered a fumbled ball on the 38 yard line. Run by Britain and Sturm brought a 1st down at midfield, but the Stingers then punted on 4th and 9.

Webster returned the punt to the 33 yard line. Ward got a first near midfield after Russell ran him out of bounds.

Sturm stripped the ball from Hellinger but the Squire recovered. As the last minute ticked away, Lindsay threw two incomplete passes, one broken up by Josh Calabrese. The Stingers then let the last seconds tick away for a 14-8 victory.

Cubs win over kittens

The Santo Wildcats junior high came to town last Thursday challenged by the Sacred Heart Cubs, and went away with an 18-6 defeat. Santo took the opening kick and ten plays later had a 6-0 lead.

Sacred Heart bounced right back. Kevin Walterscheid returned the kick to the Santo 26. Walterscheid then ran for 11 and 7 yards to the Kittens 8 yard line. Chris Hoedebeck then went around the right side and scored. The extra run failed for a tied 6-6 game with 1:55 remaining in the first quarter.

The Cubs held Santo to a minus 2 with tackles by Walterscheid, Tony Koesler and Tony Moster, forcing a punt to end the first quarter. From the Santo 32, Walterscheid gained 5, then Wes Wimmer broke a tackle and gained 13 yards to the 14 yard line. Two Hoedebeck runs and Sacred Heart took a 12-6 lead.

Santo fumbled on the first play. Kevin Walterscheid covered, but a motion flag and fumbled pitch soon put the Cubs in a 4th and 25 punting situation. The teams exchanged possessions as the time expired to the half-time break.

Wes Wimmer returned the 3rd quarter kick to midfield. Hoedebeck took the ball to the 38. A fourth and inches quarterback sneak by Paul Bartush kept the Cubs drive alive. A pitch to Walterscheid, and Sacred Heart was knocking on Santo's door. Walterscheid got the ball inside the one, then a motion flag backed the ball to the 6. Two plays later, a Bartush pitch to Walterscheid worked for another touchdown. The extra pass play failed for an 18-6 Sacred Heart lead with 1:55 remaining in the 3rd quarter.

Santo carried the ball into the final period before Andy Davis caught the quarterback for a loss, returning the ball to the Cubs.

Sacred Heart mixed runs. Walterscheid, Hoedebeck, and Wimmer getting inside the Kitten 20 yard line before running out of downs.

Two fumbled snaps, one caused by Clayton Truabenbach, set the Kittens back 25 yards before time ran out.

Sacred Heart played Saint Mary's this week.

Where do seedless watermelon come from?

According to Comanche County Extension Agent Bob Whitney, plant breeders first take one of two sets of chromosomes, called a "diploid," and treat it with a chemical called colchicine. Colchicine, he says, will cause the seed to develop a melon with four sets of chromosomes, a "tetraploid." This melon is grown out and the seed harvested for the next growing season. The tetraploid seed is planted and begins to grow. Meanwhile, a diploid melon variety is planted alongside for pollination. These melons will grow and the seed from them will be harvested. The cross tetraploid plant with a diploid plant results in triploid seed. "This plant has three sets of chromosomes and is the 'mule' of the watermelon family," says Whitney. "This seed, when planted, will produce a seedless melon, meaning it is sterile." Whitney says growing a seedless melon is a little different than growing typical watermelon. For one thing, the seed is fragile and must be germinated under higher than normal germination temperatures. Thus, a seedless watermelon is grown as a transplant first and then moved into the field later after getting a good root system established. They are also more expensive to grow, he says.

"These seeds cost up to 20 cents apiece, and growing the actual plant in a pot to be transplanted costs another dime for a total of approximately 30 cents," he adds. "The germination percentage is also low for seedless, around 80 percent, so that cost can go up even more. It takes about 1,500 to 1,700 plants, or about $450 per acre - a lot of money and still 80 days till harvest."

Finally, seeded melon rows must be planted next to rows of the seedless melons to ensure good pollination.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

COW-CALF PRODUCERS:

Primary Income vs. Non-Primary
According to the 1997 Censuses of Agriculture, U.S. livestock and poultry sales totaled some $99 billion. 41% was from cattle and calf sales, 23% poultry, 19% dairy products, 14% hogs and 3% from all other livestock.

Now the U.S. has published some comparisons of cow-calf producers. A survey was made of producers in the 23 leading cow-calf states. Only 14% had beef cows for their primary source of income. Average herd size was 138 cows for primary income operations, compared to 33 cows for non-primary income herds. Primary income producers implemented almost all management and technological practices at higher levels. For instance, over 90% of these producers castrated compared to 68%, and 66% vaccinated cows for reproductive diseases versus 43 percent. Primary income producers averaged higher production: 3.5% higher calving percentage, 2.6% lower calf death loss, 8.7% higher weaning percentage, 24 pounds more weaning weight, and 40 pounds more weaning weight per cow exposed to breeding. Profitability was not surveyed.

WHEAT DISEASE PRE-PLANT CHECKLIST

Most of our opportunities for wheat disease management occur in the fall. Once the seed is in the ground, disease management options are pretty limited. Here is a check list of things to remember from the Kansas State University Plant Disease Diagnostic Lab. Crop rotation helps control foliar diseases and root rots that survive in wheat residue. One year of rotation to another crop is enough to break the cycle. Following a legume is ideal. Following sorghum reduces diseases, but often results in mediocre yields for other reasons. Following corn is frequently successful, but it increases the risk of head scab, especially in eastern Kansas. Following barley or bromegrass pasture can increase the risk of take-all root rot.

Residue management should be considered if you are growing continuous wheat. Some tillage is usually better than no tillage.

Volunteer wheat control is important to eliminate the source of wheat streak mosaic virus, fall leaf rust, and many other pests.

Proper fertility (especially nitrogen and chloride) can help to reduce some diseases. Remember that continuous wheat fields are more prone to take-all root rot.

Variety selection for disease resistance is probably the most important factor in disease control.

Certified seed is inspected to ensure it is free of seed borne diseases like loose smut and bunt.

Seed treatment is good insurance against seedborne loose smut, common bunt, and seedling blight.

Planting date affects several diseases and insects. Early planting increases the risk of wheat streak mosaic, barley yellow dwarf, and take-all.

Kim, who is not a certified applicator, allegedly directed workers to make the pesticide application without complying with required standards for worker protection. One worker was hospitalized.

RAG WEED IS COMING TO TOWN

With fall season around the corner, a new wave of potential allergens will be unleashed. Pollens such as ragweed and others float around ready to induce itchy watery eyes, runny nose and sneezing for environmental allergy sufferers.

Approximately 18.6 million infants, children and adults in the United States have seasonal or perennial allergies. An estimated $224 million is spent annually for medical services and $300 million for medications, and some 28 million days each year are lost because of restricted activity or absence from school or work.

How many times have you been treated for an infection whether viral or bacterial after a bout of allergies? Probably more often than you realize. Allergic responses as seen in seasonal or perennial allergies have the potential to depress your body's immune response to viral or bacterial pathogens, and introduce a viral or bacterial infection. Then a "simple" allergy has the potential to become a disabling short or long-term illness.

So what do you do. Pay attention to your allergies, understand that your body's immune system may be depressed, and take steps to reduce or eliminate allergic responses to prevent further sequelae. Eat a proper diet with emphasis on fruits and vegetables, drink plenty of water or juices, and rest sufficiently. The body can fight off infections if properly armed with proper nutrition, rest, and hydration. Also:

- Environmental control—remove the offending allergens or remove yourself from exposure to them.
- Medications such as antihistamines to block the response to allergens.
- Medications such as corticosteroids, as in nasal sprays, to reduce the reaction to the allergens.
- Medications such as decongestants: Topical nasal sprays: over-the-counter which are helpful for severe acute symptoms until other medications take effect. They should not be used for more than 3 consecutive days because these will actually have a rebound effect and make your symptoms worse. Oral decongestants may be obtained over-the-counter or by prescription.
- They should not be used if you have a history of hypertension, have glaucoma, coronary artery disease, or taking a MAO inhibitor.
- Antifungal agents are used for secondary bacterial infections.
- Analgesic agents, such as acetaminophen or ibuprofen, used to reduce symptoms of pressure headache until symptom control is achieved.
- Consider allergy testing and allergy immunotherapy if you have severe persistent allergies.

IT WAS NEWS THEN

Fifty years ago they were Hornet Football co-captains, under Coach Doyle Hood. Today they are grandfathers, but the sheer joy of the football season has not dimmed. In researching for our Fifty Years Ago column beginning September 2, 1949, we found their Hornet years to be quite interesting.

50 YEARS AGO
Sept. 2 and Sept. 9, 1949
Muenster pioneer, C.S. Walker dies at age 82. New pastor of Sacred Heart Church is Fr. Anthony Schroeder, OSB, succeeding Fr. Herman Laux OSB. Season opener for Muenster Hornets is against Bells High School. Co-captains for the game will be Gilbert Yosten and Glenn Hellman. Long awaited drought buster arrives with 2 inch rain and still going strong, to total of 3.6 inches after several days.

50 YEARS AGO
Sept. 16, 1949 and Sept. 23, 1949
Gussie Reiter dies at age 47; Dr. R. W. Crawford, former Muenster doctor and banker dies at age 84; Mr. and Mrs. John P. Mosser die in highway crash. Muenster Hornets open season on Sept. 9 with victory over Bells High School 18-0. Suddenly it's fall!!! Temperature drops from the 90s to the 50s and light drizzle falls for two days. Hornets prime for game with Boyd. On Sept. 16 score for football game was Hornets 12, Boyd 0. Damien Hellman and Bernard Luke were co-captains. Farmers get set for tilling and sowing after rainy spell. Herman Younger reveals plans for improvement of rural telephone system of Muenster Telephone Company. Local FFA team of Muenster High is District Champ in Judging contest. Dorothy Dieter and Alfred Bierschenk are married in St. Peter's Catholic Church.

50 YEARS AGO
Sept. 30, 1949
Football game between Anna High School and Muenster Hornets last week was won by the Hornets 19-6. Co-captains for the home team were Emmet Walterscheid and Gerald Walterscheid. Next game will be against Electra High Reserves. Wedding: Eunice Krebs and Edward Wolf are married in St. Mary's Catholic Church of Gainesville.

50 YEARS AGO
October 7, 1949
That makes it four in a row! Muenster 18, Electra "B" 6. Next week Muenster Hornets and Laneri of Fort Worth renew old rivalry, traditionally a tough struggle.

Heritage Society to feature David Smith as speaker

The annual membership meeting of the Cooke County Heritage Society will take place on Monday, September 27 at 7:00 p.m. at the Morton Museum of Cooke County. Featured speaker will be David Paul Smith, author of Frontier Defense in the Civil War - Texas' Rangers and Rebels, who will be discussing his book.

Texans faced two foes as the Civil War began in 1861: the Union armed forces and the Plains Indians. In Frontier Defense in the Civil War, David Paul Smith demonstrated that through the efforts of the Home Guard and the Texas Rangers, the Texas frontier held its own during the eventful war years, in spite of a number of factors that could easily have overwhelmed it. Military action in Gainesville and Cooke County are a featured part of the book.

The results of the election of officers and directors of the Heritage Society will be announced at the meeting. Refreshments will be served. The meeting is free and open to the public. For more information, please call the museum at 668-8900.

Muenster joins in National Prayer Day

Approximately 100 students, teachers, staff, and parents gathered at the flagpole in front of the "old" Muenster High School at 7:30 a.m. Sept. 15 to take part in "See You At the Pole". All held hands in a circle and joined in a brief time of prayer for the MISD and Sacred Heart Schools and for the community and nation.

From My Side of the Fence

by Ed Cler

The oil industry, since 1927, has been the leading employer in the Muester area. Many men from here and the surrounding area have earned a livelihood in the oil patches and some have made it their lifelong career.

A number of local young men coming home from the service entered the industry as hands, while some, more venturesome, bought equipment and went into the business for themselves, and some did, and are still doing quite well.

When the depression began in 1929 and continued in earnest through the early thirties, the oil business was pretty well shut down. Jobs were scarce and so was money, but there were always some who tried to make things happen, and make a few bucks too.

It was not unusual for a group of men to come together and promote a wildcat well. Some would only supply labor while others were prevailed upon to furnish a drilling rig, another would supply fuel and some would gamble some cash.

If the venture found oil, all would share in the profits.

These ventures were called "Poor Boy Wells."

Some of these operations were successful and in some cases opened new fields that eventually added much to making Cooke County one of the leading producers of oil in the State.

But then not all of the operations found the oil they were seeking and the men were forced to give up and charge it up to experience.

I can well remember an old story of two men who were trying to drill a few feet more in the hopes of making a strike, when the cable stripped out of the tools in the bottom of the hole, and as they were preparing to fish for the tools, the fuel gave out and the rig stood still.

The driller after a few moments realized that it was over, the try was a failure, but he still had his sense of humor.

He entered the dog house and made this final entry in the well's log: "The rig stalls still on this poor boy lease, the beam refuses to go, the line hangs down with a fuzzy end a thousand feet below."

Update on Education Legislation

Education was one of the most important issues during the 76th Legislative Session. In this column I will discuss various bills that affect our school districts.

HB 1104 - The Education Code is amended to require that each school campus improvement plan must provide for a program to encourage parental involvement. If a campus performance rated low-performing, the school district may be required to prepare a report regarding the parental involvement program at the campus as well as a plan describing strategies for improving parental involvement at the campus.

HB 269 - This bill prohibits a school district from penalizing or discriminating against an employee for serving on jury duty. The school district is required to pay the employee regular salary while he is engaged in jury service and may not reduce the employee's accumulated personal leave time.

HB 618 - Under this new section, the superintendent is required to notify the parents or guardian of each student if an inappropriately certified or uncertified teacher is teaching the class. The notice is required for teachers who are serving on an emergency certificate or who do not hold any Texas certificate or permit.

HB 907 - This bill, which became effective at the beginning of the 1999-2000 school year, requires a person who is 18 years of age or older and is enrolled in public school to attend school each day. If the person has more than five un-excused absences in one semester, a school district may revoke the person's enrollment for the remainder of the year. Prior to the enactment of HB 907, there was not a way to enforce attendance of a student who is beyond the age of compulsory attendance.

SB 870 - Requires the Texas Education Agency to produce and provide to school districts sufficient copies of a comprehensive, easily understood document that explains how an individualized education program (IEP) is developed. The document must explain the rights and responsibilities of the parent concerning the process so they may participate in an admission, review, and dismissal (ARD) committee meeting.

Next week I will discuss other education legislation.

What Do A

Life Preserver

And A Flu Shot

Have In Common?

If You Have Diabetes, Ask your Doctor.

If you live with diabetes, you're more likely to die with the flu. Just ask the families of the 30,000 people with diabetes who died of flu or pneumonia complications. Then ask your doctor for a life-saving flu shot for you and those closest to you, and about the other risks you face when you face diabetes.

Because with diabetes, prevention is control, and control is your life line.
