Alvin & Gracie Fuhrman honored by TTA on Sept. 11

The Texas Telephone Association held its 2001 convention at the Wyndham Hotel by the Ball Park in Arlington, Texas. The Association is comprised of local service telephone companies in Texas, both large and small. About 400 persons attended this year's convention.

The Texas Independent Telephone Pioneers sponsor the Awards Luncheon at noon the second day of the convention and each year a member of the pioneers is honored. This year, Alvin and Gracie Fuhrman were surprised with the honor of being inducted into the Telephone Pioneer Hall of Fame, only the second husband and wife team to receive this honor in Texas.

Alvin began his telephone career in 1949 when he answered a call to help the local phone company repair lines brought down by an ice storm. Over the next fifty years, he moved from repairman to president and owner of the Muenster

Telephone Company. Gracie began her telephone career as an Operator for the Muenster Telephone Company in 1957. She was named to the Board of Directors and Corporate Secretary-Treasurer in 1960, and remains in these positions today.

Alvin and Gracie (the former Ellen Gracie Friske) were married Oct. 20, 1953. They have two children, Kent Fuhrman and Gene Fuhrman.

Alvin graduated from Sacred Heart High School in 1944. He entered the military in 1950 and was stationed in Germany with the 14th Armored Field Artillery Battalion of the 2nd Armored Division. Gracie graduated from Sacred Heart High School in 1951.

Both Alvin and Gracie have been and remain active in the civic affairs of the community. Alvin served on the Board of Directors of Muenster Chamber of Commerce in the 1970s. He was a member of the founding committee of the Annual Muenster Germanfest in 1976. He was General Chairman for 12 years and has worked with Germanfest ever since. Gracie was a member of the Catholic Daughters of America and Past Grand Regent. She also has been a Cub Scout Den Mother and Sacred Heart School Board member in 1980 and Board President in 1981.

Alvin has been active in Texas Telecommunications for over fifty years. In 1998 the Texas Senate recognized him for fifty years of service to the industry. He has been a member of the Texas Telephone Association Board of Directors from 1972 to 1989 and again from 1993 to 1999. During these terms, he served on many varied committees and Chairman of the Convention and Member Services Committee. His service includes other industry organizations which include

United States Telephone Association Small Company Committee and the TTA and Texas Statewide Telephone Cooperative Assn. legislative committees. He was President of the Texas Chapter of Independent

"Hello Texas." A "History of Telephony in the Lone Star State". For this accomplishment he was awarded the TTA Outstanding Achievement award.

In 1999 he was awarded

Telephone Pioneers two times from 1982 to 1984.

In 1990 Alvin chaired the committee that published the highest award given by the Texas Telephone Association, "The Neville Haynes Award."

Gracie was recognized in 1994 by Muenster Telephone Board for her outstanding work in the latest building remodeling. In 1997, she was recognized for her forty years of service to the success of Muenster Telephone and its affiliates. She has served on the ITPA Board and is presently serving on the national OPASTCO Site Selection Committee.

Also attending the convention from Nortex were: Gene and Kaylynn Fuhrman, Alan Rohmer, Joey and Crystal Anderson and daughters Shelby and Jessy, Craig and Donna Walterscheid, Tim and Tammy Chancellor, and Mack and Bea Isaacs.

Being September 11 and the news of the terrorist attack in New York reached the convention, the rest of the convention was canceled and everyone went home. Many persons that flew in were stranded since all airplanes were grounded. Even those in private planes could not fly back.

LISD Board moves up gym floor refinishing

by Janet Felderhoff
At the Sept. 17 meeting of the Lindsay ISD Board of Directors, Raymond Root encouraged the Board to get the school's gymnasium floor refinished as soon as possible. There is only one gym and it serves all ages.

During a facilities planning workshop held earlier in the evening, Superintendent Travis Winn gave the Board a report on the flooring, which included some cost quotes. Previously it was felt that next summer would be the soonest that it could be refinished. "We hope to get that floor redone over the Christmas holidays," said Winn. "I think that made everybody pretty happy." By committing to vendor now he feels it can be done over the Christmas holidays.

The floor's surface is getting worn down and getting slick. "We have P.E. and a lot of use on that gym and it gets worn down pretty quick," noted Winn.

In other business the Board:

- Approved EIF, FDA, and FM Local updates to the district's policy manual.

- Contracted with the firm of Hess and Rohmer, P.C. for the 2001 audit.

- Heard presentation by Counselor Im Fluker and Principal Jerry Metzler on TAAS and End-of-Course Summary Report.

- Signed agreement with Texoma School-to-Work Partnership.

Local residents respond well to mowing request

by Janet Felderhoff
City Administrator Linda Webb reported to the Muenster City Council at the Oct. 1 meeting on property cleanup in Muenster. She said she'd received good response from residents who were asked to mow their lawns and clean up their property.

It was also reported that Fourth Street between Sycamore and Mesquite had been paved.

Council members approved complete budget amendments for fiscal Year 2001 General Fund and Water and Sewer Fund.

Monthly bills totaling $167,134.41 were approved for payment.

Under consideration were the opening of Second Street between Maple and Ash and of Cross Street between South Walnut and Main. These two agenda items were tabled until more information could be obtained.

An Executive Session was held, but no action was taken as a result of it.

Candidates announce for Texas Senate Dist. 30

Four Republicans have officially filed for the November 6 Special Election in Senate District 30. The special election has been called by Governor Rick Perry to select the successor of Senator Tom Haywood who died July 12.

The special will be a political free-for-all with all candidates, regardless of party affiliation, running on the same ballot.

Former Denton County Judge Kirk Wilson, Harry Reynolds a Certified Public Accountant and businessman, Wichita Falls businessman Craig Estes, and Dave Jeffries from Vernon have formally filed papers with the Texas Secretary of State as candidates. To date, there has been no Democratic candidate formally filed for a place on the ballot. Candidates have until Oct. 9 to file.

Kirk Wilson summed up his candidacy by commenting, "Having visited with countless voters and other opinion leaders throughout the district, I am confident that my experience and track record of leadership on a variety of issues, make my conservative vision for a better Texas and a better tomorrow appealing to the voters."

Wilson who stepped down as Denton County judge last year cites having voted to cut tax rates four times while on the Commissioners Court, along with his knowledge of transportation and other economic development issues, as the major components of his background that separate him from the other candidates in the race.

"SD30 is a large district with a diverse number of interests; including oil and gas, agriculture, and major educational and military centers, spread out over 36 counties in North Texas and West Texas. The person who represents this district needs to have a depth of knowledge in many areas as well as have a working understanding of the vital role that county and city governments play in the everyday lives of the citizens."

Wilson's personal business background started while working in his parents' tractor and motorcycle dealership and to this day continues as vice-president of the family's business, Colson Inc. He also is the Executive Director of Mar-Top Ranch, a single-family residential development in Denton County.

Kirk Wilson, who has held the office of county commissioner and county judge, has twice stepped down to return to the private business sector. He remarked, "I feel very strongly that being an elected official shouldn't be a career in and of itself. People should serve in positions of leadership and then return to live under the laws and regulations they implemented. I do however feel it is advantageous to the voters to have representatives in Austin and Washington that have held elected office at the local or county level, but those people should also have a diverse background in their private business dealings and in their community."

Wilson is a native Texan and a graduate of the University of North Texas. He and his wife Andrea and their son, Atticus, live in Denton.

Craig Estes remarked on his candidacy, "While this announcement will come as a surprise to many, it's simply an expedited version of what I had been anticipating for some months. I've been considering running for the Senate for several months in the event Sen. Haywood chose not to seek reelection. Fortunately, I had the honor of visiting with Sen. Haywood three days before his untimely passing. It was a good meeting. While Sen. Haywood was anticipating seeking reelection, I was encouraged by our conversation." Estes said.

Estes is Chairman of the Board and CEO of Estes, Inc., a wholesale distributor of chemicals and fertilizer with outlets across Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and Arizona. The company has sales in excess of $100 million annually.

Estes, a third generation Texan from Wichita Falls, told supporters he wants to bring a common sense vision to state government. "As a businessman and family man, I know the challenges the hard working people of Senate District 30 face on a daily basis. They know what it is like to balance a checkbook, to tighten their belts when necessary, and to plan for their future and the future of their children. These are daily decisions based on common sense. These are the same decisions our leaders in Austin need to make on a different scale. I think that, by applying these principles of common sense, the people of Texas could be better served.

"I also seek this office for other reasons. I want to bring a vision to the people of North Texas, which I believe they already share, however, one perhaps that has not been articulated. As a community, we can achieve great things. We owe the very best to each of our children, irrespective of their station in life. They don't deserve a mediocre education — they deserve the best education possible.

"For every entrepreneur who has a dream, we need to help them achieve that dream. Small business is the backbone of this economy — it always has been and always will be. Small businesses don't need more government regulation — they need government to get out of the way. The burdens placed on small business too often choke the life out of them in the first 12 months of operation.

Our ranching and farming communities are the critical element supporting this economy in North Texas.

They face tremendous burdens. The risks alone are incredible. Drought; disease; crop financing; and a marketplace dictated by layers and layers of government regulation work in direct opposition to farmers' and ranchers' best efforts to feed this country and their own families.

"The families of North Texas have the desire, the ability, and the talent to secure a future that can be brighter than anything we have ever experienced. They know hardship, and they know challenges. With perseverance and effective leadership in Austin, we can achieve this future. That is my goal for Senate District 30. With the blessings and hard work of a great many people, I hope to see these dreams become reality," Estes concluded.

Estes is married to the former Jennifer Huff of Wichita Falls. They have three children, Abby, Andrew, and Mark. The family attends First Presbyterian Church, where Jennifer serves as a deacon and Craig serves as an elder.

As a CPA, Harry Reynolds has audited and advised a large number of businesses and government agencies. This background has shown him the importance of creating a sound budget, and sticking to it. Texas is facing a budget crisis unless long-term changes are made. He feels that your next senator must have a strong financial background to provide Texas with a secure budget without raising taxes.

Reynolds believes that local people know the best solution for local issues. Texas is a growing state, and with that growth comes change. Rapidly growing urban areas have different needs than rural and agricultural areas, and no one knows the needs of their community better than the people living there. He knows that Texas government should limit its regulations for local authorities, and allow them to do their job.

Harry Reynolds believes that providing a quality education system to Texans should be a priority for the government. Texas schools are nearing capacity at both public schools and universities. He knows that the Texas Legislature must be aggressive to keep up with the growing need of education.

Reynolds knows that farming and ranching are a key part of the Texas economy. He grew up on a farm, and has worked with farmers in district 30 for many years. He understands the challenges they face, and believes that government should be there to assist agriculture.

Information on Davis Jeffries and any other candidates will be published when it becomes available.

If no candidate garners 50% of the vote in the election, the top two finishers will face each other in a run-off election.

Fly the United States flag properly

The following is taken in part from an article in the Fort Worth Star Telegram.

American flags have reached new levels of popularity. Retailers report that they cannot keep them on store shelves.

If you plan to display the American flag in a show of patriotism in the wake of the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks against the United States, here is some advice:

- Never let the flag touch the ground.
- When the flag is folded, no red should be showing, and a field of stars should cover the exposed surface.
- Flags may be flown at night only when they are properly lighted.

- Flags designed for all weather conditions may be flown during inclement weather, but others must be taken down.
- A flag should only be flown upside down as a distress signal.
- When on separate poles, the state flag of Texas and the U.S. flag can be at the same height, but the Texas flag should never be higher than the U.S. flag. Any other flags must be displayed lower than the U.S. flag.

- When on the same pole with other flags, the U.S. See FLAG, Page 3

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,

I used to enjoy Halloween until I read this message:

Heaven's Messages for The Family Volume II, Oct. 31, 1996

Words From God the Father
St. Michael: Behold, beloved of God! We, the three Archangels, bring you guidance from Heaven. Write what I, St. Michael, share with you.

Thus says the Lord your God: On this day many of my children will commit much evil. This is the day where many parts of the world give honor to the devil and celebrate a day of darkness. I, the Lord your God, give you goodness and love that you exchange for the pleasures of evil. This day, Satan with all his demons will prowl many parts of the world pouring their venom into souls who celebrate this day. I, the Lord your God, speak through Michael the Archangel. Heed My words, beloved children of Mine. Turn to My love, to My goodness, and live in My peace. Do not continue to add sin upon sin, for I, the Lord your God, will not tolerate your evilness much longer. My children, you are bringing your destruction by the lives which you have chosen to live. Do not become slaves of sin, rather be slaves to love.

My children, eternal glory awaits those who remain with the Lord their God through everything. Turn this day to a day of prayer and rejoicing, and the devil will flee from you. My children, you will never understand the horror that many will celebrate this day. The evil that is being celebrated today is the evil that is destroying many souls. Turn to My love and mercy, before it's too late!

Janie: St. Gabriel and St. Raphael showed me a vision of this day. This is the day the world decorates their homes with evil instead of goodness.

Let us seek good instead of evil. Let us live in the light and not the darkness of this day.

FLAG

flag should always be on top.

- The U.S. flag should never fly on the same pole with another national flag.

- A flag should never be part of a costume or an athletic uniform, but uniforms for firefighters, police officers, members of patriotic organizations, and military personnel may display flag patches.

- The flag should never have any mark, insignia, letter, word or number attached to it or placed on it.

- When a flag becomes so worn that it is unfit to continue flying, it should be disposed of in a dignified burning ceremony.

Displaying the flag
When the national flag is displayed flat, horizontally or vertically, the union (blue field of stars) is uppermost and to the observer's left.

When displayed over a street, the national flag is suspended vertically, with the union to the north over an east-west street, or to the east over a north-south street.

The time is fast approaching for the annual Sacred Heart Parish Picnic. The date is Nov. 18. Last year we reached our goal of $100,000.00 thanks to all who came and participated and to those who worked very hard to see that everything came together. This year's goal is to do at least the same and perhaps up it to $110,000.00.

Lots of fun things are being planned such as a nageslagen contest. Yes, you heard right, but more about this contest in the future. Of course there will be a live auction with quilts and a silent auction, along with lots of good food and the great main meal at lunch. The country store will be there along with kids games and other games. Something new is going to be the opportunity to purchase tickets for a chance to win one of several items. There will be a box in front of several items and you can put all your tickets in the one box or you can spread them out among the different items of your choice.

Another progressive dinner is being planned for the live auction. The last one was such a hit! Everyone has a wonderful time including those who gave the dinner. Jerry and Monica Hess purchased last year's dinner and paid a nice sum and they will attest to the fact that it was well worth every penny. They were picked up at their home in a limo and made "the drag." Then they proceeded to the first home for drinks (everyone loved the amaretto sours) and appetizers where they were greeted by the hostesses Rich and Denise Sweeney and the last stop's hostesses Bert and Christy Hesse. Next stop was Jim and Donna Biffle's for gumbo and salads (a beautiful green and a seafood). Doyle Hess did a great job as the maitre'd. The Sweeneys and the Hesses joined everyone there. Next stop was the Steakhouse in the country better known as Lenny and Christel's for steaks (cooked by chef Melvin), potatoes and a vegetable served in an outdoor setting and enjoyed by all. Remember all the prior hostesses got to follow along. Christel and Rich just about got into it over who was washing the dishes, but the Irishman prevailed. After a rest of the tummies everyone proceeded to Bert and Christy's lovely home for 5 (I kid you not) of the greatest homemade desserts and snickerdoodle coffee. What a finale! So save your money and plan to bid on the next one.

There is also talk of a pampering day for 4 lady friends. Now guys if you don't know what to buy your wives for Christmas or birthdays, here it is. We still need volunteers to work that day or to help with auction items. Anyone wanting to help or make suggestions can call Debbie Hess at 759-2890 or Tom Herr at 759-4146 or come to one of the weekly meetings at Tom's house every Tuesday between 7:00 and 7:30. Help is always appreciated.

Also if we don't get by to ask for a donation please, please call and we will get someone to pick it up. We are also planning a special raffle (other than the main one) to start a baby grand piano fund for the church (the old pianos are about shot). So please plan to spend a few more dollars than what you normally do for this raffle.

Please tell your family and friends of any faith to come. Everyone plan on coming out and having a great time of fellowship while contributing to the kingdom. After the Sept. 11 tragedy, we need to have our fellowship and help maintain the church so that we will always be able to worship together to strengthen our faith no matter what tragedies we may be faced with.

May God be with you all.

McCoy, Koesler marry in Convent Chapel

by Elfreda Fette

The wedding of Monica Yosten McCoy and Karl Koesler of Muenster was held on Saturday, Sept. 22, 2001 at 11:00 a.m. in a Nuptial Mass celebrated by Father John Ohner OSA in the Sacred Heart Convent Chapel, with traditional double ring vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Yosten of Muenster and the late Felix Yosten. She is employed by Sacred Heart Church and Sacred Heart School.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Koesler and the late Norbert Koesler. He is employed by Martindale Feed Mill of Valley View.

Presenting the bride at the altar were her sons, Josh and Jake McCoy. The groom was escorted by his son, Kyle Koesler.

For her wedding, the bride chose a white satin, fitted, formal bridal gown designed sleeveless, with high scalloped lace neckline with scattered pearls, and low square back neckline. She wore a matching white satin stole and white satin bridal sandals. She carried a cascade of white roses - four roses symbolized her three children and the groom's son, and two rose buds for her two grandchildren. The bouquet was accented with white baby's breath and green ferns.

For sentiment, she carried three fancy handkerchiefs from her sister, a niece, and a friend. For "something borrowed" she wore her sister's pearl earrings, from her daughter's wedding.

ATTENDANTS
Matron of honor was Misti Neal of San Antonio, daughter of the bride. She wore a formal, champagne satin gown with fitted skirt and lace top enhanced with matching scattered beads, and scooped neckline and three-fourth length sleeves.

Fred Koesler of Muenster stood with his brother as best man.

Wedding music with guitar accompaniment was presented by Christi Klement, groom's sister, and Diane Grewing, bride's cousin. Sacred music included "Abba Father" at the entrance, "Only A Shadow" at Offertory, "Hail Mary, Gentle Woman" at Communion, and "City of God" for the recessional.

The special wedding liturgy included the First Reading by Kelly McCoy, daughter-in-law of the bride, the Second Reading by Gloria Blanchard of California, sister of the bride. The Eucharistic Minister was Cy Yosten of Greenville, Texas, brother of the bride.

The chapel altar held floral arrangements of burgundy, mauve, creme and blue roses.

RECEPTION

A reception at The Dutchman Restaurant followed, hosted by the bride and groom for 30 guests. Tables held white linen cloths, china and crystal, white candles, roses and rosebuds, and spider lilies in shades of creme and champagne. The guest registry held crystal candleholders from the groom's parents' wedding and toasting glasses from the bride's parents' 50th wedding anniversary.

The oval-shaped, two-tiered white wedding cake was made by Roger Dieter, with strawberry filling between layers, white butter-creme frosting, scalloped edges; and topped with fresh tiny white roses.

Since returning from a wedding trip to Dallas and Fort Worth, the couple is at home in Muenster.

Moments in Montague County history

Funny things happened during the early days of the twentieth century in Montague County, says Kathryn Harris, an 85 year old woman, and an early day resident of the now defunct community of Hardy.

Hardy was a viable community around 1900. It is located about eight miles south of Saint Jo, and four miles north of Forestburg on Highway 677. It had some 100 residents around 1900. In 1947 it still had 25 persons living there. There was a cotton gin in the town which was owned by her grandfather J.M. Buck. It later burned, much to the joy of her grandmother, who didn't want to see her young grandchildren working there because of the danger involved.

Kathryn's most vivid memory of growing up in that community was the fact that her mother would call her in when she was about five or six years old, give her an egg which she would take to her father's grocery store there and get a sack of candy for her siblings and herself by exchanging the egg for it.

Her father's grocery store was one of two that existed there. There was a nondenominational church and a cemetery which still exists and also a school. Land for the cemetery was donated by her grandfather.

She remembers her father would buy cream made from the milk of neighbors' cows and resell it for a profit either in Saint Jo or Nocona, she can't remember which town.

Hardy School had classes through the tenth grade. Kathryn, after finishing tenth grade, did not continue her schooling elsewhere. The school dated back to the 1876-1877 school year with two teachers. It was known at first as Friendship School, until the 1885-1886 year when its name was changed to Hardy, named after the first postmaster of that community. It was a two-teacher school until 1911 when only one teacher taught there.

The next year it became a two-teacher school again until the 1942-43 school year which showed only one teacher on hand. It consolidated with Saint Jo at the end of that year. World War II was on, making it hard to get teachers.

Kathryn reported that in its heyday, the school was housed in a two-story building. Students came from various other places. She didn't remember if it was a boarding-school environment, however.

Kathryn married Lester in 1936. She had one brother and four sisters, all now deceased. A son, Jim, lives with his elderly mother now. He spent many years working overseas for oil companies in the Middle East, Mexico, and various other places.

A picture of the Hardy town plat indicated there were Montague, St. Jo, Williams and four other unrecognizable street names. An oddity is the fact that a Colledge (sic) Lot is indicated on the map. I have been told that a college was planned there, but it never came to fruition. Williams Street was named for C. R. Williams, an early postmaster.

Off on a tangent: One of the oddest stories I've heard occurred when Hardy's basketball team was playing Montague on an outside, dirt court in the 1920s. My late brother, William told me this story. It almost defies veracity.

He said Hardy's players were large and didn't seem to fit the mold of teams using only school athletes on the team. At one juncture, one of the Hardy bruisers banged into one of Montague's players, knocking him off the court and then laughing about it.

A young man, the Hardy coach pulled his violent player and substituted himself into the game. Being a small school, Hardy had only five players. The game resumed. William, who played for Montague, since this was some sixty years after the happening, couldn't remember who won the game.

22nd season of Butterfield Stage offers A Little Princess on Oct. 11

On Oct. 11 Butterfield Stage will open its 22nd season with the delightful children's classic, A Little Princess. An engaging version of Frances Hodgson Burnett's, Sara Crewe, this stage production captures all the warmth and heart of the original literary tale.

A Little Princess continues Butterfield's efforts to produce well-known literary favorites while featuring the talent of area youth. "We find that these productions touch the hearts of all - those who remember the stories from an earlier childhood, as well as a new generation of young readers and theatre patrons," commented BSP Executive Director Lisa Roberts.

It's Ms. Burnett's featured character, Sara, who has captivated audiences since her inception. An unusual child who has read almost every book in her father's library, she speaks Hindustani, French, and English. However, her greatest gift is a vivid imagination, which sets her apart from her peers and sustains her during her

Afterwards all High School students were encouraged to attend the Dance which was held at the KC Hall. All participating in this year's homecoming events will agree that it was an outstanding success.

Finally the Student Council of Sacred Heart would like to express their gratitude to the Knights of Columbus, the Chamber of Commerce, the Community Lumber Yard, Rohmer's Catering Service, and any adults who helped with this year's events. It was a blast!

Saddle up for success with FCCLA

On Tuesday, Sept. 18, FCCLA held a Region II Leadership Workshop at Denton High School.

Regional, State and National updates were given. We all participated in a group activity representing the importance of leadership and teamwork. Corinth Police Officer Frank Lott was the key note speaker. His main topic of discussion was about school violence. Officer Lott brought statistics and facts of how it all gets started. His speech really reached out and grabbed our attention by helping us face the realities of school violence.

The closing ceremony for the workshop was led by several Regional officers with the recitation of the FCCLA Creed. Those who attended with Mrs. Sturm, MHS FCCLA Sponsor, were Mindy Walterscheid, Shaina Sheaff, Shivaun Beasom, Tara Swirczynski, Cindy Tempel, Christine Eanes, Allyson Moody, and Russell Endres.

Tigers whip Warriors

Cypress Community Christian Academy traveled to Muenster last Friday night to play four quarters of football with the Tigers of Sacred Heart. The evening turned into a one-sided match with Sacred Heart running up 32 points by half-time on their way to a 40-0 victory.

The Tigers ran for 437 yards, 245 yards from Johnny Krahl and 162 from Thomas Whitecotton.

"We executed pretty well offensively and were able to look at multiple schemes that we needed to evaluate," said Tiger Coach Kris Hogan. "We played good defense, but gave up a little more yards on the ground than we are accustomed to."

Cypress had possession for less than a minute and punted as the game began. The fourth Krahl run, 54 yards, found pay dirt, but was called back by a flag. The next play, Krahl raced 62 yards and scored. The PAT kick failed for a Sacred Heart lead of 6-0 with 7:36 on the clock.

The Warriors got in six runs and punted to the Tiger 33. Again Krahl broke away, scoring on a 67 yard run. A Paul Bartush to Luke Endres pass extended the Tiger lead to 14-0 with 3:39 left in the first quarter.

A sack by Jared Zimmerer assisted in forcing another punt. Whitecotton gained 3 yards and Krahl 13 going into the 2nd quarter. A short Bartush to Clint Fuhrmann pass was helped with a face mask call. Bartush then connected with Chris Fuhrmann for 14 yards, then Whitecotton for another 11 yards to the 4 yard line. Whitecotton then ran the ball in for another 6 points. The PAT failed and with 11:04 on the clock, the Tigers took a 20-0 lead.

Kicker John Knabe booted the ball to the 8 yard line then stopped the return on the Tiger 41. Andy Davis and Zimmerer teamed up to give Cypress a 5 yard loss. The next play, Michael Voth covered a loose ball on the 38 yard line.

A late hit flag gave Sacred Heart 15 yards, then Bartush ran for 32 to the 14 yard line. A Bartush to Endres pass put 6 more points on the board. The extra run failed for a 26-0 score with 7:53 on the clock.

From the 35, Whitecotton intercepted a Warrior pass and ran it in for the touchdown. The extra run failed again and Sacred Heart extended their lead 32-0.

Pass defense by Kevin Walterscheid and a tackle by Krahl forced a short kick. From midfield, Krahl gained 15 and Whitecotton 14 before the Tigers punted. The teams exchanged several punts and Jack Biffle picked off a pass before the half-time break.

The Tigers took the opening third quarter kick to their 24 yard line. The first play of the second half, Whitecotton scored on a 76 yard run. Krahl ran in the extra points for a 40-0 score.

Two consecutive holding flags forced a Warrior punt. The Tigers lost 10 yards and punted the ball back to Cypress, who got a drive going against the Tigers, taking eight plays to get to the 10 yard line. The Tigers stopped Cypress on the one yard line. The next play, Sacred Heart fumbled and the Warriors regained possession on the five yard line.

Cypress found the end zone, but with 12 players on Sacred Heart begins district competition this Friday night when they host Prestonwood Christian Academy.

"PCA is one of the best coached teams around. Everything they do is fundamentally sound. Their head coach, Mike Hall, has won a state championship, and he knows how to get the most out of his players," noted Coach Hogan.

Offensively Prestonwood runs a multiple Wing T from which they throw and run very well. Defensively they carry out their assignments with good discipline, which has been tough on opposing offenses this year.

"Obviously every district game is important because of the playoff implications. We expect to start district play hitting on all cylinders. I anticipate a real good football game," Coach Hogan concluded.

Hornets sink state-ranked Collinsville

The Muenster Hornets were challenged by the number 9 state ranked (Harris Poll) Collinsville Pirates last Friday. Remembering last season's 37-0 beating, the Hornets prevailed in a 28-15 victory. "We were extremely pleased the way the team executed our game plan offensively and defensively. It paid off with a victory," noted Hornet Coach Gordon Martin. "I was disappointed in our penalties. It's tough to go from 0 to 12 from one week to the next."

Petrolia	21	Hennetta	23

The Hornets took the opening kick with quarterback Mitch Endres quickly gaining 25 yards in two carries. Jake Freeman picked up 2 more, with an Endres to Tyler Walterscheid pass earning 4 yards and an Endres run another yard, but a flag put the Hornets on the Collinsville 36 with a 4th and 7. A pass fell incomplete and the Pirates took possession.

Muenster's defense held, forcing a punt. Three plays later, an Endres pass to Cody Cory was good for a 52 yard touchdown play. Chisam Cain added the extra point and with 4:49 on the clock, the Hornets led 7-0.

A failed on-side kick gave the Pirates possession at midfield, but on their fifth play, a fumbled ball was covered by Nathan Hess on the Hornet 35.

Runs by Endres and Cory and a pass to Hess took the Hornets into the second quarter. Muenster got to the Pirate 27, but flags forced a punt on 4th and 27 at midfield.

Tackles by Endres and Kirk Hartman forced another punt, that rolled to the Muenster 11 yard line. A breakaway run by Cory for 77 yards quickly put the Hornets inside Collinsville's 10 yard line. A sack and flag backed the ball 11 yards, but an opening in the offensive line allowed Endres to score on a 25 yard run. Cain booted another extra point for a 14-0 Muenster lead with 4:10 remaining in the first half.

Again Collinsville's offense couldn't gain any ground and punted. Muenster mixed runs by Cory and Freeman with passes to Walterscheid, Dustin Hiser, and Colby Newton to get to the 10 yard line. The first half ended with a quarterback sack.

The Pirate offense mixed plays, but Hiser busted a pass and Walterscheid and Hess got in some key tackles and stopped Collinsville on the Muenster 24 yard line.

Two plays later, Muenster fumbled to the Pirates, then Tyler Walterscheid covered a loose ball on Collinsville's third play. The Hornets made little yardage and Grant Hartman, a 25 yard run, two incomplete passes and five completed passes, the last good for a 16 yard touchdown. The extra points made the score 21-15 with 2:55 remaining in the game.

Collinsville attempted an on-side kick, but Muenster covered it at midfield. The Hornet offense had a quick four play drive. Cory ran for 14 and 15 yards, Endres gained 8, and Cory ran in for the score from the 13. Cain added another extra point and Muenster had a 28-15 lead with 1:19 remaining in the game.

The Pirates' attempt to find the end zone was assisted by two major penalties, delayed by a Blake Garrison sack, and ended with a Tyler Walterscheid interception with only seconds remaining on the clock.

Muenster punted away their next possession, but an Endres quarterback sack forced a Pirate punt to the Hornet 20 yard line. The Hornet offense again struggled and punted, but two plays later, after a tackle by John Sturm, Nathan Hess blocked a pitch, caught it and ran the ball 53 yards for a Muenster touchdown and a 21-7 lead.

The Hornets travel to Chico to take on the Dragons of District 13-A. Chico, this season, has defeated Era and Millsap and lost to Petrolia. Last year the Dragons defeated Muenster 7-35 on Homecoming night.

"Chico is big and quick. It's going to be another tough contest," commented Coach Martin. The Hornets have to control quarterback Jake McLean, last year's District Player of the Year and Honorable Mention All-State. The Dragon defense is led by lineman Derek Berg. "We expect another good football game against a quality opponent," the coach concluded.

Week four of the Enterprise football contest ended in a tie between Ted Heers and Edgar Dyer, with both coming out winner. Heers beat Dyer in the contest. Both correctly guessed 17 game winners with Heers missing the tie-breaker score by 12 points and Dyer by 15. Dyer was drawn for the week's door prize, awarded by Klement Ford of Muenster.

Nick Stoffels, Jon LeBrasseur, Benny Haverkamp, Wayne Muller, and Dave Reiter all guessed 16 games. Missing five were Charles Edwards, Mickey Haverkamp, Noah Barnhill, John Maddux, Deann Muller, and Wayne Klement.

The most missed game was Petrolia's 23-21 loss to Henrietta. Only one contestant correctly picked Muenster to win, while one missed Nocona and Celina, two missed Sacred Heart and Saint Jo, only three picked Era and six picked Lindsay. Everyone correctly picked Windthorst, Lewisville, and Haltom to win. Charles Edwards guessed closest to the tie-breaker score, missing it by only two points.

Knights allow Eagles too many points, fall 35-33

The Lindsay Knights scored 30 fourth quarter points, threatening to defeat Valley View last Friday, but waited too long to get into the ball game, losing 35-33.

"We came out flat after playing well the week before," noted Lindsay Coach Charlie Meurer. The Knights' biggest problems were four turnovers and not being able to score when they got into the red zone. "These are problems we have to address." The Knights also had trouble with secondary injuries, but will have a couple more back for this Friday's game.

Lindsay's offense took to the field but were unable to cover enough ground and punted. Valley View took eight plays to move 72 yards and score. The PAT kick gave the Eagles a 0-7 lead with 6:05 on the clock.

The Knight offense struggled again and punted. Three plays later Josh Goldsmith covered a loose ball at midfield. Adam Anderle's 32 yard run quickly took the Knights to the 17 yard line. Short runs by Keith Dieter, Sam Hellinger, and Anderle gave the Knights a first and goal at the six. Four plays later, Anderle kicked a 23 yard field goal for a 3-7 score with 48 seconds on the 1st quarter clock.

the clock with runs by Anderle, Dieter, Chuck Hinds, Hellinger, and a pass to Mitch Creed. Four flags and two fumbled plays lost 28 yards in the drive. On 4th and goal, the Eagles intercepted a pass to end the 1st half.

Valley View came out the 3rd quarter, but tackles by Goldsmith, Creed, Ryan Kasperek, Brandon Ferguson, and four flags thrown against them forced a punt on fourth and 31. The Knights gained 5 and punted. Five plays later the Eagles scored on a 55 yard pass play. With 6:15 remaining in the 3rd quarter the Knights trailed 3-35.

Four runs by Anderle and a 27 yard pass play from Hellinger to Hinds put the Knights on the 14 yard line. Three consecutive incomplete passes gave the ball back to the Eagles.

A tackle by Anderle, Joey Arendt, and Goldsmith, and an incomplete pass were followed by a Lindsay interception by Nathan Bruce at the 20 yard line. A pass to Bruce gained 5, with Dieter and Hellinger getting 4 more yards as the third quarter ended. On 4th and 1, Anderle picked up 6 yards to the 5. Three plays later, Anderle scored. Anderle added the extra point for a 10-35 score with 10:12 still on the clock.

Defensive plays by Dieter, Ferguson, Matt Brennan, Goldsmith, Bruce, Hellinger, Anderle, and Garret Jones forced a punt. Chuck Hinds returned the kick 66 yards to the 4 yard line. Lindsay then scored on an Anderle 4 yard run. Anderle added the extra kick and the Knights trailed 17-35 with 6:30 on the clock.

Ferguson covered an on-side kick on the 35. A Hellinger to Hinds pass quickly put Lindsay on the 6 yard line. Dieter moved the ball to the 1 yard line and Anderle scored. A pass to Anderle closed the score to 25-35.

Mitch Creed, Goldsmith, and an incomplete pass were followed by a fumble recovered by Josh Goldsmith on the 27 yard line. Hellinger ran for 9, a flag gave Lindsay 5, then Hinds picked up 9 more yards to the 5 yard line. Again it was Anderle in for 6 points and Anderle on the extra run to put the Knights 2 points behind, 33-35, with 1:54 remaining in the game.

An on-side kick was covered by Valley View, who couldn't get ten yards because of tackles by Goldsmith, Dieter, Anderle, and Creed. The Eagles punted the ball to the Knight 3 yard line. A penalty backed the ball to the two. Anderle gained 5, then Dieter 18 yards. A pass to Bruce was good for 9 yards as time ticked off the clock.

Game time is 7:30 at Knight Field.

JV Tigers fall to Nocona 14-8

The junior varsity Tigers fell 8-14 to the Nocona Indians last Thursday.

The Tigers got a good drive going in their first possession, moving inside the 10 yard line with runs by Chris Hoedebeck, Jeff Reiter, and Mikey Bayer. The Tigers got to the one foot line and ran out of downs. Two plays later, Wes Wimmer caught Nocona in the end zone for a safety and Sacred Heart had a 2-0 lead early in the second quarter.

The teams exchanged punts with Nocona getting one first down before the half-time break.

Two runs by Hoedebeck and one by Aaron Walterscheid moved Sacred Heart 12 yards, but a fumbled play and motion flag gave the ball to Nocona.

The Tiger defense held, the Indians punted, and three plays later the Tigers fumbled on their 27 yard line. Nocona carried the ball into the final quarter then scored to take a 2-8 lead.

The Tiger offense struggled turning the ball over after four runs. The Indians took seven runs and scored again. The PAT failed for a 2-14 score with 4:44 remaining on the clock.

Sacred Heart went to their air attack. Two passes fell incomplete, but the third, from Walterscheid to Hoedebeck was good for a 79 yard touchdown play. The extra run failed for an 8-14 score.

Nocona's offense kept the ball the remaining four minutes and 37 seconds to hold on to their lead.

Farm & Ranch

Grasshoppers begin to die

Grasshopper infestations are beginning to die down in Central Texas, thanks to crop harvesting and weather, the Texas Cooperative Extension reports.

District Extension entomologist Dr. Allen Knutson of Dallas said this has been the third season in a row in which grasshoppers have been unusually abundant.

"The series of hot, dry summers and dry falls, beginning with the drought in 1998, have been very favorable for grasshoppers to reproduce and increase," he said.

Dry, warm fall weather allows adult grasshoppers time to feed and lay eggs in the soil, Knutson said, which hatch the next year into tiny grasshoppers that repeat the cycle.

"If late summer and fall are dry and warm again, even more eggs are laid and the numbers increase," he said, "but some areas of Central Texas have received a lot of rain recently. This has generated a lot of late season plant growth, and has not been favorable to grasshopper survival or egg-laying activity."

Knutson said the eating rate of grasshoppers has slowed in areas of the state that have received rains, so the threat of damage is much less than earlier in the year.

Recently retired Extension entomologist Dr. Cliff Hoelscher of College Station said grasshoppers are susceptible to bacterial diseases that reduce their numbers. These diseases are more prominent in wet weather, so fewer grasshoppers survive.

Between 18 and 20 species of grasshopper are seen throughout the year, he said, but most of them are not a big problem. The major pests are differential grasshoppers, and these are only five or six of the 20 species.

Knutson said eggs of most species hatch in the spring and early summer, and the young develop throughout the summer. Eggs of a few species hatch in the fall. The young grasshoppers feed in the fall and can be a threat to newly-seeded grasses in pastures and young wheat plants.

"Although uncommon, these late-season species of grasshoppers might still be a problem," he said.

Grasshoppers can be found in weedy areas surrounding crops, and if there are large populations, growers can apply an approved insecticide to control the infestation before they cause damage, Knutson said. Natural control agents such as birds are recommended to control grasshoppers as well and should be used as much as possible if available.

Every case is slightly different, and by contacting a county Extension agent, anyone can get help determining the species, choosing an appropriate pesticide or herbicide and begin to take care of their particular case.

On Sept. 23, the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) ordered the grounding of crop-dusting planes. The FAA did not provide details about the order, however, news reports claim U.S. law enforcement officials found a manual explaining the operation of crop-dusting equipment while searching suspected terrorist hideouts.

The FBI encourages the public to be aware of and report any suspicious activity involving the acquisition, training in or use of crop-dusting planes or chemicals.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

CHINCH BUGS

Driving around the county we see many fields of sudan or sorghum that has large dead areas. A major cause of these dead spots on examination is from chinch bugs. This year appears to be one of the worst for our area in reference to this insect pest. The first chinch bug infestations that I remember here was back in the mid 80's around Valley View on grain sorghum. From there over the years they have increased their range and are prevalent in the entire county.

Chinch bugs are sporadic pests of sorghum in Texas. Adult chinch bugs are black, with reddish yellow legs and with conspicuous, fully developed white forewings, each of which has a black triangular spot at the middle of the outer margin. Immature chinch bugs resemble adults in shape but lack wings. Young nymphs are yellowish, later turn reddish with a white or pale yellow band across the front part of the abdomen. Older nymphs are black and gray with a conspicuous white spot on the back between the wing pads.

Eggs are laid behind the lower leaf sheaths of sorghum plants, on roots, or in the ground near the host plant. The life cycle is completed in thirty (30) to forty (40) days, and there are at least two generations a year. Chinch bugs overwinter as adults in bunch grass. They begin moving to sorghum when temperatures reach seventy (70°) degrees Fahrenheit.

Adult and immature chinch bugs suck juices from the stems, leaves or underground plant parts. Young plants are highly susceptible. Older plants withstand attack better, but they, too, become reddened, weakened and stunted. Chinch bugs are favored by hot, dry weather, and large numbers of immature bugs often migrate from wild bunch grasses or small grains to congregate and feed behind lower leaf sheaths of sorghum plants.

To find chinch bugs, carefully examine plants and surrounding soil. Make at least five random checks per field.

Cultural practices that stimulate dense, vigorous plant stands are recommended because these conditions are less favored by chinch bugs, and injury usually is reduced. Plant sorghum as early as practical.

Generally, one chinch bug per seedling sorghum plant reduces grain yield by two percent.

Chinch bugs sometimes are difficult to control with insecticides. So, for next year at sorghum planting time in fields with a history of economically damaging infestations of chinch bug, at planting, soil-incorporated insecticides or Gaucho®-treated seed may be justified. Granular insecticides must receive about one-half inch of rainfall after application to effectively suppress early-season chinch bug infestations.

In sorghum, if infestations reach the economic threshold after plant emergence, apply post-emergence insecticide using at least twenty gallons of water per acre through nozzles directed at the bases of plants. Control is seldom satisfactory on plants in the boot stage or later. Aerial insecticide application is seldom effective and not suggested.

And remember, always read and follow label instructions on pesticides. Many have grazing and haying restrictions along with harvest intervals.

RECERTIFICATION SHORTCOURSE

A two-night Fall Recertification Shortcourse for Pesticide Applicators will be held Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 10th and 11th from 6 to 9 p.m. in the Little Theater at North Central Texas College.

Each night producers will be offered three (3) Continuing Education Units toward recertification of their pesticide license. This will give producers an opportunity to get a total of six (6) CEU's if they attend both nights.

A variety of topics will be covered including Beneficial Insects, IPM, Result Demonstration Work, Pasture Management and Herbicides, Laws and Regulations, and Right to Know.

NEED A PESTICIDE APPLICATOR LICENSE?

Agriculture producers who currently need the training and testing for a Private Applicators License through the Texas Department of Agriculture will have the opportunity to complete the required training on Monday, October 8, or on Wednesday, October 10. The training will be held at the County Extension Office at 5 p.m. October 8, or 9:00 a.m. October 10.

The test will be given by Jerry Smith, with the Texas Department of Agriculture, at 5 p.m. on Oct. 10 at North Central Texas College. Contact the County Extension Office at 940-668-5412 to enroll in the training and testing session.
