COMMISSIONER CANDIDATES IN FAVOR ROADS

Since the position of the candidates for county commissioner regarding Brown county road program has been a matter of interest in the minds of many people, The Bulletin has sought, as a matter of news for its readers, to obtain expressions of the candidates upon this subject. Several candidates have been seen and others will be given the opportunity to present their views.

L. F. Bird, present commissioner from precinct No. 3 and a candidate for re-election, said that there was no use in asking him about his position on the road situation as it had been clearly shown in his work with the commissioners' court. "The only thing which I recommend as a change is that the work be speeded as much as possible and that the program now started be completed as soon as possible. You can say that I favor the present program as to construction and financing, but want to see more work done and want to see the roads completed sooner," Mr. Bird said.

Chas. B. Palmer, a candidate in precinct No. 4, said that his stand had been very emphatic on this question since his announcement. "With the extreme conditions of everything at present I am in favor of pushing the work on the lateral roads and having them constructed as soon as possible and that as many of them be started as humanly possible so that more people will be given work. The money is ready for this and no waiting on the Highway Commission is necessary so why not build them now and get them finished."

In speaking of the highway situation he stated that he was heartily with the program as outlined and started by the present court and that he elected would do all possible to help Leo Ehlinger, county state engineer, to complete the roads. "I believe in the way that the highway situation is being handled and want to see it completed soon, but know that the court and Mr. Ehlinger are doing their best and will help them if elected. The engineer is a valuable asset to the program and with out his aid the highway program would be at a standstill."

Noah McGaughey, another candidate for commissioner in precinct No. 4, said that his sentiments were practically the same as those expressed by Mr. Palmer and that he could add nothing to what his opponent had said only that he was ready to work his best at all times and if elected would give the county a large amount of his time to complete the highway program in the county and to complete as soon as possible all lateral roads and then help state officials with the highway program. "Mr. Ehlinger is one of the most valuable assets that Brown county has at present and due to his efforts and road building knowledge he is saving the county thousands of dollars which would be wasted without his valuable assistance," he concluded.

Would Continue Program
W. F. Timmins, a candidate for commissioner from precinct No. 2, and who last week was elected to the post, said that there was no mistake but that the highway and lateral road program was one of the greatest undertakings which Brown county had ever started and that he wanted to be commissioner so that he could have a part in this gigantic undertaking. "There is only one stand to take on the situation and that is to continue the program as it is started unless it is to speed it up if possible. If I am elected my supporters can count on me as being behind the complete program and can rest assured that I will do all possible to make the Brown county roads among the best in the state, both highways and county roads. I endorse the work done by Mr. Ehlinger and the present commissioners' court and will do my best for the road program advancement," he stated.

SUNDAY SHOWS ARE PLANNED

Rumors recently have had it that the Lyric a Public Theatre, plans to offer Sunday shows in Brownwood at an early date and J. C. Tunstall, manager of the Lyric, in reply to a question as to when the Lyric planned to inaugurate Sunday shows in this city, stated that he was neither in a position to confirm nor deny these rumors.

Mr. Tunstall added, however, that officials of his company are expected in Brownwood within the next few days and that until then he would have no announcements to make. However, rumors that Sunday shows would begin in Brownwood, Sunday, July 27th, were emphatically denied by Mr. Tunstall.

"We plan to inaugurate Sunday shows in Brownwood but I am not able to say when," Mr. Tunstall stated today.

C. OF C. TO SEND MISS BROWNWOOD TO DALLAS STYLE SHOW AND REVUE

E. H. Minor, chairman of the committee in charge of Brownwood Day at the 1930 Brown County Fair, appeared before the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday noon with a report on plans for the program on the night of Brownwood Day as well as a report on plans for a bathing revue to be held at Lakewood Swimming Pool on the night of August 1. According to Mr. Minor's report, Miss Brownwood will be selected at the Lakewood revue and the Chamber of Commerce was asked to accept the winner of the Lakewood revue as Brownwood's entry in the 1930 Dallas Style Show and Bathing Revue, the winner of which will be crowned Miss Southwest. The Chamber of Commerce, after hearing Mr. Minor's report, voted unanimously to co-operate with Mr. Minor and his committee in every way. Hence the winner of the revue at Lakewood on the night of August 1 will be sent to Dallas by the Chamber of Commerce as Miss Brownwood to compete for the title, Miss Southwest.

Inasmuch as there were not enough directors present at today's meeting to constitute a quorum, most of the day's luncheon hour was spent in hearing reports from the secretary and discussions of various questions.

Mr. Burke reported on the present status of negotiations with the Magnolia Bottle Company of Bristol, Oklahoma, and after short discussion this question was carried over until the next meeting of the directors.

Mr. Burks then reported on a meeting in San Saba Tuesday with the county judge, commissioners and citizens of San Saba county relative to the building of a better road between Brownwood and San Saba. This project is being worked out and indications are, according to Mr. Burks and others, that in due time Brownwood and San Saba will be connected with an all weather road, satisfactory to the needs of the two cities.

Tax Rate Will Not Be Set Until After the Election

AUSTIN, July 24.—(AP)—Taxpayers of Texas probably will not learn next year's tax rate until after the election.

The automatic tax board, consisting of the governor, comptroller and treasurer, met yesterday. Treasurer Hatcher and Comptroller Sheppard were here but Governor Moody was unable to be here.

The governor came back today but found the other members of the board absent. Hatcher left again on his interrupted campaign for railroad commissioner, and Sheppard was somewhere in north Texas as also campaigning.

GENERAL DIES

SANTAREM, Portugal, July 24.—(AP)—General Jaime Figueredo, leader of the Portuguese revolutionary movement in January, 1919, and a hero in the African wars, died today.

More than 23,000,000 articles came to the dead letter office of the postoffice department in the last year.

REFUND MADE

AUSTIN, July 24.—(AP)—The first $5,000 refund under the state gasoline tax had been paid by the comptroller's office today.

Warrant number 50,000 was issued to W. M. Faulkner of Copperton Cove. The $5,000 warrants represent a refund to farmers and others exempt from paying the gasoline tax of $1,461,261.23.

4 WARRANTS, 2 ARRESTS BRADY BANK SHORTAGE

BRADY, Tex., July 24.—(P)—Two men connected with the Commercial Bank here remained at Liberty today, although warrants for their arrest had been issued. Bonds of $5,000 each had been set for S. S. Graham, assistant cashier, and Leo Campbell, bookkeeper. After a shortage of approximately $92,000 was discovered in the bank's accounts.

Graham and Campbell were arrested yesterday. One of the other men was out of town and the other was ill in a hospital.

W. D. Crothers, vice president of the institution, issued a statement asserting that the bank was in sound condition and $100,000 was received from the Federal Reserve Bank at Dallas, which telegraphed that more money would be sent if needed.

TWO CITIZENS HERE INSTALL INDIVIDUAL IRRIGATION SYSTEMS

Two citizens of Brownwood, who own land in the north irrigation district, have not waited for the construction of the big dam, back of which will come Lake Brownwood, but have already installed their irrigation systems; they are A. V. Fitzgerald and G. W. Scharrenbeck who own and operate four and one-half acre tracts in the Wilbur Smith addition on Slayden street.

Last March, as related in the Bulletin at the time, Messrs. Fitzgerald and Scharrenbeck planted pecans on their respective properties. To insure a water supply, they sunk wells through the rich soil of the Bayou bottom and found an unfailing supply at 22 feet.

These wells were sunk several hundred feet apart, but in every instance the water was found at almost exactly the same level—22 feet. This, in a check with other wells on the old Parks, Malone and other places in the vicinity, indicates strongly that the entire Bayou bottom next the city is underlaid with an immense water supply, it is declared.

That the water is suitable for irrigation is shown by the fact that splendid crops of squash, black eyed peas, cucumbers, tomatoes and other kinds of produce have been grown, and are being grown on land that four months ago was a mesquite pasture, it is pointed out.

Within the past week an iron tank of 750 barrel capacity has been installed by Mr. Fitzgerald and is holding 100 barrels on the Scharrenbeck place.

"When water becomes available from the ditches of the water improvement district, in the course of a year or two there will be two of the best watered tracts in the state. They have already demonstrated what can be done in the way of enabling a man to make a living at home," it was said in comments on these projects today.

Charlie Anderson Sustains Injuries In Auto Accident

Charlie Anderson, operator of a filling station east of the slough bridge, was injured last night in an automobile accident on East Lee Street. The accident came when Anderson went to sleep while driving along East Lee and his automobile collided with a telephone pole, he told the Bulletin reporter this morning. The windshield was broken and Anderson suffered a badly bruised chest where he was hit by the steering wheel. Also, his nose was broken.

He was rushed to a local hospital for medical treatment. He was alone at the time of the accident.

Principal interest centers around the races for county judge, tax assessor, sheriff and district attorney. Brown county and this county are both offering candidates for the state legislature.

BROWNWOOD AND WELLINGTON LEGION TEAMS BOOK SERIES

Brownwood's Rangers, Isham A. Smith Post's junior baseball team, will meet the junior Legion team of Wellington, July 28th, 29th and 30th, in Wellington, it is announced today following a communication with Johnnie Payne, manager of the Wellington team. These two teams will have as their goal the Fifth Division championship.

The Brownwood rangers have played between twenty and thirty games during the current season, but not one has been with an American Legion team. The Rangers have advanced to the finals of the Fifth Division by default, in that no other team has arisen to dispute Brownwood's claim to the title.

Wellington has likewise reached the finals of the division by default, Hereford and Amarillo, two other contenders for district honors, forfeited to Wellington.

The Brownwood team will leave Sunday for the Panhandle city and will arrive in time to get some rest prior to the opening games Monday afternoon.

Wellington is a thriving little city along the Texas-Oklahoma border and is a red hot baseball town. At present, the little Panhandle city is before the public of Texas as the home of Clint C. Small, one of the leading candidates for Governor of Texas.

Popularity Contest Held By Fair Officials

"Who is the most popular girl or woman in Brownwood and Brown county?"

That question has been asked the committee in charge of Brownwood Day, August 22, at the 1930 Brown County fair and the committee very frankly admits that it is unable to answer the question, however, this committee, just like a lawyer when asked some question he is unable to answer, has promised to find out. In fact the committee has announced the exact date its answer will be given.

You guessed it—this committee headed by E. H. Minor, is going to sponsor a popularity contest to determine definitely who is the most popular girl or woman in Brownwood and Brown county. This committee is composed of Mr. Minor, the chairman, J. C. Tunstall, Bruce Craig, Lloyd Nixon, O. B. Casion and Stewart Hopper.

And this committee, composed of young and energetic business men, has done more than just announce that a popularity contest will be held—it has completed plans for the contest and everything is in readiness to begin this contest in the immediate future.

First of all, the committee announces that the contest is open to any woman or girl in Brownwood or Brown county, regardless of age. There are no restrictions whatsoever, in fact the committee insists that all be eligible to enter the contest and in keeping with the wishes of these men, the contest is wide open to every girl or woman, be she young or old, single or wedded.

Grand Prize Offered

Being officially declared the most popular woman in Brownwood and Brown county should be honored enough to cause every woman and girl of the city or county to enter the county to enter the contest and exert every effort to win this coveted honor. But the committee in charge has decided to further award the winner the immediate prize of $25 in gold, this award will be made each Saturday night of the contest at the Lyric Theater, between 8 and 9 o'clock. The contest will be held in the Lyric Theater, hence it is announced that the winner will be presented a grand prize of $25 in gold, this award will be made at the Brown County Fair on the night of August 22, this being the night of Brownwood Day at the 1930 fair.

In addition to this grand prize the leading contestant through each week of the contest will be awarded a $5 gold piece. Required to Announce the Election Vote

DALLAS, Texas, July 24.—(P)—The Texas Election Bureau has directed attention to the state law which not only permits but requires election judges throughout the state to give out unofficial totals of the vote for each candidate as soon as the polls close and thereafter every two hours until completion of that count.

A. F. Henning, manager of the election bureau, said "article 3022 of the revised statutes makes it mandatory on election judges to make these unofficial announcements and this law has in no way been changed."

The name of one's favorite contestant, will be placed in voting boxes at the stores where purchases were made.

Standings of contestants from week to week will be published but the exact number of votes of each contestant will not be announced.

Closes Night Aug. 19

The contest will close the night of August 19 and the winner of the coveted honor, "The Most Popular Girl or Woman in Brownwood and Brown County," will be announced on the night of August 22.

The committee in charge of this contest announces that a committee of three non-interested and leading business men will have charge of the counting of votes, declaring of winners, etc.

TEXAS COTTON CROP BE SHORT IS FORECASTED

AUSTIN, Texas, July 22.—(UP)—An outlook for as short a cotton crop as last year's 3,600,000 bales is announced today by State Agricultural Commissioner George B. Terrell. The Texas crop usually is a little over a third of that for the whole country.

But a short crop, Commissioner Terrell says, seems to be the only hope for better prices this fall. Forty per cent of the cotton is very late, much of it is not blooming, and any of the late crop is assured and so it is impossible to estimate the outcome of the crop, he said.

Based on July 15 reports from 200 counties he estimated a six per cent reduction from last year's acreage, including the abandonment. This leaves 16,889,920 acres from which the crop will be gathered.

Eastern Report

For an eastern district made up of 49 counties, he reports 92 per cent of last year's acreage and 78 per cent condition. For 22 counties in the northern district, the acreage is 94 per cent and condition 79 per cent; in 44 counties in the western district the acreage is 93 per cent and condition 76 per cent; in 44 central counties the acreage is 95 per cent and condition 81 per cent; in 37 southwestern counties, the acreage is 96 per cent and condition 92 per cent and in 58 western counties the acreage is 97 per cent and condition 78 per cent.

The total acreage is 94 per cent of last year and average condition is 79 per cent.

"Hot dry weather is reported in every district," said Commissioner Terrell, "and cotton is failing for moisture. Only a few counties report any rain in July. Cotton is good in only a few counties. Insect damage is very small though considerable boll weevil damage is reported in the southwest district.

"Domestic consumption and exports of cotton have decreased 1.2 million bales during the last ten months, and may reach two million bales by the close of the cotton year, August 1. This is one of the causes of the low price of cotton. There may be other contributing causes."

On other crops Commissioner Terrell reports:

"Corn is reported good from Austin south to the coast and some counties of central and north Texas report good corn. The average yield per acre of corn and oats is 20 bushels. Grain sorghums and hay have increased in acreage and the condition is fairly good, but the late hay crops will be short unless general rains come soon."

Coleman County's Oil Production From 415 Wells

COLEMAN, Texas, July 24.—(SP)—Coleman county has 415 producing oil wells, W. J. Garden, deputy oil and gas supervisor of the Texas railroad commission, said today, and during the month of June they produced 3,590 barrels of oil per day. In March the county had the same number of wells, the daily production 4,972. Several small producers have been added since March, but some of the wells that were producing at that time have been dropped. There is still considerable drilling in the county despite depression and the general condition in the oil industry.

FENCING TRACT AT LAKE SITE BEGUN MONDAY

Brown County Water District No. 1 has taken charge of 319.44 acres of land in the Cox-McInnis lower ranch at the dam site and has started building a fence around the property. The district took charge this week and fence building started Monday. The fence will inclose the land which has been taken by the district and also the road from the site to the highway. The clearing of the land for a temporary road will be started next week and the cutting of the cliff near the dam site will soon be completed.

The driller will go into the basin as soon as the road is completed and will start drilling the test holes for the dam. These will be drilled as rapidly as possible and everything will be in readiness for the actual work soon.

Of the land taken 117.2 acres is permanent and will be directly under the dam. The other 198.24 acres is taken only temporarily until the completion of the work and will then be returned to the original owners.

The construction of the dam will take about eighteen months and will call for the placing of more than 750,000 yards of dirt and 10-000 yards of concrete in the dam and spillway.

In order to take possession of the land the directors of the water district posted twice the amount of the damages named by the commission which set the values on the land with the county clerk in cash and made a bond stating that they would pay for any extra costs. The amount of damages awarded by the commission appointed by the court was $5,330.65. Twice this amount is ready for the land owners in order to give the district right to begin the work.

The case is to come before the county court this month and if it is lost there goes directly to the appellate courts at Austin for hearing.

It is not known when actual construction will start but officials of the district believe it will be within the next 60 or 90 days.

Receives Bulletins Giving Information On Short Course

O. P. Griffin, county agent, received a number of bulletins today from College Station which include complete instructions concerning the short course to open at A. and M. July 28, and the complete program. The bulletins give instructions as to railroad rates, care of baggage, meals, stores, camping grounds, and many other valuable points.

The complete program for farmers, boys, and homemakers' program which detail the work for each day during the entire time, telling of the discussions at each session is also included in the bulletin.

Mr. Griffin said Saturday morning that the closing of registrations was approaching and that no applications for attendance would be accepted by either him or Miss Malone after Wednesday at noon. The list of people who plan to attend the meeting must be sent to the school not later than Wednesday and because of this fact it is imperative that all applications be in their hands by the designated time.

He stated that he would keep a number of the bulletins in his office and that any one who wished information concerning the program or any phase of it could call there and they would be informed of any detail which they wished to know.

3 INJURED AS AUTO GOES INTO DITCH

Z. A. Parker of Santa Anna was seriously injured and R. H. Sumner of Llano and Mrs. Milton Callaway of Fort Worth were also injured though not so severely when a light coupe in which they were riding overturned on the highway near Haase, in Comanche county, at about 9 o'clock Monday night.

The three were coming from Fort Worth. Mr. Parker and Mr. Sumner had shipped cattle to the Fort Worth market and were returning home from their trip to the market, and Mrs. Callaway was on her way to Llano to visit her father.

The automobile was proceeding at a moderate rate of speed when a tire with only a small amount of air caused the car to plunge over the embankment at a curve into a ditch over 10 feet deep, turning completely over. Mr. Parker who was riding in the rumble seat of the car was injured more than the occupants inside the car.

Mr. Parker was badly injured about the head and neck and was unconscious when brought to a local hospital, an x-ray was made this morning. Mr. Sumner was badly injured about the face, and one ear was badly cut. Mrs. Callaway sustained wrenched ligaments in one arm and severe bruises about the body.

PLANS MATURED FOR BATHING REVUE AT LAKEWOOD TO FIND BROWNWOOD'S FINEST BEAUTY

In an interview with E. H. Minor chairman of Brownwood Day at the Brown County Fair, he disclosed plans for the holding of a bathing revue, sponsored by the Brown County Fair and Lakewood swimming pool to be held Friday, August 1, at the Lakewood swimming pool.

The contest will be to select eleven young ladies from all entries who will later decide the winners. The plan at present is to choose Miss Brownwood from the group at Lakewood on Friday night and she will represent the town in the competition for Miss Southwest, to be chosen at Dallas on August 19.

At that time the ten young ladies will be presented and judged for second place in the contest. Miss Brownwood will be included in the group on the stage on the night of the fair, although not competing for the cash award.

Further Contests The young lady chosen as Miss Brownwood will be sent to the Southwest contest on the above mentioned dates and if she survives these elimination contests will again receive a free trip to Dallas, on August 12, to compete in the second elimination contest and if again successful will receive a third trip to that place to compete in the finals of the contest.

Extensive plans are now under way by the committee in charge of Brownwood Day at the fair to make the first revue at Lakewood a huge success as an entertainment feature. "If we give them a good and worthwhile show at Lakewood they will be more than ready to go to the fair at Brownwood night. Our crowd at the fair on the night of August 22 will largely depend on the impression received at Lakewood. We must give them a good show, and one which all will appreciate," Mr. Minor said in speaking of the entertainment for the revue.

Entertainment Plans are now under way to have vaudeville acts and songs and other numbers on the Lakewood program, affording real entertainment for those who attend the affair. Mr. Minor has placed members of his committee in charge of the entertainment feature at the swimming pool and these men will be responsible for a full evening's show. A popular orchestra has been engaged to furnish music for the revue at Lakewood and will play during the beauty parade there as well as between numbers, and furnish accompaniment for many of the vaudeville numbers. Immediately following the revue the orchestra will play for a dance to be sponsored by the same group at the swimming pool.

The short amount of time remaining before Lakewood contest it was the committee's wish that the entrants make their registrations immediately. Mr. Minor at Minor's Cinderella shop and Conde McClain of Lakewood are taking registrations for the contest. Mr. McClain is doing all possible to assist in making the program a success and said he wanted a large number of entrants in the contest to make a creditable showing for Brownwood beauties of which there were plenty.

Mr. Minor stated that it was imperative that all young ladies make their registration with either him or Mr. McClain immediately so that an accurate count could be obtained.

"Of course, the primary function of the bathing revue is to advertise Brownwood Day at the fair, and we started it with this in view, but the best way to secure advertising is to give the people good entertainment which will make them believe they are getting every chance to really see something worthwhile. So with that in view, we are now working toward making the bathing revue a real show and a real advertisement through the fair will be invaluable as will the advertising that Brownwood will receive through the contest at Dallas for Miss Southwest, Mr. Minor concluded.

CANDIDATES ATTEND PIGNICS TUESDAY TO OFFER THEIR CLAIMS

A large crowd attended the basket picnic held Tuesday at Blanket, including people from Brown and Comanche counties. The morning was given to a program of musical and other numbers presented by local talent of Blanket. The program was held at the picnic grounds and a large crowd attended.

During the afternoon candidates and their representatives were given a chance to announce the candidacies of themselves and others for the election Saturday. Walker U. Early spoke in interest of Barry Miller, candidate for governor. Rev. A. E. Ewell spoke for Ross Sterling and a Mr. Lee spoke for Clint Small. Most of the county and district officers were represented.

A political rally and announcement meeting was held last night at Jordan Springs with a large crowd attending. County and district candidates spoke for themselves and representatives of state candidates were present. Mrs. Mollie Armstrong spoke for Barry Miller, C. R. Troxel spoke for Ross Sterling and again Mr. Lee represented Clint Small. The meeting was not concluded until almost midnight and a large number of the audience left before the opening of the concluding speeches.

Tonight the candidates will speak at Brookessmith and tomorrow night at Cross Cut which will end the political rallies in Brown county during the last-minute campaigning.

Troop Two Has Overnight Camp

Troop 2 went on an overnight camp on the San Saba river last Wednesday when Scoutmaster C. L. Pouncey came in unexpectedly from Dallas. Mr. Pouncey got the boys together and took them to the camp site in his car. When they got there the Scoutmaster had a watermelon feast ready for them. After the boys had eaten all the watermelons they took a hike up the San Saba river. They fished all the next morning. They came home Thursday.

VOTING PLACES ARE DESCRIBED

Some confusion has arisen in Brownwood as to voting places in the coming primary election Saturday. The controversy has arisen because of the fact that the city and general elections are not held at the same places in any of the four wards.

The voting places for each of the four wards in Saturday's primary election, are as follows: Ward No. 1 will vote at the courthouse; the boundaries of this ward are city limits on the east and north; Beaver Street, an alley between Melwood and Main, thence an alley beside the house of E. M. Boon to Austin Avenue, thence to the intersection of Avenue C which is the southern boundary of that ward.

Ward No. 2 will vote at Howard Payne auditorium. The boundaries of this ward are city limits on north and west, Beaver Street, the above mentioned alleys and Austin Avenue on the east, and Avenue C on the south.

Ward No. 3 will vote at Daniel Baker College auditorium. The boundaries of this ward are Avenue C on the north, Second Street on the west, the city limits on the east and Willis creek on the south.

Ward No. 4 will vote at the Central Methodist Church. The boundaries of this ward are Second St. on the east, Avenue C on the north and the city limits on the west and south.

The Commissioners' Court is designated to name the voting places for the county and state elections, but as yet has not set any certain place for elections to be held and the above mentioned places were chosen because of their central location in each ward and their accessibility by all voters. Dr. T. H. Taylor said Tuesday that in all likelihood the voting places would be established from custom in time by their continued use.

These boundaries are the same in both city and general elections, but not the same voting places.

ASSEMBLING PLANT TO BUILD BARRELS BEING CONSTRUCTED IN CITY

Preparations and specifications for the construction of a coopeage plant here have been completed and the work started on the construction this week. The Sandusky Coopeage and Lumber Company of St. Louis, Missouri, are constructing a branch factory in Brownwood which will be ready for operation about September 1.

The plant is being constructed near the compress on Center avenue and along a siding of the Santa Fe railroad. It is a frame building 80 feet by 120 feet and 12 feet high. The plant is being constructed primarily to build turkey barrels and boxes, but pecan barrels will also be constructed. The plant will be equipped to manufacture any kind of wooden crate or barrel. Brownwood was chosen for the plant because it is centrally located in the heart of the turkey industry and will be a concentration point for fowls later. The plant was constructed here because of the better freight rate accommodations on lumber than on the finished products of the coopeage firm.

The lumber used in the boxes and barrels will be cut before being shipped and the local house will be only an assembling plant. The work will employ approximately 12 or 14 men when the plant starts.

The business will operate about six months in each year. The company will send four men here and the others will be employed locally. Little machinery is needed in the assembling, as most of the work is done by hand.

Why He Is the Best Man

REPEATEDLY we have made the statement that James Young of Kaufman is the best man in the race for the Governorship of Texas, and it has not been challenged by any supporter of any other candidate. To the contrary, from the very beginning of his active campaign a couple of months ago, Mr. Young has been almost universally recognized as the best man in the race, and the only reason he does not today have assurance of an overwhelming victory in the primary next Saturday is that so many of the people who expect to participate in that election apparently are more concerned about defeating somebody who is objectionable than about electing the best qualified candidate available for the position of Texas' chief executive. "I know Young is the best man, and I would vote for him if I thought he had a chance," may be heard on every hand. We do not know, nor does anyone else, how many votes Mr. Young is to receive, but we do know there is no reason to condemn his candidacy as hopelessly defeated and we believe that no candidate in the entire field has a better opportunity to enter the second campaign than has he.

It may become necessary to vote our prejudices in the run-off primary, but we are going to vote our preference in the first one. Mr. Young is a clean and honorable man in his private life, and during this entire campaign there has not been even the faintest hint of an accusation to the contrary. That fact, alone, stamps him as a novel candidate in this state which has been notorious in many of its campaigns by the mud-slinging and muck-raking of gubernatorial aspirants. His public life likewise is free from even the suggestion of dishonesty and not one of his ten opponents has dared challenge any single portion of it. His business and professional activities not only have been thoroughly ethical in every respect but have been financially profitable to him; and while he is not a millionaire he enjoys a well earned financial independence. His political affiliations have always been in accordance with the best traditions of the Democratic party, and the worst that any opponent has charged against him is that he was loyal to his party even when the nominees chosen by the party were personally objectionable to him. If that be an offense, then every loyal Democrat in Texas is guilty of it.

Moreover, Mr. Young is now and always has been free from entangling alliances with factions and cliques. Thereby he has maintained his independence as a free man and now owes no obligations for factional favors, while at the same time he has no grudges to satisfy because of factional disfavor. His platform is free from demagoguery and exaggeration, and presents to the people a clear-cut expression of his opinion on every issue that is being discussed in Texas. He is not trying to buy votes either with the lavish expenditure of campaign funds or with the insidious appeal of tax reduction promises that he and everyone else knows can not be fulfilled. If he is elected governor he will go into the office simply as Jim Young, and while he will not be an official of the spectacular sort who get front page publicity in every daily newspaper every day and who carry on endless controversies with this and that organization and with half the state departments, he will give Texas a sane, sober, honest administration in which every citizen will share equally.

That is why we think Jim Young is the best man in the race. Some of his opponents have some worthy characteristics, but some are downright dangerous not only in their personality but in the policies they are advocating. Mr. Young is not a paragon of all the virtues, but there is combined in his candidacy more of the good and less of the evil than can be found in the candidacy of any other man in the race. We believe the people of Texas want such a man in the Governor's office. For many years they have been saying they wanted such a man, and complaining because they did not have him. Now that the opportunity is offered we believe they will accept it. This newspaper is not interested in the political fortunes of any man under the shining sun, but it is intensely interested in good government and believes that the election of Jim Young will promote it.

Tax Equalization

A PLAN that the statewide highway bond issue would equalize taxation has been stressed by the leaders in the campaign in behalf of changing the system of financing the construction of state highways. There really would be equalization if that plan were adopted. It would equalize the highway tax of the multi-millionaire who is the chief proponent of the plan and of the farmer who owns a hundred acres of dry Brown county farm land. It is estimated that the state bond issue scheme would relieve Brown county tax payers of approximately 25 cents per hundred dollars of taxable valuations. The average Brown county farm is rendered at around $2000 for tax purposes. A 25-cent levy on that valuation means an annual tax of $5, which would be taken off the shoulders of the average Brown county farmer if the bond scheme in all its rosy details should actually work as well as proponents think it would. But at the same time it would take off the shoulders of the multi-millionaire who is trying to ride into the Governor's office on a platform of tax relief and tax equalization a sum of probably forty or fifty thousand dollars per year, which he is paying in highway taxes if he is rendering all his taxable property for taxation. After both had been thus relieved, the farmer of $5 and the multi-millionaire of ten thousand times as much, then both would pay the same gasoline tax.

Tax equalization is a beautiful thing to talk about, and just now most of the large property owners in Texas are talking about it with a great deal of enthusiasm. They are tremendously worried about the problem of aiding the farmers.

The West Texas Line-Up

CHAIRMAN STERLING of the Highway Commission disclaims any talent as a politician. He is a heavy business man and not a political manipulator, he declares with becoming modesty, but he is employing some nice politics in his campaign for the Governorship. West Texas was the stronghold of the Hoovercrats in 1928, and has been regarded as a source of several thousand votes for Senator Love this year. Accordingly in West Texas Chairman Sterling's friends have set up an aggressive organization. Its president is Judge C. M. Caldwell of Abilene, county manager for Hoover in 1928; and its manager is the Rev. A. E. Ewell, who was West Texas manager for Hoover. Their open appeal to the Hoovercrat support is probably no more alarming to Senator Love than it is embarrassing to some local Democrats who have been given enthusiastic support to Chairman Sterling's campaign. But this isn't all the story; for in those strategic centers of the state where the brethren of the sacred, unfalling bond are still somewhat numerous, Brother Sterling is cutting into Brother Mayfield's klan support. That is the way a big business man avoids politics.

The Rhineland Rejoices

RESIDENTS of the Rhineland region which has just been released from French control after a period of ten years have been conducting thanksgiving services in which they have expressed their gratitude to God for His deliverance from the yoke of military domination. President Von Hindenburg has joined with the people in these services, which have been held in both Protestant and Catholic churches of the occupied region. There can be no doubt as to the sincerity of the German people in these thanksgiving services. French occupation has been announced by but little extra hardship for these people, but it has been a burdensome ordeal, nevertheless, and one that tested not only the patriotism but the patience of each German resident. And after all is said and done, it was an unholy occupation, inflicted upon a people who were powerless to prevent it, and made no effort to prevent it, for the purpose of compelling an unwilling and impotent government to meet exorbitant demands by a victorious enemy. Small wonder it is that the German people rejoice, and all the rest of us should rejoice with them.

Saturday, July 26th, (election day) being a legal holiday, the banks of Brownwood will be closed. Customers will please be governed accordingly. The Coggin National Bank, The Citizens National Bank, The First National Bank.

SELECTION OF DELEGATES TO CONVENTIONS

Everything is in readiness for the election Saturday and all election officials have signified their intention of serving during the day, according to T. H. Taylor, county chairman. Dr. Taylor said Tuesday afternoon that a space had been left on the official ballot or the selection of delegates to the county convention which is to be held on August 2 at 2 o'clock as provided by the law. The executive democratic committee will hold its meeting at 10 o'clock on the morning of August 2. Each precinct has its choice of selecting delegates to the county convention. The two methods which are provided by the law are to hold precinct conventions or to vote for the delegates at the time of the voting for other officers. For several years in the past the Brown county people have chosen their delegates by election rather than by precinct to the county convention. The conventions are to be held on election day and as each precinct chairman is busy with the election it is easier and more satisfactory to vote for delegates than to choose them by conventions because of the time necessary by the latter method.

Each precinct in the county is allowed one delegate for each 25 votes or major fraction thereof with the vote cast for Dan Moody in the last general election as a basis for choice. After the delegates are chosen for the county convention on July 26 they assemble and choose delegates to the state convention and the district democratic meetings held during the next two years. At the county convention the delegates to the state meeting are chosen on a basis of 300 votes or major fraction thereof. It is not necessary for the county chairman to call the meeting of either the executive committee or the county convention, as the law provides that they shall meet, setting the time and other necessary points.

Checking Returns According to the law, the official returns of the primary are checked and the official report made at the meeting of the committee on the morning of August 2. However, Dr. Taylor said blanks have been provided for unofficial returns which could be filled in by the presiding judges for the convenience of the voters. This unofficial report will be released immediately following the complete count of the votes by the judges and his clerks. Dr. Taylor said a large number of the election judges had already taken their boxes and other supplies and are in readiness for the election Saturday.

Woodland Heights Bonds Approved

County Superintendent J. Oscar Swindler received news Saturday afternoon that the Woodland Heights bonds had been approved by the Attorney General's office. The transcript was taken to Austin some time ago and placed before the department for their approval and since that time the state officials have been investigating the issue. The bonds for the school building which includes $18,000 for rebuilding purposes were taken, but no mention in the communication was made of the $2,000 for the leachery at the school. Work on the building will start as soon as architects have completed plans and an effort is being made to complete the work before the opening of school for the fall term. This is the second time that the district has voted bonds, the first transcript being refused.

FEDERAL FARM FACTS

Provisions for cold storage in the United States increased 60,748,290 cubic feet over the two years ending October, 1929. The U. S. Department of Agriculture reports. At that time 1400 cold storage concerns operated buildings having about 728,594,833 cubic feet of space. The U. S. Department of Agriculture has succeeded in standardizing more than fifty farm commodities in the last 15 years. This means that foods, feeds and fibers are graded according to quality through the use of standards supplied producers by the government. The standards meet the modern merchandising required of sorting commodities according to quality.

To the Voters of Commissioners Precinct No. 4

(Which includes Ward No. 2 of Brownwood.) I have tried to see all voters of the precinct and tell them how I stand on the commissioners work but for fear some may not yet understand me.

I stand for the road work as planned, when the bonds were voted. I think it wise that we have a competent engineer to help with our road work.

I think possibly this road work might be speeded up some and thereby give work to the unemployed.

I promise if elected to be very careful in the spending of the county's funds.

I hold no ill will against any of my opponents. They have all been nice to me for which I thank each of them. I only wish to win in this race.

I wish to thank all for the courtesy shown me while canvassing. If you think I will make you a good commissioner, I will appreciate your vote and influence on July 26th.

Very Respectfully, J. O. DEPRIEST (Political Advertisement)

To the Voters of Precinct No. 3

On account of the additional work placed on the Commissioners by reason of our road program, it has been impossible for me to make a personal canvass for re-election without neglecting my work. I have chosen to stay on the job, and I take this means of thanking the people of Precinct No. 3 for their hearty support and co-operation in the past, and of soliciting your vote for another term, in order that I may complete the lateral road program in Precinct No. 3.

The Commissioners are elected by precincts, but my interest has been for the county as a whole, and not one portion of the county as against some other portion thereof.

The lateral road bond program in Precinct No. Three will be practically completed by January 1st, 1931; but there will necessarily be many adjustments to make within the next year or two, and my friends believe that I am in a position to carry on the work of completing and co-ordinating said road system.

During the last two years, I have worked hard to see every voter, but would like again to remind every one that I am a candidate for County Tax Assessor, and will appreciate your vote and influence in the Saturday primary election. I am qualified for this office, and if elected will give the very best service possible to every citizen of the county. I will thank you for your aid in this election.

forgotten my own business, and have labored incessantly to carry out and complete the road program voted and decreed by the people of Brown county. I have stood for all progressive movements in the county, but have tried to use the same rigid economy in the county's business that I have been forced to use in my own. I trust that my efforts have met with your approval, and I will appreciate your continued support and confidence. If re-elected, I shall undertake to repay you in untiring and efficient service. Thanking you in advance for your support, I am

SOMETHING IN PROGRESS ALL THE TIME AT THE FAIR IS AIM OF ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE

At the regular weekly meeting of the Brown County Fair Board on Thursday morning, several important matters were discussed. Included in the proceedings was the outlining of the completed program for the fair and the change in the size of the race track.

A report of the entertainment committee was heard, which showed that the committee has attempted to get enough attractions to have some event in progress at all times. In the afternoon rodeo performances are to be furnished between races. There has always been some delay in the program between races but this year this will be eliminated by placing at least two attractions between the races. Attempts are being made to secure wild cows and steers which will be used each afternoon immediately following the races to furnish calf riding, roping and wild cow milking attractions.

Community Stunt Night

The night programs of the fair have all been practically arranged with a different attraction each night. It is thought that a large fireworks display will feature the first night's entertainment and that included will be other numbers. The second night of the fair will be "Community Stunt Night" and prizes of $100 are to be offered to the rural community in Brown county which presents the best stunt on this night. Other attractions will also be placed on the program with the stunts.

The third night of the fair will be Brownwood night and E. H. Minor as chairman of the committee for that night is arranging an extensive program including vaudeville numbers, a style show and a wedding.

The last night will be featured by a square dance and other attractions. The dance will not be the only attraction offered on that night as several other numbers are to be arranged later. An orchestra is to be engaged by the officials to play at each performance and for the style show, wedding and dance. Following the program each night the orchestra will in all probability play for a dance at the fair grounds. The committee in charge of the arrangements for the entertainment has been busy engaged this week in arranging the numbers and will continue to secure attractions during the remainder of the time prior to the actual opening of the fair.

Race Track Reduced

The board decided to reduce the size of the race track to either a five-eighths mile or half mile track. This move was brought about by popular demand of the spectators, who wish to see more of the races than is possible on a mile track. Officials of the fair said that there had been much complaint from spectators that long races and middle distance races which start on opposite sides of the track from the grand stand take away much of the attraction of the event.

Horse owners had rather the track remained as at present but are not adverse to the change because it will make the Brownwood track approximately the same distance as are all other tracks in the Heart of Texas circuit. Race fans will see more of the races this year than in any past Brown county fair.

At the meeting Thursday J. T. Stovall, C. A. Cavel, O. P. Griffin, J. Oscar Swindle and Miss Mayes Malone were placed on the committee to arrange with the various communities for the arrangements of their stunts and to stimulate interest in the rural sections for the competitive program of stunts.

Advertising Committee

A committee on advertising was also appointed which is composed of W. Lee Watson, J. T. Stovall, J. J. Timmins and Hilton Burks.

It was decided at the meeting to dispose of the concessions, following the plan used last year by advertising the concessions for sale and accepting bids for them. The highest bid will get the concession, but the committee reserves the right to reject any or all bids. The concessions and acceptance of bids will be advertised and the bids received during the first part of next week.

Each night during the performances with the exception of Brownwood night rodeo performances will be presented during the program. These will consist of riding and roping acts and will be placed between other numbers on the program. The committee has attempted to have at least one and if possible two attractions under way at once in an effort to give a good entertainment at each session of the fair.

Bids for the printing of the fair catalogue were received and read yesterday at the meeting and after all had been considered the Standard Printing Company was awarded the contract as low bidder. The work on the catalogues will start immediately.

CONSTRUCTION OF AN ELABORATE RESORT AT CAVERN UNDER WAY

BRADY, Texas, July 16—(Sp.)—Construction of an elaborate resort in connection with the recently discovered Richland Springs cavern, twenty miles east of Brady, is well under way.

While a crew of men is at work opening up new recesses in the underground labyrinth, another crew is engaged in the construction of an 185,000 gallon concrete swimming pool. Work is also nearing completion on a $10,000 power plant which will furnish the electricity for lighting the cavern and its surrounding pleasure resort.

The swimming pool which is 210 feet in circumference and ranges in depth from 3 to 8 feet will be canopied by a tent roof, providing shade and comfort for the bathers during the entire day. It will be supplied with water pumped from the 578 foot well recently drilled on the cavern premises. With an abundance of well water at hand, frequent changes of water are to be made to comply with the swimming pool slogan, "Swim in Drinking Water."

A number of new rooms, excelling the original ones in beauty and interest, have been opened up to the public since the opening of the cavern on June 3. The newest attraction is a large chamber filled with myriads of stalactites and stalagmites, which have been formed in fascinating designs by the constant dripping of water throughout the past ages. There is very little moisture in this room now, although a small pool of water is located toward the one side of the chamber.

A silvery sound, resembling that of delicately fashioned bells can be produced by gently tapping the walls of another spacious chamber recently discovered about fifty feet to the rear of the entrance and in opposite direction from the rest of the cavern, according to Lon Piper, manager. The granite formations of this new discovery are tinted in somber colors and its scenery, reflected in the dim light carried by the explorer, has an almost weird appearance.

Much additional money is to be spent in opening up new parts of the cavern and extending the concrete walks to assure the visitors every convenience and safety.

An adequate lighting system is to replace the temporary electric lamps now in use to bring into relief the many beauties and colors of this underground castle. The power house, an attractive 50x14 feet native rock building which matches the architecture of the other buildings, will house a 30,000 watt light and power plant propelled by a 25 horse power engine of latest type.

A second opening celebration is planned for the latter part of this month immediately upon completion of the resort features on the cavern premises.

Consolidation of Schools Effected

Several school consolidations were completed at a meeting of the County School Board meeting Saturday afternoon at the courthouse. Several other matters, including the classification of the rural schools, were completed.

Kid Peak and Gunn schools were consolidated with the Cross Cut school and following the coming term will be redistricted to include the entire territory of the new acquisition. The coming terms of school, opening in September, will continue this year as in the past because all preparations have been made, including the hiring of teachers and other matters which makes it impossible to discontinue the terms.

The Mount View school was consolidated with the McDaniel school and the students of the district will be transferred to the McDaniel school and transportation furnished.

Trustees were appointed by the board for several of the consolidated schools and these appointments were endorsed at the meeting. Included in the appointment was four trustees for the Cross Cut school.

Witchcraft Mania

From one end of Europe to the other during the period of the Reformation, accusations of witchcraft were of daily occurrence and it is estimated that from 1484 until 1782 300,000 women and children perished on this imaginary charge.

MINOR NAMES COMMITTEE ON BROWNWOOD DAY ARRANGEMENT

E. H. Minor, chairman of Brownwood Day at the Brown County Fair, has completed his committee for the arrangements of the program for the day, which includes O. B. Canon, Stewart Hopper, Lloyd W. Nixon, Bruce Craig and J. C. Tunstall.

The committee has made arrangements for most of the entertainment features for the night and at present only one other big feature is to be added to the program before it is completed. Plans for this addition have been started, but Mr. Minor was not ready today to make any announcements concerning the nature of the attraction.

Several merchants have already said they are ready and willing to cooperate in every way possible to assist in the style show which is to be the feature of the program. Mr. Minor states that the plans for the night seem to be maturing rapidly.

The vaudeville numbers which are being arranged are being completed and the local singers and dancers are coming readily to his assistance. He has secured several numbers already and several other artists have signified that they will assist the committee on Brownwood night and have started rehearsing numbers to be used on the program.

Following the style show will come the Brownwood wedding in which some couple will be married before the grandstand. Plans for the wedding are being worked out and will be completed soon. Mr. Minor stated that he would take applications to marry from those who wished to take advantage of the time and that the first application which he received would be the one which would be accepted.

Orchestra for Style Show

The fair board is to hire an orchestra which will furnish music during the style show, vaudeville numbers and wedding and will end the evening with a dance.

In speaking of the program for Brownwood Day Mr. Minor stated that the committee was engaged in arrangements for the night show only, as the regular race and rodeo program would be held during the afternoon and that the special program would not be started until 8 o'clock.

"With the way that the merchants are lining up to assist the committee in making this the biggest Brownwood night ever held at the Brown county fair and the assistance which has been pledged me by the Kiwanis Club, of which I am a member, it seems to me that the town is really interested in Brownwood Day and that if the program is arranged to please everyone and that some attraction is under way at all times leaving no dull moments during the evening that the day will go over big and be a huge success," Mr. Minor said.

The Kiwanis Club at its regular luncheon Thursday pledged in the adoption of a motion before the club to lend all assistant possible to making the program a success and the president, Dr. H. B. Allen, told Mr. Minor that he could count on the Kiwanis as his assistants and that they were ready to help him.

An extensive publicity campaign will start soon.

Commissioners in Weekly Session

Minor matters pertaining to fence building on highways near Brownwood, payment of bills and other small items was all the business before the commissioners court in regular session Monday. Additional pay was allotted Jas. McGarity for the moving of a house on Highway No. 7 right-of-way.

Advance payment of $100 was made to Eli Huddleston who is constructing the fence along Highway No. 7. It was brought out that five miles of fencing had been completed when the advance was asked. A total of $170 has been advanced for this work. An advance of $100 was granted Perry Taylor who is building the highway fence through his own land on Highway No. 7.

Commissioner C. D. Morrison was instructed to take care of the drainage of the Hop Sudduth farm in his precinct. Commissioner N. A. Pinson was authorized to build drainage systems on a small strip of land not used as a part of the right-of-way on Highway No. 10 where it crosses the R. L. Mauldin near Winchell.

Algeria proper is only slightly smaller than Texas in area. To the Voters of Precinct No. 2

I take this method of better introducing myself to the voters of this precinct. I am a son of the late Thos. O. Stewart, who came to Brownwood in the early eighties. I was born in the county, have lived here continuously ever since, was reared in the Clio community, but for the past six years have lived in Brownwood. I have been a property tax-payer for eighteen years, and my name has never been on the delinquent rolls.

I feel eligible and well qualified to give the kind of service that you have a right to expect; and if so, I deserve your consideration. I will appreciate, and you will do me a favor, if not personally acquainted with me, to investigate my record. I think you will find I have the courage and integrity to stand up for the people's rights, yet I have no desire to try to dominate the power of the Commissioner's Court.

If selected to serve you in this capacity, I shall certainly feel honored, but I am not seeking this position for honor alone, I need the salary. And I will show my appreciation by giving you an honest and economical service; in fact, I will do my best to conduct myself and the county's affairs in a way that will be a credit to me and an honor to the people. I have tried to meet each voter and solicit them personally, but have missed several, and I ask each of you to receive this as a personal appeal for your support.

Sincerely yours,
LON T. STEWART
 Candidate for Commissioner, Precinct No. 2.

Some Facts About STERLING and the State Road Bond Plan

When Governor Moody came into office, the affairs of the State Highway Commission were in a chaotic and deplorable condition. The Federal Government had discontinued Federal Aid to Texas, because of the gross mismanagement during the former administration. The department was in debt $600,000.00. There was a clamor all over Texas for a commission that would put the department on a sound, honest, efficient business basis.

Ross Sterling was practically drafted as chairman of the Commission. He at once began a study of highway problems, traveling over the entire 29,000 miles of state highways, and visiting other states to find out the most efficient and economical methods of dealing with this tremendous problem. He paid his own expenses, and has never put in an expense account for traveling or personal expenses, something unique in the state's administration of its affairs. He also has donated his salary each year to various charities.

Mr. Sterling and his associates have evolved out of chaos a model department in governmental affairs, and he is now recognized as the best chairman of the commission Texas ever had.

Possibly the most outstanding problem confronting the people of Texas today is how to acquire a connected system of State owned highways. Under the present plan counties are compelled to vote bonds to assist in building state highways. Some counties are unable to do this and others will not, so it is impossible to get a connected system in this manner.

It is argued by candidates, who show clearly they have made no study of the road question, that the present gasoline tax is sufficient to build a state highway system. This can easily be refuted by the fact that even with the county aid system now in use, there are something like eighteen counties which have voted bonds for state highways and their road program is now being held up for lack of funds to give the proper state aid. Under the so-called "pay as you go plan," it has been said by the "Dallas News" it would soon come to a "pay and don't go plan," because of mounting costs of maintenance of our dirt and gravel roads, which are costing about twelve millions a year to maintain at present, and because of rapid deterioration, in a few years they will cost considerably more than that.

After much study and investigation, Mr. Sterling found that the only states that were making any progress toward a connected highway system were the thirty-one states that had voted state bonds. The success of such a plan was very marked, and in those states operating on the "pay as you go plan," very little progress was being made, although in some states the gasoline tax had been raised to six cents in an effort to secure enough funds. In Texas, without a state bond issue, it is estimated we could not complete our highway system in less than thirty-five to fifty years, if at all. Hence Mr. Sterling several years ago wrote a pamphlet in which he advocated a $50 million dollar bond issue, to build our 29,000 miles of state highways in ten years; since that time, some highway building has been done, and the amount of bonds required would be something less than that, depending upon a ten, twelve, or fifteen year program, to be determined by the legislature when it submitted the question to a vote of the people.

- The main features of the plan are:
1. The plan would be reviewed and revised by the legislature and submitted to the people for a vote.
 2. The bonds would cover a period of twenty-five or thirty years, and no more bonds would be issued in any one year than would be needed for that year. In this way it has been shown that under a twenty-five year issue the average life of each issue would not be over fifteen years.
 3. It is proposed that the submission of the question shall provide that no bonds shall ever be issued that can not be retired solely from the proceeds of a three cent gasoline tax or gasoline substitute motor power. This would relieve the farms and homes of our state of any taxes for state highways.
- The gasoline tax, or road rent would be paid largely by busses, trucks and out of state tourists, while those who did not use the highways would pay no tax.
- This is the fairest method ever devised for financing highway building.

4. The state would refund to the counties, under some equitable plan devised by the legislature, the amount of bonds invested in state highways. In Brown county we would have our full amount of $855,000.00, that we are setting aside for state highways returned to us. This would reduce our taxes in Brown county 25 cents on the $100.00 valuation, hence Brown county would especially benefit by this plan.

The East, South and West Texas Chambers of Commerce; the Texas Farm Bureau, and the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, some time ago each appointed a committee of three, making a total committee of fifteen to study the state road bond plan. After careful analysis, this committee has reported that they find the state road bond plan to be the most practical, fair and economical plan ever devised for building a connected system of state highways.

The thirty-one states that have adopted the state bond plan are referred to as the progressive states, while those that have not the plan are the backward states. Texas, the imperial state, should join the progressives.

Mr. Ross Sterling stands unchallenged, a man of honesty, integrity, sound business judgment, broad visioned and big hearted, an ideal candidate for governor.

Born in poverty, his early years spent on a farm, he next operated a freight schooner, then became a country merchant, a country banker, and finally, through successful oil operations, he secured financial independence. In 1925 he sold all of his oil interests, and invested his money in newspapers, office buildings, etc., in Houston. For five years he has been devoting his energies in a labor of love to his home city and state, chairman of the Houston Port Commission, president of the Y. M. C. A., chairman of Herman hospital board, etc.

His philanthropies have been numerous, and he was voted the most useful citizen's medal by the Rotary Club of Houston.

Mr. Sterling is a life long prohibitionist, practices what he preaches, and believes in the enforcement of all laws.

In all that section of the state where he has labored, through the years, the farmer, the laborer, the banker and the preacher stand hand in hand for Ross Sterling.

A vote for Sterling means a vote for clean, honest and efficient government.

Only One Day Left for Campaigns

SEVEN DRIFT HOMEWARD AS FINALE NEARS

By the Associated Press

One more day of campaigning remained after Thursday for the eleven candidates for the Democratic nomination for the Texas governorship at least seven of whom were drifting homeward today, somewhat hazy-eyed, after weeks of intensive campaigning.

Clint Small was back in his home territory of West Texas, to speak in the afternoon at Ranger and at Abilene tonight. Ross S. Sterling, fresh from a home coming celebration at Houston last night, planned speeches today at Orange and Beaumont and tonight at Fort Arthur. James E. Ferguson, speaking for his wife's candidacy, was booked for an address at Eastland at 8 p. m. Thomas B. Love, hovering near Dallas and a hometown engagement tomorrow night, planned to speak this afternoon at Bonham and tonight at Greenville. Earle B. Mayfield was to appear at Gatesville in the afternoon and at Temple tonight. Lieut. Gov. Barry Miller, also circling back toward his home at Dallas, was due appearances at Greenville in the afternoon and tonight at McKinney. Jim Young was to speak at Vernon this afternoon and tonight at Seymour.

4 Not Scheduled

Frank Putnam, C. E. Walker, Paul Loven and J. C. C. Moody, the other four candidates, had no speeches scheduled.

Victification of the "anti-Tamm" demonstration in the Democratic party in Texas, abolition through a constitutional amendment of the ad valorem tax and equalization of educational opportunities in each county, were put forward by Senator Love as platform planks justifying his election, in a speech last night at Texarkana.

Prediction that he would "get more than 100,000 votes in West Texas" was made by Small in a speech at Cisco, where he appealed to the people of West Texas to stand behind him in the election Saturday. He said he would get his share of support in other sections.

At Houston, Frank Putnam, prohibition repeal candidate, issued a statement asserting that Sterling, also of Houston and a dry, had countenanced the spending of excessive sums in his campaign. His statement called upon Governor Moody and Attorney General Bobbitt to enforce the election laws.

The annual picnic of the Texas Retail Grocers' Association at Dallas, provided a veritable utopia for candidates. The crowd heard speeches by Mayfield and Miller, candidates for governor; James V. Alford, for attorney general; Walter Reid and J. Hayden Moore, for congress; and numerous legislative and local candidates.

Speaking at night at Sherman, Miller declared "it is no vain boast for me to tell you that I have had more experience in conducting the affairs of your state than any other man in the governor's race." He pledged himself to more equitable readjustment of taxation.

Young Warns
Jim Young of Kaufman warned

an audience at Hillboro that "a flood of display advertising and biased news stories will appear in the Sterling-controlled press during the last few days of the campaign, to lure votes to the highway commission chairman." He asserted Small's campaign had collapsed and predicted that he himself would be in the second primary "with Ferguson" and would "beat her like I would beat any other candidate."

Sixteen were founded, giant firecrackers were set off at the back of the hall and newspaper flashlight cameras sent up smoke last night as Jesse Jones introduced Ross Sterling to an uproarious hometown audience in the Democratic national convention hall in Houston.

Sterling, in his address, denied that the proposed highway bond issue especially reserved one cent out of the four cent gasoline tax for schools.

"It is demagoguery of the worst sort and cheap politics for any candidate for governor to pretend otherwise," he declared.

Wool Auction At London Concluded

LONDON, July 23.—(AP)—The wool auction sales were concluded today with the offerings amounting to 7,622 bales, of which 5,500 were sold. Home and continental dealers were fair buyers of fine sorts at full current rates, but medium and lower grades were irregular and in buyers' favor. Medium scourings were frequently withdrawn.

Closing prices showed the following declines from the May average: Fine scoured Merinos 15 per cent; fine greasy Merinos 5 per cent; other greasy Merinos 5 to 7 1-2 per cent; crossbreds 7 1-2 to 10 per cent; slopes 10 to 15 per cent; greasy lambs 10 per cent; scoured lambs 15 per cent; snow white wools and South American 10 per cent.

During the series the continent bought 50,500 bales, the home trade 31,000 and American 1,000. About 71,500 bales were held over.

NOTICE TO VOTERS

I have made a diligent effort to see every voter in precinct 2, but am sure that I have missed some. To you I wish to say that I will appreciate your consideration and, if elected, I will do my best to see that the promises made to the people when the bonds were voted are carried out, and promise strict economy in expenditure of county funds. I am in favor of carrying out the road program. I am not affiliated with any clique or faction and am not interested in the election of any other candidate, and will be under no obligation to anyone if elected except to serve all the people fairly and impartially. I have lived in Brown county 27 years, and have lived in Brownwood 17 years and received my education in the Brownwood schools and colleges. I was city mail carrier and clerk in the Brownwood postoffice for 11 years. I was engaged in the mercantile business at Byrds for five years, have operated a stock farm near Byrds. If you think I will make you a good commissioner, vote for me.

RANGERS TRIM BLANKET TEAM

Playing before a large holiday picnic crowd, the Junior American Legion Rangers, inspired over their pending trip to Wellington, Texas for games with that city's legion ball team, handed the Blanket team a 6 to 3 trouncing Tuesday afternoon. Dave, Legion pitcher, was right in yesterday's game and let the Blanket boys down with three hits, one being a single of the scratch variety. But for numerous infield miscues, the Rangers would have scored a shut out over the Blanket lads.

Braze, Blanket hurler, was hit hard by the Rangers' total of nine hits being slammed off his offerings, three being made by Angel, Ranger second baseman.

The Rangers meet the Santa Fe team of Brownwood at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the final practice and was found on the grounds of the Presbyterians old People's home two days later. The old people were taking turns riding him.

Farmer Is Sculptor

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP)—Sculptures of W. T. Covington, a farmer who has had no art training, have attracted wide attention in North Carolina and have been praised by Lorado Taft. His best work deals with farm subjects.

PRINCE BACK HOME

CHICAGO (UP)—Prince, a pony owned by the children of John W. Moore, is back home after spending a two-day "vacation." The pony jumped over the Moore back fence and was found on the grounds of the Presbyterians old People's home two days later. The old people were taking turns riding him.

To the Voters of Commissioners Precinct No. 4

(Which includes Ward No. 2 of Brownwood)

As it has been impossible for me to see all the voters of the precinct, and as conditions that now exist, over which I have no control, will not permit me to make a further canvass, I take this opportunity, to first,

Thank my friends for the kind words that they have said for me.

I also want to thank my opponents for the manner in which they have conducted their campaigns; as I have yet my first time to bear anything which I would take as an attack on my character and integrity. I have tried hard to be the gentleman in the same manner. Should I at some unguarded moment have said or done anything wrong toward them, I now apologize for same.

Now to the voters, that I have not seen, let me express my appreciation for your inquiry relative to my qualifications for this important office, also my sincere appreciation for your vote and influence.

Yours for the office
CHAS. B. PALMER
Candidate, Commissioner Precinct No. 4.

TO THE QUALIFIED VOTERS OF BROWN COUNTY

As a candidate for the office of County Judge I have criticized the present County Judge and Commissioners Court, making a number of charges which I will here set forth for the citizens of this county to consider and judge for themselves.

First—For selling county road bonds at 97 1/2 cents when other counties at about the same time were getting par. The answer as given to the press to this charge is that they sold the first lot at $1,624, one year later they sold at 97 1/2 cents, and the last lot was sold at par. I have criticized the 97 1/2 cent sale, and I still criticize it.

Second—I have criticized the progress made of lateral roads. This is true to this date. According to my information, the most important lateral road in the county is the road to Cross Cut, yet it has not been located, and no part of the right-of-way has been obtained. The bonds have been issued and you tax payers are paying interest on them. There is not a great percentage of the population of the county out of work and needing work than I have seen in the 46 years of my residence in Brown county. Still, in the face of public criticism on my part for a year of the slow progress of lateral road construction, the friends of my opposition are insisting that if elected I would stop the road program, and discharge our engineer. No man is justified in making this statement, for I have never intimated anything of the kind. In fact, at the time the employment of our engineer was under consideration it was suggested that we dispense with expensive engineering services, and I publicly stated that I would stop the road program, and discharge our engineer. No man is justified in making this statement, for I have never intimated anything of the kind. In fact, at the time the employment of our engineer was under consideration it was suggested that we dispense with expensive engineering services, and I publicly stated that I would stop the road program, and discharge our engineer.

Third—For employment of outside help in assessing oil properties, paying assessing contractors a commission on their work based on valuation of returns, and then reducing the values. In one instance this Dallas firm assessed the property of a corporation on a valuation of $45,000. Six months after accepting this rendition the County Judge and Commissioners Court reduced the valuation to $5,000.00 and allowed the corporation to pay a total tax of $131.00 instead of $1,185.00 on the original valuation. There are many other instances of reductions in smaller amounts, but the Dallas firm got their commissions on the basis of the original valuation in every case.

Fourth—The Fort Worth and Rio Grande R. R. refused to pay their road tax in 1925, but in July, 1929, your Judge and Commissioners allowed them to pay without paying penalty, interest, or costs, and at this time suits were being filed against Brown county citizens for delinquent taxes, they being forced to pay 31 per cent in penalty, interest, and costs.

Fifth—Their contract for the collection of delinquent taxes, giving eral election of 1928, to exempt certain church and educational property from taxation, and was author of the amendment to the election law which has been involved in the courts this year. You will see from the above that I have had 14 years experience as a lawyer, with the exception of the time I was in the Legislature and in the Army during the World War. I feel that these things qualify me for the office. I realize that the office belongs to the people, and you may give it to whom you please. You may give it to one whom you have given it twice before, or to one that has never had it before. You may give it to one who is well established, or you may give it to one in more needy circumstances. For my part, I am willing to submit the matter to your best judgment.

Respectfully submitted,

A. E. Nabors For County Attorney

In the short time remaining before the election, I find that as much as I would like to, it will be impossible to see everyone in person, although I have seen the majority. On account of having to support a family of a wife and three children, I could not spare the time for the money to make a long campaign. Therefore I make this as a personal appeal to you for your most careful consideration for the office of County Attorney.

I make this race entirely upon my own merits and not making any criticism of my opponent. Although I need the office, I promise in return for your support that I will render you honest, faithful, courteous and efficient service. I will move the office back to the court house and stay there where those who need me will know where to find me, and will do my very best to perform every duty imposed upon me as County Attorney.

That you may know what my qualifications are, I modestly say that I was reared on a farm in Comanche county, and on account of living too far from school, I worked for my board to attend school; later I attended college in Brownwood and through the kindness of some of the good citizens of Brownwood, was able to work my way. I later took a stenographic course and became a stenographer in a law office to study law. After working some two years in a law office at De Leon, I moved to Comanche and became the stenographer of Judge Herbert N. Goodson, continuing the study of law. In 1916, I took the Bar examination before the State Bar of Appeals at Fort Worth, passing by an average grade of 91 2-9, the highest grade made. I then formed a partnership with Mr. Goodson and stayed with him until his death in 1922. I then moved to Hamilton where I formed a partnership with Judge A. R. Ebdson, one of the outstanding lawyers of Texas, staying there until I moved to Brownwood three years ago. During all those years I received experience in all kinds of legal matters, and have done everything that could happen in a law office from the taking of a deposition to the trial of the trial of capital cases, both on the prosecution and the defense. While living at Hamilton I was elected to the State Legislature, and my record there is an open book; I was instigator of the movement out of which grew our present ruler, and I was author of the constitutional amendment which was submitted to the people and passed in the general election of 1928, to exempt certain church and educational property from taxation, and was author of the amendment to the election law which has been involved in the courts this year. You will see from the above that I have had 14 years experience as a lawyer, with the exception of the time I was in the Legislature and in the Army during the World War. I feel that these things qualify me for the office. I realize that the office belongs to the people, and you may give it to whom you please. You may give it to one whom you have given it twice before, or to one that has never had it before. You may give it to one who is well established, or you may give it to one in more needy circumstances. For my part, I am willing to submit the matter to your best judgment.

Respectfully submitted,
A. E. NABORS.

Facts About the Sheriff's Campaign

The claim has been made that Brownwood has been made bone dry by the present sheriff's force. Do you know that Bert Hise and his force made over 30 successful liquor raids soon after assuming office last April, confiscating nearly ten thousand bottles of intoxicating liquor. They made 29 raids the first 28 days of June. This happened in Brownwood, which our present sheriff's force claimed credit for cleansing of the liquor traffic. One place raided by the police force, where an enormous quantity of beer was found, was located within two blocks of the courthouse. Brownwood, after Mr. Denman and his deputies had given it such a thorough cleaning, still had thirty places where liquor was being sold, that the chief of police found and broke up in less than a month.

A vote for Fred White for sheriff will mean close co-operation with this efficient chief of police, an honest, efficient and above board enforcement of all laws. Administrative justice to all in a fair, square manner as our law provides. Evidence will be obtained by efficient deputies and not stool pigeons. Nor will the commissioners court be called upon as they have by the present administration to pay the salaries of any under cover men, or so-called stool pigeons, but the expenses of the office will be met in the manner prescribed by law.

16 ARE HEARD IN DISCUSSION BEFORE VOTERS

Sixteen of the seventeen candidates for the four commissioners' positions spoke at the courthouse Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, each stating his platform as concerns the furtherance of the road program in Brown county. G. W. Guyer, candidate in precinct No. 1 was the only candidate not present. These were approximately 300 present to hear the men set forth their views.

J. C. Plummer, candidate in precinct No. 2, who through oversight failed to get his name on the official ballot and who is asking his friends to write his name on the ticket also made a short talk. Each of the candidates was given five minutes in which to state his views on the road situation. All of them either favored the program or did not mention it at all in their talks.

Chester Harrison acted as chairman and timekeeper for the meeting. He told the wards in Brownwood which were affected by the voting in each precinct as he announced each group of candidates.

The first speaker was L. A. Nunn who said that if elected he planned to be not only a precinct commissioner, but also a county commissioner, and do all possible for the county as a whole. He said that he was in hearty accord with the road and highway program and wanted to see it completed early.

Say Roads Important

E. S. Thompson of Brownwood was the second speaker. He said that he believed in finishing the roads according to the program now being used by the commissioners court, then, spend all time in maintaining the roads.

F. L. Maedgen said that road building was an important question and that if elected would at all times see to the work personally. He said that he believed in the present program and wanted to see it completed in the near future.

Candidates for precinct No. 2 were the next speakers. C. D. Morrison, running for re-election spoke first in this group. He spoke of the Cross Cut road and the delay in the program, saying that this was due to the fact that the court was waiting action by the highway department and that it would be started as soon as action was taken by that body. He said that would continue if he was elected and that he would do all possible to complete the program.

Lon T. Stewart said that if elected he was ready to go on with the work as it was started and to complete the program outlined by the engineer and the court for the completion of the lateral road system.

J. M. Moore said that he was in favor of the present program and wanted to see it completed as rapidly as possible and at as little cost as possible, but would not sacrifice construction for economy.

All For Rapid Progress

James W. Phillips said that he had supported the road bond at all times and believed in good roads and if elected wanted to see the program completed as soon as possible and according to the program and specifications of the present court.

J. C. Plummer said that he was opposed to all road bonds and had always been, but that since they had been voted he believed in getting all out of them possible, and that if elected he would do all possible to speed the work. He said that he would use less machinery on the roads and more men and teams to complete the roads in record time.

W. C. Brogen opened the speeches of the candidates for precinct No. 3 by saying that he was well qualified for the job and would cooperate with the engineer and the rest of the court in carrying out a program of construction as rapidly as possible. He stated that he believed the present program was all right and would do all possible, by the aid of more men and less machinery, to make the system the best in the state.

L. F. Bird said that he wanted to see more progress made on the roads than in the past and that if re-elected would do all possible to continue the present program as economically, and as rapidly as possible. He said that he believed in no change of program or policy.

W. F. Timmins said that when he was a commissioner before he had built more roads with less money than any other commissioner and that he was in hearty accord with the present program with the exception of wanting to see the work completed in more rapid time.

Charles B. Palmer of Bangs opened the speeches for precinct No. 4 candidates by saying that he favored the present program and that if elected would do all possible to make the roads of Brown county the best in the state. He believed in the work of Mr. Ellinger and said that he would cooperate with him in every way if elected.

Reads Court Resolution

W. M. Medcalf, present incumbent in the office read a resolution adopted by the court in 1928, prior to the voting of the bonds in which the court pledged themselves to do all possible for the roads and to make them among the best in the state. The resolution stated further that the roads would be built as rapidly as possible. He said that his past record showed his stand on the completion of the program.

J. O. DePriest said that if elected he would do all possible to carry out the road program as it is at present and to do all possible to complete the roads in record time. He believes in the present program and pledges wholehearted support.

Noah McGaughy spoke of the tax work which he had already done in his precinct, and gave two reasons why he should be elected. He said that he favored the present program and that he was in hearty accord with the work of the commissioners at present and believed in the continuation of their work as at present.

S. P. Martin spoke briefly to conclude the speeches. He said very little concerning the program and stated that he was in favor of carrying out the present plan for the completion of the highways as started by the present county judge and commissioners.

Vote Wisely For County Commissioner

Precinct No. 1 includes ward four of the city of Brownwood. "Good Roads" and efficient management, demand a good commissioner.

I have been a worker of public roads and construction work practically all my life. I can judge the needs of equal distribution of work, showing no favors to any locality.

I am not catering to any special organization, group or individual, to furnish me with data or direct my activities, but I pledge you my word and honor that if elected, I will use my best judgment in all matters to make you one of the best commissioners that is humanly possible to do in return for the vote which places confidence in my ability.

I wish to assure you now that your vote next Saturday, July 26th, will be greatly appreciated and that you will never have occasion to regret the influence you have used in my favor.

"Yours For Better Roads"
E. S. Thompson,
Candidate for Commissioner
Precinct No. 1.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT ONE

Including Ward Four of Brownwood, Brown County, Texas

Because of the short space of time until the primary, July 26, I will not have time to see every voter in the precinct personally. Therefore, I take this means of soliciting your vote and influence.

I am a farmer and live on my farm at Brooksmith. I have been very busy and have not had much time to see all the voters in the precinct or to do much campaigning.

I submit my case to you.

If I am elected I promise that you will receive 100 per cent value for every dollar spent. I believe in strict economy, with equal rights to all, and special privileges to none.

The report that has been circulated to the effect that I have withdrawn from the race is absolutely untrue. I am in the race to the finish.

Respectfully yours,
F. L. MAEDGEN

Does It Pay to Advertise?

A hen is not supposed to have Much common sense or tact. Yet every time she lays an egg She cackles forth the fact.

A rooster hasn't got a lot Of intellect to show. But none the less most roosters have Enough good sense to crow.

The busy little bees they buzz, Bulls bellow and cows moo, The watch-dog barks, the gander quacks, And doves and pigeons coo.

The peacock spreads his tail and squawks, Pigs squeal and robins sing, And even serpents know enough To hiss before they sting.

But man, the greatest masterpiece That nature could devise Will often stop and hesitate Before he'll advertise!

Yes—But

One step won't take you very far, You're got to keep on walking; One word won't tell folks who you are, You're got to keep on talking; An inch won't make you very tall, You're got to keep on growing; One little ad won't do it all, You've got to keep them going; A constant drop of water Wears away the hardest stone; By constant gnawing, Tower Masticates the toughest bone; The constant cooling lover Carries off the blushing maid; And the constant advertiser Is the one who gets the trade.

Mrs. C. B. McBride One Five in Texas Honored as Master Homemakers

Mrs. C. B. McBride of the Indian Creek community will be one of the five women in Texas to have the title of Master Farm Homemaker conferred upon them this year. The recognition is a national one and is sponsored by the Farmer's Wife, a farm-women's magazine, in cooperation with the home demonstration department of the State Agricultural Extension Service. The awards are a part of a nation-wide Master Farm Homemaker movement which will reach 21 states. This is the third year that such awards have been made to farm women of Texas and Mrs. D. W. Kyzar of the Barber home demonstration club in Brown County won the title in 1928. Mrs. McBride makes the second Brown county woman to win the distinction. The woman who wins the title must submit records of daily work and charts showing all activities of home and family life and indeed prove that she is a Master Farm Homemaker.

Mrs. McBride will have her expenses paid to the A. & M. college short course July 28 to August 1, by the sponsors of the contest. There she will meet the other four women in the state who have been recognized in the work this year and on Monday night, July 28, the five women will be guests of honor at a banquet given for them. At the banquet they will be awarded their Master Farm Homemaker pins and officially receive the title of Master Farm Homemaker which is for life.

The sponsors of the contest say that the main thought in selecting any woman to be honored as a Master Homemaker is the way in which she has adapted herself and her homemaking to conditions; how she is doing her "job" of homemaking in view of the circumstances under which she is working.

Factors in Selection
Factors which enter into the selection of women for this honor are: personal record and family; the farm and the farm home plan; management of the home; health of the family; recreation and family relationships and community work. All of these records were made by Mrs. McBride and submitted to the sponsors of the contest and from them she has been selected for one of the five Master Farm Homemakers in Texas this year.

In the family record the family was given as follows: Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McBride and seven children: Pauline 24; Lillian, 21; Lella, 19; Dossie, 16; C. B., Jr., 14; Alfred, 11 and Wendell, 9.

Mrs. McBride has been a member of the Indian Creek home demonstration for eight years, or ever since it was organized. In 1926 she won a trip to the short course as first place winner in the county kitchen contest and second place winner in the district. She has served as president of her club for two years and as treasurer for two terms. Mrs. McBride is a member of the Baptist church at Indian Creek and is a teacher in the Sunday School. She is also president of the Women's Missionary Union. She is a member of the home demonstration clubs' county council and a member of the Indian Creek Parent Teachers Association. She has also done her part in the community affairs by helping with community fairs, plays and picnics.

Fine Family Record
Pauline McBride is now secretary for the second time of the women's home demonstration club of the community. She won second place in the women's county clothing contest this year.

Lillian McBride has finished four years of 4-H Club work and during that time was secretary of the club for three years. She is now local leader for the Indian Creek girls 4-H Club and is secretary of the boys and girls club council and reporter for the women's club of the community. She has also won a second place in the county clothing contest and won a trip to the short course one year in the county bread making contest. While she was in 4-H club work she won a trip to the state fair at Dallas for her excellent club record.

Lella McBride has finished four years of club work and was president of the club two years. She is now assistant leader for the 4-H Club girls of the community and is on the program committee of the county club council. She won a trip to the state fair for her club record one year.

Dossie McBride is now reported for the Indian Creek 4-H Club and won first place and a trip to the short course this year in the county girls clothing contest. She has also won a trip to the state fair for her club record.

C. B. McBride, Jr., is president of the Indian Creek 4-H Club and has been a member for two years.

Husband's assists
Mr. McBride has always been interested in the club work and has helped his wife and children in their work with the different county organizations in every way possible.

In Mrs. McBride's own words the home was started as follows: "Mr. McBride and I started out nearly twenty-six years ago with very little of this world's goods, but with plenty of love and determination to get a home of our own and to make life worth while. We had the promise to 'seek ye first the kingdom of God and all these things shall be added unto you,' so we worked as we prayed and now realize that our efforts were not in vain. We own our own farm in the convenient four hundred acres of land and a modern house which has most of the conveniences of a city home. And we have seven happy children to make our home complete."

The McBride home has most of the conveniences of the city home. Carbide lights, running water and bath room are among the home equipment. The kitchen is modern and has among its equipment a pressure cooker and sealer, cream separator, refrigerator and built-in furniture. A modern washing machine is also listed among the home equipment.

A Home Schedule
Mrs. McBride has the management of her home on a planned schedule. There is a time for doing the different duties of the house work and time left for working with her poultry and her garden. Mrs. McBride states in her report that the management of the home is carried on smoothly because every member of the family has his special duties, knows what they are and does them.

She devotes about one-fifth of her time during a year to work with poultry raising, gardening and cream separating. A total of 1925 lbs. was made last year by selling poultry, eggs, cream and vegetables. This is part of the outside activities done by Mrs. McBride besides the immediate duties of the farm home. She explains that she has time for such activities because of the planned schedule.

Vegetables produced on the farm for the home use and for selling are beans, peas, beets, carrots, cabbage, lettuce, onions, potatoes, tomatoes, radish, turnips, spinach,

BROWN COUNTY HOLDS GOOD RECORD IN STATE CONTESTS

Brown county has been very fortunate in past years in winning state contests in home demonstration work, as shown by the records of Miss Mayesie Malone, home demonstration agent.

The Brown county farm women have been recognized as Master Farm Homemakers in the three years this work has been carried on, these being Mrs. D. W. Kyzar in 1928 and Mrs. McBride this year. Each year five outstanding women in Texas are selected.

Brown county won first place in state biscuit contest and in state clothing contest last year.

Brown county won first place in state clothing contest on an undergarment several years ago.

First place in state poultry judging contest has been won by a Brown county team.

First and second places in the district living room contest were won by Brown county last year. For a number of years Brown county has won first in the district, and for four years has placed in the state contest, winning third and fourth places. The county has also won places in the state and district kitchen contests.

Brown county won fourth place in the state butter judging contest.

Brown county won first prize of $35 in a state garden contest and an individual prize of $3. (Jones Chapel Club.) Also won first in district garden contest.

Brown county has won in state fair exhibits for five years on girls' club aprons, caps and emblems and one year won first and second on these articles.

Brown county has never failed to win places at the Dallas fair except last year and that was due to delay in transportation, the exhibits arriving too late to be judged.

One year Brown county exhibits were sent to Houston fair and won many prizes there.

pepper and corn. The use of the vegetables produced range from one month to six months in the year.

Peaches, plums and berries are some of the fruits produced on the farm and also range in use from one to six months.

Poultry products are hen's fryers, turkeys and eggs and range in use from four to twelve months of the year. During the last season hens were sold amounting to $29.25; fryers, $34.06; turkeys, $215.00 and eggs, 97.97.

Daily products produced are milk, cream, butter and cottage cheese. Cream sales for the year amounted to $132.71.

Much Canning Done
A list of the canning done in the home during the last canning season is as follows: Peaches, 139 quarts; corn, 80 quarts; peas, 60 quarts; tomatoes, 123 quarts; sweet pickles, 7 quarts; pickles, 19 quarts; jellies, 23 quarts; preserves, 80 quarts; mince, 9 quarts and meats, 25 quarts.

Products dried or stored for future use other than canning were: peas, 1 bushel; potatoes, 11 bushels; onions, 3 bushels; beans, 6 bushels; peaches, 25 pounds; meat, 475 pounds; lard, 19 gallons and sausage, 35 pounds.

A radio, piano and Victrola in the home helps make it a more pleasant place to spend the leisure hours, thinks Mrs. McBride. She says that the family's favorite indoor sport is singing together. Several members of the family can play the piano and the family group joins in singing three times a week.

A library in the home includes not only popular fiction but good volumes of history, biography, science and other subjects. The whole family uses the books the children use them to help in their school work. Several good magazines are gotten in the home and the Brownwood Bulletin is received at the home every day.

Some of the special things done to promote mutual joy in home life are birthday dinners, birthday parties, Christmas celebrations, Easter egg hunts and Fourth of July picnics.

Mrs. McBride gives the definition of home as follows:

Home is a sacred refuge of our life, where love is shut in and strife is shut out. A place where the presence of God is always felt. Home is a place of rest from the cares of the world and a place of happiness and contentment where encouragement, sympathy and love is freely given. It is a place where the old are content and where the children like to play. It may be a hut ever so humble, but if love and contentment reign supreme, it's home.

Success in homemaking means this to Mrs. McBride: "Success isn't in the abundance of things we possess altogether, but it's love, devotion and cooperation in the home. It means a good comfortable home with enough income to give the children a good education and the best advantages possible and home is a place where the children love to live and a place they will always hold sacred."

Lee Meek Seeking Collector's Office On His Own Merits

To The Voters of Brown County: During the past several weeks I have made a diligent effort to see and talk with every voter, but am sure there are many with whom I have had no personal contact; hence this public message, which is not offered as a last hour campaign document to attack my opponent. As a matter of fact, my opponent and myself have conducted a clean campaign, and it will be kept clean until the end.

As stated in my opening announcement several weeks ago, I am seeking the office of tax collector because I am qualified to do the work of that office in a satisfactory manner. For the past four years I have been a deputy collector, and have had daily experience not only in receiving tax money but in apportioning it among the 141 accounts to which portions of it belong. I have become familiar with the tax and land laws, and am able to give any information a tax payer requires upon demand. There have been instances in which considerable sums of money have been saved to tax-payers because of the information I have been able to give and the service I have been able to render. This is not stated in a spirit of boastfulness, but may be verified quite easily. Some time prior to my connection with the tax collector's office, I spent two years as a deputy in the tax assessor's office, and there learned the details of the task of preparing tax rolls. This experience is valuable to me now because I am able to trace the matter of taxes from the very beginning to the end, and to render to every tax payer a complete service that leaves no doubt as to titles, no loss in over-payment and no delay in securing exact information as to any detail of the transaction.

Personally my life is known to most of the people of the county, for I have lived here all my life. I have never before been a candidate for any office, and my only reason for being a candidate now is that I can give the people of Brown county good and satisfactory service. I am under no political obligations of any kind, am not affiliated with any faction or clique, but am running for this office strictly on my own merits as a man and as an experienced servant of the people, and on that basis I am appealing to every voter for support in the primary election next Saturday. If nominated and elected, I shall do my very best to please every tax payer and to extend every accommodation under the law.

Sincerely yours,
LEE MEEK.

Three More Cows On Honor Roll

Three cows of the Shelton Dairy herd have completed the milk test this week and have been placed on the honor roll of the American Jersey Club. The three tests were completed Monday with ten more of the herd now being tested for a July output.

The three tested were Jolly's Eminent Marie, nature cow which tested 1,860 pounds of milk and 70 pounds of butter fat during the test. Benedictine Jolly's Fernleaf, mature cow, produced 1,401 pounds of milk on test and 57 pounds of butter fat.

Dream Lad's Cleo, senior yearling, produced 911 pounds of milk during the test and 46 pounds of butter fat.

The other ten will be completed during the month. At present the Shelton herd has several cows listed on the honor rolls of the Jersey club and these have all brought national mention for production both of milk and butter fat.

Bobbie, age two and one-half, knows many of his letters and can pick out many words. He is a bit original in naming the letters unfamiliar to him. He was spelling "h-o-o-k," and named the letters "bee-tire-dre-hay, book." The family automobile provided the suggestion for the middle letters.

A CLEAN SWEEP
nothing reserved everything GOES!

Good 75c BROOM FREE
With Purchase Of $10 Or More.

This is not a clearance of old or undesirable merchandise—frankly our stocks all through the store with few exceptions are in excellent condition—but each department, has new, this season's merchandise—that it is our policy to lower to the minimum, clear out completely in preparation for a new season. You'll secure in this sale perhaps the lowest prices of any July Clearance held in a long time—we are operating on a lower market, goods are down some in price—and this sale brings reductions at cost, near cost and below cost. Some lines on account of the depression we have been going through have not moved as well as they should, these take a heavy reduction, other lines are broken in sizes or assortment—but all in all you'll find a worth while selection of Hemphill - Fain standard quality merchandise in every department, marked at prices so low, that a purchase means a saving to you of 25 per cent to 50 per cent. This will be a quick short sale, honest reductions, dependable bargains, style merchandise, at end of the season prices—

The Last Of July Is Just The Heart Of Summer For You

But we have to plan ahead—buy ahead—for a new season soon to be here, and we cannot clear in last of August or September goods that have to be sold—but we can do it now—and do it with a vim—while you can still use them—and it's fortunate for you and fortunate for us—you save and we clear our shelves, and turn merchandise into money, that will go for new fall stocks—it's a co-operation between store and public that helps both. Read every item, for big savings are told of in small type, and you may miss the very thing you're looking for if you do not read closely.
