

SEVENTH JUROR ACCEPTED FOR TRIAL OF BRADY

COURT ROOM, Austin, Tex., Jan. 23.—(P)—When this afternoon, was chosen the seventh juror in the John W. Brady murder trial. He was the second venireman called in the afternoon.

COURT ROOM, Austin, Tex., Jan. 23.—(P)—Going rapidly down the line of veniremen, counsel selected three new jurors this morning to help fill the John W. Brady murder jury box.

The three men, who joined three already chosen, were: John Dittmar, 58 year old farmer, who had known Brady as an emigrant juror.

E. P. Burke, sign painter, a Methodist, who said Brady's religious beliefs would make no difference to him. He was a dapper, nervous man.

Fred Erkus, 31 year old mill hand, who said he "didn't hardly ever get a paper" and knew little or nothing about the Brady case. The lawyers did not ask him about his religious beliefs, but he told reporters, "I don't belong to no church."

Brady was even more expressive than usual, occasionally asking the name of a venireman from some one at the press table, but never speaking to his lawyers.

Mrs. Brady Present
Mrs. Brady was there, too, along with other relatives who have been with her husband. She chuckled frequently. About an hour before the noon recess the father, C. A. Redding, dressed in black and having a rather funeral aspect, came in and solemnly sat down behind Brady. He had not been noticed in the court room before.

The defense used two more challenges and the state one, each bringing its total to six. Nine remain for either side.

Swift success in getting jurors seemed to surprise everybody as this panel had been picked up largely from downtown Austin and most of the members had been expected to have fixed opinions. Most of the 17 had, but the ratio of those who had not was higher than with the first panel, drawn largely from rural districts.

District Attorney Henry H. Brooks for the first time alluded to religion. He asked a venireman, who was challenged later, what his belief was. The defense heretofore has done all the questioning in that connection.

COURT ROOM, AUSTIN, Jan. 23.—(P)—Lawyers in the John Brady murder trial figuratively rolled back the clock this morning as they made ready to secure nine jurors from a new venire of 132 men. Three previously had been accepted. The veniremen, practically all of whom were city men served in shops along the avenue in front of the court building, stood about in corridors, most of them looking as if they preferred not to serve on the jury to try Brady for the killing of Miss Lehlia Highsmith, young stenographer, last November.

The fact that nearly all of them were in Austin led attorneys to believe that when the next panel was called, if one was necessary, the sheriff would need to go into the country where people had heard little of the case.

Two members of the Brady defense staff expressed pessimism about getting a jury. Both said it looked like a virtual impossibility, but they wouldn't say what the defense would do if the present panel was exhausted without material progress in filling the box.

Almost as soon as court was opened, the judge announced it would be at ease for a few minutes, while the defense attorneys conferred with Brady, who entered the court room smiling, rather wintery, on the venire list.

Brady and his counsel came back into the court room and the first venireman was called. He was Steve Lightsey, who "hadn't established any particular opinion." He had scruples against the death penalty and was excused.

John Dittmar came next to the stand. He was a man with a red face and a long white mustache. He had known Brady twenty years, but said he had "no opinion about this case." He said he had no scruples against the death penalty. He said he was "well acquainted" with Brady. Brady, he added smiling proudly, "would call me John

Hotel Brownwood Contracts Made; Total $375,000

J. O. Everett and Company, building contractors of Dallas, received a contract Tuesday for building Hotel Brownwood, their total bids approximating $375,000. It was learned from Wyatt C. Hedrick of Fort Worth, who is the architect and who is head of Hotel Brownwood Incorporated.

The Everett bid was one of five submitted and includes among other items the following costs: general contract, $247,000; plumbing, $100,000; and electrical work, $20,000. Construction of this nine story, 150 room hotel will start as soon as the lot formerly occupied by Austin-Morris is completely cleared, and the contractors have 185 working days to finish the job.

As this is a Brownwood proposition, Mr. Hedrick assured the people of this city that labor will be recruited locally; that all insurance necessary will be purchased here; and that material, such as brick will be bought in Brownwood.

when we would meet," but most of the time he filled the former civil appeals court judge or "Mister Brady."

The defense questioned him only a little, and Dayton Moses told District Attorney Henry Brooks the "juror was you."

"State will take him," "Let the juror be sworn," Moses replied after a brief conference. Dittmar thus became the fourth juror selected.

The lawyers all looked more interested as they called Number 3 on the venire, Hugh Cain. He was asked if he had a fixed opinion, and he said "Judge, I believe so."

R. P. Burke, sign painter, hadn't made up his mind and had read the papers in the Brady connection only one time. He was a Methodist, he said, and had heard what Brady's religion was, but it made no difference to him.

Another Accepted
He seemed to satisfy the defense, and Moses turned him back to the prosecutors.

"The state will take the juror," Brooks said.

Moses made the reply he always makes when he wants a venireman—"let the juror be sworn."

Virgil McPhail qualified in the preliminary tests, but said he didn't believe he "could follow the charge of the trial judge in every instance." He was challenged by the defense.

S. J. Wood, 54, produce company employee, had no objection to the death penalty, and none of the other beliefs undesirable to counsel in this case. The state took him, but the defense challenged him.

Meanwhile, Brady wore a poker face.

Charlie Bryant, answered in the affirmative Judge J. D. Moore's oft-repeated question—"X X have you formed any opinion as to the guilt or innocence of this defendant?" the same way, but then he reconsidered, seeming not to have understood the question at first, and said "No," he had no opinion. He knitted his brow fiercely on the capital punishment question, saying he didn't know whether he could write a verdict of death or not. Finally he decided that if circumstances were strong enough he could.

Preemptory Challenges
The state used a preemptory challenge, bringing its total to six, like the defense.

Fred Erkus, young mill man said he "didn't hardly ever get a paper" and therefore didn't know much about the case.

Quizzed as to whether he would "take the law of the court" he said "Didn't know the court from any other man." Brooks explained that "The court," was Judge Moore. Then Erkus said "Sure," he'd take the law from Judge Moore.

Both sides accepted him quickly as the sixth juror, and the noon recess began.

TEXAS TOWNS OFFER CLAIMS FOR HOSPITAL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—(P)—Hearing on the location of a federal hospital in Texas for veterans closed yesterday with arguments for a number of cities. Arguments of community representatives were heard by the federal board on general location of veterans' hospitals.

The United States war veterans bureau had favored either Dallas or Fort Worth or a point between the two cities.

Fort Worth was represented by Amos G. Carter and Holman Taylor, editors.

Frank Wozencraft, Homer D. Wade, Alvin Owsley and J. E. Owen represented Dallas. Other cities and their representatives included:

Mineral Wells: Mayor Charleton Brown, John M. Chamberlain, W. P. Cameron and Allen Guinn.

Marlin: George H. Carter, Homer O. Jennings, George H. Buchanan and Cecil R. Glass.

Waco: R. B. Albaugh and W. D. Crawford.

Cleburne: F. E. Haynes.

New Braunfels: H. A. Triesch, Houston: Rep. Garrett, Greenville: Rep. Rayburn, Del Rio, Brownsville, Raymondville, San Angelo, San Marcos, Kerrville, Austin, Palestine, Galveston and Brownwood were among cities represented.

A hearing from Brownwood's claims for the location of the U. S. Veterans Bureau Hospital will be held by the board of hospitalization in Washington on or about February 1, according to a wire received here today.

The telegram was from Congressman R. Q. Lee to Hilton Burks, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and will go direct from them to Washington to present an argument in favor of Brownwood as the logical site for the hospital which will be built in Texas.

A wire from Ose Lee Bodenhamer, national commander of the American Legion, was received by Thomas R. Scott, commander of the local post, in which he stated that he was instrumental in putting through the hospital bill in Congress, but that, in his position, he could take no part in the choice of location.

INTERESTING KIWANIS PROGRAM ON THE AIR OVER STATION KGKB

The Kiwanis Club had a fine program at its regular Thursday luncheon at the Southern Hotel today. Readings, music and talks made up the program which was broadcast over KGKB. A member of the club did the announcing and many calls were received asking the identity of this new find in radio announcements. Dr. Allen, president of the Kiwanis here, said that from now on the Kiwanis program would be a regular Thursday feature over the local station from 12:15 to 1:00 o'clock.

Two pleasing readings were given by Jane Woodruff. Madelle Nevans also gave two readings and Master Billy Baker, accompanied at the piano by Emma Baker, sang a solo. These entertaining items from Junior high school and the Kiwanis enjoyed their part on the program very much.

The program committee, C. P. Wessner, H. M. Jones and H. V. Hennen, then received by Thomas R. Scott, commander of the local post, an interesting talk on the anniversary of the Kiwanis Club, which was January 21st.

Jack Brunberg, Scout Executive, announced that a Court of Honor of the Boy Scouts of the Pecan Valley Area would be held on Sunday.

Tom Posey, announced as the "wise crack from one of the Club's broken saucers," made an amusing talk on the world in general.

The club voted to send some flowers to Dr. A. E. Prince, pastor of the First Baptist Church. Dr. Prince is in the hospital after an operation. He is a member of the club.

Members of the club are anxious to know how the program was received today by the radio listeners and request that comments on the program be sent to KGKB or to some member of the club.

PANDEMONIUM AT BARN AS FIRE SPREADS

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 23.—(AP)—Fifteen race horses were burned to death and three men were seriously injured in a fire that destroyed two barns at the fair ground race track today.

The fire, starting from a defective oil heater in the men's quarters, was caught by a high wind and quickly enveloped a long frame barn housing about thirty horses. Screams of the frightened horses and cries of frantic men produced pandemonium.

MEN ARE TRAPPED
Wilfred May, apprentice jockey, and J. W. Smith and Phil Chatman, stablemen, were trapped in the burning building.

R. Scott, commander of the local post, in which he stated that he was instrumental in putting through the hospital bill in Congress, but that, in his position, he could take no part in the choice of location.

Thirteen horses died in their stalls in the first barn, and all of the animals were taken out of the second barn before it was lighted, but two horses ran back into the flames and were lost.

RUNS BACK INTO BLAZE
A beautiful two-year-old sorrel colt had been led safely out, but he broke away and rushed back into his flaming stall. As his blanket and tail caught fire, he ran madly out again, shrieking in terror, and rushed about in the vicinity of the barn until he fell dead. A similar fate met another horse.

Rescuers were handicapped in their work by a large vicious dog that stood guard before the second barn. He bit one man and chased others away.

NAMES OF HORSES
Track officials announced the following horses lost in the fire: Cannon Club and Bourbon, owned by H. B. Reether, Counsellor Connolly and Ma Fol, owned by A. Pelletier, New Orleans, Leisure Hour and Petrichou, owned by Eugene Lutz, New Orleans, Prince Apex and Prince York, owned by Joseph Leiter and Kenneth Dalpin, Coreopsis, Bloomtonia and Rogue's Gold, owned by J. R. Clark, Elton, Wyo., Royal Ruby, owned by Berman stable.

Two unidentified horses.

Real Estate Men Start Move For Dry Washington

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—(P)—A new move in the effort to dry up Washington and have the capital the model city of the land was made today by real estate men through organized action pledging their support to the United States attorney's office to report all information that might lead to the closing up of speakeasies or the stopping of other prohibition violations.

Terry Poultry Raisers Organize

BROWNFIELD, Texas, Jan. 23.—(P)—Representatives from practically every section of Terry county met here at the call of the chamber of commerce and county agricultural agent to organize a poultry association.

It was decided to appoint temporary officers and hold the first show at Brownfield, on Feb. 7 and 8. If sufficient interest develops at that time then a permanent organization will be formed which may include a marketing division.

FOUND LOADED GUN IN HANDS DEAD OFFICER

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 23.—(P)—Testimony of officers that they found a loaded gun cocked and clutched in the hands of F. R. Patterson, dry agent, as he lay mortally wounded on the floor of the home of George W. Moore, accused bootlegger, following an attempted raid on the place last Saturday, was presented today at an inquest into the killing of Patterson and another prohibition officer, James K. Moncure.

The testimony of the two officers, Sheriff R. C. Baker, and City Detective H. F. Hazard, was contradictory to that presented yesterday by James S. Kugler and W. M. McNulty, two dry agents who survived the shooting. Kugler and McNulty testified all four officers were armed at the time of the attempted raid, but none of them drew their weapons from their holsters.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE ORGANIZATION FIGHTS CHANGE IN STATUTES

Brownwood members of the Christian Science church are much interested in the possibility that during the present session of the legislature legislation may be enacted which would operate to restrict the practice of spiritual healing. For some time the medical profession has been seeking the amendment of present medical practice laws so as to make them more rigid, and the Christian Scientists are arranging to exert all possible influence to secure the exemption of their faith from the provisions of such statutes, if they are enacted, according to local leaders of the society.

Both the Congress of the United States and the British Parliament have recognized the right of Christian Scientists to have their practice exempted from medical statutes," it is declared by a local Scientist.

Over forty of the United States have exempted the practice of spiritual healing from their medical practice acts, either explicitly or in general terms; not more than five states, including Texas, now actually restrict the practice of Christian Science.

The message of Governor Moody at the opening of the present session of the Legislature indicated that he does not intend to submit any general legislation of this character, although he promised to pave the way for the consideration of any local bills in which members of the House and Senate may be interested. It is regarded as improbable, therefore, that the amendment of the medical practice act may come before the session.

Formal Opening New Church at May Next Sunday

The First Methodist Church at May will hold its formal opening of the new church building next Sunday, January 26. Dr. J. S. Cook, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Brownwood, will preach at the morning hour.

Dinner will be served at the church by the ladies of the Missionary Society and Judge Frank Sweet will speak at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Epworth League will have its regular Sunday evening meeting at 6:30 o'clock.

At 7:30 the pastor of the church, Rev. B. L. Barnes, will preach. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to attend the full day's program.

This beautiful new brick veneer church was completed only a short time ago. It has all modern conveniences and cost approximately $12,000. There are 10 Sunday school rooms, 2 on the main floor and 8 in the basement. The church has spacious auditorium, with a large seating capacity. The church has a nice pastor's study and several storage rooms.

The Methodist church of May wishes to express their appreciation to the Baptist church and all others who have contributed liberally to the building of the church. The pastor said today that the church has meant heroic sacrifices on the part of the Methodist church membership and its friends and that thanks and assurances of appreciation are extended to all.

Square Dance Will Be Hit Of The Season Here

Plans for the square dance to be held in Memorial Hall on the night of Friday, January 31, by the Business and Professional Women's Club are well along and hundreds are expected to attend this event.

Much practice on these old steps has been done by groups of people in the city and many figures have been worked out. Members claim that the scene on the dance floor that night will be well worth watching, even for those who do not dance.

There will be a charge for admission of twenty-five cents. Dances will be charged for at the rate of ten cents a couple, or a man can buy a tag for all dances during the evening for a dollar, the money made from this event to go toward the girls' loan fund.

It is expected that many will attend the dance from outside the city.

FIFTH PRISON BILL OFFERED IN LEGISLATURE

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 23.—(P)—The Legislature received its fifth prison concentration and reorganization bill today, as it planned to adjourn until Monday in order to go to the penitentiary properties for a first hand inspection. The latest measure came from Senator W. D. McFarlane of Graham.

The House argued over the propriety of asking Governor Moody to furnish it with certain financial data. The resolution, sponsored by Representative J. D. Avis of Wichita Falls, was referred to the committee on state affairs. It was definitely determined to leave tonight at 10:30 o'clock for Huntsville and the prison farms.

The Senate session lasted only about twenty minutes. The House resolution calling upon the governor to submit the subject of amending the Confederate pension law was adopted without argument and by a viva voce vote.

The House received the report of the committee which investigated the facts surrounding erection of a division office building by the Highway Department at Tyler, and a resolution "disapproving" of similar practices was left hanging fire when adjournment was taken.

Resolution to Disapprove

A resolution by Representative Polk Hornaday and others giving expression to "disapproval of the policy of erecting of any substantial building by any department without authority of the Legislature" out of consideration when a point of order that the time for considering resolution had expired.

The McFarlane prison concentration bill was voted out of committee a few minutes later. Bills by Senators Edgar Witt of Waco, in favor of relocation near Austin, and Nat Patton of Crockett, who is for rehabilitation at Huntsville, had been reported favorably.

McFarlane's bill would set up a commission, composed of the land commissioner, three members of the Senate and five members of the House to reorganize and concentrate the system on any of the lands now owned. The right to lease mineral rights and to sell the Shaw farm in Bowie county.

Under McFarlane's plan a model plant to house not less than 1,500 prisoners would be erected. A ward would be built within the walls in which all of the criminals would be incarcerated. All persons adjudged insane and indicted or sentenced for a crime would be confined there.

The McFarlane bill carries an appropriation of $500,000 for the year ending August 31, 1931, and the same amount for the following year. The fight expected in the House on the resolution to ask the Governor to submit the question of summer school appropriations to the special session immediately, failed to develop and, with practically no discussion, it was adopted by 81 yeas, 19 nays, and 2 not voting. The Senate had previously adopted this resolution.

Coldest of Winter Today at Laredo

LAREDO, Texas, Jan. 23.—(P)—Coldest weather of the winter prevailed in the Laredo section today, the mercury tumbling from a maximum of 41 Wednesday afternoon to 16 today. Farmers and citrus growers were apprehensive over the prospect of a freeze, although so far both citrus fruits and vegetables had withstood the severe winter with slight damage.

Warmer at Wichita Falls

WICHITA FALLS, Texas, Jan. 23.—(P)—After a cold night, temperatures were rising here today, standing at 14 above at 8 o'clock. Other cities in this section reported temperatures from 14 to 21 above. The minimum here last night was 13 above.

E. S. Thompson is Seeking Election as Commissioner

Ernest S. Thompson, 1605 Third Street, is a candidate for County Commissioner for Precinct No. One, he announced today.

Mr. Thompson has had a great deal of experience in road building, especially in this county. He has lived here practically all his life, and knows the needs and desires of the people of the entire county.

Mr. Thompson was a candidate for commissioner in this precinct a few years ago and was defeated by a very small majority. In placing his candidacy before the public at this time, he asks his friends to give him their support and promises that if he is elected he will devote his entire time and his very best efforts to attending to the duties of the position.

Bangs Mayor Is Seeking Election as Commissioner

Charles B. Bangs, business man and community leader, is a candidate for county commissioner in Precinct No. 4, which includes Bangs and Ward Four of Brownwood. For some time past a number of business men in both Brownwood and Bangs have been urging Mr. Bangs to offer himself as a candidate for this place, and pledging him their co-operation and support in the campaign, and it was in response to this urging that he has consented to enter the race.

Mr. Bangs has lived in Brown county for eleven years, and is now engaged in the insurance business in Bangs. For a number of years he was president of the Bangs public school board, and aided in the development of the splendid school system in that town. He is now mayor of Bangs, and it was under his direction that the splendid waterworks system for the town was established. During the good roads campaign of 1926, he was very active in the support of the road bond proposals, and is now heartily in favor of carrying out the entire road and highway program exactly as it was outlined and approved in that election. Believing that the interests of Brownwood and of all the towns in Brown county are interdependent, he pledges himself to work faithfully for the promotion of the welfare of all the county if placed in charge of the commissioner's work in Precinct 4, and on that basis he solicits the support of every voter in the precinct.

He is now connected as an inspector of bridge work on the county's lateral road system, and is doing the work of cleaning and grubbing the right-of-way on Highway 10. He says of his candidacy: "I shall make a personal canvass of my precinct and will try to see all the voters in person, and I will appreciate all the assistance which can be given me, and all the votes possible."

Neva Ashmore has been deputy district clerk for the past two years, and has had two years experience as deputy county clerk in this office, and assisted in making the tax rolls for this county one year. With this experience as a background, she has gained a thorough knowledge of the duties of the position she seeks, and not only is competent in her work, but has made a host of friends. Sincerely yours, NEVA ASHMORE.

STARKIE CALLS ANNUAL PECAN VALLEY COUNCIL MEET NEXT MONDAY

President John L. Starkie of the Pecan Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America, has called for the annual council meeting to be held next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The meeting will be held at the Howard Payne Auditorium. All members of the Council, all parents of scouts, and all citizens who are interested in the scouting program, are urged to be present. At this meeting reports will be made with regard to the progress of the work during 1929. Suggested plans for the council program for 1930 will also be submitted. Election of Council officers will take place and the report of the Scout Executive will be made.

In connection with the business session will be a musical program. There will also be a demonstration by groups of scouts of some scouting activities. Every man and woman in Brownwood is urged to attend this meeting and so give the scout council the benefit of their encouragement and enthusiasm. Scouting is growing faster in the United States than our fondest dreams had anticipated, the scout workers state. Throughout the nation men and women are hastening to its support and giving both their moral and financial assistance to it.

Brownwood citizens are urged to make Brownwood the center of a very live and progressive scouting area. This can be done and Brownwood has both the material in the nature of boy life and the manpower to make this possible. Whether or not Brownwood will get to be such a center is altogether dependent upon the co-operation given to the efforts of the Scout leaders and Council officers, it is declared.

Jack Brunberg, Scout Executive of the Pecan Valley Council requests that all young men in Brownwood who at any time were members of the Scout troops of which Dr. John Power was Scoutmaster report their names by mail or phone to Scout Headquarters at the Court House. Records are being compiled showing the names of all former scouts who were members of the early Boy Scout organizations in Brownwood. It is especially desirable that all these names be known before February 1st, if any member of those troops, can give us a list of those who were in Dr. Power's scout troops it will be greatly appreciated.

Aid Appreciated by Scoutmasters

The Scoutmasters of Brownwood wish to express their appreciation of the response made by numbers of the scouts for financial aid. As mentioned in these columns a week ago, the Scouts under the direction of their Scoutmasters delivered letters to one thousand citizens asking them to assist them in any emergency. Many were possibly overlooked or not seen when the scouts made their collections last Saturday. If Mr. J. H. Ragsdale is notified he will have a scout call at such a home. Or the contribution may be mailed direct to Mr. Ragsdale or to the Scout office.

Fire Marshal Is Studying Hazards Here Two Days

Lee D. Olive of Austin, state fire marshal, is in Brownwood inspecting fire hazards in company with Fire Chief Rance Pettit.

Mr. Olive mentioned several hazards, which are common and which must be attended to. The habit of putting coins in back of burned out fuses, he said, was not only dangerous but against the law. He also mentioned the dangers from using rubber hoses on heaters, stating that the greatest danger came from using the cut off cock between the hose and the flame. Mr. Olive will continue his work here today and Tuesday.

Saved Him Lots of Money

"Since Taking Orgatone All My Ten Years Suffering Gone and I Feel Fine All the Time," Says Plainview Farmer.

"I feel so fine and well now, I can hardly realize how miserable I was before taking Orgatone," said Earl Stambaugh of Route No. 3 Plainview, Texas. Mr. Stambaugh has been a farmer for the past twenty years, around this section of Texas, and is very well known.

"Yes sir, I firmly believe that Orgatone saved me a lot of money, that I would have spent in doctor bills," he continued. "For the last twenty years I've been bothered with my stomach. My kidneys were so badly disordered that I had sharp pains running through my sides and back all the time. I had little to no appetite and my digestion was so poor, I had to be very careful about what I ate, and I had a heavy, distressed feeling after every meal, and often had dizzy spells and headaches, too. I always felt so dull and tired, and exhausted, it was an effort for me to do my work all the time. Gas formed on my stomach after every meal, and my food soured and the pains that bothered me were just like knives cutting me. I was getting in such a condition I could hardly do a thing. I was very weak and run down, and never got a good night's sleep."

"While talking with the Orgatone representative, about my troubles, one day he advised me to try Orgatone. I have only taken one bottle, and honestly I feel better than I have in the past fifteen or twenty years. My kidneys don't bother me and those terrible pains are gone. I don't have to get up at night as I used to, and I sleep fine every night. My digestion is all right, and I'm not bothered anymore with gas, sour food and heavy distressing feeling. I feel fine all the time. Orgatone has surely restored my health, and I'm more than glad to recommend it. Genuine Orgatone may be had in Brownwood at the Cash and Peerless Drug Stores.

POLL AND AUTO LICENSE TAXES VERY SLOW IN COMING IN TO OFFICE

Nearly six hundred poll taxes a day will have to be paid to County and State Tax Collector W. A. Butler, and about 700 auto license fees a day, to complete the job by February 1, Mr. Butler said Monday morning.

The county should have over 8,000 paid poll taxes by the end of this month, and the collector only has approximately 2,900 at this time. There will have to be a stream of people in the tax office daily to finish with the usual number who register annually. The tax is $1.75.

In the matter of auto tax, only 2,300 have registered out of a total of 8,500, which will mean that 700 a day will have to pour into the office or pay a delinquent fee of ten percent.

With the weather in as bad a condition as it is, the four clerks assigned to this work are idle, and they claim they will not have a chance to take all the funds should the tax payers even come in all during the last week of the month.

Public Invited To Installation Of DeMolay Officers

Installation of officers of the De Molay is to be held at the Masonic Temple Monday night, the public being invited to attend this ceremony.

Edwin Davis will be installed as Master Councilor; Oswald Daughterty as Senior Councilor; George Ehlinger as Junior Councilor; Tom Glover as Scribe; and Frank Stubb as Treasurer.

Presentation of a gold pin will be made to Tom Glover in recognition of his passing examinations as an all around De Molay. The presentation address will be made by Rev. P. T. Stanford. This examination includes his work in his church, in school, at home and as a member of the De Molay.

BONDS TO FUND CITY WARRANTS ARE DISCUSSED

Discussions of several important questions, including the calling of an election for the purpose of voting bonds to care for $179,000.00 of the city's outstanding indebtedness as represented by warrants issued by City Council during the past several years, the semi-annual payment of city taxes and the police situation, occupied the attention of City Council in regular session Tuesday night. Mayor O. W. McDonald presided and all members of the council were present.

A number of Brownwood's leading citizens, eager to put the city's finances in better shape, have again brought up the question of issuing bonds to refund all warrants that have been issued by the council during the past few years, but although City Council seems favorable toward this proposition, no definite action was taken at last night's meeting. It seems to be the consensus of opinion that the issuance of long time bonds to refund the short time warrants is the most satisfactory solution to the city's present financial difficulties. It was pointed out that long time bonds will lighten the current burden on the general fund to the extent that current operating expenses can be met and a budget suitable to the needs of Brownwood be adopted and followed without encountering a deficiency at the end of each fiscal year. It is believed that this proposed bond election will be called within two or three months.

The necessity of issuing bonds to refund outstanding warrants is made more apparent because of the fact that $25,000 in warrants mature in February of this year and indications are that the city may be unable to take care of all these warrants when due.

City Council decided last night that it will be impossible to allow tax payers to pay their city taxes on the deferred payment or semi-annual plan this year, as the debt has been reached after a study of the city's financial condition which revealed that all the 1929 tax money will be needed at once. However, Council is favorably disposed toward the semi-annual payment of taxes and indications are that tax payers will be able to pay their 1930 taxes semi-annually, half in January and half in June.

Representatives of Community Natural Gas Company appeared before Council last night with an ordinance presenting a new rate schedule for Brownwood and this ordinance was passed on its first reading. An ordinance (passed on its first reading last November) allowing Community Natural Gas Company to lower or change its franchise rates, was passed on its third and final reading last night. And the rates as presented in the ordinance submitted last night for its first reading will become the franchise rates for Community Natural Gas Company.

At a special session of City Council Wednesday morning, the ordinance fixing the new rates of Community Natural Gas Company, was passed on its second reading. This ordinance will be passed on its third reading at another special session of Council to be held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. These new rates will be published in The Bulletin Thursday, and will likely go into effect Friday.

UPON THE RECOMMENDATION OF THE POLICE COMMITTEE, COUNCIL VOTED TO DISPENSE WITH THE SERVICES OF THREE MEN NOW ON THE CITY POLICE FORCE, THESE BEING: CHARLIE DAVIS, CITY DETECTIVE; BEN SMALL, TRAFFIC OFFICER; AND JOHN GREY, NIGHT DESK SERGEANT. THESE THREE MEN WILL REMAIN ON THE POLICE FORCE UNTIL FEBRUARY 1.

Salary Changes
The police committee also recommended slight salary changes for other police officers. Three men, "Boots" Walker, motorcycle officers, Ennis and Roberts, were given salary boosts, salaries of two others were reduced, these being Frank Wood and Jeff Parris.

By this action City Council lopped off $355 per month from the police pay roll. The monthly police pay roll is as follows: Chief G. A. Williams, $200; Walker, $110; Ennis, $110; Roberts, $110; Wood, $100 and Parris, $100. Those discharged were being paid as follows: Davis, $150; Small, $105 and Grey $105.

At his request, Hans Schroeder, of the Brownwood Floral Company, was given a 30 day option on a lot adjoining the post office and owned by the city. The sale price of this 40 by 158 foot lot was placed at $12,000. Mr. Schroeder plans to build a down town store for his business on this lot but states that it will be several months before definite plans are made.

AUSTIN-MORRIS CO. TO BUILD WAREHOUSE ON FRISCO TRACKS

The Austin-Morris Company is contemplating the building of a large single story warehouse with a dock fronting on the Frisco tracks at the end of Victoria Street. It was announced by Roy Morris Thursday.

Building material from the old Austin-Morris store at Fisk and Baker will be used in the construction of this 150 by 140 foot warehouse, he said.

The company, now temporarily quartered on Fisk Avenue, is expecting to move into its new store building in the Masonic Temple shortly after the first of February.

W. L. Turner, Jr. Court Appearance Makes Bond For

M. T. Bowden, special deputy sheriff, returned from Raleigh, North Carolina, Monday night, minus the one for whom he went. Mr. Bowden had his son-in-law, W. L. Turner, Jr., 20, who is a student in the state college there, held on a charge filed in Brownwood of wife desertion.

Young Turner made a $2,000 bond for appearance in court here in March to answer this charge, and was allowed to stay at school in Raleigh.

It is understood, however, that he is either on his way here now or will start back shortly of his own free will.

More Divorces But Fewer Marriages Here Last Year

With fewer marriage licenses purchased in Brown county than in the two former years 1929 had more divorces granted than in 1927 and 1928. It is shown in records at the court house.

The number of licenses bought during last year was 319. Records show that marriages during 1927 in this county were 244 and in 1928, 368.

In the matter of divorces granted, there were 88 in 1929; 37 in 1928 and 79 in 1927.

This gives a proportion between divorces and marriages of one to four and a half in 1927; one to about ten in 1928; and one to about three and a half in 1929.

The lower number of marriage licenses issued in 1929 is attributed to the law which went into effect in the spring making it impossible to get a license within three days of filing an intent to marry with the county clerk.

Local Radio Fans Hear Ceremonies London Conference

A number of Brownwood radio fans have been listening to the Naval Conference which is being held in London. To hear this unique radio program, the fans must tune in during the early morning hours.

The programs are on every morning at 5 o'clock and are broadcast over a world-wide hookup through the National Broadcasting Company's network. This is a novel feature to radio listeners and many are taking the advantage of hearing leading statesmen of five nations speak.

The radio stores here say that they have had reports that many local listeners are getting the program in the early morning and are enjoying it very much in spite of the fact that listening to it necessitates very early rising.

Some who have listened say that the program comes through strong enough but at times there is a good deal of interference.

Howard Payne College Notes

By FLOY NICHOLSON

President Taylor spent yesterday morning with the Mount Zion Baptist church, according to his report a rather large rural church about seventeen miles south of this city.

The seniors of Howard Payne experienced a "thrill of a lifetime" Saturday when their degree came.

The Howard Payne skating party which was previously announced in this column to be given last Friday night was a "holing success."

Sunday afternoon an appreciative audience of members from the Winnie Davis Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy and from the United Confederate Brethren of Brown county listened to an address on the life of Robert E. Lee.

Word has been received here that Rev. and Mrs. L. V. Hanna, who graduated from Howard Payne last year and who are missionaries to the Holy Land, sailed last Saturday morning at 10 a. m.

Mr. Louie McKinsey who has been attending night school for the past two months, has enrolled for a complete business administration course and is now attending day school.

Mr. McKinsey was formerly employed by Bowden Furniture Co., as salesman, but he now has an accounting position in view.

MESSAGES

From Mc's Business College

BY MARIE MILLER

The student body is very pleased to learn of the recent promotion of one of our former students, Mr. J. T. Cone, who came to our school from Fort Arthur.

Upon completion of his course he received a wire from the First National Bank of that city offering him a position as assistant bookkeeper which he accepted.

Beatrice Small, a graduate of the 29 class of Brownwood High School, who has recently finished her secretarial course in our school has accepted a position with Central Texas Hospital as private secretary to Dr. Douglas.

The school has recently added to the faculty assistant piano and voice instructor through the marriage of Miss Lottie Mae McElroy to Mr. Elland Scarborough.

We are sure that he will be quite an asset to the school under the direction of Miss McElroy, as she usually has folks do as she says and we feel that he is no exception.

We are very sorry to learn that Miss Joanne Mae Albert's father is quite ill at his home at Blanket. We hope that it will not be as serious as it seems and that he will be restored to his health in the near future.

Billy Kelly, young son of our principal, Mr. P. L. Kelly is very ill in his home here. We all hope for a speedy recovery.

Personal Mention Carl Smith and Ruth Redford spent the week-end with their parents at Llano. They have only been in our school since the first of the year and we wonder why they were so anxious to visit home so soon, especially during the blizzard which has been raging the last few days.

Miss Eva Phelan visited in Menard this week-end. Miss Willie Belle Hayes of Coleman who has been employed by Armour & Co. to assist in a two months' audit at Cisco, has returned to resume her course in accounting.

Mr. Louie McKinsey who has been attending night school for the past two months, has enrolled for a complete business administration course and is now attending day school.

Mr. McKinsey was formerly employed by Bowden Furniture Co., as salesman, but he now has an accounting position in view.

MORTUARY

MRS. ELIZABETH McQUERRY

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth McQuerry, 85, who died at Portales, New Mexico, Saturday night, will be held from the McInnis Funeral Chapel Tuesday morning at 10:00 o'clock with Dr. W. R. Hornburg, pastor of the Coggin Avenue Baptist Church, officiating.

Mrs. McQuerry was living with her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Harris of Portales, at the time of her death. The body will arrive in Brownwood tonight at 8:15 o'clock on the Santa Fe.

Mrs. McQuerry had been ill for five weeks prior to her death. She was a pioneer settler of Brown county, having lived for many years near Zephyr.

Mrs. McQuerry became a Christian when 18 years of age and immediately united with the Missionary Baptist Church. She was a member of the Coggin Avenue Baptist Church for many years but at the time of her death her membership was with the Amherst Baptist Church at Amherst, Texas.

Houston Not To Buy Oklahoma Gas

HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 20.—(P)—The city of Houston probably will not avail itself of the opportunity—created by opinion of the attorney general—of buying its gasoline in Oklahoma and escaping the Texas state tax.

Municipalities, he added, pay a toll of three cents a gallon, other purchasers four cents. The transportation cost on gasoline brought from Oklahoma here would amount to two and three-fourths cents a gallon, effecting a saving of only one-fourth cent.

This slight economy, he believed, would not "justify the trouble."

STYLE TIPS

Long dresses seemed to be hopeless when I first saw them. Girls looked so long and weird compared with the way they looked in the chic abbreviated costumes. I wasn't prejudiced but merely fearful of them.

I certainly see it different now—the transformation in appearance is beautiful and not amusing as I had anticipated. Those who have purchased the new frocks are really thrilling over that refined, ladylike appearance and feeling which comes from wearing extremely feminine frocks.

Bettis & Gibbs has brought to you remarkable style creations. Again our early showing is attracting style wise women from all over the country, for discerning forward looking women know that things different and distinctive come from Bettis & Gibbs.

The trouble with some of us husbands is that we are too good. This causes our wives to find a lot of fault with us, and some of them almost wish they were rid of us. What we need to do is to be mean and trifling; then our wives will cling to us as if we were something valuable.—Versailles Leader.

C. OF C. WORKS ON VETERANS HOSPITAL BRIEF

A concentrated effort to obtain the location of the Texas Veterans Bureau Hospital in Brownwood is being made jointly by the Chamber of Commerce and the American Legion, and the entire session of the directors of the chamber, following a luncheon at the Southern Hotel Monday noon, was taken up with the discussion of this matter.

A committee composed of Dr. Mollie W. Armstrong as chairman, E. B. Gilliam, Sr., and Secretary Hilton Burks, will work this afternoon on the brief which will have to be air-mailed tonight to reach the meeting of the location committee in Washington Wednesday afternoon.

It has not been decided yet, Mr. Armstrong said at the directors' meeting, whether the proposed hospital is to be general or for mental patients only. If made a general institution, it will mean an expenditure of $2,000,000.

That this will be worth much to Brownwood should this city be chosen as the site, goes without saying, according to both Mrs. Armstrong and Thomas R. Scott, commander of the local legion post.

A brief such as could be used for this purpose is in the hands of E. B. Gilliam, Sr., who said the chamber committee is welcome to its use in this case. The committee in meeting this afternoon will not only recast this brief and send it to Washington, but will exchange wires with many in Washington for the purpose of seeing when the location committee could see representatives from Brownwood, and then chose the representative, or more than one, to give this city's argument before the committee.

Ernest Baker Is Named Assistant Fire Chief Here

Mr. Baker takes the place of Crafton Wells who resigned his position recently when he moved from the city. T. E. (Toby) Walker was chosen as second assistant chief. MRS. McCUTCHAN DIES AT HER HOME HERE AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Marietta Hardeman McCutchan, 53, wife of C. A. McCutchan, 1817 Avenue E, died at 2 o'clock Monday morning after an illness extending over a period of several months.

Mrs. McCutchan was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Leonidas Hardeman, one of Brown county's pioneer families. She was a niece of General Wm. P. Hardeman. Mrs. McCutchan was born at Luling, Texas, August 13, 1876, but with her parents, came to Brownwood in early life. She was married to C. A. McCutchan in Brownwood, December 21, 1905 and this happy couple had made their home in Brownwood since.

Mrs. McCutchan is survived by her husband, a sister, Mrs. D. K. Taylor, of Brownwood, two nieces, Miss Tully Hardeman of Brownwood, and Mrs. M. L. McClung of Ranger and a nephew, Hal Hardeman, Jr., of Perryton, Texas. Mrs. Margaret Awall and Miss Gertrude McCutchan, sisters of C. A. McCutchan, also are surviving relatives and will arrive tonight to attend Mrs. McCutchan's funeral. Harry Evans, of Austin, a nephew, will arrive tonight.

Mrs. McCutchan had been sick for several months, and had been confined to her bed the past two or three months. Throughout this time her sister, Mrs. D. K. Taylor, and her niece, Miss Tully Hardeman had nursed her and ministered unto her every want. But despite all that medical science and loving care could do, the ravage of disease could not be halted.

Her many friends in Brownwood declare that Mrs. McCutchan was one of the most popular women of the city, her ever radiant smile and apparent eagerness to spread happiness in every circle in which she elected to mingle, and her angelic disposition having endeared her to all who had the pleasure of knowing this devoted woman. She was one of the city's most consecrated Christian characters and throughout her life her church and God came first. She was a most tireless worker in all church endeavor and in addition to this was very prominent in social circles. She had been a member of the Methodist Church since childhood and was a charter member of the Central Methodist Church.

Mrs. McCutchan's funeral services for Mrs. Marietta Hardeman McCutchan, 53, wife of C. A. McCutchan, 1817 Avenue E, will be held from the family residence at 3:00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. P. T. Stanford, pastor of the Central Methodist Church. Burial was made in Greenleaf Cemetery.

Mrs. McCutchan died at 2 o'clock Monday morning after a prolonged illness. She was a member of one of Brownwood's pioneer families and was one of the most popular figures of the city in church and social circles. She was a charter member of the Central Methodist Church.

Mrs. McCutchan is survived by her husband, a sister, Mrs. D. K. Taylor, and a number of nieces and nephews. Her many friends gave ample proof of their love and respect for Mrs. McCutchan through a magnificent floral offering at today's funeral.

Pall bearers for Mrs. McCutchan's funeral were Sam Morris, J. C. Epps, W. W. McCullough, Ed. G. Hall, L. B. Young and Guy L. Jones.

Early School Is Formally Opened

The Early school three miles east of Brownwood, housing all the pupils of the Jones Chapel consolidated district, was formally opened with appropriate exercises Saturday night, the auditorium being full to overflowing.

The principal address of the evening was made by District Attorney Walter U. Early, for whom the school was named.

The Colts Band, under the leadership of Merle Baker, gave several numbers and led in the singing. Rev. J. L. Isbell gave the invocation. Temple Dunn, superintendent, spoke a few words of welcome and was followed by County Superintendent J. Oscar Swindie, who dedicated the school. Two readings were given by Little Miss Margie Swindie one of them being "The Little Red School House," and a reading was given by Raffie Thomas. Miss Stevens gave a piano number.

The pep squad, the ball team and the teachers were introduced. Following Mr. Early's address the pupils gave the school yell in his honor.

ROGERS TAKES POSITION WITH WATER BOARD

R. B. Rogers, elected last week as a new member of the Board of Directors of the Brownwood Independent Water District No. 1, Monday notified the board that he would accept the position and would be ready to begin his duties at once.

He succeeded in convincing the board that it is his duty as a citizen to give this service to the district. He added that since he had not been a candidate for the place, he had no preconceived ideas as to what the board should do, or how, but would devote his best efforts to laboring with other members of the board in working out the details of the immense water project which is generally regarded as the most important public enterprise ever launched in this part of the state.

Two Are in County Jail Charged With Theft of Gasoline

C. P. and O. H. Dunn, who say they live at Salt Creek, were arrested on charges of theft. The men were arrested by city officers after some gasoline had been siphoned from cars standing in front of the First Baptist church while the Sunday night services were on.

Two men were seen in the act of taking gasoline and the occurrence was phoned to the police. Officers found a car with gas cap removed and with a partially filled can of gasoline in it, but no men about. The car seemed suspicious to the officers and they took it to the station. O. H. Dunn came soon to claim it and was locked up for investigation. C. P. Dunn was later arrested by the police.

The two men were turned over to the county Monday morning, and the theft charges filed. In a hearing Tuesday C. P. Dunn was fined $5 and costs, and O. H. Dunn was fined $1 and costs.

Splendid Carillon

The carillon given by Arthur R. Baxter to the Scottish Rite cathedral in Indianapolis, Ind., has 63 bells, ranging in weight from a few pounds up to 12 tons. The carillon differs from chimes in that its bells are stationary. This one may be played in three ways—from a keyboard similar to the organ or piano, from a clavier worked by handles and pedals and by perforated rolls.

Lee and Jackson Birthdays Are Celebrated Here

The Winnie Davis Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, was hostess to the Confederate veterans, Sunday afternoon at the Carnegie Library, celebrating the birthday of General Robert E. Lee and General Jackson.

Two interesting and inspiring addresses were delivered by Dr. Thomas H. Taylor, president of Howard Payne College and Mrs. J. W. Trapp of Daniel Baker College. These speakers are favorites of both the Confederate Veterans and the Daughters, and on this occasion both delivered unusually fine speeches.

Dr. Taylor spoke on the lives of Lee and Jackson and gave some interesting facts concerning the Civil War, which were thoroughly appreciated by the veterans, recalling to them many personal experiences.

Mrs. Trapp paid special tribute to the Confederate Veterans and assured them of the interest and love of all descendants of the veterans.

Misses Myra Bell Beakley and Ruth Odum rendered beautiful poems concerning the lives of General Lee and General Jackson.

"How Firm a Foundation" and "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again," hymns which were the favorites of Lee and Jackson, were sung by the entire audience.

Dr. J. A. Abney offered the opening prayer and after a few words of greeting from the president of the chapter Mrs. W. D. McCulley, the program was directed by the chairman of the program committee Mrs. G. E. Kelth.

Mrs. Hugh Stewart, chairman of the social committee, was assisted in serving by Mesdames Hal Cherry, J. K. Wilkes, H. A. Newby, Fred McCulley and Misses Odum and Beakley.

A delicious refreshments of chicken sandwiches, old-fashioned pound cake and hot coffee were served from the tables centered with beautiful red carnations. Each veteran received a carnation, which was pinned to the lapel of his coat.

A short business session of the Stonewall Jackson Camp U. C. V., No. 118 was held immediately after the social hour.

J. E. Smith commander called the meeting to order and the members expressed their appreciation to the Confederate Daughters for honoring the veterans.

The election of the officers for the camp for the year was held and P. A. Allcorn, 1st Lieutenant, J. C. Jones, 2nd Lieutenant, Rev. J. W. Johnson, chaplain, Dr. J. A. Abney, surgeon and R. S. Clardy, color-bearer were all re-elected to fill their offices for another term. Mrs. W. H. White was elected to fill the office of her late husband as adjutant.

Ticker's Tips

Dear Friends: I don't think the boss likes me much. He says I'm too nosy, whatever he means by that.

But I notice I'm still here and since I like the job all right I guess I'll stay. I'm beginning to find out Mr. Armstrong is a pretty nice man to work for, too—in some ways.

One thing I have noticed since I've been the official ad writer here and that is the customers who come in here store and act like they've been here before. Lots of them seem real well acquainted. And I notice most of them buy something.

Now it don't take any Sherlock Holmes to figure out that those folks have been mighty well pleased with purchases they made and the treatment they got here in times past or they wouldn't come back. Probably that is why Mr. Armstrong has such a nice business. So if you need anything in a watch or ring, come in and see the ones here.

Kirkpatrick's Bird Dogs Are Making Splendid Records

Ernest Kirkpatrick of Tulsa, and Brownwood, who has shown that he is still interested in Brownwood by sending checks to help out in the Boy Scout work and again sending a check the other day to aid in the relief work here in Brownwood, has a choice kennel of bird dogs of which he can well be proud, as shown by recent reports of field trials.

These stories of the dogs were sent special to Oklahoma papers from Holly Springs, Mississippi where the All-American bird dog races were being held. The clippings are dated January 9 and 11 and are about the bird dog, Southern Breeze owned by Mr. Kirkpatrick. They are as follows:

"On Tuesday afternoon in spite of the pouring rain, the judges ran two braces of dogs. The first consisted of Pointers Southern Breeze, owned by E. E. Kirkpatrick of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and handled by Pete Dixon of Catfoss, Oklahoma, and Contractors Joe owned by L. D. Johnson of Evansville, Ind., handled by Ed Farrior.

"Southern Breeze did not seem to mind the most conditions, but found four beves of birds and one single. Contractors Joe found only one bevy, but ran a fast and wide race, finishing his hour performance in good style."

"Third place in the All-American bird dog trials went to Southern Breeze, a female pointer owned by E. E. Kirkpatrick of Tulsa, Okla. The stake was 27 starters. The heats were one hour in length and not since the season began on the prairie last September has a field trial been run where so many birds were found and pointed by the dogs in competition. Southern Breeze, always a consistent performer on game, easily sustained her reputation made last week by checking in with several good finds."

City Collecting Few Poll Taxes

Only 798 poll taxes have been paid into the city this year up to Monday morning, as against about 2,100 paid last year, according to the records of City Tax Collector Joe Leach.

There are only ten days in which to pay this dollar tax, and as this is voting year Mr. Leach thinks there will be at least 2,500 poll tax receipts issued this year. That will mean about 170 to be paid each day between now and the first of February.

If all those who are qualified to vote in Brownwood would pay their poll tax and vote there would be approximately 5,000 on the rolls, he said.

TEMPERATURE IN BROWNWOOD AT ZERO MARK

After over 15 days of cold weather, the climax in Brownwood temperature came Monday afternoon and last night with the mercury standing at zero.

Breaking all weather records for Brownwood for about 31 years the mercury started to drop Monday about 7:00 a. m. and during the afternoon and night reached the low point of zero, which it reached last night.

The official weather recorder for the government here has held that position for the last 25 years and states that at no time during those years of careful thermometer readings has the mercury reached the low point of zero, which it reached last night.

Old timers of this section state that this is the coldest weather since February, 1889. They tell interesting stories of the hardships of that winter. Livestock at that time froze in the fields and birds froze as they sat in the trees and many deaths were recorded among the people, they state.

The very cold wind and snow and sleet coupled with the extreme drop in temperature made Friday afternoon one of the most disagreeable in the history of this section. This morning the snow or sleet had stopped falling, but the biting wind still prevailed, in spite of the fact that the sun seemed as if it were trying to make up for its tardiness in shining the last few days.

Oats in the county will suffer considerably, thinks O. P. Griffin, county agent. He states that in the southwestern part of the county the oats were already damaged from the long cold spell and with the severe cold last night the crop of oats will suffer all the more. Livestock are also suffering, states Mr. Griffin and there will be some loss in the county. The loss will not necessarily be heavy, however, because the majority of farmers have seen that their stock were fed and housed. Trappers of this section and other sections say that this extreme cold was indicated by the fur on the animals. They say that when a cold winter is in store the fur-bearing animals have heavier and longer coats of hair. Animals that have already been caught show that this is true, the trappers declare.

MAYES-SHELTON MARRIAGE IS SOLEMNIZED

An impressive ceremony in a beautiful setting marked the marriage of Miss Dorothy Shelton to Mr. James Hervey Mayes Wednesday, Jan. 15, at 9:30 o'clock in the Baptist church in Comanche, Texas. The ring ceremony was read by Rev. Gordon M. Barrett, the bride's pastor, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the couple.

Both the bride, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard K. Shelton of Comanche, and the groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hervey F. Mayes of Brownwood, are members of prominent families well known in West Texas, and the wedding was an event of interest to many.

Church Prettily Decorated The church was decorated with violet and green which was given effective and artistic recognition, with runners of smilax marking the posts and pews, and with large violet tulle bows to rope off the marked pews.

A profusion of palms and ferns formed an embankment for the altar with cathedral candles in brass candelabra casting gleaming lights upon the attractive setting. Handsome leafed ferns resting on pedestals formed an outline in the immediate foreground on either side of the altar entrance and graduated in size in the background. A tall mass of greenery in the center background was caught at either end by streamers of violet tulle which terminated in a large bow in the immediate center and festooned through hanging baskets with graceful carnations outlined in simple beauty against the greenery on either side.

Wedding Music Preceding the ceremony Mrs. I. M. Cochran sang "Because" by D'Hardelot, with Mrs. H. E. Moore playing her accompaniment and giving the wedding music. For the entrance of the bridal cortege Mrs. Moore played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin and during the ceremony she played "Traumeri." As a recessional Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played. Mrs. Curtis Stevens accompanied the pianist with the violin. Mrs. Stevens was dressed in an ensemble of tulle and flat crepe in pastel shades. The soloist, Mrs. Cochran, wore a sage green gown of lace and chiffon.

Bride Enters With Father The bride, who entered on the arm of her father and was given in marriage by him, wore an attractive and becoming early spring model crepe suit of silk in violet, with blouse of orchid. Her hat was also an advanced spring model in the violet shade, as were her shoes and gloves. She carried an exquisite bouquet of Talisman roses and gypsophylla.

For traveling she donned a suit of rose tweed with black accessories. Wedding Attendants Mrs. Elmo White of Stephenville, an aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. White wore a sage green crepe made in princess model with shoes of green. Her hat was of silver and green. She carried an arm bouquet of Premier roses and fern.

The bridesmaids were Miss Natalie Jessup, Miss Thelma Barrett and Miss Judith Clark. Each wore a becoming spring frock made in princess model and reflecting the bridal tones, and carried bouquets of sweet peas and jonquils in the pastel shades. Miss Jessup was gowned in green chiffon with slippers of green. Miss Barrett wore violet chiffon with slippers of violet and Miss Clark wore a frock of green with slippers of harmonizing shades. The flower girls were Frances Evelyn Durham, Sarah Jean Sweatman and Virginia Walker. Each wore dainty fluffy frocks of harmonizing shades and carried miniature white arm baskets from which she scattered the rose petals in the pathway of the bride. The ring bearer was Drisilla Cochran, who wore a green smock of flat crepe and carried the circlet in the heart of a lily.

Edwin M. Boon Jr. served as best man. The groomsmen were Allen Davis and Clay Parks Carey. Wedding Breakfast At the home of the bride's parents, a wedding breakfast was served following the ceremony. The

In the guest room the handsome array of gifts were displayed, and admired by the guests. On Honeymoon Trip Mr. and Mrs. Mayes left soon after the wedding in their car for a honeymoon trip to Houston. They are to return in about a week and will make their home in the Parkview Apartments.

The attractive and vivacious young bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard K. Shelton of Comanche and grew to young womanhood there. SCARBOROUGH-McELROY WEDDING

Saturday, January 18th, at high noon, marked the first radio wedding in Brownwood, over station KOKB, the participants being Miss Lottie Mae McElroy and Eliand Scarborough. This novel feature was arranged through KOKB because they are heard frequently over this station. Miss McElroy is a pianist of no small ability and Mr. Scarborough a very promising baritone. Miss McElroy is the daughter of Prof. and Mrs. P. B. McElroy and a member of the senior class of Brownwood High School, 1928. She has been a student of piano at Howard Payne College, organ at Danitz Baker, and a teacher for the past six years in Brownwood and Bangs. She is assistant organist at the Central Methodist Church and director of the Choral Club of Mc's Business College where her studio is located. Mr. Scarborough is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Scarborough of Athens, Texas, and is at present a student in Howard Payne College and a pupil of Cameron Marshall in voice. He has been a member of Victor Recording Vaughn Texas Quartette for several years, as well as a member of the Howard Payne Quartette. Miss McElroy was a travelling gown of rose beige crepe with accessories to harmonize. Mr. Scarborough wore the usual dark business suit. ONLY 3 JURORS SELECTED FOR BRADY'S TRIAL

AUSTIN, Jan. 22.—(AP)—District Judge J. D. Moore said today that if the new venire of 200 ordered for the murder trial of John W. Brady is exhausted without a jury having been obtained "we'll keep on calling them."

COURT ROOM, AUSTIN, Jan. 22.—(AP)—The court house halls were filled with veniremen from the new panel of 200 ordered as the trial of John W. Brady for the murder of Leblis Highsmith was resumed this afternoon.

The clerk said he thought most of the veniremen called had appeared, but a check had not been made. Brady wore a white hat, came in with his usual escort—two deputies.

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 22.—(AP)—The first panel of 250 veniremen exhausted and only three jurors chosen in the John W. Brady murder trial, 200 additional talsmen were summoned to appear in court here today in the hope that the jury box would be filled soon.

Fixed opinions as to the guilt or innocence of the former Texas judge in connection with the stabbing to death last Nov. 9 of Miss Leblis Highsmith, 28-year-old stenographer, and objections to the death penalty caused the state and defense attorneys to refuse a majority of veniremen interrogated. Only a half-day session of court was planned, a recess having been ordered until 2 p. m. to permit bailiffs time to subpoena additional talsmen. Judge J. D. Moore said witnesses ordered to appear today would be dismissed for the time being.

Three From 75 Three jurors selected were picked from 75 veniremen. They were W. L. Wright, 27-year-old furniture repair man, J. R. Keltner, 58-year-old merchant, and A. A. Mobley, 51-year-old laborer. Wright was questioned by the state, but was not called to testify. Keltner was accepted after he was asked only a few questions.

A new element in the line of questioning by the defense was introduced when Dayton Moses, one of Brady's attorneys, J. B. Robinson, superintendent Methodist minister, whether the fact that Brady was reported to have been intoxicated at the time of the killing would influence him. The minister, however, was challenged preemptively by the defense. Brady during the second day of the trial looked tired and sometimes appeared nervous. He sat beside his wife, and at times held her hand in his. A number of times he was amused by answers veniremen gave attorneys.

ABNEY IS AGAIN NAMED HEAD OF WATER BOARD

Fred S. Abney was reelected president of the board of directors of the Brown County Water Improvement District No. 1, at the first meeting of the new board held this week.

Matters of utmost importance to the lake and irrigation projects were discussed at this first gathering following the election of last week when four members of the board were retained and a new one added. The election returns were canvassed and the directors were qualified for their positions, were bonded, and officers for the ensuing year were chosen. C. Y. Early was made vice-president and H. G. Lucas was made secretary. The other members present at this meeting were: J. L. Starke and R. B. Rogers newly elected member.

To Speed Work

A discussion was engaged in as to ways and means of speeding up the purchase of the land in the proposed lake basin, two methods being before the board: one trading for it, and the second, condemning. The board decided to go ahead with the purchase of the various tracts until such time as it will be necessary to complete the job by condemning the balance.

The board found it will be necessary to condemn one parcel of land this being so because of doubt as to its title, a deed from the present holders not being sufficient. A total of $1,350,000 has been secured for the project on the sale of a part of the $2,500,000 bonds and on borrowing on some of them. The sum of $500,000 was borrowed, the board putting up $600,000 as collateral. This money is being used for the purchase of the land, about $80,000 of it being spent already for that purpose, and for the incidental expenses relative to the preliminary work.

None of this money is kept in Dallas, but is gotten from the Brown-Crummer Company of Wichita, Kansas, as needed. $850,000 worth of the bonds have been sold outright, the money being used for the construction of the dam, and is being kept in Dallas and Wichita banks drawing interest until needed.

Board's Records Open The directors, who serve without remuneration, are several men who are figuring on the job, but at no contracts have been let as yet. "There is quite a sentiment in the city for the board to put idle men at work clearing this land," said Mr. Abney. "We would like to do this now, and are making plans to see just what can be done about the matter."

"Clearing the land is not such an easy task as it might seem at first. It has to be done along certain lines, along scientific lines. If we should put a crew at work on it promiscuously, the land might be cleared in a short time, but by the time the dam was built it would be grown up to brush and weeds again and would have to be done over. "For this reason we will have to have it done by those who understand how to kill all growth as they clear and will do it on a contract basis. But we will make a supreme effort to insist in the contract that Brown county labor be used in this work," Mr. Abney concluded.

FIRE HAZARDS FEWER HERE SAYS MARSHAL

Fire hazards in Brownwood business houses are fewer in number than ever before, according to D. Olive of Austin, state fire marshal, who completed today a three days inspection here accompanied by Fire Chief Rance Pettitt. The excellent conditions in this line he found in this city he claimed was due to abundant newspaper publicity, and praised the past work of the Bulletin in printing articles on fire protection.

But he did find a number of hazards, many of which, he said, could be easily corrected. He mentioned one institution in this city which is paying an extra fire insurance premium of between $400 and $500 a year because it used flexible hoses on gas heaters.

The marshal has a form he uses in his inspections on which he checks hazards as he finds them. This list of over forty hazards, which follows, gives the public a good idea of the dangers of fire as seen by experts. Rubbish, untidiness, ashes or trash in or exposing building. Dangerous lights in windows or exposing stock or woodwork. Sawdust on floor or in wood cupboards. Floor oily, treated or swept with oil or unapproved compounds. Ash, trash or waste receptacles unsafe. Flues, and, or, chimneys unsafe. Heating device unsafe. Flexible gas connections, improperly connected. Accumulation of empty boxes and or barrels, in or exposing building. Merchandise crowded, obstructing aisles or windows. No approved oily waste can where needed; oily rags in unsafe places. Fuel oil burning equipment not standard. Natural or artificial gas engine. Next above not properly installed. Kerosene, solar or fuel oil engine.

Use of McCulloch Library Increases

BRADY, Texas, Jan. 21.—(Sp)—A 400 per cent increase in the circulation of the McCulloch County Library has been made during the past year, according to Miss Tynes, librarian. During the month of December 2,400 books were read by patrons of the library over against 600 during the corresponding month of 1928. One thousand new volumes were added to the McCulloch County library during the past 12-month period. The increase in circulation is ascribed to the establishment of the twelve rural library branches in various parts of the county. Miss Tynes has resigned her McCulloch county position to take charge of the McLennan County Library at Waco, for the maintenance of which the Commissioners' Court of that county has appropriated an annual stipend of $6,000.
