FFA Boys Display 70 Fancy Animals In Projects Show

Senator Lyndon Johnson in a recent news letter assures us that the Senate has provided the tools to take apart and study our problem of inflation. It made available $200,000 to finance this work by a joint Economic Committee, which is now engaged in the most searching study of its type undertaken in 20 years.

We can't help wondering what this committee will discover when it finishes its job of taking apart and studying. Will it perhaps decide that one of the very big causes of inflation is unnecessary spending? . . . for instance, a $200,000 appropriation to search for causes that have been apparent for years to lots of other people.

Our good senator is correct in stating that the problem of inflation rates second only to the issue of national survival. He might have added that it is also closely related to that issue, because the country may possibly not survive if inflation gets out of hand. But why does he try stringing us along with an assurance when he knows as well as we that this study is a waste of time? The answers to this problem were known long ago. We'd much rather have had the senator tell us that Congress too knows the causes and is prepared to tackle them.

This column doesn't claim to know all the causes of inflation, but it can name a few of the biggest ones.

First there's the wild spending policy of our Federal government, which not only puts excessive money in circulation but demands a larger portion of every person's dollar as a tax tribute. Both factors cause a big shrinkage in the real value of a person's money.

Next there's the tendency of congress to go along with the demands of labor bosses, which ultimately result in higher unit prices. Legislators in Washington have created the climate which allows wage increases that are not justified by production increases. Their continued attitude is largely responsible for such labor abuses as wildcat strikes, labor monopoly, featherbedding, violence, gangsterism and corruption. Every one of those factors adds to the cost of things people have to buy. They shrink the purchasing value of the consumer's dollar.

These things are obvious, and if corrected would be more than enough to bring the inflation spiral to a dead stop, maybe even start reversing it. And, of course, there are other ways to put additional checks on the vicious spiral.

The greatest trouble is that the job requires more real courage and integrity than the average congressman can muster. Not many are willing to stop the pork barrel politics of buying votes with special projects grants and subsidies. Not many have the nerve to break the stranglehold of politically influential labor bosses. That's why they stall around and decide to goof off a couple hundred thousand bucks looking for an answer that they should have known for years.

Congressmen know how to solve our inflation problem as well as you and I do. The first thing is to quit the lavish spending and not only balance the budget but start paying on the old debt. Another thing is to crack down on labor abuses and also help spread the word that prosperity and security depend on production, not on less work and more pay.

Last Sunday's papers told the sad story of Stanley Yankus, the Michigan farmer who sold his place and all possessions at public auction in order to get away from this country's meddling agricultural controls and make a fresh start in Australia.

Recalling that Australia is one of the most socialized countries of the earth, we can't help wondering whether Mr. Yankus is not flopping from the frying pan into the fire. He'll be a lucky man indeed if he does not run into more controls in the continent down under than he did in the USA. Unfortunately, he seems to be exercising more spunk than judgment.

The cause of this commotion, it will be remembered was the fine of $4,562 assessed against him for raising wheat without permission on his farm and feeding it to his chickens. According to his way of thinking he was not violating any law because he did not sell any wheat, hence did not add to the surplus. He FFA chapter members of Muenster High showed 70 fancy animals in this year's project show, the best in chapter history.

The fourth annual event Saturday topped previous shows in both quality and quantity. It consisted of 13 classes from which seven champions and reserve champions were named.

Charlie Wimmer showed the champion female in the dairy show and Jimmy Sicking had the runner-up. Doug Hellman exhibited the champion fat calf and Kenny Fette showed the reserve champion.

In the hog show Donnie Trubenbach exhibited the champion and runner-up in the breeding animal division and the runner-up in the fat hog class. Fred Haverkamp showed his fat hog to the championship.

Top sheep included the grand champion ram shown by Roger Fleitman and the reserve champ by Dickie and Johnny Pangel, the champion ewe and champion fat lamb, both belonging to Truman Wolf, the reserve ewe exhibited by Billy Ray Hellman and the runner-up fat lamb displayed by Mark Hellman.

The Future Farmers competed for $225 in cash and ribbons. Awards money was provided through the United Fund. Froster Hamblin of East Texas State College judged the show. A large crowd of interested persons attended.

Chapter Adviser Glenn Hellman helped his boys arrange the show which was held in the FFA project pens north of the Horner football field. All animals were judged as blue, red or white ribbon winners and every boy who exhibited won an award.

Myrick and Wilde Favored by Voters In Trustee Election

By a count of 129 to 90 voters of the Muenster school district in last Saturday's election named Ray Wilde to replace Albert Fleitman as their representative on the school board.

While those two were competing for the second high position on the ballot, Dr. T. S. Myrick polled a total of 186 votes, easily winning his bid for re-election to the board.

The ballot listed three candidates for the two positions on the board and the two high men were elected. A total of 210 votes was cast, rating the election as considerably more active than usual but still far behind some others of the past.

Members of the district also voted on county trustees representing Precincts 3 and 4. Joe Hundt, unopposed on the Precinct 4 ballot received 175 votes here and was returned to another term on the county board. A. T. Strader, who trailed Favin Brown 18-14 in local balloting was elected 249-99 as Precinct 3's successor to Rich Kirby on the county board. Kirby was not a candidate for re-election.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Donald Hennigan was dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium Monday after several days of treatment for a foot ailment.

Not to be outdone by his brothers, Larry Hennigan entered M & S Hospital Tuesday night for treatment of a foot infection. He had stepped on a nail the day before. Donald and Jerome Hennigan had previously been hospital patients for foot infections. Theirs was the right foot; Larry's is the left.

J. H. Coursey, route 2, Muenster, is a patient at Gainesville Sanitarium for medical care and observation.

Illness has kept Judy Sluder from Muenster Beauty Shop this week. She received treatment at M & S Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eberhart of Gainesville took their three-year-old son Pat to Dallas Monday for a check on his leg ailment.

Mrs. Earl Fisher is in Canyon with her mother, Mrs. E. J. Evers, this week. Mrs. Evers is a patient at Canyon Hospital where she underwent surgery.

Fire Truck Brings Reduced Insurance Rate to Muenster

Financial benefits resulting from the presence of the city's new fire truck became effective here on April 1.

Members of the city council at their meeting Monday night heard a letter from the State Fire Insurance Commissioner advising that the new truck has been approved and that a reduction of the city's key rate is effective as of April 1.

Because of the fire truck property owners will save hundreds of dollars every year on their insurance.

Muenster to Host Friday for Annual Scholastic Meet

School children from all over the district are expected here Friday when the Muenster Public School will be host for literary events and athletics finals of the 1959 Interscholastic League spring meet.

Schools eligible to participate are Muenster, Saint Jo, Era, Callisburg, Valley View, Sanger, Alvord and Chico. Practically all of them are expected to be entered in some events, and some will be in most of the events.

Weldon Holland, chairman of the meet, said that literary events will be held first, then finals in athletic events. Judges for all speech events are furnished by the speech department of North Texas State College and judges for the other literary events are from Gainesville College.

Some points in the meet are already determined. In the one act play contest Monday night Saint Jo and Chico placed first and second respectively. Declamation contests will be held Thursday night.

Other events already decided are track and field in both high school and elementary. Results were: in senior high; Valley View, Muenster and Callisburg. In junior high; Era, Chico and Muenster. In elementary; Valley View, Era and Muenster.

Preliminaries with Saint Jo last week practically eliminated Muenster from the other athletics of the meet. Events were in junior and senior boys and girls divisions of volleyball and tennis. Muenster's only wins were in junior boys softball and in junior boys and girls tennis singles. All teams of the district were scheduled to play their preliminaries and semifinals at their own convenience and be ready for finals here Friday. The only exception is tennis, in which finals are postponed until next week.

Literary events for the meet and Muenster's entries were announced as follows by Mr. Holland.

SH Has 5 Winners In Essay Contest

Sacred Heart School has two first place and three second place deaneary winners in the annual vocational essay contest.

Carolyn Swirczynski is first in the high school girls' division and Robert Walterscheid is first in the elementary boys' division. Other local winners are Charles Bayer, high school boys, Melvin Sicking and Jeannine Hofbauer, grade divisions, boys and girls, all second.

Their essays move up to compete with other top entries on a diocesan wide basis.

As an observance of Vocation Month, students throughout the Dallas-Fort Worth diocese wrote essays on "Why Religious Vocation is the Highest Vocation."

WITH THE MEN IN SERVICE

Ends 20 Day Leave
Airman David Walter this week ended a 20-day leave at home and left here Thursday to return to Homestead Air Force Base, Miami, Florida, after visiting his parents and family, the Oscar Walters.

Visiting Here During Leave
Sgt. and Mrs. Joe Galloway and daughter Jonann of Arroyo Grande, Calif., are here this week until Friday visiting her parents, the John Fishers and family, while he is on leave from duty at Vandenberg Air Force Base. Before coming to Muenster the Galloways visited his family in Hamlin.

City Wide Clean-up Tuesday Launches Insect Campaign

Striving to get a head start on the insects this year, the city council in its meeting Monday night decided to have an early clean-up, and follow it as quickly as possible with a spraying job.

City Manager Steve Mosler, placed in charge of the work, has since made arrangements to have the clean-up next Tuesday.

Procedure, he said will be the same as last year. People are asked to put their trash in cartons or sacks and have the packages at the curb or edge of the front yard in time for the pick-up beginning at 8:30 a.m. They are also reminded not to use containers that they wish to keep. No containers will be returned.

Mosler urges the kind of co-operation that the city enjoyed last year, enabling the workers to finish their job in a half day. He also stated that there will be no charge for the pick-up, adding that the city encourages residents to clean-up their premises and get rid of all the junk they can.

NTPA will furnish a truck and driver for the work and city employees will help make the collection.

Rudy Hellman Will Succeed His Father As Bank Director

Rudy J. Hellman, manager of the North Texas Producers Association's local plant, is the new director at Muenster State Bank, succeeding his father, G. H. Hellman, who died last month after serving on the board since the bank's organization in 1923.

The new director was elected in a special meeting of other directors Tuesday afternoon.

Present directors of the bank are J. M. Weinzapfel, president; Herbert Meurer, vice-president; Earl Fisher, vice-president and cashier; J. R. Danglimayr, J. W. Fisher, J. W. Hess, Dr. T. S. Myrick and Rudy Hellman.

No one was named to take over Mr. Hellman's title as chairman of the board.

2 Muenster Teams Win Trophies at Saint Jo Tourney

Two Muenster teams, the Sacred Heart Alumni Ladies A team and the Muenster Teachers, won trophies at the volleyball tournament in Saint Jo last week.

The Alumni ladies took runner-up honors after going to the championship final before losing to F & M Bank of Nocona.

To win their consolation trophy the Muenster Teachers had to dispose of two other home town teams. They eliminated Sacred Heart Alumni Men in the semifinal and J & L Supply in the final.

Still another Muenster team got within sight of a trophy but lost in the finals. SH Alumni B Ladies were bested by Spanish Fort for the ladies consolation prize.

Tigers Nudge Era 7-5; Lose League Game to St. John's

The jinx that has been haunting the Sacred Heart Tigers since the beginning of the baseball season has been broken at last. Playing Era last Thursday afternoon the boys finally had the breaks going their way, and won by a count of 7-5.

Wild pitching by three Era hurlers gave the Tigers their advantage. Ten walks as compared with the four given up by Streg made the big difference when the teams were breaking even on hits and errors. Each team got 5 hits and made 5 errors. Streg struck out 11 while the visiting trio whiffed only 3 Tigers.

Zimmerer, with a bases loaded double in the fourth was the hitting hero of the game. Others who connected were Pat Hess and Werner Becker.

Things were different again Sunday however, when the Tigers went down by a count of 13-0 in their Academic League tussle with St. John's of Ennis.

The visitors cashed in on 9 hits, 5 walks and a flock of errors. Sacred Heart's opportunities, 2 hits, 2 walks and a few errors, were too scattered to do them any good.

Joe Streg got 4 strikeouts while allowing 5 walks, the visiting pitcher fanned 10 and walked 2.

Health Department Renews Approval of City Water Supply

Muenster remains on the State Health Department's list of cities having an approved water system. The good news was received in an official report from the Health Department last week and was announced at city council's regular meeting Monday night.

The rating, which permits the city to display the Health Department sign saying its public water supply is approved, is based on several factors . . . principally the purity of the water and the efficiency of operating the water department. Many cities of the state are not able to meet requirements for the approved rating.

Deputy Wilson Asks for Orderly Parking at Church

A special appeal for orderly parking at Sacred Heart Church on Sunday and Holydays was made this week by Deputy Sheriff Buck Wilson in co-operation with the pastor, Father Christopher Paladino.

Wilson advises that double parking is the most frequent offense. Besides blocking the exit for other cars the double parked cars have been a serious traffic hazard.

Another offense is parking in front of fire plugs and restricted zones. Wilson said that for obvious reasons the fire plugs must remain accessible at all times, and the restricted zones, those painted yellow at the curb, should be left open to allow more orderly movement of pedestrian traffic.

There will be less confusion and less inconvenience, the deputy said, if all will park properly . . . that is to head into the curb diagonally at approved parking places.

SH Alumni Hosts V'Ball Tournament In Parochial Gym

Volley ball has been going strong at the Sacred Heart gym the first two nights of this week and is due to go even stronger the last three nights.

The 28 teams entered in the tournament currently sponsored by Sacred Heart Alumni have been divided into champ and consolation brackets and are headed for eliminations which will lead to the four final games Saturday night. At the end of the tourney trophies will be presented to the champ, the runner-up and the consolation winner in both the men's and ladies divisions.

Results of the preliminaries were as follows.

MEN'S DIVISION: Lindsay beat Saint Jo Baptist, Sivells Bend beat Spanish Fort, Nocona Independents beat Illinois Bend, O'Neal beat SH Alumni, North Saint Jo beat J & L Supply, Auctioneers beat Bethel Baptist and Allison beat Muenster Teachers.

LADIES' DIVISION. O'Neal beat Lindsay, SH Alumni B beat Spanish Fort, MHS Alumni beat Illinois Bend, Sivells Bend beat Tuesday Nites, Nocona F & M beat Forestburg, North Saint Jo beat VFW Auxiliary and SH Alumni A beat Walsh-Watts.

Four games in each division are scheduled for Thursday and Friday nights leaving one semifinal and the two finals of each division for Saturday night.

Officers Installed Activity Planned By VFW Auxiliary

Formal installation of officers and discussion of coming activity occupied members of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars at their meeting Monday night.

Mrs. John Huchton, retiring president, conducted the business session preceding the installation. Honor Roll requirements for April consisted of a contribution to the Cancer Research Fund and a school of instructions. Members also voted another donation to the Memorial Arch in Austin with inscription of Frank Yosten's name. He was this community's third casualty during World War II. Other names previously inscribed in the memorial arch are those of Robert Weinzapfel and M. J. Endres Jr.

The group made plans for its April Teen Party this Sunday night, discussed plans for a

Meurer, Felderhoff, Hellman and Otto Elected to Council

In the hottest municipal election held here since 1953, Muenster voters flocked to the polls Tuesday and favored Ray Otto over the incumbent, John A. Fisher for the position of Place 5 Alderman on the city council.

Otto had 149 and Fisher had 111 for the total of 260 votes.

The former big contest, and still the biggest on record here was the race of Urban Endres and John Hoffman for the position of mayor. 348 voted that day, 216 for Endres and 132 for Hoffman.

The rest of this year's ticket consisted of three unopposed candidates for the positions of mayor and aldermen 3 and 4.

Herbert Meurer was the candidate to succeed Urban Endres as mayor. Alphonse Felderhoff was the candidate to succeed Meurer as Alderman 3 and Rudy Hellman was a candidate for re-election as Alderman 4.

Muenster FFA Boys Dated to Appear on WBAP-TV Saturday

Future Farmers of Muenster High Chapter will appear on WBAP-TV Saturday as guests of Farm Editor Calvin Pigg at 12 noon. The chapter's milk testing team will give a demonstration—a repeat of the one which gave them fourth place in state competition last December.

Team mates are Kenny Fette, Robert Voth and Jerry Endres. Chapter Adviser Glenn Hellman will go with them for their appearance on the Town and Country Program.

Chapter members will have other activity in Fort Worth Saturday. A team, members of which were not definitely decided Wednesday, will compete in the Area V milk judging contest.

Next Tuesday the Future Farmers will show their animals in the annual Cooke County 4-H and FFA Fat Stock Show. The following Saturday, April 18, four teams will spend the day at Commerce taking part in four contests: land, poultry, livestock and dairy judging.

Breakfast Honors 50-Year Members of St. Anne's Society

Sunday was a big day for members of St. Anne's Society with attendance at mass and a Communion breakfast in the morning and reception ceremonies for new members and a meeting in the afternoon.

The breakfast honored 50-year members and the reception admitted ten new members.

Members and candidates began the day with attendance at 7:30 mass in Sacred Heart Church and reception of Communion, then went to the parish hall where husbands joined their wives. Total present was about 115.

Twelve of the 19 half-century members were in attendance and each received a gold carnation to wear.

The table centerpiece was a statue of St. Anne surrounded by smilax, carnations and creeping phlox—the arrangement made by Mrs. Nick Miller. All the flowers were contributed by Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Fifty-year member were introduced. They included Mrs. John Schilling, visiting here from Houston. Father Bonaventure led the invocation and gave the benediction. He also made a short talk.

In the afternoon at 2:30 the women were back again for the reception ceremonies in church, Father Bonaventure officiating. In the meeting which followed in the hall new members were welcomed. Mrs. Victor Hartman, president, conducted the business session and Father Bonaventure was in charge of a Question Box.

Half-century members present were Mrs. John Hartman, who gained that distinction during the past year, and Mmes. Joe Walterscheid, Joe Pautler, John Suggestions for a new year's program furnished discussion at the regular meeting of the Bulcher Home Demonstration Club on April 2. Mrs. R. H. Sharp was hostess in her home and served refreshments after adjournment. Members also made plans for their booth at the Cooke County Fair. Mrs. Ernest Robison will be hostess for the meeting on April 16 at which time Mrs. Bernice Thurman will present the program.

Jonesboro and West Memphis, Ark., were visited by Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Walter during the weekend. They took Sister Frances Hofbauer with them to Jonesboro. She'll be at the motherhouse for a month's rest from teaching duties. At West Memphis the Walters visited their daughter, Sister Verona (Rose Mary). They also enjoyed seeing Sister Cabrini, former teacher here, who is on the teaching staff there this year.

Sunday observing three birthdays and two wedding anniversaries occurring this month.

Birthday honorees were Mr. Walterscheid, the couple's six-year-old twin granddaughters Denise and Darlene Walterscheid, and their one-year-old grandson Darrell Walterscheid. Wedding anniversaries observed were Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Walterscheid's thirty-second and Mr. and Mrs. Denis Walterscheid's seventh.

All of the honorees received gifts and home movies and flash pictures were made.

Centerpiece for the dinner table was a twin cake arrangement with six candles inscribed with "Denise and Darlene."

Little Darrell had already had his one-candle cake and eaten it at a party Friday when his parents, the Julian Waltersheids, entertained with a family gathering in their home. In addition to the paternal grandparents and family, the maternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. George Gehrig and their family attended Darrell's party.

Club Group Visits Chandler Gardens

Several cars of Civic League and Garden Club members made a trip to Weatherford Sunday afternoon to visit the Chandler Gardens. Their husbands were invited to make the tour with them.

The local group was especially interested in the wisteria and azaleas, said to be at their best at this time.

Mrs. T. S. Myrick stopped in to see her mother, Mrs. Pauline Bradshaw and her sister, Miss Lillie Bradshaw at their Weatherford home where another of Mrs. Myrick's sisters, Mrs. J. O. Miller of Artesia, N. M., was visiting. She joined the Garden Clubbers on the tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Luke stopped at Pilot Point to visit her folks and left their little boys there with her mother until they returned.

More than 4000 persons visited the Gardens Sunday, the local group was told.

FAMILY REUNION MARKS FIRST COMMUNION DAY

Her granddaughter's First Communion Sunday was the reason Mrs. M. J. Endres went to Dallas for the weekend as a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Endres. Jeannie Endres, the little communicant, rated a lot of attention and was the honoree at a family reunion. Joining Mrs. Endres at her son's home were her daughters, Sister Agnes of Beaumont and Sister Irma of Sherman.

They all attended mass in St. Monica's Church where 150 children were in the Communion class. Leonard Endres and children Jeannie and Nickie came to Muenster for his mother Friday. Sunday Leonard and daughter Suzy delivered Sister Irma back to Sherman and Mrs. Endres back to her home here.

Relatives, Friends Meet Danish Bride At Dinner Party

About 150 relatives and friends joined in a get-acquainted dinner party honoring Mr. and Mrs. James Hess Saturday night in the parish hall.

Center of attraction was James' bride of 10 weeks, the former Birthe Nielson, who had just arrived from Denmark. She's a charming young lady, speaks English and a few other languages, and had a busy time meeting people and answering questions.

She's fluent in Danish, French and German besides speaking English but finds some difficulty in understanding current Americanisms and modern slang.

Virgilia and Charlotte Schilling registered guests including Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schroeder and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schroeder and daughter of Windthorst and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans of Pilot Point in addition to those from Muenster, Lindsay and Gainesville.

The newly married couple received a shower of gifts for their home. Until they get settled they are staying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hess.

Records Discussed At 4-H Meetings

Members of Sacred Heart's 4-H clubs heard talks on record keeping at their April meetings. Mrs. Yvonne Jenkins met with the girls and D. B. Wheeler was with the boys.

Both groups were given instructions on completing their records on demonstrations and other activity through the year and were told to have the books ready to turn in at the May meeting.

Senior girl's club added five new members recently and these with other recent new members received record books.

Other business at the girls' meetings was discussion of the annual dress revue. Additional discussion at the boys' meetings centered on the coming Livestock Show to be held in Gainesville.

Mrs. Hartman Hosts Get-Together Club

Mrs. John Hartman was hostess for the Get-Together Club's April meeting, entertaining in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Al Walter. Twelve members and guests enjoyed a progressive 42 series and refreshments of pie and coffee.

In the games, Mrs. Al Walter led the scoring and Mrs. W. H. Endres drew the door prize.

Guests joining members for the afternoon were Mrs. Albert Dangelmayr, Mrs. Joe Hoenig and Mrs. John Kathman.

called "Intourist." Some of these people have been misled by what they saw. Almost without exception what they saw was what the Communist government wanted them to see. The people carefully prepared for such conversation by the Communist propaganda machine. Hardly anyone in Russia today would dare utter one word detrimental to the Communist dictatorship. They must praise it. They know it would mean death to do otherwise.

Truth About Russia
 Many people have gone to Soviet Russia in recent years and have experienced "red carpet" tours under the guidance of (and policed by) the government agency

For this reason it is important for Americans to have access to the true facts about Communist Russia. During nine and a half years as a prisoner-slave of the Communists, an American, John Noble, talked with tens of thousands of Russians from every section of the Soviet Union. With his own eyes he saw many sections of Russia — where American tourists never go — and during three years of hard labor in the coal mines of Vorkuta north of the Arctic Circle, he made friends and gained the confidence of thousands of Russians.

Behind Red Carpet

When John Noble finally was released by the Communists, after the personal intervention of President Eisenhower, he came back to America with facts which nobody gets on the "red carpet" tours. His facts expose the true nature of Communism as an evil, Godless, brutal force using starvation, mass murder, inhuman torture and brainwashing to force its will wherever it gains control. His facts also explode some previously held conceptions about Communist Russia. Here are some of those facts:

1. There are 28,000,000 people in prison slave labor camps in the Soviet Union.
2. Most of the production methods in the Soviet Union are primitive.
3. The population is not 210 million as officially stated, but 160 million.
4. The average Russian citizen has only three years of education ("Even the Soviets admit," says Noble, "that an educated Soviet Union could not be controlled by the Communists.")
5. Only the elite, as chosen by the Communist Party as Party members, receive higher education.

Survived Starvation

John Noble, a rugged youth in his 20's, survived several starvation periods, in seven prisons in which he was kept. Tens of thousands of prisoners died during these periods. Noble was assigned the task, in two prisons, of disrobing and checking the clothing of the corpses, and was obliged to watch as other prisoner-survivors rolled gasoline drums out into the prison courtyards and burned the daily toll of corpses, like cordwood.

He finally, by travel stages through the whole of eastern Russia, arrived at Vorkuta, within the Arctic Circle, one of more than 200 slave labor camps. There were more than a half million slaves from 72 nations at Vorkuta. Temperatures ranged down to 70 degrees below zero. "Our bunks," John Noble relates, "were long wooden shelves about six feet wide—in narrow barracks half above ground, half below. Eleven inches of space on the bunk were allotted to each man; there were no mattresses, no pillows, no blankets—just a hard wooden slab."

A Slave's Plight

"In the mornings around 4:45 a.m. the guards came in and chased us up off our shelves. Next we went outside and washed ourselves a bit with snow, then off to the mess hall. We only had two meals a day.

The first meal consisted of a chunk of black bread, a bowl of watery soup with a few cabbage leaves in the bottom. After returning from work in the evening the second meal consisted of a bowl of cabbage soup, a scoop of porridge and a small piece of fish.

"Of course all the people were under 100 pounds in weight. The mine I first worked was 1.3 miles from our camp. The prisoners made the trip through a 40-foot wide barbed wire corridor, accompanied by armed guards and police dogs. At the mine shafts, we received our lamps and descended down 900 feet to work under the most primitive conditions. "Every day new prisoners were coming into the camps. For the first two or three weeks these people were afraid to talk to fellow prisoners, but then they would start unloading. Some were from the defense plants, some from the Kremlin itself, some from the farms, some from colleges and universities — all 'enemies of the State.'" This was one of his sources of facts about Soviet Russia.

Read John Noble's book — "I Was A Slave in Russia" (Devlin-Adair).

Cavalry still lives in Scotland, as exemplified by an incident that took place on a ferry boat during a rough crossing. As spray came flying over the decks, the skipper called down to the men below: "Is there a mackintosh down there big enough to keep two young ladies warm?" "No," a voice replied, "but there's a Macpherson willing to try."

The Raymond Davidsons and family of Fort Worth spent the weekend at his ranch home south of Marysville.

John Marcus Duffey of Fort Worth was here Saturday, spending the day planting Bermuda grass on his farm, and dropping in on the Bill Moons for a visit.

The W. F. Davidsons accompanied the Bill Roe family of Westview to Garland last Monday to see Mrs. Davidson's brother John Baker who recently underwent surgery.

A successful three-day revival closed at the Baptist Church Sunday night. Rev. Billy Whitt of Fort Worth conducted the preaching services, Rev. M. D. Bishop, pastor, was song leader and Mrs. Rafe McElreath was pianist. Visitors were present Sunday from Gainesville, Muenster and Sivealls Bend.

The W. F. Davidsons and the Charles Davidson family attended the Baker reunion Sunday at Leonard Park in Gainesville. Sixty-four people from 26 families were present for a picnic dinner, visiting and picture taking. They came from Cooke County, from Austin, San Antonio, Lampassas, Dallas, Aubrey, Greenville, Celina, Garland and Whitesboro and from Tulsa, Sperry, Wilson and Ada, Okla.

CARD OF THANKS
Many thanks to everyone for many kindnesses since Larry and I were hurt in a car accident. We appreciated the cards, visits and gifts while we were in the hospital and are grateful for the prayers. Every thoughtful deed meant much to us.

Truck Load Clothes Sent to Orphanage By Mission Circle

The parish Mission Circle's most recent shipment of help for the needy has gone to a Colored orphanage in Fort Worth.

Mrs. Joe Swirczynski, mission chairman, has reported a large pickup truck load has been delivered. It included clothes, shoes, bedding, furniture, dishes and kitchen utensils.

Some weeks ago after the orphanage lost everything in a fire, Mrs. Swirczynski — who has become known on practically a national scale for getting things to the needy—was asked to help this orphanage.

The request came at a time when the mission chairman had disposed of practically everything on hand and so she sent out an appeal for contributions for this charity. The response was wonderful and she received a huge amount of donations, brought to her home where she maintains the mission project by turning one room over to this activity.

She sorted and packed and had everything ready to pick up when the orphanage manager came for it.

SH Seniors to See Carlsbad Caverns

Sacred Heart High graduates are getting ready for their senior trip, planned for the weekend of April 16. Their destination: Carlsbad Caverns. They also plan stop-overs at places of interest going and returning.

Mrs. Bob Swirczynski has definitely decided to accompany the students. Other sponsors will decide before time who will make the trip with the group. They'll leave here Thursday evening and return Sunday evening.

Delbert Walterscheid week-ended at Abilene with Air Force buddies and was joined by Miss Margaret Chancey for a visit in Merkel with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Chancey. He enjoyed seeing Don Ray Moon and was an overnight guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Jones at Abilene.

Weekending here were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Henscheid of Dallas who divided their time between their parents, the Leo Henscheids and Ray Owens. They took their little niece Terry Sue Hermes of Lindsay back with them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bernauer to Decatur Sunday for a visit and Mrs. A. H. Rebirthish drove with the L. W. Flusches.

Local News BRIEFS

Getting settled in their home at Munday are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Walterscheid and children who moved there during the weekend. Earl was transferred to that area by the oil company which employs him to be more centrally located in the district he serves as a salesman.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Huchton are settled in their home on Fourth Street, moving there the past week from the house adjoining the Rock Station. They quit the service station business this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Damien Hellman have named their infant son Donald Paul. His godparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Henscheid of Dallas who went to Irving for their nephew's christening.

Returned home are Mrs. Tom Gallery and daughter Michele who took the train Friday afternoon for the trip following a week's visit with her parents, the John Fettes and family. The two are no doubt the envy of all their New York friends. While the big city was having snow and real winter Mrs. Gallery and Michele were basking in Texas sunshine and took a suntan back to show New Yorkers.

Spending Sunday here were Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Laake of Dallas. They visited his sister Angela Laake and niece Rosa Driever and the J. M. Weinzapfels. Mr. and Mrs. Weinzapfel entertained in their home with a dinner party honoring the visitors.

Mable Covington, operator at Angie's Beauty Shop, has moved here from Forestburg and is at home in the cottage at Clarence Hellman's Mable's husband, Bobby Covington, is a civilian worker with the Air Force in Japan.

Sunday visitors with Jim Walker and his mother, Mrs. Ada Walker, were his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Luttmann and three daughters of Valley View. Joining them for an afternoon visit were Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Luster.

Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel's sister, Mrs. Lucy Jensen of Canon City, Colo., writes from Kansas City, Mo., telling of a vacation visit there with a daughter and son-in-law who will soon be moving to Palm Beach, Fla. After the visit in Missouri, Mrs. Jensen will go to Indiana to visit another daughter before she returns to Colorado.

Muenster boys who are students at Subiaco ended a long Easter vacation Sunday. The group joined other students at Sherman where they boarded the school bus. Paul Fisher and Andy Schoech provided cars from here to Sherman. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Fetsch and daughter brought their son Jimmy here to join the group on the rest of the trip and returned to Rhineland after having dinner with the Paul Fisher family.

Weekending with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Henscheid were their children, Mr. and Mrs. John Kelley and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Darilek of Fort Worth. Joining them and the rest of the family for Sunday dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Henscheid were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Metzler and sons Mark and Jerry of Gainesville.

The Herman Moster family has moved from East Cross street to make their home in the farm house recently vacated by the Glenn Hellmans who are home on Mrs. G. H. Hellman's farm. In another move the Tom Hamilton family changed residences. Formerly on Main Street in the Fisher house they're now on East Fourth Street in the Hoe-debeck house.

Mass and Reception Observe W. J. Schmitz Silver Anniversary

An anniversary mass in St. Peter's Church and a reception in the Lindsay Hall observed the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Schmitz, both natives of Lindsay, who were married in the same church April 3, 1934. Rev. Alcuin Kubis officiated at the anniversary mass Saturday at 4:30 p.m. and directed the renewal of the couple's wedding vows. Their son, Billy Schmitz, served as an acolyte with Doyle Voth and Don Woods. Paul Joseph Schmitz of Fort Worth, another son, and Wilfred Bezner, a nephew, ushered. Mrs. Schmitz, a talented musician and church organist for the parish, was replaced at the organ by a daughter, Judy Schmitz, for the anniversary service. The choir sang and Mrs. Ben Hermes and Mrs. Bruno Zimmerer, vocalists, presented a duet, "Heart of Jesus."

About 150 relatives and friends joined the silverweds in the observance and signed the guest register at the reception. In charge of the registrations were Florence Ann Jenkins of Dallas and Gerrie Trubenbach of Muenster, nieces of the honorees.

Attendants at the wedding 25 years ago were attendants again. They are his sister Agnes, now Mrs. Wesley Stewart of Dallas, and Mrs. Schmitz's cousin, Henry Zimmerer of Lindsay.

Dinner tables were grouped in U shape with the honorees' section marked by a handsome cake ornamented with silver wedding bells and roses and topped with a silver 25. The crystal stand which held the cake was used at the wedding in 1934 and graced the table also at the wedding of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schmitz, 52 years ago.

Mrs. Schmitz is the former Cecilia Wiese, a daughter of the late Paul Wiese and Mrs. Anna Wiese of Lindsay. She has been organist of St. Peter's Church for almost 30 years. Mr. Schmitz works for Texas Instruments at Dallas.

They are the parents of seven children: Paul Joseph who is employed in Fort Worth, Mrs. Edward Sandmann of Lindsay and Maxine, Judy, Patty, Carolyn and Billy, at home, and one grandchild, Susan Sandmann.

For the anniversary observance Mrs. Schmitz wore a navy blue nylon crepe dress with black and white accessories and a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Stewart wore a black faille dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Joe Lehnertz assisted by Mrs. Conrad Jostwerner and Mrs. Tony Voth catered the dinner.

Among out of town guests in addition to those from Cooke County were: Richard Schmitz of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lueb of Kenefic, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dudenhoefler of Grandfield, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dieter, Leonard Wiese and Mrs. Wesley Stewart and family, all of Dallas, and Brother Louis Fuhrmann of Subiaco, Ark.

Johnie Schmitt of Dorchester visited here Monday with his mother, Mrs. Lena Schmitt.

Discussions on how to keep record books and about the annual dress revue occupied members of the Lindsay Junior 4-H Club at their April meeting. Mrs. Yvonne Jenkins met with the girls. Patsy Hermes, president, presided in the presence of 24 members. Betty Haverkamp and Annette Fuhrmann led the group in a song after the business session.

Visiting here is Brother Louis Fuhrmann of Subiaco who is the house guest of his parents, the H. S. Fuhrmanns and is also visiting other relatives including his sister, Mrs. Ray Hess and family at Muenster. Brother Louis has a two-week vacation. He accompanied his parents home after they attended the new church consecration ceremonies in Subiaco. Making the trip with the Fuhrmanns was Mrs. Alfons Koesler Sr. For her it was an opportunity to visit her son, Father Leo Koesler at the Abbey.

Arkansas and Oklahoma were visited by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hess and her aunt, Mrs. Fred Gruber, who have returned from a car trip. They saw the new St. Benedict's Church in Subiaco and attended the Pontifical Mass of Thanksgiving offered by the Rt. Rev. Abbot Michael Lensing. At Fort Smith they enjoyed a visit with Father Conrad Herda, former Lindsay pastor, then at Shawnee on the way home they were guests of the Frank Schmidkofer. Mr. Schmidkofer is a brother of Mrs. Gruber and uncle of Mrs. Hess.

Lindsay CYC Group Provides Uniforms For Baseball Team

Members of the Lindsay CYC who in February took over the job of providing uniforms for the high school boys' baseball team, have completed that project.

At their recent meeting a report showed $190 had been collected and invested in uniforms.

During the program following business, Lorine Voth and Dolores Hess gave spiritual readings and Leroy Neu and Kenneth Zimmerer were appointed to give the spiritual for the next meeting.

Michael Fuhrmann, president, conducted the meeting in the presence of Father Alcuin who led the opening and closing prayer.

was only raising chicken feed. As he put it, his only offense was "using land for producing crops."

Then he pointed out that the government itself is more guilty of crop production than he is. In 1955 the Bureau of Reclamation put 136,000 additional acres into production, adding far more to the surplus problem than he ever did. Anyone has to admit that he had a point there, but common sense doesn't count when the law reads otherwise.

Despite all this, it seems that reason still might have prevailed if Yankus had been farming a smaller wheat field . . . specifically 30 acres instead of 36.

Back in 1955 Secretary of Agriculture Benson sponsored legislation to provide that marketing penalties would not apply if a farmer produced wheat only for feed or seed. The bill passed the Senate but was not acted upon by the House. Again in 1956 Benson urged passage of the bill and it was finally passed by Congress in 1957 but with a clause limiting such production of wheat to not more than 30 acres.

That seems to close the case of Stanley Yankus. With J. Evetts Haley Jr., who was fined for doing the same thing in Oklahoma, he goes down in American history as a martyr for a worthy cause. Perhaps, however, their spirit and sacrifice will not have been in vain. With the evil of bureaucratic folly so clearly pointed out, Congress may still decide to make a change.
