

Soaking Showers Improve Prospect For Area's Crops

Moisture conditions in the Muenster area made a big improvement during the past weekend as fine soaking showers over a three day period brought a total of 1.18 inches, practically all of which remained where it fell.

As a result the crop outlook for the community took a definite turn for the better. Based on his contact with area farmers, SCS Technician Emmitt Yoder said that prospects are fair to good for every crop except fall oats.

Wheat looks especially good. The total of 1.78 inches since the beginning of the month is enough to carry the crop through for a nice yield, provided the weather cooperates the rest of the time. The same applies to spring oats. With time for more growth and seed development, it has a chance to do well. Fall oats, however, is too far advanced to get substantial help from the showers.

Hay crops are also getting a lift from the rain. Because of the prolonged dry spell they have already passed the normal dates for first cuttings, but have a good chance to yield well in the future. Pasture growth, likewise retarded, can make good from now on if favorable weather continues.

Row crops face the same possibilities. Cool weather has helped them hold out nicely during the moisture shortage and they are

"Aunt Mollie", 100, Ready to Observe Birthday Sunday

Mrs. Mollie Montgomery will observe her 100th birthday Sunday.

The still alert centenarian, who has resided in the same house at Bulcher where she and her husband set up housekeeping 81 years ago, will celebrate her birthday there Sunday, May 17, with an open house from 2 to 5 p.m.

Mrs. Ed Montgomery and Mrs. August Hyman of Bulcher and Mrs. C. O. Parish of Gainesville will entertain for the occasion.

"Aunt Mollie" as she is affectionately called, was born May 19, 1859, in Bowling Green, Ky., and came to Texas when she was eight years old. She remembers the trip in a covered wagon with four horses and its taking nine weeks. Her husband died in 1908. For about 40 years she shares her home with her son and his wife, the E. J. Montgomerys.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Mrs. C. M. Walterscheid had an operation at Gainesville Sanitarium Monday morning following two days of medical care. She expects to be dismissed this weekend to continue recovery at home.

A welcome change for Mrs. Herman Eberhart is being out of a cast that kept her flat on her back for three months. The cast came off Tuesday. One more week of bed rest and then Katie can start back to walking on crutches. She received a broken left leg near the hip in a car accident Feb. 7, spent six weeks in Gainesville Sanitarium and the rest of the time in bed at home.

Mrs. Tony Wiesman of Gainesville is recovering from dental surgery performed in Denton Monday. She had a difficult wisdom tooth extracted . . . was in surgery an hour and thirty minutes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scoggins and children were in Wichita Falls Wednesday for Vickie's regular checkup. She's progressing nicely, the leaders in her feet and legs apparently back to normal. She will have her next checkup in three months.

Seriously ill and confined to a Dallas hospital is Mrs. DeWitt Langston of Forestburg. She is remembered as the former Patsy Steadham. Mrs. Langston's friends can cheer her with greeting cards by addressing them to Gaston Avenue Hospital Dallas, Texas. Her mother, Mrs. Bruce Steadham, spent Monday at her bedside and other family members make daily visits.

Trustees Name Six Faculty Members For Coming Year

Six members of the Muenster Public School faculty were reappointed by the school board in its regular meeting last Friday night.

L. B. Bruns, superintendent since the resignation of H. H. Homsley early this year, will continue to head the faculty. The other teachers and their renewed assignments are Mrs. H. H. Homsley, homemaking; Mrs. John Mosman, science; Mrs. Bessie Miller, grades 1 and 2; Miss Bettye Dodds, commercial and office; Glenn Hellman, vocational agriculture. Hellman will also be principal if his schedule will permit it.

Teachers due to leave the local staff are Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Holland, Mrs. Jerry Bledsoe, Jim Harris, Boze Ansley and George Lemons. Most of them had other plans for next year and did not submit their applications for reappointment.

Scout Service to Honor Scoutmaster And Five Members

Scoutmaster Nick Miller and five members of his troop will be among honored participants in a Boy Scout service Sunday in Sacred Heart Cathedral, Dallas.

Announcement was received here Tuesday that Scoutmaster Miller has been honored with the St. George Award in recognition for his outstanding service to youth and especially his participation in the Boy Scout program.

The St. George Award is released through the offices of the Dallas-Fort Worth diocesan chaplain of Boy Scouts and comes as a surprise.

This is Mr. Miller's second honor this year. Earlier he was selected as Muenster's Man of the Year by the Lions Club.

The five Scouts who will receive honors have qualified for the Ad Altare Dei medal, the highest award a Catholic Scout can earn. Medal winners are Roy and Tommy Hartman, Jerry and Tommy Mosman and Jerry Taylor. They passed a rugged oral test in Sherman and a rigid written examination in Dallas to qualify. Word of their passing the requirements reached here Monday.

Plans are under way to have the entire troop and parents at the Dallas ceremonies Sunday afternoon at 1:30.

Legislative Snarl Halts Progress on Clear Creek Dams

Hopes of getting an early start on the 55 detention dams planned for the Clear Creek watershed were thoroughly blasted last week by the city of Dallas in the state legislature.

A bill which would have created the Clear Creek Authority to develop and maintain flood control measures on the watershed was scuttled in the House of Representatives after it had passed the Senate.

As a result detention dams planned for the watershed will remain in the planning stage. Soil Conservation Service regulations now require that an authority to maintain reservoirs must be established before the dams can be built. Unless the bill can be introduced and passed in the coming special session it is destined to wait for two years . . . and so are the reservoirs which depend on it.

J. M. Weinzapfel, president of the Clear Creek Watershed Association, said the action is a result of Dallas' efforts to control all water on the upper Trinity watershed.

The blockade, he explained, was achieved by a representative of the city of Dallas demanding amendments that no lakes in the flood control system be allowed to exceed 200 acre feet, also that it would forbid the sale of water to municipalities or development of conservation storage in larger dams. The demands succeeded in delaying the bill until too late.

The maneuver was obviously intended to delay, Weinzapfel said. The first amendment was unnecessary because state law already limits detention reservoirs to 200 acre feet and the second is absurd because sale of water is impractical in a lake that small. Nevertheless the action succeeded in shelving the bill until time ran out.

Societies Elect Mrs. Swirczynski "Mother of Year"

The honor of being selected the first "Mother of the Year" of Sacred Heart Parish has gone to Mrs. Joe Swirczynski.

The 70-year-old housewife, who has reared nine sons and four daughters and has seen them all through school and settled in their own occupations, has extended her interests to include chairmanships in church and civic organizations and has been community mission chairman for the past 15 years. As such she has supervised the distribution and shipping of clothing, bedding, medical and hospital supplies to domestic and foreign missions, orphanages, food and storm disaster victims, homes for the aged and blind, and war sufferers the world over.

Mrs. Swirczynski and her husband live on the same place where they set up housekeeping almost 53 years ago.

For the Mother of the Year the recognition and honor came as a complete surprise. Parish women's societies selected her as the outstanding mother and kept their choice secret until time for presentation of a certificate at the May meeting of the local court Catholic Daughters of America Friday night.

Bids Invited For Building Two Dams

For the second time the state headquarters of the Soil Conservation Service is advertising for bids on construction of the last two detention reservoirs in the Muenster area of the Elm Creek watershed.

The reservoirs, to control drainage on the Dry Elm watershed, are to be located on the Schilling farm and the Bayer and Winstead farms.

On the first invitation for bids several weeks ago the SCS headquarters received only one bid, and rejected it because it was too high. Now it is sending out a second invitation for bids.

Mrs. Steve Moser Heads CDA Court

Annual election of the local court Catholic Daughters of America placed Mrs. Steve Moser at the top of the roster of officers as grand regent.

Other new officers are Mrs. Joe Hoening, vice regent; Mrs. John Mosman, retiring grand regent, lecturer; Mrs. J. W. Fisher, historian; Mrs. Ben Seyler and Mrs. Herbert Meurer, trustees; Mrs. R. N. Fette, organist; Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel, librarian.

Hold-over officers are Proprietess Mrs. Ted Gremminger, Financial Secretary Mrs. Joe Horn, Treasurer Mrs. C. O. Taylor, and Sentinel Mrs. L. A. Bernauer. Trustees with unexpired terms are Mmes Frank Kathman, Ed Cler, Joe Swirczynski and Charley Hellman.

Other business at the May meeting consisted of routine reports and the highlight of the evening was announcement that Mrs. Joe Swirczynski had been selected as Mother of the Year for Sacred Heart Parish. Father Christopher gave an address and presented her a certificate. A social hour and refreshments followed. Twenty-four members were present.

WITH THE MEN IN SERVICE

Getting separated from the Navy this week and expected home by the weekend is Sailor Don Flusche who wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Flusche, that he was leaving Port Chicago in California for Treasure Island to wind up his Navy business. He served three years with sea duty to several foreign countries aboard the Mauna Kea.

Airman and Mrs. John Caughey telephoned Sunday to visit over the line with her mother Mrs. John Kathman, for Mother's Day. They arrived in Peoria, Ill., Saturday night from Puerto Rico and were with his parents. Airman Caughey will be attending a specialized training class near Peoria until some time in July and his wife will stay with his family. The couple plans a visit here before they return to Puerto Rico.

Big Week Ahead For Students of Muenster Schools

Full schedules are ahead for students of both Muenster schools for the coming week.

After Sunday night's baccalaureate service for Muenster High and class night exercises for Sacred Heart High, students of both schools face three rough days of final exams.

Thursday will be the rough day for the two faculties as they work overtime at grading exams and preparing final reports while the youngsters enjoy a holiday.

Friday is checking-out day. Students will return to hand in books and receive their papers and reports and will be excused before noon. Lunch rooms will

Fourth Polio Shots To Be Given Monday

Fourth polio immunization shots, for those who want them, will be available next Monday at the Muenster clinic.

In making the announcement this week Dr. T. S. Myrick emphasized that shots will not be given to start a new series. These are only for persons, about 1000 in all, who have completed the previously recommended series of three shots.

The fourth shot is offered here on advice of Dr. Salk and the Polio Foundation that the additional shot is good insurance in case one of the three shots was ineffective. The charge for a shot will be the usual mass immunization special of $1.00.

Baccalaureate at Muenster High Set For Sunday Night

A short and simple service featuring Father Martin Fischer in the baccalaureate address will mark the Baccalaureate Ceremony for Muenster High School seniors in the auditorium Sunday night at 8 o'clock.

It will open with a processional by Sharon Schumacher after which Rev. Virgil Cowgur, pastor of the Muenster Baptist Church will give the invocation.

Father Martin of Sacred Heart Church will then deliver the sermon.

The service will end with benediction by Rev. Cowgur and the recessional by Sharon Schumacher.

SHH Honor Students Named; Class Night Exercises Planned

Honor students in Sacred Heart High's graduating class have been announced. And end-of-the-year activity has been planned.

Ruth Endres leads the class as valedictorian. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Endres. Tieing in second place and sharing honors as salutatorians are Richard Zimmerman and Sarah Ann Fleitman. Their parents are Messrs. and Mmes Ray Zimmerman and Bruno Fleitman.

This year's Balfour Award, for the student outstanding in scholarship, school and extra-curricular activities, loyalty, dependability and cooperation, goes to Ruth Endres. Runner-up for the award is Roy Swirczynski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Swirczynski.

Along with announcement of honor students, plans for graduation night and other end-of-the-term activities were told.

The three honor students will have the leading roles Sunday night as Seniors and Juniors of Sacred Heart High present their Class Night program at 8 o'clock in the parish hall.

Ruth Endres will give the valedictory message and Richard Zimmerman and Sarah Ann Fleitman will share in giving the salutatory. Roy Swirczynski will be master of ceremonies and Father Christopher will present awards.

Other features on the program are the class will and class prophecy, "stalking the Juniors and (Continued on Page 12)

To Sing at Dallas

Members of the Muenster Men's Choir and their ladies, about 40 in all, will be guests of the Frohsinn Choir of Dallas for a joint concert and dance Saturday night.

The group will leave here by chartered bus about 5:30 Saturday afternoon and will return after the party.

Better Pay Asked For Fighting Fire In Rural Areas

Efforts to get more substantial payment for fighting fires in rural areas were instituted Monday by the cities of Muenster and Gainesville in a hearing before the Cooke County Commissioners Court.

Contending that the small payment of $12.50 for a fire run is inadequate, representatives of both cities asked the court to set up a pay schedule which would maintain equipment and eventually help replace it. Besides the county's $12.50, both cities ask farmers to pay $12.50 for each fire call answered, but many do not pay.

Their suggestion was that the county provide $5,000 a year for the service, each city to receive $2,000 and the remaining $1,000 to be pro-rated between them in proportion to the number of fire calls answered.

This was described as the method used by Grayson County to compensate its cities for fighting rural fires.

The men explained that, with exception of the small payment by the county, the expense of fighting rural fires falls entirely on the two cities. Also that a method should be worked out by which the rural area would pay more toward its own protection. Since the area concerned comes under the jurisdiction of the county, the commissioners court was asked to take up its part.

One method suggested was to (Continued on Page 12)

8th Grade Class At Public School Graduates Friday

Bobbie Jean Tuggle as valedictorian and Diane Horn as salutatorian will head the ceremonies at Muenster Public School's elementary graduation services next Thursday night, May 21, in the school auditorium.

Both of the girls, selected on their grades the past two years had over-all averages of A.

Others on the program will be Superintendent I. B. Bruns as master of ceremonies, Board President B. J. Sicking to present diplomas and Instructor George Lemons to introduce students and list their achievements. A person to give the invocation and benediction has not been named up to now.

After the short commencement service the graduates with their parents and guests will have cake, drinks and a dance in the lunch room.

Auctioneers Take League Lead With Win Over Grocers

A big second inning for a thrilling 3-2 decision over Tom Thumb Tuesday night gave the Muenster Auctioneers a tie for top spot in the County Softball League standing.

The pay-off splurge was partly earned and partly donated as the Tom Thumb hurler allowed the team to bat around, giving up four walks and a pair of singles. Cecil Cain led off with a walk, Harris singled, Walterscheid walked and Petrus poled out a 2-run single. Two more walks after that forced in the third run. For the rest of the game the (Continued on Page 12)

Relief for the state's teacher shortage seems to be in the making according to a bill that has just passed in the House of the state legislature. It provides that any college graduate could teach school in Texas, at least for a year or two, without benefit of the special course in Education now required of teachers.

The bill would grant a teacher's certificate good for one year to any bachelor's degree holder, and the certificate could be renewed twice. After that the applicant would have to take 12 semester hours of teacher education to continue in the profession.

Reports from Austin show that professional educators are divided on the merits of the plan. Some say it would increase qualified personnel; others that it would attract to Texas schools the misfits and ne'er-do-wells from "all the freshwater colleges" of the nation. The issue, obviously, is whether or not the over-all quality of Texas teachers would be improved by the provision.

By the law of averages one can assume that this newly created school personnel reserve will have both good and poor teachers, just as we find them among beginners who are qualified according to present requirements. School boards that hire them will assume the same risk they always did, and will be faced, as before, with making changes when necessary. A school need not be permanently stuck with poor teachers any more than before.

On the other hand it seems that the greater availability of teachers should tend to improve any school's chances of getting capable teachers. Assuming that superintendents and school boards will carefully consider qualifications and personal traits of applicants, it seems likely that the better prospects, both with and without the Education cards, will be generally preferred over the poorer ones, both with and without Education.

Wise selections from the wider choice stand a good chance of improving the state standards. In the past there have been too many cases of schools accepting what they could get simply because others were not available. As regards the college graduate, the plan, of course, has definite merits. In effect it gives him an opportunity to choose between two professions. After studying for another kind of work he may decide that he prefers teaching. If so he can make the change whereas previously he had to give up the idea or spend additional time in college before he could qualify to teach. Considering the difficulty many have in choosing their courses, it is easy to understand that some do not select the right ones. They as well as the teaching profession can gain by such a new opportunity.

Reports from Geneva already indicate that Western nations are going to have a rough time getting any favorable concessions out of the Russians, either out of this session or the big pow wow which is supposed to follow. The Soviet delegate is already acting up in typical communist fashion.

His insistence that representatives of East Germany, Poland and Czechoslovakia be admitted to the meeting is nothing but a transparent maneuver to create issues on which they can later make concessions without actually conceding anything. Anybody with an ounce of gray matter knows that the three puppet governments have no actual voice in the proceedings whether they are present or not. All they can do is vote with their boss, which in effect gives the Soviet delegate a greater vote than he is entitled to. Other delegates of course will stand pat, and the reds will eventually concede, after which they'll brag their heads off about being agreeable . . . and start the propaganda barrage demanding that the Big Three meet them half way.

More of the same sort of behavior is coming, you can bet on that. There will be one unreasonable demand after the other, followed by red concessions that concede nothing, all cleverly schemed to get the approval of world opinion. Then, with a phony record in their favor they'll settle down to the usual kind of Soviet bargaining. Our chances of accomplishing anything worth while are indeed slim.

Progress so far has already shown that the Big Three is wasting time. There is no such (Continued on Page 12)

Praise Runs High At Sacred Heart's First Science Fair

Sacred Heart High School's first science fair drew a round of praise not only from the more than 1200 persons who viewed the three-day show but also from a trio of judges.

Sister Theresina and Mrs. John Mosman, science department heads at Sacred Heart and Muenster High and Rev. Martin Fischer judged the show. It ran three days, May 7, 8, and 10, in the parochial school gymnasium.

A working model of a rotary oil rig made by Earl Hess was first place winner and the award was a trophy.

Bobby Pels won second on an electric motor and Eddie Joe Schmitt was third on a bacteria display. Their awards were loving cups.

Certificates of Merit went to eight other exhibitors: Jeanine Hofbauer on an avocado plant life cycle, Tommy Mosman on a rocket launcher, Alvin Hacker on a telegraph system, Kathleen McGannon on a sewing machine set-up, Runnie Endres on a steam engine, Ruth Bayer on a display of the human heart with drawings and a model, Alice Walter on a water table, and Claude Bayer on a periscope.

There were more than a hundred displays and those attracting special attention included a telephone set-up by Jo Ann Fisher, the life cycle of a chicken with living models by Rita Fisher and Betty Lansfield and Texas wood types by Jimmy Vogel. There were dozens and dozens of others: model ships and airplanes and rockets, rocks and shells and biology exhibits, charts and drawings.

Formal presentation of awards was made Monday at 9:30 at a general assembly with Father Christopher Paladino in charge. In his address he lauded the students for their work and encouraged them to keep progressing. After that the exhibitors started carefully taking down and moving treasured displays that they and Sister Barbara spent about two weeks setting up.

3rd Order Meeting Slated for Sunday

Members of the Third Order of St. Francis, Sacred Heart fraternity, are reminded of their May prayer service and meeting Sunday afternoon. The meeting was postponed one week so as not to conflict with Mother Day reunions. During the business session the tertiaris will make plans for a reception ceremony on May 22.

The meeting Sunday begins at 2:30 and novices and postulants are asked to be present.

Decatur Church Has May Queen Service

Annual May procession and May Queen crowning for the Church of the Assumption in Decatur was held Sunday at 7:45 a.m.

All of the children of the parish who attend school were in the service. Miss Della Flusche was organist and Mrs. L. W. Flusche was in charge of the procession. The pastor officiated.

Evelyn Flusche, a junior at Decatur High, crowned the statue of the Blessed Mother. Little maids of honor were Debbie Jinecks and Jana Kay Elder. Evelyn wore a blue formal with a white veil and carried a bouquet of pink gladioli. Her attendants were in white.

Blessed Events

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hess announce an eight pound baby boy, born at Muenster Clinic Tuesday, May 12, at 6:40 a.m. He's named Timothy Raymond. Albert and Agnes have seven boys now, and two girls. At Timmy's christening Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Kay Hess were sponsors for their nephew. Gus Knabe is the grandfather.

A boy, their fourth son, arrived for Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Huchton at Muenster Clinic Monday, 6:10 a.m., weighing seven pounds 14 ounces. Welcoming another grandson are Mr. and Mrs. Willie Fuhrmann of Lindsay and Mrs. O. J. Huchton.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mollenkopf Jr. has been named Tina Marie. At her christening Sunday evening her godparents were Mr. and Mrs. L.V. Henry of Gainesville. Tina's birthday is May 6. She weighed in at eight pounds five ounces at M&S Hospital. She's a sister for Cheryl and Vicki Sue and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Henscheid and Mrs. George Mollenkopf Sr.

Mother Day greetings to Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Gobble came Sunday in a phone call from a son Glenn Cathey and family of Norwalk, Calif. They mentioned that they'll be here on vacation about the middle of next month, at least that's the plan now. Mrs. Cathey is remembered as the former Myrtle Friske.

Mrs. Clarence Hudspeth is vacationing with relatives in Madera, Calif. She left on the two-week trip Saturday joining her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Fears and son of Fort Worth in their car. First stop was at El Paso to visit a brother, Jim McCool and family. Two other brothers, former Muensterites, George and Sam McCool and their families live at Madera.

Mr. and Mrs. Ragon McElreath and children, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Morris, and their guest Mrs. Eob Grober and son of Muskogee, Okla., spent the weekend in Electra as guests of the Walter Haverkamps. Mrs. Grober, the former Pat Morris, and her little boy spent a week here with family members. Mr. Grober came for them Thursday of this week.

The Joe Streng family has returned to Modesto, Calif., the last ones, Mr. Streng and son Joe Henry, leaving Wednesday. They waited until Joe Henry had finished final exams at Sacred Heart High. The farm they were occupying has become the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Streng and family.

Guests in the Andy Schoech home for dinner Wednesday and visiting during the afternoon were Mrs. Schoech's sister, Mrs. J. P. Kneupper of Gainesville, her guest, Miss Mary Kneupper of Houston, and her mother, Mrs. George Spaeth of Lindsay. Miss Kneupper showed slides and gave a travel talk on her trip abroad and her pilgrimage to shrines. She was in the last audience of the late Holy Father Pope Pius. Miss Kneupper, a sister of J. P. Kneupper, is vacationing with the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Harris and daughters weekended in Oklahoma City with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Harris.

Reunion Honors

Mrs. J. S. Russell

A Mother's Day reunion with a covered dish dinner Sunday honored Mrs. J. S. Russell at her home in Myra. Her children and grandchildren also brought a shower of gifts.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Niles of Enid, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Burt Russell and three daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Russell and four children all of Whitesboro; the C. D. Mitchells and Nancy, the Charles Bernauers and Leola and the Jimmy Russells; and two sons, all of Gainesville; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Russell and family of Muenster and T. J. Russell of Myra.

In Houston for First Communion

Mr. and Mrs. Al Walter and daughter Sandra and Miss Dorothy Hartman spent the weekend on a trip to College Station and Houston.

First stop was at Texas A&M College where they visited Gene Walter and his parents and sister remained there to be his guests for the Mother's Day program Sunday. Dorothy went on to Houston to attend the First Communion service of her nephew and godchild, Johnny Mason, Sunday morning and to visit her sister, Mrs. Ed Mason and husband and her nephew and nieces, Nancy and Kathy.

Sunday afternoon the Walters went to Houston for a visit in the Mason home, also stopped to see his sister and family, the John O'Dowds. The group also saw the Kenny Wiesmans, Wilbert Vogel and the John Myricks before they started for home.

Mothers Honored At Church Program

All mothers of the First Baptist Church were honored at a special Mother Day program in connection with regular services Sunday morning.

The morning's message, a tribute to mothers, was delivered by the pastor, Rev. Virgil Cowgur, and women of the church were in charge of the program. Gifts were presented to the youngest and oldest mothers present: Mrs. Cecil Roper and Mrs. Don C. Cooke.

Mrs. Roper was pianist and Mrs. Jack Tuggle was song leader. Mrs. Roper also gave a piano-logue entitled "Mother," and Mrs. J. A. Travis and Mrs. Jack Tuggle sang a Mother Day song as a duet.

In a special prayer service Mrs. Sam Tuggle opened, Mrs. Don C. Cooke gave the worship and Mrs. George Hammer dismissed. Mrs. A. T. Tuggle and Mrs. Bob Jones brought the offering.

HER BIRD'S FOR THE ARTS—"Timmy," the parakeet, is a living palette for Mrs. Florence Bishop, of Knockholt, Kent, England. She takes Timmy's moulted feathers and sterilizes them in a hot oven. Feathers are then pasted on glass and the glass is backed with a painted paper background, to produce feather pictures with a three-dimensional effect.

Parochial Pupils Have Spelling Bee

A spelling bee was an added attraction at the Sacred Heart School's Science Fair, where different events were going on almost constantly. The bee was a contest between second and third graders and a large number of parents attended.

First the second grade students spelled down the third grade students. And in the finals Susie Yosten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Yosten, was the champ speller. Diane Wiese was second last up. She missed on "fierce" and Susie got that correct and followed with "Friday" to win the spelling crown.

The second graders won on words out of a standard third grade speller. Mrs. Henry Weinzapfel was pronouncer and Brother Thomas Moster was judge.

Linda Lutkenhaus Arthur Hennigan Say Wedding Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hennigan are honeymooning at an unrevealed destination and will make their home in Muenster when they return. They were married Saturday.

Mrs. Hennigan is the former Rachel Lutkenhaus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lutkenhaus of Saint Jo and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hennigan of Muenster.

The marriage was solemnized here in Sacred Heart Church at 4 o'clock in the afternoon with Father Joseph Koczewski, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Nocona, officiating at the nuptial high mass and directing the exchange of vows.

Rachel, given in marriage by her father, wore an original gown of white Chantilly lace with a short torso bodice, sweetheart neckline outlined in sequins and pearls, long tapered sleeves, and full skirt that swept into a semi-chapel train. Her over-the-face veil of sheer nylon tulle fell to finger-tip length from a queen's tiara of bridal jewels and she carried a white orchid.

Linda Ann Lutkenhaus was her sister's maid of honor in a Nile green bouffant and La Christa Lutkenhaus, a cousin, was bridesmaid wearing a pink bouffant. The dresses, identically designed, were floor length, the skirts fashioned of tiers of tiny ruffles. Their short jackets and head pieces matched their dresses and they wore white gloves and had pink carnation corsages. Their pearl lockets were gifts from the bride.

Brothers of the couple, Larry Hennigan and Jimmy Lutkenhaus, attended the groom and cousins, Sheldon Lutkenhaus and Melvin Wilde, ushered.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a tan sheath ensemble with white accessories and the groom's mother wore pink with black and white accessories. Both had pink carnation corsages. Mrs. Mathilda Wimmer, grandmother of the groom, attended in a navy ensemble and also had a pink corsage.

The wedding reception and dinner, catered by Mrs. Joe Lehnertz, was held in the Muenster Parish Hall for about 150 guests and the wedding dance followed in the VFW Hall. Mary Lou Owen registered guests.

When the couple left on their two-week trip, Mrs. Hennigan was wearing a two-piece moss green outfit with black accessories.

The bride attended school at St. Mary's in Gainesville, Sacred Heart here, and was graduated from Saint Jo High in 1958. The groom is a graduate of Sacred Heart High and served in the Navy as a submariner four years during the Korean War. He was a torpedoman's mate aboard the Redfish. He is employed here with Bayer Brothers Ready Mix Concrete and Construction Co.

Among out of town guests at the wedding, from more distant places, were Mrs. Oscar Detten and family of Amarillo, Mary Catherine Anderson of Houston, Messrs. and Mmes. Terrell Johnson and Eddie Magee and Mrs. Irene Nall of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Hromcik of Fort Worth. Others were present from Saint Jo, Nocona and Gainesville.

In Bonita to spend Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Williams, and to honor Mrs. Williams on Mother's Day were Messrs. and Mmes. John Huchton and children, C. L. Williams and daughter and Henry Huchton from here and the Clint Fletchers of County Line, Okla. Those attending the reunion brought covered dishes for dinner and a shower of gifts for Mrs. Williams.

The Birthday of the Income Tax

Last month was the 46th birthday of the federal income tax. Born in 1913 the tax has, in the past 46 years, grown up to be quite a boy.

The income tax started raising a ruckus right on its natal day away back in 1913. Folks were outraged at the sums that would pour into Washington to meet the rising costs of government. Why, the first year of the national tax levy, $80 million left hometown pockets to journey to treasury coffers. On a per-capita basis that first year, people paid 82 cents each!

In the face of the furor over the birth of the tax, however, fiscal prophets of the day calmly assured the public tax rates would never reach 10 per cent. Somehow, somewhere, their calculations went awry.

Two world wars have brought the income tax thru adolescence to far more maturity than most people think it ought to have at 46 years of age. Rates now run from a low of 20 per cent to a high of 91 per cent of income. Corporate rates stand at 52 per cent.

Per capita income has risen about five times its 1913 level. But per capita tax payments have increased over 427 times. The tax bite per person has risen from 82 cents to some $352.

Also everyone carries a portion of the tax burden, few know how their tax dollars are apportioned. Where does the money go? The facts are startling.

A taxpayer who will send $500 in income tax on to Washington this year will find $297.50 earmarked for defense and other military expenditures. A whopping $32.50 will go toward paying interest on the federal debt—money that is "down the drain" in that it will buy no new government services or even pay for current ones.

Veterans' benefits will claim $33. Needy persons, hospital construction, school lunches and other public welfare projects will require a $27 share.

Foreign aid, libraries in foreign countries, the Voice of America and sundry international commissions and agencies will need $14. Modernization of the Coast Guard, aid to community housing developments, civil defense and disaster programs together with various interstate commission activities will need $14.50.

Farm price supports, the soil bank and rural electrification projects will demand $39. Conservation of national parks and public power will require $11 while another $11 will go to the general administration of the government, primarily personnel costs, record keeping and support of U. S. Territories and possessions.

Something to think about is how much of the above tax money could be saved if sound economies were introduced by the Congress and by federal agencies.

The taxpayers might well reflect that in 1913 people did locally what they wanted done. Today they give their money to the federal government and fight among themselves to see who can get the most back.

Why There Are Jobless

There has been a great deal of discussion of the unemployment problem. A commonly suggested cure is more massive doses of government aid of one kind or another, combined with inflation-breeding government building programs.

But these proposals offer no real cure at all. They are merely alleviations. They deal with symptoms of the disease—and not the disease itself.

Writing in Newsweek, the distinguished economist Henry Hazlitt explains "why there are jobless." He says: "Unemployment is caused mainly by wage rates that have become excessive in relation to productivity or demand. The price of labor services is like the price of anything else. If it is too high in relation to demand, part of the supply will go unsold. The cure for a commodity is to reduce the price to the point where the entire supply can be sold. The cure in the case of labor is to reduce wage rates, in the lines where they are unworkable, to the levels where full employment can be resumed."

This prescription will be highly unpalatable to a great many people. But it is the only prescription which can solve the basic unemployment problem without creating still worse and still more destructive problems. Labor can price itself out of the market—and it has been doing just that in many cases.

5 Billion Dollar Stamp

It took a 20 billion-mark stamp (5 billion pre-war dollars!) to send one letter in Germany in 1923. Germany—as solid and thrifty, a few years before, as this country today.

It can't happen here? Oh, yes, it can! Here's why:

Inflations are caused by—

1. Continued government deficits (we've had them here for 20 years and special me-too interests are demanding hand-outs that will make the deficit worse).
2. Unearned wage increases that force prices up, to pay them.
3. Feather bedding—a waste of wages that has to be paid by higher prices (as this is being written America is in the midst of another strike to force the hiring of needless workmen).
4. Pressure-group subsidies that pay farmers for not working, and so keep food costs artificially high (you pay twice, by taxes and high food prices).

WE CONQUERED THE WILDERNESS

... OR DID WE?

5. Unsound foreign aid that wastes American assets abroad (again you pay twice, by taxes that force up prices and by throwing away assets America needs for strength).

All inflations in history have started small, just as a spark starts the horror of a prairie fire. America is already far past the spark stage—debt, prices, waste are already highest in history. And that means the values of your savings, your life insurance, your pension are plunging downward right now. Everyone who demands government aid, something for nothing, is pouring gasoline on that fire. Remember it.

A MILLION

Just how much is a million? Since it takes 1,000 million to make one billion, don't get the idea that one million must be a measly amount; only three quarters of a million days have passed since Julius Caesar ruled the Roman Empire.

Try counting a million one-dollar bills and you'll really appreciate what a huge chunk of cash it is. Tallying at the rate of 60 bills a minute for a full eight-hour day, five days a week, it would take almost seven weeks to do the job.

And bear in mind that a billion dollars which comes next on the astronomical figures tour is only one-seventieth of the present annual budget and one two-hundred-and-eightieth-part of the national debt.

How do you reach a billion? Here's one way: Ride on the propeller of an airplane traveling at a speed of 300 mph and you'll go around a billion times — if the propeller spins constantly 24 hours a day, seven days a week, for two whole years.

And, if you are not yet dizzy

— and a little scared — we might as well give up at this point.

Enemies of the people!

Writing in the Freeman, E. F. Hutton has something to say about the cost of a necessity used by virtually everyone, in their homes and on their jobs—electricity.

Thirty years ago a kilowatt-hour in the home cost about 7c as compared to an average of around 3c now. In that period, the consumer price index as a whole has followed an absolutely contrary trend, rising 90%.

Mr. Hutton compares the cost of electric energy used in the average home as compared with the same amount of energy supplied by human muscle. The home consumes some 3,000 kilowatt-hours a year, for which it pays around $90. It would take 40 hard-working able-bodied house servants to provide the home with that much energy. They'd cost at least $80,000, not counting board and room or vacations.

So Mr. Hutton says: "This is what the privately-owned electric power industry, together with the manufacturers of electric appliances—from washing machines to curling irons, have done for you."

"Yet the public power socialists call them 'enemies of the people!'"

The fact is, of course, that of all the goods and services of consequence used in the home, the cost of power is one of the smallest items in the family budget. And, with a very small number of exceptions, the same thing is true of business and industry. In the average business, power costs run around one per cent of the total overhead.

Why, then, has the production and distribution of electricity been the primary target of the socialists and the socialist-

What Does Faith In God Mean?

By Pat O'Brien, Movie and Television Star

During World War II, I was privileged to be in an entertainment unit in the CBI. Officially, that meant the Chira-Burma-India Theater. We flew 68,000 air miles, stopping at remote pinpoint places to try and make our boys laugh a little. We visited spots I had never heard of before, but it was well worth the effort.

Having spent some time at these distant jungle outposts, I have no doubt of their existence. Along with the GI's who slugged and sweated it out there, I had seen these places myself. But most Americans believe such farflung outposts in Burma, Trinidad, the Himalayas exist because they have faith — a human faith — in the maps, and the people who have told them these distant spots are a fact.

O'Brien

HUMAN FAITH plays a large role in our day to day living: every time we buy a can of peas at the local store we don't expect to find diced carrots inside; each time we board a bus marked "Downtown District" we don't expect to end up at the city limits. We simply have faith that the people who packed the can of peas and the driver who is in charge of the bus are telling the truth. Without human faith it would be impossible to lead a normal life. But there is another kind of faith which is more important than human faith. This is religious faith.

RELIGIOUS FAITH, like human faith, believes on the word of another. Religious faith is belief in the truths which God has revealed to us. The foundation of this belief is the authority of God himself. If I believe what a reporter says in the paper or on television, I have reason to believe the word of God, for God is Truth.

Religious faith believes everything God has revealed to us—that He is the Creator of all things including our immortal souls and our free will; that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity; that heaven is a reward for the just and hell is a punishment for the wicked. Some people find it difficult to believe in hell because they say a good God will never condemn anyone to everlasting punishment. But we're not free to pick and choose when it comes to the revelations of God. We are expected to take it all.

Millions of Americans flounder when it comes to religious faith. The truly important part of faith is that one learns some new truth or has the old truth confirmed by someone who should know. Many Americans, however, are so vague in their notion of faith that they look for faith independent of truth.

Faith in God means that we take His word for certain truths. Faith cannot be in faith itself; Faith must have an object. Faith is a mere source of knowledge. Without its connection to knowledge, there would be no such thing as faith. We have true religious faith when we believe everything that has come from the lips of God. When our people return uncompromisingly to the truths revealed to us by God, then America will be a truly religious country.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Now that it has rained, look out for weeds, warns Soil Conservation Service.

With improved moisture conditions, new plantings of Bermuda grass and King Ranch Bluestem will need spraying with 2-4-D, or mowing to control weeds and give the grass a chance.

Fred Hennigan and Weldon Dennis are doing better than that. They are cultivating their plantings of Coastal Bermuda. This eliminates weeds and helps spread the Bermuda by covering the joints on the runners, causing them to take root.

Forty Bermuda grass waterways and over five hundred acres of Bermuda, plus about a hundred acres of King Ranch Bluestem and Side Oats Grama have been planted in this area during the past four months. If proper maintenance is given to these plantings at this time, so that a good stand and cover will be obtained, they will greatly add to the "conservation look" of the Muenster Community's part of the Upper Elm-Red Soil District.

Adolph Walterscheid and his sons have completed a mile and a half of channel type terraces on their farm south of Muenster. They built the terraces with their farming equipment using the "island method" of construction. This method gives a broad base to the terrace ridge with easy-to-farm side slopes. The terraces empty on a wide grassed waterway that was seeded to Bermuda by Adolph and his boys three years ago. These terraces protect about 25 acres of sloping land.

Prospects for a crop of seed from sweet clovers and button clover have improved greatly with the good rains. All plantings of these clovers should not be grazed so that maximum growth and set of seed will be allowed. A hive of bees for every three acres of clover will also greatly increase the set of seed.

Sweet clovers when properly managed can add up to 50 and 75 pounds of nitrogen per acre through the action of the nitrogen-fixing bacteria in root nodules and by the returning of residue to the soil. This is the equivalent of a spread of 200 pounds of ammonia nitrate per acre. This addition to the fertility of the soil, together with the chance of a cash crop from the seed, makes proper management of clovers a paying practice.

IT HAPPENED
20 YEARS AGO

May 12, 1939

More than 400 attend Golden Jubilee Flower Show; in addition to flowers, exhibits include antiques, paintings, needlecraft and early scene of the community. Both local schools will give year's finals with state exams. Henry Trachta and Werner Endres places win best yard contest sponsored by Civic League and Garden Club. Bank gets permit and secures brick for new building. Orval Malone takes over as assistant Scoutmaster. Public school gives play to finance trip to Carlsbad. Marie Beyer and Frank Sandmann marry at Lindsay. Mrs. Al Schad is recovering from a major operation. One inch rain helps grain crops.

15 YEARS AGO

May 12, 1944

Ben Hellman, 73, Muenster's first mayor, dies Sunday. Entertainment for service men's wives is arranged here; will have weekly social sponsored by Civic League and Knights of Columbus. Olivia Haverkamp receives nurses diploma in Fort Worth. Mr. and Mrs. John Tempel observe 31st wedding anniversary with dinner party. Herbie Herr, just returned from overseas, is here on furlough. Twenty-nine are in class for Solemn Communion here Sunday. Nine members join St. Anne's Society in reception ceremony and bring membership to 160. Combined private and solemn Communion service for 60 children takes place at Lindsay Sunday. Cpl. Francis Wiese writes that he has reached his overseas destination.

10 YEARS AGO

$300,000 bond issue for new public school building gets approval of Muenster voters; vote is 363 for and 16 against. Short deluge and hail cause minor crop damage; gauge shows 1.1 inch of rain. New Shiloh Baptist Church is dedicated at homecoming Sunday. Muenster Airport introduces aerial spraying service. J. B. Klement is elected president of Muenster school board. Mrs. Earl Fisher has surgery at Gainesville Sanitarium. Sodality and first graders take leading part in annual May Queen crowning ceremony here. Scoutmaster Nick Miller and troop plan retreat to be held at Texoma with Rev. R. A. Tynan as retreat master. Pat Hennigan is a patient at the V. A. Hospital in McKinney. Miss Clara Trachta of Los Angeles, Calif., is here for a visit with relatives.

5 YEARS AGO

Soaking 3.4 inch rain does wonders for local grain crops. J. H. Bayer is named top conservation farmer of Zone 3 and receives award with other conservationists at annual awards banquet. Sacred Heart Tigers beat Texarkana Eagles and enter state champ baseball playoff in Austin. Thirty-eight Muenster students will receive diplomas in commencement exercises this year. Fifty-eight children make up First Communion day Sunday. Dorothy Mae Walterscheid and Lee Roy Yosten exchange nuptial vows and become first couple to be married in new Sacred Heart Church. Joe Noggler is second in 100 and 220 dashes at state track meet. Kyle Waggoner takes over management of service station in Saint Jo.

Marysville News

By Mrs. B. G. Lyons

MARYSVILLE — Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moon were a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Max Harrell and children Rhonda Kim and Rex of Sherman and a brother-in-law, T. J. Gregory of Long Beach, Calif. He ended a vacation in Cooke County and left for his home Monday. Airman Don Ray Moon was also with the family. He is on a month's leave from Abilene Air Force Base . . . is working on a oil rig.

Mr. and Mrs. Nig Wilson and family joined other relatives Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Hattie Burk in Myra for a reunion and dinner. Those attending brought a covered dish meal. Another daughter and her family, the J. T. Richards of Gainesville, and a son, T. J. Burk and family of Denison were among those present. In the afternoon the group attended a singing at Shiloh.

Weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shifflet were their daughter and son-in-law, the Robert Poraths and daughter Sandra of Dallas. Joining them for an all-day visit Sunday were the Reagon Shifflets and son Larry Gene, also of Dallas.

Proudly showing their infant daughter and introducing her to members of the congregation Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wallis of Dallas. It was baby Elizabeth Ann's first visit in Marysville.

Local rain gauges showed slightly over one inch of moisture fell here Sunday.

Mrs. Marie Stiles of Gainesville came for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Lyons, Sunday and they attended church services, then had a dinner honoring Mrs. Lyons in the Stiles home. In the afternoon they visited at Gainesville Sanitarium with Mrs. Stiles' son-in-law, Bill Pace, who was a patient for medical care.

Before Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Holcombe left to return to their home in Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Lyons visited them at Gainesville Sanitarium. Mr. Holcombe suffered a heart attack shortly after arriving in Cooke County about two weeks ago when the couple came to visit relatives and spent the entire time in the hospital. He was dismissed Saturday. A son came for them and took them home.

Local News BRIEFS

Mrs. Lucy Jensen writes her sister, Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel, that she's enjoying a visit in West Palm Beach, Florida. She was visiting her daughter and son-in-law in Kansas City, Mo., and they moved to Florida so she joined them on the trip by car . . . will return to her home in Canon City, Colo., from there.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Trubebach and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Trubebach, enjoyed a pleasant visit with relatives in Tocola, Ill., when they were there for the silver sacerdotal jubilee of Father John Schumacher, a cousin of Mrs. Trubebach Sr. They were among those attending the religious ceremony marking Father John's 25 years as a priest and were also at a family dinner and an all-parish reception honoring the jubilarian. Among other relatives at the day's events were Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Rohmer. The Trubebachs stopped in Pesotum on their way back to visit other relatives. While his parents were away, little Mike Trubebach had a vacation of his own with his uncle and family, the Joe Trubebachs.

Sandra, Cindy and Linda Insel returned to their home in Gainesville Sunday afternoon after a three-day visit with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kathman. The little girls were here while their baby brother Eddie was sick with an ear infection.

VISITORS COMPLIMENTED AT 3 FAMILY PARTIES

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kupper and their children, spending the weekend here from Marlin, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Endres, were honorees at three events beginning with supper Saturday night.

That courtesy was extended by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Endres at their home where they had a barbecue steak supper. Sunday morning a family breakfast was held in the Val Fuhrmann home and at noon Mr. and Mrs. Paul Endres entertained with a dinner party.

YOUNGSTERS MAKE TRAIN TRIP BEFORE KATY QUILTS

Biggest thrill of their young lives was a train ride for the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sicking and the five children of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lutkenhaus.

The youngsters and their mothers rode the Katy from Saint Jo to Muenster Monday evening. Mrs. Bill Kathman also made the trip. Mr. Lutkenhaus took the group to Saint Jo and met them again at the depot here. It was the first time on a train for Mary Jo, Weldon and Carol Ann Sicking and also for Walter, Norma, Dennis and Leo Lutkenhaus.

Quite a number of folks along the railroad line have been treating their children to train rides before the Katy discontinues service this Friday. And a large number of people have made reservations to make the last run on May 15.

Harry Robinson, 112 West Main, HO5-5231, Gainesville

She was telling an acquaintance about her friends. "Yes," she said, "my friend Maud is only twenty-five, but she's been married three times, and all her husbands have been named William." "You don't say!" replied he. "Why she must be a regular Bill collector."

A TV salesman had taken in a lot of used sets as trade-ins on new models and was desperately trying to peddle some of them. "This set is in excellent condition," he reported to a prospective customer who had questioned him about one of them. "Why, it was owned by a little old lady with weak eyes."

"Jones," said Watson, "is the most conceited, self-satisfied person I've ever known."

"What did he do?" asked a neighbor.

"Today is his birthday," Watson replied, "and Jones sent a telegram of congratulations to his mother."

Mother's Day is Featured Here by Family Reunions

Mother Day reunions held the social spotlight here Sunday and scores of students and former residents flocked home to be with their families.

Among gathering was an all-day reunion at the Lee Haverkamp home. Guests from out of town were the David Forgeys and daughters and Jeanette Haverkamp and Travis Wickliffe of Dallas, the Leroy Wiesmans and children and the Richard Schumachers and family of Gainesville who also visited the Science Fair.

Emma Fisher of Fort Worth was with her parents, the Charley Fishers. Mary Pick and Jim Schwartz of Fort Worth visited with Mary's parents, the Henry Picks, and Ann Luke of Dallas weekend with her family the Henry Lukes.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schniederjan and children of Dallas spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Carra Pagel. Mrs. Eddie Hart and daughter Sandra of Dallas were visitors with an aunt, Miss Anna Hellman and with the L. J. Robergs.

Lt. and Mrs. C. C. Blanton of Mineral Wells had a weekend pass and spent it with her parents, the Matt Mullers and family. The Paul Yostens and children of Fort Worth joined other relatives at the homes of their parents, the T. Millers and Mrs. Bob Yosten.

All of the Henry Wiesman family was at the Leonard Yosten home for a dinner party at noon.

Helen Fisher had a five-day vacation returning to Oklahoma City Wednesday after being with her folks, the Paul Fishers. Gathering at the J. M. Weinzapfel home were Mary and Father Thomas Weinzapfel of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Jackson and children of Fort Worth and the Henry Weinzapfels.

Mrs. J. J. Haverkamp was the honoree at a noon dinner party in the home of her daughter and family, the Ray Koppers at Lindsay. There was a shower of gifts. In the evening the Willard Zimmerers and son Alan of Gainesville visited in the Haverkamp home, here.

Harold Cooke and son Don II of Fort Worth were Mother Day guests of his parents, the Don C. Cookes and they all attended the special program at First Baptist Church.

A reunion in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Flusche with dinner at noon had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Tony Otto, Mr. and Mrs. Betty Hoening and family and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Otto and three children of Gainesville and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hermes and two sons.

At the Victor Hartman home all the family was together with the following from out of town the Teddy Greggingers and children of Garland, the Keith Tompkins family of Fort Worth, Gene Hartman of Dallas and the Walter Wolfs and children of Gainesville. The Teddy Gremmings also joined his family for a reunion in the home of his parents, the Ted Gremmings where Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Schumacher and children of Gainesville were guests.

The Frank Herrs had a family get-together while Airman Tommy Herr of Memphis, Tenn., is here on leave. Joining them Sunday were the Melvin Herrs and daughters and the Ronnie Herrs and children of Wichita Falls and the Denis Walterscheids and family from here. The Melvin Herrs also managed to take in a reunion in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mages Jr. at Gainesville, and the Ronnie Herrs joined a gathering in the home of her parents, the Albert Henscheids. Among out of town relatives at the Mages reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mages III and children of Dallas who also visited her parents, the Tony Walterscheids here.

All the Swirczynski families from here and the Ed Swirczynskis and children of Fort Worth were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Swirczynski who entertained in honor of his mother, Mrs. Joe Swirczynski. The children presented her a corsage and a bouquet of red carnations—13 flowers, one for each of her children. Included in a shower of gifts was an album containing pictures of all her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. George Swirczynski and his family of Beaumont visited by telephone and others unable to attend sent gifts and greetings. Mr. and Mrs. Townsend Miller and children of Austin who couldn't be here Sunday paid a visit Saturday afternoon.

Jim Walker and his mother, Mrs. Ada Walker, had all-day visitors to observe Mother's Day. Those coming brought covered dishes for dinner and supper and gifts for Mrs. Walker. Present were Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Walker and family of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Luttmir and daughters of Valley View, White Walker of Gainesville and Lawrence Christopher of Paris, Texas. This was Lawrence's first visit with his aunt, Mrs. Walker, in ten years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Klement had their son David of Denton and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Schleicher and baby son Cliff of Garland with them for Mother's Day and Mrs. Schleicher and Cliff remained to spend most of this week here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Yosten and children came from Fort Worth to spend the day with their families, the I. A. Schoechs and Frank Yostens. At the Schoech home other children made pop calls during the day bringing gifts to Mrs. Schoech.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swingler's children and grandchildren came to their home with covered dishes for the noon meal and a shower of gifts in keeping with Mother's Day.

Noon dinner party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hartman had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Tony Felderhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Walterscheid and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Felderhoff and children of Gainesville. In the afternoon the group drove to Lindsay to visit with Bishop Danglmayr before he returned to Dallas after conducting confirmation services in St. Peter's Church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fletcher had their son and family, the Jack Fletchers of Denton as all day guests, Mitchell Wolf of Houston spent the weekend with his family, the Lou Wolf, and the Bob Koppers and children were here from Marlin for a weekend visit and Mother Day gathering in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Endres.

All day guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Otto were Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Mayer of Pilot Point and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trubenbach.

Patsy Bayer of Fort Worth joined her family, the Martin Bayers, for Mother's Day, Clara Richter, Dallas, visited her father W. T. Richter, and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Joe Matthews of Sulphur Springs were guests in the home of her parents, the Bernard Sickingers.

Children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Eberhart gathered at the family home bringing along a complete turkey dinner in covered dishes and a shower of gifts. Walter Eberhart and his family missed the party because they were entertaining in their home at Gainesville for 44 members of her family.

Homecoming Crowd At Marysville is Largest to Date

More people than ever before attended this year's annual homecoming at Marysville where hundreds from far and near gathered for the all-day program. Speakers were the Rev. C. M. Thomas of Gainesville and the Rev. Manning Bishop, pastor of Marysville Baptist Church. Special singing was conducted by an Indian Quartet from Ardmore, Okla., group singing in the morning and afternoon, old timers reunion and a picnic dinner were among homecoming highlights.

Mrs. Mattie Doughty was honored as being the oldest woman present and the honor for the men went to Rev. Mr. Thomas. Former residents and friends came from many places in Texas, Oklahoma and other states including Arizona and California.

Among those registering in the guest book were Minor Ballinger of Pasadena, Calif., Ross Ballinger of Norwalk, Calif., Kirby Ballinger of Fort Worth and Tommie Ballinger of Gainesville; Hugh Holcombe and family of Compton, Calif., the Pete Holcombes and sons Wendell and Ronnie and the Billie Brakes and children Edwin and Darlene of Norwalk, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Holcombe of Andrews, the Hugh Pearsons and daughters Debbie and Shari of Fort Worth, the Kenneth Holcombes and daughter Pamela of Stanton, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Holcombe of Houston. The Holcombes visited their father E. W. Holcombe of Stanton who had come to Cooke County a week early but suffered a heart attack when he reached Gainesville and went to the Sanitarium for treatment. He missed the homecoming.

Other names on the guest register were Clyde Moon and nephew Frank Moon of Tucumcari, N. M., Airman Don Ray Moon of Abilene, Willis Parker of Dallas, the Ed Doughtys of Glen Rose, and the Erwin Doughtys and son Denny, the Leo Doughtys and family, Inez Martin, the Bennie Wyatts and Brenda and the Loy Murrells, all of Grand Prairie.

Mrs. Maidie Murrell of Fort Worth, Waco Booher, Mrs. Mildred Yates, Mrs. Queenie Bone and Lucian Bone all of Dallas; the Robert Bones and Jenieah of Odessa, Messrs. and Mmes. B. F. and V. M. Nix of Highton, Okla., the Sam and John Duffeys and the Harold Cookes of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Sappington, Don Sappington, Mrs. Helen Casey, all of Tulsa.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reeves and Lester Reeves of Seymour, Earl Reeves of Grand Prairie, L. F. Deering of Arlington, the John Carpenters of Chillicothe, Mrs. Mary Abel and the Emmett Shiflets of Pilot Point, Claire Guthrie and family and Bernard Guthrie of Tioga, Freeman and Paul Whitt of San Antonio, the Sam Taffs and family of Dallas, Mrs. Bessie Jackson and the Lonnie Sloans of Montague County, the Eursel Youngs of Hereford, the Paul Youngs of Chandler, Texas, Mrs. Florence Young and Wayne and Evelyn of Tyler, T. C. Wyatt and son Richard of Winsboro and A. F. Sapp of Scotsdale, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cochran and granddaughter Anna Lois of Athens, Messrs. and Mmes. E. E. Dilks of Oakwood, Okla., Merrell Dilks of Meaker, Okla., Derrell Dilks of Moore, Okla., Charlie Dilks of Cordell, Okla., and Mrs. Otlio Dilks of Temple; the Douglas Robisons and son Mark of Spur, the Raymond Davidsons and family of Fort Worth.

Jean Hobbs of Dallas, the Ralph Budlongs of Duncan, Mrs. Henry Morehead and son John of Washington, Okla., Mrs. Jewell Cochran of Bonham, the Emmett Deerings of Nocona, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brooks of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pearson of Thackerville and Rev. Jack Wallis of Dallas. Dozens were present from Gainesville, Muenster and Saint Jo.

Family Gatherings
 A number of families had reunions of their own after attending the homecoming and a large group of relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Lyons. They included their daughters, Mrs. Vivian Maupin of San Antonio and her daughter Mrs. R. H. Moore and daughters Vivian Jeanette and Barbara of Houston; Mrs. Marie Stiles and her daughters Velora Stiles and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pace and Beverly Easten all of Gainesville, Mrs. Lyons' brothers and sisters, A. F. Sapp of Scotsdale, Ariz., the R. A. Sapps of Gainesville, Mrs. Florence Young and daughter Evelyn and sons Wayne of Tyler and the Paul Youngs of Chandler, Texas.

Mrs. Queenie Bone and Lucian Bone of Dallas, the Robert Bones and daughters of Odessa, the W. W. Butts and Mrs. Bill Welch and Priscilla and Judy of Gainesville. Missing was Mrs. E. W. Holcombe who stayed with her sick husband at Gainesville Sanitarium.

Visitors with the John Richeys and attending the homecoming with them were the Earl Cochrans and granddaughter of Athens, Mrs. Inez Ballinger of Sulphur, Okla., the Ed Ballingers of Oklahoma City, the Fred and Robert Richeys and families of Sivelis Bend, the Joe Wyatts of Callisburg, Jean Hobbs of Dallas, Wanda Richey, the Raymond Reeds and the Huse Dotys of Gainesville.

Muenster Livestock Auction

Dick Cain, Owner and Auctioneer

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Flusche and family, including William Flusche from Stephenville, were dinner guests Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zimmerer.

Lindsay News

His Excellency Bishop Augustine Dangelmayr of Dallas officiated at confirmation services here in St. Peter's Church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. There were 51 confirmants. Several priests for the area attended including Father Christopher of Muenster.

Guests for Mother's Day in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Flusche at Decatur were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schmidkofer and Judy of Lindsay and Mr. and Mrs. James Flusche and Kathy.

Mrs. H. S. Fuhrmann and Mrs. Harold Nortman and son were Friday visitors in Muenster, guests of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Ray Hess and family.

Mothers Mrs. Bill Eberhart and Mrs. Ed Eberhart and the former's sons Jimmy and Danny were the honorees at a family gathering in the Ed Eberhart home at Muenster Sunday. It was a Mother Day and Confirmation Day observance. Other members of the Eberhart family stopped in with covered dishes, some staying for dinner and supper, some for one meal and others making pop calls.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hermes were their daughter, Mary Margaret and Joe Pat Bohac, both of Fort Worth.

Frances Spaeth of Denison was Mother Day visit with her mother, Mrs. George Spaeth, and other family members.

Mother Day guests in the home of Mrs. Joe Bezner included the following from out of town: Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cutala and daughters Margaret and Carol, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bezner and children Debbie and Stevie, Mrs. Frank Benenate and Joey, Marguerite, Janie and Frankie, Mrs. Isabel Galvan, Al Bezner and Jack McMurtre, all of Dallas. In the afternoon Bob Bezner was confirmation sponsor for Skippy Bezner and Mrs. Benenate was sponsor for Joanie Zimmerer.

ANDY ARENDT HOME IS SCENE OF DINNER PARTY

There were three groups of honorees at a dinner party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Arendt Sunday evening. Sharing honors of the occasion were mothers, children who were confirmed, and their sponsors.

The mothers were Mrs. Paul Arendt and Mrs. Clem Reiter whose husbands also attended; the children were Rudy Zimmerer Butch and David Arendt, Janet Arendt and Sheila Arendt; and the sponsors were Messrs. and Mmes Johnny and Paul Arendt Jr. and Vincent Zimmerer, joined by their families, and Reynold Reiter.

made the announcement and presentation and gave an address in which he commended the Mother of the Year for her outstanding and unselfish service in connection with many phases of parish and community activity. The announcement came after the CDA business session which featured the annual election of officers and was followed by a social hour and refreshments.

During the meeting Mrs. Swirczynski had reported on the most recent shipments of clothing—one hundred pounds going to an Indian Mission in North Dakota and four boxes to St. Vincent's Store in Fort Worth. After the presentation the outstanding lady was at a loss for words but the stars in her eyes spilled over and glistened on her cheeks.

Fire Call Pay - - - assess a tax of 1 cent per $100 of valuation for that purpose. That would bring in about $4,000 a year, and it could be assessed without a special election. The county's authorized rate is 80 cents and the tax at this time is 76 cents. The court disliked that recommendation on grounds that it also includes city taxpayers, hence makes them help pay for the rural service.

Last year Cooke County paid a total of $312.50 to the two cities. Landowners also paid but not as much as the county. On that basis the firemen estimated they did not receive enough to meet current expenses of the rural fire fighting units, and they definitely cannot accumulate funds for replacement. The cost of a new unit was estimated at near $12,000.

At the hearing were Mayor Herbert Meurer, Steve Moster, Richard Greving and Earl Fisher Muenster; City Manager Homer Bly and Bill Lewie of Gainesville and a delegation representing the County Farm Bureau.

The Farm Bureau's mission was urging the commissioners court to provide protection against rural fires.

Auctioneers - - -

Auctioneers got two more hits and one more walk.

Cecil Cain, hurling for Muenster, allowed 5 hits and two walks but kept them well scattered. A walk and a hit in the first produced one run, a homer in the sixth accounted for the other.

Up to now the Auctioneers have lost to Lindsay and beat PGAC and Tom Thumb. Lindsay, also with a 2-1 record, shares the loop lead with them. Tom Thumb has a 1-1 record and PGAC a 0-2 record.

Next to play the local boys will be Lindsay, Friday night.

Mother of Year - - -

set now to make progress if future weather permits.

Throughout the prolonged dryness temperature has been the redeeming factor. All vegetation held out well with benefit of the exceptional coolness of the past two months.

The weekend's rainfall brought the month's total to 1.78 and the year's total to 5.32.

Another significant fact is that weather has been exceptionally dry here for almost a full year. Since June 1, 1958 the total is only 19.89 inches. This is shown by the fact that four detention reservoirs of the area, finished last May, still have no water in them. The little run-off from fields has seeped away or evaporated. Other reservoirs too are getting low, most of them below the level of drainage valves, which are provided to empty the lakes if necessary.

This situation presents a problem to the soil conservation personnel. After planting Bermuda sod or dams and spillways they have no water for irrigating to get the grass established.

parading the Seniors." Junior class presentations to the Seniors and three songs. Each class will sing one song and they will be together in singing "Tis Our Festal Day." Carol Henscheid will accompany for the songs and also play the processional and recessional.

The final graduation event, commencement, is set for a week later in Sacred Heart Church with Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas Zachry of Denison giving the commencement address and presenting diplomas.

thing as reasoning with unreasonable people. Again it seems the most effective procedure is to bluntly inform the reds that we are going to stand up to our rights and responsibilities in the Berlin crisis and defy them to carry out their threats. It's long past time to quit talking with them. Instead we ought to talk to them, the shorter the better, and then break off the meetings.

Home Freezer Use Will Be Topic of Talk Here Friday

Of interest and help to everyone owning a home freezer, and to those who plan the purchase of a freezer, will be a meeting here this Friday, May 15, at one o'clock in Sacred Heart High School Library. A general attendance is invited.

Homemakers will hear a discussion on the subject "Are you getting the most out of your home freezer?" Cooke County Home Demonstration Agents Bernice Thurman and Yvonne Jenkins will help freezer-owners find the answer to that question and will also tell about proper packaging materials, techniques in putting up fruits, vegetables, and meats in the home freezer or food locker.

An added attraction at the meeting here will be Patsy Endres and Kathleen McGannon's demonstration on making a vitamin salad. The girls won county honors on the salad preparation and took it to the district meeting, winning there. In June they will compete in state contests at A&M College.
