Game, Dinner and Dance Await Exes At Homecoming

Rather late again, this community is just getting started on a job that should be finished by now, but there's no reason why our tardiness should keep us from doing it up in a big way. That's our United Fund drive. It's still time for us to realize this is an opportunity to contribute our fair share toward charitable causes that are fully entitled to our support.

Actually, it doesn't matter that we are running behind schedule. The important thing is to recognize our moral obligation toward the rest of humanity and give substantially.

As we think it over we have to admit that the donations asked of us are very small. A day's pay is a trifle compared with the amount most of us lavish on ourselves for such items as smokes, drinks and amusements. And it makes up a very small percentage of a title, which, according to biblical standard, is the amount every person should return to the Lord. Well, this is charity. It comes under the general heading of returns which are due to God. The money given is used in helping other people, which is His work. It would be well for all of us to remember this when we are approached for our contributions.

Another point to bear in mind is that this drive is actually ten drives in one, and our one contribution should be what we would be willing to give to the ten separate causes. It isn't fair to give as though it were for a single project. What's more it is poor appreciation for the considerable arrangement which spares us the bother of being asked several times.

People who used to marvel at the genius of Charles Van Doren on the TV quiz show "Twenty One" are looking forward with equal fascination to his appearance before the Congressional quiz now under way in Washington. In view of recent disclosures of irregularities in the conduct of that program and a few others, they are wondering whether Charlie's answers will be quite as right as the ones that catapulted him to fame and the big income bracket.

During his week or so of obscurity, when even members of his family claimed not to know where he was, we presume he did a good deal of cramming for the quiz to which he has been invited by subpoena. One thing is certain, however. He has not been supplied with answers to this one, and he's going to be mighty embarrassed if he was supplied with answers to the others.

Despite early claims of innocence he's been acting most queerly, certainly not like a person who has nothing to hide. Being lost for several days at such an opportune time, and while nationwide press, radio and TV kept hammering away at his absence, seems hardly likely for a person as sharp and well informed as he. Any suspicion that might have existed before was magnified by that incident.

The whole big mess is disillusioning, especially as regards Van Doren. America feels as though it's had a leg pulled . . . and resents it. We've been victims of a fraud, led to marvel at the extraordinary mental powers of contestants who turned out to be cheats.

Also disappointing is the attitude of producers and contestants who participated in this hoax. They say their faked show is no different from other fixed shows, such as wrestling matches . . . that people did not enjoy it any less because they were deceived. But the average person (Continued on Page 10)

N. Texas District Of Catholic League Meets at Lindsay

St. Peter's Parish at Lindsay will be host Sunday for the fall district meeting of the Catholic State League of Texas which is scheduled to get under way at 2 p. m. in the Parish Hall.

The afternoon's program will include welcome addresses by the presidents of the parish societies and Leonard Bengfort, district president, recognition of clergy, officers and delegates, routine business and reports, a talk by Father William Lane of Gainesville, remarks from the men's, women's and youth sections, entertainment by Lindsay school children and benediction.

Afterwards St. Anne's Society members will be hostesses serving eats and drinks and a social evening will follow.

Andy O'Connor Has Multiple Fracture After Car Accident

Andy O'Connor is a patient at Harris Hospital in Fort Worth as the result of a pickup-truck collision last Thursday about 6 p. m. on a farm road south of Muenster. His pickup and Shamburger Lumber Company's truck collided on the hill at George Gehrig's. Mr. O'Connor was the only one hurt.

He received a multiple fracture of the left arm and cuts on his hand and fingers. Emergency treatment was given at Muenster Clinic and he was taken to Gainesville Sanitarium, then transferred to Fort Worth the next day for treatment by a bone specialist.

After an operation Wednesday the arm was put in traction. Later it will be put in a cast. The breaks are between the wrist and elbow, at the elbow, and between the elbow and shoulder.

Mr. O'Connor is in room 654 and cards will cheer him. Mrs. O'Connor is staying with him and their daughter and family, the Andy Mondays and Victor Hartman visited him Sunday.

Scrapping Hornets Bow 20-14 Before Era's Powerhouse

A scrappy and revitalized team of Muenster Hornets had plenty of spirit but not enough power Saturday night as they clashed with the title-hungry Era outfit, and went down for a count of 20-14.

Taking the kickoff the home town fellows made a strong start with an 80 yard drive that ended in a short of a first down on the 10. Muenster advanced for the first down and kicked when the second series failed.

Era then launched its first successful push. Four first downs gained 53 yards to the 7 from where four power plays were needed to get across. Belz made the last 18 inches and a pass from Wilson to Lewis added two points.

For the rest of the period both teams held, each making only one first down as the ball changed hands seven times. Half time score was 8-0.

The second half started the same way, neither team allowing the other any progress. Muenster kicked and kept possession as Era fumbled the play, then lost the ball on its own fumble. Next Era kicked, and intercepted a Muenster pass on the next play. A clipping penalty gave Era free yardage to midfield where a quick kick on second down set Muenster back to the 20.

As it turned out the extra distance made no difference, however. On the next play Harris was almost down as he flipped a (Continued on Page 5)

Tiger Cubs Rally For 22-8 Decision Over Lindsay Kids

Sacred Heart Elementary's Cubs last Sunday served notice that they are still contenders in this year's parochial league by hustling to a flashy 22-8 win over the Lindsay kiddies.

In a fourth period rally they slipped over two fast touchdowns to break a tie and jump to the impressive lead.

The first half was uneventful except for a beautiful 65 yard run by Jimmy Klement on a reverse play and the two extra points made by Francis Fuhrman.

Following intermission there was more action. Lindsay came back strong after the kickoff and moved 70 yards down the field in a steady push. Ronnie Zimmerer making the last 11 yards.

The attempt for bonus points failed but Lindsay took advantage of another fat opportunity to tie the score. After the next kickoff the Cubs drew two 15 yard penalties setting them back inside the 5, and were promptly caught behind the line for a safety.

Hearing Scheduled On Voting District For County College

Whether or not the county college movement continues in Cooke County will be determined on Friday, October 23, 8:30 a. m. at a public hearing to be held in the gymnasium of Gainesville College.

An eight-man committee from the Texas Education Agency of Austin will be there to hear opinions pertaining to the need and feasibility of a county sponsored college in this area.

Every interested person of the county, whether for the proposed county college or against it, is invited to attend the meeting.

If the proposal gets the TEA's approval the next step will be to arrange an election at which taxpayers of the county can vote on the question.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Mrs. P. J. Rollman is recovering satisfactorily from major surgery performed at M&S Hospital in Gainesville Oct. 10. At that time her doctor said she would be hospitalized ten days or two weeks. Mr. Rollman, who is a patient at the VA Hospital in Dallas for medical care, was permitted a five-day visit to be with his wife. He returned to Dallas Tuesday.

Thomas Schenk, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Schenk, spent from Monday to Wednesday at Gainesville Sanitarium after losing his left index finger in an accident on the farm. The mishap occurred while he was riding on a grain drill. The finger was severed at the knuckle.

Word to relatives here from the Frank Walterscheids of Hereford reveals that their teen son Alvin has been stricken with illness which doctors have diagnosed as sleeping sickness. He is a patient at Deaf Smith County Hospital where he has been in a coma since Saturday, and has since developed pneumonia.

Mrs. C. M. Walterscheid is still a patient at Gainesville Sanitarium receiving treatment for injuries sustained in a fall at her home Sept. 27. Her doctor has given no indication as to when she will be permitted to return home.

Bernaers Observe Golden Wedding With Church Service and Reception

Reaching a golden milestone in their lives Monday, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bernauer, long-time residents of Muenster, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary with a renewal of marriage vows at mass in Sacred Heart Church at 4 o'clock and a reception and dinner afterwards in the Public School dining room.

Susie Kaiser was barely 18 when she married 22-year-old Louie Bernauer on Oct. 12, 1909.

Now, a half century later, they're still full of enthusiasm and active in parish and community life.

For the anniversary the 50-year-bride wore a becoming royal blue lace dress over taffeta with long blue gloves and a blue velvet hat. She carried the same prayerbook she carried at her wedding and so did her husband. They both had new gold rosaries which are anniversary gifts.

Honor attendants Monday were a niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Stelzer of Fort Worth. Mrs. Stelzer wore a gray lace dress over taffeta with a velvet hat. David Haverkamp and Delbert Walterscheid ushered.

Yellow mums were used as the anniversary flower for corsages and boutonnières, altar adornment and table decorations. A niece, Mrs. Nick Miller, was in charge of decorating. Centerpiece for the honorees' table was a magnificent cake, a huge tiered square topped with a tiered oval and garlanded with 50 gold icing roses and other art work in icing. Gold bells and candelabra added to the table decor.

Nancy Bernauer of Gainesville registered more than 80 guests many of them from out of town and including Mr. Bernauer's brother, Joe Bernauer and his three sisters, Mrs. Josephine Wernet of Waco, Miss Frances Bernauer of Memphis, Tenn., and Mrs. L. W. Flusche and her husband of Decatur. Mrs. Bernauer has one sister, Mrs. A. H. Rebentish, who lives here.

Attendants at the wedding in 1909 were his brother, the late C. J. Bernauer, and Mrs. Bernauer's niece, the former Ann Wiese who lives in Calif. now and was one of the few relatives unable to attend.

Scouts Will Begin Traffic Job Monday

Starting next Monday Boy Scouts of the Muenster troop will begin their new activity of assisting school children across Main Street after classes are dismissed.

They will be on duty at the intersections of Sixth and Seventh Streets, two at each location, escorting the tiny tots across the street in groups and halting auto traffic when necessary. Their job is expected to last about ten minutes each class day afternoon.

There will be no morning traffic control because the arrival of pupils is scattered over a period of about a half hour.

Sanger, Sherman B Tangle Here With Hornets and Tigers

Big jobs are cut out for both of Muenster's football teams in their assignments this week as they entertain the Sanger Indians and the Sherman Bearkittens.

Coaches Smith and Petrus have seen their respective opponents in action and have nothing but respect for them. Petrus saw Sherman B wallop Gainesville B in a one sided scoring spree and rates the team as tough as any the Tigers have faced this season. It's a husky, well balanced outfit with speed to boot. They will be favored over the Tigers.

On the other hand Sacred Heart is due to be better than in its last two games. The open date last week provided a welcome opportunity to let injuries heal and the fellows will be in better physical condition as they line up opposite the Bearkittens.

Likewise Coach Smith got an eyeful when he watched Sanger and Callisburg last week. The Indians have about the heaviest team in 12-B and they will look like giants beside Muenster's smallest team. Besides the ability to move by force they have a passing combination that is a constant threat. Though they lost to Callisburg they actually showed more ability.

To offset the Indian advantage Coach Smith is hoping for speed and coordination like his boys showed at Era last week. If they can repeat their performance he feels confident they will have enough to tumble the big Indians. Physically the Hornets are in fine shape. They are also ready mentally, convinced that they can handle the job and determined to start working their way into the upper bracket of 12-B standing.

United Fund Drive In Muenster Area Starts Next Week

Muenster's United Fund drive for 1959 is due to get under way Monday night as the eight local captains and two chairmen get together to divide campaign cards and plan their coverage of the community.

Heading the campaign as co-chairmen are Arthur Endres and J. M. Weinzapfel. Working with them will be eight captains each of whom will have a team of four helpers making a total of 42 workers for the drive. With some 200 persons and firms to be contacted this will make an average of five calls per worker.

Captains of the eight teams are L. B. Bruns, Glenn Hellman, Mrs. Ray Evans, Clyde Fisher, Leo Henscheid, Willard Hartman, Ray Wilde and Wm. Walterscheid. Solicitations are expected to begin Tuesday, promptly after the captains get their cards and divide them among their teams, and will proceed as fast as convenient until the job is finished. First on schedule are calls to business houses in order to see as many as possible with a minimum of footwork. After that calls will be made to homes, both in and out of town.

No definite goal has been set for the community, however Mr. Weinzapfel stated that the county quota is $40,000 and this area's share, on the basis of population, should be over $2,000. This is almost twice as much as the community gave last year.

The record of that drive shows a total of 256 gifts for $1,036. It also shows that 26 of those contributors, the top 10 per cent, gave 44 per cent of the total amount raised.

In this year's campaign the committee hopes to get better response from the remaining 90 per cent and possibly a figure that represents our proportion of the county goal. It would be easy Weinzapfel said, if all would try to meet the standard request of the United Fund, the amount of one day's pay.

Organizations participating in the United Fund this year are Red Cross, Salvation Army, Sweeney Diabetic Foundation, Boy Scouts, County 4-H and FFA, Texas United Defense Fund, Gainesville Boys' Club, Gainesville Day Nursery, YMCA (Hi-Y and Y-Teens) and Texas Rehabilitation Center.

KCs Have 2 Events For Columbus Day

Columbus Day in the Muenster K of C Council was observed last Sunday by the attendance of about 150 members and their ladies at a group communion during the 9:30 mass followed by breakfast in the parish dining hall.

Heading their program was Father Martin Fischer with a talk on decency and brief remarks on the need of cooperating in the order's program. Arthur Endres was master of ceremonies. Grand Knight Pat Hennigan recognized officers and charter members of the council and also congratulated Joe Fisher Sr. on his recent receipt of diocesan honors for activities in the Fourth Degree of the order. J. M. Weinzapfel spoke in behalf of the United Fund drive which is about to begin.

Another Columbus Day observance was the annual dance held Monday night in the KC hall.

WILL WE BURY OURSELVES?

Is Red Russia going to clobber us? I mean is she on the way to catching up to capitalist America in productivity, well-being of her citizens, and in every other way? According to certain prophets of doom, not only will Communist Russia catch up to us in a few years, but she will actually surpass us.

Well, let's see. Westbrook Pegler, who went to Russia with the Nixon party, says the food served in the finest hotel in Moscow is "nauseating garbage." It was the middle of summer, but there were no peas, beans, spinach, asparagus to be found in either the stores or the hotels. Yet Russia uses 43 per cent of her labor force to produce food. We use only about seven per cent of our labor force to raise food — and our surpluses are one of our biggest headaches.

Moscow has built rows and rows of new apartment houses. They are already falling apart — cracked concrete and crumbling bricks. Ralph deToledano, another excellent reporter, said Moscow was the only city he had ever seen which "builds its slums new." And it is well to remember that Moscow is the showplace of the communist system in Russia.

A group of California businessmen reported that Soviet industry is at least 20 years behind us. Some Russian plants are so obsolete and unsafe that they would not be able to get a license to operate in the United States. And even if they could, by some inconceivable effort, catch up to us in 20 years, it would be on the assumption that we stood still — remained just as we are in the next 20 years.

Incidentally, these businessmen pointed out that it is impossible to believe Red statistics. One American was told that there were 50 million television sets in Russia. But he counted the antennas in Moscow alone, and said the figure was fantastic.

Russia is supposed to have a great new industrial area in the North. Flying 2000 miles over this area, not a single town or road could be seen. There is one spot in Siberia which Red propagandists call "the Chicago of Siberia." Its streets are unpaved. There are some new apartment houses. They have "modern" kitchens — with wood and coal-burning stoves! Russia's top plant for turning out machine tools and heavy machinery is 20 to 30 years behind, not our best plants, but a merely average American plant.

There are no superhighways in Russia. In fact, most of the roads would not be tolerated in America. Actually, Russia has no use for superhighways, because her much-touted industrial system turns out only about 100,000 cars a year. We turn out around five or six million. Even the four-lane road leading into Moscow has big holes and broken-up paving, and its chief traffic consists of trucks.

Communist Russia produces about 55 million tons of steel a year. Its 1965 goal (these goals are seldom achieved) is 91 million tons. United States' steel ca-

How "Westerns" Challenge Us

By Irene Dunne, Actress and Delegate to the United Nations

Today's "Westerns" go back to that old American hero, the rugged individual. Why is the screen cowboy a hero, while the screen gangster is not? Because the gangster is not a free individual.

SOME people think that to lack responsibility is to be free. It is not so. We have only to look around at the world's oppressed people who have lost the freedom to decide for themselves.

Their governments hold that the state should look out for the individual. Our country, however, was founded on the belief that the individuals must look out for the state.

Dunne

This means that we have duties to our families, to our neighbors, to our nation, to our world, and to our God.

AN imposing list, is it not? But only free people possess those responsibilities. And only the carrying out of those responsibilities can keep us free.

Is it a burden to think of the needs of others, to set as we know we should? If so, such actions are the burdens of free men. They are a lot more pleasant and easy than having someone else do your thinking and acting for you.

HAVE we, however, as a people, declined in self-reliance? Is the pioneer spirit gone? No, we simply have new frontiers now — many more things to turn our hand to.

Large population, wealth, and industry only add to our responsibilities — and therefore to our opportunities for service. A motorist driving on a road with only a few cars has nowhere near the responsibility he has in driving on a rush-hour freeway.

Then again, with millions of words pouring upon us from all parts of the world, we face the danger of slackening our concern for event: of tremendous proportions. "What," we may ask, "can I do about all this?" Well, we can keep a sense of perspective. We can form our own judgments among all the warring words and opinions.

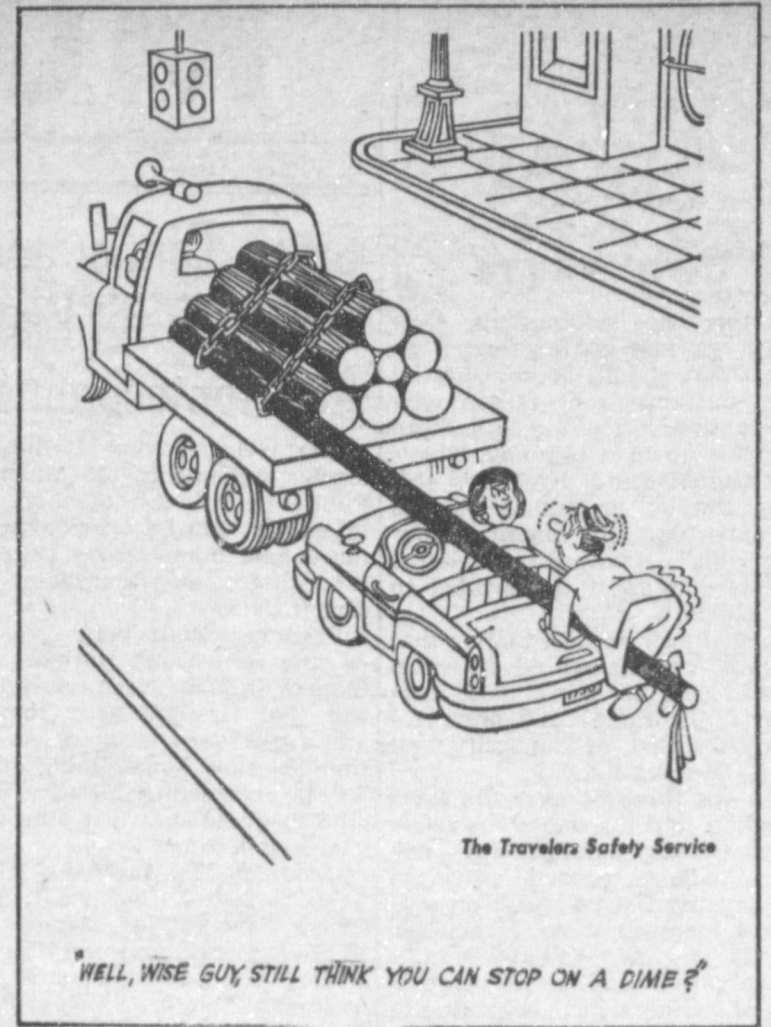

ALSO, as we grow more inventive, there will be ever increasing leisure. What will we do with this time if we are already doubtful how to use the leisure we now have?

These are things that must be decided within us. They are in the realm of "moral decisions." Through them we fulfill our obligations to God, to others, and to ourselves.

For to serve is to have an aim in life which brings forth our best efforts. The challenge of today is the promise of a better tomorrow — for us and for the world.

TO bring it about is our responsibility. The fate of our nation and of our world depends on us.

capacity is around 148 million tons a year. One of the things which always impresses superficial Western observers is Russia's huge hydroelectric plants. But she produces about 230 billion kilowatt hours of electricity — hopes to raise this to 520 billion by 1965. America produces right now 724 billion kilowatt hours of electricity.

Mr. deToledano put the whole story in a sentence or two. He said that by a terrific concentration — of effort, labor and scientists — the Soviet Union can build rockets and mass produce a jet plane. But taking the system as a whole, it is a backward system — and it has neither the transport, the industrial capacity, nor the trained work-force to fight a long war. There is little incentive to work. In fact, the main incentive, as Mr. deToledano put it, is to work as little as the slave-masters will tolerate. This was confirmed by American workmen who worked side by side with Russians on the United States exhibit in Moscow. It took seven Russians a week to do a job which two Americans do in half a day.

What does all this prove? It proves that communism and its slave-state cannot compete with freedom and capitalism. The only way Russia can clobber us economically, commercially and industrially is if we water down and dilute our own free system with the welfare-state, government-control gimmicks which are an essential part of the communist-socialist system. Maybe that's what Khrushchev had in mind when he said he "would bury us." He might better have said "You will bury yourselves."

Surprise Party for Monica Hartman, 1 Observes Birthday

Monica Hartman, who rates a lot of attention around her house any time, was the center of special attention Friday when she had her first party to celebrate being one year old. Fifteen young cousins helped make the observance one to remember and pictures were taken to keep a record in Monica's baby book and in colored slides. It was a surprise party.

Mrs. Alvin Hartman welcomed guests at the family home for her daughter. Movie slides were shown, gifts were displayed and ice cream and birthday cake were served. The children's mothers came with them and Monica's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Felderhoff and Mrs. Victor Hartman were present too.

Young guests were Jimmy, Johnny, Jackie and Judy Danglmayr and their mother, Mrs. Albert Danglmayr; Stevie, Ronnie, Cynthia, Carol and Mary Felderhoff and their mother, Mrs. A. J. Felderhoff of Gainesville; Danny Walterscheid, attending his first party, and his mother, Mrs. Sylvan Walterscheid; Blondie, Janie and Jerry Fleitman and their mother, Mrs. Bruno Fleitman, and Glenn and Joanie Rohmer and Monica's brother Robert.

RECENT BRIDE — Mrs. Joe Carroll McElreath is the former Betty Sutton of Gainesville. The couple was married October 2 while he was on leave from the army. He is stationed in Hawaii and has returned to duty. She plans to join him in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hess and children drove over from Ardmore Sunday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hess and family.

Twenty Cooke County residents representing numerous civic groups from several communities, and including Mmes. J. M. Weinzapfel, Paul Fisher, Tony Gremminger and C. O. Taylor of Muenster, were present at a meeting with the commissioners court Monday. The group asked the commissioners to study library needs in the county, and also outlined present needs. Jim Smoot of Gainesville served as petitioner for the group.

Rev. Joe M. Routh, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Gainesville, and Mrs. Routh and their six children were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cain and family. The Cains' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCollum of Dallas were here for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Meurer and Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher were in Lubbock Saturday and Sunday for the annual Dad's Day program at Texas Tech. The men were with their sons, Robert Meurer and Francis Fisher, for a Saturday noon luncheon and then they all attended the Texas Tech-TCU football game. The Meurers were overnight guests in the home of her sister and family, the C. W. Ratliffs. The Fishers also enjoyed seeing their nephew Jimmy Fisher.

Julius Hermeses Jr. Mark Anniversary By Move to Lindsay

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hermeses Jr. observed their fifth wedding anniversary by getting settled in a home of their own again, an experience similar to five years ago when they set up housekeeping for the first time.

Since they lost everything in a fire Sept. 18, the Hermeses and their two little boys had been dividing their time between their parents, the J. P. Flusches here and the Julius Hermeses at Lindsay. Now they have a place of their own again.

They're at home in Lindsay occupying the former home of Frank Mages Sr. Mr. Mages will be dividing his time among his children. Presently he is here with his daughter and family, the Felix Yostens.

Craig Richey, One Has Celebration On First Birthday

Young Craig Richey had his first birthday celebration Saturday. The one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Richey was the honoree at a party given by his grandmother, Mrs. Dick Cain, at her home.

Party favors and picture taking and games entertained the little guests until refreshment time when a one-candled cake was cut and served with ice cream.

Children and their mother present were Kathy Selby and Mrs. Kenneth Selby, Terry Walterscheid and Mrs. Willie Walterscheid, Lisa Mollenkopf and Mrs. James Mollenkopf, Ronnie and Janet Wimmer and Mrs. Annie Wimmer, Tim and Brenda Taylor and Mrs. Curtis Taylor of Gainesville, Chuckie Hoff and Mrs. Tony Hoff of Wichita. Grandmother Mrs. Herman Richey of Gainesville was a special guest and Craig's mother and his sister Robin Ann were present also.

Mr. and Mrs. Melton Vrla and daughter Sonja of Mesquite were here for a weekend visit with her mother, Mrs. Hilda Reiter and family.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilde were his niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Kelley of Lasara, stopping here enroute to Dallas to attend the Fair and visit with his brother. The couple came back atives before they return to the through here to visit other relatives. Wednesday they were guests of Mrs. William Bergman, the Herbert McDaniels and other relatives in Era and Gainesville. She is a daughter of the late John Wilde and this was her first visit here in about 25 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Rathburn and daughter Nancy spent the weekend in San Antonio and Sunday were among guests at the golden wedding celebration of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rathburn.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kirk this week are her mother, Mrs. E. C. Mayfield and Mr. Mayfield of Austin.

Mrs. H. J. Fuhrman returned Monday from a ten day visit in Corpus Christi where she got acquainted with her new grandson, Glenn Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Fuhrman and attended his christening. She also visited her brother and family, the Alex Flusches and joined them on an outing at their cabin on the river.

Sunday visitors with Mrs. J. S. Horn while her sister, Mrs. John Wilde of Harlingen was her guest, were their brother Joe Voth of Justin, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zimmerer and children Patsy and Larry and Mr. and Mrs. John Zimmerer and daughter Cecilia of Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wolf and son Kent of Gainesville, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Walterscheid and Mr. and Mrs. Al Horn. Mrs. Wilde returned to Harlingen Monday by train.

Mrs. John Chandler of Dallas visited here Saturday overnight and Sunday with her aunt, Miss Anna Hellman.

Serving will be in progress from 5:30 to 8:30 with Mrs. Joe Lehnertz in charge of preparation. The price will be one dollar a plate. Tables will be set up for games for those who want to stay for after supper entertainment.

Local News BRIEFS

Telephoned greetings to their dad and granddad Tuesday because they couldn't be here in person for his birthday came to Frank Yosten from his daughters and their families, the Nick Mayers of Fort Worth and the John Durbins of Metairie, La.

Sgt. and Mrs. Joe Galloway and daughters Jonann and Mary Ellen are getting ready to move to Wichita Fall to make their home. He has been transferred to Sheppard AFB there from Vandenberg AFB, California, and while on leave they are visiting her family, the John Fishers. The Galloways went to Wichita Falls this week to make arrangements for living quarters. They plan to move Monday.

Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel and Mrs. Tony Gremminger spent Sunday afternoon in Scotland and Wichita Falls. In Scotland they visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Otto Hemmi who is recovering from an operation and in Wichita Falls they stopped with Mrs. Weinzapfel's sister, Mrs. Steve Otto.

Lillian and Corina Vogel drove over from Fort Worth to say happy birthday in person to their brother Weldon and to bring him their birthday gifts. They were weekend guests at the family home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Walter, returned from Houston, report a pleasant visit with their daughter and family, the John O'Dowds. They were there a week making the trip with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walter of Gainesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Starke returned Monday night from a week's visit in Denver, Colo., with their daughters, Ella Dell and Jo Ann Starke and Mrs. Leonard Pfaff and family. Ella Dell and Jo Ann brought them back by car and are spending a week here. On the trip to Muenster they stopped at Perryton for an overnight visit with their son and brother, Edward Starke.

Garden Club Group Hears Discussion On Flower Pictures

An interesting discussion on "Flower Pictures" was presented to members of the Civic League and Garden Club at their October meeting Monday night when Mrs. H. H. Homsley was in charge of the program.

She listed materials needed in making these pictures and suggested choosing a theme to suit the room in which they will be used. These pictures will preserve favorite flowers from the home garden to enjoy all year, she pointed out, and are very effective when used in pairs or groups of three. Mounted and finished with a simple frame they furnish an unusual decorative touch.

Mrs. Homsley also described wall plaques fashioned from ordinary dinner plates with artificial flowers or fruits and gilded or painted. She will conduct a demonstration at next month's meeting.

Monday's meeting was held in the home of Mrs. R. R. Endres with Mrs. Arthur Felderhoff as co-hostess and Mrs. L. B. Bruns, president, conducting the business session. Members answered roll call with the current month's gardening "do and don't."

Committee chairmen gave reports, Mrs. Tony Gremminger telling about cemetery work and asking for volunteers for the annual Nov. 1 collection for cemetery maintenance. Members accepted this responsibility and indicated the time they preferred to solicit at the various masses.

Mrs. T. S. Myrick reported for the park committee, stating that mowing had been done and made the suggestion that dead trees be replaced.

Mrs. Homsley reported on the school flower beds advising that the flower area on the patio adjoining the homemaking department is tended and kept free of weeds.

The flower show committee regretfully told of the resignation of its co-chairman, Mrs. Lee Toothaker, whose husband is going into work away from Muenster. Remaining co-chairman Mrs. Ben Luke was asked to select a replacement.

A lively round table discussion centered around the club's horticultural project for this year, the day lily, and Mrs. Joe Luke volunteered to make inquiries about quantity orders.

Among coming events listed of interest to garden clubbers were Garden Club Day at the State Fair in Dallas Oct. 20 and the Tyler Rose Festival Oct. 16-18.

Mrs. T. S. Myrick brought the floral arrangement for the month which is a feature of each meeting this year. She used bright orange-red geraniums and cannas with deep shaded canna leaves in a free-form container of brown and green ceramic. The container was made by her sister Odessa, Mrs. Shirley Leach of Millsap.

The hostesses served apple pie and coffee to 16 members and one visitor, Mrs. Frank Klement.

Joe Vogel accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Lou Wolf to Houston for a three-day visit, Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, to visit his son Wilbert Vogel, while the Wolfs visited their children, Lou Rena, Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Wolf. They all visited also with Johnny Fisher, and Mr. Vogel went to see his brother Alphonse Vogel, who had recently had surgery and was on the road to recovery. He also looked up a former Muensterite, Jacob Yarter, who is still remembered here by the old timers. On the way home the three stopped at Bryan for a pop call at the John O'Connor home.

Sunday was a long day for Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoenig. It started early when they and the Tony Hoenigs and the Richard Hoeniges of Lindsay went to Ennis to meet their daughter and family, the Carl Pelzels, at a church dinner and carnival given by St. John's Parish. On the way home the three couples visited in Dallas with the Rupert Hoenigs. Back at home and just asleep and the Joe Hoenigs were awakened by a phone call from their son-in-law, Dr. Kenneth Cottle telling them that their daughter Rita had undergone an emergency operation and was in St. John's Hospital in San Angelo. They took off about midnight on that trip. When they returned home late Monday they brought their grandchildren Diana, Kevin and Jeannea with them to spend about two weeks. Mrs. Cottle was recovering normally when they left.

Golden Wedding -- Hornets Lose --

Monsignor Louis J. Kempfues, 84, a friend of the Bernauers through four generations. Father Christopher Paladino officiated at the anniversary mass, the Sacred Heart choir and Anthony Luke furnished the music, and Mrs. Joe Lehnertz catered the reception.

A nephew, Herbert Meurer, featured after-dinner speaker, gave a history of the goldenwedds. His narrative revealed good luck with sprinklings of misfortune — like the time Louie was in the livery stable business and all his horses died. Earlier in life he was a blacksmith associated with his father.

Mr. Bernauer is best remembered for his many years in the restaurant business which he started soon after his marriage, and from which he retired only a few years ago. In her early teens Mrs. Bernauer began clerking in the Fipp and Address store here, then transferred to Pagel's Store when the owners sold to Jacob Pagel. It was during this time, in 1908, when the Bernauer family came to Muenster — the Kaiser family had come here in 1894 — that Louie and Susie met. They were married the next year.

Mrs. Bernauer is widely known through her association with Muenster State Bank for 25 years. She has lived here continuously since she was three years old, coming from Remsen, Iowa, where she was born. Mr. Bernauer hails from St. Joseph, Tenn.

The story of their lives as revealed at the anniversary observance tells that the Bernauers were the last town couple to drive to their wedding in a horse drawn carriage. The following month auto taxi service came to town.

Fifty years ago Mrs. Bernauer was married in an all-white floor length wedding gown with the traditional wreath and veil. The dress was well preserved and many years later was borrowed for a costume party and lost. There was no honeymoon trip in 1909. Instead the young marrieds set up housekeeping and went to work.

Mr. Bernauer has been a member of the city council and Mrs. Bernauer served the city as treasurer for many years. He is active in the Knights of Columbus, the Fourth Degree Assembly, St. Joseph's Society and is chairman of the city's Housing Authority committee. Mrs. Bernauer is a member of the parish St Anne's Society and Catholic Daughters of America and the Civic League and Garden Club.

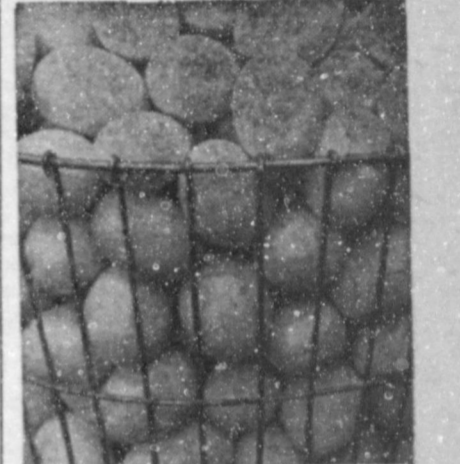

lateral to Doug Hellman who shook off three tacklers before getting lose on his 80 yard scoring sprint. A pass failed and Muenster still trailed 8-6.

Promptly thereafter Era put on its second scoring drive. Six plays advanced 36 yards to the 24 and Wilson got away. Starting around left end he ran into trouble and reversed, and found plenty of good blocking as he headed for the goal.

Following the next kickoff Era promptly got additional points for a comfortable lead. Muenster fumbled on the 12. Two plays later Wilson broke through for 11 yards and the score.

Muenster retaliated with a spirited drive of its own. From their 40 they used 10 plays including 10 and 21 yard passes to Trubenbach and Wimmer. Doug Hellman plowed over for the last yard and Joe Hellman passed to Harris for bonus points.

In the closing minutes Era drove 40 yards before being halted on the 20 and kicked to the 13. Muenster failed to advance on its series and Era continued goalward reaching the 1 as time ran out.

Mrs. Lee Toothaker Feted for Birthday

Mrs. Lee Toothaker's birthday brought two courtesies, the first Saturday night, the second Sunday at noon. Both were pre-birthday celebrations, the date being Tuesday, Oct. 13.

Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Bowen of Saint Jo entertained with a dinner party in their home at Saint Jo for the couples who, with them, make up the 84 Club: Mr. and Mrs. Toothaker, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Gobble. Gifts for the honoree and a big decorated cake made by Mrs. Gobble were a part of the observance.

Sunday Mrs. Toothaker shared honors at a noon dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Payne at Myra. Mr. Payne's birthday is also on Oct. 13.

Third Order Hears Report on Regional Held in Oklahoma

Members of the Third Order of St. Francis, meeting Sunday afternoon, heard interesting reports on the Regional Institute held at Lake Murray Lodge.

Leading the account of institute activity was Mrs. Adolph Walterscheid, giving an all-over report, with Mrs. J. B. Wilde and Prefect J. W. Hess supplying details on special events.

Highlights of the convention, as detailed by the speakers, included Father Mark Hegener's narration of the Life of St. Francis as it was shown in colored film. Father Mark is editor of the Franciscan Forum. Bishop Victor J. Reed's sermon on "Unity of the Third Order" and Dr. E. W. Laake's address on "The Spirit of Poverty." Dr. Laake is prefect of the Dallas fraternity.

Mr. Hess told about business discussed during the special meeting for prefects and Mrs. Wilde told the story of a movie with a moral which was shown during one of the sessions and also gave interesting bits of "on-the-side" activity during the three days.

Something new for the local tertiaris at the institute was participation in a kinposium, the subject being "St. Francis presents us with a Way of Life." Joining in this 12-minute round table discussion were Father Christopher Paladino and Father William Lane.

Other business at the order's meeting Sunday included routine reports and discussion of coming activity which includes plans for a one-day institute for tertiaris from Muenster, Lindsay and Gainesville.

The meeting in the Parish Hall followed recitation of the office in Sacred Heart Church and was attended by about 30 members.

CDA Court Joins Program to Help In Mail Cleanup

Muenster Court Catholic Daughters of America has joined other CDA courts and other organizations in an effort to keep obscene and pornographic materials out of the mails. Several members have already written the Postmaster General endorsing his efforts and have received answers stating that it is indeed encouraging to receive expressions of support and willingness to help in this crusade because this problem can be solved only by the concerted action of responsible citizens.

Included in the Postmaster General's comments was an estimate that as many as one million children this year will receive pornographic filth in the family mail box and offering even worse photographs, magazines, slides and films for sale. This means that one out of every 35 children of school age in the nation will be exposed to the demoralizing effect of pornography.

The sale volume of mail order obscenity has doubled in the last five years, the report showed, and unless vigorously checked can double again over the next four years. This means that by 1963 one school child out of 18 would be the target of these purveyors of filth.

The indirect results of this vile traffic are equally as ominous. Many children who are never exposed to obscene material can nevertheless become victims of sex criminals who are affected by it.

The local CDA court has instructed its members, and urges everyone else to write to Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield, Washington 25, D. C., endorsing his efforts to clean up the mail.

Don't worry about finding your station in life. Someone will tell you where to get off.

"Money is an instrument that can buy you anything but happiness and pay your fare to every place but Heaven."

Area Reservoirs Prevent Flooding In Recent Rains

A survey made by Soil Conservation Service personnel shows that the detention reservoir system on Elm Creek stood the recent heavy storm in good shape.

Checks of rain gauges over the watershed show rainfall varying from 4 inches in the area below Gainesville to more than 8 inches in the area west of Muenster and extending past Saint Jo. All of this rain fell during a period from 2 a.m. Friday to about 8:00 a.m. Sunday.

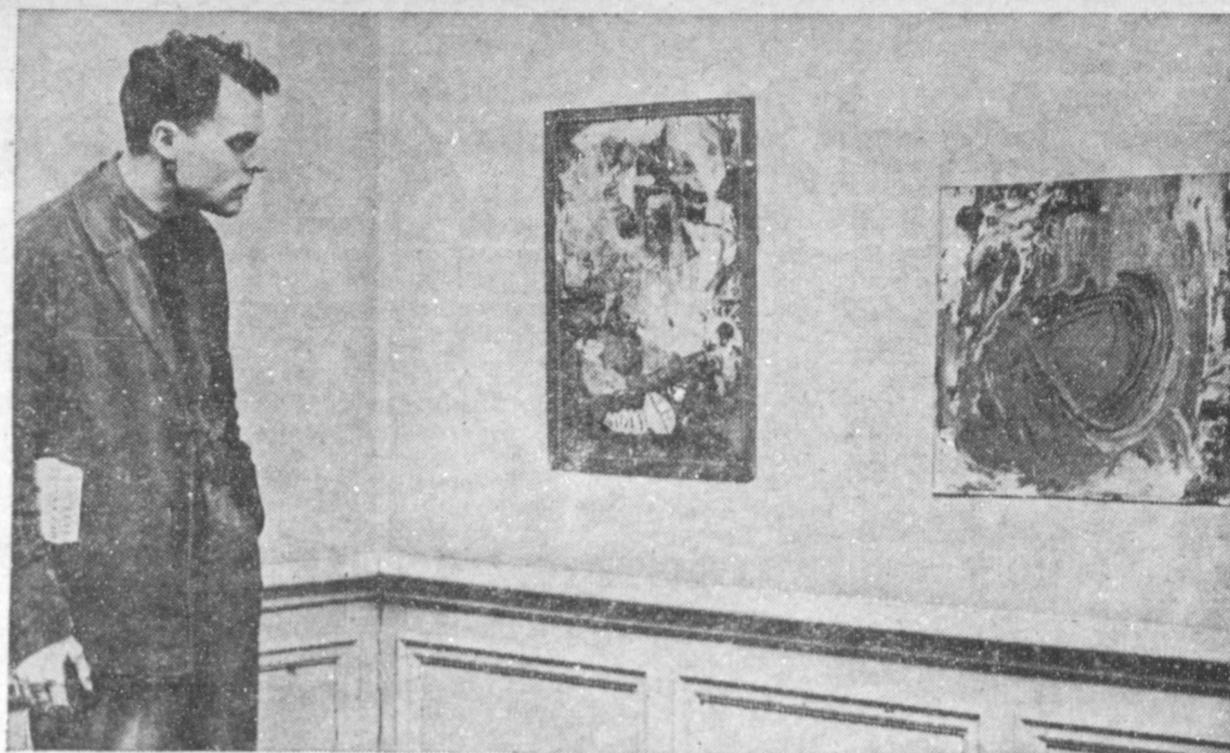

Ted Redman, whose farm is located above Site 6A1 on Brushy Elm Creek reported over 9 inches total rainfall during the period with about six inches during a three hour period Friday night.

Despite this extremely heavy storm, a greater part of which was concentrated in the area where most of the detention reservoirs are located, Elm Creek did not flood above Gainesville. Some flooding occurred below Gainesville but damage was light in comparison to past storms of comparable intensity. Local residents will recall a similar rain which fell in September of 1950. At that time, says Jack McFerran, Gainesville Work Unit Conservationist, Elm Creek was from "hill to hill", all the way from Myra to Lake Dallas.

Two bridges along Elm Creek suffered damages during the flood. However, the bridge south of Lindsay was damaged by local water coming down the county road. This water washed away part of the earth fill abutment preventing its use for a short time. The loss of the concrete bridge on the old Denton road was due to pressure from a log jam against the bridge and not high water since it had withstood much higher flooding in the past.

"An idea of the amount of water stored by the 26 reservoirs on Elm Creek can be obtained by the amount in Site No. 5 on the H. D. Fields ranch below Saint Jo," says John Tippie, Muenster Work Unit Conservationist. "Site No. 5 picked up 1500 acre feet of potential flood water during the storm. This is enough water to cover 1500 acres one foot deep. At the end of the storm this lake had grown from 44 surface acres to over 150 acres. This water is

HOW PRIMITIVE CAN YOU GET?—Swedish artist Oyvind Fahlstrom glares at two of his paintings hanging in an exhibition in Stockholm. Reason for his irritation: painting on the right is actually his brush board which he used as a protective backing for his works. Exhibition officials mistakenly hung the board with his other creations.

DODGE DART

Saving can be exciting! Why scrimp on comfort, style, luxury? Dart makes them yours at lowest cost!

If you like full-scale economy teamed with full-size pride and pleasure, there's a new Dodge Dart that's made for you.

In fact, that fine sculptured beauty pictured above can actually cost less than many a cut-down "economy car".

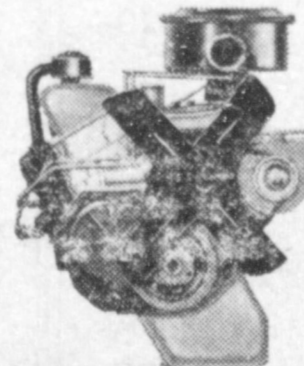

So you say—"Yes, but how about gas economy?" That's when you find out about Dart's sensational new Economy Slant "6". Acts like an 8, yet delivers top mileage (story at right).

And if that's not enough, look what else you're getting for your money. New one-piece Unibody construction—squeak-free, rattle-free, virtually rustproof. New Free-Flight Power that suspends the engine in space. Torsion-Aire Ride, finest ever devised. And more—all at no extra cost.

Come on in and see what all the excitement's about. Make today the day you discover the Dodge Dart.

NOW!

A money-saving "six" that acts like an "eight"!

Look under the hood! Notice how the new Economy Slant "6" is slanted a full 30 degrees. A special intake manifold provides evenly balanced fuel distribution to all cylinders. This highly advanced design lets this modern engine breathe better, breathe deeper, to deliver V-8 "go" at wonderful 6-cylinder savings.

This is the first new "6" in the low-price field since 1955. There's nothing like it on the road. Drive a Dart "Six"—and see for yourself. (Two new V-8's in the Dart line, too.)

 "Look here," said the worried householder to the new maid, "why did you tell your mistress what time I came home last night when I asked you not to?"
 "I didn't," replied the maid, "She asked me what time you got in, and I told her I was too busy cooking the breakfast to look at the clock."

The idea that the owl is a wise old bird has been rudely shattered. A New York Times article quotes a biologist as saying that owls are even dumber than chickens, if that is possible. Following two years of owl studies, he is convinced that the bird is almost completely unable to learn by experience.

Family at Home for Dinner Celebrates Father's Birthday

Frank Yosten had a birthday observance Sunday, a day early. It was a family dinner party at noon with his wife as hostess in her home.

All the children and grandchildren from here were present and the Ferd Yostens and their boys came from Fort Worth.

A decorated cake and a shower of gifts made it a festive occasion. Missing from the family circle were Mr. and Mrs. Nick Mayer and children of Fort Worth. They couldn't attend because some of their youngsters were sick with mumps.

Present from here were Mr. and Mrs. Felix Yosten and family and her father, Frank Mages, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Yosten and children and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Moster and Frankie.

Myra Club Elects Officers for Term

Principal business at the Myra girls' 4-H Club meeting which opened the current school term's activity was election of officers.

They are Joan Huddleston, president; Jamette Hunt, secretary-treasurer; Andra Hunt, reporter; and Mary and Neola Hoover, song leaders.

Yvonne Jenkins, assistant county agent, met with the group and helped with registrations and program planning.

Joe Hermes Hosts Family Gathering

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hermes who moved recently from N. Pecan Street in Muenster to live in the country, south of the Rock Station, had family members over for a supper and house warming party Thursday evening.

Together for the reunion were Messrs. and Mmes. Clem Hermes, Joe and Gregory Hundt, Ed Schad and Frank Haverkamp Jr. and their families, all of Lindsay, the T. Voths and children of Muenster and Mrs. Harold Corcoran and children of Farmington, N. M., who are vacationing with relatives in Cooke County.

Moves Take Three To Different Homes

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hermes and children are settled in a different home. They moved from Katie Hacker's place on North Pecan Street to Myra Highway, south of the Rock Station, to occupy the J. W. Fleitman house where Mrs. Will Sicking formerly lived. Mrs. Sicking moved earlier to a cottage on her Myra farm.

After the Hermeses moved the house they had been living in became the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hughes and children Vickie Lynn, two years, and Jimmy Ray, two months old. The Hughes family had been living in Al Eberhart's house on East First.

Mrs. Lee Wolf Is Birthday Honoree

Birthday party Saturday honored Mrs. Lee Wolf of Gainesville with Mrs. Adam Wolf Jr. as hostess in her home here. It was a card party and guests were the sister and sisters-in-law of the honoree from Lindsay and Gainesville and Mrs. Adam Wolf Sr. of Gainesville. The guests brought their children who had a party of their own while their mothers played Tripoli.

The honoree received a shower of gifts and the hostess served birthday cake and punch.

Together for the afternoon were Mrs. Walter Wolf, Mrs. Ed Wolf and Mrs. Wolf Sr. and children of Gainesville and Mrs. Paul Arendt Jr. and children of Lindsay, the honoree and her family, and the hostess and her children.

Sylvan Walterscheid Is SH Alumni Prexy

Annual election of officers by members of the Sacred Heart Alumni Association at their October meeting gave Sylvan Walterscheid the presidency for the coming year.

Herbert Miller, retiring president, automatically became vice president. Mrs. Ervin Henscheid is the new treasurer and Mrs. Nick Dieter is the new secretary. They replace Mrs. Sylvan Walterscheid and Mrs. Arthur Bayer, respectively.

In other business the alumni members made plans to conduct a refreshment stand at the school's Halloween Carnival on Oct. 25.

Father Christopher and Father Bruno attended the meeting.

After adjournment Mrs. Herbert Miller, hostess for the social hour served refreshments.

Local News BRIEFS

Mrs. Wenzel Trubenbach and her daughter, Marie Trubenbach, shared honors at a birthday dinner in their home Sunday at noon. The former's birthday is Oct. 10 and the latter's Oct. 11. Sister Celine had a day away from the local convent to join her mother for the occasion. In the afternoon Mrs. Trubenbach's other children and grandchildren came over for a visit and brought gifts.

Student Nurse Ann Luke writes from New Orleans now telling her family here that she's managing sight-seeing in the Crescent City in addition to taking her special course in psychiatry at De Paul Hospital. Ann is one of a group of eight student nurses from St. Paul's Hospital in Dallas taking this specialized training in New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. George Petrus and sons visited her family at Ennis during the weekend.

Juanita Wieler, who teaches school at Decatur, came home for a weekend visit with her parents, the John Wieliers.

Visiting Mrs. Byron Sears at her farm home north of Muenster Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Strader of Era and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gregory of Gainesville.

Kathleen McGannon has joined the clerking staff at the Variety Store. She's "breaking in" for the holiday season by working after school and all day Saturday.

Howard Mollenkopf, a student at Texas University in Austin, was a visitor here during the weekend with his mother and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bergman of Ardmore were Thursday visitors with his mother, Mrs. William Bergman. It was Frank's first time out in about two weeks. He's recovering from broken ribs and bruises sustained when a Guernsey bull got unfriendly and knocked him down. The couple didn't write his mother about the mishap for fear she'd worry. Frank works for a dairy and he was back on the job this week.

Sailor Rodney Walter who is here on leave after serving on Guam, made a trip to Arkansas the past week to visit his sister, Judy Walter, at Holy Angels Convent in Jonesboro and she was permitted to join him on a drive to West Memphis, Ark., to visit their sister, Sister Verona. When the three were together they enjoyed a telephone visit with the family, the Oscar Walters, here. All seven joined in the long distance conversation. Enroute home Rodney stopped in Rison, Ark., to visit a Navy buddy at his home. He'll be here until he returns to California for reassignment Oct. 24.

CARD OF THANKS
I want to thank the many friends in Muenster for the prayers, cards, letters and gifts, during my short stay in the hospital and after I was back at home in Saint Jo. I am grateful for every kindness.

Reports on Current Activities Feature CDA Court Meeting

Routine business and committee reports were on the agenda when the local court Catholic Daughters of America held its October meeting Thursday night.

Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel, librarian, gave a report on the library; Mrs. Paul Fisher reported on the biennial NCCW convention she attended at Marshall; and Mrs. Joe Swirczynski, mission chairman, told about recent shipments of clothing to needy missions.

Another report told of the court's participation in the Scholarship Fund. Word from National Headquarters reveals that 50 such scholarships have been made possible for the 1959 season to train religious to teach handicapped children in parochial schools and institutions. Since the program was inaugurated in 1952 the support of individual courts has resulted in more than 300 nuns receiving this special training.

State Regent Mrs. A. J. Rohan has been appointed National Chairman of Civil Defense and Highway Safety. The program is new for Catholic Daughters and as yet no material is available. However members of the local court will be available for any volunteer work necessary in case of a disaster.

Another new project of relief for peace is the Madonna Plan. Briefly, it is a program to support mother-child welfare centers in impoverished areas. So far National CDA headquarters has singled out two for first assistance—one in Puerto Rico and one in Santa Fe, N. M. More than 2000 layettes of 292,000 new items were reported by National Headquarters for last year. Each layette contains 146 pieces. Each Catholic Daughter has been asked to give at least one dollar to the Madonna Plan.

After the business session Mrs. John Mosman, lecturer, served coffee and cookies to members and Chaplain Father Christopher. It was announced that the November meeting will be on Thursday, the twelfth, so as not to conflict with the current football schedule.

Junior 4-H Boys Organize for Term

Sacred Heart Junior 4-H Club boys held their first meeting of the term with Assistant Agent Bo Wheeler present to help organize, enroll members and discuss projects.

The group elected officers headed by Dale Klement as president. Virgil Swirczynski is vice president, Wayne Sicking is secretary-treasurer and Glenn Klement is reporter.

Clarice Roberg Wed To John Richards in Gainesville Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roberg of Gainesville have announced the marriage of their daughter Clarice to John Ed Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Richards, also of Gainesville. The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Katie Roberg of Muenster.

Family members attended the wedding Wednesday evening, Oct. 7, in the rectory of St. Mary's Church with the pastor, Rev. E. J. Gerlich, officiating. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Roberg, brother and sister-in-law of the bride.

For her wedding Clarice wore a royal blue wool jersey net sheath dress with a veiled white velvet hat and white carnation corsage.

The newlyweds will make their home in Dallas where he is employed.

Mrs. Walter Fetes Get-Together Club

Mrs. Al Walter entertained in her home for members of the Get-Together Club at their October meeting. Ten members and two guests, Mrs. Albert Danglemayr and Mrs. Joe Hoening, attended and spent the afternoon playing progressive 42.

Award winners were Mrs. John Wieler for high score and Mrs. John Hartman for low tally. Mrs. Danglemayr drew the door prize. Birthday honorees for the month, Mrs. Joe Luke and Mrs. John Wieler, received gifts from their sunshine pals.

The hostess served pumpkin pie and coffee.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

By J. W. Tippie
The damaging rains that fell the first weekend of October must serve as a reminder to all of us that we cannot relax in our battle against soil erosion. The benefits of farming the "Conservation Way," that is, protecting the soil with "All" of the conservation practices recommended by the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District, are clearly visible at the present time.

The claws of erosion left their ugly marks on too many fields in the Muenster-Saint Jo area. Only those that had a cover of either growing plants, such as alfalfa or sweet clover, or on which the crop residue had been left on the surface, together with a complete terrace system that had been kept up, with ends open, and grassed outlets, escaped with a minimum of damage.

Now is the time to take stock of where we stand. If our land washed from lack of cover, there is still time to plant a soil building and protecting crop of vetch, peas or alfalfa this fall. If the land has not been terraced, now is the time to make preparations. A grassed waterway may have to be planted before terraces can be built. Now is the time to locate and mark off these waterways so that the land can be prepared this winter and the grass planted next spring. Soil Conservation Service technicians are giving this job first priority at the present time.

Tony Trubench Sr. has completed the marking off of a waterway on his farm operated by Eddie Schmitt. Tony Wimmer has marked off three new waterways on his farm. Others to be marked include J. H. Bayer, Mike Schilling, Leo Mosman and Martin Bayer.

In the terracing department many cooperators of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District around Muenster are waiting for favorable weather conditions to complete their construction. These include, Martin Trubench, Eddie Schmitt, Glenn Hellman, Mrs. Will Sicking and Emmett Sicking. Those who recently built terraces include Tony Trubench Sr., Edgar Klement, Henry Pick, J. H. Bayer and John and Joe Kleiss. Vincent Felderhoff has built a diversion terrace to protect some of his bottomland from hill water.

Besides furnishing some drinking water for the people in Dallas, the only good that can come from the recent storm, will be the awakening of us to the needs of the land if we are to have some left for descendants.

Marysville News

By Mrs. B. G. Lyons

MARYSVILLE — Mr. and Mrs. John Richey spent the weekend in Athens with her sister and brother-in-law, the Earl Cochran.

Saturday visitors with the Nig Wilson family were Mrs. Wilson's brother and family, the M. T. Burks of Denison. Sunday afternoon the Wilsons drove to Gainesville to visit at the Sanitarium with little Judy Ann Richey of Sivells Bend.

Is the electric car coming back? One forecast holds that by 1970 half of the urban automobile transportation will be provided by these vehicles. Major problem is to produce better batteries. Hope is that a battery will be developed which will move a car 300 miles on one charge.

Deanery Will Meet In Gainesville for Christ-King Feast

Hundreds of Catholics from the eight towns and cities making up the Sherman Deanery of the Diocese of Dallas-Fort Worth will gather in Gainesville on Sunday, October 25, for the deanery's annual formal observance of the feast of Christ the King. Places represented will be Gainesville, Muenster, Lindsay, Valley View, Pilot Point, Sherman, Denison and Greenville.

According to Joe Walter, program chairman, the celebration will consist principally of a procession to St. Mary's Church, a sermon by Msgr. Thomas S. Zachry and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

It will begin prior to 3 p.m. as visitors assemble in their respective parish groups on the St. Mary's School athletic field. Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus in formal attire will form a separate group to serve as honor guard to the Holy Eucharist.

At 3 the procession will begin, each parish reciting the rosary while marching to church. In church the procedure is as follows: sermon, group singing of a hymn, benediction, and group singing of "Holy God We Praise Thy Name."

Blessed Events

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Bezner announce the birth of an eight pound daughter at Gainesville Sanitarium Tuesday, Sept. 13, at 8:30 p.m. She's a sister for Matt and Lisa. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jake Bezner of Lindsay and Mrs. Alphons Walterscheid of Muenster and there are 3 great-grandmothers, Mrs. Anna Wiese of Lindsay, Mrs. John Walterscheid of Muenster and Mrs. Jenny Schilling of Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zimmerer of Lindsay have announced the arrival of their second son, a brother for Albert Jr. He was born at 1:30 a.m. Friday, Sept. 9, at Gainesville Sanitarium weighing seven pounds six ounces. Family Dinner Is Birthday Courtesy

A birthday reunion and dinner party at noon Sunday honored Theo Miller, his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Bayer, entertaining in their home in Gainesville. All of Mr. Miller's eight children and their families were present. They brought gifts and took pictures.

The observance came two days before the birthday, Sunday being a better day for the group to get together. Present with the honoree and the hosts and their family were the Stan and Paul Yostens and children of Fort Worth, the Herbert and W. J. Millers, the Ervin Henscheids and the Tommy Felderhoffs and their families and Teddy Miller.

Lindsay News

Mrs. Adam Beyer is back at her home after visiting in the homes of a daughter and family, the Frank Sandmanns, and a son Lambert Beyer and family in Gainesville, while she was regaining her strength following surgery. Another son, Carl Beyer, of Fort Worth came over one day for a visit with his mother.

Students of Lindsay had a full holiday Monday while their teachers attended classes. Catholic Sisters of the Dallas-Fort Worth diocese were in Dallas for a diocesan teachers meeting in Ursuline Academy.

Saturday, Oct. 24, is the date set for the wedding of Rose Marie Moosberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Moosberger of Austin, formerly of Lindsay. Her marriage to Leo Black will take place in St. Ignatius Catholic Church at 9 a.m. A reception will follow at Green Pastures.

Saturday is work day in Lindsay Cemetery. Persons with flowers and shrubbery on the cemetery are reminded to move them before the work gets under way.
