Jaycees Will Have Charter Banquet Saturday Night

A banquet featuring an address by Miles K. Brown Jr. of Fort Worth, this year's selection for the title of Outstanding Jaycee of Texas, will be the occasion at which the Muenster Junior Chamber of Commerce installs its charter officers and receives three charters designating affiliation with state, national and international levels of the organization.

The event is set for Saturday night, 7:30 p.m. in the Muenster High School lunch room. Public is invited and tickets can be bought from any JC member.

Along with his distinction as the state's top rating Jaycee, Brown serves the state organization as director of publications. He has served as a local officer, state chairman, state vice-president and national director. He is vice-president of the Security Life Insurance Company of Fort Worth. The subject of his talk is "Leadership Training Through Community Development."

Charters will be presented and installation will be conducted by Dub Huffington of Wichita Falls, state director for Region 3 of the JCs.

Other state and regional officers are also expected to attend the formal beginning of the organization's Muenster chapter.

Charter officers to be installed are Joe Galloway, president; Donald Bayer 1st vice-president; Jerry Wimmer, 2nd vice-president; Henry Weinzapfel, secretary; Tommy Herr, treasurer; Joe Mosier, Dan Haverkamp, William Walterscheid, Arthur Bayer and Bill Pratt, directors.

REVERENT AT SHILOH
The Shiloh Baptist Church will hold a revival starting July 24, with the Rev. Oval Cogdill conducting the services.

Reason tells us that the first necessary step in that direction is a complete break with the reds. We can start by telling them the nuclear test ban talks are cancelled — because we know in advance that we would lose in any deal. We would do as we agree and Russia would do as it pleases.

Next thing is to apply real pressure in the Cuban situation. A blockade to stop the import of everything — weapons, personnel, oil, drugs, food, everything — until the reds, and also Castro, are off the island. And that should be backed by a renewal of last October's ultimatum. In case bombs start flying ours will be sent to Russia, not Cuba. After all, it is rather absurd for us to assure people of Germany of our firmness while we meekly allow an enemy build-up next door.

Other things, too, can be done. We can stop trade to all red countries, cutting off the vital supplies which make up

Ravens Take Title In Pee Wee Loop

The Ravens have sacked up the title in the junior division of the Little League. With a perfect 7-0 record and two make-up games still to be played they have a cinch for the best standing of the loop. Next are the Jays with 3-4 then the Hawks and Crows with 2-5 each.

Wednesday the Ravens edged the Jays 10-9 and the Crows clobbered the Hawks 14-4.

Standings are running close in the bigger boys' division. Braves and Yanks each have a 4-3 record. Dodgers and Giants each have 3-4. Last Friday Dodgers beat the Braves and Giants beat the Yanks.

According to the calendar Friday's games should end the season, but pee wees still have two make-up games and the older kids have one. Conflict with two Jaycee events postponed two games and rain postponed the other.

Booked to play Friday are Braves-Giants in the first game, Yanks-Dodgers in the second. Wednesday it will be Ravens-Jays in the opener, then Crows-Hawks.

Final Rites Held For Guy Cannon

Guy Cannon, 66, of Saint Jo died July 16, in a Gainesville Hospital. Funeral services were held Wednesday July 17, at 2:30 p.m. in the Church of Christ of Saint Jo. He was born February 28, 1896, at Bonita, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cannon. He married Miss Minnie Blakeley at Bulcher.

Survivors are his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Opal Dennis of Gainesville; three sons, Ruel Cannon of Saint Jo, R. D. and Walter Cannon of Gainesville; two sisters, Mrs. Minnie Blakeley of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Pearl Samples of Saint Jo; six brothers, Will Cannon of Nacogdoches, Ollie Cannon of Saint Jo, Alex and Claude Cannon of Bulcher, Sam Cannon of Olton, and Calip Cannon of McLain.

Contract Awarded For Another Dam On Clear Creek

A contract has been awarded for construction of another detention reservoir on Clear Creek. Harold Skaggs, chairman of the board of supervisors, Upper Elm Red Soil Conservation District, announced that Moroney-Thomas of Seagoville was low bidder for the job.

The reservoir will be built on Clear Creek Site 4, located on land owned by Clarence Dunn of Dye Mound.

The project is another step forward in the district's program to retard floodwater on small upstream creeks and prevent damaging overflow on the big creeks lower down.

Partial Relief to Drought Arrives In 1.34 inch Rain

Partial relief of the drought, but far short of the community's needs, came Saturday night in a rain measuring 1.34 inches. That was among the lower readings for this part of the state. On all sides of Muenster there were reports of 2 or more.

The rain was late for growing crops, such as corn and maize, and inadequate for range land. It will make little if any improvement in grazing, however. Farmers who quit their fields a few weeks ago are working again, enjoying temporary good plowing.

Rain so far this month measures only 1.41 inches, following only .67 last month, the driest June of the past decade. Total rainfall for the year to date is 12.75 inches.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Milk Receipts in North Texas Area Continue Decline

During June 1963, North Texas producers delivered 85,519,629 pounds of milk for a daily average of 2,850,654 pounds. This daily average was 3.62 per cent less than in May and was 1.49 per cent below the daily average for June 1962. June makes the tenth straight month that producer receipts for the current month have been less than the producer receipts for the same month a year earlier.

Class I utilization during June 1963 was 55,462,910 pounds. This was a daily average of 1,848,764 pounds, a decrease of 7.01 per cent from May 1963 and 79 per cent below June 1962.

There were 2,315 producers on the North Texas market during June who delivered an average of 1,231 pounds of milk per day. This number of producers is 137 less than in June 1962.

Producers who delivered milk on the North Texas market during June 1963 will receive $4.29 per hundredweight for 3.5% base milk and $2.87 per hundredweight for 3.5% excess milk, according to an announcement by Byford W. Bain, Market Administrator. The above price for base milk is subject to a location adjustment. For each point (0.1%) that the average butterfat content of producer milk varies from 3.5%, a butterfat differential of 6.0 cents applies. The base price for June 1963 is 25 cents more than during June 1962 and the excess price is 4 cents more on a 3.5% basis.

There were 75,770,414 pounds of base milk delivered during June 1963 compared with 77,058,406 pounds during June 1962, a decrease of 1.65 per cent. Excess deliveries totaled 9,749,215 pounds, .30 per cent less than during June 1962.

Directors Finish Details for Issue Of Hospital Bonds

Final proceedings for delivery and sale of Muenster Hospital bonds were completed in a meeting of hospital authority directors Monday night. The actual transfer of bonds and money is scheduled for next Tuesday, July 23.

At that time bonds will be delivered by a representative of Dumas, Huguenin and Boothman, attorneys handling the legal details, after which the Muenster Hospital Authority will deliver them to First of Texas, a brokerage firm engaged to sell them.

The total value of bonds being issued is $300,000, of which $250,000 will be sold by the broker and $50,000 will be retained here for local sale.

The total amount will be placed in the hospital construction fund, completing the local requirement to build, equip and supply the hospital and also to provide a fund for the beginning of its operation. The balance of the requirement has been made available through a Hill-Burton grant of $300,000.

Monday night's procedure, in which the board was assisted by Elbert Morrow of the legal firm and Henry Keller of the bonding company, consisted in adopting rate schedules and administrative policies required for issue of the bonds.

The bonds are revenue bonds, and provisions are made to retire them out of the hospital's earnings, as demanded by the bonding company's policy. However the hospital directors intend to continue their original plan of financing the original building and equipment strictly by donations. Consistent with their original intention of giving the Benedictine Sisters a debt-free hospital to administer, they will assume the debt themselves and continue their drive until it is paid off.

City Begins Use Of New Reservoir

The city's new pump house and reservoir, built during the winter and early spring has finally been put into service. It was filled for the first time Tuesday night.

Two factors account for the delay in using it, according to Steve Mosier, waterworks superintendent. After completion of the city declined to accept the reservoir until seepage was stopped. The job was okayed on June 20, but the city waited since then on arrival of pump parts.

At this time the new reservoir is connected with the No. 1 well nearby, and pipe is being laid for connection with the No. 4 well about two blocks southwest on Maple.

Completion of the reservoir doubles the city's reservoir capacity — from 150,000 to 300,000 gallons. This one holds 200,000 gallons and the old one holds 50,000. The tank on North Main holds 100,000 gallons. Total storage capacity of reservoirs and water tower is 350,000 gallons.

By contrast, the city's peak consumption for a day is about 370,000 gallons. Normal demand now is about 300,000 a day. So the supply, when tanks are full, is more than enough to last a normal day.

Production at the wells is still far ahead of city demand. Pumps are able to deliver a half million gallons a day.

Funeral Held for Hoedebeck Infant

Funeral services were held Sunday at 4 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church for Mary Lynne Hoedebeck, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hoedebeck. Rev. Bruno Fuhrmann was the celebrant at the Mass of the Angels.

The little girl was born Thursday, July 11, at Gainesville Hospital and died there Saturday, July 13. She was baptized Mary Lynne by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas S. Zachry. Pallbearers were Kathy Hoedebeck, Pamela Walterscheid, Kathy and Janie Arendt.

Survivors in addition to the parents are two brothers, Paul and Joey; five sisters, Linda, Terry, Peggy, Mary and Toni, all of the home; the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoedebeck of Muenster; and Mrs. Antonia Sanchez of Derby, Kansas.

Last 2 Vacancies Filled on Faculty At Muenster High

The last two vacancies on the Muenster public school faculty have been filled. Superintendent L. B. Bruns disclosed after last week's school board meeting that the coach and the band instructor have been hired.

The athletic coach is James Ray Polk, who spent the past two years with Valley View of Wichita County. He attended school in Oklahoma, finishing high school at Frederick, and receiving his BA degree from Southeast State Teachers College of Durant. His major was speech and his minor was PE. He played football in high school, 2 years in the army and one year semiprofessional. He, his wife and two daughters intend to move here soon.

Royce Lumpkin, drum major of the marching band at North Texas State University, is the new band instructor. He will teach part time while he continues his studies at NTSU.

Notes on Building and Improvement

Henry Pels Jr. is settled in his new home on Maple just north of the city. He has 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, central heat, double garage, brick siding.

Bruno Fleitman is remodeling kitchen, bath and back porch and painting the interior.

The former Paul Brewer house, just bought by Henry Weinzapfel and Jerry Wimmer is receiving a general fix-up to be followed by new paint. It will be occupied by James R. Polk, MHS athletic coach.

John Wieler has finished a fix-up job on the house he bought recently from Pat Hennigan — new roof, interior paint and wallpaper. Wieler also has new paint on his Mobil warehouse and storage tanks.

Inside improvements for Leo Henscheid include tile walls for the bathroom, paint and paper in the other rooms.

Tom Hamilton has enlarged his trailer-house home with a built-on room and porch.

Alphonse Felderhoff is repairing all of his exterior woodwork and some of the inside of the house.

Joe Hoening and Mrs. Wesley Landsfeld have installed central air conditioning systems.

Jake Pagel has installed an underground sprinkler system on his lawn.

Many property owners are getting curbs nowadays in preparation for the city's paving project. They are Helena Kleiss, John Herr, Virgil Henscheid, Felix Yosten, Rufus Henscheid, Helen Steinberger, John Otto, Bill Derichsweiler, Muenster Hospital, J. M. Weinzapfel, Joe Luke, Rosalie Trubenbach, Mrs. John Fette, Val Fuhrman, Theresa Mosier, H. M. Schmitz, Shamburger Lumber Co., John Haverkamp, Mrs. E. S. Lawson, Fred Hennigan, Mrs. Leona Eberhart.

Only Five More Weeks of Vacation

Only five weeks of vacation are left for Muenster school kids. Registration at both the parochial and public school has been set for Thursday and Friday, August 23 and 24, and class work will begin the following Monday.

Hillsboro Firm Gets Contract for Paving Project

Paving and re-surfacing on about 20 blocks of Muenster streets will begin some time between August 1 and 15. That is the word from Street Commissioner Ray Otto.

At its meeting Monday night the city council awarded the paving contract to J. C. McCauley and Associates of Hillsboro. In a phone call Tuesday Otto learned the approximate date for starting.

Otto also stated that property owners this year will get a better deal on paving than before. The contractor's bid was lower and the saving has been passed on to citizens. The city's charge to property owners will be 67.5 cents per square yard. The charge on the previous project was 72 cents.

It was also pointed out that property owners will be charged for new pavement only. If none exists now they pay from curb to center of street the length of their front footage. If narrow pavement exists they pay from curb to the edge of old pavement. Owners do not pay for re-surfacing, however, so they do not pay for another coat on old pavement.

This year's project will consist of a complete job on all the designated streets, that is full width new pavement, widening narrow pavement to full width, and resurfacing old pavement.

Clarence Wilson's Sister, 85, Dies In Gainesville

Mrs. Lula McKaig, 85, of Gainesville, died in a Gainesville hospital Saturday at 1:10 a.m. after suffering a broken hip on July 1 in a fall at her home. She was a sister of Clarence Wilson of Muenster. She was born May 6, 1878, in Dallas, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. Wilson. She married M. N. McKaig, who died in 1956.

Dr. Harry Roark officiated at funeral services in the First Baptist Church at 4 p.m. Sunday. Interment was in Rest Haven Memorial Park under the direction of Vernie Keel Funeral Home.

Active bearers were Lloyd Sparkman, Yancey Culp, Richard Pyle, John Kemplin, William Carroll, Kenneth Heath, J. W. Cash, and Sam Hays.

Male members of the First Baptist Church were honorary bearers.

Survivors are two sons, Otha McKaig of Mineola and H. L. McKaig of Gladewater; one daughter, Mrs. Tom C. Bobo of Midland; three sisters, Mrs. Lloyd Sparkman of Gainesville, Mrs. Vida Womack of Floydada and Mrs. George Johnson of Albuquerque, N. M.; and the brother, Mr. Wilson of Muenster.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hartman were among those attending from Muenster.

Scouts Get Soaked At Annual Outing

Boy Scouts and their dads on their camp-out at Lake Texoma last Saturday night, lived up to their record of bringing rain. They got soaked and practically every car had to be pulled out the next morning.

Otherwise everything was fine. Youngsters and oldsters had fun until the shower, and again Sunday morning. The field mass was well attended and so was the picnic.

The event is so popular that all concerned want more of it. The repeat date has been set for the night of August 10-11.

10 IMPORTANT STEPS TO VICTORY OVER COMMUNISM

By Harry Browne

Here are ten key steps that would bring the Communists to their knees — if we could just muster the desire to win!

1. We can prevent Communist aggressions — such as in Vietnam — by terminating all aid to Poland, who in turn finances these local aggressions.

2. We could raise the courage and determination of Europeans by disarming the Yugoslavian and Algerian Communist military forces — which would happen the moment we decide to quit arming them.

3. We could severely restrict Russian scientific knowhow, just by ending the scientific and cultural exchange with the Soviets — exchanges that have been strictly one-sided.

4. Our military superiority would be greatly accentuated if the Communists' embassies in the U. S. were closed — thereby shutting off their number one espionage communications channel.

5. The world-wide impression of "Communist inevitability" would be lessened as soon as we declare there will be no more summit meetings and other conferences. These meetings have been prime propaganda tools for the Communists — for they continually demonstrate our willingness to back down from original demands.

6. The defeatist attitude of anti-Communists everywhere would be reversed automatically if we were to close our embassies in Communist countries — no longer giving respectability to known murderers and gangsters.

7. If our State Department was to withdraw from the business of negotiating trade contracts with the Communists, the Soviets would no longer obtain critically-needed machine tools on worthless promises to "pay later."

8. At the same time, the Communists would find it much harder to acquire our gold and other resources if the State Department no longer forced Communist-made goods into American stores.

9. The Soviet people's dislike for communism would be magnified greatly if we quit subsidizing their bankrupt agricultural system. We presently help the Communists hide their failures from their own people.

10. If we were to break off diplomatic relations with all Communist countries, we would give the enslaved peoples in these nations the first real incentive they've ever had to revolt — and the Communist system would begin living on borrowed time.

Plan for Victory

These 10 acts could bring total victory over communism — because they would end the artificial help the Soviets receive from us, and weaken the Communist system from within.

They are all practical, they are all legal, and they are all moral. Every one of them could be achieved by the enactment of just one measure: If our government would break off diplomatic relations with all Communist countries — including all aid and negotiations — all of these valuable acts would happen — and we would be well on the way to victory.

Our policy for victory needs only one phrase: break off all relations with all Communist countries!

NATIONAL FARM SAFETY WEEK JULY 21-27, 1963

AS YOU SOW ... SO SHALL YOU REAP

Drawn for National Safety Council by Kenneth J. Dolan, Flint (Mich.) Journ.

THE FREE ARE ALWAYS IN DANGER

James A. Farley, an astute politician and a dedicated student of his fellow citizens for half a century, may well understand the American people better than they understand themselves — and we hope he does.

In his recent address before the Executives' Club of Chicago, "A Creed for a Time of Danger," condensed as the lead article in the July Reader's Digest, Mr. Farley undertakes to remind us of the stuff we are made of.

The Kremlin, in its round-the-clock effort to break the will of the American people to resist, he says, has the unwitting aid of well-meaning Americans who view with alarm and urge greatest care in this time of greatest danger. He points out that "there is a vast difference between taking care and taking to the woods", and asks: "Do you think the Liberty Bell was rung as a signal for Americans to flee for their lives — or as a call to arms?"

As to the danger that exists, Mr. Farley says: "I expect to be called an alarmist and even a warmonger. My answer is to point to the map. The map proves that we are not moving toward war with the Communists; they are moving war toward us. Each time we seek to disengage, they confront us nearer home. Today they are on our doorstep."

In facing up to the Red propaganda, Americans should say: "You commissars may have a weapon that will blow me to kingdom come; but the weapon will never be invented that can put a yoke on my neck." The Red charge that we are soft and afraid of hardships has been made before, Mr. Farley notes, by the likes of George III, Kaiser Wilhelm and Hitler; but it was the US that rescued the Russians from the Nazis — for which Radio Moscow has publicly thanked us.

At the end of the war, we demobilized, taxed ourselves $60 billion to feed the starving and revive the shattered nations of Europe. The Reds, accusing us of seeking to conquer the world, undertook to do just that, and as of now, Mr. Farley reminds us, have enslaved nearly a billion people in 15 once-free nations, threaten India and Southeast Asia, dominate China, Tibet and now Cuba.

Our own history, from Jamestown and Plymouth onward, he thinks, is the best assurance that we can and will face our greatest trial decisively. "It is a pity," he says, "that Mr. Khrushchev doesn't read more history."

Department of Waste: Understand that the Department of Health, Education and Welfare is spending millions in a research program to determine the cause of illegitimacy. How ridiculous can we get?

Today, more people are on relief than in the great depression. The cost of relief far exceeds $100 a year per taxpaying family. This has occurred despite Social Security, unemployment compensation and other welfare measures. The drop in crime that was to accompany liberalized relief hasn't materialized. It's time to clean up the mess — but who will start the cleaning?

Soil feeds our nation — conserve it.

CHANGING CLIMATE?

Alger Hiss, the State Department whiz kid who played a part in the infamous Yalta deal with Stalin and was convicted of perjury in 1951 for denying his participation in a Communist spy ring, has told the British public via trans-Atlantic telephone and BBC radio that the present mood in this country might permit new consideration of his case leading to a Presidential pardon.

It well could be, in view of the astonishing award this year of the $50,000 Enrico Fermi prize by the Atomic Energy Commission to Dr. Robert Oppenheimer who was stripped of his security clearance in 1954 for his intimate association with Communists and fellow travellers and for his "falsehoods, evasions and misrepresentations."

It is customary for the Enrico Fermi Award winner to receive his fifty thousand tax-free dollars out of the US Treasury at the hands of the President in a White House ceremony. So far as is presently known, no date has been set thusfar for such a performance. If the President does go through with it, however, rather than finding a less embarrassing means of conveying the prize, this could well be taken as an indication that Mr. Hiss is right in his evaluation of the times.

If we are ready now to regard playing around with Commies as a boyish prank, Hiss may not only be pardoned but restored to his State Department eminence.

The human heart beats more than 100,000 times a day, reveals a study by the University of Chicago of 100 men of normal health. The count for different individuals, however, ranged from 98,000 to 135,000 heart beats in 24 hours.

Ever Ready

An ambitious young man ventured to approach a great merchant and inquired, "May I ask you the secret of success?"

"There is no secret," replied the merchant. "You just jump at your opportunity."

"But how can I tell when my opportunity comes?"

"You can't — you have to keep jumping."

ROAD TO OBLIVION

General Eisenhower, like thoughtful Americans in all walks of life, fears that there has been a "... widespread to be infecting the moral strength" and that we "seem to be losing our responsibilities unflinchingly."

A "gimme" attitude appears to be infecting the moral climate. For instance, in the endless debate over taxation, the former President said: "We are ... critical of high taxes; but we don't like to see taxes revised in such a fashion as to relieve others one cent more than it does us of part of the tax burden. The vast majority believes that governmental expenditures are too high; but we insist upon excluding from any program of reduction all those that seem to profit us individually."

This "Let George do it" or "George pay for it" attitude can destroy a nation. The "What's in it for me?" point of view is becoming a suicidal bright. Chin deep in material benefits, we're still after all we can get for ourselves, and let the devil take the hindmost. This course, long enough followed, is a sure road to national dishonor — and oblivion.

Don't take chances on moths and mildew, excessive heat and dryness. Use our modern storage facilities for furs, coats, suits, blankets, quilts and draperies. You'll be glad next fall you called us today!

Midmorn Hunger Is Let-down After Skimpy Breakfast

If you suffer from "mid-morning hunger," better revise your breakfast habits, State Health Department nutritionists advise.
 More and more people are falling into the habit of skimpy breakfasting. Surveys have shown that two out of every nine children leave for school without breakfast, and four out of ten workers leave for work with nothing to eat.

"Midmorning hunger" is the expression nutritionists use to describe the feeling which comes after an inadequate breakfast. Victims usually feel weak and giddy by midmorning. They may be hungry, yet have no taste for lunch. Or, if they are able to eat a big lunch, they may feel sleepy by early afternoon.

Midmorning hunger therapy, nutritionists say, calls for the "patient" to eat a solid breakfast. The extent of breakfast consumption varies from person to person. Individuals with special problems or modified diets can be guided by their physician.

Many Texas teachers and school nurses place special emphasis on breakfast. One school nurse had a breakfast contest in the elementary grades. Near the end of the school year a mother telephoned to report on the improved breakfast habits and general well being of the whole family. Before the contest, the mother said, none of the family ate breakfast. Her child, involved in the school breakfast contest, insisted on having a good breakfast. Eventually it caught on and the whole family began eating breakfast and feeling better.

It is a false idea that skipping breakfast is a good way to reduce. If anything, this highly injurious practice adds pounds. It works like this: Skip breakfast and by noon you have lost your appetite or else are afraid to eat for fear of being groggy all afternoon. Then for supper you eat the food your body has been demanding all day. Now you go to bed and your supper is converted into fat rather than energy as would have been the case had you eaten properly during hours of greatest activity.

An adequate breakfast pattern can be adapted to any age, budget or cultural pattern: fruit or fruit juice, protein-rich food — such as eggs, cheese, meat or beans — bread or cereal and milk.

If time is a prohibitive factor, some preparations can be made the night before — setting the table fixing the coffee pot, etc. . . .

Breakfast eating is a part of daily life that will pay dividends in a higher level of health and well being.

It's old but still true — we mean the definition of will power: "The ability to eat one salted peanut".

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brewerman of Cincinnati, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Price of Lawton, Okla. and Mrs. M. M. Wilcox of Nocona spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilcox.

Some 68.7 per cent of the nation's oil wells produce 10 barrels a day or less, and the average output of these "stripper wells", as they are called, is 3.96 barrels. But, together, they produce 592 million barrels a year — about 23 per cent of total U. S. production.

The family household in the old days was a busy, happy place, with the big kids taking care of the little kids, mother was kept busy in the kitchen, cooking, ironing, sewing and peeling and cooking vegetables of the garden or cellar and chopping off a chicken's head and picking it. The old man worked twelve hours a day for three bucks to keep the household going. For some reason in those days folks were paying their bills, the divorce courts had no business, folks were not suing each other for an easy buck, and no one was having a nervous breakdown, and no body knew what a tranquilizer was. Isn't it odd how they lived?

The physics professor called on one of his students to list some of the peculiarities of heat and cold.

"Things expand in heat and contract in cold," the student answered brightly.

"In summer the days are long and in winter they are short," said the student.

POOR HOUSEKEEPING

WHEN A FALL IS NOT A SEASON

A man applied for a book-keeping job. "Where did you get your training?" "Yale." "Splendid! What's your name?" "Yohnson."

Observing Water Safety Rules Can Prevent Tragedy

Water safety in sports is principally a matter of observing the safety precautions and observing them.

Deaths by drowning could be cut down to almost none if swimmers would observe a few rules — never swim alone, or at night except in well-lighted pools, or just after eating, or when overly tired.

Deaths and injuries from diving could be virtually eliminated if divers would take the trouble to know where they were diving. How deep is the water? Are there any underwater obstructions? Diving accidents almost always are caused by diving into shallow water or unfamiliar water.

Water skiing — a sport that is growing rapidly in popularity — need not be hazardous. The skipper of the boat should know what he is doing, avoiding dangerous high speeds and skimming too close to docks, other boats and obstructions. Preferably, there should be a second man in the boat, and, very important, the skier should wear a life belt to keep him afloat if he is winded by a smashing fall.

Underwater swimming and spear fishing with artificial breathing apparatus, is another sport that is gaining in popularity. Here again, knowing how to swim well, how to use the aqualung and how to handle oneself under water will prevent most accidents.

In boating accidents, the cardinal safety rule is — stay with the boat. Someone will be along eventually to pick you up, and a long swim to the shore is beyond the capacity of all but a few highly trained athletes.

Sunburn, the universal hazard of water sports, also can be avoided or minimized by using common sense — don't stay out in the hot sun too long.

Knowledge of artificial respiration, with emphasis on the new mouth-to-mouth method, will save many people from succumbing to drowning. It isn't very difficult to apply artificial respiration, if you know how.

There are few water safety problems that couldn't be avoided by the application of common sense, coupled with at least a cursory knowledge of safety rules.

Bold and Brave

Miss: "The man I marry must have enormous courage." Beau: "Oh, you're not as bad as all that."

The bigger the summer vacation... the harder the fall.

Point of View

Two businessmen were discussing a couple of their employees. One man said, "Till show you how dumb Joe is." He called the boy in, gave him a five-dollar bill, and said, "Here, Joe, go get me a new car." Joe left with the money.

The second man, not to be outdone, called his boy and said, "Pete, go down to Tom's and see if I'm there." Pete left on his errand.

Downtown, the two boys met. Joe said, "My boss is so dumb. He gave me five dollars to buy him a new car, and didn't say what color."

"Well, what do you think about mine?" Pete replied. "He sent me down to Tom's to see if he was there, and he could just as well have phoned."

Seafair Queen Gail Reid, the 600-foot Space Needle, and majestic Mt. Rainier, which rises over 14,000 feet, are three reasons why Seattle is a good place to visit. Queen Gail reigns over the 10-day Seafair celebration, August 2-11, which is the highlight of the summer vacation season. Parades, the $25,000 Seafair Trophy Race for unlimited hydroplanes, and a jam-packed program of marine-flavored events occupy the 10-day calendar that annually attracts tourists from throughout the nation.

SEATTLE, WASH. — A gigantic summertime fun festival — the 14th annual Seafair celebration — is being readied to take over where the Seattle World's Fair left off by focusing the attention of the nation's tourists on this maritime city.

Determined to continue the showmanship demonstrated during the multi-million Fair, Greater Seattle, Inc., a veteran civic promotion organization, unveiled plans for a million dollar summer season that include, in addition to the colorful ten-day Seafair extravaganza, top-flight musical productions and name Hollywood and Broadway entertainment.

Seafair will get under way August 2 and run through August 11 with the $25,000 purse Seafair Trophy Race for unlimited hydroplanes as the exciting climax. The water spectacular will bring the nation's fastest racing boats to Seattle's Lake Washington in a thrilling test of speed and endurance. Speeds up to 180 miles per hour are commonplace in this event and a log-boom and beach full of a quarter-million spectators is again expected.

But, before the race, the untold tens of thousands of tourists, as well as Seattleites, gorge themselves on a menu that spans a myriad of events from archery to water skiing. While pretty queens and princesses, outlandish pirates, and regal royalty hold sway over the mardi gras atmosphere, majestic parades serpentine their way through city streets. The Grande Parade, held the first Saturday of Seafair, annually draws 200,000 people, young and old. Theme of this year's parade is "The Golden Years". The U.S. Navy's Pacific Fleet visits during Seafair and sends 5,000 bluejackets ashore for a Seafair liberty.

The entertainment feature of Seafair is Al Sheehan's Aqua Follies, held nightly in Seattle's outdoor lakeside showplace — the Aqua Theatre. Three hit musical shows, headed by Gretchen Wyler in "Redhead", are slated for the Aqua Theatre July 9-July 13. Anna Maria Alberghetti, another Broadway TV and motion picture singing star, will star in "Kismet" at the lakeside theatre from July 23 through July 28.

Show business has to share the summer spotlight with a varied sports program, which includes a pre-season pro-football game on August 17, in the University of Washington Stadium featuring Kansas City vs. Oakland of the American Football League.

They spent a day at Wichita Falls and, going home, visited their son Wayne, who is with Texas Instruments at Dallas.

Sandmann Kin Have Reunion at Lindsay Sunday

A family reunion Sunday of all of the descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sandmann was held in the Lindsay Parish Hall. Everyone attending brought covered dishes for the noon meal and a large number remained for the evening meal.

The late Mr. and Mrs. Sandmann were the parents of ten children, five sons and five daughters. The four living children all attended the reunion. They are William and Frank Sandmann and Mrs. George Spaeth of Lindsay and Mrs. Henry Strategier Sr. of Norman, Okla.

It was the first Sandmann reunion for the group and they decided to make it an annual affair. Visiting was enjoyed and pictures were made.

Out of town relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strategier Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strategier Jr. and children Debbie, Susan and Chuck, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cavanaugh and Jimmy, Bobby, Mickey, Barbara, Rosemary, Vickie, Kevin and Kathy and their friend David Sanders of Norman, Okla.

Know Your Soils

The pond dam in the photograph has failed. This wouldn't have happened if the engineer had known that the soils in the fill contained Kaolin clay, which is very unstable when moist. He would have known he couldn't safely impound water with those soils.

Lets look at a few more examples where knowing the soil would have prevented a lot of trouble and expense. Have you ever heard or said anything like the following?

"There is a 'creep' under my house. Yes, there really is for the very foundation on which my house is standing slowly but surely is inching its way downhill. "Soil scientists say the hillside on which my home is located is made up of 'working soils.' That these high shrink — high swell clayey soils expand when wet and shrink when dry and are thus constantly pushing and pulling at the foundation of my house. The soil scientists also claim that this expanding and contracting action is to blame for the large crack in the west wall of my living room. And they can prove it, too, for the crack does open up during dry weather and closes up when it rains. Well, it's too late now to do much about my house, except to try and keep it from slipping off its foundation, but I could have prevented all of this had I only found out what soils I had. And the 'creep' wouldn't be there today if a proper foundation had been prepared.

"My neighbor really has his problems. Last year he planted 30 acres of alfalfa on a nearly level field of gray colored heavy clay soils. The alfalfa came up all right, but as soon as the spring rains came the entire field died out. He knows now this was because of the poorly drained heavy clayey soils. He, too, could have found out about his soils before planting alfalfa. Not only did he lose the use of that 30 acres for the summer, but also was out the cost of seed, fertilizer, and all of his hard labor."

"My son planted a peach orchard four years ago on his sandy land farm. The first year the trees did very well, but in the second and third year, over one-third of the trees died. We later found out that some 18-24 inches under the sandy surfaced orchard site lies a heavy stiff yellow and gray colored clay subsoil. When the heavy spring rains came, his sandy land readily took up moisture, but where the heavy subsoil occurred most of the moisture was prevented from going on down and the feeder roots stood in water until they turned sour and the trees died. Now this was a costly lesson for my son to learn, but it will not happen again for he now knows his soils."

You, too, can learn about your soil from the Soil Conservation Service people working in the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District. Ask them for a free copy of the new USDA publication, "Know Your Soil." This well written, illustrated bulletin contains vital soil information for the farmer, suburban dweller with a problem in his garden or engineer looking for a building site, highway right-of-way or lake site. It explains how soil scientists of the Department of Agriculture are gradually mapping the soils of this country and what these maps mean to every citizen. It tells that the original purpose of making soil surveys was to provide information for the Nation's farmers so that they could better take care of its food-producing soil. It explains that more and more people in all walks of life are seeing the need for additional information on soil.

CDA Begins Plans For Fall Bazaar

Plans for the annual bazaar received most of the attention at last Friday night's meeting of the Catholic Daughters of America.

It will be a three day event early in November with Mrs. Agnes Seyler as chairman. Assisting her will be Mrs. Henry Pick in charge of the white elephant sale and Mrs. Al Fleitman in charge of the bake sale.

Most of the bazaar items, including a quilt, will be specially made, and CDA members will welcome the donation of scrap materials to make them. Finished items too will be gratefully accepted. Any such donations can be left with Mrs. Seyler.

Relative to the parish dinner served by CDA on July 4, members voted to give their net proceeds to Sacred Heart Church.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Clyde Fisher, and Mrs. Eugene Schmitz was co-hostess.

for the failure of their economy. This is the help which has sustained our enemy through the years. By stopping it we can give the big reds more domestic trouble than they can handle.

Likewise we can act through the UN, seeing that it serves world peace instead of red exploitation. Otherwise get US out of UN and UN out of US.

There are many many other ways in which we can put the pressure on the Khrushchev mob, and we should not hesitate to use them. In fact we are derelict in duty to our own people as long as we neglect to use them. Let's face up to the fact that we are engaged in a fight to the end. Reds have told us in plain words that they intend to enslave us. The only way we can avoid that is to win this war. Well, why don't we start winning?

Governor Barnett of Mississippi jolted a congressional hearing last week with his charge that Martin Luther King, the integration leader, has communist connections. Supporters of the civil rights proposal promptly challenged the statement and King vehemently denied it.

So far that's where the matter stands, and it remains to be seen whether political considerations will permit a real airing. Lots of politicians don't want their project to have a reddish smudge and would prefer to keep it quiet if it is true. On the other hand you can bet that civil rights opponents will strive to bring out more evidence.

This column reserves judgment on King, but it has suspected all along that red influence is a potent driving force behind our race troubles. Why? Because that is the communist method. It thrives on discontent and turmoil, and the record shows that it causes trouble wherever it can.

How about an honest and unbiased approach to this problem? Ask the FBI to reveal all its facts pertaining to red influence in race troubles. We'd probably see that reds are operating on both sides of the conflict. Also, we have a feeling the trouble would simmer down if all of the red agitators were thrown into jail.
