VOLUME XXXI

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 OCTOBER 18, 1968

NUMBER 48

Recommendations of the Governor's Committee on Public School Education in Texas came as a shock to most schools of the state and the towns in which they are located. If those proposals are followed they will result in the closing of all small schools and the deterioration of most of the towns.

The big bomb of the report is the recommendation that schools should have a minimum average daily attendance of 2600 in a 12 grade system. Exceptions are allowed in certain sparsely settled areas where the number could not be reached without extending to enormous distance. Even then it is suggested that the average attendance should not be below 1600.

Applying the recommendation to our part of the state would result in closing every public school of the county outside of Gainesville. Even though the Gainesville School district needs no more enrollment to meet the minimum requirement, it would have students of Muenster, Lindsay, Era, Valley View and Callisburg dumped on it and would be forced into a sizeable expansion program to accommodate the increase. Meanwhile the facilities of the other schools would be abandoned.

It is hard to imagine how economy can be achieved that way. Permitting the several huge investments to waste away while making other huge investments elsewhere seems like an enormous waste of public funds.

An even more tragic result is the effect on the communities concerned. As all of them know, their schools are the core of their community life. Without their community identity would gradually wither away. Their population too would be subject to a sharp drop because many people would be inclined to move closer to the consolidated school to avoid a waste of time on transportation.

The educational theorists with their revolutionary ideas in developing brain factories apparently have given little thought to how much they will disrupt rural life. The social and economic consequences that can follow this radical upheaval are frightening.

And that's not the half of it. The effect on children would be even more depressing. In the huge enrollments of the super schools they have the tendency to become numbers more than personalities. Their associates are only casual acquaintances, not the kids they mingle with after school and on weekends and vacations. It's a cold environment much less conducive to happiness and satisfactory work than the school at home. Little children especially will feel the effect of that coldness.

Older children will be deprived in another way. Most of them will miss the personal satisfaction and physical development of participating in interscholastic sports. Instead of six teams in the county there will be one. It means that fewer youngsters will be using their leisure time to advantage. A well organized program of intramural sports may compensate to some extent but it will be a poor substitute for the enthusiasm and spirit of present programs. It does not seem fair to deprive young people of these very satisfying activities.

The committee's recommendation is founded very much on the theory that bigness has advantages, but seems to ignore the fact that super bigness also creates problems. Certainly small schools have limitations. There are many cases in which two or three of them could be combined with mutual benefits, with a result that is far more desirable than the super schools. The theory is like saying "a small dose of medicine is good, therefore a big dose must be better." Well, lots of folks know it doesn't work that way.

The recommendations, furthermore seem to contradict a plea that is being heard on all sides relative to big government. Experience has shown that bigness is not good in that field. Millions of people want less of the bureaucracy and confusion. They want government returned to the local level wherever possible. Doesn't it seem illogical to strive for centralized education at the very time the country is pleading for decentral-

Outclassed Rams Crushed 74-0 in Hornet Rampage

Though operating under restraint for all of the last quarter the Muenster Hornets posted a 74-0 win Friday night over the hopelessly outclassed Rams of Sadler Southmayd.

MHS got going for touchdowns in the final period and tried for a field goal each time it reached the 20 to 30 yard area. Three of those tries failed and the team's only score for the period was a safety as Clifford Sicking tore through and nabbed a kicker behind the goal before he could get rid of the ball.

The trend of the game was apparent in the first series after a scrimmage. Don Hartman hit the line for 18 yards and Clifford Sicking went 43 on the next play for a touchdown.

Next score was very similar. Starting with an S&S fumble, the Hornets used 4 plays in going 25. Hartman blasted over for the last 5 yards. A blocked kick set up the Hornets for TD number 3. That happened on the 27. Hartman went 5, a penalty gave 5 and Sicking went the last 16.

Bonus points followed each of the touchdowns. A pass, Dale Cash to Alcuin Schilling made the first. Runs by Sam Sparkman and Don Hartman made the second and third. That made the score 24-0 as the clock read 6:08 in the first quarter.

The extra points habit continued through the rest of the game. Six more TDs were scored, and points after four were made on runs by Sparkman and Cash and two by Monday. Two more were on passes by Monday to Sparkman and Bobby Bruns.

Next time Muenster got pos-

SH Class Attends Journalism Forum And Nixon Rally

Sacred Heart High seniors were among some 800 student journalists attending the 16th annual Southwest Journalism Forum in Dallas Friday at SMU and afterward had ringside seats to hear Republican Presidential Candidate Richard Nixon speak.

Guest speakers in the field of journalism included Stan Richards, advertising; Judy Jordon, Radio-TV; Joe Laird, photo journalism; and Jim Lehrer, newspaper journalism.

Wearing student press badges the group joined in the Nixon Rally at Moody Coliseum.

Brother Thomas Moser and Father Benedict Buegler accompanied the local young people.

Tigers Rate Even For Friday Clash With Collinsville

Pressure continues for Joe Felderhoff's Sacred Heart Tigers when they take on the Collinsville Pirates Friday night on the Pirate field. According to comparative scores of the two teams in games with Anna, the Pirates rate as the Tigers' equals. Sacred Heart has an even break but will have to hustle and keep alert to take the win.

As Felderhoff sees it Collinsville has improved since its 40-0 season opener loss to Anna. However Anna was improved when it blasted the Tigers last week. Apparently the game is a toss up.

Indications now are that the Tigers will be ready for the game. Worst injuries hanging on were a few bruises.

Tony's Feed Lot Has 60 Steers in Feeding Project

Five Cooke County livestock producers placed 60 steers in Tony's Feed Lot in Muenster on Wednesday, October 2. Each producer put 10 steers in with exception of the Burrell Ranch of Dexter which entered 20. Persons entering 10 steers each were D. J. Dresser, William Pulte, Johnny Bayer and Parker Yarbrough.

The livestock men entered the feeding program to receive information regarding their beef cattle. The program will give conversion and cutability information. The program is set up very similar to the Oklahoma Feeder Calf Program. Information received will provide the producer with valuable information on his herd and should make the cattle bring more money when sold to stocker or feeder buyers.

The cutability information is of great importance to the producer and should be of importance to the processor. It is very possible for one steer to sell for $50.00 more than a steer of the same weight and general appearance due to the percentage of lean cuts. Many segments of the beef industry are predicting that we will be selling beef cattle on the rail on a cutability grade. The cutability grade is placed on the carcass hanging on the rail by a USDA grader. Certain characteristics of the carcass determine the grade.

The feeding program that the Cooke County producers have entered into will last 150 days. When the steers grade choice they will be slaughtered and graded by one of the approved graders. The cutability grade ranges from 1 to 5 and the average is 3. The number 1 grade is ideal and the best carcass. Grade 5 will yield a smaller percentage of lean cuts and brings less money.

The 60 steers in the feeding program consists of Herefords, Angus, Santa Gertrudis and several cross breeds. It will be interesting to see the final results and how the animals compare.

The producers pay the feedlot the regular charge for custom cattle. Each animal was ear tagged, received the normal shots for feedlot cattle and a hormone implantment. The cattle will be weighed in 30 days to determine their rate of gain.

The program is sponsored by the Texas A&M Extension Service, Cooke County Beef Cattle Improvement Association and Texas Power and Light. Tony's Feedlot was cooperative in this type of a research program.

Several Families Change Addresses

A number of Muenster families have changed their addresses by recent moves.

The Alois Rohmers and family are in their new farm home and the place they lived in while the new home was being built — Mrs. R. M. Zipper's house — has become the home of Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. Robert Kaylor and two children. They had been occupying the Weinzapfel house on N. Oak.

The N. Oak residence will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Haverkamp, Roger and Jeannie who are moving this week from N. Main to vacate that place for Alfons and Miss Theresa Luke who are leaving the farm to retire and occupy their city home.

The house on N. Pecan vacated by the James Mollenkopf family when they moved to their new home is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hamilton and daughter since his recent discharge from the Army. He works for the Katy Railroad. While he was in Germany his wife and daughter lived with her parents, the Robert Knabes Sr.

Muenster lost a family of four this week when Mr. and Mrs. Allen Reiter and daughters Janet and Tammie moved to Dallas Tuesday. Allen is going into business with his brother Jackie Reiter in Dallas.

Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Graham newcomers to Muenster are living in Mrs. Joe Swingler's home. Dr. Graham began dental practice here Monday. His office is located in Muenster Hospital.

It now looks as though the taxpayer will be the first of America's natural resources to be completely exhausted.

New Type Lights Flood SH Church

Muenster's Sacred Heart Church was put in the limelight this week. Actually it can be described more accurately as an amber light which seems just right for the cream colored bricks, showing off the building better than ever before.

The effect is achieved by two flood lights of brand new design equipped with equally new Lucalux lamps, according to Ernest Jaska, who was in charge of installation. He said the 400 watt bulb in each unit is equivalent in power to a 1000 watt mercury vapor light or 2500 watts of incandescent light. Besides flooding the church in light they vastly improve general illumination of the entire area. Both are directed to the front of the church. They will burn all night every night.

More light for the parish area was installed at the sisters' convent. It consists of four 150 watt amber floodlights attached to the south wall and directed upward. They enhance the building's appearance and reflected light floods the adjacent area.

Tigers Lose 46-13 Heartbreaker to Coyotes of Anna

Sacred Heart's game at Anna Saturday night was a heart breaker. It was one in which disaster came crashing down and crushed the Tigers after they had held the mighty Coyotes helpless through most of the first half.

The final count was 46-13, and the only consolation of the Tigers was that they had been the first of five opponents this year to cross the Anna goal line.

Statistically the first half belonged to the Tigers. They led 11-2 in first downs and 150 to 13 in total yardage but they trailed 8-0. During the period Anna's offense failed to reach midfield but its defense scored the only TD. Reno block a punt by Lee Roy Hess, caught it and was open for a dash of about 25 yards to the goal. A pass to Williams added two points.

Tiger efforts during the half produced two nice drives that failed to keep going. Ending (Continued on page 5)

Six PP&K Winners Head for McKinney Event Saturday

Six local boys are looking forward to competing in the second stage of the nation wide Punt, Pass and Kick competition to be held Saturday in McKinney. It will be on the football field of McKinney High, starting at 10 o'clock.

The boys and their escorts are asked to meet at 8:30 at Endres Motor Company before leaving here in a group. Rides provided by Endres will be available for those who want them.

The six entries were winners of their age groups in the first stage of the PP&K contest held here last Saturday under sponsorship of Endres Motor Company. Nationally the contest is sponsored by Ford Motor Company and the National Football League.

The contest here was supervised by Coaches Glenn Richardson and Dan Hamric assisted by boys of the Hornet football team. A score is determined by the combined measures of a punt, a pass and a kick. Accuracy is a factor, so each measure is penalized the distance to right or left of the test line.

Leaders of the six age groups and their respective scores for punt, pass and kick, and their totals were as follows. Age 8, Kenny Felderhoff, 58, 42.5, 23, 123 1/2. Age 9, Robert Hartman, 62, 59, 55, 176. Age 10, Roger Endres, 54, 68, 47, 169. Age 11, Mike Davidson, 54, 69, 61, 184. Age 12, Kevin Pels, 86, 82, 68, 236. Age 13, Ronnie Felderhoff, 85, 81, 84, 250. Each of the boys received a gold trophy.

Second and third place winners do not advance in the contest but they received silver and bronze trophies respectively. They are (second and third respectively) Age 8, Joe Hoedebeck, Bernie Fette. Age 9, Timmy Wolf, Brent Hess. Age 10, Bob Schmitz, Joey Sicking. Age 11, Frank Moser, Allen Britian. Age 12, Randy Wolf, Tom Hennigan. Age 13, Hank Trachta, Kenny Hess.

Religious, Social Event Observes KC Patron Feast

A solemn religious event and a gala social event were combined here Sunday to observe Columbus Day. It was the most elaborate of the Muenster KC Council's traditional annual programs marking the feast of its patron.

The celebration, held in the KC hall, started with a 7 p.m. Mass at which Father Placidus Eckart, chaplain, was the celebrant. He was assisted by Gene Hoedebeck and Dan Luke as servers, Ernest Jaska as lector, Pat Hennigan Jr. as organist and Mrs. Dave Walterscheid as soloist. Ben Luke and J. C. Trachta, the council's only living charter members, presented bread and wine at the offertory. Fourth Degree Knights J. W. Fisher and Joe Horn were honor guards. At communion all the council's officers received the Blessed Eucharist under species of both bread and wine.

Joe Walter of Gainesville, a native of Muenster who joined the KCs in Muenster, was speaker for the short program following the Mass. He talked about Columbus' ideal of service to humanity, which remains the ideal of the order named after him. Walter pointed out that the purpose of the order's origin was to provide a way of helping widows and children. He urged members to regard their social activities as secondary and give their principal attention to parish and community service and charity to the poor.

A special feature of that program was the council's presentation of its good neighbor award to Lee Toothaker who was chosen this year as the member of another faith when the council especially wished to honor. The award has been a custom here for several years in keeping with the ecumenical spirit of improving relations with other faiths. Edward Endres made the presentation.

Also on the program was Grand Knight Marty Klement expressing appreciation to all who had a part in the program.

The social event was planned and carried out by a committee headed by Dan Luke. Its principal feature was an elaborate buffet of finger foods. Decorations presented a Spanish theme of the time of Columbus. Corky and the Del Rays provided music for the dance which followed.

Hornets Prep for Rugged Encounter With Lake Dallas

The Hornets have a big one booked for this week. Actually it's a sort of bi-district test with Lake Dallas, the favorite of 10-B, meeting Muenster, the favorite of 9-B.

Coach Glenn Richardson is warning his boys this week not to be misled by the loss to Era. Lake Dallas was ahead everywhere but on the score board, he said. Besides, they had to play without their best back, who got kicked out of the game early because of a scuffle.

He said Lake Dallas has size and speed, is one of the toughest teams on the Hornet schedule this year. He is confident his Hornets can win but also admits they'll have to hustle every minute and avoid mistakes.

Richardson expects the Hornets to be ready physically and mentally. They are not handicapped by injuries and they have a burning desire to avenge a 14-0 loss at Lake Dallas last year. In addition they are most eager to continue their perfect record.

Subiaco Alumni Sponsors Bazaar

Members of the North Texas Subiaco Alumni Association are the sponsors of a benefit bazaar to be held next Sunday at the parish hall. Proceeds of the affair will be donated to Subiaco Abbey.

Principal attractions will be an auction of donated items, games, barbecue plates and sandwiches and hot and cold drinks. The Circle will play at a dance beginning at 8:30.

The bazaar will start about 4 p.m. after a football game on Tiger Field by Sacred Heart ex students. Grads of even years will take on those of odd years.

SGT WALLACE AND GEN. LeMAY

The decision of General Curtis E. LeMay to be the Vice-Presidential candidate on the Wallace ticket has been grossly misinterpreted — and misrepresented — by influential press media, purposely and for partisan reasons. Yuppies, hippies and draft-card burners now wave "Hitler" signs at Wallace rallies, seeking to equate the one-time Air Corps Sergeant with the little Corporal in Germany, and General LeMay with the German Generals.

The fact is, of course, that the vast majority of those who support Wallace are hard-working men and women who are raising families, paying taxes, and trying to be loyal, law abiding citizens. If they have not thought through the LeMay candidacy as thoroughly as the General did, it is only because they are not as well versed in the ways of government and politics as he is, as a result of his long experience in Washington.

General LeMay knows, for example, that his name will not even appear on the ballot in most states. By the time he accepted the designation it was already too late to remove the name of Marvin Griffin, Wallace's "stand-in" candidate.

Further, General LeMay knows that George Wallace could not possibly get a legislative program through the Congress of the United States for the simple reason that Mr. Wallace has no members of his party in the House or Senate to sponsor legislation. The General has had practical experience with the committees of the Congress. He knows that no President could perform his duties without a following in the Congress, and a working relationship with some combination of Senators and Congressmen.

General LeMay also knows that no minority party, with its base primarily in one section of the country, can unify and lead the people of our nation out of the monetary and military morass that demoralizes the country.

Why then, knowing these things, did General LeMay lend his name and prestige to the Wallace campaign in these final four weeks? Because he wants to be heard. General LeMay is genuinely alarmed about the military and defense posture of our country. Almost four years ago he stepped down as Air Force Chief of Staff in protest against the Johnson-McNamara policies. He has authorized two impassioned books seeking to alert the Congress and the people to our military weakness. His most recent book bears the title, America Is In Danger. The General believes that to be true.

He believed that he could talk with more Americans in four weeks of campaigning than would ever conceivably read his two books.

General LeMay is a realist. We hope that the voters will be equally realistic on election day, and vote for a candidate who, if elected, can bring about much-needed changes in direction.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

You're old enough to remember the real America — if you can remember when you never dreamed our country could ever lose. When you left the front door unlocked and you never took your keys out of your car. When you went to church and found spiritual consolation. When people knew what the Fourth of July stood for. When you took it for granted that women and the elderly and the clergy were to be respected.

When a girl was considered daring if she smoked in public. When a girl was a girl. When a boy was a boy. When they liked each other. When you didn't feel embarrassed to say that this is the best damn country in the world. When socialism was a dirty word. When liberal wasn't. When a nickel was worth five cents and could buy you a magazine, or a good cigar, or a 12-ounce Pepsi, or a big ice cream cone with chocolate sprinkles, or a beer. When two nickels got you into the movies on Saturday afternoon, and you saw three pictures. When taxes were only a nuisance. When the poor were too proud to take charity. When you weren't afraid to go out at night.

When Protestants and Catholics thought enough of their beliefs to argue about them. When ghettos were neighborhoods. When you knew that the law meant justice, and you felt a little shiver of awe at the sight of a policeman...

When the flag was a sacred symbol. When our government stood up for Americans, anywhere in the world. When a man who went wrong was blamed, not his mother's nursing habits or his father's income. When everyone knew the difference between right and wrong, even Harvard professors. When things weren't perfect, but you never expected them to be. When you weren't made to feel guilty for enjoying dialect comedy. When people still had capacity for indignation.

When you considered yourself lucky to have a good job. When you were proud to have one. When sick meant you weren't feeling well. When a complaint could accomplish something. When people expected less, and valued what they had more. When everybody wasn't entitled to a college education. When college kids swallowed goldfish, not acid. When America was the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

Milners Back from 2 Week Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Milner covered a lot of territory, saw a lot of interesting sights, and visited relatives on their two-week vacation this year. They returned Saturday.

Places of interest included HemisFair, the Astrodome, Galveston, Fredricksburg, and El Paso where their daughter's parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haynes Sr., were hosts for sight-seeing. They also visited across the border in Old Mexico. Next were Albuquerque, and Santa Fe, N. M. and Durango, Colo. Snow storms in the mountains made driving hazardous.

In Penrose, Colo., they visited her sister and brother-in-law, the Pete Dickmans, and in Boulder they visited Mr. Milner's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Busch.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harris since Sunday is her sister, Mrs. Alma Sloan of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hellman of Albuquerque, N. M., former Muenster residents, have returned home after spending a few days here trying to see all the relationship.

Homemaking Girls Begin Busy Year

To add variety and interest to the homemaking classes at Muenster Public School, these are some of the things that have been done the first six weeks of the new school year:

Homemaking III participated in a demonstration on Tri-Chem liquid embroidery presented by Mrs. Hice of Gainesville.

Homemaking I class went on a field trip to the Ben Franklin Store for a look at the fall fabrics before choosing patterns and fabrics for their sewing projects.

During the grooming unit of homemaking I, the girls saw a demonstration on the proper use of make-up by Mrs. Alvina Hellman, Avon representative.

The Homemaking II girls watched Mrs. Mary Castell, home economist from Lone Star Gas, present a cooking lesson to demonstrate the use and care of the new gas range in the homemaking department.

The girls seemed to enjoy these special activities and more are planned during the coming school year. —Sandra Sloan.

Three Candidates Woo Texas Voters

AUSTIN, Tex. — Presidential candidates, wooing Texas voters and the state's 23 electoral votes, are becoming familiar visitors in the Lone Star State. Republican Richard Nixon swooped into Dallas for a rally Friday. He's likely to return, as is his running mate, Spiro T. Agnew, who also was here earlier.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphry will try to breathe new life into the late-starting Democratic drive with a barnstorming tour starting October 22. Ed Muskie, Humphrey's No. 2 man, is supposed to drop in around the 30th.

Third party candidate George Wallace made plans to return to Texas this week. He scheduled a high-noon rally for Fort Worth for Thursday (Oct. 17). Both Wallace and Vice-presidential candidate Gen. Curtis E. LeMay are being encouraged by backers to make repeat performances before November 5.

While waiting for the candidates to make their personal appeals, their supporters fought the battle of the polls. Humphrey's national headquarters claimed a Belden sampling showed 35 per cent of the Texans interviewed favored Humphrey; 33 per cent were for Nixon; and 26 per cent for Wallace; with just six per cent undecided. "Strang," reported Nixon's state camp, since its Merrill Wirthlin poll showed: Nixon 34 per cent; Humphrey 27 per cent; Wallace 22 per cent; and undecided 17 per cent. Houston Chronicle interviewers concluded Nixon is leading with 40 per cent of the vote. Humphrey ran second in the Chronicle's poll with 33 per cent; and Wallace third with 28 per cent.

Activity in the Humphrey camps definitely is on the upswing. Texas Citizens for Humphrey-Muskie — headed by Sen. Ralph Yarborough — and Texas Democrats for Humphrey-Muskie — led by Congressman Jim Wright of Fort Worth and Will D. Davis of Austin — are battling against time to rally the traditional Democratic strength.

Former Gov. Allan Shivers, who emerged as national chairman of Democrats for Nixon, is actively encouraging "splitting the ticket" — for the GOP national nominee and the Democratic state and local candidates.

Government is a lot like your digestive system — if it's working right, you hardly know you have it.

WHICH TWIN HAS THE ALL ELECTRIC HOME?

Electric cooking is so clean and cool. Electric heat is free of smoke and soot. Electric appliances are time-savers allowing more leisure, greater freedom. An all electric home is so clean and efficient. Thus, it is obvious that the young housewife on the left has an all electric home. However, appearances can sometimes be deceiving. The other young housewife also has an all electric home but she's been out fighting a grassfire.

session it fouled up the first series and failed to keep going, but the following effort was more successful. Seven plays went 58 yards and Sicking made the last 3 just after the second quarter started.

The Hornets' next drive was interrupted by an interception but the one after kept going. Henry Knabe crashed through for the final 12 in a 40 yard drive using seven plays. Score at intermission was 40-0.

Third quarter started like the first. Rams had to kick ending their first series and the Hornets, after a good return, were 24 yards away. A penalty gave 5, a pass, Monday to Bruns, made the remaining 19.

Next punt by S&S was returned 55 yards by Sicking for the seventh touchdown.

Again a first series of S&S was followed by a Hornet score. Mark Hellman blocked a Ram kick and chased the tumbling pigskin into the end zone for a touchdown.

A fumble recovery by Bruns started the Hornets for their last touchdown. A pass from Monday to Earl Koelzer made the last 33 of the 43 yard effort as the clock read 2:04 in the third quarter.

The last period was featured by the safety, three misses in tries for field goals and the Rams' best effort of the game — three first downs in a row, which still failed to overcome their net loss for the game.

the first quarter and starting the second they made 76 yards in five first downs to the 4. But the next series failed to gain and the Coyotes took over.

After Anna's TD they moved again; 44 yards to the Coyote 27, until an interception stopped them.

Sacred Heart's jinx, and Anna's lucky streak, got stronger than ever after intermission. On third play of the Tigers' first series Williams intercepted and breezed 65 yards to the goal, then took in another pass for bonus points.

On the kickoff that followed Lee Roy Hess made a big effort to get the Tigers back in the game. He followed fine blocking to midfield then went all the way for 85 yards and a TD. A pass failed to connect. The score was 16-6.

Another big Coyote play came about a minute later when fullback Hendricks got away for a 46 yard gallop to pay dirt then ran over again for extra points.

And it was only a moment later when Anna scored again. On their first play after kickoff the Tigers fumbled and the Coyotes were in possession on the 20. One pass was enough to cover that distance.

The fifth TD of the quarter, and the fourth for Anna, was slightly slower in coming. The teams exchanged kicks, then Anna blocked a Tiger kick and started with 35 to go. Five plays were enough, the pay off being a pass for 17 yards. A pass for bonus points made the score 38-6.

The Coyotes got going on their last one after a Sacred Heart kick set them back to their own 9. Four plays made 13 and a pass made the remaining 78. Another pass added 2.

Finally it was Sacred Heart's turn again. After holding the Coyotes for a series they took possession 30 yards away. A penalty donated 15 yards, passes gained 8 and 6 and Hess crashed through for the last yard. Hess also kicked for an extra point, less than a minute before time ran out.

Monsters Scalp Little Indians 12-6

The Little Monsters of Muenster elementary barely won their game with Sanger's Little Indians Tuesday night. They had two minutes left when they got the TD breaking a 6-6 tie. Final score was 12-6.

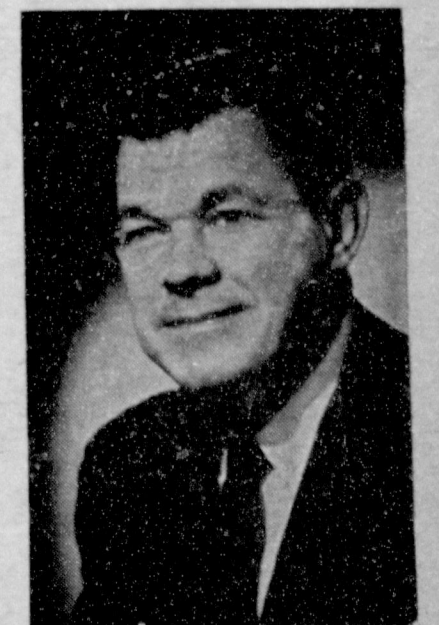

Sanger scored first on a punt return of about 50 yards. That was in the first half in which Muenster gained steadily but could not finish a drive.

Third quarter was more of the same but the fourth broke the jinx. Jim Endres ended a steady push with a 7 yard end run. Later, after gains of 35 by Hank Trachta and 20 by Roy Klement, Endres sneaked over from the 3.

The Juniors will start their 9-B junior schedule next week, playing Valley View on MHS field.

WOULD YOUR CONGRESSMAN VOTE FOR GEORGE WALLACE?

Some fine Texans are tempted to vote for the 3rd party candidate because they admire his stand and his statements on some of the major campaign issues . . .

STOP AND THINK WHAT WILL ACTUALLY HAPPEN . . .

The best that Wallace supporters can hope for is enough strength to throw the election into the turmoil of a Congressional election by the House of Representatives . . .

THEN WHAT HAPPENS?

The answer is certain and simple. Wallace supporters are at the mercy of Washington Politicians! Every vote for George Wallace automatically becomes a vote for Hubert Humphrey!

THERE IS A BETTER CHOICE . . .

A vote for the NIXON-AGNEW ticket is a positive vote for "change" with the definite promise that our National Affairs will take a new direction . . . the direction you want it to take!

MHS Bees Blast Whitesboro B 28-6

The Bees of Muenster High had their revenge last Thursday night when they walloped the Whitesboro High B team 28-6. They had been on the short end of a 12-6 score when the teams previously met at Whitesboro.

A big feature of the game was the superb playing of Jerry Eckart who blocked two kicks and covered one of them for a touchdown besides dealing out misery in general to the Whitesboro outfit.

The Bees' first effort followed an interception by Bobby Taggle in the first series. Five plays advanced 26 to the 12 but the next series was short and Muenster gave up possession on the 5.

Four plays later they got it back on the 15 and six plays after that Gerry Cash went over from the 4. John Felderhoff added 2 points.

Muenster's next one came early in the second quarter when Carl Endres went 60 yards on a kick return.

TD number 3 was one for the record books. Because of an infraction of rules on the last play of the period, Muenster got a make-up play after the clock had run out. On that play Cash connected with Endres for a 48 yard TD pass, the team's only completed pass of the night.

Whitesboro returned with fire the next half, intercepted in the first series and went for the TD. Eleven tries made 27 yards and a quarterback sneak for inches made the touchdown.

After that the Bees made a first down and fumbled, then regained possession with good position when Eckart blocked a kick. That was on the Whitesboro 32.

Gains from there went to the 3, then another fumble. However Whitesboro could not go and kicked on fourth down. That is when Eckart blocked the kick behind the line and recovered for a TD. A pass from Cash to Dale Hellman added 2 points.

Next action for the Bees will be at Alvord Thursday night.

Roewe Rites Held At Pilot Point

Funeral services with requiem Mass were held Friday 9:30 a.m. in St. Thomas Church, Pilot Point, for Miss Christine Roewe, 80, who died the preceding Wednesday in a Denton Hospital. Father Emil Slovacek, pastor, officiated with burial in the parish cemetery.

Miss Roewe formerly lived in Muenster and Lindsay and moved to Pilot Point in 1925.

Surviving are one brother, Andrew Roewe, of Pilot Point and a number of nephews and nieces. Muenster relatives attended the services.

Tiger Cubs Edge Lindsay Kids 6-0

The Tiger Cubs of Sacred Heart squeezed past Lindsay's Squires 6-0 Tuesday night on the Sacred Heart field.

Allen Miller broke a deadlock for the home team by getting loose for a 45 yard scoring sprint. The attempt for extra points failed and that was the beginning and end of scoring for the night.

The rest of the game was a defensive standoff mostly in midfield. Cubs threatened once at the 15 yard line. Lindsay got as far as the 25.

Coach Joe Felderhoff saw lots of improvement in his lads since their first game and expects more improvement for the remaining three games of their schedule.

They will play at Alvord next Tuesday 6:30; at Era the 29th, 6:45; and will host Whitesboro Nov. 5, 6:45.

Lindsay Football Gals Beat College

Football girls of Lindsay High resumed their winning ways Saturday night as they met Cooke County Junior College gals in the season opener of powder puff competition in Cooke County. Lindsay ran away with it 40-6.

The host team started its scoring spree early with a 50 yard drive ended by Janie Zimmerer's 10 yard gain around right end. Marilyn Hundt went around left end for 2 more points. By half time Lindsay led 24-0.

An intercepted pass followed by a 12 yard dash to the goal gave the college girls their only touchdown of the night. Lindsay got two more in the final period on runs of 95 and 40.

Confetti - - -

The recommendations will be submitted to the next state legislature for approval. As they consider it we hope the lawmakers will give lots of thought to the problems they are asked to create among rural kids and their communities. We hope they will consider such factors as the ratio of dropouts in big and little schools, and the jungle atmosphere so often found in big schools, and the fact that police protection is often needed in big schools for the safety of both children and teachers. We hope they will notice the small schools do not have those troubles, also that in spite of the "inferior curricula" of small schools their graduates rate high with the big city employers.

Likewise we hope that legislators will consider the proposal according to generally accepted American standards of parental responsibility and human right. Objections already heard indicate that parents do not go for the scheme. They want their children to remain close to home influence and environment. They want to keep in better touch with their children and the school, to have a part in shaping school policy. They don't want their responsibilities and rights taken over by the super school administrators. Furthermore, they feel, as you and I do, that their responsibilities and rights are entitled to respect.

This point, more than any other, should influence the legislators. The real issue is not whether the professional educationists have come up with a better idea, but whether they have a right to cram that idea down the throats of unwilling parents. It's a question of whether police state methods will be adopted or whether parental right will prevail.

There is a way to solve this problem. Let the communities concerned, that is, the parents, decide whether they want to keep the children at home or turn them over to the centralized brain factories.
