'CONCERNED'

What kind of an AMERICA will YOU have?
 We have had the "Tired American."
 We have had the "Forgotten American."
 We now have the "Concerned American."

He is one of those long silent people who have been soul sickened as to what is happening to their America, knowing for the first time the dank chill of fear as to what the future may hold.

For the first time in his life the "Concerned American" is having nightmares at noonday worrying about whether his America can survive.

The "Concerned American" is bitter because the unloosed holocaust of inflation, from reckless government spending, has made a pitiful shambles of his hard-won savings and his social security checks.

The "Concerned American" is fearful that he is being swept along, as by flood-tide, by forces against which he is powerless to resist.

The "Concerned American" is troubled by the belief that his government is only telling him the truth when it suits its convenience.

The "Concerned American" is frightened because his government has become one where political cronyism has replaced blindfolded justice, where corruption in high places has become more of an accepted way of government than individual enterprise and competition.

The "Concerned American" is fearful that false prophets in government have led him down strange paths of illusion and that, in truth, we are becoming a hapless, floundering, second rate power ... where inability to defend our country or our dollar finds us in helpless confusion.

The "Concerned American" is a frightened American ... not frightened for his own physical safety but that of his children's and millions of Americans yet unborn.

He is angered that the jackals of the human jungle who prowl our streets with impunity and impunity have made it impossible for the citizenry to walk American streets without risking assault or death.

The "Concerned American" is soul troubled at the thought that too often nowadays heroism is something only to be jeered at, that decency has become covered with filth that honesty and integrity and patriotism are to be held up to the blasphemous ridicule of the unwashed mobs as being only for squares.

The "Concerned American" is on edge in his distrust of glib politicians who openly pander for votes by painting a glittering, oratorical, mirage of total illusion.

The "Concerned American" is fearful of super-smooth politicians whose policies are as fickle and uncertain as the weathervane whirling in the changing direction of a vagrant breeze. He remembers that one aspirant to the White House once oratorically boasted that he could "personally lead a mighty good revolt."

The "Concerned American" has a well-thumbed Bible as he listens to the candidate say he is not beholden to anyone for the policies he espouses — he remembers that Isaac once said, "the voice is Jacob's voice but the hands are the hands of Esau." The voice may be that of the candidate but the hands are the hands of Lyndon B. Johnson.

And, the "Concerned American" wonders if Americans haven't been duped into trading, like Esau of Biblical times, the precious birthright for a mess of political pottage.

The "Concerned American" is concerned about too many of his countrymen who seem to have a childish faith that there is a God-given guarantee that America will always be a great democracy that will exist in perpetuity.

They forget that eternal vigilance is the price we must pay for liberty and that 16 great civilizations have crumbled into the dust of time ... not from assault but from decay from within.

The "Concerned American" yearns for a leader who will restore decency and integrity to government, a leader who will save America rather than squander her strengths, a leader who can be a 20th Century Moses in leading his people to a new and greater future.

The "Concerned American" knows it will take a stout-hearted leader because we are now paying the price for listening too long to the siren song of demagogues who promised the easy, painless way out of our problems facing America.

The "Concerned American" knows that America stands at the fork in the road of destiny, that the hour is five minutes till midnight and that the decision can no longer be put off as to the road we must take.

The "Concerned American" knows the terrible loneliness of frustration as he says, "what can one man do?"

He should know there are tens of millions with the same agonizing concern for America's future and safety.

The "Concerned American" should know, too, that he and his fellow patriots have an all-powerful weapon — greater in its might than any army ... a little piece of paper an "insurance policy" to safeguard America's future ...

A Ballot

The "Concerned American" can wield that piece of paper and end his noonday nightmares because he holds the mighty weapon that can restore America to the paths of righteousness, decency, and unbought glory for all humanity ...

His Vote

The battleground will be the hundreds of thousands of polling places from border to border and coast to coast.

The "Concerned American" can turn this country around from its headlong plunge to disaster and save it from the fumbling clutches of those so bankrupt in political principle that they would do anything to win an election.

The "Concerned American" can put this nation once again on high secure ground where honor, patriotism, decency, justice, equality, truth, courage, patriotism, integrity and devotion to God and country are words of pride and once again meaningful.

The "Concerned American" sees in Richard M. Nixon the man of honor, integrity, ability and courage who can turn this United States of America around and restore it to the greatness every American prays for with all his heart.

Richard M. Nixon is the leader that spells courage and hope for the "Concerned American."

SAYING WHAT COMES NATURALLY

While the Gallup Poll reveals that the majority of the American people don't give very high marks to the Supreme Court, Mrs. Charlene Mitchell recently told a reporter for the Miami News that she views the tribunal with esteem, calling it "a very good court, at the moment." Mrs. Mitchell, by the way, is the Communist Party's candidate for President.

ORIGINAL PLAN LOOKS GOOD

As the saying goes, "You shouldn't kick somebody when he's down." But, the Post Office Department has been down for a long time and, instead of getting up, is sinking lower. The Post Office Department employs three quarters of a million people and spends over $6.6 billion a year. It now requires mail users to do a large part of the sorting work by Zip Coding their own mail, and still in 1967 the department ran in debt $1.2 billion and gave poorer service than ever before.

Originally, the postal service was set up by Benjamin Franklin in 1792 as a private enterprise. It was efficient and made a profit. The U.S. Post Office Department was created 70 years later. Maybe it's about time we got back to the original plan.

GET OUT THE VOTE

In the last election, one third of the nation's eligible citizens failed to vote and thereby carry out the first obligation that every U. S. citizen owes to himself and his country. Between now and election day, every voter should make sure that he is registered and take the time to familiarize himself with candidates and the point of view they represent.

In this year's general election, the American people will select a President and thousands of other office holders including U.S. Senators and Representatives, governors and state legislators. These officials will make and administer the laws of the land under which we all must live. They will decide on the role of government in our lives, the amount of taxes we must pay, the wars we must fight and how many of our young men must serve in which branches of the armed forces and for how long.

Every voter owes it to himself to take part in selecting the best men and women to carry out these vital functions.

YOU FIGURE IT OUT

Rep. James Smith, R-Okla., notes that "back in 1920 a telephone call from New York to San Francisco cost $20."

For the same price a person could mail 1,037 letters. Today the same call costs $2.85 which pays postage on only 47 letters.

The American telephone system, a public utility, is one of the most efficient phone systems in the world, with constantly declining costs to its customer. The federal post office, a government agency, has steadily declining service and rising costs.

So which system is the government investigating? Why the telephone system — for alleged price rigging. Figure that one out.

1969 Ford.
 Wider. Longer.
 Quieter. Roomier.
 (Easier to handle.)

These are the things to look for in a great road car. And every day more and more people are finding them in the 1969 Ford.

- Wider. The '69 Ford hugs the road with as wide a track as Cadillac.
- Longer. The '69 Ford smooths your ride with a longer wheelbase than Chevrolet. Yet it turns in a smaller circle than last year's Ford.
- Roomier. We've grouped all the controls in front of the driver, made our front passenger compartment so spacious people are calling it the Front Room.
- Quieter. Our '69 LTD is designed to ride even quieter than the LTD that rode quieter than Rolls-Royce.

Record first-month sales of the '69 Ford tell us we've got a good thing going. A test drive will tell you.

Weekend Visitors

Driving over to Muenster Saturday morning to visit their grandparents and great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Cooke, for the weekend were Mrs. Gene Alexander and small daughters Dana and Nikki of Fort Worth. At noon Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cooke of Fort Worth drove in to visit his parents. Harold had picked his wife up at the hospital for the trip and returned her to the hospital Sunday. She has had more heart disturbance the past two weeks. Saturday afternoon Don and Harold took the little girls on their first fishing trip. The youngsters had wonderful luck and kept their granddad and great-granddaddy busy baiting their hooks. They proudly displayed their catch on return to the Cooke home. The visitors returned to Fort Worth Sunday evening.

Proposed Budget Is Heard at Meeting Of Library Board

A prepared budget, and suggestions for the good of Muenster Public Library, were read at the October meeting of the board of directors last Wednesday. Field Consultant Miss Anita Decker prepared the budget and listed suggestions.

Her recommendations included keeping the library open 16 hours a week and paying the librarian a salary. Mrs. Joe Luke, librarian, said that as long as she is able she is willing to work for the joy and satisfaction she gets from serving, especially children of the community.

Members of the board voted to pay for Mrs. Luke's membership in the Texas Library Association.

With the increased allotment from the city and county, book expenditure will be more than $2,000 and board members agreed that insurance covering books and library equipment is necessary. Present insurance covers only 1500 books on loan from the Denton extension.

At an earlier meeting Miss Decker visited with the board and said that according to her estimate from 35 to 50 percent of books now on the shelves are obsolete.

Mrs. Luke and library staffers have started to remove some of the old novels. Those will be on sale at a very small price at the Catholic Daughters of America's Bazaar Nov. 8 and 9. Proceeds from the sale will go for new books.

President Bernard Swirczynski presided for the meeting with all board members present.

Commissioners Ask For Larger Share Of State Funds

In their Association meeting in Austin county judges and commissioners voted to ask the Legislature to give them more money for county business, and in several ways.

First, they endorsed Constitutional Amendment No. 7 on the November 5 ballot. It would take the state out of the property tax field a little at a time between now and 1967. County officers want authority to levy this tax for county purposes as fast as the state abandons it.

A bigger share of automobile license plate fees also is sought. Where a county gets the first $50,000 in license plate fees, and half of the next $25,000, they would like for the Legislature to allow them to share with the state up to a total of $1,000,000 a year, instead of $175,000.

Other resolutions called for the state to participate by getting federal aid for crime prevention programs, to make the law clear that local units of government are exempt from the state sales-tax law, and to revise the law so delinquent tax suits for less than $25 can be filed.

Judges and commissioners opposed the proposal that they be given zoning powers like cities have. This legislation will be proposed to the next Legislature so as to make rural areas eligible for Federal flood insurance under a new program. Without zoning or building controls, flood insurance will not be available.

Descendants of Indian Raid Victims Sought

Members of the Cooke County Historical Survey Committee wish to get in touch with descendants of persons who were affected by the Kiowa Indian raid of January 5 and 6, 1868.

A historical marker commemorating the 1868 raid will be dedicated on Sunday, November 10, and the local historical group is desirous of extending a special invitation to descendants of persons involved in or affected by the raid. It was during this raid that Mrs. Lizzie Menasco Sheegog was captured by the Indians near Rosston, brought to the edge of Gainesville, and abandoned on the bank of Elm Creek. Her grandson, Mr. Kyle Thomas Sheegog, of Sulphur, Oklahoma, will unveil the marker at the dedication ceremony.

Names mentioned in various writings about the 1868 raid are: Paula Carlton, Thomas J. Fitzpatrick, Tim Hart, Nathan Long, George Masoner, J. C. McCracken, Joseph Menasco, W. G. Menasco, A. H. Newberry, Arthur and B. G. Parkhill, Austin Perryman, Mrs. Sheegog, Alfred Williams, G. W. Williams, Savil Wilson, and Parson Witt. If you are a descendant of any of these persons, would you please send a card with your name and address to Mrs. C. M. Greek, P. O. Box 49, Gainesville, Texas 76240; or telephone Mrs. Greek (HO5-2633) or Mrs. John Culp (HO5-2953).

State Convention Of Farm Bureau Set November 10-13

DALLAS — Some 2,000 persons, including more than 800 voting delegates from 203 organized county Farm Bureaus, are expected to attend the 35th annual convention of the Texas Farm Bureau here Nov. 10-13, according to Sidney Dean of Victoria, TFB president.

Headquarters will be at the Baker Hotel with some of the general sessions scheduled at the Dallas Memorial Auditorium.

Policies to guide the state's largest organization next year will be adopted by the voting delegates on the two final days of the meeting. They will also approve recommendations on national issues which will be forwarded to the annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation slated for Dec. 8-11 in Kansas City.

Farm Bureau's policy development process begins on the county level with adoption of county policies and recommendations on state and national issues. A 40-member TFB resolutions committee will meet Nov. 6 in Dallas to draft tentative resolutions from among the hundreds of recommendations sent in from counties.

Protect Children with Non-Toxic Sprays

Nowadays the family can relax and have a good time outdoors almost free of troublesome gnats, mosquitoes, flies and other insects. A number of easy-to-use aerosol sprays will put the kibosh on flying and crawling pests which spoil the fun. It's wise, however, to read insect spray labels carefully. Choose only insecticides that say "Non-Toxic to Humans and Pets" right on the front of the can. It contains pyrethrins, the only insecticide which can be legally labeled "Non-Toxic to Humans and Pets." If it says this, you need have no fears about harmful residue on the foods you eat or vegetables from the garden. It can be used wherever the children play—indoors, too. Nothing clings to grass, flowers or furniture to endanger wandering pets. By the simple precaution of selecting only insecticides allowed to say "Non-Toxic to Humans and Pets," you safeguard your entire family's health—in the yard, at the beach, on picnics, weekend excursions and longer trips.

KIDS WILL BE KIDS

It's small wonder that today's youth pays little attention to the advice of the older generation. For example, teens are continuously cautioned to "slow down, take it easy. You've got plenty of time for romance."

Then along comes a guy like Joseph Yedlicka of St. Louis, Mo., who, a week after meeting her, runs off with Viola Foster and marries her against the objections of relatives. Joe can't trust anyone over 30. Joe is 34; his bride, 70. —Palm Beach Post-Times.

Mrs. Melba Kinsey Birthday Honoree

Birthday honors greeted Mrs. Melba Kinsey Sunday when her children and grandchildren gathered at her home to help her celebrate.

Her younger son, J. D. Rumley of the home, baked the birthday cake. Her other son Airman Ray Rumley came in on a weekend leave from McConnell AFB, Wichita, Kansas, and Mrs. Kinsey's daughter and family, the Richard Herts, Patricia and Rose Mary of Henrietta joined them.

Airman Rumley brought two buddies with him, Airman Gary Lakouta who hails from Chamberlain, S. D., and has visited in Muenster before, and Airman Roger Hanson whose home is in Erskin, Minn., and was seeing Muenster for the first time. While they were together Mrs. Rumley's mother, Mrs. Bessie Brown telephoned greetings from Rising Star.

The Herts also visited his parents, the John Herts and his sister Mrs. Don Wilson and sons.

"Why, that land is no good for planting or pasture. It's no good for anything!" The chief grunted: "It heep good for railroad."

Husky Tower Joins Western Sights

Calgary, Alta.—The high structure of its kind in North America—the 62-story Husky Tower—has been added to famous western attractions for visitors.

The view of the Canadian Rockies is spectacular from the revolving restaurant and observation terrace at the top of the Tower. The restaurant, seating 210, revolves completely once each hour.

The 626-foot concrete and steel reinforced structure looms over Calgary, western Canada metropolis nestled on the prairies just east of the Rockies.

Husky Tower joins such other popular attractions as nearby Banff National Park, Lake Louise and Jasper National Park.

The $3½-million Tower is named for the Husky Oil Company which produces, refines and markets gasoline and other products in the western prairie and mountain sections of the United States and Canada.

Some 3,000 cubic feet of concrete were used for the new six-million-pound Calgary landmark. It is 94½ feet across the eight-foot thick base upon which the Tower rests 20 feet below ground level. The diameter is 66 feet at ground level and the walls are a foot and a half thick.

The shaft decreases to 31 feet across at 450 feet; the walls narrow to 10½ inches thick. The top of the Tower "pod" varies from 78½ feet to 89 feet across just under the "bubble" skydome in the roof.

Two elevators whisk 25 persons at a time from ground to top in a minute and three seconds. There are 762 steps from top to bottom.

"Floodlight," published by the Iowa Public Service Company, has asked: "Where does the government get its money? In poignant terms, a New Hampshire housewife answered the question in a letter to Senator Norris Cotton, who said her words were 'more meaningful than any speech I've ever heard in the Senate.' Faced with rising taxes, increasing costs of living, and with children approaching college age, she had this to say: 'Where does the government get its money? From the vacation we could never take, the movies we never saw, the restaurant dinners we never ate, the clothes we never bought, and the savings we haven't got.'"

A TIME FOR DECISION

A Presidential election, the most important one in our lifetime, is close upon us. With three candidates in the race Texans are confronted with such a variety of appeals that some confusion is not surprising. We see some of our top state political leaders urging support of Hubert Humphrey on the self-serving appeal of party loyalty. We see fine Texans, tempted to support George Wallace because they like his outspoken position on certain issues and are thus swayed by an appeal of sheer emotion. With full respect for the right of every Texan to make a personal decision, this message in behalf of Richard Nixon is offered as

... AN APPEAL TO REASON!

HUBERT HUMPHREY WILL NOT change. He has proved consistently anti-Texas. He is famous for his filibuster against Texas owning its tidelands. He has fought our right-to-work laws and sought to destroy our vital oil depletion allowance. On every issue of world importance his position is contrary to that of most Texans. Humphrey, an ultra-liberal founder of the ADA organization, would gain executive authority for radical minority viewpoints should he become president. This cannot happen by popular vote. In view of his vicious attacks upon George Wallace, what a ghastly miscarriage of intent it would be if Wallace supporters themselves should throw the election into the House of Representatives where every Wallace vote in Texas would automatically go to Humphrey!

GEORGE WALLACE CANNOT be denied his impressive showing. A number of fine people heed his third party call. The very least that can be said is that he has dramatized the desires of many people for a change of direction in the affairs of our government. However, the very most his supporters can hope for is to split the popular vote so that all of us would be at the mercy of Washington politicians who would elect our president for us. This is Hubert Humphrey's only hope for election. The more positive way to vote for change is to recognize the many fine merits of Richard Nixon and his program, then vote for Nixon to assure the election of our president by the people instead of by the Congress!

RICHARD NIXON CAN... AND WILL supply dynamic, experienced leadership for an immediate change of direction—at the top—in all our national affairs at home and around the world. Your concerns are his concerns!

- NIXON ON LAW AND ORDER is pledged to help improve local police protection, to appoint an Attorney General dedicated to rooting out crime, to restore balance in our courts strengthening peace forces against criminal elements and to cease freeing so many of the guilty on technicalities.
- NIXON ON VIET NAM will call upon his experience as vice-president during eight great Eisenhower years of peace to reform world alliances now in disarray, to redirect our strategy on new global terms. He will end this war and avoid future ones by dealing with adversaries in the only way they respect—through strength, collective security and patience.
- NIXON ON LOCAL GOVERNMENT is pledged to move control of local schools and all other governmental functions which properly belong at the local level closer to the people.
- NIXON ON OTHER PROBLEMS has solid solutions PLUS solid backing of enough members of Congress to implement those solutions.

IF YOU REALLY WANT A CHANGE... AND IF YOU WANT TO BE SURE YOU REALLY GET IT... VOTE FOR NIXON/AGNEW

NIXON'S THE ONE!

"Only a few years ago, Libya was a barren land that qualified as one of the world's 'have-not' nations. Today the picture has changed dramatically," noted the Ashland Oil News. "In the past decade Libya has become the 7th largest oil producing country in the world; predictions are that by 1975 it could rank second only to North America in free-world production... A high percentage of the oil discovered so far has been of the low sulfur variety, for which there is growing world demand."

Tempo Picks Up In Campaigning For State Offices

AUSTIN, Tex. —At least half a dozen Democratic nominees for statewide office are weathering an unusually sharp attack from Republican challengers this year.

In a final flurry before the November 5 general election, the attacks will be stepped up.

Taking no chances, Democratic gubernatorial candidate Preston Smith, Ben Barnes, candidate for lieutenant governor, and Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin have returned to full-campaign status.

Their Republican challengers are Paul Eggers, Douglas DeCluitt and Sproesser Wynn.

Republican Manny Sanchez of Brownsville also has campaigned actively for state treasurer against veteran incumbent Jesse James. GOPer E. H. Schuhart of Dalhart is running hard for agriculture commissioner against John White and Millard Neptune of New Ulm is running a serious race to beat Land Commissioner Jerry Spidler.

Other statewide Republican candidates who have campaigned less vigorously, are John Bennett and Jim Segrest of San Antonio, nominees for state comptroller and railroad commissioner respectively. GOP campaign headquarters claim Bennett as a member of its "action team" but doesn't mention Segrest.

Comptroller Robert S. Calvert and Railroad Commissioner Jim C. Langdon, James and White show no sign of concern.

Polls have indicated the statewide Democrats leading, but battle-wise veterans who face hard-charging opponents can't be sure how many Richard Nixon supporters will decide to vote a straight Republican ticket in indignant zeal for a "change".

Salvation Army to Send Truck Nov. 4

Children's clothes and toys are needed by the Salvation Army, especially during the winter months, announced Major Byron A. Freeman, commanding officer of the Salvation Army Men's Rehabilitation Center for North and North Central Texas.

The Salvation Army truck will be in Muenster on November 4 or 5. A telephone call to 759-4311 will bring the Salvation Army truck to any home or business in the area. Persons wishing to deduct the fair value of the gift from their taxable income will be sent receipts upon request. The Salvation Army Men's Rehabilitation Center is completely sustained by the salvage of clothing, furniture and other household items.

Lindsay Parish to Have Thanksgiving Bazaar on Nov. 10

Members of Lindsay St. Anne's Society, at their October meeting made plans for Lindsay's observance of Thanksgiving — the annual picnic and bazaar — to be sponsored by the organization. It will be early this year, on Sunday, Nov. 10, so as not to conflict with other Thanksgiving events. Entertainment will begin at 2 p.m. and conclude at 10 o'clock.

The society also discussed plans for sponsoring Lindsay's annual Thanksgiving Clothing Drive for the Holy Father's Storehouse.

Mrs. Joe P. Fuhrmann, president, conducted the business session and read a letter from National Council of Catholic Women telling about the society's recently adopted Korean orphan. He's Oh Sung Sam, aged five and a half, in a Pusan orphanage.

The society recently gifted the parish rectory with a set of china, stainless steel tableware and glasses. One place setting was on display.

Forty-four members attended the meeting and Mrs. Leonard Bengfort won the door prize.

After adjournment the women joined St. Peter's Society at the close of the men's meeting and heard a talk by Father John Walbe. Afterward refreshments were served. Mes. Jake Kuhn, Henry Kuhn and Frank Kuhn were hostesses.

penalty for improper procedure.

As the second half opened Lake Dallas could not go and kicked on fourth down. What followed was the thrill of several seasons for Mike Cason, the husky Hornet guard. Don Hartman blocked the kick. Cason picked it up and went about 15 yards to pay dirt. Monday's pass to Alcuin Schilling made the score 34-0.

Next the Falcons kicked on their first series and so did the Hornets. But the Falcons fumbled the punt and Mark Hellman was there to claim it. The 53 yard drive needed nine plays including gains of 10 by Hartman, 13 by Monday and a pass to Bobby Bruns for 7. The touchdown play started as a fumble on a handoff but Sicking scooped up the ball, reversed his field and made a sweeping run to the right side corner for the last 9 yards.

The rest of that period and all of the last, in which Hornet reserves got lots of action, was a standoff. Each team made four first downs, each lost possession on a fumble. Muenster efforts failed on the 17 and 25, and Lake Dallas had its second touchdown pass nullified by a penalty.

Muenster Juniors Lose 9-B Opener to Valley View Kids

The Little Monsters of Muenster Public School elementary made a bad start in their 9-B district opener Tuesday night. They were 6-0 losers to the juniors of Valley View.

The boys played a poor game, according to Coach Glenn Richardson. Too many mistakes and not enough hustle.

The Little Eagles made their score on a long pass play. Muenster kids missed a big opportunity when Jim Endres returned the second half kickoff to the 10, but the next series got only to the 3.

The juniors will play Lindsay kids here next Tuesday in their second game of the district schedule.

Muenster Entries Fail to Advance in PP&K Zone Event

Muenster's six entries came back empty handed from the zone contest of Punt, Pass and Kick held last Saturday in McKinney.

All were first place winners in the local contest held here a week before and as such were qualified to try for advancement in the continuing competition which eventually leads to national finals at the National Football League play-off.

Boys in their respective age brackets who competed at McKinney are Age 8, Kenny Felderhoff, Age 9, Robert Hartman, Age 10, Roger Endres, Age 11, Mike Davidson, Age 12, Kevin Pels, Age 13 Ronnie Felderhoff.

Lindsay 4H Club Elects New Officers

Lindsay 4-H Community Club has elected officers for a new year with Betty Rohmer heading the group as president.

Other officers are David Nortman, vice president; Barbara Rohmer, secretary-treasurer; Carolyn Block, council delegate; Cindy Eberhart, reporter; Helen Rohmer and Johnny Kasperek, recreation leaders.

New members are Dolores Sandmann, Steve Schmidkofer, Gene Rohmer, Mary Alice Bell, Danny Nortman and David Hermes.

Carolyn Block presided for the business session before election and Betty Rohmer called roll after leading the 4-H Motto.

Waymon Moore, assistant county agent, gave the program talking on the importance of record books. Plans were made to start food groups.

A party followed with refreshments served to 17 members, two adult leaders and four parents.

We should never resent growing old. Think of the many people who never had the opportunity to do so.

on a provision that is not generally known. In case the two leaders are tied in electoral votes the choice must be between them. If they are not tied, the Constitution says the highest five candidates must be considered. Since this race has only three, the provision apparently implies that all three must be considered.

Another provision of the House election is that each of the 50 states has only one vote, and a majority of states (26) is needed to elect. By that rule the advantage seems to lean to the party which has more states with a majority of House membership, which also seems to eliminate the candidate who has no party support in the House.

Taking all the constitutional provisions under consideration, the odds are that this election will not go into the House. If the decision is not made on November 5, it can be assumed that intensive communication and politicking will follow promptly and the official vote of electors on December 18 will end the contest.

Incidentally, in case you did not know, people of this congressional district who vote for Wallace will be voting for A. V. Grant as their elector.

Elect WALT PARKER

STATE REPRESENTATIVE

I AM NOT IN FAVOR OF THE establishment of local school districts based on having 2600 students in average daily attendance.

I believe that by creating super school districts we would eliminate the individual participation of many of our fine rural students. I certainly feel that some changes need to be made to improve the quality of the schools of Texas, but a large super school district IS NOT the answer.

A Vote for Walt Parker is a vote for a representative who will fight for the smaller school districts.
