Substance found in sand filter...
temporary plant shuts down

by Angela Jones
Editor

The temporary sanitation plant was closed last week after having failed to meet the Texas Water Commission requirements for the past couple of months.

Davis Water and Waste Industries, Inc. (Daveco) was called to come look into the situation. "They emptied the water out of the sand filter, which is the final stage of treatment," City Manager Kelvin Knauf said. He continued, "And once they emptied the water they noticed black clumps of material throughout the sand filter." Some where bigger than others, Knauf added.

Samples of the material were taken and sent to a laboratory in Amarillo. According to Knauf, the lab report the material is some kind of hydrocarbon. Knauf explained that this means the material is new or used oil, petroleum based grease or some type of animal or vegetable grease.

Knauf went on to explain that right after the temporary plant was started in February, while Daveco employees were still here, they noticed that a lot of oil was coming from the sewer system into the temporary plant. "This occurred on at least two occasions," Knauf stated. He continued, "That has lead us to believe that someone has dumped this substance into the system. We don't know who or when." He added, "We only suspect (this is what happened). We don't know for sure, but from the employees' observation and the testing it looks like that is what has happened."

Knauf then explained that the substance could have come from various places such as any business or person that deals with oil, petroleum, or animal or vegetable grease.

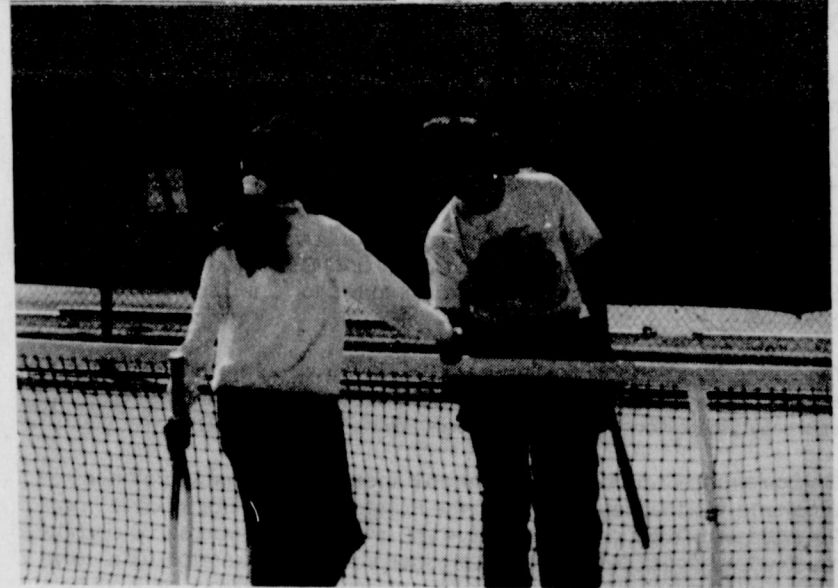

"So we are asking for the cities help," Knauf said. If they know of anyone who has dumped a large quantity of these substances into the system, please contact City Manager Kelvin Knauf - 659-2524, or Police Chief Joe Raper - 659-3707. All calls will be confidential.

The cost of replacing the sand and gravel filter was quoted at $4,500, plus the labor and travel expenses for Daveco to replace it is a minimum of $2,000, according to Knauf. He added, "The city is going to have to absorb this cost because it wasn't a problem with Daveco's equipment or installation as far as has been determined as of Tuesday, April 13."

Although the temporary is closed Knauf said that the old plant is still running.

Knauf concluded the interview by saying, "If you dump these substances into the sewer system we are urging you to quit. It is illegal disposal and if it is discovered (who is doing it) legal action will be taken."

Senior Spearman tennis singles players: Wes Dyess (l) and Kimbre Townsen win District Championships. Townsen is shaking hands with finals opponent Teresa Diaz of Gruver. Diaz was runner up.

Lynx and Lynxettes...

win tennis team champions

The Spearman Lynx and Lynxettes tennis players overcame wind, cool temperature, rain and opponents from the 6 other District 1-2A schools to win team championships in the both the ladies' and the men's divisions of the district tournament held Tuesday and Thursday, April 6 and 8 at the Spearman High School tennis courts. The Lynx and Lynxette players were so dominating they took the top two spots in every event of the tournament except the runner up spots in ladies' singles and doubles.

Kimbre Townsen added the district championship to her list of tournament wins for this year. Those wins include the Plainview Tournament, the Hereford Tournament and just last weekend the Levelland Tournament. In the district tournament Townsen overcame Woolsey from Stratford and Smith from Gruver without losing a single game. In the semi-final round she lost 3 games before overcoming her opponent. In the finals of the tournament she overcame Teresa Diaz of Gruver 6-1, 6-1.

Kelly Butts, the second

Spearman ladies' singles player, lost to Diaz in a tough straight-sets match in the semi-finals. The scores were 7-5, 6-2. The match was interrupted in the second set by rain with the score at 2-2. Butts defeated Porter from Sunray in the first round and then defeated Smith from Gruver for a third place ribbon. The match went to three sets with Butts coming out on top 6-4, 6-7, 6-2.

On the men's singles side of the tournament Spearman players, senior Wes Dyess and freshman Bill Pittman disposed of the other competition and met in the finals. The senior defeated the freshman 6-2, 6-1.

In winning the championship Dyess played two other opponents before facing Pittman. He defeated Diamond of Stratford 6-2, 6-0 and Shipley of Gruver 6-4, 6-0. Pittman defeated Gill of Sunray and Price Hansford County Commissioner's Court authorized Dick Gillaspie to be sworn in as a reserve deputy at the meeting held Monday, April 12.

Having a reserve deputy will help if the sheriff or the other deputies are unavailable and a prisoner needs to be transported, then Gillaspie is available to transport the prisoner, according to Judge Jim Brown.

In other business the court formally approved the bond for Shannon Scroggs, sheriff's dispatcher.

The court also approved a road easement for Strat Land Exploration Company. The easement is in Kent Guthrie's precinct, Precinct #3.

In regular business, the court read and approved the minutes. They received a Treasurer's report and investments. It was approved. The payment of the bills was also approved.

Gruver Board of Education... adopts resolution

by Angela Jones
Editor

The Gruver Board of Education held a special meeting on Monday, April 12, to adopt a resolution expressing opposition to Constitutional Amendment 1 and in support for Constitutional Amendment 2 on the May 1 ballot.

According to the ballot, Constitutional Amendment 1 would allow limited redistribution of ad valorem taxes for schools, authorizing the legislature or local district to set a minimum tax rate in county education districts, and placing a cap on the ad valorem tax levied by county education districts.

Constitutional Amendment 2 is stated on the ballot as exempting a school district from the obligation to comply with unfunded state educational mandates.

The board is encouraging voters to voice their opinions regarding the constitutional amendments by contacting Senator Teel Bivins at 374-8994 (Amarillo) or 512-463-0131 (Austin) and Representative Warren Chisum at 1-800-692-1389.

In other business, Amy TeBeest was hired to teach high school chemistry and biology in the district for 1993-94.

golf teams headed to regionals

Both Spearman Boys and Girls A-teams are headed to the Regional tournament in Austin on Wednesday and Thursday, April 27 and 28. The boy's A-team will go as district champs by virtue of a combined score of 978 strokes total for the 5 man team over the three district tournaments. This score is almost a hundred shots less than the second place team from Stratford.

The district qualifying tournaments came to an end at Sunray's home course in Dumas. According to Jeff Rowland, golf coach, the boys had an outstanding day. "If they can shoot a 312, like they did Monday, at Regionals, they will be on their way to Austin and the State Tournament. Leading the boys A-Team with not only the lowest of the District Tournament was Justin Boyd who shot a 74 on Monday and had a combined score of

233. He was followed on the team by Cass Lasater (75-241), Toby Thompson (79-252), Robert Needham (84-259) and Chris Jenkins (88-269). The Spearman Boy's B-Team finished sixth in dis-

Spearhead Corp. announces land swap

The Spearhead Corporation announced Monday that they are going to exchange land with the City of Spearman for a more central and better located building site for the proposed community center. Jackie Pearson, Spearhead Corporation secretary reported that the corporation will donate the plot of land across the street from the Spearman High School tennis courts to the city in exchange for the city's plot of land north of the swimming pool between 5th street and Brandt Street.

"The whole community gains from the exchange, said Kelvin Knauf, Spearman city manager and Spearhead board member. Knauf listed the advantages to the community center group as the city site is more centrally located and it would not require as much site preparation as the site by the school. He indicated that the school site is in a flood plane and in order to build

RADICAL LIVING

By Dan Carter, Pastor
Trinity Community Church

"LEVEL 4, PLEASE!"
II Corinthians 5:14

As a child I remember going shopping in downtown Amarillo. Department stores still had elevator operators. Shoppers boarded the elevator and told the operator the desired floor. Each floor was organized around particular goods (women's clothing, menswear, etc.). That wasn't important to me. I just liked riding the elevator. The higher the better.

To get to the top level, the elevator had to pass each floor in succession. That's obvious, but worth noting.

One thousand years ago, a monk named Bernard of Clairvaux lived and ministered in France. He was a man with deep insight into Scripture, and rare devotion to Christ Jesus. One of his books, On Loving God, is a classic. In it he describes why and how to love God. He defines four levels of love.

The basic level of love is that of a person loving himself for his own sake. It is a natural enough attachment. Paul says no one hates his own flesh, but nurtures it. Without checks and balances this level of love breeds meanness and judgmentalism.

Secondly, a person loves God for his personal benefit. God is a great -- the greatest Benefactor. He certainly wants everyone to know His blessings.

Thirdly, says Bernard, a person learns to love God for God's sake. Moving beyond His blessings to His Person. Tasting God and knowing He's good, apart from His blessings, is a major step.

Finally, a pinnacle few stand on, and yet all are invited to, comes in learning to love yourself for God's sake. Finding we are fearfully and wonderfully made by God Himself, and then freely sacrificing ourselves to our God, Who is also our Father, that is the top floor. It causes me to pray, "Level 4, Please."

North Plains Electric... offering trip to D.C.

The Board of Directors of North Plains Electric Cooperative, Inc. has authorized the sponsorship of a speech contest among students attending school in the Cooperative's service area. Winners of the Government-in-Action Youth Tour contest, one boy and one girl, will be awarded an exciting 12-day, all expense paid trip to Washington, D.C., June 10-22, 1993.

All students in the Cooperative's service area between the ages of 14-19 are eligible to enter the contest. (Members of immediate families of North Plains Electric employees and directors are not eligible to participate).

Each entrant in the contest will be required to give a five-to-eight minute speech on the subject, "Rural Electric Cooperatives...Building on the Past to Meet the Challenges of the Future." After each presentation, a panel of judges will ask the contestant three questions about North Plains Electric or rural electric cooperatives in general. Reference and study material will be furnished for each contestant. Two finalists will be selected from each school and will represent their school in the final contest to be held on Tuesday, April 27, 1993, in the "Willie Room" of North Plains Electric in Perryton. Schools in the Cooperative's service area include Booker, Canadian, Follett, Gruver, Higgins, Perryton and Spearman.

The winners of North Plains Electric's speech contest will travel to Denton, Texas on June 10. There, they will join other young people from Texas who have won similar contests for the chartered bus trip to Washington, D.C. While in Washington, they will meet other youth from all over the United States and visit many scenic and historic places, including the White House, U.S. Capitol, National Archives, Smithsonian Institution, Library of Congress, Arlington National Cemetery and Mount Vernon, just to mention a few. Tour participants will also meet with and view their congressmen and senators in action.

A representative from North Plains Electric will be visiting the schools concerning the contest during the next week. Students interested in more information about

Meadowlark Lemon to pay a visit to Gruver

by Bob Bort
Sports fans have been known to pay thousands of dollars to spend a fantasy weekend with former professional baseball and basketball players--this coming weekend in Gruver fans will have a chance to see, at no charge, one of the greatest basketball players of all time do his thing in Greyhound Gym. And the lucky "Local Greats" will have a chance to actually play with him and against him in what promises to be a spectacular, and historic, occasion. It all takes place at 8 p.m. at Greyhound Gym in Gruver on Saturday night, April 17. Meadowlark Lemon will be here. Yes, sports fans, the Meadowlark Lemon of Harlem Globetrotter fame.

The First Baptist Church of Gruver invited him, and unbelievably he accepted. It is free of charge, it is a "love offering". Lemon is involved with Meadowlark Ministries, and at that invitation of the First Baptist Church, he will preach two sermons at the Sunday services of the First Baptist Church on April 18. He will actually arrive in Gruver Friday, and will be staying in the home of Richie and Carolyn Fletcher.

Hounds Coach Tim Garland is organizing the teams that will play with and against Meadowlark. Lemon has toured the world, for those of you who don't live on this planet, and thus don't know who the Harlem Globetrotters are. They have appeared before Presidents. They have appeared before the Queen of England, and other kings and queens. Yes, they have even performed for the Pope in Italy. Lemon's schedule includes the Men's Community Breakfast at the First Baptist Church on Saturday at 7 a.m. Then he will be at the ball game that night, and will be speaking there also. The next day, Sunday, he will speak at the 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services at the First Baptist Church, and that day there will be a dinner at 12 noon--covered dish, all invited.

Lemon is now 60 years old and has been involved with his Meadowlark Ministries full time, until recently, when he resumed his duties for the Globetrotters, as the "Clown Prince of Basketball." According to Carolyn Fletcher, he performs now for the Globetrotters, but only for one quarter out of each game.

I will be like a child in a candy store Saturday night, wanting to ask him questions as a reporter--what he thinks of Gruver...is Gruver the smallest town he has ever performed in, and more. At the same time, like the kid, I will want to ask him for an autograph.

He is one of the greatest good-will ambassadors this nation has ever had, and it will be a shame if you don't take advantage and go witness the power of love, of this gem of a man.

H.C. Hospital District chooses employee of month

Buddy Hopper was picked to receive the hospital district's employee of the month award for April.

"Buddy has set an example for all of us, as someone who has a good attitude, someone we can always count on," says his supervisor, Ken Freeman.

Buddy works in the maintenance department of the district, helping to keep the buildings in tip-top shape. He has been employed by the district for seven years.

Mr. Hopper grew up in Spearman, having moved here at the age of one year, from Suffern, New York. His wife, Yvette, is employed as a legal secretary by Cecil Biggers, attorney at law.

Buddy's mother, Garland Hopper, is a retired nurse, and a volunteer for Hansford Hospice.

In his spare time, Mr. Hopper likes to hunt, fish, camp, and play basketball. A true animal lover, he has four dogs and two cats.

When asked what he likes the best about working for the district, Buddy says, "More than anything, it's the people I work for—residents and patients make me feel good to be doing something for them, making their stay here as pleasant as possible."

As employee of the month, Mr. Hopper receives two paid days off, a plaque and a specially-designated parking spot.

true. But I know I don't stand slumped with my hand in my pocket," he animates with one hand on his hip.

Being as fit as a quarterback for the last four years in the military was a requirement, but Ross continues to train daily to maintain his present fitness.

A large Arnold Schwarzenegger Encyclopedia lies next to his Bible on the floor beside his bed, while a poster of a body builder lies conspicuously among some Conan the Barbarian comic books.

"I like to be bigger, so I train about 12 hours a week—two hours a day, six days a week," he says with his calculator in hand.

"I leave the house every morning at 5:45 to go to the gym and will work out for an hour before my 8 o'clock class," he explains. "Then again in the evening from 6 to 7.

His love "to be bigger" also is reflected in his choice for a hero. "If I ever have a hero besides my father, it'll be Conan," he says, flashing a huge boyish smile. "Superman is this guy who can fly, Spiderman is this guy who can climb on walls, and Batman has a car that can do 10,000 things. But Conan is just a man.

"He doesn't take sass from anyone and is easy to relate to," he gushes. "I have a subscription of Conan comics and receive two issues every month."

Tuell Green, Ross's roommate and cousin, says, "Ross is really a Conan fan. Once we joked with him that the postman walked off with his Conan comics, and he almost ran after the guy."

However, reading Conan comic books is not Ross' only interest; Ross has many different interests. Just when someone thinks he or she knows all about Ross, he unexpectedly reveals his love for things of the past.

Marching across his room, he bends down to pick up what looks like a rusty, mangled lead pipe under a Lone Star flag. He cradles the wreck in his arm. "This is the rifle barrel of the Marine who was standing on guard at the gate when about 285 marines were killed by an explosion in Beirut during the early 80's. We know that it belongs to him because of the serial number on the rifle."

Pointing to the American flag behind him, Ross continues, "This flag is the one that flew for four days before it was replaced by a bigger one. The original flag was blown up when the Marine barracks exploded in the Beirut bombing. My staff sergeant gave it to me."

Looking at his prized possession he says, "I have a real love for the flag."

selor. She recalled that she was working on class hours toward her vocational counselor license when she got the call from Canyon Independent School District to come to work five years ago.

She spends her work time talking to the children who are students at Oscar Hinger and Rex Reeves, helping them through rough times, teaching them coping skills and testing skills, directing a "peer helper" program and working with the businesses that serve as partners in education for Oscar Hinger.

When she's not working, one of the things she really enjoys is traveling, she said.

"Pat and I love to travel," she said. "A few summers ago, we each packed a carry-on bag and traveled by car all over Eastern Europe, starting in Germany and ending up going through Hungary, Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia.

"We made some good friends on that trip and we still hear from them, so all that mess over there in Yugoslavia really upsets me."

Northcutt said the best thing about the couple's marriage is that it's a real partnership.

"We just have a good time doing things together: traveling, entertaining our friends, cooking, reading, all those kinds of things.

"We always have a trip on the back burner."

Baby wipes that come with less packaging leave more space in our landfills.

"For there is hope for a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, though its roots grow old in the earth, at the scent of water it will bud and put forth branches like a young plant."
(Job 4:7-9)

"...Hope For A Tree"

A tree is reassuring. A tree is a survivor ... withstanding tempestuous winds ... towering over time, branches spiraling in space. Though assaulted by the elements, the tree will survive, providing the roots remain strong, forging through fertile soil, bringing life to the entire length of its structure. God made provisions for the tree. Likewise, God made provisions for our survival. If our roots are founded in His Word, we too shall tower over life's tempests. Romans 11:16 assures us, "...if the root is holy, so are the branches." Root your life in God as you worship each Sabbath. There is hope for a tree. There is hope for you.

Career Fair 1993

Career Fair was organized by The Spearman Chamber of Commerce and The Spearman Rotary Club to help our high school students choose careers best suited to their interest, abilities and aptitudes. This year we will have this on Tuesday, April 20, 7 to 9:30 p.m. at the high school cafeteria. During this time students from the area and parents are invited to come and visit each booth set up and ask questions about their career. We will also have colleges represented from the area to be at the Fair. The Fair is open to all students in the 10-12 grades. Also during this time, we will be sponsoring a Cost of Living Seminar for juniors and seniors and their parents. This seminar will be conducted by Jean Walker from West Texas State University. The seminar will cover cost difference of living on and off campus, jobs available, and grants to be used. A question and answer time will also be available. The seminar will be held in the high school auditorium from 7:30-8:30 p.m.

Each college will be bringing several different representatives from their different programs. Careers from nursing to feedlot management will be available for discussion. Ostrich ranching to modeling and stockbrokers to banking to the armed forces. There will be something for everyone.

For more information about a booth for Career Fair, call the chamber office, 659-5555, the high school, Mr. Ingram - 659-2584 or Karen Babitzke, 659-2030.

This will be an excellent opportunity for both student and parent. The cost of living seminar will be open for parents to ask as many questions about college life that you need to ask. Frank Phillips, West Texas State University, Clarendon College, T.S.T.C., and Amarillo College will be here to show what their schools have to offer with the career that you have chosen.

FRUITS: A NATURAL SWEET

Fruits, often called nature's sweet, are an important part of a healthy diet. According to surveys, most people eat fresh fruit for snacks; and the banana is the most popular fruit in America, followed by apples and seedless grapes.

The USDA Food Guide Pyramid recommends two to four servings of fruit each day. For most, that's easy to do because fruit is so popular and makes such a handy snack when eaten fresh. Because it's also naturally sweet, it can serve as a dessert, substituting for higher fat and calorie-laden desserts.

Fruit gives a quick source of energy in the form of carbohydrate.

Fruits and fruit juices also provide important amounts of vitamins A and C and potassium. They are low in fat and sodium. Some fruits provide a good amount of fiber, including apples, berries, figs, pears, peaches and prunes.

Serving sizes are important when interpreting the Food Guide recommendations. A serving size is a particular amount of food, not just the number of times it is eaten per day. For example, a serving size of fruit would be a small to medium orange or banana, or half of a large banana; one-half cup chopped, cooked or canned fruit; and three-fourths cup juice. When selecting juices, only 100 percent fruit juice products are considered a serving. Other products such as fruit punches, ades or sodas contain only a little juice and added sugar. Fruit jellies also do not qualify.

Other tips for including fruits in the diet follow:

- Include many forms. Choose fresh fruit, fruit juice and frozen, canned or dried fruit. Go easy on fruit canned or frozen in syrup or sugar. Read the labels for content.
- Include whole fruits. They are higher in fiber than fruit juices.
- Include citrus fruits, melons and berries because they are rich in vitamin C. We need vitamin C each day because the body does not store it.
- Always wash fresh fruits before preparing or eating to remove any surface dirt, residue or bacteria.

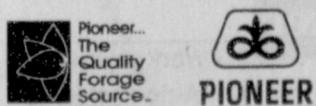

Capitalize on the richness and versatility of fruits by including them in meals and snacks. For more information on specific fruits contact Karen Babitzke, your local County Extension Agent-Home Economics at 659-2030 or 733-2901.

this race there are six candidates running for the two seats. Five of these candidates submitted formal announcements to the newspaper.

These announcements were as follows:

Allen Varnon

My name is Allen Varnon. I am a candidate for Spearman School Board Trustee. I have lived in Spearman for over 16 years, am a member of the First Christian Church where I have served as a deacon and property trustee. I have been Vice-President of the Hansford County Activity Center, Treasurer for the P.T.A., and am currently the President of the Lynx-Lynxette Booster Club.

My wife, Peggy, helped recharter P.T.A., has served as P.T.A. officer, library aide at school and has volunteered her time at every school level when needed. We have three sons: Jason, Jr.; Eric, 8th grade; and Richard, 4th grade.

As a parent with a student on

each school campus, I would like to help insure that we have a well-informed administrative staff and quality teachers. I know that the future of our students must lie in the hands of our local board and that we as voters must stand up and say "no" to State control. I want to be able to say we as a board have done our best for our students, in every aspect, because we care more for our school system in Spearman than those that live in Austin.

Craig Schumann

With the instability of State Funding for schools today, we may be forced by the state to raise local taxes. Therefore, I vote conservatively with your money. I believe in competitive bidding to find the best buy for your hard earned tax dollars. However, I know we can and MUST do a better job of writing bid specifications and securing more bids.

I support the state mandated Site Base Decision Making process which encourages parent, teacher, and community participation in school decisions. Research has shown that effective schools have a high degree of parent and community involvement. I invite and welcome anyone's questions or comments concerning our schools. Quality teachers are a must for a strong school. Therefore, we must do everything possible to keep and attract superior educators. We also need to provide more support for teachers and students. I feel we need an elementary P.E. teacher rather than a coach, a Jr. High/Elementary Counselor, and a bilingual teacher.

Having said all this, I want to make it perfectly clear that STUDENTS are my first priority. I believe everything we do in our school system should center around one question, "Is this the best thing for our kids?"

Sheri Benton

Sheri Benton has announced her candidacy for a position on the Spearman School Board. A Spearman resident for the last fifteen years, she has been actively involved in our community serving on the board of the Chamber of Commerce, Spearhead Corporation and Hansford County YMCA. As a member of Women's Division and Beta Sigma Phi, she has held every office in both organizations. Sheri and her husband, Steve, who is a partner in Five Star Equipment, have four children - Kellie, 23; Salina, 15; Meredith, 13; and Nicolas, 9. They are members of the First Baptist Church.

Sheri Benton

Sheri is the Hansford County librarian, and has 24 years of business experience. She is currently a member of the Texas Library Association, Texas Municipal Library Directors Association, and the Public Library Division Planning Committee. She is secretary for the Harrington Library Consortium Users Group.

Believing as she does, that no other form of service is more important than service to Spearman's children, Sheri would seek as a board member to provide students with the best education possible. Since the board should be a representative cross-section of our citizenry with a balance of interests and viewpoints, Sheri would welcome the opportunity to bring a woman's perspective to that board.

Richard Pipkin

My name is Richard Pipkin and I am seeking election to the Spearman School Board of Trustees. I am a life long resident of Spearman and graduated from Spearman High School in 1966. I attended Bob Jones University in South Carolina and graduated from West Texas University in 1971 with a Bachelor of Science Degree. I returned to Spearman to continue farming with my father, Johnny Pipkin. I married Lisa in 1975 and we have three children, Candice, an eighth grader, Kara, a fourth grader and David, a second grader.

I am an active member of the First Baptist Church and currently serve on the Hansford County Stock Show Board.

I feel I am qualified to serve as a trustee because of my sound and conservative economic judgements in my own business. I also feel that as a college graduate I recognize the challenges facing our students as they enter our colleges, vocational schools and job markets.

I want to make the decisions that will positively support our teachers and most importantly our children. I also feel a strong fiscal responsibility to the taxpayers.

I am committed as well, as qualified to serve on the Spearman Board of Trustees. I would appreciate your support and vote on May 1st.

Scott Beedy

I am Scott Beedy, a candidate for the Spearman Independent School District Board of Trustees. My wife, Becky, and I have two children in the Spearman schools - Kristin, 6th grade and Kevin, 2nd grade. I graduated from Spearman High School in 1973 and Texas Tech University (BBA, Accounting) in 1977. I am a certified public accountant employed by AGCO of Spearman, Inc.

It appears our school system will be facing many challenges in the next few years due to increasing mandates from the State which will most likely have to be financed by local funds. Therefore, we must strike a balance between our desire to be a progressive school district and our need to be conservative in our spending so our property tax burden does not become too great. My 15 years experience as a CPA will enable me to analyze the needs and resources of the School District so they best meet the needs and concerns of the children and taxpayers of Spearman.

If elected, I will have an open mind and encourage input from others. I have no predetermined ideas regarding changes that may need to be made. I only want to have a part in making the Spearman Independent School District the best it can be.

Scott Beedy

Local banks push to change regulatory laws

First State Bank, Spearman; First National Bank, Spearman and Gruver State Bank are joining banks and regulated lending institutions all over the state of Texas in a push to change the banking regulatory laws to make it possible for qualified lending institutions to make home equity loans.

"We are trying to get it to the point where people can vote on it," said Jim Shirley of FSB. To get it to that point the banks are asking the people of Hansford County to study the issues and then call their State Congressmen and urge them to take action.

If people agree with the banks, that the home equity laws should be changed, the banks have a toll free 800 number they can call. The number is 1(800)372-2626 Extension #9388. When this number is called, and a person indicates they are for equity home loans, a telegram is sent to their congressman in support of the equity home loan law reforms.

Meet your neighbor... teacher consistently finds something to enjoy in life

by Vivian Salazar
Globe-News
Canyon Bureau Chief
Editor's note: This article is reprinted with permission from the March 22 issue of the Amarillo Globe-Times.

Anne Northcutt describes herself as "a gal of the moment," saying she's always liked best in her life whatever was happening at that time.

Not that everything has always been smooth sailing - just that she's one of those types who sees the glass as half full rather than half empty.

"At one time in my life I was a community volunteer," she said, sitting at her desk in her small office at Oscar Hinger Elementary School in Canyon, where she works as a counselor.

"At another time I was all mother and at another time I was all career person."

Now, she said, she's just about whatever she wants to be, and that includes all those same aspects: wife, friend and traveling companion to her husband, Pat; mother to Tab, Tim and Jamie Anne Smith; friend and listener to the children, parents and staff members at her school; active worker at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church; daughter to Hollie and Early Riley of Spearman.

The ride between Amarillo and Canyon every school day is the slowest time of her day, Northcutt said. The rest is busy, just as it has been since her high school days at Spearman, where she was a major-ette, a cheerleader and a class officer.

Spearman was the place where she made friends she's had for a lifetime.

"I had a healthy, wholesome, wonderful life," she said.

Northcutt, who talks in dashes and who jumps from one subject to another in rapid succession, doesn't really like to talk about herself. She'd rather ask questions or talk about the people who are important in her life.

Still, a questioner is able to determine that she first went to school at North Texas State University at Denton, where she majored in social studies and English and earned degrees in education, speech and English.

She's made a full circle since her early 20s: starting off in education and ending up there again, she said.

She was certified to teach when she graduated from college but elected to marry and rear children instead of going into the classroom. During those years she worked as a volunteer for the Junior League of Amarillo, the Amarillo Symphony Guild, the Discovery Center, the Amarillo Symphony Board, and the Speech and Hearing Foundation board, among others. During that same time period, she and two other Amarillo women founded the Art Force.

She also has been on the board of directors of St. Andrew's Day School and two terms on the church vestry. She also is president of the High Plains Counseling Association.

She turned to teaching in the late 1960s, "when the kids were kind of grown," teaching four years at Alice Landergin Elementary School before taking a hiatus from education.

She returned to college and earned another degree, she said, giving her the background to go to work for a few years in the trust department at First National Bank.

Her office at Oscar Hinger is crowded with the diplomas and various licenses she holds as a coun-
See Anne page 3B

It always brings pride and pleasure when a Spearman graduate is recognized for some achievement. So it was on April 8 in the Amarillo Daily News when it was announced that Anne Northcutt was selected Counselor of the Year. The selection was made at the eighth annual Waugh Conference at the Virgil Henson Activity Center at West Texas University.

Anne is president of the High Plains Counseling Association and has been the counselor at the Oscar Hinger Elementary School in Canyon for five years. The High Plains Association has 150 members in the 26 county region. It is a division of the American Counseling Association.

Anne holds Bachelor's degrees in English, Education and Speech from the University of North Texas and a degree in counseling from West Texas University. She is the daughter of Hollie and Earl Riley. Congratulations, Anne.

Relatives in Spearman received word of the passing of Riley Sheets, 85, on April 8 in Oklahoma City.

Mr. Sheets was a resident of this area years ago and still has numerous relatives here. In addition he is survived by his wife, two daughters, a step-son, and one sister, Opal Cator of Harrah, Oklahoma.

The Amarillo News in his obituary inadvertently carried his name as Robert Riley and mentions that he was born at Jeffrey. Many local residents recall that Jeffrey was a post office south of Spearman in the area of the Holt Community. Dorothy Buzzard and Doris Beck attended the funeral on Saturday at Oklahoma City.

Lois Nollner was delighted to have her daughter, Betty Dean, of Corpus Christi visit her last week. The climax was observing the 81st birthday of Lois. Nell and Bob McCoy of Perryton hosted the gathering. In addition to the McCoy and Betty, those attending were Chris White, Beaver; Yvonne and Lawrence Maytum and family, Guymon; Frances Jackson and family, Amarillo; and from Spearman - the Sonny Nollner family, Billy Nollner family, Marsha and Lee Shaver and family and Dorothy Nollner.

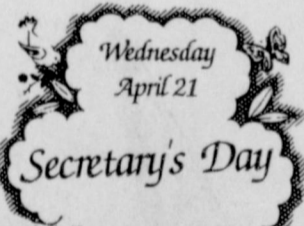

Last week Henry Cornelius had two experiences for the very first

Birth announcement

Ron and Shelly Schadegg of Goodwell, Oklahoma announce the birth of their daughter, Lindsey Sage, on April 2, 1993. She weighed 8 pounds.

Grandparents are Ron and Loretta Cook of Spearman and Mary Schadegg of Breese, Ill.

Great-Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A.H. Cook of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. Toy Jones of Amarillo.

time. In Reno, Nevada, he and Mary celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary - and secondly - he left Reno with more cash than he started with!

Their daughter, Dell Rumley of Abilene, and her family Barney Arnold of Knox City, drove to Spearman and they all flew to Reno for the anniversary.

Dell and Barney took a Gray Line tour around Lake Tahoe, Carson City, and other places of interest, but the Cornelius were content to enjoy the good weather and activities in the city. Henry was amazed at the overwhelmingly Chinese clientele at all the businesses.

Attending the Lakeview All-School reunion last Saturday were Jody and Reg Robertson, Helen and Rich Melton, Harvey Whitefield, Gloria Knox and her sister, Joy Kinser, of Mobile.

The reunion began early Saturday morning and ended early Sunday morning with a dance. The alumni attending the earliest year was in the 1920s.

Daniel Sheets has observed Easter in many places and in many ways, but never quite like this one. He underwent surgery for a hip replacement at St. Anthony's hospital on Easter morning.

Earlier he had been welding and with a welding helmet on, had stumbled and broken his hip.

He is reported to be recovering.

Billy Kuehl is back home from a stay in High Plains Baptist Hospital. He underwent numerous tests for a heart condition and was relieved to learn that surgery is not indicated and he should respond to medication.

Randy Brown underwent knee surgery for the third time last week in an Amarillo hospital. In just a few days he was back at DGC maneuvering on crutches.

With the third surgery on his knees, the question naturally arises as to what is causing this trauma to his knees. Knees are mostly over-worked with two exercises. One is an act of reverence - and the other is that certain game with the little dotted do-dadds -- Wanta guess which is wearing out his knees?

Doris Fochtman has been seriously ill in I.C.U. at High Plains Baptist Hospital for several days. Mary Brock reports that she has improved enough to be in intermediate care but it is indefinite as to when she can return to Spearman.

Easter visiting - Kim Brock with Jana, Jordon, John and Jeff of Allen, Texas came up to spend Easter with his parents, J.L. and Mary Brock. Kim's wife, Stephanie, who has been ill is improving and her mother is with her.

They all enjoyed a picnic at Palo Duro Lake on Saturday. On Sunday all went to Borger for Easter dinner with Stephanie's sister, Jane and John Herbert.

Frances and Gene Cudd, together with the Mike Cudds and children spent Easter in the home of the Cudd's daughter, Jenette and Dr. Robert Henderson and family in Amarillo.

Julia Martin with Garrett and Stuart drove to Colorado Springs for the Easter weekend. She met her parents, John and Juanita Japp, of Casper, Wyoming. The weekend had additional significance for them as Friday was Julia's birthday and Monday was her mother's.

Anna Lee and Wendell Pittman of Balco shared Easter with her sister Maylynn and I.W. Ayres.

Sada Ruth and Howard Long of Bartlesville spent several days with her mother, Mrs. Sada Hoskins, and other family members.

Pam Edwards with Abbey and Tony of Sayre, Oklahoma came to be with her parents, B.J. and Janell Grayson. Her husband was unable to come.

Easter guests of Gwen and Don McLain were their daughter Patrice and Gary Pool and four children of Amarillo. Also Mike and Diane McLain and three children of Gruver and Lester McLain.

Kathryn and Darell Edwards came from Chicago to share Easter with her parents, Don and Wanda Smith. They left Tuesday, and on Sunday evening Kathryn favored the congregation of the First Baptist Church with a solo. Kathryn is a talented and well-known vocalist.

Easter Sunday was a beautiful spring day and no place was more enjoyed than the Palo Duro Dam area. Johnnie Lee reports that every table and picnic space was occupied. On the north side of the dam, just the north side, 69 vehicles were counted at one time. More tables and shelters will soon be in place.

Ross Renner, every inch a U.S. Marine

Editor's note: The following article is reprinted with permission from The Abilene Christian University Optimist.

by Bernadette Lee
Accent Page Editor

Ross Renner looks every inch a U.S. Marine Corps sergeant as he stands between the American flag and the U.S. Marine Corps flag that hang proudly on the wall of his room. He still sports a crew cut; however, he has exchanged a well-pressed, navy-blue uniform for a casual aqua-colored T-shirt and faded blue jeans.

While most of his freshman friends have never been to Washington D.C., the 24-year-old freshman has guarded the White House, chatted with former President George Bush, and given White House tours to the likes of Kevin Costner, Arnold Schwarzenegger and the Chicago Bulls.

Although happily settled in Abilene and pursuing a bachelor's degree in agriculture, the sergeant from Gruver occasionally misses life as a Marine and is well-known among friends for stories of his military days.

"Nothing compares to working in the White House," Ross says with a thick Southern accent. "I had what they called a 'top-secret-category clearance,' and I'm allowed to look up classified material and can even carry a loaded weapon 15 feet of the president.

"I even got to talk to President Bush for 10 minutes," he enthuses. "He is a really nice man. I have a lot of respect for him."

Besides guarding the White House, Ross traveled with the president to such exotic places as Hawaii, Egypt and France in 1990.

The well-mannered sergeant also received his greatest honor while serving in the White House.

"I received a Presidential Service Badge after being at the White House for one year," he says beaming with pride as he removes the prized badge from its case. "It is solid gold, you know."

"Every time they make one, it is numbered," he says pointing to the number on his badge. "President Kennedy gave orders to have these given out, and since then only 11,000 have been given out. Very few Marines have one of these. Even colonels who have been in the Marine Corps for 20-30 years won't know what it is."

His face smooths into a wide grin as he reminisces about the past.

"All the badges are worn on the left except for the Presidential Service Badge," he explains. So it is not unusual for an officer of higher rank to walk up and bellow "What is that?"

"I would reply, 'Sir, that's the Presidential Service Badge. It is worn on the right.'"

The year spent guarding the White House was the best of Ross's four years in the Marine Corps.

Out of 100,000 Marines he was one of four chosen to guard the White House. However, like anything worthwhile, the opportunity did not come easy. Three years of training went into preparing him for the mission.

After undergoing basic training 13 weeks, which was "constant marching, constant training and constant chaos," Ross went on to infantry school in North Carolina to learn how to be a good foot soldier.

He quickly learned that strenuous physical and mental training for the Marines was as common as eating meals.

However, Ross remembers one incident when the training was almost too much to bear.

"Oh, howdy! Swim training was the worst memory I have," he draws. "You have to swim 25 meters with boots, full uniform, a 30-pound pack, an 8.79-pound rifle, helmet and two full tin cans."

"In the water, you have to take off your pack and lay your rifle on top of it so that you can shoot at someone if you're being shot at," he recalls.

To make the task more challenging, each Marine is also expected to jump off a 12-15 foot platform and tread water with the heavy load for 5-8 minutes.

"A lot of guys don't pass swim training the first time and get dropped from their platoon," he says.

"If I had been dropped, that would have been my worst," he says, "I remember praying every night. 'Lord, please do not let me get dropped.'"

"The main thing that separates the Marine Corps from the other services is that when it comes to mental training, it is tougher than the other services 100 times," he continues.

"They mess with your mind. I was not prepared for that. I was prepared for the physical training," he says.

While Ross was training diligently, the FBI was investigating him because it saw potential in Ross to become one of the few Marines selected to guard the White House.

The FBI was right about Ross having potential. He was chosen to be the Marine of the Year in 1990.

"They went to my hometown, talked to my family and church members to find out what kind of a kid I was," he says. "The investigation lasted for one year, and by then they had spent $60,000 to get me a top-secret-category clearance."

"They don't send people to Desert Storm after spending so much money," Ross says. He pulls out a gray calculator, does some quick calculations and continues, "Only 60 Marines had ever been selected to guard the White House since President Nixon started the program in 1972."

While most people would find the transition from guarding the White House to going to college in Abilene difficult, Ross is ready.

He finds it refreshing to be with Christians after spending four years in the Marine Corps, filled primarily with non-believers. Ross also is glad finally to be studying agriculture in his parents' alma mater to fulfill his dream of becoming a farmer.

Brought up on a farm in Gruver was like the "Little House on the Prairie," he says fondly. "I'd always helped my father raise wheat, milo and corn. I also love working on the horses and the cattle."

Now, in addition to using farming vocabulary, Ross also is hooked on some military terminologies.

"I would say open the hatch instead of the door, and if someone were to ask me where my boots are, I might say, 'They are on the deck, I mean floor,'" he grins.

He also has been told that he sits and walks with an erect back.

"Some of my friends say I walk too straight. I don't know if that is

Marvin Byers... wins second at Special Olympics

by Angela Jones
Editor

Springtime is a time for outdoor sports. Track is one of these sports. Many individuals train to compete in the various events that are compiled to form a track meet. Marvin Byers is no exception. He recently competed with other athletes in the Area 16 Special Olympics held at Canyon.

Despite the wind and rain Marvin finished second in both of his events. He competed in the masters softball throw and the masters 100 meter run. When asked how he felt when he received the second place awards Marvin said he was excited. At this meet the first and second place winners of each event are eligible to participate in the State meet in Denton in May, explained Carolyn Thurman of the Perryton Satellite Center. She added that Marvin usually doesn't compete at State.

Carolyn stated, "It (competing in the Special Olympics) is something Marvin likes to do. It builds self-worth and self-esteem."

Marvin explained that he had practiced hard for the meet. All individuals that compete in the Special Olympics must practice for eight weeks prior to the competition, according to Carolyn. She added, "In Special Olympics everyone is a winner. It is a good program that is always looking for volunteers."

Marvin began competing in the Special Olympics at the age of eight, Carolyn said. She continued that he took a break for awhile and has now been competing again for three or four years. Since his top finishes in Canyon, Marvin has not been resting. He is planning to compete in the Special Olympics Track Meet in Borger, Saturday, April 17.

But Marvin's life does not evolve around track. He also works. Currently he works two days in Spearman and three days at the workshop in Perryton. On Wednesday mornings and Thursday afternoons Marvin can be found working at Five Star. He then works Wednesday afternoons and Thursday mornings at The Hansford County Reporter-Statesman.

Want in?

Sorry, in Texas you're locked out.

Texas is the only state where homeowners are locked out of the equity in their home.

Texas is the only state in the nation that prohibits homeowners from using the equity in their homes as they see fit.

If you want to send your kids to college ... start a small business ... or just have a little extra money for your retirement years -- the equity you have built up in your home is off-limits.

Texas homeowners are taking a stand.

Today there is a homeowner's movement that is fighting to give Texans the chance to vote on whether they want access to the equity in their homes -- a basic consumer right enjoyed in all 49 other states.

Help take off the locks.

We can help take off the locks to the equity in our homes, and enjoy the full rights of home ownership, if we make our voices heard.

 In the men's doubles it was again the two Spearman teams that met in the finals. The senior team of Mike Hagar and Clint Townsen defeated fellow team mates Sherman Jones and Chad Wilkerson for the title. Hagar and Townsen won 6-3, 6-2. Hagar and Townsen went through the tournament with only one lost game until they met Jones and Wilkerson.

a building on the site extensive excavating would have to be done to meet regulations to handle water runoff. Furthermore city sewer and water hookups are already available to the pool area site. City service hookups would have to be run to the school site.
 Advantages the city would gain from the swap are that the city is getting a slightly larger parcel of land. The city can use the fact that the land at the school is technically being donated to help qualify for a $95,000 grant to turn the land by the school into a recreational park. The city plans to use the money to build a jogging or walking track with exercising stations. Knauf said the money will also be used to buy and install playground equipment in the park.

 According to both Pearson and Knauf details of the exchange are being worked out and contract for the exchange is being drawn up by the city lawyer to be presented to the City Council at their next meeting. Both Knauf and Pearson were confident that details would be settled by the planned building date for the community center. Pearson said the corporation was planning to start building sometime in July of this year.

SPRINGTIME ???

Springtime means different things to different people. To the farmer it means plowing and planting. To the cattlemen it means assisting baby calves. To the bass angler it means a trip down south to Lake Fork, Lake Sam Rayburn, or Lake Amistad.
 To our neighbors at Eagle Nest Lake in New Mexico, springtime means that the ice fishing is shirt sleeve event. According to Larry Fontenot (505-377-6397) at the Fish Eagle Bait and Tackle shop in Eagle Nest, the fishing is excellent for kokanee salmon and rainbow trout. He does caution that thaw-out could occur on any warm day when the wind really starts blowing!

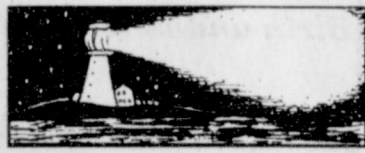

It takes a special kind of individual (I suspect brain damage is a frequent cause) to risk life, limb and bone-chilling temperatures just to catch a fish that can be safely purchased at most restaurants in New Mexico.

Rococo Twaddle is one of my favorite phrases that I used in last week's column to describe the ornate ramblings of how the other guy always catches fish at "Lake You-should-have-been-here-last-week". What is rococo twaddle? It is the empty words used by politicians when asked how spending our money on a government program can happen without causing a tax increase.

 No one, except other outdoor writers and all TV anglers catches fish on every trip. That's why its called fishing instead of catching. There are, however, some lakes where the fishing is better. In our part of the world, the best lake for big black bass is tiny Lake Baylor near Childress. Lake Greenbelt and Lake White River are slowly improving as catch-and-release increases.

Every weekend local Texans by the thousands are spending their money at New Mexico's Conchas Lake or Ute Lake and Oklahoma's Lake Foss for a very simple reason. They are catching fish -- crappie, black bass, smallmouth, walleye, and even striper at Foss. They may not catch a limit every day, but a quick look at the bulging parking lots, full of vehicles with Texas plates, should serve as a wake-up call to Texas officials.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK
 Why should any angler in our part of Texas pay more money when we must drive downstate or out-of-state in order to catch fish? Any additional taxes for a freshwater stamp should be tied to improved fishing. Measuring the performance of bureaucrats is viewed as treason by the paper shufflers.
 Rococo twaddle-- Just listen to the politicians and bureaucrats as they explain why you must buy a freshwater tax stamp.

The first lighthouse in America was Boston Lighthouse in Boston Harbor, first lit in 1716.
