miles north of Bootleg Corner, said that he received about two inches of rain, while some two miles to the south of his place there was from three to four inches of precipitation.

Near the west line of the county, Fred Collett said that recent rains brought from .70 to 1.40 inch of rain in that part of the county, in addition to the approximately three inches which had already fallen there.

West of Bippus
West of the Bippus community house, Frank Rickles said that he got very little rain at his home, but did receive a good rain on his land, which is to the west of the house.

Twenty miles north of Hereford on the Vega Highway, Donald Hicks said that there had not been "enough rain to do any good," but that there had been good rains east of there.

Where there was heavy rain, there was some run-off, but very little of that is expected to travel any distance through dry creek beds.

New Lease On Life
Around town, unwatered lawns have taken a new lease on life, and the sprinkler systems have been more noticeable because they were turned off than because they were on.

A generally more cheerful attitude has been noticeable among both the businessmen and their customers this week, too, and most of them seem to think that at the beginning of the end of the current drought is now in sight.

ed and acceptable men, serious consideration is being given at this time not to have any men examined in September, the state draft director said.

Instructions were received with the September call that, where possible, only men 20 years old or older would be inducted. Boards are authorized, however, to fill calls with men under 20, where necessary.

Fewer Under 20
Currently, the number of men under 20 being inducted has dropped. Twenty-four men out of every 100 being inducted so far in July are under 20, as compared to 32 out of every 100 in June.

State Selective Service headquarters, Monday also sent its second quarter delinquency report to Washington, showing 758 men of draft age as being delinquent at their local boards. At the end of the first quarter of 1953 a total of 818 men were reported delinquent.

EAST OF SWIMMING POOL AT MCKINLEY AND 6th ST.

The Lions just finished their annual carnival and, although they didn't do too well financially this year, they say that they rendered a community service in that it broke the drought. These boys say you can expect it to rain during any given week they set the carnival dates. Anyway, it is over and they made a little money. Seemed like it mostly rained right up to opening time, then stopped. They are still away short of the $2,300 needed to pay for the electric scoreboard, however.

In a way the annual Lions Carnival is a most remarkable affair. They have been running it around 15 or 16 years and have acquired over that time an excellent assortment of props. The thing that intrigues me, though, is the way those business and professional men convert themselves into carnival hucksters. It is next to magic the way some of those boys change personalities. Harry Cayler has been handling Bingo for several years and runs the stand like an old trouter. City Attorney Ray Cowser was on the dunking board there one night, along with Police Chief Box and Sheriff Lowell Sharp. Dee Graham handled the glassware pitch and Paul Harvey is the Old Maestro of the dart boards. Homer Brumley succeeded his dad, G. W., as champion weight guesser back in the old days, but has recently become proprietor of the cigarette pitch.

Others pitched in here and there to get the job done. Actually, the thing looks pretty ragged until it starts, then suddenly swings out with strictly professional atmosphere. Nowhere can you find a more modern or complete carnival. About the only difference between it and the professional carnivals is the fact that most of the boys running the booths do have a heart—and try to give you a break. They are always pulling for the "sucker" instead of trying to clip him a little bit more. The money, of course, stays right here in Hereford to be used for charitable causes.

and slandered. He says the only reason he doesn't enter the "Old Man's Golf Tournament" is because he is not old enough. You have to be 50 to enter—and J. M. declares it will be years and years before he is eligible. Personally, I wouldn't believe it if I saw his birth certificate. This is the same old stuff Jack Benny puts out. Next thing you know he will put away his golf clubs and get a lap-dog of some kind. Earl Wood has already reached that stage. If Posey don't break down and admit he is 50 pretty soon, he will never get to play in the Old Man's tournament. He'll be too old.

Recently released is a movie entitled, "It Happens Every Thursday." The film has created quite a stir in the weekly newspaper fraternity. It is hilariously funny, they say, and it tells for the first time the story of producing a weekly newspaper. It is over-drawn in spots, but basically is fairly accurate. I have been putting the bee on Francis Hardwick about why he didn't get it for Hereford. Lo and behold, he came rushing in Friday to announce that it was booked at the Tower Theatre for Thursday and Friday, August 6-7. Francis was so excited that he invited the whole Brand force to come out early as his guests and to have a picnic on the concession tables—provided we bring our own grub. In addition, we are working on a deal to sell envelopes at the box office. The envelopes will sell for 95 cents each—and none of them will contain less than a $1 bill. Some will have $2 bills and a few—very, very few indeed—will have $5 bills inside. In other words, when you buy an envelope for 95 cents you are guaranteed 5 cents profit, maybe $1.05 profit, and you have a bare possibility of making $4.95 profit. Very bare, indeed.

These will probably be sold to the first 100 cars Thursday night. Don't know for sure, but it will be announced later in detail. Anyway, it is a really good show. Lots of comedy. A few thrills and a spot or so that will tug away at your heartstrings. In addition, after you see it you can multiply the film by two and see what we go through to get out The Brand every Thursday and every Sunday.

Cord Hammock and Jack Fortenberry say that things are still high and dry out their way. Most points in this area have had a little moisture, but it is still in the "trace" stage out around the Simms territory. The real trouble with the weather is all of these new-fangled "fronts" and "troughs"; they even have "thermals" and "highs"—and all we get is thunderstorms. What we need is for the weatherman to forget all of this high flow talk, and give us a real, old time rain. I'll trade back those fancy "fronts" for just one real, sure-enough "gully-washer."

Quite a few potato and lettuce growers are complaining about the town people coming out and taking over their fields. A lot of folks, they say, don't even go to the trouble to ask if they can dig a few spuds. They just drive up, get out and start grabbing. Women are the worst, according to the vegetable growers. Quite a few producers are most unhappy with the situation. Some of them blow their tops, others get so mad they just drive off and don't say a word. After all, it isn't right to take other people's property without asking. You can't blame the producer too much for getting up steam. Most of them are pretty nice fellows and reasonable. However, you can't blame them for becoming irked when people barge in without asking—and never say "Thanks".

I used to work in a grocery store where they had a cracker barrel and it was the same thing. Sometimes the boss would get so mad he would go back and sit down to cool off. Finally, they started selling crackers in sealed packages—and the boss was a changed man. He even smiled once in a while. Maybe this is a tip to the spud boys.

One thing for sure, Hereford has a sound, conscientious group of men on its City Commission. Those boys are going through a lot, but they are right in there pitching and working for the welfare of Hereford. This flare-up on the gas situation is a long way from being settled. The gas company can't very well do much here without lowering rates over the whole system—and they don't like to even think about that. However, when you compare the starting rate of 63 cents per-thousand in Hereford with that of 25 cents per-thousand in Amarillo, there is quite a difference. Does it cost that much to bring gas such a short distance? Why, then, does Lubbock pay the same rate as Hereford? Maybe we'll get the answer to some of these questions before the city Commission gets through. The City incidentally, is the only utilities company operating here which is charging the same rates they charged in the 1931-32 depression years.

Car Is Damaged When Brakes Fail At Stop Light

About $25 in damage was done to a 1940 Ford Wednesday morning when its brakes failed as the driver tried to stop behind another car at the intersection of Main and Highway 60.

Wayne Downey of Phoenix, Ariz., was driving the Ford when he came up behind a 1948 Plymouth, driven by F. A. Donnell of Amarillo, which had stopped for the red signal. Downey's car hit the back bumper of the Plymouth, causing the damage.

Hereford police investigated the accident.

In addition to serving a pretty fair glass of lemonade, Judy is also working with a definite goal in mind. Letter To The Editor

We have always been of the opinion that in our country a man should be, and is, able to do anything he is big enough to do. However, we should not lose sight of the fact that either individually, or as a group we must also grant that same right to do anything we are big enough to do, to everyone else. In other words... what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander.

We think that if our County Commissioners will only stop and think long enough or clearly enough, they will reconsider their lease of county property, which is owned by you and me and the guy at Bootleg Corner, for one dollar per year.

The lease under consideration, ~~runs 99 years~~ but gives this Commissioners' Court, or any Court to follow, the right to cancel upon proper notice. We also think that if the president and board of directors of the Farm Bureau would use the same reasoning, they themselves would see the unfairness of putting pressure on the court to grant such a lease when the court, through necessity, would have to refuse such a lease to me or you or the guy at Bootleg Corner. Our county government was not set up to be ruled by pressure legislation.

Sam Nunnally.

WHAT A WAY to run a railroad! J. R. Crawford, left, fireman, and Roy Hanna, engineer, look at one of the drive wheels of their locomotive which was derailed near Veterans Park the afternoon of July 18. The brakeman failed to change a switch, Hanna said. He was able to back through the switch all right, but the locomotive derailed when it started forward. The train was off the track for some three hours, from about 4:40 o'clock until 7:40 o'clock, before another locomotive was used to pull the derailed engine back onto the track. A considerable amount of track was torn up by the derailment, and some damage was done to the engine. No one was hurt. (Staff Photo.)

UNDERGROUND CONCRETE IRRIGATION PIPE LINES

Why not investigate these many advantages today? We will give you complete details or, better still, check with some of your friends and neighbors who have already installed Underground Concrete Pipe systems. The Actual Users are, after all, our best salesmen.

More than 2,000 Underground concrete Irrigation Pipe lines have been installed in West Texas since 1949. Underground concrete pipe is the PROVEN method of transporting irrigation water from the well to the crop. Concrete Pipe is installed under-the-ground, below the frost line. Winter, Summer, Spring or Fall... the season makes no difference. You can plow over it... farm across it and bring water to the row with no trouble at all. There is no loss of water by evaporation, seepage or otherwise.

EVAPORATION of water in open ditches is Tremendous on hot, windy days. Underground Concrete Pipe naturally pays for itself in savings over conventional methods. These pipes will deliver you water to any part of the farm: Uphill or Downhill, allowing you to more efficiently handle output from one pump—or to combine the flow from two or more pumps for improved efficiency.

Pictures made on Wiley Roberson place 1 mile North of Hereford on Highway 51

"A Good Investment"

... that is how Wiley Roberson, one mile north on Highway 51, sums up his opinion of the Underground Concrete Pipe system on his place.

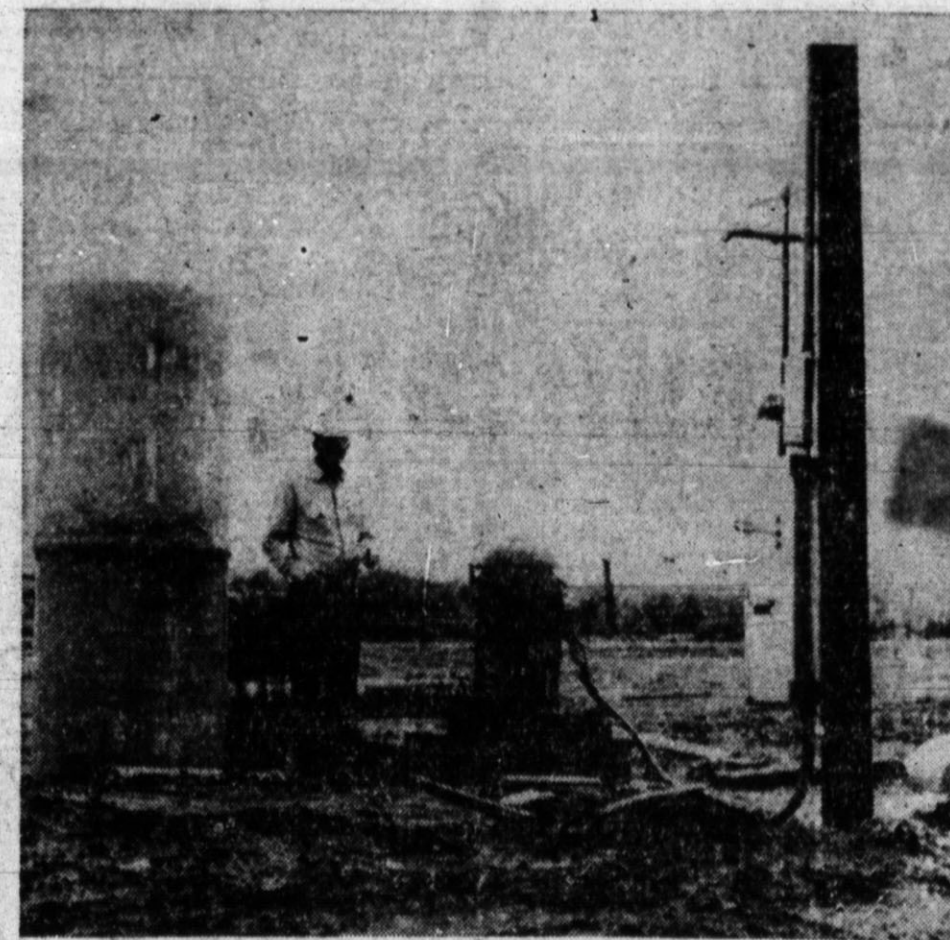

"It saves hiring an extra hand... and does a better job," Mr. Roberson pointed out. "I am right now watering 60 rows each 2,000 feet long, every 24 hours. The rows are 36-inches wide. I turn the water on each morning and in 12 hours the 30 rows are thoroughly watered. Then I change the aluminum "Row King" pipe to the next stand (just exactly 180 feet between stands), and catch another 30 rows during the night.

"Wednesday I carried a load of cattle to Clovis—and all of the time I was gone the Concrete Pipe installation did my work without a bobble. Without this improvement I would either have been unable to leave—or would have had to have someone else stay with the irrigating."

Mr. Roberson installed 1,360 feet of Underground Concrete Pipe in March of this year and, after using the system a few weeks, ordered another 1,280 feet in April adjoining the first installation. He is now successfully using the installation—and plans to add still more in years to come.

"Another thing, I like about Underground Concrete Pipe is the fact that there is no tube setting," says Wiley. "You can change out the Aluminum Pipe in about 30 to 40 minutes—and you are through. If the power happens to go off, all you have to do is "Push A Button" and you are back in business.

"I think Underground Concrete Pipe is a good investment for the land."

TRUCK DRIVERS feel that they are spinning their wheels when they are sitting instead of rolling, and quite a number of truck drivers have been sitting around Hereford lately. Jack Renfro, who couldn't find enough potatoes and onions for some of them, set up cots in a room back of his office, added chairs and a checker board along with a good supply of magazines, and gave the drivers waiting for his stuff a place to at least get in off the street. Since the rains started, more trucks are stacking up on the square, and there are more drivers waiting for Deaf Smith County produce. (Staff Photo.)

Hospitals Crowded
Despite Texas' efforts to improve its state hospitals, those institutions are still overcrowded and suffering from a shortage of doctors.

So says Dr. James A. Bethea, new executive director of the system, who had just completed an inspection tour.

At Rusk, the situation is particularly bad, the doctor said, with about 400 patients sleeping on mattresses placed on the floor because there is a lack of space for beds.

Dr. Bethea made his report to the state board for hospitals and special schools.

The board voted to inspect the hospital system after its next meeting in August.

land, unaffected by drouth, in the gulf coast areas.

Announcing that the system will buy 1,500 head of cattle, ranch Robertson of Abilene, chairman, said that cotton has long been the chief money crop, but there is an expected 25 percent acreage reduction next year, and "we must look to something else."

Prison-raised cattle have fed the inmates for the past two years, Robertson said, and the new herd will be operated for revenue, not for feeding prisoners.

Three Governors
Texas may have three governors next month.

Governor Shivers will be out of the state while attending the national governors conference, of which he is chairman, in Seattle.

Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey will hold the title during Shivers' absence. If Ramsey leaves Texas' borders, the job will fall to Senator Jimmie Phillips of Angleton, president pro tempore of the senate.

It has been a custom to let the president pro tem. serve as governor for a day.

Joe C. Carrington of Austin has been appointed by the governor to serve a year as chairman of the Texas Committee on Alcoholism, created by the last legislature. After the first year, committee members will select their own chairman.

Jail Term Upheld
The law providing jail sentences on the first offense for driving while intoxicated is valid, Attorney General John Ben Shepperd ruled.

The law calls for a mandatory 10-day jail term, plus $100 fine on conviction, but the judge has authority to put the offender on probation for six months.

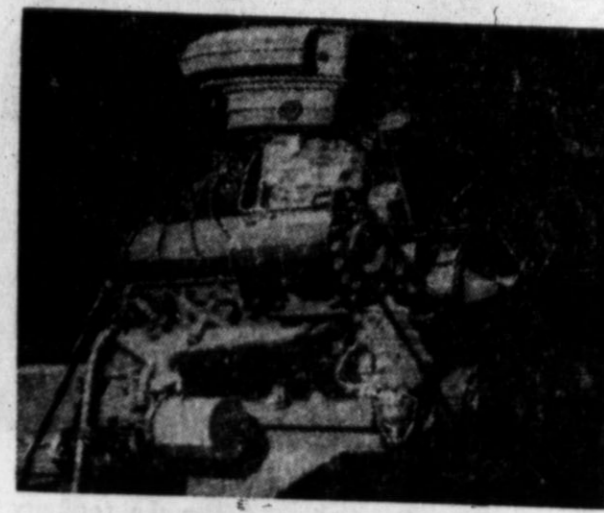

D. C. Gillaspie of San Antonio is trying to overthrow the Texas drivers responsibility act. His contention that it is unconstitutional has been denied in county court at law, the ourth Court of Civil Appeals, and the Texas Supreme Court.

Gillaspie's attorney, Ronald Smallwood, says he will carry the case to the U. S. Supreme Court. SHORT SNORTS: Arkansas' suit to nullify the law that returned the tidelands' ownership to the states is "political" in the view of Attorney General Harold R. Frazier of Kansas, president of the National Association of Attorneys General whose position coincided with that of Texas Attorney General John Ben Shepperd. More parking space can be provided in the capitol grounds without destroying their beauty, says Senator Carlos Ashley of Llano, member of the legislative state planning committee. Henry Fox, widely known as the "Circleville Philosopher" said in an Austin speech that everything about the drouth is not bad—it has put people who don't have sense enough to get out of the rain on an equal basis with everybody else.

Streu's Diary

July 24, 1953

DEAR DIARY:

Been neglecting you for some time—what with the Brand's advertising man being gone—and my son being home for a few weeks leave and going fishing I just haven't had time. Besides with all the dry and hot weather we've been having, I didn't think anyone would be interested in the drive. I write anyway. Of course Giffentine tried his best to needle-me into buying space in his rag to answer some of his astinine allegations regarding my status as a neighbor and relating to my cleanliness—or lack of same. I might say that as a neighbor, I attend to my own business and don't go snooping around other folks water meters. I could make any number of remarks concerning 'ye editof' but I still have to pay for my space and it would be a losing battle.

The television situation keeps changing—some dealers getting out and new ones coming in—and some of us just keep on going our steady way—selling and installing a few sets—and making them do the job they are supposed to do—no television set is any better than the service rendered by your dealer—out prices, high trade-ins, special deals—none of these mean anything if you haven't a reliable dealer to whom you can go in case of trouble. Of course, you have less trouble with an RCA Victor TV receiver than any other make, but Streu's stand squarely behind every installation—giving you double assurance that you will have the finest television reception. Think it over.

We have had the pleasure of serving several out-of-town ladies the last few weeks—they simply go hog wild in our gift department. Most of these ladies indicate that Streu's has the finest gift department they have had the pleasure of shopping—and many of them are from larger cities. You local gals would do well to take note and try shopping Streu's gift department.

Our sporting goods section has been enlarged and re-arranged so that we may better serve the sportsman—and our stock of just plain hardware has never been so complete.

It just pays big dividends to shop Streu's for most anything.

MEET YOUR PASTOR AND HIS FAMILY—
Rev. Don Root, pastor of the First Christian Church, came to Hereford from Dallas in September of 1952. Rev. and Mrs. Root have three children—Shirley Rose, 19, has attended Texas Christian University in Fort Worth for the past two years, where she is majoring in English and Spanish. Donald Jerry, 8, will be in the third grade this fall, and Lotus Marie, 16, will be a senior in Hereford high school. Rev. Don Root was born in Big Springs, Neb. He attended high school in Los Animos, Colo., and attended Phillips University in Enid, Okla. He graduated from the seminary at Phillips in 1945. He has been a minister for 27 years. Mrs. Root was born in Cascade, Mont. She also attended Phillips University and is very interested in religious education for children. Before coming to Hereford Rev. Root was pastor of the Pleasant Grove Christian Church for three years and the Memorial Christian Church in Dallas for seven years. He has served as a pastor in Oklahoma, Colorado, and Texas. Let's Cook Something

Tidbits Are Fine For TV Fans Or As Snacks Almost Any Time

These television tidbits are perfect for munching while watching television and good with either hot or cold beverages.

When friends drop in to watch "I Love Lucy" or "Television Theater", it's very nice to have some sort of refreshments to munch on, and everybody loves television tidbits or toasted cereals. They keep indefinitely, if kept in a closed jar, and if you want to add other dainties to form a snack tray, they go well with any other food.

The snack tray could be built around the tidbits with olives and fresh fruit cubes arranged with toothpicks attached, and crackers spread with your favorite sharp cheese. Tiny bits of stuffed celery and taste appeal too.

Mrs. Bob Wilson makes these tidbits often since getting the recipe in Amarillo not long ago. There are a half dozen different recipes which vary little and you can't go wrong with any of them.

- Television Tidbits
- 1 box Ralston's Rice Chex
 - 1 box Wheat Chex
 - 1 box Cheries
 - 1 box thin pretzels
 - 1/2 lb. oleomargarine
 - 2 cans Planters roasted peanuts
 - 1 teaspoon garlic salt
 - 1 teaspoon celery seed

1 teaspoon caraway seed
1 teaspoon table salt
Mix cereals and pretzels together in big roaster and drizzle the melted oleo over them, mixing thoroughly so that each bit is coated. Then place in a 250-F oven and bake for 30 minutes, stirring often.

Remove from oven and add the peanuts and seasonings which have been blended together. Stir well and return to a 250-F oven for one and one half hours. Stir every 15 minutes.

Cereal Crunchers
Even if you are not television fans—you can be sure that guests on any occasion, especially the teen-agers, will go for these delicacies night or day. And they are good to munch without drinks just to keep hungry folk going until dinner time. Here is another recipe which varies little, but has a piquancy from hot saucers.

- Cereal Crunchers
- 1/2 box Cheerios
 - 1 box Rice Chex
 - 1 box small pretzel sticks
 - 1 pint jar jumbo roasted peanuts—or 1 can Planters roasted peanuts

Mix these ingredients together in large roaster.

Blend:
1/4 cup bacon drippings
1/4 lb. oleo margarine
2 tablespoons Worcestershire Sauce
1 tablespoon Tabasco Sauce
1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
1 teaspoon table salt
Blend the bacon drippings and melted oleo with all the other seasonings and drizzle over mixed cereals. Toss until well coated. Place on shallow pans or cookie sheets and toast 25 minutes in a 325-F oven. Stir frequently.

Note—These should be spread out thin on the cookie sheets so that all can be toasted. Cool in large pan or on a large table before covering to store.

And then came the rains. A Santa Fe Official visiting Texas for the first time in 4 years just made the statement that he never saw Texas looking so good. We would like to invite him down to take a run out thru our dry land area and talk to the farmers who have been trying to scratch a living out of that dry land for the past 4 years. Everyone out southeast and east of Hereford where there are no wells larger than 6" wells. . . and some of them only pump a half-pipe. . . are excited no end on the new irrigation well that Walter Russell just brought in. The well was drilled and cased 770'. Then when The Big T Pump Co. put the developing pump in the hole they set the bowls at 350' and put 400' of suction pipe on the bottom of the pump. After the well broke in last Saturday night at 11:00 it began pumping about 1100 gallons per minute and had continued to do so up to Thursday afternoon. The approximate statistics are as follows:

First water level. . . 64'. Top of Redbed approximately 200'. Bottom of Redbed approximately 665'. Drilled to 770'. In other words it is approximately 465' through the redbed and into a good sand and gravel formation. This water rises to 112' to 135' of the top of the ground which would mean that after the deep hole was dug that the pumps could be set 150' to 160' in that particular area. Florence and Curtis Traweek are in the process of drilling and are down about 500' right now (Thursday). We certainly hope their well turns out as good as the Graham well. The cost of 800' hole is approximately $5,600.00 besides the casing and pump. Complete jobs around $10-12,000.

All this comes right on the heels of our Major Life Insurance Companies cutting their maximum loan figure by nearly 1-3 in our area due to the amount of water being pumped in the Plains Area during the drought years of 1948 to 1953. We are gathering copies of the drillers logs as rapidly as possible and are sending all the Companies a copy. After 25 or 30 wells of this type are dug it should have some effect on our loan values in this immediate area.

Northwest Hereford News

By Mrs. R. C. Childers

Over five inches of rain has fallen in parts of this community this week. To the north on the T. B. Cox and Marvis Southward places they report only one half an inch of moisture. The spots receiving the moisture have had repeated showers each day since the rainy season.

and the old house was abandoned. Three Other Girls

There were three other girls from this community who completed the 100 hour summer course on some phase of Home Improvement. They were Georgia Lewis, Joe Eddie Scott and Annette Bear-end. Georgia chose three lines of work in which to put in her 100 hours. However, she states that she got in 115 hours. One of these work schedules was food preparation which, she says, she cooked two meals a day for two weeks, and helped with the cleaning up of the kitchen after each meal. The second project was home work which included cleaning house every day and doing the washing and ironing.

Georgia's main work project was child care, in which she put in 65 hours. This included the care of her niece, Debra Joe Wilson and her nephew, Alan Ray Wilson. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wilson of this vicinity. Georgia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Lewis, also of this vicinity.

Varied Course

Annette Bearend also chose a varied course, which included redecorating, sewing, and gardening. Annette painted her mother's kitchen and made the new curtains for the kitchen and hung them. Besides making the kitchen curtains, she made several blouses and skirts and summer dresses.

Most girls are getting a suntan this summer so Annette may have chosen gardening so that she could get a suntan and at the same time accomplish something. Anyway she has a lovely vegetable garden which is supplying the family with fresh vegetables for the table.

Joe Eddie Scott Working

Joe Eddie Scott has also been a working girl this summer. She also chose a varied course which took in a lot of hard work. She redecorated two bedrooms and made curtains and dyed a bed spread for her sister's bedroom.

She also washed the woodwork in the kitchen and waxed the floors. Joe Eddie says, that for the course in food preparation, she dressed 40 fryers, prepared 24 quarts of strawberries for the deep freeze and made 10 pints of strawberry preserves. Yard improvement was also carried by Joe Eddie. She states that she mowed the lawn about twice a week and it took her about two and one half hours to mow it each time.

These girls have been a great help to their parents this summer besides accomplishing credits for their school work. There were 47 girls from the Home Economic class taking the summer course this summer.

The heavy amounts of rain have slowed down the harvest of potatoes and onions in this community. It is feared the onion crop will stand heavy damage due to the rains.

This spell of weather has given the farmer a much needed rest. Of course there are always the usual chores, but it gives him a rest from some of the heavy work such as irrigating and field work.

The volunteer wheat will be coming up and the wheat farmer will be anxious to get it all plowed under, so that his land will be ready for fall sowing at the first time sufficient moisture falls to bring up the wheat.

Held Up By Rain

Earl DeHart was on business in Claude Wednesday, and had to remain over night due to the heavy rains there and at Amarillo.

Mrs. T. B. Cox accompanied her son, Rea Cox and his wife to Lubbock for Rea's regular medical examination Thursday. They planned to do some shopping while there. Georgia Lewis spent last weekend in Perryton with Mrs. Harry Caylor and Donna, visiting the parents of Mr. and Mrs. Caylor. The girls visited a number of Donna's friends, while there.

TV Guests

TV guests in the R. C. Childers' home Tuesday night were Raymon Higginbotham and son Landis, and his niece Elizabeth Clements. Other TV guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Barclay, Larry and David, Mrs. J. H. Babcock, J. H. Jr. and Sweetie from Kermit. Home made hamburgers and ice cream was enjoyed by all while watching Hollywood Wrestling on KDA-TV channel 10.

Mrs. Jack Renfro was a caller in the R. C. Childers' home Tuesday.

Service Resumed

Telephone service was resumed on the Pat Robinson, Earl DeHart R. C. Childers and Raymond Higginbotham lines Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Barclay left Tuesday for Sayre, Okla., where they are visiting relatives this week. Mrs. James Barclay accompanied them. She is S. J. Barclay's mother. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Barclay were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Bainum Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lyons of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Barclay and son from the Ford Community were TV guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Barclay Thursday night.

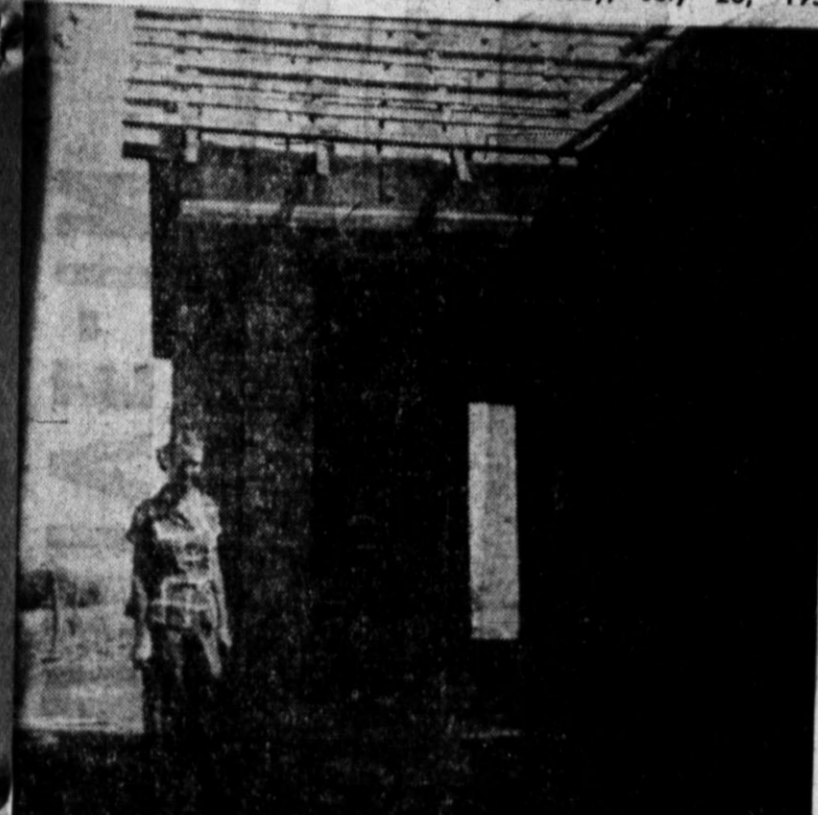

Night With A Friend

Larry Barclay went home with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Barclay to spend Thursday night. His mother went after him Friday morning. Mrs. A. H. Inman of Plainview spent Thursday visiting her sisters, Mrs. R. C. Childers and Mrs. J. H. Babcock, who is visiting in the Childers' home this week.

J. H. Babcock Jr. and Raymon Childers Jr. caught 20 cat fish in a private lake on the S. J. Barclay farm Thursday afternoon.

PAULA BETH CORBETT is completing 80 hours of work in tearing down one of the last pioneer land marks in this county. The work is being done in connection with Paula Beth's Home Economics summer course as a part of the Home Improvement Summer Course offered to high school girls this summer by Mrs. Tommy Hulsey, home economics teacher.

Pioneer Landmark Being Razed To Beautify Home

One of the last pioneer land marks of this county is being torn down by Paula Beth Corbett, as part of her summer course in Home Economics, taught by Mrs. Tommy Hulsey.

The 100 hour course is on some phase of Home Improvement, and was completed Saturday by Paula Beth, who took as her main work program the tearing down of the old four room house in the Corbetts' backyard. This work came under the title of yard improvement, and a total of 80 hours was spent in the tearing down of the house.

So far she has torn off all the shingles, torn off part of the siding, taken out all the doors and windows and window and door facings, piled up all the old lumber and burned all the old shingles and damaged lumber. The balance of her hours were spent in her home, clearing woodwork, and waxing floors. She also washed all the cabinets in the kitchen and rearranged the cabinets and clothes.

Pioneer Land Mark

The old house is a pioneer land mark of Deaf Smith County. It was built in 1835 on a claim located five miles northeast of Hereford, and was originally a two room house built over a dugout, which remained the kitchen, and the stove pipe holes up through the floor and roof of the house can still be seen.

The house was purchased by Stenick and Stark in 1903 and moved into Hereford, where the County Bull Barn is now located on Sampson and First Street. It was used in connection with the livery stable of Stenick and Stark.

In 1920 a group of people interested in registered Hereford cattle bought the livery stable and sold off the buildings. The house and barn were purchased by M. R. Corbett and moved to the Corbett farm four miles west of Hereford.

The old barn was torn down and used to build two more rooms on the house. In 1949 Paul Corbett built the new house on the place
