

First Army Launches Powerful Offensive In Drive On Siegfried Line; Third Makes Successful Gains

PATTERN FOR INVASION—It's zero hour for the invasion of Peleliu Sept. 15, and this view shows the Marine and Army forces patterned for the assault on the island in the Palau group. Smoke almost obscures the entire island after worked on by ships and planes of Admiral Halsey's Third Fleet. Tiny white puffs mark where rocket-firing LCI's in the first line nearest the beach, are laying down a barrage to clear the landing area. Behind them are the canon armed amphibious tanks leading the way for the troop-carrying landing craft. (AP Wirephoto).

GERMANS TRAPPED IN LOWER BALKANS

Reds Advance Over 100-Mile Offensive

MOSCOW, Oct. 2 (AP)—Russian fighter bombers swarmed over Yugoslavia in round-the-clock raids on German forces as Russian ground troops gained steadily today along a curving, mountainous front 70 to 100 miles southeast of Belgrade in a drive that is bottling up an estimated 200,000 Nazi troops in the lower Balkans.

The Germans were fiercely defending their Balkan life line southeast of the Yugoslav capital, but yesterday Red army troops, with Marshal Tito's Yugoslav partisans acting as advance scouts, dented Nazi defenses another 23 miles to within 43 miles of the Belgrade-Nis railway, Moscow announced.

Soviet pilots today reported silencing 50 enemy batteries, destroying five military trains and knocking out scores of trucks and tanks along the vital escape hatch for the imperiled nazis.

(An unconfirmed Budapest dispatch from Turkey said other Soviet and Romanian troops had penetrated 22 miles southeastern Hungary in an offensive aimed at Budapest, Magyar capital less than 100 miles distant. Russian gains in that sector were officially acknowledged by Hungary but their depth was not disclosed.)

(Moscow was silent about the Hungarian drive and about the situation at Warsaw, which was described as "critical" by Polish patriots as Berlin said the nazis were overwhelming the dwindling guerrillas.)

Some 50 miles due east of Riga Red army assault troops forced the Oger river and widened a gap in the enemy line to more than 60 miles, the front line report said.

Arnhem Men Were Making Last Stand

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, Oct. 2 (AP)—The men of Arnhem who escaped could not have held out another 24 hours, Maj. Gen. R. E. Urquhart said today. Urquhart came here after about 2,000 of 8,000 men in his British airborne division escaped annihilation by pulling across the Rhine where he landed Sept. 17 in a vain effort to establish a bridgehead.

Warplanes Aid In Offensive Over Aachen Sector Of Siegfried Line

LONDON, Oct. 2 (AP) — More than 2,700 Allied warplanes struck in close and deep support today of the great new American offensive against the Siegfried Line in the Aachen sector of northwest Germany.

Over 1,000 medium and fighter bombers blazed a path into the Nazi wall immediately before Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges' men.

About 900 Flying Fortresses with 500 escorts tore at targets around Cologne and Kassel while 300 Liberators poured bomb loads into Germany's greatest freight yards at Hamm, 90 miles northeast of Aachen.

Gen. Eisenhower broadcast a warning to Dutch residents of islands in the Scheule estuary to evacuate before the bombers start work there.

Cologne is one of Hitler's greatest arsenals and also is a communications center for supplying the northern end of the German front.

Kassel, a city of 217,000, is one of the most important German railroad centers in the west. It lies 150 miles beyond Aachen.

Some 500 Mustangs and Thunderbolts convoyed the Flying Fortresses to and from the German cities. The bombers attacked through clouds.

Marauders and fighter bombers shook the ground around Aachen for miles around with blows at pillboxes, gun positions and troop concentrations, front reports said.

The Germans also reported formations over southwest and south Germany, suggesting a two-directional attack from the west and south. One report said some bombers in the north were approaching the Nazi naval base of Emden.

Other forces of speedy Mosquito intruders bombed a rural factory, 36 miles from Handorf, and carried out more than forty small attacks on rail and canal targets in Germany and Holland during the night. No aircraft were lost in these operations.

Both American and British heavy bombers were idle Sunday after closing the books on one of their busiest months of the war.

The big bombers were over Germany 20 of the 30 days in September, concentrating on railway terminals choked with supplies for the western front. According to reconnaissance reports their work of sealing off Nazi forces dug in on the Siegfried line has been highly effective.

Grand Jury Indicts Dr. E. A. Rumley

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (AP)—Dr. Edward A. Rumley, executive secretary of Frank E. Gannett's committee for constitutional government, was indicted today by the District of Columbia grand jury on a charge of failing to supply the house campaign expenditures committee with records of contributions received.

Gannett, Rochester, N. Y., publisher and a candidate for the republican presidential nomination in 1940, told the expenditures committee Sept. 7 that the committee which he founded is an educational, not a political organization.

The alleged violation is classified as a misdemeanor and carries a possible maximum penalty upon conviction of a $1,000 fine and a year in jail.

Missing In Action

Information has been received that Lt. Fred E. Rylee, whose wife and daughter live in Big Spring, has been missing in action over Germany since August. Lt. Rylee, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rylee of Odessa, was pilot of a B-17. He was a graduate of Coleman Flying school. His wife is the former Catherine Tarver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Swift Tarver of Big Spring.

VAGRANCY CHARGED FILED

Four women were picked up on vagrancy charges last week by local police. Three of them were taken over the week-end and all are being held for VD check ups. One is being sent to El Paso for treatment tonight.

Fifth Defeats Counterattacks On Imola Road

ROME, Oct. 2 (AP)—Americans of the Fifth army yesterday beat back German counterattacks on Monte Battaglia, lofty dominating height on the road to Imola, for the fourth straight day and captured neighboring Monte Cappella after a bitter battle, the Allied command announced today.

The skies over most of the Italian front cleared after nearly a week of frequent rains, enabling the Mediterranean Allied air force to take an active role supporting the Doughboys.

At least one enemy attempt to counterattack was broken up by a bombing attack and other German concentrations of artillery positions were assaulted from the air with effective results.

On the Adriatic sector there were heavy patrol engagements as the Eighth army cleared the last of the nazis from Savignano and struck on across the Fiumicino, where the enemy was occupying the far bank in strength.

Farther to the southwest British units advancing beyond Mont-Albano reached the Fiumicino's banks. Then enemy dug in and was supported by self-propelled artillery on the far banks of the river.

Southwest of Tribola the Eighth army began attacking Monte Reggiano and Borgh. The Germans were using substantial artillery concentrations along the entire Adriatic sector.

Americans of other Fifth army units were encountering strong enemy shelling as well as thick minefields, as they inched forward through the mountains.

East of the invasion—threatened Philippines American marines and soldiers established firm control over nine southern islands and islets of Palau. Nimitz said only two pockets of Japanese remained in the deadly, honeycombed Umorbrogl hills of Peleliu now being blasted by 1,000 pound bombs, and on nearby Angaur island. Two Japanese—built airfields fell to the conquerors who have killed at least 10,000 defending soldiers.

Chungking reported severe fighting around 30 miles from Kweilin in the neighborhood of the railroad town of Hingan. Street fighting was reported intensified in Paoching, 150 miles north of Kweilin. Tokyo broadcasts claimed Paoching had already fallen. Chungking said two strongpoints were taken from the Japanese outside the city.

Both Candidates Speak This Week

By The Associated Press President Roosevelt and Governor Dewey both take to the air this week with major presidential campaign speeches which may determine tactics for the five weeks remaining before election.

Their last times out—Mr. Roosevelt's slashing attack on the republicans September 23 and Gov. Dewey's vigorous and prompt reply—at a time at last set the campaign on a level of oldtime political battling.

Mr. Roosevelt's speech this week, from Washington Thursday to party workers over the country, is expected to be primarily a get-out-the-vote pep talk, but that would allow him an opportunity to take whatever line he chooses to emphasize the importance of the election.

Dewey, whose Charleston, W. Va., speech this week was changed from Friday to Saturday in order to arrange for wider radio facilities, has not said whether he would continue the personalized sort of attack he used at Oklahoma City. However, those with him on his recent campaign tour said the "pour it on" Tom" type of cheering he got in the trip's later days pleased the New York governor.

No Resumption Of Coffee Rations Yet

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (AP)—Coffee drinkers have received assurance from War Mobilizer James F. Byrnes that there will be no resumption of coffee rationing now.

Byrnes said there is a 3 1/2 months supply of coffee on hand or en route and that Brazil has given assurance that 1,000,000 bags will be supplied monthly.

American importers had reported that growers in coffee producing countries had been staying out of the market in order to obtain a price increase, causing the U. S. stockpile to drop.

Byrnes issued his statement yesterday after reports had spread that coffee rationing was imminent and housewives in several communities had started to stock up.

Prize For Winning Pig Arrives Here

The prize for the winning pig in the Sears Pig show was delivered Saturday morning. The prize will be a registered Jersey heifer and comes in a group of 10 which Sears paid $1000 for. The heifer was picked from the Ratliff herd at Cisco.

Judging of the pigs will take place in the morning at 10 o'clock and the public is invited to attend. The contest is being held at the Howard County warehouse.

Jap Shipping Destroyed

Loss Of Transports Hurt Nip Offense

By LEONARD MILLIMAN Associated Press War Editor At least 1,220 Japanese surface craft were destroyed or damaged last month, including 303 ocean going ships definitely sunk, a recapitulation of Allied communications disclosed today.

The losses that really hurt Japan were the 303 transports, freighters, tankers, coastal vessels and warships of Adm. Chester W. Nimitz' and Gen. Douglas MacArthur's commands, mostly in and around the Philippines. The remaining 102 were divided almost equally between American submarines, British subs, and China-based planes.

American air forces in China lost their fourth advanced base when Japanese armies trying to split the country in two overran Tanchuk in southeast China. Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault's 14th Air Force had already destroyed their own base at Tanchuk as they did their airbases at Kweilin, threatened by Nipponese armies only 30 miles away.

East of the invasion—threatened Philippines American marines and soldiers established firm control over nine southern islands and islets of Palau. Nimitz said only two pockets of Japanese remained in the deadly, honeycombed Umorbrogl hills of Peleliu now being blasted by 1,000 pound bombs, and on nearby Angaur island. Final Effort Made On Houston Strike

HOUSTON, Oct. 2 (AP)—One final effort is apparently to be made to bring the Brotherhood of Railroad Clerks and the Missouri Pacific lines into agreement before action on the recent strike vote is taken, according to J. L. Dyer, general chairman for the union.

Dyer reported today receiving a telegram from the chairman of the mediation board in Washington summoning representatives of the union and railroad to a meeting Friday.

The General Conference of the union met at the union headquarters at 10 a. m. today to take action on the strike vote recently taken by the workers, which resulted in 97 per cent favoring a strike.

While the meeting was in progress, Dyer said, the telegram arrived. Discussion promptly was stopped and further action will be held in abeyance until after the Friday meeting, he said. He and H. R. Lyon of St. Louis, vice president of the union will attend the conference in Washington, he said, to be pasturized.

Well No. 11 To Be One Of Best Producers

A report on the development test of water well number 11 shows it will be one of the best producers of the group, city officials said Monday.

Tests show that it can be pumped almost indefinitely and at least 800 gallons per minute can be taken. It had been on test for 24 hours at the time of the report.

The pump has been set on well number 4 and testing will probably begin Friday. Officials state that it looks like a good well.

Nelson Due Adoption Into Roosevelt Aides

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (AP)—Donald M. Nelson appears due for adoption into President Roosevelt's family of personal aides and emissaries, charged with helping restore ravaged economic of other countries and enlisting them as customers for American goods.

Mr. Roosevelt's letter accepting Nelson's resignation as War Production Board chairman and asking him to take a new position described the forthcoming assignment as a "high post of major importance" in paving the way for "postwar economic cooperation with other nations."

It is generally believed that the president intends for Nelson to work on his own, outside the framework of existing agencies dealing with foreign trade—the state and commerce departments and the foreign economic administration.

In view of this belief, most of the week-end speculation revolved around these alternatives: First, that Nelson might head a new government agency—a guess that Nelson did not confirm for reporters; second, and more likely, that the former WPB chairman with a small staff and perhaps a new title would merely expand his present role as Mr. Roosevelt's special envoy and counselor on matters of overseas trade and economic rehabilitation.

Patching up the tattered Chinese war effort was the primary aim of Nelson's recent journey to Chungking. However, he is known to have ambitious plans for the industrial exploitation of China's vast labor resources after the war through the purchase of American machinery and capital equipment.

Supreme Court Opens Session

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (AP)—The supreme court, confronted by an array of complicated legal controversies, begins today (noon, eastern war time) another potentially historic term of its 15-year career. More than 500 cases already are docketed.

Wartime litigation added to the stack of cases piled up since the tribunal adjourned last June after a stormy session marked by split decisions, controversy among the justices, and criticisms of individual jurists.

Owen J. Roberts, only associate justice of the court not named by President Roosevelt, will reach his 70th birthday anniversary during the new term—on next May 2—and will be eligible to retire then at full pay of $20,000 a year. The principal dissenter on the tribunal, he has given no indication of his plans.

Chief Justice Harlan Fiske Stone during the term will reach his twentieth anniversary on the court—on next March 2. He has been eligible to retire since Oct. 11, 1942, but friends expect him to remain on the bench as long as his health permits.

Decisions clarifying governmental powers during time of war may come from cases on which the court already has agreed to hear arguments.

Gerhard Wilhelm Kuntze and 23 other officials of the German-American Bund will get a review of their conviction on charges of conspiring to advise evasion of the selective service act. Another, Cramer, naturalized German, will get a review of a treason conviction resulting from charges that he aided two Nazi saboteurs who landed from submarines in 1942.

The court also was asked to rule on the constitutionality of the federal ballot for service men and women and to study a circuit court finding that orders by the War Labor Board are not subject to court review.

Today's session is to be only routine.

Aid For Mexico Flood Victims Is Intensified

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 2 (AP)—Warplanes and boats of many kinds, including two submarine chasers of the Mexican navy, are fighting a grim battle against death, seeking to reach thousands of flood-marooned persons in five southern Mexico states before disease and hunger take a wholesale toll.

The health department ordered relief rushed to the stricken regions, from Tampico to the Guatemalan border, as it was reported that children were dying from fever and malnutrition.

Extent of death and destruction from recent violent storms was undetermined because of disrupted communications, but government officials expressed fears today that this second major disaster in less than a month has been claim between 200 and 300 persons dead from drowning in the Isthmus of Tehuantepec region.

A hurricane which crossed the Isthmus brought storms and torrential rains which washed away whole villages and left survivors clinging to trees, crowded on tops of boxcars and marooned on small hills that have become inaccessible islands. It was during the hurricane that a passenger plane from Havana crashed, killing one woman. Survivors were taken to a small village near Puebla.

"We saw men, women and children, hungry and half nude, many stop trees," said Lieutenant Godfrey Rizo, commander of one submarine chaser which has been cruising along flooded areas in the Vera Cruz region rescuing sick and half-starved victims. Many, he said, had been clinging from treetops for days.

Two subchasers are being used in this area for rescue work and have succeeded in reaching several inundated villages.

Local Firms Are Charged By OPA For Violations

Announcement from District Director Howard R. Gholson of the district office of Price Administration listed several Big Spring firms which have figured in enforcement proceedings.

"Widespread activity of all sections of the enforcement division of the district OPA has resulted in enforcement proceedings in many cases" Gholson has stated.

A suit was filed against Milus (Dike) Tolberg, B & L Package store, Big Spring seeking permanent injunction restraining him for violating price regulations.

Hearing of the case of United States vs. E. L. Newsom, Day and Night Food store, Big Spring, charging criminal contempt, has been set for hearing at Abilene on Oct. 2.

Also set for trial at Abilene on October 2 are the cases of Chester Bowles vs. D & C packing company, Big Spring, charging price violations, failure to mark grade on meat, and failure to keep records and Chester Bowles vs. B & B store, Big Spring, charging price violations and failure to post ceiling prices.

Cases concerning firms in Monahan and Odessa were heard last week in US district court at Pecos and at Lubbock, and a treble damage suit involving rents was filed in US district court in El Paso. The case will be heard in El Paso on October 4.

Milk Samples Meet State Standards

City Sanitarian E. R. Nichols has received a report from the district laboratory at Midland from the bacteriological tests on samples of milk from local dairies. This report shows that 30 per cent of the milk samples were up to standards set up by the state department of health, but that the remaining 70 per cent did not meet state requirements. They showed that the milk was being handled improperly. The producers will be notified and must correct their methods so as to meet state requirements in the production of grade A raw milk.

British Advance Through Fierce Nazi Resistance

LONDON, Oct. 2 (AP)—The U. S. First army launched a big push toward the Rhine from its positions penetrating the Siegfried Line in the Aachen area today.

Ending a stalemate of almost two weeks, in which German counterattacks were beaten off while the mighty punch was prepared, Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges' warriors began one of the greatest combined air and land assaults of the European campaign against the entrenched enemy.

The attack was preceded by a heavily concentrated artillery barrage and by a thunderous drum-beat of thudding bombs from hundreds of medium and fighter bombers.

Hardly had the ground stopped shaking from the bombardment before Hodges' veteran doughboys crashed forward through the smoke and rubble.

Led by hard-fighting armor, the British drove five miles north of the village of Oss, at the northwestern corner of their salient, to the Maas (Meuse), and organized a front commanding the Nazi defense line three miles east of 'S Hertogenbosch. The Germans said this armored unit was Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's old "desert rat" Seventh division which helped chase Field Marshal Erwin Rommel across Africa.

To the southwest of the new Aachen offensive Americans captured the seventh-century Luxembourg border town of Grevenmacher, 15 miles northeast of the city of Luxembourg and 12 miles southwest of Trier.

Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's Third Army slugged it out with German counterattacks near Jallaucourt, 16 miles northeast of Nancy, in a four-hour fight in which 19 Nazi tanks were knocked out—bringing Patton's total to 138 in the last four days.

Then, almost over the same ground, the Third slammed its way forward one to three miles clear through the forest of Greaney to the high ground around Fresnes en Saunois, a mile beyond Jallaucourt, and to hills overlooking Coutures, only one mile west of Chateaux-Salins.

The Seventh army, just to the south, still was digging into stiff German resistance through rugged, wooded, sniper-infested foothills of the Vosges mountains. But the Germans had given up their sharp counterattacks there and were back hammering away with artillery.

Air Force Drops Millionth Ton

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (AP)—The army air forces has dropped its millionth ton of bombs in this war, it was announced today. This total was reached on Sept. 28 in the attack on the synthetic oil refinery at Merseberg—Leuna, in t center of Germany.

Almost half the total 432,000 tons, has been dropped since D-day on June 6, Gen. Henry H. Arnold, chief of the AAF, reported.

Citing figures covering all bombings from Dec. 7, 1941, to Sept. 28 of this year in all theaters, Arnold noted that hitting the enemy with this great tonnage has not been without cost.

There have been 72,000 air forces battle casualties—dead, missing, prisoners and wounded—and 5,300 non-battle casualties made up of dead, missing, sick and injured.

Over— all plane losses amount to approximately 42,000. Of these 14,500 aircraft have been lost on combat missions and an additional 9,900 have been lost overseas from non-combat causes. In the continental United States 17,500 planes have been lost.

Of the total bomb tonnage, Arnold said, approximately 175,000 tons were concentrated on aircraft factories and related plants and airfields, 140,000 on oil plants, ball bearing works and other industrial targets and the remainder against shipping and military installations and in direct support of ground troops.

AAF planes overseas have flown 13,900,000 hours, consuming more than 2,900,000,000 gallons of 100-octane gasoline. They used 233,000,000 rounds of ammunition to destroy more than 27,500 enemy airplanes, probably destroying 8,000 more and damage 10,000 others.

Chicken Sauce And Omelet Suggested

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS

Chicken Omelet
Broiled Mushrooms Peas
Hard Rolls
Tomato Aspic Salad

(Recipes Serve Four)
Fluffy Omelet

4 eggs
Salt and pepper
1-4 cup milk
1 tablespoon margarine
Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon-colored. Add milk and seasonings and stir enough to blend. Fold in egg whites which have been beaten until stiff but still moist. Let margarine in a nine-inch skillet or omelet pan, pour in the egg mixture and cook over low heat for four or five minutes, or until omelet puffs and is lightly browned on the bottom. Then place in a 350 degree oven for 10-15 minutes, or until top springs back when pressed with a finger. Crease with knife, fold over with a broad spatula and serve at once on a hot platter with creamed chicken in sherry.

Chicken Sauce For Omelet
2 cups diced chicken
1 cup light cream
1-4 cup chicken stock
1-4 cup sherry
2 tablespoons flour
1-2 teaspoon salt
Freshly ground pepper.
Melt the margarine in double boiler over hot water, add the flour and blend well. Add the seasonings, cream and chicken stock slowly and stir until the sauce is smooth and thick. Pour in the sherry and mix thoroughly, add the diced chicken and cook until it is well-heated. Serve in fluffy omelet.

Tomato Aspic
1 Package plain gelatin
1 cup hot tomato juice
1 cup cold tomato juice
1 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon pepper
1-4 teaspoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Dissolve gelatin in hot tomato juice. Mix salt, pepper and dry mustard with Worcestershire sauce. Add lemon juice and blend well. Stir in cold tomato juice, add gelatin and pour into individual molds. Chill in refrigerator until firm. Remove from molds and serve in beds of lettuce on salad plates.

Adele Smith Weds Lt. J. P. Murphy

The marriage of Adele Smith, daughter of Mrs. Lillian Smith of Big Spring, and Lt. John P. Murphy of Niagara Falls, N. Y., was solemnized at 8 o'clock Saturday night in the east chapel at Big Spring Bombardier school.

Chaplain Thomas J. McDonald officiated.

The bride wore a blue street dress and carried a white prayer book showered with stephanotis and topped with orchids. Attendants were Lt. and Mrs. Martin Weisoff. The bride was given in marriage by Wiley Curry. Mrs. Curry sang "O Promise Me." Reception followed in the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Curry. Wedding cake and punch were served from a lace-covered table, decorated with queen's wreath. A cry-punch service was used. A yellow and white theme was used in floral decorations in the room. Yellow candles were in crystal holders. The couple is at home here. Lt. Murphy is stationed at Big Spring Bombardier school as an instructor. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Murphy of Niagara Falls.

Press Relations Officers Named

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NEW GUINEA, Sept. 16 (Delayed) (AP)—More than 45 press relations officers are moving in and out of General MacArthur's headquarters in the Southwest Pacific to facilitate the coverage of news.

The officers, ranging from lieutenants to colonels, are an outgrowth of a setup which began with one press relations officer, Col. Legrande Diller, who came out of the Philippines with MacArthur.

Most are assigned to headquarters as censors and to accompany civilian war correspondents covering landings while others are attached to individual divisions.

The officers included: Major Phil North, Fort Worth Star-Telegram; Lieut. Lloyd H. Price, Dallas News; Lieut. John Stallings, Corpus Christi Caller-Times; and Lieut. Charles Heartill, Marshall News Messenger.

Command Moved to Bliss

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 2 (AP) — Headquarters of the anti-aircraft command of the army ground forces will be moved from Richmond to Fort Bliss, Tex., Oct. 15, the war department announced today.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like aches and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, add digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 2 days before "your time," it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. TRY IT!

—without soapy scum!
—without water softeners!

SOAPLESS SUDS

Removes grease from dishes, pots and pans—like lightning! Easy to handle. Cleans, protects silk, nylon, rayon. Leaves an "soapy" film or dishpan scent or sticky bathtub ring.

SAVES MONEY
Only one teaspoonful to a gallon of water gives 7 times more suds than pure soap—no harsh, cold water.

War Veteran Out Of Work Will Be Paid Compensation By Government

Editor's Note:—This is the seventh in a series on veteran's benefits, ranging from demobilization to jobs and pensions.

By James Marlow
WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (AP) — A war veteran temporarily out of a job can get unemployment pay from the federal government.

This assures him of a minimum income of $20 a week for a certain number of weeks, depending upon the length of his military service. The maximum number of weeks for which he can draw the pay is 52.

All states also have unemployment-pay systems. But where they tie in with the federal program will be explained at the end of this story which, until then, deals only with federal aid.

Who gets federal unemployment pay?
A jobless veteran who had 90 days' military service since Sept. 16, 1939, and was honorably discharged. If he was discharged before serving 90 days because of a service-incurred disability, he is credited with 90 days.

Where does he apply for the pay?
He applies at the nearest U. S. employment service office or at the local — state or county — unemployment office.

What's the time limit?
The unemployment must have started within two years after discharge from the armed services, or within two years after the end of the war, whichever is later.

For how many weeks can a veteran draw federal unemployment pay?
For each of his first three months (90 days) of service, he is allowed 8 weeks' unemployment pay, or a total of 24 weeks for his first three months of service. This means, of course, that he must have been unemployed all of those 24 weeks in order to draw that much pay. If he's jobless only one week, then he gets only one week's pay.

But for every three months of service, after those first three months, he is allowed one month's pay. Suppose a veteran had served four months. Then for the first three months he would be entitled to 24 weeks' pay but for the fourth month only one month's pay or a total of 28 weeks.

What are the rules?
A completely unemployed veteran gets $20 a week. If partly employed, he gets the difference between his wage and the weekly allowance, plus $3. For example: He earns $10. Subtract the $3 mentioned above from the $10, that leaves $7. Then subtract the $7 from the $20. That leaves $13. His unemployment pay then would be $13. Thus his total weekly income would be $23.

A self-employed veteran whose net earnings are less than $100 a month can get this compensation, too. He receives the difference between $100 and his net earnings for the past month. For example: Last month he earned $50 net. The government will give him $50. But, like the jobless veteran, the self-employed veteran earning less than $100 net monthly can draw no more than the maximum of $20 weekly.

In order to get the pay, what must a jobless veteran do?
He must register at a public employment office, be able to work and be available for suitable work. Illness or disability, which occurs during a period of unemployment for which allowances already have started, will not disqualify him.

What would disqualify him from receiving unemployment pay?
If he leaves suitable work voluntarily.

Did He Have Points?

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Oct. 2 (AP) — The OPA clerk explained to the caller that there were two ceiling prices—one for live and a higher one for dressed poultry.

The caller said she wanted the ceiling on dressed poultry, adding that a neighbor's dog had gobbled six of her best chickens. "Even if the dog ate the birds alive," she explained, "they were practically dressed when he took them home inside himself."

DOES YOUR CHURCH, LODGE, OR SOCIETY WANT TO RAISE MONEY?

How many times have you had to say, "We'd like to do that but our organization just hasn't got the ready cash." Here's one of the easiest ways of raising money—and at the same time of patriotically serving your country—save waste paper!

Waste paper can add to your income. You won't have to increase dues or fees. Just sell enough waste paper to your own local dealers at standard market prices.

At the same time you'll be helping to win the war. Remember this year we need 2,000,000 extra tons of waste paper.

Paper makes ammunition cases, helmet linings, flares, supply parachutes, and blood plasma containers. Our boys in uniform need the waste paper which you can collect for them.

Have every member of your organization bring a bundle of waste paper to your next meeting : : : Save waste paper, sell it, and help to shorten the war.

Cosden Mails Christmas Gifts To 120 In Service

The Christmas spirit has hung heavily around Cosden Petroleum corporation in the last few weeks and even though it is several months early, it has been timely since the company has bought and mailed 120 Christmas presents to former employees who are now serving in the armed forces. Cosden's honor roll is one of the largest in the country and former employees who have been called into military training are representative of every branch of service and are now serving all over the world. Employees chose a leather zipper toilet case as the gift to be sent to all and included in each package was a calendar and Christmas card.

In addition, Cosden's soldiers, sailors and marines receive the "Cosden Chatter" weekly column which appears in The Herald concerning employees of Cosden and former employees now in service. More important than these thoughtful services is the practice of the refinery in maintaining a seniority record for all employees now in service. Returned service men and women will be re-employed in their old position or one of its equal and veterans will be eligible for higher positions despite the fact they have been away.

Agriculture Has Good Outlook

DALLAS, Oct. 2 (AP) — The general outlook for business, agriculture and industry in Texas was extremely bright in August and early September, the monthly Business Review of the federal reserve bank of Dallas reported today.

The dollar volume of sales at department stores in August was 24 per cent above that of a year ago and 22 per cent greater than that of the preceding month. For the two weeks ending Sept. 16, sales were 21 per cent higher than those for the comparable period last year.

Sales of Women's and Misses' ready-to-wear and accessories, which represented half of the total dollar sales reported, was 32 per cent higher than a year ago while stocks remained practically at the same level as last year. Furniture sales were up 8 per cent.

General rains throughout the district late in August and early in September benefited late crops, provided needed moisture for fall plowing and seeding operations, revived livestock ranges and replenished stockwater supplies. Farmers have made good progress with the seeding of winter wheat.

NEWS HAS NO ADS

DALLAS, Oct. 2 (AP)—For the second time in recent weeks the Dallas Morning News published a six-page edition minus advertising. Due to acute paper shortage the newspaper recently announced it would occasionally publish eight page editions without advertising. Last week a state edition of six pages was printed, and again today the city edition had six pages.

Woods Lore And Bluff Brings About Capture Of Nazi Paratroop Supermen

some squad men he hurriedly assembled to capture 64 of Hitler's paratroopers — those embattled sons of the swastika who are supposed to die before surrender. Pvt. Robert Duffy of Omaha, a signal corps messenger, was speeding along in his jeep with Pfc. Edward Gerdes of St. Louis, Mo., when a Belgian on a bike excitedly stopped them and warned of "Les Boches."

Care Of Tires Stressed By Creighton Co.

With the scarcities continuing because of wartime rubber requirements, Creighton Tire company at 203 West Third street is stressing care of tires and offering services designed to prolong life of tires.

Recommendation is made that motorists obtain check-ups in order to discover defects in time to correct them before the tire is damaged irreparably. Motorists no longer are required to report for tire inspections, except when applying for tire certificates, but may obtain voluntary check-ups as a safeguard.

For motorists who obtain tire certificates, the company offers the high grade Seiberling products, Charlie Creighton, owner and operator of the company, has handled Seiberlings for many years. In addition to sale of tires and tubes, the firm offers recapping and vulcanizing services by experienced attendants.

Both services have proved life-savers for tires forced to do extra duty during present tire scarcities and low rationing quotas.

New batteries handled by Creighton are made by Seiberling. Recharging service for old batteries also is offered.

Creighton has been in the tire business 15 years and has operated at his present location seven years.

Moccasins Placed On Rationing Schedule

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (AP) — The Office of Price Administration today ordered under rationing leather-soled moccasins which previously were imported from Mexico and elsewhere and sold ration-free.

The ruling will apply to all future imports and sales, but such shoes already on the market may be sold without ration coupons, OPA said. In the past such moccasins have been classed as house slippers, which are not rationed.

Soft soap is 90 per cent lye.

V. Logan Foresees Good Chick Market

Because baby chicks are going to be hard to get, V. M. Logan of the Logan Feed and Hatchery at 817 East 3rd street, promises the farmers that there will be a good market in the Spring for both chickens and eggs.

He suggests that the farmers let him know if they plan to bring their chickens and eggs down to him to sell so he can get an estimate of how much he will have on hand.

The Logan Feed and Hatchery company can supply your demands for hay anytime in the near future. There is a large truckload on the way, and although many farmers have placed their names on the waiting list, there will still be a few bales left.

For those farmers who already have their baby chicks and are planning to keep them for the Spring market, Logan has plenty of good feed to raise them on, and of the Logan Feed and Hatchery has an unusually wide selection for you to choose from, two of these including the much called for C.B. and Tex feed.

Beginning raisers of chickens will find that the Logan Feed and Hatchery can give you the exact type of "brooders" you want to put in. Should you desire any help in the future concerning feeding problems, call on the Logan Feed and Hatchery company and they will be glad to help.

Action On Strike Vote Due Monday

HOUSTON, Oct. 2 (AP)—Final action on a strike vote affecting 1,700 workers of the International Great Northern and Gulf Coast Lines will be taken at a meeting of the general conference of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks here today.

Officials of the clerks' brotherhood said the workers sought a renewal of contract under existing rules and charged that the road had sought to force unfair revision of most of the basic rules. Road officials have refused consistently to comment. The controversy, which has continued for nine months, resulted in a strike vote last Thursday in which 97 per cent of the workers voted to quit their jobs.

PSYCHIATRIC SOCIAL WORKERS AND ASSISTANTS NEEDED!

SURGICAL TECHNICIANS NEEDED!

This is the situation:

In this gigantic world-wide war of liberation . . .
CASUALTIES ARE GREAT—AND WILL BE GREATER.
The flow of wounded into America is almost unceasing. Convoys of gallant men, suffering agonies of body and mind, are coming home.
We owe our lives, our freedom, to these men . . .
But above all, we owe them a fighting chance to live happily again, as they so richly deserve. Free from pain and horror.
To help give them this chance, the Army needs 22,000 technically trained women—
Today, there is a great need for more trained medical technicians in U. S. Army hospitals in this country.
The wards and surgeries and laboratories are in need of qualified women technicians . . . so that the men may be sent out to staff base hospitals and outpost medical units — overseas.
As Wacs, you can replace these technicians. You can help wounded boys get well faster.

Thousands of laboratory tests must be made. Blood counts taken and analyzed. Penicillin and blood plasma prepared. The course of disease and infection watched with faithful care. There must be more help in the surgeries. In the wards. Teaching, reconditioning. Helping broken men to regain their strength and hope.
Women of this is your opportunity to serve
Not only to help and comfort men who have risked death and torture for you . . .
Not only to lend your infinite woman's compassion, your soothing voice, and understanding heart . . .
But to put your own fine training and knowledge to glorious use in the Army of the United States.
Here every rare and common disease is diagnosed and tended. Here Tomorrow's scientific wonders are making men well again. Here incredible New World equipment is being put to practical use.
You will work with it all. You will gain rich, on-the-job experience that cannot help but broaden your own postwar horizons.

Women of this is your glory, too
Only those women who have helped men undertake the work of war can ever really understand what freedom means. Only they can truly share the fruits of victory — and the honor and the glory — with the men who fought war the hard, dirty, bloody way.

Frogs Play Arkansas In Opening Southwest Conference Grid Game

By The Associated Press
Maneuvers are virtually over for the football warriors of the Southwest conference. The grid wars will begin in earnest next week-end for two teams seeking the title—Saturday will be D-Day for Arkansas and Texas Christian when they meet at Fort Worth. Texas, meeting Randolph Field at Austin, probably wishes it had a conference schedule. What Randolph's Filers did to Rice Saturday shouldn't happen to a dog, and Rice is a potent threat with a pretty good team as college outfits go these days. Randolph defeated Rice 59-0 and still had a couple of teams left over that could have taken on two other conference squads.

Texas Saturday avenged a 1943 defeat handed it by Southwestern by trimming the Pirates 20-0 with young Bobby Layne firing most of the big guns. Southern Methodist meets Southwestern at Dallas Saturday and the result of this battle will give one of the first comparative pictures of the year.

Rice will recover from the bombing given it by Randolph and clash with Louisiana State in Houston. Rice, although a loser this week, won't open 57-0, defeating Galveston Air Field. LSU tied Alabama 27-27 in its last game.

Texas A&M attacks Oklahoma at Oklahoma City in a night game. The Texas Argies won from Texas Tech 27-14 Saturday but for a while it looked close—the Red Raiders took the lead in the third.

Two of last week's victims, Texas Tech and Oklahoma A&M, will meet Saturday at Lubbock.

Doctor Criticizes Vitamin Publicity

GALVESTON, Oct. 2 (AP)—Sensational advertisements of vitamins and hormones as possible rejuvenators were criticized here by two prominent doctors participating in a symposium discussing problems of old age.

Dr. A. J. Carlson, professor of psychology of the University of Chicago and president of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and Dr. Marcus Fernan-Nunes, professor of pathology at Marquette university, were brought to Texas by the alumni of the three Texas chapters of the Phi Chi medical fraternity.

Dr. Carlson made three points: Preparation for old age must begin in childhood, children must be given responsibility proportionate to their age as soon as possible, and special training in geriatrics should be provided.

Steers Show Better Play With Lubbock

Captain John Dibrell sends his Big Spring High School Steers into their first District Three AA conference tilt Friday night in Steer Stadium when the fast-running Odessa Bronchos come to town for the fourth game for each team this year, and the district opener for each.

The Broncho eleven affords the first chance at comparison of scores as they met the Lubbock Westerners, 25-0 victors over the local team last Friday night, in the opening game of the season and were beaten 18-6 by the powerful District One AA team.

This gives the invaders a slight edge over the host team as they have also trounced Bowie of El Paso 51-0, and last week ran out over Lamesa 45-0. Pre-season favorites to be flag contenders, second only to San Angelo, the Odessa eleven is one of the top-ranking favorites to come through with the flag as the season runs into October's schedule.

No injuries were recorded by the local eleven against the high-riding Westerners and the squad should be in good shape for this week's encounter.

Improved defensive play has brought on a remarkable change for the locals, along with several individual men who have shown much improvement. Bob Hardy at the blocking back post has been moving along well and last week turned in a fine performance, as did Joe Cunningham, lanky end for the Steers. Tommy Clinkscales, Husk at the guard position, has developed into one of the outstanding blockers in the local line and should turn in another star performance Friday. Jackie Barron, a substitute back, has moved into the front as a passer and runner and turned in a good performance against stiff opposition last week. He is due to see a lot more action under the lights of Steer Stadium comes Friday night's battle.

The entire Steer defensive tightened up considerably last Friday night during the last half and the locals battled the Bobcat-conquerors on better than even terms during the last half. After solving a tricky Lubbock offensive the forward wall of the Steers showed up very well, and Odessa may not have the field-day against the locals they have had the past two weeks. At any rate the visitors do not show to be cinch winners, and a little more scoring punch that Dibrell is trying to work out this week may put the locals out in front Friday. This scoring punch may come through the air where the Steers showed much improvement, and the High School coaches have promised more aerial fireworks during the remainder of the schedule.

Tiger-Scottie Game Tops State Schoolboy Tilts

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor
Eighteen teams stood out in the Texas schoolboy football campaign today as the field hit the October trail and it wouldn't be too much of a long-range prospect if the two squads that meet in this week's feature battle—Highland Park (Dallas) and Waco—were rated at the top.

The Scotties, who certainly look like the kings of North Texas gridirons, play Waco, an outfit that should rule Central Texas, at Waco Friday night.

Elsewhere the schedule is dotted with important games, most important of which are 20 conference tilts that bring title warfare to eleven districts.

But interdistrict struggles match Amarillo with San Angelo, Vernon with Breckenridge and Lufkin with Port Arthur and those battles, while not sending undefeated, untied teams together still must rate with the best of the season.

West Texas appears to have eight of the top teams—Amarillo, San Angelo, Lubbock, Sweetwater, Plainview, Paschal (Fort Worth), Breckenridge and Odessa. Highland Park stands virtually alone in North Texas although Sunset and Crozier Tech of Dallas as strong units. There is no way of telling how these clubs stack up sectionally, however, since they do not play outside their district.

In East Texas it's Tyler, Marshall and Lufkin with the former looming as probably the best of the three. In South Texas, Port Arthur, Breckenridge (San Antonio) and Austin look decidedly the best.

The schoolboy field surges into October with 33 undefeated teams left, five of which have been tied. In four instances this week, unbeaten teams are matched against each other. The Waco-Highland Park contest naturally tops these. Plainview plays Midland, Breckenridge tackles San Jacinto (Houston) and Kingsville clashes with Harlingen in the other three, the latter being a conference affair in the Rio Grande Valley League.

Hatfield Meets Hendlin In Post Tourney Finals

Captain Roland F. Hatfield vs. Lt. Hale Hendlin.
That's the lineup for the finale for the officers' tennis finals at the Big Spring Bombardier school and the two stars will attempt to ace each other on the concrete courts at 4 p. m. Tuesday.

Capt. Hatfield battled his way into the finals Saturday evening, being extended to the limit by Aspirant Pierre Bonnet, of the French section. He won the first set 6-4; dropped the second set 3-6; but came back to take the final set 6-3.

Bonnet resorted to a net game, rushing in close in an attempt to smash home kill shots but Capt. Hatfield put a crimp into this strategy by sending drives to the back courts, keeping his opponent away from the net. Capt. Hatfield experienced considerable difficulty with his service.

In Lt. Hendlin he meets the former North Carolina University Southern conference and eastern seaboard tennis champion, and winner of the recent Big Spring city tournament. Lt. Hendlin is a big favorite to win the officers' crown, and also the post championship.

Capt. Hatfield is scheduled to play tonight but a large blister on his foot led tournament officials to postpone the finals. He never has met Lt. Hendlin in competition.

In the Enlisted Men's section Pvt. Jimmy Freeman, who won from Pvt. John Vidal, meets T/Sgt. Jerome Pinkston, colored star from Section F, in a semi-finals match at 4 p. m. today.

Pvt. Carl Bolson, tennis ace from Western Hills in Cincinnati, O., left on furlough and his departure pushed Sgt. Sol Firestone into the finals to meet the winner of the Freeman-Pinkston match. Pvt. Bolson, a top seeded player in Ohio, had been a favorite to meet the officers' champion for the post title.

Annual Badminton Tournament Opens

Annual officers badminton tournament will get underway at the Big Spring Bombardier school Wednesday, it was announced today by Lt. Joseph Salvo of the physical training department.

Wednesday's schedule includes matches between Capt. Leonard Thompson vs. Capt. Ralph Buchanan and Lt. Frank Wones vs. Lt. Myron Hoerger.

On Thursday Lt. John Lee meets Capt. Elvin Klein and Major Arthur Foulks faces Lt. Salvo.

The opening round will conclude on Friday, when Maj. E. C. Heikkila meets Capt. John J. Auerbach, and Lt. Joseph Wheeler, winner of last year's tournament—and top-seeded player in the current competition, meets W/O Robert Brunner.

A tournament also will be held for enlisted men, Lt. Salvo said.

Browns Take Pennant As Senators Beat Bengals

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

America's third wartime baseball season ended yesterday with the St. Louis Browns winning their first pennant in the tightest race in American league history, a race not decided until the last out on the last day.

A 5-2 victory over the New York Yankees coupled with a Detroit defeat by Washington, 4-1,

Browns Were Not Pre-Season Pick

NEW YORK, Oct. 2 (AP)—J. E. Wray, sports editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, was the only one of the 68 baseball writers in the pre-season Associated Press poll to pick both the St. Louis Browns and Cardinals to win American and National league flags. In fact, Wray's vote was the only first-place ballot the Browns received.

Commented Wray on April 10 before the season opened: "Don't ask me why, but I just thought it was a good year for us to see every game of the World Series, all played in one park and with a minimum of grief for the ODT."

"Ask Me No Questions"
SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 2 (AP)—The political campaign is warming up, so the local USO placed this sign in its window:
"The USO is a non-partisan organization and does not sponsor any political candidates—we just happen to be next door to the republican headquarters."

HOUSTON MAN DIES
HOUSTON, Oct. 2 (AP)—William L. Lubbock, Sr., 87, a nephew of the late Governor Francis R. Lubbock, died at his home here Saturday night.

gave the flag to the Browns by one game, breaking a tie that had existed since Friday.

With all due credit to the Tigers for their amazing climb from seventh place on July 13, most fans were pulling for the Browns, not only because the Sewellmen had never won a pennant but also because of their thrilling comeback after they had apparently dropped out of the running. Just three weeks ago, they had skidded to third place after having led virtually all season.

With Sigmund Jakucki hurling a six-hitter before 37,815 fans, the largest St. Louis crowd of the season, the Browns swept a four-game series from the Yankees to climax a great stretch drive during which they won 11 of 12.

Although long distance slugging won the final game from the former world champions—two homers by Vern Stephens accounted for all the Browns' runs—pitching was the Browns' chief weapon all season. Nelson Potter, Jack Kramer, Denny Galehouse, Bob Muncie and Jakucki hurled 10 complete games of the last 12, including four shutouts, and did not give up more than four runs in any of the last 11 games.

Emil (Dutch) Leonard, 34-year-old knuckleballer, who had not beaten the Tigers since Sept. 15, 1941, losing seven straight to the Bengals since, was the Tiger tamer, hurling a four-hitter before a dazed crowd of 45,565 fans. Stan Spence, whose hitting, beat Detroit on Friday to create a first-place tie, cracked his third homer in three days to put the crusher on Detroit.

Dizzy Trout, who teamed with Hal Newhouser to set a new live-ball era record with 53 victories, made his second attempt in three days for his 28th victory, but suffered his 14th defeat instead.

Thus the Browns, who had finished as high as second only twice before—in 1902, their first season, and in 1922, when they missed the pennant by one game—won the right to meet St. Louis' National league representative, the Cardinals, in the world series opening Wednesday.

The Yankees failed in an attempt to win their fourth straight flag, dropping to third, the lowest in the Joe McCarthy regime.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Oct. 2 (AP)—Reports proving that sports experts can be just as fallible as human beings, events of the past week-end indicate that there hasn't been much change in football since last season. . . . Teams either have what it takes or they haven't, as indicated by those big totals piled up by Notre Dame, Georgia Tech, Ohio State, Army, Purdue, Minnesota, etc., against rivals that ordinarily would put up a tough scrap. . . . Only difference so far seems to be that there are more good civilian teams. . . . The experts didn't go wrong in picking Pavot to win the first horse since El Chico in 1938, to complete an undefeated two year old campaign. . . . But how about those guys who forgot all about the Tigers and Browns last spring when they were picking the Yankees and Senators to fight it out for the American league pennant? . . .

AWOL—
Ray Kurovaki, the Penn State Marine trainee athlete, never has seen his brother, George (Whitey) Kurovaki of the Cardinals, hit a homer. . . . When The Cards were playing the Phillies a week ago Ray thought it might be a good opportunity so he wangled a weekend liberty. . . . On Sunday he sat through eleven innings of the first game without seeing George get even a hit, then ran for the last train back to college. . . . Next morning Ray picked up a paper and read how George had won the game with a homer in the 16th.

Monday matinee—
Ray (Semi-Pro) Dumont has ordered about twice as many baseball rule books—plus several pages of playing hints for kids—as he distributed last year and has lined up 400 radio stations to give them away. . . . That Ray upset by North Carolina. Freight was entirely unexpected. Before the same Rip Miller told friends that if the Midshipmen could get past that one, they'd probably do all right. . . . And "Ox" Da Grossa's prediction on Holy Cross vs. Dartmouth was "we may not score much but we'll tackle like anything."

Sgt. Joe Louis and his Army boxing troupe is booked for a tour of Egypt and the Persian Gulf command now that he has finished with the Mediterranean sector.

A Real Community Asset

One week from today the Big Spring Locker company will formally open for business with complete service as any can find in similar establishments. In fact, we believe in many respects this service this institution is prepared to give is superior to the average frozen food locker plant.

Two attempts to organize a frozen food locker here failed for lack of support before Marvin well and Jim Kinsey applied for priorities. What we have done, we venture, was worth waiting for. The layout is more extensive than if it had been erected under previous plans.

One special feature is the slaughtering unit in connection with the plant. It is perhaps the best equipped of anything of its kind in this section of the state, and plans for it had the careful study of the city, the army and state health department officials. Many changes were made by the management to meet with suggestions from these sources.

As a result, those with livestock to process can be assured of a complete service from the unloading of the animals in the pens to the packing of the meat in locker boxes.

The locker room is unusually large and is thus adaptable to expansion. The building itself has ample space which could be used if the demand is such as to warrant it.

When the formal opening is observed a week hence, we hope as many as possible will make it a point to visit the new operation. We believe they will find it a distinct asset to Big Spring and typical of several small industries which could be established to fit in with our agricultural economy.

Worthy Of Your Contribution

The Veterans of Foreign Wars did what many organizations have long thought about doing in sponsoring an iron lung fund.

This has met with spontaneous response from the public and already more than $500 has been raised. The amount is all the way from one-third one-sixth of what is required to purchase the equipment.

Some will say there is no point in having an iron lung here since there are others in the area which could be borrowed in an emergency. Yes, but so wants to be borrowing, and what if those pieces of equipment were in use at the time our emergency cases here at the same time.

We believe that Big Spring should have the equipment, that the campaign inaugurated by the VFW is worthy of your support and contributions. We hope that it will be like fire insurance that never needed; but that it is ready for use when need does arise.

Wagnerian Tenor Gives Great Act

ROBBIN COONS
HOLLYWOOD — Lauritz Melchior, the Wagnerian tenor, gave a great acting performance on his last day before a movie camera. He played a stout man on a diet. The stoutness, per se, required acting ability. The Melchior role is immense, comfortably filled. The dieting, which was a part of the act, was a challenge. In a Lake Arrowhead night club, while Tommy Dorsey and orchestra and balcony fame played sweet music, and Esther Williams, in Johnson and Carlton Young, made a threesome at another table, Melchior had to plead with Walter Barnett for food. Walter Barnett offered him carrots. In the script the Melchior character is all vegetable. "The only vegetables I like," cited Melchior, "are steak and beer. Get me some, please."

But the waiter rejected the request, and then Director Richard Thorpe called "cut!" The Melchior film debut was accomplished in two takes, after which the tenor proceeded to his dressing room and, while we talked, drank with us two bottles of cold beer.

"Diet?" he said. "Do I look like I diet only when I must." He tucked, with placid, kindly good humor of the kind dieters seldom show. "I come from Denmark, here there is smorgasbord, the diet. I should be dieting!" He was unruffled and calm over his first movie acting. "After all, I'm 32 years I have performed," he said, "and this is just another end of performance."

Here he came into pictures because his appearance with Fred Allen in the air, singing a Sinatra hit.

The War Today

by Dewitt Mackenzie
Associated Press War Analyst

The phenomenon of the heavy German counter-attacks throughout the length of the western front yesterday means that the Hitlerites were trying to throw the Allies off balance and thus delay the great offensive which is boiling up against the reich.

This is a typical German defensive operation when under threat of attack. While they were repulsed in all sectors, it was a logical procedure in an effort to keep the Allied battle-line unsettled.

The chief significance of this general counter-move, beyond the fact that it signaled an Allied drive, is that the Germans still have the strength and the will to carry out such initiative. However, there's no reason for the surprise—which seems to be rather widespread—over the fact that the Hitlerites are making a fight of it.

A lot of folk seem to have jumped to the conclusion that the war was over when they saw the Germans in headlong retreat from the battle of Normandy. There was no occasion for any such belief, because there was every indication that Hitler had the intention of making a stand on his own frontiers and would have the strength to do so—for a time.

Now those who underestimated the German ability to carry on are plunged into gloom by being reminded that there's a possibility the war may run into the new year. Of course that's possible. However, there's no cause for pessimism over the way things are going. While nobody can pin down the length of the war, and while it may indeed go into 1945, it also is possible that General Eisenhower's hope of victory this year may be fulfilled.

We still have three months left in this year, and much can be achieved in that time if things go well. True, the weather is likely to be bad after this month, and military operations will be difficult in November and December. However, if General Ike is able to stage his grand offensive soon and we are able to crack the German defenses by a head-on assault, we should be able to go far even after winter sets in.

Ernie Pyle: Red Cross On Ambulances Meant Nothing To German Africa Korps

By ERNIE PYLE
AT THE FRONT LINE IN TUNISIA, Feb. 1943—The afternoon sun went over the hill and the evening chill began to come down. We were sitting on a bushy hillside—just a small bunch of American officers forming what is called a forward command post. Officers who had been in the battle for Ousseltia Pass all day began wandering in through the brush on foot, to report. They were dirty, and tired. But the day had gone well, and they were cheerful in a quiet and unexpected way.

A Medical Corps major came up the hill and said: "Those blankets-blanks! They've knocked out two of my ambulances that were trying to get the wounded back. A hell of a lot of red cross means to them!"

Nobody said anything. He went back down the hill, as mad as a hornet.

The officers kept talking about three fellow officers who had been killed during the day, and a fourth one who was missing. One of the dead men apparently had been a special favorite. An officer who had been beside him when it happened came up with blood on his clothes.

"We hit the ground together," he said. "But when I got up, he couldn't. It took him right in the head. He felt no pain."

"Raise up that tent and pack his stuff," an officer told an enlisted man.

Another one said: "The hell of it is his wife's due to have a baby any time now."

Just then a sergeant walked up. He had left the post that morning with the officer who was now missing.

"Where's Captain So-and-so?" they all asked.

The sergeant said he didn't know. Then he said he himself had been captured.

"Captured?" the officers asked.

"Yes," he said. The Italians captured me and then turned me loose."

The sergeant was Vernon Gery, (305 W. Navarre St.), South Bend, Ind. He is a married man, and was a young and husky fellow. He didn't appear to be very much shaken by his experience, but he said he never was so scared in his life.

Sitting there on the ground he told me his experience. He and the missing captain and a jeep driver had gone forward at 9:30 in the morning to hunt for the body of a popular officer who had been killed. They parked the jeep, and the captain told them to stay there till he returned.

They covered the jeep with brush and then hid in the bushes alone. As they were lying there the driver yelled to Sergeant Gery, "Look, they're retreating!"

He saw eight soldiers coming toward them. He thought they were French, but actually they were an Italian patrol. The driver's shout attracted their attention and they began shooting. The two Americans fired back.

The jeep driver was hit and killed instantly. Gery said the driver yelled just once when he was hit.

"I'll be hearing that yell for a long time," he said.

In a moment the Italians had Gery. Apparently they were on a definite mission, for seven of them went on, leaving one guard to watch Gery. They had taken his rifle, searched him, and given back his identification cards, but they kept his cigarettes, pipe, tobacco, chewing gum and message book.

"Did they take your money?" I asked.

"I didn't have any," Gery said. "I haven't been paid in three months. I haven't had a cent in my pocket for weeks."

For an hour the one Italian sat ten feet from Gery with his rifle pointed at him. Gery says the Italian must have been well acquainted with the American rifle, for he passed the time taking it apart and putting it together, and he did it rapidly and correctly. The Italian didn't try to talk to Gery.

Suddenly our artillery began dropping shells close to where they sat. That was too much for

Winter Battles Will Devastate Reich Homeland

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (AP)—If the Germans force the European war into a winter stalemate, they will subject their country to the most ruthless devastation yet planned by the Allied high commands.

The belief of military authorities here is that Nazi scorched earth threats promise considerably less destruction to Germany's cities, industries and communications than do Allied plans for conquering the country piecemeal if the Allies have to do it that way.

There are no reports here of any group capable of bringing about a revolution and surrender. And the Nazi leadership, it is emphasized, has nothing to gain by surrender.

Responsible Allied military authorities believe that the reich is being held together by Heinrich Himmler's Gestapo, which has excised enormously increased power since the failure of the army generals' attempt on Hitler's life last summer.

If postwar air transportation will be as great as some people anticipate, we'll have to find a new place to build our castles.

The Timid Soul

Ernie Pyle: Red Cross On Ambulances Meant Nothing To German Africa Korps

By ERNIE PYLE
AT THE FRONT LINE IN TUNISIA, Feb. 1943—The afternoon sun went over the hill and the evening chill began to come down. We were sitting on a bushy hillside—just a small bunch of American officers forming what is called a forward command post. Officers who had been in the battle for Ousseltia Pass all day began wandering in through the brush on foot, to report. They were dirty, and tired. But the day had gone well, and they were cheerful in a quiet and unexpected way.

A Medical Corps major came up the hill and said: "Those blankets-blanks! They've knocked out two of my ambulances that were trying to get the wounded back. A hell of a lot of red cross means to them!"

Nobody said anything. He went back down the hill, as mad as a hornet.

The officers kept talking about three fellow officers who had been killed during the day, and a fourth one who was missing. One of the dead men apparently had been a special favorite. An officer who had been beside him when it happened came up with blood on his clothes.

"We hit the ground together," he said. "But when I got up, he couldn't. It took him right in the head. He felt no pain."

"Raise up that tent and pack his stuff," an officer told an enlisted man.

Another one said: "The hell of it is his wife's due to have a baby any time now."

Just then a sergeant walked up. He had left the post that morning with the officer who was now missing.

"Where's Captain So-and-so?" they all asked.

The sergeant said he didn't know. Then he said he himself had been captured.

"Captured?" the officers asked.

"Yes," he said. The Italians captured me and then turned me loose."

The sergeant was Vernon Gery, (305 W. Navarre St.), South Bend, Ind. He is a married man, and was a young and husky fellow. He didn't appear to be very much shaken by his experience, but he said he never was so scared in his life.

Sitting there on the ground he told me his experience. He and the missing captain and a jeep driver had gone forward at 9:30 in the morning to hunt for the body of a popular officer who had been killed. They parked the jeep, and the captain told them to stay there till he returned.

They covered the jeep with brush and then hid in the bushes alone. As they were lying there the driver yelled to Sergeant Gery, "Look, they're retreating!"

He saw eight soldiers coming toward them. He thought they were French, but actually they were an Italian patrol. The driver's shout attracted their attention and they began shooting. The two Americans fired back.

The jeep driver was hit and killed instantly. Gery said the driver yelled just once when he was hit.

"I'll be hearing that yell for a long time," he said.

In a moment the Italians had Gery. Apparently they were on a definite mission, for seven of them went on, leaving one guard to watch Gery. They had taken his rifle, searched him, and given back his identification cards, but they kept his cigarettes, pipe, tobacco, chewing gum and message book.

"Did they take your money?" I asked.

"I didn't have any," Gery said. "I haven't been paid in three months. I haven't had a cent in my pocket for weeks."

For an hour the one Italian sat ten feet from Gery with his rifle pointed at him. Gery says the Italian must have been well acquainted with the American rifle, for he passed the time taking it apart and putting it together, and he did it rapidly and correctly. The Italian didn't try to talk to Gery.

Suddenly our artillery began dropping shells close to where they sat. That was too much for

Today And Tomorrow Success At Dumbarton Oaks

By WALTER LIPPMANN
By any reasonable standard the work of the Dumbarton Oaks conference must be judged both effective and remarkably rapid. Let us take as a measure the work of the Philadelphia Convention which drafted our own Constitution.

The Philadelphia Convention was in secret session for four months, from May 14 to Sept. 13, 1787. During this time the convention agreed on a frame of government. It agreed also on an allocation of powers, but here its decisions were not final, and they were modified and supplemented by the first ten amendments which constitute the Bill of Rights.

The Dumbarton Oaks conference has been in more or less secret session not for four months but for six weeks, from Aug. 21 to Sept. 29. During this time it has reached an agreement, which will not be seriously criticized when it is laid before the other United Nations, on those matters which correspond to a frame of government—that is to say on the institutions through which the nations are to act in preserving the peace.

There is also substantial agreement, or will be when we have recognized the French Provisional Government and have drawn the smaller European states into council, on the most immediately important aspects of the question of power—namely where responsibility is to be vested for settling with our present enemies. There is agreement beyond that on all essential questions except one hypothetical question: What happens when one of the great powers responsible for maintaining the peace is itself charged with violating the peace. Let us remember that the Philadelphia Convention did not settle the same kind of question, namely, what would happen in the future if an irreconcilable issue among the states caused some of them to secede and rebel.

We shall be judging Dumbarton Oaks correctly, and we shall see the future more clearly, if we do not let ourselves become fixed and fascinated by conundrums about how force is to be exercised theoretically in all conceivable circumstances everywhere and forever. The overwhelmingly important thing which can come out of Dumbarton Oaks is the agreement of the powers to make every effort to keep on trying to agree, and the establishment by them of organs, of institutions, and of procedures, by which they can and will consult in order to agree.

To spend our time devising verbal formulae to govern what would happen if they disagree, and become irreconcilable and antagonistic, is to put our emphasis in the wrong place. We can do no better than to follow George

Washington who wrote to his nephew after the adjournment at Philadelphia: "If evil is likely to arise" from the "imperfection of the Constitution," those who come after "will have the advantage of experience on their side. . . . I do not think we are more inspired, have more wisdom, or possess more virtue, than those who will come after us." And we might also follow Franklin who wrote to a correspondent: "I disliked some other articles that are in, and wished for some that are not in the proposed plan; I nevertheless hope it may be adopted."

Let us remember too that as compared with the formation of a union of nations to prevent war, the formation of the federal union was much less difficult. The thirteen states had always been united in a common allegiance, and the problem at Philadelphia was not, as it is in the world, to form a union where none has existed. It was to form "a more perfect union" among states that had never really been disunited. Yet George Washington came away from Philadelphia saying that the defects of the plan must be judged charitably, "considering the heterogeneous mass of which the convention was composed and the diversity of interests that are to be attended to."

When we judge the great project, of which Dumbarton Oaks is only the preliminary and partial instrument, let us not judge the dog by the fleas we can find on him. There will be flea-pickers who will object to Dumbarton Oaks because something they do not approve of has happened in Afghanistan or Tibet; there will be flea-pickers who are so doctrinaire about the old League of Nations that they account as heresy any departure from the Geneva gospel.

To keep the great and the small powers of the earth together for the purpose of deliberating on all the questions that could seriously trouble them: this—and not mechanical tricks as to how they are to vote—is the grand object of the whole business. What has brought us as far as we have come in fulfilling the promises made at Moscow less than a year ago, is that in the interval the three great powers have faithfully and successfully carried out the military promises they made subsequently at Teheran.

Washington—President's News Council Will Stay

By JAC STINNETT
WASHINGTON — No matter who is elected the next chief executive, the presidential news conference is here to stay.

In the nearly 12 years of his administration, President Roosevelt has made the bi-weekly news conference a permanent fixture. There have been some complaints since we entered the war about the declining number of regular conferences. There have been other complaints about the lack of real news that comes out of some of them, even when momentous events need elucidation.

But there isn't any real indication that President Roosevelt is abandoning regular meetings with the press and radio representatives or that he has adopted a policy of making those meetings fruitless by disregarding direct questions and releasing his important news through other channels.

On the other hand, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey is rapidly becoming as much a news conference fan as the man he has been nominated to oppose. Both as governor in Albany and in his campaign, he has demonstrated that he believes in it as a method of contact with the people. I don't know that he has made an "ifly" promise that he will continue the system should he succeed to the White House, but I do know that he has adopted the pattern so wholeheartedly that he would cause consternation if he did an about-face.

The presidential news conference, as we know it today, is purely a child of the 20th century. Actually it is almost as much an innovation of the New Deal as labor relations act. It had been thought of before. In some measure, it had been tried out before, but never in the same way and with the consistency that it is today.

Four Years Ago

By The Associated Press
Oct. 2, 1940—German artillery continues to shell Dover; residents take daily refuge in ancient caves used as wine vaults. Germans acknowledge British planes have caused fire damage to cities in western reich.

The life blood of the formulae is the action of the nations. It is by what they have done on the battlefields of Europe, what they will do on the battlefields of Asia, how they participate in the settlement with our enemies, how they collaborate in the real problems of rehabilitation and reconstruction—not by theoretical formulae to cover imaginary issues—that the world organization will grow and prosper, or languish and die.

It is therefore by the perpetuation of the grand alliance, and by the pacification of the violence and disorder with which the alliance contends, that the plans of peace which we formulate will in fact become realizable.

Farmers Gin Co.

Opens Season With High Hopes

The Farmers Gin company at 105 N. W. Third has begun the 1944 fall season with higher hopes than t he m anagement would have thought after a summer of heat and drought.

Thus far 212 bales of cotton have been ginned of this season which began early in September. The Farmers gin expects to have a run of about 3,000 bales, W. S. Satterwhite, manager, said Monday.

The reason for a slow start has not been a lack of cotton pickers, Satterwhite said. The cotton is not opening early this season and the gatherers are waiting for the crop to mature.

The plant is in good mechanical order despite the fact that there is often a shortage of machine parts. The manager of the Farmer's gin said that they have been fortunate in obtaining all the necessary repair parts.

The corporation was organized in 1928 and is owned by some 100 farmers from this area.

Central Training Command Pilots Will Be Retained For Five Weeks

Students in the Central Training Command pilot schools will be retained in the phases of training in which they are currently engaged for an additional five weeks commencing Oct. 18, it was announced today by Brig. Gen. Walter F. Krause, commanding general.

A War Department announcement from Washington D. C., said that the temporary retention in phase was directed by Army Air Forces headquarters "because the Army's reservoir of pilots is filled."

Post Theatre Has Off-Screen Mystery

There was a mystery in the post theatre at the Big Spring Bombarrier school Sunday, but it wasn't shown on the screen. The "whodunit" entitled "The Mystery of the Missing Reels," had theatre officials trying to figure out today what happened to the last three reels of the feature picture scheduled for Sunday.

A large crowd gathered at the theatre to see David O. Selznick's extravaganza of the homefront, "Since You Went Away." But when the truck arrived from Midland bearing the film, Sgt. David Baker of the theatre staff discovered three reels were missing.

Whether the reels had rolled out of the truck enroute to Big Spring could not be determined, but it was too late to send an SOS to the Army Motion Picture Service at Dallas for extra film.

Johnston Favors High Wage Scale

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (AP)—Eric A. Johnston, president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, said today in a statement prepared for the war labor board that he favors high wages but opposes lifting existing wage ceilings because, he argued, that might lead to inflation and then to deflation.

"After the last war we had inflation followed by deflation," he said. "We must avoid that mistake this time."

Johnston appeared as an industry spokesman at the board's hearings on the demands of labor for wage increases which would crack the "little steel" formula, keystone of the nation's wage stabilization policy.

Early Settling Of Polish Fight Is Said Fading

LONDON, Oct. 2 (AP)—Hopes of an early settlement of the Polish controversy faded today in the wake of a bitter new attack upon Premier Stanislaw Mikolajczyk's exile government in London by the rival Soviet-sponsored national committee of Liberation in Moscow.

The attack, delivered by President Osuka Morawski of the national committee at a Moscow press conference, posed grave new diplomatic problems for both Britain and the United States, which are understood here to have assured Mikolajczyk of their support.

Morawski bitterly denounced the exile government for its action in naming Gen. Tadeusz Komorowski as commander in chief of Polish forces to succeed Gen. Kizimierz Sosnkowski, whom Mikolajczyk's government had dismissed in a bid for the friendship of the Moscow committee.

Characterizing the action of the London government as "crazy," Morawski expressed the determination of his committee to bring to criminal trial those in the exile regime whom it regards as responsible for the untimely Warsaw uprising. A bulletin from Komorowski's headquarters last night described the position of the patriot forces in Warsaw as critical.

Manufacturer Asks WLB To Hold Scale

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (AP)—The president of the national association of manufacturers called on the War Labor Board today to "be fair to those who fight as well as those who work for victory" by standing firm on the little steel wage formula.

Asserting that neither a general wage increase nor a general price increase would be in the public interest now, Robert M. Gaylord said in a statement prepared for submission to the board:

"It is unfortunate that a decision on this issue has been postponed until this time when circumstances make it a political football."

He appeared as an industry spokesman at hearings the board is conducting on labor's demands that the little steel formula be scrapped.

Library Announces New Opening Hours

The Howard County Free Library announced new hours of opening in order to better accommodate working patrons and school children. ### Quota Emphasize Need For Recaps

New tire quotas for the Lubbock District continue to emphasize the necessity for widespread recapping, not only of passenger car tires, but all truck and bus tires as well, according to rationing Executive Ely Fonville of the Office of Price Administration.

Most Of France's Art Treasures Safe

LONDON, Oct. 2 (AP)—Most of France's national art treasures, including the renowned Bayeux tapestry, the Mona Lisa and the Venus de Milo are safe, a supreme headquarters commission has disclosed.

Lt. Col. G. F. Webb, former Slade professor of fine arts at the University of Cambridge and now adviser to the monuments, fine arts and archives section of supreme headquarters, said the Bayeux tapestry was found in the vaults of the Louvre when Allied troops entered Paris, although the Vichy government tried to have it removed.

Formal Opening October 9th Is Scheduled For New Locker Setup

The Big Spring Locker company plant at 100 Goliad street, owned and operated by Marvin Sewell and Jim Kinsey, will be opened formally Monday, Oct. 9, it was announced Saturday.

However, the company is accepting bookings on livestock to be slaughtered and processed. No more than 12 head can be accepted for processing per day, but the amount of custom slaughtering is not held to this limit.

City-Wide Revival Scheduled Locally

Plans for a city-wide revival to be conducted here Nov. 27 through Dec. 8 at the First Baptist church were discussed by members of the Big Spring Pastor's association who convened at the First Christian church early Monday.

The Rev. H. Clyde Smith, reporting for the revival committee, announced that the Rev. Clovis G. Chappell had accepted the invitation to lead in the annual revival and Walter Jenkins was named as preference for singer at the meeting.

The Rev. H. Clyde Smith and the Rev. James E. Moore, committee in charge of the high school Bible class, brought a report to the effect that the plan for dispensing with the class for this school term and undertaking a plan of attempting to put the program on more nearly a full-time basis met with full agreement by Superintendent W. C. Blankenship.

Germans May Have Lost Three Islands

LONDON, Oct. 2 (AP)—The Germans were reported from Cairo today to have given up three islands off the southern tip of Greece in the face of British commando attacks while other advances told of Allied forces driving into Greece from the northwest and of Partisans fighting in the vicinity of Athens.

Three Nazis Tried On Treason Charge

LONDON, Oct. 2 (AP)—Three prominent Germans—one of them editor of Hermann Goering's newspaper, National Zeitung—will be tried on charges of treason, according to information today from German border sources.

The editor, Count Schwerin, has been accused of complicity in the abortive bomb plot against Hitler. So has Dr. Gessler, a non-Nazi who once served as minister of War in the Weimar republic and who also is facing a Himmler trial.

The third defendant was listed as General Wagner, who allegedly refused to follow a direct order from Hitler to fortify certain Bavarian and Austrian sectors as a last line of defense on the ground that he did not want to see Germany turned into a battleground.

Red Cross Begins Work In Colorado

COLORADO CITY, Oct. 2 —Volunteers in the Red Cross surgical dressings projects assigned Mitchell county will begin work again Monday at 1 p. m., it has been announced by Mrs. J. W. Watson, county director of battle sponge making. A new shipment of gauze has arrived and the work rooms at junior high school will be reopened. Material for the making of 18,000 sponges in the 4x4 and the 4x8 sizes has been received.

The work rooms in Colorado City are kept open from 1 p. m. until 5 each school day and are open to business women two evenings each week.

Colorado City Will Close Stores V-Day

COLORADO CITY, Oct. 2 —Whenever the European campaign ends with Allied victory over Germany, merchants in Colorado City will celebrate the day with the immediate closing of all business houses it was decided after business men were polled by the chamber of commerce here.

Union services will be held on V-Day at the First Baptist church. Should news of the ceasing of hostilities in Europe reach here before 10 a. m. citizens will gather at the church at 11 a. m. if the word comes later in the day, the services will be held at 8:30 in the evening.

Ducks Head South Early This Season

WESLACO, Oct. 2 (AP)—Ducks are winging down the Texas coast to the Rio Grande border, well ahead of the winter season and as far as ever, says state game warden Charles G. Jones, who surveyed a few flights of ducks while patrolling this area during the recent white-wing season.
