A public corn hearing which will affect Bailey County will be in Austin April 28, according to Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown. The hearing will begin at 10:30 a.m. in Room 1046 of the Stephen F. Austin building.

He said the purpose of the meeting is to determine if the Texas Corn Producers Association is representative of the growers in 18 counties and will be capable of holding a referendum.

Charles Moraw and Dickie Hunter have both been included in the 1977 edition of Outstanding Young Men of America, according to an announcement late this week.

The Outstanding Young Men of America program is co-sponsored by the United States Jaycees and other leading men's civic and service organizations throughout the nation.

Muleshoe Teacher Named Outstanding

"A Teacher is Forever" was the theme for the annual TSTA Public Relations Banquet Thursday night in the high school cafeteria. Bright spring decorations enhanced the setting as approximately 175 teachers, educators, and special guests, representing many facets of community life, gathered for the occasion. Mike Richardson, outgoing TSTA local president, welcomed guests and presided over the events for the evening. Speaker for the evening was Lloyd Bell, director of Public Relations for the state TSTA organization, from Austin. Some of his comments included congratulations to the group for community interest, for showing "total commitment" to education.

"We must stand together as a total, complete community to promote the program of education," he said. Bell gave the definition of public relations as "The art of making friends before you need them." He also boosted the art of effective

Muleshoe, boosting prospects for crop planting.

In Muleshoe, approximately three inches was received in the rains which started on April 13, and continued intermittently through Thursday, April 21. Only on Wednesday was any severe weather reported locally, and this was along the county line south of Maple.

C.P. Price reported to the ASC office in Muleshoe 100 percent damage to a wheat crop. He said the small hail, which filled the furrows, had damaged his wheat beyond what could be salvaged. Price indicated that he and Keith Price planned to plow their crop under and start over.

Other hail damage was reported by Don Lowe and Bobby Kindler, both in the same area. Although very small hail was reported in the area of the old Bula school buildings, no damage was reported.

Around Bula, Wanda Leigon at Claunch Gin, said they had a total of approximately three inches of rain and dryland farmers were expected to fill their allowed cotton acreages this year. She also said that some farmers were planting grain sorghum at this time, and planting would be full scale as soon as farmers could get back in the fields.

Conrad Williams of Buffalo farms said he had received an average of two inches on his Cont. on Page 3, Col. 5 communication, adding that communication encompasses understanding, cooperation and progress.

In citing the role of a teacher, he said, "A teacher is a teacher, a friend, a part-time parent and a referee."

Although he agreed that a teacher should be accountable for a student, he also reminded that the school administrators, school board members, legislators, parents and most of all, the student, must be accountable in seeing that the student gets the best possible education.

Presented the Young Educator award was Barbara Finney, third grade teacher at Mary DeShazo Elementary School. In private life, Mrs. Finney is married to Bob Finney of Muleshoe State Bank, and they are the parents of a son, Alan, and a daughter, Michelle.

Presentation of the award was made by Gene McGuire, Jaycee President. Each year, the Jay- Cont. on Page 3, Col. 3

BRITISH GROUP STUDY EXCHANGE VISITS ROTARY... Muleshoe Rotary welcomed five men from London, England during their regular meeting Thursday at noon. The five men are touring a portion of the United States on a Group Study Exchange Tour.

Rotary Hosts British Study Exchange Group Thursday

Following an introduction by Bob Finney at the noon meeting of the Muleshoe Rotary on Thursday, in a precise English voice, Ronald Preston said, "We are delighted to be here, and we are having a wonderful day." He was group leader of a group of exchange study Rotarians from London, England.

Preston said the group was touring the United States and meeting people as they "developed acquaintances." He presented a banner from his Rotary Club in England to the local organization.

He praised the informality, hospitality, and friendliness of the people they had met during the six weeks tour, as he made friendly suggestions on further developing the local Rotary Club. One suggestion was for the Rotarians to wear their Rotary pins, and be recognized

If you are one of the people who receives your paper late Saturday afternoon, you still have time to plan to attend the Miss Tri-County Beauty Pageant Saturday night. as members of an International organization which he praised. Preston also urged local Rotarians to get involved, suggesting that the members could have no conception of the effect if they just become involved in local and world affairs.

Five of the six members of the tour group attended the meeting and spoke briefly. The sixth, Ian Clark, had become ill and was in bed in Plainview with a "touch of pneumonia, caused by the rainy weather."

Another member, Simon Browne, who manufactures wooden components for "do it yourself" type stores, gave a brief background sketch and saying, "I had preconceived ideas of America, Texas and foreigners in general. I have also found that my preconceptions were all wrong. Everyone has been friendly and we have found a good exchange of ideas, finding that we all have the same goal, similar problems and getting an idea of American way of life through staying with families in the private homes." He also said he thought the idea of the staid, unsmiling Englishman was

Fingerprint School Here For Officers

South Plains Association of Governments completed a fingerprint school for law enforcement officers in Muleshoe this week. Seventeen law enforcement officers from Texas and New Mexico attended the five-day school, conducted by Harold K. Henniger.

Muleshoe officers included, Claude A (Buddy) Black, city police chief; J.R. Carpenter, assistant chief; Fabian Flores, Wayne Holmes and Jimmy Mills, patrolmen; Pete Black, deputy Sheriff and Dick Pylant, investigator for the district attorney's office.

New Mexico officers were Ronald L. White, Lovington, N.M., police department and Johnny Paiz, Portales, N.M. police department.

Also, Jimmy E. McDonald and Joyce A. Gist, Denver City police department; Ronald Mitchell, city marshal, Farwell; Bill Morgan, deputy sheriff, Friona; Johnny Arroyo, Jonnie Narramore and Randy L. Wesley, Littlefield police department; and J.B. Douglas, Lubbock sheriff's office.

At the end of the school, they were presented certificates designating their completion of the special course on fingerprinting, and fingerprint classification.

Early Fire Guts Local Mobile Home

A hungry baby alerted residents around West Sixth and Avenue J of a fire which destroyed a mobile home at that location early Saturday morning. The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Carter woke her parents around 5 a.m. and when Mrs. Carter got up to feed the baby, she noticed the sky was glowing red. Waking her husband after a quick look out the window, immediate action started.

Carter notified the law enforcement center of a fire at the Randy Lackey mobile home, parked adjacent to the brick home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O.M. Lackey. Carter also called Nick Immel, who resides just east of the Lackey home.

When the fire was discovered, it had already gutted the large mobile home, and the southwest corner of the O.M. Lackey's brick home was beginning to burn. Less than five minutes after the firemen were called, they started arriving and laying fire hoses. They first extinguished the fire which had started burning on the roof and one window of the brick home, and putting down the leaping flames from the mobile home.

Carter said Lackey had left home earlier in the week, and was not in town at the time of the fire. His parents were found to be uninjured in their home, which was approximately four feet from the mobile home.

They had slight smoke damage inside their home. Muleshoe Volunteer Fire Department Chief H.E. Reeder, Jr. said the mobile home had been heavily damaged twice previously, however, both times were from wind damage.

When the mobile home was located on the Lackey farm in southwest Bailey County, near the New Mexico line, it received heavy wind damage and was repaired and moved to town. It was damaged again in heavy winds which hit Muleshoe just over a year ago.

Although the fire chief could not pinpoint a cause for the fire as no one was home at the time it broke out, he said most of the damage appeared to be in an area near a television set, with a possible electrical shortage being the culprit.

"We have been staggered by the hospitality we have received," said Dick Harper, also from London, who supervises the printing of English banknotes, similar to United States paper money.

Harper also gave a brief background sketch, and commented on what the group has learned since traveling in the United States and Texas. He, along with all the speakers, expressed their appreciation to Rotary International and the special foundation which makes the tours possible.

"Memories and personal contacts are the main things I find that I am gaining from this trip," said Gray Hetherington, a London solicitor. A solicitor from England would be a lawyer or attorney in the U.S. and Hetherington recounted several humorous instances where he has found the sign "No Soliciting" on businesses in the U.S. He also mentioned other uses for the expression and word in this nation.

He also said that when he found "Muleshoe, Texas" on his travel itinerary and the Jimmie Dean Sausage Plant at Plainview, his interest was heightened in the trip to this country. He said the name Jimmie Dean is one that is known in England.

Forward!-- DST Starts For Summer

Psst! Psst! Forgot, didn't 'cha! You got up too late to make it to church? And you didn't even get to work on time! What a shame, and it always happens this time of the year. You forgot to turn your clock ahead an hour.

This morning (Sunday), at 2 a.m. is the official time to turn your clock forward for six months, regardless of your own personal feelings, that has been approved, and that is what you will have to do.

Most people set their clocks forward at bedtime on Saturday night until the last weekend in October when they change again. Of course, if you are a resident of Arizona, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, or American Samoa, you don't have to bother with it, their time never changes.

Or, if you live in Indian, some counties have elected to adopt the Daylight Savings Time Clock change, and others have elected to stay on Central Standard Time. This means that clocks agree with each other in Indian

Or, if you live in Indiana, some counties have elected to adopt the Daylight Savings Time Clock change, and others have elected to stay on Central Standard Time. This means that clocks agree with each other in Indiana for only six months of the year. Remember the old rule of thumb on how to set your clock, "Spring Forward - Fall Back" and you will remember next time to set your clock so you can join the millions of others who groan as they get out of bed an hour earlier.

Jaycees Seek Flag Project Participation

Muleshoe Jaycees have a year round project which they are very proud to call their own. The Jaycee Flag Project has been well accepted by local merchants who utilize the service. Kenny Kittrell, chairman of the project said, "This project is run to assist the local merchants in the displaying of our nation's proudest symbol, Old Glory."

On official holidays, the Jaycees are out early in the morning, placing flags in front of participating businesses. In this way, Kittrell explained, the Jaycees save a merchant from having to get out on that holiday and put the flag on display. At the end of the day, the Jaycees again go out and pick up the flags for storage until the next Cont. on Page 3, Col. 1 try? The crop is cotton, of course. Formerly a top cotton producing county, it is beginning to look as though cotton is once again edging toward one of the major crops planned for production, with cotton gins and preparing for expected "bumper" crops in the fall.

Unusual April moisture, amounting to more than three inches in the normally dry southern part of the county, along with better prices, plays a major part in the change to more cotton. It was explained that cotton does not require as much water as corn or other crops, and fields will be ready to plant when they are dried out a little next week.

Earl Richards of Muleshoe Co-op Gin, said he expects approximately twice as much cotton as last year, and that if weather holds, the cotton crop will be comparable to crops produced ten to 15 years ago.

Also predicting a substantial increase in cotton production is the ASC office in Muleshoe. A spokeswoman at the office said the increase is expected to be more than a third, and up to a half more than was produced last year. Some growers are purchasing leases from other counties, she said, and are bringing the leased acreages into this county for production. Also, seed salesmen have told the ASC office that up to 40 percent less seed corn has been sold in this county this year than was sold last year.

"The recent rainfall has really soaked the soil and will allow planting around May 1," adds Bailey County Extension Agent Spencer Tanksley. Although he was not particularly aware of a planned great increase in cotton planting, he conceded that such plans are possible. He did say, "I would like to caution producers in regards to planting cotton before soil temperatures warm to above 60 degrees."

"There is a shortage of high quality cotton planting seed, therefore producers need to wait until the soil temperature is high enough to get good germination," he continued.

The county agent said that some irrigated land is ready to plant now, but producers will have to hold off until the soil has dried out some following the recent soaking rains.

"This will make us a little later on corn planting," he said. "But, apparently corn is 50 percent planted at this time. All the moisture we have received will benefit wheat, alfalfa, range lands and home owners with their yards."

"I cannot see cotton production the same as it was 15 years ago," said Ernest Kerr of the Federal Land Bank. "All the county looks real good right now, and a few producers are planning more cotton, but I don't see any basic increase in the acreages for cotton."

He said he did expect corn and grain sorghum production to be down some in the area.

PEAKER, OUTSTANDING YOUNG EDUCATOR AND JAYCEES... Lloyd Bell, left, public relations director for TSTA from Austin, was special guest speaker at the TSTA banquet Thursday, and posed proudly with Muleshoe's Outstanding Young Educator, Mrs. Bob (Barbara) Finney, and Jaycee resident Gene McGuire, who made the award presentation on behalf of the Muleshoe Jaycees.

EARLY MORNING FIRE GUTS MOBILE HOME... An early morning fire Saturday completely destroyed a mobile home at West Sixth and Avenue J in Muleshoe. The home was occupied by Randy Lackey, who was away from home at the time of the fire. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. O.M. Lackey, reside in a home adjacent to the mobile home. Their brick home received some fire and smoke damage. No one was injured in the 5 a.m. fire.

Watch Pet Kittens For Rabies Signs

Kittens are supposed to be fluffy, playful creatures who love to test their claws and teeth on anyone who plays with them.

But when the playful kitten displays real antagonism and becomes ill, there's the possibility of rabies, reports the Bureau of Veterinary Public Health of the Texas Department of Health Resources.

That's what happened during 1975 to a kitten which earlier had survived an attack by a skunk on a farm. It was brought to Austin and given away as a pet. The kitten died soon after being put under surveillance by a veterinarian. The Department of Health Resources Laboratory in Austin confirmed that the kitten was a victim of rabies.

As a result, 14 persons who handled and suffered the normal biting and scratching of the kitten underwent a series of rabies shots.

This story had a happy ending for all those involved.

In fact, there were no rabies cases among humans in Texas during all of 1976 although the Department of Health Resources supply 920 series of antibiotics treatments to residents here. The last documented case of human death attributed to natural exposure to the rabies virus in Texas was in 1962. During 1972 one human death was attributed to exposure to the rabies virus in a laboratory. Rabies, despite the low number of human cases, still is one of the most terrifying diseases which can affect man. It is still found in wild animals and is a constant threat to unvaccinated domestic animals and pets, especially in rural settings.

Rabies was confirmed in 345 animals in Texas last year, an increase from the 329 cases confirmed by laboratory tests in 1975, reports the Department of Health Resources. Of the total number, 16 were found positive in laboratories at Fort Sam Houston and Brooks Air Force Base.

The number of dog rabies cases increased slightly in 1976, from 25 the previous year to just 28 - 17 in Laredo in December. But in the cat population, rabies dropped from 20 cases in 1975 to 12 in 1976 -- proof that rabies vaccinations are in order for cats, too. Total dog and cat cases decreased to 40 last year from 45 the previous year.

As expected year after year, wild animals accounted for the most confirmed cases -- 288 during 1976 representing an increase of 25 cases over 1975.

Biggest offender was the skunk with 204 cases. Bats accounted for 70 cases, foxes for eight cases, raccoons for five cases, and one coyote.

Rabies cases are widespread throughout Texas. Of the 345 cases reported last year 93 of Texas' 254 counties had at least one.

In identifying rabies cases in Texas, the Department of Health Resources Laboratories examined a total of 7,566 specimens as suspected rabies cases. These represented more than 51 animal species during 1976. Dog and cat specimens were the most common received at the laboratory -- and represented small percentages of positive cases per test. Tests were run on 2,141 dogs in finding 28 positives, while the 2,012 cats tested showed 13 positives. Almost a third of the skunks tested were positive for rabies.

MORE SERVICE PIN RECIPIENTS . . . Also receiving service pins at the banquet honoring teachers, educators, and special guests Thursday night were from left, Mike Richardson, five years; Mrs. Bob Sanders, 25 years; Mrs. Edith Henderson, 15 years; Mrs. Mabel Wolfe, 15 years; Mrs. Floree Peugh, 30 years and Mrs. Helen Bryant, 25 years.

A lot of work is performed in pinpointing positive rabies cases, but you can't take chances with rabies.

The chances of a human surviving a case of rabies is virtually nil. A six-year-old Ohio boy was the first recorded case of a human surviving the dreaded "mad dog" disease, according to the National Center for Disease Control. Another survivor has been reported since then, in Argentina. Rabies virus attacks the nervous system, the heart, the lungs, the brain, and "You can die from any one of a half-dozen different problems," according to a spokesman for the Center for Disease Control.

The Ohio youngster received intensive supported care which saved his life. He is reported as a normal, healthy boy now -- some five years later.

Rabies declined in Texas last year, but there's always the possibility of outbreaks as long as the disease is prevalent in wildlife, says the Veterinary Public Health Bureau of the Department of Health Resources. It advises all pet owners to have their pets vaccinated against the disease and to always avoid contact with any wild animal which acts friendly or peculiar and seems to have no fear of man. These animals could be rabid.

Track Meet At Plainview

Seven defending champions and a host of other quality performers highlight the field for the 14th annual All-College Track and Field Meet on Friday, April 29, in Waland Bowl on the Wayland Baptist College campus in Plainview.

West Texas State will be a slight favorite over Texas Tech though the Raiders won last year's meet with 140 to 125 1/2 for WT. Wayland was third with 67 1/2 and Eastern New Mexico scored 60. Also in the field will be Lubbock Christian, McMurry, New Mexico State and Southwestern, Oklahoma.

Prelims and field finals start at 3 p.m. with running finals at 5:15, beginning with a Master's Mile for local businessmen. Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for children under 12.

Last year, West Texas and Tech each won seven events in the 17-event card. Kenyan distance runner Joseph Kemei won the mile and three-mile while Tech was led by William Pierson's double victory in the 220 and 440.

Wayland's Randy Lightfoot leads the nation's NAIA high hurdles with a 13.65 while Zach Cummings of WT has run 13.75 and David Willis of the Canyon school has done 13.9. Kemei recently ran a 4:01.5 mile and could be the first ever to break the magical four-minute barrier in Plainview. WBC's Kevin Shaw, top three-miler in the NAIA with a 13:46.1, will battle Tech's Greg Lautenslager who has turned 13:51.79.

Matching afterburners in the 100 will be WT's Alvis Wright who has clocked 9.4 and Charles Green of Tech with a wind-aided 9.5. ICC's Ricky Moore has high jumped 6-11. Canadian Olympian Jim McAndrew of Tech has long jumped 25-1 1/4. J.O. Amoah of Eastern has triple jumped 48 feet. Wayland's Bruce Basye has thrown the javelin 210-3, Dennis Diaz of New Mexico State has heaved the shot 55 feet, Tommy Humphries of WT has pole vaulted 15-3, and Marc Taylor of Tech has thrown the discus 163-7.

Funds used from the project are used for the expenses of buying new flags and materials to prepare the display stand for the flag. Any balance helps Jaycees with their numerous other projects throughout the year.
Kittrell reminded that to the traveler driving through our town, the flags provide an impressive sight.
"Little do they realize what is involved with the display of our flag, but it makes a town very thankful to have a young man's organization to have so much pride in his country and his flag to be willing to see that flags are on display for the local citizens and the tourists," he concluded.

The main priority is to emphasize preventative medicine, he added, which through that means and education will keep people out of the hospital, or get them out of hospitals and mental institutions.

4-H Teams Competing At Lubbock

Two teams from the Progress 4-H Horse Club and two rifle teams from the Bailey County 4-H Club competed at the District meeting in Lubbock last weekend.
The senior horse judging team was second in the competition and Casey Farmers was also second high individual in the same competition. Other team members included Curtis Carpenter, Tommy Wheeler and Sharla Farmer.
They will compete for state honors at Texas A&M University, College Station, June 7, 8 and 9.
Being only 31 points away from first place, the junior horse judging team came in fourth of the twelve teams entered. Team members included Belinda Wheeler, Delia Shaw, Kim Farmer and Sharon Carpenter. Sharon also received second place individual high point honors.
Joe Wheeler is coach for the horse judging teams and praised his young horse judging members.
Under guidance of Jim Shafer, rifle leader, two rifle teams also competed at Lubbock, and both teams placed fifth in the competition.
Shooting from prone, kneeling and standing positions, Terry Shafer, was named eighth high individual, shooting a 232 of a possible 300.
The fifth place junior rifle team members were Alan Harrison, Curtis Wheeler, Curtis Hunt and Benton Glaze.
Bailey County Agent Spencer Tanksley said both Shafer and Wheeler should be highly commended for their continuous work with the 4-H youth teams.

City Receives Tax Rebate Of $4,402.99

Comptroller Bob Bullock mailed checks totaling $16.2 million to Texas cities and towns Friday, representing the April rebate of the one-cent sales tax they assess.
Muleshoe received a check for $4,402.99 which is three percent higher than the $4,131.31 received at the same time last year. Also, the year's total is $37,169.05, reflecting a slight increase over the $35,783.84 of the same time last year.
Bullock said his office has historically retained 4.76 percent of the cities' sales tax collections to cover refunds or bad checks. Bullock said this amount has been reduced to two percent, so that cities now will receive nearly three percent more of their sales tax promptly for spending or investment.

farms and although the moisture was "very welcome, additional moisture would be more than welcome."
J.E. Birdwell at Coyote Feed Yards and Ranch operations, said he had received an average of three inches of rain in the western part of the county, with Mrs. J.D. Bayless reporting the accumulated total at 3.2 inches, around Enochs.
Around Lariat, around three inches was the general report, with farmers, especially those who had previously irrigated, waiting for the land to dry out enough for them to get into the fields to plant.
East and northeast of Muleshoe, accumulations were a little lighter, with Ken Angeley in the Pleasant Valley community reporting approximately 2.25 inches, as did Foster Fertilizer at Lazbuddie.
No hail damage was reported north or northeast of Muleshoe, although both Littlefield and Anton had heavy hailstorms Wednesday afternoon.
National Weather Service had predicted bright, sunshiny skies for the next several days, with nighttime temperatures being in the low 40s for Friday night, and reaching the mid 70s Saturday afternoon. Sunday was expected to be in the 80s, and dry and warm temperatures reaching through next Tuesday.

ATTENTION Farmers...

reduction in the sale of seed corn was found. Without exception, they all predicted no more than a 10 percent reduction in corn production in the county, according to their sales and talks with corn producers.
With the cloudy and cool weather of the past ten days, Tanksley said he expects farmers not to be able to get back into their fields until approximately mid-week. "Everyone is optimistic now, following the rains, and are looking toward top crops. Another one to two inches on dryland farms would be especially beneficial if it is in the very near future," continued the County Agent.
With a general two to three inches of rain across the county, more moisture is in the total soil profile and presently the county has the best soil conditions for dryland farmers than at anytime during the past three years, he said.
Tanksley also anticipates approximately the same acreage as last year devoted to vegetable production, and said that potatoes are 100 percent planted at this time, along with onions which will be harvested in mid-July and August. He said the markets look good for the early planted onions.
Other vegetables will be planted around the first of May, including tomatoes, cucumbers, cabbages and carrots.
Plans were finalized in Muleshoe Tuesday for a special one acre plot which will have a pepper disease variety nursery. The special plot will be planted on the Loyd Williams farm nine miles west of Muleshoe on Highway 84. Tanksley said they hope to gain additional information on the pepper mosaic disease that hit the local pepper crop last year.
He also said one man tentatively has plans to plant 20-30 acres of seedless watermelons.

Bobcat Has Many Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huston of Wheatland, Wyoming, have a very unusual traveling companion and pet. Fang a beautiful bobcat, caught around Boomer, Wyoming, is very gentle around people, but not too friendly towards dogs.

Fang was found by the Hustons seven years ago on Mother's Day. There is a letter of verification from the Parks and Wildlife officials giving the Hustons full "custody" of Fang. This came about from questioning from a Highway Patrolman. Fang is house trained and good around children. He has attended school and received a report card for his attendance. While in Davidson, Okla., for a class reunion, Fang was allowed to attend classes with grade school students.

As a mascot of Montana State University, Fang must surely take sports in his stride. Large groups of people are part of his life, too. The Hustons enjoy travel and Fang has seen much of the western United States, such as Yellowstone National Park and Groman's Chinese Theatre.

A very gentle animal, Fang is very active and will not stay still for very long periods of time. Mrs. Huston has a hard time getting Fang to take a bath or even to be combed.

The Hustons don't suggest bobcats or any other wild animal to become pets for children or anyone. These animals were born to nature and the wild and they believe that's where the animals should stay. But in their situation, Fang has lived a civilized life and would not make it alone and in the wild.

Girl Scout Fund Drive Starts April 25

Plans are underway for an upcoming Girl Scout Fund Drive in Muleshoe reports Beth Johnson, Field Director for the Muleshoe area with Caprock Girl Scout Council. Tommy Merritt, manager of Piggly Wiggly, who has a third grade Brownie in the program, has been named chairman of the drive.

Merritt's task is to raise Muleshoe's 1977 Fair Share toward the Girl Scout Council operating budget. The Fair Share is $2,135, a figure drawn up by the council's finance committee, a group of volunteer men and women who serve the council in an advisory capacity. Each of the 33 towns with active Girl Scouting in the council's 18 county area are asked to contribute a fair share based on the number of girls in the program, the population and income of the town.

Merritt will have 20 or more workers. Howard Watson, past Girl Scout Fund Drive chairman, has played an active initial part in organizing the drive and recruiting workers, as has Mrs. Joe King, Field Services Chairman for the Muleshoe-Farwell Service Unit.

The approach to raising the $2,135 is to conduct a business drive, with individuals being able to contribute directly to an account for Muleshoe State Bank. Fund drive workers will contact businesses during a two-week period, beginning April 25 and ending May 6.

The council operating budget provides for nine paid staff members who serve adult volunteers (over 1,000) and girls

(over 4,000) with secretarial, bookkeeping, and advisory assistance. The operating budget provides for regular mailing of information to leaders and all registered adults, regular visits by executive staff, training of leaders, camp supervision, organizational materials, special visits by executive staff when requested, processing registrations and issuing membership cards, maintaining resale of insignia, pins, etc., program resource materials, publicity materials, all planning for program, camps and organizations.

In addition to the operating budget which is derived from United Way campaigns and Girl Scout fund drives, the council is able to offer services through a camp and special activities budget which is derived from the annual sale of Girl Scout Cookies. After individual troops retain their profits from the cookie sale, remaining profit goes into this budget to enable the council to maintain its camp and to fund special projects and trips such as council-wide events and trips for girls to Austin, Wyoming and Mexico.

Exceptional Children Seminars Scheduled

The proposed new Texas State Plan for the Education of Exceptional Children will be reviewed by school officials, parents, and other concerned citizens in a series of 40 public hearings to be held throughout the state, April 25 - May 5.

Based primarily on Texas legislation, the plan also includes elements of the federal Education of Handicapped Children Act of 1975, according to Don Partridge, Texas Education Agency associate commissioner for special education and special schools.

Two public meetings will be held by each of the state's 20 regional education service centers, one scheduled during the day and one at night.

Members of the Texas Education Agency staff will be present at each of the sessions to gather information from citizens presenting either oral or written comments, Partridge said. Additional written comments must be received at the Agency office in Austin by May 10 in order to have an impact on the final draft, he added.

The plan will be submitted to the State Board of Education for final policy approval at its June 11 meeting in Austin.

The new plan places primary responsibility for the education of each handicapped child within the local school district, Partridge points out.

"Each district must find all the handicapped youngsters in its area and make certain they receive the kind of attention and resources they need," he says. "If the child is not able to attend the regular public school, the district may contact for services with a sheltered workshop or some other community agency."

Each child may be evaluated by a team which includes both educators and his or her parents before being placed in special education. Then, the student's progress will be checked informally by the committee every three months with a formal review scheduled for the end of the year.

Texas is committed to provide educational services to all handicapped children by 1978, Partridge adds.

The public hearing schedule follows:

Region I, 1900 West Schunior, Edinburg -- May 2, 1:30 p.m. and 7 p.m.; Region II, Emerald Beach Holiday Inn, Corpus Christi -- May 3, 1:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.; Region III, 1905 Leary Lane, Victoria -- May 5, 1:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.; Region IV, Weldon-Phillips Fieldhouse, 2902 Dabney, Pasadena -- April 25, 1 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.; Region V, St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, 1350 23rd Street, Beaumont -- April 26, 1 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.; Region VI, 626 University Ave., Huntsville -- April 26, 1:30 p.m. and 7 p.m.; Region VII, 818 East Main Street, Kilgore -- May 3, 1:30 p.m. and 7 p.m.; Region VIII, 100 N. ## Farmers Union Voices Views On Fuel Taxes

A group of farm leaders, representing various counties from across the state on the Texas Farmers Union Board of Directors, have unanimously stated that they hope the Administration will exempt agriculture in any consideration of fuel taxes to discourage usage.

The farm group stated in a resolution that "the farmers is already the most efficient industrial consumer of fuels in America" and that any tax on his operating fuel "will only add to the cost of producing food and further inflation."

Texas Farmers Union also went on record as opposing two research and promotion groups, Cotton Incorporated and the proposed and soon to be voted on Beef Research and Information Act. The farm organization alleges that once the act has been voted on by the producers in a referendum and passed, all producer control and democratic representation are lost.

Said one spokesman, "These boards who gain control of the producers' dollars soon become dominated by special interest groups who do not necessarily represent producers. The undemocratic system is perpetuated by a lack of clear-cut criteria for determining who is a qualified special interest group; how many, if any, producers a group must represent; and whether each should get one vote regardless of its size."

"The end result is that a few groups maneuver for control are established. If this problem could be remedied during the drafting of enabling legislation, many of our members could support such a program which would benefit producers. We urge the Secretary of Agriculture and Congress to take another look at these programs."

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:
Enclosed is a copy of letter that I am mailing to Honorable Bill Clayton on this date. I would certainly appreciate you publishing this letter as a service to those of us who are against weather modification.

I would also like to add my voice to that of Mr. Merlin Roberts, whose letter to the editor was published April 14, 1977, asking that all concerned citizens write to Speaker of the House, Bill Clayton, asking that House Bill 1108 and Senate Bill 632, be passed into law giving us a right to vote on whether we want cloud seeding or not.

In this connection I would like to add that since President Carter is calling on the nation to conserve energy, that if the farmers did not have to run their irrigation wells so much because of dry weather, that a whole lot of natural gas and other energy could be saved.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
Nolan H. Harlan
Director
Citizens For Natural Weather
Box 893
Bula, Texas, 79320

Dear Mr. Speaker:
In your letter of March 1, 1977, you stated you would like for me to call on you if you could be of further help to me concerning the hail suppression program that has been conducted since 1970 over Bailey and the surrounding counties. I am now requesting your every assistance in seeing that House Bill 1108 and Senate Bill 632 be presented, passed and signed into law so that the people in the area where weather modification is being conducted may have the right to vote on whether they want it or not. I understand that Senate Bill 632 is to come up before the Senate Natural Resources Committee on April 27.

My main concern is the recommendations of General Counsel Bruce Bigelow of the Texas Water Development Board, in which he recommends a four-year weather permit to be given to both Plains Weather Improvement Assn., Inc., and Atmospheric, Inc. I am enclosing a clipping from the Muleshoe Journal dated Thursday, April 14, 1977, Page Seven, containing a letter from Mr. Merlin Roberts, Director of Citizens for Natural Weather. The majority of the people in your district feel the same way as Roberts and I do. I am certainly in full agreement with him that farmers see planes tear their clouds up, and I am certainly in agreement with him that farmers are insulted "by the insinuation that we farmers and ranchers because of lack of some type of degree, do not know what we are seeing even though we have had the opportunity to observe clouds in the making, and raining all our lives".

Do you understand the extent of the cost to the dryland farmer in crops now, and in retirement income through Social Security in the farmers' retirement years? In addition to the loss of revenue from poor or no crops now because of dry weather, it will also decrease Social Security to each retired farmer, because the amount of Social Security he will get when he retires is based on how much income he had each year, and the amount of self employment tax he paid in. Also, our senior citizens that have worked hard all their lives, never spent their money foolishly, and are now forced on welfare when their farms should adequately take care of them, but it is not because of dry weather.

We farmers are told that we need to be schooled in cloud physics and meteorology to be able to tell the effects of a silver iodide injection into the clouds, and therefore our observations are not being considered, but please consider what the experts are saying about hail suppression and weather modification: G. Brant Foote of the National Center for Atmospheric Research in Boulder, Colo., who is a senior research scientist, had this to say on Tuesday, February 22, 1977, in a speech delivered to the American Association for the Advancement of Science that the "obvious danger to the farmer who decides to go ahead with cloud seeding in spite of a lack of compelling scientific evidence is that of adverse effects -- less rain and more hail". This was quoted in the Lubbock Avalanche Journal on Wednesday morning, February 23, 1977. He further stated that "Thus, the meteorologist's Kitty Hawk experiment may be flying undetected, but it may be flying backward instead of forward." Please consider this statement from a scientist, as well as what Mr. Merlin Roberts states he sees, and what I see, and what hundreds of other farmers in the area, in your district, see when these weather modification planes fly and modify our weather. The people in this area have a right to vote, and I hope that you will help us get that right. In fact, all the Commissioners Courts in this area tried last year to get the Texas Water Development Board not to issue a permit.

I have many other reasons than these that I could write to you concerning weather modification, but I do consider these valid, and I do think the people of this area should get a statement from Mr. Bruce Bigelow why he thinks the permit should be given when the American experts testify to the dangers that it has caused and may cause in the future. And like Mr. Roberts, I am insulted when I ask the Texas Water Development Board and Mr. Bigelow why they think that Mr. Foote (or Dr. Foote) is wrong in his statement, and they are right in theirs, and cannot get an answer.

In the Lubbock Avalanche Journal March 18, 1976, Mr. Thomas J. Henderson, owner and chief executive of Atmospherics, Inc., made the statement he would halt the program if a majority of persons in the affected areas voted against it. But in the hearings held in Lubbock on February 16 through 18 of this year, Mr. Henderson stated that it did not matter about the majority being against it, if it was legal he would do it regardless. Why is it that a person who makes statements as opposite as these, is the person who is believed by the Texas Water Development Board instead of the farmers who see that weather modification depresses rain?

On January 29, 1977, in a speech before the Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce, you made the statement: "We can't be certain that state government is going to survive over the next 50 years". I would like to say that if we cannot have a right to vote on things as serious as this, then you are right, state government cannot survive. That may be the reason why so many people appeal to Washington to override state government when these types of incidents are happening in spite of the majority of people's wishes.

Thank you for all your help in getting us a right to vote on weather modification.

Very truly yours,
Nolan H. Harlan

motorcycles and larger vehicles is an absolute must, reports Governor Dolph Briscoe. "In times of the need for more economical travel and an expanding transportation picture, we are finding an increased number of motorcycles on our streets and highways. With this increase comes an increase of the possibility of traffic accidents. We must, as drivers of cars or trucks, be totally aware of the motorcyclist as a part of the overall traffic flow.

"In 1975, 205 motorcyclists were killed. During 1976, 192 were killed. While this a slight reduction, the number of motorcycle registrations has begun to increase. Preliminary sales reports from dealers and statistics in Texas reveal a significant increase in the two-wheelers registered.

"Frequently at the accident site of a car-motorcycle crash, the automobile driver says he simply failed to see the motorcycle. This can best be remedied by careful observation and awareness of motorcyclists on rural roads, freeways and street intersections. We must recognize that motorcycling is an economical mode of transportation and a pleasurable ride for many. I ask simply that we increase our awareness of the traffic flow and the mixture of large vehicles and motorcycles in order to reduce the accident toll.

ATTEND THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE

Be ever mindful and thankful to GOD for... HEALTH and FOOD

In our nation today, the majority of us have so much to be thankful for. Sure we lose a tooth or two in growing up, as the one pictured here, but these will soon be replaced. Health and Happiness are generally ours, and through our abundance we should share with others who are less fortunate. God's word and the church encourage sharing with others. There are many areas of service to others within the churches, and these we should not neglect, but God has said that we should take advantage, as we are able, of all opportunities to give aid.

"As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men."

Water Quality Study Planned On May 19

The first meeting of the Planning Advisory Committee of the Brazos Basin Water Quality Management Planning Study will be held Thursday, May 19, at 1:30 p.m. in the Brazos Room of the Waco Convention Center, Walter J. Wells, General Manager of the Brazos River Authority announced today.

The purpose of the meeting will be for the Committee to organize and elect officers and to review the proposed work schedule and procedures for developing the basin-wide plan.

The 64 governor-appointed members of the Planning Advisory Committee include the mayors of 27 cities, representatives of various other local governments, and other citizens representing diverse interests from throughout the Brazos Basin study area, as well as representatives of interested State and Federal governmental agencies. The principal responsibility of the Committee will be to provide advice on general policy matters and to help assure the broadest possible input from all elements of the public in development of the plan.

Carson Hoge, Assistant General Manager of the Authority and Director of the study, said the purposes of the study are to update previous studies and to expand on earlier work to provide a suitable plan for water quality management to meet current federal and state regulations. It will include an evaluation of the basic sewerage needs for communities in the Brazos Basin and development of recommendations to update these systems to meet future needs. Costs of the study will be funded mainly by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the State of Texas through the Texas Water Quality Board.

Hoge said the Planning Advisory Committee will play a key role in achieving the coordination between local, state and federal interests which is essential to development of an effective plan for meeting water quality needs in the Brazos Basin and adjacent coastal areas. Proper coordination is especially important, he said, because of the size of the study area, which covers about 44,000 square miles, an area larger than the State of Kentucky.

All meetings of the Planning Advisory Committee are open to the public. Public comment and participation are major factors in this planning process, Hoge said.

On Wall Street By Bob Hill

A little known but extremely powerful federal committee is making life very difficult for the medical and legal professions. The committee is the Federal Advisory Committee on Accreditation and Institutional Eligibility. The target of this committee is the heart of a professional group's ability to control its business; the right to accredit schools that regulate entry into the profession. The committee has served notice that the American Medical Association school accrediting arm must work at arm's length from the AMA's other activities. Meanwhile, the American Bar Association has already been warned to reform its own accrediting process.

The key work in the matter of accrediting medical and law schools in "antitrust". Because the AMA has veto power over its accrediting arm's accrediting standards, the committee believes that doctors can keep their fees high by slowing the growth of medical schools. This prevents a flooding of the market with young physicians willing to cut fees to win patients. One committee member claims that the AMA did block growth of medical schools for 30 years until the mid-1960s. However, he is quick to say that the AMA has worked hard to educate more doctors and start new medical schools in the past 10 years.

The American Bar Association is under fire for not recognizing profit-making law schools. The largest law school in the country is Western State University with 3,200 students in day and evening classes in two California cities. There are only about 15 profit-making law schools. The ABA just recently voted against dropping its ban of profit-making law schools but did agree to waive the non-profit requirement for the next two years as long as all other standards were met. That doesn't seem to satisfy the committee, however.
