by the Food Editors of Mc Call's Magazine

2 cloves garlic
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
3 cups bread crumbs
2 medium onions
1 small bunch celery
1 large green pepper
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 cup stuffed olives
8 sprigs parsley
1/2 teaspoon monosodium glutamate
1/2 teaspoon poultry seasoning
1/4 teaspoon marjoram
1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
1/4 teaspoon sage
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
Salt and pepper

Crush garlic with salt in a bowl (a fork does a good mashing job), thoroughly. Heat butter or margarine in a skillet and cook the chopped vegetables and cook the nuts. Stir frequently. Remove from heat, add sliced olives and chopped parsley and mix all the vegetables with the bread crumbs. Add herbs. This makes enough for a 15-pound bird.

Labor Camp Hospital Is One - Man Project

When the harvest season of 1952 rolls around, residents of the labor camp southwest of Hereford will find something new — their own 25-bed hospital — thanks to Father Raymond Gillis, pastor of the camp's San Jose church.

Almost single-handed, Father Gillis has done all the work on the one-story, 30x80-foot cinder block building.

Doing his construction as sporadic donations allow, the young priest has already put in about 800 man hours of labor on the hospital. He expects to put in about twice that much work before the project is completed.

Fancy tools have no place on the San Jose hospital project. With no previous training or experience in building, Father Gillis has only an elementary knowledge of the building crafts.

But he can look at the floor plan of the modest hospital — pencilled on sun-browned ruled paper tacked on the back of a board — and visualize just how the tiny hospital will look when completed.

Transcending the vision of a man who builds only with wood and cement, Father Gillis can see, too, how his hospital will help the people with whom he has been working during the past three years.

The idea of a hospital for the Mexican laborers at the camp was born not too long ago in the mind of Father Gillis. He felt the need of a hospital because the approximately 150 families in the camp had been quite sick and were reluctant to go to the hospital in Hereford.

With the nursing facilities at the camp — paid jointly by the city and county — Father Gillis found the answer he was looking for — build a hospital and use the available medical personnel.

The church's medical mission in New York promised all the hospital equipment needed if there was a hospital to house it.

There's more to building than just the desire, and Father Gillis has found that out. He has been aided greatly by many local people, he said.

First of all, the land, a 50 x 130 plot, was donated for the hospital through the efforts of J. K. Baker, treasurer of the labor camp association.

Wallace and Byrd, local earth-moving firm, donated the excavation. The masonry work was donated by Anthony Erdman and A. Schneider.

The Carl McCaslin Lumber company sold all the material for the new church at cost.

Father Gillis was given his first encouragement by Wilson Giles, who told him he would raise the money. A total of $515 was raised in the initial drive. Collections from the San Jose mission added about another $100. Appeals in a couple of eastern magazines brought in an additional $500.

Commenting on raising funds through the magazine, Father Gillis recounted that in one periodical he paid $14 for the ad and received $5 in donations. "I couldn't do business that way very long," he laughed.

So far, the hospital has cost about $1900. Before it is completed, it will cost about another $2000.

At the present time, there is not enough money to finish the hospital. Father Gillis has had to work as the funds trickled in, but the supply of money is dangerously low.

The foundation was dug in May with construction started in August. Father Gillis hopes to have the new building ready for use by June, 1951. There are enough year-round residents at the camp even to warrant a hospital.

Included in the hospital will be a men's ward, women's ward, children's ward, nursery, treatment room, lobby, six-foot corridors that can be used to hold overflow, doctor's office, linen, bath, laundry, kitchen, kitchenette, and isolation ward.

When the project is done, the whole building will be painted white with a gray or blue base and brown stripes in the mortar between the cinder blocks.

As little as a year ago, there was no assurance that there would be a hospital for the migrant laborers at the camp. Next year, Father Gillis hopes, it will be a reality.

Where the money will come from to finish the job, he isn't sure, but he believes — and strongly so — that it will come, it must come. — W.W.K.

School Safety Markers Up at Central School

School zone signs have been placed on Highway 51 between Third and Sixth streets for the protection of school children crossing the highway on their way to and from school.

These signs were placed on the highway by the Texas Highway department by the suggestion of the Hereford Safety Council.

The highway department has also agreed to paint pedestrian lanes on Highway 51 at the Fourth and Fifth street intersections.

In addition to these safety measures, signs that read "School Children Ahead" will be placed in the center of the highway during the hours when school children are crossing to and from school, according to Bob Wear, president of the Hereford Safety Council.

4-H Educational Awards Offered By Santa Fe

The Santa Fe Railway educational awards to 4-H club boys and girls will again be offered in 1951. A total of 70 awards are offered in state served by the railway.

Amounts of the individual awards for 1951 have been increased, and a new plan to bring about more equitable distribution among the states has been instituted. Under it, Texas will receive 15 awards instead of its previous 19. Colorado will continue to receive 4, and New Mexico will receive three as in the past.

The awards are cash sufficient to pay all the winners' expenses to attend the national 4-H Club Congress to be held in Chicago, November 25 to 29.

In addition to the annual prizes to outstanding individual boys and girls, the Santa Fe will now sponsor eight college scholarships of $125 each, divided among Texas, California, Kansas and Oklahoma. One scholarship each for a boy and a girl are offered in Texas this year.

Winners for both the awards and scholarships are being selected now by state 4-H club leaders based on personal achievement records for the individuals.

Castor Beans Paying Well

Castor beans DO pay off in Deaf Smith county. Although not too many fields have been harvested yet, the ones cleaned up have been yielding rather well.

Tom McFarland made 23,000 pounds of beans on 22 acres — if the land had been cultivated, it would have produced even better, he said. The field was allowed to grow wild until combined last week.

Market price for castor beans is about 10.4c per pound. McFarland, Chamber of Commerce manager, says his office has been flooded with letters and cards after the appearance of a castor bean story from this area in the October issue of Farm and Ranch magazine.

Mrs. M. G. Reinauer of Los Angeles, has arrived for a several weeks visit with her sons, Eddie and Joe, and their families.

Cpl. Billy Murrell Assigned to Jet Combat Group in Korea

WITH THE EIGHTH FIGHTER BOMBER WING — KOREA — Cpl. Billy J. Murrell of Hereford recently arrived in the Far East and was assigned to the danger jet combat group of the Korean War.

The Texas airman's new organization is the 8th Fighter-Bomber Wing, one of the top ranking groups in the Fifth Air Force's tactical support team. This famous organization recently completed its 25,000 effective combat sortie flown since the beginning of hostilities.

Cpl. Murrell's duty is sheet metal and aircraft body expert. His job is to repair battle damage done to his wing's F-80 Shooting Star jet. "One thing this job has taught me," the Texas airman said, "is that the 100 is the toughest thing since the Texas Longhorn. The way it can take battle damage and still keep flying and flying is a miracle." Murrell first joined the service in 1949. He received his technical training at Bolling Air Force Base, Washington, and later served overseas in Bermuda and Africa.

He is the son of Mrs. Henry H. Murrell, General Delivery, Hereford, Texas.

W. E. Dameron's Plan Month's Eastern Tour

Mayor and Mrs. W. E. Dameron will leave Hereford on Thursday for a month's vacation in the east and some football games in South Texas.

Commissioner S. O. Wilson will act as mayor during the absence of the Damerons.

The Damerons have received an invitation to attend a sale at the Chino Farms, Chestertown, Md. Several editors from the Dameron Hereford herd were sold recently to the Chino Farms where they were bred to Hillcrest Larry IV, who at that time was the world's highest priced bull, $70,400.

Chino Farms will have the sale on November 10 at Chestertown, Md.

Mayor Dameron said he and Mrs. Dameron will stay at the Tidewater Inn and have accepted an invitation to the Chino Farms pre-sale buffet supper at Eastern on November 9. Traveling by train, Mayor and Mrs. Dameron will also visit Kansas City and New York on the trip.

Following their eastern jaunt, they will return to Hereford and travel by car to Fort Worth and Dallas, where they will attend the TCU homecoming game the latter part of November.

County employees covered by any other retirement system cannot be covered at the same time by the Social Security System.

Both the present system that may be administered by counties, and the Social Security System require contributions to the Fund by both employees and counties.

The system proposed in this amendment does not itself call for any specific method of financing. Under it there could be established, but only in a county wide election, a system supported entirely by county funds with no contribution by appointive officers or employees. Any county could adopt the proposed system alone, but its basis could be changed by the legislature at will.

CONG. WALTER ROGERS SAYS

Egyptian Crisis May Be Balkan Powder Keg All Over Again

WAR AND RUMORS OF WAR
The Egyptian crisis could easily turn into the same type of powder keg as the Balkans prior to World War I. A prophecy as to the outcome would be foolish. No one knows, as the whole situation is touch-and-go. It is not new, as there has always been a certain amount of bad blood between England and certain of her colonies and protectorates. These disagreements have not heretofore erupted into warfare of global proportions.

Let us hope that the present Egyptian crisis can be settled peacefully. It has been said by some of the supporters of Egypt's position that the treaty between Egypt and Great Britain concerning joint occupation of the Suez area and Sudan was not a voluntary treaty on the part of Egypt; that at the time this treaty was signed the Egyptian government was under threat of British arms and that Egypt was told by the British official in charge to sign or else. Whether or not this position is true, I do not know, but those accepting the story as true take the stand that Egypt should not be bound by a treaty entered into under those circumstances. The Suez Canal is a vital link in world affairs, and nothing would please Russia more than to have this link fall into the hands of some power or powers that could or would close it on a moment's notice to NATO and UN countries.

SUNDAY WITH THE FAMILY.—Last Sunday was the first Sunday I have been here that I got to spend the entire day with my family. Layman Sunday Observed At First Christian Layman Sunday was observed October 28 at the First Christian church when laymen of the church conducted the services. Glenn Williams presided. A Peterson gave the morning prayer.

The theme of the meeting was "What On Earth Are You Doing?" Ellis Coombes spoke on "What I'm doing for myself", Pat Sullivan spoke on "What I'm doing for my church," and Sam Nunnally spoke on "What I'm doing for my community."

realize the importance of the Battle of Gettysburg on the military tactics that have been employed in the wars that have followed the civil War. The battleground itself covers an area of approximately 25 square miles. The Southern forces entered the battle from a northerly direction, and the Northern forces entered from a southern direction. The battle lasted three days, all of which time was not spent in fighting. The Southern forces gained control numerous times, and had they pressed their advantage upon any of those occasions, the South could and probably would have won the war. The military generalship displayed at that battle has been the subject of detailed study by military men down through the years.

It is reported that prior to World War II Marshall Rommel, the "Desert Fox", who gave Field Marshal Montgomery so much trouble in North Africa, spent 18 months in this country studying in minute detail the battle of Gettysburg and the other major battles of the Civil War, devoting most of his time to a study of the tactics of Stonewall Jackson, Forrest and several other Confederate cavalrymen.

There is much to be learned from the battle of Gettysburg and I wish that every American could visit this battlefield, the site of the greatest battle ever fought on American soil. We of the present day think that we have developed fantastic weapons and methods of destroying the enemy in battle, but a trip to Gettysburg will make you wonder. The casualties for the three-day battle were 51,000, over 10,000 dead, and the fighting was all done in the daytime. General Pickett led his charge up Cemetery Ridge with approximately 15,000 men; less than an hour later he fell back with less than 8,000 men.

It is said that the casualties on both the Confederate and the Union sides during that one-hour period were greater than the casualties of the entire United States Army for the first five days of the invasion of Normandy in World War II. One unit of the Union Army still holds the record for percentage of loss in a single encounter. It was a Minnesota regiment and the percentage of casualties in the one encounter with General Longstreet of the Confederate Army was 82 percent. The estimated forces of the battle were approximately 75,000 Confederate troops and 87,000 Union troops. It makes one wonder how long man will pursue the futile course of war. I wish I had the space to tell you more. If you ever get the chance to visit the battlefield, do not miss it.

PLANS FOR VISITING THE DISTRICT: I hope to be back in the District on about Nov. 5 so I wanted to come earlier, but there are so many things that must be attended to, both in the office and at home, that an earlier departure was impossible.

Sophie Snare Hits 18, Now Leads in Bowl Ducat Race

Sophie Snare copped the top honors in this week's football predictions with 18 correct out of 22 contests listed.

Second and third place in the contest, $3 and $2 in cash from The Brand respectively, will be divided among four entries: C. W. Covington, Katherine Snare, Shelby Whitfield, and Mrs. George Olson, all of whom has 17 right.

First prize this week is $5 in trade from Jiggs Service station. This week's predicting also accounted for a change in the lead in the Cotton Bowl contest. Sophie Snare swiped the lead from her better half, Kent Snare, who missed six of this week's games.

Sophie Snare has a total of 109 points, Kent has 108, and Katherine Snare has 107 to run first, second, and third respectively.

C. L. Whitfield is a close fourth in the race with 100 points. Saturday presented some more upsets plus the knotted Baylor-Texas A&M contest which fooled all the contestants. The Missouri win over Nebraska caught the majority of the seers off guard. Another tough one for the guessers was the Southern Cal over Texas Christian, the Stanford win over Washington U., the Santa Clara upset over the Arkansas Razorbacks and the Virginia toppling of Duke.

The Miami-Mississippi game, also proved to be the undoing of many contestants. Point-by-point, here are the results of entries in this week's contest:

Two Holes-In-One Within Hour, Sun.

Hereford presented the world of sports with a "believe it or not" situation last Sunday.

Two local golfers — T. J. Clay and John Douglas Pitman — both made holes in one in the same day at the Hereford golf course. The shots were made on the same hole — number six, about an hour apart.

Stan Barrett made a hole in one earlier this summer on the same hole. All five holes in one, in fact, have been made on the short sixth hole.

Pitman was the first to sink his shot. He was playing in a threesome with Bill Dameron and Dave Beavers.

Clay became the fifth linkster to make the "impossible" shot on the local course. His shot came about an hour after Pitman's. Clay was making the rounds with Frank Craig and Frank Vogel.

Both golfers will be given sev-

Floydada Whirlwinds Loop Threat Here Fri.

The Hereford Whitefaces come back from a week's inactivity on Friday night to meet "an unknown quantity" — the Floydada Whirlwinds — in the Herd's first 2-AA conference game at Whiteface Memorial stadium.

Floydada comes to Hereford with a 2 won, 1 tied, 5 lost record. Hereford will be matching it with a 4 won, 3 lost mark for non-conference wars when they make their first loop try.

Little information besides the record is available on the Floydada eleven other than listed on the roster, which shows that they have a 170-pound average on the line and a 151-pound average in their backfield. They have one small back, 135-pound Norman Muncy, a right halfback.

Hereford hasn't played Floydada since during the '30's.

Copah Dalton Criswell was reluctant to comment for publication on Friday night's foe. Floydada was scouted once, he said, and used an aerial attack and a ground movement "about 50-50." He mentioned no particular players on the Whirlwind squad that would require special attention.

Criswell said he'd "have to wait till Friday night" to see what the Whirlwinds will put in the path of the Herd.

On the Whiteface side of the ledger, injuries can still play havoc with the Herd. Randy Thomas is "definitely" out, Dale Winget is working out lightly and it won't be known until about Thursday whether or not he will be able to make the game.

His condition has improved during the past week, however, Franklin Boyd, Hereford's other ailing end, is working out on a light schedule, too.

Outside of those three, the Herd is in good physical shape, the Whiteface mentor said.

During the week of inactivity, the "B" football squad has been getting a great deal of attention.

The tentative starting lineups for Friday's game are:

Grandstand Gropings

By Kent Snare

During lunch last Saturday the only football contest I could find on the early air was Liberty's broadcast of the Army-Columbia game and I'll bet that System would like to have a recount on the contract binding the to broadcast Army's games this fall after the crib conflagration took out the Army ball-club and the chance for an attractive season. Along the same trail I'll wager some of the pre-season prophets would like to recant their guesses. I took a re-run gander at the previews in Colliers and Satevepost and among the items were: Identical All American prospective backfields, comprised of Janowicz, Ohio State; Reynolds, Nebraska; Smith, Texas A.&M. and Parilli, Kentucky. Reynolds has scarcely played all fall and was held to a net 23 yards by Missouri last week; Janowicz was not mentioned in AP's write-up on the Ohio State 47-21 mauling of Iowa; Smith is operating in shadow of Tidwell and Lippman at Texas A&M and Parilli was smothered in the three rappings already absorbed by Kentucky. It's for free so I'll protrude the cranial appendage (second try) and hazard four backfielders for eventual All-American picks, no dissertation allowed: Isbell of Baylor who slickered Texas Aggies and Snare last week. He throws right, punts left and fakes constantly; Karras for number two in recognition of his packing Illinois on his back past five foes. He scored all three touchdowns against Indiana, one of them on 88 yards of galloping; Lauricella, for all-around brilliance, even though Tennessee's schedule of humpty-dumptys dims the picture some — you should ought to see that baby change pace and make use of his able blockers, and for the fourth spot, California's Olszewski, provisionally, dependent upon his early return to the line-up—no opponent has deterred him to date, even Southern Cal. in victory had no answer to him while he was in the game against them. Francis Wallace, in Colliers, had an additional feature tabbed "Bowl Prospects", albeit, he didn't say what year—For the Rose Bowl—Ohio State over Washington.

Midget Grapplers Please Fans Here

Local wrestling fans were provided with something new on Friday night — midget wrestling — in the persons of Irish Jackie of Ireland and Sonny Boy Cassidy.

Ray Duran of Mexico City and Tommy Martindale of Milwaukee provided the crowd with the thrills in the first event, a one-fall 20-minute match.

Martindale bested the unpopular Duran in 17 minutes, pinning him with a body press.

In the second event of the evening, 89-pound Irish Jackie met Sonny Boy Cassidy of Cheyenne, Wyo., in what proved to be a crowd-pleaser.

Irish Jackie filled in for Little Beaver who was unable to make the match as scheduled. Sonny Boy Cassidy took the match in 14 minutes with a body press.

In the featured match of the evening, Alex Kasabaski and Ace Freeman fought to a draw in a best two-out-of-three, one-hour meet.

Kasabaski, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, roughie, took the first fall in 35 minutes with a body press followed by a back-breaker.

Freeman, Bronx, N. Y. niftie, took the second fall to even things up in 14 minutes with a body jack knife.

The two fought out the remainder of the hour with no decision and the meet was called a draw.

Referee for the evening was Al Warsharusk.

This Week's Calendar at Your Hereford Churches

Atomic Power and GOD...

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. You in the Church and the Church in you form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH. GOSPEL and a daily BIBLE READER.

Williams Newspaper Features P. O. Box 211, Ft. Worth, Tex.

On the tip of most every tongue, 'civilization-wide,' the dreaded story of the ATOMIC BOMB is being whispered. Hardships, infirmities, agonies and inconceivable distress, only partially paint the horrible scene which must follow every Atomic Eruption. O Lord, give us strong men of courage, and men who fear God... men imbued with certain principles of justice and brotherly love, to guide us in these history-making days.

The age of the harnessing of God's minute atom has long since been a reality. Skilled scientists have celebrated the occasion for years. Man now has the achievement and must control its use. It is time for the genuine love of God to reign in the hearts of men if civilization is to survive.

When it becomes practical for the ingenuity of man, as is now the case, to concoct instruments of inconceivable power that can rip the earth into canyons, lift and wreck 'skyscrapers' more easily than a strong man can break a straw, and with the heat of Hell burn to dust every object near the point of its eruption... then, brother, it's time for all mankind to 'GET ON SPEAKING TERMS WITH GOD.'

The whole world seems to be in constant fear of this terrific weapon. Nations seem to be at 'loggerhead'... they do not trust each other. Their acts and sayings are questioned; their conclusions censored. They are in a race to avoid the calamity of the immortal phrase, "TOO FEW AND TOO LATE."

Christians must meet the challenge of the Atomic Age. The doctrine of BROTHERLY LOVE must prevail. This is an era when giants in the field of business, and fabulously rich in the material wealth of the world, are scattering their shekels in the interest of religion. The church must not be denied. Help keep her good work going by attending your church regularly. Help her mold men to control the Atom.

The Telephone

Clean the telephone regularly with a soft rag wrung out of warm suds, and then rinse with a damp cloth, and finally polish with a dry cloth. The mouth-piece should be cleaned with a cloth dampened with peroxide, or some other odorless disinfectant, so as to sterilize it as well as clean it.

The Garage Floor

Oil and grease stains on the cement floor of the garage are very unsightly. They can be removed by scoring with naphtha and a vigorous brushing with the broom.

Tarnished Braid

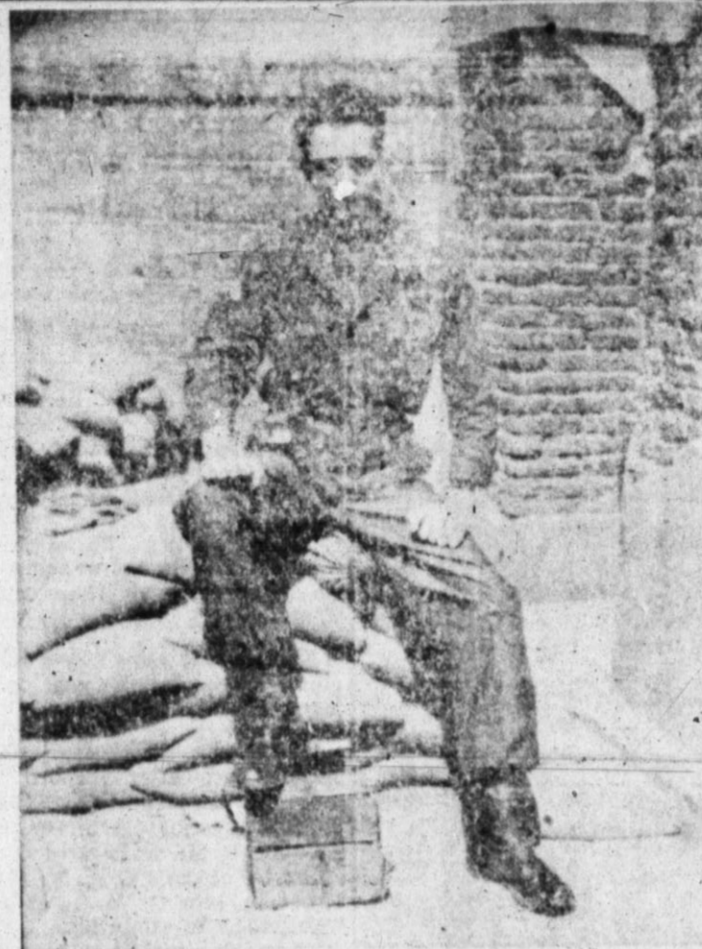

When gold lace or braid is badly tarnished, sprinkle with fuller's earth and then rub with a stiff brush.

Plenty of Air

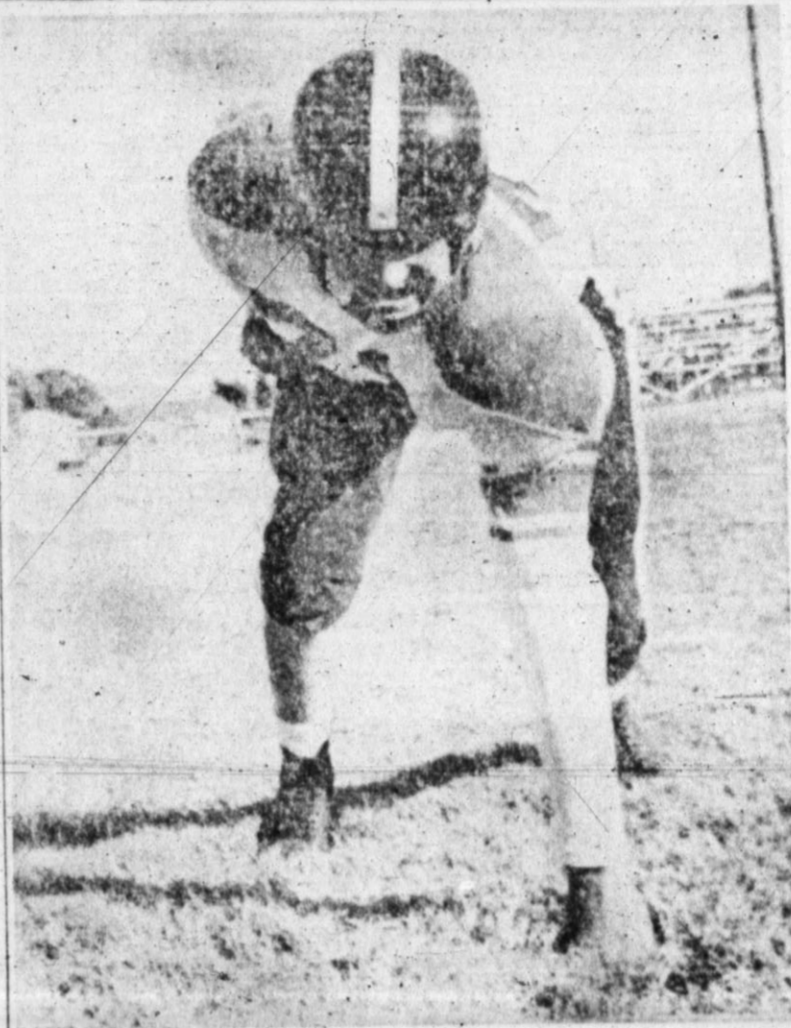

If windows are opened in the morning for the purpose of airing the beds before making them, open the clothes closet doors wide too and allow the air to run through them. This will avoid that close stuffy odor which is so undesirable.

can be removed from materials by soaking in hot water, and then washing in soap and warm water.

Varnished Surfaces
Surfaces which are to be varnished should be perfectly smooth for effectiveness. When preparing wood for varnishing use No. 1 sandpaper to start and finish off with No. 0, always rubbing with the grain of the wood.

Dish Cloths
A tablespoon of kerosene to a gallon of boiling water will loosen the grease from dish cloths or dish towels soaked in it. They should then be boiled in soapy water and well rinsed.

Mice
Cayenne pepper sprinkled around places where mice frequent will keep them away.

If the face is plump, avoid large and heavy earrings. Wear the hair parted on one side rather than in the middle. Avoid square necklines, and use the V-shaped one. 90% For! 10% Against Railroad workers are represented by 23 standard unions. By mutual agreement, 20 of these unions—comprising about 1,200,000 men, or more than 90%—are working under wages and rules agreed to by them and the railroads. But leaders of three unions—with only about 130,000 men, or less than 10%—still refuse, after more than a year of negotiations, to accept similar wage and rules agreements. These are even more favorable than the terms recommended by the Emergency Board appointed by the President.

Time to settle...

Yes, it certainly seems to be finally about time that the leaders of the three unions stop their delaying tactics—their quibbling. But the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors continue to refuse. They continue a course of dillying and dallying. It is definitely time to END THIS QUIBBLING!

On June 15, 1950, an Emergency Board appointed by the President under the terms of the Railway Labor Act—an Act largely fathered by the unions themselves—made its recommendations on certain wage and working conditions ("rules" in railroad language) which had been in dispute between employes and the railroads.

More Than 90% of Employees Accept
Since then, terms equal to or better than the Board recommendations have been accepted by about 1,200,000 railroad employes—more than 90% of the total of all workers. They are represented by 20 of the 23 standard railroad unions.

Less Than 10% Refuse
But three unions—with about 130,000 men, or less than 10% of the total—have refused to accept, even after months of negotiations. These three unions are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors. These are three of the so-called "operating" unions. Already the highest paid men in the industry, their leaders demand still further advantages over other workers. In all, there are about 270,000 operating employes. But not all of them, by any means, are represented by BLE, BLF&E, and ORC. As a matter of fact, less than half—132,000 to be exact—are in these three unions. More than half—about 140,000—are in other unions, principally the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. What makes the whole situation so hard to understand is that these 140,000 operating employes are working under wages and rules which the leaders of the other 130,000 say they cannot agree to.

What Do the Railroads Offer?
They offer these three unions the same settlement which was contained in a Memorandum of Agreement signed at the White House on December 21, 1950, by four brotherhoods and the railroads. Later these brotherhoods sought to repudiate this agreement. But on May 25, 1951, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen signed a complete agreement carrying out the principles of the Memorandum Agreement of December 21. They have been working under this agreement since May 25.

What About Wages?
Under the terms of the agreement, yard engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving a wage increase of $34 an hour ($2.72 a day) and road engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving an increase of 19½ cents an hour ($1.56 per day). Large sums of retroactive pay have already accrued and if the agreement is carried out, will be paid promptly.

What About "Cost of Living" Increases?
The White House Agreement includes an "escalator" clause under which wages will be geared to changes in the Government's cost-of-living index. Two such increases—April and July, 1951—have already been paid to the 90% of railroad employes covered by signed agreements.

What About the 40-Hour Week?
The White House Agreement calls for the establishment of the 40-hour week in principle, for employes in yard service. The employes can have it any time after January 1, 1952, provided the manpower situation is such that the railroads can get enough men to perform the work with reasonable regularity at straight time rates. If the parties do not agree on the question of availability of manpower, the White House Agreement provides arbitration by a referee appointed by the President.

What Else Do the Union Leaders Demand?
The continued quibbling of the leaders of the three unions has to do principally with rules changes, which have already been agreed to by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Of these, the principal one seems to be that having to do with so-called "interdivisional service"—runs which take in two or more seniority districts.

The union leaders would bar progress and efficiency in the industry, and better service to the public, by maintaining a situation where they can arbitrarily stop a railroad from establishing such interdivisional runs. The carriers propose that if a railroad wishes to set up an interdivisional run, the railroad and the unions should try to agree on such run and the conditions which should surround its establishment, and if the railroad and the unions can't agree, the matter will be submitted to arbitration.

Rules Can Be Arbitrated
The railroads have not only offered these three unions the same rules agreed to by the BRT and covered by the White House Agreement, but have even agreed to submit such rules to arbitration.

The Industry Pattern Is Fixed
With the pattern so firmly established in the railroad industry, it seems fair to suggest that the leaders of BLE, BLF&E, and ORC stop their quibbling and take action to make the railroad labor picture 100% complete. Certainly today's economic and international situation calls for a united front. And certainly no good reason has been advanced why these three unions should be preferred over all other railroad employes.

TEXAS MOTOR VEHICLE SAFETY RESPONSABILITY LAW

(Enacted By the 1951 Legislature — Effective January 1, 1952)

HOW DOES IT AFFECT YOU?

If you own or operate an automobile which is involved in an accident causing death, personal injury or property damage in excess of $100.00:

1. A written report must be made within 10 days to the Department of Public Safety.
2. Within 60 days after receipt of report, security sufficient in the judgment of the department to guarantee payment of any claim or judgment must be deposited.
3. If such security is not deposited, your license and registration certificate will be suspended and you will be unable to operate an automobile until—
 - (1) Security as required above has been deposited or;
 - (2) Evidence satisfactory to the department has been filed to show that the owner or operator has been released of liability or has paid or is paying in installments the claim or judgment.

PURCHASE AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE NOW

If you wait until after the accident it will be too late to purchase insurance covering that accident.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS OF THE LAW

In addition to the foregoing requirements which apply, immediately upon the occurrence of an accident, the law applies to—

1. Owners or operators convicted of certain violations of the Motor Vehicle Code, including manslaughter, driving while intoxicated and leaving the scene of an accident.
2. Owners or operators failing to pay within 60 days any final judgment for damages including damage to property.

NATURE OF ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS

Such owners or operators are required to file and maintain for at least three years—with respect to future accidents—Proof of Financial Responsibility in the form of $15,000 cash or securities, or a bond of $15,000 or a certificate that an automobile insurance policy with MINIMUM LIMITS of $5,000/$10,000 Bodily Injury and $5,000 Property Damage Liability is in force and effect.

AGAIN AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE PRACTICAL WAY

1. While no insurance company will issue automobile insurance for all persons required to file because of convictions, it will be even more difficult for an owner who was not insured, to obtain insurance after the conviction; then only after careful investigation of the character and driving ability of the motorist and the circumstances of the conviction.
2. If a motorist is fully insured before an accident occurs, there would be no unpaid judgment, hence this part of the law scarcely applies to an insured motorist.

The WOMAN and Her BANK

Many years ago, banks were as remote as the moon to most women. Handling financial matters was strictly a job for the man of the house.

How times have changed! The modern woman in this day and age is very often the family money manager. As every banker knows, more and more of the banking business in this country is being done by women.

How We Handle Your Checks

Undoubtedly you will be interested in the way your bank handles checks. If you deposit a check drawn by your friend, Mary Jones, who is also a depositor in this bank, the amount is merely transferred on our records from her account to yours. If Mary's check is payable at another local bank, it is quickly "collected" (that is the amount made available) through a local clearing arrangement.

But, if her check is on an out-of-town bank, it is a different story. Such checks are collected direct, or through the Federal Reserve System, or through a correspondent bank (a bank in another locality in which your bank has an account), and this will require time. When you deposit a check the teller will be glad to tell you the time required for collection, which varies with distance of the other bank.

As soon as any check deposit is made, your account will provisionally be credited with the amount. You are not free to draw against it, however, until the cash is actually collected by us from the bank on which the check is drawn.

If a bank refuses payment of a check that you deposit, the amount will be deducted from your account and you will be notified by us. If you should happen to draw a check against "Uncollected Funds," banking procedure would require that we refrain from making the payment.

Are You An Automobile Driver ? ? ?

Here's a Few Facts YOU Should Know About the New Texas "Safety Responsibility Law"

- 1 Enforcement Begins January 1, 1952. On this date, the new Safety Responsibility Law, as passed by the Legislature, goes into effect. This law was designed to protect you against financially irresponsible drivers and owners of motor vehicles involved in accidents. It affects all drivers and motor vehicle owners (except Federal, State, County and City-owned cars).
- 2 What Must You Do After An Accident? Under existing laws, you must file a written report to the Department of Public Safety if your car is involved in an accident where there is a death, an injury or property damage in excess of $25. Under the new law, a written report must be filed within ten days if your car is in an accident resulting in death, injury or property damage in excess of $100.
- 3 You Don't Have to Carry Liability Insurance, But . . . If you are not insured against bodily injury and property damage liability, you must be able to deposit with the Department of Public Safety security equal to the estimated damage, not exceeding $15,000.00, to cover all claims growing out of an accident anywhere in Texas in which you or your motor vehicle were involved. If you cannot establish financial responsibility for the future, your driver's license and your motor vehicle license plates are automatically suspended.
- 4 It's Easy to Establish Financial Responsibility with a motor vehicle liability insurance policy. If you do not now have such a policy, call your local insurance agent today. He is a qualified insurance counselor who will be happy to advise you concerning your needs.
- 5 What is the Minimum of Your Liability? The law permits each driver to establish the following minimum limits of liability: up to $5,000.00 for injuries sustained by one person; up to $10,000.00 for all personal injuries resulting from one accident, and up to $5,000.00 for property damage. You do not have to establish such liability but it is the easiest way.

While Hereford has been talking about and looking for a new industry, one seems to have been dumped in our lap. Few people fully realize what the production of lettuce has meant this year to the community. The crop, as it is handled here, depends largely upon the factor of "good price", but despite all of the hazards, it looks like from 6,000 to 10,000 acres of lettuce in 1952.

The really big thing about the 1951 lettuce crop is the fact that Hereford has been firmly entrenched within buying circles as a production point. Whereas, brokers faced a rough time in marketing the lettuce crop in years past, the 1951 yield has been widely sought by leading produce dealers over the country. During the past few weeks Hotel Jim Hill has been turning away lodgers—because the hotel was full. Actual buyers have come into Hereford representing such firms as Safeway Stores, Pacific Fruit and Produce, A. and P. Stores, Wesco-Kroeger and many others. They have traveled here from Oakland, Calif., Seattle, Wash., Chicago, New York, Pittsburgh, Phoenix, Los Angeles and even Salinas. The product is good. They approve of it. Hereford lettuce stands up, it is making an enviable reputation on the markets.

Furthermore, this is the thing we want most. Arrival of these men doesn't mean a thing unless the product has public acceptance. It has. This is the one big factor that sometimes has retarded growth of the area in potato production. This is the big hurdle, and we have it made with room to spare. Other details can be worked out, and probably will be within a few years.

Some growers figure they are taking a beating. Maybe they are, but up to now lettuce men in this area have been pioneers. They have perhaps taken a little more, but it has been a gamble for them—and they are entitled to some consideration. Varieties will be improved to fit the area.

growing methods will be altered and better adapted, handling methods will be greatly facilitated in years to come. Lettuce has been in the examination stage the past three years. From here, it appears that it passed with high marks. From now on things will be better and better, improving as the years pass.

True, prices have been good this year. A market of $5.09 to $5.50 is a grower's paradise, especially under present contracts. Lettuce hit $6.00 Friday and within the week we may even see $7.00 lettuce, and that's "hog heaven". There are handicaps, however; it costs a lot of money to grow lettuce and the "know how" is most important. Don't go off the deep end. Talk to some lettuce farmers before you take the plunge. It's a good deal—provided things are all clicking right. It can also be expensive when things go wrong.

Mark Benefield says we are propaganda agents and that it is unfair to be talking about $5.50 lettuce. "Tell 'em," says Mark. "that the grower only gets $1.90 on $5.50 lettuce." He is right, too. It is not all profit, and it's no game for kids. It is fast and furious, but when things hit right it can really pay off.

Taft McGee was talking with Henry Sears about crops the other day and Taft remarked, "The best crop you can get is oil wells—provided you get a good stand."

John Mayo has been also having a lot of fun. He gathered up some off-breed grain stalks and took them to John Pitman, attaching a note about his new variety of "Mayo Maizola". He said it was a 40-day wonder, simonized and polished. Pit still refused to store the stuff, though.

Sometimes I wonder why the Star Theatre stopped running their "Most Courteous Clerk Contest" if it ever starts again I am going to nominate Mone Pay Shirley of the Hereford Shoe Store. She is polite, capable and efficient. It makes you feel good to see a clerk now days who is interested in doing a job well.

A few months back I was drinking coffee with Dan Ethridge of Friona and he remarked along the same lines. "I need some cigarettes," said Dan, "and if they even ask if there is anything more when I pay for the coffee, I am going to buy a carton. If they don't, I am going on down the street."

He paid for the coffee with a dollar bill and sure enough, the young lady handed back the change without a word. We walked out and Dan was firm in his belief that people "don't give a tang" about their jobs. Youngsters should think this over. Doing a good job means advancement, either where you are working—or somewhere else. People are looking for qualified help. They have their eyes on courteous, capable clerks. We are again in the middle of a seller's

C. D. Hardesty, district manager of Southwestern Public Service company, today announced the appointment of Miss Fern Carver to be assistant home service advisor of the Amarillo division.

Hardesty pointed out that the tremendous increase in inquiries about electric appliances for the homes of Southwestern Public Service Customers, particularly electric ranges, made it necessary to appoint Miss Carver as assistant to Miss Fern Brannen, the division's chief home service advisor.

Miss Carver, a native of Perryton, Texas, attended Amarillo college for one year transferring to Abilene Christian college where she graduated Summa Cum Laude receiving her degree in home economics. She joined the electric light and power company in August, 1950.

How Can I?

By Anna Ashley

Q. How can I treat scratched mahogany furniture?

A. Before polishing mahogany furniture that has been scratched rather deeply, fill in the scratches with tincture of iodine. Then apply the wax or polish and the scratches will be practically invisible.

Q. How can I be sure that a stain remover will not affect the color of a garment?

A. It is risky to take chances with any stain remover on colored fabrics until it is tested on the underneath part of the hem of the garment to see if it affects the color.

Q. How can I treat the water for a child to blow soap bubbles to give the bubbles more color?

A. A drop or two of glycerine added to the soapy water will do this, and the bubbles will also last longer before breaking.

Q. How can I make a dry shampoo?

A. Grind a little cornmeal as fine as possible and add a small quantity of pulverizedorris-root. Sprinkle this over the scalp. Let it remain for a few minutes, and then brush out thoroughly.

Q. How can I give a glazed appearance to pie crust?

A. Use a pastry brush and paint over the crust with cream, or with beaten egg and water. Then bake in a hot oven for 20 to 30 minutes, according to the contents of the pie.

Q. How can I make a key work more smoothly in the lock of a door?

A. Dip the key into machine oil and then place in the lock and turn back and forth several times. It will soon work smoothly.

Q. What is a good substitute for castor oil?

A. Prune juice makes a good substitute. Soak the prunes overnight. Stew them in the water in which they are soaked and pierce them with a fork to let out the juice when they are tender. Do not sweeten.

Q. How can I economize on soap flakes?

A. Try beating the soap flakes into a foam with an egg beater. It will require fewer flakes for same purpose.

Q. How can I remedy dry skin?

A. When troubled with a dry skin, one of the very best remedies is to rub the parts thoroughly with almond oil.

Q. How can I make a good silver polish?

A. Dissolve 1 ounce of powdered borax in ½-pint boiling water. When cold, add 4 ounces of precipitated chalk and beat until smooth; then add 1 gill of alcohol. Bottle for use. Shake thoroughly before using.

each of these clubs has now lost two games and if they get in the Rose Bowl they'll have to buy tickets — Tennessee over Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl — the outcome might not terminate that way if they played this time, which is improbable as the Okies have dropped two and it is my personal idea that the Cotton Bowl folks would like to have Tennessee back on a curtain call if only for revenge purposes —

For the Cotton Bowl—Texas Aggies over Alabama — the prospect for the Cadets is dim enough and is non-existent for the Tide, who have already finished second in four tries — The last contest was the Orange Bowl — Nebraska over Kentucky, which is not about to happen—the Colonels have three contests already gone beyond recall and last Saturday Missouri beat the Huskers, which in my book eliminates them by default — About losing ball games they tell one about Knute Rockne that might bear repetition: When Rock was a

A few days before the opening game of the season, Longman gathered his players together and gave them a wild-eyed pep talk that made young Rock quiver with emotion. The coach tore off his coat and shook his fist in the players' faces, exhorting them to go out and do the impossible. The team went out and did as instructed. They wiped up poor little Olivet College 48-0. On the following Saturday, Notre Dame faced another pushover. This time Longman ripped off coat,

This time, Shorty ripped off coat, tie, collar and shirt as he implored the Notre Dammers to tear the enemy apart. When he finished, Rockne murmured, "Gosh, I hope we don't lose." "What do you mean, lose?" snapped a teamie. "This is a tough game," answered Rock. "Maybe he should ought to have taken off his pants, too." Rockne was right. A Message of Importance

To Every Automobile Driver In The State of Texas

HERE'S WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE NEW TEXAS "SAFETY RESPONSIBILITY LAW"

- 1 Enforcement Begins January 1, 1952. On this date, the new Safety Responsibility Law, as passed by the Legislature, goes into effect. This law was designed to protect you against financially irresponsible drivers and owners of motor vehicles involved in accidents. It affects all drivers and motor vehicle owners (except Federal, State, County and City-owned cars).
- 2 What Must You Do After An Accident? Under existing laws, you must file a written report to the Department of Public Safety if your car is involved in an accident where there is a death, an injury or property damage in excess of $25. Under the new law, a written report must be filed within ten days if your car is in an accident resulting in death, injury or property damage in excess of $100.
- 3 You Don't Have to Carry Liability Insurance, But . . . If you are not insured against bodily injury and property damage liability, you must be able to deposit with the Department of Public Safety security equal to the estimated damage, not exceeding $15,000.00, to cover all claims growing out of an accident anywhere in Texas in which you or your motor vehicle were involved. If you cannot establish financial responsibility for the future, your driver's license and your motor vehicle license plates are automatically suspended.
- 4 It's Easy to Establish Financial Responsibility with a motor vehicle liability insurance policy. If you do not now have such a policy, call your local insurance agent today. He is a qualified insurance counselor who will be happy to advise you concerning your needs.
- 5 What is the Minimum of Your Liability? The law permits each driver to establish the following minimum limits of liability: up to $5,000.00 for injuries sustained by one person; up to $10,000.00 for all personal injuries resulting from one accident, and up to $5,000.00 for property damage. You do not have to establish such liability but it is the easiest way.

WE HAVE EVERY FACILITY TO COMPLY WITH THE LAW

Hush! Hush!
We're informed that some sororities have urged their members to boycott "TAKE CARE OF MY LITTLE GIRL"—and this disturbs us very much. But the university co-ed who wrote the expose has sworn on a stack of her best-selling books that she has revealed the TRUTH about what goes on in college sororities—and many members are backing her up. However, quite aside from the raging controversy, "TAKE CARE OF MY LITTLE GIRL" is one of the best pictures of the year, so, we're sorry, girls, but I guess we'll just have to let the chips fall where they may.
