Whiteface Band Wins Sweepstakes

The Hereford Whiteface Band, under the direction of Ben Gollehon, won the only Sweepstakes trophy, the second consecutive trophy for the band, was presented to the HHS band after they were given a division I rating in sight reading and concert competition.

The Whiteface Band won a division I rating Oct. 28 in the University Interscholastic League Marching Contest held in Canyon.

Several other schools entered in the AAA competition received division I ratings in marching and sight reading, but Hereford was the only band to receive a division I rating in concert.

The other schools entered in the AAA competition included Perryton, Dumas, Phillips and Tascosa's sophomore band.

"All members of the band were surprised with the division I rating as well as myself. We all felt that the band did not play as well as they had in practice sessions, but we were very proud of the I rating," Gollehon said.

The Whiteface band was the only band in the contest to receive a unanimous division I rating from all of the judges in each contest.

The judges in the concert contest were Maurice Macadoo, North Texas University; Mark Heinsley, University of Illinois; and J. W. King, Hale Center. The judge in the sight-reading division was Joe Hadden, Midwestern University and the judges in the marching contest were Pete Long, Ponca City, Okla.; Jim Jacobson, Texas Christian University and Fred Prentiss, Wichita Falls.

The band was commended by the judges in the concert contest and the horn section of the Whiteface Band was said to be "the best in the field of the 52 bands participating in the contest."

David Marconelli, first chair baritone, was judged outstanding in all classes in the horn division.

July Sidewalk Sale Planned

Comes July, and Hereford merchants will move their stocks out on the sidewalk in front of their stores. Or, at least, they will move part of their stocks.

It's a part of the retail merchants' committee's summer promotion series, and is slated for Monday, July 13, to be exact. This will be the first such event of its kind.

Bargains will be offered. Tables and racks will be set up on the sidewalks for the big one-day event.

Crop Outlook Called Good Despite Drouth, Greenbugs

Freeze Cripples Fruit Prospects; Beef Planting Nears Completion

Dry weather is "not doing dryland wheat any good," but the crop is not yet at the dangerous stage, say farm experts as the 1964 crop season gets under way.

Dry weather and a nippy cold spell at mid-week have slowed the beginning of spring farm activities, but expected warmer weather for the last half of the month should see farm activity hit its stride.

Not only is dry weather worrying wheat farmers, but greenbugs also have shown up in a number of fields. "We can't see any particular pattern to the greenbug infestation," says County Agent Lefty Thomas, "but infestation ranges all the way from medium to heavy in some fields."

The county agent said the greenbugs may show up in one field in considerable numbers but will skip an adjoining field altogether and then show up again a mile or so away.

For this reason, many farmers are spraying with parathion to get rid of the wheat pest before its damage becomes extensive.

Lack of spring rains and snow has caused farmers on irrigated land to water wheat heavily, and Thomas says unless moisture comes soon, yield "will definitely be cut." He added: "The lack of moisture is causing wheat men on drylands to worry considerably, and the presence of greenbugs in some fields has furthered causing concern."

The greenbug spraying is being done by aircraft.

The mid-week cold spell which skidded the mercury to 34 early Thursday delayed planting of vegetables, but by Friday farmers were back in their fields, continuing with the planting of potatoes and onions.

Most of the sugar beet crop, some 40,000 acres in this area, have been planted, but the freeze apparently did little or no damage to early-planted crops, Thomas said. Very little sugar beet plants have shown up as yet.

The freeze, although short lived, was sufficient to nip most of the fruit buds, and the possibility of a peach and apricot crop in this county seemed remote Saturday. "Some fruit will pull through," one fruit man said, "but we know we can expect only a small crop, based on conditions as they appear now. Of course sometimes we are fooled; sometimes we make a fair crop of fruit even though we do have a 'killing' frost."

Planting of grain sorghum is expected to get under way earlier than usual this year since farmers are becoming more concerned about the presence of midges.

One elevator man here said, "We have been lucky so far and have been bothered very little with the grain sorghum midge. However, each season the pest creeps a little closer to Hereford."

The highest rate of cases solved by arrest came in the business burglaries when an astounding 53 percent of the cases reported were solved.

The average for all burglaries in 1963, that were cleared by arrest, was 48 percent. This is 19 percent above the national average of 29 percent and can undoubtedly be compared with the top in the nation.

Thirteen auto burglaries were reported in Hereford last year. Three were cleared by arrest and one was exceptionally cleared or unfounded.

In the residence burglary file, 13 burglaries were reported and six of these were cleared by arrest or were unfounded.

The top came in the business burglaries when of the 38 burglaries reported the Department cleared 28 by arrest or the charges were unfounded.

However, the stolen property recovered is really what the persons that report the crimes are interested in. The Hereford Police Department recorded commissions cleared by arrest.

Chamber Banquet Is 'Ready'

With Austin Rose Jr. as master of ceremonies, Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce banquet will be held in senior high gymnasium at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening. Everything is "ready" for the banquet, postponed from last February because of bad weather. Rose is president of the chamber.

Dinner will be catered by Walter Jeton, Fort Worth, and dinner music will be provided by Dixie Sims at the organ. Mrs. R. C. Godwin, vocalist, will sing.

The program will open with Maurice Tannahill, retiring president, outlining accomplishments of the chamber for last year, and afterward will present plaques to the out-going directors.

Tannahill, himself, will receive a plaque from Rose, and a representative of the Junior Chamber of Commerce will present the "Texas Spirited City" award to Don Zimmerman, who is chairman of the chamber's membership committee.

"Ball" awards are to be presented to Jack Allan, who is building a beef processing plant here, and to the speaker of the evening.

J. F. Martin, president of the Hereford Lions Club, is to present an award to the "Citizen of the Year." Name of the winner will not be announced in advance.

Speaker will be Jeff Williams, noted southwestern after-dinner speaker and philosopher, who

Run-Off Election Slated For April 28

Hereford voters will go to the polls again April 28 to pick a city commissioner for place 3.

The election, a run-off, will see Albert F. Maxwell and W. J. (Bill) Howard battling it out for a seat on the city council after last Tuesday's city election failed to provide a majority for any one of three candidates who were seeking the post. The city council met Wednesday and set the date for the run-off.

Maxwell received 426 votes and incumbent Howard polled 279 votes. W. E. (Bill) Dickson, third candidate for the place 3 post, gathered 187 votes.

In place 4, Lloyd B. Sharp received a majority over the other two candidates. Sharp polled 692 votes, defeating Gerald Hale with 112 votes and Michael Justice with 71.

The run-off election will be held at the City Manager's office between 8 a.m. and 7 p.m.

The first indictment returned involved William Callahan for forgery and passing. He was tried Tuesday in 69th Judicial District Court, Judge Harry Schultz, presiding. Callahan entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

An indictment was returned against Albert Bowden for driving an automobile without consent of owner. A similar indictment was returned against Robert Mercer and Chancie L. Mercer. Both of the latter entered pleas of guilty before Judge Schultz and were given two years probation sentence.

Indictments were returned against John Shackelford and Loyd Ragland, involving similar charges of driving while intoxicated, second offense.

A single indictment was returned against five Amarillo residents involving the burglary of two grain elevators in Deaf Smith County. The group indicted, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Ross, and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schoenberg and T. J. Hinkle, were all sentenced in Amarillo after pleading guilty to charges of burglary.

An indictment was returned against Paulino Rivera and Jesus Gonzales involving several burglaries near Hereford. The two men were arrested with six other youths last month by officers of the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Department.

Eight burglaries were cleared up with the arrest of the men. Both entered pleas of guilty before Judge Schultz. Paulino Rivera was sentenced to the state penitentiary for three years and Jesus Gonzales was given a four-year sentence for burglary.

Members Give Week's First Hour To Lord

The Wesley Methodist Church has a project in progress at the church whereby each member donates his first hour's wages to the church each week and the money collected goes toward retiring the church bonds.

The project is called the Lord's Hour. It has been in effect since September of 1963.

The project was started when $40,000 in bonds were sold to cover the cost of construction for the new sanctuary.

Barbers, school teachers, baby sitters, typists, clerks, laborers, salesmen, construction workers, farmers and many other type workers are participating in the project.

The farmers contribute one acre of the yield of their land at harvest time for their part in the project.

Henry Solomon is the chairman of the Lord's Hour and Mrs. J. E. McCathern is the secretary. Robert Boyd serves as treasurer for the project.

"In all there are 32 projects in which the first hour is given each week and we are receiving over $100 per month. We are very pleased with the results and are grateful for the help," Rev. Cleby Patterson said.

Town Grows, So Crime Gains, Too

Your Police Department — Final Part in a Series of Five

This trend is rising faster than any other criminal action.

The Department's record of arrest and recovery in burglaries ranks with the top in the nation.

The national average for burglaries cleared for cities below 10,000 population is 29 percent. In 1963 the Hereford Police Department cleared 30 percent of the auto burglaries. This was the only percentage that was near the national average.

In residence burglaries, 6 percent of the cases reported ment is witnessing a record-breaking growth of criminal acts within the city, due to the astounding growth in population.

Criminals arrests were up nearly two hundred over previous years.

The largest amount of arrests made were involving "drunks" where 174 were arrested in 1963. These persons prohibit the Hereford Patrolman from going about their regular duties, but they must be arrested for their own safety as well as the public.

Your Police

plaints last year that property valued at more than $42,169.54 had been stolen from residents of Hereford.

Of the $42,169.54 stolen, an unbelievable 66 percent was recovered by the police department. A total of $28,146.26 was recovered and returned to the citizens from which it was taken.

This figure of $28,146.26 is one-third of the cost of operating the Hereford Police Department for one year, and this is just one of the main ways they earn their "keep".
The department of thefts is where the Hereford Police Department really "shines". The national average for thefts cleared for cities under 10,000 is 18 percent of all the cases reported. The Hereford Police Department cleared up 54 percent of the cases reported in 19-63.

In cases reported where the theft involved over $50, 42 percent of the cases reported were cleared by arrest.

The lowest percentage came in the theft over $5 bracket, where only 30 percent were cleared. However, this is 11 percent over the national average.

The highest percentage came in the theft under five dollars where 70 percent were cleared by arrest.

Of the theft over $50 bracket, 38 complaints were made and 15 were cleared by arrest, exceptionally cleared or unfounded.

In the theft over $5 portion, 113 were reported and 35 cleared by arrest, exceptionally cleared or unfounded.

Ten complaints were made involving theft over $5. Seven of the ten were cleared by arrest, exceptionally cleared or unfounded.

The exceptionally cleared cases are where the department knows who committed the offense, but the complainant does not wish to file on the participant in the crime or the participant is out of state and cannot be extradited.

The unfounded cases are where the complainant thought an offense had been committed and later found the property either misplaced or not stolen.
The cases cleared by arrest are those that have been filed in court or in the event the defendant is a juvenile, he was turned over to the county judge.

Juvenile arrests pose one of the largest problems to the police department. There were 62 juveniles arrested in 1963.
This figure is well above previous years and continues to rise.

Other offenses such as DWI, forgery, liquor violations, sex offenses, prohibited weapons, gaming and assault all are on the upswing due to the over-expansion of the city.

The Hereford Police Department continues to fight the crime and in most cases prevent them before they happen.
This again is the most important service rendered by the department, but it is just one of the many services.

When a patrolman is out on the street he must be prepared to be a dogcatcher, traffic patrolman and a detective. He is prepared at all times to safeguard the lives and property of Hereford citizens.

At last Monday's City Council session, the group again considered the matter of an electrical board to control electrical contracting within the city of Hereford. They voted unaniboard.

The commission also voted to leave the rate for a license at $50. The three-man commission will be composed of the city inspector, a master electrician and a member of another building trade.

The commission voted to annex the Green Acres Estates, Suburban Heights, Bluebonnet

The commission voted in every instance to accept the de-concerning the rezoning of block one on McKinley Street, the J.

L. Marcum lot on Highway 385 and the Denton Addition.

The commission received the annual report of the Hereford Police Marshall Padgett. The text of this report has been appearing in a feature in the Sun-

The fire department and water department also issued their an-

The commission discussed the paving of 15th street which is being done by private developers. The commission agreed that the street should be 44 feet wide.

In the final business the commission discussed the future need for a booster station and underground water storage facilities in the Northwest part of Hereford. They also accepted the low bid from Bryant Brothers

Smith county, and someday, it's going to make its appearance here."

He explained that the effort to get ahead of any possible infestation, causes farmers to plant early.

Although cotton is not a big crop in Deaf Smith county, some 6000 acres will be devoted to that crop, and planting will get under way early next month.
Spring barley was planted last month.

Lefty Thomas summed up the crop situation like this: "Wheat, while not looking too good because of dryness, is making fair progress, and planting of other crops is doing ok. Of course it's too early to tell what the yield will be, but we can hope that moisture arrives for our dryland wheat before it is too late.
Otherwise we are in pretty fair condition, cropwise. But wheat is one of our big money crops;

Your Red Cross In Action

By Corinne J. Neely

Instead of a "silent spring," we seem to be in for a violent spring! Your chapter had no sooner cleared the disaster inquiries on the Alaskan Earthquake, when the Wichita Falls Tornado occurred. Locally we had one Wichita Falls request—to make inquiry. All requests brought good news.

We are looking forward to the Disaster meeting set up by the Chamber of Commerce wherein again we will review the duties of the Red Cross and Civil Defense combination. We the chapter are chartered by the government to fulfill certain obligations. They are food, shelter, clothing bedding and medicines. We offer volunteers to the city and county for other needed services. The chapter has had a written plan for over 20 years, which has been accepted by our headquarters. This plan includes nearly fifty persons on committees, with a chairman, and others. The Jaycees head many of these groups.

In the Wichita Falls Disaster 565 families were affected. Seven killed and 85 injured. Red Cross relief expenditures for the above named services are expected to run $300,000 (For your information — where one to five families are involved, the local chapter has the responsibility in its community — more than that, brings help from our area office — St. Louis) A brief summary of the Alaskan earthquake shows total dead (known) 27;

missing and presumed dead, 93; injured and hospitalized, 61.
Towns affected Anchorage (4 of our requests from here); Cape
St. Elias, Chenega, Kodiak, Point
Newell, Point White Shed,
Port Ashton, Port San Juan,
Seward, Valdez and Whittier.
Then in California, Crescent City, where 300 families were affected. Seaside, Oregon had 13 homes damaged or destroyed.

The Gray Ladies of the chapter are having a busy month and at present are the most active of our volunteers. They will attend a planning luncheon Thursday. The plans will be for an Air Force Base Retrainee Party, which they are hostess for,
twice a year; an area meeting of the chapter, also twice a year affair; and our Annual Meeting set for April 24th.

The past months, our four new First Aid instructors have been busy with classes. We find fall and winter best for these classes.
And with spring the Water Safety committee begins on their plans for the summer. An area party for the instructors has been set for 16th at Canyon.

One application has been made for WSI training and others being sought.

Union Employed Blockade Practice To Halt Rebels

(No. 6 in a series published in a cooperative program of this paper, the Texas Press Association and the Texas State Historical Survey Committee.)

By Allan C. Ashcraft, Ph.D.

A pilot boat, displaying the flag of truce, came forward from Galveston harbor and asked to know the mission of the newly arrived U.S.S. South Carolina. Commander James Alden, captain of the Union vessel, answered by displaying a copy of President Abraham Lincoln's declaration of a blockade and by stating that his objective was to enforce the presidential decree. It was early July of 1861. The blockading of Texas had begun. For the first two years of the war additional Union ships arrived in Texas waters until the blockading squadron came to approach thirty vessels in number. During this period, however, there was actually very little blockade running along the Texas shoreline. With Cuba as their great base of operations, most blockade runners headed for nearby southeastern Confederate ports. Also, the sandbars along much of the Texas coast encouraged the use of small schooners with very limited cargo space over the employment of more sizable ships. Finally, Texas had an overland outlet to international trade through Mexico — the only neutral nation bordering the Confederate States of America.

By 1863, however, the situation was changing. Heavy blockading efforts to the east caused many runners to head towards the more difficult-to-patrol coast of Texas. And, a number of key ports in the southeast had fallen into Union hands; within the year only Charleston, Mobile, Wilmington and Galveston would remain as major ports under the Confederate flag. Then, too, by the middle of the war, Texas overland trade through Mexico was seriously disrupted by drought conditions and by a transportation breakdown. Because of these factors, heavy sea traffic developed between Galveston and Havana. While it is difficult to gauge the size of this commerce, Galveston wharves were busy with the unloading of critically needed consumer goods and military supplies, and with the loading of thousands of bales of valuable cotton. Because cargo space was at such a premium, screw jacks were used to compress bales of cotton into holds. In fact, it soon became a source of pride among stevedores to force the greatest number of bales into a given ship. One unfortunate vessel was sunk when over-ambitious bale handler compressed the cargo right through the bottom of the ship.

The Havana-Galveston voyage normally took three days, and the captains hoped to approach the Texas port on dark nights when the waters were smooth. By using sounding lines, the runners could determine their nearness to the shore and still gain maximum benefit from the darkness that concealed them from lookouts on Union blockade ships. On stormy nights when soundings were inaccurate and the danger of running aground was greatest, the evasive ships from Havana would anchor some thirty miles out in the gulf and would nervously await the return of normal weather conditions. While thus standing by, the runners would keep a very close watch for other ships and would keep their boilers well fired (with hard coal that burned with a minimum of smoke) in case it became necessary to outrun suspicious Union craft. When the weather finally settled the cargo ships would take advantage of the next evening dusk to move close enough to shore to allow its lookouts to spot the tips of the blockaders' masts. At this point anchors were again dropped and the sailors once more waited for the time to pass so that their entry into Galveston Bay would occur just at the right moment. During this period of riding at anchor just beyond the reach of the Federal fleet, extreme cautions were taken to facilitate a rapid escape. The entire crew remained on an alert status. Men with sledge-hammers stood by the anchor rigs ready to knock out the chain shackles and to abandon both anchors and anchor chains if rapid flight became necessary. Engineers worked throughout these hours to keep the steam level right up to the blowing-off point. Finally, about two hours before dawn, the ships would grope their way forward guided by lead weighted lines. Their aim was to glide silently past the blockading ships and to reach the outskirts of the harbor just as the first rays of the new dawn were breaking.

In addition to the formidable Galveston traffic, a number of smaller schooners made runs into other ports of Texas. Because of sandbars, these boats

Judges, the horn section was considered the more mature sounding group.

"The attainment of this award is symbolic of a great individual sacrifice on the part of every band member. We all worked many, many hours before and after school and for the past two weeks we have been practicing every evening," Gollehon continued.

Gollehon explained, "We are suffering from a lack of mature personnel. By that I mean that several years ago we were suffering from a lack of students in the lower grades and therefore we have very few juniors and seniors. Most of the members in the band today are freshmen and sophomores and lack the maturity and experience of upperclassmen, but certainly possess the maturity of sound."

Tascosa High School of Amarillo was the only band to win a Sweepstakes in the AAAA division. Canyon, Tulia and Spearman all won Sweepstakes in AA division, while Memphis, Panhandle and Canadian all won Sweepstakes in A. There was no Sweepstakes Award won in B division, while Perryton Junior High won a Sweepstakes in CC division. Robert E. Lee Junior High of Pampa won Sweepstakes in the CCC division.

"We will not let up for a minute as we are preparing for the Tri-State Band Festival, which will be held in Enid, Okla. April 30 - May 1, 2," Gollehon continued.

The band plans to work before and after school and evenings the last two weeks in April.

"We feel we owe a great debt of gratitude to Bill Michael, principal of Hereford High School, for the great job he did in making it possible to prepare for the contest and prevent conflicts in schedule. The entire band feels that without his cooperation the successful venture to Canyon would not have been possible," Gollehon continued.

The funds for the Tri-State Band Festival are still short and $500 more is needed to finance the trip to Enid. Contribution may be mailed to Albert Maxwell, president of the Band-Aides.

were usually equipped with moveable centerboards that could be pulled up when shoals and shallow waters were being crossed. Many of the smaller ships headed for Central American ports. Tampico, Vera Cruz and Belize (British Honduras) became centers for Texas cotton trading.

Blockade running off the Texas coast was successful until war's end. Vital medicines, metals, guns, ammunition and supplies not only reached troops in Texas but much of it was smuggled across the Union-held Mississippi River to other Confederate forces.

BALLOONS FOR THE AIR FORCE
SYRACUSE, N. Y. — Syralia Electric Products is investigating the possibility of using balloons for a communications network to link Air Force installations throughout the world. The network would provide an instant voice and a signal contact and is designed to overcome deliberate interference and natural radio disturbances. The study, being conducted by a $100,000 Air Force contract, will determine the feasibility of relaying signals over microwave radio beams by bouncing them off balloons orbiting the earth at heights of 2,000 miles.

GOLDEN POND, Ky. — This Western Kentucky town is in the center of a proposed recreation area to be developed by the Tennessee Valley Authority. The audit reports which tell our advertisers: How much circulation we have; where it goes; how it was obtained; and many other FACTS that tell advertisers what they get for their money when they advertise in this newspaper.

Advertisers are invited to ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.

By Melvin Young

Monday, April 13 marks the beginning of another Fix-Up, Paint-Up, Clean-Up campaign in Hereford, with City fathers and local merchants cooperating to make Hereford a more beautiful place in which to live.

Mayor Ray Cowart has issued a statement proclaiming the week as such, and the City of Hereford will be running more trucks in order to gather up the accumulated trash and litter, tree limbs, etc.

Property owners are urged to clear and clean vacant lots throughout the city, and residents are urged to purchase lids for trash containers. City officials place emphasis on the trash can lids, pointing out that the fly season is just ahead and lids will be invaluable. The lids may be acquired at the City Hall and will cost $2.25 each.

Paint-Up and Fix-Up will play an intricate part in the week's promotion, with many home owners taking this opportunity to start remodeling and redecorating their homes.

To top it off, the current clean-up campaign will work hand in hand with a state "anti-litter" campaign, launched this week by the Governor of Texas. Hundreds of trucks running throughout the state of Texas will have large signs painted across their tailgate proclaiming the state's "War on Litter", pointing out that it costs the taxpayers many thousands of dollars each year to keep highways cleared of trash and litter.

And while we're on the subject of "litter", we wonder if anything could be done about the number of beer cans strewn along our highways and country roads. We understand that the county is plagued constantly with the problem of picking up the cans along the right of way.

But the clean-up campaign has already started around the Young homestead. We have a bad situation in our neighborhood, with a couple of neighbors who consistently keep their yards and gardens spotless. The poor weeds just don't have a chance around Earl Phillips and Earl Cole. Consequently, it creates problems around our place. The lady of the house has given orders for the forthcoming week. Clean-up or else.

Well sir, we've decided not to fight it. Fate is again us, so Sunday afternoon, come, what may, we'll be out in the yard with hoe and rake trying to make the place look a little better. And we'll be fighting a losing battle we're sure.

This week will be a busy one for most area residents, with clean-up, fix-up campaign running full blast and farmers early and late getting land ready for planting spring crops, plus keeping the wheat watered.

And this week is also the time for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet; postponed once due to adverse weather. We hope it doesn't happen again. Our curiosity almost gets the best of us each year, wondering who the Lions' Club Citizen-of-the-Year will be. However, it won't be long.

Tickets can be purchased at the Chamber of Commerce office in case you don't have yours.

Ray Martin, news editor of the Hereford Brand, has been a victim of misleading advertising. Ray says the Brylcreem hair dressing ads say "a little dab will do it", but he has tried as much as three dabs and the girls still don't chase him. Some one should tell him... you gotta' have a little hair.

Don Marquis once said "Procrastination is the art of keeping up with yesterday".

Time is a daily miracle. You wake up in the morning, a lot your purse is magically filled with twenty-four hours of the unmanufactured tissue of the universe of life. It is yours. It is the most precious of possessions. No one can take it from you. And no one receives either more or less than you receive. In the realm of time there is no aristocracy of wealth, and no aristocracy of intellect. Genius is not rewarded by even one extra hour a day. — Bennett.

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS

Tension Eases As Court Postpones Re-Districting

By Vern Sanford Texas Press Association
AUSTIN—A mighty head of tension which had built up at the state capitol ceased as the Houston federal court agreed to postpone effect of its congressional redistricting order until the next elections.
Top Democratic officials and members of the Legislature kept close watch on the news wires out of Houston as they sweated out the decision following four days of hearings and argument.
Their optimism had waned in the last 24 hours before the ruling was announced. More than one legislator reportedly had his bag packed ready to return to Austin for a special session.
Gov. John Connally apparently had indicated he would call the session immediately if the court stuck by its original October 19 order for at-large (state-wide) elections in all districts unless the Legislature adopted a redistricting bill.
As it is, although the court postponed effective date of its ruling, it kept the case on its docket and will take further action if a constitutional redistricting bill is not passed by August 1, 1965.
Major officials applauded the ruling.
Republicans, who brought the original suit, were disappointed that the equal-population-top-each-district order will not take effect until congress after next. But they took comfort in the fact that their principal goal was achieved.
Governor Connally said redistricting will be given "highest priority" in the 1965 Legislature and "every attempt will be made to have a thorough redistricting consistent with the opinions of the Supreme Court and (the Houston) federal court."
Frank C. Erwin Jr., State Democratic Executive Committee Chairman, said redistricting will be the main plank in the State Democratic platform this year.
An "entirely satisfactory" solution will be found by the Legislature next year, predicted Lt. Gov. Preston Smith.
George Bush, Republican U. S. Senate candidate from Houston who filed the suit with four other GOPs, said the group would file no appeal since further delays... would lead to turmoil.
Democratic Congressman-at-large candidate Bob Looney, an intervener in the action, didn't agree and promised a new appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court for redistricting this year. He also called on Texans to petition Governor Connally for a special Legislative session on the subject.
For all practical purposes, the judicial chapter on redistricting is closed for the year. Congressmen will run in their old districts one more time.
Major surgery must be performed on the districts next year. And while they are carving, state legislators in all probability will have to re-divide their own districts. Another suit is pending to force state legislative reapportionment. For lawmakers, that will be even more painful.
RECORD VOTER LIST—There are more Texas voters this year than ever.
A record total of 2,888,183 have paid poll taxes or obtained exemption certificates, the State Comptroller reports.
That's 293,929 more than in 1960, the previous record year, and 533,024 more than in 1962. Even so, the report does not include the free registrations for federal elections or voters over 65 who do not have to get exemptions because they live in cities of less than 10,000 population. Addition of these two categories could swell the qualified voter list to more than 3,000,000.
Eighty-eight percent of the qualified voters cast ballots in the 1960 presidential election. If they turn out at the same rate in this year's presidential general election, more than 2,500,000 votes will be cast.

Texas Republicans, aiming at getting a larger share of those votes, say they will have at least one polling place in every county for the May primary.
SALT WATER POLLUTION—Texas Railroad Commission is putting more teeth into its orders against unlined earthen surface pits for salt water disposal.
At least 30 oil leases in the Hubbard Creek watershed have been severed because operators failed to comply with the commission's "no-pit" order which became effective for that area on March 1.
Commission says it will inspect every lease in the watershed. Oil cannot be moved by pipeline or truck while the leases are severed.
TEXAS SAVINGS BONDS—Secretary of State Crawford C. Martin has named chairman of a payroll savings campaign for the purchase of U. S. savings bonds by state employees.
Governor Connally, honorary chairman of the Texas Savings Bonds Committee, named Martin to the post of coordinating efforts of state agencies to encourage their employees to buy savings bonds through payroll savings plans.
PARKS AND WILDLIFE—Texas game wardens and biologists are making a spring survey of wild turkeys in many parts of the state, to get an idea of their population trend. They also have begun their spring squirrel census in counties where the squirrel is an important game species.
Two key regulations for state parks will (1) Permit camping and shelter occupancy for a 14 day limit during the regular tourist season between May 1 and September 13, and (2) make radios, recorded music and musical instruments subject to a 10 p.m. curfew in picnic, camping, shelter and other overnight facility areas. However, they will be permitted in concession buildings and immediate areas until 11 p.m.
Sheldon Reservoir, a 1,200 acre lake 15 miles northeast of Houston, has been opened to boat and wade fishing.
CANDIDATES POLLED—Texas State Teachers Association polled legislative candidates on their stand on education and reported they endorsed a $45 per month pay raise for school teachers and strongly favored five other measures which would benefit Texas schools.
Replies to the questionnaire, sent by TSTA's magazine, "Outlook", came from 26 of the 35 Senate candidates and 269 of the 406 House candidates.
APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED—Governor Connally appointed four members of the board of regents of Midwestern University, Wichita Falls. They are R. Clay Underwood, Marvin Pierce and James Barnett of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Macon Boddy of Henrietta.
Connally names H. D. Fields of Saint Jo to the Red River Authority board of directors to fill the unexpired term of C. O. Glenn of Nocona, extending until 1967.
Sgt. Willard E. Hale of Houston is the new inspector of the Inspection and Planning Division of the Texas Department of Public Safety.
HIGHWAY PROJECTS—Texas Highway Department tentatively approved a $33,400,000 freeway, Interstate 26, through the Fort Worth-Dallas area.
Dallas, Houston and Fort Worth delegations asked approval of highway projects costing $42,000,000.
A Rusk County delegation sought $16,000,000 worth of improvements and a Dawson County group asked the Highway Commission for $1,000,000 more in the Lamesa area.
CENTERS PLANNED—Governor Connally's Committee on Education Beyond the High School has taken a look at plans to use Texas industries as "great research centers" and to launch brand new types of graduate degree programs.
Committee studied these proposals and 14 others in a recent session as it continued to seek ways to achieve top ranking for the Texas college system by 1975.
Its final meeting, before writing a tentative report, is scheduled for April 18.
THEY'RE SMOKING AGAIN—

Texans, who showed signs of slowing down on their smoking in February shortly after medical scare reports, are now at it again as heavy as ever.
Tax revenue from cigarette sales, which dropped sharply soon after the federal report on smoking dangers was released, jumped nearly $1,400,000 during March, according to State Treasurer Jesse James.
"It looks like they have gone back to smoking," shrugged James. "At least, there's not any big wholesale quitting."
Comptroller Robert Calvert said it worked out about the way he figured—smokers would go back to their cigarettes after the first shock of the warnings faded.
BAR SEEKS TO BAN BELLIES—Fed up with the antics of bellicose California lawyer Melvin Belli, the Texas State Bar Association is seeking an order from the State Supreme Court to keep him from practicing law in Texas.
Claimed the Bar, in requesting an injunction against the one-time chief defense counsel for slayer Jack Ruby, "Belli's conduct has been so grossly and flagrantly unethical, intemperate and abusive in nature as to weaken the administration of justice and to lessen public respect for the courts and laws of this state."

Belli has no remorse for his tirades against Dallas and the trial court since his former client received the death penalty.

SHORT SHORTS

Texas Liquor Control Board reports that collections for the entire state totaled $36,454 in February, as the result of 712 convictions and 49 jail terms with just 54 dismissals and 5 acquittals.
Texas business activity hit a new high during February, University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported.
A new calendar of tourist events is available from Texas Highway Department... Mrs. Grace M. Martin of College Station has resigned as women's activities consultant in the Civil Defense and Disaster Relief office... State Department of Banking received an application for a state bank in Lake Gardens, Tom Green County... State Savings and Loan Department is pondering rival applications of Kendall Savings Association for a new charter at Boerne and Community Savings and Loan Association of Fredericksburg for a branch office in Boerne... State Supreme Court rejected appeals of Dist. Atty. Hulon Brown of Jacksonville and Justice of the Peace, Curtis Lacy of Austin for places on Democratic primary ballots in Angelina County and Travis County, respectively.

Haney Puts Jinx On 13 To Nip Nazareth 19-8

Jim Haney struck out 13 men to clip the Nazareth Swifts 19-8 in a non-conference game.
The Herd went through four Nazareth pitchers as they got 19 runs on 17 hits.
The Herd failed to score in the first inning but the Swifts came back in the bottom of the first and got their first run.
Neither team scored in the second inning, but the Herd broke loose in the third and scored five runs and the Swifts got a run in the third.
The Herd went wild again in the top of the fourth and scored nine more runs, but the Swifts hooked up and hit four more runs in. However, every player in the dugout was sent into the game after the tremendous lead was gained in the top of the fourth.
The Herd got four more hits in the fifth and stopped the Swifts in the bottom of the inning.
The Swifts scored two more runs in the bottom of the sixth and the Herd finished the scoring with a run in the seventh.
The Herd got 17 hits to the Swifts eight, but committed seven errors to their six.
"There was no out field fence and a lot of errors were committed because the outfield had to play so far back. Several of the errors came because of some of the inexperienced players," Coach Ronald Speed said. Eugene Green and Gary Stagner both slammed homeruns and Ronnie Duncan got a double. The remaining 14 hits were all singles.

The two clubs battle again Tuesday at the Hereford Stadium. The Whitefaces stand 8-7 to 0-3 for Nazareth.

Williams Hears Pleas of Guilty

Business was slow in county court this week as only three cases, all guilty pleas, were heard by county Judge H. C. Williams.
Arlos McClintock was fined $25 and costs by Judge Williams for "driving" while license was suspended.
Domingo Guerrero was sentenced to 45 days in the county jail after he entered a plea of guilty to a charge of carrying a prohibited weapon.
Panta Leon Nava was found guilty of driving while intoxicated and was fined $50, five days in jail and costs.

It's Time For Spring Cleaning!

THIS DISPLAY OF THE MATERIALS TO BE used in a campaign against litterbugs was set up by Mrs. A. L. Moore during the meeting Friday of Hereford Garden Club in the home of Mrs. W. C. Hromax. Mrs. M. T. Rutter is general chairman of the campaign, which began Friday with a poster contest and skits prepared by students of Northwest Elementary.

More or less coincidentally two campaigns in Hereford this week join in an effort to remedy the ravages of winter and a windy spring as Hereford residents clean-up, fix-up, paint-up, and plant for beautification of the city.

Hereford Garden Club is sponsoring a litterbug campaign locally as their part of the national campaign of the National Federation of Garden Clubs. Skits and posters prepared by students at Northwest Elementary School and a display of car stickers and other materials opened the campaign Friday.

Mayor Ray Cowser has proclaimed this to be Clean-Up, Fix-Up, Paint-Up Week in Hereford. During this week all citizens are urged to improve the general appearance of our community, both business and residences.

WINNING POSTER — Betty Hodges displays her winning poster in the litterbug poster contest sponsored by Hereford Garden Club, which is participating in the National Litterbug Campaign. Betty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hodges, 120 Centre, and is a sixth grader at Northwest Elementary.

"The Litterbugs Change Their Names" is the title of the skit presented by Mrs. Tommy Braddy's students for members of Hereford Garden Club Friday afternoon. The garden club is participating in the National Federation of Garden

TIME TO PREPARE FOR SUMMER BEAUTY and dispel winter's gloom—Mrs. A. L. Manjot thins and transplants her delphinium, plants gladiol bulbs and larkspur seed, and grooms her yard after the long winter months just in time to coincide with her garden club's litterbug campaign and Hereford's Clean-Up, Fix-Up, Paint-Up Week. She and other members of Hereford Garden Club are encouraging the planting of larkspur in the area this year.

"You mean you think I'm a litterbug?" — The sixth grade students of Miss Gladys Setliff, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Al Yeager, and Mrs. Tommy Braddy at Northwest Elementary School presented skits on litterbugs for members

Society Explains Cancer Origins

This is the American Cancer Society's special month for promoting education of the general public against cancer. The society urges all persons to "fight cancer—with a checkup and a check."

The society urges all adult Americans to do two things to protect themselves against cancer: (1) have a medical checkup annually, no matter how well you feel; (2) learn cancer's seven danger signals and go to your doctor immediately if one of them lasts longer than two weeks. Here's the reason why:

Cancer typically begins as a "localized" disease. At the start, just one of the tiny cells of the body (or perhaps a few cells) undergoes an unfortunate change—it becomes a malignant cell. The cancer cell reproduces itself by dividing into two cells which in turn redivide and so on. All of the descendants of the original cancer cell are themselves cancer cells. Thus the cancer grows.

The great majority of cancers originate on the surface of some tissues such as the skin, the inner surface of the uterus, the lining of the mouth, stomach, intestines, bladder or a bronchial tube, or the lining of a duct in the breast, prostate gland or elsewhere. For a time, such cancers typically remain at the site of origin and are visible only under a microscope, but later growing into a mass that can be seen with the naked eye. While it remains confined to its source of origin this lesion is known as "carcinoma in situ," that is, "cancer in its original site."

After a time, some of the cancer cells penetrate beyond the surface and "invade" the underlying tissues. This is "invasive cancer." After invading, the cancer continues to grow but for a time the cancer cells may remain more or less together as an intact mass, though perhaps spreading irregularly. So long as all of the living cancer cells remain where the disease started it is said to be "localized."

The more dangerous phases of cancer are the later ones. Some of the cancer cells eventually become detached and are carried through the lymph channels or blood vessels to other parts of the body. This process is known as "metastasis." But the body has a protective mechanism. The detached cancer cells may be trapped in a lymph node in the region of the original organ. This retards the spread for a time. This stage of the disease is known as "regional involvement."

If left untreated the cancer cells eventually spread to many parts of the body. This is "advanced cancer." Death is then almost inevitable, though not necessarily quick.

In theory, all cancers can be cured when it is possible to remove or destroy all of the cancer cells existing in the patient's body. This is easily accomplished by surgery when cancer is found in the "carcinoma in situ" stage. It can usually be accomplished by surgery or radiation therapy when in the "regional involvement" stage. It can almost never be done once cancer cells have spread through the patient's body.

The problem then is to detect cancer before it has spread so that it can be removed by surgery or destroyed by radiation.

For unknown reasons, some cancers grow and spread slowly while others grow and spread rapidly. Some types spread with such rapidity that they are incurable at the present time. Fortunately, about half of all cancers are of the type that are presently curable.

This is why we urge Americans to "Fight cancer with a checkup." This is why we educate them to heed the danger signals. If they do get cancer they will then have a better

Wayne Thomas Discusses Wills For Simms Club

Wayne Thomas, local attorney, was guest speaker for the annual covered dish supper April 2 of members of Simms Study Craft Club and their husbands. Mrs. Robert Lloyd, president, welcomed the guests and introduced the speaker.

Wills were discussed by Mr. Thomas. He pointed out many important facts to consider in making wills and stressed the importance of each spouse having a will. "If your will was made several years ago, have you read it recently? Has there been an addition to your family who is not named in your will as you would have it?" he asked.

We also urge fighting cancer "With a check," because our dollars support the research that will hasten the day when even advanced cancer can be cured, or better, prevented.

ed. In conclusion he answered the questions of his audience.

The meeting, which was held in Simms Community Building, was attended by about 50 people. The tables were decorated in the Spring theme with baskets of fresh flowers.

Take a good look at the world's most comprehensive refrigeration warranty.

(AND COME IN AND SEE THE ONLY REFRIGERATOR-FREEZERS IN THE WORLD BUILT WELL ENOUGH TO BACK IT UP)

This is a most unusual document. It is the only refrigeration warranty that covers both parts and labor for five full years. And it's a warranty on total appliance—not just the compressor, or the motor, or other commonly warranted parts. Some small exceptions, like light bulbs, are specifically mentioned.

Amana gives you more protection for your investment than has ever been offered by any refrigeration-appliance manufacturer. No other refrigeration warranty gives so much protection for such a long period of time . . . because only Amana has the quality to back up such a claim . . . unmatched by any other maker of refrigerators, freezers and room air conditioners.

So you can forget about major repair bills when you purchase an Amana. Amana's warranty assures trouble-free enjoyment of your appliance. Ask your dealer to show you the chart comparing competitive promises . . . prove to yourself that Amana's warranty gives much more comprehensive coverage.

AMANA FIVE-YEAR WARRANTY ON TOTAL APPLIANCE

Amana Distributors and their Dealers, independently and not as agents of Amana Refrigeration, Inc., extend the following warranty to owners of 1964 Amana Refrigerators or Combination Freezer-plus-Refrigerators:

Free replacement or repair by an authorized Dealer, at his option, including related labor, of parts found defective under normal use as to workmanship or material within five years after delivery in the original retail purchase. The owner is responsible for normal maintenance services such as cleaning condensing coils, motor lubrication, and door alignment; for replacement of service items such as gaskets, rubber or plastic parts, light bulbs and accessories; and for normal deterioration of appearance items due to wear or exposure. This warranty does not cover local cartage or travel expense incurred in performance, nor does it apply to any product subjected to accident, misuse, negligence, abuse, detachment of control number plate, or repaired or altered by unauthorized personnel so as to affect adversely its performance or reliability.

This warranty shall be effective only within the United States and when the product is purchased from authorized Distributors or their Dealers. Purchasers from other sources, if any, may obtain service from authorized Distributors or their Dealers upon payment of their regular scheduled charges therefor.

Citizens Offer Sound School Growth Plans

The citizen school study committee reported to the board this week with recommendations running close to $2 1/2 million. The report indicated exhaustive study, and in many points indicated an effort toward long-range economy. Most important of all, however, was the fact that it included plans to cover future growth and expansion.

In a nutshell, the group recommended close to $1 1/3 million in the construction of two elementary schools and in remodeling of old ones, while another $1 million was designated for erection of a junior high school; remainder of the money was earmarked for junior high and general improvements, including the purchase of three or four additional school sites at approximately $50,000.

Fifteen year bonds, saving 3/4 million over 20-year bonds, or $1 million over $2.5-year bonds, were recommended as sound business procedure, and this is an important phase of school building which appears worthwhile. Conversion of Shirley Elementary school into high school rooms, when the need arises, also sounded like an excellent economy measure — and was no doubt what an earlier board had in mind when it so strategically located Shirley. Certainly, it would be the practical and economical approach to long-range high school planning.

The addition of clerical help, part or full time, to assist elementary administrators also appears logical and feasible in view of excessive paper work. Our only question on this subject is, "Why will we then need the assistant principals?" Along with supervisors and coordinators, many people feel that modern schools are becoming top heavy with administration — and the question is definitely open to argument.

The cost? According to the committee an estimated 10 percent can be added to the school district tax bill — and that it to be graduated with construction recommended "when and if" it is needed; otherwise the bonds will remain uncollected, and will not bear interest. Here, again, is a sound economy recommendation on part of the committee.

Hereford and the school district are currently in the throes of a population "boom", and if we judge by other towns and cities this boom will continue on for several years, though perhaps not in such great proportions. Consequently, the long-range look, including proposed additions and expansions in various buildings and departments, is definitely practical. There is no accurate or perfect answer to the problem, but it seems to us that the committee has emerged with the nearest thing to an ideal solution possible. And while it parallels board and administrative thinking, this is probably the logical answer. At least, it is better to have two sets of opinions on such an extensive program than one set.

Consequently, we cannot see where the voters have much choice other than to follow the lead of the board and adopt the proposals. We must maintain good schools, and this is just as important from a community standpoint as from the personal standpoint of those who have children to educate. We should also point out that, with expanded classrooms and more students, we will need more teachers and more administrators; therefore, we doubt if the estimated 10 percent increase will cover the total bill, once the expansion is completed. School taxes are already our highest single local tax, but they are still far, far below the "bite" which is paid to the federal government in the form of withholding and income taxes — and if we fail to keep pace with the needs, we can rest assured that the federal government will do it for us. Our answer is two-fold, but simple: 1). Let's vote the bonds we need for good schools in a growing community; 2). Let's give a word of appreciation and a pat on the back to committee members who studied the situation so well, and who came forth with practical and sensible answers.

The New Age Of Push Buttons

Someone predicts, from time to time, that we will live in a "push button" world within another decade. This sounded good at first but, after a few demonstrations, we are beginning to question just how wonderful this new life will be.

Take the telephone, for instance. Now days you dial your number and, "Bingo", you have your party — but if you get the wrong number, you are bound to admit that it was your own fault. Back in the days of local operators, you could leave messages, find out the time of day or, in case of emergency, just grab off the receiver and start yelling "Fire" or "Police." There were a lot of pleasant associations, and you'd be surprised at how well those young ladies used to keep up with community events and an occasional bit of gossip. Today, they are all confused with "area code," seven digits of numerals — and about half of the time "the voice you hear" is a recording.

Automatic transmissions on automobiles are push button innovation, which appears here to stay, and we have to admit that they are pretty good — except when you are driving on ice, in the mud, or when something goes wrong with one of the gadgets. Transmission trouble naturally calls for a specialist — and it makes no difference who you locate, he is always the wrong one.

Dish washing is another phase of modern life "made easy" by merely pushing the right button. It works well, except in some cases, including the times you use your best silver and china, when scraps adhere tenaciously to the plates — just after the repair man leaves. On some of these occasions, there are hundreds of housewives who would give their eyeteeth for an old fashion maid like grandma used to have. Besides, it is hard to find a dish washer which will go around and gather up the plates, scrape them out carefully and stack them "just so" in the machine.

Push button vending machines provide another great boon to humanity. You insert your coin, push the button which says "Black" and as likely as not, you will likely get sugar in your cup of coffee. This is quite distasteful at first, but is not so bad after you sip on it for a few minutes — and you always have the satisfaction of knowing that it would not have been very good, even if it had been "black" instead sugared.

As we said, a great portion of our population has never known the pleasures and advantages of personal service and, consequently, they go along their way happy and contented, spending a huge hunk of their income on mechanical gadgets and taking break-downs and "out of order" signs as a natural hazard in the American way of life. These, we sometimes feel, are the really fortunate ones, truly happy as they bask in ignorance of how obsolete things "used to be" in the days before all of our modern conveniences.

Water For A Drowning Man

Although President Johnson is a fellow Texan, we sometimes wonder if he is not letting his admiration and loyalty to former President Franklin D. Roosevelt sway his economic efforts.

First, he inaugurated the old CCC plan, and now he had rammed through a stamp plan for relief clients — all of which sounds extremely familiar to folks who can remember the Roosevelt administration in the early thirties.

While these emergencies were highly practical and applicable during the "Depression Days," it is well to recall that Roosevelt took office during what was probably the lowest ebb in U. S. economics, whereas Johnson took office under an extreme opposite condition at what is likely the highest economic peak in U. S. history.

We admit the methods worked once, but using depression tactics to cure a case of extreme inflation could have the same effect as prescribing a gallon of water for a drowning victim. To say the least, conditions today are radically different from those we faced in the 1930's.

Salt Piling Up In Red River Worries Engineers' Corps

By TEX EASLEY
WASHINGTON, (AP) — The Federal government has embarked on a project it hopes will stop pollution of the Red River by salt springs in the Texas Panhandle and make Lake Texoma attractive to industry.

The matter was discussed during recent hearings just made public by a House Appropriations Subcommittee which handles funds for the Welfare Department.

Subcommittee chairman John E. Fogarty, D-R, I., asked Gordon E. McCallum, water pollution control officer for the Department, about studies in the Arkansas-Red River Basin which thus far have cost about $2 million.

Brine from only a few places, McCallum said, is spoiling about 30 million acre feet of water yearly in the basin. He estimated this salt would make a pile the size of the Empire State Building within one year.

McCallum said the army Engineers have embarked on two pilot projects at Estelline and Guthrie, Tex., in hopes of stopping the salt springs.

"These springs alone put about 750 tons of salt a day into the Red River," McCallum said. "This is one of the reasons why Lake Texoma water has never been attractive to industry."

"If we can keep this salt out of the Arkansas and Red Rivers, we estimate an annual benefit of $15 million a year," McCallum said one proposed suggestion calls for construction of a pipeline to the Gulf of Mexico and another calls for channeling work to prevent ground water from moving through the strata which contains salts.

Asked how successful a channeling project might be, McCallum replied: "That has not been undertaken yet. That is speculative. It will be an economic decision in the final analysis as well as an engineering one."

He said investigations are still in progress.

AROUND THE CAPITOL
Chief Judge Marvin Jones of the U. S. Court of Claims, a Panhandle congressman for more than 20 years; before he was named to the bench in 1940, received personal notes from President Johnson and Chief Justice Earl Warren after he announced plans to retire May 1.

Warren noted that the 78-year-old Texan, as a senior judge, could serve as a part-time jurist after his retirement if he wished.

"If you should like to sit in other parts of the country at times," Warren wrote, "I know of places where you would be more than welcome."

Federal District Judge George L. Hart Jr. wrote that he had mixed emotions about Jones' retirement plans.

"I am filled with deep regret that we are losing... the services of a man who has devoted more than half a century so brilliantly in the service of our people," added the District of Columbia jurist. "I fear that even Texas doesn't make them like you any more."

Mrs. Ike Kampmann, Republican national committeewoman and wife of a San Antonio lawyer, has been in Washington helping plan the official entertainment for the GOP national convention program in San Francisco in July.

Miss Margaret Schuler, Waco, an aide to Rep. W. R. Poage, D-Tex., says she's impressed by the influence and amount of work done by Congressional committees.

Pinch-hitting for her boss in writing a letter to constituents while he was attending an inter-parliamentary Union meeting in Europe, Miss Schuler said Poage spends many hours weekly at sessions of the three Agriculture subcommittees he heads — livestock and feed grains, conservation and credit and foreign agricultural operations.

She came to Washington to succeed Mrs. Welda Mae Norris, who is now with the Veterans Administration in Waco.

A recent visitor to Washington was Stella Merrill, retired Congressional secretary who worked for many years on the staffs of former Texas Reps. Ed Gossett and Frank Ikard. She now lives in Big Spring.

Panhandle Paragraphs

The next big item coming up on the Brownfield Optimist club calendar is the oratorical contest... It's the first such venture staged by the local group, due to the fact that the club is still in its first year of operation, and the word is that three young men will be vying for top honors.

—Brownfield News-Herald

To say that we have suffered a great loss in the death of General Douglas MacArthur in itself is not sufficient to explain the extent of that loss. With the passing of this great man of undivided loyalty to our flag and the Republic for which it stands, our people are shocked into sudden realization that they have allowed to develop a social and political atmosphere in which there is no longer encouragement for the development of other sturdy patriots such as our departed hero who told us, "There is no substitute for victory."

—Berger News-Herald

With its big 24-inch water line yet to be hooked into the plentiful sandhills field, the City of Littlefield got a gigantic request from one consumer Thursday night — 420 million gallons of water to be delivered over a period of 15 years. The "thirsty" consumer was Livemore Drilling Co., a firm which is planning to water-flood the Littlefield oil field in a secondary recovery project.

—County Wide News (Littlefield)

Right now the gossips and the critics are carrying their little pettishness, we feel, a bit too far. We read in one column where our President was accused of speeding, and in another column we read where some critic had copied a story of President Johnson's supposedly asking that a memorial be built to God; memorials are built to the honor of the dead; and as a trusting soul we hope that for the sake of our nation and our world, God is not dead... we do have a great amount of respect for our nation's president... and if the president was speeding that in his office, after the national shocking incident which took the life of his predecessor, if anyone has a right to move swiftly he has that right to make less possible public target of himself.

—The North Plains Press (Dumas)

It was learned this week that two medical doctors have committed themselves to locating in Wheeler in mid-summer of this year. Dr. Larry C. Barbour and Dr. E. Paul Stewart announced their decision to come to Wheeler... Since they will finish the final phase of their training in the latter part of June, they stated they probably will be in Wheeler about July 15. Both are from Tulsa.

—The Wheeler Times

And by the way, how long ago has it been since you heard the term "modern" when applied to a house for rent? This used to designate that the particular rental property had indoor plumbing and it doesn't seem to us like it was so very long ago that people used to talk about "modern" houses, but of course it must have been a long time. There is a whole new generation right here in Perryton who not only have never used an outhouse, but who know nothing about them except what they have gleaned through family folklore. We suspect that the last outhouse in Perryton was turned over a long time ago, but even in this modern age, we have not come all the way. An outhouse, the primitive, rough seated two-holer, can be a mighty comfort to a person in need as witness the long lines that stood outside the two-holers at Lake Fryer last summer during the July 4 celebration.

THE BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Blindwood farm studies the cost of food this week.

Dear editor:
As I understand it, President Johnson is concerned over the high cost of food to consumers and the low cost to producers, or, in other words, why the farmer gets less and the housewife still pays more, why beef on the hoof can drop $6 a hundred, and still rise 2 cents a pound when it gets in the supermarket display counter.

In fact, he has asked Congress to appoint a 15-man committee to investigate.

I am in favor of this, and while I wouldn't have time to serve on the committee, I think I can explain part of the trouble.

The trouble lies with the farmer. He has never succeeded in growing beans in cellophane bags.

The farmer still uses the old-fashioned way of growing beans, just like they've always been grown, on a vine, inside a shell.

The supermarkets caught on long ago that beans in a shell or just beans in bulk have no eye-appeal. No impulse-buyer pushing a shopping cart down an aisle is going to stop to scoop up a sackful of loose beans. They've got to be sealed in cellophane with a brand name and a price tag marked 2 CENTS OFF before a housewife will respond.

Clearly, the fault lies with the farmer, or more accurately with the agricultural experiment stations and possibly the Department of Agriculture. Instead of figuring out ways to grow twice as many beans on the same stalk, the agricultural scientists ought to be working on a variety that'll come up inside a plastic bag already sealed with scotch tape.

Or take cattle. A rancher can get a steer to market for a certain price, but when the processors get hold of it, that's when the cost mounts up, and by the time the steaks get to the meat counter wrapped in cellophane, there's no connection between what the rancher got and the housewife pays. Clearly, the rancher is getting too little and the housewife is paying too much.

Something ought to be done about this, but you try selling live steers inside a supermarket and see how far you get. You'd never get one wrapped satisfactorily in cellophane.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

King's Manor and environs might be said to resemble a beehive now with all the activities. The nursing unit, King's Manor West, now under construction, should be roofed soon, and the two duplexes and the business manager's home are shaping up in a hurry also.

Galley and Knox, Lubbock contractors, started construction Tuesday of the medicare unit, which will house the administrative offices and more residents.

Many trees and shrubs have been planted and many more have been bedded until construction is completed and it is safe to set them out permanently.

In the meantime, our friends have seen to it that we do not become dullards. Last Friday evening Mrs. W. S. Dameron, Mrs. J. D. Pitman, Ben Gollehon, and Gerald Martin, who accompanied the group with his guitar, presented a fun program.

Sunday afternoon the Rainbow Girls, Assembly No. 202, from Happy, presented a gay program. They and their sponsors also brought refreshments. Among the visitors Sunday afternoon were Mrs. Jack Maxwell, Galveston, and the Dale Maxwell family from Plainview. They visited their brother and uncle, R. C. Daffern of the home.

Plainview Firm To Make Pipe — 90 Miles Of It

PLAINVIEW, (AP) — Production of pipe for 90 miles of the aqueduct that will deliver water to South Plains cities from the proposed Canadian River Municipal water Authority reservoir near Sanford in the Panhandle will begin here in June.

Cen-Vi-Ro, manufacturer of reinforced concrete pipe, is setting up its production facilities on a 30 acre tract a few miles north of Plainview.

The firm will make pipe that will be used in the aqueduct from Canyon to Lubbock. Contract for the 90 miles is $12,464,000.

Officials of the authority plan to be ready to deliver water to the 11 municipalities in the authority by late 1967. Total cost of the reservoir and aqueduct will be around $85 million.

The aqueduct will be approximately 322 miles of pipe serving cities from the dam southward to Brownfield. Pipe is now being laid on the 56-mile stretch from Canyon to the reservoir site.

M. J. Franklin, resident project manager, says work is progressing on schedule on the plant.

Included in the pipe project is a 184-foot steel structure to house forms, reinforcing cages and completed pipe as it emerges from a steam tunnel.

A second building, some 235-feet long, will house the pipe forming facilities. The steam tunnels will connect the two massive buildings.

Cen-Vi-Ro will manufacture pipes of four diameters—72, 66, and 60.

Franklin explained that the hydraulic characteristics of the water, plus the fact that some of the water will have been taken off, accounts for the decreasing size.

The pipe plant will employ 60 men working in two shifts turning out the seemingly endless string of pipe.

Cen-Vi-Ro's system begins with a roll of coiled steel from which a reinforcing cage is welded by a machine of Cen-Vi-Ro design.

The cage is installed in a prepared pipe form complete with end rings which form the gasket surfaces to protect against leaks in the aqueduct line.

The form is then placed in a spinning machine and is "charged" with the concrete mix. As it is being charged, the form is vibrated with high-frequency, high-amplitude vibrators, rolled and centrifugally spun at high speed.

Franklin says that each step in the process complements the other and aids in producing a dense, high strength concrete pipe.

After spinning and rolling, the pipe is removed from the spinning machine and conveyed through a controlled temperature steam tunnel for a curing period adequate for required strength as it emerges.

Following its steam bath, the pipe is moved into a stripping building where it is extracted from the form and the forming rings removed. It is then placed in temporary storage before transporting to the trench for laying.

The plant is being constructed to manufacture two joints of pipe at the same time. This calls for two spinning machines and two steam tunnels for handling the 16- and 20-foot joints.

Franklin heads the local project. Other Cen-Vi-Ro supervisory personnel at the plant are Bob Drago, project engineer; Alan Mac Kenzie, office manager; Al Hinter, plant construction engineer; and Leigh Lloyd, production engineer. Judy Burdick is the office secretary. The Cen-Vi-Ro firm is the general contractor on the link, but the actual pipelaying will be done by the R. H. Fulton Co., of Lubbock, which is the general contractor on the first line from the dam to Amarillo.

The Reclamation Bureau opened an office here to supervise the Cen-Vi-Ro contract and inspect all phases of the pipe manufacture and installation.

The office is headed by LeVerne (Abe) Lincoln, a veteran of 25 years' service with the Bureau of Reclamation on projects in New Mexico, Oklahoma and South Texas. He and several other members of the Plainview office staff are moving here from Weslaco where they have been supervising the Lower Rio Grande Valley rehabilitation project.

History of Texas Education Given By Mrs. Higgins

Education in Texas was discussed by Mrs. A. B. Higgins during the meeting April 7 of La Afflatus Estudio Club in the home of Mrs. B. A. Reddell.

Mrs. Higgins traced the history of the schools in Texas from 1810, when Texas was a part of the Republic of Mexico, to the present. In 1821, she said, Mexico encouraged people to settle in Texas and promised that schools would be provided, but the promise was not kept.

In 1836, she continued, the Republic of Texas adopted a school program, and the first public school was opened in 1854. She then outlined the measures by which education has been financed in Texas.

Mrs. Emmett Hale was presiding officer. Members discussed plans for their spring luncheon. The club collect was led by Mrs. A. N. Hopson, and members responded to roll call with summaries of their assigned subjects.

Those present were Mrs. Hale, Mrs. A. H. Cook, Mrs. Higgins, Mrs. C. E. Johnson, Mrs. Hopson, Mrs. Reddell, and a guest, Mrs. Sam Morgan.

One Sahara Desert oasis, called the "Street of Palms," stretches for 500 miles in a thin, green ribbon.

Auxiliary Observes Child Welfare Month

Mrs. Earl Springer, school nurse, discussed the different phases of child welfare during the meeting Tuesday of the American Legion Auxiliary. Both Mrs. Springer's group and the Auxiliary traditionally observe April as Child Welfare Month.

After expressing appreciation for the contributions of the Auxiliary toward child welfare, Mrs. Springer described her work with the schools, local welfare groups, and the parents involved in each situation, always with the goal the best interest of the child. She has been school health nurse for nine years and has taught classes in baby care and general health.

Caught With Slow Stock

MIAMI — A pair of button shoes trapped two men in a theft case. They managed to sell 42 pairs of pants and 55 shirts, but the fancy, three-button shoes didn't move and they were caught with them. The owner of the store said he'd been trying to sell the same shoes for 10 years.

SOBBING SHERIFF

WILLIAMSTOWN, Ky. — A ride in the courthouse elevator proved a tearful experience for the sheriff and his deputy.

They entered the elevator on the fourth floor to go to the basement. As the sheriff pushed the button he accidentally fired his tier gas gun.

There was no escape until they reached the basement and dashed for the window.

The ugly, somewhat bald head of the wood pig has earned it's nicknames such as ironhead, gourdhead and Spanish buzzard.

Interest Gains In Landscaping

By Argen Draper
 The landscape demonstrations in clubs have been concluded but the interest mounts. The compliments on the landscape bulletin, the lawn bulletin, and the new one on shrubs are still popular. Do you realize how many days we have had that were not good for working in the yard even to make plans? If you have been thinking about doing some pruning around the home, there are a few suggestions that our specialists make. The cardinal rule is, if you have no good reason for pruning a plant, put the tools away. The primary purpose of pruning is to remove unwanted growth, whether it be the plant's health, appearance, safety reasons or for disease control. In dealing with shade trees, corrective pruning is sometimes needed to prevent formation of weak V-shaped crotches and limbs in the future. On older trees, removal of many small branches is more desirable than removal of a few large ones. When large branches or portions of the tree need to be pruned, an expert should be contacted. But be sure he is an expert. Tree pruning has been one of the methods of some very inefficient workmen to cheat the public. Trees may be pruned at any time, but spring is excellent for pruning because of the rapid healing of wounds which occurs at this time. Pruning ornamental shrubs and small flowering trees depends on growth habits and blooming characteristics of the plants. Most shrubs and small trees which bloom during the spring produce their flowers on growth made in the previous growing season, therefore, these plants should not be pruned until they have finished blooming. We have a bulletin, B-977, "Modern Pruning Methods."

Mrs. Fred Autry wrote from Hale Center to say they are getting along fine but they miss their good neighbors and the Progressive Home Demonstration Club. She was one of the best secretaries. It has been my opinion that the secretary's office is one of the most difficult to fill.

Telephone Firm Announces New Manager Here

Charles Sutton, a commercial staff assistant for the Southern Bell Telephone Co. in Amarillo, has been named manager for the company here succeeding Richard Turner, who has been promoted to unit manager for the company in Dallas. Announcement of the change was made by D. D. Dillard, district manager, who said it would be effective immediately. Sutton will be in charge of offices in Borger, Canyon and Hereford and will reside in Borger. He is a ten-year veteran with the telephone company having started as a mail clerk in Fort Worth.

He was later promoted to public telephone coin collector in Midland and while serving there was advanced to business representative. He entered the Army's intelligence service in 1958 and was re-assigned to the company's commercial operations in Odessa when he was discharged two years later.

He was recalled to active duty in 1961 and served for nine months. He returned to Midland following his separation from the Army and served there until his promotion and transfer to Amarillo one year ago. Sutton is married and has two children. Turner has been with the telephone company for 11 years. He began his career as a cable splicer in Wichita Falls and later served in Lubbock, Fort Stockton, Abilene and Amarillo, before appointment as manager here in February, 1963.

Mrs. R. D. Campbell, mother of Robert Campbell, celebrated her ninetieth birthday Wednesday. She is still active and alert, a great deal of fun and has a good outlook. It is quite remarkable. I admire her very much.

The way it is: a meeting notice was sent to Mrs. Jim McAndrews, who is a member of the foods subcommittee. The meeting was April 8, 10 a.m. She was a little early and came to the office April 6th, 10 a.m. A committee was meeting then that is related to the foods subcommittee. Trying to be tactful, it was finally determined that she was two days early. That was the most interesting item at the meeting on the 6th.

A man commented, "I have been saying that when the speed limit was raised to 70 miles an hour, I would be a law-abiding citizen. And then, I got a new car."

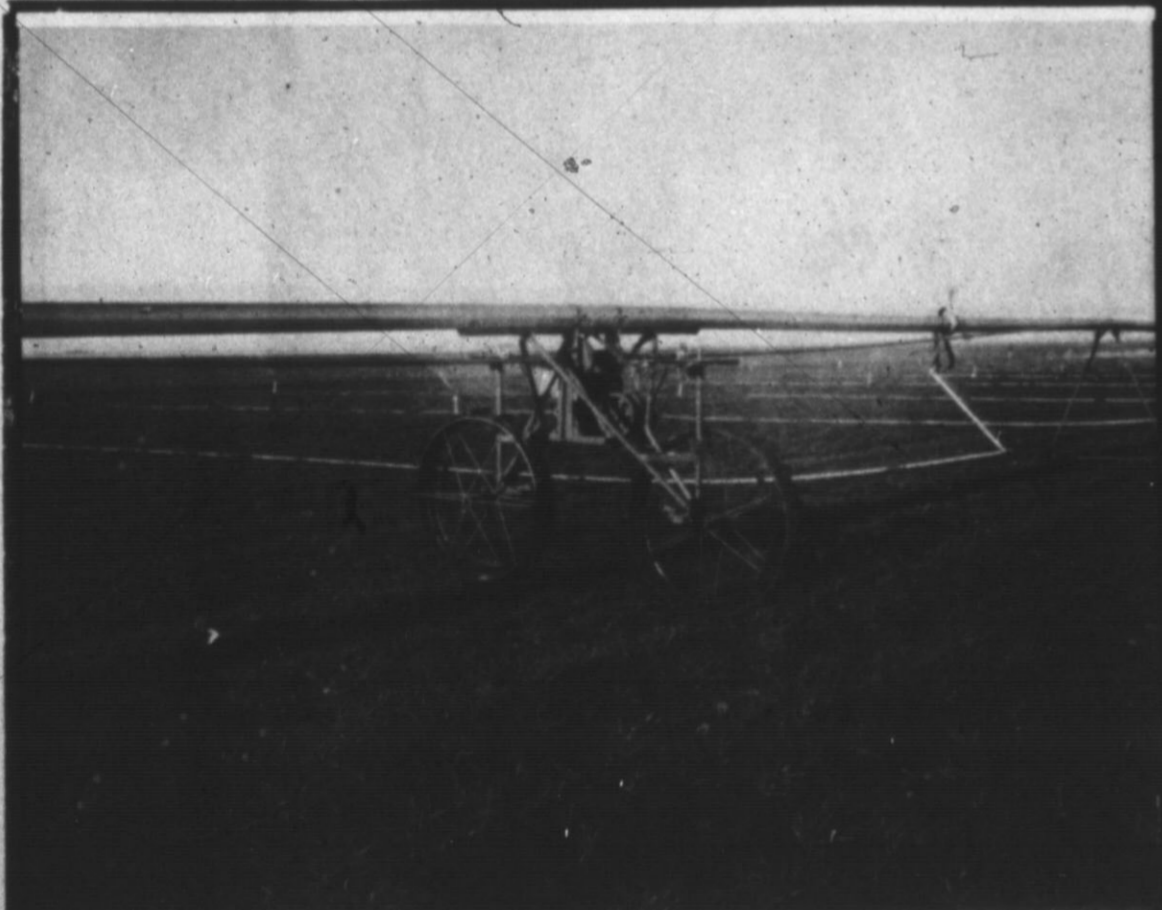

At Quannah last Wednesday night, we got a copy of the Quannah Tribune-Chief. I was really complimenting the editor on the fine printing and the pictures. He finally told me it was printed in Hereford at the Southwest Offset. We were all talking about the Offset at once and the fine work they are doing. As of now, more than 98% of our income is derived from agriculture. In fact, 98.9%.

The second showed the roles of the hospital staff and doctors in time of disaster, including procedures in fire fighting, evacuation, and treatment of injured.

Guyrene Carter, president of the staff, conducted the business meeting. Various items of business were discussed, and votes were taken on the choice of a name for the monthly-hospital newspaper, with the winner to be announced soon. Coffee, homemade ice cream, and apricot bars were served by the hostesses, Polly Bullard, Guyrene Carter, and Helen Nelson, to Margaret Collins, Laverne Collins, Ann Proctor, Erma Rain, Chris Brooks, Reba

Whitefaces Flail Palo Duro, 10-3

The Hereford Whitefaces romped to a 10-3 non-conference victory over the Palo Duro Dons Tuesday after the Don pitching staff walked 13 men.

Mike Ranspot chalked up his fifth victory for the season as he went all the way for the Herd. He allowed six hits and walked two men. He struck out eight, three of them in the seventh inning.

The Herd jumped out in front in the bottom of the first inning when they scored the first run of the game.

The Dons came back to tie the game in the top of the second, but the Herd retaliated with three runs in the second.

Neither team scored until the top of the fifth when the Dons scored again and made the score 4-2. The Dons scored again in the top of the sixth, but the Don pitching staff "blew up" and walked eight men in the bottom of the sixth. Three pitchers were used in the bottom of the sixth as each succeeded in walking only more men.

Clyde Blount was the losing pitcher while being assisted by Bill Ledford and Mike Nase.

Eugene Green hit three singles and one sacrifice.

All of the 11 hits in the game were singles and 15 men were walked.

"We had some fine fielding and the pitching looked very good," Coach Ronald Speed commented.

The Herd will travel to Nazareth Friday with a 7-7 record. The Whitefaces will meet Dumas the following Friday in the first conference game of the season.
