Maxwell Wins Council Post

Interest Mounting In County Races

Hereford voters balloted twice Tuesday, but the big fireworks is due Saturday when Democrats and Republicans hold their primaries.

Hereford voters picked Albert Maxwell as their newest city councilman in a run-off election. He tallied 514 votes to defeat incumbent Bill Howard who received 232 votes. This made a total turnout for the special election of 746 persons.

He will serve with Lowell Sharp and hold-over members of the council. Sharp received a clear majority against two opponents in the earlier primary.

Meantime, county and state politics took on a new burst of speed early this week as Democratic and Republican primaries neared. From all indications, voting will be exceptionally heavy in the Saturday primaries.

B. F. Cain, county clerk, reported Wednesday that 81 absentee Democratic votes had been cast in the county as the absentee period ended Tuesday at 5 p.m. Six voted absentee for Republican candidates.

In the county, interest centered in the two county commissioners' races and the sheriff's battle. Three are seeking the Democrats' nod for each of the commissioners' posts, and two are asking for the sheriff's post. The Republicans have only one candidate on the county ticket: Marvin Diller is seeking his party's approval for county commissioner's job, precinct 1.

Cain said 87 votes cast absentee "was a goodly number," indicating interest in Saturday's primaries which are expected to draw a near-record turnout of voters. Sheriff Lowell Sharp is facing Charles K. Skinner, a former highway patrolman, on the Democratic ballot.

Three men are seeking the Democrats' approval for county commissioner's posts in each of the two places open. J. T. Guinn, Bruce Coleman and Jim Monroe are seeking precinct 3, while J. F. Martin, Charlie So (Sample Ballots on pages 6 & 7) well and Earl Holt are candidates for precinct 1 commissioner's positions.

Democrats will hold their county convention May 9 at 2:30 p.m. in Stanton Junior High School, Louis Woodford, county chairman, has announced. Precinct party conventions are to be held Saturday at 2:30 p.m. or at 8 p.m.

Precinct 1: Aikman school, 8 p.m.; precinct 2, Stanton Junior high, 8 p.m.; Precinct 3, Herb Schmidt residence, 2:30 p.m.; Precinct 4, Sims community house, 2:30 p.m.; Precinct 5, Ford community house, 2:30 p.m.; Precinct 7, Dawn school, 2:30 p.m.; Precinct 8, Walcott school, 2:30 p.m.; Precinct 9, Bippus Community house, 2:30 p.m.; Precinct 10, Daniels school, 2:30 p.m. Precinct 11, Central Elementary school, 8 p.m.

Three persons were rushed to Deaf Smith County Hospital Sunday evening shortly after 8 p.m. following a three-car collision on 25 Mile Avenue in front of the Avenue Baptist Church.

Injured were Cleveland Redie, Joyce Redie and Billy Joe Wall, all of Hereford. The injured were rushed to the hospital in a Gilliland Ambulance and were treated and released.

Cleveland Redie was driving a pickup which struck parked cars belonging to Billie Frank Wall and Aubrey Jackson Self, both of Hereford.

Blaze Flattens Ranch Houses

A raging fire fanned by winds that ranged up to 60 miles per hour did more than $25,000 damage to Lee Coonougher's farm 10 miles southeast of Hereford Sunday afternoon and early Monday morning.

The first call to the Volunteer Fire Department was sounded shortly after 3:30 p.m. Sunday.

The fire apparently started in an area where workers had been grinding feed and the first truck arrived shortly after 3:45 p.m.

The blaze was brought under control shortly after 8 p.m. Sunday but one fire truck remained at the scene until 5:30 a.m. Monday, to prevent the possible outbreak of another blaze.

Destroyed were a barn, sheds, corals, fences and large quantities of feed.

None of the stock on the farm was injured by the fires, however, several head had to be moved from the corrals which were later destroyed by the blaze.

Bond Election Carries; Board Moves To Sell First In Series

Hereford school board Wednesday started machinery rolling to sell $750,000 worth of bonds for Phase 1 of a school building program after voters Tuesday approved a $2.4 million bond issue.

At a meeting Wednesday morning, the board made arrangements for a meeting with bond buyers in New York for May 11. They will meet with Moody Investors and Standard & Poor to discuss the bond sales. The bonds will be sold only as the work is done, the first phase coming to $750,000, Superintendent Paul Stevens explained.

Making the trip will be Board President Ivan Block, Bill Gentry, Olin Parris and Labry Ballard, as well as Stevens.

The $2.4 million bond issue carried by a total of 720 to 250. Hereford voters approved the issue 707 to 215, but Dawn turned down the bonds 57 to 13.

Two other propositions also appeared on the ballot; two items "legalizing" the 1963 change of the district from a rural school to an independent district. The attorney general had held that it was necessary for the district "officially" to approve the assumption of the old rural district's obligations and for maintaining the district.

Votes on those propositions, Nos. 1 and 3 on the ballot, were as follows:

In Hereford, 706 for, 146 against on proposition 1. This made a total of 758 for the proposition to 172 against.

On proposition 3, 18 at Dawn voted for the matter and 30 against, while the vote in Hereford was 780 for to 138 against, making a total of 798 for to 168 against.

If propositions 1 and 3 had not been approved it would have become necessary to resubmit the matter at subsequent elections, school men explained.

When the $750,000 worth of bonds are sold, contracts can be awarded shortly for the five projects included in this phase of the building programs.

Meeting Called To Explain '64 Cotton, Wheat Programs

Deaf Smith County wheat and cotton farmers will be told the wheat and cotton story for 1964 at an informational meeting next Monday night in the Community Center, ASCS manager Faust Collier said Thursday.

He said the entire program, portions of which have been changed recently, will be explained by ASCS in the meeting slated to start at 8 p.m. Collier says 1000 wheat farmers in this county will be effected by the programs. "It is important that those who wish to comply with the federal programs know the procedures for 1964, Collier pointed out.

Although half as many farmers grow cotton as grow wheat, the cotton acreages, for the most part, "are minor," and for this reason, more farmers will be interested in the 1964 wheat program.

A wheat ruling by USDA some two weeks ago which would have forced operators of more than one wheat farm to have held to acreage allotments on all their farms in order to receive price supports drew protests throughout the wheat belt.

As a result, President Johnson intervened and asked that the rule be modified. Under the newest plan, Collier explained, farmers will not be "penalized" for growing more than their acreage allotments on all farms if they have overplanted on one farm. However, they will not receive price supports on those farms which are overplanted.

He said Wednesday that some (Continued on page 2)

Commissioners Hold Busy Session But Little Official Action Taken

Acting as skittish as a thoroughbred at the post, Deaf Smith County Commissioners' Court Monday discussed many issues, sidestepping a few, approving others and disapproving at least one, in a meeting that saw lots of activity but little official action in the home stretch.

Approved by the court was a salary adjustment for Mrs. Clyde Raeburn, a new county employee, who has passed the customary 6-months' probation period; the sending of Tax Assessor-Collector Neil Miller to a four-day tax meeting to be held May 10-13 in Corpus Christi; okaying the private property assessment schedule of valuations submitted by Tax Consultant H. A. Tuck Jr.; opening of an additional mile of country road; and the advertising for bids for three new motor graders to be used in Precincts 1, 2 and 4.

It is customary, the court pointed out, to raise the salary of new employees after they have satisfactorily completed the first 6-months on-the-job. This was the case with Mrs. Clyde Raeburn, who received a $55 per month salary increase.

Also approved early in the meeting was the sending of County Assessor-Collector Neil Miller to the annual convention and school for tax officials which will be held at Corpus Christi, May 10-13.

But turned down at the Monday meeting was a request by Mike Wilson, speaking for the Junior Chamber of Commerce, to be allowed to hold the annual Teen-Age Rodeo in the Bull Barn. The holding of the event in the Barn would necessitate the driving of automobiles inside the facility. Commissioners pointed out that the building was not large enough for this type of contest and refused the request of the group.

Tax Consultant H. A. Tuck Jr. met with the commissioners in an attempt to determine valuation on certain personal properties for taxing purposes. The assessment schedule submitted by (Continued on Page 4) of the county's farmers prefer to overplant and to skip crop supports on wheat. "One farmer with whom I talked this week, for example, will go ahead and retain his present acreage overage since his wheat is badly infested with Johnson grass. He figures it will pay him to produce all the wheat he can since Johnson Grass is going to effect his yield anyway. Doubtless there are others in the same condition."

Cotton farmers in Deaf Smith county also are asked to attend the meeting to hear discussions on the two cotton "programs." Collier said most farmers apparently will prefer to comply with 'section 1' plan which means the cotton farmers will plant their original total allotments since cotton acreages for any one farmer, generally speaking, are small."

Under the other plan cotton farmers could convert part of their allotments to cover crops and receive extra federal benefits.

In general wheat growers have been pleased with the modified wheat bill. Leo Witkowski of Hereford who has long been active in the Texas and National wheat programs, said Wednesday that NAWG is pleased with the new program.

Ken Kendrick, Executive Vice-President of the National Association of Wheat Growers says, "The recently passed Voluntary Wheat Legislation is a good law. It will prevent an expected drop of $450 - $500 million of income to wheat growers in 1964."

President Johnson said when he signed the bill, "This bill, I think, gives us some insurance will furnish the automobiles for the local Rodeo, according to Carlyle.

Entry blanks may be picked up at the Stephens-Hudson Ford Company and returned there. "This is an opportunity for all teenagers to demonstrate to themselves and to their community that they are interested in increasing their knowledge of traffic laws and improving their driving ability," Carlyle said.

The Rodeo will involve a written test and driving skills. The Rodeo began in 1952 when the Jaycees used the A.T.A. Truck Rodeo as a guide to plan a Rodeo to fit the needs of teenagers. From a participation of some 20,000 in 1952, the program has grown until now it attracts five hundred thousand teenagers in over two thousand communities.

"It is designed to give young drivers the opportunity to prove their ability to drive safely; improve their driving habits and attitudes, and to stimulate community interest in high school driver education programs. Safe driving Rodeo is aimed at all citizens and safe driving for everyone," Carlyle said.

Damage to Redie's vehicle was set at $750 while damage to Wall's car exceeded $1000. Investigating Patrolmen set the damage on Self's car at $100.

"Second offense DWI is a felony and will be tried in the District Court if Redie is indicted," Police Chief Marshall Padgett said.

If the accident had occurred moments later, several persons could have been seriously injured, according to investigating patrolmen, because the services at the church had just finished and the congregation was almost out of the church.

In other accidents, Percy Perkins, 818 Blevins, and Reymundo Rodriguez, 400 Ave. K, collided in the 400 block of East 6th.

Damage to Perkins' car was estimated at $25 but there was no damage to the truck driven by Rodriguez.

Vehicles driven by Betty Jean Thomas Price, 207 Jackson, and Roscoe Oscar Stark collided shortly after 8:30 a.m. Monday in the 100 block of West 3rd.

Damage to Mrs. Price's car was set at $175 and damage to Stark's car was estimated at $275.

Neither of the persons in the collision was injured.

"Girls are urged to participate in this Rodeo, as well as boys. Two years ago a girl from Wyoming won second place in the national finals, receiving a scholarship of $1500, losing to the first place boy by only five points," Carlyle said.

At a time when Hereford is experiencing an unprecedented growth, it is imperative that Hereford and Deaf Smith County have as it's Sheriff a man who is thoroughly versed in the problems of our county.

Deaf Smith County is fortunate to have a man in the Sheriff's office who is accutely aware of the problems of our citizens, our youngsters a man who is dedicated to the needs of humanity.

Lowell Sharp has fulfilled the job of Sheriff expertly down through the years. His years of experience in the office . . . his knowledge of the people . . . the county . . . are invaluable to the welfare of Law Enforcement in this county.

Lowell Sharp, now serving as President of United Peace Officers Association, is respected throughout law enforcement circles all over the state of Texas and adjoining states.

Lowell Sharp HAS DONE A GOOD JOB as Sheriff. As interested citizens of Deaf Smith County, we ask that you return a man to office who is respected and appreciated by the youth of this and other counties.

Lowell Sharp is interested in the youth of this county. The parents of these youngsters appreciate the work done by a man who is interested in making "good citizens" out of many youngsters who might otherwise have strayed away . . . with the inevitable consequence of Gatesville and Gainsville.

Lowell Sharp is the man that we NEED IN THE SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT!

Busy Session

Tuck was approved with only a couple of minor adjustments.

Included in the schedule were cattle, sheep, hogs, and other livestock; boats, automobiles and many other personal property items, as well as irrigation wells. Three-inch irrigation wells were added to the tax roll this year for the first time.

No action was taken on a request by H. D. Fowler, who respectively requested the county to consider payment of a coyote bounty, nor was any action taken on the request by residents of South Hereford that Austin Road be re-designated as Country Club Road.

Also explored by the court was the possibility of creating a hospital district, but commissioners found little support for the proposition among the members of the Hospital Board. The situation has arisen due to the tight county budget which saw the county hospital losing its two-cent maintenance allowance in the current budget, with little hope of having it restored for the following year.

But hospital board attorney, Wayne E. Thomas, told the court that he was concerned over the hospital district proposal, fearing the creation of such a district would not be desirable at this time.

Thomas proposed that the commissioners delay any action concerning the hospital district until some of the recently-voted districts could operate for a year or two, to determine the advantages and disadvantages of the proposition.

If, in fact, a hospital district were created, it would require special legislation by the Texas legislature and approval by the voters of the district.

Creation of a hospital district would leave the door open for additional taxation for the purpose of building and maintaining a hospital. At present, the county is limited by a statutory valuation limit of 80 cents per $100 valuation placed on it by the state government. Of the 80 cent limit, hospital sinking and interest funds now require some 23 cents, which leaves only 57 cents for the operation of the remainder of the county agencies.

A hospital district however, could levy a separate tax up to 75 cents per $100 valuation on ary, junior high and senior high, and paving and other miscellaneous items.

Letting of these contracts has been set for around Sept. 1 of this year with work to be completed by the opening of school the following autumn.

At its meeting Wednesday morning the school board discussed procurement of property for new schools, and instructed Herb Brasher to "move immediately on work of heating system for Central and Stanton."

The board also named these teachers for next school year:

Veilma Cook, Central; Carolyn Waters, Shirley; Joe P. Wilson and Elizabeth Willis for senior high school, and the following for Northwest Elementary: Shirley Paris, Melva Fortenberry, Gary Don Billingsley, Mary Lois Skypala, Pat Coleman, Emalee district residents. The 75 cents would be the maximum allowed by law; or the maximum could be set even lower at the discretion of the voters.

One of the disadvantages pointed out by Thomas was the fact that in a hospital district, the county is prohibited by law from contributing any aid to the hospital in the event of financial difficulties.

No further action was taken on the proposition pending a meeting of the entire hospital board to study the situation. Commissioners also reviewed monthly expenditures and approved the motion calling for the advertising for bids on three new diesel powered motor graders, not less than 115 horsepower, fully enclosed cab, rain cap, heater, 14-foot blade with 2 ft. extension, 13.00-24 ply tires on all wheels, booster steering, fully equipped, ready for operation with hour meters and lights.

They also accepted easements for a road to extend an additional mile. The road would begin approximately 10 miles west of Hereford and four miles north, then running westward for two miles.

Also meeting with the court were Bill Patton of Plains Insurance Agency and Jim Measels, representing the Hartford Insurance Co. The men presented an accident insurance plan to the county for possible adoption for county employees. The proposal was tabled, however.

feed stacks after 8 p.m. Sunday. The stacks were still smoldering after trucks left Monday morning.

According to firemen if the wind had been from any other direction, Coonaught's house and several other structures would have been destroyed by the blaze.

Two trucks were sent to the farm when the alarm was sounded, but one truck was called back to town after the main blaze had been contained. Eight firemen participated in the fighting of the fire.

Lewis and Nancy Richie.

The board decided to ask the Texas Education Agency for assistance in making future school sites' survey, and they called for bids for the Dawn school teacherage which is no longer used for that purpose. They approved travel to Austin for the journalism department for pupils to attend an interscholastic workshop.

Next meeting was set for May 16 after members have returned from the bond-selling trip to New York.

LINCOLN, Neb. (UP) — When the Lincoln Unitarian Church scheduled three evening lectures on molecular structures, the church bulletin described the series as "Three Eves With Atoms."

Workshop Held By Lutheran Women's League

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League, Zone I, met at Trinity Lutheran Church, Amarillo, April 26 for the spring workshop. The theme was "Enriching Our Prayer Life." Leaders were from Friona and Dumas, and Mrs. George Tiefel, Christian growth chairman, led the open discussion which followed the workshop.

The local societies of the zone are working to help secure a new Lutheran Student Center on the campus of West Texas State University. Plans were made to present the project to the district convention to be held in Odessa June 17-18 and to charter a bus for the trip. They will ask for $10,000 toward payment for land recently purchased across from the home of the college president.

There were 67 women from 12 societies present. Those attending from Immanuel Lutheran Hereford, were Mrs. Martin Wagner, Mrs. A. Yocum, Mrs. Alvin Janssen, Mrs. Ewald Vogler, Mrs. Earl Springer, Mrs. Tiefel, Mrs. R. A. Frye, and the pastor, Fred Beversdorf, who is the pastoral advisor for the zone and conducted the closing devotional.

ing games to be played with each team the Whitefaces could clinch the crown.

Jim Haney and Mike Ranspot combined for Tuesday's victory. Haney was the winner as he went five innings and gave up three hits and one run. In two innings of relief Ranspot did not allow a base hit.

Levelland's hurler, curveballer Don Stephenson, also gave up three hits; however, errors lost the game for the Lobos.

Only one hit resulted in a run for the Herd. Charley Moreno led off the fifth inning with a single and was walked to second. A fielder's choice moved Moreno to third. On an attempted pick-off at third Moreno went home as the ball got away from the third baseman.

To The VOTERS of DEAF SMITH COUNTY

Due to the heavy work load of the Sheriff's office during the spring and summer months, I will not be able to make a door-to-door solicitation for your votes. I will try to see as many of you as possible, but I don't feel that it is advisable to take time away from the work of the Sheriff's office to make the county canvass. Therefore, I would like to take this means of soliciting your support in the Democratic Primary.

If you see fit to return me to the office of Sheriff, Deaf Smith County, I will, as in the past, devote full time to the job and conduct the affairs of this office to the best of my ability.

Sandi Says...

By Sandi Thomas

Hi, once again, to all my beloved fans!!! Joking, of course! Last weekend, Hereford was represented in the junior rodeo at Carlsbad, New Mexico, by Dan and Deborah Thomas, Jo and Lynn Poarch, and Davie Sorrels. In barrel racing, Jo came home with a first place in the first go-round and fourth in the second go-round, winning second in the average.

Speaking of rodeos, the Hereford Junior Chamber of Commerce and Mercury are sponsoring a Safe-Driving Road-e-o Saturday, May 9. The contest, consisting of written, maneuvering, and other tests, is open to both boys and girls under 19 years of age (prior to August 1) and unmarried before national finals, to be held July 27-31, 1964. If the state contest is won, you will be sent for an expense paid trip to Washington, D. C., to compete in the national finals. First place there receives a $2000 scholarship and a Comet Caliente convertible. Get in touch with Michael Wilson to enter or for additional information. Sounds like a great opportunity to show them what good drivers we are!!

Last Sunday, despite the wind, a "sixsome" packed their lunch and headed for Palo Duro Canyon. Those enjoying the day: Vicki Gordon, Mike Paschel, Sid Bayne, Larry Duncan, Myrna Botkin, and John Newton. How did the sand taste?

Butch Drummond is the new owner of a '54 Chevrolet. The interior is green to match the outside. It also has recapped recaps (whatever that may be). Gee, that was short and (far from) sweet! Stir up some news, will you?

Since February is the birth month of two of our nation's outstanding leaders, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, it is a most appropriate time to consider the flag of this country—the flag which symbolized all that they held dear. Thomas B.

DEMOCRATIC BALLOT — The ballot above slightly, however, in order to include ALL is typical of the ballot which Democrats will county commissioners' races. Precinct 3 com- receive when they go to their precinct polls missioners' race has been substituted for Saturday. The ballot above has been altered precinct chairman names.

Wicks Sr., expressed the sym- bolic greatness of the flag this way:
"I am your flag."
"I was born on June 14, 1777.

"I am more than just cloth shaped into a design.
"I am the refuge of the World's oppressed people.
"I am the silent sentinel of Freedom.
"I am the emblem of the greatest sovereign nation on earth.
"I am the inspiration for which American Patriots gave their lives and fortunes.
"I have led your sons into battle from Valley Forge to the bloody ridges of Korea.
"I walk in silence with each of your Honored Dead, in their final resting place beneath the silent White Crosses, row upon row.
"I have flown through Peace and War, Strife and Prosperity, and amidst it all I have been respected.
"My Red Stripes—symbolize the blood spilled in defense of this glorious nation.
"My White Stripes—signify the burning tears shed by Americans who lost their sons.
"My Blue Field—is indicative of God's heaven under which I fly.
"My Stars—clustered together, unify 50 States as one, for God and Country.
"Old Glory" is my nickname, and I proudly wave on high.

"Honor me, respect me, defend me with your lives and fortunes.
"Never let my enemies tear me down from my lofty position, lest I never return.
"Keep alight the fires of patriotism, strive earnestly for the spirit of democracy.
"Worship Eternal God and keep His commandments, and I remain the bulwark of peace and freedom for all mankind.
"I am your flag."
The history of our flag began, as stated, on June 14, 1777, when Congress adopted our present design. The original 13 stars represented the 13 Colonies. They were originally placed in a circle to represent eternity. Red represented courage, white purity, and blue loyalty.

BEZZERIDES

SPRING-HOE WEEDER & SPYDER for ROW CROPS and VEGETABLES

View from the drivers seat showing Spydres with Spring Hoe Weeders mounted in rear

The new "SPYDER" is ideal to use ahead of the Bezzerides Spring Hoe Weeder, because it does not leave a smooth ridge or shoulder that dries out. The staggered teeth of the New "Spyder" mulches the soil in an uneven pattern which is easily loosened by the Spring Hoe Weeder. Unlike some tools, the new "Spyder" does not form clods which are a problem in soil cultivation. When killing to the plant, you may reverse them and throw smooth "Clod-free" soil to the base of the plants. This results in better harvesting conditions in sugar beets, cotton and other row crops.

A view from the drivers seat showing Spydres and Spring attachments

Bezzerides Spring Hoe Weeders give you an entirely new and "years ahead" system of plant cultivation. You get the weeds while they are small and with periodic repeats you can keep manual labor to a bare minimum. The working tips of the weeder blades travel beneath the surface compressing and disturbing the soil around the base of the plants. This uproots the weeds and aerates and mulches the earth. The plants themselves are not disturbed because their root systems are firmly established.

WHAT DOES THE PARTY LOYALTY OATH ON TEXAS BALLOTS MEAN?

The party loyalty oath is nothing more than a gimmick designed by the Democrat controlled 1961 Texas Legislature to confuse the voters or to try to intimidate them into supporting the slate in November through fear that their ballot would be thrown out if they split their ticket. This, of course, is not so, and the Governor of Texas at the time the legislation was passed stated that the pledge was in no way binding.

To add a little background to the story, many thousands of votes had been thrown out in Texas in the 1960 election because of the confusing requirement to mark out all candidates except one. The Prohibition and Constitution Parties had candidates that year and many people forgot to strike those columns. This left many ballots validity to the discretion of the election judges and in effect, disenfranchised thousands of people who had paid their poll taxes and taken the trouble to vote.

The resulting furor (the votes thrown out could have carried the state for the Republican nominee for President) plus the emergence of a strong Republican Party in Texas which could prevent this confusion from working twice through voter information and poll watchers, left the 100% Democrat regular session of the 57th Legislature looking for a new self-protecting gimmick. The party pledge was the result. Many "liberal" legislators who had screamed the loudest against a bill requiring students to take an oath that they were loyal to the United States before receiving loans from tax payers' Federal Funds, jumped at the chance to require a party loyalty oath on the ballots of both major parties.

This, they reasoned, could retard the growth of a two-party system in Texas, and they could continue to enjoy the benefits of a monopoly at the expense of the people of Texas.

We mention this because we want you, the voters in both primaries, to understand that you can vote a straight ticket either way, or a split ticket, in November, regardless of which primary you participated in. If anyone tells you differently, have them put it in writing and sign it.

You are invited to participate in our Republican Primary and help select the nominees of your choice in the Senate and Congressional races as well as express your choice for the Presidential nominee. However, if you feel that you must support some local candidate who is running in the Democrat primary, then we will welcome your support in November. Deaf Smith County has given large majorities to the Republican Presidential Nominee in the last three presidential elections, and we feel that we will do so again this November — because most Deaf Smith County residents know there is no such thing as "something for nothing."

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Recipes Given For Christa Holzl's Favorite Austrian, American Foods

By Dale Stevens
Brand Foods Editor

Christa Holzl's first breakfast in her American home was a food she had never eaten before — oatmeal. Her new Hereford family, Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Carmichael and Merle, watched in amazement as she ate it without sugar, butter, and cream.

It was several months before the Carmichaels learned that it was Christa's first experience with the breakfast food and that she was thinking as she ate it, "Now, Christa, you will probably have to eat this every morning for a year, so you just better learn to like it." Fortunately no more oatmeal had been served in the meantime.

Christa is an American Field Service student from Graz, Austria, and is enrolled as a senior at Hereford High School. She prefers highly seasoned foods and lots of onions. Her father, a chemistry professor, "adds a pinch of this and a little of that" to every pot on the stove as her mother cooks and loves to cook highly spiced foods. "He is a very good cook," his daughter says.

Cooking is quite complicated in Austria. There are no instant foods, and everything must be measured by weight rather than cups and spoons. Christa's project in homemaking has been to transfer 20 recipes from the Austrian to the American system of measurement and from German to English. This has involved many hours of work.

Eating is an adventure in Austria. Christa misses the "Konditorei," where people stop after the theatre or shopping for various types of coffee or chocolate and fine pastries. One may choose from a huge assortment displayed attractively on counters.

The following recipes include three of Christa's favorites from Austria, "Wiener Schnitzel," "Zwetschkenknodel," and "Kaiserschmarren." The other recipes are for American dishes which Mrs. Carmichael has found to be among Christa's favorites. "There is really no problem in cooking for her because she likes just about everything," Mrs. Carmichael says.

Wiener Schnitzel

To prepare the meat for this and every other schnitzel: Choose milked veal, top quality, fine grained and a soft pink in color. Use 3/4" slices from the center of the rump, allowing approximately a 4-ounce slice per person. Trim all fat. Pound each slice as thin as possible (about 1/8") or have the butcher do it for you. Make small vertical cuts all around the edge of the veal. Salt each veal slice. Dip first into a soup plate containing flour, and shake off excess; next into a soup plate of beaten egg (one egg will cover two 4-ounce slices, or you can stretch by beating egg with a little milk); finally into a soup plate containing fine, dry bread crumbs, pressing crumbs well in with the palm of your hand, then shaking off excess. Fry in deep fat, half olive oil, half melted lard, so hot that it smokes, 2-3 minutes on each side or until golden brown. You'll know your skillet heat is right when the breadling ripples as it fries; you'll know your schnitzel is done and tender when a fork goes right through the meat. Drain. Serve garnished with lemon slices.

Cordon Bleu

Salt each veal slice. Over veal, lay boiled ham slice large enough to cover. Over ham, lay Swiss cheese slice large enough to cover. Double the whole thing over, and fasten with a wooden toothpick. Dip in flour, beaten egg, bread crumbs, exactly as with Wiener Schnitzel (above). Fry in smoking hot deep fat, half olive oil, half melted lard, 2-3 minutes on each side or until golden brown. Drain, remove toothpicks. Serve with buttered peas or green beans.

(Both Schnitzel recipes are from Woman's Day magazine, February, 1964)

Kaiserschmarren

3 eggs
1/2 cup milk
1 t. sugar
1 t. vanilla
1 cup flour
1/8 t. salt
1 T. butter
Raisins

Mix yolks, flour, sugar, salt, and vanilla in milk. Melt butter until browned; add. Beat egg whites very stiff. Fold into batter, which will be very thick. Melt butter in skillet and pour in batter to cover bottom of pan. Sprinkle with raisins and turn over as with pancakes and cook till lightly browned. Remove from pan, cut into strips, and put in bowl to keep warm. Cook remaining batter in same way until all is used. Sift powdered sugar into bowl over strips. Serve with compote made from fresh fruit, sugar, cinnamon, cloves, lemon peel, and lemon juice cooked in water to cover. When cooked, drain and serve. The drained liquid with water added makes a drink very popular in Austria. Compote may be made from canned fruit.

Zwetschkenknodel

1 pound mashed potatoes (not new)
2 1/2 cups flour
1/3 cup grits (heaping)
1 egg
Pinch salt

Boil potatoes and mash them. Add flour, grits, egg, and salt to make a stiff dough. Knead and roll out to 1/4 inch thickness. Cut into 2-inch squares or big enough to cover a small raw plum. Replace the seed of the plum with a cube of sugar. Form a ball of the dough around the plum. Have hands floured to keep dough from sticking. This is called a knode. Drop knodeln (plural of knodel) very carefully into boiling, salted water and cook about 10 minutes (do not cover). Meantime place 3 T. butter in skillet and brown 2 cups bread crumbs. Drain knodeln and roll in bread crumbs. Sprinkle with sugar and serve hot. This should make about 30 small knodeln.

Chop Suey

2 pounds lean pork chops
1 large stalk celery

FROM AUSTRIAN RECIPES PRINTED on tea-towels, Christa Holzl, American Field Service student from Graz, Austria, demonstrates the method of measuring by weight the ingredients for foods in her country. Mrs. W. T. Carmichael and Merle, her American mother and sister, watch as Christa uses one of the recipes sent from Austria by her mother. (Brand Staff Photo)

Latinos Blast Dimmitt, 24-0

The Hereford Latinos continued their bombardment of opponent's pitchers as they blasted the Dimmitt Cardinals 24-0 at Dimmitt last Sunday.

Red Ball pitched a one-hitter into the fourth inning and the Cardinals decided to call the game.

The Latinos scored runs in all four innings as they chalked up two in the first, five in the second, eight in the third and nine in the fourth.

Joe Hernandez, Jack Suarez, Joe Rodriguez, Paul Torrez and Roland Lon Garia, each had two hits.

Red Ball had a bases loaded home run and Joe Hernandez hit a home run over left center for the only two homers of the game.

The Latinos now have a record of two wins and one loss.

They will travel to Texico Sunday to play the Texico Twins which will be one of the toughest games of the season.

The Twins are organized with players from Texico, Farwell and Clovis.

The following week the Latinos will open their new ball park, though the field is not yet completed.

The Latinos had a record last season of 19 wins against one loss.

Westway Club Has Program On Mental Illness

Mrs. Homer Rudd discussed types and signs of mental illness during the meeting April 23 of Westway Home Demonstration Club. She noted that a stigma once was attached to mental illness, and it was believed that evil spirits caused the disease.

"Today people realize that mental illness is only another one of the many diseases prevalent in the world, and each one has its own treatment," she concluded.

Hostess was Mrs. Mildred Odom, and Mrs. Joe Wagoner was presiding officer. Guests were Mrs. Ruth Severance and Mrs. Margie Fischacher. Others present were Mrs. Kenneth Rudd, Mrs. Bess Werner, Mrs. Paul Rudd, Mrs. W. W. Thomas, Mrs. Jimmy Jesko, Mrs. Arnold Fangman, Mrs. C. A. Sauley, Mrs. Sammy Bolin, Mrs. David Seal, Mrs. Gale Borland, Mrs. Albert Lamb, and Mrs. Homer Rudd.

The next meeting will be May 14 in the home of Mrs. Roland Hairgrove.

majoring in voice at Louisiana State University. At Florida State University he earned the Ph.D. degree with a major in music theory and conducting.

A member of the Wayland faculty since 1961, Dr. DeLage is frequently asked to serve as judge in choral and vocal divisions of area music festivals. As associate professor of music, Dr. DeLage teaches theory and voice in addition to directing the Treble Tones and handling administrative duties. He is a member of the national music fraternity, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, and an honorary member of the Choral Conductors Guild of America.

NEW OFFICERS — Student Council election winners were announced Friday, April 24, following balloting at Hereford High School. Beth Ballard, right, was named student council president for 1964-1965. Named as vice president was John Perrin. Secretary is Bob Gentry, left.

Beth Ballard Is Elected HHS Council President

By Linda Lee Harsi
The '64-'65 campaign elections were topped off by a rally which took place at 9:20 a.m. Friday. Campaign managers decorated the auditorium with signs and posters.

Those running for Student Council president were Beth Ballard and Gary Don Robertson. Those running for Student Council vice-president were Retta Kelly, Sandi Thomas, Beverly Betzen, John Perrin and John Lesly. Those running for Student Council secretary were Phillip Cain and Bob Gentry.

Each year the president of the class is elected before the next year. Those running for president of the senior class were Ernest Flood, Ann Atchley and Frank Cain. Those running for president of the junior class were Roger Owen, Gary Payne and Virgil Barber. Those running for president of the sophomore class were Gary Story and Ken Stark.

Rest of the officers are elected at the first of the year by their classmates.

Returns of the election were announced that afternoon by Mr. Bill Michael, President of the Student Council was Beth Ballard and secretary of the Student Council was Bob Gentry. Vice-president of the Student Council was not decided and announced at that time. President of the junior class was Ernest

Flood, president of the junior class, was Virgil Barber and president of the sophomore class was Gary Story. There was a run-off between Sandi Thomas and John Perrin for Student Council vice-president Tuesday, April 28. John won the run-off.

Coach Jesse Geron's cinder men have come a long way since spring of 1962. Coach Geron stated that the major reason for this great improvement was the hard work that the Whiteface tracksters have put in.

Pacheco, in his preparation for the mile run, has to run about four to six miles a day, Lueb puts in about an hour and a half each day on the discus besides his work with weights.

There seems to be a pretty good future in track for the Whitefaces as several of the freshmen competed in varsity track meets this year, sometimes doing quite well. Several sophomores and juniors also return next year.

The HHS band, under the direction of Mr. Ben Gollehon, will enter the following: concert, sight reading, marching, street parade, solos and ensembles.

Other things the band will attend consist of concerts given by the Army Bands and Professional bands under the direction of professional directors. The band will also attend the Enid Carnival which will be held at the time of their stay in Enid.

The boys will stay at Fairview, Okla. The girls will stay at the Enid, Okla. Sponsors for the trip are Miss Collard, and Miss Gloria Reynolds, P.E. instructors. Mr. Roy Harris, science instructor, will also go on the trip.

"I think that all the students are looking forward to a lot of fun and most of all, bringing home that trophy!" said Judy Crume, one of the students to attend the trip.

Mike Ranspot relieved Herd starter Lupe Ramirez and picked up his seventh victory against one defeat.

Last Saturday Berger ended the Whitefaces' seven game winning streak with a 7-5 victory over the Herd. Ramirez was the loser. The Bulldogs got five runs in the first inning before Lupe settled down.

Tomorrow night the Whitefaces go to Clovis for a game to be played at 7 p.m. MST. Saturday the Wildcats come to Hereford for a game at 1 p.m. Tuesday the Dumas Demons return to Hereford. A loss here would virtually eliminate Dumas from the district race.

Congratulations to Manuel Pacheco and Neal Lueb for their fine showings in the regional meet held in Odessa last Saturday. Pacheco placed fourth in the mile run and Lueb was fifth in the discus.

Mr. Allen plans to teach college accounting. He also intends to get his Master's Degree and then take the C.P.A. examination. He will start working on his Master's Degree this summer at West Texas. Then he will teach part time at West Texas this fall on a teaching assistantship.

Mr. Allen is married and has no children. His wife is a legal secretary in Canyon. His original hometown is Anderson, South Carolina but he now claims Amarillo as his home town. Before attending West Texas, he attended Amarillo Jr. College and the University of Illinois.

"I feel that bookkeeping and typing are two of the most important subjects a high school student can take," Mr. Allen stated.

"Bookkeeping knowledge is necessary for our everyday use. Everyone should know some form of record keeping. Our income tax structure now requires an accounting of our income and expenses. A student will learn to approach a problem, think it out, and then follow that problem to its logical conclusion."

"I feel that typing is important for personal use as well as a possible future occupation. A girl who can type can always find work. She can type at the office or at home. Many people, myself included, have handwriting that is not very plain. Typing is much easier to read, and the appearance will justify the effort put forth."

Teaching at Central School were Kaki Barnard, Myrna Botkin, Kay Coffman, Connie Jesko, Joe Ella McGee, Belinda Vines, and Dale Williams.

Northwest School welcomed Nanetta Clearman, Eugene Green, Vicki Gordon, Glenda Flesher, Linda Higgins, Betty Hucker, Patsy Huckert, Cindy Loerwald, David Stevens, and Gerry Lynn Wheeler.

Kathy Boston, Joyce Warren, Jimmy Bell, Cynthia Seed, Vickie Inman, Romanita Lucero, Bob Caraway, John Fowlkes, Billy Johnson, and Christine Skypala taught classes at Shirley School.

Mrs. Sue Howell, FTA sponsor at HHS, stated that this year was one of the most successful and most enjoyable years that the FTA has had in student teaching experience.

Mr. Carri began with one of Shakespeare's popular quotes: "All the world is a stage and the people in it merely play a part". A demonstration of Cardinal Woolsey, a character in one of Shakespeare's plays, was Carri's first presentation. The second demonstration was that of a character from Old New England who stopped to tell the story of "Hamlet" to some bystanders. To end his program Carri gave a demonstration taken from "The Merchant of Venice" Act I, scene III.

This assembly was given as compliments of the Student Council and was the last Southern Assembly to be given this year.

Mr. Robert Thompson, sponsor of the Key Club, stated that the reason for having the banquet each year is so the boys can entertain their parents and let them know more about what Key Club stands for.

The officers for the coming year will be sworn in at this banquet.

Members of the Key Club decided to have their annual Parents Banquet today at 7:30 p.m. in the High School Cafeteria.

Students decided to have a "hootnanny" for entertainment.

What is a Student Council? What does it consist of, and what are its duties? I sometimes wonder how often we ask ourselves these questions. After observing the students of this school and their attitude toward the Council I have concluded that they contribute as little time and effort as possible toward the Council, our school government. They think of the Council as "just another organization", rather than a means of improving our school.

New to answer the preceding questions. A Student Council is the student governing body of a school and consists of capable representatives selected by the student body. Our council has several aims and objectives. They are as follows:

1. To promote better relations between the student body, faculty, administration and community.
2. To promote school spirit.
3. To promote the welfare of and provide an organization to be of service to the school and the student body.
4. To encourage high standards of conduct, scholarship and citizenship.
5. To arouse the interest of the entire student body in the activities of the school and obtain greater participation.
6. To provide a representative body for the student body to demonstrate democratic procedures and provide training for student leaders.

The improvement of our council depends primarily on the individual. When we select our representatives to the council we should choose leaders, good citizens, and active workers who will devote proper time to their job. These students should not only be capable but willing to accept their responsibilities.

The council members act as a link between the students and the council proper. During the school year students can express their ideas and opinions to their representatives who will in turn relay them to the Council. In this way each person can contribute to our school government.

Seven HHS Students Participate In Meet

Seven students participated in University Interscholastic League events held in Odessa Saturday. The regional meet was for all AAA and AAAA schools.

Those from Hereford participating were Manuel Pacheco, Neal Lueb, Penney Johnson, Sandra Green, Tyler Thompson, Roy Rodriguez and Larry Fuhrmann.

Sponsoring those entered in track events were Coach Williams and Coach Geron. Mr. Patterson and Miss Boren accompanied those entered in literary events.

Manuel Pacheco was entered in the mile run, and placed fourth. His time of 4:45.4 was 3.6 seconds behind the winning time of 4:49. Neal scored two points in the discus throw — he placed fifth. This made a total of six points for the team.

In literary events, Roy Rodriguez entered number sense, Tyler Thompson entered science, Penney Johnson entered typing, and Sandra Green and Larry Fuhrmann were entered in journalism.

Roy placed third in the number sense contest — he had placed second in the district meet. Only the first and second place winners in the regional meet will go to Austin.

Penney Johnson placed seventh in the typing events.

In journalism, Larry Fuhrmann won first place in copy reading and also fifth place in feature writing.

Those entered in the events left the school Friday afternoon at noon, and arrived in Odessa about five. First of the events began at nine o'clock Saturday morning.

Pacheco's time for the mile, 4:45.4, was only 3.6 seconds off the winning time of 4:41.8. Manuel earned his trip to regional with a first place time in the district meet of 4:44.1.

Lueb's second place toss, in the district meet sent him to the regional meet. There he got off a fifth place toss.

Six points in a regional meet may not sound like much. However, two years ago in the district meet the Whitefaces scored only six points.

Coach Jesse Geron's cinder men have come a long way since spring of 1962. Coach Geron stated that the major reason for this great improvement was the hard work that the Whiteface tracksters have put in.

Pacheco, in his preparation for the mile run, has to run about four to six miles a day, Lueb puts in about an hour and a half each day on the discus besides his work with weights.

There seems to be a pretty good future in track for the Whitefaces as several of the freshmen competed in varsity track meets this year, sometimes doing quite well. Several sophomores and juniors also return next year.

The HHS band, under the direction of Mr. Ben Gollehon, will enter the following: concert, sight reading, marching, street parade, solos and ensembles.

Other things the band will attend consist of concerts given by the Army Bands and Professional bands under the direction of professional directors. The band will also attend the Enid Carnival which will be held at the time of their stay in Enid.

The boys will stay at Fairview, Okla. The girls will stay at the Enid, Okla. Sponsors for the trip are Miss Collard, and Miss Gloria Reynolds, P.E. instructors. Mr. Roy Harris, science instructor, will also go on the trip.

"I think that all the students are looking forward to a lot of fun and most of all, bringing home that trophy!" said Judy Crume, one of the students to attend the trip.

Mike Ranspot relieved Herd starter Lupe Ramirez and picked up his seventh victory against one defeat.

Last Saturday Berger ended the Whitefaces' seven game winning streak with a 7-5 victory over the Herd. Ramirez was the loser. The Bulldogs got five runs in the first inning before Lupe settled down.

Tomorrow night the Whitefaces go to Clovis for a game to be played at 7 p.m. MST. Saturday the Wildcats come to Hereford for a game at 1 p.m. Tuesday the Dumas Demons return to Hereford. A loss here would virtually eliminate Dumas from the district race.

Congratulations to Manuel Pacheco and Neal Lueb for their fine showings in the regional meet held in Odessa last Saturday. Pacheco placed fourth in the mile run and Lueb was fifth in the discus.

Mr. Allen plans to teach college accounting. He also intends to get his Master's Degree and then take the C.P.A. examination. He will start working on his Master's Degree this summer at West Texas. Then he will teach part time at West Texas this fall on a teaching assistantship.

Mr. Allen is married and has no children. His wife is a legal secretary in Canyon. His original hometown is Anderson, South Carolina but he now claims Amarillo as his home town. Before attending West Texas, he attended Amarillo Jr. College and the University of Illinois.

"I feel that bookkeeping and typing are two of the most important subjects a high school student can take," Mr. Allen stated.

"Bookkeeping knowledge is necessary for our everyday use. Everyone should know some form of record keeping. Our income tax structure now requires an accounting of our income and expenses. A student will learn to approach a problem, think it out, and then follow that problem to its logical conclusion."

"I feel that typing is important for personal use as well as a possible future occupation. A girl who can type can always find work. She can type at the office or at home. Many people, myself included, have handwriting that is not very plain. Typing is much easier to read, and the appearance will justify the effort put forth."

Teaching at Central School were Kaki Barnard, Myrna Botkin, Kay Coffman, Connie Jesko, Joe Ella McGee, Belinda Vines, and Dale Williams.

Northwest School welcomed Nanetta Clearman, Eugene Green, Vicki Gordon, Glenda Flesher, Linda Higgins, Betty Hucker, Patsy Huckert, Cindy Loerwald, David Stevens, and Gerry Lynn Wheeler.

Kathy Boston, Joyce Warren, Jimmy Bell, Cynthia Seed, Vickie Inman, Romanita Lucero, Bob Caraway, John Fowlkes, Billy Johnson, and Christine Skypala taught classes at Shirley School.

Mrs. Sue Howell, FTA sponsor at HHS, stated that this year was one of the most successful and most enjoyable years that the FTA has had in student teaching experience.

Mr. Carri began with one of Shakespeare's popular quotes: "All the world is a stage and the people in it merely play a part". A demonstration of Cardinal Woolsey, a character in one of Shakespeare's plays, was Carri's first presentation. The second demonstration was that of a character from Old New England who stopped to tell the story of "Hamlet" to some bystanders. To end his program Carri gave a demonstration taken from "The Merchant of Venice" Act I, scene III.

This assembly was given as compliments of the Student Council and was the last Southern Assembly to be given this year.

Mr. Robert Thompson, sponsor of the Key Club, stated that the reason for having the banquet each year is so the boys can entertain their parents and let them know more about what Key Club stands for.

The officers for the coming year will be sworn in at this banquet.

Members of the Key Club decided to have their annual Parents Banquet today at 7:30 p.m. in the High School Cafeteria.

Students decided to have a "hootnanny" for entertainment.

What is a Student Council? What does it consist of, and what are its duties? I sometimes wonder how often we ask ourselves these questions. After observing the students of this school and their attitude toward the Council I have concluded that they contribute as little time and effort as possible toward the Council, our school government. They think of the Council as "just another organization", rather than a means of improving our school.

New to answer the preceding questions. A Student Council is the student governing body of a school and consists of capable representatives selected by the student body. Our council has several aims and objectives. They are as follows:

1. To promote better relations between the student body, faculty, administration and community.
2. To promote school spirit.
3. To promote the welfare of and provide an organization to be of service to the school and the student body.
4. To encourage high standards of conduct, scholarship and citizenship.
5. To arouse the interest of the entire student body in the activities of the school and obtain greater participation.
6. To provide a representative body for the student body to demonstrate democratic procedures and provide training for student leaders.

The improvement of our council depends primarily on the individual. When we select our representatives to the council we should choose leaders, good citizens, and active workers who will devote proper time to their job. These students should not only be capable but willing to accept their responsibilities.

The council members act as a link between the students and the council proper. During the school year students can express their ideas and opinions to their representatives who will in turn relay them to the Council. In this way each person can contribute to our school government.

Manuel Pacheco was entered in the mile run, and placed fourth. His time of 4:45.4 was 3.6 seconds behind the winning time of 4:49. Neal scored two points in the discus throw — he placed fifth. This made a total of six points for the team.

In literary events, Roy Rodriguez entered number sense, Tyler Thompson entered science, Penney Johnson entered typing, and Sandra Green and Larry Fuhrmann were entered in journalism.

Roy placed third in the number sense contest — he had placed second in the district meet. Only the first and second place winners in the regional meet will go to Austin.

Penney Johnson placed seventh in the typing events.

In journalism, Larry Fuhrmann won first place in copy reading and also fifth place in feature writing.

A scrapping, never-say-die team of Whitefaces pulled out their third district victory against no defeats last Thursday on the Whiteface field. Trailing Dumas 10-2 going into the bottom of the fourth inning the Herd rallied for eight runs to tie the game. The game was a pitcher's duel for the last three innings with Eugene Green settling the matter in the bottom of the sixth with a solo homer off Demon reliever Vern Stafford to give the Herd an 11-10 victory.

Despite Green's homer Frank Cain was the big gun for the Whitefaces as he slammed two home runs off Dumas starter Joe Ballard, driving home the Herd's first five runs.

Mike Ranspot relieved Herd starter Lupe Ramirez and picked up his seventh victory against one defeat.

Borger Stops Herd's 7-Game Victory String

By David Stevens
A seven-game winning streak came to an end last Saturday in Borger when the Hereford Whitefaces dropped a 7-5 decision to the Borger Bulldogs.

Both teams got a majority of their runs in one inning as the Bulldogs got five in one stanza and the Whitefaces collected four in one inning.

Borger pitcher, Joe Mike Hyatt, starting his first game in several weeks because of a bruised hand, retired the first eight Herd batters in succession before Hereford's starting moundsman, Lupe Ramirez, lined a single to right. In his three-inning stint Hyatt threw only 35 pitches. The closest Hyatt came to losing his control was to throw three balls to Ronny Duncan, the 10th batter he faced. He struck out three Whitefaces in the three innings.

Borger's big inning came in the first stanza.

The Bulldogs loaded the bases on two walks and a single. A foul pop fly accounted for the first out but another walk forced in the first run. Another pop up, this time to shortstop, left the Whitefaces breathing easier, but not for long as the next Bulldog hitter slammed a line-shot over the left field fence for a grand slam home run.

An error and a triple gave the Bulldogs a 6-0 lead after two innings of play. Ramirez settled down in the third to retire the side in order.

Never giving up, the Whitefaces struck back for four runs in the fourth. David Stevens opened the inning with a walk. Charley Moreno followed with an infield single and an error on Eugene Green's ground ball loaded the bases.

Joe Coffman's single scored two runs. With one out Frank Cain walked to load the bases again. Two more walks brought in two runs before a double play ended the inning.

Again in the fifth Ramirez retired the Bulldogs in order but a walk to Moreno and a single by Green pulled the Whitefaces to within one run as they trailed 6-5.

A solo home run in the bottom of the fifth increased the Bulldogs' lead to 7-5.

Cain walked to start the Herd in the sixth and advanced to third on a passed ball and an infield out but was left stranded.

Ramirez had no trouble in the bottom of the sixth as he used only eight pitches to cause three Bulldogs to hit infield pop-ups.

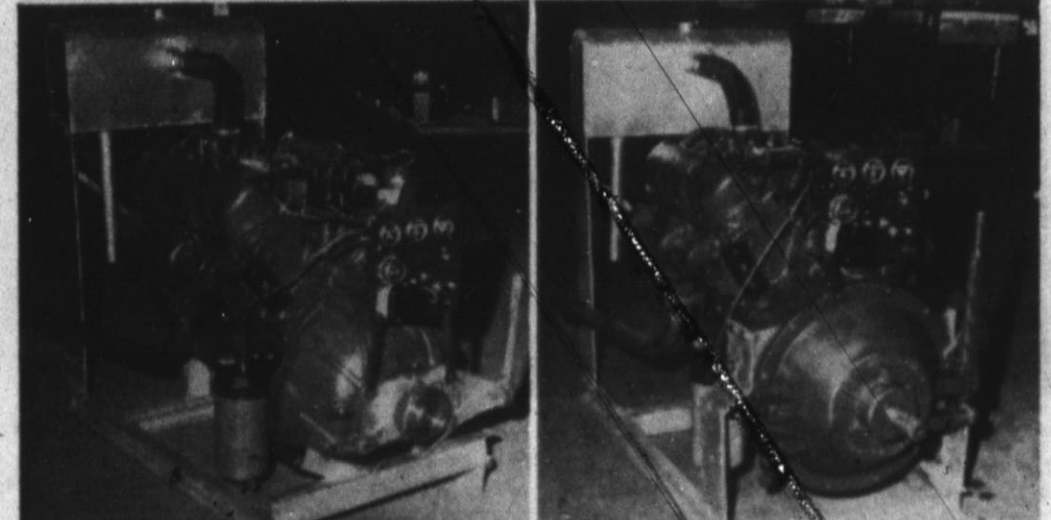

A walk to Stevens and a single by Coffman posed a threat in the seventh but a force-out at third ended the game. Ramirez went all the way for the Herd, giving up seven runs on six hits, walking three, and striking out one. Three Bulldog hurlers gave up five runs on five hits, walked seven, and struck out four.

New Bidrin Insecticide lies in wait inside cotton—knocks out thrips, fleahoppers, aphids, mites, lygus wherever they attack tender foliage

Above: magnified cross sections of cotton leaves. In left picture, Bidrin (dark strip, top) kills cotton insect with contact action, covers and protects leaf surface. 24 hours later.

Bidrin has entered leaf tissue (picture right). Insect attacking from below where spray didn't reach—sucks up Bidrin with juices. This systemic action keeps protecting 7 to 14 days.

Magnified cross sections of cotton leaves (above) show how one application of new Bidrin keeps working 7 to 14 days, rain or shine.

BIDRIN is the new phosphate insecticide that kills cotton pests with both contact and systemic actions.

• It kills all major cotton insects on contact, at time of spraying—even weevils and worms.

• It enters and spreads through plant tissue, makes cotton deadly to thrips, aphids, fleahoppers, mites, lygus.

When insects attack, they die—even if they pierce bottom of leaves where spray doesn't reach. This is systemic action. It keeps working 7 to 14 days.

Proven by growers
New Bidrin's amazing two-way action paid off for thousands of cotton growers in '63. They grew more cotton. And, thanks to early insect control with Bidrin, a higher percent of their crop was early, high-quality, bottom cotton.

Weather resistant—economical
Soon after spraying, Bidrin enters your cotton plants. Once inside, rain can't wash it off. Sun can't break it down. Bidrin has practically eliminated weather as a cause for re-spraying.

Bidrin costs little compared to insecticides that can't begin to do the same kind of job. Bidrin's long-lasting effectiveness means fewer sprays. With Bidrin you avoid buying early insect control at seeding before you know whether or not insects will come. Bidrin gives you systemic control, yet it lets you wait and see. Result: maximum insect control at minimum cost.

Get Bidrin from your pesticide supplier. Many brands available.

Always read and follow label directions. For more information write: Shell Chemical Company, Agricultural Chemicals Division, Post Office Box 2099, Houston 1, Texas.

Maintain control with endrin-methyl parathion
During squaring and fruiting, stay ahead of insects with endrin-methyl parathion. It knocks out bollworms and weevils plus many other insects—quickly and surely. Gives you maximum length of control per spray, minimum number of sprays to do the job. Send for free, full-color booklet.

CARD OF THANKS THANKS FOLKS!

We would like to express our deep appreciation to the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department, and others who were so prompt and helpful during the fire we had Sunday afternoon and night at our ranch.

It is gratifying to find that we have such good neighbors, in and out of town. We could well have lost a large portion of the pasture had it not been for your efforts.

Again may we say "Thanks" to each of you.

Irrigation Use Hinges On How Often To Water

As far as the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway is concerned, in irrigation the question is not how much water to apply, but when to apply it. The Foundation's irrigation research has extended into most of the principal money crops of the High Plains such as cotton, grain sorghum, castorbeans, soybeans, and wheat. Timing of the applications of water has proved of the essence in all cases.

"Our tests have revealed very definite trends in each crop," Jim Vallant says. "The tests indicate irrigation timing and not necessarily the total amount of water applied is the major contributing factor in determining net return."

The Foundation tests have aimed at finding the critical balance of water and fertilizer where the proper amount of water, applied at the right time, coupled with the right amount of fertilizer will produce the most return for the amount invested. "We believe there is a balance between irrigation and fertilizer," Vallant says, "and our goal is finding the method of getting the biggest return for dollar spent."

The studies, dating back almost to the birth of the Foundation research program in 1957, have changed the researchers' thinking about some of the crops. "For instance," Vallant says, "we've been told to irrigate soybeans at first bloom. Our tests have proven to us that the water should be applied earlier." Similar results have been gleaned from tests on other crops, and in all cases the timing of the irrigation has been found to be most important. The researchers still hold to the theory of watering until the crop is

Beta Sigma Phi Chapters Mark Founder's Day

The Hereford chapters of Beta Sigma Phi will observe the 33rd anniversary of the founding of the organization tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the Community Center. The first chapter of the sorority was formed in Abilene, Kansas, in 1931. There are now 7500 chapters and 175,000 members in 14 countries.

The two local chapters, Xi Epsilon Alpha and Kappa Iota, will have a joint banquet, and traditional ceremonies will be observed. The history of the two chapters will be reviewed, and the new members will receive their first welcome to membership.

Mrs. Charles Bell is serving as chairman of the Founder's Day Banquet and will serve as toastmistress for the evening. Other members who will participate in the program are Mrs. Charles Laing, Mrs. Gene Cope, Mrs. Bill Kendall, Mrs. C. D. Fitzgerald Jr., Mrs. John Gilliland, and Mrs. Pat Parker.

Mrs. Bob Brotherton has been selected for the honor of presenting a special message from the sorority's founder. This message was sent from the International Headquarters in Kansas City. This will be the highlight of the evening and the culmination of the program.

wet, but at the right time. The irrigation research program will be greatly expanded in the coming growing season. The wheat program is a prime example with five methods on 12 fertilizer levels planned for 1964 where three methods on four fertilizer levels were followed in 1963. Other research will be expanded on a similar scale.

FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD

Lessons We Teach

Here are little minds hearing words, receiving impressions, being taught. A passing teacher fixed it that way. "Little pitchers have big ears." That is why wise sayings often fall from tiny lips...they are repeating you. What words are you passing on to your child or your neighbors' children... what are you teaching them? They all have talent but it must first be awakened by someone if it is to grow and be productive. We can give them good tastes in food, recreation, reading and religion. Actually, we carry the next generation on our shoulders. I wonder where we are taking them. Are we giving them good environment? Do we take them to church? Their future depends upon The Lessons We Teach.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are the affairs of state in these perilous times. These are the children should go to the church of our choice for a combination for good. Army Seeking Men, Women For Nurse Training

Sergeant Terry Cashell, U.S. Army Recruiter, Amarillo, announced in Hereford Wednesday that the U. S. Army had established a new program whereby young men and women interested in the field of nursing may qualify for a tuition-paid four-year college course. Cashell was here in the interest of the program.
He explained that those accepted to participate would be enlisted in the Army Reserve and receive the cost of tuition and books in addition to military pay. They will attend an accredited college or university of their choice during their freshman and sophomore years.
At the end of the second year, students will be transferred to the Walter Reed Army Institute of Nursing, Washington, D. C. During this phase, students will matriculate at the University of Maryland and upon graduation will be awarded a B. S. degree in nursing.

Sergeant Cashell further explained that, following graduation and licensing, students will be commissioned second lieutenants in the Army Nurse Corps, with an obligation to serve on active duty for at least three years as Army officers. High School graduates who are citizens and have not reached their 24th birthday on the date of enlistment and can meet the mental and physical requirements are eligible for this new program.

Complete information may be obtained by writing or visiting with Sergeant Cashell at 312 East 5th Ave. Amarillo, or calling him collect at Drake 3 4214.

If You Think It's "TIME FOR A CHANGE" Vote For

J. F. MARTIN

Candidate for Commissioner Precinct 1

J. F. Martin:

Has lived and farmed in Deaf Smith County for the past fourteen years, having family and has, since that time, operated a farm in DEAF SMITH COUNTY, as well as acreage in Castro County. Believes that the County Commissioners Court, the governing body of Deaf Smith County, should, at all times, keep the welfare of the county as a whole in mind when making their decisions. Believes that the welfare of the citizens of Precinct 1 cannot be divorced from the welfare of Deaf Smith County as a whole, and that cooperation between the County Commissioners, other county agencies, and the citizens of Deaf Smith County is imperative for better county government. Will devote all the time necessary to "DO A GOOD JOB," always keeping in mind that the voters have placed their confidence in him, and that he is working for the citizens of Precinct 1 and Deaf Smith Co.

A new and fresh point of view is needed in County Government!

Texas Turned To Mexico When Union Blocked Gulf

bel, a Babylon, a whirlpool of business, pleasure and sin. A common laborer could easily gain from $5 to $6 per day, while a man who owned a skiff or a lighter could make from $20 to $40. The saloon and hotel keepers were reaping an abundant harvest. The Gulf, for three or four miles out was literally a forest of masts." Bagdad, Mexico, normally a sleepy village facing on the Gulf a few miles below the mouth of the Rio Grande, had suddenly become a thriving entrepot for international trade. With the coming of the American Civil War and the instituting of the blockade, an impressive overland trade developed between Texas and Mexico — the only outside nation bordering the Confederate States of America.

It seemed most logical that this cotton traffic should end at Matamoros or some other Mexican town on the Rio Grande. However, in its determination to block outlets for Southern trade, the United States disregarded the international nature of this river and stationed several vessels off its mouth. The Union ships detained and, at times, seized foreign craft attempting to enter the Rio Grande. Federal officials realized their poor legal position in such seizures, but they counted on keeping the matter before the courts for many months while the war progressed. There were also several navigational hazards involved in the forty mile trip upstream to Matamoros. Shoals eliminated all ships with over four and a half feet of draft; bends in the river were so sharp that medium-sized vessels frequently had to maneuver back and forth several times in order to negotiate turns without hitting the banks. For these reasons, most foreign ships anchored off Bagdad.

Cotton for the Mexican trade was hauled for a distance of over 500 miles from the heart of the Texas agricultural region. By mid-war, the traffic was sufficiently heavy for one observer to note that mesquite trees and prickly pears along South Texas trails were "covered with bits of cotton torn from the endless trains of cotton wagons." Massive wagons, drawn by oxen or mules, carried up to a dozen bales each. The hauling was done in convoys that ranged from three to fifteen vehicles, and the round trip to Mexico took about three months to complete. In addition to the heavy burden of cotton a lack of water and food sources through southern Texas forced the teamsters to carry such necessities in their trains. Much manpower was required to maintain this important commerce; thousand men were exempted from military duty so that they could engage in cotton transporting.

Once across the Rio Grande, most of the bales ended up at Bagdad—an ugly town of 15,000 persons that consisted of hastily erected shacks along a sandy beach. There the sellers and the buyers of King Cotton met. Tens of thousands of bales, worth millions of dollars, were exchanged for specie, consumer goods and military supplies. Particularly prominent among military goods acquired were blankets, shoes, powder, and chemicals used in manufacturing and servicing the weapons of war. Several miles offshore rested a mighty fleet of merchant craft. Ships from all nations, at times as many as 300, varying in size from twenty-ton schooners to 2,000-ton steamers, stood by to receive cargoes. Between the ships and the shoreline, dozens of overworked lighters shuffled back and forth. Because of sandbars, these small vessels had to shift great num-ford, was presented a overdue 20-year service award at a dinner recently.

Glen W. Yeager, Eastern Agricultural Manager, made the presentations.
A 15-year award was presented to Earl Clark, feed lot foreman and a 10-year award was presented to Dave Eddington, fieldman.
"The awards were overdue as a result of the shifting of Holly folks from one place to another in connection with the Hereford factory project," Guy O. Rorabaugh, newly elected vice-president of operations, said.
In attendance at the meeting other than Mrs. Lillie, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Eddington and Mrs. Yeager were Mr. and Mrs. Wes Fisher and John Kirkpatrick, vice-president of H. K. Ferguson Company, general contractors bers of bales to awaiting ocean-going craft. Much money was made by boat owners who charged at least $5 for moving each bale from the shore to the fleet. This steep fee was justified, however, as the lighters had to feel their way around shallow obstructions, and they had to contend with powerful undercurrents and pounding surfs. Improper handling could cause the lighters to turn over, thus dumping both the crew and the cargo into shark infested waters.

Although the cotton trade seemed like a vital life-giving link to international trade for Texas and the Confederate Southwest, there were many factors that prevented it from reaching anything like its full potentialities. The traffic was periodically stopped by the explosive political situation of northern Mexico. Late in 1863, the main trade routes had to be moved well up the Rio Grande to Rio Grande City, Laredo and Eagle Pass when Federal forces took Brownsville and the lower reaches of the river. Also, by mid-war, a general transportation breakdown seriously cut into the size of commerce. Perhaps even more damaging, however, were conflicting rules passed to regulate the trade and competitive purchasing operations of state and Confederate agents. The Texas government, the military commander of Texas, the general in charge of the Trans-Mississippi West Department, and the Confederate government all established policies and purchasing procedures so as to gain a maximum benefit from cotton transactions. While a single set of regulations could have been beneficial, the inconsistencies and confusion of so many rules served to strangle the trade.

To appreciate the confusion caused by competition and red tape, we must bear in mind that cotton was the only commodity that Texas and the South had to raise money and exchange for supplies... most authorities agree that the overland trade to Mexico prolonged the war at least two years.

Next Installment: Texas manufacturing industry.

Waco Judges Help Appeals Court Here

The Texas Supreme Court, apparently feeling that the docket of the Seventh Court of Civil Appeals in Amarillo is overloaded, has directed the 10th Court of Civil Appeals in Waco to lend a helping hand.
Two members of the Waco court are in Amarillo today hearing oral arguments in the cases alloted them. The two judges are Chief Justice Frank G. McDonald and Associate Justice Frank M. Wilson.
The Texas Supreme Court in equalizing the dockets of the civil appeals courts in the state has assigned 13 of the appeals filed in Amarillo to the Waco court.
Under statute the cases must be heard in the court in which they are filed. For this reason the Waco judges are hearing arguments in Amarillo.
Elmo Payne, clerk of the Amarillo court, says the Amarillo judges heard oral arguments in nine cases on April 6-7 and currently are working on their decisions in those cases.
The Seventh Court of Civil Appeals in Amarillo encompasses the largest Supreme Judicial District in the State of Texas — with 46 counties, Payne explained.

Voters To 'Pick' President In Precinct Conventions

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, — Official date for casting your vote for president of the United States is November 3. But the only way to be certain you have some say in who is elected president next fall is to become one of the 10 per cent in each political party to participate in a precinct convention.

These conventions in the state's 6000 voting precincts will be held next Saturday. They usually are held at 2 p.m. in rural areas and 8 p.m. in cities.

To take part in a precinct convention, you must first become a "qualified member" of a party by voting in the primary Saturday. The election judge will stamp "Republican" or "Democrat" on your poll tax receipt. This qualifies you to attend the precinct convention.

There, a delegate for each 25 votes cast in the precinct for your party's 1962 candidate for governor will be elected to the May 9 county convention.

At that convention, county delegates to state conventions to be held on June 16 and September 15 will be elected. Meeting in June will select and instruct delegates to the national conventions. Also, at that time, candidates for presidential elector will be selected.

September meeting will write a party platform and select state executive committee which runs your party's affairs between conventions.

To put it briefly: When you go to the precinct convention you elect the county delegate, who elects the state delegate, who elects the presidential elector, who then elects the president.

EDUCATION — Staff members of the Governor's Committee on Higher Education during the last week began to sift findings resulting from the group's year-long study.

The 25-member committee, which has held most of its deliberations behind closed doors, is expected to convene between May 8 and May 12 to pass on the draft report.

Final recommendations must be presented to Gov. John Connally and the Legislature by August 31.

Connally has indicated repeatedly the report will be assigned his top-priority tag for legislation.

ANIMAL HEALTH — Members of the Texas Animal Health Commission will tour border inspection stations at El Paso, Del Rio, Laredo and Brownsville and visit the sterile screwworm fly factory at Mission this weekend.

The flying tour was originated by the commission's executive director, Dr. R. G. Garrett, who felt that anyone representing animal interests for the state should become well-acquainted with the fever tick problem at the border, and understand the screwworm eradication program by seeing its operation first hand.

SCREWORM PROGRAM — Seven samples of screwworms were confirmed in March by state and federal animal health officials, who figure this is an indication of phenomenal success of the screwworm eradication program.

Dr. Ted Rea of the U.S. Department of Agriculture office in Austin said a March total before the program would have come to about 3000 screwworm confirmations and, back then, reporting was only about 10 per cent. Now, the reporting rate for Texas livestock producers is up to about 97 per cent.

RESORT REPORTS DUE — All owners or managers of shooting resorts or preserves must submit their record books to the State Parks and Wildlife Department on May 1, or turn them in to the nearest game warden.

May 1 also is the date when the three-month squirrel shooting season will begin in 24 Texas counties: Austin, Brazos, Burleson, Collin, Colorado, Dallas, Delta, Franklin, Grayson, Gregg, Grimes, Harris, Henderson, Hopkins, Jackson, Kaufman, Lee, Matagorda, Navarro, Raines, Robertson, Rockwall, Van Zandt and Washington.

OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has ruled that: A 1957 law under which the Stephens County commissioners court might have called an election to outlaw Sunday sales of beer in rural areas of the county is unconstitutional;

A defendant who fails to surrender his driver's license when his conviction for driving while intoxicated becomes final may be held in contempt of court;

A commissioner's court can't contract with an individual or firm to care for the indigent aged at an agreed rate per patient.

COURTS SPEAK — An Austin district court held that building of a $9,000,000 electric generating-transmitting plant at Ore City (north of Longview) by Upshur Rural Electric Cooperative Corp. is not permitted under Texas law.

Attorney General Carr brought suit for Southwestern Electric Power Company which claimed the expenditures borrowed from the Federal Rural Electrification Administration would be illegal because members of the Upshure Coop already are served by Southwestern.

Supreme Court gave its blessing to Sweeny Hospital District's issue of construction-improvement bonds, overturning the attorney general's veto of the bonds on a question involving classification of voters in the approval election.

The high court sustained a lower court ruling that coastal property owners are due another hearing on contest of $14,000,000 in Houston bonds, $9,000,000 of which would finance the Livingston Dam on the Trinity River.

On second trial in Austin, former Houston Probate Judge Clem McClelland was sentenced again to 10 years imprisonment on charges of felony conversion from an estate. Another appeal was promised.

INSURANCE RATES VARY — North and northwest Texas residents may pay 25 per cent more for homeowners and extended dwelling coverage as a result of hail and tornado damage.

Counties on the Gulf will experience a 4.4 per cent hike for the homeowner package coverage, but dwelling extended coverage is due to drop 3.6 per cent. State Board of Insurance indicated after a hearing with industry representatives.

In other parts of the state homeowner rates may decline some 5.2 per cent and dwelling extended coverage 16.1 per cent.

The home fire insurance loss experience rate increase was seen as 3.3 per cent statewide.

CONNALLY PROTESTS — Reference in "NATO Letter" to Texas as a "semi-civilized part of America" peopled with oil millionaires who serve as financial angles for radical right "hatemongers" brought strong protest from Governor Connally to Secretary of State Rusk.

"The fact that (the author) was emotionally distressed by the tragedy (President Kennedy's assassination), as so many of us were who were much more directly involved, is no excuse to print such an irresponsible diatribe in a magazine of this nature," Connally wrote.

Since the U.S. State Department is directly connected with the publication, the governor said, future articles should attempt "to undo the harm" already done.

SHORT SNORTS

Gubernatorial candidates Connally, Don Yarbrough and Jack Crichton all agreed that, if elected, they would consult a State Bar Committee on qualifications of prospective judicial appointees. . . Texas Water Commission has made available (free) Bulletin No. 6403, "Fifty Years of Water Development in Texas," to meet growing public in-

Plainview Club Making Ready For 'Round-up'

The Plainview Business and Professional Women's Club has announced May 16 as the date for the 1964 Pioneer Round-Up. This will be the 36th year the club has sponsored this annual event.

Miss Ruth Hartman, president of the B & P W Club, says the Pioneer Round-Up has become a tradition with Plainview and the surrounding area. It gives the pioneers a chance to get together and discuss "old times", renew acquaintances and meet those younger people who will be the pioneers of tomorrow.

The location of this year's event will be the same as last year. Pioneers will gather in the Reddy Room of Southwestern Public Service Co. for the reception Saturday morning beginning at 10 o'clock.

The traditional Round-Up parade will roll at 2 p.m.

The Plainview High School will be the scene of the Saturday evening's program. The chuck wagon supper will be served in the High School Cafeteria with the program to follow in the High School Auditorium. Highlight of the program will be the naming of the "Outstanding Pioneer Woman of the Plains".
