Board Loses Suit To Woodward

[EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article reports news of the court judgement against the Hereford Independent School District in connection with the Wayne Woodward civil suit. A detailed publication of Judge Halbert O. Woodward's opinion will be printed in the Thursday issue of The Hereford Brand.]

An unanimous decision for appeal by the Hereford School of Trustee late

Tuesday night resulted from a judgment by U.S. District Judge Halbert O. Woodward that a former teacher of the system has the right to reinstatement, back pay and $6,000 in attorney's fees since the board did not renew his contract for the 1975-76 school year.

The Judge ruled in favor of Wayne Woodward, who taught English in the 7th and 9th grades at La Plata Junior High School for five or six years.

The judge issued his opinion Tuesday afternoon by filing it in U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas. He backed up Woodward's claim that involvement with the Hereford chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) caused the board not to issue the teacher another contract.

Woodward was a vice president of the ACLU, which was a reason for Whitley to ask about the organization.

THE SCHOOL ATTORNEY'S contended that Woodward's alleged "hostile attitude" and uncooperative actions were the only reasons for not rehiring the teacher. They felt he had a responsibility to his students not to present the ACLU information and argued that Woodward prevented the solution of the situation by not allowing contacts with his principal.

The school board action for appeal came during an executive session of the board, which conferred with attorneys Earnest Langley and Richard Green for about three hours. On a motion by Clark Andrew, trustee, the board decided to continue the case "through the appellate process if necessary."

In a prepared release, the trustees, said "Naturally, we are pleased that no damages were awarded in the case, but we are disappointed that the court has found adversely to the district to any extent. Further, we do not believe that the opinion accurately portrays the actions of the district, or any of its personnel."

Woodward, filed a $400,000 civil suit in July, 1975, after the board decided in March, 1975, not to issue another annual contract to the plaintiff. A hearing was held June 2, 1975 at Woodward's request concerning the dismissal, but no action resulted in his favor.

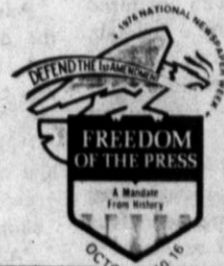

THE SUIT WAS BASED on Woodward's claim that no proper reasons were given for his dismissal, his right to

Bentsen Presents Bill

AUSTIN (AP) - Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Tex., proposed today the federal agencies be required to show specific legal authority for any regulations issued.

Bentsen, candidate for reelection, told a luncheon of the Associated General Contractors that something must be done "to reform the means by which the executive branch of government enforces and administers the law that Congress passes."

"We write one page of law and the executive agencies write 50 pages of regulations to interpret it. I think we should take away some of the latitude that the regulators now have to make sweeping interpretations without specifying exactly where the authority is derived," he said.

Chinese Arrest Leftists

LONDON (AP) - Chinese troops rounded up a number of radicals at Peking University in an apparent extension of the purge that began with the arrest of Mao Tse-tung's widow, the London Daily Telegraph reported today from Peking.

Daily Telegraph correspondent Nigel Wade, who sent the first news report from Peking of the purge, said sources in the Chinese capital told him troops on Tuesday surrounded a university building in which writers lived and worked. He said it was not known how many were arrested.

Corn Yielding Well Despite Fallen Stalks

By JIM STEIERT
Brand Farm Editor

Deaf Smith County farmers are well on their way to harvesting another bumper of excellent quality corn this year, and many are probably wishing that this year's market for their yellow grain would compare as favorable with conditions in 1975 as the crop itself.

YIELDS ARE being compared to the outstanding ones registered here last year, but prices for the commodity are lower in 1976, even though it cost more for the farmer to grow the corn this year.

While corn is yielding well, it will probably be another story for late-maturing milo in the area as an early frost nipped that crop last week, and will probably result in severely reduced yields and test weights.

Joe Artho of Hereford Grain Corp. reported that yields in excess of 10,000 pounds per acre dry weight have been recorded on some of the corn delivered at his elevator.

He estimated that corn harvesting is now 40 per cent complete and with favorable weather, could be completed within two weeks.

A SPOKESMAN for Dawn Co-Op east of Hereford indicated that corn harvesting was just beginning around the Dawn community, but is quite active north of Dawn.

"Most of the corn close to town was chopped for ensilage, but we are receiving quite a bit of milo," said the spokesman.

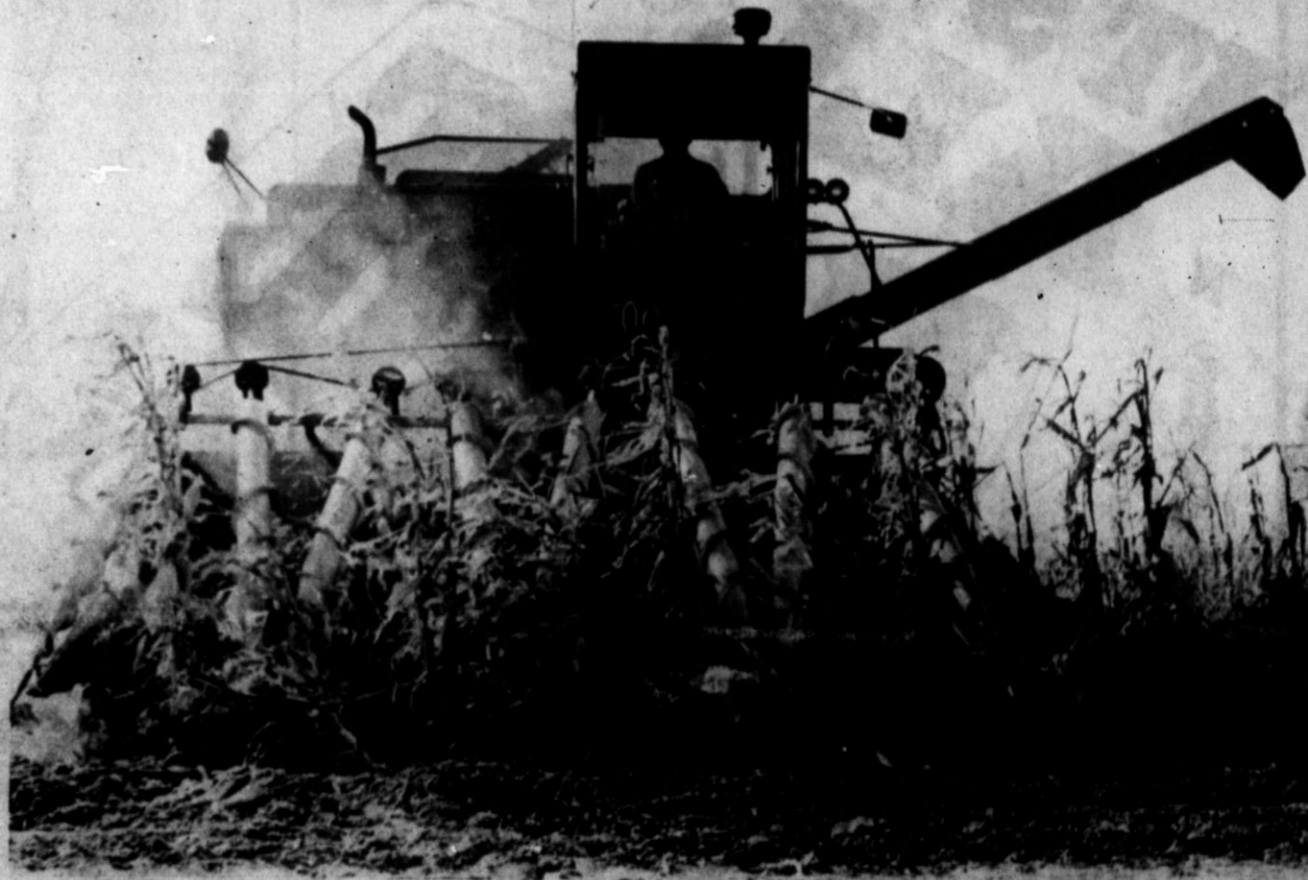

Moisture content of the milo ranged with 11-16 per cent and test weights of the red grain were set at between 58 and 60 pounds per bushel.

Elevator spokesmen were concerned about the prospects for late milo, and Gene King of Easter Grain indicated, "Some of the late milo was probably really hurt by the early frost of last week. Harvesting of milo is just starting, and what was ready is yielding excellent grain, but some of the later planted grain certainly needed some more frost-free time to mature sufficiently."

CORN WAS reported to be 40-50 per cent harvested in the Easter area.

Tests weights on corn were listed as ranging from 54-56 pounds by a spokesman for Pitman Grain. He indicated that Pitman customers were approximately one-third through with corn harvesting, and a few already have milo harvest underway.

"Harvesting of milo should continue through the remainder of this month, and possibly into November, depending on the weather," said the Pitman spokesman.

Picking Up

Raymond Schlabs, who farms north and east of Hereford was busy picking up the fallen stalks of his corn crop Tuesday afternoon with this special header on his combine. Although a good deal of the area's corn crop fell due to insect damage, stalk rot and other factors, farmers have been successful in picking up the crop and salvaging the yellow grain. Yields are generally good, with some reports of dry weight yields in excess of 10,000 pounds per acre, and quality of the grain is outstanding. Although farmers are forced to operate their combines at a slower speed to pick up the fallen corn, favorable weather is allowing harvesting to proceed rapidly, and the massive crop of yellow grain should be in the bin within the next two weeks. Reese Campaigns Here

Jim Reese, Republican Candidate for the 19th Congressional District seat, was in Hereford today to campaign.

He came here in connection with the opening of the local Republican office. It was established Monday for all Republican candidates for the presidential race down to local candidates.

Volunteers will man the office from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. It is located at 1503 E. Park.

Reese attended the Hereford Lions Club meeting at noon Wednesday at the Civic Club Center.

He was present from 1:30-3 p.m. at the Republican campaign headquarters for any interested voters who may want to talk with him. Reese is opposed by George Mahon, incumbent Democrat from Lubbock. Reese is the former mayor of Odessa.

A meeting for Reese campaign workers is set for 7:30 p.m. today at the Hereford Community Center. It will be conducted by Wes Fisher, county Republican Party chairman and Reese campaign organizer.

Quadrant Method Of Appraisal Questioned By School Trustees

By BOBBY TEMPLETON
Brand News Editor

Action was delayed on a quadrant system of reappraising school district property and no votes resulted on a controversy over Old Central School gym use during a regular meeting of the Hereford School Board of Trustees Tuesday night.

It was the longest meeting in several months as the board convened until about 11 p.m. in both open and executive session. The trustees decided to appeal the suit they lost to former teacher Wayne Woodward. See related story for details.

IN OTHER ACTIONS the board approved membership in the direct affiliate program of the National School Board Association, accepted the tax roll as presented by tax assessor-collector Fred Fox, reviewed briefly a policy on identifying bilingual students, heard a report on community education and considered four routine reports.

Jim McMorries, tax appraiser, told the board that a quadrant system of appraising would best suit the district's needs to update land values in the future. He admitted that irrigation wells were not pumping as much as originally anticipated and that this could cause a reduction in total taxable values as much as $8 million to $10 million a year.

Farmers are currently bringing in flow meter reading which show that wells are less productive and therefore require lower classifications on tax schedules. McMorries suggested that another category be added to the schedules as future reappraisals are done.

Other alternatives possible are for the school district to maintain its present value or update as it has been by picking up only alterations and additions to property. McMorries just completed a reappraisal of all lands, the first since in 15 years.

TRUSTEES DAVID HUTCHINS and Mrs. Sallie Strain questioned the equality of the quadrant system and considered other methods as more suitable. Hutchins noted that raised tax rates or assessment ratios could make up for lost values.

The plan has already been presented to the Deaf Smith County Commissioners Court. A joint meeting of the school board, county commissioners and the city is expected before a decision is reached by any government entity.

McMorries had stated that costs for a new house in Hereford ran about $30 to $32 a square foot, which caused different values than figured. Four realtors present contested the statement and McMorries

Herd Regains Lead In Total Offense

By BOB NIGH
Brand Sports Editor

The Hereford Whitefaces regained the district lead in total offense they lost to the Monterey Plainsmen one week ago on the basis of a 613-yard explosion against the Dumas Demons last Friday night.

The Herd amassed 476 yards rushing and added 137 more through the air in their romp over the Demons last week. On the season Hereford has 1,772 total yards in six games for a 295.3 yards-per-game average. Monterey fell to second in the wake of the outburst by the Faces. The Plainsmen had a 281-yard effort against Pampa in their convincing 35-0 win. On the season the Plainsmen are averaging 247.5 yards-per-game, with 1,485 total yards.

The Lubbock High Westerners rank third in the district in total offense with 219.3 average. Lubbock has 1,316 total yards. Coronado is fourth with 1,092 yards and a 182.0 standard, while Plainview is last with 756 total yards and a 151.2 average. Monterey still leads the district in defense after six weeks, giving up an average of 181.8 yards to opponents. The Plainsmen have given up 1,091 total yards to lead second-place Coronado, which has given up 1,304 yards.

The Hereford Whitefaces stand third defensively with a 231.5 average given up, and a 1,389 total. Plainview, which has played one game less than the rest of the district members, is fourth in defense with 1,264 yards allowed for a 252.8 average. Lubbock is last defensively having given up 1,878 yards to their six opponents for a 313.0 average.

Monterey is head and shoulders above the rest of the district in the won-lost column with a perfect 6-0 record. The Plainsmen are a bit of a surprise to some so-called experts this year, but Hereford coach Fred Upshaw was one who picked them to top the district this season. Hereford and Lubbock share the second spot in the district record-wise with 3-3 ledgers. Coronado stands 2-3-1, while Plainview currently rests at 1-4.

In miscellaneous statistics Hereford still leads the league in fumbles lost with 1, and are the second-most penalized team with 333 yards on 43 flaggings. Monterey holds the penalty lead with 352 markers on 36 occasions. Interestingly, Hereford opponents have been penalized just one yard short of the Herd, 332 on 36 flaggings.

The Faces hold the league head in first downs with a total of 102 in six contests; an average of 17 per game. Monterey is second in first downs with 93, and a 15.5 average.

Lawson leads league regular quarterbacks in passing with a .447 percentage. Lawson has connected on 17 of 38 attempts for 252 yards and three touchdowns. Kelly Kitchens is fifth in passing with a 14 for 40 mark, good for 181 yards and a .350 average.

Hereford's Martinez scored 26 points against the Demons, but made up only eight points on district scoring leader Reeves, who collected three touchdowns in Monterey's 35-0 swamping of Pampa.

Reeves has 11 touchdowns for 66 points to hold down the lead. Martinez has nine TD's and three PAT's for 57 points and second place. Lugo is third in the race with 38 points.

Blue Jersey Jinx Not Worrying Tom

DALLAS (AP) - Will the so-called "blue jersey" jinx strike the Dallas Cowboys down again in St. Louis Sunday? Cowboy coach Tom Landry certainly isn't superstitious about it.

And Tex Schramm, president and general manager of the only unbeaten team in the National Football League, has facts and figures on the tip of his tongue that blue jerseys haven't always meant sure death for his team.

Home teams in the NFL are given their choice of jerseys and the Cowboys started wearing white years ago because Schramm felt it would give fans in Texas Stadium a chance to see, say the Washington Redskins, in their colors of Burgundy and Gold.

Questioned about the matter Tuesday, Landry was saying the jersey situation hardly rated at the top of his priorities in readying for St. Louis when Schramm piped up from the back of the room.

"We've won five out of the last eight games we've played in the blue jerseys," said Schramm, who obviously had done some homework on the so-called "Blue blight."

It will be the only game in the regular season where the Cowboys will have to wear blue. Getting back to basics like blocking and tackling, Landry said "There's some pressure on St. Louis because if we win we'll be two games ahead in the Eastern Conference. But it's early. Usually, 11-3 or 10-4 will win the division."

CINCINNATI (AP) - A Cincinnati city council member lamented that there probably should have been an organized program at the city's Fountain Square Plaza to celebrate the Cincinnati Reds' National League Pennant victory on Tuesday.

was in serious condition with a gunshot wound to the face. The second shooting victim was identified as James Woods, 18, also of Cincinnati, who was shot in the stomach.

Police said incidents began to occur late in the evening as young people began congregating at the Square. Older celebrants, mainly those who attended the game, left the scene early in the evening.

The celebration was a sharp contrast to the 1975 playoffs celebration after the Reds beat Pittsburgh when there were only a few dozen arrests. But the celebration following The World Series victory over the Boston Red Sox drew thousands. A daytime, officially organized post-Series celebration drew more but was without incident.

Brett Misses Play; Yanks Rally, Win

NEW YORK (AP) - This is the tale of two third basemen. George Brett plays the position for the Kansas City Royals. When he made two errors in the first game of the American League playoff series against the New York Yankees, he had a straight forward answer.

"I never said I was good fielder," he said. "I'm a good hitter." That can be confirmed by his .333 average, highest in the American League this season, and six hits in 10 swings against the Yankees in the playoffs.

Graig Nettles plays the position for the Yankees. He batted .254 during the regular season but led the American League in home runs with 32-half as many as the entire Royals' club collected. And during the playoffs, he's been a virtual vacuum cleaner at third base, as well as contributing a vital RBI-single in New York's 5-3 third-game victory Tuesday night.

And this is the tale of a double by Lou Piniella - a ball that got past Brett and started a Yankee comeback that wiped out a 3-0 deficit and beat the Royals in the pivotal third game.

"The ball was catchable," said Kansas City Manager Whitey Herzog. "Definitely catchable," agreed Brett. "This year, I have made some of those plays and missed some of them."

He missed this one and a moment later, Chris Chambliss walloped a two-run homer that put Yankees back in the ball game.

Two innings later, New York overtook the Royals, rallying for three runs as Herzog paraded four relief pitchers to the mound, trying to stop them. Thurman Munson and Elliott Maddox had key doubles in the comeback inning but it was a ringing single by Nettles that delivered the go-ahead run.

"That was the biggest hit of my career," Nettles said. And Herzog's only comment was somewhat grim.

"The Yankee third baseman has played better than mine in this series," he said. Harsh words but they ring true. Nettles has made some outstanding defensive plays and delivered some timely hits against the Royals. And while Brett's bat has been productive, his glove has not.

Brett helped Kansas City touch up Dock Ellis for three first-inning runs. Brett drove home the first one with a base hit and then scored the second on a sacrifice fly by John Mayberry.

Kansas City starter Andy Hassler rode the 3-0 lead into the fourth and then with two out, Piniella drilled a ball between Brett and the third base bag. "Catchable," decided Herzog, "but it would have been an outstanding play if he made it."

He did not and the Royals paid dearly for the oversight when, two pitches later, Chambliss homered.

Persons wishing to have their name placed on the telegram may contact several local businesses to do so.

Helen's Youth Shop, the Hereford State Bank, and KPAN will be accepting names until noon Thursday. A charge of 25 cents per couple will be necessary to be included.

In a report from the team, it was learned that Herd standout center-linebacker Greg Brockman will be lost for the year due to knee surgery which will take place this Friday in Amarillo.

Brockman was leading the team in tackles prior to his injury in Canyon contest, and was a leader in the offensive line.

The boosters will continue to meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesdays until later in the year when basketball will force them to change to Monday nights.

Montgomery announced. The meeting site is the high school cafeteria.

Boosters To Send Team Telegrams

The Hereford Whiteface Booster Club discussed replacing some of the maroon sport coats Hereford athletes wear on game days, and decided to send telegrams to the football team prior to each district game starting this week at their meeting Tuesday night.

A discussion was held whether or not to replace several of the coats for the athletic teams. Club vice-president Gerald Payne was given the OK by the members present to seek out replacement coats.

The Boosters will enter a float in the Homecoming parade next week. The ladies in the club will begin putting the float together at 9:30 a.m. Thursday, October 21.

"Any help will be appreciated I'm sure," club president Dick Montgomery said.

Telegrams will be sent to the football team prior to each district game with Herd boosters showing their support.

Cougars Lead SWC Offenses

DALLAS (AP) - The University of Houston, the new kid on the Southwest Conference block, jumped to the top of league statistics in both rushing offense and total offense last week after a 50-7 mauling of West Texas State.

The Cougars rushed for 548 yards against WTSU, fifth highest single-game total in SWC history. The top rushing game in SWC history books is the 611 yards gained by Texas against SMU in 1969. Houston added 68 passing yards for 616 yards total offense.

Arkansas and Texas A&M hold their leads in rushing and total defense, respectively. Rice remained well ahead in passing offense.

82-400, 100.0; Woodard, A&M, 102-473, 94.6; RECEIVING—Cunningham, Rice, 32-456 yards, 8.0 completions per game; Sykes, Rice, 28-213, 7.0; Roy, Rice, 20-174, 5.0.

PASSING—Kramer, Rice, 99-179, 24.7 yards per completion; Elzner, TCU, 60-121, 12.0; Jackson, Baylor, 44-94, 8.8.

TOTAL DEFENSE—Houston, 301 plays for 1,540 yards, average 385.0 yards per game; Rice 307-1,501, 375.2; Texas 288-1,394, 348.5.

Bulldogs First Obstacle To Herd District Title

By BOB NIGHE
Brand Sports Editor

Hereford head football coach Fred Upshaw, his staff, and the Whitefaces themselves are not conceding anything to the Monterey Plainsmen as they head into the crucial district play this week against Plainview.

"We felt all along that Monterey would be the best...whether they'll remain on top is yet to be seen," Upshaw said Tuesday afternoon. "Their (Monterey) offense is cranking up, and they've had three shutouts in-a-row, but we think it'll still be a pretty good race."

The Plainsmen have come through the six-game non-district schedule, unscathed and own a perfect 6-0 record. They have scored 81 points in their last three games, most recently demolishing pre-season District 3-4A favorite Pampa 35-0.

Hereford and Lubbock are the only other district teams above the .500 mark. Both stand at 3-3—Coronado has a 2-3-1 mark while Plainview, the Herd's first district opponent, has sunk to a 1-4 mark.

"Plainview is in a situation pretty much the same we were in a year ago," Upshaw said. "They haven't done real well in pre-district, and we know they will put forth a big effort against us."

The Whitefaces, meanwhile, have been a slight disappointment through six games, finally getting untracked last week it seemed against Dumas in a 52-12 runaway victory. That win has gone far to help the Herd as they head into district Upshaw says.

"This is what we've been waiting on, and we feel that our kinds will come on now," the coach said. "Our frame of mind has improved after the big win last Friday, and the fact that it is our first district game along with the memory of the big win ought to help us."

Plainview's Bulldogs own but a single win this year, a 7-0 conquest of Tascosa on the second Friday of the season. Estacado, Midland Lee, Amarillo and Canyon all own wins over Plainview.

"They have the talent, but seem to have had problems getting it together," Upshaw said. "They have the capabilities, and we feel that if there is any week for them to get it together, this will be the one."

The Bulldogs have several psychological advantages over the Whitefaces coming into the game Friday. The game will be Plainview's Homecoming for one. Their poor record heading into district play is another... and the fact that Hereford embarrassed them 44-7 last year is a big one.

One of the main things worrying the Hereford coaches, especially the defensive mentors, is the fact that Plainview has used a font of offensive sets this year.

The Bulldogs have on occasion used the wishbone, I-Slot, double wing, power I, and two-tight-end formations through their first six games the coach reported.

"We don't know exactly what they are going to use," Upshaw said. "But they've had two weeks to prepare for us with an off date last week, and it looks like we'll have to be ready for

Quarterback John Horne and halfbacks Robert Long and Royce Coleman head the Bulldog offensive push this season. Horne has hit on 12 of 35 passes this season for 178 yards.

Long leads the Bulldogs in rushing with 239 yards on 48 carries. Coleman has 225 markers on 68 totes, and has scored three of his team's four touchdowns.

The Plainview offensive line is anchored by guard Tom Burge (205) and tackles Ronald Bailey (207) and Bruce Whitefield (208).

Defensively the Bulldogs favor a 4-3 alignment with a trio of lanky linebackers behind a defensive line led by tackle Scott Ramsey (212). Their secondary is not big with an average weight of 154 pounds.

"Defensively they have a real solid team," Upshaw said. "Their offense has turned the ball over at the wrong time, but they're a good football team."

The Hereford Whitefaces, too are a good football team...when they can hang onto the ball. The Faces have lost 16 fumbles to opponents to lead the district in the category.

As has been the case all year, Upshaw feels that ball control by the Hereford offense will be one of the keys to the game Friday night.

"We just have to play a good, sound football game and must control the ball in order to win," he said.

In conclusion Upshaw said he felt his team "is ready for district." A majority of the league mentors felt exactly that way prior to the season as they voted the Faces the favorite to take the title.

Sooners Narrow Choice; Owls Picked In Upset

By HERSHEL NISSENSEN
AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) - Quickie Q. : Who's the only team to beat Oklahoma in the last four years?

Son of Quickie Quiz: Who does Oklahoma play Saturday? Answer to both: Kansas.

So it's out of the Texas frying pan and into the Kansas fire and the Sooners face a virtual must-win situation or run the risk of seeing their hopes of becoming the first team ever to win three consecutive national college football championships go down the drain.

Kansas may have been looking ahead last weekend when the previously unbeaten Jayhawks stumbled against Oklahoma State. Oklahoma, which should have been looking ahead to a little revenge, was not because the Sooners never look past Texas.

"Kansas has a better wishbone offense than Texas because of the speed and running ability of the quarterback Nolan Cromwell and Laverne Smith," said Oklahoma Coach Barry Switzer. They talk about Johnny 'Lam' Jones' speed in Texas. Well, Laverne Smith was the Big Eight 100-meter dash champion this past spring with 10.1. He scored two touchdowns on us last year. He's complemented at the other halfback by a guy with 4.4 or 4.5 speed in Bill Campfield."

Sounds like trouble for...Oklahoma 17-14. Last week's score was 46 right—including Ole Miss' 21-17 upset of Georgia on the nose—19 wrong and three ties for a .708 percentage. For the season, it's 238-96-8-713.

Miami, Fla. at Pitt: The Panthers are in trouble. No. 1 quarterback Robert Haygood went down for the season in the second game. Backup Matt Cavanaugh suffered a hairline ankle fracture last weekend and is out for a month or so. That leaves the job in the hands of Tom Yewcic, a non-scholarship senior...P-P-P, Pitt 20-16.

Michigan at Northwestern: There were some things Bo Schembacher didn't like about the Wolverines' 42-10 rout of Michigan State. Bet they don't do those things against winless Northwestern...Michigan 49-6.

Washington State at UCLA: "I think every game from here on out is going to be a dogfight," says Terry Donahue, coach of fourth-ranked UCLA. Washington State gave Southern Cal all it could handle last weekend and could catch the Bruins on a downer between Stanford and California, but...UCLA 34-14.

Wake Forest at Maryland: The feeling persists that this is going to be closer than it should be...Maryland 20-17.

Iowa State at Missouri: If you've $2 million to spare, give it to Iowa State and they'll name their stadium after you. Just though you'd like to know...Missouri 28-20.

Ohio State at Wisconsin: The Badgers have scored at least 16 points against Michigan. They're also out for revenge after last year's 56-0 mauling by the Bucks. Flushed with last week's Ole Miss-Georgia success, let's pass on this as a possible Upset Special...Ohio State 30-13.

Texas Tech at Rice: This marks the first time all season the Red Raiders have played on two successive Saturdays. Flushed with last week's Ole Miss-Georgia success, let's try this as the Upset Special of the Week...Rice 27-21.

Vanderbilt at Georgia: Georgia's hopping mad after that loss to Ole Miss and Vandy ain't so dandy...Georgia 35-17.

Florida at Florida State: This is a logical Upset Special since Florida catches the non-conference Seminoles between SEC foes and LSU and Tennessee...

Florida 33-12. Oregon at Notre Dame: Come Saturday evening, the Oregon Ducks might wish they had ducked this one...Notre Dame 31-10.

Louisiana State at Kentucky: It's always emotional when LSU's Cholly Mac faces his alma mater...LSU 22-19.

Mississippi at South Carolina: Ole Miss is looking back to Georgia, but Carolina's looking ahead to Notre Dame...Mississippi 14-10.

Houston at Southern Methodist: Mustangs won last year, but it wasn't a conference game then...Houston 28-14.

Alabama at Tennessee: Bear Bryant says there isn't a team on 'Bama's schedule it can beat. This corner doubts that...Alabama 24-14.

Reds Complete Sweep

CINCINNATI (AP) - The Cincinnati Reds are like bottled lightning. You never know where or when they'll strike.

Manager Sparky Anderson's Reds looked like a beaten team in the ninth inning of Tuesday's third game in the best-of-five National League playoff game against the Philadelphia Phillies.

The Phillies led 6-4, and had ace reliever Ron Reed out there to assure their first victory in the series and stave off elimination. It certainly appeared that the Reds' fourth National League pennant clinching in six years would have to wait at least one more day.

But as Phillies shortstop Larry Bowa would say later, the Reds never quit. First they bombed Reed for consecutive homers by George Foster and Johnny Bench. Then they bled the Phillies for the winning run in a 7-6 pennant clincher.

Reed left after those two shocking homers sent a Cincinnati crowd of 55,407 into a frenzy. Gene Garber came in and gave up a single to Dave Concepcion. Phillies' Manager Danny Ozark lifted Garber and sent in 22-year-old Tommy Underwood.

Underwood, chewing bubble gum nervously, walked Cesar Geronimo on four pitches.

"I let them sacrifice the runner without an out," Underwood said after the game.

Pinch-hitter Ed Armbrister sacrificed the runners to second and third, and Pete Rose was intentionally walked. Ken Griffey, who lost the league batting title on the final day of the season, stepped to the plate.

"Be patient, just get the ball you want to hit," Anderson told Griffey.

Griffey, who probably beats out more infield hits than any other National League player, topped a ball toward first. Concepcion broke for home. The ball ticked off first baseman Bobby Tolan's glove and Concepcion streaked home.

A single, a walk, a sacrifice, a walk and an infield topper, and the Phillies were dead.

Despite his disappointment, Bowa, paid tribute to the Reds and predicted they'd blow out the American League champions in the American League starting Saturday in Cincinnati.

"There was no luck involved," said Bowa. "They had more experience. They took advantage of every mistake we made. There was no excuse. We just got beat. They simply don't quit. I feel sorry for whoever plays them in the Series. I don't think there is a team over there (American League) who can compete with them."

Reed sat on the floor in an effort by the clubhouse for a half-hour after the game. He was distraught.

"There is no way you blame anybody on this club but me for that loss," said the 6-foot-6 former pro basketball player. "I made two mistakes, and there was no excuse in the world for them. I hunt a slider to Foster and threw Bench a high fast-ball.

Foster, who went to the plate in a 1-for-11 slump, said his eyes lit up when he saw the pitch in the middle of the plate.

"I had made up my mind to wait for a good pitch," said Foster, who hit 29 home runs in the regular season. He got it.

Bench, whose .234 batting average was the lowest in his storied 10-year career, said that after Foster's homer had reduced the Phillies' lead to 6-5, "I knew I was on the block. I wanted to hit one out more than anything."

Griffey said of his game-winning chopper: "As soon as I saw it hit off his glove, I knew it was over. This is better than any batting championship," added the outfielder who has been dubbed the infield hacker for his ability to beat out slow dribblers.

The champagne still was pouring in the Reds' clubhouse when Anderson turned his thoughts to the World Series. He announced that left-hander Don Gullett would start for the Reds regardless of which team won the American League pennant, the New York Yankees or the Kansas City Royals.

The Phillies started Jim Kaat against the Reds and the 37-year-old blanked the Reds on one hit through six innings. The Phillies, meanwhile, built a 3-0 lead off Cincinnati starter Gary Nolan and reliever Manny Sarmiento.

Mike Schmidt and Greg Luzinski hit successive doubles for a fourth-inning run. Bowa walked, Kaat sacrificed, Garry Moaddox ripped a one-out double scoring Bowa, and Schmidt doubled home Maddox in the seventh.

The Reds erupted for four runs in the seventh to go ahead 4-3. Kaat left after Griffey beat out an infield single and Joe Morgan walked with none out. Reed relieved.

Tony Perez singled for one run and Foster hit a sacrifice fly for the second. Bench walked and Geronimo hit a fly into short left field that Tolan lost for a triple that sent home two more runs.

Philadelphia picked up an insurance run in the ninth when Jerry Martin reached first on an error by Rose, and Johnstone tripled.

But that was it and the Reds had another championship.

Rumor Leakers to Lose Staff Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP) - The chief spokesman for the President Ford Committee says he will fire any staff member who tried to spread false rumor that Democrat Jimmy Carter had an extramarital affair.

But first, William Greener said, someone will have to name the person to be fired.

Existence of the Carter rumor and the allegation that it came from Ford's campaign staff surfaced Monday during columnist Jack Anderson's regular appearance on ABC television's "God Morning America."

Anderson said Ford's cam-

aign sources supplied him with the name of a woman they suggested had had an affair with Carter and that they later offered him the names of four other women.

He said he checked the rumors and found them groundless.

The New York Times and the Los Angeles Times also reported Monday that they had heard the rumors.

The New York Times said its reporters heard them from both Democratic and Republican sources. The paper published nothing about them because it could not find the source.

The Los Angeles Times said a Ford campaign aide passed the story to its Washington bureau, which checked and could not substantiate it.

No one named specific individuals in Ford's campaign. "If someone can step up and tell me who they are, I will fire them on the spot," Greener said.

Anderson, in a telephone interview, said three of his four sources worked directly for Greener. But Greener said he had talked with members of his staff who deal with the press, and all of them denied talking to Anderson.

AUSTIN — The general election campaign is in full swing in Texas.

President Ford, his Democratic opponent Jimmy Carter, and Carter's vice presidential running mate, Sen. Walter Mondale, were all Texas visitors during the last week. They will be back, and Mondale and GOP vice presidential nominee Sen. Robert Dole, scheduled their October 15 debate in Houston.

Polls purportedly show Ford closing the gap on Carter, though Democrats claim they are still ahead and plan to stay there with help from all major statewide Democratic officials and organizations in most of the 254 counties.

Former Gov. John Connally is leading the Ford state organization. Gov. Dolph Briscoe is head of Carter's statewide steering committee, while Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong and State Democratic Chairman Calvin Guest are campaign co-chairmen.

Doug Lewis and Peter O'Donnell Jr. aid Connally in the Ford Committee's Austin headquarters.

U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen is challenged by U.S. Rep. Alan Steelman, a Dallas Republican, but Steelman has been having serious money problems which he said may keep him from meeting his advertising budget and which already has forced a staff reduction.

Steelman is attacking Bentsen for sponsoring "tax loopholes" which he claims benefitted special interests who contributed substantially to the senator's campaign. He also contends Bentsen ignored his Senate campaign promises to Texans when he was a Democratic presidential candidate.

Bentsen assails Steelman for absenteeism from the House during his campaign and criticizes the Republican's record on such issues as land use planning legislation.

Democrat Jon Newton and Republican Walter Wendlandt are warming up their Railroad Commission race.

Controversial Democratic State Supreme Court nominee Don Yarbrough has two write-in opponents — Sam Houston of Denton and Tom Loran of Houston.

Armstrong said the average price per acre was $124.90, a new record.

A total of 373 tracts were leased — or 282,723 acres. Cities Service Company submitted the highest bid — $3.1 million — on a Gulf of Mexico tract. Next highest bid was from Mesa Petroleum Company, for $2.53 million. Five bids of more than $1 million were offered, but two were on the same tract.

Armstrong said interest in the oil and gas leases exceeded expectations and demonstrated that bidders can be attracted while maintaining environmental standards.

Report Sought

House Speaker Bill Clayton called for a full report from the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System on cost of off-campus college courses.

Clayton expressed surprise at discovering that 4,000 such courses are being taught at graduate, senior and junior levels and 2,000 at sophomore and freshman levels.

The economy-minded Speaker conceded some off-campus courses may be necessary, but said the programs appear to have "proliferated beyond reason."

"I want the Legislative Budget Board to see if we can't make self-supporting the courses that are taught," said Clayton. "The people who have the courses brought to them should be willing to pay for them."

Clayton said he is conducting a poll of college and university administrators to get advice on how the courses can be funded.

Court Speaks

The U.S. Supreme Court refused to rehear arguments on constitutionality of the Texas death penalty law, but no early executions are anticipated.

Atty. Gen. John Hill said executions will be delayed for six months to two years.

The Supreme Court affirmed the death penalty assessed a 27-year-old man for the killing of a 10-year-old Cuero girl and throwing her body in a river.

Applications for a stay of execution and efforts to launch a new appeal on some basis other than constitutionality of the death penalty are anticipated, said Hill, who defended the state law in the initial appellate process.

The State Supreme Court turned down the appeal of a schoolboy who claimed Harris County school hair length regulations should apply to girls as well as to boys.

The high court also rejected an effort to force a local election on sale of alcoholic beverages in Abilene.

The Supreme Court found the state's 10 per cent tax on mixed drinks constitutional and not discriminatory.

overtime. The court finally ruled the federal requirement unconstitutional.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

The Department of Public Safety does not have to furnish information on convictions of persons who have been pardoned.

The Dallas Housing Authority may finance a project with a note bearing interest in excess of eight per cent per annum.

Changes Urged

The Joint Advisory Committee on Government Operations urged changes in money management and college building construction and adoption of a "sunset law" to eliminate unneeded agencies.

The economy-hunting committee said the state treasurer should have power to invest idle funds in a larger assortment of securities.

It also called for constitutional amendments to make all University of Texas and Texas A&M University units eligible to issue construction bonds payable from Permanent University Fund interest and to make other public senior colleges eligible for construction funds under a 10-cent property tax.

Another proposal would ban bonds payable from blanket student building fees.

AG Opinions

Atty. Gen. John Hill ruled that state agencies cannot legally pay overtime to employees during the Jan. 1, 1975-June 24, 1976, period when the U.S. Supreme Court was mulling constitutionality of an act requiring states to pay

Unlocked Locks: A Prisoner's Dream

JEFFERSON (AP) - The Jefferson County sheriff in this East Texas city has a problem with locks at the county jail that won't stay locked.

Sheriff George Whatley said the locks were installed about nine months ago and they never worked.

"If they can't get them to work after nine months, they never will," Whatley said of the manufacturing firm.

The locks cost about $10,000 and were installed as part of a $380,000 renovation job completed about nine months ago.

"I haven't been able to get anybody to do anything about it," the sheriff said.

Whatley explained that the locks to the outside of the cell block work, but the locks to individual cells won't work so he can't keep the prisoners inside their cells at night—or at any other time for that matter.

The sheriff took his problem to Jefferson County Commissioner's court Monday, but the matter wasn't on the agenda so the commissioners would not take any action on the locks.

"They gave me the run-around. They want to wait two weeks. I told them all hell could break loose in less than two weeks," he said.

"They're going to let some mad dogs loose on the county," Whatley said of the inaction on the part of the commissioners.

"I've usually got 10 to 12 bad ones there in maximum security," the sheriff said.

Jefferson County Judge Sonny Haggard told Whatley that a third set of locks that are to be installed may solve the problem and said a technician is examining the locks to determine the problem.

"I may have to call U.S. District Court Judge Sarah T. Huhes down here and get her on the commissioners," Sheriff Whatley said.

"If she hears about it, I may not have to call her," he added with a chuckle.

Judge Hughes has ordered Dallas County commissioners to increase security at the county jail at Dallas following the beating death of a prisoner. The judge has set a deadline for improvements to be started at the Dallas jail.

Asked if he has been able to determine why the commissioners have not taken action sooner, Sheriff Whatley replied "I just can't figure it out. They want to take their time and I told them this can't wait."

The lock situation has forced the sheriff to put an extra deputy on duty at night and weekend because he fears for the safety of the women dispatchers on duty.

No one has attempted to escape through the faulty locks, he said, but he fears someone might at any time. The only escape attempt in the past nine months came when prisoners attempted to dig their way out.

petition for extensive rules to regulate gas utilities.

It said it had denied two of Common Cause's three requests but had accepted for consideration its proposed rules "pertaining to quality of service performed by the utilities."

"I think these would be a good vehicle for the solicitation of comments," gas utilities examiner Paul Mermann told the commission.

Mermann advised the commissioners a large number of the Common Cause proposals already are in the law or commission rules.

TRC Rejects Gas Order Time Limit

AUSTIN (AP) - The railroad commission rejected Tuesday a Common Cause proposal to set a 180-day time limit on "interim" gas utility orders.

Commission critics claim that until interim orders, such as those permitting gas supply companies to pass on increased gas costs, are made final, they cannot be appealed in the court.

"The commission does not consider a rule placing a 180-day limitation on the applicability of interim orders to be well advised," the commission told Katy Davis, director of Common Cause. "Some matters are complex enough that they simply cannot be resolved adequately within 180 days."

The commission's response was to Ms. Davis' Aug. 16

petition for extensive rules to regulate gas utilities.

It said it had denied two of Common Cause's three requests but had accepted for consideration its proposed rules "pertaining to quality of service performed by the utilities."

"I think these would be a good vehicle for the solicitation of comments," gas utilities examiner Paul Mermann told the commission.

Mermann advised the commissioners a large number of the Common Cause proposals already are in the law or commission rules.

Ford's Visit Said 'Political Circus'

AUSTIN (AP) - Jimmy Carter's backers are saying that President Ford's campaign people turned an expected nonpolitical trip to the State Fair into a "political circus."

And in Fort Worth, the Rev. W.A. Criswell's comments about Ford when the President attended services at the First Baptist Church in Dallas were criticized by Texas Democratic party chairman Calvin Guest.

Agriculture Commissioner John White said Monday in a statement released through Carter's state headquarters in Austin that Gerald Ford's visit to the State Fair in Dallas was staged slicker than a sideshow carnival and hyped heavier than a barker at a circus freak show.

"His supposed non-political visit to the State Fair was the biggest con job on Dallas since the slant-hole oil scandals."

White, Carter's Texas campaign manager, said he was sure State Fair officials were "embarrassed that the GOP campaign committee turned this traditionally non-partisan event into a political circus."

Guest said he thought the "pulpit was reserved for the teachings of Jesus Christ and things of the spirit, and I regret that he the Rev. Criswell used it for the political nature he did because I am very fond of Brother Criswell."

During the Rev. Criswell's sermon Sunday, he referred to Ford as "our great President" and praised Ford for a speech before the Southern Baptist Convention in Norfolk, Va., last June.

Guest said he knew the Rev. Criswell is a Republican, "and I recognize that and I think other people in the state will recognize that he is a Republican."

After Sunday's services, the Rev. Criswell told reporters, "I'm for him," as he and Ford stood on the steps of the church.

Ford responded by saying he was "gratified" by the Rev. Criswell's endorsement.

MUSICAL SCULPTURE

AKRON, Ohio (AP) - A half-ton sculpture at the University of Akron's new Music Speech and Theater Arts building can be played as a musical instrument.

The sculpture is by Pennsylvania artist Harry Bertoia and consists of five shimmering clusters of flexible copper alloy rods, reminiscent of reeds or cattails, ranging in height from four feet to more than eight feet.

When vibrated, they produce reverberating tones that are evocative of gongs, chimes, cathedral bells and organ crescendos.

Hall Completes Recruit Training In Marines

Marine Private Jerry Lee Hall, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Hall of Route 4, Hereford, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Depot, San Diego.

During the 11-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

PVT. JERRY HALL

A 1976 graduate of Hereford High School, he joined the Marine Corps in November 1975.

Without nectar, there could not be honey. The flower nectar, mixed with enzymes within the bee's body, breaks down into dextrose and levulose, both simple sugars. This thin, partly ripened honey is stored in open cells in the bee hive, and the bees fan their wings in front of the cells to evaporate excess water.

Field Day For Feeders Set Tomorrow At Olton

OLTON— A morning seminar, a complimentary barbecue and an afternoon tour of Olton Feedyards comprise a special field day for cattle feeders and other interested persons at the Olton Community on Hwy 70 Thursday, Oct. 14, beginning at 10:00 a.m.

Dip vat management techniques, costs and regulations will be discussed during the morning seminar. That afternoon, guests will tour Olton Feedyards, Inc. where the Hydrasieve (hydra-seve) cattle dip recycling system will be demonstrated, according to Dr. John M. Sweeten, agricultural engineer for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, College Station.

"Feedlot managers, yard foremen, veterinarians, entomologists and suppliers will be interested in attending this unique event," says Sweeten, who is coordinating the field day. "We will discuss water pollution controls, state and federal requirements for cattle dipping vat management and cattle economics."

Sweeten says the Hydrasieve system which will be highlighted during the afternoon tour proved successful in reducing pesticide cost and disposal requirements in an Extension result demonstration supported by the Texas Cattle Feeders Association.

Speakers for the one-day event, besides Sweeten, are Dr. James C. Christy, scabbies epidemiologist with APHIS-USDA, Amarillo; Dr. Gene C. Cope, are veterinarian, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Amarillo; Dr. Richard P. McDonald, executive assistant, Texas Cattle Feeders Association, Amarillo; and Dr. Wayne Rose, manager of chemical research, Cutter Animal Health Laboratories, Division of Bayvet Corporation, Shawnee, Kansas.

Also, Dr. James B. Young, staff veterinarian with the Texas Animal Health Commission, Austin; and Ms. Peggy Test, engineering technician, Texas Water Quality Board, Amarillo. The field day is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University, in cooperation with Texas Cattle Feeders Association.

Income Workshop Planned

Representatives from the Internal Revenue Service will hold an "Income Tax Preparers Workshop" at West Texas State University Nov. 15-16.

Basic and advanced tax procedures, and corporate tax problems will be examined in three concurrent sessions in the WTSU Activities Center from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day.

The first section will be an introduction to tax preparation, and will involve a run-through of the Form 1040. Filing status and requirements, exemption, gross income, tax computations, tax rate schedules and tables will be discussed.

The second section will look at the more complex aspects of the tax structure. This section will cover basis and depreciation, IRS Sections 1245 and 1250, investment credit, travel and entertainment, installment sales and pensions and annuities.

The third is a section on corporate tax problems, and will follow the basic outline of the first section.

Registration for the workshop will be $25, which includes study materials. Interested individuals should send their names, addresses, phone number, registration fee and first and second choices for sections to the Accounting Department, Box 187, West Texas State University, Canyon, TX 79016.

Applications will be accepted in the order in which they are received. Registrants will be notified of acceptance and the section to which they are assigned.

Lone Star Plans Donation

Members of Lone Star Study Club elected to offer a donation to the local fund to purchase an electric wheelchair for Joey Mazurek, an MD patient. Members met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Gaston Baer with Mrs. G.W. Newsom serving as co-hostess.

Mrs. Hardy Benson presented the program, during which she illustrated her discussion of Mt. Rushmore with photographs. She stated that the American monument honors four presidents who were influential in shaping political life in this country.

Mrs. Benson went on to say that seven church denominations are sponsoring a move to sculpt another shrine such as Rushmore, but to honor four U.S. spiritual leaders in the proposed project.

It was announced that the next meeting will be held Nov. 9 in the home of Mrs. Jim Higgins, 142 N. Texas.

In attendance at yesterday's meeting were Mmes. Jim Bookout, Higgins, W.O. McCutcheon, J.E. Shirkey, Dale Tinnin, J.C. Williams, S.S. Williams, W.H. Wiseman, C.B. Womble, R.G. Blue, H.E. Hennessy and Miss Mildred Elliot.

Big Season Continues For Volleyball

This season the Volleyball team will play 21 games. Only eight of these games will be home games. So far, they have played 13 games.

The Pet Show Sunday will mark the end of this year's Summer Youth Program, which was directed by Mary Hamby. In charge of the pet show is Mrs. J.W. Robinson Jr.

Public Invited To Book Review

An indepth view of the medical profession will be analyzed by Mrs. C.T. Worthan, who will give a book review at 10 a.m. Thursday at Deaf Smith County Library.

The public is invited to attend, free of charge.

"Surgeon Under The Knife" by William A. Nolen, M.D., will be the topic of the review. In the latest of several books, Dr. Nolen tells the true story of his perspective, following heart surgery.

The author, who is known for giving special insight into the practice of medicine, writes a column which appears regularly in McCall's magazine. His other publications include "The Making of a Surgeon."

TOURNAMENT SCHEDULED

The Women's Golf Association will have their handicap tournament Oct. 16 at John Pitman Municipal Golf Course. Tee-off time is scheduled at 10 a.m.

Members will not be charged for their participation in the event. Non-members fees will be $5.

Ann Landers Miracles Happen

DEAR ANN LANDERS: A few years after Charles and I were married we tried to have a family. After a long stretch of disappointments we went to our doctors to be checked. It turned out I was OK but Charles had a low sperm count, in fact so low his doctor said he couldn't possibly get me pregnant.

We immediately put our names in at three adoption agencies. After two years of waiting I became discouraged and talked Charles into letting me try artificial insemination. (The sperm I received was from an anonymous donor.) I became pregnant almost immediately.

We don't want to tell anyone about the artificial insemination but what choice do we have? Years ago we confided to our families (and some friends) that Charles was sterile. (They kept asking us why we were childless.)

My husband is so thrilled about the baby he couldn't care less what people think. But I DO care. I don't want anyone to think I had a lover on the side. What should I say?—Red-Faced in Pittsfield

DEAR PITT: Nothing. You've said too much already. The condition of Charles's sperm was nobody's business. If anyone reminds you that your husband was supposed to be sterile just say, "Miracles DO happen. It's just too wonderful for words." Then clam up.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: You frequently deal with human problems that cause misery—drug abuse, alcoholism and infidelity. There's another problem in our town that is equally destructive. It is "gossip-ism."

Six months ago I went through a scandalous divorce. It was the result of my husband's numerous escapades with a long list of women. All sorts of innocent people were hurt and it was a mess. (Our divorce caused two others.)

As soon as the story came out in the papers I was besieged by "well-wishers" who couldn't wait to supply me with "unpublished" facts and figures, names and places—all the details.

Why can't people keep their mouths shut? Heaven knows I already had enough information I didn't need more. I'm still getting phone calls and drop-in visitors bearing tales. How can I turn them off?—Heartbreak In Tiffin

DEAR HEART: When people insist on telling you more than you care to know, you CAN turn them off with one brief sentence. Sample: "Thanks for your concern, but I don't want to hear any more on that subject." Embard immediately on another topic. Even the dimmest clod will get the message.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I want to say "Thank you" to the 18-year-old who used to be ashamed to kiss her parents in front of her friends. She said it made her feel like a baby. When her father died she changed her mind.

I used to feel the same way, but after reading her letter I realized how lucky I am to have two parents to kiss—and how great it is that they are so affectionate.

I'll bet that gal helped many other teenagers who had the same hangup. Sign me—Grateful To A Stranger

DEAR GRATEFUL: Thanks for letting her (and millions of others) know. That letter also reminded ME how fortunate I was to have grown up in a warm and loving family.

Do you feel awkward, self-conscious—lonely? Welcome to the club. There's help for you in Ann Landers' booklet, "The Key to Popularity." Send

Hereford Garden Club Sponsors Flower Show

"Beauty, Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow" was the theme for Hereford Garden Club's Annual Flower Show held Friday at the Flame Room of Pioneer Natural Gas building.

Receiving first place awards in the Artistic Division were Mmes. S.S. Williams, Ben Childres and R.L. Ethridge.

Those recovering first place awards in the Horticultural Division included Mmes. O.G. Hill Sr., A.L. Manjeot Ethridge, W.C. Hromas, Arthur Stoy, Edgar Lemons and H.R. Cocanougher.

Other award recipients included Mmes. D.N. Garner, R.W. Mitchell, R.L. Layman, L.W. Norvell, Aaron Hutton, G.W. Newsom and R.L. Wilson.

There were three special awards given including the Award of Merit, Sweepstakes Award and Award of Appreciation.

Mrs. Ethridge was awarded Sweepstakes Award for having made the largest score on ribbons won in the Horticultural Division. She also received the Award of Merit which is represented by an orange ribbon and exhibit judged as the finest in the Horticulture Division.

Award of Appreciation was given to Mrs. Manjeot. This award is provided for exhibits by nationally accredited flower show judges, professional arrangers, and those receiving fees for lectures on various phases of garden clubs.

Mrs. Manjeot's award was represented by an orchid rosette with letters of gold.

The annual show was judged by two national judges and one master judge. They were Mmes. Bill Gentry, Jess Robinson and John Jacobsen Jr.

Mrs. R.L. Wilson served as general chairman of the show in which the interpretation of the theme was depicted through the use of flowers, antiques, arrangements of today and space age articles.

Decorating Club Members Welcome Guest At Meeting

Delia Vera was welcomed as a guest by members by Sweet 'n' Fancy Decorating Club Friday morning at Community center.

During the business meeting with Betty Henson presiding, a report on the YMCA classes was heard and members were assigned cakes to be made in November for residents of King's Manor Retirement Home.

Also, they discussed the homemaking cake decorating classes being held this week at Hereford High School and members decided to participate in Deaf Smith County Library's Craft Day, Oct. 28.

A program featuring uses of color was presented by Peggy Avent, Alice Koenig and Barbara Pittard.

The next meeting was scheduled 9:30 a.m. Oct. 29 at Community Center. Members present included Linda Collier, Kathy Holmes, Betty Decker, Alice Koenig, Sara Garcia, Susanna Gonzales, Martha Lytal, Peggy Avent, Elida Valdez, Barbara Pittard and Betty Henson.

Choir Director Sings For Club

Guest vocalist Bob Stice, choir director at First Baptist Church, participated in a musical program presented by members of Hereford Music Study Club Monday in the Steve Clements home.

The fast-paced program encompassed everything from "songs with syncopation to songs with the blues." Opening the diverse repertoire was Mrs. Ken Walser, who gave a lively rendition of "The Ragtime Dance" at the piano. This same rhythm was maintained by Stice in his rousing solo of "Bill Bailey (Won't You Please Come Home)."

Another sample of the Tin Pan Alley era was given as Mrs. Walser performed Irving Berlin's "Alexander's Ragtime Band." The tempo slowed as another New Orleans tradition,

"The Blues," was featured in the program.

The characteristics of this specific mood of music were exemplified by Stice, who sang "Blues in the Night," from the motion picture of the same name. Jazz artists who played roles in the birth of the blues were discussed at length, as were their memorable hit songs.

Arlen's successful "Over the Rainbow" from the Wizard of Oz was vocalized by a trio, including Stice, Pat Fisher and Mrs. Walser, with accompaniment provided by Mary Thomas. Then, a piano duet was presented by Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Walser.

The monthly hymn, "He Who Would Be Valiant," was sung by the entire congregation of club members.

Cohostesses who assisted Mrs. Clements were Mrs. Ed Line and Virginia Holmes. Others present were Mmes. Paul Lyons, Sam Long, Major Schroeter, B.E. Roberson, Harold Close, Sr., Robert Mayfield, Thomas Betzen and W.L. Dameron.

Also attending were Mmes. Joe Reinauer Sr., Joe Shultz, J.C. McCracken, J.R. Allison, J.D. Neill, Alan Cansler, Troyce Carmichael and Wesley Gulley.

DECA Officers Installed

Blue and gold banners decorated the Hereford Medallion room for the Distributed Education Clubs of America (DECA) officer installation ceremony. Installing officers were Elaine Burkenfeld, former vice president, and Carla Jones, who served as the 1975-76 DECA president.

The new officers pledged to be a devoted member as well as a persistent officer and a hard worker for the DECA program at HHS. The DECA officers for the 1976-77 school year are: president, Kevin Yandell; vice president, Norman Harman; secretary, Jenine Jobe; treasurer, Ralene Gripp; and Parliamentarian, Susan Schlabs.

Each officer received a ribboned necklace with the DECA emblem attached to it.

After the ceremony the DECA members were invited to stay for cake and punch.

Distributed Education is to interest promising young men and ladies in following a career in merchandising, marketing, and management. DECA also promises a parttime job of equal opportunity to all of the DECA students.

Serving as sponsor and teacher for the 1976-77 school year is Mr. G.C. Graves.

HHS Leo Club Works Hard For Slave Day

Hereford High's Leo Club will be having their annual "Slave Day" Thursday, Oct. 14. The Slave Day is the major fund raising project of the club.

What the club means by Slave Day is just that. Each member of the club is sold to a business or other people and is their slave. They do yard work, wash windows, and any other odd jobs needed done by their master.

The price of these slaves is $10 apiece for one full day's work. Sponsor for the club, Tommy Bowling, said that anyone could buy the members and get a good day's work out of them.

There are about 34 members hoping to participate in the day-long activity of the club.

They must each have a job to do or they must remain in school. Mr. Bowling said, "for this large of a group, it is hard to find jobs." He also urged housewives that need garbage taken out or windows washed or any other jobs they don't care to do, to hire one of the Leo Club members and they would be glad to take care of it.

School Tests Are Given

This past week and next, the sophomores and juniors took scholastic and aptitude tests.

This past week, on Oct. 6, the sophomores took two tests: as follows: Iowa Test of Educational Ability (ITEA) and the Ohio Vocational Interest Survey (OUIS).

The ITEP gives students a better picture of their general educational development. This test the students abilities in reading, math, social studies and science.

The Ovis is designed to assist students with their educational and vocational plans. This helps the student to plan the courses that the student needs.

Both of these tests were given at the Bull Barn.

College-bound juniors who have indicated that they would like to take the Preliminary Scholastic Test (PSAT) will take this test Oct. 19. This test is to estimate your chances of getting into the colleges of the students choice.

The other test for the juniors, that was taken on Oct. 5, is the Vocational Planning Inventory. The purpose is to tell the student the vocational areas in which the student might do their best work. All juniors take this test.

Cross Country Track Program Gets Underway

The Cross Country track a sport that Roy Shipp is involved in at Hereford High School. Shipp reports that the length for a girls race 1 1/2 miles and 2 miles for the boys. A lot of continuous cross country running plus a lot of hill work, plus weight training is required for the athletic to prepare for their meets.

Coach Shipp tells that hopefully all of the students participating have a good chance of placing in the cross country track meet.

The returning letter players for 1976 are Judy Birdwell, Joyce Betzen, Suzanne Duvall and Micki Merritt. Usually eight or more teams are competing in cross country track meets.

Coach Shipp states that the schools which usually win are those in cross country.

"The scores for the meets are given by points as to the order they finish and the team with the fewest number of points is the winner" Coach Shipp said.

Coach Shipp said, "We finished 2nd at District meet last year and went on to finish 5th at the Regional meet. Hopefully we will be better than last year, but we'll have to wait and see."

The schedule for 1976 Country Track Meet is as follows: Pampa, Oct. 9; Hereford, Oct. 16; Brownfield, Oct. 30; Amarillo, Nov. 6; and District Meet, Nov. 20, Lubbock.

Cross Country Members for 1976 are Judy Birdwell, Joyce Betzen, Suzanne Duvall, Rita Soliz, Micki Merritt, Lisa Drake and Velma Arroyos.

Tennis Team

Senior, Shelly Scott, lettered 3-years: "Shelly won the Hereford Closed places 18 and under, and placed 2nd in Women's Singles."

"We have some very promising Sophomores in Joni Webb, Kevin Downing, Eddie Castenada, Kevin Lewis and Polly Robinson."

Coach Thomas also said: "We have a lot of young players with very little experience. The boys team will have more strength at the top and more depth than the girls team, as all of the girls except Shelly Scott and Karen Grimsley have very little experience."

"We do have a very good group of people out for tennis this year! They are very enthusiastic and are working very hard."

Senior, 3-year letterman Clayton Faubion: "Clayton placed first in the Hereford Open singles." Clayton and Steve teamed up in doubles and captured titles at 3 different tournaments this past summer.

Bradley Honored

Ann Bradley is the Area 1 Young Homemakers of Texas (YHT) little Sister for this year. YHT is an organization in which you seek to strengthen the bonds of family with knowledge, integrity, love, understanding and Faith in God.

The objective is: This organization is formed exclusively for education purpose with particular reference to the area of homemaking. YHT chose a girl from FHA that is a Senior to be their Little Sister. They interview the girls and choose one. Then she sends an application to the Area Advisor. The application contained: Activities in school, activities in community, activities in FHA, activities in YHT her 9th to Senior year.

Area 1 consist of 38 counties in the Texas Panhandle. Miss Bradley will go to Fort Worth Jan. 28-29 for YHT State Convention—will compete for state little sister. She received a $200 scholarship given to her by Pioneer Natural Gas.

She is President of FHA Chapter 1 this year. Ann Bradley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bradley.

Senior Class Sets Supper Oct. 22

The Senior Class Supper will be held at the H.H.S. cafeteria Oct. 22, from 5 to 7:30 p.m. The supper will consist of: barbecue beef and pork, ranch style beans, potato salad, and fresh rolls.

Tickets will be on sale this week for adults at $2.50 and children for $2. The Senior Class will also have entertainment by Sandra Hernandez, Dianne Banner, Sandie Finley, Phillip Zinzer, Lynette Andrews, Deen Ann Caison, Vivian Burges, and Suzanne Duvall. All participants are of the Senior Class.

Regulations For Float Decided

H.H.S. Student Council met and decided on a Homecoming theme. The theme is Childrens Stories and Disney land.

A contest was held for the best idea and six persons tied for the prize and they are Stephanie Stringer, Todd Martin, Dee Anne Caison, Melinda Gonzales, Cindy Hankins, and Jana Turpen.

The gift was a $1 certificate to Mr. Burger.

The Student Council has formulated the following regulations concerning this year's homecoming parade:

(1) Actual work on the car or float may begin on October 9 and continue until 12 p.m. on Oct. 21.

(2) Materials may be collected prior to Oct. 9.

(3) Either a trailer or car may be used for the entry base. NO CARS MAY BORROWED FROM DEALER!!

(4) Class time may not be used to construct the entry.

(5) Entry fees are $10 for a trailer and $5 for a car.

(6) A sponsor must be present during the construction of the entry.

(7) There is a $60 limit on material used for construction. A list of expenses will be turned in to the High School Assistant Principal, no later than Oct. 25.

(8) Floats and cars must be in their assigned position on the parking lot by 8:30 a.m., Oct. 22.

(9) Entries will be judged for the following: Most Original Float, Most Expressive in Theme, Most Original Car, Best All Around Car, Best All Around Float.

(10) Junior High School entry and the Student Council entry will not be judged.

(11) Entries may be disqualified if any regulation is broken.

Tennis Team Is Back On Court

The H.H.S. tennis team is back on the courts for another competitive high school season. The boys and girls varsity teams consist of eight members each. There are approximately 45 boys and girls involved in the entire program and 32 of those involved participate in the after school program. The tennis team is coached by Steve Thomas.

Coach Thomas has been quoted as saying the following about some of his students:

Senior, 3-year letterman Steve Hoover: "Steve had a good summer winning the T Bar singles in Amarillo and getting into the semi-finals at Wichita Falls."

Senior, 3-year letterman Clayton Faubion: "Clayton placed first in the Hereford Open singles." Clayton and Steve teamed up in doubles and captured titles at 3 different tournaments this past summer.

Flags Add To Band Visual Effect

Hereford football fans may have noticed something different about the past couple of halftime shows. The difference is, of course, the Big Red Band Flag Corps.

The corps consist of 12 girls from the band coordinated by Mr. Bill Huff, assistant band director. The girls wear their own red and white uniforms and each girl carries either a red or white flag.

The purpose of the flag corps is to add to the visual effect of the bands halftime entertainment.

Huff said the corps will not elect their own officers as they are still a part of the band.

Juniors Host Supper

This year, the Junior Class Supper took place Oct. 1 at the Hereford High School cafeteria.

At the Junior Class Supper they served a Hobo Supper which consisted of sloppy joes, potato chips, pickles, onions, relish, beans, homemade deserts, coffee and tea. There weren't any special events taking place; just eating.

Only a few local merchants were able to make donations, thus almost all the ingredients were furnished by the juniors.

There were 13 sponsors involved in the Junior Class Supper. They were: Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Wills, Mrs. Wilks, Mrs. Leasure, Mrs. Wartes, Mrs. Matchett, Mrs. Goen, Mr. Simpson, Mr. Hodgson, Mr. Mathews, Mr. Rosson, Mr. Phillips, Mr. Jackson.

The Junior Class Officers who were involved in the junior class supper were: Steve Fortenberry, Greg Brockman, and Renee Russell. The Annual Queen Candidate for the juniors this year is Lori Steinkruger.

The total amount of money made in the Junior Class Supper is not yet known, it will be announced sometime in the spring at the Koobraey Assembly. The class that makes the most money will have their candidate selected as the Annual Queen.

DECA Officers

New Distributive Education officers, who were recently installed, are: [L-R] Mrs. Carla Jones, assistant installing officer; Norma Harmon, vice-president; Susan Schlabs, reporter; Ralene Gripp, treasurer; Kevin Yandell, president; Jeanin Lobe, secretary; and Elaine Birkenfeld, installing officer.

Biology Students Take Field Trip To Buffalo Lake

Mr. Wood and Mr. Rosson, Biology teachers at Hereford High School, took a group of Biology students to Buffalo Lake. The group left at 9 Saturday morning and were gone till about 3:30 that afternoon. The trip was cut short because of rain.

The group made many stops around the lake. At the first stop the group observed different kinds of insects, and plant life, and different kinds of trees were also observed.

At one point the group stopped to observe an ant bed. Both red and black ants were observed at the hole. The group fed the ants some insects and watched the ants kill and store the insects.

Wood said "some archologists sometimes dig around ant beds because they make their home above old homes and burial plates. The ants bring up old artifacts to the surface."

The group also was looking for snakes. The group was able to catch two small snakes, a small bull snake and a small garter snake. Steve Perez was almost able to catch a rattle snake, but he jumped away before he could locate it and it got away.

During lunch the group talked about food, football, and other things.

After lunch part of the students took samples of water for microscope observation. Under the microscope was observed such things as water fleas, insect larva, and others that were not named. The group that went walking found gypsum crystals which Rosson said he would use during regular classes. He also said that other trips would be taken during the course of the year.

Members of the group were Steve Perez, Bret Hallows, Keith Goheen, John Olig, Ed Fry, Billie Abalos, Shirley Decker, Carrie Motan, Sandy Harkings, Le Ann Hughs, and Sella Ricketts.

Electronics Plant Shuts Down Due To Mystery Illness

KITTANNING, Pa. (AP)—Some 300 employes of an electronics assembly plant have been furloughed after 100 of them were stricken with a mysterious illness in the past two weeks, the company said Tuesday.

"We won't go back to work until a cause is found," said Shelva Koleck, president of United Steelworkers union Local 8259, which represents workers at the Essex International Co. plant.

"Some girls have gotten sick twice now," she said. "God knows what will happen the third time."

Forty female employes at the plant, which makes electronic components, were treated at Armstrong County Memorial Hospital last Thursday after they became ill. Five were hospitalized.

All complained of headaches, nausea, and stomach pains. Some reported difficulty breathing and a sensation of being intoxicated.

It was the second such outbreak in a week at the plant. About 60 women were treated for similar symptoms Sept. 29. All Essex assembly employes are women.

The plant was closed temporarily after the first incident, and now has been closed indefinitely by the company while federal, state, company and union authorities look for an explanation for the illness.

Meanwhile, health authorities are still looking for an explanation for a similar illness that struck 70 employes of another electronics plant in Jefferson County during September.

Workers at the Rola-Jensen plant in Punxsutawney complained of nausea and a feeling of weakness in early September after a new glue was introduced to the production process. The glue was removed the following day, but complaints of illness persisted through the month.

That plant is operating while the federal Occupational Safety and Health Administration conducts an investigation.

Federal officials have declined comment on both investigations.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Wednesday, Oct. 3, the 287th day of 1976. There are 79 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1775, the Continental Congress ordered the construction of a naval fleet. It was the beginning of the U.S. Navy.

On this date: In 1792, George Washington laid the cornerstone of the executive mansion in Washington.

In 1845, Texas ratified the U.S. Constitution.

In 1943, during World War II, Italy declared war on its former Axis partner, Germany.

In 1970, a coastal storm claimed 46 lives in northern California and the Pacific Northwest.

In 1969, the Soviets had seven cosmonauts in orbit in three spacecraft.

In 1970, the FBI announced it had arrested the black militant Angela Davis in New York in connection with a California courtroom shootout.

Ten years ago: Defense Secretary Robert McNamara wound up a visit to South Vietnam with a declaration that military operations against the Communist had exceeded expectations.

Five years ago: Communist terrorists slipped into an Allied base near Saigon and destroyed five helicopters.

One year ago: President Ford signed a Congressional resolution providing for 200 American civilians to man monitoring stations in a buffer zone between Israel and Egypt.

Today's birthdays: Playwright Frank Gilroy is 51. Former film star Laraine Day is 56.

Thought for today: We shape our dwellings, and afterwards, our dwellings shape us. —Sir Winston Churchill, 1874-1965.

Bicentennial footnote: Two hundred years ago today, a British fleet caught up with an American fleet fleeing south on Lake Champlain and captured all but three of the 15 American boats.

No Evidence Links Swine Flu Shots, Deaths of 3

By The Associated Press

Federal officials say there is no evidence that swine flu shots killed three elderly Pennsylvanians whose deaths have prompted authorities in eight states and the Pittsburgh area to suspend the inoculation program.

But if reports continue to link vaccinations with deaths of other elderly persons, the program started two weeks ago "will come to a screeching halt," Dr. J. Donald Millar, an official at the Center for Disease Control in Atlanta, said today.

States where the program was suspended were Texas, Wisconsin, Louisiana, Vermont, Maine, New Mexico, Alaska and Illinois—except for Chicago.

The shots still were being given in at least 18 other states, including most of Pennsylvania.

"The continued emphasis on what is an expected phenomenon...is going to have a deleterious effect of the program," Millar, director of the CDC's bureau of state services, said in a telephone interview.

Reports of several other elderly persons dying following vaccination surfaced after the partial shutdown Tuesday of the nationwide effort.

Millar said most of the 500,000 doses of the vaccine given out thus far had gone to persons over 65. And he said evidence thus far indicated that elderly persons who were vaccinated were less vulnerable to death than those who refrain from being inoculated.

"We have no evidence to suggest that these deaths in the Pittsburgh area were caused by vaccine or the vaccine programs," said Dr. David Sencer, head of the CDC. "Nevertheless, this is a highly unusual cluster of deaths and requires a full investigation."

Sencer said the deaths are "going to make our job much more difficult" in convincing Americans to participate in the program.

In New York, Michigan and Utah, where the program continued, health officials suspended use of vaccine shipped in the same lot as that given to the three persons who died in Pennsylvania.

Those three victims—two women and a man, all in their 70s—died within several hours of getting vaccinations at a public health center in Pittsburgh, according to the county coroner. The Allegheny County coroner said the three had histories of heart or lung trouble.

The type of vaccine received by the three victims was produced by Parke Davis & Co. of Detroit and was part of lot A913339A. Sencer said about 1 million to 1 1/2 million doses were in the lot, which was distributed mostly in the East.

Health officials in some states said they intended to go ahead with the vaccination program using dosages from that lot.

The three who dies in Pennsylvania received a combination vaccine for elderly to prevent both swine flu and Type-A Victoria flu, which was prevalent last winter.

The Pennsylvania victims were Charles Gabig, 71, Julia Bucci, 75, and Ella Michael, 74—all of suburban towns.

Maritime Union Official Questioned On Contributions

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Watergate special prosecutor has questioned a maritime union official at length before a federal grand jury about contributions to President Ford's congressional campaigns, The Washington Post reported Tuesday.

Jesse N. Calhoun, president of the Marine Engineers Beneficial Association, testified under a grant of immunity about $19,000 in previously reported contributions that MEBA made or earmarked for Ford's campaigns, the paper said.

The Post, citing informed sources, said it based its report on a briefing Calhoun gave associates after his two hours of testimony last Friday.

Calhoun told his associates that his testimony did not support any allegation that Ford diverted maritime union funds to personal or improper use, the paper said.

The special prosecutor's office reportedly began investigating Ford's congressional campaign finances in July.

Calhoun reportedly testified that his union made no payments to Ford other than political contributions that were fully reported, the paper said.

The union head told his associates that special prosecutor Charles Ruff and his staff questioned Calhoun about any possible means of payment to Ford, including speaking fees, cash, checks, and joint contributions that might have been made with other unions.

The contributions were made to Ford re-election committees and the Kent County Republican Finance Committee in Ford's home town of Grand Rapids, Mich., according to the paper.

Ruff has declined comment on the investigation. The Post said legal experts noted that Calhoun may have been questioned under oath in order to show allegations about Ford's campaign finances are without foundation, or to build a case around the allegations.

Chinese Arrest Mao Tse-Tung's Widow, Three Other Radicals

HONG KONG (AP)—Mao Tse-Tung's widow, Chiang Ching, and three other radical members of the Chinese Communist party Politburo have been arrested on charges of plotting to seize control of the Chinese government, according to unconfirmed reports circulating today in Peking.

Residents in the Chinese capital, contacted by telephone from Honk Kong, said the reports were first heard in the city Monday evening and were the topic of open conversation today.

No official confirmation of the reports could be obtained. The Japan Broadcasting Corp. reported from Peking that all was "quiet and normal" there.

But the open discussion of the reports emphasized that the power struggle between pragmatic moderates and revolutionary radicals which began with the death of Premier Chou En-lai last January is still raging.

Those reported arrested with Mao's 62-year-old widow were Wang Hung-wen, 38, the Shanghai "boy wonder" whom Mao elevated from a factory assembly line to a party vice-chairmanship for his services to the revolutionary cause in the 1966-69 Cultural Revolution; First Vice-Premier Chang Chun-chiao, 55, a member of the Politburo's standing committee; and Yao Wen-yuan, 51, a leading ideologist and polemicist since the Cultural Revolution purge 10 years ago.

The London Daily Telegraph's Peking correspondent, Nigel Wade, reported that reliable sources told him the arrests were announced to Political organizers at special weekend briefings.

The London Financial Times said the four radicals were under house arrest, according to "unconfirmed reports from Peking." It said the reports suggested that "the power struggle which surfaced within the leadership before Chairman Mao died has since intensified."

Wade said few details of the alleged plot were known. He said the plotters apparently got little support from the army, and he speculated that they may be charged with such "treasonable" actions as forging statements and sayings attributed to Mao during the last months before he died on Sept. 9.

The Telegraph report said the four radical leaders' last known public appearance was on Sept. 30, at a meeting on the eve of China's national day.

Japanese correspondents in Peking reported that none of the four was at the airport Monday to welcome Prime Minister Thomas Somare of Papua New Guinea when he arrived for a visit to China. Official airport welcomes are important occasions in Peking, and political

Teamster Union Officers Resign

WASHINGTON (AP)—Most of the trustees of one of the Teamster Union's biggest pension funds are planning to resign in an effort to ease legal problems stemming from a federal investigation into alleged misuse of funds and ties to organized crime.

Informed sources said the 15 trustees of the Central States Pension Fund, who are drawn from the union and the trucking industry, made the decision at a meeting Monday at Rancho la Costa, a plush resort south of Los Angeles.

The sources said the agreement called for at least 11 of the trustees to resign by the end of this month.

While no resignations have been made yet, the sources said, the trustees expect to work out the details within the next few weeks on who will go and who will stay.

A spokesman for the fund, Robert Billings, declined comment, but one source said the agreement was still "very tenuous at this point."

"There is general agreement. But the problem now is who must resign, the source said. "It's not set yet."

Any mass resignation of trustees would represent the most dramatic of a series of moves the fund has taken in recent months to show the government it is taking reform steps in an effort to win back the tax exemption suspended by the Internal Revenue Service in June.

The trustees asked the IRS in September to restore the exemption, citing various changes the fund has made in its operations and declaring a willingness to sell the $1.4-billion fund's real estate holdings.

In addition to the IRS' probe, the fund is also the target of the joint investigation by the departments of Labor and Justice.

Sources said federal investigators have hinted that if the trustees resign they would stand a better chance of getting favorable treatment in the event of any civil or criminal prosecution.

Sources said the resignations would not mean an end to the probe nor would it relieve the trustee of liability for past practices.

Under the federal pension law, trustees can be held

HOME COMING
WORCESTER, Mass. (AP)—Eight months after he was removed to another zoo because his mate at the Worcester Science Center was pregnant, Ursa Major came home.

Major, a giant polar bear was reunited with his mate, Ursa Minor, to the cheers of some 200 youngsters who were on hand to witness the homecoming.

It was feared that the long-separated bears would fight when reunited, but they nuzzled each other and "feigned fighting," said Dean Clark, a spokesman for the center. "It was obvious they recognized each other. It was really an emotional experience."

The cubs would have been aborted by the mother had the male remained, center officials explained. Of two cubs born, one was killed by its mother and the other died of an unknown ailment.

Civil matters are being handled by the Labor Department, and the Justice Department is investigating possible criminal violations.

"They know this has been one whale of an investigation and they know the heat is on," a source said.

Farmers Urged To Back Carter

Senator Bill Patman has urged farm and ranch families to wholeheartedly support the Carter-Mondale ticket in November.

"Key votes listed by the National Rural Electrical Cooperative Association and information gathered by that Association on Jimmy Carter clearly show that rural people can aid their friends and families by strongly supporting Carter and Mondale," said Senator Patman.

"Out of 71 votes selected on REA and related issues, Ford cast 57 unfavorable votes, only 11 favorable votes, and missed three other votes. Dole had 32 opportunities to vote on these issues, which include rural development and consumer related issues selected by the

NRECA. 24 of the Dole votes were 'wrong', six were 'right', and he did not vote on two of the issues.

"In contrast, Seantor Mondale supported the NRECA position on 17 out of 17 possible votes, for a perfect score.

"Governor Carter has often spoken out in favor of rural development and rural electrifi-cation. His record and public statements convince me that he would be a staunch friend for the rural people of Texas. I am confident that as president he would do much to build strength and stability into our rural areas.

"I respectfully urge not only farmers and ranchers but people throughout Texas to give their full support to support to the Democratic ticket this fall," said Seantor Patman.

Carter May Increase Taxes, Opposition Says

AUSTIN— If Jimmy Carter intends to keep his promise to do in Washington what he did in Georgia, then the nation better watch out, according to Polly
Sowell, Vice Chairman of Texas
Republican Party.

"One of the things Carter did in Georgia was let taxes increase 51 per cent during the four years he served as governor," Sowell said.

The Tax Foundation has reported that per capita tax collections increased from $207 in 1970 to $311 in 1974, in Georgia, Sowell noted.

"And while he talks about economy in government, under Carter's administration, the Georgia state budget increased 58.5 per cent compared to a 38 per cent increase in the Consumer Price Index during the same period," Sowell said.

"Carter blames his Administration for a 'disgraceful' tax system, but that tax system was created by Carter's own party, which has controlled Congress for 40 of the last 44 years," Sowell said.

"If Americans really want to change of government they should turn the Democratic majority out of Congress, and return President Ford to the White House," Sowell said.

South America is smaller than North America, but it is nearly twice as long as Europe.

Criswell Criticism Of Carter Attacked

DENTON (AP)— The pastor of the world's largest Southern Baptist church confused Baptist tradition with his own "eccentric political causes" in criticizing Jimmy Carter's Playboys remarks, a university philosopher said here Monday.

Dr. W.A. Criswell, the pastor of the nearly 20,000-member
First Baptist Church of Dallas,
Sunday endorsed President Ford's election after verbally attacking the former Georgia governor on several occasions.

Dr. Joe Barnhart of North Texas State University, author of The Billy Graham Religion, said he felt Carter has been greatly maligned, misrepresented and misunderstood over the controversial Playboy Magazine interview by Criswell and other critics.

"On many occasions, Criswell has confused his Baptist tradition with his own eccentric political causes," Barnhart said.
Among other things, Carter said in the interview that he has lusted in his heart and he was opposed to "shacking up."

The professor said that many Baptist ministers and deacons have said the same thing and used the same choice of words from the pulpit.

"If what Carter said had been written, as it well could have been, in any Baptist paper or Christian paper, few, if any, of the ultra conservative evangelicals would have said anything," said Barnhart.

"What he said is strictly in keeping with the evangelical faith."

The professor added, "In fact, Carter is as prudish as Criswell or Billy Graham although he is probably more interesting."

"Billy Graham, who is an ordained Southern Baptist minister, once said on national television that he had had lust in his heart and the implication was that that is where he left it locked in his heart— which is precisely what Jimmy Carter said."

The NTSU professor added that the very Baptist tradition that influences Carter will cause him to strictly follow the Baptist doctrine of separation of church and state.

"That's what Dr. Criswell has neglected if he ever understood it at all," Barnhart said. "He Criswell has neglected his Baptist history. In that sense Carter is much more in the Baptist tradition than Criswell."
"Even speaking in Playboy Magazine could be considered within the evangelical confines," Barnhart continued.
"Any good Southern Baptist wants to get the gospel message out anywhere he can and, from Jimmy Carter's point of view, who would need it more than the readers of Playboy Magazine."

Parties Gear Up For VP Debate

HOUSTON (AP) Republicans and Democrats are gearing up with political rallies and advertising campaigns in preparation for Friday's vice presidential debate between senators Walter Mondale and Robert Dole.

The 75-minute nationally televised debate will be held in the 800-seat Alley Theatre, where three years ago actors portraying Clarence Darrow and William Jennings Bryan debated the existence of God.

Both candidates will arrive here Thursday to begin final preparations for their debate.

Mondale has set aside four full days to study and relax in preparation for the debate. He intends to play tennis here
Thursday to remain relaxed.

Dole will face a welcoming rally at a downtown hotel
Thursday night shortly before joining well-known Republicans, including Ronald Reagan, Paul Laxalt and Pat Boone, for an old time rally.

The Socialist Workers Party has planned to have its vice presidential nominee, Willie Mae Reid, address a rally across the street from the Alley theatre.

The Harris County Republican Party has invited the public to watch the debate on television at a hotel where Dole is expected to drop in to say hello after the debate.

The Democrats have scheduled a victory party in the grand ball room of another hotel.
Mondale is expected to attend the event, to be hosted by Gov.
Dolph Briscoe, U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, Democratic National Chairman Robert Strauss and Jimmy Carter's Texas cochairman Calvin R. Guest and Bob Armstrong.

Handbills advertising the rally for Republican candidates at local, state and national levels, call for a $25 donation.

The rally is being organized by the President's Team for Texas Committee, a new organization headed by James E. Lyon, a Houston banker who was a Reagan delegate to the Republican national convention at Kansas City.

Defeated by a single vote in the First Continental Congress on Sept. 28, 1774, Joseph Galloway's Plan of Union proposed solving the problem of home rule by giving the American colonies something approaching dominion status. An important feature of the plan was that the colonial government would have authority to regulate commercial, civil, criminal and police affairs when more than a single colony was involved. The World Almanac notes that the proposed government would have had veto power over parliamentary legislation affecting the colonies.

Court Candidates Still In Running

HOUSTON (AP) - Houston lawyer Tom Lorange, a write-in candidate for Texas Supreme Court justice, has rejected a proposal that a five-member committee decide the best qualified candidate to oppose Democratic nominee Donald Yarbrough.

Lorange and Sam Houston, a state court judge from Denton, are write-in opponents of Yarbrough, who was a surprise winner in the Democratic primary election.

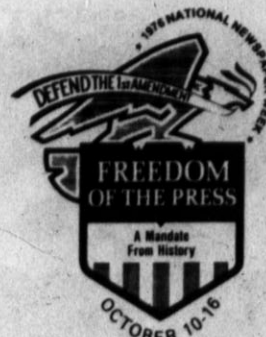

Yarbrough, 35, from Houston, is defendant in 15 civil suits and faces several grievances which could strip him of his license to practice law.

Lorange, 53, said Monday he was reluctant over permitting a committee to decide because "I am fearful it would be a political decision, based on politics and not on qualifications. If it is based on a name, then I lose."

Sam Houston is one of the most revered names in Texas history.

Judge Houston said, "Qualifications enter into it, but politics, if you are successful, means having the person who can establish name identification and get elected. Electability definitely should be considered by any committee."

Give Us the Right to Practice Your Right!

Do you have a right to know? Do you want to have the right to know? Do you feel reporters and editors should be gagged?

Do you think the news media has prejudiced individuals suspected and being tried for a crime?

These are questions all of you must answer in the days ahead. You must decide if freedom is exploited, or if you are being cheated.

You were all interested in the Sheppard case. Not long ago it was depicted on TV in a dramatic presentation. This is the story, as you know, of the celebrated Cleveland, Ohio doctor who was accused of killing his wife and newspaper reports were said to have convicted him. It should be noted on the other hand that a newspaper woman was responsible for his eventual retrial and acquittal.

Newspaper reporters have been tossed in jail on contempt charges in the last several years; have served jail sentences because they refused to reveal sources. You read of the case in Boston, Massachusetts where a Superior Court judge told the reporters he did not want the case of a woman who allegedly killed a police officer five years ago reviewed in the newspaper again—only the actual facts of the trial would be allowed. He said this was not a gag rule but newspapermen everywhere called it that because it told them what to write and what not to write.

I have heard it said many times in small communities that everyone knows what's happening and a newspaper only verifies it. It goes further than that.

How many times have you been at a basketball game and watched some local kid get real hot on the floor—sinking baskets and free throws right and left—and how many of you have kept an accurate, foolproof account of that total? After the game, you might go to the score table and irritate them. But, you do check the newspaper for the box score to revive that memory and have the correct facts.

The right to know is as fundamental as apple pie or baseball and you know all of us have dreams to be followed; a purpose, perhaps to build a better community for others—a better world for others. This is true regardless of whether we are professionals, in business, in industry or in anything else.

How many times have people in your community told you that it is we who create the climate of the nation—that if it were not for us (meaning newspaper writers) the gloom would be less and that we should print some good news for a change?

The answer to that, in my judgment, is that you, as a community and individual businessman and as a citizen of the community should give us good news. It is not for us to print the good or the bad news but ALL news. If there has been an area of wrong-doing, whether it be on Main Street or at the White House, the journalist should have to tell you about it.

Whether you are a banker, an industrialist, a merchant, publisher or editor, we all have one thing in common—we are Americans. And as Americans, we subscribe to the document known as the Constitution, the greatest instrument of democracy ever written.

While the Magna Carta, the previous model of freedom, is no longer in direct use as an instrument of British government, our Constitution is still a viable document in daily use and continually updated to meet changing needs through the amendments.

Think of us as newspaper people who have heard again and again from the superintendent of schools, aldermen, mayor or the police chief who answered the newspaper's inquiry by saying, "This is really classified information."

How many times have we in the newspaper business been given the paternalistic attitude of "this is not good to publish"?

Who is the judge? How many times have editors-reporters been asked, "We would appreciate it if you would refrain from using this item"—whether it's a Main Street item, in the State Capitol or to some of our top reporters in the nation's Capitol?

This is a sign of the times and these are the days when we really need the help of the business community to make America work. If men who carry the free enterprise banner refuse to stand up and be heard, who will?

said he was told this and apologized for the statement. It was made at a Monday meeting of the county commissioners.

The gym of old Central School is presently being used by the Hereford and Vicinity YMCA Inc. and the Community Action Agency, which uses the remaining part of the school, contends that it has priority over the gym's use. No representatives of either organization were present. A contract states the schools retain rights to the gym.

Trustees discussed the situation and decided that members of the YMCA ought to approach the board in person and define its requests since disagreement has erupted over exactly which gym the organization desires.

Currently, the athletic director coordinates the use of gyms.

due process was not followed, and his right of free speech had been violated. He said it also affected his efforts to seek employment elsewhere.

The plaintiff Woodward and his attorneys based their case primarily on the First Amendment guarantee of free speech and the 14th Amendment guarantee of due process. A proposed judgment must be filed within 30 days specifying the reinstatement, back pay and attorney's fees.

After over a year of delay, the case came to trial in Amarillo on Sept. 21, 1976. Testimony was heard and oral arguments were presented in Lubbock on Oct. 6.

The Judge's opinion states that the actions of Pat Hughes, La Plata Junior High School principal, and former superintendent Roy Hartman not to recommend a contract renewal resulted from Woodward's actions in distributing certain ACLU material including a membership application blank. Although other factors may have been involved in the dismissal action, the Judge felt "evidence does not show exactly what these factors may have been, and evidence is vague and indefinite on this point."

Woodward was originally placed on probation through a letter written from Hughes to Hartman on Feb. 12, 1975. It was decided shortly after Woodward has talked with student Pam Whitley concerning the ACLU and had given her a membership form.

Shortly after this notification, Woodward contacted his attorney Robin Green of Amarillo and was instructed not to allow any communications on the case except through the attorney. Also helping the plaintiff was Lubbock attorney Thomas Griffith, who was hired by the ship will cost $200 a year and provide the trustees with current information on education laws and issues.

Fox reported that September collections progressed well and that a volume of collections would be made in October. He presented the tax roll and it was approved.

Richard Robinson, director of vocational education, reported that community education in Hereford was enrolling higher numbers of students. For instance, 154 students are in off-campus Amarillo college courses, 66 persons are in Adult Vocational Program and 53 are enrolled in Adult Basic Education.

DR. HARREL HOLDER, superintendent, told trustees that the first objective of a five-year accreditation being conducted in Hereford is to appoint a steering committee and a goals committee to meet over the next three years.

Bill Phillips assistant superintendent, presented a detailed statistical breakdown of ethnic makeups in the schools. It shows an increase of 134 black students

National Education Association.

WOODWARD EXPRESSED on an Amarillo television station Tuesday that he was not sure whether or not he would return to teach in the Hereford Independent School District since reinstatement was ordered. Of course, he is entitled to back pay from the beginning of the 1975-76 school year to the time he is reinstated according to the opinion.

Green indicated that Woodward would return to the school system according to a United Press International story.

Attorneys for the defendants and school officials declined comment on the case as a piece of pending litigation. They explained that an appeal might eventually reach the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans, although several avenues of action are possible. Langley said different legal steps and hearings are possible.

Judge Woodward stated that actions dealing with the ACLU were not "disruptive" of any school processes or in any of the plaintiff's teaching functions.

THE DEFENSE TRIED to show that prior clearance should have been sought by Woodward before he presented controversial material such as that concerning ACLU. The opinion states that Hughes could not factually state definitely and specifically that prior clearance be sought on controversial materials before their use in class.

"The court is unable to find that school policies required such clearance," the opinion reads. Also, Woodward was cleared by the judge of any allegation that he disobeyed any orders from Hughes in relation to the case.

The judge stated, "Had it not been for Mr. Woodward's ACLU activities, the in all schools, with a total percentage of 3 per cent of the enrollment of 5,668. The Hispanic (Mexican-American) population increased slightly to 52.4 per cent of the students and white students make up 44.6 per cent of the enrollment.

Most of the elementary schools are high in Hispanic enrollments. Shirley Elementary School is the highest with near a 70 per cent Spanish population.

Larry Wartes, assistant superintendent, said the cafeteria is in good situation in reference to finances, and salary schedules, and that a cash settlement was made in the recent school bus accident. The insurance funds were considered adequate for the bus value. It was purchased back for $600 so that parts could be used on other vehicles.

A policy on identifying bilingual students were presented. It changes the instrument used in testing for language dominance. The Oral Language Dominance Measure will be used.

The board will act on the policy at its next meeting.

court is convinced that his contract would have been renewed."

IN SUPPORT OF THE SCHOOL district, the judge ruled that none of the defendants in any way did anything to publicize or disseminate any information concerning Woodward or his ACLU activities and that defendants did not in any way damage or harm the reputation of the plaintiff.

Also, the school board was supported in its procedure for not renewing the contract.

Defendants in the suit include Hartman, Hughes, board president Jim Conkright, and school board members (serving in March, 1975) Danny Martin, Ron Zimmerman, Clark Andrews, Lynton Allred, James Gentry, and Jim Arney.

Theft Of Purse,

Vandalism Reported

The theft of a purse and an incident of vandalism were the major items on the Hereford Police Department's list of incident reports for Tuesday.

Mrs. W.D. Nunley of 513 Ave. K told officers that her purse was taken while her car was parked at 418 Sunset about 6:30 p.m. yesterday. Value of the purse and contents was estimated at $105.

At about 7:30 last night, vandals threw a water sprinkler against a window at the home of Mrs. John Patterson at 200 Beach.

The broken window was valued at $25.
