

Whitefaces Edge Borger For First Victory

BY DAN WELTY
Brand Sports Editor

Doug Charest scored a come from behind touchdown in the fourth quarter and Mike Crim used a quarterback keeper to score two conversion points to push the Hereford Whitefaces in front of the Borger Bulldogs 16-15 Friday night. The game registered the first win of the season for the Herd.

Poise and coolness-under-pressure played a big part for the Herd in the second half as they scored both their touchdowns, coming from behind Borger both times to do it. Hereford's defense held the Bulldogs on only two first downs in the second half.

THE HERD defense also jumped on three fumbles by Borger's Mike Glover to kill the Bulldog's momentum in crucial situations.

Bulldog Coach Sonny Lang, heard in a radio interview after the game, accounted for the loss in the fact that two of his key players were injured early in the game. Lang said the loss of the two players counted not only for killing his offensive drive, but hurt his defensive secondary as well.

Hereford was without the full-time services of two key players throughout the game. Dave Charest and brother Doug Charest, starters, played only a limited amount against the Bulldogs. Dave still suffered from an ankle injury received a week ago, and Doug was ill with flu; missing practice all week.

SOPHOMORE running back Roy Martinez was a standout for Hereford, leading the Herd in rushing with 81 yards and receiving two passes for 17 yards.

Although Borger led the game in rushing statistics with 215 yards to Hereford's 119, the Herd scored more first downs with 14 to Borger's 10.

Overall, Hereford had 179 yards total offense with 60 yards accounted for in passing. Borger threw the ball only twice and failed to make a completion.

ALTHOUGH HEREFORD still had problems with making any yardage on first downs, the Herd was able to convert on-fourth downs into first downs in crucial situations during the fourth quarter. That and recovering fumbles left Hereford in control of the ball during most of the second half.

Borger scored the first touchdown of

Cattlemen File $20-Million Suit

Branding Time

By Speedy Nieman

That feller on Tierra Blanca Creek says things could be worse... suppose all the remedies proposed by politicians had been tried?

Teenager in clothing store: "If my parents like this, can I return it?"

Along with boosting the Buffs, the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce office is offering another convenience for local football fans. Tickets to the West Texas State football games can now be purchased at the office.

If you're ever interested in reading an issue of The New York Times, you can find it in the Deaf Smith County Library, thanks to Mrs. Bruce Miller. The local attorney's wife turns over her copy of the newspaper for public consumption.

Cattle feeders discussed their problems here Tuesday night, the main one being a loss of $30 to $200 a head on cattle placed in area feedlots, but came up with few answers. One ray of hope expressed was the proposed change in the grading system which would alter the "choice" designation to include a wider range of cattle.

Such a move could help cattle feeders in that the "finish" put on an animal would be a lesser factor under the new grading system. "Marbling", an intermixture of fat and lean, is a key factor in the current grading system, and many times this lengthens the feeding period. The new system would allow for a shorter feeding period of 120 to 150 days, and feeders could really cut expenses.

It'll be brother against brother and some other ex-Whiteface grid stars clashing when Sul Ross and Tarleton State meet Saturday at Alpine. Wesley High, a sophomore at Sul Ross, will be going against brother Chuck, a freshman at TSU. Jeff Loerwald, a senior, also plays for the Lobos, while Wayne Schumacher and David Crume have made the TSU team as freshmen. The game is set for 7 p.m. Saturday at Alpine. White on the subject, Jim Loerwald is now coaching at San Antonio Marshall, after his graduation from Sul Ross last year.

After the Hereford School Board spent a lot of time discussing the dress code at a recent meeting, we couldn't help but take interest in a news article concerning a school discipline case at Perryton. The board there held a lengthy discussion on the question of the school's authority over students outside classroom hours.

The case involved a high school senior who was suspended from school for three days after he was caught smoking at

Director Nominees Named

Nominations for new directors, committee reports, and discussion on the sponsorship of an annual "event" for the community highlighted a monthly directors' meeting of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Thursday morning.

President Roy Faubion presented a proposal to stage an All-Girl Rodeo in Hereford next year, with the possibility of making it an annual event. The proposal was for a professional rodeo, along with possible formation of a Cowgirls Hall of Fame. A committee was named to study the idea. Nominated to be placed on the ballot as new directors next year were Mike Patrick, Bud Snyder, Donald Hicks and Lee Umsted. Four new directors are named each year to the 12-man board, and the election will be held before the end of the year. Tom Burdett headed the nominating committee. Pauline Howard, publicity committee, reported that her committee is working on plans for a new C of C brochure. The chamber office is out of brochures, and the committee recommended a minimum number of current brochures be reprinted. It was estimated the printing of new brochures would take three to four months. The sports committee recommended that the chamber endorse a request from Kids, Inc. for more baseball facilities. Kids, Inc. is seeking assistance from the city in providing park facilities and maintenance.

Directors approved a new format for quarterly membership meetings, and Bud Eades will be chairman of the first breakfast meeting, set for

Nov. 19. More details will be announced soon on the new idea in quarterly meetings.

Ten new members were approved by the board, and executive vice president Bill Albright gave a general report on activities of the chamber office the past month.

Directors attending were Faubion, Eades, Burdett, Andrew Kershen, R.C. Hoelscher, Kick Montgomery, Terry Caviness, Arthur Gonzales, Calvin Goodin, and Larry Wartes.

Funeral For Joe Story Planned This Afternoon

Funeral services for Joe Gardner Story, 64, of 125 Nuences, a Hereford resident since boyhood and a farm and ranch owner, will be conducted at 2 p.m. today in First United Methodist Church. The Rev. Herschel Thurston, former pastor now retired, will officiate.

Burial will be in Rest Lawn Memorial Park, directed by Gilliland-Watson Funeral Home. Nephews of Mr. Story will serve as pallbearers.

His death came unexpectedly, early Friday morning. Taken from his home at Deaf Smith General Hospital, he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Mr. Story was a native of Illinois, born Sept. 28, 1909, in Canton. He came to this county in 1912 from Illinois. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

He married Bess Cooper Feb. 27, 1969, in Abilene. She survives him, with four daughters, Jan Hudgens and Sandra Saul of Hereford, Joy McDowell of Odessa and Nancy Mustian of Graham, and a son, Gary, of Houston.

Also surviving are a stepson, Tommy Copper of Dallas; a sister, Mrs. Andy Behrends, of Dimmitt; a brother, Don, of Pleasantville, N.J.; six grandchildren and two step-grandchildren.

Blood Unit To Be Here Wednesday

Hereford's blood supply has again dropped to zero and the supply needs to be replenished, according to Mrs. Tommy Carnahan of 117 Mimosa.

The blood mobile unit will be collecting the vital substance

Wednesday from 1-5 p.m. on the Community Center parking lot.

"We received 44 pints of blood last month and we need at least that much this time," Mrs. Carnahan stated.

Price-Fixing Charged

Five firms and two individuals engaged in beef cattle production in the area have filed suit against the nation's top three food store chains asking $20-million in damages under sections of both the Clayton and Sherman Acts dealing with anti-trust violations.

Plaintiffs are A.L. Black and G.B. Buske, both independent cattle producers at Friona; Pioneer Cattle Order Buyers Inc., Friona; Hereford Feed Yards Inc. and Eureka Cattle Co. Inc., Hereford; Solano Corp. and ProChemco Cattle Co. Inc. of Amarillo.

THEIR ACTION names The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. Inc. (A&P)

Rains Fall On All of Panhandle

In the midst of conditions the National Weather Service termed "favorable for excessive rains" total of one and one-half inches appeared to be the record for the Hereford area.

That was reported by H.L. Hershey who lives 13 miles northeast of Hereford. To Hershey the moisture was "very beneficial."

J.E. McCABE, who lives east of Dawn, reported a quarter of an inch Thursday and slightly over a half-inch Friday for a total of .78. In the city a total of .53 was measured over a three-day period.

Thus this general area fell just about in the middle of measurements over the entire Panhandle. By Friday no portion of the Panhandle area had escaped some moisture.

WHEELER, in the eastern sector reported the greatest total rainfall by Friday evening: 2.86 inches. Clarendon was in second place with 2.5 inches while other measurements thinned out to only a trace at Dalhart and Canadian to the north and Muleshoe to the south.

At press time Saturday, the forecast was for "more of the same."

stores; Safeway Stores, Inc. and the Kroger Co. defendants.

The suit, filed in federal court at Amarillo, also petitions for the right to name other chain stores subsequently believed to come under the same allegations of conspiring to fix retail prices of meat and meat products leveled at those already named in the complaint.

The plaintiffs not only allege the defendants conspired to fix the price of cattle and the resulting retail products therefrom but that this conspiracy was carried out secretly under the guise of membership meetings of the national association of such chain stores.

THE SUIT maintains that those allegedly involved in the price fixing and restraint of trade conspiracy used a Chicago-based medium to keep all areas informed daily of the prevailing prices so they would remain uniform.

The suit was filed by the Hereford law firm of Witherspoon, Aiken, Langley, Woods, Kendrick and Gulley maintaining the federal court for the northern district of Texas did have jurisdiction over the defendants by virtue of their operations in the area and asked for a jury trial.

It was the opinion of the "man-in-the-street" in Hereford and other cattle raisers not participating in the action that it put into words what both cattlemen and consumers at the retail purchasing level have believed for some time: that there was a great disparity in the price the producer was receiving and that the consumer was paying that had gone unaccounted for thus far.

ONE OF the most interesting aspects of the case is that, should the plaintiffs win and it is ascertained what their damages amount to... section four of the Clayton Act requires that they be tripled.

Prisoner Unbolts... And Bolts!

It started Friday morning with a call for city police to chase a shoplifter.

The fugitive turned out to be a 15-year old boy who had allegedly taken a quart of chocolate milk and some sweet rolls from a local store for breakfast. Apparently, that was because all he had otherwise was three "speed" pills... which he swallowed just before being taken into custody so they would not be found on him.

THAT SORT of breakfast fare and a hungry boy added up to a trip to the local hospital for a quick change of stomach contents. The early evening rounds checking patients found him sleeping soundly.

A later check was another story. He had removed the bolts from the bars on the window, stashed them behind the door and fled into the damp of late Friday night clad only in a hospital gown open down the front.

10-Year Pin

Dr. A.T. Mims (right) accepts a pin and certificate honoring 10 years service to the Deaf Smith Unit of the American Cancer Society from Jim Tucker, unit president. Dr. Mims is a member of the three-man medical committee. The presentation was made at a luncheon, Friday, at the Country Club. Certification for the coming year was presented to the unit at this meeting.

Carroll Choulpka, left Texas Farm Bureau vice president and Steve Clements of the Deaf Smith County Farm Bureau, discuss pending resolutions over the annual dinner in the high school cafeteria, Thursday night. Some 150 people were present to consider proposals that would be passed on to the state convention meeting in November. Such "grass roots" action helps shape policy of the state organization for the coming year.

Deputies Arrest Oregon Fugitive

An Oregon man was arrested on a federal warrant in the Simms community by Deaf Smith County deputies and a federal agent Thursday afternoon.

Deaf Smith County sheriff deputy Art Burton said law enforcement officers, including an FBI agent from Amarillo, arrested the man after he was discovered here.

James Irwin Wood was named in a federal warrant charged with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution. Burton said Wood was wanted in connection with a first degree burglary case in Oregon.

Law enforcement officials became aware of Wood's presence in the area due to an arrest made in June. Wood, who gave the alias of Robert Leon Neal, was arrested by the sheriff's office that month for diving while intoxicated. Burton said a routine check of fingerprints in Washington turned up the federal warrant.

Wood was placed in custody of the federal officer, and will be held in Amarillo, pending extradition by Oregon officials.

Three-Foot Beans Grown by Dancer

Lewis Larrymore, dancer-turned-farmer, has always been a man of extensive vision so it was no great surprise to friends and fans that the man who set out to dance clear across the United States would not be content with your normal four-to-six inch string bean when he turned to gardening.

To many the heart attack that stopped the nationwide dancing tour would have been the end of ambition but to Larrymore, it was the beginning. As he took the prescribed rest periods, he noticed a seed ad in a national weekly publication that promised three-foot beans, hefty melons and other gardening wonders.

His studio in Veterans Memorial Park had already been called a "garden spot" and he proceeded to surpass its present glory.

THE SEEDS were ordered, the ground was prepared and a vegetable garden joined the flowers. Lewis said he had ordered the seeds with tongue-in-cheek and just moved it to the other side as he waited for sprouts to show. Show they did!

□ And Lewis is happy to show them those that have not been gathered — to all who want to spend some time where near-incredibility blends with beauty.

ONE THING . . . when you do visit, don't compliment him on his sunflowers. He doesn't have any. Those stalks are similar but the yellow flowers are not. Those are the blossoms of the Jerusalem artichokes.

Larrymore was the subject of many interviews ranging from local newspapers to national television shows once he was underway with his cross-country dancing project. Interspersed with his gardening is a conditioning and recuperative program aimed at a state of physical health that will allow him to complete his transcontinental terpsichore.

One thing is certain upon visiting with Lewis Larrymore: he is not going to be greatly upset if he never finishes that long distance dance . . . no more than he is if those watermelons next year fall short of a hundred pounds.

NOW . . . THERE used to be a man out near Westbrook who grew chocolate or lemon or banana or pineapple flavored watermelons. If the two of them could . . .

□ But nobody would believe THAT!

Carl Strafuss (standing) as chairman of the nominating committee, presented three names at the twenty first annual meeting of the Hereford Grain Corp. in the Bull Barn, Thursday night. W.J. Albright and Donald Meyer were re-elected to the board and Richard Hunter became a new member of the panel. Seated from the left are Tony Hoffman, secretary; Austin C. Rose, president and Joe Artho, general manager of the grain firm. Some 220 persons were served barbecue and "trimmin's."

Nine Attend State Demo Convention

Hereford was represented by nine delegates when Texas Democrats held their state convention, Tuesday, in Austin and Gov. Dolph Briscoe and his supporters won a test vote for control of the state party.

Attending from Hereford were Mr. and Mrs. Andy Shuval, Mr. and Mrs. Walter London, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Woodford, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Easterwood and Wanda Hoover.

The Deaf Smith group participated in a 31st Senatorial District caucus Monday to name the committee executives. Wayne Dammier of Amarillo got 93 votes to 83 for R.T. (Dick) O'Daniel of Tullia to succeed Joe Batson of Amarillo as district committeeman. Batson did not seek re-election.

Mrs. Ruth Osborne of Pampa was re-elected district committeewoman, defeating Mrs. Lennie Sims of Wellington by a vote of 98 to 78. Batson and Carl King of Dimmitt were named as delegates to the Democratic "mini-convention" in Kansas City in November. Dissident Demos challenged Gov. Briscoe in the test vote Tuesday but lost by a vote of 3,065 to 1,498. The group of liberal Democrats were led by National Committeewoman Billie Carr.

a football game. The rule apparently applies to all students at school-sponsored functions, even though they are not members of a team or organization. The board upheld the ruling.

Which goes to show, we believe, that all schools have problems with discipline matters and some have tougher policies than "old-fashioned" Hereford officials. The school board has to be responsive to the thinking of the majority of parents, and they must be right when only a few people are complaining.

Tullia, Levelland and Lubbock are the sites of three swine sales within the next three weeks, according to Dr. Gilbert Hollis, area specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at Lubbock.

The three events will offer producers and breeders of Spotted Swine, Chester Whites and Yorkshires as well as commercial producers an opportunity to improve their herds with quality animals says Hollis.

Then on Thursday, Oct. 3, the Southwestern Spotted Swine Breeders Association begins a show at 4 p.m. at the Swisher County livestock show Barn at Tullia. Their sale is at 7 p.m.

Swine Association, headed by Bill Hill of Hart, has a show and sale coming up Wednesday, at the Hockley County Show Barn at Levelland.

Opengilts, boars and weaning pigs will be auctioned. The show gets underway at 2 p.m. and the sale at 7 o'clock that night, says Hollis.

Pet Owners Need To Care For Charges

The Texas Veterinary Medical Association says that the pet owning public must accept its responsibility for the privilege of owning pets by humanely providing for their feed and care and by prohibiting them from roaming at large. The Association approved a statement on pet population control through its Board of Directors which met recently in College Station.

Individuals must assume their responsibilities in having their female pets spayed and males neutered to help prevent adding to the pet population explosion, the Association says. Some people have felt that providing free or low-cost spay and neuter clinics would be the answer to this problem, but this has generally not proven to be true. Irresponsible pet owners don't even utilize free services, says Dr. Dennis McIntosh, chairman of the Public Information Committee and a member of the TVMA Board of Directors.

TVMA encourages continuing research in areas of chemical agents so that contraception of straying and roaming animals may be accomplished, but the greatest achievements must be made in educating the pet-owning public to the responsibilities, hazards and liabilities of pet ownership. When irresponsible pet owners realize the problems they cause, perhaps the disposition of great numbers of unclaimed

GLITTER AND GLOOM
When a campaign to market synthetic gem material was launched a couple of years ago, the statement was made that not even a jeweler could tell the real from the fake. This remark comes back to mind whenever a customer comes in to show me what is sincerely believed to be a bargain. Too often it is a greatly overpriced synthetic imitation or a diamond of dubious quality.

Diamond imitations have their place. To me, they are costume jewelry—as opposed to fine jewelry. Those large, flashy stones are good for cocktail party chatter; they have a lot of shock appeal and can be fun. Unfortunately, these stones scratch and abrade comparatively easily and their glitter turns to gloom. And then everybody, not only your jeweler, will know for sure.

As a professional jeweler, a Registered Jeweler of the American Gem Society, I am concerned with the so-called bargains offered the jewelry-buying public. This jeweler can always tell. My gemological training and years of experience gives me this confidence. I have studied diamonds, graded diamonds and my customers benefit from my knowledge.

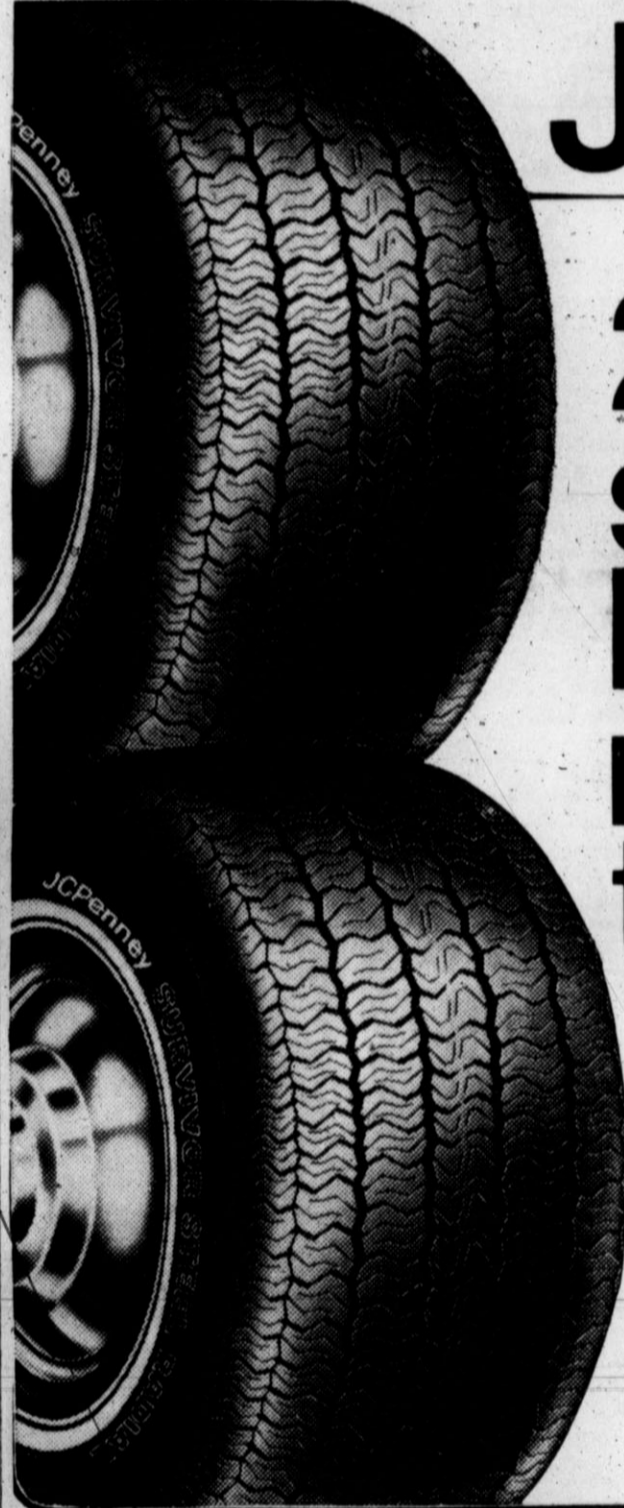

COWAN'S pays very close attention to the grading and purchase of every diamond that we sell. When a shipment arrives, the diamonds are first inspected. We grade them to recognize standards. One of the first things we do is to determine the cutting quality. Without precise cutting and polishing the diamond is seriously lacking in brilliance. And brilliance means beauty.

Next, we grade the color. To what degree is that trace of yellow — that almost all diamonds have — apparent? The diamond is placed under our gem microscope to determine its internal characteristics. If any, such as carbon spots, are visible to the unaided eye, they are unacceptable for our stock.

Come by and we can discuss some more "trade secrets."

By MRS. OWEN ANDREWS Brand Correspondent

Funeral services were held at Kress Baptist Church Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Martha (Aunt Mattie) Springer, 86, who died at Westgate Nursing home Sunday. She had lived here for about three years, since the death of her husband F.J. Springer. They lived at Kress 53 years.

Dr. DeWitt Westgate, chaplain, participated with the church pastor in the service. She is survived by two daughters, Roma Boggs of Kress and Olene Wimberly of Canyon; a sister, six grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. Relatives who live here are her husband's sisters, Mrs. T.L. Sparkman Sr. and Mrs. D.B. Roberson; sisters-in-law, Esther Springer and Annie Springer; brother-in-law, A.T. Jones.

Others who attended the funeral from here include Mrs. Herbert Bruns, Mrs. Owen Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Andrews, and from Dimmitt Mrs. Joe Benson and Mrs. Elbert Summers.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Redus and granddaughter from Tyler visited last week with the Billy Warricks, and the Elza Warricks.

Dickey Slates Lubbock Hospital To Start Construction

AC Appearance

The man who wrote DELIVERANCE and later played the sheriff in the movie of the same name, will appear at Amarillo College as the first performer in a series of campus entertainers.

A star college athlete, a night fighter pilot in WW II and Korea, and a successful advertising executive, James Dickey, considered a Hemingway of Poets, will be guest lecturer at 8 p.m. Wednesday at no charge.

The program is slated for the Concert Hall - Theater of the Fine Arts Complex. Dickey will give a reading of his works, filled with the same zest and enthusiasms which readers encounter in his poetry.

Dickey won the National Book Award (NBA) in Poetry for "Buckdancers Choice" in 1966. That same year he was appointed Poetry Consultant to the Library of Congress, and in 1967, the publication of his collected volume, POEMS 1957-1967, was hailed as one of the literary events of the decade.

The general reading public discovered Dickey in 1970 with the publication of his novel DELIVERANCE. The novel received an NBA nomination and Dickey's screenplay of the novel won an Academy Award nomination.

Lubbock County Hospital District Board of Managers announces it will hold groundbreaking ceremonies Friday to signify construction of its teaching hospital to be built adjacent to the Texas Tech University School of Medicine in Lubbock. The event is scheduled to begin at four o'clock in the afternoon at the hospital site at Fourth Street and Indiana Avenue on the Tech Campus where the Medical School is already under construction.

The hospital is scheduled for completion around mid-1977 and will serve as an important regional referral health center for the West Texas-Eastern New Mexico area.

Total construction and equipment costs are expected to exceed $18,000,000 with funds secured from the 1970 Lubbock County bond issue and tax levies together with an $8,000,000 Hill-Burton loan and $1,000,000 in Hill-Burton grants.

The District Hospital will provide adult and pediatric bed facilities, intensive and coronary care units. The structure will include many new and innovative labor-saving features to reduce personnel and other operating costs. Other services, such as emergency room, laboratories, x-ray, and ambulatory clinics will be provided by the School of Medicine.

The exterior will be composed of pre-cast concrete panels and a bronze aluminum curtain wall system using tinted glass. With four floors rising above the grade and one below, the building will contain a gross area of 296,000 square feet.

H<sup>3</sup> / HUSTLE. HUSTLE. HUSTLE.
 By Bill Albright, Executive Vice President
 Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce

It might surprise folks to learn something of the activities and services performed during a typical month at your Chamber of Commerce.

At the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors, the last item on the agenda is the Executive's Report. This is a summary of actions and projects since the last board meeting. Its purpose is to keep the board members informed of non-routine activities and to provide them with information to answer questions regarding Chamber business. Thought you might like to know too, so here it is, the Executive Report for Aug. 15 thru Sept. 19:

Composed and mailed almost 300 letters to potential sugar beet growers. Working with Meals on Wheels chairman and King's Manor Auxiliary to provide Senior citizens facilities. Submitted application for 2nd class postage permit. Held Quarterly Meeting at Civic Club Center on Sept. 10 and procured By-Laws amendment.

Attended Cultural Assembly activity at Tech with Cultural Committee. Represented Deaf Smith County at Water Inc. meeting in Lubbock. Represented Bicentennial Committee at Panhandle Centennial. Bicentennial meeting in Tulia. Met with Downtown Variety Park and Sugarland Mall Association in furthering business promotion. Worked on story and picture to promote sugar beets. Opened two new businesses.

Attended Amarillo Chamber of Commerce breakfast with President Roy and Vice President Bud Eades; planning similar event for Quarterly Meeting in November. Composed and mailed almost 200 letters inviting selected farmers and ranchers as prospective members. Coordinated participation in Annual Fiesta. Sent letters to 125 persons on Texas Industrial Commission Suspect List. Requested input from local utilities for updating population signs. Working with County Attorney on interpretation of House Bills 2 & 4.

Assisted Community Concert in annual membership drive with headquarters at the Chamber. Met with president of Security Federal Savings & Loan to announce new facility. Coordinated and participated in Channel 4 TV show. Mailed letters welcoming 21 new members. Plan new member orientation 6:30 a.m. Sept. 26. Conducted New Teacher Banquet. Developed ads for Channel 3-working on same for Channel 6. Working with Pizza Hut to install "Buy in Hereford" sign. Planning to attend Chamber of Commerce Executive Conference in Pampa Sept. 23-24.

Publicizing and promoting the Extension Service Crops Tour Sept. 24 (ladies are invited). Coordinating Education Seminar on Free Enterprise October 4-5. Sponsoring Ranch Day at Tech Oct 5. Hosting Soil and Water district Conservation Tour and the All Texas Air Tour on Oct 9. To attend West Texas Chamber of Commerce mid year conference and Cultural Award Ceremony October 10-11. Working with special group on program of action for our community and another special group to promote an annual event of major proportion.

It's probably obvious that these activities plus the routine of running the Chamber is enough to keep us reasonably busy. It takes some patience, a bit of understanding and lots of Hustle, Hustle, Hustle.

(P.S. A reminder of an event scheduled for Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 24, and the ladies are encouraged to attend. It's the Annual Deaf Smith County Crops and Conservation Tour-leaving the museum at 1:15 and returning by 5 p.m. Business folks are especially welcome. Refreshments are courtesy of Gifford Hill and WAC Seed. George Warner Seed is sponsoring the live radio broadcast. This is an interesting and enjoyable event, and we hope you get out to visit with these fine people).

Tickets Available For Soph Supper

Local residents are reminded to buy tickets now from Hereford High School sophomores for the class chili supper which will precede the football game here Friday night.

Adult tickets cost $1.50 and students $1.

The supper, which will begin at 5 p.m. in the HHS cafeteria, will forward the proceeds to the annual staff.

Code For Married Happiness Given by Joyce Shipp

THE STATE THDA meeting held at the Hilton Inn in Amarillo last week offered new information and ideas for carrying out county Home Demonstration programs. Many of our Deaf Smith County Home Demonstration Club members attended the two-day meeting along with our county delegates, Mmes. J.G. Gandy, Mrs. Leroy Johnson and Mrs. Gaylon Bryan. Dr. Winfred Moore, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Amarillo, shared this code for married happiness with us:

NEVER STOP courting. Marriage only gives you a chance to court without interruption. Never let romance wane. The benediction at the wedding doesn't end romance. It only gives you a chance to be permanently romantic. Never allow both of you to get angry at the same time. Never talk at one another, either alone or in company. Never speak loudly to one another, unless the house is on fire.

Never find fault unless it is perfectly certain that a fault has been committed, and always speak lovingly. Never taunt with mistakes. Never make a remark at the expense of each other — it is meanness. Never part for a day without loving words to think of during absence. Never meet without loving welcome. Never let the sun go down upon any anger or grievance. Never let any fault you have committed go by until you have frankly confessed it and asked for forgiveness. Never forget the happy hours of early love. Never sigh over what might have been, but make the best of what is.

Author Unknown
MANY OF you have had problems with your freezer going out this summer. Here's an idea of what to do when the freezer stops. Generally, if foods are safe to eat, they may be refrozen without danger. This guide is especially helpful if your freezer stops and you are wondering what to do with all the food inside. Whether or not thawed foods may be refrozen depends on the length of time they have been held and the holding temperature. Foods may safely be refrozen if they still have ice crystals present or if they are still hard about 40 degrees F. — and have been held no longer than one or two days. As a general rule, a fully-loaded freezer will stay cold enough to keep foods frozen for two days if the door isn't opened. But if it is not full, the food may be refrozen that long. One clue to help you decide whether to refreeze is the food's odor. Any off-odor in ground meats, fish or poultry means the food shouldn't be refrozen. In considering frozen fruits, vegetables and prepared foods, partial thawing and refreezing can change the flavor or texture of these items. Refrozen foods should be used as soon as possible to save as much of their eating quality as you can.

FISCAL fitness is a national concern but it's also a personal concern. Our income keeps running in place while the cost of living is doing push-ups and jumping jacks. People ask what can we consumers do to exercise our influence and help get our budgets back in shape. Budget is the key word — but first we have to put our exercise program in proper sequence. FIRST, we must analyze our present fiscal situation to determine just how much out of shape we are and in what areas. Then we have to decide what to do about it and how much improvement is necessary. This is called goal setting. Each of us has different fiscal limitations and our exercise program will have to be personally administered. This is a slow building process. Once we recognize what our situation is, we have to start doing something about it. This is the key exercise to the count of thrift.

A BUDGET or spending plan can help us count better — if it lets us see how much money is actually going for what expenditure and where we need to work harder for better coordination of money coming in and going out. Possibly after trying this for a few weeks, all the soreness will disappear and we'll see some progress. As with all exercise programs, it doesn't end here. The program has to be continued — and repeated. This calls for perseverance and an ability to say "no" to wasteful and unneeded expenditures. We have to learn that the table laden with fattening luxuries and misused resources is something to push away from. Instead, we can supplement our exercise program with a well-balanced diet of other resources available to us.

Longhorns Top Palo Duro JV

The Hereford Longhorns, the Herd's junior varsity, downed the Palo Duro junior varsity on a last minute score Thursday afternoon, while the Shorthorns played the Coronado sophomores Saturday morning.

No score in the sophomore contest was available at press time Saturday. Full results will appear in the Thursday Brand.

Coach Aaron Bourland said the Longhorns played a fine defensive game against the Palo Duro junior varsity, with the Hereford team winning 21-14. Bourland sighted good defensive play by linebackers Timmy Sandoval and Lupe Arroyos, and tackles Kenneth Henson and Abel Trevino.

The score was tied 14-14 until Mike Dudding connected with Davis Ford for a 35 yard pass play that scored six for the Longhorns with less than a minute showing on the clock.

Dudding scored one of the first touchdowns in the game on a one yard quarterback sneak. Terry Brady scored six for the Herd j.v. on a one-yard run. Joe Arroyos kicked all three extra points.

The Longhorns will travel to Amarillo to meet the Tascosa junior varsity next Thursday. Kickoff is set for 4 p.m.

Freshman contests provided one win and one loss for Hereford. The Stanton ninth-graders downed the Pampa freshmen 33-13, but the La Plata freshmen fell to Dumas' ninth-graders 16-6. In the La Plata contest, Olson scored the only touchdown.

Eighth-grade intramural games found the Stanton Blues defeating the La Plata Reds 16-0 and the La Plata Whites tied the Stanton Whites 6-6.

the evening in the second quarter. Early in that quarter, Hereford was unable to generate any offense and a holding penalty moved the ball back to Hereford's own 8-yard line. Mike Munnerlyn punted the ball 42 yards, but Borger took over at the 50-yard line.

Ten plays later, Glover scored on a three yard run after running key plays throughout the series. The point-after kick by Gary Benton was good and the Bulldogs held a 7-0 advantage.

ON THE next series of plays, Glover fumbled the ball at his own 40-yard line and Brian Edwards recovered the ball for Hereford. Roy Martinez carried the ball 18 yards to the 22 on the first down, but the Herd moved the ball only seven yards in three more plays. With fourth down and three yards to go for a first at Borger's 15-yard line, Martinez was held from making a first down by the Bulldog defense. Borger went to the dressing room with the 7-0 advantage.

Hereford took their first possession of the second half in for a score after converting a fourth down into a first. Mike Munnerlyn returned a punt 21 yards to the 50 and a penalty against Borger moved the ball to Borger's 36-yard line.

A few plays later, it was fourth with six yards to go for a first down on the 31-yard line. Mike Crim connected with Ronnie Ohlig for a 20-yard pass play that moved the ball to the 11. Two plays later, Crim hit Ohlig again, this time in the end zone to put Hereford on the score board for the first time.

Hereford took the lead when Crim connected with Ohlig again for the two point conversion. Hereford led 8-7 with 7:08 left in the third quarter.

THE HERD defense killed a Borger drive on the next series of plays when Borger tried for a first down in a fourth and five situation. Mike Glover carried the ball from Hereford's 34-yard line on the fourth down, but was wrapped by the Whiteface defense only three yards from the line of scrimmage, turning the ball back to the Herd.

Hereford was unable to move the ball in the next series, though, and a high snap from center Dennis Evans to punter Mike Munnerlyn found Munnerlyn scrambling from Borger defenders at his own goal line. Munnerlyn was brought down at the two yard line, turning the ball over to Borger.

Glover quickly covered the two yards two plays later and then took a pitchout and went outside to cross the goalstripe again for two points. Borger was back in the lead, 15-7.

Hereford took the kickoff from that score and drove to Borger's 9-yard line in 11 plays. The Herd made first downs on pass plays from Crim to Ronnie Ohlig and Roy Martinez and a pitchout to Martinez that netted 11 yards.

THE BORGER defense was holding Hereford at the 11-yard line, until on the fourth down with one yard to go for a first, Mike Crim kept the snap and crawled up center Dennis Evans back to grab two yards and keep the drive alive.

On the next play, Crim went to the outside and lateraled to Doug Charest just as defenders closed in on the Herd quarterback. Charest dodged a couple of tackles and went into the end zone. Hereford trailed by one point, but Crim scored a two point conversion on a quarterback keeper to put the Herd in front with 8:25 left in the ball game.

Hereford controlled the ball most of the remaining time, killing Borger drives by recovering Glover's fumbles and on penalties by Borger.

THE WIN gave both teams identical 1 and 2 records. The Whitefaces will be at home Friday night as they play host to the Canyon Eagles. Although Canyon is a AAA team, they have performed well against AAAA teams.

The End Zone

DAN WELTY

JUST FOR OPENERS, what Hereford newspaper sports editor has a birthday only two shopping days away?

COUPLE OF LADIES here at the newspaper just returned from a jaunt through the wilds of high country in Colorado. They report snow to the east of Denver and on the range of Rockies that stretch down to include Red River and Taos. They saw snow on the mountain at Taos, although at a high elevation. Could this be one of those 500-inches of snow years for Taos and New Mexico skiing? Could be all that snow-making equipment Red River has just installed in their ski area might not even be turned on this winter.

Our almanac points to several signs of an early winter with lots of snow. An abundance of flies indoors (they're trying to find a place to spend the winter), ducks headed south earlier than usual (we saw a V-formation at a high altitude flying south the first week in September), and cool, wet weather in late August and September. If that doesn't mean cold weather in a hurry, then our almanac might as well decorate the walls of the little building out back.

If you're not a winter sports enthusiast, better warm up the old tv tubes cause it could be a long time till the tennis courts are warm again.

WE SOMETIMES PICK on the Parks and Wildlife boys, not because we don't like them, but because we know quite a few of them. We went to the fair Thursday night and happened on John Crow, a game warden in this area.

Seems John was visiting the fair in an official capacity. There is a law in our fair state requiring that you have a permit to own or house an alligator. One of the side shows in the midway, billed as having "the world's largest alligator," didn't have one of these permits.

John asked if we would come help him confiscate an alligator.

DURING AN UNUSUALLY rough football game, a clipping penalty occurred and the official began stepping off the 15-yard penalty.

A player whose team the penalty was against yelled at the referee, "You stink!"

The referee kept on walking until he had gone another 15 yards. "How do I smell from here?" he asked.

HEREFORD'S MIKE WARTES put on quite a display last Saturday as he came off the bench to guide the Buffs of West Texas State to a 37-17 victory over Drake. Wartes, who lost the starting quarterback job to transfer Tully Blanchard, took the Buffs from a 17-17 tie midway in the third quarter to score three touchdowns and soundly defeat the Bulldogs.

Wartes engineered drives from the wishbone that provided a 28-yard touchdown run for Rick Schlieder and touchdown passes of seven and 10 yards for the former Hereford quarterback.

Gene Mayfield said, "There is very little difference between Blanchard and Wartes. Tully is probably the better passer, but Mike is very cool under pressure and that's why we went with him when the game was still very much in doubt."

ANOTHER FORMER HERD griddler, Jeff Loerwald, booted a 41-yard field goal for Sul Ross last Saturday. The kick came in a losing cause to the Greyhounds of Eastern New Mexico.

HEREFORD MOTORCYCLISTS made a fine showing at the Wellington Motorcross last Sunday. Charles Keese won first in the open and 250cc classes; Steve Kirkpatrick was third in the 125cc class; and Kenneth Hicks was first in minivan and 100cc class.

The riders reported they had to race in mud from four to 10 inches deep.

WE SOMETIMES PICK on officials, too. Not because we know them, but because we feel like they deserve it.

COURSE, WE KNOW one or two good officials. But we won't name them here. They might get voted out of the association.

WE SEE WHERE Rockefeller estimates he's worth $182 million. Now, if he just had as much power as Pete Rozelle, maybe the price of groceries would go down.

Antelope Hunt Area Reduced

An overall 35 per cent decrease in Panhandle antelope herds has prompted Texas Parks and Wildlife Department wildlife officials to limit this year's hunt in the area to two counties: Dallam and Oldham.

Based on surveys of herds, biologists have recommended that 33 permits be issued to Dallam County landowners and 61 permits to Oldham County ranchers.

The season in those two counties will run from Sept. 28-Oct. 1.

Banquet Notes Highway Week

The State Highway Engineer of Texas, B.L. DeBerry, will be the principal speaker at a dinner banquet Thursday at the Villa Inn Motel, 3618 Interstate 40 East, commemorating National Highway Week. Highway Week this year runs Sept. 22-28.

The dinner, sponsored by the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce Highway Committee, will begin at 7:30 p.m. A reception for DeBerry will precede the dinner at 6:30 p.m. DeBerry will present an award to a long-time Texas Panhandle highway promoter. Reservations must arrive at the Chamber offices in the Amarillo Building by noon Tuesday. LuGay Blancet at the offices will accept reservations by telephone up to the deadline. The charge is $6 per person and includes the social hour and dinner. The money will be collected at the door.

DeBerry is the chief administrative officer of one of the world's largest highway agencies, the Texas Highway Department. The Department, with some 20,000 employees, is charged with construction, maintenance and operation of a 70,000-mile, all-paved, toll-free system of highways of all types.

Artists to Show Here

The works of two Canyon artists will be shown at the First National Bank here starting Tuesday. Michael McCullough, left, works with bronzes and watercolor paintings, and three of his bronze works are shown on the table. R. Russell Brown, right, holds two of his watercolor paintings, and most of his them are western landscapes. The paintings and bronzes will be offered for sale.

Names Play Big Role In Legal Matters

Even though prospective parents spend a good nine months playing the "name game", their choice usually "becomes" the child who's attached to it. Of course, there are people who never seem comfortable with their given "handles" and they often hear friends say, "Funny, you don't look like a Rudolph."

Names, however, become highly important when any legalistics are involved. One of the biggest problems is Idem Sonans — the legal term for names that are considered alike because they sound alike. Actually, any name confusion can be especially hazardous when it comes to title transactions.

When people sign a deed, marry, divorce, etc., they don't always put their rightful names to the documents. Sometimes for one personal reason or another, they use similar "Monikers" — and unless the true identity of all previous title holders can be firmly established, someone who buys a piece of property later on could find himself in plenty of financial hot water if and when a legal challenge to his title is presented.

same family often have the same name — as in the case of father and son and the title may be in one while the deed is executed by the other having no title.

Because it's very possible to get caught in a title hassle, it's important for the prospective buyers to hedge against that possibility. One way to do this according to the Texas Land Title Association is with the purchase of an owner's title insurance policy. The issuing company will, of course, not give you one until they have gone through an exhaustive search that's routine for them — difficult for you.

In the name category, for instance, one title company searches over 18,000 names daily for five hundred clients. At one time, name lists were kept in huge tract books in which every conceivable name was broken down alphabetically and phonetically page by page into groups of idem sonans. Now, with computers and micro film available to companies, the search is faster and far more effective.

TITLE INSURANCE for the buyer does, of course, protect him from all sorts of other pitfalls too. There are hidden hazards that could rob you of your home — and the treacherous part is that they don't appear on any public records, so on the surface all may look well. Here are some of the traps that could elude even the most careful investigation:

Forgery, often expertly done, when revealed has clouded the title to thousands of pieces of property. It happens with alarming regularity and often involves the most unlikely people — like a disgruntled spouse who forges the name of an estranged wife or husband to a deed. A forged deed conveys no valid title to your home.

The Missing Spouse is the one who appears to "claim rights" — part ownership of your home — after you though you had purchased it from someone you thought was single. A variation of this type of hazard is the reappearance of a man declared "legally dead." One case involved a person who, gone for 17 years, was declared "legally dead" and his property sold. Imagine the dismay of the present owners of the property when he appeared and sought to reclaim his land from them!

The minor or mental incompetent who signs a deed can cloud the title of the present owner. Another source of headache for innocent home buyers are missing heirs and vague and incorrectly drawn wills. Too often the missing Sister Sally of the former owner appears, will in hand, demanding an interest in the home you bought and think you own.

Improper deeds — delivered without consent of owner, or executed under an expired power of attorney — too, can result in loss of title. Closing all the loopholes in a title is virtually, out of the question. But if you purchase an owners title insurance policy when you buy your property, the single premium you pay protects you against potential defects as long as you and your heirs own the property. If one of these hidden defects does turn up — the title insurance company will defend you at their cost.

The name similarity — idem sonans — is only one of the problems that face the potential home buyer. Of course, there are some names that are distressingly inique. Thus if you bought your home from a woman called Lota Fish or Pearl Button, it's not likely that there's another person of that same name. Although, you can never really be sure unless it's searched.

For more information on things you need to know when buying a home, write to the Texas Land Title Association, 220 West 7th Street, Austin, TX 78701.

WT Reports Larger Frosh, Soph Classes

With the twelfth-day class reports in, the West Texas State University enrollment statistics make some interesting changes.

"We are quite excited about the increase in enrollment in our freshmen and sophomore classes," Keith Winter, WTSU director of development, said. "Contrary to predicted national trends, our entering class has enlarged several per cent, rather than dropping in the light of decreased potential student pools that higher education is facing today."

Freshman, sophomore and graduate enrollment has increased at West Texas State, while the number of students in the junior and senior classes has dropped. Total enrollment at the University sagged 159 from last year's 6,791.

Transient admission enrollment, however, shows a 125 per cent increase over the 1973 figures. Transient admission, as described by the WTSU catalogue, is a simplified procedure for admission for students who do not intend to work toward a degree. Included in this category are West Texas State's continuing education classes both in the Golden Spread area and in Amarillo. Last year's total was 309, with this year's enrollment resting at 697.

"We are glad that West Texas State university is able to serve the people of the Panhandle through their continuing education program," Winter noted, "and that the providing of such a service will be of ultimate benefit for us all."

The School of Fine Arts, with expectations of moving into new facilities in several years, shows a 32 per cent increase over the 1973 statistics. The Department of Art is up 48 majors, music gained 44 and speech 2.

The West Texas State Department of Military Science experienced a slight growth this fall semester, gaining 5 recruits and changing their male-female ratio. While two out of the 52 enrollees last year were women, this year shows the women gaining to nine out of a class of 57.

The enrollment of the Department of Nursing at WTSU also jumped 22 per cent, rising from 400 to 514. Other increases were experienced in geology, up 16 majors from a 1973 enrollment of 57, and in the technical option industrial education, which is up 46 majors from a 1973 total of 33.

Total enrollment in individual colleges and schools reveals a different story. As mentioned earlier the School of Fine Arts is up 32 per cent, joining the College of Arts and Sciences increase of 28.5 per cent. The School of Business is down 20 students, along with the School of Agriculture losing 30 and the College of Education dropping 88. The Graduate School increased by one student.

"Overall, the picture still looks good", Winter said. "After graduating last year one of the largest senior classes we've ever had, we thought that the actual enrollment numbers might sag. However, I feel that the true measure of what West Texas State is, and the strength of what it has to offer for a student's future, is revealed in the freshman class increase."

Oral Evidence

"What makes you think the frisky-looking old gentleman in room 416 owns a plantation?" the house detective in the swank hotel asked the Swedish maid.

"Veil," she replied, "ven I was dustin' by his door, I heard him say, 'Let's have another drink den go out and raise cane, sugar.'"

Be Reasonable

A new congressman lunged down several typewritten sheets before his secretary.

"Don't use such long words in my speeches," he said. "I want to know what I'm talking about."

Ada Sells Land

Diamond Shamrock Corporation has purchased 145.9 acres of land from Ada Resources, Inc. the companies announced jointly today. The total purchase price was in excess of $1 million. Other terms were not disclosed.

After tax gains to Ada Resources will amount to $630,000 or 12 cents a share based on 5,152,641 shares outstanding.

The proceeds of the sale will be used to reduce Ada

Resources' long-term indebtedness," said K.S. Adams, Jr., President.

Ada Resources, Inc. is primarily engaged in the exploration, development and operation of oil and gas properties; the marketing and transportation of petroleum products, related products and other bulk commodities; and the management of two large custom cattle feedyards.

Tour Of Home Given For 4-H Members

A tour of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hudson's home, a cottage on the grounds of Kings Manor retirement home, was the program for Argen Draper 4-H Club this week. Joyce Shipp and Sherrie Harder, county extension agents, were in charge.

They pointed out wise use of space in the rooms, and club members were also interested in the Hudsons' hobby displays. A business session and refreshments at Community Center preceded the tour by 14 members and leaders.

Sales of new cars showed rebound in August.

Nurses Offered ROTC Position

Expanding the opportunities for women in the military, the Department of the Army has now started a program whereby baccalaureate nursing graduates when completing the Reserve Officer Training Corps program will be commissioned as second lieutenants in the Army Nurse Corps.

Cooperating in this program in the Golden Spread is West Texas State University's Department of Military Science and of Nursing.

While enrolled in ROTC at WTSU, nursing students are eligible for a subsistence allowance of $100 per month for up to ten months of each school year during their junior and senior year, and are also eligible to compete for numerous Army ROTC scholarships.

This program is open to all nursing students enrolled in a baccalaureate nursing program which is accredited by the National League of Nursing. Registered nurses already possessing baccalaureate degrees who wish to pursue a career in the Army may receive their commission after completing a two-year ROTC program while enrolled at WT.

Any student currently enrolled in the WTSU Department of Nursing who expects to graduate after the current school year, and is interested in learning more about this program, should contact Capt. Moore at the WTSU ROTC Building, or call 666-3966.

Upon completion of all requirements leading to a bachelor of science in nursing, licensing as a registered nurse, and all ROTC requirements, the nursing corps Service credit will be awarded graduates with prior military service or civilian nursing experience.

Graduates of this program have the choice of either three months or two years active duty.

Alcoholic Film To Be Presented

A new film will be shown as the program feature when Deaf Smith County Council on Alcoholism meets for a Dutch treat lunch at Dickie's Restaurant at 12 noon Tuesday.

Members of the council are asked to be present and bring guests. Any other residents interested in the problem of alcoholism and possible solutions, are invited to the lunch.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

IF YOU were in Hawaii and reading the Sunday issue of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin, you'd never expect to see anything about Deaf Smith County in it either, so it isn't surprising that Johnnie Turrentine was surprised considerably while on a trip to the far western state lately.

The story on Page One of the feature section was titled "Nothing But The Best," and Johnnie glanced idly over the first paragraph.

It read, "Although there is no such thing as an uncontested best, there is general agreement on a lot of things. Take Deaf Smith peanut butter and Jap Air Lines, Kamahu uleleles . . ."

The story, cleverly written by one Jocelyn Fujii, went ahead to list her idea of the best in a variety of classes, as indicated by the opening list. But isn't it nice that it was led off by a local product?

THE TURRENTINES, incidentally, Johnnie and George with daughter Patti, also his brother Dan of Pacific Grove with wife and son just younger than Patti, were in Hawaii on a vacation they greatly enjoyed. It was a celebration of the George Turrentines 25th wedding anniversary.

OTHER members of the family will get some of her attention, of course, but Peaches Reinauer was most eager to see a new grandson, Alvin Joseph, when she left Thursday for the home of Lt. and Mrs. James R. Reinauer at Orange Park, Fla. The baby was born Sept. 12.

He is named for both his grandfathers, Joe Reinauer Sr. here and Dr. Alvin Cowan of Orlando, Fla.

GUESTS of Fern and Herman Ford for a few days have been Virginia and Bob Traxler of Hayward, Calif. Virginia and Fern are sisters and I remember them as two of the little strawberry blonde Callaway girls at Childress when they were in grammar school.

The Traxlers as well as the Callaways lived in Childress when I worked on the paper there, and Bob worked on the same paper when he was a kid.

NO PLACE for someone with claustrophobia, Bea Hutson says after getting locked in a small room at Deaf Smith General Hospital the other day and having trouble getting released. She says the experience gave her claustrophobia!

It happened while she was on duty as a Hospital Auxiliary member, and was at work in the room where coffee is made. The door handle broke when she turned it, and there she was locked inside. She knocked on the door and called when she heard anyone pass, but no one stopped.

Sometimes a passerby would stop and she would hope for a rescue, but they always passed on, probably thinking a violent patient was in that room, Bea supposes.

It seemed like hours and was quite a long time before a nice woman did open the door for the tired, thirsty coffee maker. Nurses and others at the hospital found it very funny, and so did Bea as she told the Red Cross Volunteers about it afterward—but not at the time.

MR. AND Mrs. R.L. Ethridge, 400 Western, have been on a visit of a week ranging from Abilene to Gladewater in deep East Texas.

At Abilene they visited a former Hereford resident and close friend, Mrs. A.B. Christian.

Then they attended the family reunion of Ethridge's mother's people near Gladewater.

They experienced some of the rain and high water now seriously menacing Abilene and surrounding central Texas towns. They reported long-time residents there saying this was the worst wet season at Abilene in more than three decades.

You can always get someone to agree with you if you say what he likes to hear.

Anniversary Honorees

A family dinner in their home, 402 Ave. G, celebrated the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Humberto Morales Friday, Hereford residents since 1967 when they moved from Menard, the couple married Sept. 20, 1949, at Brighton, Colo. Morales was a resident of Menard, his bride of Ft. Lupton, Colo. Their children, Tillie of Amarillo, Richard Lee, Humberto Jr. and John Paul of Hereford, and their families were present for the dinner.

Volunteers Tell Of Service

Assistance to several community service organizations of the city, as well as to individuals, was reported by members of Red Cross Volunteers at their September lunch at the Civic Club Center Thursday noon.

Work of the volunteers has been done through Meals on Wheels, Deaf Smith General Hospital Auxiliary, churches and for individuals including patients in the general hospital and at Westgate unit of Kings Manor retirement home.

Mmes. Emil Dettman, Bill Hutson, Henry Neely C. Ora Cockrell, Mae Fralin and Jim Culppepper reported a total of 56 hours of service the past month.

Local Art Is Tops In Fair Show

Hereford artists were among winners in the art division of the annual Tri-State Fair in Amarillo, taking four first places.

Mrs. Charles E. Newell was awarded first in watercolor painting of wildlife and Mrs. Robert Veigel for wildlife in oils. First place for portraits in oil was won by Mrs. Johnny Pool and third place for portraits by Mrs. A.E. Guinn.

In sculpture, Karen Sue Johnson of Hereford placed first.

Judge of the show was Mrs. Berry McClary of Dumas, guest artist who had a collection of her work on display.

Local Stores Flaunt New Fall Styles

In support of the "Shop in Hereford" campaign currently being conducted by the Chamber of Commerce, local merchants are featuring the latest styles on the fall fashion front. Offering looks for many ages these store owners and employees model their wares.

Rutherford's features a basic two-piece knit and polyester pantsuit with brown belt, buttons and stitching. The print blouse offsets the dusty rose color scheme and brown leather bag. The model is a Rutherford's employee, Gladys Bryant.

Helen's Youth Shop offers a variety of winterwear for the youngsters including this green jumper and polka dot blouse. The creation is modeled by Devany Paschel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Paschel of 131 Greenwood.

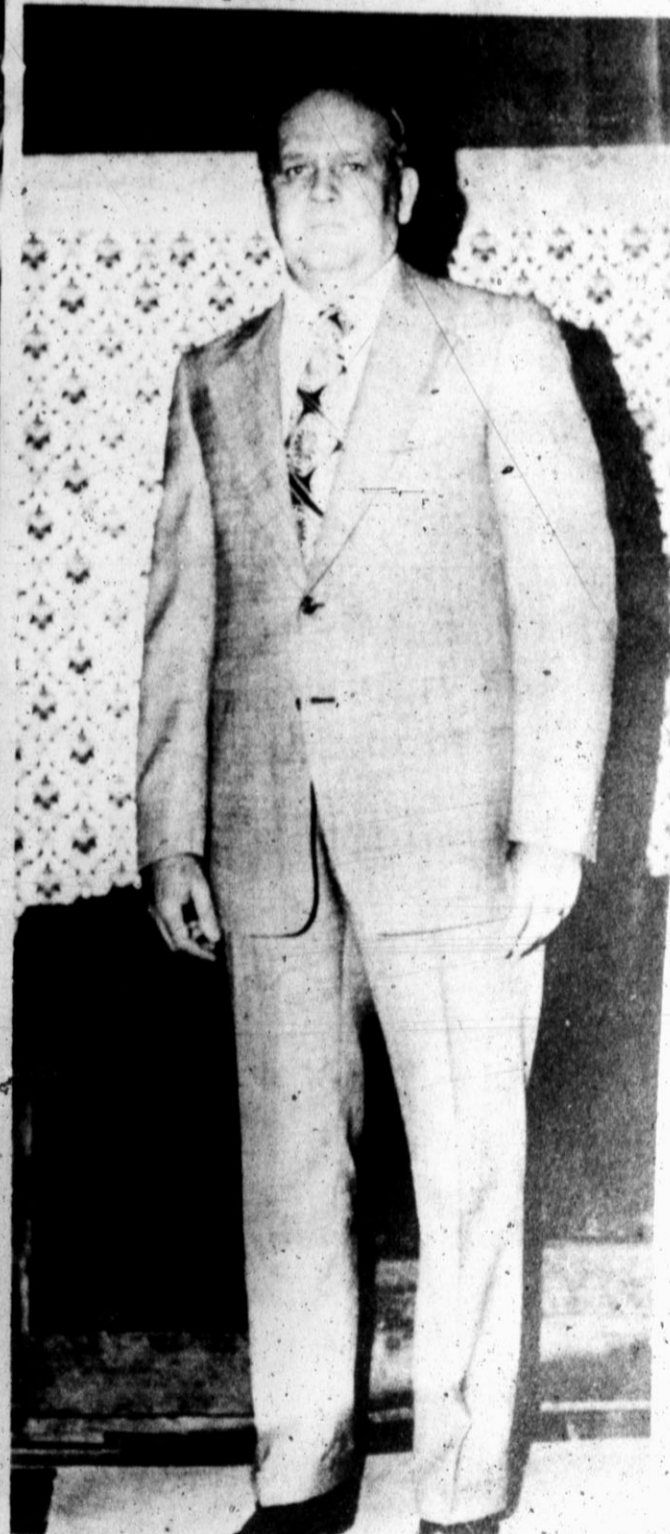

Representing Harman's Downtown store is Sue Roberts and Carl Baker in new fall apparel. Sue coordinates fine English worsted with bold gold and gray stripes. The double-knit polyester suit is by Donovan Galvani. Carl, wearing the very latest in clothing this season, wears a Botany 500 glen-plaid suit, which incorporates new types of wool and polyester.

An alpine blue jacket and pleated skirt from Gaston's is worn by May Fralin. The polyester and linen suit is belted and matches shell and navy leather purse. Mrs. Fralin's dotted jacket has three-fourth length sleeves. She carries bone kid leather gloves.

Mrs. Steve Sanders is ready for football weather in this black, white and silver fake fur coat with adjustable length. The wrap is accented by long fake fur trim on the sleeves and wide collar and by white knit cloche hat with matching gloves. This fall fashion is available at Sweetbriar's in the mall.

Bill Frazier, owner of Abbie's Mr. Shop, wears a Corporate suit which utilizes subdued blue shades in plaid. The style, designed by Harri Schaffner and Marx, is tailored with a distinguished shoulder line and lapel expression for authoritative fashion subtlety.

Valerie Moseley, employee of C.R. Anthony's in Sugarland Mall, shows this formal dress with white collar, black vest and full brown and tan skirt. It is belted with black patent leather.

Employed by JC Penney's in Sugarland Mall, Frances Keeter dons a princess style, baby blue coat with pleats in back and silver gray imitation fur trim at cuff and neckline. Combined with her wrap, which is being spotlighted at Penney's Coat Caravan, is a navy leather purse.

Drill Team Holds Sale Of Cowbells

Cooperating with Hereford CowBelles, girls of Hereford High School Drill Team are selling novel copper cowbells on leather straps. Proceeds are divided between the two organizations.

Coach Larry Dippel was presented one of the bells by Mrs. N.E. Tyler, CowBelles president, to use in bringing his herd to order instead of using a whistle. Fans at HHS games are asked to use the bells as noisemakers, and Drill Team members are selling them at games.

The bells were obtained at cost through Albers Milling Co. and the CowBelles added their decal emblems and the straps. Sale price is $2.

The first hundred bells were sold in a 24-hour period and the young salesmen called for more, Mrs. Tyler reports.

Mrs. Alton Lamm ...nee Ann Bellamy of Arlington

Alton Lamm And Bride Will Live In Arlington

Miss Ann Marie Bellamy of Arlington became the bride of a Hereford man, Alton Lamm, in a Saturday evening ceremony at Highland Baptist Church of Arlington.

Both are students in the University of Texas at Arlington, and their home will be at 400 South Oak, Apartment 400, in that city.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Raymond Wilson Bellamy of Arlington and Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Lamm, 503 Avenue J. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Ray Bellamy.

Her attendants were Mrs.

Mike Wharton of Arlington, matron of honor; Mrs. Byron Grover of Hereford, Mrs. Ronald Haney of Arlington and Mrs. Robert Gilmore of Clearwater, Fla., brides-matrons, Kyla, daughter of the Byron Grovers, was flower girl.

Best man was Kandy Clawson of Amarillo and groomsmen, Grover, Steve Springfield of Waco and Rodney Johnson of Cleburne. Les Taggart of Cleburne and Sammy Cantrell of Dallas served as ushers, Trey McCreary of Arlington ring bearer.

Background for the ceremony was formed of palms, with curved candelabra holding tall white tapers and pedestal bouquets of white chrysanthemums, pink carnations and babybreath on either side. Steps to the kneeling bench were decorated with greenery and chrysanthemums.

The bride's gown was in empire style, of white organza tucked on bodice and sleeve caps. Orange blossom motifs of heavy lace were scattered over the bodice and cuffs of the lantern sleeves and dotted across the train formed by gathers of the skirt back.

Bands of the lace blossoms headed and edged a wide flounce around the skirt and train. More were applied on the cap which held the layers of her short veil. Her bouquet was of white roses, pink carnations and babybreath.

Attendants' dresses were styled alike with tiered skirts, bishop sleeves and ruffled necklines. Mrs. Wharton was dressed in pink flowered sheer, the others in solid pink. All carried pink and white carnations.

Before the marriage Miss Bellamy was complimented with a number of parties, during a visit to Hereford as well as in her home city.

Unique Museum Tour Scheduled

A tour to the unique Ranch Headquarters Museum on Texas Tech campus at Lubbock is scheduled for Oct. 5, sponsored by the Women's Division of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce. Members and other residents of Hereford may make reservations for the tour, with 4 p.m., Oct. 1 as the deadline hour.

The museum, which has been building the past few years, consists of actual buildings from historic ranch headquarters of West Texas. It includes the rock building which was headquarters for the Escarbada division of the famed XIT Ranch in Western Deaf Smith County.

Present owners of that part of the XIT are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reinauer Sr., who donated the house to the museum. It was dismantled and moved to the location at Lubbock, where it was reconstructed.

Leaving Community Center parking lot at 8 a.m. that Saturday morning, the two chartered buses planned for the tour are scheduled to return at 5 p.m. Cost of the tour is $10, including a chuck wagon lunch. Reservations may be made at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Mrs. Henry Sears will be hostess on one bus and Mrs. Clint Formby on the other. Mrs.

Joe Reinauer Sr. has made arrangements for the tour and Mrs. Formby is serving as chairman in her stead while Mrs. Reinauer is out of the city.

Information about plans may be obtained from Mrs. Formby, who has announced that casual dress or costumes from Hereford's Diamond Jubilee period will be suitable for the trip. Women at the museum will be wearing long dresses.

One of the city's garden clubs is considering this trip as its tour of the year, and sponsors emphasize that groups as well as individuals may make reservations.

The Agriculture Department has proposed new beef standards, to take place in December, which would put leaner cuts of the supermarket shelf while lowering cost to producers.

Possible projects for the year were suggested and ideas were discussed for a choice later.

Dividend Days

WORTH A TRIP TO AMARILLO!

For more than twenty years it has been our Sakowitz tradition to offer our loyal friends and customers a now famous, once-a-year event: The Sakowitz Dividend Sale. It's much more than a sale. Since 1954, each year our buyers have worked with our traditional fashion resources to bring you substantial savings on current fashion selections. They cooperate with us because Sakowitz throughout the year does not normally advertise or promote by special pricing, but rather by a reliable standard of quality and fashion value from our knowledge of markets throughout the world. So on the same fine fashions (not seconds or irregulars), we receive and pass these values on to you during Dividend Days at Sakowitz. It's our way of thanking you for your patronage and especially for your warm welcome to Sakowitz since we joined the Great Plains community five years ago. We begin our fourth annual Dividend Week in Amarillo with special thanks for your hospitality to Sakowitz. Dividend Week is an uncommon opportunity for you and your family to make impressive savings. Come visit us in Amarillo to take full advantage of this event in our stores. Downtown and Western Plaza.

Brunch Hostesses

Bay View Study Club began a new year Thursday morning with a brunch in the home of Mrs. Keith Simmer. Hostesses were members of the social committee: Mrs. Simmer, seated, and standing from left, Mrs. H.L. Benefield, Mrs. Ansel McDowell, committee chairman, and Mrs. Jimmie Gillentine.

Folk Singer Pianist To Give CCA Programs

Concerts by a young pianist and a folk singer-guitarist will round out the season's program for Hereford Community Concert Association, added to one by the King Family which was booked before the recent membership campaign. The board has announced. Angus Godwin, a multilingual folk singer who includes spirituals, show tunes and American and foreign folk songs in his programs, is to appear here March 23, and Rico Sacconi, pianist highly praised for youthful spontaneity as well as keyboard artistry, on April 19.

The King Family, musical group well known through television broadcasts and holding an appeal to all ages, is scheduled for the opening concert of the 1974-75 year, on Feb. 21.

The annual membership drive for Hereford CCA closed this week and was pronounced "very successful" by Mrs. George Warner, board chairman of the local group. Mrs. Paul Scott was campaign chairman with Mrs. Bill Walden as co-chairman.

All concerts here are held in the high school auditorium and are open only to holders of membership cards. Single admissions are not sold to area residents.

In addition to the three concerts in Hereford, members here may attend programs at Canyon, Lubbock and Clovis by reciprocity arrangements with associations in those cities.

First concert available under this plan will be at Clovis Oct. 16, when the New Christy Minstrels are scheduled. Stephanie Chase, violinist, will give the opening program at Lubbock Oct. 30, and also at Canyon Nov. 26 so there will be two opportunities to hear her.

Casual Coffees Given

Open door, not so formal as open house, is the name Mrs. W.K. Golden gives to a series of weekly gatherings of friends at her apartment, 1308 West Park Ave. She has invited friends to call each Thursday morning during September.

The third group was entertained this week and another is invited for next Thursday. Coffee was served and casual talk enjoyed by the callers during the novel "at home" hours in this modern revival of an old-fashioned social custom.

NIXON & TAPES

Former President Nixon can destroy any or all of the taped Oval Office conversations any time after Sept. 1, 1979, under terms of an agreement reached recently with the government.

Harvest Theme Used At Brunch

Autumnal color of fruits and vegetables marked decor for the season-opening brunch of Bay View Study Club Thursday morning in the home of Mrs. Keith Simmer. A copper pot heated with garden harvest products stood at the front door to set the keynote.

More vegetables spilled from cornucopias that centered tables in the dining room and den, where guests were seated after they were served buffet style from a bar in the den.

Mrs. Howard Gault, beginning the second year of her term as president, welcomed members back for a new year, the club's 66th in Hereford. Yearbooks were distributed by the program committee, Mmes. Austin Rose, W.J. Gilliland, Bob Josserand and John Gilliland.

Hostesses with Mrs. Simmer were other members of the social committee, Mrs. Ansel McDowell, chairman, Mmes. Jimmie Gillentine, H.L. Benefield and Homer Garrison.

Also at the brunch were Mmes. J.R. Allison, Bruce Burney, Colby Conkright, S.G. Darling, S.M. Davis, R.W. Eades, D.N. Garner, Bill Griffin, W.K. Golden, W.S. Kerr, Earnest Langley, R.B. Miller and Jack Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Thompson of Vega and Major and Mrs. David Whatley of Heidelberg, Germany visited their mother and grandmother Mrs. Maggie Thompson Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. W.R. Beard went to Ralls on business for a few days. She will also visit friends and tell about the "happy life" at Kings Manor and the activities to be enjoyed here.

Mrs. Don Davidson has just returned from a 10 day visit with her son and family, the Rondel Davidsons in McAllen.

James and Ruby Lair were guests for dinner of Mrs. Gladys Lair. It happened to be Ruby's birthday and we enjoyed our birthday dinner.

Guests of Mrs. John Heard last Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Heard of Ralls, Lillie Brown and Nettie Brown of Dallas.

Twelve 4H girls from the Argen Draper Club, accompanied by three adult leaders and their agent, Joyce Shipp, visited the Clyde Hudson cottage Tuesday afternoon, to study step-saving plans and other devices to utilize space.

Fay Gauggel has just returned from a week's visit with the Rollo Davidsons in Shamrock.

Thursday evening the King's Manor folk were shown pictures by the J.R. Stevensons from their recent trip through Glacier National Park, Lake Louise, the Columbia ice fields, Jasper and on into Vancouver, B.C., and Victoria.

A few days ago Mrs. Lena Menefee went with Ruth and Sam Long, her children, to Hunt County to the Money family reunion.

Mrs. Menefee's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Money came from Georgia to Texas part way on boat across the river. Later the couple had two more children born. He died before some of the children were grown.

In 1910 Mrs. Menefee and her mother, Bettie (Money) Potts, attend the first reunion at Grandmother Money's home six miles north of Greenville. The Money Cemetery had been started at J.A. Money's death years before the reunion.

The reunion last week, was near Merrick Money's lake home. He is a great-grandson of J.A. Money. There were descendants from Tennessee, Georgia, Oklahoma and all across Texas, over 100 present, Mrs. Menefee being the oldest descendant.

AAUW Plans Unit To Aid Library

A move toward organizing a Friends of the Library unit here was made by the Hereford Branch, American Association of University Women, with appointment of a committee at its recent meeting in Community Center, and setting an open meeting Oct. 15 with guest speakers from the Amarillo unit.

Mmes. Colby Conkwright, Eugene Brink, L.N. Cox, Joe Reinauer and Grady Cope were named to the committee by Mrs. Reuben McGilvary, AAUW president. Larry Watson, county juvenile officer, gave the program this week, discussing work of his office to aid children in trouble. Mrs. John Winder gave a resume of AAUW purposes.

Reports from a district workshop in Amarillo Sept. 14 were given by Mmes. Cawthon Bryant, D.N. Garner, F.O. Naylor, Earl Holt, Conkwright and Cox.

Hostesses were Mmes. Mark Armor, Mary Carter, Joel

Hodges, Byron Terrell, Reinauer, Winder and Gamer.

Autograph Party Today

First Book Published After Lifelong Writing

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

HER FIRST book has just been published in Cora Johnson's eightieth year, but she was only a tenth that age when she saw her first work in print, a story that won a place on the children's page of a Dallas paper.

"I've written all my life," Mrs. Johnson says, "and some of the poems in this book were written years ago."

The book, titled Things That Abide, comprises 54 of Mrs. Johnson's original poems, with others which she has collected over the years.

There is also an arrangement of Psalm 23 with musical setting which she dedicates to her late husband, Edgar Stewart Johnson, and another song, That Beautiful Home, with original music arranged by Elva Devers of this city.

AN AUTOGRAPH party honoring Mrs. Johnson is planned from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. today in Community Center, with the public invited.

A Hereford resident since 1967, Mrs. Johnson lives at 301 East Sixth. Her 120-page book was published by First Printing Company of Hereford.

Born in Falls County near the small town of Travis, she grew up and married there and then moved to Jones County in 1929 when the Johnsons decided they needed to live near a college where their children could continue their education. They chose Abilene Christian College.

There are three children Mrs. Buren Carr of Parker, Colo., Mrs. Sam Hoover of Arcadia, Calif., and Clifford Johnson of Hereford.

MRS. JOHNSON herself has had little formal education although she declares, "I went through school three times, with each of the children." Her father was a farmer and the family lived 10 miles from a school so she was taught at home.

Her grandmother was her first teacher as she learned to read at five, and says she has been reading ever since, as her greatest pleasure. Her mother continued lessons in reading and writing and her father added the third R, arithmetic.

She was about 10 years old when her family moved to a farm owned by a woman who lived on the place, and had "a whole roomful of books."

"SHE SUBSCRIBED to several magazines, too, and she encouraged me to read all I wanted to, so I read everything my mother would let me!"

Mrs. Johnson taught herself to type and since coming to Hereford has sharpened that skill in night classes offered at the high school. She also studied Spanish in a night class, and she took a course in Bible at ACC while living near Abilene.

Bible study has been a chief interest since she became a member of the Church of Christ at the age of 16 and she has taught Bible classes for more than 50 years, wherever she lived.

"I'VE GONE through the church school as a teacher," she says, "beginning with the smallest children and working up to adults' classes. Everything but men's classes."

She had a religious article, Let Him Teach, published in the Christian Bible Teacher, a publication of her church, while she was living at Anson. Her first printed effort was a story about a little girl, written when she was eight years old and accepted by the Semi-Weekly Farm News for its children's page.

"Of course the story had a happy ending," Mrs. Johnson smiles.

She lost much material she had written, with more she had clipped, in a fire in 1914 and again when her home at Anson was burglarized. But she continued to write and collect others' work, and says now that she wants to write the story of her life and her memories of farm living at the turn of the century, "just for my family."

AIM Picks Three Service Projects

Mrs. Kenneth Glenn presented a program on speech to members of Alpha Iota Mu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority Thursday evening in Community Room of First National Bank.

She stressed the importance of freedom of speech stating that man cannot exist without some type of speech to communicate and organize his way of life.

The service committee proposed three projects for this club season. They included a donation to Girlstown and county library and members also volunteered to help with the blood bank. All three suggestions were approved.

Carla George was elected as the chapter's Valentine sweetheart and Mrs. Coy Mason was elected alternate for City

BSP Council.

Plans were made for an art show scheduled for Oct. 20-25 at First National Bank with paintings by Rheatta White and Arlene Phelps, both of Muleshoe, to be exhibited. Members also made plans for a fall dance with the ways and means committee to be in charge.

Mrs. Fred Ruland volunteered to start a white elephant sale which is held at each chapter meeting.

Before the close of the meeting, two guests, Marie Huen of Nebraska and Mrs. Warren Hall who lately moved here from Iowa, were recognized and a ritual of memorium was read in memory of Mrs. Delbert Bainum who was a charter chapter advisor.

Club Opens Year With Lunch Out

Lunch at Dickie's Restaurant Thursday was the first meeting of a club year for Farm and Ranch Club members, with Mrs. W.B. Nunley as hostess.

A preview of the season's programs on the theme, Our Changing World, was given by Mrs. J.B. Odum as yearbooks were presented. Each member was invited to capsule the summer by answering roll call with Summer Changes At Our House.

Mrs. J.C. Price was elected secretary-treasurer to replace Mrs. G.V. Hall, who has become an associate member.

Others present were Mmes. W.W. Gilbreath, Paul Ridd, J.E. Sorrells, P.B. Sowell, Jack Weaver and Wheeler Davis.

SHOW-SALE ANNOUNCED
The annual antique show and sale sponsored by Amarillo Federation of Women's Clubs is announced for Friday through Sunday in the federation building on Civic Circle. Admission charge is a dollar and food service is available.

Ford signs $11.9-billion housing aid bill.

Newcomers Club Founder Speaks

The founder of Hereford Newcomers Club, Mrs. Jack McKinster was a special guest Friday morning at a coffee given by the club to which other new residents of the city were invited. Place of the party was the Flame Room of Pioneer Gas Co.

Mrs. Glenn Perry, president, welcomed the guests and Mrs. Arthur Dettman poured coffee at a long table centered with an arrangement of autumn flowers and leaves. A smaller arrangement was on the registry table.

Newest-comer among the guests was Mrs. Joe Warren of 1628 Eighteenth, who came here from Hart and formerly lived in Dallas, a resident only eight days.

Others were Mrs. Warren Hall, 810 East Third, who moved to Texas from Iowa, and Mrs. Gene Savage, 122 Hickory, from Dallas.

Mrs. McKinster, who led in organizing the club when she was a newcomer several years ago, was presented a red rose after she talked informally about former activities of the club.

Members who assisted in entertaining the guests were Mmes. Dean Baxter, Leon Kothmann, Billy Batterman, G.L. White and Earl Looper.

Officers Named

Organizing for the new school year, Office Education Association of Hereford High elected officers at a meeting this week.

Rose Mary Dupnik was chosen president, Linda Betzen vice president, Linda Cornett secretary, Isabel Pena historian and Janie Rodriguez reporter.

Installation of these officers will be conducted at a meeting Oct. 8 in Pioneer Gas Flame Room.

In the March 27, 1930 edition for The Hereford Brand:

"The wheat harvest was saved again yesterday".

The line, described in the Brand as "in the venacular of the old time Panhandle expression", welcomed a late Spring snow that added much needed moisture for the wheat crop.

In those days, irrigation in Deaf Smith County was a drop in the bucket. Of the total farm acreage of 443,225, only 9,035 acres were irrigated. Most folks were depending on that snow.

Things have changed. Irrigation is now a way of life.

That was the year, 1930, when we started in business. We've changed too. Increased the size of our facilities many fold, installed the latest equipment and systems of handling marketing and accounting. Like in irrigation, you have to improve to grow and.

We grew up in the agri-business.

Double Standards?

Not since the civil rights days of the fifties have we heard as much hypocritical hogwash as has poured forth following President Ford's pardon of Richard Nixon.

Back in the fifties, all the integration battles were fought in the South with the people up north insisting on one standard for the South and another standard for the Northern schools.

Now that the worm has turned and they're pushing true integration up there by busing, staid old Bostonians were out tossing rotten tomatoes at, of all people, Sen. Edward Kennedy.

But all the screamin' and gnashin' of teeth and wailin' heard in Washington and New York from lawyers and news media concerned the double standard the pardon is supposed to encourage in this country.

Nuts!
We've had a double standard under law ever since the white man traded those Indians out of Manhattan. And it wasn't something invented by the Democrats or the Republicans — both have used it to a fare-thee-well for ages.

Personally, every day that passes, President Ford reminds us more of former President Truman. He bites the bullet quick.

We hope the President pardons every Watergate offender and every draft dodger and war resister in and out of the country.

We could care less about any of them. But by pardoning the whole lot maybe we could write an end to Vietnam and to Watergate and just possibly terminate the employment of those 1300 to 1500 Watergate lawyers on the federal payroll in Washington and force them out on the streets to earn an honest living for a change.

Actually, President Ford better hurry up with those pardons before someone remembers that we never have gotten around to prosecuting Democrat Senators Hubert Humphrey nor Wilbur Mills for illegal campaign contributions.

But we've got perfect examples of double standards here in Texas. In all the Sharpstown and scandals, a Republican administration managed to bring down the governor, the lieutenant governor, the speaker of the house, and an exattorney general. Yet the crook who actually stole the millions was one Frank Sharp who was granted complete immunity. A double standard?

And take the noted example of Jake Jacobsen. Washington prosecutors trying to develop a case against former governor John Connally promised immunity to Jacobsen if he would testify against Connally, under indictment that he accepted $10,000 bribe while secretary of the treasury.

The Connally bribe charge, if conviction were obtained, would result in a maximum penalty of two years and a $10,000 fine. Yet Jacobsen, if convicted on a San-Angelo savings and loan charge, faced a maximum of 35 years imprisonment and a $70,000 fine.

That's not a double standard?

We can't help but think of something that Dr. George Beto, former head of the nationally recognized prison system in Texas once said.

"Prisons exist for one of three reasons for inmates: restraint, rehabilitation, or reintegration into society...any other reason for locking up someone is pure and simple revenge!"

Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord...and Washington lawyers.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

"It appears we have been concerning ourselves with too much icing and not enough with baking the cake. We have tried to pacify everybody without incurring any wrath, and we have allowed education to drift instead of steering a pre-set course toward basic objectives. We have been too busy experimenting to use the most important tools of education—reading, writing and arithmetic taught to the rule of the 'hickory stick,' if necessary to maintain order and attention." VIDALIA, GA., ADVANCE

"One of the finest sides to living is liking people and wanting to share activities in the human enterprise. The greatest pleasures come by giving pleasure to those who work with us, to the person who lives next door, and to those who live under the same roof. Entering into this human enterprise, feeling oneself a part of the community, is a very important element which generates happiness." CORVALLIS, ORE., BENTON COUNTY HERALD

"Ah, there's good news tonight from Moscow. A little noted item of news under a Paris dateline reports that the Russians have discovered a real cure for baldness. The Institute for Natural Medicine at Baku claims that 80 per cent of completely bald men leave their confines with a new growth of healthy hair. 'The miracle,' says the news report, is produced by a new oil product called Naftalan. Scientists described it as a highly potent aromatic carbohydrate which promotes blood circulation and improves the metabolic process of the body. We ought to be able to forgive the Russians' inability to put a man on the moon if their other sciences are that well advanced." HIGH POINT, N.C., ENTERPRISE

"Every person now and then — has a legitimate gripe... either too poor, no work, too much work, sick or religious or political problems... but, we still feel that most every American is what he or she wants to be... Like It Or Not!" MARION, WISC., ADVERTISER

Crime and Punishment

Two years ago, when crime in the United States decreased for the first time in 17 years, President Nixon told the nation "we can confidently say today that we are finally beginning to win the war against crime." But a perplexed Attorney General William Saxbe recently noted that reported crime increased by 6% during 1973 and by 15% during the first three months of this year.

Lawman Saxbe warned that continued crime might lead to a national police force if the public is convinced it's the only way to deter criminals. That warning may be farfetched but it surely is not unthinkable. The latest increases in reported crime came in the face of court reforms, better police selection and training and more modern corrections programs. And there are indications the public would back more extreme anti-crime measures.

There may even be a danger that the public could go too far. The movie "Death Wish" is a current publicity sensation with its plot of a quondam liberal New York architect who sets out to avenge a family tragedy by killing muggers. To the consternation of critics, movie audiences in cities and suburbia have been cheering actor Charles Bronson each time he dons another criminal.

Mr. Saxbe says that poverty and deprivation are a major cause of crime, and with that there is broad agreement, though we doubt even the most advanced environment would totally change human nature. He adds and others again agree that part of the increase can be laid to a breakdown of such important social institutions as home, the school and the church. Moreover, the Attorney General was properly critical of the Watergate conspirators and other government officials who violated the law and destroyed public trust.

But Mr. Saxbe departed company with the "enlightened" thinking by suggesting that society must prosecute and lock up many criminals—those who "feel that the risks of apprehension are low and the risk of going to prison, even if caught, are even lower." Increasingly, the fashion among some influential Americans has been to deny that punishment deters crime.

Some, in fact, point out that U.S. prison sentences are the longest in the civilized world.

But political scientist Walter Berns recently noted that punishment was meted out in only 5.7% of the approximately six million crimes in 1971 catalogued by the FBI. Moreover, he cites estimates that as much as 98.5% of all crimes may go unpunished. Quite clearly, then, Professor Berns says, crime pays.

In the current issue of The Public Interest, political scientist Gordon Tullock cites a wide array of analytical studies by economists and sociologists that confirm that increasing the frequency or severity of punishment in fact does reduce the likelihood that a given crime will be committed. "We have an unpleasant method—deterrence—that works, and a pleasant method—rehabilitation—that... never has worked," concludes Professor Tullock. "Under the circumstances, we have to opt either for the deterrence method or for a higher crime rate."

Clearly, punishment after the fact is no substitute for the moral and ethical values heretofore inculcated by family and church—values that President Ford recently said "will prevent more crime and corruption than all the policemen and prosecutors... can ever deter." Nor is punishment an alternative to opening the way for individual advancement through legal avenues. But social policy operates in the here and now, and surely it's foolish to postpone anti-crime efforts pending either the moral or economic perfection of society.

Analyses like those of Mr. Berns and Mr. Tullock certainly suggest that society could profitably concentrate on convicting and imprisoning criminals at a much higher rate than it now does. This would require further streamlining the criminal justice system and narrowing of some of the legal loopholes available to defense attorneys. But the first requisite is simply to recognize that making crime less profitable is in fact likely to deter it.

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

A Third Party?

Many feel the time has come in the United States for a third political party. Governor Tom McCall of Oregon is investigating the possibility of another major political party and Governor George Wallace of Alabama has not hesitated to move in this direction in the past.

There are millions of Americans presently unhappy with the state of affairs in both the Democratic and Republican parties. The Republican Party is beset with scandal and the Democratic Party was taken over, in effect, by a radical segment in 1972.

Whether disenchantment with the bigger party remains widespread may depend, in part, on the outcome of the present struggle for control. If moderates gain control at the December convention, this could discourage third-party defections. If radicals retain control, that would likely improve chances for a third political force in 1976.

The Beer Commercials

If one watches television's beer commercials long enough, one can become convinced America is a nation of morons.

Obviously some marketing whiz has sold beer company execs on the silly theme that a group of men laughing hilariously, having a wonderful time, sells beer.

Thus we see all these empty-headed characters laughing and guffawing over nothing, all drinking beer together, in one after another juvenile scene. It's so idiotic intelligent viewers are repulsed. But children and the simple minded are probably impressed.

And that might really be what it's all about—indoctrinating the young...impressible. The elderly who'll drink already do so, in most cases.

Football Trips

Brisk autumn will soon be here, and the time of year for happy football weekends.

We warn local citizens of the dangers encountered on football trips. Not only does fall bring the first winter weather, but the nights are continually growing longer from now until December 22nd.

Moreover, the crowds which travel to football games constitute a menace of their own peculiar variety. Some are too prone to celebrate and others are too much of a hurry to get to the game for the opening kickoff—having started late.

Some who have celebrated football victories too much will lose their lives returning from the game, in darkness, in bad weather, or at the hands of someone else, who may be suffering from any one of the conditions fatal to many drivers each year.

This editorial is a request for mature behavior by all readers this football season.

Talk of Texas

By Jack Maguire

THE CHANGING TIMES — Getting a scholarship to attend Texas' first teachers' college wasn't easy. Students had to agree to teach in the public schools for a period equal to the time they attended the normal institute.

Teacher training was unknown in Texas until 1879. In that year, the citizens of Huntsville, Walker County, purchased a building vacated by Austin College when that school moved its campus to Sherman, Grayson County. The Legislature authorized the establishment of the Sam Houston Normal Institute on the Huntsville campus. A foundation interested in teacher education provided a $6,000 grant to help finance the school.

The legislative act creating the Normal Institute specified that no fewer than two students from each of the state's senatorial districts were to receive free tuition, board and lodging. Six other full scholarships were to be granted at large. The cost of the education received did not have to be repaid.

However, those who received the unique scholarships were required to return to their home districts and teach a minimum of one year or for as long as they had attended the Normal Institute at state expense.

WHAT'S IN A NAME? — Dog Ridge, Bell County, got its name because most of the early residents kept hounds.

TRAVELING TEXAS — The state's only museum devoted to the art of bullfighting is housed in an El Paso motel named the Del Camino.

Exhibits include the head of one of the few bulls to have his life spared because of his bravery in the ring. He was named "El Firmador." Because he bravely faced the matador in a Chihuahua City, Mexico, fight in 1968, the judge not only spared his life but sent him to a peaceful pasture to finish out his life.

On display in the museum are paintings, etchings and lithographs depicting the history of bullfighting. Also shown are trappings such as the uniform worn by the matador in the ring, the weapon he uses to dispatch the animal and other memorabilia.

NO BEAUTIES WANTED — Fort Worth is headquarters for the only organization in Texas that seeks to end discrimination on the basis of looks.

Known as "Uglies Unlimited," its purpose is to force employers to quit hiring people (especially women) because they are physically attractive. Not long ago, they picketed an airline because its advertisement for stewardesses called for applicants with a "well proportioned figure."

More than 200 have joined the organization thus far.

TEXAS FIRST — In 1885, women of the First Presbyterian Church in Houston put together the first cookbook devoted to the regional recipes of the Lone Star State.

"The First Texas Cookbook" was reissued in a facsimile edition by an Austin publisher a few years ago.

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on His Deaf Smith grass farm on Bootleg Corner confesses to a mistake this week.
Dear editor:

Before it gets out of hand and I have to issue clarifying statements saying it was taken out of context not to mention mis-quoted I want to say I made a big mistake in my letter to The Brand last week, probably the first one I've made prior to the ones in the letter before that, and I want to apologize.

The reason I want to apologize is that the mistake was inflationary and inflation is something we have ten times too much of already. Make that twenty times; things just went up again while I was writing this.

THE MISTAKE was that I gave the price of sugar by a pound bag instead of a 5-pound bag, making it read that sugar was now selling for over $2 a pound.

Now this may seem like a harmless mistake but if you think so you don't understand the psychology of inflation, price-gouging division. That single error may have a far-flung impact on everybody's cost of living, with a chain reaction starting in Hereford and spreading to the far corners of the civilized world. Actually it may go further than that and get into New Mexico or Oklahoma and some portions of France.

ANYWAY, don't you know that when the sugar people hear that sugar has been reported at $2 a pound and nobody has fainted, somebody in the outfit may say "Well, whatta you know, maybe we could get that much. Let's raise the price and see."

You see, inflation is caused by a lot of things, like for example dropping 100 billion dollars in Viet Nam with nothing much to show for it, but one of the other things is that people are so used to seeing the price of everything go up that they just shrug or bite their lip and go ahead and pay, and a lot of manufacturers and sellers have caught on and raising prices is now a national pastime.

So you see what I've done to the price of sugar. I apologize.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Fact & Opinion

"The uncomfortable truth is," an editorial in The Economist, a London weekly magazine, is quoted in The Wall Street Journal as saying, "that democracies are bad at dealing with periods of low-tension confrontation: with the phenomenon that Marxists call the ideological struggle, and Clausewitz could have called the continuation of war by other means. There is an almost universal human desire to believe that peace is the natural condition of man, that armies are temporary nuisances, that conflicts of interest can be dissolved by a policy of goodwill. None of these things is true, but people like to believe they are; and one of the differences between democracies and the other sort of political system is that in democracies people elect politicians who can form governments which behave as if wishes were facts."

"Balding tires soon may carry a verbal warning," according to a publication of the American Mutual Insurance Alliance, "for the unwary motorist. Dunlop Tire Company's experimental tire contains the word 'stop' printed in red letters deep within the tread. When the tread wears so thin that the tires may fail to grip the road, the letters become visible."

As Ms. Patricia E. Starratt pointed out in The Reader's Digest, "Natural gas, the source of one third of the energy consumed in the U.S. is disappearing twice as fast as it is discovered. Evidence of our growing shortage of this cheap, efficient, non-polluting fuel is piling up... It is time that we began paying the real price for a premium fuel."

"Success doesn't come about by accident or luck," it is noted in THE SPOTLIGHT, a Field Enterprises Educational Corporation publication, "but with determination, dedication and belief in your own ability. You need proper mental attitude, total commitment and enthusiasm to reach your goal."

"From the day of ancient Greece, the civilizations which were most advanced in terms of their cultural contributions to the world were the civilizations which were most advanced in terms of their cultural contributions to the world were the civilizations in which technology flourished. It follows that what is at stake in our current controversy over technology is nothing less than our commitment to knowledge itself."—Mr. William J. Spencer, president, First National City Bank.

Lowders Bidden Goodbye

A farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. Don Lowder was held in the Bill Reinauer home Thursday evening with approximately 25 couples attending. The Lowder family is moving to Plainview where he has accepted a position as legal counsel for Missouri Beef. He starts his new post Monday after several years as a practicing attorney in Hereford. A group of friends hosted the party, and the couple was presented with an engraved sterling silver tray as a farewell gift.

By The Garden Gate With Glad

By Mrs. Art Manjeot

As we approach autumn (September 21) I feel that gardeners will agree with the statement made by Elizabeth York Case: "There is no unbelief; whoever plants a seed beneath the sod and waits to see it push away the clod, and sees it reach maturity, he trusts in the Master Gardener."

This has been a difficult season for gardeners: Late spring, extremely hot weather, drought, late rains, many insects and diseases. Truly it has taken patience, TLC and know-how. We are winning, as there are so many beautiful flowers and delicious vegetables being enjoyed these late summer days.

September is a transition month between warmer months of summer and the cooler months of fall. There is still many days left for activity in the garden, digging and dividing perennials, selecting spring-flowering bulbs for later planting, feeding, mowing and watering the law. Making it ready for the long winter sleep.

Also we must diligently tend to the roses, that they may give us true fall beauty. Continue to spray roses for insects and disease control. Keep them groomed.

Share their loveliness with others. Use the cut flowers in the home so the family may become more flower conscious. Take time to teach the children flower arranging and an appreciation of the good earth and its harvest.

Dahlias are coming into their best hours these late summer days and early fall. Groom them by removing old blossoms and damaged foliage; if preparing for flower shows disbud carefully and check stakes to see that they are secure and strong enough to hold the plant correctly.

There are many beautiful geraniums in Hereford now, take a census of them and note the various types and varieties. Now is the time for rooting geraniums. Take 3 to 4 inch cuttings from the plants.

If you do not have geraniums and want some for winter plants ask your neighbors or friends to share their cuttings or maybe an exchange can be made. Before cuttings are made, it is best that the plants have been rather dry for sometime.

This is important because the growth should be firm, not weak and succulent. However do not make cutting from the old stalk, it should be of the new growth.

Dip the cut tips in root-tone, remove lower leaves and plant in pots which have been filled with well prepared soil. Soil should not be too rich or porous. Recommended proportion, is one-third pot soil (good garden soil) one-third peat moss or other humus, one-third sharp sand and balanced fertilizer. Mix well.

Place in protected area. Water, keep the soil just moist until the plant is established. Geraniums do not like to have wet feet (roots) and they do need at least half a day of full sun, not filtered. It is important that the stems do not shrink or shrivel.

When 4 or 5 inches tall, pinch back the growing tips to induce branching. Feed geraniums sparingly, if over-fed they will not bloom well, but will make excessive succulent growth. These will make good winter plants for the house and can be transplanted to the garden another growing season.

Make ready other potted plants which have been carried over through the summer. Repot if needed. Inspect for diseases and insects. Spray if needed. Groom carefully, removing all unsightly foliage or other defective parts.

Prune plant if needed to give it a more attractive form. Wash and clean pots and foliage so that it will be attractive when taken into the house.

All ornamental plants should be checked for spider mites. Damage appears as yellow or gray stippled patterns on the upper surfaces of leaves. Undersides may have fine silken webbing and the tiny spiders.

Sulfur, Cygon or Kelthane are recommended, Black Flag and Mathion are also good sprays. Evergreens should also be checked for red spiders; they can be treated as suggested.

Do not lift the gladioli corns until the foliage is dry. The corns need strength from the foliage, just as do spring flowering bulbs. For lifting, use a fork rather than a spade; it will not damage the roots as much. Sometimes we miss the shovel placement and the corn is cut into and has to be discarded.

Cut off the tops with a sharp knife. Leave the corns spread out on a board or heavy paper until dried. Dust with insect powder. Store in heavy brown paper bags or woven bags in a place where there is no danger of freezing.

Check during winter to test for extreme dryness. If dry, sprinkle lightly to restore firmness and help them through the storage period. If brown paper bags are used, they should be punctured in several places to give air for breathing and to keep down molding.

MILEAGE IN the garden: The Australians have found a way to use old rubber tires, chewing up the pesky surplus. The tires are reduced to powdery emulsion, mixed with soil and added to the soil around growing plants.

It has been found that the tires improve the growth of grass and other plants. The rubbery mulch allegedly aerates the soil and improves water penetration and retention.

In a seven-day test, moisture loss by evaporation was cut from 92 to 45 per cent by mixing sandy loam with the rubber mulch. It has also been reported that the mulch repels several plant pests. Probably some gardeners, too. But if this discarded rubbish can be salvaged and used on the soil, it will be a real aid to ecology. (Taken from the American Horticultural Society News and Views.)

If YOU lived next door to you, it could be that you wouldn't like you very much. That is if you are like me! Take time out and survey your yard, alley and garage as well as other surroundings. Make a list of some of the unsightly things.

One of our enemies is garbage-can hoppers. Pets can be a nuisance if they turn over garbage cans (this has been controlled in many areas by Dumpsters). Moral: where do you keep your pets, and where do they roam?

What about the view? Look quickly — what do you see from the patio or upstairs window? How about seeing the sunset over your compost heap or other rubbish? Is the mailbox wobbly? Lawn need cutting?

bicycles lying on the driveway? Innards of the garage? Look them over. Weeds grasses recent rains are going to make these grow, alleys will need attention when soil is dry enough for weeding and cutting. Let us all take a good look at our own premises: The house, yard, garage storehouse and alley. We can all probably add much trash and litter to the trash haven, if we will begin now. Gee! I guess I had better quit writing and go to work, How about you?

We should all go into the fall days well groomed, and ready for the winter.

TO AID tomatoes to ripen, hold water and let soil dry out thoroughly.

To my many friends and past customers in Hustling Hereford

If You Have Property To Sell - You Must Read This!!!

Dear Homeowner,

In hopes that you might take a moment and read this advertising, I'd like to take this opportunity to tell you about "Our policy" at Carmichael Real Estate. Our advertising program, a tried and proven one, has been established from surveys and studies made by the National Institute of Real Estate Brokers, and educational marketing and merchandising association of Realtors and sales associates. It is based on the experiences of the most highly successful real estate brokers in the country.

Advertising and classified ads are just "one tool" of our complete selling program for the sale of your property. Normally, the majority of buyers will come from signs referrals by friends and clients, national referral services, cooperating Realtors, mail and from our current list of prospects looking for property like yours.

Advertising does not sell Real Estate! But sales people do. Brokers do. Good Real Estate ads are not written to sell, they're written to persuade the prospects to contact our office or sales staff. Only then can we make an effective personal presentation of all the features of your property enabling us to learn and to overcome any objection the prospect might have.

Remembering ads must produce prospects, not sales; you'll understand why we don't tell the "whole story" in an ad. We want the prospect's interest to be excited enough to call for more details. Then and only then can we qualify the caller as a "looker" or a genuine "prospect." If we don't feature every detail your property offers, this is why.

It's not only your individual ad that is working for you, but it's all of our ads. Records show most people seldom purchase the property on which they originally call on office. Prospects from every call on every property we advertise are considered for your listing by our staff, if there is the slightest chance it might "fit his needs." So, even on the day when no ads appear for your property, our advertising program is working for you.

Real Buyers, our surveys show, probably read every available paper on every day. Records prove this prospect has no favorite paper or favorite day to "scan" the ads, nor has he any favorite time of the year or day of the week. Our constant all-over advertising program will miss very few real buyers and your property will be missed by none.

We at Carmichael Real Estate believe in our advertising program, and we believe we can sell your property and obtain for you a fair market value. Call us today.
