

Famous Olympian At All-Sports Banquet Monday

By SPEEDY NIEMAN

Jesse Owens, famous Olympian who has been called "Champion of the Century", will be guest speaker here Monday night when the Whiteface Booster Club honors all high school athletes at the annual All-Sports Banquet.

The banquet, which features presentation of awards to outstanding athletes, will start at 7 p.m. in the Bull Barn. The event is open to the public with tickets priced at $6 for adults and $4 for students. Tickets are available at both banks, the chamber office, and at high school.

Virgil Marsh, president of the Booster Club, said he thought Hereford "was very fortunate in securing the appearance of Owens as guest speaker. . . he comes highly recommended and we think he'll have a message for adults and athletes as well."

Owens, presently a resident of Phoenix, Ariz., is considered by many sports experts to be the greatest track and field star of the century. He gained international fame in the 1936 Olympics in Berlin, Germany, and currently making public appearance on behalf of youth groups.

Outstanding athletes in each sport will be honored by presentation of the annual "News Service Awards", sponsored by The Hereford Brand and KPAN Radio. In addition, the "Athlete of the Year" award, sponsored by the sports committee of Deaf-Smith County C of C, will be presented at the banquet this year.

Keith Kitchens was the first recipient of the "top athlete" last year, and he also won awards in football and golf. Other News Service Awards last year went to Terry Scott, basketball; Luther Mays, track; Ricky Locke, baseball; David Cortez and Cathy Emerson, tennis; and Kathy Bollinger, volleyball. A girls' track award will be added this year.

Owens was honored last year by the National Collegiate Athletic Association as recipient of the Theodore Roosevelt Award, which is the highest honor bestowed upon anyone by the NCAA.

Previous winners have been Dwight D. Eisenhower, Christopher Craft, and Gen. Omar Bradley.

Owens lived in Chicago for many years where he devoted much of his time to underprivileged youth. He was, for more than five years, the sports specialist of the State of Illinois Youth Commission.

He is also a representative of the Ford Motor Co. in its marketing division, and Sears, Roebuck & Co., speaking on behalf of these companies to sales groups, marketing people and other various functions.

In 1955, the U.S. State Department delegated Owens as America's "Ambassador of Sports" and sent him on a two-month goodwill tour of the Far East. The following year he went to Australia as one of the personal representatives of President Eisenhower at the 16th Olympiad. He was honored guest of the German people at the 1972 Olympics held in Munich.

Today, more than 35 years after earning the title of the "World's Fastest Human", the same Jesse Owens continues in the front ranks of athletes, and was acclaimed in 1960 as "The Champion of the Century."

He has gained respect and honor, not only for his achievements as an athlete of unparalleled skill and ability, but also because of his many and varied activities in community services. He has been named chairman of the 1974 Boys' Basketball International.

At the 1936 Olympic Games, held in Berlin, Germany, Owens gained international distinction with a dramatic feat by setting new Olympic records in winning individual titles in the 100-meter, 200-meter and broad jump, and running on the victorious relay team. His Olympic broad jump record was not surpassed for 24 years.

Owens' athletic career began in 1928 at Cleveland, Ohio, where he set new world records for junior high schools by jumping 6 feet in the high jump and 22-11 1/4 in the broad jump. During his high school days in Cleveland, Owens won all of the major track events, including the state championship for three consecutive years.

At the National Inter-Scholastic School meet in Chicago, during his senior year, he set a new world-record for high schools by running the 100-yard dash in 9.4 seconds—tying the accepted world record, and he created a world record in the 220-yard dash by running the distance in 20.7 seconds.

A week earlier he had set a new world record in the broad jump with a leap of 24-11 1/4. During his freshman year at Ohio State University, Owens set a world record in the 60 meters at 6.2 and created a new record of 6.1 in the 60-yard dash.

As a college sophomore, he had the distinction of being the only track athlete in history to set three world records and to tie a fourth in a single track meet. He ran the 100 in 9.4 to tie a mark and set new records in the 220 at 20.2, the 220 low hurdles at 22.6, and the broad jump at 26-8 1/4.

Chamber of Commerce Plans New Highway 'Welcome' Signs

Two committees are working on a project to secure new "welcome" signs on highways coming into Hereford, it was announced by committee chairmen during a regular monthly meeting of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce directors Thursday morning.

The reports were presented by Pauline Howard, publicity, and Dorrel Jones, tourism committee, both reappointed to fill posts whose chairmen had resigned. Other committee reports highlighted the meeting, which started at 6:30 a.m. Thursday morning at the C of C board room. R.W. Eades presided in the absence of Roy Faubion, president.

Jones asked the board to consider subleasing a highway sign from Plains Motel on U.S. 60, west of Barrick Furniture, and accepting the Big T Pump sign on Highway 385 South as a donation from the business. Both signs will need to be repainted. Bids are being taken for the painting.

It was pointed out that the Chamber of Commerce had previously sponsored signs on the five highways leading into Hereford. Only three of the signs are still intact and work needs to be done on them.

Mrs. Howard reported that local civic clubs which has sponsored club emblems on highway signs had been contacted and are willing to have the emblems repainted. She said the Women's Division of the C of C will work with the clubs in getting this done. She also reported that her committee is interested in getting more "Truckin' for Hereford" signs on trucks.

It was proposed by Allen Parson, former tourism chairman, that the board consider membership in the Discover Texas Association. Jones and his committee will study this proposal for further discussion.

Earnest Langley, who was chairman of the industrial development committee, resigned due to illness and R.C. Hoelscher has been appointed as interim chairman. Hoelscher, also chairman of the human resources committee, reported that he has spoken to several clubs and told of the interest shown through these meetings.

The board adopted a resolution endorsing the support of the interstate highway to come through or near Hereford. It was reported that two important highway meetings are scheduled one being last Thursday. County Commissioner Earl Holt and a representative from the C of C planned to attend the meeting.

Jake Webb, chairman of the sports committee, gave a report to the board. His committee is composed of 30 members and the group meets the last Friday of each month. All interested persons are welcome to attend, he said. He reported on the success of the baseball tournament and invitational track meet recently held here and the regional qualifiers track meet which was hampered by the weather.

Webb said the committee is now making plans for the Region 9 AAU Boxing Tournament which will be held in Hereford June 7-8, bringing in approximately 100 entrants from three states. A tennis tournament is also planned and has been set for June 27-29. The committee is working with city officials in an endeavor to obtain more tennis courts so Hereford can host the district high school track meet and tennis tournament next year.

The sports committee is also helping promote the sales of tickets to the All Sports Banquet set for tomorrow night at the Bull Barn. The chamber will present the athlete of the year with the plaque.

Mrs. Lavon Nieman, president of the Women's Division, gave a report on its activities. She reported that several members will join with other area chamber women at a workshop in Amarillo April 27. The beautification committee is busy on the clean-up drive, and the youth and education committee is making plans for a summer youth program at the Community Center offering various types of entertainment and instruction.

It was reported that a committee would be appointed soon to begin making plans for a July 4th Celebration.

Bill Albright, executive vice president, gave a report which included the following: $1,000 worth of Christmas street decorations have been ordered; letters were sent to the Board of Education and superintendent of schools requesting them to be on the track; the chamber has joined the Texas Water Conservation Association; plans made to attend the state CowBelle's convention in San Antonio to show the chamber's support to the CowBelles and beef promotion; information updated for front of phone books and submitted copy to Southwestern Bell Telephone; now working to update city directory; announced that citizens are invited to attend the Daiwa Textile Plant ground breaking in Levelland on April 25; directors are in the process of delivering plaques or new date strips for plaque to chamber members; letters are being sent to new members inviting them to a member orientation on May 7; letters were mailed to committee chairmen asking that they request from the executive board any funds they plan to spend.

Following the business meeting, a representative demonstrated a check protector which is bonded. The board voted for the C of C to purchase one of the machines.

Board members attending the meeting included Larry Wartes, Jim Conkright, Tom Burdett, Terry Caviness, Arturo Gonzales, Andrew Kershen, Hoelscher, Albright, Nieman and Eades. Also present was Betty Willson, office secretary.

Brand Receives Awards

At Press Convention

The Hereford Brand garnered two plaques and a second place certificate Saturday morning at an awards breakfast at the 65th Annual Panhandle Press Association Convention in Amarillo.

The local paper, represented by publisher O.G. Nieman, received a first place plaque for general excellence in a bi-weekly newspaper. The honor is based on high quality in journalism, photography, design and advertising.

Another first place award recognized the special 75th Diamond Jubilee edition which was published in August 1973.

In the news category, the Brand received second place for good merit.

Sue Coleman, Women's Editor, was credited with a special honor for excellence in layout and design of a cover page.

Those publications issued by North Plains Printing Company which were noted at the three-day assembly were The Friona Star, Bovina Blade, State Line Tribune, Moore County News and Lamb County Leader.

Farmers And Agri-Business Leaders Urged To Attend

Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Session

The Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board will hold an informative session here Tuesday in the Bull Barn with all farmers and agri-business leaders invited and urged to attend.

Purpose of the meeting, according to Gerald McCathern, secretary-treasurer, will be to "inform all producers how their funds are used in research, education, promotion and marketing, to outline all aspects of the board's work and discuss future plans."

The meeting gets underway at 10 a.m. Tuesday, with the morning session highlighted by reports from research projects. Elbert Harp, executive vice president of TGSPB, will report after lunch on his recent tour of several Asian nations with the U.S. Grain Council. A promotional movie, "The High Energy Grain", which is being translated into several languages, will also be shown.

McCathern and A.R. Dillard, local board members, are acting as hosts for the meeting. The noon lunch will be sponsored by Hereford State Bank, First National Bank of Hereford, Pioneer Natural Gas, and Deaf Smith REC.

"This is a very important meeting," stressed McCathern, "and we urge all grain sorghum producers to take a half-day off from producing and spend that time on the business of promotion and marketing." He urges persons to call the county agent's office, 364-3573, to confirm attendance at the noon meal.

The research reports will include those on green bug resistant plants by Dr. George Tette and Dr. Jerry Johnson of the Lubbock Experiment Station; grass mite control by Dr. Charles Word of Texas Tech, and stubble use and feeding trials by Dr. Lloyd Sherrod of Pan Tech. All of these projects were made possible by grants from TGSPB.

TGSPB is composed of 12 directors representing approximately 30,000 members in a 29-county area in the Panhandle and South Plains. It is financed by a compulsory 5-cent per ton check-off as authorized by the state legislature. Although the 5-cents per ton seems very minimal on an individual basis, the aggregate of all the memberships amounts to approximately $200,000 per year.

These funds can only be used for research, education, promotion and marketing of grain sorghum. The directors strive to see that this money is used to the best interests of the producers, explains McCathern, and the board wants all producers to be present at Tuesday's meeting and present any recommendations for future projects.

The board is composed of C. C. "Pop" Reed of Kress, president; Larry Witten of Olton, vice president; McCathern, secretary-treasurer from Hereford; A.W. "Dub" Anthony of Friona, A.R. Dillard of Hereford, Worth Jones of Hart, Ralph Mabry of Petersburg, K.B. Parrish of Springlake, John Gilbreath of Sunnyside, C.P. Smith of Hale Center, E.C. Witten of Olton, and Don Nelson of Tulia.

Grand prize winner in the poster contest preceding the annual citywide cleanup this week, Bob Templeton of Aikman Elementary School shows his entry to Mrs. O.G. Nieman, president of the Chamber of Commerce Women's Division which sponsors the cleanup campaign each spring. Pupils in all elementary schools competed, with a cash award for the best poster in each school and a special grand prize.

Trash And Litter Objective As

Clean Up Campaign Continues Here

Enthusiasm was generated for the city's spring cleanup, and pickup of litter began Saturday morning as youth organizations paraded and then began collecting trash to start a week aimed at making Hereford a more beautiful and healthful city.

Cleaning of yards, alleys, vacant lots and along streets is the primary goal of the campaign, which is sponsored by various committees of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce and its Women's Division.

Mrs. W.C. Russell is chairman for the Women's Division and Edward Allison of the chamber's beautification committee.

High school organizations, Campfire Girls, Boy Scouts and Rainbow Girls were among units which took part in the parade and worked at litter collection afterward. The students' part in the cleanup campaign ended at Dameron Park where the Coca Cola Bottling Co. served drinks to the young workers.

A poster contest for elementary school pupils preceded the cleanup and supplied posters which will be seen through the week in windows of business firms and public buildings.

Bob Templeton, a pupil at Aikman

School, received the grand prize award of $10. Cash prizes of $5 each went to the winners at each school.

They were Salvador Gonzales, son of the Julio Gonzales, at Central; Bethany Boyd, whose parents are the Bobby Boyds, at Bluebonnet; Karen Copen, daughter of the Ed Copen, at Northwest; Debra Perez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armando Perez, St. Anthony's.

Also Carol Hinojosa, daughter of the Mike Hinojosa, Shirley School; Steven Vaughn, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Vaughn, Tierra Blanca; Barbie Koelzer, the Werner Koelzers' daughter, Aikman.

Emphasis will be placed during the week on cleanup and beautification of neighborhoods. Climax of the week will come Friday, which is Arbor Day in Texas, with tree-planting ceremonies conducted by the Chamber of Commerce beautification groups.

Trees will be set on the grounds of Kings Manor retirement home, Hereford Day Care Center and Shirley School. In addition, families are asked to set trees in their own yards on this day, or at other times during the week.

New Map Highlights Hereford

Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce and Deaf Smith County Museum are among 74 attractions and points of interest featured in the new "Wonderful West Texas" Fun and Adventure Map just released by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The publication describes the local museum as "historical museum emphasizing pioneer life. Exhibits of farming and ranching industries—Santa Fe Railroad, photographs, reconstructed dugout."

Under the heading "Hospitalable, Hustlin' Hereford," the map credits the town as a "center of agriculture and cattle feeding industry, packing plants, irrigation, grains, vegetables, seeds, fertilizer, health foods, sugar beet refining, friendly people."

The main objective of the Fun and Adventure Map project is to sell West Texas as a vacation region within itself. The publication does this by showing the prospective visitor that there are points of interest and things to do and see in abundance throughout West Texas, and that a route can be planned to hold driving time and distance to a minimum and, at the same time, include more than enough attractions to guarantee an interesting and most enjoyable vacation or weekend outing.

"The full-color Fun and Adventure Map, which locates each attraction on a specially prepared highway map, is the only tourist oriented publication dedicated to the 132 counties of West Texas" according to Burvin Hines, Chairman of the WTCC Tourist and Travel Development Committee. "and it will serve as the foundation of the organization's efforts to assist in increasing visitor traffic to West Texas."

Hines, Senior Vice President of the First National Bank in Arlington, went on to say that "the publication will enable the WTCC to answer many inquiries developed as a result of the state's national advertising program and provide a vehicle enabling prospective visitors to be reached with areawide information on a volume basis". He related, "that another important factor achieved by this promotional effort will be the effect it has in uniting towns and attractions throughout the entire region in an all-out effort to increase the share West Texas receives of the potential visitor dollar."

The Fun and Adventure Map project entails a total program of distribution including the Texas Highway Department Information Centers, travel shows, travel bureaus of major oil companies, by the participants and by use of direct mailings. The map will be free to the traveling public.

More than 100,000 Fun and Adventure Maps were printed. The publication is divided into three main areas of interest including attractions and areas of interest, museums and colleges and universities.

"It is our thinking that many families on vacation will include young people considering where they will go to continue their education and, while in West Texas, many will have the opportunity to visit one or more of our 42 fine colleges, universities and technical schools," said Hines.

"Some of the colleges also have superb tourist attractions, such as, the Museum of the Big Bend at Sul Ross, The Ranch Museum at Texas Tech and the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum on the Campus of West Texas State University in Canyon," he related.

Packing Requires Close Attention

BY JANIS LOCKHART
Brand Staff Writer

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the fourth part of a nine-part series involving the problems of moving one's family to another town. This article deals mainly with suggestions for packing in preparation to move.)

There are several ways to prepare to move. The most effective one is to take each room and carefully place everything in the closets, dresser drawers, book cases and other furniture just as the owner wants them moved. Dresser drawers are usually just taped shut therefore, everything is already safely put away.

Watch to see that the movers mark each box as to which room it came from and insist that they do not combine objects from two rooms into one box, unless this is the way it is wanted for the new home.

THE MOVERS have a check list on which they mark any defect in furniture. This should be double-checked by the client. If one cracked plate is put with several good ones, the package will still be marked cracked if overlooked. This usually happens when one is not selective about who moves the furniture.

Remove all trash as it has been known to arrive carefully packed at the new destination.

Always be there when things are being packed and if there are some clothes which will be needed during or after moving make sure they are put out of reach of the packers. It is extremely hard to manage on one outfit for three to six days until other things arrive.

NEVER FORGET packers of articles in the attic and/or basement, tool shed, garbage, and any other storage place. But in these places also, everything needs to be packed just as one wants them delivered.

It is not the movers fault if a box is brought in to unpack and it contains a coffee pot that still has coffee and the coffee grounds in it.

Cattle Feeder's Woe ... Is Shopper's Windfall

The cattle feeding industry is experiencing its most severe financial crisis in history, but while it is losing there is a buyers' market at the meat counter.

April and early May will be the best time in the foreseeable future to take advantages of lower beef and pork prices, according to Texas Tech University agricultural economist Willard F. Williams.

Producers are the heavy losers, Williams said. "Lower prices in the face of high feed costs and other costs have led to severe losses for cattle feeders, losses ranging from $50 to as much as $200 per head," he said.

"The total loss to the industry over the past six months probably ranges between $700 million and $1 billion," according to Williams who is a noted market analyst.

THE SMART SHOPPER. he said, will look for the better cuts of beef and may even find that meat is a better bargain than combination dishes.

Specials and general prices will not be as attractive as they were in earlier years, but they will represent advantages over prices which may be expected for much of the remainder of the year, the professor said.

Beef cattle supplies brought about by marketing difficulties, shipping problems and reduced demand for beef have created a temporary surplus which favors current prices, he said.

"THE BEEF INDUSTRY is one which operates solely on the laws of supply and demand," said Williams. "Repercussions from the consumer boycott of beef a year ago are still being felt throughout the beef industry and will continue to be felt for some time."

At the time of the boycott, retail prices had been affected by an earlier sharp rise in demand and a winter which had been extremely severe for cattle producers. A synthetic growth hormone was banned from use, which, combined with the effects of the severe winter resulted in a temporary shortage of slaughter sized cattle, Williams explained.

Following the boycott, market supplies continued short but wholesale and retail prices were held down by price ceilings. Meat packers were so severely affected that many closed their plants during August. The shutdown occurred at just the time that cattle began to reach market weight, he said.

A huge backlog of cattle on feed developed quickly and met with a decline in consumer demand. Producer prices began trending lower in September and, except for a brief rise early in the year, have continued almost steadily lower since that time.

"The cattle feeding industry now is experiencing the most severe financial crisis in history," he said.

Cattle feeders were beginning to make progress toward reduced supplies of heavy and excessively finished cattle when the trucking strike was last February. This produced additional surpluses and even lower producer prices, according to Williams.

"Retail beef prices dropped during the fall but not nearly so much as producer prices. They rose sharply again with the upturn in producer prices early in the year and even more during the trucking strike," Williams said.

"MORE RECENTLY, producer prices have been trending lower and should continue lower. A current backlog of cattle on feed is mainly responsible for temporarily better prices which we now can enjoy," he said.

"But under the current supply of marketable cattle is a reduced supply of cattle to replace them which again will briefly cause prices to rise from May through much of the summer." Surplus cattle which meat packers are unable to move causes them to cut back on buying. This causes backlogs in feedlots which causes them to cut back on buying. And this causes cattle raisers to cut back on the number of cattle they produce because they cannot sell them, Williams explained.

"Variations in supply and demand take time to level off in beef production," Williams said. "The marketing system is fragile and slow to recover from disruptions."

"Another trucking strike has been threatened for May 13. If it takes place and lasts for any length of time, it could cause further upsets in the cattle industry which will be felt for some time," he said.

"Marketing problems, higher production prices and inflation in general have been responsible for losses of more than $700 million in the cattle industry in the last six months. These losses have been felt from the farmer through the meat packer and have been reflected in higher retail prices," Williams said.

"The consumer usually sees only higher prices in the grocery store and understandably is upset. Inflation is making food take a greater portion of the family budget and consumers are seeking ways to make their food dollar go farther," Williams said.

CONSUMERS are buying less beef and seeking economical foods. Casseroles are one solution which may not be as economical as the consumer thinks, according to the professor.

"The consumer should look carefully at the cost of the contents for a casserole and compare them with meat costs. There are many instances where meat will be a better buy," Williams said. To help stabilize the beef industry and eventually lower beef costs, the consumer should buy beef. Buying beef now will help relieve the current excess of beef available. Tolerating higher prices during the predicted shortage and creating a market for beef will cause production to be increased. Increased production will help to lower prices again, Williams said.

Cancer Seminar Planned

A combined meeting of the Extension Service and the Cancer Society met Wednesday to discuss the seminar that will be held in Amarillo, May 1, at the Hilton Inn.

The seminar will begin at 9:30 a.m. and adjourn at 4 p.m. Lunch will be served at noon followed by visiting with the speakers and other representatives.

There will be a slide presentation on Cancer, a discussion on "Research and Hope for the Future" by H.J. Saman, M.D. and a film, "The Lynn Helton Story" by Dr. A.B. Goldston will be the moderator for "Cancer Diagnosis and Treatment".

Panel presentation will be conducted by Don T. Curtis, DDS; Donald Kuxhausen, radiation; Lee Harris, M.D., chemotherapy; Walter E. Dickinson, M.D., surgery; and "By Combination of These Modes of Treatment," by Dr. Goldston.

A question and answer session by the panel will be conducted after the program.

The attendance goal for the seminar is 700 and the committee asks that each participant obtain and fill out a registration form, and make plans for attending this seminar.

"One of the wonderful things about this seminar, is that after attending you will find that the information you obtain will relieve so many of your fears," said Mrs. Tom Draper, Extension Chairman.

"Everyone is asked to make plans to attend and become educated in all aspects of the prevention and detection of cancer," she said.

Registration forms can be obtained from Mrs. Draper or mail name, address, city, state, county, number of people attending and registration fee of $3 to Sue Farris, District Extension Agent, P.O. Box 9198, Amarillo, Texas, 79105, by April 23.

Checks should be payable to the Panhandle Economic Program.

Jim Tucker, president of the local chapter of the Cancer Association, announced that their committee would meet Friday at the Country Club to discuss plans for attending this seminar.

Clovis Invites Volleyball Teams

The Clovis Lions Club requests local volleyball teams to participate in an invitational tournament May 6-11 in Clovis at Gattis Junior High School gymnasium.

The entry deadline is this Wednesday with a required entry fee of $10. Those interested in participating should send the team's name, team captain and a mailing address to Arcenia Hill, 617 John Doe, Clovis, N.M. 88101.

Entrants can also call in this information by dialing 1-505-762-4219.

Getting someone else to do your work is the recipe for success.

The will to live is the important factor in determining the lifespan of man.

SELECTED AS
The attention of Noon Lions Club was directed to Mrs. Betty Oglesby, who was named teacher of the six weeks by Jim Hale. The honor is based on her knowledge of and ability to teach accounting. Recognized as students of the six weeks were Terry Hetzel and Kim Young who were selected for scholastic achievement and good citizenship. Both honors are chosen by the National Honor Society at Hereford High School.

Letters To The Editor

We the undersigned wish to express, publicly, our thanks to Judge Williams and the members of the County Commission for approving the use of the Big Bull Barn for the celebration of the Fiestas Patrias for 1974.

Their understanding of the meaningfulness of this celebration to the great number of Mexican-Americans in Deaf Smith County and surrounding communities is deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,
Fortunato Tijerina and Nacho Esqueda

WHO DO YOU WANT TO REPRESENT YOU IN YOUR COUNTY GOVERNMENT???

JOE ZINSER believes your County Government is very important - important to each and everyone. He believes those who spend YOUR money owe to you the greatest obligation to get the most for you for your Dollar, and to save you all the tax money possible!

If you want a Commissioner in PRECINCT 2 with this philosophy, who will be your dedicated servant, and who has the same interests you have in the business affairs of your Precinct and your County - consider casting your VOTE for JOE ZINSER, Saturday, May 4, 1974

BE SURE YOU VOTE ! ! ! ! !

WHO IS JOE ZINSER ? ? ? ? ?

JOE ZINSER was born to the family of Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Zinser in 1936, and has spent all of his adult life here in Deaf Smith County, Texas.

JOE ZINSER as a young man, worked for the County of Deaf Smith as a Maintainer-Operator on the County roads in the years 1957 and 1958. He presently owns his own maintainer and thoroughly understands road maintenance. He learned to work as a young man and has never gotten away from it.

JOE ZINSER started his farming operations as a Tenant-Farmer in 1959. By the 'sweat of his brow' from hard work, he earned his present success as a landowner. HE KNOWS THE VALUE OF A DOLLAR!

JOE ZINSER has always been active in organizations representing farmers and has served on a number of farm organization Boards. He has always stood up for RIGHTS of the Citizens, and he has undertaken to represent them and speak for them in important matters - and to eliminate DISCRIMINATION and MISTREATMENT to them in High Places!

JOE ZINSER enjoys the respect for honesty, diligence, frugality and hard work from all who know him. These characteristics, he believes, are necessary for the qualifications for YOUR Commissioner!

He knows the needs of your Precinct - the value of your Dollar - the importance of careful consideration to the spending of your money - how to obtain the most for the least amount for your benefit - and how to make your tax Dollar do for you, as Commissioner, as you and he have learned to make it do in your private business and farming operation.

JOE ZINSER has a unique characteristic of being able to cooperate and get along with his neighbors, those with whom he does business, those he has worked for, and those he works with!

JOE ZINSER is the father of two sons. He seldom misses Church on Sunday.

HE IS NOT SPONSORED BY ANY 'CLIQUE' OR ANY INDIVIDUAL!

He will represent all Citizens of his Precinct. All citizens can talk to him at any time about any problem and he will welcome suggestions from everyone. He is independent and is an independent thinker!

JOE ZINSER believes in Hereford and this area! And as a Stockman-Farmer, will work for the growth and for the benefit of his City and His County!

JOE ZINSER is a Democrat. He, his family, and his friends, will appreciate your consideration, your help, your support and your Vote! He is trying to see as many of you, personally, as possible, and if he misses you, it is not intentional - he does want and seeks your vote!

Girls' Track Earns 4th

Hereford High School placed fourth in the I-AA District Girls Track Meet Friday at West Texas State University in Canyon.

Gussie Sanders earned a chance to compete in the regional meet by placing second in the 100 yard dash.

Also running at the contests were girls from both local junior high schools. However they were not judged on a point system like the high school competitors.

Gussie Sanders, 80 yd. Hurdles, 4th place—Renee Payne; 880 yd. relay, 4th place—Renee Payne, Tami Lawson, Terry Hetzel and Debbie Albright; Mile Relay, 6th place—Patti Robbins, Laurie Fishar, Charlotte Fishar and Beverly High.

Also vying were Melinda Watts and Jean Barber.

LA PLATA girls received these honors:

440 dash, 1st place—Suzanne Duvall, time 65.0; Shot put, 2nd place—Suzanne Duvall; 440 relay and 880 relay, 3rd place—Shari Straffuss, Grace Abalos, Shirley Wheeler and Suzanne Duvall, time 54.0 and 2:00.0; Long Jump, 5th place—Shari Straffuss and 6th place—Grace Abalos.

Also competing were Mick Merritt and Beverly Bell.

REPRESENTING Stanton were:

60 yd. dash, 4th place—Judy Wright; 100 yd. dash, 4th place—Judy Wright and 5th Yolanda Chavez; 220 yd. dash, 3rd place—Karen Fox; 440 yd. relay, 4th place—Judy Wright, Yolanda Chavez, Pam Bradford and Carolyn High; Mile Relay, 3rd place—Karen Fox, Renee Inman, Carolyn High, and Rosemary Moya; 880 yd. relay, 4th place—Karen Fox, Renee Inman, Leisa Jones and Rosemary Moya.

Boeing Rolls Out 1,000th 727

The 1,000th Boeing 727 Trijet was recently rolled out of the company's Seattle-area factory, 11 years after the first of the T-tailed airliners was unveiled. When the first 727 was being constructed in 1962, market forecasters were predicting eventual sales of up to 300 aircraft. To date, 1,093 have been ordered by 54 airlines throughout the world. (Insignia of these airlines can be seen on the side of the plane.) They have flown an estimated 6,037,830,000 miles and have carried approximately 551 million passengers.

Medicines Needed

Water Ross, writing in last month's "Reader's Digest," reports that the Food and Drug Administration is so slow in approving newly-developed drugs millions of Americans in need of these new drugs must wait and continue to suffer for years while patients in other countries are finding relief through their use.

FDA officials defend their system, which everyone agrees is bureaucratic and slow, by pointing to tragedies which have occurred when drugs not sufficiently tested were allowed on the market. And of course this a valid argument, up to a point. The trouble with the U.S. system is that Congress, after the thalidomide tragedy in Europe, passed a tough new law (1962) requiring, for the first time anywhere, that new drugs be proven not only safe but effective, before being allowed on the market.

This "effective" requirement sounds good and is intended to protect the public but it has been found that proving a new drug effective often takes years, to document with clinical certainty.

Whitefaces Break Chain

Hereford broke a ten-game losing streak Friday, defeating the Coronado Mustangs 9-7 in Lubbock in the first game of a double-header.

The ponies returned for the second battle and scored a 12-1 victory.

The Whitefaces maintained an 8-3 edge after the first inning of the first game. Coronado was credited with a 3-0 lead after making a two-run single. But Hereford retaliated, collecting eight runs on nine hits in the bottom half of the inning.

The sixth inning saw Lubbock's efforts rally by scoring four runs after two were out. Again, the Herd bounced back in the bottom of the inning when first baseman Steve Loerwald doubled and scored on a single by his brother Dave Loerwald.

In the second contest, Coronado again stole a quick lead in the first inning, but this time the faces did not recover. Coronado player Bill Eady tossed a three-hitter in the six-inning game and picked up his third win of the year.

In the top of the first, centerfielder Joe Barnhart led off with a single, stole second and went to third on a throwing error. He scored on Tommy Smith's single and then first baseman Kelly Utley clobbered his first home run of the season to score Smith in front of him.

Hereford's single run came in the bottom of the fourth inning when shortstop Harvey Torres led off with a single to left. He advanced to third on a single and scored on an error by left-fielder Brad Neugent. The Mustangs marked nine more runs to insure the victory.

The Bootleg Philosopher

"Now that no American soldier is engaged in military combat action anywhere in the world, we wonder what the protestors will use for ammunition in their next demonstrations? It would be a novel turn of events that for lack of something to gripe about they might have to protest against their own demonstrations." ROSHOLT, S.D., REVIEW

"It's an ill wind, etc. The government decision to clamp controls on the distribution of propane gas, to be followed by rationing of heating oil, together with predictions of severe fuel shortages anyway if it's a hard winter, have caused a boom in sales of oldtime, wood-burning stoves. 'It's unbelievable,' says a spokesman for one large manufacturer, who says he already has more orders on file than he can possibly fill. Ben Franklin's fireplace, which always was an efficient heater has been considered mostly a decorator item for lo, these many years, is also enjoying a comeback. The phenomenon raises the question, of course, of where everybody is going to get the wood to burn in all these stoves, not to mention the effects on air pollution. But one problem at a time, please." SOMERSET, KY., COMMONWEALTH JOURNAL

"It is small wonder that international problems are so great when you consider the generation gap, the communications gap, the hassles over national issues, dissension in our churches, on our streets and between neighbors where there isn't even a language barrier. The real wonder is that the world is in as good shape as it is!" GENESEO, ILL., REPUBLIC

"Every time they reorganize some phase of the Postal Service the service seems to get worse. One of the big deals was centralizing mail to the big centers, taking away the mail from smaller, more efficient offices. This hasn't helped much—except passing the buck clear out of everybody's reach." ABILENE, KANS., REFLECTOR-CHRONICLE

"Some fear that in the not-distant future people will stop asking, 'What is happening to the dollar?' and start asking, 'What happened to the dollar?'" COVINGTON, TENN., LEADER

"Many things in our life-style will be changed if and when gas rationing goes into effect. One industry that has been booming will feel a tremendous pinch, that being the far-flung and many-faceted industry of tourism. With airlines cutting back flights, and with the threatened shortage of gasoline, diesel fuel etc., it makes you wonder if you'll see a resurgence of rail travel with the reappearance of the steam locomotive. This may be impractical, but it may come to pass as we explore alternate means of travel rather than jumping into the gas gulping, high powered family auto, and zoom 70-80 miles an hour over 4-lane highways. We may still be able to go places, but it may be at a much slower pace." OZARK, ALA., SOUTHERN STAR

"It matters not whether you are a policeman, housewife, or what; without the death penalty you can easily lose your life to the gunman or knife-wielder, for he can kill you without in the least endangering his own life. The gunman who said: 'There's no death penalty now, so I got nothing to lose.' displayed more wisdom than all the over-educated intellectuals who claim the death penalty is no deterrent against murder." KERMIT, TEXAS, WINKLER COUNTY NEWS

"Whatever happened to our free enterprise system? Uncle Sam is knocking the legs out from under it for one thing. The old American way dictates that all citizens have the freedom to pursue their interests and fortunes. Our free enterprise system also has meant that if a person found a way to do something faster, cheaper, more efficiently or in any manner which was more acceptable to the consumer, then that way was the successful one and others fell by the wayside. That is still a pretty good system, but it is not good enough or strong enough to buck the government. That is proven in the federal government and also in the state government with its various price fixing laws of late. It really is bad to have a corporate monopoly, but it is a thousand times worse to have a government one. The citizens just have no recourse it seems when the government itself is the violator of individual rights." ST. EDWARD, NEBR., ADVANCE

Rising Postal Rate Prompts Controversy

By BERT MILLS
FEW PEOPLE except historians, lawyers and commercial mail users ever heard of the Private Express Statutes but they affect almost everybody because they give the Postal Service a monopoly on the delivery of letters and that monopoly explains why it will cost 10 cents to mail a letter starting March 2.

The first Private Express Statute was enacted by the Second Congress 182 years ago. It prohibited private delivery of any "letter or letters, packet or packets (packages of letters), other than newspapers." Back in 1972, letters and newspapers were the only types of mail permitted.

Rationale for the law was to protect postal revenues by giving the government a monopoly on letter mail. In pioneer days, there were entrepreneurs who operated private delivery services and it was felt necessary to keep them from undercutting the Post Office Department.

In 1974, Congress expanded the newspaper exemption to include "magazine or pamphlets." Despite many refinements and codifications, that is still the law today. Even after the Post Office Department became the Postal Service, the General Counsel issued an opinion in 1972 that said: "So far as we are aware, newspapers and magazines have never officially been determined to be letters within the meaning of the Private Express Statutes."

To a layman, it seems absurd that anyone would consider a newspaper to be a letter, but don't underrate the ingenuity of judges and lawyers. Only last year a U.S. Court of Appeals ruled that "addressed newspapers, shopping guides, and magazines are letters within the meaning of the Private Express Statutes." And now the Postal Service has adopted that same theory in a proposed rule interpreting those Statutes.

AS POSTAL RATES have risen steeply in the recent past, private delivery services have made serious inroads on the Postal Service. More than half of the package business the government used to handle has now been diverted to United Parcel Service, a private company which gives better service at lower prices than Uncle Sam.

Millions of pieces of what would be third class mail if sent through the government mail service are now delivered privately, at lower cost than if mailed. One private firm delivered Christmas cards at 5 cents each instead of 8 cents if mailed, and was sued by the letter carrier's union, with U.S.P.S. joining in the action.

As a result of all this, two bills are pending in the House to repeal the Private Express Statutes and end the monopoly the Postal Service enjoys. Hearings on these proposals were held by a House subcommittee last year. Naturally, the Postal Service is opposed to the whole idea.

Instead, the Postal Service proposes to extend its monopoly by regulation but has agreed to defer final action pending Congressional study. However, as recently as Jan. 29, 1974, a former Chairman of the Postal Rate Commission testified before a House subcommittee that he favors repeal of the Private Express Statutes. Another postal expert, now a private consultant after a lifetime in the Post Office, replied that ending the monopoly would be "catastrophic."

THE ARGUMENT for ending the postal monopoly is that this is the only way to keep mail rates from going out of sight. If mailers had an alternative, confiscatory rates could be avoided. The Postal Service would have to be competitive in its prices and services or lose the business to those willing and able to deliver Christmas cards within a community for a nickel instead of a dime.

The argument against ending the postal monopoly is that public policy demands that mail service be available to everybody everywhere, and at the same price. Private carriers would serve only metropolitan areas, thus skimming the cream off the top, leaving the expensive deliveries to Uncle Sam, thus adding to annual losses due to decreased volume and continued high costs.

It will take a Solomon to reach a proper decision. The public is up in arms against ever-increasing rates for mail service. Obviously postal reorganization has neither succeeded nor given promise of future success. Congress should probe deeply into the whole question and come up with a solution.

Emergency Energy Bill No Cure

By LLOYD BENTSEN
U.S. Senate

The so-called emergency energy bill is an example of a cure that is worse than the disease.

It is a hastily contrived, ill-conceived administrative nightmare that would compound our energy troubles by strangling the national effort to achieve energy self-sufficiency—and I voted against it.

Rewritten five times amidst a political furor, the 100-page, 40-section bill has glaring administrative, procedural, and environmental defects.

It establishes an agency to handle energy programs, but doesn't give it proper authority. It entangles energy conservation programs in a confusing amalgam of procedures which open the door to bureaucratic bungling. The country deserves well thought out and carefully constructed legislative proposals which deal individually with the problems that this bill addresses in a collective, haphazard fashion.

BUT THE most serious defect in the measure is a provision written in haste and with high emotion that rolls back the price of domestically produced crude oil.

This provision may be good politics, but it is very bad economics. It addresses a legitimate problem of great public concern—oil prices that are too high. It is very bad economics because it addresses the wrong oil prices—domestic, not foreign.

After all, what is it that allowed the Arabs and others to triple and quadruple the price of oil in a year's time? The answer is very simple. They have what everyone else in the world needs—oil.

IF WE COULD speed up the development of our own domestic sources of energy, we could loosen the hold of foreign oil upon us.

But, ironically, for the last decade, almost everything has been done to bring American production down. A rollback in domestic oil prices would only accelerate that dangerous trend. How is the rollback on the price of domestic crude oil going to help us find substitutes for imported oil? How is it going to help us get the marginal fields and the deep wells drilled? How is it going to make gasification of coal and production of shale oil economically feasible? This rollback provision would effectively destroy the incentive to explore and develop more oil in this country.

And the proposed rollback provision would not accomplish the 4c a gallon reduction in gasoline prices claimed by its backers.

SINCE THE rollback would apply only to new domestic oil production and production from marginal wells, it affects but 2.3 million out of the 17.5 million barrels of petroleum being used in this country every day—1/3 of the supply. At most, the action would mean a reduction of one-cent-a-gallon.

Even if the rollback provision did accomplish a slight savings, what good would it be to lower the price of gasoline, if none is available?

The irony of this rollback provision is that it falls far more heavily on independent producers already committed to domestic production than upon the major oil companies who have vast overseas investments.

INDEPENDENT producers have consistently drilled over 3/4 of the domestic wells in unproven areas. They are the ones who find the new domestic oil, and they are the ones who operate the stripper wells in our marginal fields. It is paradoxical to me, when we are talking about self-sufficiency in energy in this country, and trying to develop it once again, that we would penalize domestic oil production and put the incentives in overseas production.

I voted against the emergency energy bill because it is a self-defeating measure that will hurt, not help, efforts to end the energy shortage. Americans expect sound, responsible action in the face of this shortage. The emergency energy bill does not live up to those expectations.

Talk Of Texas

TALK OF TEXAS
By Jack Maguire

FOOTNOTE TO HISTORY—A Texan once proved that is isn't necessary to have a locomotive in order to run a railroad.

He was William T. Scott, a Harrison County planter and businessman. In 1860, he got a charter for the Texas Western Railroad, forerunner of the present Texas & Pacific. The terms of the charter required that the line must have rails laid from Marshall to Swanson's Landing and rolling stock in operation by a specified date. Failure to meet the deadline meant that the coveted charter would be lost.

Scott got the track laid on time, largely by working his crews almost night and day. The locomotive he had ordered, however, failed to arrive in time and it appeared that the railroad would lose its charter. Scott solved the problem by hitching a yoke of oxen to a load of freight and hauling it to Swanson's Landing. Since the charter failed to specify that the motive power had to be a steam locomotive, Scott's ruse worked.

IT'S A FACT — In 1930, when residents of Hartley County decided to move the county capital from Hartley to Channing, they did exactly that.

Cowboys from the XIT Ranch put wheels under the frame courthouse and moved it from Hartley to Channing, a distance of more than a dozen miles. It served three more years as the seat of county government, then was moved again and used for several more years as a hotel.

TEXANS AT WORK — Horace

Carter, who is 65, locates underground water by using a pair of one-quarter inch brass welding rods about three feet long. He pokes the antennae-like rods from his chest and walks over the soil until the rods begin to twitch and pull downward. When he no longer can hold the rods by force, he marks the spot as the site for a well.

Unlike most "water witches," Mr. Carter charges nothing for his services. He discovered his unique power to find water when he was only 11. Since then, he has "witched" water wells throughout West Texas and New Mexico.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS — When San Antonio's city government asked for bids in 1914 for a new car for its plumbing inspector, it got one for less than a decade-old used car would bring today.

The dealer who sold Prestige Grant Roadsters agreed to deliver the latest model with this optional equipment: A speedometer registering up to 60 miles an hour, a mohair top, a non-rotting windshield that folded down when it wasn't needed and a complete electrical system (starter, horn, headlights and a tail light).

The price, delivered, was $422.50.

REYNARD BEWARE! — Fox hunting is the newest sport to come to Texas.

For an initiation fee of $250 and monthly dues of $10, members of a Dallas-based club can ride to their halls over a 5,000 acre tract south of Denton.

Cancer Drive Continues

Sixteen members of the local chapter of the Cancer Association met Friday at the Country Club, and gave reports on their progress in the Cancer Crusade.

Jim Tucker, president, presided over the meeting and announced that the DSC Chapter had received the Crusade award for the work that has already been done.

An announcement was made that the cancer films have been shown to all schools and posters have been put in all doctors' offices and at the hospital.

Tucker explained the seminar that will be held in Amarillo, May 1 at the Hilton Inn and urged all members to pick up their registration forms for themselves and friends at the County Court House.

The local chapter now has eight new board members, Mrs. Lynn Kester, Mrs. Katy Kendal, Gene Brink, Mrs. Alma Scott, Mrs. Dennis Lomas, Mrs. Virgil Marsh, Mrs. LaVon Boyer, and Mrs. Genevieve Guseman.

For the local area crusade, the residential total is way below the goal, the businesses are already above their goal and there is little doubt that the rural areas will reach theirs in the very near future.

Charles Wagner explained, "If we can go over last year's total of $13,200, we will receive the Golden Achievement Award, and there shouldn't be any trouble of doing this."

"It would only take 36 cents per capita to reach this and above, if everyone will just give in the residential area."

Tentative plans have been made for a Bike-A-Thon in May. This will be a 20 mile ride to raise money for this Cancer Crusade. There will be entry forms through the schools and should interest all children. Information on this will be available at a later date.

The total for the crusade to date amounted to over $11,000.

Tucker announced that the next meeting of the local chapter will be held May 17 and will be their annual meeting, which will be held at noon at the Country Club; just as the monthly meeting.

Here's How

BEEF

Is Best

TASTY BRISKET ROAST

Mrs. Lloyd Shultz
Remove all fat from a 5 or 6-pound brisket roast and put the meat in a large piece of aluminum foil.

Dump over it a small can of jalapeno peppers and a large can of red enchilada sauce, nothing else.

Close tightly and cook very slowly, 225 or 250 degrees, overnight for about 8 hours.

To use leftover roast, here is a somewhat different way to combine it with vegetables:

ROAST BEEF SOUP

Mrs. Wake Northcutt

Cut leftover roast/beef in small pieces. Prepare carrots, onions, celery and potatoes.

Put all in a large pot and cover vegetables with water. Add a package of beef stew seasoning and cook until vegetables are tender.

CORRECTION

In Mrs. Weslie Owen's recipe for enchilada casserole last Sunday, one part of the instructions was omitted. The recipe called for 1 can El Monterey sauce powder, and should have read, "mixed according to directions on the can" which call for water to be added.

SHOPLIFTERS

RALEIGH, N.C.—Dr. Darrell J. Steffensmeier, a North Carolina State University sociologist, and Dr. Robert M. Terry of the University of Akron, have concluded that a well-groomed shoplifter is less likely to be turned in than an unkempt one dressed in blue jeans.

DETROIT—General Motors Corp. has reported record 1973 earnings, but said profits in the final three months were down from the previous year because of the gasoline shortage scare and higher labor costs.

Pack Runs

Pack 51 met in St. Anthony's School Auditorium, Tuesday where the main attraction was the Pinewood Derby.

Arrangements were made to have a day's outing on Saturday May 11 to Camp Don Herrington for a family meeting. This will be the last pack meeting until in the fall. They will leave Hereford at 9 a.m. and before coming home will have a wiener roast.

Den 3 went recently to Northwest Printing Co. to see how a paper is printed and witnessed the printing of the local paper.

The Brand

The flag ceremony was presented by Den 3. Den 4 gave the skit, "Charlie, the Tuna". The theme for the month was "Sea Adventures."

Jeffrey Bussey and Jerry Baker received wolf badges and earned a gold arrow. Craig Jones was awarded the definer bar and a silver arrow.

Two silver arrows went to Jimmie Laymann and Keith Birdwell; Brent Wyly, Charlie Torres, Ernesto Reyes and Joe Salcedo each received one silver arrow.

The Test Is The Thing

Uterine cancer deaths were cut in half in 30 years after the Pap test helped doctors detect the disease early and treat it promptly. To develop more life-saving tests and treatments, support your American Cancer Society.

Arthritis Panel Invites Public

A panel of noted persons from the medical field will present an informative discussion on Arthritis, Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium of Littlefield High School, 130 W. 10th.

Dr. Wm. A. Riley, Rheumatologist of Big Spring, will begin the program with a discussion, "What Is Arthritis, What Can Be Done About It, and How We Can Live With It." Dr. Reley is a graduate of Baylor University College of Medicine and did post graduation medical work at City Memorial Hospital in Winston Salem, North Carolina. He also worked in the Fellowship Section of Rheumatology, Baylor University College of Medicine.

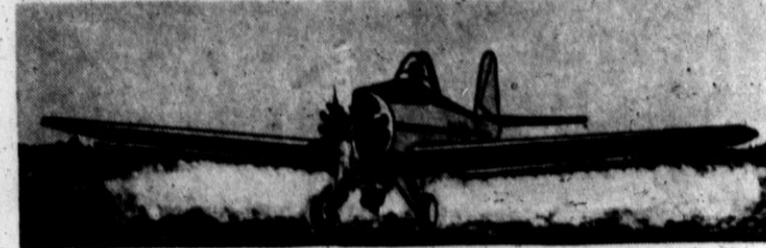

This portion of the program will be followed by "New Techniques in Surgery for Arthritis" presented by Dr. Kenneth Scholz, Orthopedic of Lubbock. Dr. Scholz also received much of his medical training at Baylor University Medical School.

The third portion of the program will be presented by a Medical Therapist on "Self-Help Methods of Therapy for Arthritis." A demonstration of a paraffin bath and other equipment will also be presented.

The public is urged to attend this free meeting sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the "Arthritis Foundation, West Texas Chapter.

"This is a really great opportunity for the people of this area to receive information on arthritis. The persons on this panel are experts and I hope everyone will try to attend," says County Extension Agent, Lynn Bowerman.

21 Teams To Play Here

Hereford Jaycee-Ettes will host 21 area volleyball teams Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Stanton Junior High for a tournament.

Five men's teams and 16 women's groups will vie for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place trophies provided by local firms. Nine communities will be represented at the tourney, which will include five Hereford teams.

Play will begin at 5:30 p.m. Thursday and Friday and at 4 p.m. Saturday with the championship games at 8:30 and 9:30 Saturday night.

An admission fee will be required of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

Supplying trophies will be Howard Gault Company, Owens

Cleaners, Plains Insurance Company and Hereford State Bank.

Those towns sending contestants will be Friona, Happy, Dimmitt, Vega, Umbarger, Walcott, Nazareth, and Muleshoe.

Golf Absorbs Young Stoerner

BY JANIS LOCKHART
Brand Staff Writer

Curtis Stoerner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Stoerner, placed sixth in the District with a golf total of 317. His average for the season was a 78.

Stoerner, a 6 ft. 1 in. sophomore held first position for the Hereford team through out the year.

Golf, for Curtis, is not a new sport. He started playing at age 7 and has not turned from it since. "My Pastor of the Church I go to taught his son and me when we were very young, and got me interested in the sport," said Curtis.

"I HAVE WON about 40 trophies, plaques and medals over the years and plan on playing in about 20 tournaments this summer.

Last summer I placed first in the Canyon and Friona tournaments fourth in the Muleshoe meet and second in another Friona tournament.

"I went to the Tournament of Champions in Odessa and had about 100 people watching and it is sure hard to get used to. I play on the Amateur Circuit and go on the Junior Tour each year, but this summer I would like to go to a golf school for a two weeks session.

"I have trouble keeping my mind on school when golf is so important, especially in fifth period when I'm thinking about golf."

Curtis has two more years of high school golf and then plans on going to college at either, Houston, Lake Forest or Arizona State.

STOERNER SAID, "I would sure like to turn pro after college. Golf is my only interest, and I've worked as an employee at the local golf course for three years, and then I can practice every day."

Curtis is not the only golfer in the Stoerner family. He has two older brothers, that share his interest. "Wayne went to Eastern New Mexico and won seventh in the N.A.I.A. and received a one year partial scholarship, and we have played in a few partnerships together," said Curtis.

"My parents are proud of what I am doing. Dad doesn't play golf, but he has come to watch me a couple of times and encourage me to keep on."

Youths Speak Out

Fifth and sixth graders at Bluebonnet Elementary School witnessed an informative presentation on the harmful effects of smoking tobacco Tuesday.

The program was given by seven local junior high students who attended a smoking seminar at West Texas State University earlier this year.

The speakers discussed the history of smoking tobacco in America, the cost of the habit in a lifetime and an average day of a cigarette smoker.

Bluebonnet pupils viewed pictures of a smoker's body organs compared to those of a non-smoker. Also, the amount of tar and nicotine deposited in the lungs from one cigarette was demonstrated with a mechanical smoking device.

A question and answer session concluded the program.

Appearing on the agenda were Rose Valdez and Donna Dawes from Stanton Junior High; Jan Reinauer, Terri Owens, Gracie Abalos, Scott Ward and Larry Watts from La Plata. Sponsoring the youths is Mrs. June Rudd, R.N.

The presentation was held as a part of the new peer non-smoking program, wherein informed youths spread their knowledge of smoking's harmful effects to other young people.

Auto layoffs spread to white-collar group.

Co-op Awards

$200 To Pope

Farmland Industries held their meeting recently at 'Dickie's Restaurant' to present awards to those boys for animal achievement.

Robert Pope, 17 and a junior at Hereford High School, was presented the Co-Op Animal Achievement Award for having the Grand Champion Barrow shown at the Houston Livestock Show.

Pope is the first winner of this high award in Hereford and along with the plaque was given a $200 check for a college scholarship.

The Champion Barrow was sold in Houston for $9,800. "It was hard selling the Champion after having worked with and shown him. You get attached to them," said Pope.

Tom Schlabs, 16, also a junior at HHS, was presented a plaque for having the Reserve Champion Poland China Barrow in Houston. The Reserve Champion sold for over $900.

"The Houston Show is the granddaddy of all shows," said Marcus Phillips, Ag teacher for the boys. "There were 1,255 pigs shown and we are very proud of these boys."

There is a ruling that prevents Pope from entering the show next year, but Schlabs will be able to participate, and does plan to.

Phillips accompanied Pope, Schlabs and 13 other boys to Houston.

Don Russell presented Pork Production Manuals to the boys present and to the school system. "This manual is new and just off the press," Russell said. "These pamphlets should be of great help to all boys interested in raising pigs."

Those present at the meeting were: Don Russell, Feed specialist for Farm Industries of Plainview; Joe Ortho, General Manager of Hereford Grain; Arthur Bentley, Feed Manager for Hereford Grain; Bill Cornett, General Manager of the Dawn Co-Op and Marcus Phillips.

Farmworkers

Hold Meeting

Tuesday

Llano Estacado Farmworkers of Texas and Chicanos Unidos - Campesinos, Inc. of Muleshoe will have a public meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday, at San Jose Mission Hall, to discuss, with the low income people of Hereford, the Food Stamp Program.

Everyone interested is invited to come. A complete program will be presented.

Honored For Barrow Showings

Robert Pope and Tom Schlabs, winners in the Barrow division at the recent Houston Livestock Show, were honored Thursday by Farmland Industries. WHY AM I RUNNING FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER?
At present, I am controlling my workhours, but still active with my own company, Griffin Industries, which includes oil well service, business consulting, and cattle feeding operations.

Now that I have the time, I would like to focus my experience and qualifications on serving the community in which I live. One of the most impressive characteristics of this area is the constant effort by everyone to prevent needless waste. People around here seem to get the most possible use out of everything. I think the county government should operate on the same principles, which are consistent with my experiences in the industrial, and oil industry. I sincerely feel that my professional training can be put to good use in helping the Deaf Smith County government operate as efficiently as possible.

WHAT ARE MY QUALIFICATIONS?
Although I have never been active in a government capacity, I have always felt, like most people, that government at any level is basically a business operation. With this view in mind, I can offer as qualifications my knowledge of finance, cost analysis, projected statements of operation, economic analysis, personnel relations and management. In addition, my extensive experience in maintenance and operation of all kinds of mobile heavy equipment can be applied effectively to the county's road building and maintenance operations.

In private enterprise, I have been able to use my knowledge and experience successfully, and feel certain that both will prove useful in providing sound, efficient government for the citizens of Deaf Smith County.

Students' Plans Reflect Class Mood

DONNIE MORGAN

BY JANIS LOCKHART
Brand Staff Writer

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following statements are from Hereford High School seniors who will graduate next month. Their plans for the future represent a cross-section of the current senior class. Each was asked about their present ambitions, views and their parents' responses.)

Donnie Morgan, 17, began, "Before joining the Army, I visited a college and found that college is just not for me. Later on, college may be what I want and if it is, the Army will send me."

Donnie has already been accepted by the Army and has passed his tests, but is on a delayed entry program of 180 days. "The Army calls this, six months to say goodbye," said Donnie.

"I'm proud of my country and if necessary, I'll fight for it. I don't surge am not going to run to Canada. When I come home from basic, I won't be like some guys and ashamed to wear my uniform. I'll wear it and be glad," Donnie said.

Donnie works for Southwest Feedyards and plans on working until time to report to Ft. Polk, La. After his basic, he will then report to Ft. Sill, Okla. for training.

ELEJIO GARCIA

Elijio Garcia, 18, responded, "I want to just stay around Hereford and work. My favorite subject in school is Building Trades and I want to be a bricklayer."

"There is a possibility that I have a job already, and it sounds like a good one. I would be set up here as a bricklayer for the summer and then maybe it would be permanent for next year."

Elijio added, "My senior year has been great, but it depends on how everything is going each day as to whether or not I'm ready to leave school. I kind of hate to finish, as I know it's going to be a cruel world out there. I'll tell you."

"THIS WAS MY first year to run track due to my knees being busted since the sixth grade, and the boys and coach have been great to me. School would be a lot better if there was more time for track and less government."

"This summer I hope to be able to go to Old Mexico for a visit where most of my relatives live, but other than that, I'll probably just stay around and work."

"Bricklayers make a good living and someday I'll get married, work and raise a family. My parents are satisfied with my choice for a future because I just am not interested in any more schooling as far as college goes."

DEBBIE HALE

Debbie Hale, 17, said, "I have known for a long time that I do not want to go to college. It wouldn't make any difference whether or not that I am planning on getting married; further education is not what I want."

"I am really anxious to get out of school, I'm just real tired of it. I really wish I had gone ahead and graduated at mid-term, but my parents felt that I should finish out the full year, since it is my last one."

"One reason that I want school to be over is probably because I haven't put much into it since I know I'm going to be married. If I had been active and real interested, it probably would be different."

"I'M GETTING married June 29, and that is all I'm planning on. I'll send out graduation announcements but that will be all I will do to prepare. The rest of the time I will just be finalizing my wedding plans."

"My parents would probably rather that I had planned on going to college, but they have accepted the fact of marriage and are helping me with my plans, which makes it nice."

"After marriage, I would like to talk to Mr. Hartman and see if I could substitute teach in some way next year. There are people who do this, and I think I would like to substitute for teachers."

KATHI BELL

Kathi Bell, 18, explained, "I'm really a little bit scared about leaving high school and my friends, and really scared about going to college. I'll try it out at Tech, as I have been accepted there, but I may decide that I want a smaller college."

"My major will be psychology. When I finish college I would like to be a child psychologist or a counselor. The first year I will only take basic courses and not get into my major until at least the second year."

"I have an older sister in Tech that I could share her apartment in town but I just don't know whether I will do that or stay in a dorm."

"THIS SUMMER, I hope to be a life guard before going to college as this is something that I like to do, but for now I am just enjoying my senior year. It is great. You have to be active to really enjoy school and I do."

"My parents are satisfied with what I am doing and helping me to get ready for college. I have to take my physical, get clothes ready and things like that."

"One of the problems I may have is learning to be independent and this is necessary when you are about to leave home and be on your own at a college. This kind of scares me, as I am not independent now."

O.H. SEAMANDS

O.H. Seamands, 18, said, "I am planning on going to Portland, Ore. Plans are not final but this is what I would like to do. At Easter, we went up and visited the college and it was great, lots to do, to see, and their counselor program is fantastic."

"At Portland, they have your first two years set up for you, as to what you will be taking, and then the next two years you go into your major and take the required subjects in that."

"I have thought that I would like to do something connected with law, but right now I really don't know for sure. It will probably be after the first two years that I know for sure."

"If anything happens that I don't get to go to Portland, I will probably end up going to Tech. We'll see."

"I'M READY to leave high school, I'll miss it, but I'm ready."

"I've lived away from home before, so I don't have any fears about going that far away. My parents are only concerned in whether I choose a good college or not."

"They liked Portland also, but if I end up going to Tech it will be good to still be close to home and the friends I have here."

The Texas Water Quality Board will hold a public hearing in Amarillo Thursday to consider an application by Howard Gault Company of Hereford for an amendment to waste control order for the discharge of industrial wastewater from a vegetable processing plant. The hearing will be held in Conference Room C of the Municipal Building starting at 10 a.m.

The applicant's operation is seasonal, normally having a discharge only during July and August. Water purchased from the City of Hereford is used to wash the vegetable and is recycled when possible. Dirty water containing some vegetable waste is discharged to a settling basin.

The treated industrial wastewater effluent will then flow to a new settling basin and be discharged into Tierra Blanca Creek, and then to Palo Duro Creek, the Prairie Dog Town Ford of the Red River, and the Red River.

The processing plant is located approximately 300 feet southeast of U.S. Highway 60 at the corner of New York and Sampson Avenues.

Interested parties are urged to attend the hearing and present any relevant information for the record.

Students Bring Home Ribbons

Local students that attend special classes in the satellite program participated in the Regional Special Olympics held recently at WTSU in the Activities Center.

Approximately 250 participants attended and were jointly sponsored by the Texas Association for Retarded Citizens and the Men's PE Majors Club at WT.

The results of the participants from 12 local public schools were: Jimmie Brownlow, 1st-25 yd. free swim; George Lindsey, 1st-25yd. dash; Kathy Warden, Royce Legates, and Ruben Adilez-2nd-300yd dash; Paula Cruz, 2nd-50 yd. dash; Paula Cruz, 2nd-Standing long jump; Beth Clark, 3rd-50 yd. dash; George Lindsey, 3rd-300 yd dash; Cruz Cordoro and Rosendo Nava, 3rd-Standing long jump.

Accompanying the students to the meet were: Gene Brock, Coach; Mrs. Robert Priest and Brenda DeGraff.

Local Needy Discussed At Red Cross Meeting

The Uniform Volunteers of the Deaf Smith County chapter of the American Red Cross gathered for lunch and a brief business session Thursday at K-Bob's Restaurant.

Jackson presided in the absence of Mrs. Emil Dettman, president. She reported that 77 hours of volunteer work had been completed since the group's last meeting.

The organization received a speech from R.C. Hoelscher, chairman of the Development of Human Resources. He told the seven members about the local needs requiring attention from the chapter.

Mrs. Genevieve Miller described the uniform volunteers as a group "functioning to raise morale" in times of individual or family stress.

"Our work is so extensive and multi-faceted that it is hard to describe our activities. They range from teaching classes to reading to the blind or just going to cheer the lonely," she said.

The chapter carries out work at Westgate and King's Manor particularly.

DIAMOND'S LIGHT
What would a diamond look like in total darkness? Without light, we wouldn't see. Without light, does a diamond exist? Of course. But my mood is philosophical as I pursue the nature of light and diamonds. To deny light is to deny life. The largest, flawless diamond without light is a lump. The diamond has nothing without light; no color, no brilliance, no scintillation... nothing. From across the room, a graceful hand moves in charming gesture and a flash of light is seen. A sigh escapes, a bosom rises and a scintilla captures the gaze. The brilliance traced in the air seems to come from deep within the diamonds worn. But it isn't a fire in the depths of the gem -- as the ancients believed -- it is light. Light that has been reduced, consolidated, rarified and then beamed back to dazzle the eye. What bedazzles the beholder isn't a happy accident. Diamonds come from the earth as muddy pebbles. To bring this lovely stone to a state of life, light and liveliness is a science and an art. The diamond cutter must possess the subtle knowledge of the crystalline structure of the stone. Each facet has a precise angle at which it must be placed. Light must not be allowed to leak out of the sides of the stone. To capture that rare beam, the cutter cuts and polishes with ultimate care. It is the cut which is of primary importance in grading a diamond. Clarity, color, and carat weight have their moment too but that all-important light can become trapped in the largest, clearest stones if badly cut. We here at Cowan Jewelers can be practical as well as philosophical on the subject of diamonds. We are trained jewelers, gemologists, members of the American Gem Society. See us for more light on our favorite subject, diamonds.

Bicycles

For Fun

.....For Work

PRACTICAL vehicles like these ridden to school by elementary pupils, or sports equipment for healthful exercise or pure entertainment, bicycles are seen more and more on Hereford streets each year. People of all ages are among the riders.

CARGO can be carried on Si G. Darling's useful three-wheeler, while Mrs. Darling prefers a more streamlined model as they enjoy a spin on a sunny day.

TOO YOUNG to pedal for themselves, small children like to ride with their parents. Mrs. Jerry Coker, above, takes son Clay in a backpack, where he often rides with his father also. Becky Black, at left, is big enough to ride in a rumble seat with her mother, Mrs. Gregory Black. Kim Edelman, below, has graduated to a bike of her own and is learning safety procedure from her mother, Mrs. Joe Don Edelman, and neighbor, Shannon Owsley.

The Sunday Brand

Section Two
Hereford, Texas, Sunday April 21, 1974

LEARNING to ride a bike is simpler if you have a few more wheels, the young man above agrees.

COMFORTS of home can add to the fun of bike riding, Benny Womble thinks, so he has installed lights fore and aft, and even a radio but not a TV — yet. His riding hat is also a "must" for this cyclist.

EVEN BEFORE bicycle riding became popular for adults in recent years, Frankie Ridgeway, right, found her wheel handy for errands around the city. Now plenty of other housewives have taken up the practice, like Mrs. Frank Bethune, who happened to be in the same part of town when The Brand camera was turned on bicycles this week.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

A HOME in East Africa may not be a prospect that appeals to everyone, but the Gene Meacham family at Dawn is looking forward to the experience of living in that exotic land. The young pastor of Dawn Baptist Church and his wife were lately notified of their selection to work as missionaries at Malawi.

That doesn't mean an immediate move, but they are due to leave late in the summer for Pine Ridge, Ga., for a period of orientation before going to their assigned mission station.

The Meachams have three small daughters, Sharon, Lori and Cheryl.

winners in the cleanup poster contest—and for that matter, to everybody who made a poster for the contest whether it won or not. There are a lot of attractive posters scattered around over town, reminding us all that we can do something to make the place more sightly. All of them really merit prizes.

However, it's a logical fact that not everybody in the contest can win, and a contest wouldn't be much fun if everybody did. All the elementary school girls and boys who went to the trouble of making a poster can have the satisfaction of knowing they've done something to help their town.

That's the only reward, actually, that anybody ever gets from public service, and it isn't too early for the younger generation to begin doing their share of public service.

PICTURES of bicyclists for the page in this issue of The Brand were snapped at various times the past week, and we're sorry they didn't all turn out well because we found many nice people willing to pose for us with their bikes. Several of the pictures were taken in late afternoon when the light was uncertain.

Especially I'm sorry about one of my shots, when I was drying on Avenue G and saw a couple of bikes upside down in the Roy Bells' driveway, and Amy and Heath Bell watching their dad working on one. That would have shown another side of the bicycling fashion.

Also, I appreciated very much that Ranea and Janea Pagett, Donna Mackey and Keith Phelps posed for me in a neighborhood gathering of cyclists, and down the street a piece, Billy Hester pedaled toward the camera on request.

PANHellenic BENEFIT DISPLAY SCHEDULED

The annual project of Amarillo Panhellenic to raise money for its scholarship fund, Tables, Elegantes will be presented from 1 to 6 p.m. next Saturday and Sunday in Amarillo Garden Center, 1400 Streit Drive.

Expressions Of Music And Poetry is the theme for this year's display. The public is invited; tickets priced at a dollar will be available at the door.

If everyone thought alike this would be a stagnant world.

Brides Is Club's Topic

Using dolls as models, Mrs. Glenn Reeve of Friona displayed replicas of White House bridal gowns she has made, to members of Hereford Study Club at their meeting Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. S.L. Garrison.

Using the books, White House Brides and White House Weddings, as part of her research material, Mrs. Reeve has studied the weddings which were performed at the U.S. presidents' residence and has done a short biography on each bride.

Following the program was the business meeting in which Mrs. T.E. Braddy spoke on the welfare report. Members decided to donate $100 to Hereford Day Care Center.

Serving refreshments with Mrs. Garrison was co-hostess, Gladys Setliff.

Members present were Mmes. Labry Ballard, Cawthon Bryant, Sam Long, Don Robinson, B.F. Cain, Art Story, Ed Wilson, C.R. Winget, R.N. Yarbrow, J.D. Gilbert and Melvin Thompson.

WEDDING PLANS ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. John Douglas Pitman announce the coming marriage of their daughter, Jaime Ruth, to Gary Ray Johnson of Pampa, son of Mr. and Mrs. R.O. Johnson. The wedding is planned for May 25 in United Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Roger B. Knapp officiating. Miss Pitman has attended the University of Oklahoma and Texas Tech. Preceding the wedding, a courtesy for the couple will be a dinner May 10 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sims, with Mr. and Mrs. F.H. King, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Brennan of Chickasha as other hosts to relatives and close friends.

Youth Program Leaders Heard

Attention was turned to youth programs in the Hereford community, as L'Allegre Study Club members heard two guest speakers Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Dennis Lomas. Next season's club project date was set and officers named in the business period.

Mrs. Melvin Hoover told the club of plans in the making by the youth committee of Deaf Smith Chamber of Commerce Women's Division. She is working now on a summer program for elementary school children, to be based at Community Center.

Other committee plans for older children, including those who wish summer employment, were outlined.

Need for the Big Brother-Big Sister program in Hereford, and of volunteers to carry it out, were discussed by Jo An Dwyer, director of that program which is new in this community. Many local children from broken homes, ranging in age from 6 to 16, need the friendship and guidance of adults, Mrs. Dwyer said.

She explained the duties of a Big Brother or Big Sister, adding that the only actual requirement is a meeting with the child at least once a week, whether for a half-hour or an entire day.

Next year's officers in the club will be headed by Mrs. Jim Carnahan as president, succeeding Mrs. Bobby Veigel who becomes parliamentarian. Mrs. Jerry Parker was named vice president, Mrs. Gerald G. Payne secretary, Mrs. Burns Hamilton correspondent.

Mrs. Hugh McCrary will be treasurer with Mrs. Cameron Gault as assistant, Mrs. Lewis Block reporter and Mrs. Dale Furr historian. Installation of these officers will be held at the May 16 meeting.

Dates for an antique show and sale, the club's major money-raising project, will be Nov. 2 and 3, members decided. This will follow the pattern of a similar show last fall and will be held again at Community Center.

Mrs. Joe Reinauer Jr. was welcomed as a new member.

Others at the meeting were Mmes. Terry Caviness, Jim Conkright, Dennis Farley, Mary Gibson, Don Lowder, Gary McQuigg, Danny Martin, Rudy Metz, Alex Schroeter, John E. Smith, Bill Warrick and Hazen Woods.

Duo-Harp Concert Coming For CCA

Opportunity to hear a program of harp music by virtuoso performers does not come often, so the final program of the current Community Concert Association season will be an unusual one. It will be presented in the high school auditorium at 3 p.m. next Sunday, April 28.

Joe Longstreth and John Escosa are the performers, who have played special arrangements for the two harps as well as new compositions they commissioned, to gain wide popularity on concert stages across the nation in the past decade.

Their association began in 1963 after both had won recognition separately, when they recorded their first album together playing Christmas carols. Its reception decided them to appear together in concerts the next year and they have played with orchestras and as a duo in the years since.

Both natives of Indiana, they both began the study of harp at Wainwright Music Camp in that state although they did not meet until years later. Escosa has studied in the Juilliard School in New York, Longstreth in the Conservatorio di Santa Cecilia in Rome.

CCA members who will not attend the afternoon concert are reminded by Hazen Woods, president of the Hereford group, that their membership cards may be loaned to others. Admission is by membership card only.

Delegates Report Texas DAR Session

State conference reports were heard and final plans made for collecting books and records for a benefit sale, when Los Ciboleros Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, met Thursday evening in Mrs. J.R. Johnson's home. Mrs. Jess Robinson was co-hostess.

Mrs. C.F. Newsom, delegate, and Mrs. L.W. Norvell, regent of the chapter, told of the recent conference at Austin of the Texas DAR. It was reported that Mrs. J.J. Durham and Miss Mildred Elliott were in Washington, D.C. as representatives of the chapter to the Continental Congress, the national meeting.

The book sale is being planned as a fund-raising project, to buy a microfilm reader for the new Deaf Smith County Library. Although DAR members are especially interested in the use of this equipment in the genealogy section, it will be available for general use in the library.

Books, periodicals and records are being collected now for the sale, which will be held early in the summer. Boxes will be placed next week in several public places where the material may be placed.

Residents are asked to give books of all sorts, even textbooks or foreign language books, and 33, 45 or 75 RPM records. Sets of books, encyclopedias and dictionaries will be acceptable, as will paperbacks and magazines. They will be priced for the sale at 10 cents and up.

Volleyball Tourney Slated By JC-Ettes

A volleyball tournament sponsored by Hereford Jaycee-Ettes will be held three days this week beginning Thursday, in Stanton Junior High gymnasium. Fifteen women's teams and five men's teams had entered early in the week, with more expected from over the area.

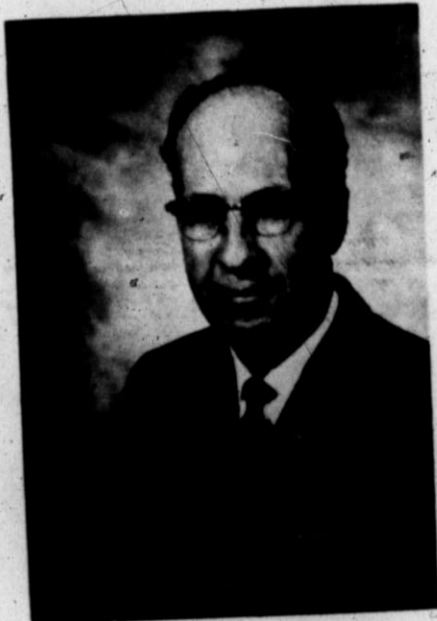

Games will begin at 5:30 p.m. Thursday and Friday, 4 p.m. Saturday. Final plans were made at a recent Jaycee-Ette board meeting. Another meeting of the past week was a "sit-in" in the REC Medallion

Room with visiting members from Perryton, Friona, Pampa, Happy, Amarillo and Muleshoe. The Hereford Parliamentary Team gave the program.

Attending from the local club were Mmes. James Braly, Bill Johnson, Dan Warrick, Steve Carroll, Ronnie Collier, John Bunch, Bill Bankston and Lonnie Coffey.

Another activity of the Jaycee-Ettes this month was an Easter egg hunt for Jaycees' children on the Saturday before Easter.

Protege's Letter

Read By Chapter

A letter from their "adopted" girl at Girlstown U.S.A. was read by Alpha Iota Mu Chapter members of Beta Sigma-Phi, at a meeting in First National Community Room Thursday evening. The chapter assists this girl who lives in the home at Whiteface, and sends her gifts. Coupons collected by chapter members to help buy a pickup truck for Girlstown at Borger, and left over when enough coupons for that purpose were obtained, will be used for some needed equipment at the girls' residence, members decided. The chapter's part in the annual BSP Founders Day dinner April 30 was planned, and also a chapter birthday dinner at Amarillo May 16.

Two programs were given from the study course titled Beauty. Mrs. Ken Walser presented the topic, The Good, saying that this is the one vital thing each person should strive for. Mrs. Jimmy Bell's subject was Thought and she stressed that his thoughts are the key to a man.

Mrs. Jerry LaFrance and Mrs. Chick Holbert served refreshments. Other members present were Phyllis Gerdson, Carol Elliott, Betty Barrett, Beverly Barrett and Carla George; Mmes. David McDonald, Bill Drake, Kenneth Glenna, Fred Ruland, Coy Mason, Phil Sciumbato, Floyd Neill and Johnie Burkhalter.

SUMMER BRIDE TO BE — Miss Teresa Elizabeth Line's engagement to Dana Gavin Rush, with plans for a July 19 wedding, is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Line of 310 Sunset. Rush is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Rush, 1914 Plains. Junior students at West Texas State University, the couple both graduated from Hereford High School with the class of 1971. Miss Line, majoring in math education at WT, is a member of Chi Omega sorority and Alpha Chi honorary society. Rush is a business finance major. The marriage is to take place in First Christian Church here with the Rev. Doug Manning of First Baptist Church as officiating minister. (Bradly Photo)

Violin Recital Set

A recital by violin pupils, quite an unusual event in Hereford where there is a private teacher of strings for the first time in years, will be presented at 2 p.m. today in the fellowship hall of United Presbyterian Church.

Several students of Mrs. Royce Coatney will give the program, to which the public is invited. Junior high and high school students will perform solos which they will play later this week at the Greater Southwest Musical Festival in Amarillo.

Violin solos will be played in the recital by Sharon Lowrie, Sheri Whitaker, Dana Barber, Beca Gibson, Angeline Haschke, Tammy Fischbacher, Becky Friemel and Delfine Ulibarri.

Mrs. Coatney, whose husband is on the music faculty of Hereford public schools, began teaching here last fall. She has been a member of the Amarillo Symphony in the season just past.

Flower Arrangement Program Presented

Mrs. Wayne Porter presented the program on various types of flower arrangements to members of the Bud To Blossom Garden Club Friday morning at Pioneer Natural Gas Flame Room.

The brief business session included plans for a silver anniversary tea scheduled in May and the announcement that the president's report won first place at the district I Garden Club meeting in Amarillo.

Members present included Mmes. Bruce Brown, Gaylon Bryan, Sam Long, Ray Polan, Jess Robinson and Mac Tucker and Gladys Setliff.

Humorous Readings Presented

Humorous readings were given by Mrs. Haskell Benson and Mrs. L.J. Jones Sr. to members of the Mothers Needle Club at their meeting Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Jones.

In conjunction with the program, members brought old pictures of themselves as well as recent photographs.

After a short business meeting refreshments were served to a visitor, Lillian Scott and club members, Mmes. Ellis Carter, W.T. Gunstenson, Ralph Paul, Harmon Lindley, Charles Wiseman, A.C. Flowers, J.L. Shirley and Annie Springer.

Comings And Goings At King's Manor

BY FAYE GAUGGEL

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Payne Easter Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Rayne and Mrs. T.D. Reed.

Mrs. F.R. Pickens had as guests Saturday evening her son, the Rev. Jim T. Pickens and family, Mary Ann, Larissa Ann and James Mac, from Lubbock. They all went out and had dinner at a restaurant. Rev. Pickens is pastor of the Forrest Heights United Methodist Church in Lubbock.

Mrs. Thelma Chisum had as her guest Sunday morning for church service her grandson, Mark (Woody) Woodward, who is a student at Texas Tech. After services they went to Amarillo for dinner with her daughter, Ann Martin, who is Woodward's mother, and Mr. Martin. Mrs. Chisum remained in Amarillo for a few days to visit her sister, Mrs. Clyde Atterberry and brother, B.F. Vicars and Mrs. Vicars.

Three fourth-grade classes from Northwest School under the direction of Nancy Richie sang for us Wednesday morning. They did a dozen or so popular numbers with Mrs. Richie at the piano. Some of these involved rather profound philosophy for fourth graders. According to Mrs. Richie these children have quite an extensive repertoire. We hope they come again.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Hester and Novella Stallings of King's Manor were guests in the home of the Harold Garrets for the Easter holidays.

Response "Great" To Blood Pleas

Wednesday the Blood Mobile will be at the Community Center from 4 to 6 p.m.
Mrs. Tom Carnahan said, "We have never received as great a response to our plea as we did in March, please help us to reach our goal this month."
"The Blood Mobile will be waiting for you, please be there to give your pint of blood when the mobile arrives."

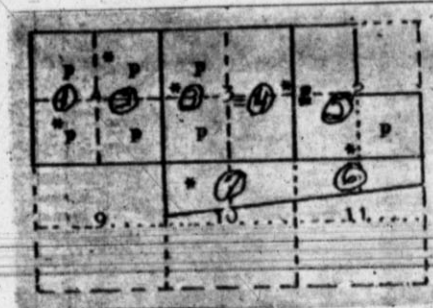

Mrs. Rose Visits A&M

Mrs. Austin Rose attended the annual meeting of the Federation of Texas A&M Mothers' Clubs yesterday at 10 a.m. in the Conference Tower of the Memorial Student Center of the Campus at College Station.
Mrs. Lewis Gross presided and reports were given on the year's activities.
New officers were elected and installed. Dr. Jack K. Williams, president of the University, addressed the group, which was entertained by the Singing Cadets.
Preceding the meeting, delegates and visitors were received at a coffee given by the Brazos County A&M Mothers Club.
The Executive Board of the Federation met Friday afternoon in the Student Center.

Another 'Opry' Scheduled

Another of the popular "little Grand Ole Opry" evenings sponsored by Odd Fellows and Rebekah Lodges is scheduled, this time for a Sunday afternoon. The date is May 5, time from 2 to 5 p.m., and the place will again be the Odd Fellows Temple, 205 East Sixth.
A showcase for area talent, the programs of country and western music have been repeated several times since the first one about a year ago. Amateur and professional groups and individuals are invited to take this opportunity to display talents for a receptive audience.
Priced at one dollar, a ticket offers performers like the Fiddling' Doctor, the Bluegrass Boys, Nashville Guitars, Susie McGee's Ragtime Piano, and many others. Gospel music groups are also invited to appear.
Tickets are on sale now by members of the lodges and at Mary L. Spence Music Store.
Musicians who will take part in the program must list their names in advance with Woodie McDermitt at the music store, and are urged to do so this week.

About Fruit Canning

TWENTY local club women attended Borger district meeting Thursday. The entire meeting was at the Dome. It is like our Bull Barn. The meeting, lunch and the exhibits were under the one roof which made a friendly atmosphere for visiting.

The meeting was organized and well carried out. We are always proud of people when they put out an honest effort to do things well.

Deaf Smith's part was Rudy Gandy serving on credentials committee, and an exhibit of cultural arts.

Robert Wilson, superintendent of Girlstown at Borger, accepted the coupons and trading stamps to apply on the pickup truck. He said, "We lack only 110,000 coupons and I'm sure we have them."

He commented that there are three campuses at Borger, Austin and Whiteface. One board directs activities and one central bookkeeper at Whiteface but each campus is separate in that each superintendent is responsible for financing the individual campus.

Borger has been approved by the State of Texas for 25 girls; 74 girls at Whiteface and 35 at the Austin campus.

AN AMPLE supply is in the office of "Frozen Foods", B-175, and "A Planning Guide of Your Home Garden". Come by or call us.

THE SEW FAIR will be May 16 at the Bull Barn. It will be one program in the afternoon. Spring and summer fashion fabrics will feature a kaleidoscope of patterns; dots, stripes, florals, geometrics and motifs. Designs range from objects found in nature to the abstract creations of a designer's imagination. Design sizes, on the other hand, run rampant from miniature to "slipcover" sizes.

In general, patterned garments add excitement to a wardrobe—and often express the wearer's personality and temperament. On a more practical note, they made versatile wardrobe additions. Patterns also show less soil and fewer wrinkles than plainer fabrics. When selecting a fabric or garment, consider overall effect created by a particular pattern. Pattern type and size influence a person's apparent size.

EXTREME color contrasts—and very lightly or brightly colored patterns—tend to make a person appear larger. Large, widely spaced patterns also do this.

To diminish apparent size, choose patterns with compact spacing and close color relationships. Also, darker or subtle colors and blurred or overall designs.

Most people find medium-size designs, in similar colors, becoming.

Patterns also express moods. For example, some patterns are dainty and demure. Others may be bold and exotic or dignified and conservative.

FANCY foods appropriate for a spring get-together don't have to require lots of work. Frozen bread dough turns into an attractive tea ring with very little effort. To prepare a tea ring, first grease the top of frozen dough. Place in a greased bowl and let rise until double—about six to eight hours.

Next, roll dough into a rectangle and top with desired filling—such as fruit, date sauce or cinnamon-sugar mixture.

Then roll up rectangle and place, seam down, on a greased cookie sheet.

Shape this into a ring, and cut about two-thirds of the way through—at one-inch intervals. Twist each section slightly—as shown in most cookbooks. Let rise again until double.

Bake at 375 degrees F. for about 20 minutes. Glaze and serve—or wrap and freeze. Nuts and cherries make an attractive garnish.

Since frozen dough takes so long to rise, some homemakers set it out the night before. The next morning, they shape it and let rise again.

HELPFUL HINTS:
1. When purchasing a handbag, choose a roomy one—with several compartments to accommodate what's usually carried.

2. Pre-cooked rice has been partially cooked and dried—a consumer convenience which costs more due to handling but saves time in preparation.

3. In carpet talk, "soil" refers to foreign matter spilled on, tracked into or deposited from the atmosphere onto the carpet. Staining, on the other hand, is caused by foreign matter penetrating the fiber or reacting chemically with it.

4. Being clean and well-groomed adds to health, charisma and popularity.

5. Gaskets on refrigerators, freezers and dishwasher are usually made of vinyl. To help gaskets wear longer and perform efficiently, wash them frequently with sudsy water, then rinse and dry.

6. Federally graded beef can be identified by a red, shield-shaped stamp enclosing one of eight grade names. Not all beef is federally graded, but the first three grades—Prime, Choice and Good—are readily available.

Mrs. Hill Tells Lions Of Special Education

Patty Hill, special education teacher at Shirley Elementary, was guest speaker at the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Hereford Lions Club Wednesday at the Civic Club Center.

Jim Holmes, administrative assistant in charge of special education for Hereford schools, introduced Mrs. Hill and outlined the various classes provided in the special education department.

"Language and Learning Disability (LLD) was the program described by Mrs. Hill. She explained that the program definitely was for "normal" children, who happen to have some type of learning problem.

There are three basic ways to learn—auditorily, visually and kinesthetically—and LLD students usually have a problem in one of these areas. Some students are hyper active, explained Mrs. Hill, and are unable to sit still and concentrate.

Others have visual memory difficulties, and some are unable to discriminate between certain sounds. The LLD students are determined through testing, and they only spend a portion of the day in the special education class.

"This program is not the complete answer, but it is serving to provide help for many students," said Mrs. Hill.

In another highlight of the club meeting, president Jim Hale presented pens to the "students of the six weeks" from high school—Kim Young and Terry Hetzel. Also recognized was the "teacher of the six weeks", Mrs. Betty Oglesby. The National Honor Society at high school selects the students and teacher to be honored each six weeks.

The weekly Leo Club report from high school was presented this week by Shari Hughes. A number of guests and visiting Lions were introduced at the luncheon. Program chairman Roy Hartman announced that Rep. Bill Clayton would discuss the progress of the constitutional convention at next week.

JUNE VOWS PLANNED—The wedding of Miss Maria Anita Talamantez and Martin Alejandro is planned for June 29 in St. Anthony's Catholic Church, her mother, Mrs. Ambrosia Talamantez of 508 Mable, announces. The bride-elect is a senior in Hereford High School, employed by Safeway Stores. Her fiancé, son of Mrs. Inez Alejandro of 110 Dayton, is an employee of Pitman Grain Company, a 1973 graduate of HHS. Couple To Mark
Silver Wedding

The Silver Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Gowdy of Dimmitt will be celebrated with a reception this afternoon in the home of their son, Alan Gowdy, 118 Fir. Relatives and friends from Dimmitt, Memphis and Hereford are expected for the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Gowdy married April 15, 1949, at Lakeview, near Memphis. Their daughter, Sharon, will act as hostess with their son.

Ceremonial Cup Given

A silver cup to be used in the lodge's silver drill was presented to Hereford Rebekahs at their meeting this week, the gift of Edna Mathes. Frances Parker was hostess at the meeting in IOOF Hall, where 24 were present.

Plans were made for representation at the Panhandle Association of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, to be held in Pampa next weekend. Mrs. Harold Hamby of Dumas, formerly of Hereford, is president of Rebekahs in the association, and Jerry Johnson of this city is the Odd Fellows president.

Wheat Board Produces Film

Wheat and its expanding use in foods will get a close analysis by experts from six states meeting in Texas for a three-day session Wednesday-Friday. The Wheat Foods Council, an informal internal organization of home economists and nutritionists of the producer-supported "Wheat Commissions" will conduct their business sessions and hear a wide array of speakers in the headquarters of the Texas Wheat Producers Board, Suite 600, Bank of the Southwest, Amarillo, according to Miss Mary Ellen Dambold, TWPB Nutritionist and Treasurer of the Council.

Members will attend from North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado and Texas. The Wheat Foods Council was organized in January, 1973. Its function is to provide an avenue for the exchange of information and materials related to research, education and promotion of wheat foods in the domestic market which might enhance the market development programs conducted in the individual member states, all of course, designed to improve the market for wheat and strengthen the individual wheat producers income.

Majority Of Males Marked For Marriage

He's young. He's middle-aged. He's old. And he's probably married. That's the rather wry observation from insurance company statisticians who note that even when a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love this spring, he'll probably be thinking of his wife.

Only 5 per cent of the married live apart or in someone else's household, and most of this group are young newlyweds who live, on a temporary basis, with their parents or other relatives until they can afford their own homes. Most married couples, says the report, have at least one child under 18 living with them, with responsibility for young children at its greatest when the husband is between 35 and 45. After the husband's 45th birthday the number of children at home decreases sharply as they go off to college, marry or leave home for other reasons.

At ages 25-44, when family responsibilities are at a peak, about 98 per cent of husbands are in the labor force, and most achieve their highest earnings in the prime of adult life. While the median income of all married men in the United States was $7,726 in 1969, this figure for men aged 35-44 was $9,334 and almost one-sixth of the men in this group earned more than $15,000.

At age 65 and over, however, only one in four married men is either employed or seeking work and about half have incomes of less than $3,500, derived largely from Social Security, private pensions and savings.

WIVES' PARTICIPATION in the labor force has recently increased and, currently, among 39 of every 100 married couples, both husband and wife work.

Husbands' natural habitat, say the statisticians, is in metropolitan areas, and a much greater number live in the suburbs than in the central cities. Only about 5 per cent reside on farms. A surprising number—almost one-third—of married men have, literally, found a place in the sun, and make their homes in the South. At the other extreme, fewer than one-fifth live in the West.

Most young husbands have either a high school diploma or a college degree. Past age 35, educational levels decrease, reflecting the lower standards of former decades.

TB On Upswing In Texas

American Lung Association of Texas today reported that statistics on reported cases of tuberculosis throughout the state are making a definite climb, with 85 cases of the disease reported in Texas for the first week of April.

Deaf Smith County representative on the Top of Texas area program board of ALAT is Mrs. Jewel Smith. "For awhile, the five year median was stabilized at about 50 cases of tuberculosis per week," Mrs. Smith said. "Because of the increase in reported cases, that median has now climbed to 68 cases."

The Lung Association's medical division, the American Thoracic Society, has advocated that physicians include the Mantoux tuberculin test as a part of the standard physical examination, that positive reactors be x-rayed for signs of lung disease, and that individuals considered to be at high risk of developing TB be treated preventively with daily doses of INH for a year.

"A lot of people have been under the false impression that TB is a thing of the past," the Christmas Seal spokesman said. "This unfortunately just isn't so. I am reminded of that period in our history when we thought we had VD whipped, too."

We repeatedly marvel at the ingenuity of those who wish to borrow.

?QUIEN ES W.H. "BILL" GRIFFIN?

Esta es una pregunta que ojala y menos gente preguntara despues que visite con todos los votantes del Precinto Numero 2.

Eh vivido en Hereford por mas de dos anos. Hereford ahora es mi hogar permanente. Naci en Saratoga, Texas y eh trabajado como consultante por varias companias petroleras.

Ahora vivimos yo y mi esposa, Randy, en 400 Sunset Drive. Tenemos cinco de familia. Soy graduado de la Universidad de Texas y Houston. Ahora que tengo, tiempo quisiera relatar mis calificaciones. Sinceramente creo que mi experiencia y entrenamiento me serviria en el puesto como Comisionado del Condado Deaf Smith.

?CUALES SON MIS CALIFICACIONES?

Aun nunca eh sido activo en puesto de gobierno, pienso que el gobierno a cualquier nivel, es basicamente lo mismo al administrar un negocio.

En mis negocios personales eh tenido la oportunidad de hacer uso de mi sabiduria y experiencia con buen resultado.

Les agradezco su voto y su influencia en esta eleccion.

Personality Quiz

If you fret when there's a threat or cover before power, you may be incapable of saving. "See you later, intimidator!" There are some things you can do, however, to stand up as a person who stands up for his rights. Take this test to find out.

1. If you receive a parking ticket and think that you don't deserve it, you should (A) Forget it and pay the fine, (B) Contest the case in court, or (C) Explain the situation to a local politician?

2. If you're a depositor standing in line at a bank and someone tries to get in line ahead of you, it's best to (A) Politely point out that you were standing ahead of him, (B) Let him get away with it, or (C) Force your way in front of him?

3. A friend passes away and you plan to send flowers but the family asks that donations be made to charity. You should (A) Follow their suggestions, explicitly, (B) Send flowers as well as contribute to the charity, or (C) Send flowers only?

4. When a "friend" of yours urges that you try a new drug because he had "the same thing," it would be best to (A) Try it, (B) Refuse to take a drug unless it has been prescribed by a physician, or (C) Tell your "friend" that you'd like to think about it?

5. If your employer gives you more than you feel you can handle, you should (A) Call him a "slave-driver," (B) Ask which work he'd like you to do first, or (C) Say nothing and meekly do the best you can?

For correct answers, see below.

ANSWERS: 1. (B) Contest the case in court. You'll probably get a sympathetic hearing and will not have to pay a fine. Explaining the situation to a political leader may imply that you are seeking undue influence. 2. (A) Politely point out that you were standing ahead of him. Using force is as bad as being too meek. 3. (B) Send flowers as well as contribute to the charity. Doing so will enable you to honor the dead as well as comply with their request for donations. 4. (B) Steadfastly refuse to take the drug that was not prescribed by a doctor. 5. (B) Ask the boss which work he'd like you to do first.

Test your diamond I.Q.

Q. IS A LARGE DIAMOND ALWAYS MORE VALUABLE?

A. Not always. A smaller stone of finer color and more precise cutting—to show the fire—can be considerably more valuable than a larger gem of less quality. Cutting, color, clarity and carat weight are all important factors. As a member of the American Gem Society, we'll help you strike the right balance. AGS affiliation is awarded only to those jewelers who qualify on the basis of gemological knowledge and high ethical standards. Come in soon and let us explain the "Four C's" of diamond value to you.

By special request I am again going to give some of the most important steps in growing roses. Planting roses properly requires neither skill nor experience. Simply follow the easy procedure as outlined below.

1. Well prepared, deeply spaded bed in well drained area. Dig each hole 15 inches to 18 inches wide and as deep. Add a quart of peat moss or compost, mix well with the soil. Form blunt cone mound to the soil mixture in planting hole.

2. Prune all rose canes to 12 inches and remove any broken or injured roses. Position rose on soil cone so that bud union (swelling at base of stem) is just above the ground level. Spread roots out in a natural manner down slope of mound. In handling rose plants be careful that the roots do not dry out, work quickly.

3. Work in soil around roots to eliminate any air pockets.

Give them loving tender care, and watch them grow and bring pleasure and blessings. May the sentiment of this old Irish Blessing be yours: "Sure, and may there be a road before you smooth and bordered with roses, the likes of which have never been smelt or seen before, for the warmth of a glorious fine color and the great sweetness that is on them, be yours, always."

Remember that it is vitally important when selecting planting materials to purchase number one plants. A number one rose should have at least three well formed canes, of good live quality.

A good root system (if grown in a container this has already been established) if bare rooted check roots carefully and all broken or bruised ones should be cut off before planting, also if some are too long these should be trimmed.

Loosen name tag, if it is metal or attached with wire remove completely because metal draws heat, the idea in removing it, is that the cane should not be restricted in any way while growing. When vigorous growth starts, apply plant food according to manufacturer's specifications.

By The Garden Gate With Glad

By Mrs. Art Manjeot

In 1896 the eminent horticulturist L.H. Bailey, wrote the following in his book, Garden Making.

"One plant in a tin can may be a more helpful and inspiring garden to some mind than a whole acre of lawn and flowers may be to another. The satisfaction of a garden does not depend upon the area, nor, happily, upon the cost or variety of the plants.

"It depends upon the temper of the person. One must first seek to love plants and nature, and then to cultivate that happy peace of mind which is satisfied with little. He will be happier if he has no rigid and arbitrary ideals, for gardens are coquetish, particularly with the novice.

"If plants grow and thrive, he should be happy; and if the plants which thrive chance not to be the ones which he planted; they are plants nevertheless and nature is satisfied with them."

This philosophy was good then and it is good now. All of us are of different types, therefore have different tastes and favorites. However most all people like roses. Many of my friends are wonderful rosarians and love roses; me I prefer gladioli; others choose wildflowers, etc.

By special request I am again going to give some of the most important steps in growing roses. Planting roses properly requires neither skill nor experience. Simply follow the easy procedure as outlined below.

1. Well prepared, deeply spaded bed in well drained area. Dig each hole 15 inches to 18 inches wide and as deep. Add a quart of peat moss or compost, mix well with the soil. Form blunt cone mound to the soil mixture in planting hole.

2. Prune all rose canes to 12 inches and remove any broken or injured roses. Position rose on soil cone so that bud union (swelling at base of stem) is just above the ground level. Firm soil until hole is three-fourths full, then firm with foot or tamp, using care not to injure roots.

4. Fill remainder of hole with water and allow it all to soak in slowly; when it is completely soaked, refill. After water drains (proper drainage is very important. Roses do not like wet feet, therefore in selecting location, drainage is an important matter) see that bud union remains at proper level and fill remainder of hole with soil and tamp carefully. This is important to seal out air pockets. Prune canes back to about eight inches, making cuts one-fourth inch above an outside bud.

Remember that it is vitally important when selecting planting materials to purchase number one plants. A number one rose should have at least three well formed canes, of good live quality.

A good root system (if grown in a container this has already been established) if bare rooted check roots carefully and all broken or bruised ones should be cut off before planting, also if some are too long these should be trimmed.

And Daily Planetary Guide, it will soon be on sale at the hometown book store. It is filled with much interesting reading and helps for the gardener.

Many comments have been made on the display by Hereford Garden Club at the art festival. It was a nature trail in miniature, depicting bird refuge, fragrant garden, cacti collection, and historical items relative to the American bicentennial celebration.

Many garden clubs and civic organizations are establishing nature trails. Amarillo Council of Garden Clubs, Pampa and Big Spring Garden Clubs are some of those starting now to establish trails for youth, the blind, wheelchair patients, etc.

It may be just a dream, but is a sincere wish that such a trail can and will be established in Hereford. There is a real need for it. Youth groups, school children, people who walk for many reasons, and for the general public to use and gain knowledge relative to nature.

To become better gardeners Mrs. O.G. Hill Sr., Mrs. Ray Johnson and I are attending Texas Garden Clubs Inc. annual convention in Houston. Following the convention I will go to Ft. Lee, Va. to visit my son, Col. Lloyd Howtor Manjeot, and family. While there I will go on tours sponsored by the state garden clubs of Virginia. To this, I am looking forward with much anticipation.

DO-If you want your garden to show new life when warm weather comes to stay, give plants a foliage feeding. They will really take on the new look.

In the use of any fertilizer, study the percentages as listed on the container. Determine needs and purchase accordingly. Ask the dealer to explain to you, if you do not know.

Let us get growing!

Realtor Week, April 21-27, will assume a special importance for local men and women in real estate when Franklin A. Jeffers delivers the main address of a dinner meeting Thursday night, in the Amarillo Tascosa Country Club.

Ralph Davis, president of the Amarillo Board of Realtors, said that the event would begin at 7:30 p.m., with many dignitaries present for the talk. Coming to Amarillo will be the following board presidents, Edward Tanner; Berger Harold Hamby; Dumas; Fulton Thomas Jr.; Dalhart; Lee Umsted, Hereford; and O.K. Gaylor, Pampa.

Jeffers, who has been visiting many of the TAR boards over the past several months, is expected to report on how the real estate industry is responding to financial, construction, and energy problems as well as stress the importance of more interest in legislation of a state and local level.

"We have a really basic duty to deliver to our citizens the best housing possible. As I have traveled in Texas, I have found Realtors employing some very innovative approaches in marketing and in conserving energy. There is a more cooperative spirit among our members concerning such matters as open houses and transportation problems. I feel that if we all work hard and open our minds to new ideas, we will prove ourselves worthy of being the property owner's counselor."

When we are young, we think not only ourselves; but that all about us are immortal.

A bullet may be deadly, but rapid-fire tongues often claim many victims.

Research Can Win
The death rate from uterine cancer has been cut drastically because a researcher discovered a test for early detection. Help spur the search for other cancer tests by supporting the American Cancer Society's programs of research, education, and service.

Help Save More
Three decades ago only one in five people with cancer was saved. Now it's one in three. Early detection and prompt treatment could make it one out of two. Give to the American Cancer Society and help spread its educational message.

Real Estate Today

By Lee Umsted

REALTOR

The decision on whether to buy a house or rent is one that almost every family considers eventually. If this is your case, here are a few thoughts to consider.

First, an equity (cash value) is built up as you pay for the house over the years. And, its resale value can increase greatly, as has been the case in recent times, with rising real estate prices.

Also, property taxes, school taxes and mortgage interest can be deducted from income taxes. (Rent cannot be deducted from anything but the check account). For example, interest on the first year of a 20 year, $20,000 mortgage at 8 percent is close to $1,600 which is tax deductible. There is no fear of a raise in rent at the end of each lease period. Payments remain the same for the life of the mortgage. Finally, where else can you find an investment that you and your family can live in while its value increases?

LEE UMSTED is president of the Hereford Board of Realtors. If you have any questions on Real Estate, please feel free to phone or drop in PROPERTY ENTERPRISES 205 S. 25 Mile Ave., or 364-6633. WE ARE ANXIOUS TO HELP.

On The Cover

American musicals are a favorite at London's old Drury Lane Theatre. Julie Andrews and Dick Van Dyke sing a tribute to the American Musical on "Julie and Dick at Covent Garden," to air on the ABC Television Network on Sunday, April 21 (7:00-8:00 p.m.).

A Romantic Partridge

When Keith is teamed with Dory Kimmel, a preppy college classmate on a biology class project, he mistakes her friendliness for "romantic interest," on the ABC Television Network's "The Partridge Family," Saturday, April 27 (7:00-7:30 p.m.).

Kids look for Treasure

The initial efforts of Dennis McCarthy (Ed Begley) and three children, Tippy (Annie McElroy), Catfish (Patrick Creamer) and Scott (Jimmy Bracken), to find Jean LaFite's hidden treasure are unsuccessful in the concluding hall of "The Secrets of Pirates Inc.," the NBC Television Network's Sunday, April 21 colorcast of "The Wonderful World of Disney" (8:30-7:30 p.m.).

Kids look for Treasure

Eventually, they manage to locate the fortune, only to have it taken from them at gunpoint by reporter Carl Buchanan (Charles Aidan), who has become obsessed with the idea of obtaining the treasure. Herman Groves wrote the story from the book by Wylie Folk St. John. Gary Nelson directed.

Saturday Program Notes

7:30...CBS...THE MYSTERY DOUBLE FEATURE: MANNIX-BARBABY

"The Entertainment Hall of Fame Awards"

"The Entertainment Hall of Fame Awards," a tribute to show business talent in multiple categories—gifted individuals who have made outstanding lifetime contributions to the lively arts—with ten creators and performers, will among posthumous and living creators and performers, will be inducted into the MGM Grand Hotel in Las Vegas for presentation on the ABC Television Network's "ABC Wide World of Entertainment," Thursday, May 23 (10:30 p.m. 12:00 Midnight).
This "Wide World Special" will be hosted by Gene Kelly, who is also chairman of the nominations committee. Ady ministerial vice chairman is John Green, who is also producer of the show.
Members of the nominations panel are: Alvin Ailey, Leonard Bernstein, Carol Burnett, Schuyler Chapin, Aaron Copland, Gordon Davidson, Bob Fosse, Helen Hayes, Charlton Heston, Henry Jaffe, Quincy Jones, Garrison Keillor, Ella Kazan, Jack Lemmon, Carl Reiner, Dan Seymour, Beverly Sills, Oliver Smith, William Wyler and Bud Yorkin.
Voting by secret ballot; each member will nominate two living candidates for the "Hall of Fame" and two posthumous choices. Winners will be determined by secret ballot sent to entertainment editors of American daily newspapers with circulations of 100,000 or more. The Associated Press and United Press International wire services, and Daily Variety and the Hollywood Reporter. Editors will cast their ballots for five living and five posthumous nominees in order of preference. The ten nominees with the most votes will be declared winners.
The Peabody Award-winning program introduces young viewers to the life style of the intelligent, sociable seats of the North Pacific and the controversy surrounding their conservation, as well as the "Great Seal" of Spain, filmed in Madrid as part of the explanation of the word "seal."

Special Awards to be Presented

"A Moon for the Misbegotten," "Candle," Peter Cook and Dudley Moore, Bette Midler and Liza Minnelli have been chosen to receive special Tony Awards. The presentations will be made at the 28th Annual Tony Awards ceremonies, to be aired on the ABC Television Network, Sunday, April 21 (8:00-10:00 p.m.).

The special Tonys, presented by the League of New York Theatres and Producers, were voted by the Tony Administration Committee in recognition of outstanding theatrical achievements which were not eligible for the regular American Theatre Wing's Tony Awards competition.

Eugene O'Neill's "A Moon for the Misbegotten," a revival and therefore not eligible, will be cited as "an outstanding dramatic revival of a major American play." "A Moon for the Misbegotten" was produced by Lester Osterman, Elliot Martin and Richard Horner. The musical production of "Candle," also a revival, will be honored for "an outstanding contribution to the artistic development of musical theatre." The special Tony for "Candle" will be presented to the show's producers, The Chelsea Theatre Center of Brooklyn, in conjunction with Harold Prince and Ruth Mitchell.

Peter Cook and Dudley Moore, the co-stars and co-authors of the smash hit, "Good Evening," an entertainment that doesn't fit into the established Tony Awards categories, will be honored for "a unique contribution to the theatre of comedy." Messrs. Cook and Moore have been seen in New York in "Beyond the Fringe," and in a revue they wrote called "The Establishment."

Bette Midler (who was featured in the original "Fiddler on the Roof" cast) and Liza Minnelli (who won a Tony Award for "Flora the Red Menace") will each receive a special Tony in honor of their successful and highly acclaimed concerts at the Palace Theatre this season. Their awards will cite them for contributing to the "superior concert entertainment on the Broadway stage."

In addition to the five special Tony Awards, four "Theatre Awards '74" have been voted by the National Academy of the Living Theatre Foundation, and will be presented at the April 21 Tony ceremonies.

Actors' Equity Association, the union for theatrical performers, will receive an award "for sixty years of careful and tireless effort on behalf of American actors and actresses." The Theatre Development Fund will be cited for its "imaginative and energetic array of programs designed to nurture and enlarge the audience for the living theatre."

Other "Theatre Awards '74" go to John F. Wharton for "over fifty years of sagacious legal counsel to the entire theatrical industry," and to Harold Friedlander, who will be honored for more than forty years of expert counsel in the design and preparation of display material for the theatre.

The Tony Awards will be hosted by Peter Falk, Florence Henderson, Robert Preston and Cicely Tyson, and will originate live at the Shubert Theatre on Broadway. Tonys will be awarded in 18 competitive categories for outstanding achievement on the Broadway stage. Alexander H. Cohen is producing the Tony Award ceremonies, with Clark Jones as director and Hildy Parks as the writer, for the eighth consecutive year.

Which play will win the Tony Award? The nominees are "Raisin," "Over Here" and "Seesaw."

"Music Country, USA"

Doma Fargo hosts a gathering of entertainers that includes Rocky Graziano, Ted Knight, Joey Bishop and Dizzy Dean, who join top country performers on NBC Television Network's "Music Country U.S.A." Thursday, April 25 (9:00-10:00 p.m.).

Doma opens the show with "Roll in Little Song" from a farm in Nashville, Tenn. Jerry Reed follows with "Roll in My Sweet Baby's Arms," from a plantation in Savannah, Ga., and Johnny Duncan does "Baby's Smile, Woman's Kiss" from Wall Street in New York City.

In the new "Favorite Country Song" feature, Rocky Graziano offers his version of "Comin' Round the Mountain," Joey Bishop renders "Your Cheatin' Heart," Ted Knight delivers "Anytime" and Dizzy Dean does "Wabash Cannonball."

Other selections: Mac Wiseman, "Let's All Go Down to the River" (Nashville Ranch); Lynn Anderson, "Killing Me Softly" (Lookout Mountain in Chattanooga, Tenn.); Tom T. Hall, "I Love" (Hidden Valley, Calif.); Tammy Wynette, "Kids Say the Darndest Things" (Big Sur, Calif.); Jerry Reed, "I Fell Out of Love with Love" (San Pedro, Calif.); Freddy Weller, "Promised Land" (Chattanooga, Tenn.); Brian Bowers, "Yankee Doodle Dandy" (Cumberland River docks in Nashville, Tenn.); Georgia Governor James Carter introduces "The Cloggers" dance group from his mansion in Atlanta.

"Wedding Band"

J. D. Cannon, Eileen Heckart and Claire Taylor join Ruby Dee in the "ABC Theatre" presentation of "Wedding Band." The Joseph Papp production, which focuses on the 10-year love relationship between a white man and black woman, will air on Wednesday, April 24 (8:00-10:00 p.m.).

"Wedding Band," written by Obley Aard-van, is set in a small South Carolina town. The action of the play takes place on the tenth anniversary of the relationship between Julie, who is a black seamstress (played by Ruby Dee), and Herman, a poor white baker (played by J. D. Cannon). The relationship is not only a difficult one—it is also an illegal one. Eileen Heckart is featured as Herman's mother, and Claire Taylor is Julie's landlady, Fanny Johnson.

"Wedding Band" was first produced for the New York Shakespeare Festival in October, 1972.

"SELF HELP"

Whitman Mayo, who portrays Grady on NBC-TV's "Sanford and Son," is a talent agent who traveled to Los Angeles from New York last summer seeking jobs for his clients. Instead, he landed the regular role in the popular series.

"AYONARA"

Starring Marion Brando, Patricia Richardson, Scott James Garner, Charles Burton, Miyoshi Umeki and Milo Q. Tappa, the poignant love story concerns an American flyer who breaks off his engagement and falls in love with a lovely Japanese singer whom he meets while stationed in Japan. (1957)

"ENTERTAINMENT—IN CON-"

CERT guests will be the Bachman-Turner Overdrive, Brownsville Station, Loggins and Messina and the Pointer Sisters.

"12:00... THE MIDNIGHT SPECIAL"

The Spinners host. Guests are Bobby Womack, Badlam featuring Cozy Powell, Bloodstone, the Peter Yarrow Band, Martha Reeves and the Dancing Quakers.

Toma Seeks Truth

Convinced that a zealous prosecutor is framing a murder suspect, Dave takes on the District Attorney's office and his own department in a search for the truth, in "Indictment" on the ABC Television Network's "Toma," Friday, April 26 (9:00-10:00 p.m.).

Prosecutor John Dennison, whose integrity has been questioned by Toma in the past, has a seemingly airtight case against Mark Briffins, accused of killing a former business associate—Carl Lujack, in a downtown hotel room. When the detective learns from the hotel bellhop that there was a beautiful blonde in the room with Lujack at the time of his death, Dave brings a composite sketch of the woman to Dennison. But the prosecutor reacts with hostility to news of an apparent eyewitness.

The Best Man's Happy Day

It is the mid-50's and the Cunninghams' white neighbors are upset as is the father of the bride, when the Cunninghams invite a black couple to be married in their home, on the ABC Television Network's "Happy Days," Tuesday, April 23 (7:00-7:30 p.m.).

In "Best Man," Howard Cunningham's old Army buddy, Fred Washington, arrives in town to be married to teacher Carol Davis. While staying with the Cunninghams, Fred asks Howard to be his best man. Marion gets cold feet about this and Howard being conspicuous at an all-black wedding. When Carol's father, Mrs. Davis, who is making the arrangements, objects to Howard's participation in the ceremony, Fred takes over. Marion suggests the Cunningham home for the event.
