J. Dawson Ahalt, head of the department's outlook board, said it "seems most likely" food prices will go up "somehwere between the two extremes" in 1979.

Food prices have risen about 10 percent this year, the steepest climb since 1974, when they shot up 14.5 percent. They were up about 6.3 percent last year.

Ahalt also said farmers' net incomes this year will be around $26 billion, up about 30 percent from $20.1 billion in 1977 which was the highest in four years. Another record year for exports of farm commodities, a mainstay of farm income, is in prospect, he said.

Despite rising expenses, Ahalt said farmers' net income next year may equal this year's level.

Ahalt's food price forecast was included in a speech prepared for the annual World Food and Agricultural Outlook Conference which opened Monday.

Losers Ask Counties To Recount Returns

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - With a gambler's determination to stay until the last card is played, defeated Democrats John Hill and Bob Krueger await word from 42 Texas counties asked to recount the results of last Tuesday's tight gubernatorial and Senate races.

Election officials Monday began to unravel the paper maze that shrouds the recount petitions and threatens to choke off an early resolution.

Checking began in Corpus Christi Monday. But while Nueces County officials got an early start, most counties may not begin new tabulations until later this week. Some have refused the requests outright.

"The move for a recount is the result of hope rather than anticipation," said Sam Millsap, Hill's Bexar County campaign manager. "I think at this point what we want is to know beyond a shadow of a doubt that we lost this election."

Secretary of State Steve Oaks said Friday an informal telephone survey showed Republican Bill Clements taking the governor's race and U.S. Sen. John Tower re-elected.

The apparent losers filed the petitions in counties that used voting machines or punch cards.

"We've heard a lot of questions about returns in the machine counties and we just want to be sure," Hill said Monday.

The requests encountered stiff resistance in counties such as Harris, Randall and Bee, and ran into some problems in Dallas. Officials in Harris Houston County, the most populous, canvassed votes

Thursday and say they have "no intention" of recounting unless ordered to do so by Oaks' office. The canvass was also complete in Bee and Randall counties where officials also

New Chamber Manager Sounds Like He Fits Part

By PAUL SIMS Managing Editor

Mike Carr is still new at his job, but he's already starting to sound like a Chamber of Commerce manager. "What I like about Hereford is the friendliness of the people and the closeness of the community. This community is able to work together," Carr said.

"Hereford has great possibilities as far as future growth. There's a great deal of potential here. Hereford is aggressive. We have many leaders in our community with good ideas. It's this desire of the people and the initiative of our businesses which should help Deaf Smith County continue to grow."

That, dear reader, is a sales pitch from an individual whose job is to spread the word about Hereford to prospective retail businesses and industry. Carr also has the responsibility of overseeing most chamber functions and committee work.

"I'm trying to visit all the businesses in town. I'd like to know their ideas because the Chamber of Commerce is the people, the businesses, in it. I want the people to be involved with the Chamber of Commerce. I want to know what they'd like," said Carr, who was manager of Gibson Discount before assuming the post of chamber executive vice president.

Carr for the last couple of weeks has been involved in the "Follies," which opened Monday night in the high school auditorium. Carr sings, dances and wears a bathing suit in the musical production.

"I must honestly say that the people involved in the Follies, either on the technical side or in dancing and singing are a wonderful asset to Hereford. These are dedicated people, committed to seeing this show be a success.

"We haven't had much time getting ready for it. A lot of sacrifice went into this show."

Carr said that managing the chamber is "the best thing I ever did--I love this kind of work. It's a super challenge and it's a chance to share myself with some wonderful people."

Carr, 31, became manager of Gibson Discount in 1972, moving here from Pampa where he was assistant manager of that city's store.

He attended McMurray College in Abilene after graduating from Pampa High School. In college, he majored in marketing.

Committee Tables TSTA Report Action

Reps. Jim Nugent, D-Kerrville, and Lee Jackson, R-Dallas, stayed away, blocking the subcommittee vote that would have placed the report before the full committee Monday.

But Rep. Tom Massey, D-San Angelo, committee chairman, said recommendations in a report drafted for Nugent probably would be embodied in bills introduced in January.

Other reports were approved unanimously, but the harmony would have dissolved at once if the TSTA report had come up. The committee is divided between TSTA backers and those who resent its lobbying and its support of Attorney General John Hill over Gov. Dolph Briscoe in the Democratic primary Massey and Nugent both have criticized the TSTA, and Massey calls it a "union" and agrees with the draft report that it is improper to let teachers use in-service training time to go to TSTA state and regional meetings.

Mexican Oil May Be Biggest Supply

MEXICO CITY (AP) - Reports of new oil discoveries along Mexico Gulf Coast have increased the prospect that the southern neighbor of the United States will supplant Saudi Arabia as the world's premier producer.

The national oil company, PEMEX, said Monday if the finds along the "Golden Belt" are proven they could increase the country's potential reserves from some 200 billion barrels to more than 300 billion - double the amount of Saudi Arabia's known reserves.

Miguel Tomasini, PEMEX's press chief, said preliminary reports indicate the new field has 110 billion barrels of oil and 40 trillion feet of natural gas. He said the deposits are between Veracruz and Tampico at a depth of 270 to 6,000 feet in an area 75 miles long and 17 miles wide.

He said the field will be developed over 13 years with 30 wells drilled during each of the first four years. He also said about 1.800 miles of roads and railroads will hve 1,800 miles of roads and railroads will have to be build to handle the oil.

He also said off-shore exploration is just getting underway along a 1,000-mile stretch between Campeche and Tampico, and that engineers reported there were promising formations in or near recent oil discoveries on land.

Iran Oil Workers End Anti-Shah Strike

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) - Iranian oil workers ended their strike against Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi today, but troops opened fire on two demonstrations against the monarch, killing at least three persons and wounding 19, the official Pars news agency reported.

The casualties were reported in Songor, west of Tehran, where Pars said demonstrators set fire to the provincial governor's office and his home. Troops also opened fire to disperse demonstrators in the Tehran bazaar, but there was no immediate report of casualties.

The government oil company announced that its 37,000 workers were flocking back to their jobs after a two-week walkout that cut production more than half, cost the treasury an estimated $750 million in oil revenues and bolstered the shah's foes. The end of the strike increased belief that the ruler had weathered the recent serious challenge to his 37-year reign.

FBI Informant To Testify Today

HOUSTON (AP) - FBI informant David McCrory emerges from protective custody today to tell of a murder-for-hire scheme allegedly masterminded by oil heir Cullen Davis.

The nomadic, one-time karate instructor, is expected to relate to the jury a story so strange as to almost defy belief.

The hard-drinking, pool-shooting McCrory contends Davis ordered him to hire a "hit-man" to kill his wife, stepdaughter, brother, and a dozen

Davis, 45, a Fort Worth millionaire, is charged specifically with soliciting the murder of a judge presiding over the divorce battle between him and his bosomy blonde wife Priscilla.

The judge was not harmed. He cooperated with the FBI in an operation that led to Davis' arrest Aug. 20. "If we get started on time we should be through with McCrory in one day," said prosecutor Tolly Wilson, in advance of today's testimony. Others thought that unlikely.

The state intended to use McCrory, 40, as the legal vehicle for introducing the audio and video tapes that compose the brunt of the case against Davis.

FBI agents wired McCrory for sound before pivotal meetings with Davis Aug. 18 and Aug. 20 and they also collected film of the second encounter in a restaurant parking lot.

AUSTIN-State government again entered a new fiscal year period with a fat surplus-of $2.7 billion.

Comptroller Bob Bullock filed with the governor's office a 1978 annual financial report showing the surplus as of last August 31.

The year-end cash balance was $244.8 million greater than that at the beginning of the year.

Bullock's report indicated state government had total revenues and beginning cash of $11.1 billion during the year and spent $8.4 billion. The comptroller said the favorable position was made possible by record revenues from major taxes. Income included $5 billion in taxes, $2 billion in federal aid. $414 million in licenses and fees. $665 million from investments of state funds and $405 million in revenue from state-owned lands.

"The economic environment of Texas government should be the envy of budgetmakers in the other 49 states and is closely linked to the state's prospering economy." Bullock said.

Biggest expenditure was $3.7 billion for public education at all levels-46 per cent of all outgo.

Courts Speak

The Court of Criminal Appeals ordered a new trial for a Yorktown man awaiting execution for murder of a policeman because he wasn't provided a lawyer before he signed a confession.

The State Supreme Court, in a Grayson County case, held a district judge cannot retain authority over a county's tax rolls. The judge blocked a couple from carrying on their suit to invalidate the Grayson County tax rolls, then rescinded the order.

District Judge Harley Clark of Austin turned down a suit attacking an Interscholastic League rule which requires high school athletes who move to a new school from out of state to wait a year to play in league competition.

In other cases, the Court of Criminal Appeals:

-Ordered a new trial for a Houston man sentenced to life for aggravated robbery. -Threw out a 15-year-tolife sentence of a Bexar County man for robbery.

-Reversed a 10-year sentence of a Weatherford man for possession of marijuana.

Don't expect too much of yourself. It takes time to work through grief. But you will do it, dear, it promise. In the meantime, put away the letters and poems and records soon. Library to Show Feature Film

Two films are scheduled to be shown Thursday at Deaf Smith County Library. The Senior Citizen film feature for this month is "Georgia O'Keefe." It will be shown Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Family Film for November will be shown that same evening at 7:30 p.m. It is a full-length recent motion picture entitled "Where the Red Fern Grows."

In the "Georgia O'Keefe" film, Georgia O'Keefe appears on camera to talk about her work and her life. Mrs. O'Keefe, an artist, pioneered in modern movements in American art. Born in Sun Praire, Wisc., in 1887, she began exhibiting her art in 1916. Her best-known paintings are those in which she enlarges flowers or the skulls of animals. Also, in 1916, she was supervisor of public schools in Amarillo. Mrs. O'Keefe currently resided in New Mexico.

Where the Red Fern Grows" is the true story of a young boy's ambition to own a pair of hunting dogs. The struggle to save the money; the excitement in finally getting them; and then the long hard sometimes funny road to training them to hunt. This film is a combination of adventure, suspense, tragedy and love and loyalty between parents, children and their grandfather.

While hunting, wolves jour-ney far and wide, traveling single file at a tireless rate of 5 mph along frozen waterways, windswept ridges, and old roads and trails, according to the National Geographic Society.

Composer Cole Porter died in

Scenes from Local Follies

Every home has its last bastion...that retreat away from the rest of the family where, for a few hours, one may enjoy diplomatic immunity from discipline, chores, and conversation.

They're called bathrooms. Some homes have two of them. From the first day a child is introduced to one, he learns how to use it to his advantage. They know instinctively that once they are entrenched behind those doors there is nothing that can touch them. Nothing that can question them. Nothing that can speed along their re-entrance into the family atmosphere.

For example, never, in my entire life, have I walked into a house from the grocery store and yelled, "Will someone help me unload the groceries from the car?" without a muffled sound shouting back, "I'm in the bathroom." In 20 years, you would think that just once, I would catch someone in the kitchen or even in flight. Never, in my entire life, have I ever announced, "Whose turn is it to do dishes?" that I have not heard a plaintive. "As soon as I'm out of the bathroom." It's positively weird how a child can know that the phone is for him and make a hasty retreat just in time to yell out to you, "Can you get the phone and take a number? I'm in the you-know-where.'

Sometimes it seems that children grow up in there among the plumbing and the tile.

"Are you in bed?" ("No, I'm in the bathroom.") "Are you doing your homework?" ("I'm in the bathroom.")

"Come in here and meet these nice people." ("I'm in the

"Could you let the dog out?" ("I'm in the bathroom.")

"Come to dinner!" ("I'm in the bathroom.") Throughout the years I've had great respect for the exclusivity of this room, but recently I couldn't stand it. We were all in the car waiting for Brucie who wag guess where.

I ran into the house, pounded on the bathroom door and yelled, "Why is this door shut?"

"You always said, "Shut the door."

"What are you doing?" "You always said, 'Go before you leave home."

"Why is this door locked?"

"You always said, 'Lock the door." "Now what are you doing?"

"You always said, 'Wash you hands.""

Houston's victory snapped Texas' 11-game home winning its second consecutive Southwest Conference title and a Cotton Bowl bid.

Akers indicated at his weekly news conference Monday that officials erred on a possibly crucial clipping call but he refused to criticize them.

The clip by Texas' Ken McCune wiped out a 54-yard punt return by Johnnie Johnson to the Houston 21-yard-line in the second quarter of what was then a scoreless game.

Asked if he had a comment after watching game films - on whether the call was correct. Akers said, "Not for print."

Embittered by media Criticism after throwing 23 interceptions in his first 10 games this season, Stabler continued his cold war afterwards.

"Nothing personal, I just don't have any comment," said the bewhiskered 32-year-old National Football League veteran, dismissing reporters from his cubicle. He completed nine of 19 passes for 109 yards.

Taking advantage of seven Cincinnati turnovers, the Raiders. 7-4. withstood a 388-yard aerial barrage by Ken Anderson to move into a first-place tie with Denver in the American Football Conference Western Division.

Meanwhile, Nebraska took over second place in a tight race with Alabama, setting up the possibility of an Orange Bowl showndown between the nation's 1-2 teams. Nebraska was named Monday to represent the Big Eight in the Orange Bowl, while Penn State is expected to receive an invitation when the formal bids go out Saturday.

"I don't feel any different now than I did when we were ranked No. 2," said Penn State. Coach Joe Paterno. "We still have two tough games to play before we can stake a claim to being No. 1. I've always said the only poll that means anything is the final one." Penn State, 10-0 and the
