PROBLEMS RANGE FROM DEVILISH TYKES TO TEAMING DANDELIONS

No Rest For The Parks Keepers

By LARRY FUHRMANN
Staff Writer

Keeping up the parks for the City of Hereford is a full-time job for two men and provides part-time work for others during the summer.

Kenneth Stevens and Gabriel Martinez, both full-time city employees, work 12 months a year keeping the public grounds in presentable fashion for the public. Stevens is Hereford's parks superintendent.

During summer months, Stevens and Martinez are assisted by one or two extras who work part-time to help during the busy vacation season.

WINTER IS NOT a time of dormant activity for this part of the city's government. Stevens and Martinez spend the time indoors doing maintenance work. Picnic tables are built, old ones are repainted, and small repairs on all equipment are made.

This year, Stevens began preparing for the coming summer months in late February when the city's five parks were watered for the first time. This summer, Hereford's Parks Department will water each park once a week. Mowing will also be done once each week.

But Hereford really has more than five parks, Stevens says. Over the city are located plots (such as the small triangular blocks formed when streets don't meet at 90 degree angles) which he described as a "zillion little spots."

"WE SPEND AS much time on them as we do the big parks," Stevens says. Flowers and small shrubs also require more time for care than do the larger areas of the parks that require only mowing and watering which is done with a large mower and tractor and sprinkling system.

Hereford has little parks near the old golf club house and there are several located along Park Ave. and 25-Mile-Ave. The park department also is responsible for the Community Center grounds.

In its inventory of equipment, the department lists a post-hole digger, a small tractor, a mower (pulled by the tractor) and two hand-mowers. "And lots of rakes and hoes for the flower beds," he says. Flower beds require the most work.

THE USUAL ABUNDANCE of dandelions has not been seen this year in Hereford parks, Stevens said, because of spraying twice a year. Dameron Park especially has had a dandelion problem in the past because of the runoff water from the streets to the north of it. The water carries the seed into the park and stands to drain slowly off.

Keeping playground equipment in top shape and keeping the grounds clear is another major task for Stevens and his crew. He laughs at the antics of the elementary set. They like to cram sticks in the parks' water valves, thus opening them up and turning on the water.

Whenever he sees one water valve spurting some six to eight feet in the air, he knows what has happened. Unjamming the water valve involves getting soaked or walking some distance to turn off the main valve.

STEVENS WRITES that practical joke off as humorous... but he gets serious about the more destructive actions of some of the older set. "It's the bigger ones that give us the trouble," he says. "They aren't the innocent type."

The city does not use a meter on the water is used officially, so the number of gallons necessary to water the 25-plus acres devoted to parks is not known. Watering each area once a week. See PARKS Page 3

Vets Slate Rites

Joint services by two veterans organizations here will highlight the observance of Memorial Day Sunday.

Veterans and anyone else who is interested have been invited to an 8 a.m. ceremony at Veterans Park where a color guard, a gun salute and memorial service are scheduled.

C. W. Smith, commander of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4818, said the Rev. B. L. Davis, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will deliver the memorial address.

MASTER OF ceremonies will be D. C. McWhorter.

Smith said the memorial service will be preceded at 7 a.m. by the serving of coffee and donuts.

Bennie Wombie, commander of the American Legion Post here, said the Legion would participate jointly in the activities planned by the VFW.

Since Memorial Day falls on Sunday, the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce has listed Monday as one of the six official business holidays approved by a survey of merchants.

BILL THOMPSON, chamber manager, said most stores — but not all — are expected to close. County Judge H. C. (Hank) Williams said county offices will be closed Monday.

Windows at the U.S. Post Office will be closed and no rural or home deliveries will be made. Two clerks will be on duty, however, to provide the usual curtailed holiday services, said Ernest Flippo, superintendent of mails.

City offices will be shut down Monday, according to City Manager Dudley Bayne. He said crews working on "Variety Park," the downtown beautification project, also would probably take the day off.

APPROXIMATELY 40 men are taking part in the main tour, with some of the group coming to tour grain sorghum country. Others continued the trip in the northeast.

Founded in 1939, the Institute of Corn and Agricultural Merchants works to provide educational facilities, both technical and managerial, for agricultural merchants and others in the corn trade. (Corn includes wheat, barley and oats, according to the Institute.) This also is the second time GSPA has hosted a group of Britons. The first such group was here in 1959. GSPA has hosted. MUSEUM No Trap For Tourists Seen

The museum proposed for Deaf Smith County will emphasize the "heritage of the county" and not aim primarily at attracting tourists, members of the historical survey committee decided Monday.

MRS. BESSIE Patterson, chairman of the committee, acknowledged that "its value as a tourist attraction is recognized" but said that committees laying the groundwork will be planning in a more serious vein. The decision could — and probably will — have effects on the location, operation and supervision of the museum, she said.

A TENTATIVE date, June 28th, was selected for the erection of a descriptive medallion to be placed with the official medallion on the county courthouse.

The plate will give a capsule history of the courthouse, only the second to be constructed of marble in the U.S.

New Assistant H-D Agent Hired Past-Due Hospital Bills Eyed

An attempt will be made to collect past-due hospital accounts and delinquent taxes, county commissioners decided during Monday's meeting.

The commissioners directed county attorney Bruce Miller to work with the Deaf Smith County Hospital board in collecting overdue hospital accounts.

Hospital board members and county commissioners had previously agreed to take action to collect accounts which have not been paid by persons who apparently have the means for meeting obligations.

HOSPITAL administrator T.E. Seigler explained that the hospital will not attempt to collect from persons who obviously have no means to pay, "but the board feels those who have the means to meet their obligations, but have failed to do so, should be approached."

In other business, the commissioners discussed collection of delinquent taxes, hired a new assistant home demonstration agent, adjusted the travel expense allowance for the county welfare office and learned that the county courthouse has been designated for a medallion plate from the Texas Historical Survey Committee.

COMMISSIONERS continued discussion of what to do about collecting delinquent taxes — they had agreed to make such a move previously — but reached no decision over what actions to take along this line.

A graduate of Texas Technological College and former Castro County Gold Star 4-H girl was hired to replace the county's assistant home demonstration agent.

Mrs. Argen Draper announced to the commission that Miss Sandra Ruebush, assistant here since last fall, has resigned. She is to be married in June.

Mrs. Draper and Mrs. Edith Wilson of Amarillo, District Home Demonstration Agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, recommended the commission hire Mrs. Rita Sue Huckert to replace Miss Ruebush.

Mrs. Huckert, daughter of Leo Witkowski, well-known area farmer, was hired to begin work July 1.

MRS. DRAPER said Mrs. Huckert had been an outstanding 4-H club member in Castro County and graduated last February from Texas Tech with a BS in home economics. Her husband, Joe Frank, is a student at West Texas State University. The commissioners agreed to raise car expense allowance for Mrs. Jewel Smith, county welfare officer, from $50 to $75 monthly. Mrs. Smith drives her personal auto an average of 1,800 miles monthly for the county, according to Judge H. C. (Hank) Williams.

A letter to the commissioners from the Texas Historical Survey Committee announced that the Deaf Smith County Courthouse had been selected to receive a medallion plate designating it as a site of historical interest (See story in Col. 4).

A letter from Chamber of Commerce manager Bill Thompson expressed the chamber's enthusiasm over the success of the recent radiological monitoring school held here and suggested action be taken towards certifying additional Civil Defense shelters in the county.

US 385 Project To Start Shortly

The Texas Highway Department says that a 6.8-mile widening project on U. S. Hwy. 385 just north of Hereford is to be completed by Sept. 15.

William V. York Sr., resident engineer, said the project will consist of extending existing structures, widening sub-grade and surfacing. Ivan Dement, Inc., of Amarillo is the contractor.

York said traffic will be routed through the area, and motorists are urged to obey warning signs and barricades.

PIONEERS MEET SATURDAY A Day For Just 'Plain Visiting'

By WAIN MILLER
Staff Writer

Ezra Norton remembers when this area "was just good cattle country."

He can recall when the railroad came to town, or — for that matter — when the town came into being. He was here when the first sizable irrigation well came in and he has seen the changes its advent brought about.

He's watched newcomers come by the hundreds and the country blossom into an agricultural paradise.

And he's glad he has been here to watch the country mature, he admits.

NORTON, WHO lives at 443 McKinley, is one of the hundreds of pioneers who will be on hand for Pioneer Day here Saturday.

Unless Ezra misses his guess, the highlight of the day will be "just plain visiting."

Norton and the other pioneers will take advantage of the day to compare stories on the "good old days" (which Ezra insists weren't always so good) and on the current status of those who first populated the Deaf Smith County area.

PIONEERS WILL be here from throughout the Southwest. Last year, some 500 persons registered for the celebration.

Registration for this year's get-together begins at 9 a.m. Saturday in the Hereford Community Center. Annual meeting will be called to order at 10:30 a.m. by A. J. Schroeter, president of the See HUNDREDS Page 2

Events will include calf roping, ribbon roping, goat tying (for boys under 12 and girls of all ages), barrel race, pole bending, steer riding, bull riding, bareback riding and bulldogging (out of chute, not mounted).

Entry fee is $3 per go-round.

EIGHT ARE INDICTED

Eight indictments were returned by 69th District Court Grand Jurors in session here Tuesday and Wednesday, while ten persons were no-billed. Judge Harry Schultz was hearing guilty pleas in court sessions Wednesday afternoon.

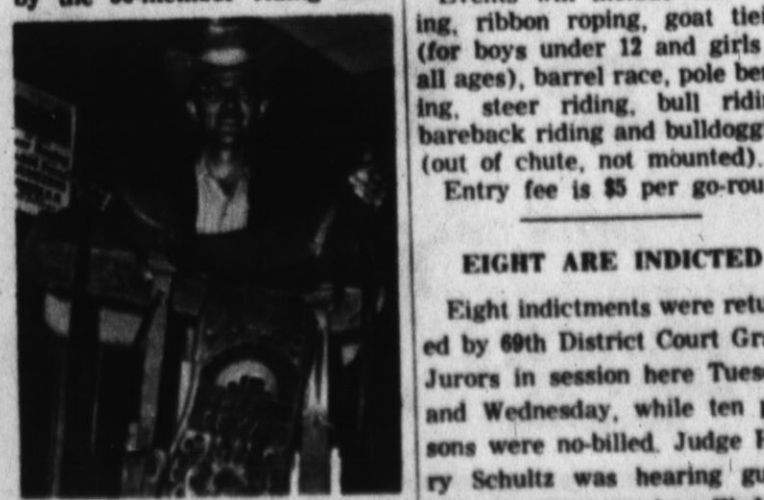

GETS UNDER WAY TONIGHT

Junior Rodeo Expected To Draw 200 Entries For 3-Night Stand

More than 200 entries are expected in the 3rd Annual Junior Rodeo of the Hereford Riders Club which opens a three-night stand here at 8 p.m. today.

Youngsters up to 19 years old from three states — Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma — will compete in nine events for a trophy saddle earmarked for the all-round winner, buckles for first place winners and trophies for second and third positions.

THE EVENT IS one of two big projects sponsored annually by the 50-member riding club.

Area Hosts 16 British Grain Men

The Grain Sorghum Producers Association and Hereford were hosts this week to 16 visitors from Great Britain, all who were either customers or potential customers of this area's grain sorghum production.

The visitors, all members of the Institute of Corn and Agricultural Merchants Limited, were on a branch of a tour they are making in Illinois, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York and Texas. They left England May 10.

APPROXIMATELY 40 men are taking part in the main tour, with some of the group coming to tour grain sorghum country. Others continued the trip in the northeast.

Founded in 1939, the Institute of Corn and Agricultural Merchants works to provide educational facilities, both technical and managerial, for agricultural merchants and others in the corn trade. Main St. Project Nears Normalcy

The "Variety Park" schedule, mired by the heavy rains of early May, is approaching normalcy, after falling behind nearly a week, City Manager Dudley Bayne said Tuesday.

The city administrative chief, who has watched progress of the downtown beautification project closely, said that sidewalk installation could be finished by the middle of next week if the sub-contractor's tentative schedule is followed.

An Amarillo firm, which has been pouring ramps at recreation sites on Lake Meredith near Borger, has the contract for the exposed aggregate walkways.

Bayne said four colors of stone — yellow, blue, red and brown will be mixed in the sidewalk concrete. The last of the curb and gutter pouring — which was held up by the rains — was completed Tuesday in the 400 block. Still to be erected are abutting concrete stations at each corner which will extend outward from sidewalks.

Bayne said the pedestrian stations were originally to be poured as one solid section with the end segment of the sidewalks on each corner. But the procedure was changed so that sidewalks could be poured from end to end on each block, eliminating as soon as possible the inconvenience of dirt walkways at corners.

Southwestern Public Service Co. crews and city electricians were installing conduits this week — the service company for street and decorative lighting and the city for traffic signals and piped-in music for canopies.

Pay Hike Bill Gets Clark OK

Hereford's new school superintendent, Johnny Clark Jr. of Oton, said he would take over duties here next Tuesday.

Clark told The Brand Tuesday that he hopes to get his family moved to Hereford shortly but has not found a house yet.

THE 36-YEAR-OLD administrator expressed satisfaction at the teacher pay raise bill approved by the Texas legislature but said it will have to be studied before its effect on the Hereford school system can be projected.

"I would like to think that we could pass all of this raise on to the teachers," he said.

But he added that the legislation and school's financial situation must be studied closely before he feels that the school board and superintendent would want to commit the system on raises.

COMMENTING on the graduated pay factor which gives experienced teachers a larger raise than the less-experienced, Clark said many school personnel were overlooking the "merit" provisions of the pay raise bill.

Doctors Praise Shriners' Clinic

Patients From Three States Attend Oasis Club's Ninth Annual Event

Members of the Oasis Shrine Club were encouraged by participating doctors to continue their crippled children's clinic at its cripes, Dub Reeves, co-chairman of the weekend event, said.

Specialists in a variety of fields encompassing crippling defects examined 143 children here Saturday in the club's ninth annual clinic.

"AT THE ROUND table discussion in the afternoon after the clinic was over with all the doctors and Shriners present, the doctors made the statement that there wasn't any way that the clinic could be dropped, that it was a grand thing and that they had found several major and minor cases that could be helped," Reeves said.

About 90 per cent of the children were here for the first time, he said, and the other 40 per cent were returning for back up examinations. Of these, 15 per cent were released as corrected cases.

PATIENTS CAME from Midland, Tex., to Stillwater, Okla., to Roswell, N. M. Eighty-eight Shriners from outside the tri-county area covered by the Oasis Club aided an equal number from the club in handling the burgeoning logistics of the clinic.

The Hereford Lions Club paid the tab for 346 persons served lunch in the high school cafeteria.

Examining did not end until about 5:30 p.m. "Some of the doctors saw over 40 patients," Reeves said, adding that the heaviest loads fell on podiatrists and orthopedists. Within two weeks, the parents of the children will all have received a letter from the examining doctor explaining the diagnosis, the recommended treatment and where the treatment can be found.

machines, taking some $30 to $40 in change.

Also missing in the burglary at the auto sales office were four blank checks.

Police said thieves may have used a mechanical checkwriter to stamp the Hereford State Bank checks, which did not bear company insignia.

ENTRY WAS GAINED by breaking the glass on a door which leads to the service department of the business.

A policeman on routine patrol noted the broken glass at 3:18 a. m. Sunday.

A spokesman at Stephens-Hudson theorized burglars may have been frightened away. "Another few minutes and they would have probably gotten into the cash drawer," he commented.

Found near the safe were a hammer, a hatchet, and a pair of tinsnips.

These had been taken earlier the same night in a break-in at Rockwell Bros. Lumber Co., police said. There, thieves broke open a window on a door to enter.

Rockwell Bros. employees said burglars had apparently prowled through desks, but left the small amount of change which was in the open cash drawer.

A MONDAY NIGHT burglary at Case Power & Equipment Co. also netted intruders little profit. Police said nothing had been noted missing there.

Burglars entered Hays Implement Co. on Sunday night, taking some $25 in change from coin-operated machines there.

Sheriff's deputies said burglars broke a window on a door, then reached through and unlocked

CHECKING FOR CLUES — Police Chief Marshall Padgett checks for clues after burglars ripped open this safe at Stephens-Hudson Motor Co. here early Sunday morning. Tools taken in an earlier burglary at it from the inside as in the previous break-ins.

Two break-ins occurred Tuesday night in the Buena Vista addition in southwest Hereford.

Thieves who entered Larry's Barber Shop in Buena Vista got away with $5 or so in change from a soft drink machine, police said.

An intruder at Askew's Coin Operated Laundry in Buena Vista was apparently frightened away by an employe about 2:20 a. m. Wednesday.

The employe told police that he saw a youth leave the building as he approached. Police said the would-be thief had broken a rear window of the building, but was apparently scared away before taking anything.

Parks Upkeep Requires Services Of Two Full-Time, Year-Round Men

(Continued from Page 1) Stevens lets a sprinkler run about an hour before moving it. These small sprinklers, which fit into water valves in the ground, shoot water over an area making an 80-foot circle. This method of watering requires 35-40 gallons of water per sprinkler per minute, Stevens said.

USING THIS SYSTEM and the number of sprinklers available, the park department can water Dameron Park in about eight hours with the sprinklers running constantly.

Winter is the time for the park department crew not only to do inside work, but outside, too. As soon as the grass turns brown and the leaves fall, they prune and trim all bushes.

Hereford's parks, some which are relatively new, are located in various sections of town. Dameron Park is the most familiar, located at the corner of Main St. and Park Ave. Just across the street from it is Mother's Park. North Park is located in the 500 block between Ave. H and Ave. I. This is the location of the two Little League playing fields.

Another park is maintained by the city on land adjacent to the hospital, between East Third St. and Park Ave.

On the average, personnel in the parks department work 136 hours every week. "And it takes every minute," Stevens says.

Bell Has New Chief Operator

Nollie Herrington, chief operator for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Alpine, has been named chief operator for the company here. She succeeds Mrs. Mary Lee Logan, 227 Beech Street, who is being transferred to Amarillo.

A veteran of 28 years with the telephone company, Miss Herrington began her career in Colorado City as an operator in 1937. She served there until 1955 when she was transferred to Sweetwater.

She was appointed assistant chief operator in Sweetwater in 1960 and became chief operator in Alpine two years later. She has served at Alpine since that time. She is a member of the American Business Women's Association.

Been to Houston lately? If so, chances are, you've made it a point to visit the fabulous Astrodome, home of the Houston Astros. Everyone does.

Some people are calling it the eighth wonder of the world.

The gigantic dome has attracted thousands to the port city, and if present trends continue, it may well become the sports center of the nation.

Normally, however, folks are more interested in the Dome than in the sporting event taking place. This is evidenced by the number of stories floating around about the "fabulous Astrodome" and very few remarks about the "Astros."

Antics of the scoreboard is the number one topic of conversation among Dome visitors. And judging from the comments, it must be something "out of this world."

A friend of ours, returning from a visit to the Dome, reports that all is not sugar and spice however. Apparently workmen painting the roof caused it to leak in several places. Immediately after a particularly heavy rainstorm hit the city, the Houston Chronicle put a special edition on the streets proclaiming:

"HOLY CATS, THE DOME LEAKS!"

We presume however, that this little problem has been remedied.

If they're going to control the weather, they can't have a leaky roof.

And weather control is one of the big pluses with the Dome. Completely air conditioned, the temperature within the massive arena stands at approximately 72 degrees, with humidity control at 39 percent. Outside temperature may range in the 80's with humidity near that figure. But it makes no "dif" inside the Dome.

With this in mind, we can visualize Houston becoming a baseball center of the world. Indeed, perhaps the sports center of the world.

The Dome is so massive that it is no problem whatever to hold rodeos, circuses, football games or what-have-you within its confines. We can see sports promoters by the score clamoring for a billing in the fabulous Dome.

World heavy-weight boxing matches included.

In fact, we see no reason why Houston's Astrodome will soon replace New York's Madison Square Garden as the Number 1 sporting arena in this nation.

Incidentally, a situation like the above would seem extremely advantageous financially to the citizens of Houston. Visiting to the city report difficulty in securing accommodations, hotels and motels. In other words, the public accommodation business in Houston, Texas, should be booming. Association holding conventions are anxious to hold their confabs in Houston, visualizing record-breaking attendance — due primarily to the appeal of the Dome.

Don Zimmerman, local hardware dealer, plans to make a trip to Houston this week to see the Dome. But I wasn't too impressed with the whole idea. "After all," says, "when you've seen the Astrodome, you've seen it all."

THE BRANDIN' IRON

Robert Moffat, the standout first baseman for the Dumas Demons, demonstrated in Monday's play-off game against Hereford why sports fans and baseball scouts are eyeing him with considerable interest.

The Dumas ballplayer was knocked out during the third inning of the game in a collision over first base with Hereford's Steve Hodges.

Teammates and Dumas fans, unhappy with the turn of events, were voicing their opinion loudly when Moffat regained his equilibrium.

The ballplayer told his partisans to settle down. "It's just baseball," he said. "That's the breaks of the game." Dumas coach Jerry Hale joined in the "settle down" plea, and for the most part, those who heard their words did drop the unsavory comments.

Avoid the rush! That's what the girls said who came by to urge everyone to have their car washed Friday, May 28 from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Soft Spray Car Wash on Avenue A.

The car-wash deal is being sponsored by the Wesley Methodist Youth Fellowship and the money will be used for a good cause.

Remember "Tater Joe" Ballinger?

Joe now lives in Milford, Utah, according to Norman Moore who just returned from a trip to that area. Moore and Ballinger were once associated in the vegetable business in Hereford. Ballinger incidentally, was one of the people who pioneered the growing of potatoes in this area.

Moore is the owner of Hereford Fertilizer and Insecticide Company as well as a vegetable processing house on the Dimmitt Highway. Also, he has recently purchased the Hereford facilities of Salt River Produce and is now in the process of cleaning up and getting the machinery ready for the summer run.

With industrious young salesmen like Terry Sparks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sparks, the American Legion Auxiliary Poppy sale should go over the top for 1965.

We met Terry on almost every corner Wednesday morning and he was really hustling.

We suspect that this young man will meet with success throughout life.

A Texas rancher shot a man dead in a fit of temper and telegraphed a Houston lawyer several hundred miles away $10,000 as a retainer to represent him. He received the following telegram in reply:

"Leaving for your town immediately. Bringing three eye-witnesses."

Hereford To Meet Kermit Monday For Bi-District

'Faces Do It With Bunch Of Hits—Down Dumas 14-12 In Play-Off

KERMIT — The Kermit Yellowjackets will be seeking their first chance of a bi-district title in more than a decade when the Hereford Whitefaces come to town on Monday.

Coach Ken Mays and his aggregation pulled off a 10-9 win over Seminole in a game here last week to earn the District 2-AAA baseball title.

IT IS THE first district title for Kermit since joining the six-team 2-AAA loop several years ago. Mays is in his second year as Yellowjacket coach.

The Yellowjackets won the district title with a conference won-lost mark of 8-2. Losses were to Seminole, 3-0, and Andrews, 3-4.

Other teams in 2-AAA are Monahans, Ector High of Odessa, and Pecos.

COACH MAYS said his Yellowjackets "are strictly a defensive ballclub."

The Kermit team boasts the tightest infield in 2-AAA. Hitting and pitching depth for the Yellowjackets is at a shortage, however, Mays said.

Kermit infielders were charged with errors in only three games out of the ten played in district competition. At the same time, there were only three extra base hits for the Yellowjackets and only one homer.

PROBABLE STARTER on the mound in Monday's game is Jim Kapka, a southpaw senior who issues the fast ball and curve.

Kapka, who relieved and took credit for last week's win over Seminole, has been the work-horse for the Yellowjackets this year. "He is Kermit's only front-line pitcher," opined Dave Schlair of the Kermit Daily News.

Also listed as a possible — but not probable starter was Johnny Hernandez, a righthander who has seen limited action this season. Hernandez, who welds the Yellowjackets' best bat, usually plays right field. He pitched in three district games.

OTHER PITCHERS include Jerry Edwards, a righthander who usually handles first base with admirable talent. He started in the final game against Seminole, but was relieved after four innings by Kapka.

At second base will be Randy McAnally. Shortstop is Teddy Baremore and third is Bill Klaxton. Catcher is Jim Reynolds, reputed to be the best all-around catcher in District 2-AAA. Mays credited his infield with "doing an outstanding job the whole season."

At left field is Butch Baker, while Rick Buford will be in center and either Hernandez or Benly Lawrence in right field.

AMARILLO — Hereford Whitefaces edged the Dumas Demons in a play-off game here Monday for the right to represent District 1-AAA in bi-district competition.

In a game which turned out to a batters' heyday and a coaches' nightmare, Hereford took a two-run margin after entering the final inning in a 12-12 deadlock.

WILL MEET KERMIT

Hereford meets Kermit — the District 2-AAA champs — Monday in the first game of bi-district competition. Game time is 4:15 p.m. at Kermit.

A SECOND GAME will be played in Hereford Thursday, June 3. Should the teams split the two games, a third game will be played later the same day to determine the regional representative.

HITTERS' HEYDAY

Coach Ronald Speed's Whitefaces boomed a total of 18 hits in Monday's now-or-never win. The teams had finished the season in a tie for the district championship. Included were two homers, a triple, and a double.

MIKE RANSPOD hurled five and two-thirds innings for the Whitefaces, allowing the Herd to garner a 12-6 lead. He was relieved by Lupe Ramirez in the bottom of the sixth when Dumas bounced back to tie the game.

A running catch by Bill Watts of a line drive hit by Dumas' Ronnie Robbins to deep right center field ended the game after Dumas had managed one hit in the seventh inning.

DEMONS BOUNCE BACK

Dumas bounced back from a 12-6 deficit in the fifth inning with unshakable determination, although facing for a time a pitching problem.

THE DEMONS' standout first baseman Robert Maffat was knocked out of the game in the third inning when involved in a collision over first base with Hereford's Steve Hodges.

Maffat was back in the lineup in the fourth inning, but hospitalized for observation of possible back injuries following another collision with a Hereford ballplayer. He was listed in good condition in St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo Tuesday.

SEVENTH TELLS STORY

Hereford gained the winning margin in the seventh inning on a triple by Danny Loerwald, a walk by Charlie Moreno, a single by Watts, and an error on a grounder hit by Gary Stagner through shortstop.

Earlier, Moreno had boomed a bases-loaded home run in the fourth inning.

STAGNER SENT one over the left field fence in the third inning for two runs, his second round-tripper in as many games.

Loerwald — a standout in Saturday's doubleheader which gave the Whitefaces a share of the district crown — had another top-notch performance Monday, getting three hits in five times to the plate. He was moved from left field to third base in the fifth inning in a switch with Hodges.

Frank Cain also paced the Whitefaces, garnering three hits including a double.

BIG DOUBLE PLAY

Cain initiated a Hereford double play in the fourth inning by taking a sizzling grounder behind second, stepping on the bag and tossing to Stagner at first.

Moreno got Hereford's other two-base hit — this one in the fifth inning shortly after he had sent one out of the park in the fourth inning.

He knocked a soaring drive to center field which hit the ground and bounced over the ten-foot high fence.

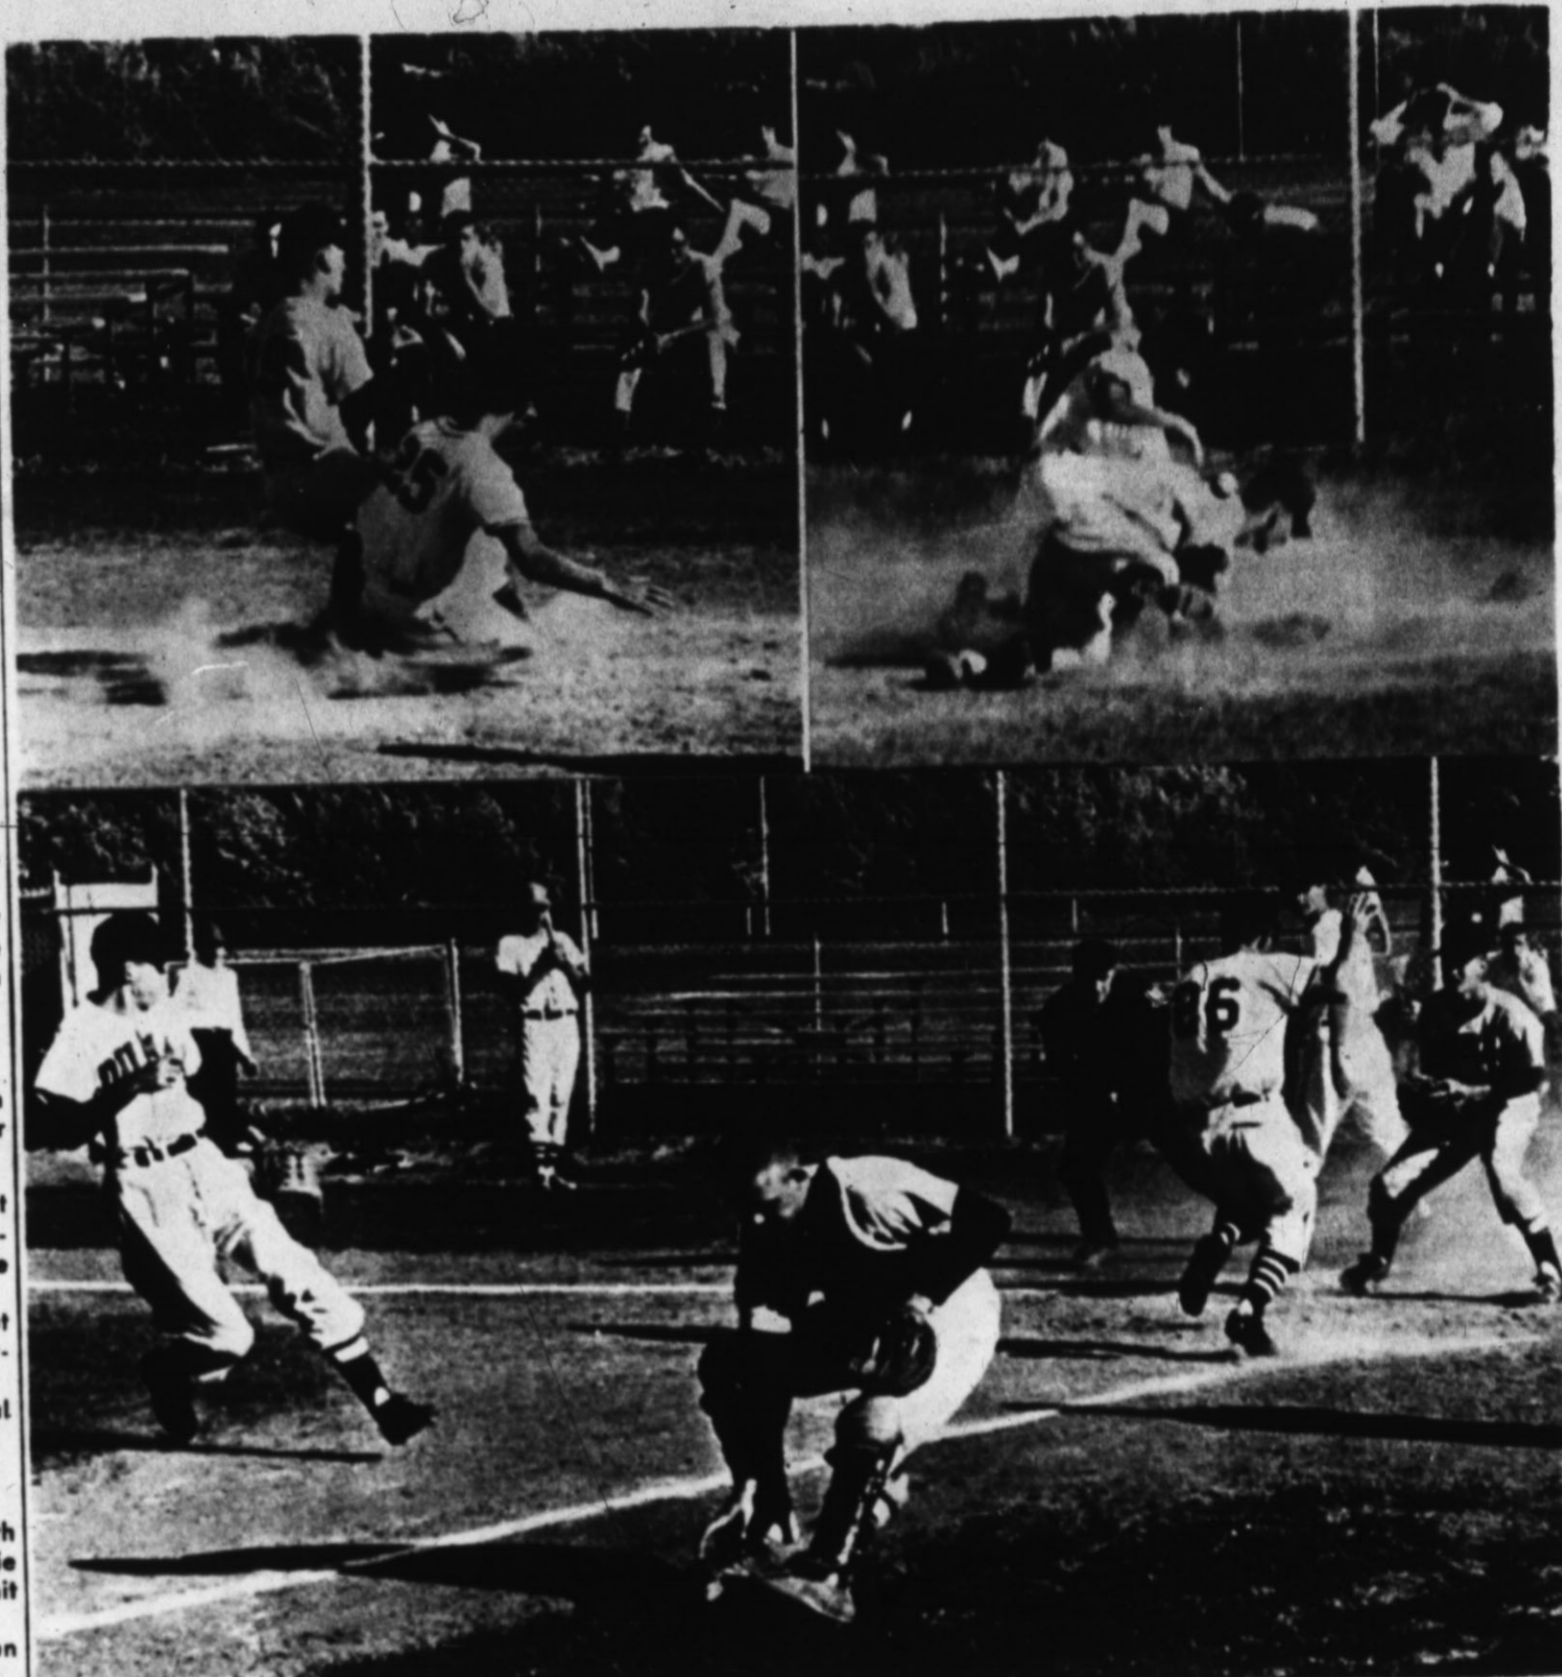

CONFUSING CALL

Confusion resulted, however, when the base umpire ruled the hit a home run. He changed the call after fans, coaches, and players — from both teams — pointed out that the ball had bounced over.

GARY VICTOR, Lynn Cook, Watts, Stagner, and Moreno had two hits each, while Hodges and Ranspod each singled to give Hereford a total of 18 hits.

Dumas came up with 14 hits, including five doubles, a triple, and a home run.

Hereford was charged with two errors in the game while Dumas had three.

Two Runs For The 'Faces

Two runs scored for the Whitefaces on a play at the plate in the fourth inning of Monday's play-off game between Hereford and Dumas at Amarillo. COACH SPEED ... glad it's over Cleveland's three home World Series games against the Boston Braves in 1948 drew 238,491 fans in Municipal Stadium.

Play After Play, 'Twas A Very, Very Long Day

The game was billed as a "sudden death play-off" but the Hereford Whitefaces and the Dumas Demons made an agonizingly long two hours and 40 minutes of it in Amarillo Monday. Dumas jumped in the lead as Hereford southpaw Mike Ranspod took a while to get squared away on the mound, then Hereford went ahead 5-2.

DUMAS CAME back to make it 6-5. Hereford pounded across six runs in the fourth for a 12-6 lead. Undaunted, the Demons held out to tie the game up in the sixth inning and it wasn't until the final play that anybody could be certain of the outcome of the game.

Hereford Coach Ronald Speed laughingly admitted immediately following the game that he was glad to see it over.

Mike Ranspod hurled five and two-thirds innings for Hereford, before tiring in the sixth. The senior southpaw threw a total of 86 pitches in the first four innings alone, more than many pitchers throw in an entire game.

HE STRUCK out ten, while giving up 12 runs on 12 hits and six walks. He faced a total of 36 batters.

Lupe Ramirez relieved with two away in the sixth inning, facing five hitters. He received credit for the win, as the game was deadlocked at 12-all when he came in.

Danny Loerwald opened the game in the first inning with a single and reached second on a passed ball, but was stranded as Dumas starter Wayne Harkrider fanned two and Bill Watts popped out to first.

The first two Dumas batters drew bases after being hit by Ranspod pitches then the Hereford senior fanned three to retire the side.

WITH ONE away in the top of the second, Gary Victor singled and advanced to second on Frank Cain's sacrifice bunt. Lynn Cook singled to bring in Victor for the first score of the game.

Dumas took the lead in the bottom of the second, however, on two doubles, a walk, and Tim Galloway's being hit by the pitcher for the second time in as many times to the plate.

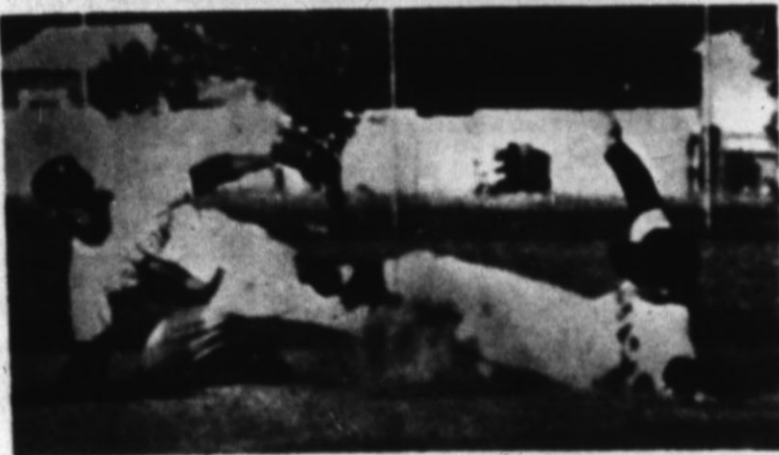

Trailing 2-1, Hereford quickly bounced back in the top of the third.

Loerwald connected for his second single of the day to lead things off, then Charlie Moreno got on with a fielder's choice as Loerwald was pegged at second. Watts singled, then Gary Stagner drilled one over the left center field fence to give the 'Faces a 4-2 edge.

Dumas regained the lead, 6-4. See PLAY PAGE 6

SAFE AT SECOND — Dumas centerfielder Ronnie Robins gets to second safely during the sixth inning of Monday's play-off game against the Hereford Whitefaces in Amarillo. Hereford's second sacker Gary Victor couldn't hang on to the toss from shortstop Frank Cain. Dumas came from behind to tie the game at 12-all in the inning, but Hereford returned in the seventh to win. (Staff Photo)

Dalhart Man Tops 'Life Begins At 40' Tourney Here

Jess Sorrells of Dalhart out shot Murrel Tripp of Lubbock Sunday to take top honors in the "Life Begins at 40" tournament on the John Pitman Municipal Golf Course. Sorrells had eliminated award winner Sam Cobb of Amarillo, 2-1, in the opening round of the tourney here Saturday. In the Sunday afternoon finals, he upset Tripp, 1-up.

TO GET to the finals, Tripp beat Henry McCracy 4-3 in the semi-finals Sunday morning. Sorrells had to beat a surprise semi-finalist, Russell Carver of Hereford, 1-up.

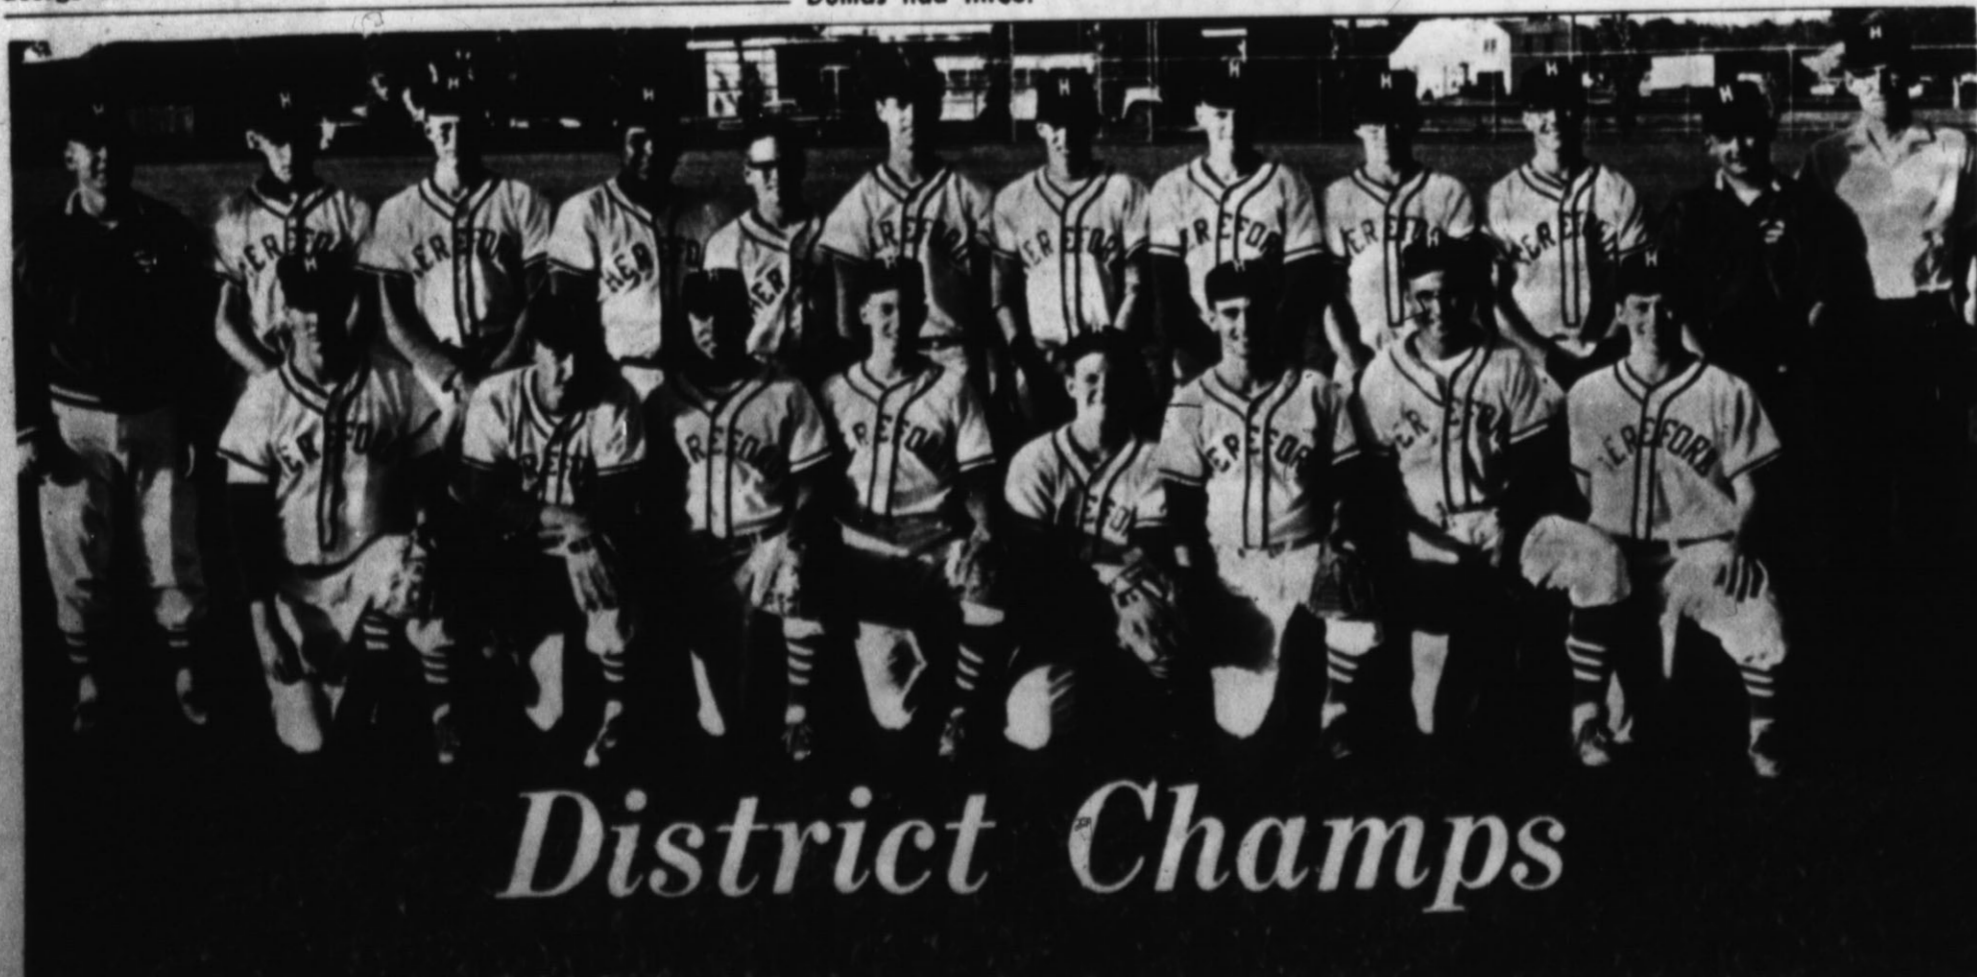

Upsets were seen in Saturday's rounds. Defending champion Stan Barrett of Muleshoe lost out to McCracy 3-2 in his first match. McCracy out played George Caldwell 4-3.

CARVER WAS slated to play in the first flight, but moved into the championship flight when another player withdrew from the tourney. Carver beat Roland Drake of Amarillo 3-2 and Bob Lindsey of Dimmitt 2-1.

Connard Young of Lubbock took the championship flight consolation from Ted Young of Hereford, 1-up.

FORMER WINNERS in this tourney were Murrel R. Tripp, 1959 and 1960; Dale "Pappy" Tinnin, 1961; W. W. "Punk" Gilbreath, 1962; and Stan Barrett, 1963.

In the decisive match, Sorrells led most of the way. He held a two-up margin after the first nine holes and was able to hold Tripp off for the victory.

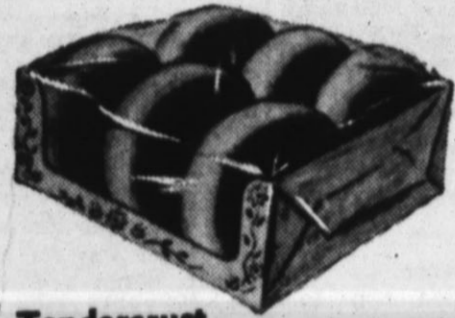

District Champs

The Hereford Whitefaces earned the right to represent District 1-AAA in bi-district competition by defeating Dumas 14-12 in a play-off game Monday in Amarillo after the two teams had finished the season with even standings. Members of the Whiteface team are, from the left: front, Ed Mink, Mike Ranspod, Charlie Moreno, Phillip Cain, Johnny Gilbert, Gary

TO ADOPT RECORD BUDGET

Southern Baptists Meet For Dallas Convention

(Special To The Brand) DALLAS — More than 15,000 Baptists from throughout the nation are expected here June 1-4 for the Southern Baptist Convention to conduct the business of the nation's largest Protestant denomination.

The convention will consider proposals to participate in a proposed North American Baptist Fellowship with seven other Baptist organizations; to limit the term of the convention president to one year; and to adopt a record $21.8 million budget.

These are the three major items on the agenda, but several other key issues could possibly come up from the floor of the convention during miscellaneous business periods.

THE ISSUE OF race relations is almost sure to come up during the meeting, convention observers say, possibly in the form of a motion or resolution or in convention speeches.

Some Baptists from deep South states have sought abolishment of the denomination's Christian Life Commission which presented recommendations last year commending churches for accepting Negro members, but most of the top convention leaders doubt the possibility of this coming up from the floor, or of such a proposal's getting far if introduced.

The Mississippi Baptist Convention meeting last November, for example, adopted a resolution opposing the position of the Christian Life Commission, but defeated a section in the resolution which called for the commission's abolition.

A CONTROVERSY over alleged "ballot stuffing" during voting at the convention in Atlantic City last year probably will not come up during the Dallas meeting, although a proposal to create a "credentials committee" to register the elected "messengers" (delegates) will be introduced.

The convention will use electronic computer punch cards with coded letters and numbers instead of slips of paper for official ballots, in an attempt to preclude voting irregularities.

The Baptists will vote on program descriptions of work carried on by two convention agencies — the Sunday School Board and the Brotherhood Commission, in addition to voting on the record $21.8 million Cooperative Program budget for 1966.

A COMMITTEE named to study the convention's possible participation in the North American Baptist Fellowship organization will recommend support for the Fellowship. Last year the SBC voted first not to participate; then reconsidered and voted for a one-year committee study with a recommendation to the Dallas meeting.

Second reading on a constitutional amendment to limit the SBC president's term to one year will come up. The proposal was approved last year, but must be adopted in Dallas on second reading before going into effect.

Most of the daytime session of the convention will be devoted to business actions, with evening sessions featuring inspirational messages and missions-emphasis programs.

The main convention begins Tuesday evening, June 1, and continues through Friday, June 4, at the Dallas Memorial Auditorium.

Numerous pre-convention meetings will begin Monday morning, May 31, including the SBC Pastor's Conference meeting at Market Hall, and the nationwide Southern Baptist Woman's Missionary Union Convention at the Memorial Auditorium. These and other related meetings end Tuesday afternoon just before the SBC gets underway.

Registration For Summer Classes At Wayland College Is June 1st

PLAINVIEW (Special) — Registration for the first summer term at Wayland Baptist College is set for June 1 with classes beginning on June 2.

Some 31 classes in 14 fields are being offered, according to Dean Robert G. Collmer.

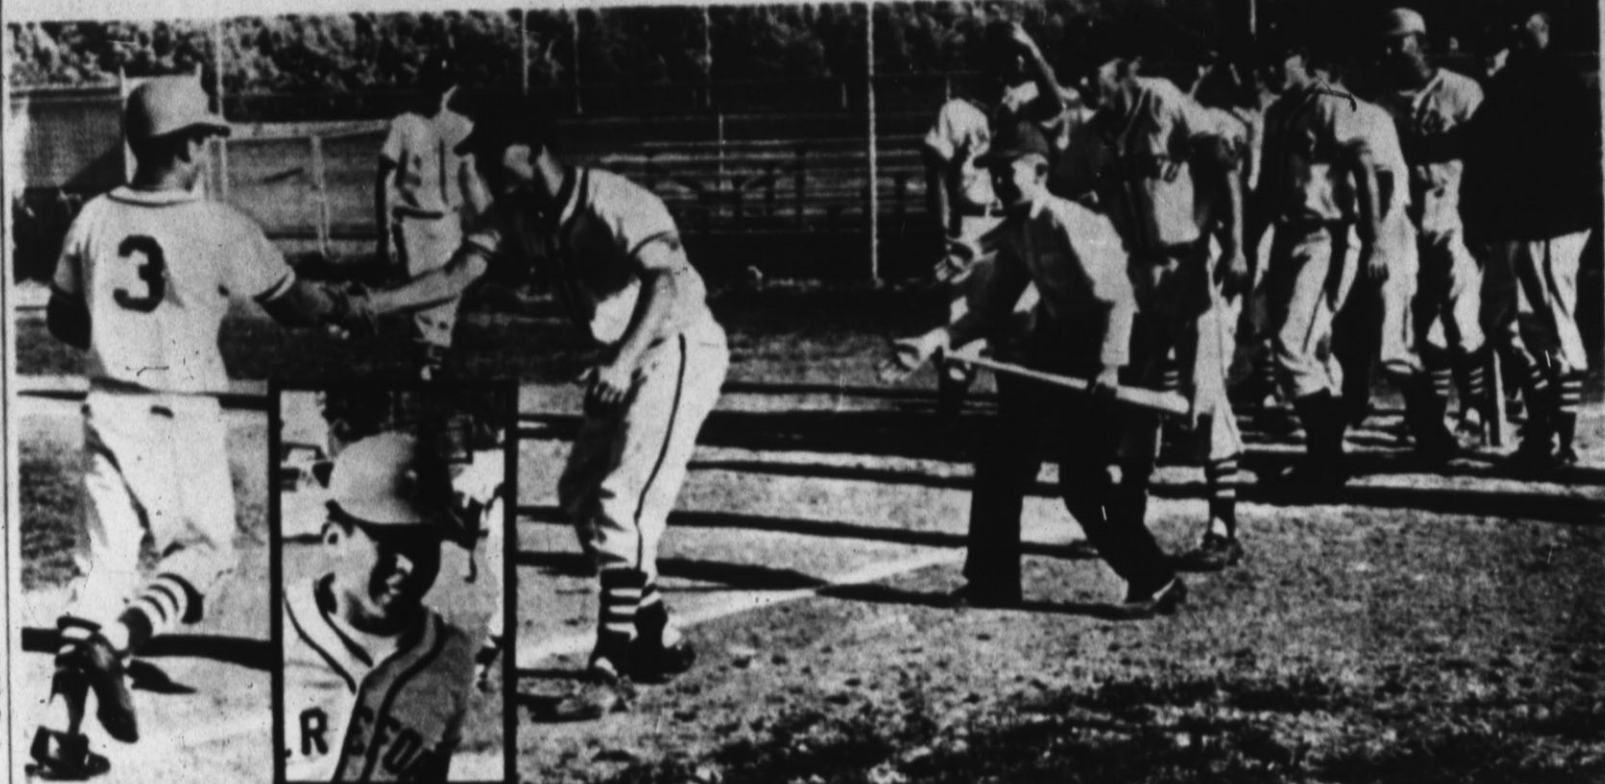

Coming from Kansas State Teachers College is Dr. B. E. Hughes as visiting lecturer in elementary education. He will be teaching his specialty, "Children's Literature," and "Reading and Language Arts in Elementary School."

TWO SECTIONS of the Craig Reading Program, a reading improvement program, will be offered by Kenneth P. Theda, instructor in psychology. These are 30-minute sessions and are offered in the late afternoon, 4 to 4:30 and 4:30 to 5 o'clock, so that those needing assistance in reading improvement may take them. This is a non-credit course and may be taken in addition to the normal credit courses. Also students in high school can be accommodated in these sections to the limit of the teaching machines.

FOR THE FIRST time, Wayland is offering in the summer the course in "Business Machines," as well as typing, both beginning and advanced. Mrs. Shirley Thompson Vessels, assistant professor of business, is the instructor.

Wayland art instructor, Ron Reynolds, will conduct his art classes in Taos, N.M., at the studio of the late John Young Hunter, distinguished painter of the American scene. Registration for this must be made immediately as a limited number can be accommodated.

EARNs CONGRATULATIONS — Charlie Moreno gets a welcome to home plate by his Hereford teammates after hitting his first home run of the year. The round-tripper came with the bases loaded in the fourth inning of Monday's play-off game between Hereford and Dumas, which Play...

(Continued from Page 4) in the bottom of the third with four hits, including two doubles. Then came the big fourth inning for Hereford.

CAIN DOUBLED to get things started, then Cook singled and Ranspot drew a walk. Loerwald was out on a bouncer and then Moreno homered over the center field fence to give Hereford an 8-6 edge.

With two away, Stagner, Steve Hodges, and Victor singled in order and Cain came to bat for the second time in the inning. He singled.

Demon coach Jerry Hale had pulled Harkrider from the mound in favor of Jim Sober early in the inning, then put John in to replace his brother after Cain singled for the second time.

JOHN SOBER walked Cook, the only batter he faced, and was then pulled in favor of Billy McVickers with two away.

Ranspot singled off McVickers, then Loerwald was out at second on a fielder's choice to retire the side after Hereford had collected eight runs off eight hits in the inning.

Cain picked up McVicker's grounder and turned it into a double play in the bottom of the fourth, then Ranspot fanned John Sober to retire the side, three up, three down.

McVICKERS enjoyed early success on the mound in the fifth inning, although lead-off man Moreno got a ground rules double after bouncing a ball over come the only Whiteface on base in that inning.

DUMAS converted three hits and a walk into four runs to tie the game in the bottom of the sixth before Ramirez came in to relieve Ranspot.

Loerwald tripped, Moreno walked, and Watts singled to give Hereford the two runs it needed to win in the seventh inning. Stagner got on with an error on his hit to shortstop, but was stranded on base.

Dumas, in their last try at the plate, hit into an alert Hereford defense.

Boyd grounded to Loerwald, who threw to first for the initial out. Price fanned and was out when Cook picked up the ball he had dropped and threw to first. Then McVickers got on with a single.

A deep line drive to Watts in right field ended the game.

FERRY TO NORWAY

ABERDEEN, Scotland (AP) — A new direct car-ferry service is expected to start next year between Aberdeen and Norway.

The Scottish Tourist Board also said that discussions are now under way for a new passenger, cargo and car service between Leith (Edinburgh) and Oslo.

The planned Aberdeen service will be to two Norwegian ports—Granvin on the west coast, and Arendal on the south. The service will carry about 50 cars and 400 passengers.

The Leith-Oslo service will be primarily for cargo, but it is likely the ship would also carry 60 passengers and a number of private cars.

Funeral services for Janis Moser, 12, and Willard W. (Bucky) Moser III, 10, former Amarillo children who were victims of drowning in Montana, were conducted Monday at 2 p.m. in Boxwell's Chapel by the Rev. Lester L. Hill, associate minister of Polk Street Methodist Church. Burial was in the memorial Park Cemetery. The brother and sister, children of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Moser, drowned last Sunday in a ranch reservoir near Mill Iron, Mont. The children were born in Amarillo and moved with their parents to Montana about three years ago, where the father is associated with his brother, W. R. Moser, in the ranching business. Surviving beside the parents is a sister, Margaret Lynn, a grandmother, Mrs. Eula Moser of San Saba; three aunts, Mrs. Ray Hackleman and Mrs. H. A. Bragg of Amarillo and Mrs. J. C. Aldenifer of Lincoln, Ill.; and two uncles, Malcolm Moser of Adrian and Ray G. Moser of Clay, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Junior Pulliam visited in the Charlie Pulliam home, Saturday and Sunday and Charlene went home with them to Amarillo for a week's visit. Sunday visitors were Mrs. Clayton Thompson and Mrs. Brub Beavers and children.

Bob Wiggins and Florence Wiggins from San Diego, Calif., are here visiting the Keith Kromer family for two weeks. Mrs. Charles Munch and Susan and Allen from Jacksonville, Fla., are here for a week visiting her sister and family, the Keith Kromers.

Mrs. Cal Jackson and Mrs. Ralph Perry were in Childress Thursday through Saturday visiting Mrs. Perry's mother, Mrs. J. P. McMinn, who is in a rest home there.

Mrs. Ethel Chapman from Arlington and Mrs. Edna Thomas from Fort Worth visited in Adrian Saturday with friends. They were honored with a supper given by the Joe Speeds, the Ed Jacobsens and the Norman Jacobsens. John Skaggs and the Bill Talberts of Vega, Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Thomas attended the funeral of their nephew at Claude, Texas.

Mrs. Stella Horton and Mrs. Clara Gruhkey sent the Adrian seniors and their sponsors on their way to Rock Away Beach, Mo., Saturday morning by fixing breakfast for them at Clara's house. There were seven seniors and sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hale and Mrs. and Mrs. Rex Manley.

Jess Fincher, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Garrison and Kathy are in Fort Logan, Colo., attending the graduation of Jackie Kidder this week.

Mrs. Hazel Chilton is leaving Friday for Elko, Nev., to visit her son and family, the Mark Chiltons, for a month. She will then go to Missouri.

Mrs. Claudia Loveless was in Guymon, Okla., last week and brought Mrs. Chubby Sasser and children home with them. They took them back Sunday.

Duane Collins, Larry and Jackie Loveless and Betty Whitten all went to Hatshorne, Okla., to attend the graduation of Glenda Collins this week.

Kathy Garrison held a party in her home after the graduation exercises Friday night and some of the girls remained overnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Alford Jobe and children visited the Lewis Jobe family at Endee Sunday.

There were 42 enrolled in Bible school Monday at the Baptist Church. Friday was preparation day.

Mrs. Earl Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robertson attended the graduation of J. R. Manning Saturday night at West Texas University. The Mannings are formerly of Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Harris and children and Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Harris and Donna attended the graduation of Freddie Harris at West Texas University Saturday night.

The Adrian FHA held its last meeting for this year May 12. The meeting was called to order by the vice-president, Vicki Burns. The main action of the meeting was the election of new officers for the 1965-66 school year. The new officers are: president, Marsha Burns; vice-president, Phyllis Heaton; secretary, Suzzette Sisk; treasurer, Jolene Betts; historian, Gale Gruhkey; asst. historian, Joan Lane; parliamentarian, Karen Rose; reporter, Bonnie Gamble, song leader, Roxann Brownlee; photographer, Linda Pridmore; asst. photographer, Donna Patterson; pianist, Rita Speed. The new freshman members will be Kathy Garrison, Gay Brothers, Lucy Montez and Karen Rose. The theme for the next year's annual style show was selected. The girls think it will be one of the best they have had. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Bill Gudgell was honored Wednesday with a pink and blue shower in the home of Mrs. George Lotspeich of Glenrio. Hostesses are Women's Society of Christian Service.

Bill Henderson was the speaker at the Adrian High and Jr. High graduation exercise Friday night in the high school auditorium. Honor students were Doriss Horton, salutatory, and Rick Gruhkey, valedictory. Invocation was given by the Rev. B. J. Foster and special awards were given by Paul Robertson. Presentation of diplomas was made by C. F. Homfeld; benediction was by Oscar Bronniman and special music was by Mrs. Kay Brown. There were eight seniors and 14 jr. high students receiving diplomas.

RESIDENTIAL OFFERING

New Flat-Rate Long Distance Service Announced By SWBT

A new long distance service is being offered to residence customers in Hereford, Charles Sutton, manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company said. Sutton said the experimental offering, Special Residence Long Distance Service will permit residence customers to make unlimited direct-dialed calls anywhere in Texas for a fixed monthly rate of $60. Calls may be made from 6 p.m. until 4:29 a.m.

IN EXPLAINING the service, Sutton said, "I want to emphasize that these calls must be placed by you - you cannot dial yourself to any point in Texas. Any calls which you cannot dial will be charged to you at the regular tariff rates." "For example," the manager continued, "you can call Dallas on the flat rate plan anytime between 6 p.m. and 4:29 a.m. and talk as long as you like at no additional charge above your flat rate of $60 per month. But, if you were to call Muleshoe which cannot be dialed by you - but must be placed through an operator - you would be charged extra for that call at the regular tariff rates."

SUTTON EXPLAINED that any city or town in Texas that does not have telephone numbers with two letters and five digits cannot be dialed on the Direct Distance Dialing network and must be placed through an operator.

Sutton also said the new long distance service would be available on a six-month contract basis and will not be offered to business or party-line customers. It should be especially attractive to those residence customers who make many long distance calls, Sutton said. With this new service customers will be able to make unlimited station-to-station calls for a fixed monthly rate. However, other charges and long distance calls made other than during the allotted time period will be billed in the normal manner.

MORE DRINKING SOFIA, Bulgaria - Alcoholism, especially among young people, is increasing in Communist Bulgaria, the party paper Rabotnichesko Delo reported. The paper did not disclose figures, but said that more than 3,000 alcoholics had to be taken to hospitals in Sofia in the last two years. Rabotnichesko Delo demanded closure of some of the bars and the help of police "to prevent that our youth falls prey to alcoholism."

'Pearly Gates' Troupe Act Out Dangers For Housewife

By ARGEN DRAPER
Home Demonstration Agent

The home demonstration clubs are having programs this month on dangers of mixing household cleaners. The program is a skit of five women who have met at the pearly gates and of all things have formed a club. The prerequisite for membership is having killed herself, a foolish act. A bit gruesome but effective. I have always questioned the tactics of backing the hearse up to people to teach something. I will have to admit that I am very guilty, particularly in presenting nutrition.

Last week we had a demonstration on a knitting machine. I was interesting and will have appeal to some people. It is recommended that 44 minutes on the machine is equaled to 36 hours by hand. The knitting might be too perfect to please some people who like the look that only handmade articles can have. The home demonstration clubs had programs in January on 'Tendin' to Your Knittin' I see many lovely hand knitted articles as a result of those demonstrations by Opal Norton.

THERE'S A NEW business in Hereford. I don't know just when it was launched but it landed on the third, northwest corner of the courthouse last week. It is a shoe shine business and seems to be doing well. The owner and operator is Terry Paul Dedyne and my prediction is that business will flourish. The fascinating thing is that the owner and operator is six years old and has a lot of personality. In fact, everyone likes him and likes to see him.

From the state 4-H office we have revised list of those who have attended the Texas Council. The first name to appear is Betty Lou McGaughey Wilcox.

Betty attended the Council in 1952. She was a 4-H member for seven years and still appreciates the training she received in 4-H club and in the award trips she attended. To Leaders: Good training in citizenship is never lost.

AT THE ACHIEVEMENT event for the Merry Maidens Club, I was given the pleasure of presenting two very attractive plaques to Joann Marnell and Lou Ann Witkowski. Mrs. Leo Witkowski accepted the award for Lou Ann as she is still in school at Tech.

Speaking of achievement events. The youth subject-matter groups were finished at St. Joseph's School with the achievement event May 6th. The members of the Progressive Home Demonstration Club judged the aprons, favorite foods and electric demonstrations.

Those ladies judging were Mrs. J. D. Gilbert, Jr., Mrs. T. J. Parsons, Mrs. P. L. Carmichael, Mrs. Floyd McGee, Mrs. Taft McGee, and Mrs. W. C. Beene. Two mothers of the students attended and were complimentary of the work that has been done. Our compliments to Mrs. Paul Engler, Mrs. J. D. Pitman, and Ed Dziuk, Sr. These fine leaders did an excellent job teaching these groups. There were 15 girls finishing clothing, 10 girls set up favorite foods, and 18 boys displaying something on the electric unit or giving demonstrations.

my money can be saved. If I learn how to manage my money when I am young, I will always know how when I am older."

Another: "Money management was fun and I think very important in the career of any child. We learned we get our money from gifts, earnings, and allowances. When we need to spend our money or want to spend a little on recreation, I think each person should try and make sure he is getting his money's worth." Also: "I have learned that a person must have complete control over money if it is to be managed. That a person must direct money in the right way. In a store when making a purchase, check the size, price, fit and then be smart and stretch the money. Keep a record. Don't be stingy with money, but don't be extravagant, either."

Can any of you improve on these? These are quotes from only three girls. Each girl had something just as worthwhile. I wonder what Howard Walker did to make the unit seem so much like fun. A lot of stress and strain could be eliminated if all persons would learn money management early. The Family Economics Committee is still ready and available for speeches or workshops in money management for persons of all ages.

Political Topics Will Be Aired

The governmental affairs committee of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce will meet at noon Friday at the Hereford Country Club to hear reports on three timely political topics.

Frank Barrett will report on the proposal by President Johnson to repeal Section 14-B of the Taft-Hartley law, the portion which permits states to enact "right-to-work" laws.

Dr. Joe Whitley will speak on the proposed limitations on ownership of firearms, and Mrs. Bill Howard will report on the reapportionment issue and the ramifications of a unicameral legislature for Texas. The meeting is open to any interested person, Bill Thompson, chamber manager, said.

Local Student Named Alternate For Stipend

A 1965 Hereford High School graduate has been named third alternate in the West Texas Press Association's $600 journalism scholarship.

ANTIMOUSE DRIVE

BUDAPEST — Hungarian children have been urged to help rid the country of mice — a major pest which is threatening this year's harvest.

The antimouse drive was ordered by the Hungarian Ministry of Agriculture. The entire rural population — children included — have been asked to take part.

Hungary's considerable mouse population caused several hundred million dollars damage to the agriculture last year, deputy agriculture minister Janos Keseru said in an article in the Hungarian Communist Party daily Nepszabadsag recently. The harvest census showed that their numbers have increased alarmingly meanwhile.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Wonderful Chocolate Souffle

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

HERE'S A chocolate souffle recipe we found perfect.

Some recipes, we admit, we enjoy testing more than others. This one we could happily try over and over again — and eat the results over and over again!

This dessert has chocolate flavor rich enough to suit a chocolate fancier, and the mocha flavored whipped cream that accompanies the souffle is utterly delightful.

WONDERFUL CHOCOLATE SOUFFLE

- 1/4 cup 1/2 stick butter
- 2 squares (2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate
- 1/4 cup flour
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup milk
- 4 large eggs, separated
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/8 teaspoon mace
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- Mocha Whipped Cream

In a small saucepan over very low heat, stirring occasionally, melt together the butter and chocolate. Remove from heat; stir in the flour and salt. Gradually stir in the milk.

Return to moderately low heat and cook and stir constantly until thickened.

In a large mixing bowl, beat together the egg yolks and sugar until thickened and lemon colored; beat in the mace and vanilla. Add the chocolate mixture; beat at low speed only until blended.

With the clean beater, beat egg whites until they hold peaks that curl over slightly; fold into chocolate mixture. Turn into a buttered 1 1/2 quart souffle dish; bake in a preheated slow (325 degrees) oven for 1 hour and 10 minutes. Serve at once with Mocha Whipped Cream.

MOCHA WHIPPED CREAM

- 1 cup heavy cream
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 tablespoon unsweetened cocoa

1 teaspoon instant coffee powder
Into a deep medium-size mixing bowl, turn the cream, sugar, cocoa and coffee powder; beat at high speed until stiff.

DINNER FOR FOUR

A new version of an interesting chicken dish — for company! Chicken Mexico. Rice Bowl Asparagus Bread Tray Lemon Pudding Beverage

CHICKEN MEXICO

- 1 large broiler-fryer, cut in 10 pieces
- 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1 cup golden raisins, rinsed in hot water and drained
- 1/2 cup sliced pimiento-stuffed olives
- 1 stick cinnamon
- 1 cup fat-free rich chicken or veal stock
- 1/4 cup dry (cocktail) sherry

Dry chicken and sprinkle with garlic salt. In a large skillet in the hot butter over moderate heat, brown the chicken; remove pieces to a 3-quart glass baking dish (13 1/2 by 9 1/2 by 1 1/2 inches). Add the onion to the skillet and stir over very low heat to get up drippings; add raisins, olives, cinnamon, stock and sherry; mix and pour around (not over) chicken. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for 30 minutes or until chicken is tender. Makes 4 servings.

FRIDAY FARE

Fresh dill adds exceptional flavor to vegetables.

Salmon Patties Potatoes Snap Bean Salad Bread Tray Fruit Sherbet Beverage

SNAP BEAN SALAD

- 1 1/2 pounds snap beans, tipped and cooked whole
- Olive oil and lemon juice
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 1/2 cup minced dill
- Lettuce

Have the beans drained and cooled. Mix with olive oil and lemon juice in proportions you prefer — half and half or 3 parts of oil to 1 part lemon juice. Mix in the salt, pepper and dill. Cover and chill to allow flavors to blend. Allow to stand at room temperature (so oil will not be congealed) before serving on a bed of lettuce. Makes 6 to 8 servings. Refrigerate any left-over salad.

SATURDAY SUPPER

Interesting way to use economical ground beef.

Skillet Beef and Cornbread Creamed Spinach Salad Bowl Ice Cream Sundaes Beverage

SKILLET BEEF AND CORN BREAD

- 1 tablespoon shortening
- 1 pound lean ground beef
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
- 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
- 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper

CORNBREAD BATTER: Into a mixing bowl, sift together 1 cup each sifted flour and enriched cornmeal, 1 tablespoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon dry mustard and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Add 1 egg, 1 1/4 cups milk and 1/4 cup soft shortening. Beat until smooth — about 1 minute.

Program On Poisons Presented For H.D. Meeting Thursday

"Poisons that kill" was the program presented in the form of a skit for the North Hereford Home Demonstration Club when they met in the home of Mrs. Tony Hoffman last Thursday.

Members in the skit were Mrs. C. L. Whitehead, Mrs. O. L. Williams, Miss Roberta Campbell, Mrs. Tony Hoffman and Mrs. Paul M. Hoff.

Mrs. O. L. Williams was the presiding officer and roll call was answered with "A tragedy from carelessness".

Mrs. Hoffman was the hostess for this meeting and it was announced that the next meeting was set for 2:30 p.m., June 4th to be in the home of Mrs. A. E. Hodges.

Attending were Mrs. R. A. Fullwood, Mrs. Velma Salvino, Mrs. C. L. Whitehead, Mrs. Otto Massie, Mrs. O. L. Williams, Mrs. Paul M. Hoff and Mrs. Hoffman.

Visitors were Mrs. Carl Luke, Miss Roberta Campbell and Mrs. Linnea Campbell.

Mrs. Heard Brings Program On Poisons For Ford H.D. Club

Mrs. C. G. Heard presented the program for the Ford Home Demonstration Club when they met recently in the home of Mrs. Raymond Smith.

Mrs. Heard's program was "Harmless poisons that kill" and for her opening remarks she said the first thing that should come to mind is the prevention of accidents. She also said that all harmful things should be put out of reach of children.

In the event of an accident, she related, an effort should be made to find the ingredient taken, call the doctor and administer the counterpoises, then take the ill person to the doctor.

Five members of the club presented a skit entitled "Foolish Kates at the Peary Gates" which showed that the mixing of cleaning agents can be deadly. It related that deaths have resulted because of gases formed when improper agents are mixed. As a family rule, they related, never mix bleaching agents with any other cleaning component.

Mrs. A. L. Hollingsworth, president, presided for the business meeting when it was announced the next meeting would be June 2nd in the Ford Community Building.

Mrs. John Smith gave the council report and hostess was Mrs. Raymond Smith. For this salad luncheon each member brought their favorite salad and copies of the recipe to exchange.

Attending were Mrs. Frank Brorman, Mrs. Harry Brorman, Mrs. Leroy Edwards, Mrs. Raymond Flores, Mrs. J. C. Gossett, Mrs. C. G. Heard, Mrs. A. L. Hollingsworth, Mrs. A. J. Jamerson, Mrs. J. H. Jamerson, Mrs. John A. Smith, Mrs. Raymond Smith, Mrs. Reece Lawson and Mrs. Brace Hicks.

Piano Recital Presented For Walcott P-TO

Mrs. Sam Long presented her piano students in a recital recently for the program at the Walcott P-TO meeting in the Walcott School.

Mrs. Bill White was the program chairman and those performing were Margaret Minks, Earl Brown, Sharon White, Cynthia Coleman, Sharon Dearing, Gary Coleman, Ricky Long, Joan Walters, Barbara Brown, Tommy Brown, Paul Timberlake and Denise Melton.

Pupils receiving superior rating in the Junior Music Festival were Margaret Minks, Sharon White, Ricky Long and Paul Timberlake. Mrs. Long presented Sharon White an award for rating superior for the third consecutive year.

Those playing duets were Margaret Minks and Barbara Brown, "Deep Purple"; Denise Melton and Margaret Minks, "Glow Worm"; and Cynthia Coleman and Sharon White, "Canadian Capers".

Mrs. Harold Bass was the presiding officer and the all school annual picnic committee report was given. This is scheduled for May 16th, 12:30 p.m. to be in Dameron Park.

Mrs. Coombes' Piano Students To Be Presented In Recital Tuesday Evening

Piano students of Mrs. Ellis Coombes will be presented in a recital Tuesday evening in the First Christian Church with the first program slated to begin at 7:30 p.m.

Being presented in the first program are Gayle Gripp, Dean Gripp, Bert Halle, Susy Moreno, Debra Gitter, Denise Poarch, Amber Hare, Jerry Etheredge, Judy Bodkin, Jacky Bodkin, Cynthia Etheredge, Pam Garrison and Kay Lynn Ward.

The second program is scheduled for 8 p.m. and will include Jerry McCathern, Ricky Long, Becky Long, Mary Jane Harper, Cindy Newsum, Linda Newsum, Debbie Hoover, Connie Hoover, Cheryl Solomon, Suzanne Solomon and Joellen Hamilton.

The evening recital will include a program of solos, duets and trios with selections ranging from American and classics to modern.

Jerry McCathern will provide a special number, a horn solo, during the program and will be accompanied by Nickie Osborn at the piano.

Friends and the general public are invited to attend.

Quality Printing at the Ink Spot

ANTIQUED NEW CITY HALL. RENO (AP) — The new city hall turned a little green around the eaves. They wanted it that way.

There is a copper band around the top of the building. Workers treated the copper with a special compound to make it turn green. If not treated, the band would turn black, architect Hewitt Wells said.

Polishing the band, to keep it a shiny copper color, would be impractical, he said.

Why not use some other metal? "Copper has a richness to it that no other metal has," Wells said. "And once it's installed, nobody has to do anything to it. It's there for keeps."

PROPOSED BY REP. COOLEY

Cotton Men Say Acreage Cut Would Be 'Disastrous'

EDITOR'S NOTE: The new Cooley cotton proposal is opposed in this release from the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock.

"Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. strongly opposes provisions of the new Cooley cotton proposal which call for direct payments to producers and 14 million acre minimum national allotment."

This was the substance of a telegram sent May 15 to Representatives and Senators in Washington by PCG. The wire pointed out to officials that "two million acre cut in acreage together with recent price reductions and rising costs would be disastrous to growers."

The new proposal was made in a bill introduced in the House of Representatives May 13 by Chairman Harold Cooley of the House Committee on Agriculture. Representative Cooley called his measure "A bill to extend for two years the provisions for cotton equalization payments and with modifications."

THE SAME DAY that Cooley's bill was being dropped into the Washington hopper directors of Plains Cotton Growers were adopting a nine-point legislative policy almost at the opposite pole. Both Cooley and PCG agree that cotton should have a competitive price to both foreign and domestic mills. But here the agreement ends.

Cooley advocates in his bill that payments be made directly to producers. Point number one of the PCG policy states that the Plains producer organization will support a cotton program which "maintains the traditional concept of producer income protection through a non-recourse loan at or near the U. S. producer's income level of 75 per cent of parity." Also, point number three states that cotton should be made competitive in domestic and foreign markets through a trade-incentive payment "in the channels of trade to other than the producer."

THE FIRST "modification" as set forth in the Cooley proposal would reduce the national minimum acreage allotment from 16 to 14 million acres — just over a 12 per cent cut. Point number two of the PCG program states flatly that producers on the Plains support a program that "maintains the 16 million acre base, national allotment." By the same token, PCG opposes any program which does not maintain the current allotment.

In addition to setting up the machinery for direct compensatory payments to producers the bill also states that "if the Secretary is unable because of lack of funds or for other reasons to provide the levels of combined support authorized under this section for any crop of upland cotton, price support loans shall be made available for such crop at such level not more than 90 per cent nor less than 65 per cent of the parity price therefore."

And in an explanatory news release from the House comes this statement: "Under the bill introduced today a farmer could have the choice of selling his cotton at the world market price and accepting the equalization payment or placing his cotton under loan at the current price support level."

ACCORDING TO Donald A. Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, this is an obvious attempt to direct payments stemming from a fear of inadequate appropriations.

Johnson said the legislative principles adopted by the PCG Board were guidelines under which this or any other cotton proposal will be considered. He continued that: "Unless and until further action is taken by the Board, we will be obliged to actively oppose any proposed legislation which violates any of the nine points set forth."

The Cooley proposal would authorize the Secretary to offer an additional support, up to 25 percent above the general price support, to small farmers and to larger farmers who agree to plant within their domestic allotments. In 1964, with a 16 million acre national allotment, a farmer's domestic allotment was considered 65 per cent of his total, and additional support payments were limited to 15 per cent above the general support. With a 14 million acre minimum, domestic allotments would likely figure between 70 and 75 per cent of the total.

AS IS THE case under the current program, all producers with 15 acres or less of cotton would be eligible for the additional support. However, the new bill calls for payments to be made to these small farmers whether they plant cotton or not. This would amount to another means of reducing production, since growers who released their allotments for reappportionment to other farmers could not receive the payment.

Johnson, who has been in contact with cotton leaders in other sections of the cotton belt, is of the opinion that opposition to the new proposal will be virtually unanimous among producer groups.

Recording Artist To Appear Here

Buddy Knox, a recording artist popular with teen-agers, will make two appearances in Hereford Friday under the auspices of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

He will arrive in a caravan about 2 p.m. which will terminate at the parking lot of Cooper's Supermarket where he will perform briefly.

A 4 p.m. program and autograph party is planned at Hereford High School. Admission will be $1.50 per person. A dance from 8 p.m. to midnight will be at the Little Bull Barn where admission will be $2 per person.

Knox will be accompanied by his band, The Rhythm Orchids.

William Shakespeare Jr. of Michigan in 1897 invented the level-wind fishing reel. His device, which made casting practical, assured the even winding of the line on the spool.

EYES DETERIORATE

Oldsters Require Better Lighting

EDITOR'S NOTE: Improved lighting could trim high accident rates among old people in the home, says the Texas Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

The high accident rate among older Americans could be cut through improved strategic lighting in the home, the Texas Society for the Prevention of Blindness, Inc., says.

The combination of aged eyes and inadequate illumination is a significant factor in accidental falls that kill more than 10,000 elderly persons each year, Roman Boerger, President of the Texas Society reported. May has been proclaimed as Senior Citizens Month by President Johnson.

"A PERSON IN his sixties needs about two and one-half times more light than a 20-year-old," said Boerger. "In most cases as we get older, we do get brighter reading lights but neglect other areas of the home vital to continued safe living."

Boerger cited a report presented at the 1965 annual conference of the National Society showing the accidental death rate per 100,000 population climbs from 55 among young adults to 90 in the 65-74 year age group and then soars to 276 accidental deaths per 100,000 in the 75-year and older category.

THE REPORT, prepared by Norvin C. Kiefer, M.D. and Manuel Rodstein, M.D. of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, noted that accidental falls kill almost 11,000 persons 75 and over annually. Poor illumination and the decreased visual acuity of the older person contribute to these falls, particularly on stairways, the physicians said.

Age slows the adaptation of the eyes to darkness and also slows eye-hand and eye-foot coordination. These changes demand consideration in planning home safety and accident prevention for the elderly, according to Boerger.

The Society recommends that passageways have good lighting during the day as well as at night, particularly stairs and landings. The one or two steps between levels in a split-level dwelling are especially hazardous for the person who cannot discern the less obvious differences between floor levels.

THE EDGES of steps should be painted with fluorescent paint or some sharply contrasting color, and the illumination used should clearly indicate the height of the riser. For nighttime, 3 1/2 or 7 1/2-watt lights should be used in bathrooms, hallways, bedrooms, and other possibly hazardous locations. The economy-minded older person may have to be convinced of how little extra electricity these night lights take. Silent light switches, which the older person will use more readily because he won't disturb others, are an added safety bonus. A small patch of fluorescent paint around a switch helps in locating it in the dark.

The Texas Society also advocates that all Senior Citizens who wear eyeglasses get safety glasses. Safety glasses with shatter-resistant lenses offer protection to the eyes in case of a tumble or mishap. Safety lenses can be ground to bi-focal and even trifocal prescriptions.

ROOMMATES AGAIN STAFFORD, Kan. (AP) — When Jake Nelson of Turon, Kan., and Claud Fields of Stafford landed in the same hospital room as patients they began to recall old times.

Among their memories was the fact that they last shared a hospital room 58 years ago.

REP. ROGERS REPORTS

Communist Ruin Illustrated Best By Agriculture

By WALTER ROGERS
U. S. Representative

America's agricultural problems are problems, in the main, of plenty — of a magnificent ability possessed by our farmers to produce food and fiber beyond the needs of our own people and beyond the requirements of our export markets. In much of the rest of the world, the "farm problem" is a problem of finding the means to produce and distribute a minimum level of food to stave off the mass starvation of the population. In Communist countries, the problem is compounded by multiple inefficiencies imposed on agriculture by a totalitarian political system.

NORTH VIETNAM'S drive for conquest in the south is spurred by its failure in stimulating agricultural development. For ten years, the Red rulers of North Vietnam have failed repeatedly in attempts to force production above levels existing before World War II. Now, rice, meat, animal fat, and sugar are rationed in North Vietnam, and supplies available fluctuate markedly. The caloric intake of the average North Vietnamese is well under 2,000 calories a day. Eighty percent of the country's labor force is engaged in scratching this bare living from the land, but farmers must depend on other sources for a large part of their income. As in most other Communist countries, agriculture is the lagging sector of the economy; in North Vietnam, the value of agricultural production increased only 3 per cent from 1959 to 1963.

Latest information available indicates the North Vietnamese peasants, those who must carry the nation's economic burden, are not sympathetic to the regime, and the harsh methods of the police state are used to maintain discipline. This fact is testimony to the failure of the initial step taken to socialize North Vietnamese agriculture: land reform. By 1956, the Communists had virtually eliminated landlords as a class and had redistributed the land. The landlords who were not liquidated, particularly those who had assisted the regime in its long war against the French, were allowed to retain a portion of their land equal in size to the smallest area given the poorest peasant.

AS PRACTICED by the Communists, the socialization of agriculture involves transferring the agricultural economy from a system of private ownership and individual enterprise to one of public ownership. This, by Communist lights, permits the operation of agricultural enterprises to be controlled and directed as are other nationalized industries. The formation of collective farms followed redistribution of land to the peasants. All of the peasant's belongings, except his personal effects and his house, became the property of the collective, either as part or full payment of the entrance fee. Compensation for the collective came only in return for a member's labor.

A SMALL plot of land was provided for the peasant's use and part of the collective's land was set aside for raising livestock. But collectivized farming has flopped in North Vietnam; the peasants have proven uncooperative, the farm administrators incompetent. Private enterprise persists despite all attempts to smash it. Official statistics of the North Vietnamese regime show that four years ago more than half of the income of households on collective farms came from supplementary activities — from using private land plots to produce food or to raise pigs, chickens, and ducks for consumption or sale, making and selling handicrafts outside the organization, planting and cultivating trees, and raising fish in small ponds.

EVEN IN LONG-subjugated, impoverished, and poorly educated peoples, the will for freedom dies hard. Collectivization of agriculture has failed, and the failures seem destined to mount as the North Vietnamese economy continues under the strain of increasing population and an increasing urban, industrial labor force which consumes but does not produce food. The tyranny of the regime in North Vietnam is aimed not only at neighboring South Vietnam but also at its own tormented citizenry. This is the pattern of Communist regimes everywhere, and nowhere is the tragedy of Communist rule and ruin better illustrated than in agriculture.

Thank God for the blessing He has bestowed upon America and our people.

CRACKED HIS PLATE

LONDON (AP) — Within minutes listeners were calling the British Broadcasting Company wanting to know "what has gone wrong with the newscaster?"

BBC radio news announcer Michael Brooke, 60, had just begun to read the 10:30 p.m. news when his upper plate cracked. Undeterred by this dental mishap he carried on reading, although his voice seemed strangely muffled.

"For no apparent reason," Brooke said later, "the top set of false teeth cracked just as I was about to read. It was terribly embarrassing but I carried on as best I could."

Brooke, who has been a news announcer for 25 years, stuck the upper plate together with sticky tape and was able to read the 11:30 p.m. news without difficulty. There were no complaints.

The next morning he went to the dentist.

The GLAD Way

Too long have we thought of The Way of the Cross as the "sad way." There may be sad moments along every noble path, but not all great ways are sad ways. The path of motherhood may have sad turns but it is a satisfying path. The path of education climbs some difficult and steep places but it is a thrilling way. Isaiah talked about the highway of God, where faithful servants passed on good errands. The way of the Cross is the way one takes when he serves God. It is not the "Sad Way" but rather the "Glad Way." Jesus came by way of the Cross, and the Book of Books, on which the cross is planted, tells us to "take up our cross and follow." Whether atop the church steeple or on the highest mountain, it is The Glad Way. Heaven and God are at the end of that way. It is today aglow with the light of forgiving grace. It challenges the weak to walk by faith and offers pardon to those who fall at its foot. It is where Jesus prayed, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." It is The Glad Way.

CONSUMER'S FUEL ASS'N

Lawmakers' Output Is Ponderous

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN (AP)—Tabulation of the activities of the Texas Legislature reveals that the current body has produced more new laws than any of its predecessors.

This is a remarkable achievement in view of the pressing time-taking demands of redistricting and increased spending, as well as the controversy on raising the pay of teachers and increasing taxes.

REDISTRICTING — State lawmakers have faced up to their most painful job of the session — legislative redistricting.

In a tension-charged atmosphere, senators performed self-surgery (under federal court order) which in effect will cut off seven rural incumbents and transfer their places to major population centers.

Somewhat more peacefully, the House placed the heads of 16 of its members on the chopping block.

Under the Senate plan, 13 incumbents will be jammed into six districts. They are:

Sens. Dorsey Hardeman, San Angelo, and Pete Snelson, Midland (Dist. 25); Walter Richter, Gonzales, Culp Krueger, El Campo, and Bill Patman, Ganado (Dist. 18); Louis Crump, San Saba, and J. P. Wrod, Meridian (Dist. 12); Jack Strong, Longview, and Galloway Calhoun, Tyler (Dist. 2); Jack Hightower, Vernon, and Andy Rogers, Childress (Dist. 23); and Bill Moore, Bryan, and Mrs. Neveille H. Colson, Navasota (Dist. 5).

SENATE re-appointment measure would assign Harris County four senators, plus a share in one. Dallas gets three, plus a share in one. Bexar gets two, plus a share in one.

Tarrant County retains a single Senate place and shares in another district. El Paso area will have its own senator.

House races where incumbents are combined with one to be eliminated, if all seek re-election, shape up like this:

Reps. J. E. Miller Jr., Burkeville, and Emmett Lack, Kountze; Neal Solomon, Mount Vernon, and E. M. Edwards, Pattonville; John Allen, Longview, and John Mobley, Kilgore; David Crews, Conroe, and Cameron Hightower, Liberty; Vernon Beckham, Denison, Don Helton, Sherman and Bill Dungan, McKinney; Bill Hollowell, Grand Saline, Jim Markgraf, Scurry; Bill Satterwhite, Ennis, and Ronald Roberts, Hillsboro; Lloyd Guffey, El Campo, and Otha Birchner, Van Vleet; J. T. Newman, Cuero, and Paul B. Haring, Goliad; A. C. Atwood, Edinburg, Felix McDonald, Edinburg, Gregory Montoya, Elsa, and Raul Longoria, Pharr; Jim Nugent, Kerrville, and Terry Townsend, Brady; Roy Arledge, Stamford, Raleigh Brown, Abilene, and Grant Jones, Abilene; A. C. Hallmark, Dalhart and Fritz Thompson, Borger; Hudson Mayor; Walter Knapp and J. M. Simpson, Amarillo; Jack Woods, George Cowden, Dick Cherry, all of Waco, Travis McClinton, Coryell County; Charles Wheeler and Glenn Johnson, Temple, and Gene Fondren, Taylor.

House bill would give Harris County 19 representatives; Dallas 14; Bexar 10; Tarrant eight and El Paso five, or a total of 56 of the House's 150 seats.

Congressional redistricting remains to be unraveled.

BILL TO COMPTROLLER — A record $3,600,000,000 state budget bill, major business of the session, finally is in the hands of the State Comptroller for certification, after agreement on corrections and last-minute additions by resolution.

Independent estimates calculate the $623,400,000 general fund appropriation would leave a surplus of $700,000 if no other spending measures are passed.

But other spending bills are almost certain to be passed. Tax bill authors are taking that into consideration in writing a revenue-raising measure which will pay for the $70,000,000 (state share) teachers' salary boosts and the other pending requests for funds.

PAY COMPROMISE SET — Teachers and Governor Connally reached a compromise in their pay dispute.

Teachers will get raises ranging from $90 for beginners to $1,080 a year for M.A. degree holders with 18 years' experience. Local school districts must share about 20 per cent of estimated $101,000,000 biennial cost.

LOAN BILL STYMIED — Rep. W. Reed Quilliam Jr. of Lubbock tried without success to spring his bill to reduce interest rates on "small-small" loans of less than $100. Currently it runs about 320 per cent, according to Quilliam. His bill would permit approximately 120 per cent.

Bill, introduced early in the session, has been buried in a subcommittee.

Quilliam asked for a vote to "instruct" the committee to report the bill out of committee for a vote on the floor of the House. By refusing to do so, the House, in effect, killed the bill.

ELECTION CALLED — Governor Connally has called a special election for June 26th in District 78 to elect a successor to Rep. Ed J. Carpenter of Coahoma, who died May 11. District is made up of Martin, Howard, Glasscock, Sterling, Coke, Reagan and Irion Counties.

Candidates may file up to 30 days before the election. Secretary of State Crawford C. Martin says applications for ballot must be in his office by May 27.

OIL ALLOWABLE UP LITTLE — Railroad Commission decided state oil production should be held to 28.1 per cent of potential during the next month. That would set the June allowable at 2,900,000 barrels daily. May production, under 27.2 per cent order, was maximum of 2,800,000.

NAVIGATION BILL PASSED — House members passed a bill to create a Deep East Texas Navigation District, to build an 18-mile canal linking Sam Rayburn and Toledo Bend reservoirs.

Canal would promote barge traffic from East Texas to the Gulf of Mexico.

Highway Commission, meanwhile, let contracts for two highways to serve recreational facilities on north side of Rayburn Reservoir.

NEW COLLEGES VOTED — Texas' 23rd and 24th state senator colleges are about to be designated, subject to approval of the higher education coordinating board.

Both Houses approved a senior college at Odessa, Texas. A college bill was passed by Senate and promptly approved by House committee.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED — Governor Connally named R. Woffard Cain of Dallas to the board of Texas A&M University.

He reappointed S. B. Whittenburg, Amarillo, and Sterling C. Evans, Houston.

CODE BILL PROTESTED — Revised code of criminal procedure has passed both houses but is in conference committee.

Newsmen have protested a House amendment which would prohibit law enforcement officials from making public information which may "prejudice a jury." Newspapers maintain that the amendment would restrict freedom of the press and ask that the amendment be deleted.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr held as unconstitutional a budget bill rider to provide for mandatory retirement at age 70 of statutory officers are employees of the State.

In other opinions, Carr held:

1. Signer of an election petition for local option sale of alcoholic beverages may not withdraw his signature after 30-day time limit for filing.

2. Seawall Commission for Matagorda County will no longer be an effective body after September 1, 1965.

3. Travel expenses of task groups of the Emergency Planning Committee can be paid when properly approved.

4. Bill regulating purchasing procedures of gas and electric companies in Bexar County is unconstitutional as a local and special law.

PESTICIDE BILL ADVANCED — Bill to regulate pesticide applicators through an advisory committee in the office of the State Commissioner of Agriculture cleared the Senate, but was sent back to the house.

Bill calls for nine-member committee to draw up licensing requirements and requires annual registration under bond.

SHORT SNORTS — Proposed constitutional amendment to remove restriction on soldier voting has legislative approval and will be submitted to voters.

House members voted to remove requirement that jurors in capital cases not be opposed to death penalty. Firearms control bill sponsored by National Rifle Association, which already has Senate approval, advanced to House floor with committee blessing.

House state affairs committee recommended passage of resolution calling on congress not to repeal state right to work laws. Senate committee gave its o.k. to House-passed proposed constitutional amendment to allow Texas to match federal medicare program funds.

Governor approved new Neighborhood Youth Corps job programs in Tarrant County, San Antonio and Beaumont. Senate approved a compromise bill on "equal rights regardless of sex."

Both houses approved repeal of the law which prohibits roping contests for money or prizes. A try to get a five-year moratorium on executions adopted on the Code of Criminal Procedure revision failed, but Rep. Charles Whitfield's bill to abolish capital punishment still is on the House calendar. Also on the House calendar is a bill by Rep. John Alaniz of San Antonio to let Texas participate in the federal food-stamp program which lets needy families get food at their local grocery stores with coupons furnished by the federal government through the state.

A proposed amendment to create a Nebraska-type unicameral legislature was voted down by the Texas House of Representatives.

Biologist Uses Helicopter To View Aoudad Sheep In Palo Duro Park

(Special To The Brand)

AUSTIN — An intimate glimpse at the mysterious wild-life haunts in the jagged Palo Duro Canyon country was described by Wildlife Biologist Phil Evans for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department after a series of helicopter census flights over the aoudad sheep habitat.

Evans, who counted 72 head of wild barbary sheep, in the Panhandle hideout, is so keen about using the pokey aircraft that he plans to use a special C 2 marking pistol that fires a half-inch ball of paint during future flights, as an aid to census efforts.

Aoudads thus marked would enable biologists to apply a simple ratio formula of marked-to-unmarked-sheep and determine, with reasonable accuracy, the total population.

FOR THE LAST two falls, a limited harvest has been permitted of the aoudads which are highly prized by trophy-hunters.

Evans, in his report, said speeds over 30 miles per hour were found to be too fast for an accurate observation.

"Sheep reacted differently to the helicopter," reported Evans. "Some ran a few yards then stopped and looked up at us; others tried to hide in the cedar and shinnery. We observed that some ewes with lambs would keep running to get out of the area. Some of the sheep were pursued to learn their reactions. The sheep either ran up or down. They didn't run parallel to the helicopter. Most of the sheep trotted, no heading dash for safety. Not much panic on the part of the sheep; a well ordered retreat. This was not true with the 61 deer observed. They would run in high gear, and when we moved away they would still be running.

"TWO RAMS WERE intentionally pressed by the helicopter. The sheep were about 50 feet below the top of the cap when first observed. They ran upwards out on top of the cap, where they were confronted with a four-strand barbed wire fence. One sheep went through the fence much the same as a deer would do. The other sheep turned around and went back down into the canyon. The ram that went through the fence trotted a few yards then went back down into the canyon on the other side of the point.

"About 10 minutes later, a ewe with an extremely small lamb was seen. The ewe trotted upwards on the canyon walls. The lamb couldn't keep up with its mother. When the lamb couldn't negotiate a ledge one foot in height, the ewe stopped and looked up at the helicopter. We didn't press the engagement, but backed off. The lamb looked spotted brown and blackish, maybe still wet, surely less than a week old. The lambs features were unlike its mother."

GLENNA FAY GANDY

Local Student To Be Graduated

Glenna Fay Gandy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Gandy, 219 N. Lee, will be graduated from Wayland Baptist College at Saturday Commencement ceremonies at First Baptist Church.

Texas A&M Prepares For Annual Roundup Next Week Of 4-H Clubs

COLLEGE STATION (Special)

The green and white of the 4-H Clubs will dominate the Texas A&M University campus June 1-3 when some 2,000 4-H members, leaders, county Extension agents and friends of 4-H assemble for their annual roundup.

Winners for 30 judging and team demonstration contests will be named Wednesday, June 2, and honored at the final banquet that evening. A new division, Quarter Horse Judging, has been added this year. Those participating in the contests have already won county and district honors and have been training for many weeks.

TO BE ELIGIBLE to participate in the state finals, the team or individual must have ranked first or second in the district eliminations. Competition will be stiff, since more than 1,300 individual 4-H Club members will participate. Many will be trying for a chance to represent Texas in the national finals later in the year.

The second annual 4-H Career Opportunity Fair will open Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. It will include exhibits of career choices offered through Texas A&M.

4-H CLUB WORK is conducted in the counties under the supervision of the county Extension agents with assistance from local voluntary leaders and friends of 4-H. 4-H'ers have been visiting the A&M campus annually for more than half a century. The Texas 4-H Youth Development Foundation will recognize individuals and business concerns throughout the state for their outstanding contributions to the 4-H Club program. The Foundation also sponsors a "Chuck Wagon Barbecue" on the evening of June 1. The first general assembly of the Roundup will follow the barbecue.

The Roundup will officially end with breakfast the morning of June 3.

Hearing Monday On Seasons, Bag Limits For Game

AUSTIN (Special) — Formal notices have been released and run in appropriate newspapers which have been scheduled for the period of May 31 through June 4 in 152 counties in Texas where the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department has regulatory seasons, bag limits, and means and methods for taking game birds, game animals, fur bearing animals and fish.

The hearing in Deaf Smith County will be at 10 a.m. Monday at the county courthouse.

These hearings are required by law and provide an opportunity for all citizens in the counties concerned to hear and comment upon game and fish regulations presently in effect or proposed. Proposals which will be discussed at the public hearings will include such subjects as dates for opening and closing of seasons, means and methods which may be used in taking game and fish, and possession and bag limits for the separate species.

The date for the Parks and Wildlife Commission meeting in Austin, at which regulations for taking game and fish in regulatory responsibility counties will be set, will be announced publicly at a later date.

20 Game Warden Positions Open

AUSTIN (Special) — Applications are now being accepted for the position of Texas game warden, according to J. Weldon Watson, executive director of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Applicants must be in good physical condition; a high school graduate; citizen of the United States and a resident of Texas for at least one year prior to the date of appointment.

APPLICANTS must be between 21 and 40 years of age inclusive (as of March 1, 1965), at least 5 feet 8 inches tall, without shoes, and must weigh at least two pounds and not more than three pounds for each inch of height.

Applications should be sent to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, John H. Reagan Building, Austin, Texas 78701, before 5 p.m. on June 18. All applicants qualifying will be advised when and where to report for a written, competitive examination, said Watson.

THOSE APPLICANTS passing the written, competitive examination will be notified to appear for oral examination. Extensive background investigation of each successful candidate will be made by supervisory personnel of the Department.

Twenty men, selected from those ranking highest in the competitive examination procedure, will be appointed to fill vacancies. These men will receive extensive training, including a four-month formal school at Texas A & M University.

Upon successful completion of all phases of the training program, the new men will be commissioned as Game Warden I's and assigned to a district for duty.

Watson said that instructions for applying may be obtained from the Parks and Wildlife Department Office, John H. Reagan Building, Austin or at the Amarillo district office, 3802 Bowie St.

THINKING OF THE 'IMAGE'

TULLAHOMA, Tenn. (AP) — Directors of the Tullahoma Chamber of Commerce have protested to Southern Bell Telephone Co. because the city's person-to-person long distance calls go through nearby Shelbyville.

The directors are unhappy because of what happens when a Tullahoma caller can't get his party in the distant city and must leave word.

The operator says, "Call operator so-and-so in Shelbyville and ask for Tullahoma..."

Industrialist Charles Folk says that makes Tullahoma "look like a very small town way out in the sticks" to someone a long way off.

"We should combat the effect which is developing to make Tullahoma a suburb of Shelbyville," Folk said.

It all started when Southern Bell moved the operators and switchboards to Shelbyville, where their functions were centralized with the advent of Direct Distance Dialing in the lower Middle Tennessee area last February.
