"Music" Was Public Schools Week Program Theme, Thursday

Music is one of America's most beautiful Heritages, as was well illustrated by Rochester students and teachers, in the program they prepared and presented, in observance of Public Schools Week, last Thursday night.

A large map of the United States, beautifully and elaborately colored, with a large music staff in the center, was the stage setting for the program. This beautiful piece of art work was designed, drawn and painted by four of Rochester's talented young students, Nicky Reid, Judy Herring, Marsha Shaver and Cheryl Brown.

The story and theme of this year's program was written by the teachers, with Mrs. Evelyn Nichols and Mrs. Nelle Brown, as co-chairmen, with each teacher and student putting forth all effort to make a program that would capture the hearts of all spectators, young and old alike, who would find some part that was especially to his, or her liking.

This program, given annually, is written and directed by the teachers, with each class, and every student, participating.

Special commendations go to the teachers and students for their long hours of hard work, spent each year in preparing this entertainment for the pleasure of we, the public.

The costumes, to emphasize the era in which each bit of music was taken, were very elaborate in color and style.

The Stage Band, consisting of high school and junior

Kay Newsom Runner-up In Spelling Bee

Kay Newsom, 12, sixth grade Rochester student, was first runner-up in the Haskell County Spelling contest, sponsored by the Haskell Jaycees and directed by Allen Rieves. This contest was held Tuesday night, March 9.

Robbie Anderson Injured in Accident

Mrs. R. L. Anderson has just returned from four weeks in Dallas where she has been since she and Mr. Anderson were called to be with their son, Robbie Dean Anderson, formerly of Rochester, who was injured in an automobile and motorcycle accident, Feb. 8, in Dallas.

Robbie was stopped for a red light when a car pulled out and crashed into the motorcycle, according to his mother. He was taken to Baylor Hospital with a broken leg, which required surgery. Robbie spent 16 days in the hospital and is now in the home of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Falco of Dallas. He has to go everyday for therapy treatments. He is improving and expects to walk, soon.

Robbie was managing a Dairy Mart in Dallas for Mr. and Mrs. Joe Falco, with whom he was making his home.

In about three weeks he expects to be released from treatment and will return to Rochester to be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Anderson, while recuperating.

Richard Greene of Rochester, and Lindsley Cox of Haskell, visited with Robbie while he was a patient in the hospital.

Mrs. W. F. Neaves of Jayton, has moved to Rochester to make her home with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Ballard, John and Patsy.

Haskell C of C Honors Two Outstanding Citizens of Year

Mrs. Luther Burkett, school Guidance Counselor and E. J. Stewart, machine shop owner-operator, were respective recipients of the "First Lady of Haskell" and "Mr. Stenwinder" awards, given at the 29th Annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet, held in Haskell, Friday night, March 5.

These two persons have engineered countless projects to "keep Haskell on the Right Track."

Approximately 350 persons attended the banquet in the Haskell Elementary School Cafeteria. The theme was, "Let's Keep Haskell on the Right Track," and miniature trains served as table decorations.

Don Muenzler, owner-operator of a drug store in Haskell, was installed as president. Other officers include: Abe Turner, Jr., vice president; Jack McAdoo, second vice president; Raja Hasen, treasurer; Luther Walker, manager; and Dr. T. W. Williams West Texas Chamber of Commerce director.

Bob Murphy of Nacogdoches, colorful East Texas attorney and grass roots philosopher, was guest speaker. In his comments, Mr. Murphy, very tactfully, but dotted with humor, told his audience how to accomplish the aim of the banquet, "How to Keep Haskell on the Right Track," by not only wanting, but working.

Consult Your County Agent Before Using Chemicals

By F. W. MARTIN
County Agricultural Agent

I have had several inquiries about the use of chemicals in controlling weeds in cotton for 1965. The following is a part of a letter that I received from Mr. Fred C. Elliott, Cotton Specialist, Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University.

"Chemicals are only supplemental tools for grass and weed control. Our best tool is still good careful attention to cultivation and the use of mechanical methods.

The enclosed listing of the pre-emergence and post-emergence and post-emergence materials are intended to be a supplemental tool only. In West Texas it is our experience that the use of pre-emergence materials would be less satisfactory than in other higher rainfall areas. Therefore, I would suggest that your grower's would be more interested in pre-emergence materials because of the danger of leaving the band undisturbed also exposes cotton to wind and sand damage. Therefore, the post-emergence practices would be more practical. We have insufficient information with regard to the build-up of Treflan in the soil. We do not have data to show that other materials would give residual build-up.

Our recommendations may be picked up at the county agent's office. We are not going to make recommendations without sufficient background information to show that they are safe and practical. Any deviation from our recommendations, of course, can be made by various people selling the materials, but we are not responsible for their recommendations if they do not agree with ours."

Motor Vehicle Inspection Ends April 15

There will be no extension of the Motor Vehicle Safety Inspection deadline of April 15, 1965, announced Captain Alan Johnson of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Service, Texas Department of Public Safety, for this area.

"Only two million of the five and a quarter million registered vehicles in Texas have been inspected. This leaves over three million vehicles to be inspected in about five weeks," said Captain Johnson. Many thousands of vehicle owners can expect to wait in long lines in order to get their vehicles inspected by the April 15 deadline.

It is almost apparent now that many vehicle owners have waited too long for the inspection stations to safety inspect their vehicles by April 15. "Any driver operating a vehicle registered in Texas that is required to be inspected, on public roads after April 15 without a valid 1965 inspection sticker will be operating in violation of the law," stated the Captain.

The DPS supervisor said, "The purpose of the motor vehicle inspection program is to discover any maladjustment which might become a link in a cycle of events leading to an accident, and by removing the link, prevent the accident."

Everyone enjoyed an afternoon of good old time singing and fellowship.

FHA And FFA Hold Annual Banquet

Big things were happening in Rochester Tuesday night, March 9, at least for the young people, for this was the long awaited night when the young ladies dressed up in their long formals, long white gloves, high heels and last but not least, their beautiful corsages; and the boys, not quite so enthusiastically perhaps, put on their suits, white shirts and ties.

Why all of this? Anyone could tell you, it was to attend the FFA and FHA Annual Banquet, held in the Rochester School Cafeteria. And, even the parents got into the act, because they were guests.

Everyone entered a very beautifully decorated dining room, promptly at 7:30, where tables were laid in white with centerpieces of elegant bouquets of yellow roses, which signified the theme of the banquet, "Yellow Rose of Texas."

After all were seated, Jerry Hearn in his capacity as Master of Ceremonies, asked Tommy Holmes to lead the invocation. He then introduced Mary Lue Alvis, who gave the welcome, and Mrs. Jarel Brown who gave the response of the parents and teachers.

The menu, consisting of ham loaf, parsley potatoes, green lima beans, spring salad, rolls, butter, German chocolate cake, iced tea and coffee, was prepared by the FHA girls, under the supervision of their teacher, Mrs. Bettie Herring, and was served by the eighth grade Home and Family boys and girls. A special thanks to the cooks for a wonderful meal, and to the eighth grade students for a very fine job.

Following the meal, Linda Hatfield introduced the guests.

The Whosemens?, a vocal threesome from Anson, entertained the group with several selections. The trio consists of Don D. Jones, Mike Holloway, and Jim Liner, who gave the guitar musical accompaniment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jackson were called to the Rice Springs Care Home in Haskell, to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Henry Pritchett, who suffered a stroke, Friday, Monday Mrs. Pritchett still remained in a very critical condition.

National Poison Prevention Week Set For March 14-20

Dallas — Poison used to be prominent in intrigue, punishment, and assassination, but nowadays children under five are the main victims and many such innocent victims owe their agony to careless parents.

To reduce such needless suffering, and to call attention to the hazards around the average household, President Lyndon B. Johnson has proclaimed March 14-20 as "National Poison Prevention Week."

The idea is to help people understand that many common household products are dangerous, especially if swallowed. These include certain bleaches, cleaners, furniture polishes, kerosene, and other fuels, paints, paint thinners and removers, and the like.

While Federal law requires labels on such products to indicate their dangerous or harmful nature, experience indicates that many adults ignore such warnings — even those which plainly say "CAUTION, DANGER, WARNING — KEEP OUT OF THE REACH OF CHILDREN."

But keeping things "out of the reach of children" is not easy. Young children, especially toddlers, are naturally curious and inquisitive. Keeping them from harm requires cautious and conscientious parents.

The "awful enemies" of children include items usually stored under the sink, aspirin and other medicines left on a bedside table or in an unlocked medicine cabinet, and handy-man cleaners and fuels left in the garage.

Removing hazardous items from their original container to soft-drink bottles and the like is a common and dangerous habit which traps many an unsuspecting child.

Quotas for induction and the pre-induction examinations are scheduled to be mailed to local boards Wednesday.

State Draft Quota For April is 518

Austin — The state draft quota for April calls for 518 men, compared to 315 for March, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said Tuesday.

The state quota of 518 for April is the Texas share of a national call for 13,700 men, all for the Army.

The state Selective Service director also announced that state draft boards will forward around 4,170 males for Army mental-physical examinations in April, 2,364 of whom will be 18-year-olds.

These tests for 18-year-olds are the result of President Johnson's action in 1964 which ordered the Director of Selective Service and the Secretary of Defense to examine all newly registered men who are out of school and available for service. Males married at age 18 and those known to be in school at that age will not be examined.

Colonel Schwartz stressed that these youths will not be considered for the armed forces at this time. Normally, draft for service is about age 22.

Quotas for induction and the pre-induction examinations are scheduled to be mailed to local boards Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Strickland visited their son, Duane Strickland and family of Monahan, over the weekend.

got in the act, with the early days' boxing matches. Music, well I guess the loser does hear the birdies sing, sometimes, even the referee.

Now the Gay Nineties — The first grade, in "A Bicycle Built For Two" had their own band.

The High School Chorus was again in the limelight, as they sang, "In The Shade of the Old Apple Tree," with the lovers' scene in the park. "Strolling Through the Park One Day," brought forth a host of lovely young ladies, all dressed in lovely gowns in rainbows of color, ending in, "Memories" and waltzing. So soothing, yes!! but only to find a pint-sized bombshell dropped on the scene, in the form of Vendell Archer, doing the Charleston.

"Over There" and "When Johnny Comes Marching Home Again", by the Sixth grade, brought back the black, but well to be remembered memories of World War I.

"Ozzie and His County Cousins" spilled over with music, as the crowd went wild over "Your Cheatin' Heart," instrumentals, and others.

Maybe basketball coaches of today don't understand American music, as the second grade set the bounce of their balls to "Glo Little Glo-Worm", but never your mind, they made music with their basketballs, and if you think that didn't take practice, try it!!

The symbolic music of today, yesterday, and tomorrow, was brought to an end by the seventh and eighth grade choir leading the audience in "America, The Beautiful", as the honor guard descended with the flags.

KURRENTLY WITH THE KINDERGARTEN CROWD

By MRS. TRUETT ALVIS

Pre-schoolers were fascinated by Public School activities last week, along with the rest of our community. Maybe the thing they liked best was getting a special invitation to come in a group and eat at the lunchroom. A proud group returned to Kindergarten House to comment that: "We didn't spill a drop of milk;" and "I tasted everything on my tray." Thank you, Mrs. Herring, for asking us.

The "flu" bug has been taking its toll among our crowd and some are still home. Cindy, Debbie, Reida, Betty and Sissy can all tell you it isn't any fun to be sick.

sleepy during the program. "The Jokers," Billy Hester and John Hudspeth, appeared during scenes with their witty comments to keep sides splitting and you wide awake.

For you, who missed this program, we hope that this story will inspire you to attend the one, next year.

The Open House, with each class showing some of their projects for the year, and the Homemaking girls serving cookies and punch, put everyone present, in a very receptive mood for the panorama of "America's Musical Heritage."

WCS MEETS

A new study on the Latin American people entitled, "Spanish Doorways," by Kile Hazelton, was begun at the meeting Monday afternoon, of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Rochester Methodist Church, when they met in the fellowship hall of the church.

Mrs. Dan Wadzeck is leader of the study. She gave a brief introduction and told of the life of the author. Mrs. R. A. Shaver, Jr. sang the hymn, "Have Thine Own Way," in Spanish, accompanied by Mrs. Earl Alvis at the piano.

This is an interdenominational mission study for the WCS, and introduces Anglo Protestants and Spanish Americans living in the United States.

Mrs. Alvis reviewed the first chapter of the book entitled, "Where They Came From and Who They Are," which was a history of Latin Americans in our country. Mrs. Wadzeck gave some more information and facts: 1. Spanish Americans are the second largest of the distinguishable ethnic minorities, six million along the U. S. borders. 2. Of numerous minority language groups Spanish is the largest. 3. While all Spanish have own language, they differ in many ways. Only one hundred thousand in our country are pure Spanish.

There was a quiz entitled, "Name This Book," for those attending, to take. The answer was "Don Quixote," written in 1605. Other books were on display including a Spanish Bible. Spanish sayings were placed on the table as well as miniature Spanish figures in costume. A map of U. S. and Territories showed places to be studied.

The closing meditation was presented by Mrs. William Bowman. The scripture was from Luke 10:25-37. The meditation was on the Good Samaritan. The meeting was closed in prayer by Mrs. Bowman.

Peace Corps Test Given March 13

An opportunity for Rochester area residents to test their aptitudes for Peace Corps service will come at 8:30 a.m., Saturday, March 13, at the Dallas test location, Room 103, 1114 Commerce St., Dallas, Texas.

The opportunity is the Peace Corps Placement Test. It is not passed or failed, but simply indicates where your greatest potential lies. The Peace Corps Questionnaire, which must be filled out and brought to the exam unless previously submitted, tells what an applicant has done in the past. But the placement test is aimed at showing what he or she can do in the future. Applicants do not have to register for the test ahead of time.

The Peace Corps Questionnaire can be obtained at all Post Offices. On college campuses, they are available at college placement centers or the offices of Peace Corps Liaison officers, who are members of the faculty or college administration. If you can't find a Questionnaire, write the Peace Corps, Washington, D. C. 20525.

There are two parts to the Peace Corps Placement Test: a general aptitude test and a modern language aptitude test (for which knowledge of a foreign language is not necessary). Applicants should plan on about one and a half hours at the testing center, unless they wish to take the Spanish or French language achievement test, which requires an additional hour.

Test results are used, with the character references and

Social Security Number On Card Lasts A Life Time

The social security account number shown on the card you obtained from the social security office is the one that you will keep throughout your working lifetime. To this account will be credited your earnings regardless of where you work or live, according to Mr. Don Austin, field representative who visits Haskell regularly.

"To assure yourself that all creditable earnings have been reported, and that your benefits will be the highest possible, you should check your social security account from time to time," he added.

Ask at your social security district office for Form OAR-7004 "Request for Statement of Earnings," or write directly to the Social Security Administration, P. O. Box 57, Baltimore, Maryland. Print your name, social security account number, and date of birth. Be sure to sign your request for earnings statement. HEALTH & SAFETY TIPS

Some half a million Americans die of heart attacks each year, and countless others are stricken.

Why is it that some people have heart attacks and others don't?

Heart experts cannot answer this question definitely, and they sometimes do not agree completely on the probabilities. But there are some generally recognized danger signs that mark the heart-attack prone individual.

Physicians can identify susceptible persons on the basis of cholesterol in the blood, excess weight, cigarette smoking, inactivity, tendencies to diabetes or hypertension, and can often predict the disease in seemingly healthy persons years before it arrives, says Today's Health, the magazine of the American Medical Association.

Of course, a non-smoking woman or a lean man also can have a heart attack, but the risk, statistically, is much less.

The three most important signs of susceptibility, says the American Heart Association, are high blood levels of cholesterol, high blood pressure and an abnormal electrocardiogram.

The health of the heart is definitely linked with life habits, Today's Health declares. More and more heart specialists point to one general cause — an abuse of our prosperity, the abundance and temptations of modern times.

Many men, the magazine says, abuse cigarettes, food, liquor and their muscles. Quoting a noted heart specialist, the article points out that adult people "must learn to distinguish between moderation and abuse. Two packs of cigarettes a day is an abuse. Too much fat or too many calories is an abuse. Drinking during most parts of the day is an abuse. Doing no physical work is an abuse."

True, there still are differences of opinion among competent men regarding the exact connection between these abuses and heart attacks. True, there still is much to be learned. The decision is one that each individual must make for himself. To wait until all of the evidence is at hand and the doctor can give a positive answer to the question of what causes heart attacks; or, to stop abusing the good things of abundant life and use today's knowledge in the hopes of saving the heart.

Once again February is Heart Month. It can be a month of decision.

Buying Savings Bonds "Practical Patriotism"

January Savings Bonds sales in Haskell County totaled $47,363. This announcement was made recently by Mr. R. W. Herren, Chairman of the Savings Bonds Committee. This represents 22.5% of the 1965 goal of $210,000.

During January, 1965 sales of Series E & H Bonds in Texas totaled $14,311,691 or 0.3% of the state's goal of $152.8 million.

In announcing the sales figures for the county, Chairman Herren pointed out that the rallying cry of this year's bond campaign is "Practical Patriotism."

"The purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds is 'practical' because it is easy and sure. It is patriotic because the purchase of bonds are a mark in the faith of our country and its future. 'Practical Patriotism' is just good common sense and I urge all the citizens of our country to buy bonds where they work or bank," Chairman Herren said.

"The modern girl wears just as many clothes as her grandmother did—but not all at once."

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Trial Watching What has become of the ancient and honorable pastime of trial-watching? In old England, where it was known as "attendance at court," people of all classes indulged. But today, except at a few well-publicized spectaculars, there is often no audience at all. True, we watch plenty of make-believe trials. On TV, in movies, at the theatre, the trial scene is the cornerstone of countless dramatic thrillers. But the real courtroom adds something vital. That grim young man on the witness stand is no actor earning his weekly wage. He is really afraid he may be found guilty of burglary and sent to jail for three years. That aging widow, seeking damages for the death of her husband, really needs the money to give her children a respectable upbringing. Perhaps you feel that trial-watching is a form of idle curiosity. Surely it shows curiosity. But is such curiosity idle? The law itself doesn't think so. The silent spectator, there only to watch, is not just tolerated but welcomed. In the eyes of the law, he serves two useful purposes:

- 1) He helps justice. His show of interest tends to pull all of the participants on their mettle. The dictatorial judge, the apathetic juror, the dishonest witness — all may fear that they might, somehow, run afoul of that anonymous observer in the back of the courtroom.

learns at first hand how democracy meets the acid test: the way it treats an individual. The things he finds wrong can make him a more constructive citizen. The things he finds right can breathe fresh meaning into the slogans of freedom.

Access to the courtroom may be limited in a few special circumstances. For example, if the testimony is sordid, children may be barred to protect their morals. Troublemakers may be kept out to preserve decorum. Crowding may be forbidden as a matter of public safety.

As a rule, however, the courtroom doors are wide open. No one will take your names or ask your business. You can walk in or out at any time.

But stay awhile. Far more awaits you in a courtroom than the sight of a few people in trouble. It is, in fact, the best place to discover why Daniel Webster called justice "the great interest of man on earth."
