

Personally Speaking

By E. M.

Now that Empress Eugenie hats are back in vogue not even birds in the parks are safe any more. At least that is the conclusion one draws from the recent report of St. Louis zoo officials.

Last week they stated that during recent weeks hundreds of women have sought out attendants at the bird house and asked for feathers from the plumage of parrots and ostriches, while others have attempted to pluck plumes from an ostrich. You farmers had better watch your hen houses! Chickens may be the next victims.

The last issue of a popular magazine for boys carried the following in its humor column: "A little boy at church, tired of long kneeling for prayer, finally decided that he couldn't stand it any longer. He leaped to his feet and shouted, 'Last one up's a nigger baby.' His mother was not the last one up."

A slightly different angle on this pesky economic depression was taken at a recent meeting of the stockholders of a certain corporation. Pessimism concerning the duration of the period of economic stress prevailed until one stockholder asked another: "How far can a dog run into the woods?"

"Why he can run all the way," was the reply. "No," the first man declared. "He can run half-way INTO the woods. Then he begins to run OUT of the woods."

An apple a day may keep the doctor away, but a green apple a day also keeps him away—from the poorhouse.

A MELLER DRAMMER

Time: Most anytime during the school year in 1929.

Place: Six blocks from the University of Oklahoma.

Cast: Ye editor in her younger days; the small sister.

(Now that that's over, we can really get down to business)

The scene opens with Y. E. looking at her watch, noting that as usual it is off, setting it by the family clock, observing that it is nearly time for physical ed class, and getting on the mark and set for the usual sprint to class.

Y. E.: "Well, I guess I'll go to gym."

T. S. S.: "Jim, who?"

(Accompanied by cabbages, flower pots, and antique eggs.)

Odde On Spacing

"When he came to see her
And she showed a timid heart,
And when the lights were low
They—sat—this—far—apart.

"But when his love grew warmer
And he learned the joy of a kiss,
They knocked out all the spaces
And sat up close like this.

—The Prairie.

Teachers, Pupils, Housewives Play Basketball Game

Probably the most unusual basketball game ever played on a Darrouzett court was held Friday afternoon. School teachers, town women and pupils participated in the amusing and exciting game.

Markley Woods, G. E. Hennigh, as jumping centers, and Mr. Fred Mullings and Supt. J. E. Speer, running centers, held down the center of the court. At one end were Mrs. M. L. Beck and Miss Elsie Montgomery, forwards; and Mrs. Carson Altmaier and Olive Chappell, guards. At the other, Laura B. Allen and Ruth Fausset served as forwards; and Violet Phebus Forella Woods and Eva Greenfield alternated as guards.

To add to the conglomeration, Mr. Mullings and Mr. Speer, both in pursuit of the ball became tangled up and finally ended horizontally on the ground in each other's laps. (Figure it out, yourself)

At the end of this oddly assorted game, each side claimed that it had shot the most goals.

It might be added that the big idea for the whole situation was to give the forwards on the girls' team, Ruth and Laura B., a little practice.

Who'll Win Championship? Follett Or Spearman?

What promises to be the most exciting football game to be played in this section of the Panhandle this fall will be held on Friday afternoon when the Follett Panthers meet the Spearman eleven on the Follett gridiron, according to J. L. Hill, Follett superintendent.

Both teams have been undebated so far this season. Another point which insures a good game on Friday is the fact that both Follett and Spearman have beaten Perryton with the same score, 6 to 0, Mr. Hill announced.

The game will determine the championship of District Oo. 1.

The kick-off is scheduled for 3 o'clock sharp. Admission will be 15 and 35 cents, according to Mr. Hill.

Local Delegates Go To O. E. S. Session

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frass, Jr., left Monday and Mrs. J. M. Robinson left Friday for Houston, Texas, where they will represent the local chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star at the forty-ninth annual session of the grand chapter of Texas which convenes from October 27 to 29.

Mrs. Robinson, who is Worthy Matron was accompanied by Mesdames, A. C. Teter, A. C. Cotney, F. B. Sumpter, and A. W. Kincaid, all of the Follett chapter.

Henry Frass, Jr., is Worthy Patron of the local chapter, and Mrs. Frass holds the Star point of Martha.

The group from Darrouzett expects to go to the meeting of the general grand chapter of the United States which opens at San Antonio on November 1 for a few day's session.

Kirschman Funeral Is Held On Sunday

Last rites for Samuel Kirschman, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Kirschman of near Gaylord, were held from the German church southeast of Darrouzett on Sunday afternoon.

Reverend Eichler conducted services in German. Burial was made in the cemetery near the church.

Death came as a result of an operation for appendicitis at the Shattuck hospital several weeks ago.

Surviving relatives are the parents, five sisters, Mrs. Emily Meier, Hannah, Marie, Rosie and Emma Lane, Kirschman, and four brothers, Dan Theo, Manuel and Ben Kirschman.

Speer To Be Speaker At Booker Meeting

"New Standards for Teacher Training" will be discussed by J. E. Speer at a meeting of the Lipscomb county School Superintendents to be held at Booker on Friday evening. H. L. Bond, Booker superintendent, will be host at the meeting.

Mr. Speer will discuss the topic from the viewpoint of an article by Prof. E. S. Evenden, of the Teachers' College, Columbia University, which appeared in a recent issue of the Journal of the National Education Association.

He will stress the importance of a spirit of professionalism among teachers.

It's Halloween! Goblins'll Get You If You Don't Watch Out

Ghosts, goblins, witches, black cats and bats will hold revel Saturday night for the occasion is Halloween.

Parties are being planned for both Friday and Saturday nights, and a masquerade dance is also scheduled.

The origin of Halloween is so old that its meaning has almost been forgotten. It is really an old festival that the old Romans held about the first of November in honor of Pomona, the goddess of fruit trees. In Britain the Druids celebrated a festival at the same time in honor of the sun god and in thanksgiving for harvest, and the two festivals seem to have become one in the minds of the Britons.

When the people became Christians the early Church Fathers wisely let them keep their old feast, but gave it a new association by holding it in commemoration of all departed souls. Thus the eve of the festival came to be called All Hallow E'en. The name comes from the old English word 'halwe', or as we now say, 'holy.'

P. T. A. Banner Won At Meeting By Grade Room

Attendance Is Base For New Contest Of Order

The first presentation of the P. T. A. attendance banner was made to Mrs. Ruth Wright's fifth and sixth grade room at the meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association Friday evening.

Since Mrs. J. E. Speer's and Mrs. Lela Hennigh's rooms had tied for first place, the group voted to award the banner to Mrs. Wright's room since art classes in that room had made the banner.

The banner itself shows a mother and child in blue on a white background. The letters "P. T. A." and a border of blue are also on the banner.

Parents Are Counted
A vote of thanks to the art classes and Mrs. Wright for making the banner was given by the association.

Attendance is counted by the number of parents of pupils in each room attending P. T. A. meetings. The banner will be given one room at each meeting of the P. T. A.

The various responsibilities of the father in the training of his children were outlined by R. D. Hennigh in his talk on "Fathers are Parents." The most important duties are to see that children spend their leisure time profitably, to show an interest in school work and to train children to want to do right, Mr. Hennigh pointed out.

Mrs. Terrel Talks
In her talk on "Half the Criminals Sentenced in Our Courts are School Children," Mrs. Terrel urged parents to stand by the teachers in punishing children for doing wrong things. "In this way we will help to keep children from going behind bars later," she stated. Mrs. Terrel also emphasized the importance of early training. She mentioned the fact that teachers in school should watch little acts of petty stealing in order to prevent greater thefts later on.

"Day dreams of Youth," a piano duet by Mrs. C. H. Powell and Mrs. D. R. Rush was also on the program.

The group voted to observe the next meeting of the P. T. A. by attending the Armistice Day chapel program to be given at 9:30 at the school house on Tuesday morning, Nov. 11. This is to prevent the meeting which is ordinarily held on Wednesday afternoon from conflicting with special arrangements for November 11, according to Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, president.

G. E. Leggs Move To Hardesty, Oklahoma

Mr. and Mrs. George Legg moved their furniture and a small building on their town property from here to Hardesty, Okla., last Thursday. They plan to make their home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Legg lived in Darrouzett for some time before they moved to Lahoma, Okla., seven months ago.

Mrs. Emma Lash returned Friday evening from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. I. M. Roper, at Perryton.

The Morning After

Shadeland 4-H Club Boy Wins Tri-State Fair On Milo Maise

First honors on an exhibit of white milo maise were awarded Otto Weider, member of the Shadeland 4-H Club, at the Amarillo Tri-State Fair, according to W. K. Cottingham, county agricultural agent.

Since this is Otto's first year in club work, he may well be especially proud of the achievement, Mr. Cottingham said. The boy is now carrying on a demonstration in crop growing. When the crop is harvested, he plans to feed a pig as a second demonstration, according to the county agent.

George Detrixie of the Higgins club won fourth honors at the fair with his black hull kaffir exhibit. He also has a demonstration crop which he intends to feed to hogs after it is harvested, Mr. Cottingham said.

Both of the boys sent their exhibits to the Texas State Fair at Dallas after entering them in the Tri-State Fair. The results of the latter show have not been learned, Mr. Cottingham stated.

R. D. Hennigh Gives Report On Conference

A report of the annual conference held by the Methodist Episcopal church at Tulsa from October 12 to 18 was made by R. D. Hennigh, local lay delegate, at the Sunday morning church services.

Mr. Hennigh served on the Committee on rules concerning the election of delegates to the general conference to be held in May at Atlantic City.

Mr. Hennigh reported a very worth while time at the lay delegates' meeting. He also especially enjoyed addresses by Bishops E. L. Waldorf and F. W. Warne, and musical numbers given.

J. H. Carter Goes To Beaver For Treatment

J. H. Carter who has been suffering with an inflamed ear went to the Beaver hospital for medical attention on Monday.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Carter, and Joe Michel.

They returned home in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Mosley and son, Lloyd, and Misses Ruth Friend and Vivian Keaster, went to Perryton Saturday night.

Spelling Bee At P. T. A. Meeting Proves Exciting

After an exciting half hour of spelling at the P. T. A. Meeting Friday night, P. J. Gheen and Rev. A. Blair Grubb were still going strong on the men's side, while a dozen women opposed them on the other side.

Both men seemed sorry when the time was up because, as they said, "we would like to see how it might come out."

Mr. Gheen provided the crowd much amusement by following the old-school method of pronouncing syllables as he spelled—and by his own individual method of spelling the word out of turn if someone else happened to miss it.

Mrs. J. E. Speer gave out the words while Miss Ruth Friend served as judge and Mrs. Ruth Wright and Mrs. Lela Hennigh were time-keepers.

Roach Services Are Held On Wednesday

Funeral services for J. D. Roach, 57, who died at his home northeast of Follett on Monday afternoon, were held from the Methodist Episcopal Church at Follett on Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. O. P. Blackwell of Laverne, Oklahoma, was officiating minister. Interment was made in the Fairmont cemetery.

Rev. A. Blair Grubb of Darrouzett read from the scriptures and gave a prayer, while Rev. J. O. Himes of Follett read the obituary. Members of the Lovell Grange to which Mr. Roach belonged conducted a brief service at the cemetery.

Pall bearers were Reverend Grubb, Rev. J. C. Marsh, and Rev. R. L. Martindale, both of Catesby, Okla., Rev. M. E. Bean of May, Okla., J. C. Goodner and B. B. Brown.

Mr. Roach who had been in poor health for years had been critically ill with heart trouble during the past three months.

Mr. Roach was an old-time resident in this section of the country. Originally coming from Indiana, his native state, he has lived here for the past 28 years. He has served as a local preacher in the Methodist Episcopal church for a number of years.

Surviving relatives are his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Pearl Arthur, of Follett, Mrs. Maurice Fausset, of Canadian, Dorothy Roach of Catesby, Okla., three sons, Earl, Ted and Walter, all of Catesby, his father, Ephraim Roach, and his brother, Sherd Roach, both of Vincennes, Ind.

National Program For Girl Scouts Observed

National Girl Scout Week began Sunday, October 25, and will continue thruout the week, ending on Saturday, October 31, the birthday of Juliette Low, founder of the organization in America.

The following national program is being followed by the local group: Sunday—Girl Scout Sunday. All Scouts to attend church.

Monday—Home-making. Help mother all you can this day.

Tuesday—Handicraft—Help school in some way.

Wednesday—Thrift. Take something to sick person or shut-in.

Thursday—Hostess. Do all you can in serving a meal.

Friday—Community service. Take care of a child, allowing its mother to have some pleasure.

Saturday—Health. Take a hike or go thru some exercises.

Doris Montgomery.

19 Cars Of Cattle Shipped In October

Nineteen carloads of cattle have been shipped from the local railway station during the month of October, according to J. T. Mosley, Santa Fe agent.

Henry Frass, Jr., has shipped eleven carloads, William Erts, four carloads and Fred Fausset and John Pinckard, two carloads each.

Revival Meeting Begins Sunday For Two Weeks

Age Group Services Are Planned For The Community

Revival meeting services opened Sunday night and will continue for the next two weeks or possibly longer, according to an announcement made by Rev. A. Blair Grubb, local Methodist pastor.

Reverend Grubb will deliver sermons at 7:30 each evening during the week. Prayer services for adults will be held at the parsonage at 10:30 each morning, while junior prayer services will be held there at 4 o'clock each afternoon.

Leaguers to Meet

Epworth Leaguers are to meet at the school house each evening at seven o'clock.

Through the courtesy of the members of the Recreational Club, a brief service for all men in the club room will be held at 4 o'clock each day, Reverend Grubb stated. The doors of the hall will be unlocked for a brief period before the time set for the meeting and during the meeting which will last for 15 or 20 minutes, Rev. Grubb said.

Attendees Urged

The service will be held to present the problems of men and will be opened for helpful discussion if anyone wishes to ask any questions. Reverend Grubb urges as many men as possible to attend the meetings and to enter into the discussion.

Reverend Grubb asks everyone in the community to find a place in one of the age groups and to help the revival service both by being present and by praying for the success of the revival.

Robbers Get $350 In Knowles Bank Hold-up

Two unmasked men held up and robbed the bank at Knowles, Okla., of between $350 and $360 in currency at 2:30 Friday afternoon.

Ed Oaks, cashier, and Melvin Wye-scaver, a customer were locked in the vault. After they freed themselves within three minutes, no trace of the robbers could be found. It is thought that they escaped in a Model A Ford coupe.

Authorities in neighboring towns were warned of the robbery and attempts were made to locate the men. No arrests had been made late Wednesday evening.

An attempt to find the robbers by means of fingerprints is being made at the present time.

Sixty dollars' worth of pennies was among the money taken from the bank. It seems unlikely that the men knew that the money was in pennies since it was sacked up ready for shipment.

Byron Beck of Perryton spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Beck.

Darrouzett News Renews Offer On New Subscriptions

The offer made by the Darrouzett News at the beginning of the school term in regard to subscriptions obtained by the school children is being renewed. Twenty-five percent of the money from subscriptions turned in by pupils will go to the school fund.

The policy of the News to give twenty-five per cent of the proceeds made by the newspaper above actual expenses will be continued thruout the school year.

The plan for the Darrouzett school to share in all profits above actual expenses was formulated at the beginning of the current term when school authorities agreed to sponsor The News which was organized and is still backed by the local chamber of commerce.

The above information regarding The Darrouzett News is re-printed in order that people in the community may understand more fully the status of the publication as a community-school newspaper.

When Wigglers Go To School

Dean C. Dutton said, "The most interesting thing in this world is a boy. If there is anything more interesting than a boy it is a girl. The chief difference between a boy and a girl is that one has the wigglers and the other has the giggles."
 I find that he is partly wrong, both boys and girls have the wigglers and the giggles.
 Did you ever look at a giant locomotive? To me it is one of the most fascinating machines in the world, when I hear it panting, and in a finite way try to breeze all the power tied up in that iron monster. But the power of that gigantic locomotive is useless until the engineer adjusts the lever that sets the wheels moving.
 So it is with boys and girls. There is more enthusiasm in boys and girls than there is power in locomotives. But as it takes an engineer to start the locomotive, so it takes a teacher to direct the enthusiasm of boys and girls into the right channels.
 No engineer has ever been able to utilize all the power of a locomotive, neither will a teacher ever be able to utilize all the enthusiasm of boys and girls. There is too much power to handle. Only as we utilize this enthusiasm to its greater working power will we be able to accomplish the task that is ours.—Dale Heil.

A Recipe For Happiness

A recipe for happiness given by Sir Esme Howard, British ambassador to the United States, has as its chief ingredients the proper proportions of spiritual values, scientific and aesthetic values, and material values.
 Happiness itself is defined as a permanent condition depending mainly, if not entirely, upon ourselves and our attitudes toward the varied conditions of life which surround us.
 The sense of proportion is especially essential to happiness. Sir Esme believes. All these values should be contained in proper proportions if we are to have real happiness.
 A good sixty per cent of spiritual values are necessary for the make-up of the happy man. Without this proportion, there can be no cheerful acceptance of the sorrows and sufferings through which all of us must pass. Without it we can never learn the lessons of sacrifice and of offering for others the best we have, not grudgingly or of necessity, but as cheerful givers.
 A lover of beauty is also necessary for the highest enjoyment of life. People would add much to their own happiness and to the happiness of the world in general if they would learn, not only to appreciate beautiful things, but also to create them within the measure of their ability.
 In so doing we shall also have accomplished something which has its spiritual value because as Michelangelo said somewhere: "A beautiful thing seen here below resembles more than anything else that mysterious source from which all of us come."

MY NEIGHBOR LIKES
 A big house; silvers and golds;
 Jewels to wear in silken folds;
 French nudes for her children;
 Illicit wine to serve her guest;
 Bold, but hidden, admirers;
 And a change of company
 With every mood and dress.
 Her every thought, she admits,
 Is how to keep from being bored.

I DEARLY LOVE
 My small house, shining and clean;
 My girl the only jewel I've seen
 That matches my sturdy son;
 Home made cookies to serve my guest;
 You, alone, to care and work for;
 And to wait your homecoming;
 Sorry if you're but a minute late.
 My every thought, I admit,
 Is how to serve my family best.

Shattuck Numbers Houses
 Numbering the houses and business section of Shattuck started the last of the week.
 The city council, boosting for Shattuck and getting into a class in advance of sister towns, has authorized the numbering of the houses.
 Recently the streets were named and designated.
 The numbering of houses, is a forward move, and one necessary to secure postal or mail delivery. The United States mail is not delivered free unless the houses and streets are properly named and numbered. It is not known if free mail service can be had at this time, however with the houses numbered and the streets named, Shattuck has a good point in favor of mail service.

OUTDOOR COOKING

Outdoor cooking has an appeal which even the most lazy or sophisticated finds hard to resist. The woody fragrance of the out-of-doors, the smell of blue-gray smoke from a camp-fire, the lure of glowing red coals, and over all the odor of something cooking, all mingle to draw nature lovers from their homes to cook a meal in the open.

Since this week is National Girl Scout week and Scouting and out-door cookery go hand in hand this column will be devoted to outdoor recipes that are favorites of the Girl Scouts everywhere.

KABOBS

1 stick
 1/4 pound beefsteak, 1/2 inch thick
 Sliced bacon
 Half an onion.
 Salt
 The beef should be cut into four one-inch squares. Peel and slice the onion. Then thread the pieces of steak, bacon and onion alternately on the stick, putting them together tightly for steak well done, and loosely if you like it rare. Sear quickly, close to the coals, then cook slowly until done. Salt to taste.

DOUGH-BOYS

(Biscuits-on-a-stick)

1 stick about three feet long and one inch thick
 1 cup flour
 1 teaspoon baking powder
 2 table-spoons fat
 Salt
 A little water
 Mix the flour, baking powder and a pinch of salt. Work in the butter with a knife or stick and add water to make a stiff dough. Mold the dough into a ribbon about two inches wide and as thick as your little finger. Wind it spirally around the peeled stick which should be hot and dusted with flour or buttered.
 Pinch the dough together at each end to prevent it from unwinding. Toast it in front of the hot coals.

turning it as required. As soon as the dough has set on the outside, bake it slowly. When done it will slip off the stick easily. Butter the inside and eat with jam—strawberry jam is especially good. If you wish the dry ingredients may be mixed at home and carried in a small bag.

S'MORS (SOME MORES)

Some Mores are a very simple and delicious dessert. The requisites for individual servings are two graham crackers, half a bar of plain milk chocolate and two toasted marshmallows. The marshmallows should be toasted to a crisp, gooey state and then put inside a graham cracker and chocolate bar sandwich. The heat of the marshmallow will melt the chocolate just enough to make it really delicious. After you have tasted it, you will agree that this dish is well-named for it tastes just like some more.

EGGS BAKED IN ORANGE SHELL

1 orange
 1 egg
 Sliced bacon
 Oiled paper
 Cut the oranges across about 1/2 inch from one end. Eat the contents. Place oiled paper inside shell. Tuck in a slice of bacon spread around the inside of the orange skin. Break egg into the shell. Place the cover—the part you cut off first—on again and put the whole egg-filled orange in hot ashes to bake.

When sticks are needed for outdoor cooking purposes, be sure that they are green. Dry wood will catch on fire and spill your eats into the fire just at the point when they are most appetizing. Red-hot coals are much better for a cooking fire than are flames. A small fire is also much better than a large one for the heat of the latter makes it uncomfortable to come withing cooking range.

Those of you who are suffering from anema or poor appetite should take as a prescription three or four meals weekly over a campfire. Your appetite will increase to a surprising extent.

And when you are having your good times out-of-doors, BE SURE to remember to put out every spark of your camp fire before leaving it.

TURNER SCHOOL DISTRICT NOTES

By Carrie Meller

The Turner school authorities are very anxious to standardize their school this year. A new tile and stucco building meeting the state requirements for school buildings construction has replaced the old frame structure in use since the district was organized.

New and modern equipment is gradually being acquired. Last month a shipment of equipment arrived containing the following:

1. A drinking fountain which helps in keeping the children from catching each others colds and also encourages them to drink as much water daily as they should. It holds ten gallons of water.
2. A large stitched flag, three by five feet. We are anxious for an important holiday to come so we can put the flag out on the flag pole.
3. A large Texas map which we study at recesses and noon in order to learn the counties and the important towns in our state.
4. A thermometer by which we regulate the heat in our room. We are all watching it, trying to keep it between sixty-eight and seventy.
5. A pencil sharpener and a medium sized Webster dictionary.

We are decorating the school house for Hallowe'en with owls, witches, bats, cats and jack-o-lanterns.

Much interest is being shown in the health contest. We chose up sides and get gold stars; a large gold one is given for each bath taken and a small gold one for washing the teeth night and morning.

At the end of the contest we are going to have a Hallowe'en party and the side that loses will have to bring the refreshments.

The students are making an Eskimo village this week. It is composed of igloos, Eskimo dogs and sleds. They plan to keep it for their school exhibit in the spring. They have read many stories of life in the far north this year.

Leo and Alvin Miller are very delighted over receiving their first books to take home to study and read.

The children had a great deal of fun last Friday afternoon when we turned out school to clean up the school yard. The thistles had not been cut so they chose up sides to see which side could pile up the biggest stack of them.

Mr. John Meller left Thursday for

Dalhart where he will work this winter.

Mr. Rudolf Koch, a member of the school board, and Mrs. Koch, have returned from their trip to Nebraska. On the way home they stopped at Dalhart where they visited for several days with Mrs. Kochs' parents.

A very nice Sunday School is being conducted here at our school every Sunday afternoon at two-thirty. There are thirty-two members enrolled. We usually have Rev. A. Blair Grubb to deliver a sermon. We are always glad to have visitors from other Sunday Schools. The public is cordially invited to attend.

SUNSET NEWS

By MRS. SAM BAKER

E. G. Kerns and family spent Wednesday evening at the C. H. Elfers home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Chappell and Howard Andricks took Winona Fay to the Beaver Hospital Monday. In some ways the baby's condition is much improved, in others no change. She is able to walk alone now.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Barnes of Darrouzett; Mrs. Anna Neal, Miss Belle Elfers, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Neal and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Elfers Sunday.

Sunday evening visitors at the J. C. Neal home were Mr. and Mrs. Will Huddleston and son, Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rexroad attended teachers meeting at Guymon, Okla., Thursday and Friday of this week.

Eugene Altmiller spent Tuesday evening with O. M. Elfers.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Woods and daughters Madeline and Julia and Mr. and Mrs. Orval Stafford drove to Dodge City, Kan., Sunday to visit Cristal Woods.

SOUTH FLAT

By Mrs. Frank Peterson

The Social Hour club met with Mrs. Guy Gillham last Tuesday afternoon. Because of the bad weather, only six women attended.

After a pleasant social afternoon the hostess served a delicious lunch. Guests were Mrs. Cecil Cook and her guest, Mrs. Ford, of Canton, Oklahoma.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Carl Nelson was appointed temporary secretary to fill the vacancy made by the death of Mrs. Cal Williams.

The next meeting will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Belle Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Knowles called at the H. Taylor home last Wednesday evening.

The Missionary Society of the Methodist Church held the regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Carl Nelson last Wednesday. Mrs. Nelson served a lunch in the evening.

Since some of the officers were ill the business meeting was postponed.

Clyde Mahaffey and son, Elton, made a business trip to Canadian this week-end.

The North Fork school had a program and box supper last Friday evening. A large crowd attended and the boxes sold well. Cliff Sneath was winner of the old rooster for being voted the worst hen-pecked husband.

Miss Jaxine Holt of Beaver was a week-end guest of Miss Veda Mahaffey.

Harold Cornell and family were callers at the L. M. Bowden home Sunday evening.

Supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Green Hilderbrand on Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bowden, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peterson, W. C. Mahaffey and sons, and L. H. Shaffer.

Mrs. Charles Marshall was quite ill several days ago, but she is able to be up again now.

Mrs. W. C. Mahaffey and daughter, Veda, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peterson, and L. H. Shaffer attended county Grange at Pleasant View last Thursday.

Several of the neighbors went to Beaver Saturday in response to a call from Governor Murray to taxpayers in regard to initiative and referendum questions to be considered at the next election.

In honor of her son, Carl, and his bride, Mrs. J. P. Anderson entertained at dinner on Sunday.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graffham, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Graffham, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cornell, Elba Cornell, Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Lackey, Miss Jessie Johnston and Herschel Allen.

Mrs. Green Hilderbrand and Neva called at the Harold James home on Sunday afternoon.

Honoring the birthday of Charles Marshall, 82, friends and relatives gave him a surprise dinner at his home on October 25.

At a late hour they departed, wishing Mr. Marshall many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. John Byrd was hostess on Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. H. Taylor and Mrs. Cora Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Taylor and Mrs. Cora Brown went to mill at Perryton last Saturday.

Hi-Lites

By L. W.

Darrouzett is a smart school; it is in a smart town, on a smart street. The farther down the street you go north the smarter they get; the last house is a grand climax (teachers not included)

Anyone wishing the details of the size of lumber see Miss Friend: "What are the dimensions of a two-by-four?" is a question she asked the other day.

The basket ball boys have a sure method of raising a basketball fund. They are going to dig up the old oil well hole on the Roscoe Bradford place, saw it up and sell it for post holes. The price will be two bits for a two foot hole, and thirty-five cents for a three foot hole. Get 'em quick! Only a limited supply!

Nina Martin allows that she has spent so much time on her history note book, and that it is so good, she is going to save it and show it to her grandchildren.

Supt. Speer Gives Changes In Reports

In explanation of the new report cards, J. E. Speer, superintendent of school, addresses the following to the community:

The report cards for Darrouzett school will be out Thursday, Oct. 29. It will be observed that these new cards are quite different from those of the past year. These new cards were designed by the present faculty and were presented to the school by the First National Bank of Darrouzett. The complete letter system used was evaluated in one of the recent issues of the Darrouzett News. A summary of the system follows:

- A represents superior work
- B Slightly above the average
- C Average passing grade
- D Barely passing; work very poor.
- F Failing.

The school is now operating on the six-week basis and the cards will be issued approximately every six-weeks. On the right hand side of the face of the card is a column headed CLASS RANK. The student who does the best work in his class in each subject is ranked 1 or first; next best second and so on, throughout the class. This gives the student and parent an opportunity to compare his work with that of the remainder of the class. It is believed that this column will give the student an opportunity to compete with those near his rank and thus stimulate more class competition.

Health Of Pupils Is Checked By Dr. Davis

The fall check up on the health of pre-school children who were examined at the summer round-up in May sponsored by the local Parent-Teacher's Association was made Friday afternoon at the schoolhouse by Dr. J. J. Davis, of Higgins, county health officer, according to Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, president.

Of seventeen defects that had been noted in the 13 children in beginning classes, only three had been corrected the check revealed.

Twelve children in rooms other than the primary were also examined by Doctor Davis on Friday.

The purpose of the examinations twice each year is to raise standards of health for school children and to help prepare children to be physically fit to do school work, according to Mrs. Montgomery. The tests show physical defects which it is up to the parents to have corrected.

Seventh Grade Has Meeting Wednesday

The seventh grade of Darrouzett held a class meeting on Wednesday afternoon, October 29. All members of the class and this sponsor, Mrs. Speer were present.

The group discussed their next outing which is to be held in about three weeks. It was decided that each member of the class would present a desirable motto for the class at the next meeting which will be November 11, 1931.—Helen Hanschu.

The Darrouzett high school will not sponsor a Halloween party this year, according to the official announcement made of J. E. Speer, superintendent.

Medal To Be Awarded By "Current Events"

A bronze medal given in honor of Charles Palmer Davis, father of "Current Events," will be presented some Darrouzett school child by the American Press corporation at the end of the school year, according to Miss Ruth Friend who conducts current events study in connection with history classes.

The award is given to one pupil in each school for outstanding work in the study of current events. Since a provision is made that the magazine, "Current Events," must be used in the contest, the competition in Darrouzett school is limited to the seventh grade and on thru high school, Miss Friend said.

The student who wins the medal will also have his name inscribed on the permanent honor roll of Current Events.

Primary Room Plans Next Chapel Program

Assembly program for Thursday, November the fifth, will be given by the first and second grades.

An armistice program will be given by the Junior class Tuesday November tenth, at the high school auditorium.

Chapel will be held at that time, instead of the regular Thursday morning schedule, according to Superintendent Speer.

Darrouzett School Gets New Magazines

The High School wishes to thank Mrs. C. T. Phillips for the copies of the magazines she has given the library. The magazines are: Women's Work, Their Homes and Gardens, The Flower Grower, Popular Science, and The Scholastic.

According to Mr. Speer the following magazines have been ordered for use in the high school: Review of Reviews, Forum, World's Work, The Scholastic, Current Literature, English Journal, Golden Book, and Holland's Magazine. T. C.

Junior Girls Pick Ground Ball Team

The junior grade girls have completed the organization of their ground ball team. Ramah Reger was chosen captain of the group and Wilma Lash assistant captain.

Those who were chosen to play on the first team are: Mae Kemp, Wilma Lash, Ramah Reger, Helen Hanschu, Jenny Woods, Marjory Daily, Erma Hennigh, Daisy Painter, Marie Bellah, and Naomi Rush. The substitutes are Teresa Frass and Gertrude McCee. Those who are on the second team are working hard hoping that they may win a place on the first team before the season is over.—Ramah Reger.

Fresh "Bury" Sophs At Chapel Services

Funeral services for the Sophomore class were conducted during chapel last Thursday by members of the Freshman class. LaVelle Garvir, Freshman president, served as officiating minister and read poetic tributes of last member of the class.

The Freshmen served as pall-bearers and solemnly placed coffins (which in spite of their black crepe paper hangings looked as tho they might at one time have served as shoe boxes) on the funeral bier with the tombstone bearing the epitaph "Sophs."

The solemn atmosphere was further heightened by the cabbage heads used on the bier for flowers, the coal shovel placed near the tomb, and the sad strains of "Till We Meet Again," played on the piano.

Readings by Gwen Pugh and Markey Woods were also included on the program given by the Freshmen.

Chapel services for the Darrouzett school are held regularly every Thursday morning from 9:30 to 10 o'clock. School patrons and others in the community are always welcome and urged to attend.

Visitors present at the chapel program last Thursday were Mrs. Roy Phebus, Mrs. J. T. Mosley, Mrs. J. W. Chase, Mrs. C. W. McGee, Miss Helena Fiskin, Rev. A. Blair Grubb, and G. A. Jenkins. T. C.

Longhorn Girls Beat Lipscomb 34 To 10

The Darrouzett Longhorn girls defeated the Lipscomb Tigers in a basketball game on Friday afternoon, October 16, at Lipscomb, with a score of 34 to 10.

Mr. Ben Lawrence, Lipscomb coach, and Mr. Fred Mullings, Darrouzett boys' coach, refereed, the game.

The Darrouzett line-up at the beginning of the game was Laura B. Allen and Marguerite Hennigh, forwards, Alberta Reger and Florella Woods, guards, Margaret Jenkins, jump center, and Eva Greenfield, running center. Ruth Fausset, Olive Chappell and Coeta Terrel interchanged with other players later in the game.

Lipscomb played a good game and the girls were very good sports. E. G.

Girls Basketball Team Is Selected By Speer

For the first time this year the players on the girl's basketball team were selected by Mr. Speer last week.

They are: Laura B. Allen, forward. Ruth Fausset, forward. Alberta Reger, guard. Florella Woods, guard. Margaret Jenkins, jump center. Eva Greenfield, running center.

Mr. Speer also said that the second team had a good chance to make the first team by working hard. E. G.

Primary Room Plans Next Chapel Program

Mr. Mullings, John Hill and Glen Balch went Coyote hunting in Kemp's pasture last Thursday after school. Altho no coyotes were seen, they all enjoyed the trip. The boys wish to thank Mr. Mullings for taking them on the hunt. G. B.

Primary Room Notes

By MRS. J. E. SPEER

The students of the primary group are looking forward to a Halloween party that is to be had on the creek Friday afternoon; each student is giving five cents or more to buy refreshments. Halloween games are to be played, and autumn leaves gathered to bring back to the school building to be strung up next week.

Bobby Mill from the Follett school entered school at Darrouzett Monday morning. Bobby is in the second grade; he has received a very hearty welcome as he was a student in Darrouzett for a period last year.

Betty Jane Frass is staying in town with Patty Powell this week; Betty Jane's mother is away, and Betty is to stay in town until she returns.

Mrs. C. T. Phillips gave the primary room a number of magazines; these magazines are being saved to use in the spring because they have many flowers and birds in them. A number of National Geographic magazines have come to the room from the library. These magazines are not to be cut from, but are to be checked out in the same manner that library books are checked.

The first and second grades are to sing a Halloween song in assembly Thursday morning. They have made a music cover to contain their song and Mrs. Hennigh has consented to allow them to use these on the stage.

The report cards of the primary room are to be given out on Thursday afternoon.

Ben and Marie Kirchman are back in school after a few days absence.

The second grade has prepared two large wall posters from the Instructor this week; they have taken special pains with them so they may serve as an example to the beginning class who are to attempt a large poster next week.

The primary group have been very busy this week carrying out the idea of Halloween in games, stories, and busy work; one of the most interesting things done was the making of lampshades with Halloween designs on them.

Mrs. Wright gave the primary room some tree branches and leaves for study; Mrs. Wright secured this material in Oklahoma.

The primary room visited Mrs. Hennigh's room on Tuesday afternoon.

Fifth, Sixth Grade Notes

By MRS. RUTH WRIGHT

Red and gold autumn leaves are decorating our room this week.

Thursday afternoon, at 3:40 o'clock, the "Good English Club" met. After the regular business session of the club, we all enjoyed an English game of "fishing." We each drew in turn a slip of paper on which was written some verb form and made a sentence using that word. If our sentence was correct we were allowed to keep the "fish." If the sentence was incorrect we "threw the fish back." The person with the most fish was declared the winner.

Several pupils of this room were examined by Dr. Davis and found that they need to be fitted for glasses.

We wish to thank Mrs. Speer's room and Mrs. Hennigh's room for letting us keep the P. T. A. Banner. This was very generous of them; however we hope to earn it for ourselves at the next meeting.

Erma Hennigh and Mavis Altmiller each brought us a beautiful bouquet of flowers Monday morning. We certainly dread for "Jack Frost" to kill all the flowers, for we shall surely miss their cheer in our room.

Much better spelling lessons are the result of the contest being conducted in the grades. Several pupils have not missed a word since the contest began.

Oral talks on the life and accomplishments of Thomas A. Edison were made during English class Thursday.

Mold and its growth has been studied in the sixth grade health class. Naomi Rush brought a jar of beans covered with mold, and Mr. Speer put a tiny growth of it under the microscope so that we might see how the mold plants were formed.

We also looked at a fly leg under the microscope. This proved very interesting, as it showed us how the fly is able to cling to surfaces, and why so many germs can be carried by this insect.

Oral book reports are being made in fifth grade English class. We hope to become interested in reading books, so that we may broaden our experience.

Our most interesting art work this week is making leaf creatures. The king of "Far-Away-Land" his throne, his watchdog, and his bird messenger were framed by leaves pasted on drawing paper.

Third and Fourth Grades Activities

The third and fourth grades started leaf booklets in Nature Study class, Tuesday morning. Brightly colored leaves are being gathered and pasted in these booklets, with the names of the kinds of leaves written under them; some very pretty leaves have been brought to school by different students.

Mrs. C. W. McGee and Pauline Montgomery visited the room last week, and Wanda Lash was a visitor on Tuesday of this week.

Claudia Hamilton is dinner pail monitor this week.

The fourth grade is starting a car race in arithmetic; one row has a Chevrolet to represent them and the other row is represented by a Ford. The race is being run from San Francisco to New York.

Manuel Kirchman and Richard Rush are health inspectors this week.

Trees are being drawn in art class by both grades; some of these drawings are on display, and students and parents are invited to come and see them.

The third grade is studying about petroleum in geography. A miniature oil field was made on the sandtable; the oil derricks and engine rooms were made of paste board and paper buildings which had been colored black, were made to represent a carbon plant. Mrs. Speer's room came in Tuesday to see and hear about this project and Mrs. Wright's room came in Wednesday. The winning side in the contest in the spelling contest just completed includes the following students: Richard Rush, Charlie Hennigh, Lowell Hennigh, G. A. Jenkins, Roy Helfenbein, Ross Montgomery, and Arthur Helfenbein.

Tooth grade posters are being made in third grade health, and exercise posters in fourth grade health; the classes are going to vote on the best posters made.

Some National Geographic magazines were sent to the room by Mr. Gaden, and a stack of nice Home and Garden magazines were given to the room by Mrs. C. T. Phillips. These gifts are appreciated by the students.

Jewell Fiskin was given the duty of keeping the reading table straight and neat during the week.

Girl Scout Troop Has Outing On Thursday

A hike which was to have been held on Tuesday, the regular Girl Scout meeting day, was postponed until Thursday, October 22, because of rain.

Scouts who attended were Erma Hennigh, Wilma Lash, Naomi Rush, Teresa Frass, Gertrude McGee, Mavis Altmiller, Doris Montgomery, Louise Diaper, Nina Mae Martin and Thelma Carter. Mrs. A. Blair Grubb, captain and Miss Ruth Friend accompanied the group.

Comac stew was made and bread toasted over hot coals. Milk chocolate bars were dessert.

Food Sale Is Planned Saturday By Ladies

Members of the Methodist Ladies Aid Society will conduct a food sale at Hennigh's store on Saturday, according to Mrs. A. Blair Grubb, president.

The sale will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning, with Mrs. C. T. Phillips social chairman in charge.

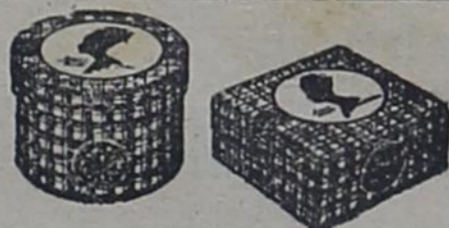

Angelfood cakes, home-made candy dressed chickens, and baked goods will be on sale.

Money cleared by the Aid will go toward the pledge of the pastor's salary and other local church expenses, Mrs. Grubb announced.

Obituary

JAMES DAVID ROACH

James David Roach, son of Ephraim and Charity Roach, was born in Knox county, Ind., on June 11, 1874 and departed this life at his home near Follett, Tex., on October 26, 1931, at the age of 57 years, four months and 15 days.

He was united in marriage to Mary Montgomery of Plainville, Ind., in 1897. To this union were born seven children, six of whom survive, one daughter, Ethel Irene, having preceded him in death in 1918 at the age of six years.

After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Roach lived near Plainville, Ind., until 1900. Then they came west and located near Waukomis, Okla. Two years later they homesteaded near Madison, Okla., and in 1916 they moved to their location near Follett.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, three sons: Walter, Earl, and Ted, all of Catesby, Okla., three daughters, Mrs. Pearl Arthurs of Follett, Mrs. Maurice Fausset of Canadian, and Dorothy of Catesby, Okla., three grandsons, James Earl Arthurs, Kenneth Ray Roach, and Donald Marvin Fausset, an aged father, Ephraim Roach, and a brother, Sherd Roach, both of Vincennes, Ind., and a host of friends and relatives.

At the age of sixteen, Mr. Roach was converted, and he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in which he has ever since faithfully served his Lord and Master. For years he labored as a local minister in his denomination, and in 1919 he was ordained a local elder. He was a diligent laborer in the Lord's vineyard and always took advantage of every opportunity to further the work of the kingdom.

In 1903, the first year of his residence in his western home, he organized a Methodist class and Sunday School in a dugout on Aunt Kate Costin's farm which later became known as the Fairview Church. He was an ardent believer in the power of prayer and the power of God to transform life, and needless to say, he practiced and preached what he believed. He died as he lived, singing, praying, and praising God.

Now that he is gone, no longer will we know him in the flesh, but our loss is heaven's gain. As the Apostle Paul he could truly have said: "I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith; Henceforth there is a crown of righteousness laid up for me which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give to me at that day; and not to me only, but to all them that love His appearing."
