Hammett Resignation Points To Problem Of County Indigent Care

In a letter to County Judge Scott Bailey Tuesday, R. A. (Bob) Hammett, Cisco banker and one of three countywide directors of the City-County Hospital at Ranger, offered his resignation as a director "in order to give the commissioners court a clear hand in dealing with the Ranger hospital matter."

Hammett emphasized that no friction or disagreement was involved.

His resignation, he told the Cisco Press, has been offered simply as a step in clearing the way for the county to work out a program for meeting what, under the law, seems a clear mandate to take care of the indigent sick in the various precincts.

Withdrawal of Medicare approval from the City-County Hospital at Ranger, he explained, has emphasized an area in which this responsibility must now be decided. Members of the county board, he suggested, cannot administer a program that, under the circumstances does not really exist.

ELECTION DISALLOWED

An election which approved the formation of a Ranger Hospital District to build a new hospital has been ruled invalid by court decision, and a new election is in process of being called.

Hammett said that other county members of the board have indicated they will do as he has done. James Rutherford, Rising Star banker, resigned only a few months ago.

Hammett's letter to the county commissioners reads:

"Honorable Scott Bailey
County Judge
Eastland, Texas 76448
Dear Scott,

In order to give the commissioners' court a clear hand in dealing with the Ranger hospital matter, I hereby submit my resignation from the board of directors of said hospital.

"Serving on this board for some two or three years was a very illuminating experience. This service, combined with membership on the board of the Cisco Hospital Authority, leads me to venture some opinions which may or may not be of value to the commissioners' court.

"Article 4438 provides that the commissioners' court shall provide for sending the indigent sick of the county to any regularly established public hospital in the county. Article 4491 authorizes the county to contract with any incorporated hospital for the care of the sick, etc. Therefore, it seems to me that the commissioners' court is charged with the responsibility for caring for county patients who are unable to pay for hospital care themselves.

"The Ranger hospital is a joint city/county and, heretofore, has been assigned the responsibility of accepting county patients without any arrangements for compensation for the expense of caring for such patients. The hospital for many years has been expected to be more or less self supporting. The only way to do this was to ignore depreciation as an expense and use up the facilities originally provided. The fruits of this policy are now apparent. The physical plant is worn out. The hospital is unable to meet medicare standards, and there is no money to replace it. Probably the plant will close permanently in the near future and there will be no county hospital in Eastland County.

"There are hospitals in Cisco, Eastland and Gorman. The Gorman hospital is privately owned. The Cisco and Eastland hospitals are, in effect, city owned. None of these hospitals are tax supported? and all of them must pay all expenses, including the original cost of the facilities, solely from hospital fees and charges.

"It is my belief that the Cisco hospital will be unable to care for any indigent patients not living within the corporate limits of the city. I suspect that the governors of the Eastland and Gorman hospital feel the same.

"Therefore, it is my suggestion that the commissioners' court consider this problem and decide whether or not they are going to assume responsibility for the indigent sick in the remaining areas of the county, or better, for the entire county, since city, county or state tax money is not now, and will not be available to pay for patients within the city limits of Cisco, Eastland or Gorman.

"If responsibility for the sick is affirmed then I would further suggest that contracts for care of the county's indigent sick be executed with one or more of the public hospitals in the county. If such action is not approved this fact should be published so that county residents will know that the county assumes no responsibility for the care of indigent sick.

"Certainly the present policies must be changed. There is no such thing as free medical care. Somebody must pay for it, and it seems apparent that the local hospitals are unable to do so under present operating conditions. Even if they could raise their fees to such a point that sufficient revenues would be available to take care of the underprivileged, this would result in taxing (in effect) only those who were or are patients to pay for medical care for the indigent sick of the entire county.

"I have enjoyed learning something about hospitals during the term of my office. I certainly do not qualify as an expert on the subject but I hope that my views will be of some help to the commissioners' court as they consider the county's hospital problem.

"Very truly yours,
"R. A. Hammett"

Ericofon Now Available To TT&T Customers

Texas Telephone and Telegraph Company is one of the few telephone companies in the nation to offer the Ericofon to its customers, according to Harvey Womack, business manager for the company. The Ericofon is a one-piece telephone developed by Scandinavian designers.

"We provide this telephone," said Womack, "because it complements our other telephone models so well". The unique telephone is designed so that the dial "comes to you" when using it. Because of its one-piece construction, the Ericofon takes up less desk or counter space than any other telephone.

"Another advantage of the Ericofon," continued Womack is that it is available in a fresh selection of colors." Mandarin Red, Sandalwood, and Mint Green are a few of the new colors.

Miniature electronic parts are used throughout the telephone and account for its lightweight and compactness. The Ericofon "tweets" instead of ringing. The electronic "tweeter" provides a more penetrating sound than the familiar "ring", but at the same time is more pleasant to the ears.

The Ericofon can be seen at the telephone company business office or by contacting your telephone serviceman.

Homemakers Hints Over 1,000 Expected For 1st Semester

Fashion Freedom is here if the consumer really wants it. In both look and length the choice is coming up varied for fall.

HEMLINES will be drifting downward—start of a new era of less leg and more imagination. Hemlines 1 to 2 inches longer than last year. Lengths around the knee are safe for fall states Mrs. Thomas.

IT'S becoming a question of proportion rather than one of length. There will be no standardization of lengths. It's all a matter of personal proportion not inches.

HEMS DOWN, WAIST UP... Placement of the waistline is important! Natural waist is to be avoided. Waistline must be defined above its natural point to create the illusion of a longer leg and a taller appearance. All boils down to a matter of the right proportion.

PANTSUITS FOR FALL look better than ever—long jackets which extend over the hips. Long pants are straight, full, and frequently cuffed. What's new: The Gaucho Suit, newest pant for Fall—is midcalf, cuffed, and finished with tall boots and a hat.

Mrs. Thomas reminds ladies that the "EARTHY" COLORS will start the Fall Season: shades like terra cotta, bronze, brass, or olives. Burgandy, deep purples, and navy are also good Fall colors. Every shade of brown will be seen.

HOISERY IS one of the most important parts of the total look. Opaque leads it off in deep colors. Chief idea: same colors as shoe in order to lengthen the leg—dark leg look. Textures are good. Ribs will be one of the best textures.

IN FABRICS... more new textures... glazed and vinyl coatings... knits and corduroys... velours... linen-velvets and the great imitators of the seasons—red fox, patterned minks, spotted furs, and curly lamb. Crushed patent still on the scene. Important look is combination of two textures, such as fake fur or pile with vinyl, canvas with knit, wool with pile. Knits on the runway... not confined to any single fiber—polyester knits, polyester-cotton blends, acrylic knits, and double knit cottons. Geometric jacquards, raised surface designs, plaids, and stripes—all part of knit headlines.

SNAKE'S ALIVE and kicking for Fall... translate into prints on such fabrics as knit.

crepe, and chiffon. Seen in both dresses and sport wear. Lizard and snake appear as a popular trim on knits. Shoe and handbag manufacturers are following up the look.

JEANS, JEANS, JEANS are thriving in the teen market in assortments of fabrics, patterns, and colors. Most popular fabrics are men's wear woolen stripes, acrylic tartan plaids, corduroy, crushed velvet cotton suede, brushed denim and reptile. There are many detail variations such as underwear stitching, rings at pockets, and multap belt loops. A winning combination is jeans and cotton polo shirts.

LOTS OF BUTTONS vertically placed on front slit midi skirt to create a long slim line. Unbuttoning the skirt allows ease in walking and exposure of the legs—even if only one at a time!

SEPARATES are big on the Fall scene because they offer a choice of looks: short jacket, pants, midi skirt, long vest, turtle neck pullovers—select what the individual sees as right for her. The vest... long and sleeveless—worn with pants and dresses. Battle Jacket worn with pants or midi skirt. Tunic-Plus-Pants... tunic actually last season's short dress, perhaps two or three inches above the knee.

IN COATS, ponchos, capes, and bathrobe wrap styles lead the scene. Trend to longer length in coats. Midi trenchcoat with pants is an acceptable silhouette.

Some General Notes On Accessorizing:

As hemlines go down the accessory concentration is at the neck and waist.

Dog collars and chokers

Pre-registration, an innovation at Cisco Junior College, was under way this week with more than 275 students having enrolled Tuesday morning for the start of classes on September 3.

College officials, pleased with the response, estimated that about one-half of an expected enrollment exceeding 1,000 students would register during the advance period.

President Leland Willis said that the pre-registration program which is being employed for the first time this year, would cut the registration work load in half.

The regular registration will take place September 1 and 2, and class work will begin Thursday, September 3.

are important. Pendant worn short.

Small scarves worn tightly around neck like a cowboy. Long scarves wrapped around neck once and left long and flowing—sometimes extend over the hemline.

Shoulderbag still good. Clutch bag appearing on the handbag scene.

Boots or dark leg essential with new leguette.

Mrs. Thomas states that this was the scene at the Dallas Apparel Mart during the week of May 25, which was the Fall and Back-To-School Market.

FB Directors' Wives to Attend Gorman Event

The Eastland County Farm Bureau Board of Directors' wives will attend a Farm Bureau ladies banquet Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. at the Brown Jug Restaurant in Gorman, Texas. Mr. Wilson Beard of Waco, Texas will be the speaker.

Farm Bureau is interested in the ladies' "point of view" and takes this opportunity to ask the ladies to express their ideas and thoughts concerning our insurance service program. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. and dinner at 8:00 p.m. There will be a short meeting following the meal.

The Brownwood store of S&M Music Company, established in 1969 at 201 Fisk, with Boyd Miller—the "M" of the firm name—in charge was a natural expansion of company growth in offering its customers America's finest in pianos and organs—including the famous Steinway pianos and the Hammond church concert and home electric organs, a field in which Hammond has pioneered.

An addition to the Steinway, S&M sells the Sohmer, Everett, Cable-Nelson and Wur-litzer pianos. It also sells guitars, and band instruments by Sedmer, Signet, Bundy, Bach and Buescher.

And very important, the S&M Store services what it sells. R. L. Coberley is the piano tuner and technician, while Ben Bentley of Abilene is the organ technician for both the Abilene and Brownwood areas.

Mrs. Cecil W. Blaylock is saleslady for the Brownwood store.

S&M had its beginning at Abilene in 1963 when Steve Slack and Boyd Miller established the Hammond Organ Studios in June of that year. Within 18 months it had added pianos and other musical instruments to its line and the name was changed to S&M Music company. Mr. Miller then took charge of the store at Brownwood in 1969 and since that time its business has grown steadily as its line of magnificent instruments finds increasing acceptance.

S&M has found that the home organ is growing rapidly in popularity. "It is only in the beginning stage," said Mr. Miller. As people become more familiar with Hammond, the ease with it can be learned and played, the superb tone qualities made possible by the exclusive tone wheel system, more and more families are finding it a great source of pleasure and relaxation. Retired people, especially, are finding that the home organ is a wonderful investment in cultural pleasure. There are models for every purse, from $555 up, and a series of lessons free with every purchase of a Hammond is proving of great assistance to new owners who are helped to discover unsuspected pleasures in talent they did not know they had.

For those who prefer, Hammond offers an all-tab organ without the tone wheels, known as the all-transistorized models.

The virtues of the famous Steinway piano, of course, have been known to musicians for more than a hundred years and the purchaser of a Steinway can be certain of what is absolutely "tops" in pianos. For those who are less exacting, and more economical in their taste, the Sohmer, Everett, Cable-Nelson and other models offer the very best quality in their various price ranges.

Mr. Miller and Mrs. Blaylock invites the people of the Rising Star and May areas who love good music to visit the S&M store at Brownwood, where they will be welcome no matter if their visit is just to see and to touch fine instruments.

Advertising played a most important role in the pages of the Rising Star X-Ray during the years 1916-'17. Higginbotham Mercantile Company, in a full page ad on October 20, 1916, advertised "Fall Opening Sale." It read: "Let us figure with you on your fall bill. Come in and look at the quality of our goods at low, low prices. We will save you money. We buy your Cotton, Peanuts, Hogs Cattle, Chickens, Turkeys, Cream, Butter and Eggs."

In the same issue they advertised Cole's Original Air-Tight Wood Heaters. "Children Can Dress in a Warm Room. No More Colds and Doctor Bills. House Always Warm and Cheery. Buy the Stove that is guaranteed to hold fire ten years from now, just as well as it does today."

C. C. Tyler, the town's tailor, headed his ad with: "ALL MEN LOOK WELL-DRESSED WHEN DRESSED BY C. C. TYLER. When you want a doctor to treat your family do you go out and search for a horse doctor or do you want an experienced medical doctor? The same applies to your clothes. I am an experienced tailor and can fill all of your needs. Also Cleaning and pressing first class."

An amusing 30-inch ad from the Rouss Racket Store owned and operated by D. F. Smith, was headed in huge letters "ASSINATED". The ad read: "We are compelled to plead guilty to charges of assassination. We deliberately and with malice, plunged a knife into the vitals of Gen. High Prices to the end that he died."

"High Prices Had to Be Killed. You better get in front of the procession or you will miss our bargains. Come in Now. It will pay you. The House of Low Prices."

There was an ad by W. J. Bowlin Barber Shop. "The Best Barber Shop Work in Town. Come to My Shop if You Want the Best. Everything Clean and Complete. Electric Fan to Keep You Cool while Getting Your Work. Hot and Cold Baths."

Rockwell Bros. & Co. Lumber, C. E. Joyce, Mgr.: "To Fall into Paint Would Be Disastrous; but to paint in the Fall is the Keenest sort of wisdom 'Paint and Repair.' The Palace Drug Store's ad was headed, "Hurry and Read This: In hot weather keep your mind on the Drug Store. It is your best friend. It helps you to keep cool by supplying delicious soft drinks, ice cream, etc. It supplies you with simple little remedies to prevent sickness. It does many things for you. Nothing old kept in stock. Everything is the best."

The Star Drug Store advertised Ballard's Snow Liniment. "It penetrates to the bone. Relieve pain and heals the flesh. There is nothing more effective. Good for horses and human beings giving the same effect on both."

Both drug stores advertised Thetford's Black Draught. "It saved a girl's life when she had the measles, when she was at the point of death. Only 25c a bottle."

Dodson's Livertone would arouse the most sluggish liver whereas calomel was dynamite to the liver. Be sure to take Dodson's Livertone.

Hall's Catarh Cure was a sure cure for deafness. And Castori awas a cure-all for children from babyhood to teens.

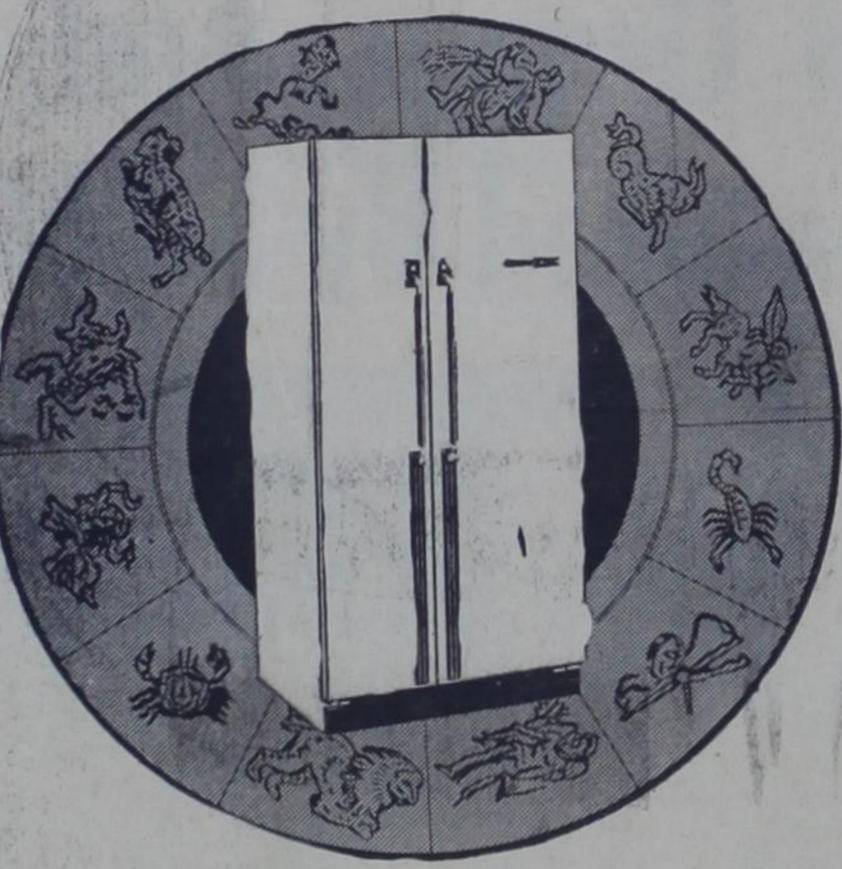

From advertising to School news of 1916:

"The junior class of Rising Star High School met Wednesday, Sept. 12, to organize and elect officers."

Members of the class were Mamie Robinson, Louise Conway, Dora Deens, Mary Boase Hattie Carroll, Kate Bucy, Willie Ray McDonald, Helen Amis, Fred Tunnell, Ray Landreth, Cecil Joyce and Merle Joyce.

Officers elected were Louise Conway, president; Merle Joyce vice-president; Willie Ray McDonald, secretary and treasurer and critic; Helen Amis, artist and reporter; Mamie Robinson, pianist and sponsor; Ray Landreth, sergeant. Aim of the class was to "Climb Through the Rocks—Be Rugged." Motto: "Be Square."

Recent visitors in the home of Mrs. Lee Culwell were Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Culwell and family of Phoenix, Ariz. They also visited his mother, Mrs. Addie Culwell at the Twilite Acres Nursing Home. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Davidson of Eastland and Ray Culwell and family of Jal, New Mexico, were other guests in the home.

Winfrey—

The new division of general agricultural service to the area will emphasize not only feeding, but will give assistance in all phases of farm and crop operation. Technical assistance in all of these agricultural fields will be available.

Mr. Schlittler's experience and training will be available in helping farmers with a variety of agricultural problems. His experience includes vocational agriculture, teaching at Petersburg in Hale County, and as assistant county agent in Floyd County. He has been with the firm six weeks during which he has become well acquainted with the agricultural conditions of the area.

The new mill, which will operate on the computer principle, will process feed in any quantity on customer formulas. It is so automatic that there can be practically no variation from the formula for which it will be set, Mr. Schlittler said.

New drying units now being stalled at the peanut plant will enable the company to speed up its service to peanut growers and thus greatly increase its capacity, Mr. Winfrey said. "We will be in a better position to handle both green peanuts and dried ones," he said.

As soon as installation is completed, the company plans to hold an area-wide open house to show the new facilities to the people of the area, Mr. Winfrey said. The company has also arranged for air spraying service for crops in the Rising Star area. The service will be provided by the Hulbert Flying Service, and Jim Calamon of that service will be based in Rising Star for the remainder of the season. Details are given in an advertisement in this issue of The Rising Star.

Madison's Observe Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary August 2

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Madison of Rt. 2, Rising Star, observed their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday August 2, 1970 with an open house from 2 to 5 p.m.

The refreshment table was laid with a handmade Irish lace cloth bought by Mrs. Madison in Dallas 45 years ago. Gold punch was served from a 40 year old cut glass punch bowl. A three tiered gold and white wedding cake was topped with white and gold leaves, white wedding bells and white bells of Ireland.

The table centerpiece consisted of a flower arrangement of white Shasta daisies flanked by white candles and gold bells.

Miss Janice Nunnally of Abilene a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Madison, served punch, and Mrs. Dean Madison of Cisco served cake.

Miss Melissa Taylor of Brownwood presided at the register table. Guests registered in a 50th Wedding Anniversary Book with a gold pen presented to the couple by their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Lee, and daughters Kim and Rhonda.

Mrs. Tommy Tolbert of Fort Worth assisted in opening gifts. Mrs. Don (Pat) Lee of Tuscola, their daughter, greeted guests, assisting were Mrs. Kenneth Murdock of Williams and Mrs. David Taylor of Brownwood.

One hundred and ten people registered for the occasion. Many lovely cards and gifts were received.

a good running threat to balance its strong passing attack furnished by Clarke and Bibb and Alford.

Supplementing this nucleus will be David Middleton, good runner and blocker and a starter on defense last year, who can also understudy at quarterback slot along with Bibb; Benny Ezzell, guard and tackle and one of the mainstays of the line, and David Griffin, who will move from an end to a guard slot.

The four junior lettermen are Randy Goldston, tackle; Tommy Linney, back and linebacker; James Underwood, end, and cornerback, and Mike Polk halfback who plays on both offense and defense.

These four are veterans with experience and ability. Four sophomores will also be available as replacements. They are Jim Carpenter, Wayne Miles, Andy Robinson and Bob Rust, all of whom can be expected to see lots of action.

In addition, the coaches anticipate from 10 to 12 recruits from last year's high scoring Kitten junior high squad.

A team average of 170 pounds in the line and 155 to 160 pounds in the backfield is a more than respectable high school average.

The schedule for the season is:

- Sept. 11 Early here;
- Sept. 18 Bangs there;
- Sept. 25 Baird, here;
- Oct. 3 Cross Plains there;
- Oct. 9 Hico, there;
- Oct. 17 Gorman, here;
