The Cross Plains Buffaloes weren't the only ones to lose at Wildcat field last Saturday night. Jack Scott, Cross Plains newspaperman, lost his glasses. He would like very much to have them back. The finder may leave them at the Record office and we will deliver. Or he may return them directly to Mr. Scott.

Congratulations on being one of the winners in WBAP's "Why I Am Proud to Be a Texan" contest," wrote that radio station in Fort Worth to Mrs. J. J. Prentice of May last week. Mrs. Prentice received a lovely pen and pencil set for her contribution which she sent in the form of a poem.

"I'm proud to live in the Lone Star State,

"With friendly people, good and great;

"Rolling prairies, mountains and streams,

"Where Old Sol spends the winter, it seems."

Her verse goes on to recite the assets of fine people, the churches, beloved institutions, the heroes and great traditions which distinguish the state, its schools and industries, and, above all, the friendly character of its people.

Congratulations, Mrs. Prentice. It's grand state and we love it.

Now that the integrity of the courts has once more been established at the point of the bayonet, it is pertinent to ask, "What do we have?"

The tragic thing which happened in Mississippi does no credit to the political leadership of that state whatever the motives involved. But they are no more to blame than those of other sections who close their eyes to the shortcomings of their own societies and agitate an explosive issue for no reason except to further their own political fortunes.

Least of all does it do any to James Meredith and the organizations who sponsored him and who certainly have as much responsibility as anyone else in the maintenance of civil order and racial harmony.

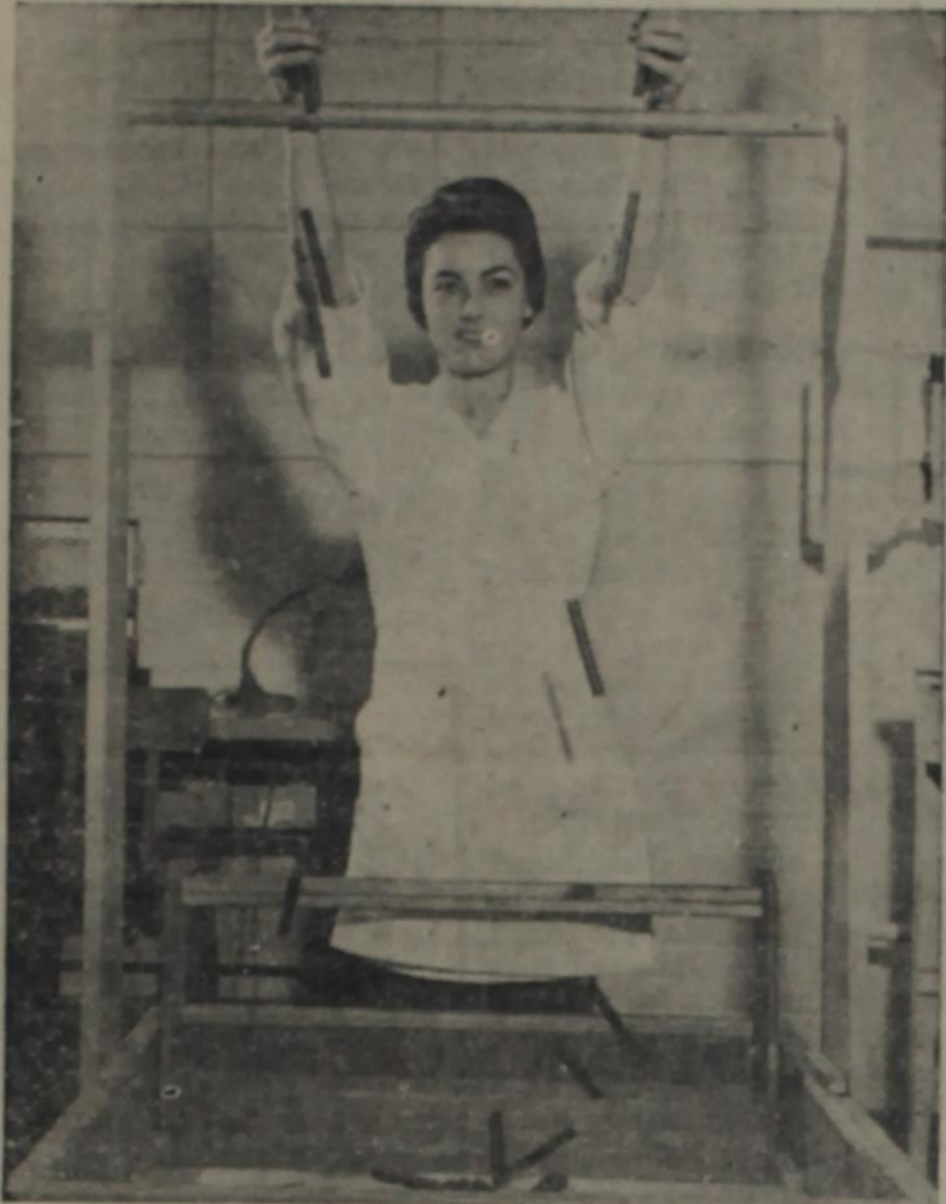

What it does suggest in the strongest terms is that we stop this business of trying to enforce sociological changes by law. There are facts in the Mississippi situation easily foreseen and guarded against. Mississippi has a greater negro than white population and racial tensions lie deeper and stronger than in any other state. It is fertile ground for the devices of such as now are erecting a great "defensive" bastion in the tropic airs of Cuba.

James Meredith knew well the situation in Mississippi, the deep-rooted prejudices which denied his race admission to the all-white university. Nor were his educational opportunities at stake. There were many good schools ready to admit him on equal footing with white students. He could have gained much more sympathy, and much more influence upon the cause of racial equality had he considerably withdrawn in the face of growing violence.

Ever since the Supreme Court handed down its anti-segregation opinion, its constitutional enactment has been the device for much bitter social upheaval in racially conscious areas. It is wishful thinking not to concede that enemies so diabolically clever at utilizing every stratagem of division and discontent would ignore such an opportunity to create further embarrassment for our nation abroad and further disunity within and, with true irony, employ our own officialdom to do it.

It seems the misfortune of our country to be led about by the devices of those who would destroy us, to dance, willy nilly, to whatever tune they devise for our discomfiture. It is also evident that in struggling against this shadowy coercion we are becoming more and more like those we oppose.

If we must be cowards in Cuba, must we also be puppets in our own back yard? I think (Continued on page two)

Wildcats Choose Loretta Pittman As Football Sweetheart for 1962 Team

Miss Loretta Pittman, a junior in Rising Star High School, was presented as football sweetheart of the Rising Star Wildcats during the half time activities at the Rising Star-Cross Plains football game Saturday night.

Miss Pittman was escorted by the seniors on the Wildcat football squad, and crowned in traditional fashion with the Wildcat football helmet of one of the boys.

She was presented along with Mrs. Dean Bailey, Jal, New Mexico, selected as homecoming queen by the members of the Rising Star Ex-Students Ass'n and escorted by C. M. (Mutt) Carroll, retiring president of the body.

The Rising Star band formed the circle within which the presentations took place and saluted the homecoming queen and football sweetheart with appropriate music.

Gorman Man One Of Three Named On FHA Group

Olen B. Rone, of Gorman, Texas has been appointed as a member of the three-man Eastland county Farmers Home Administration committee, the agency's County Supervisor Homer P. Cole, announced this week. The appointment is for three years and begins on July 1.

Mr. Rone succeeds Frank H. Park whose 3-year term expired this year. The other two members serving with Mr. Rone are James D. Alexander of Rising and Clarence L. Snider of Gorman, Texas.

The local Farmers Home Administration county committee reviews applications by farmers and other rural families for six different types of agricultural, housing and water loans made in Eastland county. In addition, the committee advises regarding the county supervisor regarding the adapting of national loan policies to local conditions.

During the past fiscal year ended June 30, a total of $343,305.00 in Farmers Home Administration loans were made through the agency's local county office. Each loan is accompanied to the extent necessary by technical farm and financial management assistance.

Mr. Rone has spent his life time in farming and is currently the owner and operator of a 345 acre peanut and ranch land farm.

County Supervisor Homer P. Cole says that Mr. Rone's practical farming experience will enable him to make a real contribution to the county committee's actions when they review loan applications.

Grandchild of 6 Months Dies of Pneumonia

Michael Donald McDonald, six-weeks-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben E. McDonald, Bainbridge, Md., died Saturday in a Bainbridge hospital of double pneumonia after a short illness. The infant was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald and the grandson of Minister and Mrs. McDonald of the Church of Christ here. The father, eldest son of the minister and Mrs. McDonald is in the naval service.

Funeral and burial were at Bainbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gray of Rule, Texas, were recent guests of Martin.

Wildcats Host Mavs Here Friday

For the Wildcats, victors over their star rivals, the Cross Plains Buffaloes, last Saturday, there comes, next Friday night such a time as separates the men from the boys.

They did the unexpected in repeating last year's triumph over the Buffs. They will do next to the impossible if they take the Eastland Mavericks on the same turf Friday night. There have been Rising Star teams which specialized in doing just that.

The current team will be the uncrowned champion of Eastland county if they do.

The current team will be the uncrowned champion of Eastland and Comanche counties if they do.

Eastland holds a three-point margin over the Cisco Lobos, defeated Gorman 26 to 0 and laced the Comanche Indians for a perfect season to date.

They will not be inclined to let the Cats spoil that record.

The Wildcats, with no crippling injuries, a fine spirit and a disposition to improve greatly between games, will try hard enough, and there is an outside chance they might rise to an occasion which finds the Mavericks perhaps overconfident.

The game will be called at 7:30 instead of 8.

It is a non-conference affair. Eastland is a class A team, Rising Star in the B division. Coach Weldon Hill will probably use the same starting lineup he employed last Saturday.

Role of Church To Be Discussed At A&M Conference

College Station, September — The role of the church in our modern society will be discussed by outstanding educators, laymen, and clergymen during the 17th annual Town and Country Church Conference. It will be held October 17-19 in the Memorial Student Center on the Texas A&M College campus, explains Dr. Bardin H. Nelson, program coordinator and professor in the College's Department of Sociology.

Under this year's conference theme, "The Dignity of Man in Town and Country Living," emphasis will be placed on youth development and dignity and purposeful family living, according to Nelson. Workshop sessions will consider problems of the community and the influence of church activities in youth development and family life stability, he adds.

The conference will feature such speakers as Dr. George J. Beto, director, Texas Department of Corrections; Dr. Marvin T. Judy, School of Theology, Southern Methodist University; Mrs. Eloise T. Johnson, family life specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service; Mrs. Florence O. Woltman, president, Oldham Little Church Foundation; Dr. Carl Clark, professor, Rural Church Department, Southwestern Theological Seminary; Dr. Tyrus R. Timm, head, Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology, Texas A&M College, and others, Nelson states.

"The program committee has recognized that our institutions have an increasing responsibility today in helping every citizen to develop his maximum capacity for service," continues Nelson. In conference sessions the attention of church leadership will be directed to those areas in which deficiencies are apparent and methods of strengthening the social structure will be explored.

"The church representatives and lay leaders will seek to define those activities that might bring about a richer, more fruitful Christian life for Texans in every vocation and throughout every community," Nelson concludes.

REVIVAL AT UNITED PENTECOSTAL CHURCH

A revival meeting is now in progress at the First United Pentecostal Church here with services each evening at 7:15 o'clock. The Rev. Oscar Height of Tupelo, Miss., is doing the preaching.

Vaccine Sips Again Offered Here Next Sunday, 2 to 4

Rising Star will again offer Type I oral Sabin polio immunization next Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4 p. m., it was announced this week by James Rutherford, Chamber of Commerce president. The CoC is sponsoring the program.

Last Sunday afternoon, from 1 to 6 p. m. a total of 647 persons sipped the vaccine solution at an will be used next Sunday afternoon when people who did not, or were unable, to appear and take the vaccine last Sunday will be given opportunity to do so. It is hoped that people from outlying communities, who possibly did not know of the program here or felt they were not invited, will present themselves for the immunizing sips.

The same location and set-up immunization line set up in the West Texas Utilities Co. office on South Main Street.

The vaccine will be furnished without charge, but contribution of at least a quarter will be asked to help defray the cost of the program.

John Pruet, WTUCo manager here, is general chairman of the program.

He was assisted by a volunteer corps of women and men who did what he called a most outstanding job. "They were wonderful," said Mr. Pruet, and I am grateful for the fine and efficient way in which they handled the details of the program. I have never worked with a more efficient and loyal group of people.

Women assisting were: Mrs. A. B. Jones, C. M. Carroll, Frank Whitlock, Sr., Frank Whitlock Jr., Robert Butler, Jetta Maynard, Lee Hughes, John D. Clark, Pete Starks, J. T. Alford, Miles Wilson, Steve Semeniuk, Walden Lewis, John Pruet, Francis Wilkerson, Roy Holly, Bob Shult and Allen Dean Schmitt.

Men were Dr. Steve Semeniuk, Lee Hughes, Bill Dennard, James Rutherford, Bob Shults, Rev. H. K. Neely and Lane Wells.

Barbecue Only Part of Homecoming to Lag

James Rutledge was elected president of the Rising Star High School Ex-Students Ass'n at the business meeting of the Exes Saturday morning in the High School gym.

Only about 50 of the some 200 former students of the school who attended the homecoming gathered for the business meeting, but retiring President C. M. (Mutt) Carroll, who presided, said it was a better than usual representation.

The homecomers chose Mrs. Dean Bailey of Jal, N. M., as their homecoming queen. She was presented at the ceremonies between halves of the Rising Star and Cross Plains football game Saturday night.

Eddie Joe Henry was named vice-president, Mrs. Goldene Ware, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Lenell Henry, publicity chairman. All are of Rising Star.

The only feature of the program that was not a complete success was the barbecue, said Mr. Carroll. The turnout was poor and the association's loss on the food will probably argue greatly against including a meal in next year's program, he indicated.

By contrast the football rally at 3 o'clock, was a huge success. "It looked as if the whole town, and some of the rest of Texas was there," said Mr. Carroll.

"But they didn't stay for the barbecue," he mourned. "And it's going to take all the cash we have to pay for the food that wasn't eaten."

The rally followed a parade through the business district at 2 sponsored by the classes of the present high school student body. It wasn't a part of the homecoming program.

The culminating event of the day was, of course, highly satisfying. The Exes had nothing to do with it except yell — a duty they performed with obvious delight. The event was the football victory over the Cross Plains Buffaloes and the young men of the Wildcat football team accomplished that.

On the whole it was a highly successful homecoming.

Joe Barnes, 82, Buried Here in Services Sunday

Funeral services for Joe Barnes, 82, were held at the Church of Christ in Rising Star at 2 p. m., Sunday, Sept. 30, with burial following in Rising Star Cemetery.

H. McDonald, minister of the church, officiated, and Higginbotham Funeral Home was in charge of burial arrangements.

Mr. Barnes died in Rising Star Hospital at 1 a. m. Saturday. He had been ill for two years.

A native of Sipe Springs, where he was born on October 1, 1879, he had lived all of his life in the Rising Star community.

Survivors include his wife, May Barnes, whom he married at Rising Star on February 12, 1919; three sons, Bernie Barnes of this city, Perry Barnes of Colorado City, and Roy Barnes, also of Rising Star; two brothers, Ross Barnes of Fort Worth, and Pete Barnes of Damascus, Ark., and a sister, Mrs. Lula Foster, Rising Star, and four grandchildren.

Pallbearers were R. M. Earp, U. Z. Aaron, Pete Starks, Ray Agnew, Ernest Wiggins, Gene Hill and Cecil Shults.

He was a member of the Church of Christ.

Mr. Barnes retired from farming in 1947.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Callaway of Fort Worth were among the Exes here for the homecoming last Saturday.

'Skeet' Clark Is Named Upper Leon SCD Supervisor

J. D. 'Skeet' Clark, prominent Rising Star rancher, was elected district supervisor for Division 4 of the Upper Leon Soil Conservation district at a meeting of landowners of the area at the High School Ag class room Tuesday night.

Mr. Clark succeeds the late B. B. Hickman of this community. He will serve a term of five years.

KITTENS SUFFER DEFEAT ON GRIDIRON

The Rising Star Junior High Kittens found the Cross Plains at Wildcat Field Tuesday night at Wildcat field and suffered their first defeat of the current football season. The score was 24-12.

Next Tuesday night the Kittens entertain the Bangs Junior it a return game at the local field. The game will be called at 7:30

They Did It! Wildcats Make It Two In a Row Over Arch Rival Buffs

The Rising Star Wildcats took a long, long step toward a highly successful season Saturday night when they defeated the Cross Plains Buffaloes — for the second year in succession — in a rousing and hard-fought game which was the highlight of the annual High School exes homecoming. It was the best contribution which could possibly have been made to the reunion of the Old Grads and it lifted the Wildcat stock to a respectable high after a faltering early season start.

It was unexpected. The score was 12 to 6.

But from the moment that End Tommy Alford, took the hand-off a Cross Plains punt, reversed his field to evade a regiment of Cross Plains tacklers, and raced 71 yards behind excellent blocking for the initial score of the game late in the first quarter, was little doubt of the outcome. The Cats were in command all the way except for the final minute of the game when the Buffs mounted a drive, based on Jim Hargrove's fine running, which netted them their only score and salvaged some satisfaction from a contest for which the visitors had quite evidently been pointing in search of revenge for the lacing which last year's Wildcats administered on the Buffs' own field.

Even so, there are those who will say with conviction that the Cats shouldn't have allowed the score. But when a high school team has 12 point lead safely tucked away and the final seconds ticking off the clock who is too blame them for relaxing their efforts just a bit. Not that the Buffs didn't earn their score. It came with only seven seconds left.

Kenneth Nunnally, whose po-

Injured Students Are Recovering Well

Two of the high school students who participated in the football game or between halves activities Saturday night suffered injuries, each with an element of oddity but each of which, fortunately, did not prove critical.

Miss Mary Alford, one of the Wildcat band majorettes, suffered a pulled muscle in the left thigh and a pelvis sprain during the performance of the Wildcat band. Her injuries, diagnosed at Rising Star Hospital, appear the more serious of the two and will probably keep her on crutches for some time after she is released from the hospital, it was said.

Danny Wooley, a member of the football team suffered a mild brain concussion on the final place of the game. He was released from Rising Star hospital Monday, eager to be back with the team.

wer running was the spearhead of the Rising Star attack, scored the second Rising Star touchdown with 30 seconds left in the first half when he plunged from the one-yard line. It was the second time that the Wildcat had advanced to the two yard line. The first was in the first minutes of the second quarter when Wildcat errors cost them a score.

But for what errors they made — and the coaches are able to point out quite a few — the young Wildcats established themselves as a team with a will to win and a determination to play the game as it should be played. That, in itself, is quite an improvement and it puts the Rising Star youngster once more in the forefront of the district predictions.

Terry Geyer, sophomore quarterback, ran the team well and did his share of personal ground gaining, and Ted Cawley, transferred to end, was a key man in the Wildcat offense with his pass snatching during the evening. As a matter of fact the high Buff line had the local eleven pretty well bottled up in its running attack and Geyer's passing to Cawley was the decisive factor in putting the Cats in scoring position and enabling them to exercise effective back control.

IT'S THE LAW IN TEXAS

REASONABLE TIME

Before a contract arises someone must make an offer and another must accept it.

Without an offer, no acceptance; with no acceptance, no agreement.

But there is often a time within which you can accept the offer. And if not, the offer ends anyhow within a "reasonable time" which is determined by circumstances and the parties' intentions.

Smith had a set of books which Brown wanted. Brown wrote and offered him $200 for the set.

Smith didn't answer for six months, and meantime Brown bought a similar set. One day saying "I accept your offer of Brown got a letter from Smith $200 for the set of books."

Brown told Smith he had bought the books elsewhere, but Smith still claimed that his sealed the contract with Brown.

Was there a contract? No, the offer had lapsed because it had not been accepted in the circumstances within a reasonable time.

There are many ways to end an offer. You may withdraw it, you may say that the offer expires at a given time, or you may die of the party may turn it down directly or by making a counter offer.

Here Smith failed to accept Brown's offer within a reasonable time, which ended it just as though it had been withdrawn.

What is a reasonable time? It varies. The offer could expire in a few minutes in the stock market or last for quite a while, depending upon what a court would think is a reasonable time.

But in Smith's case six months was unreasonable.

the cause of real racial unity in this country has been set back many years by this decision and the greedy hypocrisy of vote-conscious politicians, both in the South and in the North. It is the business of the courts to interpret, not to enact law, and certainly not to equate political equality with so-called social equality. They should be returned to their true function where their integrity would be secure without resort to the bayonet.

which deserves the lion's share of the credit for the manner in which the home team kept itself on top throughout the evening. And although there are some names which may appear frequently in the running account, every man on the squad did his duty as Nelson once admonished his English sailors.

The game opened with Frazier Clark booting over the goal line, Cross Plains was unable to move it to a first down from their 20 — their own mistakes helped for the Buffs were frequent victims of their own violations, although the Cats also suffered in this respect. Rising Star took over on their 44, faltered in their ground game and kicked.

Cross Plains made a first down, but alert defensive play by Covie Weaver, Mack Harris and Darwin Cain, with ample assistance from other Wildcat defenders, spilled the visitors for a net loss of two yards and they were forced to kick.

The Cats took over on the Cross Plains 30 but a succession of errors, including a five yard penalty and a fumble, gave the Cross Plains team the ball on the Rising Star 48 yard line.

The Buff offense functioned for two downs but fierce tackling by the Wildcats produced a fumble for an eight-yard loss and forced the kick which led to Tommy Alford's eye-popping punt return for the initial Rising Star score. The kick for point failed.

Frazier Clark's booming kickoff went over the goal and Cross Plains fumbled to Rising Star on their 21. Nunnally gained three, Geye rolled for little gain and it was finally Cross Plains' ball on their 18. They promptly fumbled it back to Rising Star on their 16 and Geye sneaked for four. The Cats erred for four yards but Nunnally gained it back and then Ted Cawley raced with Geye's flat pass to the two yard line where it was first and goal.

The Cats did their own share of fumbling, recovering once and then losing to the visitors on their 15, where the Cats held and then yielded a first down on a roughing the kicker charge on a poor punt.

Cross Plains promptly lost 15 yards to a clipping charge, which nullified a good run, and then fumbled for an additional five yards deficit. A pass for nine yards was not enough and a subsequent pass failed, forcing a kick which Rising Star took on its 47 yard line. Nunnally and Bill Clark carried to a first down on Cross Plains 40. Nunnally gained four and a Cross Plains penalty gave the Cats another five. On fourth down Nunnally made the distance with a foot to spare. He made another first on the Cross Plains 15 and Darwin Cain picked up four. The Cats ground out yardage to the visitors' six where Cawley took a pass from Geye out of bounds on the three. Cain carried to the one and Nunnally went over for the second Cat score.

A try for two points was stopped.

The Cats dominated play in the second half but were never able to put together enough offensive effort to effect a score.

Defensive standouts in the line were Pittman, Botts, Frazier Clark, Covie Weaver, Kenneth Butler, and Danny Wooly to name a few. Wooly suffered an injury on the final play of the game was taken to the hospital where his condition was diagnosed as a possible slight concussion. He was recovering.

Other than Wooley's hurt, the Cats suffered no casualties of a serious nature.

This week the Wildcats meet their severest test, when the undefeated Class A Eastland Mavericks, victors over Cisco, Comanche and Gorman, come here for a non-conference contest at Wildcat field.

The game will start at 7:30 p. m.

How many of us really know what the P. T. A. does? Some think that it is the "ole hen's get-together" or the Tuesday afternoon social. This is doing a great injustice to this organization. They do a great deal for our education of parents and teachers, school, and I don't think many people really appreciate their work. If people did know more about this association, they would want to join and help in the work.

The P. T. A. has done many things for our school at Rising Star. They paid for the building of a cement walk by the gymnasium, which was so badly needed. They built the fence around grade school and paid for the curb. The P. T. A. has bought tables for the study hall in high school and helped to pay for the band suits. They bought a new living room suite for the Home Economics Cottage; thus, the list goes on and on.

I hope by this editorial that more people will appreciate and work in the P. T. A. One thing for certain — We students at R.S.H.S. appreciate very much the work of the Rising Star Parent-Teacher Association.

NOT FINISHED, JUST BEGUN

Hi there,
 This finds al the seniors dreading our first six weeks' exams, all but one that is. We'd like to congratulate Richard on his ability to forget everyone and everything around him except that one certain Fish. Still, I can't help wondering if it's his powers of concentration or just love sickness. What about it, Richard?

We also hear rumors of Ronald's indulgence in an activity best not carried out on the schoolyard. Ronald, that's a good way to catch germs.

We Seniors have finished our magazine sales and are glad to report we reached our mark. Mike Fisher took the honors of selling the most.

We have now settled to work on our term themes in English. They may be on "Macbeth and William Shakespeare" or some English author; very interesting, eh, Seniors?

That seems to be it for the Seniors this week.
 Bye for now,
 Katy

UPWARD AND ONWARD

Homecoming was a big success especially with the crowning of Loretta Pittman, Wildcat Football Sweetheart. It surely could not have gone to a sweeter girl!

The parade was very nice; there were certainly some pretty floats; and what a rally with that true Wildcat spirit!

Congratulations also to Sharon Sewart, a sophomore, who is serving as "Sweetheart" for the Future Farmers of America. Kenneth Pittman, a senior, received the honor "Beau" for the Future Homemakers of America.

The girls in home Ec. III have almost completed their suits; they are so very stylish.

I heard Randy griping about an Ag. test today, so I guess they are getting along fine in Ag. III.

The Coronation is also coming up sooner this year. It will be October 25th, with autumn leaves as a theme.

Randy L. — Not mentioning any names, of course, but some teachers around RSHS are getting almost vicious; at least, this reporter thinks so!

Pat B. — isn't listening: to "Torture" anymore.
 P.S. What about this "cat and rat" business??

"Knowledge Comes But Wisdom Lingers"

Do you realize what week this is, Sophomores? Next week is six weeks' exam week; those books need to be opened?

Everyone of us enjoyed the Homecoming activities last week; it was really nice to see all of you exes around Rising Star High again.

We are all progressing in our work, one way or another (Isn't that right, J.S.?) We are learning many things that we should already know; but, there are also many new things that we are encountering for the first time.

The annual staff is busy mak-cylinder.

By the time you read this, the Homemaking girls will leave on Saturday for the State Fair. I am sure we will have a wonderful time.

In our P. E. class we believe in the theory that man originated from the ape. Brenda, do you agree?

Now for some "fish" gossip. I hear that a certain senior is carrying a torch for a freshman.

Linda Ezzell gets letters post-marked from Eastland while Becky's are from Perryton.

Until next time —
 Marcia
 P.S. Be sure and back the Wildcats during their next game.

WHY I LIKE HIGH SCHOOL

There are many activities in high school which I like; as a matter of fact, I hardly know where to begin.

I think the best place to begin is with the activities; such as pep rallies, sports, and the FFA. These are the activities I especially like because I am allowed to take part in the activities and really be a part of the class or team.

Now that I have told you a few of the activities I like, I am going to tell you why I like them.

Pep rallies, which take place a few hours before the game, seem to boost the spirit of the entire student body.

Sports, such as football, seem to let me really be a part of the activities going on here at high school.

The reason I like the FFA is because you can make money, learn to take responsibility, how to make improvements at your home, and you get a chance to attend several livestock shows.

Also in our four years in high school, we cultivate our personality. I think that what we develop mainly are our attitudes of independence, freedom, respect, and the responsibility of an adulthood.

The main thing I like about

P. T. A. NEWS

Second meeting, Tuesday, Oct. 9 at the high school Study Hall at three o'clock high school is that it contrasts so greatly with junior high school. In high school we can choose our courses the way we attend classes. I think this is good because we can learn to use our freedom wisely.

I think that our freedom in high school is very valuable to us so that we can gain confidence in ourselves.

GIRLS' SPORTS NEWS

Sorry about there not being any news last week, but it is not possible to write every week as basketball is not here.

Girls in the seventh period are still taking lots of exercise and running 50 yard dashes. Judy Lewis is the fastest runner.

Official tests show Dynaclonic diesel economy all-time best in 30-45 h.p. class

The record-breaking fuel economy of Case Dynaclonic diesel engines reported by owners the country over is now confirmed by official tractor tests. A production model Case 531 tractor has recorded the lowest fuel consumption per horsepower hour at maximum belt h.p. of any diesel tractor* in the 30 to 45 h.p. class.

Other tractors in this power range used as much as 25% more fuel per hour.

This same Dynaclonic tractor set a new U.S. record in this class for maximum drawbar pull, too! 6,124 pounds in direct drive . . . nearly a thousand pounds more than its closest competitor.

What's in it for me?

NOTHING - - and Everything!

It will demand your free time — often when you want that free time for other things. It will demand sincere enthusiasm and concentration. It will demand money, perhaps . . . certainly hard work and sacrifice of some personal pleasures and whims.

In return you'll have nothing you can hold in your hand . . . or put in the bank . . . or stick up over the mantelpiece. Nothing but priceless faith. Hardly a specific. But faith is not a specific thing. It comes when you need it most . . . and where. That's part of its strength . . . a strength that's as strong as you want to make it.

Find the strength for your life . . . Worship together this week.

Home Economics Covers Large Segment of 4-H Work

Over Million Learn Home, Career Skills

CANNING was the first 4-H project for girls about 50 years ago came under the heading of "home economics." Cooking and sewing were soon added. Today about 1 1/4 million girls between 10 and 21 years old are engaged in a broad program of home economics projects.

They not only learn many skills for building happy homes, but also acquire important knowledge and experience to guide them into future careers and successful marriages.

In 1933, with the approval of the Cooperative Extension Service, a specific awards program that encompassed all 4-H home economics projects was set up. The sponsor was Montgomery Ward, which already had been an active supporter of 4-H youths for a decade.

Pretty 17-year old 4-H'er Donna Roberts is demonstrating variations of rolls to be made from a basic yeast dough. She might well be preparing for a future career as a home economist in teaching or business.

Since that time national recognition has touched 153 young women because they were selected as the most outstanding members completing home economics projects. Their reward was a college scholarship provided by the mail order firm.

Soon another batch of home economics scholarship winners will be named by the Extension Service. In November, six girls will be chosen from among 1962 state award winners who will meet at the National 4-H Club Congress opening in Chicago Nov. 25. The trips will be paid for by Montgomery Ward and all 50 girls will be guests at a banquet in their honor.

And what lies ahead for these talented young women?

The answer may be found in the results of a recent survey of former home economics scholarship recipients spanning a 25-year period. Of the 110 respondents, 78 per cent had attended college. About 86 per cent of this group pursued home economics careers in the following areas: teaching, dietetics, nursing, Extension Service, library, social work and business.

A review of additional jobs awaiting future home economics graduates suggests journalism, advertising and sales, textile and clothing design, research, interior decorating, and the vast field of human and animal nutrition including outer space travelers.

The National 4-H Home Economics program has much to offer the pre-teen member as well as the older girl.

Shown here are six of the 29 members of the Country Maidens 4-H Club with their leader, Mrs. Ben Illyes (second from right) in Jackson township, Hamilton county, Ind., discussing construction of a garment. A former 4-H'er herself, Mrs. Illyes has worked with this home economics club for the last five years. The girls are, from left, back row: Connie Anderson, 13; Beth Ann Nighthenhiser, 16; Front, from left: Marcia Anderson, 14; Tonja Costomiris, 13; and her sister Becky, 15; Mrs. Illyes and Jean Nighthenhiser, 11. The club is typical of many throughout the country.

Browsing With BEV

By Mrs. Beverly Nicholson
County Home Dem. Agent

"The steam iron continues to grow in popularity and has become standard equipment in most homes. For economy, the steam iron should not replace the conventional iron for starched and dampened ironing. When buying a steam iron, to determine your personal requirements for a steam iron, check these features:

- Comfort: Weight, shape of handle, room for hand and location of cord.
- Balance: Steady when the iron is on its heel rest.
- Water opening: Convenient size and location.
- Temperature settings: Easy to see and have a wide range, especially a low setting for synthetic fabrics.

Soleplates: Stainless steel is easier to keep but more expensive than aluminum.

Reservoirs: Stainless steel or brass corrode less than aluminum.

Special features: "Spray sprinkle" for dampening, water level indicator, extra long cord, left or right hand design.

Service and parts: Should be available.

How to care for your iron: Read and follow manufacturer's instructions.

For best results use only distilled or demineralized water. Once the demineralizers have changed color, they must be replaced.

Know capacity and measure correct amount of water.

For safety, disconnect iron from electric outlet while filling.

Protect soleplate from scratches-avoid ironing over pins or snaps.

When ironing is completed, turn steam switch to "dry" to prevent corroding of the valve and disconnect cord.

Drain iron while still hot. When cooled, store in upright position.

To clean your iron: Soleplate: Clean while iron is cool. Use mildest method that will do the job-first a damp cloth; detergent; scouring powder or soap filled steel wool. Wipe clean. Rub heated iron over waxed paper, then on dry cloth.

If the vents of the steam chamber become clogged, return the iron to the manufacturer for cleaning."

Officers Are Elected By Service Seekers

The Service Seekers Class of the First Methodist Church met in the home of Mrs. L. R. Smith on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Mabel Ralston was co-hostess.

CONTROL ROOM W.T.U. OAK CREEK PLANT

DATA LOGGER

CONTROL!

ELECTRONIC SCANNING SYSTEM

Every minute of every hour of every day the "data logger" at the WTU Oak Creek plant scans the condition of all electrical and mechanical equipment. From the tiniest malfunction to a major emergency is noted and timed on the recorder to the left. The recorder on the right types the daily log.

The electronic scanning system, or brain, at Oak Creek is a major factor in helping to locate trouble whenever the data logger indicates something is wrong. The scanner also serves as a good news panel to say "all is well." It's just part of WTU's equipment complex...HELPING YOU LIVE BETTER ELECTRICALLY.
