Away up in Glendive, Montana, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hight, formerly of Rising Star where Mr. Hight was superintendent of the Rudco Gasoline Plant at Blake, were celebrating something besides snow and cold weather which has been below zero for several mornings. Mr. Hight killed the biggest deer ever seen at Glendive—a buck that dressed out 275 pounds. It was the first deer he ever shot. Mrs. Hight wrote their friends here, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stambaugh who took Mr. Hight's place at the Rudco plant. The Hights shot three deer in all which were dressed and hung in the Hight garage under natural refrigeration. A picture of Mr. and Mrs. Hight and the big deer was sent along. Unfortunately, it was not suitable for reproduction in the Record, but it showed the big deer clearly enough.

Of what the Hights are even more proud, is the record that their daughter, Debbie, is making the schools at Glendive. She has made all "A's."

Back from successful hunts last week:

W. E. Tyler and Jack Jackson, who went with a group of Cisco friends. Thirteen men and 13 bucks. The party made a quick trip, found deer fat and sassy. Good shooting.

Charlie Ballew and Fred Brizendine of Rising Star, and Dr. Ballew of Cisco, son of Charles, back from Brewster County where they hunted on a big wild life preserve. Three fine bucks and three of those vicious, sharp-tusked wild hogs known as javelinas (pronounced as though the "j" were an "h"). The latter are coarse-bristled and short-tempered creatures, who, to use Charlie's phrase, can "put you up a tree in a hurry" if you are not careful and get a clean kill. They are capable of slashing a man to ribbons.

Congrats to the Chamber of Commerce Street Decoration committee for the beautiful street decorations turned on for the first time Sunday night. The lighted stars and the streamers—all in colored lights—are beautiful. Rising Star's Christmas decorations can compare with those in the other towns in our area. Cecil Shults and Bill Button are mainly responsible. B. F. Scarber of the Kizer Telephone Co., was the contractor. He was helped in the installation by Julian Lambert and Eddie Luttrell.

The Chamber of Commerce will sponsor its annual Christmas party for the kids as usual. Mrs. A. Louise Weber has always done a wonderful job with this party and she will have direction of it this year. More about it—the time, place, etc.—next week.

Pecan Bake Show At Ranger Dec. 12-13

A last reminder of the Bake Show to be held December 12-13, in the Joseph Building in Ranger. The baked products for the show, sponsored by the Eastland Co. Home Demonstration Council, must be in place by 11 a. m. Friday, December 12. The products will be sold and the proceeds will go to the H. D. Council. Orders will be taken for these products and they may be picked up at noon December 13.

Pie, coffee, and sandwiches will be sold all during the Pecan Show by the H. D. Council.

Everyone is invited to attend the Bake Show and Pecan Show.

GRADE SCHOOL GIRLS WIN; BOYS LOSE

Rising Star Elementary cage teams split a bill with the De Leon Grade school teams at De Leon Monday night. The Rising Star girls won 24-22, the boys lost 26-13.

Rising Star Girls, Early Boys Winners

The Rising Star girls won the championship of their division in the Rising Star Invitation basketball tournament Saturday night of last week when they defeated the Woodson girls 33 to 25 in a game that was worth the total admission price to all games.

The game was a nip and tuck affair throughout. Jettie Duggan, Rising Star forward, led the scoring with 14 points, followed by Helen Hubbard of Woodson with 11.

The Early boys quintet defeated Carbon 44-19 to take the championship of the boys division. The Carbon team was handicapped by the absence of two starters due to illness. The Early team, however, was clearly the class of the tournament.

The girls all-tourney selections consisted of Jettie Duggan, Rising Star, Helen Hubbard of Woodson and Elaine Wells of Early, forwards, and Betty Jenkins and Jetta Butler of Rising Star and Beth Masters of Woodson, guards.

The Rising Star coaches, Weldon Hill and Homer Putnam, were in charge of the tournament. Officials were Kenneth (Bulle) Thompson and John Baskin of Howard Payne.

Although the Rising Star boys ailed to land a trophy, they won their opening game and lost in the second round to Carbon by the very close score of 48-50 in one of the most exciting games of the tournament.

The all-tournament boys team was composed of John Fortner and Jack Snipes of Early, Jerry May of Carbon, Benny Willett of May and Royce Yancey of Woodson.

Desdemona defeated Woodson 46-41 for the consolation title in the boys division and Early defeated Olden 29-27 in the girls consolation.

The Rising Star boys and girls teams will enter the May tournament this week and will enter the Desdemona tournament January 1, 2 and 3.

Following the Desdemona play, the teams will plunge into district championship play in a double round robin schedule as follows:

- January 16, Olden at Rising Star;
- January 20, Desdemona at Desdemona;
- January 23, Gorman at Gorman;
- January 27, Carbon at Rising Star;
- February 3, Olden at Olden;
- February 6, Desdemona at Rising Star;
- February 10, Gorman at Rising Star;
- February 13, Carbon at Carbon.

There will be a boys and a girls game on each evening schedule of the district play. The district is No. 32-B.

Funeral Services For Cisco Woman Friday

CISCO.—Funeral services were conducted at 3 p. m. Friday at the Wylie Funeral Chapel for Mrs. Nick Miller, a resident of Cisco for the past 35 years, with the Rev. Clyde D. Lindsley, pastor of the First Christian Church, officiating.

Dr. Allen A. Peacock, superintendent of Cisco District Methodist Churches, assisted with the services. Burial followed in Oakwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were A. D. Anderson, Ralph Glenn, Pete Nance, Dick Lauderdale, J. L. Thornton, Gene Damron, Bob Elliott and Norman Huston.

Mrs. Miller died Thursday afternoon. She was born January 24, 1896, at Gatesville and graduated from TCU at Fort Worth and was married to Mr. Miller on Feb. 15, 1923, at Gatesville, moving to Cisco at that time. She was a member of the First Christian Church and took part in community and club affairs. Her husband has operated The Man's Store in Cisco for many years.

Surviving Mrs. Miller are her husband and one daughter, Miss Bobbie Miller, of Fort Worth; two brothers, Rufus Brown and Jim Brown, both of Gatesville; and two sisters, Mrs. Roger Miller of Gatesville and Mrs. Ralph Neely of Fort Worth.

Pony To Be Christmas Gift For Some Child December 24th

Some lucky person will win this Shetland pony, fully equipped, come Dec. 24. The Eastland County Livestock Raisers Ass'n will give the pony away on that date. The pony is gentle and will make some child very happy. The pony was on display in Rising Star, Saturday, Dec. 6. Tickets may be bought at the Chamber of Commerce or from members of the Rising Star FFA Chapter.

Lions Hear Cisco Coach; Consider Little League

Building a good athletic program is a matter of hard work on the part of the community as well as the coaches and the students who take part, Coach Zack Henderson of the Cisco Lobos, bi-district football titlist in Class AA this fall, told the Rising Star Lions Club at its meeting Monday night. It is up to the people of the community to help with the discipline problem, if there is to be a winner, he said.

Contrary to most opinion, he said, boys like discipline. Give them something to be proud of and command their respect and they will respond with loyalty and effort, he said.

He told of the fine influence upon school spirit, school grades and community support of the schools, and even upon the increase in business which occurred as a result of the winning season at Cisco.

During the business session, Homer McDonald, former Rising Star minister now of Cross Plains, explained the Little League baseball program and what Rising Star would have to do in order to participate. It is proposed that the club sponsor the program here. He was presented by John (Skeet) Clark, who was made chairman of a committee to investigate the possibilities for organizing a four-team league here and report its recommendations to the club at the December 22 meeting. At least four teams and a lighted field are among the requirements, Mr. McDonald said.

Peggy May Be Home For Christmas Holidays

Peggy Fay Thorp, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thorp of Sipe Springs, is looking forward to spending this Christmas at home. Stricken with polio last October 7, Peggy has been released from the polio ward of Peter Smith Hospital, Fort Worth, to the Cook Memorial Hospital in Fort Worth where she is responding well to physical therapy treatments to restore the fullest use of her legs, the part of her body most affected by the attack. If the weather is good her parents will bring her home to enjoy Christmas with the family after which she will return to Cook Memorial for a stay whose length will depend upon her response to the treatments administered.

Peanut Income Ups Bank Money

Bank deposits in the First State Bank in Rising Star climbed past the $2,500,000 mark this week as the bulk of the peanut crop poured into market.

The Rising Star grading station reported receipts of over 5,000,000 pounds up to Tuesday night with big truck loads continuing to pour into the market here. Prospects were that total receipts would reach well over 3,000, perhaps 3,500 tons or better. Rising Star, with perhaps more storage than other market centers around, may well find its capacity exhausted by the end of the season, local buyers predicted.

W. E. Tyler, president of the First State Bank, said that deposits in the institution were above $2,600,000 at the close of business on Tuesday. There is a possibility that deposits will near the $3,000,000 mark before marketing is finished. Even before money from the peanut crop began flowing into its vaults, the bank's deposits were at an all-time high.

Even so, much of the money paid for the crop, and which ordinarily would be deposited in local banks, is going into payments on loans from government lending agencies. It will take another good crop or so to put the farmers in sound financial condition. But the unexpectedly good yield this fall has put them in a much better condition credit-wise by enabling them to substantially reduce their obligations if not pay them off entirely.

The income from the crop has been, both from the standpoint of per acre yield and grade, much better than expected, and it will leave a substantial gain in community financial resources, it was said.

Lucille Huddleston Heads Rebekah Lodge

The Rising Star Rebekah Lodge elected the following officers at its meeting last week:

- Noble Grand, Lucille Huddleston.
- Vice Grand, Laverne Maynard;
- Recording Sec'y, Frances Jones;
- Treasurer, Beth Kizer;
- Lodge Deputy, Ines Teague;
- Representative to Assembly of Texas, Micky Dillard;
- Alternate, Ines Teague;
- Team Captain, Cliffogene Witt.

Carolyn Hunt Is Rising Star Pecan Queen Candidate

RANGER.—Three entries in the Eastland County Pecan Queen Contest, to be staged in the Ranger High School auditorium, next Thursday night at 8, bring the total queen contestants up to 12.

Latest entries are Kathy Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Williamson of Morton Valley, who was crowned Queen of the Eastland County Farm Bureau in August; Jan Johnston of Cisco; and Carolyn Hunt of Rising Star.

Eastland's entry is Rebecca Graham and Ranger's entry in the contest is Nancy Warren, daughter of Mrs. Wilda Warren—formerly of Eastland. Contestants will hold a preliminary meeting next Thursday at 6 p. m. in the high school library reading room. Oscar Schaeffer, president of the Eastland County Pecan Growers Association, will discuss the contest with the candidates and their mothers at that time.

Regular Singing Here Next Sunday

The regular monthly singing meet will take place at the American Legion Hall in Rising Star next Sunday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock. The public is invited.

On the second Sunday in January, Rising Star will be host to the quarterly convention of the Eastland County Singing Convention, of which Henry Carter is president. The convention will meet at the American Legion Hall and several hundred singers from near and far are expected.

Methodists Hold District Conference At Eastland Tues.

The Cisco Methodist District Conference conducted its semi-annual meeting in the First Methodist Church of Eastland on Tuesday, December 6, at 9 a. m. Dr. Allen A. Peacock, district superintendent, presided over the meeting.

Attending from Rising Star were Rev. and Mrs. Robt. Cook and Mrs. Marshall Groce.

Approximately 300 pastors and church leaders from the 44 churches in the Cisco District attended the conference where reports from the various churches of progress made in membership and fund raising during the last six months were heard. The amount of money raised by the churches this year, already totals over $200,000, according to Dr. Peacock, and the amount for the year will in all probability exceed the total of one half million dollars raised last year.

Money collected by the churches is used to finance the World Service program, benevolences, schools, hospitals and salaries.

Speaking to the conference in behalf of organizations benefiting from the funds was Dr. W. W. Ward of Fort Worth for the hospitals, Dr. Hubert Johnson of Waco for the Methodist Home for children there, Dr. Lawson of Texas Wesleyan College in Fort Worth for higher education and Howard Knox of Georgetown for the Wesleyan home there.

Conferences on missions, Christian education, hospital and homes, woman's society of Christian service, evangelism and town and country work were included on the program of the meeting.

A second conference similar to the one being held Tuesday will take place at the end of the church in which a yearly report of the progress of the churches in the district will be made.

Attending the conference from Rising Star were:

Rising Star and Blanket Boys and Girls Will Play Three Cage Series In A Row

The Rising Star and Blanket girls and boys basketball teams should have a pretty good idea of their relative strengths after next week. By a queer quirk of schedule making the boys and girls teams from these two schools will meet three times consecutively beginning last Tuesday night when the Rising Star teams went to Blanket.

Thursday afternoon the teams will play the opening games at the May Invitation Tournament with the Blanket teams for the girls playing the Blanket girls at 2 p. m. and the Wildcat boys team meeting the Blanket boys in a following game.

Then, next Tuesday night, Rising Star will entertain the Blanket teams on the local gym. This consecutive matching was due to the fact that Rising Star Coach Weldon Hill, of the boys, and Coach Homer Putnam of the girls matched non-conference games with the Blanket teams on a home-home basis. May tournament this week-end and the schedule makers there, by coincidence, matched them with the Blanket teams for the girls playing the Blanket girls

What is regarded here as a very significant development was the completion, last week, of the Sam Eakin and W. E. Tyler No. 1, Ben H. Moore, NE corner of Bl. 24, Jesse Dickinson Sur., for 3,880,000 cf gas daily, untreated flow. The test was made by Lone Star Gas Company. Production is from the Marble Falls, perforated 2826 to 2846. The well is the first substantial gasser find in the territory and, in view of the increasing demand for natural gas and in particular the emphasis on its development in this territory, is regarded as a completion of considerable consequence. Location is about 3 1/2 miles northeast of May and seven miles southeast of Rising Star.

The well, bottomed at 2992 feet, found a good picture of oil pay in the Duffer lime from 2,938 to 2,958, but operators passed up this potential for the present in favor of the gas production in the Marble Falls.

Open flow casing pressure was 500 pounds.

The well is in the trend of substantial leasing activity which indicates growing interest in the natural gas potential of this section, and the oil pay associated with a high gas-oil ratio. Hitherto development of petroleum potential in the district has been discouraged by the lack of a market for the gas, which, under State RR Comm'n. rules must be disposed of economically before it is permitted to be produced.

Substantial reports are to the effect that the Coastal States Oil Company of Houston, a leader in leasing activity east of here, will begin construction shortly after the first of the year on a gasoline plant on the Carl Dunn ranch four or five miles east. Announcement of a contract for construction of a gas line into this section by another firm was made some months ago. The line would furnish a market for natural gas to be transported to Austin and other points south. Other companies were showing interest in the gas potential of this territory, also, it was said.

Chas. Rutherford Is Promoted to Colonel

Charles Rutherford, Rising Star lumber dealer and builder, and commander of the 9815th Air Force Reserve unit at Brownwood for the past five years, this week received confirmation from Washington of his promotion from the rank of major to that of lieutenant-colonel.

Peanut Allotment For 1959 Unchanged

1959 Peanut acreage allotments will total 1,610,000 acres, the same as 1958 allotments, according to an order of Secretary of Agriculture Benson. Plantings were set at the minimum level permitted by the farm law.

Texas 1959 allotments will total 356,000 acres, slightly higher than 1958 allotments.

PAT MADISON ON TARLETON HONOR ROLL

Patricia Mae Madison, freshman home economics student from Rising Star was listed on the B honor roll at Tarleton State College for the first nine weeks of the fall semester, it was announced today by the Tarleton State registrar's office. Miss Madison is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Madison, Rising Star.

Changes Made in Social Security By '58 Amendments

5th in a series of 10 articles.)
One of the important reasons for social security insurance (Editor's note: This is the benefits is the protection of children. Before the recent changes in the law, however, foster children who had not been legally adopted were often out of luck where social security is concerned. I have known many "little orphan Annies" who were not eligible for payments.

I recall, in particular, the case of 6-year old Johnnie K. The Johnsons had taken him to live with them but before they could get around to a legal adoption Mr. Johnson died. Mrs. Johnson fully expected to get survivor's payments for the little boy and for herself as she had the child in her care. However, Johnnie had not been legally adopted and she, as a widow without a legal minor child, could not get payments as she was under 62.

The 1958 changes in the social security law make it possible to pay benefits to more children (including Johnnie) and more widows (including Mrs. Johnson). In the case of children, this results from the re-in the old law; in the case of removal of the adoption provision widows, the removal of the adoption provision will also permit the payment of mother's benefits in most cases.

It is no longer necessary that a child, other than the worker's own child, be an adopted child in order to qualify for survivor's benefits. The requirement now is that the child be "adoptable" and be adopted by the surviving spouse within two years after the worker's death. If the child was living in the worker's household as a member of the family, and was not supported by anyone other than the worker, the is now regarded, for social security purposes, the same as the spouse or a social agency, he worker's own child.

In the case of the adopted child of a retired insured worker it is no longer necessary that the child have been adopted for as long as three years in order to be eligible for benefit payments. Benefits are now payable to an adopted child immediately after adoption.

Under the old law, the mother of a child adopted by her deceased husband could not get widow's benefits if their marriage had not been in effect for at least a year before his death. This often resulted in a situation where the child could get survivor's benefits but the widow with the child in her care could not. Under the amended law, the length-of-marriage restriction has been removed if the deceased worker legally adopted the spouse's child.

The amended law includes other changes relating to marriage and remarriage. I shall discuss them in the next article in this series.

For more complete information, ask your Social Security Office, 203 Fannin, Box 5168, Abilene, Texas, for free booklets on the 1958 amendments.)

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

HOMER SMITH makes profitable use of Bermuda grass on his farm in the Amity community. Ten acres of Bermuda grass and 20 acres of oats furnished the major part of the forage necessary to produce 15 top commercial calves this year.

Homer began grazing the Bermuda grass on March 1 and stayed with it until October 15 with 15 cows and a bull. He began using the oats on October 15. He rotates his cows between the Bermuda grass and the fields.

Smith gets maximum grazing use from the Bermuda grass by controlling the brush and weeds with a mower. In the fall of 1955 he overseeded the Bermuda grass with Madrid sweetclover but due to the following dry years he did not get good grazing use from the clover.

From the standpoint of better grazing management, Homer believes that the Bermuda grass sites in the West Cross Timber do not receive enough attention.

"These sites should be given considerable study by more farmers. The application of commercial fertilizers in the spring should be very profitable. We know that brush control and weed control will pay off," Smith states.

Common Bermuda grass has invaded many of the low, bottomland sites in the West Cross Timber section of the Rising Star area quite extensively. Early settlers in this area say that Bermuda grass has replaced the tall grasses which were so typical of the site. As grazing use of the tall grasses became more intensive the Bermuda grass invaded. These Cross Timber, bermuda grass under heavy lowland sandy sites are ideal for grazing use.

Of the many strains or varieties of bermuda grass that have been recently developed, Coastal bermuda shows more promise for the Rising Star area. This strain seems to be more palatable to livestock than does common and is a much higher producer of forage.

Many farmers in the area have already got a sprig source of the Coastal bermuda grass started on their farms. Since the Coastal Bermuda grass does not produce good seed, it must be started or planted with sprigs or by sodding. The Upper Leon Soil Conservation District has a bermuda grass sodding machine that is available to farmers wanting to plant bermuda grass this spring. This machine is automatic and does not require extra labor to operate.

Coastal Bermuda grass can be sodded beginning March 10. It can be fertilized at the time of sodding with good results. Farmers who want to use the SCD sodding machine should contact the local Soil Conservation Service office or the local FFA Chapter at the Rising Star High School.

Are You in Orbit Now?

... is another way of asking, "Are you on the right track?" The way we vote reflects our thinking and the way we think reflects our whole character. And by this standard, what a confused and careless people we sometimes appear to be! For example, the person who loses his abstract is careless and the person who buys real estate without an abstract, what about his thinking? The moral is, stay in orbit and out of trouble!

Can You Peel An Egg?

Ever had egg trouble?
Dad did. He wanted a hard-boiled egg, but the shell just wouldn't peel.
He cracked it and rolled it to no avail. The shell clung tenaciously to its rightful owner. Dad of course would not give up. He fought the shell piece by piece, and finally won out. But his disposition had been shattered, no thanks to the family's obvious enjoyment of his predicament.
Does this sound familiar? If so, no need to fret any longer. Miss EGGtober (above) has a unique solution for troubled egg peelers. When daughter Mary is standing around eating olives and celery, assign her to the hard-boiled eggs. Delf fingers and plastic tape are all the tools she needs. Have her wrap a piece of tape around the center of each egg, as shown. When you serve the eggs, Dad can roll his on a flat surface to crackle the shell, then peel off the center taped area. When he does, the shell ends will slip right off.
Miss EGGtober, who is really Susan Treat, a 20-year-old 4-H'er from Orange, Conn., has been demonstrating this tip on eggs in her travels around the country. For several months now she has been telling Americans about "EGGtober—The Time To Eat More Eggs." She has also been a reminder to producers that EGGtober is the additional month of egg output they can expect this fall by feeding extra-production laying feeds fortified with the broad spectrum antibiotic Terramycin.
Miss EGGtober also has some new recipes for homemakers she calls "Scrambled Eggs Through the Alphabet." For 26 ways to fix scrambled eggs, "A to Z", write Miss EGGtober, Box 1742, Grand Central Station, New York 17, N. Y.

Cotton Producers Advised To Watch Seed Situation

COLLEGE STATION, Tex.—A continuation of the unfavorable weather could mean trouble so far as saving high quality planting seed from this year's cotton crop is concerned, warns Fred C. Elliott, extension cotton specialist.
In some sections, he says, cotton harvesting conditions are even worse than those of a year ago. Excessive moisture, cotton root rot and regular leaf spot diseases are contributing to lower quality seed from some areas. An early frost, he adds, could further complicate the situation. Continued high moisture in the field is a cause for high free fatty acid content in the seed and this lowers germination. Good weather, however, could change the picture and seed from even late plantings would be of good quality, he says.
Elliott advises that sufficient quantities of good quality seed of known varieties be saved and carefully stored. A continuing check of seed in storage is suggested. This is one of those seasons, he points out, when even seed with a low moisture content cannot be stored and their keeping quality forgotten until next spring.

Here are Elliott's suggestions for handling the seed situation. Check seed closely by cutting a sample with a knife before storing; store only seed with high germination (80 percent is very good) and low free fatty acid content; save seed for bulk storage containing less than 12 percent moisture unless good facilities for drying and cooling are available; small quantities of seed should be turned and sacked and large quantities for bulk storage should be cured by pulling air through them with a fan and duct system. USDA research shows that a TV and Movie star, Dale Robertson, will be featured in the rodeo. Robertson stars in TV's "Tales of Wells Fargo" series. Deadline for entering livestock in the Fort Worth show is Dec. 15. Entry blanks or information can be obtained by writing the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, P. O. Box 150, Fort Worth, Texas.

moisture content of 13.6 percent is the critical point beyond which storage may quickly become disastrous, says Elliott. The moisture content in all stored seed, if possible, should be brought down to 10 or 11 percent. Air should be pulled through the seed only during daylight hours and in fair weather with the hours between 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. as the preferred period.
Local county agents should be contacted for more detailed information, suggests Elliott.

The Rebekahs, Oddfellows and Woodmen of the World lodges in Rising Star will hold their annual Christmas party at the American Legion building Friday evening of this week, at 7:30. Chicken and dressing will be served.

Red Angus Cattle Will Be Judged At Fort Worth Show

FORT WORTH (Spl) - - Red Angus cattle have been added for the first time to the judging schedule at the 1959 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, W. A. King, livestock superintendent, has announced.
Red Angus have been displayed at the Fort Worth shows but this will be the first time they have competed for prize money. Awards in the Red Angus beef breeding class will total $800. The new division has been added because of the growing popularity of the breed, King noted.

Aberdeen-Angus, one of the cattle classes at the Fort Worth show, will have $10,000 in prize money allotted for beef breeding classes. Black Angus also will compete for $2,655 in awards in the open and junior steer division and $2,370 in carlot-and-pen bulls.
The largest amount of prize money in the 63-year history of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show will be offered at the 1959 show, Jan. 30 through Feb. 8. Awards totaling $193,481 will be given winning exhibitors in various fat stock and horse classes and to top cowboys in the exposition rodeo.

THE VIEW FROM A SENIOR'S HEAD

By Nelda Lee

Hi! How did you like the tournament? Personally, I was very proud of the excellent display of ability and sportsmanship that our boys and girls showed toward the visiting teams. In case you aren't acquainted with our Senior basketball players, I'd like to introduce them to you - Betty Jenkins, Lou Erwin, and Carolyn Hunt; girls "A" team; Don Long and Gary Scott; boys "A" team; Dinky Hill, Kenneth Ridens and Tony Smith; boys "B" team.

We've been so busy lately that we've been delinquent in bringing you the latest news on our yearbook, "La Estrellita", but you may be sure that we are working diligently. Practically all of the feature pictures have been taken and we have also sent several pages to the publishers.

Picked fresh from the grapevine -

"Jack, you should be more careful when in the company of the fairer sex; you're getting quite a reputation as 'Jack The Ripper'!"

"Carolyn, never over-estimate your fellow class mates; someday, some squalor is going to tell the world how you acquired the nickname 'Tammy'." (Who? Me, of course!)

We Seniors have been planning a Christmas party and by the way things are shaping up, we may have to give it in "shifts" at Mr. Hill's apartment house unless one of you dear, benevolent readers has one large house for "loan".

 Until next time 'tis "Naughty Nellie" leaving you with this final view - -
 Women are outliving men in the U. S. by an average of six years. There are now one and a half more women than men; so, girls, the next time you go out on a date, pinch him - - he may be dead!

STATION S-O-P-H

This is station S-O-P-H on the air. So come around all you people and we'll tell you about the antics of the Sophs.

First - - we have really been having some fun this week; and by the time you read this, fun will be history and something else will be going on. I believe all of us really enjoyed the basketball tournament. If you missed it, you surely missed a lot of fun. Marty, who is that handsome guy from Missouri that is coming to see you Christmas? We all want to see him, so don't be selfish!

Blondie, why were you and Dagwood fighting in Algebra class? Dagwood, what did you want with Blondie's English II notebook?

Let's get this straight. Maybe I had better tell you some of the Soph girls' nicknames so you'll know whom we're talking about. Jetta - - Hey Poncho!

Carolyn - - Blondie
 Elsie - - Eliza
 Shilia - - Suzanne
 Louise - - Slugger
 Johnnie - - 'Beep, beep'
 Barbara - - Hey Ralph! Miss Finney

Elaine - - Eythl
 Rita - - Snail - Longfellow
 Martha - - Marty, Marsha, Dagwood

Ollie - - Charlie
 Nita - - Stanley

The big clock on the wall says it's time to go, so this is station S-O-P-H signing off until next week.

FISH BOWL

The basketball tournament was a success, win or lose. We enjoyed watching our visiting teams play; and, speaking of teams, the B boys and girls were good to be as outclassed as they were.

We are looking forward to Christmas and our class party; we have already drawn names and are slipping around to see who has whom?

Just a little gossip before I close: L. H. - "You're not even going to have one ear if you keep sitting there." B. B. - "So you weren't in that blue Ford car, the other Sat. night." L. E. - "How about George?" W. W. - "So it finally happened?"

 That's all for this week.

JUNIOR LIVE-WIRE

I waited just as long as I could to put out this edition so that I could inform all you people who don't know already of the result of our Invitational Tourney last week. Although our boys got beat early in the tournament by a good Carbon team, they played very expertly and made Rising Star very proud of them in that they played hard to the finish. In their losing game with Carbon they were only beat by a stroke of hard luck in an overtime. What RSHS is particularly proud of, however, is the first place trophy the Rising Star girls won in that same tourney. Their game was a hard fought, dazzling bit of first-class competition with Woodson for the first place berth. Seemingly out-sized, (to quote a fan, "I'll bet those Woodson girls had never been beaten so badly before by a team so much smaller than they; you beat them much more than the score showed...") the Rising Star girls played a brilliant game to a rousing victory. And that's not all: Three of our players made the all-tournament team. Jettie Sue Duggan, forward; Betty Jenkins, guard; and Jetta Butler, guard. Believe me or not, I'm very proud to say, "What a team; what a coach; and what great fans you all are."

There is excitement aplenty at Rising Star High School this week. At the end of next week, we have another high school tournament at May to participate in. And the week following directly following the ing that, we have the Football Banquet to attend. And needless to be reminded of, we have the Christmas holidays directly following the banquet. These are destined to be busy weeks, and they are also fated to be what we at school would call, crazy; yes, they are, aren't they, Mary Lois?

I realize that this section is fairly only gibberish, but when this reporter gets in a hurry, she also manages to get all a-flutter. Besides; you know, they tell me that you have to be a little crazy to be a reporter. Maybe that is why I have held this position so faithfully -they have found none to compete with my sanity-or insanity.

BAND NEWS

The RSHS Wildcat Band spent a cold day at Winters Saturday, where we participated in the Region II Marching Band and Baton Twirling contests.

The twirling contest began at 8 a.m. Ratings of one, two, or three were given to about 500 who performed as soloists, trios, quartets, and ensembles. Our twirlers-Karen Steel, Mary Jo Awalt, Alice Roberts, Virginia Townsend, Nita Scott, and Sharon Starks-did very well. Mary Jo won a first rating, the ensemble and Karen both won second ratings.

The marching contest began early Saturday afternoon with the Class B bands marching first. Ratings from one to five were given. All bands were inspected and given a rating before going on the field to march. We are very proud of our ratings-first in inspection and second in marching. The two bands which received one ratings in marching had twice as many members in their organization as did Rising Star.

The RSHS Band presents their first concert of the year December 18, 1958, so make plans to come.

ACC Alumni To Have 'Round the World' Reunions

ABILENE (Spl) - The Abilene Christian College Alumni Association has announced reunion parties around the world and through out the United States for Dec. 31.

The gatherings will be of exes, students, parents, and friends of the College and will be called "Purple and White Parties", after the school colors.

Robert D. Hunter, Director of Alumni Relations, said that tape recorded programs will be sent from the College to every party, and that some speakers from the College also will be available.

The ACC Alumni Office will assist local host communities by mailing out invitations and party information. Local party hosts also may get information about their parties in the Alumni News publication provided this news is sent in to the magazine staff before Dec. 1, 1958.

This program of annual Purple and White Parties was voted unanimously at Homecoming, on Nov. 1, by the Executive Board of the ACC Alumni Association to reunite exes, parents, students, and friends of the College on the same night in as many cities as possible around the world. Hunter has requested that per-

"Welfare" Subject Of Saturday Club At Dec. 3rd Meet

The Saturday Club met Dec. 3rd to study "Welfare." A box of gifts was packed by the club members, for the patients in Wichita Falls State Hospital. During the business session reports were given by the secretary, Mrs. H. S. Switzer, the treasurer, Mrs. Floyd Joyce, and the library committee and by the Parliamentarian, Mrs. Fred Tunnell. A committee was appointed by the president to investigate and rebuild part of the building which was damaged by a truck or car that plunged into it recently.

During the program hour the club heard Mrs. Floyd Joyce give a very interesting paper on "Growing Old Successfully." Mrs. M. G. Joyce served as hostess. The refreshment table was laid with a white linen cut-work cloth, and centered with a large bowl of scarlet-red nandina berries. She served fruit cake and coffee to these members:

Mrs. Barney Cargile, Mrs. Lee Clark, Mrs. Clyde Flanagan, Mrs. Marshall Groce, Mrs. A. D. Jenkins, Mrs. Olice Jones, Mrs. Floyd Joyce, Mrs. Love Shults, Mrs. Horace Switzer, Mrs. Jim Settle, Mrs. Fred Tunnell, Mrs. A. Louise Weber, Mrs. Robert Cook, Mrs. Fred Roberts and a guest, Mrs. Raymond Wade, and the hostess.

December 17th marks the Christmas program with Miss Eudora Hawkins, of Abilene, who is a representative of the West Texas Utilities Co. She will bring the club program and show a film, "The Child of Bethlehem." A covered dish luncheon will be served at the library at 12:30 p.m. Group singing of Christmas carols, a Christmas tree, and exchange of gifts, will conclude the program. Hostesses will be Mrs. Marshall Groce and Mrs. A. Louise Weber.

METHODIST WOMEN HAVE CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The Methodist WSCS met Monday afternoon for a program, "Christmas Everywhere," directed by Mrs. L. R. Smith. "Invitation to the Feast of Christmas," was given by Mrs. Smith. The importance music plays in celebrating this holy day was the basic theme. "Joy to the World," was sung by the group and "The Magnificat," was read responsively. Soft music was played as a background while Mrs. Eberhart spoke on "An Organ in Borneo," Mrs. Gray on "Firing Line in the Pacific," and Mrs. Cook on "Our Church, East and West." The meeting closed with a prayer by Mrs.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Minter Hardin during the week end were her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Inabnet, from Odessa and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Westerman from Cloudford, N. M. The two couples also visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Inabnet near Pioneer.

Baptist WMU Has Circle Meetings Monday

The Frank Owens Circle of the First Baptist WMU met in the home of Mrs. Rufus Pierce on Monday, Dec. 8, with 12 members present. Mrs. Chas. Watson, circle chairman, presided and the program was directed by Mrs. Ethel Barnes. A brief history of the WMU mission work was given by five members. Prayer chairman, Mrs. Ella Wells, led in prayers for the missionaries who were on the Calendar of Prayer. Soft Christmas carols were played during the program. A Christmas greeting card was signed for Miss Minnie Alexander, a returned missionary. Minutes of previous meetings were read and monthly record sheets signed by each WMS member. Refreshments of punch and cake were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ella Wells.

The Gerald Reddell Circle met in the home of Mrs. Claud Cox. Mrs. Jimmie Fridge and Mrs. Lee Clark gave the mission program. Other members present were Mrs. Ed Jackson, Mrs. Raymond Turner, Mrs. Zellars, Mrs. Claude Kellar, Mrs. Will Ware and the hostess, who served refreshments.

Mrs. Reed's circle met with Mrs. Clark Crownover. Reports were given and the lesson reviewed. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

UNION CENTER CLUB HAS ALL-DAY MEETING

The Union Center Hobby Club met Dec. 2 for an all-day quilting. Nine members attended and finished two quilts. A sack lunch was enjoyed at noon. Plans were made to meet again Dec. 16 for the first meeting of the new year. Christmas gifts will be exchanged. The final community party will be held on that date, also. Visitors are welcome. Present for the Dec. 2 meeting were Meses. A. W. Wright, G. G. Crowell, Henry Reed, Jack Knox, B. H. Hairren, Roy Allen, J. W. Martin, Aaron Gage, and Miss Vera McBeth. Miss Joanna Allen and Mrs. Ham were visitors.—Mrs. G. G. Crowell, Reporter.

Vo. Ag Teaches Boys Management Thru Experience

By H. L. Geye, Teacher of Vocational Agriculture, Rising Star High School

The ability to manage one's business well is desired by everyone. But how does one learn the art of management?

This ability, like many others, can only be learned through experience. This important fact is realized and provided for in the vocational agriculture program at Rising Star High School.

Vocational agriculture students are afforded opportunities to learn business management in dealing with individual and FFA projects.

The individual projects of students consist of crop and livestock projects and are usually referred to as the students supervised farming program. Each student is required to have one before he is allowed to take vocational agriculture. Growing these projects and keeping records on them provides students with very valuable experiences in business management.

Students learn about the economic laws involved in buying and selling commodities. Too, they learn how to manage their land, labor, and capital in order to make the maximum amount of profit.

Last year the value of crops and livestock produced by the 28 vocational agriculture students at Rising Star High School was $16,611.86. Producing products valued at this much requires the use of good managerial abilities.

Such managerial abilities not only are beneficial to students at the present time but such abilities will be of value when the student finishes high school and enters business for himself. These managerial abilities, even though learned in relation to farming activities, will be valuable to the person who enters an occupation related to farming.

Mr. Geye will discuss "Farm Mechanics in Vocational Agriculture" next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Griffin of Amity community have bought the Cawley home on West College Street and have moved into it. They plan to improve and redecorate it.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Scott are going to Fort Worth this week to greet their new grandson who was born to their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Scott, on Sunday, Dec. 7.

Mary Ida Jackson Brown and her brother, Bill Jackson, of Abilene were guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Joyce, Sunday, and attended church here.

Mrs. Richard Thorp was at home week before last after having been at the bedside of her daughter, Peggy, who is under treatment at Fort Worth after a polio attack. Peggy is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. George Leonard and Sandie of Cross Plains, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Leonard and family of Odessa, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Leonard and son of Arkansas, and Gayle Leonard of Ft Worth spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Leonard.

Mr. and Mrs. John Joyce and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Joyce and children spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith spent the weekend of Thanksgiving week at San Antonio visiting his daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Hord of Baird spent Sunday before last with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Humphries.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leonard of De Leon spent Sunday, Nov. 30 with Mrs. Willie Brewer.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boswell spent the Thanksgiving weekend with her family at Whitney.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Cook and sons of Rising Star spent Thanksgiving with Mary Jane Elliott.

Larry Anderson of John Tarleton College spent Thanksgiving weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Anderson.

Telesha Joyce, two-year-old granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Weaver of Sipe Springs and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Joyce of Fort Worth, got her picture in the Greenville paper along with Old Santa Claus recently, but from all appearances she was reluctant enough to do so. Her mother, Mrs. B. H. Joyce of Greenville, was shown helping Old Santa reassure the child the Christmas saint was really a kindly old character who loves kiddies and makes it his whole ambition to see them happy.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Scott are having some improvements made on their home at 112 S. Scott St. They are putting on a new roof and are finishing the outside walls in brixite, which will add to their appearance and comfort of the home.

Cisco Junior College Admitted To Highest Agency

CISCO.—Cisco Junior College was accepted as a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the highest accrediting agency in the south, at the 63rd annual meeting at Louisville, Kentucky, Dec. 1-4, according to information received here Friday.

President Grady Hogue, who attended the meeting, was advised of the local school's acceptance in a telephone call after his return home.

Admission of Cisco Junior College to membership came after two years of inspections and reports, including two visits to Cisco by inspecting committees of the association, Mr. Hogue said. Membership in the association will result in world-wide recognition for the local college, he added.

The Association's requirements for membership demand the highest standards of education, Mr. Hogue reported. The organization is dedicated to the high purpose of promoting and maintaining sound education programs and procedures through helpful cooperation, he said.

Cisco Junior College, with a total enrollment of 417 students this year, has state approval to offer some 150 courses—the complete requirements for the first two years toward a degree in virtually every educational field.

The college is also a member of the American Association of Junior Colleges, the Southern Association of Junior Colleges, the Texas Association of Colleges, the Texas Association of Music Schools, the Texas Public Junior College Association, the National Junior College Athletic Association and the National Committee on Accrediting.

"We are proud of this new recognition," Mr. Hogue said. "We feel that the added prestige will be reflected in the continued progress and growth of Cisco Junior College."

The college expects to announce plans soon for the opening of a new girls dormitory and student union building.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Flanagan are placing a new roof on their home on West College Street, which adds to the appearance of their well kept home.

Rats Suspicious Of Unfamiliar Objects, Says Love

Rats are suspicious animals and approach unfamiliar objects with caution says John Love, Cheaney community, president of the Farm Bureau, which organization is sponsoring a rodent campaign over the county. For this reason bait should be placed behind a box, board, bale of hay or other object.

The material should also be placed near the wall. This provides a sense of security.

The Fumarin in the bait material of cornmeal, rolled oats, powdered sugar and peanut oil is an anti-coagulant similar to Warfarin. The material causes a thinning of the blood with eventually a continuing hemorrhage that results in death.

Mice are not as suspicious as are rats and will eat a great variety of food and objects. Love suggests that where mice are a problem in the residence that a few pounds of material be placed at various points under the house if it is at all possible.

The Farm Bureau has set up bait stations at the Perkins Implement Co. place in Eastland, Cisco Locker Plant, the Herrera Schaefer farm near Nimrod, the J. D. Caldwell farm just south of the Frank Gray Memorial Park near Gorman, the Artner Wrigg farm southwest of Long Branch and at Loves place in the Cheaney Community. The initial shipment of 1,000 pounds will be replaced as soon as it is gone. Other bait stations will be set up soon and will be continued as long as necessary it was said.

Hostess To GA Group
Mrs. Oral Davis was hostess to the Intermediate Girls' Auxiliary of the W. M. U. when she served dinner to the girls and to their teachers: Mrs. Ed Jackson and Mrs. Jimmie Fridge. The mission book, "Temple of Dawn," was received and visits reported. The girls, with their sponsors, visit and take cheer to the sick and shut-ins each month. Mrs. Davis served Chinese food to the sponsors and to Daniela Darnell, Bennie Sue Morris, Joy Morrow, Maria Geye and Lovie Bishop.
