The Putnam News extends congratulations to the Lone Star Gas Company which celebrated its 30th birthday of renowned service this week.

More than 300,000 homes and industries are supplied with a modern dependable service by the Lone Star Gas Company.

Callahan County has already proved itself a territory of wealth because of its huge production of oil, ranch lands, farm lands, etc.

It is announced from Austin, that Eastland county will have a railroad commission office at Eastland. This office will be opened in a short time.

Some believe the gold-maybe $6,000,000 worth was hidden there in the 15th century by Mexico's aztec emperor.

An injunction was granted this week to prevent further excavations on land owned by Anna and W. D. Enqua of near Clyde until their suit to void a lease held by Cauble and Woods can be tried in the fall term of court at Baird.

It has been reported but not verified that human bones and a Spanish sword had been unearthed, that the diggings go 20 feet deep, and that Cauble estimated he was within three days of finding the treasure when interrupted by a court order.

Unverified reports say that Cauble has been guided in the hunt by one or more ancient maps, secured in Mexico City.

The explanation for presence of the gold was that Montezuma hid his treasure at wide-invasion of his country by the Spaniards.

The treasure may be discovered scattered points shortly after and if so it may be vast and contain many historic relics. I have thought for a long time that as excavations were being made in our old countries and enormous wealth unearthed, that probably excavations would be worthwhile in this new country.

GAS COMPANY PASSES ITS 30th MILESTONE

Thirty years ago at Austin, the secretary of state authorized incorporation of Lone Star Gas company for the purpose of producing an, transporting natural gas from distant fields to towns and cities miles away. At that time this was considered a hazardous undertaking. Fortunes, business reputations, and even lives were staked on that bet against failure.

The charter for this company was obtained by L. B. Denning, now president of the company, and his associates. They built the first long distance pipe line in Texas, from Petrolia in Clay county to Fort Worth and Dallas, and despite the misgivings of many people the first delivery of gas through this pipe line became an accomplished fact when natural gas was turned in, the mains of Fort Worth in February, 1910, and in Dallas two months later.

That was the origin of the Lone Star gas system which today serves 299 towns in Texas and Oklahoma and this year celebrates its thirtieth anniversary. The 123 mile pipe line has increased to 4,700 miles of pipe, and where once there were only 15 to 25 employees, today there are more than 3,000 watching over the gas service.

Mr. Denning, however, can still recall the struggles of the little company during its early years. He remembers particularly the dark days of the World war, when new sources of supply were unobtainable and customers complained each winter about the lack of pressure in their stoves. With pride he recalls the days in 1924 when experiments conducted by company engineers developed a successful method of utilizing gas from oil wells. This, with the company's ceaseless prospecting for new fields, has increased supplies from the single Petrolia field to 46 fields located in the Panhandle, Southern Oklahoma, West Texas and East Texas. Twenty-one compressor watch over the pressures which insure dependable gas service in more than a quarter million Texas and Oklahoma homes.

GOVERNOR AND LEGISLATORS ARE ON A LONG LIMB

It looks as though we have a governor and all members of the legislature out on a long limb on the pension legislation that did not pass. As one member put it, they are all out on a limb and the reaction is against all alike and quoting, "Lynn Landrum." In trying to make it safe politically through a constitutional amendment on the sales tax, it would seem from the rumbling heard in the distance, that very few, who were in the legislature will be able to make the grade and get back. It will be remembered when the governor was talking of his political enemies all being out on a limb, and threatening to saw the limb off with them. This sheet ventured the assertion that the limb. But we are not so sure since the governor and the legislature are all on a long limb, and the people may saw the limb off with them.

The writer suspects that both the governor and the legislature, are pretty much in the safe condition as the negro was after he had shot a neighbors cow. The negro had pleaded guilty to the charge, and the court had proceeded with trial until the negro thought, they were going to convict him, when he rose and said, "Judge ye honor I wished I hadn't fooled wid de old now," and we imagine they wished they had never fooled wid de "blame" penion business.

WISE COUNTY OFFICIALS ALLEGEDLY UNDERPAID

It would look as though the commissioner in Wise county was not being paid enough, since a former Wise County Commissioner has been sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of two years for misappropriation of funds, it being alleged that he endorsed bills for merchandise not bought, and for services not performed. Another commissioner in that county was tried for misappropriation of funds. It appears that he bought himself a new automobile on the installment plan and was to pay for it by oking bills to the county for gasoline and repair work which he did not get. When our public officials prove to be dishonest, what can we expect of the masses?

WITH OUR WILDLIFE

By JOHN R. WOOD State Game Warden

Fish Rescue Work

Fish rescue work, of which much is done each year by the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, has started. State Game Warden Sam Turner of Waco reports the rescue of 21,000 fish from an old channel of the Bosque river. A large party of Waco sportsmen cooperated with wardens in the rescue work. All of the members of the finny tribe were saved and placed in the Bosque river below the dam at Lake Waco.

Receding waters following heavy rains, the streams, lakes, bairpits drying up during the summer months stranded millions of fish in Texas. During the fiscal year of 1937-38 game department employees rescued a total of 2,846,279 fish and placed them in rivers, streams and lakes in which there were no danger of going dry. The fish rescued totals nearly as many as were produced in state fish hatcheries during the same period, 3,068,705 crappie, bass, cat, bream being propagated by the hatcheries and used to stock waters of the state.

Fish Rescue Work in This District

In my district there are six counties and there has been many fish rescued this year. Earlier in the year the old Lucas lake. Some two miles east of Brownwood, was going dry. Mr. M. W. Ledbetter, Game Warden O. E. Etheredge and myself rescued some 12,000 fish from this lake and placed them all in Lake Brownwood. The Brownwood Chapter of the Izak Walton League cooperated in this work.

During the last part of June the old T. P. lake at Baird, was washed out by the heavy rains in that section. When the dam broke nearly all of the fish were washed out. The author of this column, O. F. Etheredge, game warden, and hatchery attendants, L. A. Proctor and Walton Bann, and sportsmen of Baird rescued some 16,000 fish and placed them in lakes and government tanks in Callahan county. Most of the fish rescued came from poles that would go dry within the next month or so. Others were left in permanent water in the creek where there was no danger of drying up.

If there is danger of creeks, sloughs or other bodies of water in your community going dry, will you notify your state game warden so the fish might be saved? In case you do not know your game warden, please notify the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, Austin, Texas, and the warden will be notified of the condition. This will be a great help to us who must do the Homecoming was enjoyed at the Dan Horn Community Sunday with Grover Taylor, president and Lester Horn, secretary. Roll call was answered and children and grandchildren answered present for those who had passed on. G. C. (Grant) Daniels delivered one of the principal speeches on his earlier life. Mrs. J. J. Livingston spoke on The Great Homecoming, When We All Get to Heaven.

Mrs. Sam Hull spoke on The Early Christian Life. Other speakers were W. A. Martin of Carbon; Clyde King of Putnam; W. B. Starr and Mrs. George McCulloch of Dan Horn. Six pall bearers who were Will Ervin, Felix Rosson, George Horn, John Stuteville, Tede Horn, R. N. Hazelwood, represented the old folk who had passed on. They stood and held a plaque with the two names on it that had passed away since the last homecoming. The plaque was unveiled by six flower girls who were Wilma Lee Speegle, Melva Speegle, Ella Merle Speegle, Ella Merle Halmark, Margie Maxwell, Virginia Honea, Katie Beth Speegle. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hesley's names appeared on the plaque. Rev. Mart Agnew, pastor of the Dan Horn Baptist Church delivered an address.

Officers were reelected for next year. A bountiful dinner was served under the old time brush arbor.

At 2:00 there was singing with singers present from Cisco, Putnam and Scranton.

DEFICIT FOR NATION IS ONE OF LARGEST

The fiscal year for the nation ended last Friday night, amid a flurry of over time work by treasury bookkeepers, in showing what the expenses were for the fiscal year. The expenditures were approximately $9,250,000,000, with a deficit of $3,580,000, the largest deficit in the history of the country. The public debt showed Friday morning to be about $40,400,000,000.

The expenditures were the highest since the days of the World War, which is the ninth year with a deficit each year, and when Congress adjourns, this session, the appropriation will be larger than it was last year.

PIERCE THOMASON SERIOUSLY INJURED IN CALIFORNIA

Pierce Shackelford received a telegram Saturday from Glendale California stating Pierce Thomason his nephew had been seriously injured from a fall.

Later they received a letter stating that he was in a hospital in Los Angeles, and was unable to talk; but the doctor treating him stated that he thought he would recover if nothing else set up.

Mr. Thomason is a son of Mrs. Mary Thomason formerly Miss Mary Shackelford. The Thomason's were formerly residents of Putnam.

NEW LAW DISCOUNTS PROMPTLY PAID TAXES

There were some new laws passed by the recent legislature along the line of allowing discounts on taxes paid, and a copy of this law should be in the hands of City and County officials. Under terms of the law, taxpayers may discount their taxes by two and one half per cent, based on the time of payment before the taxes become delinquent. In other words, the higher discounts apply to those who pay three months before delinquency; two per cent if paid within two months before delinquency, and one per cent discount if the taxes are paid within thirty days before they become delinquent. This law primarily applies to state taxes. See the tax collector for further information.

DOWN ON BOARD EXPENDITURES

Heretofore there has no limit to the expenditures in the past if the different departments who have been able to use money taken in practically as they pleased, once the legislature got through making appropriations. In the past the different departments have been able to spend the income to their special funds such as collections of license fees, without any limitation. But in the present appropriation bill the legislature wrote in provision that the department could not spend the income to these special funds unless the expenditures is authorized by a three man board composed of the governor, attorney general, and the state treasurer.

U. S. GOVERNMENT ENDS FISCAL YEAR

Cash gone will not return. The federal government ended its fiscal year on July 1, with record of the largest expenditures in the history of the country in peace time. The total expenditures were $9,500,000,000. This total is largely made of cash outlays that will not come back.

In the new year plans call for a cut of nearly $1,000,000 in WPA expenditures. This cut, however, is offset in part by the prospects of larger farm payments, larger outlays on heavy public works.

The plan now is to make future increases largely in the form of loans on which some repayment may be made.

BIRTH RATE FOR NATION SHOWS AN INCREASE

The American birth rate is rising contrary to the forecast of some learned people the last few years who have been predicting a lower birth rate for the nation.

Final computations for 1938 showed the rate was 17.6 live births for every 1000 population, the highest in several years.

The national birth rate had declined according to Census Bureau steadily since the first accurate in 1915 showed a rate of 25.1 per 1000. In 1933 it touched a low of 16.5. It increased to 17.1 in 1934, dropped to 16.9 in 1935, in 1936 then increased to 17 in 1937. New Mexico had the highest birth rate of any state in the United States, in 1938, being 33.7 while New Jersey had the lowest with only 12.9.

WASHINGTON NEWS

FROM CONGRESSMAN
CLYDE L. GARRETT

ADJOURNMENT:

Leaders of the two Houses of Congress who conferred with the President, are agreed that Congress can enact all major legislation on this program and adjourn by Saturday, July 15. A few still feel, however, that August 1st will be a more likely date. Major legislation includes neutrality, taxes, relief, social security revision, and probably railroad legislation.

SOCIAL SECURITY ACT:

The Ways and Means Committee has approved several amendments to the Social Security Act: Increase initial benefits under old-age annuity system and step up date of payments to next January 1; Provide liberally for aged wives, widows and dependent parents of persons coming under old-age insurance; Raise from $15 to $20, a month the amount the Federal Government is willing to match with States for pensions; Postpone the third of one per cent increase in pay roll taxes; Widen the coverage of the old-age annuity system to bring seamen, bank employes and employed persons of 65 or over under it.

NEUTRALITY:

Soon to be taken up by Congress, again, is the neutrality question. Congressional committees have been advised by Secretary of State Cordell Hull that he favors repeal of the arms embargo section of the existing law and putting the sale of munitions to foreign purchasers on a "cash-and-carry" basis. A new bill, conforming to a great extent to the Hull program, by the Acting Chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs includes elimination of arms embargo, keeping ships and citizens out of combat areas, and requiring transfer of title of goods to be shipped from this country to belligerents. Hearings on this and other bills are being held in the House Committee.

RAILROAD BILLS:

Major railroad bills are cleared from the Senate's calendar. Within a week, three were passed subjecting water carriers to ICC regulation the same as railroads and motor transportation, creating a railroad Reorganization Court to deal with rail bankruptcies and receiverships; and permitting the B & O and Lehigh Valley Railroads to enter into voluntary agreements with security holders to postpone maturities and obligations.

REORGANIZATION:

The two Houses of Congress have agreed on a joint resolution for the purpose of making the President's two Government Reorganization orders effective on July 1, as planned.

DAIRY INDUSTRY:

The dairy industry the world over has expanded greatly during the past 30 years. A report by the past 30 years. A report by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics shows that for 21 leading countries butter production averaged nearly 6.7 billion pounds a year during the period 1931-35, as compared with less than 4.5 billion averaged for the period 1909-13. The U.S. is the leading butter producing country, and accounted during the 1931-35 period for more than 1-3 of the total for the 21 countries. Germany is second leading producing country.

WILDLIFE AS FARM CROP:

Farmers, as a rule, are ready to accept wildlife as a possible and promising crop, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture, as the result of experience in the Wildlife Management Section of the Soil Conservation Service. Most farmers are receptive to the idea that the wildlife crop can be produced as a supplement to the crops already a part of the farm program. Farming to favor wildlife, it says is a practical way of making diversified farming even more diversified.

FARM GARDENS CUT FOOD COST:

Vegetable gardens on farms are a big help in increasing the living standard of Farm Security Administration borrowers, a recent Nation-wide survey shows. Home gardens reduce food expenditures for these farm families $150 or more, depending on the size of the family. This money is then available for other living expenses or for paying off debts. They increased their canning of fruits and vegetables from an average of 51 quarts per family annually to 221 quarts. Many are able to meet all vegetable requirements for entire year with fresh, stored, or canned vegetables supplied by their gardens. According to FSA's home supervisors, gardens are planned to supply a good supply of fresh vegetables during the summer months and enough additional so the home-makers may can for later use. In addition, potatoes, carrots, cabbage, beets, rutabagas and turnips are stored for use later.

WOODSMEN GO WEST:

The westward shift of the lumber industry is reflected in a Forest Service compilation of mill production from 1800 to 1935. Over the period the East has supplied more than 4-5 of the American lumber, 3-4 of which was softwoods and 1-4 hardwoods. Now, however, nearly half of the lumber is cut from the western softwoods, which Douglas fir, ponderosa pine, white pines, hemlock, spruce, and redwood. The central region has supplied more than 40% of the hardwoods. The cut from 1900 to 1935 was more than half the cut for the previous century, but the mill value for the 35 years was considerably greater than half of the 38 billion dollars which was the total estimated mill value of the cut for the 135 years.

A dramatized version of Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress" will be produced in Rochester, England.

GIVE YOUR TEXAS BOYCE ODOM HOUSE

It used to be that it was a most embarrassing circumstance if a man's shirt-tail was out. Now, half the young fellows are running around looking like Chinese laundrymen. Times do change—as a philosopher pointed out when he said, "A few years ago, you could have all the gold you wanted but if you had a pint of liquor, they'd put in jail; now you can have all the liquor you want but they'll look you up if you have any gold."

For ages, men have been poking fun at women's fashions. This shirt-tail craze would seem to be a good chance for the women to get even—except that a large percentage of them are walking around wearing unsightly slacks. Which calls to mind the story of an occurrence in deep East Texas. A native was indignantly telling a friend about driving along in his jalopy and of being overtaken by a "city feller" who slowed down his limousine and yelled, "why don't you get over and give me half the road, you snuff-dipping son-of-a-so?"

The friend asked, "Why didn't you cuss him back?" The man who had been insulted said, "I couldn't; my mouth was full of Texas, by the way, gained the spotlight recently when the first national convention of "snuff-dippers" was held in Mississippi and humorous Jerry Sadler, State Railroad Commissioner, made the principal speech, in which he told the great Americans who made use of tobacco in powdered form. Not long ago, I dropped a nickel in one of these music machines to play "A Penny Serenade" but I didn't get back four cents in change.

While in Mexico, our Lions' group had the honor of being accorded a reception in the home of the governor in charming Cuernavaca and later were formally welcomed in his office in the 300-year old palace built by Cortez. It is a town of lovely gardens, vines with purple, pink and white blossoms spilling their beauty over the walls. You can sip a glass of wine on a broad, cool porch overlooking the Borda Gardens where the Emperor Maximilian and the Empress Carlotta once strolled, and where Lindbergh courted Anne Morrow.

The Diego Rivera murals on the second story balcony of the Cortez palace are, in some respects, even more remarkable than the Rivera murals in Mexico City. The faces, in the National Palace and in Cuernavaca—have expression and, through masterly shading, give the effect of depth. At Cuernavaca, the eyes of the patriot Morales are fixed upon you, no matter from what point you look. Another painting, on the flat surface of a column, has been given a dark gray background, creating the illusion that the figure is in a niche. The white head and mane of Zapata's horse seem to stand out from the wall. At the foot of the murals are miniature sketches done in gray, so skillfully executed that they seem to have been carved in stone.

Perhaps the greatest number of entries ever seen in a beauty contest in this State will be witnessed in Fort Worth when Casa Manana officials will select the Texas Sweetheart No. 1, who will be given a featured part in the elaborate musical spectacle which will run through the summer. All cities and towns have been given a blanket invitation to select, through their Chamber of Commerce, a beauty to represent them and it is likely that 100 will be in the final contest on the stage of Casa Manana on Monday night, July 24th.

"Oldest joke" contest entry: A tourist asked a little boy, "George, how far is the next town?" "How did you know my name was George?" the boy inquired. "I guessed it" was the stranger's answer. "Then guess how far it is to the next town." "There are no 'unavoidable' accidents," declares a bulletin issued by the Texas Safety Council, of which Pierce Brooks is director. "Death takes no holidays! 1610 individuals flashed into eternity on Texas streets and highways in 1938 to the dirge of screaming brakes and breaking glass. Not one should have died."

August 31—Thursday—Monthly Reports. In September the home demonstration clubs will study Canning Poultry and will follow the same schedule for meeting as in August.

The Annual Encampment for home demonstration club members will be held at Lake Cisco, July 20-21. Between 80 and 125 are expected to attend. A program has been planned to include a safety first demonstration—given by Carl Lamb of the West Texas Utility Company. Mrs. Estes will present her dolls with a lecture, other features include stunts by each club, swimming, boating, hikes, and a visit to the state fish hatchery. The 4-H girls of the county will go on an encampment the 26th of July.

Many requests have come to the office for a recipe for Red Pepper Relish, here is one given by Mrs. Lee Coats: 12 red peppers, 1 quart of Vinegar 12 green peppers, 2 cups of sugar 3 large onions, 1 1/2 teaspoon of salt. Split peppers and remove seeds, chop coarsely. Cover with boiling water and let stand for 5 minutes. Drain, pour more boiling water over it and let stand 10 minutes. Drain and add chopped onion. Boil vinegar, sugar and salt for 5 minutes and add other ingredients, cook the mixture 10 minutes after it has come to a boil, pack in clean, hot jars and seal.

and Dr. Jewel Wurtzbaugh whom Texas claims because she formerly lived here and taught in the state college at Stephenville. If you are driving toward Oklahoma City soon, do drive slowly on highway 77 between Ardmore and Davis. There is no more interesting stretch of road in our section and the geological department has done a valuable piece of work in erecting large signs that explain the earth structures that are constantly changing through these Arbuckle Mountains. One particular spot that never fails to awe me is the section where rock formations stretch for miles in regular rows just as if some prehistoric giant had planted them for our amusement. Turner Falls is well worth a pause also.

What is happening to the younger generation? My handsome sixteen year old nephew Julian Dean Newbren of Byars, Oklahoma came down at seven forty-five one morning perturbed because nobody had called him and he had overslept. When his mother explained that she had thought the night's rain would prevent his working he firmly explained that he meant to work at all times and that he insisted upon being called as soon as the mail arrived every morning because he slept so soundly that the alarm clock could not arouse him. Now nobody was making him work—I am not sure that he was even being paid to work—and my sister would have preferred that he sleep longer so I cannot understand a boy who of his own accord arises at dawn to ride after cattle. All the boys I have known from childhood to this good day, small boys and boys past forty will sleep as late as possible, but it may be that times are changing, and a marvelous change, say I. There is one thing certain, J. D. didn't inherit this trait from his aunt!

Oklahoma University has more than a fair share of notables on its faculty; there is Dr. Walter S.
