Garrett Makes Statement in Congress Race

GARRETT MAKES
The Callahan County friends of former Congressman, Clyde L. Garrett, of Eastland, have authorized the Putnam News to announce that he is a candidate for Congress subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

Mr. Garrett served in Congress two terms—from 1937 to 1941. Congress being in session in 1940, passing war legislation, Garrett did not return to make a campaign—he stayed on the job. He was defeated only by a small majority.

Since 1941, he has been engaged in Public Relations work in Washington. He has been associated with the office of Jesse Jones, Secretary of Commerce, and in the Executive Office of the President. In performing his important wartime duties, he frequently contacted the President, the Vice-President, Members of the Cabinet, Members of the U. S. House of Representatives and the Senate, Ambassadors of the United Nations, and the personnel of the various foreign embassies in Washington.

Enters Race at Request of Friends

Mr. Garrett entered the race for Congress at the urgent request of his many friends in the 12-county district who feel that his long experience, his ability and intimate and highly practical knowledge of national and international affairs qualify him to act more ably and efficiently in these most momentous days in the Nation's history.

War Before Politics; Has Two Sons in Service

"Winning the war at the earliest possible date with a minimum loss of life and waste of money," Garrett declares in announcing his candidacy, "is the most important object of our people. To this end if elected, I pledge my wholehearted support."

Garrett not only has a broad knowledge of the weighty problems facing the Nation during the war, but he also intimately and sympathetically understands the innermost personal feelings, desires and anxiety of the millions of Americans who have loved ones serving in the armed forces. His only two sons—Lieut. Carl Garrett, a veteran of eighteen months' duty, "somewhere in the Southwest Pacific" with the U. S. Navy and Sgt. Clyde Garrett Jr., of the U. S. Army Air Forces—are serving their country. Both volunteered.

Veterans First; Advocates Local Veterans Hospitals

"Those who win this war, those who are risking their lives and enduring unbelievable hardships as they engage in combat with our enemies deserve our full consideration," Garrett stated. He favors for our veterans, prompt and adequate provision for their hospitalization and medical attention, completion of education or vocational training, government loan at 2 or 3 per cent interest to purchase or improve homes, farms or business establishments, and every assistance in securing desired and suitable employment. Garrett believes that our fighting sons should be required, by former employers, after discharge from service, and that service men should be given first consideration in all post war employment. He also advocates that

Surgical Dressings Workers Encouraged By Overseas Letters

"Every wound must be dressed—not just some wounds, or certain wounds, but all wounds, large or small, must be dressed and dressed often."

Reminders like that, in letters from overseas, keep the volunteers of the Callahan County Red Cross chapter loyal to their task of surgical dressing making these hot days, according to Mrs. L. L. Blackburn, surgical dressings production chairman.

"The volunteers grow weary, of course, and sometimes the work looks like a very small contribution in the war effort and unimportant," said Mrs. Blackburn. "But a few letters of appreciation from the men overseas are received and it all seems worthwhile again."

Mrs. Blackburn said that the chapter quota will keep volunteers busy here all summer and that more workers are needed if production is to be kept up to schedule.

The armed forces have asked the Red Cross to supply more than a billion surgical dressings this year.

"The great quantities used are indicated by the official statement that as many as 1,000 surgical dressings are sometimes needed in treating one seriously wounded man," said the Red Cross chairman.

Mrs. Blackburn said that since the folding of surgical dressings started here November 9, 1942, 227,400 have been completed and shipped to military medical depots. The current quota is for 63,000.

James E. Franklin Age 74, Died in Baird Thursday

James Edwin Franklin, age 74, and a resident of Baird for more than 30 years, died in the Callahan County hospital Thursday. He fell in some way about two weeks ago, breaking his leg and was taken to the County hospital for treatment where he was confined until his death.

The funeral services were conducted from the Baptist church by the Rev. A. A. Davis, pastor of the Baptist church at Baird.

Mr. Franklin had been engaged in farming and was born in Coryell county June 6, 1870.

He is survived by his wife; four sons, W. E. and L. L. Franklin, both of Hammit, California, Edward of Spur and Howard Franklin of Knapp; two daughters, Mrs. Addie Bruce of Baird and Mrs. Elberta Work of Los Angeles, California.

Coleman Democrats Passed an Order to Hold One Election

The executive committee of the Democratic party of Coleman county met in convention Monday and passed a resolution to hold only one primary election in Coleman county this year. The law provides that a county may hold only one election and declare the one receiving a plurality of the largest number of votes the nominee.

Under this procedure usually the man that receives the highest number of votes in the first primary, come nearer representing the people than the one who is nominated in a run-off or second primary. People in voting in the first primary vote their sentiments, but as a rule most people who take part in the second primary go into the primary to vote against some one rather than to vote in favor of some one.

Take most of our contested state elections, the second primary resolves itself into voting against one of the candidates and not voting for. Most voters know this to be a fact.

City Water Supply Lake Construction Begun Last Week

Construction of a city water supply got under way this week. The lake will be completed in about ten days and has a water shed that will supply about 61,000,000 gallons per year with an average rainfall. The lake is on Alton Hutchison's land and at the foot of the Harwell mountain.

Figuring conservatively with a 61,000,000 gallon water shed we will catch at least one-fourth, which would be 15,000,000 gallons of water during the year. When the town had more than we have at present, about 6,000,000 gallons was the maximum consumption for any year. Then, if we use six million gallons, there will be an excess of 9,000,000 gallons. But we will come nearer catching one-half the water of the shed than one-fourth, since the mountain is steep and water will run off pretty fast. We expect to raise the dam about three feet above the water line and the people who are building the lake say that if it should come a two or three inch rain in a short time, our trouble would be keeping the water from going over the dam.

Reg Burnam of Lubbock is here this week visiting with his sister, Mrs. W. A. Kile who has been ill, and other relatives and friends here.

Mrs. E. A. Franke Passes Away at Baird June 16th

Mrs. E. A. Franke, age about 50 years, died Wednesday and the funeral was held Friday at 4 p. m. in the Baird Church of Christ with Loyd Connel, minister, officiating with burial following in the Bell Plains cemetery.

Mrs. Franke was born August 5, 1893 in Van Zandt county, and is survived by her husband; one son, Sgt. Forest Dale Franke, stationed in Amarillo; one brother, J. M. Harden of Rowden and one sister, Mrs. Maggie Speegle of California.

Pallbearers were Hugh Smith, W. B. Walls, S. L. McElroy, Spencer Price, Ed Alexander and U. C. Hamilton.

Field Director Camp Barkeley Requests Following Articles

Mr. Fisk, Field Director of Camp Barkeley, requests the following articles:

Organ for sun room in neuropsychiatric section, rugs (large rag) for sun room for neuropsychiatric section.

(Note: We hope some county of the council will take over this sun room as a project.)

Peach seeds for handicraft shop, pool or billiard table for recreation hall, used luggage to be made available to men going on furlough.

We have 11 guest rooms at Barracks No. 11. These are used for immediate relatives of patients seriously ill. These rooms now have only a bed. We would like for several counties to take a room each and furnish it with curtains, dressing table, chair, and rugs. This would help make the family's stay with us a little more pleasant.

We would like to have at least one or two counties volunteer to supply 500 gifts to be used for patient's birthday parties and bingo parties on wards. The quota for this county is 200 gifts, and toilet articles and other personal items are suggested. These gifts may be left with Mrs. T. W. Briscoe at the tax collector's office or the Variety Store in Baird and are to be sent to Miss Charles Worth, Assistant Field Director at Camp Barkeley.

The following articles are also needed for the day room: Window drapes for 24 windows, size 40x48, reading and floor lamps (6 each), writing tables (6 each), games, assorted (ie, dart games and boards), playing cards (50 decks), ash trays (6 floor type, 24 table type), rugs, linoleum, 12x15 (2 each).

Majority of People Must Have Desire to Retain Independence

The United States came in existence when a majority of our public leaders and the people were consumed with a genuine desire to be free men and the masters of government. The world has progressed because groups of people had an undying faith in certain philosophies of religion or human conduct in which they believed in.

How many people in the United States today uncompromising in their desire to retain personal liberty and democracy within the framework of our republic? Of late years there have been too many politicians insinuating that as a nation we have outgrown the constitutional ideals on which this country was founded.

A majority of our people must have a consuming desire to retain independence at all costs, just as our forefathers had the desire to gain it at all costs, or the United States as we have known it will be but an area in the history books, bureaucracy will have supplemented democracy.

As a nation we can not survive as free men if we submit to being the "Shepherd" of a socialized government toward which we have been rapidly drifting the past few years.

New Ceiling Prices On Used Cars will Be in Force July 10

Effective enforcement of the new ceiling price regulation on used cars, which becomes effective July 10, is possible if the buying public will cooperate with the price panels of their local Price and Rationing Boards, district director J. H. Kultgen, said this week in Fort Worth.

Kultgen, who is a partner in an automobile dealership in Waco, said that announcement of the regulation has already stopped the steady increase in prices of used passenger automobiles. He urges the public to report all violations to the price panels and to refuse to buy a used car, to enter into any agreement designed to circumvent the regulation. In addition to outright violations of price ceilings, Kultgen urged the reporting of such evasions as "side money" agreements and requirements for buying other commodities along with the car.

One factor which will tend to keep prices of used cars within the dollar and cents ceiling is that financing requirements, pointing out that no financing company or firm will loan more than the legal ceiling price on an automobile. "When we automobile dealers will lose a little money at the outset, in the long run the regulation will prove beneficial to us and to our customers," Kultgen said. He said that the OPA in this district would "do all in its power" to make the used car regulation effective.

Church of Christ To Begin Meeting Sunday, July 2

Brother R. C. Bell of Abilene, head of the Bible department of the Abilene Christian Colleg at Abilene and has held this position since 1938, will conduct the meeting beginning Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m., at the Church of Christ and run for two weeks.

There will be a good singer accompanying Bro. Bell who will do the singing, and everybody is invited to attend these series of meetings.

Major Evans of Camp Barkeley came over from Abilene with his military band Friday, composed of 27 members and furnished music for the entertainment of those attending the rally.

After the band had played a few pieces of music, Major Evans was introduced by Judge Freeland, county chairman of Baird. After a brief speech by Major Evans, the bond sale was started and people began buying. One bond for $5,000 was sold, a number of $1,000 bonds and plenty of $500 bonds and then down to $100 when most of the citizens purchased $100 bonds, and then it was lowered to $50 bonds and then on down to $25 and practically everyone came in on that, and then they checked up and found they had gone over the top by buying $27,100, being $1,100 over the top.

Putnam is a small place and we do not have so many people, but have the most loyal set of citizens in the Lone Star State and you can always rely on Putnam citizens doing their part in any worthy cause.

I. G. Mobley was local chairman for the Putnam precinct and should be commended for his successful work in putting the rally over as he did.

Abilene Man Is Candidate for District Attorney

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 42nd JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

I am a candidate for District Attorney of this District, and for your consideration make this statement:

I am 52 years of age; have lived in this District about forty years, (spent some years of early childhood on a farm in Callahan County) and have practiced law for 26 years.

I was admitted to practice law in 1918, elected county attorney of Taylor County in that year, served two years.

Because of the following facts, I have delayed this formal announcement until now, (having filed my name with the County Chairman some time ago).

This delay was caused by the fact that, last year I went to work in the aircraft industry, and am now with the Consolidated-Vultee Aircraft Corp. at Fort Worth, working as a tool maker. This may seem odd, but, as early in life I was engaged as a mechanic, and have kept it up as a hobby, I felt that I could render some measure of service to our Country helping to build Bombers.

General Isenhower has said that if every man and woman in America does his full duty, the war can be won in Europe this year, and I felt that if I had any talents, or skill or ability of value toward that end, I ought to make same available, and am doing so in this manner.

I had thought that perhaps the situation would be such that I could leave that work in time to make this campaign, but it is now manifest that I cannot do so, hence I will stay on this job the remainder of this year, and submit my for-suitable provision should be made for recuperation of veterans near their homes and relatives and that well equipped clinics and hospitals be made available to every section of the U. S. He believes in decentralizing veterans' hospitals after the war; that instead of a dozen huge hospitals for wounded veterans, with thousands of beds each, several hundred smaller establishments should be built as clinical and recuperative centers for the expected vast number of casualties.

These 100 to 300-bed hospitals could be scattered about the country, roughly in proportion to the number of soldiers from each section, making it possible for all sections of the country, except the most sparsely populated, to be fifty or seventy-five miles from a well-equipped hospital. After specialized treatment for the critically wounded cases, and for less seriously wounded, the veterans would be transferred to the smaller hospitals in their home locality. The advantage and satisfaction to the veteran and the convenience and consolation to relatives and friends, of being near home, cannot be overestimated. For the lower-income people, visits to wounded loved ones would be impossible unless a plan like this is adopted, because of travel expense involved. As beds in these hospitals are vacated, either through recovery or death of veterans, the hospital will become available to the community.

Just and Durable Peace to End All Wars

"Furthermore," Garrett asserts
"the winning of a just and durable peace is as important as winning the war itself. Only by preventing another World War in future years can we spare another generation of young Americans the horror, suffering and death which the present generation is enduring to preserve freedom and the American way of life." "When such a peace is achieved," Garrett states, "it can be preserved best by a strong association of peace-loving nations; through the promotion of closer and friendlier relations among nations and by maintaining a navy as great or greater than any on the face of the earth, together with a mighty army and air force. We must never again be unprepared," Garrett declares, "but we must always be ready to defend our freedom."

Favors Providing Jobs for Veterans and Others

For employment after Victory, Garrett favors permanent and worthwhile projects of lasting benefit—such as a carefully-planned nation-wide system of highways; hard-surfaced farm-to-market highways; and an extensive soil conservation and flood control program; aid to towns and municipalities in providing adequate water supply and sanitation, and assisting school districts in improving and constructing necessary buildings.
Such projects would provide employment for the veteran, war worker and others.

Aid for Low and Fixed Income Groups

He advocates rendering immediate aid to the distressed low and fixed income groups—school teachers, office workers, clerks, etc., whose earnings continue to remain at near pre-war levels while the cost of living has increased tremendously. Garrett points out that this is a deplorable situation and that some provision should be made to alleviate the pressure which is now bearing heavily upon millions of Americans who are living in a "borderland between subsistence and privation" in these low and fixed income groups.

Fair Treatment for Old Age Pensioners

Increasing the old-age pension is another objective of Garrett who states that the $50.00 per month payment, the amount voted by the people, should be the very minimum. He favors removing unnecessary and unreasonable red tape and all discrimination against old people, believing that every applicant should be treated fairly and alike. He emphasized that the plight of these old-age pensioners is today similar to that of the fixed income groups—the cost of living has already increased more than 25 per cent, but the pension checks remain low. "Though I favor an adequate pension for the aged," Mr.
Garrett stated, "I am unalterably opposed to 'pensioning Congressmen' after they retire or are defeated as provided by a bill recently passed by Congress, (it having passed the House without a dissenting vote) authorizing the payment of more than $350.00 per month, for life, for those serving long terms. Both of our Senators voted against this bill—I voted against a similar bill while I was in Congress. I think Congress acted wisely in promptly repealing this law.

Opposes Any Slow Down in War Effort

"Certainly," Garrett states, "labor has the right to bargain collectively." However, he is unalterably opposed to slow-downs, sit-down strikes of any kind which will in any way hamper the war effort.
"During this emergency, we have had no labor trouble in the 17th District," he declared, "and we should all be justly proud of the fact that labor in this district is giving full support in backing the attack of our fighting men."

Aid to the Oil Industry

Garrett recognizes that oil is one of the most important industries to this District and to Texas. That from it, we derive a major portion of our income and the industry provides much employment—oil is our biggest tax-payer. Whether he realizes it or not, every farmer, ranchman, land owner and business or professional man in this District is directly or indirectly in the oil business. Practically every county in this District is potential oil land and, if developed, would produce oil or gas in paying quantities. But unfair and unreasonable regulations and restrictions, including price controls, have greatly retarded and seriously handicapped the development of this most important resource. To encourage more drilling for oil and gas, these obstacles should be removed and the price of oil, which remains at pre-war price levels, while everything else has gone up, should be increased by price adjustment—not by subsidy. The bureaucrats in Washington admit the inadequacy of existing price of oil—the same letter which they wrote denying the industry a price adjustment, offered a subsidy.

Opposes Sale of Surplus War Materials to Speculators

Regarding surplus war materials, Garrett advocates that immediate steps should be taken to avoid the mistake made following World War I when such surpluses were acquired by a few speculators—this should not be permitted again. The acquisition of such surpluses and dumping them on the market would be calculated to upset our national economy and also increase Government competition with private business." "I believe," he said, "that our farmers, stockmen, states, counties, and cities should give the preference in purchasing such material as they can use, and that this material along with idle government-owned war plants should be sold to the highest bidder rather than at private sale to those having political influence. Furthermore, that these materials may be purchased in the states without having to go to Washington to obtain them."

Let People Select Their Own Doctors

Mr. Garrett states that he is opposed to legislation now pending in Congress providing for the raising of 3½ Billion dollars annually, from payrolls mostly, to provide medical care by the government, which would destroy the effectiveness of medical care in the United States.
This legislation proposes to place in the hands of one man, the power and authority to hire doctors at fixed salaries to provide medical service; to designate which doctors may be specialists; to determine the number of individuals for whom any one physician may provide service; to determine arbitrarily what hospitals or clinics may provide services for patients.

Medical attention and hospitalization should, of course, be made available to and placed in the reach of every one. In fact, both are now available under the American Hospital Association's Blue Cross plan for voluntary group hospitalization.
"I believe that our people desire that medical care for their sick be provided by their doctor—not by bureaucrats or politicians," Garrett declares.

Advocates Return to Standard Time

Garrett states that he believes serious consideration should be given to going back to standard time. "It is possible," he asserted, "that 'war time' may have produced desirable results in some parts of the country, but it is very doubtful that such results have been produced in many places, and in the meanwhile the new time has disarranged the lives of a great many people. Our people do not object to foregoing any inconvenience necessary to the war effort but they do not need unnecessary regulations to make them war conscious. I firmly believe that 90% of our people would prefer to go back to the standard time. The present time works a hardship on farmers, mothers and school children, and thousands of women employees who are compelled to go to their work before daylight and seriously effects church attendance, etc.

Abolish All Unnecessary Boards and Bureaus

He advocates the abolition of all unnecessary boards and bureaus and insists that operation of those retained be strictly confined to the law and constitution. "In the present emergency," Garrett points out, "it is necessary to have some bureaus. However, at the earliest practicable date, we must abolish them and return to our status prior to the war. If bureaucracy continues to grow and thrive after the war, our nation is doomed. Let us put the bureaucrats on notice now that their positions are not permanent."

Equalize Freight Rates

Garrett stands for equality and uniformity of freight rates and will support and work for legislation as will achieve a fair adjustment.

Reduce Subsidies

He favors reducing subsidies to the very minimum and instead give an honest and fair price to the farmer, stockman, dairyman and oil man for what they produce.

Aid in Building Rural Homes

"To encourage the improving and building of rural homes, where farmers have sufficient equity in their land to adequately secure a loan—when funds are not available through other sources—" Garrett says, "I favor the government extending credit to farmers and producers, from one to three thousand dollars, on a long-term basis and at a low-rate of interest—2 or 3 per cent."

"Such a program," he stated, "would not only encourage living on the farms but would also provide additional employment after Victory."

Regarding the School Lunch Aid Program, Mr. Garrett states, "I think it is one of the finest programs in which the government has co-operated. I do not think this program borders on or is leading towards 'Hitlerism' as some maintain." Our Lord said, "Whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water, verily I say unto you he shall in no wise lose his reward." Certainly, if this be true of a drink of water, it must be doubly true of providing food for a multitude of school children—some 4½ millions —now receiving lunch aid, who otherwise may go hungry. I believe that this splendid co-operative pro-

Garrett's Family History, Background and Experience

Clyde Garrett, the youngest son of a family of eleven children, was born and reared on a farm between Gorman and Carbon in Eastland county—the log house in which he was born still stands. His experience in dealing with the people and serving them has been broad and varied. His age and practical knowledge of everyday problems of all the people qualify him to render a highly and intelligent and beneficial service to those whom he will serve as their representative in Congress. In young manhood, Clyde worked on a farm, the railroad (as section hand and in extra gangs—living in tents and box cars), taught school and engaged in the insurance and banking business before entering public life. He served two years as deputy county clerk; three terms as county clerk of Eastland county, and was city manager of the City of Eastland. Just prior to being elected to Congress in 1936, he served eight years as county judge of Eastland county, the last year of which he was president of the County Judges' and Commissioners' Association of Texas.
"I want to thank the people of the 17th district for their great interest in my candidacy," Garrett says. "I am basing my candidacy on the pledge of rendering the highest type service to my constituents, to my country, and to her gallant fighting men. Your support and influence in my behalf will be deeply appreciated."—CLYDE GAR-tunes in this campaign to my friends and those who know me.

I would enjoy being with the other candidates during the campaign, and meeting the folks, but I think it is more important to you that I stay on this job, where I can perhaps render our fighting men better service than I could taking up your time campaigning, kissing your babies and treating you to red lemonade at picnics.

I think the war in Europe will be over this year, or at least in such shape that the manpower shortage will not be so critical, and I will return to my practice Jan. 1, 1945, and, I hope, take over the duties of District Attorney.

You need, for your District Attorney, the best, most experienced and ablest criminal lawyer you can get, one able to cope with the best talent defendants can employ.

Unboastfully, (I hope) but as a simple statement of facts, I believe I am that man. I have had the experience, and I can do the job. I know how to, and will, try your criminals so they will stay tried and their cases will not be reversed on appeal. Blunders of inexperienced District Attorneys causes most reversals of cases and miscarriages of justice.

I have always represented to the best of my ability my clients, and as your District Attorney, the people will be my clients, and I will represent you, and enforce the law, punish crime, uphold law and order and make crime an expensive pastime in this District. This is a promise to you that I will keep, and a threat to the lawless that they will soon learn to heed if you elect me your District Attorney. I will make you a worthy successor to Bob Black, (if an ordinary man could do that).

Most of the long time residents of this District know whether or not I have the ability and qualifications to make good this promise.
Those who do not know, I refer to any Judge, or Lawyer in the District, (including my very worthy opponents) and will be happy to stand upon their appraisal of my abilities.

Finally, I want no votes because of the fact that I am engaged in defense work. I am doing this because I think it is my simple duty, but I do claim that if I am better qualified by experience, and from a standpoint of ability, to do the job, to fulfill the duties of District Attorney that I am entitled to your vote, and if not, then I am not, and upon this basis, I leave my candidacy in the hands of my friends, and those who know.

Respectfully,

A GRANDMOTHER'S THOUGHTS

I see Milton coming with the tractor, It makes me think of D. L.
With his dog beside him,
The dog he loved so well.

I still look for him to come, Though I know that cannot be,
He has gone and left us, Far beyond the stormy sea.

The chair in which he sat,
I see it every day,
And it makes me feel so sad Since he has gone away.

And there is Dale's chair, It's empty too, I see.
There he sat and talked with us, Before he crossed the sea.

If I could see his smiling face Coming to the door,
And say to him as I have said, Well, they let you come back home once more.

I cannot help but miss them, While here on earth I stay,
For they were the last to greet us, Before they went away.

Such things are hard to bear,
And yet they have to be,
And we are left here to mourn For those beyond the sea.

But I know it is no use to look For them here any more,
For they never can return,
To meet us at the door.

Pearl went to take D. L.'s picture, I look out at the door to see How nice he looked in his army suit, But he soon would have to cross the sea.

I never can forget how sad it is to me,
That they both lie sleeping,
Far across the sea.

I guess kind hands picked them up,
So far we cannot see.
And now they both lie sleeping Far beyond the sea.

I hope they are at rest From all their trials free,
And will not have to face War again,
Far across the sea.

IT DOESN'T PAY

(By Emy)

Jonah must have had a vision And quickly made his decision, So from Jappa he took ship Just to give God the slip.
As he quietly went to bed A storm was brewing overhead.

Then the call to Jonah came, Whence art thou, what's your name?

Then was Jonah in a mess, But he failed not to confess,
And his courage they adored, Said he, "throw me overboard."

God prepared a fish just right To swallow Jonah at one bite, But the fish on seaweeds fed, They wound 'round poor Jonah's head, As he wisely thought upon it, Soon the fish began to vomit.

So he landed on the beach Bound for Nineveh then to preach, But was angry so I've heard, Said God failed to keep his word; Think he did a lesson learn,
From the gourd vine and the worm.

To the People of this Community

This is a home front communique on the most vital war action now in progress in every community of the land—the Fifth War Loan.

We are advancing on our objective. However, we must make certain that we reach and pass our goal by July 8. This can be done if every one of us puts something extra of ourselves into the fight.

No one needs to remind you that it is an American trait to go into a sprint with the goal in sight. We started this push June 12. Reports from every city and town in America tell us that the number of individual buyers of extra War Bonds today has reached an unprecedented total. We all know that in addition to numbers we need fire power. Your extra War Bond is absolutely essential. The greater the stockpile of War Bonds, the easier it will be for us to meet this war over.

This very moment our boys are waging a life-and-death struggle. Every additional War Bond you buy will play its part in the outcome. Last month's War Bond, last week's War Bond, yesterday's War Bond are already in the embattled foxholes. Today is another day for the home front just as today is another day for the boys on the battlefronts.
THE EDITOR.

Next rinse greens in pan, repeat washing and rinsing several times, always using fresh water.

Country's Economy Tied up with the Small Business

The future of this country's economy is tied up with the future of small business, and the success of small business will determine to a large extent the success of business.

In this country we allot to the individual a maximum of responsibility, a maximum of opportunity. It must be that way after the war. We believe in the development on an initiated, self reliance and independent thinking and action. Within the area of responsible competition, these qualities can continue to develop.

No doubt that the last depression that started in 1929 and should have normally have ended in two years, was stretched out for 11 years by goofy experiments, until the war boom ended it.

This failure to relieve unemployment occurred in spite of federal taxes from $2,800,000,000 in the fiscal years ending June 30, 1933, to $5,925,000,000 in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1946.

State Health Officer Advises Tourists be Careful About Water

Austin, Texas, June 26.—One of the most important factors contributing to the well-being of summer vacationists is a safe and healthful water supply. Contaminated water is the annual cause of much sickness and many fatalities. Water from sources not known to be safe should never be used to supply vacation needs.

Dr. Cox stated this week that most municipal water supplies in Texas are periodically inspected and samples submitted to the State Health laboratory for inspection. He advised that it is always best, when in doubt, to endeavor to secure water from a municipal supply.

"Families away from home on picnics, excursions or vacation trips, should either ascertain that their water supply is safe or they should make it safe for human consumption. Water can be rendered safe by boiling for 15 minutes or by addition of chlorine. A few drops of ordinary chlorine laundry bleaches can be added to a gallon of clear water and if the water is allowed to stand for 15 minutes, it may be used for drinking.

If drinking water is obtained from a private well, vacationists are cautioned to look for these protective features. A well site protected from flooding with good drainage and a concrete surrounding the pump."
