"When The One Great Scorer Comes to Write Against Your Name He Writes Not If You Won or Lost But How You Played The Game."

THURSDAY, APRIL 5, 1945

From The Editor's Window BY MRS. J.S. YEAGER

According to reports we are to have new food ration books this coming fall, in November to be exact.

Demands for replacement of torn books have reached an almost uncontrollable state of affairs it is said.

Very little is yet known about plans for the new books—War Ration Book No. 5—but it is expected that it will follow the present coupon values, with all meat and processed foods designated for stamps with ten point values.

There is a class of men in our armed forces known to the soldiers as "retreads." These are men who did good work in World War I and are now serving in various places in the present conflict and wearing very well, too, as reports show.

Word which comes back from the war fronts indicate that most of these old timers are held in healthy respect. It is said they are sometimes called "pop" by their younger buddies, but always with respect.

The Louisiana crop reporting service has announced that the strawberry crop in that section will show a 22 per cent reduction from the usual average.

We haven't seen a report on Texas strawberry production but it is hoped we will beat Louisiana in this respect this year.

The manager of a hotel, finding that a guest had departed without paying his hotel bill wrote him: "My dear Mr. Smith, will you please send the amount of your bill and oblige, etc."

To this Mr. Smith wrote, politely: "My dear Manager, the amount of the bill is $110. Yours respectfully."

They were on the train the night of their wedding, and the groom gave the porter a dollar not to tell any of the passengers that they were bride and groom.

At breakfast the next morning everyone stared. The groom called the porter and asked, "Did you tell any one we're married?" "No sah," replied the porter. "I told them you was just friends."

It has been announced that Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands has recently visited liberated areas of her country and received a tremendous ovation from her people. Her appearance in the homeland was expected to act as an inspiration, not only to those of her subjects who are already freed from the Nazi rule, but to those still awaiting liberation.

The Queen has been in England since May, 1940 when the Germans attempted to capture her as they swarmed into Holland on the invasion of the little country.

"When the countries of the world spend more time trying to build one another up in economic welfare, they will spend less time trying to pull one another down in political power. I believe that world work is the best antidote to world war."—Eric A. Johnston.

There seems to be relief in sight for gum chawers at last. Phil K. Wrigley has announced development of a new supply source in Central America. He did not say, however, when his gum will be available for civilians, but it is thought as soon as shipping facilities be-

Green and white were club colors and featured in decorations. Bracelets of pink flowers were given as plate favors.

Glenn Reed of Abilene played several clarinet selections and spoke on boy scout work, also presented a knot tying demonstration. Miss Dorothy Wilkerson read a humorous club report.

The latest induction figures from Callahan county on last Wednesday, nine Callahan boys left Baird by bus for Dallas induction for the armed service.

The names of the men announced by Ace Hickman, chairman of the selective service board are: Jim Lee Payne, Lawton Edward Webb, Ted Hester Mayfield, Leonard Cortez Roberson, Milton Ray Howe, Harlen Neil Tedford, Clois Earl Green Edwin, Eugene Wilcoxon and Henry Eugene Bailey.

UNION DEMONSTRATION CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. BURETTE RAMSAY 3-28

The Union home demonstration club met in the home of Mrs. Burette Ramsay Wednesday afternoon March 28, in a regular meeting. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Jim Yarbrough, president.

During the business session, reports were made on the council meeting at Baird by Mrs. Wesley Wagley and Mrs. J. C. Dyer, which was enjoyed very much by all present.

Seven members answered the roll call of members. Refreshments were passed at the close of the meeting to the following: Mrs. Jim Yarbrough, Mrs. Dick Yarbrough, Mrs. Eugene Green, Mrs. Maggie Dyer, Mrs. Wesley Wagley, and Mrs. E. W. McCollum and two visitors, Miss Bettie Wood and small sister and the hostess, Mrs. Burette Ramsay.

The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Jim Yarbrough for an all-day meeting April 11. Let's all put forth an effort to be present and make our club the best club in Callahan county.

CALLAHAN COUNTY OVERSUBSCRIBES RED CROSS QUOTA

County Attorney Felix Mitchell and chairman of the Red Cross organization in Callahan county, reports the county has over-subscribed the quota for Red Cross in Callahan county. He states the county had a quota of $6,700 and it has raised $7,643.38.

Baird had a quota of $2,000 but the total contribution at Baird has been $3,021.82, or the quota was oversubscribed by $421.82. Most communities over the county oversubscribed. In the report by the News last week Putnam raised the quota, but since then it has been oversubscribed.

come nearer normal that citizens will gradually begin to chew again.

County Judge Farmer And Others Meet with Highway Commission

Lester Farmer, county judge of Callahan county and I. G. Mobley, with other commissioners, headed a delegation that went before the Texas Highway Commission the past week to confer with it on rural or farm-to-market roads in Callahan county.

Mr. Mobley, commissioner from the Putnam precinct, who attended the Austin meeting, states the commission is seeking information from various communities over the state seeking or interested in such prospects. He said that under the plan, the commission would be willing to improve 13 miles in Callahan county, but the commission wanted to limit to roads in the county that had been designated as State highways. Under this program they would improve 6 miles in Callahan county each year for three years.

One of the first roads to be improved is that between Baird and the airport, about three miles north on the Albany highway.

A designation for a Texas highway from Cross Plains to Moran was designated at one time and it should be clear to Putnam citizens that this would mean quite a lot to the town if the Putnam people had shown any interest. Putnam may lose the Bankhead highway unless there is more local interest shown in the new location. Things don't just happen, they are made to happen by local interest or lost by indifference.

Baird City Council Completes Survey on Water Supply Sites

The Baird city council has had an engineering force making surveys of several locations for a water supply for the city of Baird. The survey has been completed. They are now waiting for machinery to make tests on the same.

Mayor Ross says the machinery will not arrive before the 1st of May or later.

The city lays plans for the new post-war water system after coring tests have been made. The city has made surveys of three sites for lakes to supplement the municipal water supply now derived from wells in the Clyde sand west of Baird. The water gets very low in dry times from the wells they have been using for many years.

QUEEN VICTORIA HAS 125 POTENTIAL HEIRS TO ENGLISH THRONE

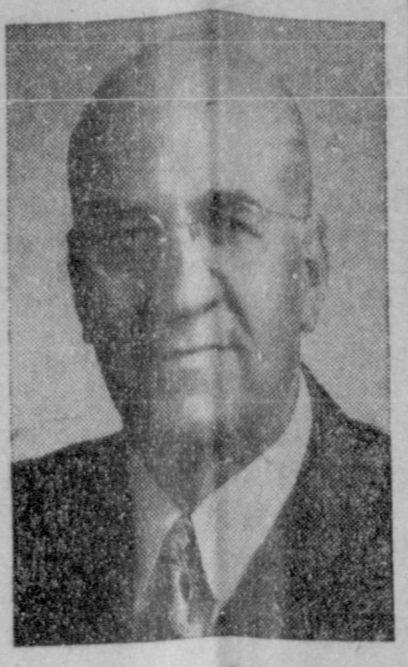

Collins is given as authority for the statement that excluding her Royal Highness Princess Elizabeth of England, there are approximately 125 living descendants of Queen Victoria who are potential heirs to the British throne.

This may be true but we'll gamble that there are 124 of them who never will swing the scepter on the English throne. We are of the opinion that any one of these potentials who attempt to horn-in will find himself going out of the kitchen with a pair of Royal boots in close proximity to that portion of the anatomy which would be the closest connection of the throne chair if he attempted to "sit, set or sot" on it.—Exchange.

UNCLE WYLIE FOSTER IS SERIOUSLY ILL IN CROSS PLAINS

It is reliably reported that Uncle Wylie Foster, who celebrated his 100th birthday on December 31, is seriously ill and confined to his room at the home of his son, John Foster in Cross Plains. Uncle Wylie came to Atwell many years ago where he engaged in farming and had lived there since coming to Callahan county until recently when he was moved to Cross Plains.

BAPTIST HOUR SPEAKER

Dr. C. Oscar Johnson, pastor, Third Baptist church, St. Louis, Missouri, will be the Baptist Hour speaker next Sunday morning, as announced by the radio committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, Dr. S. F. Lowe, director, Atlanta, Georgia.

The programs may be heard in Texas over radio stations KPRC of Houston, WFAA of Dallas and KGNC of Amarillo, 7:30 a. m. CWT.

JOHN L. LEWIS DELAYS STRIKE FOR 30 DAYS

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers has advised the men to remain on the job for 30 days regardless of any contract with the mine owners. The UMW president told the War Labor Board that "conscious of the imperative necessity of continuing the production of coal for war" he accepted a WLB order to continue under the contract which expired last midnight.

But in the telegram to the board he made the reservation that the extension should continue only 30 days, asserting that the operators had placed a limitation on their financial liabilities, under the order.

His reference was to operator contentions that they could not afford to pay for an indefinite period, any larger wage increases retroactive to the expiration date of the contract. The operators have notified the board they would accept the extension without reservation. So the country will have no coal strike for 30 days at least.

WOMEN'S STUDY CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. DOUGLAS FRYE

The Women's Study Club of Putnam met in the lovely home of Mrs. Douglas Frye Monday afternoon. An interesting program was rendered as follows:

Roll call of members; a piece of news from Russia, Dumbarton Oaks, was read by Mrs. A. B. Hutchinson; Verdict on India, by Mrs. R. L. Clinton. Those present were Mrs. Frances Clinton, Mrs. R. L. Clinton, Mrs. John Cook, Mrs. S. M. Eubank, Mrs. Henry Frye, Mrs. A. B. Hutchinson, Mrs. H. A. Pruet, Mrs. E. C. Waddell, Mrs. L. A. Williams, Mrs. Jim Yarbrough, and Misses Bettie and Ruth Mobley and Mrs. Mabel Carico.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbert and son, Lanvil L. Gilbert of Colorado Springs, Colorado, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rutherford last Thursday. Pvt. Gilbert who was wounded in Germany on November 14 is able to be walking again. He returned to the hospital in Colorado Springs Friday.

The Oil Industry Does Wonderful Job Furnishing Gasoline

People were skeptical about the oil industry being able to furnish gasoline for the war effort. If anyone wants to get an idea of what the American oil industry has done during the war emergency, let him look at one of our B-29 bombers, the largest in the world. It carries four 2,600 h-p engines and a load of 10,480 gallons of gasoline.

If you feel that you are little abused in not being able to get all the gas you want, think of the thousands of such bombers, plus tens of thousands of smaller fighting planes. Then think of the tanks, trucks and ships that must be fueled with oil.

When you realize the demand that all this equipment in our armed services makes on our oil industry, you will begin to wonder how you get any gasoline at all. And yet the oil industry has kept everything rolling, in addition to "oiling" not only our own military requirements, but a large part of the requirement of our allies.

The industry has done an unprecedented job, and its production in the face of untold difficulties will go down as another outstanding monument to the American initiative and enterprise.

National Income More in 1929 Than it Was 1943

There has been considerable talk about the public debt and what it will be at the end of the war, and argued by many that we owe it to ourselves and it doesn't amount to anything.

Well, we owe ourselves more than we will ever be able to pay, unless we work hard and pay our taxes. These debts to ourselves are genuine and bigger than we realize.

Let's just see how this will tally out. After spending 100 billion dollars of public funds in 1943, we find after subtracting our tax and the deficit, we had less income than we did in 1929.

Our National income in 1929 was approximately $81,000,000,000, but we did not have but 3 per cent tax and no deficit. But in 1943 according to the estimate we had an income of $135,000,000,000 but we had a tax of 23 per cent and a deficit of $56,000,000,000 and subtracting this fifty-six billion from 135 billion, we find ourselves having an income of only $79,000,000,000 and the deducting the $21,000,000,000 collected in taxes, we have only $58,000,000,000 or twenty billion less income than we had in 1929.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. CHARLES TAYLOR 3-28

The local home demonstration club of Cross Plains met in the home of Mrs. Charles Taylor last week, Wednesday afternoon. With the president, Mrs. Ida Graves, presiding. The meeting was opened with four songs and the pledge of allegiance was given.

Several means of raising money was discussed by the finance committee and it is reported the club is now ready to assist in any worthy cause. Bulletin on plans for a spring garden were given to each member by the vice president.

After the business session the following guests were served: Mrs. Roy Hayes, Mrs. A. W. Wright, Mrs. Silas Havens, Mrs. Ida Graves, Mrs. L. W. Westerman, Mrs. Marvin Smith, Mrs. Ira Hall, Mrs. Jim Barr, Mrs. J. W. Dunlap, Mrs. Grady Whithorn. Two new members, Mrs. V. C. Walker and Mrs. W. O. Purvis, hosts.

April Designated As Used Clothing Collection Month

PUTNAM RAIN 5.93 INCHES SINCE JAN. 1

The last report on the Putnam rainfall for this year to the 22nd of March showed 4.70 inches. The rain the past week of 1.23 inches makes a total of 5.93 inches to Monday night, April 2nd.

However, the last rains fell slow and did not run much water. The city lake caught about six or eight inches but still lacks about three feet being full.

Farmers are beginning to complain on account of too much rain, especially those who want to plant gardens. Very few people have much planted in the gardens except pinto beans, onions, lettuce, beets and stuff of that kind that will stand a lot of cold weather.

Private Enterprise Is Basis of all Other Freedoms in America

G. L. Wood, dean of the faculty of Commerce, University of Melbourne, Australia, makes the following comment on private industry:

"Whatever will be possible centuries ahead, it is not at this stage in our social evolution that we can dispense with incentive for profit or private enterprise. If we believe in the preservation of the freedom as the inspiration of our fighting we can only say that, in the private enterprise is the basis of all the other freedoms."

Private initiative or what we call private enterprise has made the United States the greatest nation in the world. Then the question is why some of our leaders would turn the clock back 400 years and want to adopt the forms of government that has failed wherever it has been tried?

L. P. Hensley Sells Newspaper to Jones County Observer

L. P. Hensley, former citizen of Callahan county and owner and operator of the Cross Plains Review for a number of years, selling out here and going to Anson where he purchased the Western Enterprise in 1922, a paper he has continuously operated ever since.

Mr. Hensley sold his interest in the Enterprise to the Jones County Observer and the two papers have been consolidated.

The Jones County Observer was established by Otis Miller, a former district attorney of the 104th judicial district several years ago and was sold to Jack Jordan. Jordan went to Anson from Fort Worth last fall where he was engaged in the printing business. Jack Jordan and Leonard Archer are the new owners of the Observer.

E. L. WOODLEY RETURNS FROM FLORIDA, REPORTS 50 LB. TARPON CAUGHT

E. L. Woodley, manager of the Octane Refinery at Baird, has just returned from a vacation to Florida and fishing trip in which he reports catching the largest tarpon for a Texan on that coast during the month. The fish weighed 50 pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodley recently returned from Naples, Florida after a month's vacation. Their daughter, Mary Lynn Woodley of New York, and Mrs. Parton and Major Parton accompanied them home.

The month of April has been designated as United National Clothing collection month, according to the War Relief Central Board in Washington. This collection of used clothing to be used for the benefit and relief of war sufferers abroad, will be sponsored in Putnam by the local women's club. Mrs. J. A. Yarbrough has been named chairman of the committee in charge of the collection.

For the convenience of those wishing to contribute to this worthy cause, boxes have been placed at Orr's rug store, White's grocery and at each church where the clothing may be deposited.

The committees ask that clothing brought please be clean. Articles most needed: Infant's garments, all types, particularly knit goods, overcoats, top coats, suits, coats, jackets, shirts, all types of work clothing, including overalls, coveralls, etc., sweaters, underwear, robes, pajamas, knitted gloves, women's and girls garments of all kinds that will be of any service to anyone.

Caps and knitted headwear of all description that you think will be of service to some one.

Bedding: Blankets, sheets, pillow cases, quilts or anything else in the form of bedding.

Shoes, either Oxford or high shoes of durable types with low or medium heels. However, all shoes brought in should be mated, or they will be of no service. Also, all piece goods or uncut materials with more than one yard in length, but no rags or dirty worn out fabrics.

MOST SCHEMES FOR AIDING FARMER SOUND

Most schemes for aiding the farmer, including those of government are predicated upon the sound belief that individual farm ownership by millions of small land owners must be preserved at all costs.

Those who favor the principle of marketing cooperative do so because they believe it strengthens the position of the individual farmer. For example, a trade publication of the food industry points out that mass production and distribution necessitates mass assembling, dependable grading and proper packaging for market. Only the large producer can provide these services for himself. But well-organized marketing cooperatives furnish the means for doing the job efficiently for a whole group of producers.

Without the market, the individual farmer would be forced to sell at wholesale, while paying retail prices for everything he purchased.

EULA DEMONSTRATION CLUB HOLDS MEETING WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27

At a meeting of the Eula demonstration club, March 27th, a demonstration was given the members by Miss Dorothy Wilkerson, county home demonstration agent on clothes. She also gave tips on equipment used in remodeling, straw hats. Mrs. Fred Farmer presided at the meeting.

Several other members were present at the meeting: Willie May Bourland, Mrs. C. M. Johnson, Mrs. A. L. Barnes, Mrs. Estes Farrar, and Mrs. N. H. Stephenson.

A covered dish luncheon will be served on April 10th, when the club will have an all-day meeting in the home of Mrs. Fred Farmer. A hat clinic will also be featured.

EULA 4-H GIRLS CONTRIBUTING TO CLOTHING COLLECTION

Contributing to the United National Clothing collection is an April project for the Eula 4-H girls. This collecting is under the direction of their sponsor, Mrs. Fred Farmer. On their meeting day of April 25th, each club member plans to bring something to contribute to the drive. The call is for good substantial winter and summer clothes.

Miss Dorothy Wilkerson, county home demonstration agent, met with the club, March 30th, and gave a demonstration on bedroom curtains.

R. G. Jones of Cross Plains was recently by the home demonstration agent's office and reports he is to have a much better garden than he had last year. Last year he had twenty-two different varieties in his 3/4 acre garden and this year he expects to have three times that many. Mr. Jones who is near his 83rd birthday, has spent the winter grubbing 12 large trees from his garden plot and enriching the soil, has done a great deal of experimental work and has planted a great many varieties of vegetables which are not commonly grown in this section of the country.

Mr. Jones reports that he has recently received a blue ribbon from the A. & M. College.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

(By W. C. VINES)

Dan Harris of Ixex, Texas, spends most of his spare time working with bees and poultry. He can tell you anything you would like to know about bees, and is doing an unusually good job with his hens. Mr. Harris raised 86 pullets last spring and in November he started to cull by using the best method we know. He watches his hens very closely every day and culls out anything that doesn't look suitable. By January 1st, Mr. Harris had culled out 30 of the hens, and the remaining 56 were the very best. He has a record that proves his management is sound.

From January 1st to April 1st, the 50 hens laid 3,510 eggs or an average of 39 eggs per day. After eating 1/2 dozen per day, Mr. Harris sold $84.93 worth of eggs and bought $20.40 worth of feed. Each morning he feeds the hens all the wet mash they will clean up in 30 minutes, keeps dry mash out all the time, and gives them maize at night.

Mr. Harris feels that proper culling, cleanliness, not over crowding, and regular attention will solve most of our poultry troubles.

W. H. Hammet of Cross Plains won the $25.00 war bond as having the best garden in Cross Plains last year. This contest was sponsored by the Men's Luncheon club.

West outpost for the Ixex-Ellenberger area, Phillips Petroleum Co. No. 1, Elliott & Sons in northeast corner section 57, BAL., on the Shackelford-Stephens county line, is running a drill stem test on basal Marble Falls at 4105 feet, after failing to get any oil in the Marble Falls conglomerate.

Shackelford county shallow oil operations continue at low level with only a few scattered shallow drilling wells. Hickok & Reynolds No. 35 Matthews, is the second test for the new Cook sand area in section 33, ETRR., drilling at 800 feet near center west half of section.

Roeser & Pendleton, Inc. keep one spudder busy in the Cook ranch and average one oil well per month in the west Cook pool on section 117-118 ETRR. Cook A-30 on section 117, has been completed in Hope sand 1698 to 1708 feet for 50 barrels daily on pump.

The well is rated 100 barrels day natural flow.

Belated Cold Spell Plays Havoc

The belated Easter cold spell took local citizens by surprise late Tuesday and blew in with a strong north wind which followed the week-end rains.

Approximately a half inch of rain fell over the week-end and the moisture probably saved vegetation suffering much of the damage which accompanies a dry cold spell. However, it is said to be too early to tell whether fruit has all been killed. Gardens have withstood the freeze remarkably well, with only tomatoes and other such tender plants being singed from the heavy frost.

Temperature reading Wednesday morning was 29 degrees, while the Thursday morning low was 25. Heavy frost and a great deal of ice was reported from all parts of the county.

WFA Reports Surplus Of Carrots and Beets

War Food Administration put the green light on carrots and beets this week and asked all meal planners to buy them more regularly and serve them more often, Dan L. Boyd, district representative, WFA's Office of Supply has announced.

Stocked in abundance in most retail markets, both vegetables are rich in valuable vitamins essential to wholesome wartime diets. If supplies are to be used to the best advantage, however, they must be used now since both are perishable and will not keep for an indefinite period of time, he said.

City Election Gets Record Light Vote

The Albany city election held Tuesday was hardly more than a routine affair when only 32 voters went to the city hall to cast ballots for city officials.

All names appearing on the ticket were for re-election and with no competition in any of the races, citizens did not deem it necessary to take time to go to the polls.

A. V. Jones was returned to the office of mayor and councilmen re-elected were Rhea Pannell, Chas. A. Fryar and J. H. McGaughy. Ben G. Reynolds was returned to the place of city marshal.

Moran voters took more interest in their city election where two persons were candidates for each office. Polled there Tuesday, were 135 votes, returning S. H. Sherman to the mayor's office over his opponent E. E. Hudman, in a vote of 88 to 46.

F. M. Raymond and J. M. Townsend were elected aldermen over Glen Cottle and A. T. Grace. They replace A. A. Smith who had moved away, and J. P. Mashburn who was not a candidate for re-election.

MORAN BAPTIST CHURCH CLOSSES SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL MEETING

The Moran Baptist church closed a very successful meeting last Sunday. The pastor did the preaching and Bro. H. D. Blair, the Association Missionary, directed the singing. Good crowds attended both morning and evening services. The spirit and attitude of the people was splendid and visible results from the standpoint of decisions for Christ was very heartening. We pray that the results of the Gospel preached will be fruitfulness in lives of Christians as to service and devotion to their Lord.

Come, let us reap the benefits of the Lord in the giving of ourselves in worship.

RECOGNITION

Recognition goes this week to the Moran unit, 10th Battalion of the Texas State Guard.

This recognition is long overdue. In the hustle and bustle of wartime activities, the average citizen fails to stop and think just what such a group means to the community, they fail to fully realize the sacrifice made by the personnel of the guard.

Few people are aware of the fact that in case of an emergency there is available two complete units of men in the city who could be mobilized instantly to protect life and property—men well trained and well equipped to handle the job.

The men are well trained because they have devoted most of their extra time—time used by many for recreation and relaxation—to drill and practice and prepare themselves for any such emergency. It's been hard work under trying circumstances but the soldiers of the State Guard have come through with flying colors.

The big need of the guard today is more men—men who may be needed any day to protect the lives and property of Texas and Texans. An over-all picture of what the guard is and does follows:

The Texas State Guard is a military organization having a specific legal status.

Mister Peltz Is Peeved!

Mister P. sells charts. Pie-charts, bar-charts, fever-charts—in pink and green and purple—proving anything you want.

He has a nice new chart on the cost of living. It shows the price of practically everything curving sharply up after war began.

But one price stubbornly stays down at pre-war levels. It's the price of electricity. It upsets the neat cost-of-living curves. It upsets P. P. Peltz. He's peeved.

We're sorry to offend Mister Peltz, but glad that we've been able to keep electricity plentiful and cheap when so many things are scarce and expensive.

It hasn't been easy to serve busy homes and booming war plants at the same time—with the friendly, efficient service we like to give. But all our folks have pitched in and worked hard to make it possible.

Bonds Over America

MISSISSIPPI'S BIRTHPLACE

This state monument marks the site of the "Old Brick Church," scene of the First Mississippi Constitutional Convention and the first State Legislature's meetings. Under French, Spanish and English rule at various periods of its early history, Mississippi experienced all the growing pains of colonial development. Now it produces great quantities of cotton for U. S. armed forces. Money from War Bond sales helps the Government buy garments and other military equipment produced from that cotton. U. S. Treasury Department

ST. LOUIS CATHEDRAL

When fire swept the city of New Orleans in 1788, Don Andrea Almonaster, a truly great philanthropist, saw to it that some of the city's finest buildings arose from the ashes of their historic predecessors—the Cabildo, the Presbytere and the St. Louis Cathedral. Liberty creates and encourages such men. It's the spirit that inspires Americans to buy War Bonds to equip their service men who fight all enemies of individual freedom. America will always have Almonasters to give their fellowmen a lift in dark hours if enough War Bonds are purchased and held to keep those service men in munitions. U. S. Treasury Department

CATAMOUNT TAVERN

The Second Continental Congress met at Philadelphia on May 10, 1775. That day Ethan Allen and his Green Mountain boys demanded the surrender of Fort Ticonderoga, N. Y. They were not going to let any overseas dictators tax or rule them, and neither are Americans today. That is one reason why we buy War Bonds. The preparations for that drive against the Lake Champlain stronghold were made secretly at a night meeting at little old Catamount Tavern at Bennington, Vt. The catamount monument shown above now stands on the site. U. S. Treasury Department

KANSAS CAPITOL

On the wall of the conference room in the State Capitol at Topeka, Kansas, is a painting of a covered wagon drawn by oxen with the inscription: "They crossed the prairie as of old the pilgrims crossed the sea, to make the West, as they the East, the homestead of the free." To keep all America the homestead of the free today, service men cross seas to the west and east and Americans at home buy War Bonds. This great Kansas emblem of liberty, costing $3,200,000, was started after the site was chosen by a vote of the people in 1866. The ground on which it stands was donated in 1862 for that purpose by C. K. Holliday, president of the Topeka Association. U. S. Treasury Department
