Fort Worth Sets Date For 1944 Stock Show

Directors of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, Dates for Fort Worth's 1944 Internationally famous livestock show and rodeo will be March 10 through 19, according to John B. Davis who has been re-elected secretary-manager of the exposition.

The 1944 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show will be the 48th year for the Fort Worth exposition which has attained widespread fame for its encouragement of better livestock production and for its outstanding rodeo. The show was not held in 1943 in deference to Governmental requests, but officials believe the food situation can be aided by the holding of the livestock exposition next spring.

Numerous requests for the holding of the 1944 exposition have come to the management from livestock men and from essential industries in the Fort Worth-Dallas! area, according to Mr. Davis. In making plans for the 1944 show, officials anticipate an improvement in automobile travel conditions by next March and also expect the increased number of war workers in the Fort Worth-Dailas area to help provide an excellent attendance.

All directors who served on the 1942 directorate of the exposition have been re-elected to serve for the 1944 season. Officers for the 1944 show will be: John C. Burns, president; Amon G. Carter, vicepresident; Marshall A. Fuller, treasurer; John B. Davis, secretary-
