

Lubbock Man Furnished Notes For Book

Austin, Texas, June 23—Dr. W. C. Holden, graduate of The University of Texas and now professor of history at Texas Technological College, has written a colorful account of social development in West Texas during a period of fifty years of its most picturesque history. Dr. Holden obtained the material for his new book titled "Rollie Burns," from R. C. Burns of Lubbock, pioneer rancher and cattleman. Dr. Holden is well known in Austin and its environs, having attended the University here for a number of years. He obtained his bachelor of arts degree from this institution in 1923, his master of arts degree the following year, and the doctor of philosophy degree in 1928.

Gov. Sterling Invited Here

Governor Ross Sterling has been invited to attend the convention of the West Texas Veterans' Political League, to be held in Slaton on Friday, July 1, Briggs Robertson, president of the organization, announced yesterday. The invitation was extended him as chief executive of the state and does not indicate a preference by the league membership of his candidacy for re-election.

Various state political candidates have indicated a desire to speak at the free barbecue to be given by the league at the Robertson ranch, following the morning business session. Among those who have asked for time on the program are Clem Calhoun, candidate for Attorney General; Joseph Weldon Bailey, Jr., W. E. Lea, Mrs. Ida M. Darden, Julien C. Hyer, Billy Myers and E. G. Senter, candidates for Congressman-at-Large.

Advance reservations for membership in the newly formed West Texas Veterans' Political League presage an attendance of more than 2,000 veterans of the World War, Robertson said.

Charity Forty-Two Party Tuesday

Last Tuesday night, a group of forty two players, sponsored by the Eastern Star Chapter, gathered at the clubhouse for another evening's entertainment in the interest of charity. On account of other attractions on that night, the crowd was not as large as it might have been, but the Fire Boys are going to take it over next Tuesday night, and try again.

These parties offer an enjoyable way to spend the evenings while helping out some one in need. The public is urged to attend, and everyone who has been coming, is asked to come again and to bring someone with him. The charges for the players are twenty-five cents per couple, and fifteen cents per individual. The proceeds go to the United Charities Association.

Singing Convention Saturday & Sunday

On July 2nd and 3rd, Saturday and Sunday, The North and West Texas Sacred Harp Convention will convene at Slaton.

The Singing will be at the Baptist Church, all day Saturday and Saturday night, and at the High School Sunday.

The people of Slaton and neighboring communities are requested to bring lunch for themselves and visiting singers each day and perhaps supper Saturday.

Lodging will be needed for perhaps a hundred out of county guests Saturday night.

The songs will be the old gospel songs as they were sung 60 years ago and the occasion one of the greatest reunions of old singers.

This Convention was held at Lamesa last year and people from all over Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico went away broadcasting praises of Lamesa's hospitality. Lamesa's Chamber of Commerce and other Civic and Church organizations helped put it over.

We know Slaton can do as well if she tries.

Those that can lodge some guests Saturday night will please inform the Committee. Also we would like to know how many will help furnish lunches.

Delma McCollum is here visiting his twin sister, Mrs. Ira McCarver.

Briggs Robertson Out Of Race

Declaring his interests so varied and widespread that they would encumber him in holding a public elective office Briggs Robertson, prominent Slaton cattleman, yesterday announced his withdrawal from the race for Lubbock County Commission from Precinct 2.

"While I have the interest of the public at heart," said Mr. Robertson, "I feel that I can be of much more service to the people by not holding a public office. Therefore, I have decided to withdraw as a candidate for office and devote my energies to the acute problems of these days of chaos."

"All candidates for public offices have their eyes on the public pocketbook. It is my desire to help fill that public pocketbook rather than to take from it. My experience as a business man will always be at the disposal of the people of Lubbock County and I shall evince an untrammeled interest in public problems as a private citizen."

"In these days of depression I shall want to have a voice in the conduct of all public offices, rather than in a single commissioner's office. My time and energies shall be devoted primarily to sponsorship of legislative measures that will benefit veterans of the World War. They need leadership in demand from the government the reward of the service they have given to the country, state and nation."

"The corporate interests, banks and public utilities have had control of things a little too long. That is a condition that exists throughout the nation. I desire a wider range of activity, in fighting the battles of the little fellow, than a county commissioner's office would afford me."

Bogus Checks Being Passed

We have been informed by C. B. Beal local manager of the Western Union Telegraph Co. that bogus checks imprinted Western Union Telegraph Co., drawn on the Union Trust company, Cleveland Ohio, for $34.50 each, payable to Charles Easton have recently been presented for cashing in the Northwest; the latest one being chased at Colfax Iowa, payable to Samuel Cady which would indicate the presenter is enroute West. No doubt the checks have the appearance of being genuine, as a check protector is used.

It would be well for all concerned, grocers and merchants of all kinds to be on the alert in accepting any of these fraudulent checks.

For Tax Assessor

R. C. POTEET

In continuation of my announcement for the office of Tax Assessor allow me to make these statements regarding myself

I was born and reared in Cooke County, Texas, and grew to manhood on a small creek farm of that section. At the age of 17 I left home and worked for my board and went to county schools for three years. Began teaching at the age of 20.

I went to college in the summers for several years, at Commerce, Texas, Denton, Texas, and at the Texas A. & M.

I have taught in the rural schools of Texas continuously since 1907, with the exception of two years I spent in the Governmental service on the Mexican border as Customs Inspector of Immigration at Eagle Pass, Texas.

I came to Lubbock in 1925 and bought our little home consisting of three and one half acres at the corner of Ave. V and 28th street, where we engaged in poultry raising and truck growing.

Being a teacher, I have had very little business dealings with the business men of the county, but such as I have had has been very pleasant indeed, and I feel sure I have the utmost confidence of the few business men with whom I have dealt.

I am a tax payer in the city, county and schools of Lubbock. I am not in debt. What little I have is paid for. I am not seeking office that I might liquidate any debts or satisfy any creditors, but if elected to this office I expect to go into office with a free hand to perform the duties of the office as the law directs without fear or favors.

When the "Depression" hit I adopted the slogan "When you can't make more money, live on less. I think this would not be bad for the county."

I stand for a minimum valuation of property through a full and complete assessment of all taxable property in the county.

The County Board of Equalization cannot deal with property that is not on the tax rolls.

I favor the merging of the Tax Assessor's office with that of the Collector's. As to whether the amendment absorb the other is all problematical, will carry or as to which office will And we will cross that bridge when we get to it.

I am spending My Own Money running for a two year term as specified by the constitution, and if it so happens that the office of Tax Assessor just lasts two more years, well and good. I shall do all I can, if elected, to aid the merger with all the efficiency I am able to command.

I shall greatly appreciate your consideration and if elected will do my best to make you a servant worthy of his hire.

Posey Youth Is Injured In Fall

Faubian Stahl, aged about 18 was reported to be in a serious condition in Mercy Hospital, late Tuesday suffering of a crushed skull, the result of a fall from a windmill at his home near Posey.

The youth was sitting on a cross beam of the windmill at work, when the beam fell, hurling him to the ground. His head struck a heavy iron pipe on the ground, causing the crushed bone. He was rushed to the Hospital here.

The accident occurred late Monday.

World War Veterans To Meet Here

World War veterans from 18 West Texas counties will convene in Slaton on the morning of Friday, July 1, to form the West Texas Veterans' Political League, Briggs Robertson, president of the new organization, announced yesterday. Headquarters of the league have been established in Robertson's offices.

Following the outfitting of the organization's political policies and the election of additional officers, members of the league will be guests at a free barbecue at the Robertson home at noon on July 1. Fat Herfords will be butchered to supply sufficient food for the veterans.

Former soldiers and sailors have been invited from all cities and towns in Lubbock, Hale, Crosby, Dawson, Lynn, Hockley, Cochran, Potter, Garza, Terry, Baily, Gaines, Nolan, Collinwood, Childress, Fisher, Dickens and Donnelly counties.

"Refusal of the United States Senate to pass the Patman bonus bill necessitates the organization of veterans throughout the nation," said Mr. Robertson, who served overseas as an enlisted man in the 133rd Field Artillery. "We have suffered from a governmental stranglehold long enough. We did our work when the country needed us and we have not been given our just dues. This country was able to find ten million dollars to loan Europe and that is money we shall never get back. Millions upon millions have been available for private borrowers all over the world, much of which will never return. The government experienced no difficulty in raising funds for a Reconstruction Finance Corporation, to reconstruct at public expense the dilapidated finances of huge corporations and financial institutions."

"But the members of the Senate frowned upon the relief requests of the world war veterans, who had no chance or desire to profiteer when a great German war machine threatened this country with destruction."

"I want to urge, therefore, all the war veterans in West Texas come to Slaton on July 1 to outline the policies for making concerted demands upon this nation for our rights."

"I hope the business institutions of Slaton, all of which would benefit from payment of the soldiers bonus, will decorate their store fronts with flags and bunting. There will be between 500 and 1,000 former sailors and soldiers in the city on the day of the convention."

Charity Dance Next Week

Gayety will break through the clouds of depression at the Briggs Robertson ranch on the night of Friday, July 1, when young couples to trip the light fantastic at an old-fashioned barn dance. The affair will be open to the public and a charge of one dollar per couple will be made. Proceeds from the dance will go into the fund to aid unemployed veterans of the World War.

Members of the West Texas Veterans' Political League, sponsoring legislative measures beneficial to all war veterans, will conduct the affair. Members of the League will hold a barbecue on the Robertson ranch at noon Friday, July 1. Veterans from 19 West Texas counties have been invited and numerous political candidates will speak.

Colored People Celebrate June 19

The colored people of Slaton celebrated their 67th anniversary of freedom last Monday with a barbecue and other refreshments, and several addresses by prominent speakers.

A crowd of approximately 200 attended the religious services at the school house. Speakers were Elder L. T. Jaikson, Elder E. M. Yohng, and Elder E. M. Locke, of Slaton, the latest being master of ceremonies.

COST OF GOVERNMENT

We hear much talk about the high cost of government. But do you really know just how high the cost is? Here are some figures: It is estimated that to operate the Federal government during the year 1933 will cost the people of this nation $4,860,000,000. That is a big sum. It is so big that it cannot be grasped by the human mind. Let us see if we can make it comprehensible. There are in round numbers 120,000,000 people in the United States, and that number divided into the 1933 government cost shows that it is $45.00 for each man, woman and child in the nation—mind you, for each man, woman and child. The families in America will average about five persons each, which means that to support the Federal government alone each family must contribute an average of $225.00, or from ten to fifteen percent of all the average family income. Much that is collected as Federal taxes is exacted indirectly. Virtually everything a human uses has some sort of a tax on it, which is passed on to the consumer—and that includes all of us—and increases the cost of what he has to buy. During the past twenty years the cost of running the Federal government has increased about ten times faster than the population has increased.

But Federal taxes constitute but one item of all government costs. There is the state government, the cost of which within the past two decades has increased more than ten fold, while during the same period population has about doubled. The cost of the state government in Texas for 1933 will run not less than $50.00 for each man, woman and child in the state, or $250.00 for each family. The different taxes levied by the state would make a staggering list.

But that is not all, nor even the major items. Aside from Federal and State taxes we have school district taxes, and in this section the school tax rate is $1.00 on the $100. assessed property value, but in comparison with state taxes it is really much higher than $1.00 because school districts assess property for taxation purposes at a much higher valuation than does the State.

Then there is the county tax, which generally amount to more than the State tax, because while the property valuation for state and county purposes is the same, the county tax rate is usually higher than the state rate. Then we have municipal taxes for those living in cities and towns, which is often the highest and biggest tax of all, because, in Slaton, for example, the property valuations are the same as for the school, but the rate is $1.50, or 50 cents more than the school rate.

One never knows when he has figured all the items that go to make up the annual tax bill of the average family. From 40 to 60 percent of every dollar expended by Americans is exacted directly or indirectly to pay the cost of being governed. One out of every nine Americans live in whole or in part off of tax money. The annual cost per capita has increased year by year. You cannot name one office holder who did not promise when he was a candidate to work for governmental economy if he was elected, and not one in ten of them ever turned a hand to reduce governmental cost after he was elected. The unbearable tax burden has made America a nation of tax dodgers, and tax dodging is just one species of dishonesty. But the people act in self protection, and they know not how otherwise to protect themselves. The people lose confidence in government, and candidates promises are known as jokes. We expect it, we like it, we fall for the gaff, and do nothing at all about it.

TAX BANKRUPTCY

The spectre of tax bankruptcy is faced by a good many Americans these days. Tax levies, according to Melvin Traylor, President of the First National Bank of Chicago, take the estimated equivalent of one day's labor every week from everyone in the country. A few years ago one out of every 22 persons gainfully employed was on the public payroll; now the percentage is one in 11. It is said that if the present rate continues, in a little over twenty years we will have one person working for the government for every person who pays taxes! Recently, in a middle-western state,

THIS TOSPY TURVY WORLD

"When people get tosy turvy the world seems that way."

What Slaton thinks of you is only the reflection of what you think of Slaton.

How much a dollar will buy depends entirely on who spends the dollar.

Anyway the man at the bottom didn't have so far to fall when the bottom fell out.

We have so much cheap government is what makes the thing so darned expensive.

The new tax bill puts four cents a gallon on lubricating oil, and now oil is too expensive to pour on the troubled waters.

It has just about gotten so that when a fellow manages to get himself thrown in jail he deserves credit for being a good financier.

And maybe those who two years ago managed to get for themselves nice jail terms were canny enough to foresee what was coming.

Now that the government has robbed the taxpayer to balance the budget will the taxpayer deem it necessary to rob the government in order to balance his own budget?

No man who reads the 1932 Republican platform can hereafter plead ignorance as to the meaning of pussy-footing.

We suggest that Mr. Hoover appoint a Commission to investigate and tell us where the Republican party stands on the booze issue.

Cyclone Davis is running for Congress, but we fear that not even a cyclone would do Congress any good.

Maybe those excessively hot windy days we had last week merely indicated excessive activity by that half of the population known as candidates.

We oftentimes wish that candidates would not lose sight of that word "candid" in candidate.

And oftentimes after talking with a candidate we are left in a state of confusion. We know either that he is a fool or else he thinks we are. Maybe we both are.

Did you ever stop to think that oftentimes a man thinks he is embracing Opportunity when in fact he is falling before Temptation?

Said the lassie to the laddie, "You have such a beautiful mouth—it ought to be on a girl's face!" Forthwith it was!

A news item says that changed food habits cause a wheat surplus, so shouldn't the same old drink habits cause a corn shortage?

A scientist says people die differently now. Well, you can't expect styles to be static, can you?

We have heard folks express the conviction that Texas could really get along without a governor, but it remained for the Hon. Ross S. Sterling to prove it.

The Revolutionary War was fought because we had a little taxation and no representation. Now we have lots of taxation and a world of misrepresentation.

Lubbock County has a candidate for Congressman-at-large who wants to give the government back to the people. My stars, as if the dear peepul haven't suffered enough already!

Slaton has eight candidates for Commissioner. Let one more come out and we'll put Slaton's Nine up against any team in the country.

This "Economy in Government" one million acres of land were taken over by the counties for unpaid taxes. Another state has an $18,000,000 deficit. Another has $10,000,000 in signed contracts for certain projects and is unable to raise a single dollar with which to meet them. In many parts of the country local bond issues have defaulted, schools have been closed, necessary functions of government have been crippled, public employes have been unpaid.

This is what government extravagance has done. Higher taxes is not the solution. The people cannot pay. In Ohio, according to Mark Sullivan, with present low commodity prices, the state municipalities take, in taxes, an amount about equal to the entire value of every farmer's crop. Nothing but tax bankruptcy can result if the trend of today is continued.

slogan is being worked so hard we are expecting every time we hear a candidate make a speech that he will, if elected, work for a dollar a year.

If you ask us Who-who-who-who is going to be the next President of the U. S. we reply that it won't be Hoo-hoo-hoo-hoo-Hoover.

Lubbock estimates that the new tax bill that became effective last Tuesday will cost her $10,000.00 a month additional taxes, and we think it a down right shame for them to talk about Hoover prosperity that way, after Mr. Hoover cut them in on the pork and gave them a nice new Federal Building.

There is no way to keep the farmer from realizing a big profit on what he raises for his own consumption, and no way to prevent him from realizing a big loss on what he raises for the consumption of New England manufacturers.

This depression more and more confirms our impression of it.

However, we solved all our depression problems by joining the Society that believes all our troubles exist only in the imagination.

Because of all the mean and nasty things that have been said about the depression, one would think that if it had a particle of pride it would go away and never lift its face again!

This depression depresses our spirits, impresses our minds, and compresses our pocketbooks, and that expresses our impression of the depression that has come about as a result of this depression.

Crowds Like Thrills Of 'Tarzan'

PATRONS TELL FEATURES OF FILM THAT MADE BIGGEST IMPRESSION; ACTORS LAUDED

Delighted crowds filing out of the Stanley Theatre, Baltimore, after attending the world premiere of "Tarzan the Ape Man," voiced unequalled praise of the latest Metro-Goldwyn-

Mayer talkie. "Thrilling," "beautiful," "novel" and "delightful" were the adjectives most often heard from the fair sex, while male members of the audience generally agreed that it was a "swell picture."

An inquiring reporter caught a few of the patrons of the Stanley as they were emerging from the first production of the newest thriller and asked what had impressed them most. The following opinions were voiced:

"If all of us could handle women like Johnny Weissmuller who takes the part of Tarzan, the world would be a wonderful place. It's a great picture and that's no joke. The jungle scenes are the best yet and the sound features is handled in remarkable fashion. It really is something to see and I am going to tell my friends about it."

"Tarzan is certainly the ideal lever that every girl would like to have if she only dared. He fills the imagination, but I doubt if he would be practical in Baltimore. I liked Jane, too, and the whole picture is one of the very best that I have ever seen."

"The picture is away out of the ordinary and a lot better even than "Trader Horn," which up to now I considered the best thing of its kind."

BILIOUS
"I have used Black-Draught . . . and have not found anything that could take its place. I take Black-Draught for biliousness. When I get bilious, I have a nervous headache and a nervous, trembling feeling that unfits me for my work. After I take a few doses of Black-Draught, I get all right. When I begin to get bilious, I feel tired and run-down, and then the headache and trembling. But Black-Draught relieves all this."—H. O. Hendrie, Homerville, Ga.

The Fire Boys assisted by their wives will have a 42 progressive party at the Club House next Tuesday night the 28th the proceeds to go the United Charity Organization.

Hope here will be a good turn out on this occasion, as the Treasurer can use all the funds that may be given her, as there are new applicants nearly every day now for help, and this is one good way in which to help the cause, and not hurt you while you are doing it.

We have nothing new to report about the Base Ball Tournament, a few of the men of the different communities have been in, but nothing definite has been settled as yet, except that Saturday has been set to make final arrangements between the different Managers or Captains of the different clubs.

PUBLIC WARNED AGAINST

Washington, D. C., June 23—The following statement is made by the United States Civil Service Commission:

The Commission warn the public against paying money for "coaching" courses in preparation for Federal civil-service examinations.

Schools which sell such courses under present conditions accept money under false pretenses. A purveyor of civil service courses is now under indictment in Iowa for false representation. It is expected that other such cases of prosecution will follow.

Comparatively few appointments are being made in the Federal civil service. Vacancies which must be filled are filled by the transfer of those in the service or the reinstatement of those who have been in the service, wherever practicable.

It is seldom necessary to announce an examination. In most cases registers of eligibles exist as a result of examinations held during the past year. When an examination is announced, the applicants are usually hundreds of times in excess of the need.

Money paid for civil service coaching courses at this time might almost as well be thrown to the four winds.

Federal Officials To Consider Request For More Farm Crop Loans

Governor's Committee Seeks Aid For Farmers in Getting Feed to Livestock

AUSTIN, TEXAS, JUNE 23—Reconstruction Finance Corporation officials and Secretary of Agriculture Hyde will seriously and carefully consider the request for additional crop loans to farmers of the southwest, they promised a delegation from Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, which recently appeared before the relief agency.

Commissioner of Agriculture J. E. McDonald, a member of the Governor's contact committee, declared upon his return that "we were assured by the administration that a continuance of agricultural loans will be given serious and careful consideration."

"The Secretary of Agriculture has been pronouncedly opposed to loaning the farmers money to add further to the already burdensome surplus of farm products," he said. "He stated that some means must be found to curtail production if farming is to be returned to its proper economic status."

Texas members of the delegation were A. P. Barrett of Fort Worth, Leon Goodman of Midland and Commissioner McDonald, who, in Washington, joined Col. Albert T. Woods of New Mexico and former Governor T. E. Campbell of Arizona. John W. Carpenter and John E. Owens, of Dallas, chairman and member of the Governor's Committee, did not make the trip.

The delegation carried to Washington the plea that government funds should be available to aid farming just as long as funds appropriated by Congress are available to aid industry.

"It is discrimination to shut the door in the face of the farmer on May 1 when they continue loans to industry, commerce and transportation," Commissioner McDonald said. "We asked only for emergency crop production loans and aid for the farmers in purchasing livestock to consume their surplus feed."

"With a carryover of surplus feed from last season and a new crop coming on with no market, funds are needed to obtain livestock through which the feed can be marketed."

"We realize that livestock prices are very low, but it is about the only avenue through which the surplus feed may be marketed."

Cotton Gains Two New Uses In Texas Over Foreign Jute

DALLAS, TEXAS, JUNE 23—Two new uses of cotton in Texas, which will entail the consumption of domestic cotton instead of imported jute, have recently been put into effect, according to Col. W. E. Talbot, managing director of the Southwest Industrial Development Bureau.

The Tex-O-Kan Mills of Dallas has contracted for the purchase of 500,000 cotton bags to be used in the shipment of feed, replacing the foreign-made jute burlap bags previously used. The Fulton Bag and Cotton Mills will supply the cotton bags. Col.

Talbot said the contract will take more than 200 bales of cotton off the market. While the cost of the cotton bags is slightly higher than that of jute, each bag contains more than a yard and a half of material which sells for seven cents a yard retail and is of greater value to the housewife than the jute material.

The second new use will be that employees of the Southland Life Insurance Company will wear Texas-made cotton clothing, and that as a result of prizes offered this month, at least 400 agents in Texas will also wear Texas-made cotton clothing. Col. Talbot is director of agencies for the Southland.

A CORRECTION

COST HER $4.25 TO REDUCE 65 POUNDS

"Worth it," Miss Bates Says.

If you're young and fat read what Miss Bates of Beech, Iowa, has to say about Kruschen Salts—if you are middle age or old Kruschen shows you the way to lose fat the SAFE way.

"I took one bottle of Kruschen Salts a month for five months. It amounted to $4.25 and I reduced 65 lbs. but it was worth it. Imagine just 22 years old weighing what I did. I could not enjoy myself as other girls did. I could not get the clothes I think it is wonderful the results Kruschen Salts give."

To lose fat the safe, sane way—take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning—eat less fatty meats, potatoes and sweets—a jar that cost but a small sum lasts 4 weeks. Get it at any drugstore in the world—but be sure for your health's sake to ask for and get Kruschen Salts. It's the little daily dose that does it.
