Chamber Slates 90-Minute Drive For Membership

"90 Members in 90 Minutes" will be the theme and goal of a Slaton Chamber of Commerce membership drive scheduled Friday from 10 to 11:30 a.m., it was announced this week by C of C president Robert H. Davis.

J. W. Holt is serving as chairman of the drive, with two teams of directors competing for honors. Directors were to start contacting prospects Tuesday, but the actual campaign is set for just 90 minutes Friday.

Glen Akin and J. C. McClesky are the "red" and "blue" team captains. On Akin's team are Don Kendrick, Dick Hartman, Speedy Nieman, Bill Adams, Jake Wendel and Earl Eblen.

Members of the McClesky "blues" are Davis, Dee Bowman, Tommy Wallace, Steve Smith, Jay Gray and Bob Kern. Winners in the contest will eat steaks at noon Friday, while the losers feast on hamburgers.

Holt, in announcing the membership drive, urged business firms and individuals to consider the benefits of helping support the Chamber of Commerce. He pointed out that the voluntary organization of business and professional people and other citizens is the only group working together for the progress of the community.

Minimum annual dues are $72 for business firms, $36 for small businesses, and $24 for individuals. Dues can be paid monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually.

Talent Show Set Monday

The Mixed Choir of Slaton High School will sponsor a talent show Monday night, Oct. 19 at 7:30 p.m. in the Slaton High School Auditorium.

Competition for the show will be divided into three categories: grades 7-8, grades 9-10 and grades 11-12. Prizes for first place are $5, $10, and $15, in the respective classes.

Disc jockeys from Lubbock's KLBK radio station are slated to act as judges.

Mr. Gerre Joiner of Lubbock emcee for the program, will also sing during the evening.

Tickets, which are 35 cents for students and 75 cents for adults, can be purchased from any member of the choir or will be available at the door.

Light Freeze Nips Cotton

THAT TIME OF YEAR---Farmers in the Slaton area are about ready to launch the harvest of "King Cotton", and Nedra Moseley looks over some of the "white gold" which will soon boost the economy of the Slaton and South Plains area. A light freeze the past week was not expected to cause much damage to cotton crops. (SLATONITE PHOTO)

TRUSTEES HEAR OTHER REQUESTS

Group Requests Busing For City School Pupils

A group of citizens from southeast Slaton appeared at the regular Slaton School Board meeting Tuesday night to request busing for students in that area.

The busing request highlighted a lengthy session which also saw a request from Community Action Board representatives, a request from Slaton High School student council officers, a budget report, and the approval of bills and accounts.

Chester Foster was the spokesman for the group of 10 citizens who appeared on the bus request. They met with the board for about 1 1/2 hours. The trustee meeting did not adjourn until 11:45 p.m.

Trustees told the group the board would consider the request, but it was pointed out that state law does not require for the school to provide transportation for students within a two-mile radius of school. Trustees also pointed out that the school would have to provide transportation all over town, if it approved busing for one section of town.

Some members of the group apparently thought that Federal funds might be available for such a case. However, one member of the board pointed out that this would not be a case of busing to achieve racial balance. The school has a unitary system, so the proposed busing would be a different situation.

Foster said the group represented 179 families with 501 school children, and another 180 families who did not have school children.

Supt. J. C. McClesky said the school is presently transporting 250 to 275 students outside the two-mile limit. The school has four bus routes, using two 72-passenger buses and two 60-passenger buses.

Mrs. Carol Watkins and Benita Zapata, representing the Community Action Board, appeared at the board meeting to request use of the Evans School building for a community center. CAB had previously used a room in the building as an office.

An outline was presented to the trustees, proposing the activities for which the building would be used. These included an information office, nutrition classes, sewing classes, finance and budget classes, storybook hour for pre-schoolers, youth recreation and playground activities, self-improvement classes for adult women and young girls, senior citizen meetings.

The board took the request under consideration and asked that the CAB present more information concerning the proposals for upkeep and maintenance of the building.

Student Council officers Charlie Geer, Glenna Smith and Cynthia Akin appeared at the meeting to request permission for class competition in Homecoming bonfires. The board had cancelled this activity several years ago due to the safety factors involved, and because the search for bonfire materials got "a little out of hand." Trustees agreed to allow the

City Commissioner Resigns in Ward 4

Monday night's regular meeting of the Slaton City Commission was not held as scheduled due to an insufficient number of commissioners present to form a quorum. A regular meeting is set for tonight at 7:30 p.m. at city hall.

While not a regular meeting, a discussion was held between the commissioners present and a group of citizens from the Ward 4 district of the city.

Purpose of the discussion was the Ward 4 commissioner's post vacated by the resignation of the Rev. F. D. Conright, who has moved from Slaton.

Slaton and area farmers escaped with a "light freeze" last week after the temperatures dipped to 30 degrees Friday morning, but the below-freezing weather didn't hang on long enough to be called a "killing freeze."

The light frost killed some foliage but the damage to cotton was light on the South Plains. Some farmers southwest of Slaton reported the frost had damaged millet in that area to an unrecoverable extent.

The freeze was harder in the upper half of the Plains, and snow was recorded in the Panhandle. Most area observers said the freeze didn't damage cotton bolls to any great extent. Most of the cotton was mature enough to withstand the frost, which didn't get all the leaves.

M. A. (Rip) Elms, manager of Paymaster Oil Mill in Lubbock, said, "We escaped lightning by the seat of our britches." He added that losses would have been "real heavy if the freeze had been as hard and as general as predicted."

The Pioneer Natural Gas Co. office in Slaton reported a low of 30 degrees Friday morning and a low of 32 Thursday. The mercury dipped down to 36 degrees again Monday morning. Low maximum the past week was a reading of 40 degrees last Thursday. High for the week was 90 degrees on Tuesday.

A new cold front slipped into the area Tuesday afternoon, however, and the high was expected in the 60's Wednesday. A low in the upper 30's was predicted Wednesday night. Skies were cloudy but an earlier forecast of rain had decreased in potential.

Harvesting operations were underway under sunny skies Monday and Tuesday. A number of farmers reported mechanical picking and stripping was underway as the harvest of "King Cotton" was launched.

Brake Repeats As Grid Expert

It was another tough week for the football experts, but Bobby Brake of Slaton turned the trick for the second week in a row in capturing first place in the weekly Slatonite Football Contest.

Brake missed only 4 of the 25 games to take the $10 first prize in the contest sponsored by local firms and merchants.

Six entrants had only 6 misses on the contest page, with Cee Eckert and Clyde Kitten taking second and third places by coming closer to the tie-breaker total. The total was 0 on the Slaton - Frenship game, with Miss Eckert guessing 23 points and Kitten 24 points.

Others who missed six games but had higher tie-breaker totals were Pete Harris, Joe Sparkman, Randall Partain and Paul Mercer.

Missing 7 of the games were Dorothy Bownds, Robert Dillon, Donna Brake, John Respondek, Fred Tamez, Ann Gilliey, Eugene Sokors, 4th Period Civics Class, Bobby Meeks, Kelly Sparkman, S. H. Verkamp, Frances Respondek, Ronny Jones, 1st Period Civics Class, Sue Brake and Jim Sain.

Join in the fun this week and try your skill (and luck) at winning one of the grid prizes!

Tigers Meet Old Rival In Homecoming Contest

The Slaton Tigers, scoreless in two District 4-AA outings, go after some points and a victory against Post here Friday night, and they hope to deliver both for a Homecoming crowd at Tiger Stadium.

The Tigers have a tie and a loss after two tough 4-AA battles with Denver City and Frenship. Last week's scoreless tie with Frenship counts as a half-game won and half-game lost, according to district rules. Denver City upset the Tigers by 8-0 in the opener.

Crowning of the football sweetheart will start activities at 7 p.m. Friday night at Tiger Stadium, with the kickoff set for 7:30. Grid sweetheart candidates are Judy Boyd, Janice Buckemper and Glenna Smith. A pep rally and bonfire is scheduled tonight (Thursday) on the parking lot near Tiger Stadium. School spirit titles of Mr. and Miss Flame will be awarded a boy and girl at the bonfire.

The Slaton grid team has a 1-2-2 won-lost-tied record on the season, so the Tigers will be seeking to even it all up Friday.

The Tigers will carry the favorite's role in the 4-AA game, but the Antelopes are expected to be "up" for this game between old traditional rivals.

Coach Ernie Davis said Wednesday the Tigers came out of the Frenship game without injuries. Guard Charlie Thomas is still favoring a bruised knee after seeing limited action at Frenship. Tackle Bobby Hopper is nursing a sore finger, but is expected to be ready.

The Tiger lineups are expected to be about the same on offense and defense. Davis is hoping his offense will get untracked after failing to score in two games.

Davis told Tiger Club members this week that Post has a big team but is not real fast. "They have good personnel and we're not taking them lightly," Davis added.

Post lost 15 lettermen but returned 10 this season. A pair of 230-pounders head the list of returnees. They include David Stelzer, whom Coach Billy Hahn calls the best center in the area, and tackle Tommy Shumard. Fullback Larry Bilberry, 185-pound senior, and Kyle Josey, 170-pound junior, lead the offensive attack.

Post lost a 42-0 decision to (See TIGERS, Page 5)

PLANS MADE FOR CHRISTMAS OPENING, FABULOUS FRIDAY

Slaton's annual "Christmas Opening" activities, including the arrival of Santa Claus and turning on of downtown lights, has been scheduled for Monday, Nov. 30.

The date was announced this week by Dick Hartman, chairman of the retail trade committee of Slaton Chamber of Commerce. He said the committee is also planning to sponsor registration for a free color television set before Christmas.

The retail trade group also sponsors the monthly dollar days, or Fabulous Fridays, in Slaton. Hartman announced that registrations for free Blue Star Bucks will be held on Fabulous

Friday, Nov. 5, but no winners will be drawn for next month.

Instead, double winners will be named in December, with first prize being $50 Blue Star Bucks, second prize of $30 and third prize of $20 of the "bucks" -- redeemable at any participating store or firm. Free registrations will be conducted on both Nov. 5 and Dec. 4 for the drawings.

Participating merchants should put out their registration boxes on Nov. 5, then keep the coupons and place the boxes out again on Dec. 4. All entries will then be taken to KCAS on Saturday, Dec. 5, for the drawing of the double winners of Blue Star Bucks!

MUSTANGS HAVE OPEN DATE

Wilson Bows to Lions

Wilson's Mustangs lost their second straight game to a Class A grid team Friday night, losing a 24-14 decision at New Deal.

The loss left Wilson with a 3-2 won-lost record, and the Mustangs take a rest this week before opening District 4-B action at home against Ropesville on Oct. 23.

The outmanned Mustangs trailed only by 12-6 going into the final period, and it was 18-14 midway of the fourth quarter.

New Deal's Lions opened the scoring late in the first period when James Sanders blasted over from the 4. Wilson drove to the Lions' 18 but lost the ball on a fumble.

New Deal scored again in the second period on a 12-yard pass from Kelly Sherman to Buzzy Sowler. Wilson bounced back with a 51-yard drive for a score, with David Wied passing to Mike Kosian from 12 yards out.

The third period was scoreless, then Steve Fortenberry scored from four yards out for New Deal with 9:23 left in the game. Wilson's Danny Trotter blocked the extra-point attempt.

Wilson took the ensuing kickoff and drove for another score, climaxed by Greg Wied carrying over from the 2. Woody Follis banged over for 2 points, and it was 18-14 with 4:49 left in the game.

New Deal ate up the time and scored an insurance touchdown late in the final period. Sanders scored again from the 5.

Danny Crowson led the Wilson defense with 22 tackles, followed by Darrow Talkmitt with 20 and Wayland Peterson with 19. Richard Savell and Follis were also defensive standouts.

Wilson had 160 yards rushing, compared to 317 for New Deal. The Mustangs registered 12 first downs to 20 for the winners. Wilson had 48 yards passing, and the Lions recorded 50.

Before school started this year, he started preparing to be the eighth grade kicker by kicking about 100 field goals each day.

Slaton Battles Frenship To Tie

Unbeaten Ralls Tries Frenship

When District 4-AA got ready for action, the experts predicted a three-way race with Frenship, Slaton and Denver City battling for the marbles.

Slaton met the other two favorites the first two weeks of action and wound up with a loss and a tie. Denver City is back in the familiar driver's seat at present, and the Ralls Jack-rabbits are with them -- both with 2-0 marks.

Frenship is just a half-game back after the tie with Slaton, and the defending champs take on Ralls this week. Slaton seeks its first district win while hosting winless Post, and Denver City travels to Roosevelt.

Taboka seeks its first win against Idalou, after losing to the tough Denver City and Frenship teams.

Tigers trapped the Frenship quarterback for a loss of 12, and the game was over before another play could be run. Rogers wound up as Slaton's leading rusher with 73 yards on 12 trips with the ball. Alan Fondy was next with 26 on 14 trips. Mosser hit 3 of 7 passes for 22 yards, with one being intercepted.

Slaton reeled off 51 offensive plays in the game, while Frenship got in 66. The home team crowded 22 plays into the first quarter, while Slaton had only 9.

SORRY ABOUT THAT--Supt. J. C. McClesky, a Texas A&M graduate, found this greeting on his front door Sunday morning after Texas Tech had scored a 21-7 win over the Aggies. McClesky said he had about four local Red Raider suspects in mind, and that his time would come to "return the favor."

Fullback Alan Fondy and halfback Donnie Rogers have been the leading rushers for the Tigers this season, and Rogers has also been the top pass receiver. Quarterback Terry Mosser guides the attack, with halfbacks Frank Self and Bruce Schuette rounding out the offensive threats.

BUT FRESHMEN LOSE

Tiger JV Blanks Monterey By 21-0

Slaton's talented Tiger Junior Varsity scored a 21-0 victory over the Lubbock Monterey sophomores here Thursday night, while the Tiger freshmen lost to Frenship, 34-0, in the opener of the twin-bill.

The junior varsity goes to Lubbock this afternoon for a game with the tough Dunbar JV, while the freshmen play at Post. The Lubbock game is set for 4:30 p.m., and the Post game at 6:30.

Halfback Ron Bartley scored all three touchdowns for Slaton in the win over Monterey, and end Brad Lamb kicked three extra points. Fullback Tommy Walters joined Bartley in giving the Tigers a strong rushing attack.

Bartley, a sophomore standout, scored the first touchdown on a 33-yard jaunt, and got the other two on short plunges. Walters picked up 100 yards in 20 carries, and Bartley registered 93 on 19 trips.

Soph quarterback Steve Nieman and junior halfback Jackie Ford were also offensive standouts. Nieman hit 3 of 7 passes for 31 yards and had a 27-yard scamper that helped set up one tally. Ford rushed for 43 yards on 8 carries.

The JV defense was in the spotlight again, limiting Monterey to only four first downs and a net 33 yards rushing. Tackles Curt Woolver and

FOR WINTER...

CONVERT YOUR HOME TO COMFORT ELECTRIC HEATING NOW... AND WE'LL INSTALL STORM WINDOWS... FREE!

Now is the time to bundle up your home for winter. Now is the time to install whole-house, comfort electric heating, because, right now, with every qualifying electric home heating installation, we'll install free a complete set of storm windows for the heated portion of your home. All you need do is call Southwestern Public Service Company. Our electric heating specialist will gladly and professionally determine the exact heating requirements for your home.

Modern electric comfort heating is already being enjoyed by over 4 million American families... almost 5,000 in our area alone. The reasons are many, but what most people like about clean electric heating is the comfort it gives. An even warmth from floor to ceiling creates a comfort unlike any other heating method. You owe it to yourself and your family to get the facts about electric heating... and now is the time to do it.

Storm windows have proven their value in keeping out cold, wintry winds, holding down inner heat loss and contributing to lower heating costs. The storm windows now offered free with qualifying home electric heating installations, are 2-track, aluminum windows with screen, and custom made to fit your own windows. Storm windows do an excellent job of combating dust storms, too.

IS YOUR HOME ELIGIBLE?

This offer is available to residential customers of Southwestern Public Service Company, living in existing single family homes and qualifying for the special residential electric heating rate. Should you already have storm windows or windows of such design or shape that they do not lend themselves to normal installations, do not despair—we have a special, most attractive plan for you, too.

Dues in YOUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE is NOT a donation to a non-profit organization without a return realized or expected.

It is, rather an investment in YOUR COMMUNITY to protect the property investment you have.

If you have a substantial property or business investment, your dues in the Chamber of Commerce PROTECTS that investment against decline by continuous promotion of your community. If your community expands, the value of your investment will increase or retain its value. If you are a salaried or retired individual with little tangible property investment, you still need to invest in your community by paying Chamber of Commerce Dues because you live here. The community will be an enjoyable place to live only as long as we all work to make it enjoyable.

How do we protect our investment? By becoming active members of the local Chamber of Commerce and participating collectively in programs that will promote community welfare. We can protect and promote our community as a group, but can not or will not do so as individuals.

Briefly, here are some of the projects your chamber is or has actively promoted.
1. Promoted School for mentally retarded
2. Operates the local swimming pool and actively promotes parks.
3. Sponsors Farmer-Merchant Barbecue.

4. Sponsors Beautification programs (yard of month and clean up promotions)
5. July 4th and November 11th observances.
6. Newcomers listings
7. Helps provide consumer and businessmen protection by screening various salesman on different sales promotions.
8. Christmas lightening
9. Donated the necessary money that enabled the Golf Course to become a reality and continued annual contribution as long as it operated as an association.
10. Promoted the local airport
11. Actively engaged in promoting industrial expansion programs new and existing.
12. Actively promoting Girls Basketball tournament that will occur December, 1970, (18 to 20 teams from across the state)

There are many, many, other projects that your Chamber is actively engaged in each day that are taken for granted. We as individuals may not agree with all the projects but without a doubt must agree that all have contributed to our community being a better place to live, and being honest, will agree the things done or being done probably could not have happened without a collective effort.

The Chamber is as good as its members; without members, it can do nothing. YOU NEED THE CHAMBER AND THE CHAMBER NEEDS YOU!

a weekly message relating the world of today to the lessons of Faith and Church...

"I will put my trust in him." — Isaiah 8:17

Some of us just don't trust anybody. We lock our cars and our homes. We put our tools and our valuables in a storage shed with a padlock and we carry the keys wherever we go.

We even forget, sometimes, that we can place our trust in God. We lock God out of our lives and hide away the key. Then, in moments of trouble and distress we search our heart and seek guidance in this time of need.

Place your trust in God, all ways, always.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

YOUR WORLD

What kind of a world do you live in? Do you shudder at happenings in your city, state and country—and the world—as you read the headlines of your newspaper? Do you really believe, as some do, that the world is "falling apart at the seams," that old treasured values and traditions have been cast aside by many of the world's people? Do you, indeed, ask: "What has happened to the world?"

If you are concerned, when you have set your paper aside, take a closer look at "your world." Relax. Take into consideration only that part of the world you can see with the naked eye. What is going on about you. What is right and wrong with you and yours? What relationships do you have with your friends and neighbors? What is wrong with local government and what is being done about it? What are the needs of the church to which you belong, the schools which are attended by your children.

If you are an average citizen, there isn't too much you can do about "the" world, unless you become concerned and do something about "your" world.

Benefit Dinner Saturday

You have 24 hours to live.

Today, that is. So what are you doing your time? Are you helping another human being toward the dignity you want for yourself? Are you doing anything to overcome the hate in this world—with love? The hours can be a great time to be alive. If you live right.

Break the hate habit: love your neighbor.

Junior High Coaches Speak At Rotary Club

Slaton Junior High coaches R. G. Copeland and Joe Sparkman were special guests at the weekly luncheon meeting of Slaton Rotary Club Thursday in the Clubhouse.

The two coaches discussed the junior high athletic programs, emphasizing the 6th grade indoctrination system started about six years ago. Copeland explained that the coaches tried to screen the boys in the 6th grade -- attempting to determine the boys' desire to participate in sports, correct ages and satisfactory grades. Sparkman said the school was fortunate in having an exceptional group of boys in junior high at present, with 91 participating in football in the two grades this season. Dee Bowman presided at the club's regular weekly meeting. Several guests and visiting Rotarians were introduced at the meeting, including Phillip Holt, "Junior Rotarian" for the month.

Band to UIL Test Nov. 18

The Slaton Tiger Band will attend the University Interscholastic League Marching Contest Nov. 18 at Jones Stadium in Lubbock.
 This year's Tiger Band contains 115 members. Bill Townsend directs the group.
 About Mustard
 Mustard originally came from Asia, but today much of the world's production comes from North America, particularly California and Montana.

Reflecting on the fourteenth annual meeting of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., attended by over 400 people on September 29 in Lubbock, Executive Vice President Donald Johnson said "Comment indicates this was one of the most interesting, most thought provoking meetings we have had in years. And the 200 ladies who attended the luncheon which followed the meeting have been quite voluble in their praise of the program presented there, too."
 Speakers for the annual meeting were J. Dukes Wooters, new Executive Vice President and General Manager of Cotton Producers Institute, and Charles G. Scruggs, Editor of Progressive Farmer magazine.
 The program for the ladies luncheon was presented by Mrs. Meda Johnston, internationally known textiles author and lecturer; Miss Lawanna Walker, Home Economist with the National Cotton Council, and Mrs. Margaret Harden, instructor and Research Associate with the Foods and Nutrition Department at Texas Tech University.
 The 50-member PCG board of directors, made up of two directors elected from each of the organization's 25 counties, was certified by the membership and met immediately after the annual meeting to elect officers. Re-elected for one year terms were Donnell Echols of Lamesa, president; Ray Joe Riley of Hart, vice president, and Paul Bennett of Littlefield, secretary-treasurer.
 Echols, accepting the organization's top office of the second year, said the need for a strong cotton producer organization on the Plains was an ever-increasing need. He went on to say "A strong organization requires strong support, and building support among the membership is a prime responsibility of PCG directors."
 Wooters, calling attention to CPI's successes in product development research in the past and outlining new plans for competitive merchandising, said "Cotton's opportunities in the market place have never been better, and it is our job to capitalize on those opportunities."
 Scruggs suggested that cotton producers need to "Deal themselves in" for a bigger piece of the industry through vertical integration. He said "Our opportunity lies primarily in greater control over the end product of our fiber and we should have a more active part in moving raw fiber from the raw stage to the consumer."
 The ladies luncheon was attended mostly by members of 12 women's cotton promotion groups organized in the High Plains area. The program covered methods of applying design to cotton fabrics, utilization of cottonseed flour in foods for human consumption, and a fashion address titled "Fall in With Cotton."
 Typical of the comments on the luncheon is a letter from Mrs. J. C. Pointer of Ropesville. Mrs. Pointer wrote PCG "The food was wonderful and the program was just the thing to give us ladies enthusiasm and spirit. The speakers made me want to do more for the cotton industry."
 Officials of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. and the Lubbock Cotton Exchange joined forces September 28 and 29 in an attempt to sell the advantages of using High Plains cotton to 12 textile mill representatives from 9 European countries.
 Mill representatives from Austria, Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland and England spent two full days touring cotton installations in Lubbock and the surrounding area. They visited the Textile Research Center at Texas Tech University, the Tech farms, Plains Cotton Cooperative Association, Plains Cotton Compress, the Canyon Gin, USDA's Ginning Research Laboratory and the Texas A&M Research and Extension Center.

Warm, Fresh Air

... direct from the manufacturer

Natural gas is the healthiest, most economical way to heat your house this winter. Gas is economical because it's the direct way to produce heat — you don't pay to convert heat to another energy source and then back to heat. And with gas you can afford to bring clean outside air into your home this winter instead of having to re-heat the same old stale air time after time.

So, if you're building or remodeling, be sure to specify gas heating. Gas is the "natural" fuel. It's like buying direct from the manufacturer. Call your heating contractor, plumber, or Pioneer Natural Gas.

Brush Control Field Day Set

A Brush Control Research Field Day will be conducted by Texas A&M University personnel on Thursday, Oct. 22, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Pitchfork Ranch located 17 miles east of Dickens on U. S. 82. Tours will be conducted from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and will also include the neighboring Four 6's Ranch.

Ranchmen, farmers, land owners, aerial and mechanical contractors and representatives of commercial companies interested in the latest developments in the fight against brush are urged to attend, announces Charles E. Fisher of Lubbock, professor in charge of brush control field research for Texas A&M. Runways are available at both ranches for visitors who plan to fly in. On the morning tours, visitors will be able to view and hear discussions on the latest developments in field tested chemical and mechanical control of mesquite and associated shrubs on field research plots. Field day visitors will also have an opportunity to see different types of chemical and mechanical equipment, both commercial and experimental, that is being used in brush control.

The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 p.m. following a catered dutch lunch at the Pitchfork Ranch Headquarters, adds Fisher. Featured speakers during the afternoon will include Dr. L. S. Pope of Texas A&M; John Matthews, chairman of the Brush Control and Range Improvement Program; Dr. C. L. Leinweber of Texas A&M, and Fisher.

Training Held For Den Mothers

Bob Hurst of the South Plains Council and District Scout Executive for the Mackenzie Trail District conducted training for the den mothers of both Pack 128 and New Pack 123 last Monday morning at the Slaton Scout Hut.

Attending were Arlene Stefens and Mary Jane Farley of Pack 128 and Brenda Algeo, Patricia Triver and Solysue Pullig of Pack 123. Attention was given to the best ways to conduct den meetings and the mechanics of den operation within the pack.

Pack 123, to be sponsored by the First Christian Church, is an outgrowth of Pack 128 and is being formed to increase the service of a better program for boys. Pack 128 has in the past had over 100 boys each year which makes it extremely difficult for each boy to be on the pack program each month and causes other problems due to the number of boys and parents involved.

It is expected with the chartering of the new pack that a total of 125-150 boys will have the benefits of the Cub Scout program.

editorially speaking

By Vernon Hagar, Administrator, Slaton Nursing Home

VERNON HAGAR

During the brief time I have been the administrator of a nursing home, one thing seems to stand out as a great need. Even though most adult residents of the community where a nursing home is located know of its existence, the majority of them fail to relate themselves to its mission. There is something of a fear that seems to prevail, and because of this fear, many nursing homes lack the help that could be given by volunteers, be they individuals or groups. The purpose of this article is to acquaint individuals with what they might expect to find when making themselves available to assist as volunteers in the work and mission of the nursing home.

First of all, let me state a question: What are the people like? For lots of people, there seems to be something of an eerie awe about those who comprise the residency of a nursing home. They think of old, infirm people stuck away by children who do not want to be bothered with them. They visualize their state as a hopeless one, and thus conclude there is now worthwhile reason why they should waste their time on such hopeless efforts. But let me tell you something of what the people are like.

They are not all aged. Doubtless every nursing home has a number of residents who are below 60 years of age. So they are not all there because of old age, but because they need the 24-hour nursing supervision the nursing home is equipped to give, and certainly not the least of all is their need for tender, loving care.

So you will find those infirm with age, the senile, and the handicapped. These are all very much individuals. Each has his limitations, of course, but each also has his possibilities. I have watched with interest and intrigue some who seemed so hopeless, actually 'come alive.' I have seen the result of the touch of the Master's hand as it was extended through the dedicated hands of the nursing home staff, and I have sensed with excitement a deep satisfaction associated with giving the tender, loving care these people need.

Now, another question: What are some of their problems? These, of course, are many and varied. To some, they still feel capable of independence, and thus undergo great frustration from being placed in a nursing home. I suppose some of the most difficult thoughts for a person to master when it is necessary to go off the 'active' list, are those that cry out: "useless," "unproductive," "not needed." But these are among the many frustrating thoughts of the elderly.

To some, it is the inevitable 'drop-off,' "I was brought here to die!" is the paramount thought. They know death is inevitable, but they are caught between fact and fancy. Even though they know that die they must, there is still the fancy they have not grown old, and in their mind they live again, and again, those days when they were in their prime.

To some, it is thoughtless, uncaring children who do not want to be bothered with them, but I have seen sons and daughters on the verge of a nervous breakdown, labouring under the impression they have failed their loved one in not being able to provide proper care for them at home. Actually, the children who are uncaring are way in the minority.

And finally, to some it is an asylum for the insane. It is a place where all one's personal rights are given up, and you have nothing to say. You only take orders, or subject yourself to the humiliation of 'being put in an institution.'

Thus we take a look at what many of the residents of a nursing home are like and what are some of their problems. Since nursing homes are for people, and people are so widely different, these things I have mentioned are not a stereotype but they doubtless are basic in most nursing homes.

Now, let's assume you have finally convinced yourself that you ought to offer some form of volunteer service in the nursing home in your community. Since you don't know precisely what procedure to follow, you decide you will just go and visit with the residents. You drive up in front of the nursing home and there comes a strong urge that you are not needed there. In fact, you might even try to convince yourself you are not wanted there. But you have come to visit, and visit you will!

You step into the nursing home. Your first impressions will be surface impressions, ego impressions, all directed inward. Since this is your first visit, nothing is really established in your mind. The facility is unknown by you. The employees are strangers to you. And there are some of the people you came to visit - some are visiting among themselves, some are staring, some are just sitting - and to you, it is all just a jumbled group of strangers.

Again, as you drove up in front of the nursing home, you have mixed emotions. "Perhaps it still is not too late to leave," you think to yourself. Then you hear a pleasant voice: "Hi, there. May I help you?" It is the voice of a nurse aide, or possibly another employee who happened to notice the stranger who just stepped into the home. You make yourself known and state the purpose for your coming. You are told to feel free to visit as you like.

Naturally, your first visit will not be too involved, but successive visits will open the door more and more to the real needs of the people you are visiting. You discover some of their basic needs, and thus you are able to devise ways to help. Ways of helping will be as broad as your own resourcefulness.

In closing, let me say I have mentioned what might be considered least in volunteer service: visiting the residents. It can be done with minimum involvement of the nursing home personnel, but there are many needed acts of physical service that can be rendered, such as feeding the more helpless residents, running errands occasionally for those who are unable to leave the home, write letters, assist with the activities program, present special music from time to time, and just anything that will add interest to life in the nursing home.

And let me say in closing, faithfulness and regularity are two of the most important ingredients of volunteer service.

The nursing home needs you! Don't you think this is the time you should do something about it?

Students Seek Creepy Crawlers

BY SUSAN GREEN

Just in case there have been strange-looking creatures prowling up and down alleys, hiding in bushes, and running through yards lately, don't be alarmed! They are only the biology students.

This year, as every year, they have to go out with their little butterfly nets and other contraptions to catch insects for a collection that has to be turned in Oct. 20.

For some strange reason, the majority of the girls don't seem to enjoy this assignment. Touching a bug is bad enough, but sticking the poor little "critter" with a pin is even worse!

The boys aren't fazed a bit; in fact, they could care less. To them a bug is a bug, and the only thing they are good for is to scare a girl with.

Two biology students were generous with their bugs. Cheryl Moore furnished food for a poor hungry little mouse that happened to come along and devour her insects. A "swinging mouse" feasted on part of Steve Nieman's varmits he was keeping in his closet.

Making an insect collection isn't an easy job, because it's hard to get a whole bug. If it's head or leg doesn't come off, more than likely a wing or something else will, and Mrs. Maryann Stewart doesn't want pieces of insects.

If you see these students prowling around, remember not to call the police! They are only after creepy crawlers.

EDITORIALS

Be a proud Tiger!

We have a fine high school of which we can be proud. Let's show our pride and keep our campus neat and clean. The Student Council recently bought 10 trash cans costing $50 to distribute around the campus in an effort to clean up the grounds.

The freshman boys have also worked hard to clean up after the upper classmen. We should give them a break and do our part by putting our trash in the trash cans. It's a lot easier to put it in a trash can than throwing it on the ground and having to go back later and pick it up and then put it in a trash can.

Let's all help by not littering or defacing the SHS campus. Be a proud Tiger!!

Typing Students Giving String

Mrs. Saleta Duff, typing and bookkeeping teacher, reports Typing II classes are now (still) learning the keyboard but have advanced to the numbers. While doing this, they are also learning rhythm, typing to "Anitra's Dance" and "Valse Bleue" at 24 and 28 word-a-minute speeds.

Brenda Ham is now up to 22 words a minute and getting better every day. Mrs. Duff has thought up a clever way to show how many words a minute each student is typing. The bulletin board is designed like a football field, with miniature footballs placed on the 10-50-yard lines (showing how many words are being typed).

Typing II classes are still typing stencils and doing better in their work.

In bookkeeping, the students are starting their first project, which is one problem to do with all the problems in Chapters 1-8.

Photography is a new senior course offered at SHS this year. The class, consisting of 12 students, is taught by Mrs. Maxine Walker.

The purpose of this course is to give students experience in taking pictures, developing film, and making prints. They will also make movies using a Super-8 movie camera.

The students have a 120 mm and a 35 mm camera to use. They can also use their own cameras.

The class is working in the dark room until they get their textbooks which will be sometime next month. They have two well-equipped dark rooms. A new one was opened up last week, and the other one is three years old.

Later on in the year the photography class will sponsor an exhibit in which the Kodak Company will mail award-winning photographs to schools for exhibit.

TEST SCHEDULE

Mrs. M. G. Davis, counselor, announced this week that two tests will be given soon.

The Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Tests will be given to juniors Oct. 20. This is strictly a volunteer test that will help prepare for College Board Exams. A fee for the PSAT test will be due the day of the test. Seventy-six juniors have signed up for it.

The Vocational Planning Inventory Test will be given to all tenth graders Oct. 28.

The Sophomore Class is planning an assembly for Oct. 23. At present time they had not decided for sure what their assembly was to be about, but they are working on it!

Homecoming Game Friday

Rally, Bonfire Slated Tonight

The halls of SHS will be filled with signs and spirit Friday when Slaton and Post clash for the Homecoming game.

All week long members of the Student Council have been planning activities. Due to nine weeks' tests, nothing was scheduled for Monday night. Tuesday night there was a sign-painting party. Wednesday night a chapel was held in the auditorium of the high school. Tonight is the big bonfire. Someone will be chosen as Mr. and Miss Flame.

Mums and dance tickets went on sale last Thursday. They are being sold by the Student Council.

The Homecoming Queen will be crowned at the Tiger Stadium Friday night at 7 p.m.

Monday, Oct. 19, at 11 a.m. there will be an assembly called "This Atomic World." Texas A and M University will present the outside exhibit.

SPORTS FUMBLES & JUMBLES

By Dan Davis

The Slaton Tigers were downed in their first attempt at District action, 8-0, by the unpredictable Denver City Mustangs. The score came on a double reverse pass and a run for extra points. Alan Walters and Glen Akin were outstanding defensively throughout the game. Ismael Ledesma substituted for Charles Thomas due to a leg injury.

SHS would like to welcome all the exes back for homecoming activities this week. Let's show Post who's best, Tigers! Beat Post!

The Junior Varsity slaughtered Abernathy in a home game Oct. 1, 45-3. Outstanding offense was played by Steve Nieman, Ron Bartley, and one of those Kittens. Outstanding defense by Curtis Woollever and Leslie Melcher also highlighted the game.

The Junior Varsity played an outstanding game last Thursday night defeating Monterey Junior Varsity 21-0. It was Monterey's first defeat. Lloyd Kitten turned in a great game, and Leslie Melcher was outstanding defensively.

The Freshmen were defeated by Abernathy, 23-8, Oct. 1. Outstanding defense moves were made by Jesse Gonzales, Benny Lopez, and Ray Lynn Basinger. Offense plays by Greg Sokora and Dwayne Mosser were highlighted.

Freshmen were upset by Freshmen 34-0. They are now anticipating a victory over Post tonight. Let's all get out and support the teams as they are future Varsity material.

Gals Rate Boys' Attire

A favorite pastime for all girls is looking out for the guys, especially here at Slaton High School. Different girls were asked how they feel about the way the guys at Slaton High dress and the ways they like to see the guys dress.

Mary Brosch -- "I like for them to wear bell bottoms and body shirts, not dress up every day."

Judy Fondy -- "Most of them dress okay and are really in style, but some of them--a few of them--could improve some."

Kay Guthrie -- "I like the way they dress, but I don't like their hair straight and to their shoulders."

Vicki Hill -- "Bell bottoms fitting tightly and bright colors."

Cindy Locke -- "I think they look good in just about anything."

Tyra Martin -- "Since styles for boys don't change very rapidly, the guys of SHS aren't dressing any different than they ever have. I like to see a boy that is clean and neatly dressed. I have always thought that there are too many restrictions concerning their hair."

Pam Martindale -- "I like their hair cut a reasonable length and for them to wear cowboy boots, jeans, and hat."

Melanie Parks -- "The boys in Slaton dress pretty much the same way all the time. I guess they dress O.K. I'm just glad they don't wear frilly shirts and carry purses."

Elena Paschall -- "I like the way they are dressing this year. They are really sharp!"

Diane Patterson -- "I like muscle shirts and their hair combed down to their eyebrows, and I like for them to smell fresh."

Frances Respondek -- "Very neat. Dress to suit their personality."

Noree Self -- "I like the way they dress, but some don't dress sexy enough. I don't think they should dress up every day. I like bell bottoms and body shirts."

Darla Siler -- "I think the boys look nice, but a few of them could improve some."

Mrs. Maryann Stewart -- "I like block hair cuts and bell bottoms. I like for shirt tails to be tucked in and wear a belt. I like rangers and western boots."

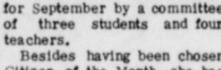

Jane Tucker -- "I like cowboy boots, cowboy hats, and jeans. I don't like for them to get haircuts."

Laura Lynn Underwood -- "Most of them look pretty sharp -- but some really don't care how they look."

Wanda Walker -- "I like it when they dress the way they want to."

Debbie Winters -- "I like them. But it would be better if more wore bell bottoms and body shirts."
