County's First Bale Is Ginned At Southland

The Slaton area's first bale of cotton — and the first bale for Lubbock County and possibly the entire South Plains — was ginned by Basinger Gin after it was brought in Monday by Stonewall Jefferson, who farms near the Southland community.

Jefferson will receive a premium of $150 from Slaton Chamber of Commerce for having the first bale in the Slaton trade area. Presentation of a check for this amount will be made at the annual Farmer-Merchants Barbecue next Tuesday night.

A check with the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal indicated that Jefferson's bale not only was the first in the county, but also was the first one reported for the entire 19-county South Plains area.

Jefferson gathered his bale Saturday and brought it to the Basinger Gin at 10 a.m. Monday. The bale, which will be on display at the barbecue, weighed out at 530 pounds and made 980 pounds of seed. The Northern Star seed was planted April 23.

After it was ginned Monday, it was taken to Union Compress, then brought uptown for display in front of Citizens State Bank.

Slaton's bale count stood at two for the season Tuesday after Harold Wilson brought in the second bale for the Slaton area at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday, to Farmers Gin of Slaton. Wilson, who farms east of the city, will earn $100 premium from the Slaton chamber for the second bale.

The chamber also gives $50 for the third bale, which had not been reported as of Tuesday afternoon.

Thefts, Wrecks Investigated

Investigation of thefts and wreck reports were primary items on the police report for the last week in Slaton.

On Sunday, a 1967 auto driven by Barry Mark Copeland, 1055 W. Lubbock, and a 1967 car driven by Kathryn Bell Busby, Rt. 1, collided on FM 41 west of U.S. 84.

Last Friday on 8th St. near its intersection with 25th, 1972 cars driven by Lora Marie Wicker of 502 Plaza Dr. and Howard Ewing Woods of Slaton collided.

In the 800-block of Collins Saturday a 1971 auto driven by Floydie Mae Clyburn of San Francisco struck a gas meter.

At 9th and Garza last Thursday a wreck involved cars driven by Ruth Lequinne Ferebee of Lubbock and Macedonia Herman Arguello, 955 W. Terry.

A junior high student reported his wallet containing $81 cash was stolen from the locker room at junior high during football practice Thursday.

Mrs. Margaret Crispin of Wilson told police her purse was stolen from her car Saturday while it was parked near Lasater-Hoffman Hardware on Lubbock St. It contained personal items and 75 cents.

A 48-year-old man and a 65-year-old man were arrested in separate incidents on drunk driving charges, with the older man also facing charges of possession of marijuana.

Hanna Wins Ward 3 Post

A scant ten percent of the 750 registered voters in Ward III turned out to vote Friday for a new commissioner.

Of the 75 votes cast, B.A. Hanna gathered in 52 for the winning amount, followed by Ira Keys with 15 and Henry Bollinger with six.

Hanna fills the commissioner seat vacated last May by J.P. Spears, who resigned.

Hanna is a retired railroad employee.

presented by Mrs. Margaret Thaxton of Slaton Classroom Teachers Assn., will be voted on at the next meeting of the board.

Adult lunches at the cafeteria are being raised from 50 cents to 85 cents, with breakfast prices boosted from 15 cents to 40 cents. Student prices remain the same.

Only students at West Ward will be allowed to wear shorts to classes, it was noted as the board made this dress code change.

Building trades teacher George A. Van Hoose told the board this year's group of students would build the house for him personally. Construction of a house is a requirement of the course.

Miss Danna Jo Baker was hired for SELCO instruction at Southland School, with Mrs. Gail Madison moving to classes at Slaton, replacing Mrs. Marilyn Masdon, who resigned.

The board voted to hire Bill Carnes as high school curriculum director, subject to approval by funding agencies and to finding a replacement for Carnes in his science classes.

The fur should fly at Dimmitt Friday night as a couple of gangs of frustrated cats get together in an effort to claw their way into the victory column. Both the Tigers and Bobcats lost close ballgames last week.

While Dimmitt was losing 7-0 to Muleshoe, Slaton bowed 14-13 to Colorado City in a game which the Tigers lacked a couple of yards winning.

Colorado City scored first when the Wolves caught Slaton defensive backs up close to the line looking for a run and QB Ray Torrez flipped a quick pass to be Jackie Ellis, 198-pound junior end, who moved all that weight rather well as he outran everybody 69 yards for a touchdown. The conversion attempt was no good, but Colorado City led 6-0 with 5:54 left in the first quarter.

Before the period ended, though, Slaton defensive back Mike Tumlinson ripped off a Torrez pass and raced 43 yards with the interception to score and delight the packed crowd of hometowners. Sophomore Steve Wood kicked the extra point to put Slaton ahead 7-6.

Threat Halted

That was all the scoring in the first half, although C-City threatened once in the second quarter by driving for four first downs in a row down to the Tiger 15 before a tough defense and a holding penalty which cost the visitors an apparent touchdown stopped the threat.

In the third period, Colorado City's Wayne McKee recovered a Slaton fumble at the Tiger 41, and aided by a 15-yard penalty, the Wolves moved to a touchdown at 8:17 left, with Torrez driving over from the 2. The next play really killed the Tigers as Ellis stepped into the end zone from his left end position, cut quickly toward the middle and took a pass from Torrez for 2 points, giving the visitors a 14-7 lead.

The Tigers' rugged running back Bill McClesky, who gained 155 yards in 26 carries—with 122 of that in the last half—brought Slaton within one point before the third quarter was over. First, McClesky raced 54 yards for a touchdown, cleared by a great block from End Darrell Bednarz, but one of the officials ruled the block as a clip and brought the play back to the Wolves' 34. It didn't really matter, though, because the determined Tigers sprung McClesky again and he ran through a couple of people on his way around right end 30 yards for a TD two plays later. Wood's kick was just wide, and Slaton still trailed by 14-13.

Tigers Move

The fourth quarter was dominated by Slaton, but the Tigers just couldn't put any points up on the board. With 6:02 left, Slaton cranked up a drive which eventually moved to a first and goal just inside the Colorado City 10 with 3:25 left. McClesky squirmed 4 yards to the 6, then lost a yard on the next play. On third down, Tumlinson's quarterback sneak was halted after a 5-yard gain to the 2. On fourth down, the Tigers tried a field goal, putting a lot of pressure on the young sophomore kicker, whose try was wide

SO CLOSE—Darrell Bednarz couldn't hang on to this pass from Slaton QB Mike Tumlinson. Several passes during the game appeared to be thrown on target but fell incomplete as the receivers were harassed by Colorado City defenders. (SLATONITE PHOTO)

'The Hiding Place' Is Story Of Nazi Camps, Christian Love

By SANDY MARTIN

Many who survived Nazi concentration camps during World War II are still struggling to control their bitterness and hate spawned during the years of Germany's calculated atrocities against the Jews.

But Corrie ten Boom, a Hollander, used her time of trials at the hands of the Germans as an opportunity to praise God, to teach and comfort those around her with the Word of God.

Corrie, now in her eighties, is still praising God and teaching. She travels thousands of miles annually to speak and teach to people in every country in the world.

"The Hiding Place" is Corrie's story of her hardships and suffering during the war, and of her amazing love and dedication to God and his teachings. This dramatic novel, which has sold almost two million copies, is now a major motion picture and will be released soon.

When the first talk of war began in Holland in 1937, Corrie ten Boom was 45 years old. She and her sister Betsie and their father lived in a centuries old house called the Beje, which would later become one of the headquarters for the Dutch underground. Corrie and Betsie were unmarried, and Corrie was a watchmaker like her father.

As the Germans invaded Holland and year after year tightened their restrictions on the Hollanders, the ten Boom house gradually became a place of refuge and help for all those who were in need in any way.

The ten Boom family never turned away anyone. Their all encompassing love for fellow humans led them to accept all those in trouble, even though they risked their own lives to do so.

At first, Corrie and her band of underground workers simply provided an overnight stop for refugees as they fled to country hideouts. Then, as the hideouts grew scarcer, they began to take in Jews and others to live with them. A secret room was built in the Beje, and Corrie made her guests practice until they could disappear into the room without a trace of their presence in less than a minute.

Discovery by the Germans was a constant fear, but Corrie put her trust in the Lord and carried on with her work.

The ten Booms had two rare luxuries during the occupation, a telephone and a radio. Both were guarded with the utmost care, and both were essential in the underground work. Activity at the Beje was conducted with a maximum of stealth, but the Nazis were efficient, and eventually the house was raided.

When the dreaded raid did come, Corrie was 52 years old and was sick in bed with the flu. The entry to the secret hiding room was in her bedroom, and a few scant seconds after the final refugee disappeared behind the trap door, Germans burst into Corrie's room.

Racked with fever and an aching numbness of fear for those in the secret room, Corrie was led away. A prison bag, packed with soap, thread, needles, a Bible, toothbrush, clean clothes and other items was left behind. Corrie had placed it in front of the trap door, and she dared not risk drawing attention to the place by reaching for the bag.

With the operation of the underground behind her, Corrie was to face her severest persecution in prison — in the concentration camps which all of Europe had learned to fear.

Corrie, Betsie and their father were first taken to Scheveningen, a federal prison. Corrie was separated from her sister and was thrown into a rotting cell with four other women. Days later she alone was taken from the cell, and the first bit of human kindness she was to experience was extended to her by a nurse in the prison. The nurse asked Corrie if she could do anything for her and Corrie immediately asked for a Bible. At great risk to herself, the nurse later slipped Corrie a small package. Inside were several pins, two bars of soap and the four gospels, each in a little book to itself.

Because she was a political prisoner, when Corrie's health improved, she was put in solitary confinement. Although she had only a tiny black ant for companionship, Corrie was not alone in her cell. She had her gospels and she had the Lord, who comforted her as He had promised in his Word.

Eventually Corrie and her sister Betsie were moved to Vught, a concentration camp for political prisoners. It was on the way to Vught that Corrie and Betsie were united. They were to stay together until death separated them.

The horrors of Vught were many. Lice, filth, fleas, disease, hard work and countless other trials were inflicted upon prisoners. After Vught came Ravensbruck, a women's extermination camp. And finally, Corrie was released. The miracles that so often came her way while in prison continued. Several days after she was freed, all the women her age in Ravensbruck were killed.

Since her release, Corrie has lived a life as a "Tramp for the Lord", which is another book of hers. She has written many books—all of which are testaments of love and faith and joy. "The Hiding Place" is an emotional experience that cannot be forgotten. To read about Corrie and Betsie praising God for the millions of crawling fleas the German guards would not enter their barracks because the fleas were so rampant, therefore never discovering the Bible the ten Boom sisters possessed) as they read scripture and conducted worship services, is a joyful yet tearful thing. Corrie describes with detail the suffering she was subjected to, yet there is only love in her writing. She is not bitter. She is not full of hate. Although she said it was hard for her to accept the will of God to return to Germany, she did; teaching the Germans and showing them the true meaning of love.

Now "The Hiding Place" has been made into a movie, which will premier in Hollywood Sept. 30 and will be released around the country after that. Decision magazine describes the film as "A surpassingly beautiful motion picture...if awards are made for integrity, sensitivity, humanity and spirit, this film will sweep them all."

The movie features Julie Harris, Eileen Heckart and Arthur O'Connell. "The Hiding Place" will open at The Village theater in Lubbock, Oct. 1.

"The Hiding Place" is an experience that every Christian can weep over and praise God for. It is a book that can inspire stronger faith and more fruitful works, and can teach non-believers what love truly is. "The Hiding Place" is a book for all people — an example of love for all times.

Women's C-C Hears Reports

The Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce met Monday afternoon with the president, Louise Smith, calling the meeting to order.

The president read a letter of thanks from Ells Schmid on behalf of the Bicentennial Fourth of July Celebration Committee for the Chamber's help in making the event a success, also a letter from Pioneer Natural Gas Co. stating their policy of equal opportunity employment.

Reports were made from the various committees of which all seemed to be busy in preparation for the future events which are planned.

Old houses beyond repair and old cars are still being targeted. Anyone knowing of either may call the Chamber of Commerce office.

Because of his surgery schedule, patients of Dr. Maldia need to make appointments rather than just go to the office, except in the case of an emergency.

Maldia Marks First Year Here

Tuesday marked the first anniversary of Dr. Ernesto Maldia beginning his practice in Slaton. In that year, Dr. Maldia has taken giant strides in establishing himself in the medical community here.

Perhaps the most outstanding contribution he has made is St. Thomas Clinic. Dr. Maldia built the clinic this summer, moving his practice there on June 30. Previous to the move, Dr. Maldia's office was in the basement of Mercy Hospital.

The new clinic, located at 22nd and Knox Sts., contains three examining rooms, one laboratory, a nurses station, a business office, Dr. Maldia's office, and a reception area.

"We are grateful to the Slaton community for their support," said Maldia, "and we want to assure them we will try our best not to devalue the property of those concerned."

Dr. Maldia also expressed a special thanks to Tom Roy, former manager of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce, who was instrumental in getting the ground-work done for the building of St. Thomas Clinic.

The clinic is staffed with five persons, two of which are nurses. Dr. Maldia devotes two days a week to surgery, and one to obstetrics-gynecology.

"I try to do all the surgery I can in Mercy Hospital," said Dr. Maldia. "Those who need more specialized care or equipment are moved to University Hospital or St. Mary's in Lubbock."

The Southland Eagles fell to Wellman 34-0 Friday night in their first skirmish of the season.

Eagle head coach James Thomason cited his team for playing "pretty good defense" but said the Eagles gave the Wellman team "three cheap touchdowns."

BUMS SET SCENE

Four slouchy bums set the scene with the cheer-leading yell "Hey, let's flip!" at "Meet the Eagles" night Sept. 4. Once out on the gym floor, the "boys" performed the yell with some fighting and starting over. The cheer ended with one bum kicking another in the seat of the pants. The characters were actually four freshmen girls: Elaine Buxkemper, Katrina Chaffin, Carmen Diaz, and Ida Perez.

Coach J.J. Thomason introduced the high school and junior high football players following the skit with the freshmen girls. The high school cheerleaders then finished leading cheers. The pep rally concluded with both junior high and high school cheerleaders doing the yell "two bits." The junior high cheerleaders also performed at the beginning of the pep rally.

After the pep rally, fans, pep squad, and football players had cake and homemade ice cream in the school lunchroom.

YOUR LIFE INSURANCE

Q. I've recently moved to this area from another state where

I worked for a company that gave us group life insurance. A neighbor here suggested that I continue the insurance, but is that possible when I no longer work for the company? A. It may be possible even if your health has declined so that other companies would not be willing to insure you. Although it is often possible to convert group coverage into an individual policy, the conversion privilege must, as a general rule, be exercised within 30 days after leaving the job. If the group policy gives you the right to convert, that right is yours, by the way, no matter whether you are laid off or quit.

VFW AUXILIARY
The Ladies Auxiliary to the VFW #6721 met in regular session in the Post home.

President Brooksennell Davidson gave a report on the visit the Post and Auxiliary made to the VA hospital in Big Spring.

It was voted on to have two meetings a month, which will be the second and fourth Monday nights. Also the time of the meetings will be at 8 p.m.

The VA hospital in Big Spring needs bibs and lap robes. They should be made out of white towels and scraps of material. It was suggested that 50 be made to be taken when the Post and Auxiliary go to the hospital in December. Those who desire to help should call 828-6406.

The Post will sponsor a membership barbecue and dance, Saturday, Sept. 20 which will be free to all members who have or intend to pay their 1976 dues. The Tommy Lee Show band will play for the dance, which will be open to the public. Admission price for non-members is $3.00 a couple. The dance will begin at 9 p.m.

After the meeting adjourned the ladies served supper. Next meeting night will be Sept. 22.

Those who have not paid dues should do so at once in order for the Auxiliary to reach 100 percent. Send check or money order to: Elizabeth Klaus, 855 S. 14th St., Slaton, Texas 79364.

A salty taste of the skin, persistent, bulky diarrhea and nasal polyps — these are signs of cystic fibrosis, a life-threatening lung disease.

Additional signs, which can also signal other children's lung-damaging diseases, such as asthma and chronic bronchitis, are: recurrent wheezing, persistent coughing with excessive mucus, pneumonia more than once, good appetite but poor weight gain, and clubbing (enlargement of the fingertips).

THANK YOU
My thanks and appreciation to you for voting me your commissioner for Ward III.

Rattlesnake Vigilance

The rattlesnake symbol appears again and again in early American flags. A flag of this type was the standard of the South Carolina Navy; one of its variants was the emblem of the Culpeper Minute Men of Virginia.

According to the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve, one writer of the time quaintly stated that as the rattlesnake's eye exceeded in brightness that of any other animal, and she had no eyelids, she might therefore be esteemed a symbol of vigilance; that inasmuch as she never began an attack, nor, when once engaged, ever surrendered, she was therefore an emblem of magnanimity and true courage.

It was probably the deadly bite of the rattler, however, which was foremost in the minds of its designers.

gave Littlefield two more points to increase the lead to 9-0 as the quarter came to an end.

Cooper Scores

The Pirates appeared to be pulling it all together during the second quarter. Choban began to pass more in an attempt to keep the Wildcat defense off guard. Blending pass patterns and running plays, the Pirates were able to move the ball downfield. Early in the quarter, Cooper attempted a field goal that went wide for no score. Minutes later, the Pirates were again in scoring range, but decided to go for the touchdown. With a little over five minutes left in the quarter, Choban threw a pass over the middle to Tommy Berry, who ran 22 yards for the score. The kick by Choban was good, narrowing the Wildcat lead to two points, 9-7.

In the closing minutes of the second quarter, the Wildcats began a determined drive down field. With two and a half minutes remaining, Wildcat quarterback Ronald Parmer kept the ball, went off-tackle for the score from 3 yards out. Instead of kicking the extra point, the Wildcats went for the two point conversion. Halfback Bill Turner took the ball around the end and in to put the Wildcats ahead 17-7 at the half.

The second half started out bad for the Pirates. The Pirates kicked off to the Wildcats and were successful in holding the Wildcats to little gains at first. Then with 57 seconds gone in the second half, Turner dashed 45 yards on a right end sweep for the score. The pass attempt for the conversion was incomplete, putting the Wildcats out in front 23-7.

Pirates Frustrated

It was downhill for the Pirates from that point on. The Pirates had little difficulty moving the ball down field, but failed to score several times. On the other hand, Littlefield managed to score two more times in the fourth quarter.

The first score in the fourth quarter came with 7:01 remaining. Turner took the ball around the left end and dashed 70 yards for the score. The kick for the extra point was good, adding another seven points to the score.

Less than a minute later, Littlefield Halfback Lonnie Twitty took the ball around the left end from four yards out to score. The kick was good to put the Wildcats ahead 37-7, where the score remained.

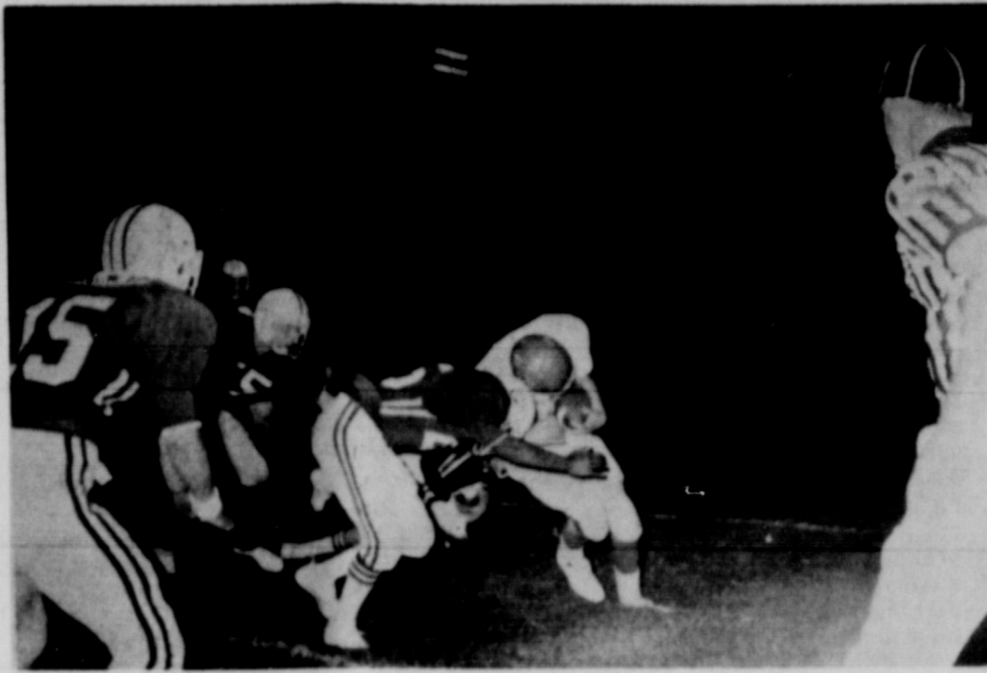

This Friday, the Pirates will meet the Floydada Whirlwinds at the Pirate Stadium in Woodrow. From the way Kelly Choban handled the Pirate passing game last Friday, passing could play an important factor in this week's game.

Commissioners Review Budget, Canvass Votes

Newly elected Ward III commissioner B.A. Hanna was absent from Tuesday's City Commission meeting, but the votes from his election were canvassed and approved by the commissioners.

The Commission also canvassed and approved the votes from the recent recall election for Commissioner Hesikize Thomas, which was defeated.

Commissioner Otis Neill remarked that the recall election cost approximately $125, and he asked if there were any way to make those who instigated the recall pay for it. City Attorney Harvey Morton advised Neill that recall is a legal right of the people and they cannot be made to pay for it.

During the brief meeting, commissioners reviewed the budget. At the next meeting Sept. 23, the budget will be presented in its final form and will be ready to be adopted.

Anyone interested in seeing the city's budget may do so at City Hall. Slaton's income and expenditures are a matter of public record and may be viewed at any time.

No action was taken, but the Commission did discuss a matter involving insurance agents in Slaton and the division of profits from city insurance. It was decided to leave the matter in the hands of the agents.

City Secretary Alex Webb said the paving on 20th St. should be finished by next Friday if it didn't rain. He reported that the work is moving along nicely and that the contractors would finish before their 30 days are up.

Farmers Will Be Honored

Farmers in the Slaton trade area will be honored by the merchants next Tuesday night as the annual Farmers-Merchants Barbecue will be consumed at Little League ballpark.

The area's Outstanding Farmer of the Year will be announced and the Chamber of Commerce will make its cash awards to the producers of the area's first and second cotton bales ginned this season (and the third one, too, if ginned before next Tuesday).

J.C. McClesky will be master of ceremonies and the Burning Flames, who performed last year, again will provide entertainment. The barbecue will be catered by Jackson Cafeteria of Post.

Door prizes will be presented, and the first bale, produced by Stonewall Jefferson of Southland, will be on display.

Fred Myers is general chairman of the event sponsored by the Chamber.

Former Slaton Pastor Receives Rural Award

COLLEGE STATION...
The Rev. Delmas Luedke of the Hope Lutheran Church in San Antonio has been named Texas Rural Minister of the Year. The Rev. Luedke was a former pastor of the Grace Lutheran Church in Slaton for six years.

Announcement of the honor was made Tuesday by Dr. David Ruesink, rural sociologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The 32 year old Luedke will be honored during the 30th annual Town and Country Church Conference set for Oct. 9 and 10 at Texas A&M University.

He will receive an engraved silver tray from Progressive Farmer magazine, which sponsors the award each year.

Ruesink, conference general chairman, said the award honors those ministers who "are making outstanding contributions to rural life."

He said the selection is based on participation of the minister in his church and community activities and his efforts toward agricultural improvement.

Ruesink said the Rev. Luedke was chosen by an all denominational committee representing the Extension Service, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the A&M departments of agricultural economics, rural sociology and sociology.

This year's top rural minister was born in Deaunville in 1943. He is a 1961 graduate of Caldwell High School and a 1965 graduate of Texas A&M, with a degree in economics. After A&M, Luedke entered the Evangelical Lutheran Theological Seminary in Columbus, Ohio.

He was ordained by the Rev. Nick Bohmann in September of 1969 in his hometown church of St. John Lutheran Church. The next month, he came to Slaton to Grace Lutheran Church.

In addition to his pastoral duties at Grace Lutheran, Luedke was a key worker in establishing an IMAGE (Involvement of Mexican-Americans in Gainful Endeavors) chapter in Slaton. This is a self-help program to improve the quality of living for its participants through job training and education.

Another of his projects was to help organize and develop a Slaton chapter of Jaycees.

The Rev. Luedke also led his congregation in participating in the 1974 World Hunger Appeal, raising approximately $5,000 for the fund. He succeeded in getting many people in the community to reduce their usual food intake to get a feeling of the hunger situation. He himself lived for a week on a diet of one bowl of rice a day.

While studying for the ministry, Luedke married Roberta L. Catran of Upper San Dusky, Ohio. They now have two children, Jennifer, 14, and Christopher, 18 months.

Westview Plans Missions Week

Westview Baptist Church will set aside Sept. 14-21 as State Missions week. This will be a week of prayer for State Missions which include Baptist schools, children's homes, and other mission causes.

Each year this effort is made in cooperation with other Southern Baptist Churches. Love offerings given go directly to state mission causes. The week will end Sept. 21 with State Missions day in Sunday School.

There will also be other programs of special emphasis to State Missions.

Pastor Is Reelected

Members of the Slaton Assembly of God Church voted unanimously to retain the Rev. Floyd Schaeffer as pastor of the church.

OUTSTANDING SERVICE — Ben Davis, left, receives a pin from Postmaster Rush Wheeler for his outstanding service with the Postal Department. In the 27 years Davis has been employed with the Post Office, he has accumulated more than 2,000 hours of unused sick leave. Among 92 Post Offices, only 40 such pins were awarded. (SLATONITE PHOTO)

Are You Wise or Foolish?

"He slept beneath the moon,
He basked beneath the sun;
He lived a life of 'going to do'
And died with nothing done."

In the conclusion to His great Sermon on the Mount, Jesus spoke of the contrast in the lives of men, one wise and one foolish. Hear the words of Christ: "Every one therefore that heareth the words of mine and doeth them shall be likened unto a man, who built his house upon the rock; and the floods came, and the winds blew, and the house fell not: for it was founded upon the rock. And every one that heareth the words of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand; and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and smote upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall thereof" (Matthew 7:24-27).

The difference in this story is not in believing, but in doing the commandments of the Son of God. The difference between doing what Christ commands is the difference between the wise man and the fool. Hearing and obeying are necessary, of course, but if a man obeys the commands of the Son of God, he is a simpleton—in the estimation of heaven. God is a life of continual, holy service—a life of obedience produced by faith in Christ.

A sincere welcome is yours at every service of the church of Christ:

Conner Wins First; Ball Leads 'Fearless'

Bob Conner of Slaton missed just one game in the first football contest of the year last week, taking top prize money of $10 and just barely missing the $25 jackpot for the perfect entry.

Taking second place by missing only two games was Bill McClesky of 1435 W. Crosby. The Tiger running back qualifies for the $5 second prize. Third prize of $2 went to Billy Jack Haire, 545 W. Lynn, who also missed just two games, but whose 42 points on the tie-breaker were not so close to the actual 27 as McClesky's 21.

Steve Buxkemper of Slaton also missed just two games, but he failed to have his entry form stamped by one of the 22 sponsors of the annual contest.

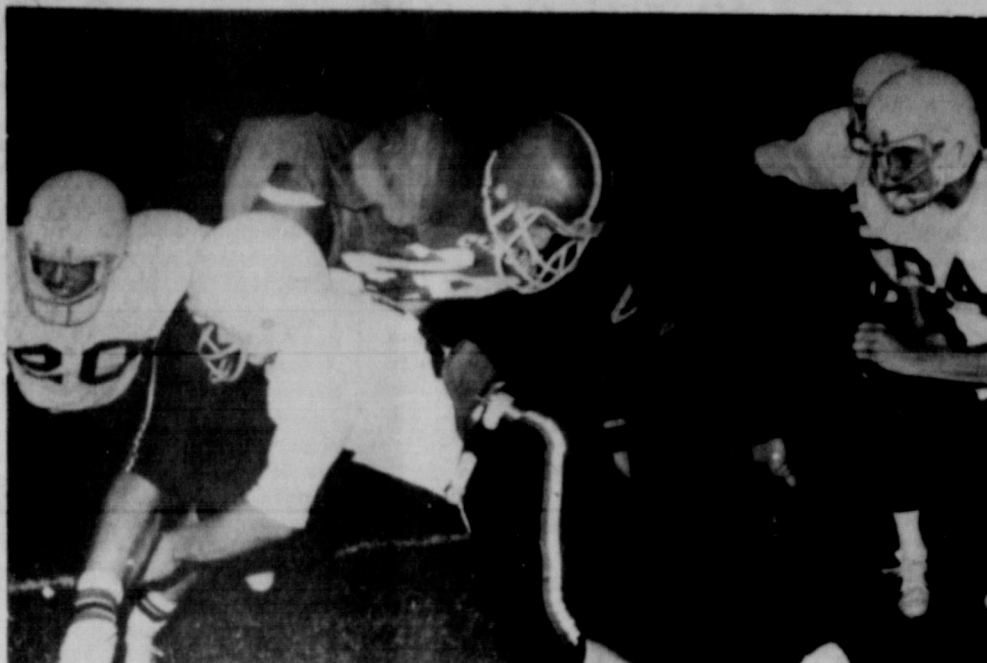

Winners of the prize money each week must claim their prizes before 5 p.m. of the Monday after the issue announcing the

Another contest is offered this week.

In the Fearless Forecasters competition, it did not take long to separate the good from the bad, although the best was last and the worst was first. Somehow, Bill Ball missed just one game to lead the pack, and somehow Dalton Wood missed 5 of the 11 games played to take last place. Post and Coahoma, which was listed on the contest, did not play, but will more than likely do so this week.

Pete Williams holds second place at 9-2, Joe Sparkman is in third at 8-3 and J. W. Holt grabbed fourth with a 7-4 mark.

UNEVEN ODDS—Slaton running back Bill McClesky, who gained 155 yards last Friday, finds a whole bunch of Colorado City Wolves in this running effort. McClesky averaged 6 yards per carry and scored a touchdown on a 30-yard run. (SLATONITE PHOTO) efficiency of the executive branch.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the SEPARATION OF POWERS, LEGISLATIVE, AND EXECUTIVE PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective January 1, 1976, except Article III, Section 5, which becomes effective January 1, 1981.

PROPOSITION NO. 2
ON THE BALLOT

Revising the judiciary provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article V. The Judiciary is amended to:

Establish a unified judicial system consisting of the supreme court, court of appeals, district courts, and circuit courts. Existing county courts and county judges are continued until otherwise provided by law. All judges (except municipal judges), district attorneys and district clerks must be elected by the people. The supreme court and the court of criminal appeals are merged into a single court of last resort, and this supreme court is authorized to provide for efficient administration of the judicial system and to balance case loads. Individual rights for a trial by jury and appeal by the accused are continued. The state is granted the right to appeal in criminal cases in limited circumstances, and the legislature is permitted to establish methods of appeal to the courts from decisions of state agencies.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the JUDICIARY PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 3
ON THE BALLOT

Revising the voting and election provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VI, Voter Qualifications and Elections, is amended to:

Provide for registration and qualifications for voting including voter residency requirements to be established by law. A citizen of the United States who is at least 18 years of age and who meets the registration and residence requirements provided by law is a qualified voter unless the person has been convicted of a felony and for that felony is incarcerated, on parole, or on probation, or unless the person is mentally incompetent as determined by a court. Voting by the people in all elections must be by secret ballot, and the legislature shall provide by law for residence, registration, and absentee voting

PROPOSITION NO. 4
ON THE BALLOT

Revising the education provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VII, Education, is amended to:

Provide that the Permanent and Available School Funds and the county public school funds are continued for the support of the free public schools. The State Board of Education is retained and the Permanent and Available University Funds are continued for the benefit of The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. A new Higher Education Fund for Texas is established for the benefit of colleges and universities outside The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. The state ad valorem tax of ten cents on $100 valuation is continued as the source of revenue for the Fund. The ten cent higher education tax may be changed by law within the ten cent maximum. The legislature may allocate by law a portion of the Higher Education Fund to certain state vocational and technical institutes. The article provides that the public education system must furnish each individual an equal educational opportunity, but a school district may provide local enrichment of educational programs exceeding the level provided by the state consistent with general law. Authority to issue Permanent University Bonds is continued but the bonds may not exceed 30% of the Permanent University Fund.

PROPOSITION NO. 5
ON THE BALLOT

Revising the finance provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VIII, Finance, is amended to:

Provide that state taxes may be levied and collected only by general law and to prohibit any state ad valorem tax on real property or tangible personal property except the ten cent tax provided for in Article VII and a tax of two cents on the $100 assessed valuation to provide funds for the State Building Fund. Provides that all real property and tangible personal property must be taxed equally and uniformly in proportion to market value. Existing exemptions from ad valorem taxation are continued. The present deduction of motor fuel taxes for highway purposes and the Available School Fund is retained. The "pay-as-you-go" principle for the operation of state government is retained. The legislature shall establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of open-space land devoted to farm or ranch purposes and may establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of forest land devoted to timber production. The $3000 exemption from state ad valorem taxation for residential homesteads is continued and the legislature by law may increase this amount. A separate $3000 exemption from ad valorem taxation by political subdivisions is provided for the residential homestead of persons at least 65 years of age and the political subdivision may increase this amount. The legislature by law may exempt from ad valorem taxation certain property owned by veterans' organizations, non-profit water corporations, and persons in need because of age or disability, and economic circumstance. The legislature may also exempt property to preserve historical, cultural or natural history resources. Taxpayers are provided a new method of correcting inequitable tax assessments by paying ad valorem taxes under protest and suing for a refund in a district court. State debt may be authorized by law only if approved by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified voters of the state voting on the question. Public funds and public credit may be used only for public purposes and no public funds or public credit may be used to influence the election of a public officer. The article prohibits a retail sales tax on agricultural machinery or parts, fertilizer, feeds or seeds, prescription drugs or medicine, or food, except food sold by restaurants for immediate consumption. An assessment voted by marine food or agricultural producers on their product sales is not a tax if provision is made for the individual producer to receive a refund of the assessment when the producer does not desire to be assessed.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the VOTING AND ELECTION PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 6
ON THE BALLOT

Revising the local government provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article IX, Local Government, is amended to:

Provide that the counties of the state are those that exist on the date of adoption of the local government article and that county boundaries may be changed if approved by a majority of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. Counties may be merged or county seats relocated if approved by two-thirds of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. The present elected constitutional county offices are retained and four year terms of office are provided. The voters of a county may create additional offices, eliminate offices, or combine the duties and functions of offices. The voters may also grant ordinance making power to the governing body of the county. Cities and towns having more than 1,500 inhabitants may become home-rule cities. Tax limitations are established for operating purposes for cities and counties, and the legislature is required to fix debt limits for cities, towns, counties, and school and community junior college districts.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the LOCAL GOVERNMENT PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective on September 1, 1976.

Article XVII, Mode of Amending the Constitution of the State, is amended to:

Establish a procedure for constitutional amendments requiring a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and majority approval by the voters. The calling of a limited or unlimited constitutional convention with voter approval is provided. The question of whether to call a constitutional convention must be submitted to the people every 30 years.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the FINANCE PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective on September 1, 1976, except Article VIII, Section 2, Subsections (b) and (c), which becomes effective January 1, 1978, and Article VIII, Section 6, Subsection (c), which becomes effective January 1, 1979.

tribute more than 10%. A policy that the quality of the environment of the State of Texas is to be protected is established, and the legislature is required to implement and enforce this policy. No state funds may be used to remove surface water from the river basin of origin if the surface water is necessary to supply the reasonably foreseeable water requirements of the basin for the ensuing 50 years, unless the removal of water is sufficiently replaced to the point of removal from outside the state or is on a temporary, interim basis. The seaward beaches of the Gulf of Mexico and coastal submerged lands belonging to the state are held by the state in perpetual trust for the people, and subject to reasonable limitations prescribed by law, the public has the free and unrestricted right of use and benefit of the beaches. The provision is continued that, except as otherwise provided by law, a rate of interest in excess of ten percent a year is usurious, and that if a contract does not specify a rate of interest, the rate under the contract may not exceed six percent a year. Discrimination against handicapped persons is prohibited, and a goal of the state is established to provide every resident access to adequate, comprehensive health care.

TEXAS TALK
By FRED MYERS

Although promoting the producer is customary fare for this column, seeing farmers get "good press" from one of the country's financial magazines is refreshing. In the July issue of FORTUNE, a major article compliments today's farmer as being a talented businessman. In part the article says, "... a farmer must be a tolerably good chemist, mechanic, market analyst and cost accountant ... must be able to judge when to sell his crops, when to hold back, and when to hedge with futures contracts, requiring not only a deep understanding of the commodities markets, but also a grasp of U. S. economic policies at home and abroad." When talking about management ability ... "When it comes to managerial skill, a first-rate farmer can hold his own with businessmen in industry." In short the article states what a lot of us have realized for a long time ... a successful farmer or rancher means being a true professional!

ELIZABETH LEARNS TO WALK

Up until a year ago Elizabeth Cabanag, a nine-year-old Filipino girl, couldn't walk. In fact, she wasn't able to stand alone. Elizabeth had been stricken with polio as a baby. With Elizabeth, at the home, is her 14-year-old sister. She is being trained so that she can be gainfully employed. She will then be able to help support her mother and five other brothers and sisters. There are presently thirty-five children living at the Child Jesus Home. They are there because they are orphans, or because one parent has died and the other is unable to take care of them. About half of the children in the Home attend school. They not only learn the basic 3 R's, but they are taught the teachings of Christ, which gives meaning to their lives. In addition to running the school, the Sisters at the Home also try to provide the children with good health care, a proper diet, and the most important ingredient of all—love. They try to find foster homes for the children so they can continue to share the joy of family life. Ultimately, it is hoped that a parent or relative will be able to take care of them. The Holy Childhood Association helps to maintain the Child Jesus Home. Through the sacrifices of American grade school students, this children-helping-children Association is providing assistance to 55 mission countries throughout the world. Share Your Love is a motto with a message for everyone. Holy Childhood Association, 800 Allegheny Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa. 15233.

When she arrived at the Child Jesus Home in Davao City in the Philippines, the only way she could move around was by crawling. Today, having been treated at the Home for a year, Elizabeth is not only able to stand on her own, but can walk with the aid of a brace. Learning to walk has meant a lot to Elizabeth. She now attends school and although she is a quiet girl, she is bright and learns very quickly. With the help of the Catholic Sisters at the Child Jesus Home, which is supported by the Holy Childhood Association, Elizabeth is beginning to build ing at Slaton Junior High School. Teachers have started to give assignments, homework and licks. Football season has also started, and the first pep rally of the year was Tuesday afternoon in preparation for the game against O'Donnell that evening.

H.R. Wright would like everyone to know that the Slaton Junior High Choir is selling 2 1/2 ounce boxes of M&Ms candy for 50 cents a box. The money that students make from selling the candy will be used to buy uniforms for the choir. If you are interested in buying a box, please contact one of the choir members.

There's something new in the 8th grade reading room — a reading center. The first week of school, Mrs. Gristy, the 8th grade reading teacher, asked the students to bring material such as books, old throw pillows, bricks and boards for the center. The students cooperated to make the reading center a smashing success. Now the old boards and bricks have turned into a book shelf. The old throw pillows are used to make the center more comfortable, and the books and magazines have turned into spare time reading material.

The reading center was put up in a corner of the reading room.

Mrs. Alan Miles, the 7th grade math teacher, is letting students work with calculators for extra credit. Some students and teachers were asked the question "What were your first thoughts about coming back to school?" Here are their replies.

Mr. Davis — I was ready for school to start.

Susan Garcia — Terrific, I'm getting out of the house.

Delia Montoya — I was nervous but proud to be an 8th grader.

Bonnie Thomas — Yuck. Mrs. Turney — Oh, no, not yet!

Raymond Aguirre — Who are my teachers going to be?

Marcia Roye — Relieved!

Rebecca Rodriguez — It was real nice to find out I was going back.

Marie Perez — I was sort of happy, but had butterflies in my stomach.

Norma Garcia — I thought it was going to be fun to start switching classes.

Sammy Benavides — I wonder if I am going to pass this year.

SYSTEM 12 weeks to make up the lost quarter compared to the 18 week semesters.

NEW RECORD

There are 1129 students, a new record, enrolled in Cooper for the 1975-76 school year. Approximately 30 percent of these students are in high school.

Elementary shows the largest enrollment with approximately 500 students. Grades six through eight reported an enrollment of 300. New high school transfer students numbers at 27 this year. The majority of these transfers are freshmen and sophomores, three are seniors.

According to school authorities, student enrollment has doubled over the past ten years. The student increase has brought about an expansion in the number of faculty members. This year's faculty has a total of 25 teachers, aids and assistants, excluding counselor and principal. The ratio of students to faculty is approximately 17:1.

Overtuff Places In AJRA Standings

Jody Overtuff, seventh grade son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherrell Overtuff, won three top ten places in the recent final standings of the American Junior Rodeo Association.

Jody placed fifth in Optional Roping, sixth in Optional Race and eighth in All-Around. Optional Roping includes ribbon roping and break away. Optional Race competition is barrel racing, pole bending and flag racing.

Rodeoing since the age of six, Jody also competes in Little Britches Rodeos, Slaton Roughriders competition and 4-H youth rodeos. This year he won first in ribbon roping in the 19 and under age group at the 4-H Youth Rodeo in Lubbock.

Jody trained his roping horse himself. He was given the colt shortly after it was weaned from its mother. The horse is now four years old, and Jody rode him this summer.

Jody competes in the junior division for 12 and under in the AJRA. He spent most of the summer traveling the rodeo circuit, earning the points that won him his final standings.

RODEO WINNER — Jody Overtuff won three places in the top ten in final AJRA standings. He was ranked fifth in Optional Roping, sixth in Optional Racing and eighth in All Around. He competes in the junior division for those 12 and under. (SLATONITE PHOTO)

BICENTENNIAL BITS

By NEWMA CARNES

The exceptional upsurge of people's interest and participation around the United States and foreign countries is indicated by the growth of the Bicentennial communities program that now includes more than 5,000 cities, towns, and villages and 40 foreign countries. (Slaton is one of the 5,000 official Bicentennial Communities.)

Young Americans between the ages of 14 and 18 are invited to compete for college scholarships totaling $25,000 as part of the National Football League's elaborate Bicentennial celebration. The scholarships will be awarded to the 12 leading contestants writing 500-750 word essays on the topic "The NFL's Role in American History." Wouldn't it be great to have a Slaton youngster win the first prize of a $10,000 college scholarship and an expense-paid trip, including parents, to the Super Bowl XI!

The Viking spacecraft speeding toward Mars bears the national Bicen emblem on the surface of the vehicle. The symbol is also being taped for use in the Viking's recording and transmitting equipment and will be beamed back to earth from outer space in June of 1976.

A NASA representative explained that by transmitting the Bicen symbol back to ground stations and transforming the electronic digital impulses into visual image, scientists and engineers will be able to confirm not only the operation of the tape recorder but also the quality, uniformity and character of the recording system. "This task is simplified by using a known visual reference such as the Bicentennial symbol."

San Francisco is building a 17½ ton birthday cake for the Bicentennial. The cake planned in honor of the 200th birthday of both the city and the nation will weigh 35,000 pounds, be 30 feet tall and 200 feet wide! The 17½ ton cake will be decorated with sculptured icing depicting events out of San Francisco's past. The four-tiered cake will be topped by a phoenix, the official symbol of the city, and will be crowned around the top tier with 200 lighted candles. Three to five thousand pounds of the cake will be given away, allowing 20,000-25,000 people to enjoy the free cake. Gifts of the cake will be distributed through local hospitals and social agencies, and the remainder will be sold in two-pound packages.

INSUR-MATION

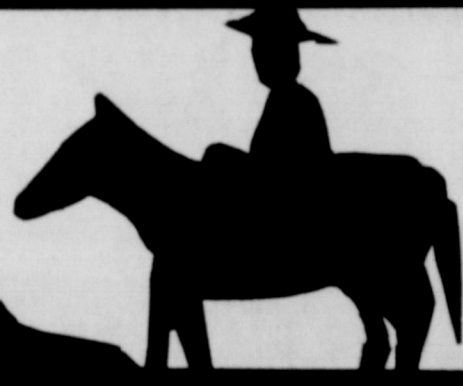

By Bob Kern
Pember Insurance
828-6251

How often is it really necessary to review my insurance coverage?

Periodically, depending upon how static your economic and family situation is. When an individual takes on any new responsibility, receives a reasonable increase in pay or suffers a financial loss... this indicates a review should be made. As a family develops, the cash requirements for certain items which need to be bought on installments and the major commodities considered to be necessities eventually ease off. Thus more money is available to be saved and this would call for a possible review of your insurance coverage. These are the times to come in with your plans, present financial circumstances, and discuss your personal situation.

Local Woman Aids African Country

An experienced medical laboratory technician from Slaton is using her skills to train lab technicians and to develop plans for the first school of medical technology in Zaire, Africa.

Frances Flores, 35, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M.M. Flores of Slaton, has been a Peace Corps volunteer since October, 1974.

One of about 230 Peace Corps volunteers in Zaire, she has helped organize a medical lab at the hospital in Ishikadji, a mission station where she serves in the Central African nation.

In addition to training four Zairis to be lab assistants, Frances also works in the mission hospital, where she helped introduce heart, blood and body chemistry testing methods. She frequently conducts blood tests on patients in the hospital, at dispensary and clinics in the town.

"This country needs good, trained people in medical technology to aid the doctors in making diagnoses and treating patients," she said.

Frances was a laboratory assistant at Mercy Hospital here from 1962 to 1966.

She earned the medical laboratory technician's certificate from St. Anthony's Hospital School in Amarillo. She also served as a lab technician at West Texas Hospital in Lubbock for seven years.

WARD II — Chosen as the Yard of the Month for September for Ward II was Francis Gill at 500 W. Lubbock. The sign will remain in the yard for the remainder of the month. (SLATONITE PHOTO)
