Gilbert To Be Speaker at Junior High Commencement Friday Night, 8:15

From The Publishers' Auxiliary comes this little story concerning Alan, age 8, and Norman Sopf, 12, the sons of the publisher of the Cambridge, Idaho newspaper. The boys issued their own newspaper, Junior Edition and they included a front page story that made me want to say, "Me too!"

I have heard other dealers in town express amazement as to how he does it. Speaking of Walton Drug and how Whitey Guest can offer some of the special prices, of course. Here is a for instance: A Universal Vacuum Cleaner or $39.95 and your old cleaner. Said one dealer: "More power to him. I can't even buy it for that." Another special: 25 feet of garden hose for 69c cents. And tea goblets — 2 for a quarter. Go in and see for yourself. Besides it is a very pleasant place to trade.

The drawing held for Seniors only at Wheeler's was won by Carolyn Brunson and Bobby Sokoll. We have a good picture of the two happy winners, but at this time I can't tell whether or not they will be in this issue. I always dread the time when we have too little space to get all our news and pictures in the paper. Someone then has to make a decision as to what will run and what will wait.

Speaking of Wheeler's reminds me of the day last week when I walked in while a dress salesman was showing his newest models. Lo and behold! Have you seen the latest creations? The balloon and Trapeze styles? I think they dreamed up those styles in order to make the sacks look good. By the way, a coed at the University of Texas penned this understatement and it was passed on to me by an ally in the cause: (Cause we don't like sacks) The coed terms the chemise as "designed for concealing instead of revealing" and warns men thusly: "So please hesitate when you pick up your date. "And the girl friend shows up in sacking. "It's a gretty good guess that her body's a mess "Or that something important is lacking."

An article in The Lion magazine tells all that I have tried to say about advertising. If you are in business in Slaton, won't you please read that article that is written by Roderick McKenzie and is entitled Make Your Advertising Pay and it gives five simple, time-tested Guideposts.

This article says in Guidepost 3: Repeat, Repeat, Repeat. "For the saddest words of tongue or pen are: "We advertise just now and then." The "now and then" kind of advertising is like sending a salesman to prospect . . . letting him say "Good morning" . . . and yanking him out the door. The company that builds good ads . . . and uses them consistently, time after time after time, makes the memory-curve come up with each ad, and a little more each time, until prospects start coming in with good green money in their hands . . . and the advertising is working.

This article considers the small business and their problems. So read it and let us help you. Let us sell for you. Anyone want to borrow my Lion Magazine?

Slaton Junior High School will have commencement exercises Friday evening, May 23, in Junior High auditorium. HE'D RATHER BE RIGHT THAN PRESIDENT

Often quoted is the adage, "I'd rather be right than President." Many repeat it, even advocating its philosophy—but how many believe it?

Many people would like to be right—but there are many more who would rather be President.

Take editorial writers for instance. Most all have strong opinions as to what is right. But when it comes to expressing themselves, there's a little question mark that flashes before their eyes. How will the advertisers react to what is about to be written? What will the readers think? What effect will it have on the popularity of the writer? Will it conflict with the thinking of the majority in the community?

Some of the above questions are very real. Some may have far-reaching implications. In cases where a paper is barely able to hang on even with all its present revenue, it perhaps feels that it cannot afford to lose a reader or an advertiser—even at the cost of being right. Since it would rather make a living and keep going than lose business and perhaps go broke, it cannot with sincerity repeat the phrase, "I'd rather be right than President." And perhaps we can't blame it.

To be blamed is the pressure group that would stifle freedom of speech by holding an economic hammer over the head of a smalltown editor—or perhaps a college professor.

Texas suffers today because too many editors refuse to speak out against corruption for fear of economic reprisals from large advertisers. Higher education in Texas suffers today because college professors have been gagged by the Texas Manufacturers' Association and its fellow travellers.

But there exceptions shines like a comet against a moonless sky at midnight. Such a comet is John Neither Heiskell, 85-year-old editor of the Pulitzer Prize winning Arkansas Gazette. This aged editorial saint demonstrated last fall that he would rather be right than President when he dared to buck the majority which he believed to be wrong.

"We have suffered severely but if confronted with the same situation, we would not alter our stand," said Heiskell after he suffered loss of advertising revenue and subscribers.

Heiskell is said to have the look of a benign country parson, but to his hard-boiled managing editor, "He has more guts than any man I know."

Heiskell watched carefully and sanctioned the editorial stand his 139-year-old newspaper took last fall during the explosive integration crisis in Little Rock where he publishes his paper. This stand won the Pulitzer Gold Medal but turned the revered "Old Lady on Third Street" into a newspaper despised by ardent segregationists and castigated by hundreds with different views.

Heiskell, owner and editor, while lamenting the loss of circulation and the wrath of some former friends, said it was impossible to avoid it and still be faithful to his editorial beliefs.

In a few short weeks after the newspaper spoke out against Gov. Orval Faubus' use of National Guard troops to defy a federal court order last fall, the Gazette—an institution to more than 100,000 Arkansas families—lost an estimated 10 per cent of its circulation.

What was the newspaper's stand which proved so unpopular?

"We have never advocated integration," Heiskell said. "We opposed Gov. Faubus' use of troops to defy a federal court order and we opposed mob violence. We have stood for better opportunities for Negroes but we have never advocated integration."

There have been many men and women through the ages who have been martyrs to the cause of right. Women have been burned at the stake because the majority of people believed them to be witches and possessed of evil spirits.

But the real losers in these cases are not the wronged. The real losers are the masses of people who become the victims of intolerance and bigotry because of those who would stifle such blessings as freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom to teach the truth which is a stumbling block to selfish interests.

Our admiration goes to Editor Heiskell and other men of his calibre who would "rather be right than President."

STRENGTH FOR THE WEEK

You have observed, no doubt, that the topic assigned for these articles written by the members of the Slaton Ministerial Alliance each week is "Strength for the Week." The writer of this week's article does not know who assigned the topic, nor how long it has been in use, but in considering the heading he began to wonder about the kind of "strength" that is most needed in order to have a successful week.

Every one would immediately recognize the fact that we need physical strength in order to succeed in business, or to perform the necessary tasks around the home. A student needs to be well and strong if he is to make acceptable grades in school. No athlete would expect to win in the keen competition in sports unless he was physically strong. The Boy Scout knows the value of good health, so pledges himself to "Keep myself physically strong." In fact this applies to all walks of life.

Now every one knows that to have this strength there are certain things that must be done: there must be the proper kind of food; there must be a certain amount of exercise; there must be needed rest; and the abstinence from the use of anything that does not contribute to health and strength. If for any reason one's strength is impaired, then corrective measures must be taken to restore normalcy.

It is quite evident, however, that the one who assigned the topic for these articles had in mind another kind of strength, in fact a kind of strength that is far more important. The writer has known many people whose physical strength had been badly impaired. They were weak or handicapped, physically, yet with a strength of character that made them successful, an inspiration to all who came in contact with them.

This kind of strength, like physical strength, comes only through definite planning, and constant effort, and the rejection of all those things which in any way destroy or hinder the development of one's strength of character. Spiritual life must be fed, and cared for, just as physical life, if it is to have "Strength for the Week"; strength to grow strong characters; strength to resist temptations; strength to serve one's community, his church, or his Lord.

Jesus Christ our Lord said, "I am the bread of life; I am the water of life." Accepting him as our Lord, and his teaching as our pattern for life, will give us "Strength for the Week." When we need rest from the daily burdens, Jesus invites us: "Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." There is nothing more restful; nothing more comforting; than to sit down, in some quiet place and read, and meditate on God's word, and to commune with him in sincere prayer.

When you need "Strength for the Week" try it in the privacy of your homes, try by attending the Church of your choice on the Lord's Day.

Partners In Prosperity

Self interest and collective interest are one. If our community goes backward, we all lose. Our interest are here.

Lets keep our money where our interests lie. When we patronize outside merchants the money we spend can never be used toward the growth of our community. When spending money here, we invest it, and the investment will pay dividends in making our home area A BETTER PLACE TO LIVE IN.

BRUSH WITH DEATH—Joe Vasquez is shown as rescue workers succeed in digging him from beneath several feet of dirt, under which he was buried Wednesday, May 15. Vasquez was working in a sewer ditch near the intersection of 1st and Geneva streets, when the cave-in occurred. Workers had uncovered his head when the walls of the ditch gave way, burying him for a second time. Members of the Slaton Volunteer Fire Department were summoned and finally were able to remove the man from the dirt. He was apparently uninjured.

Card of Thanks

We search for words, but find that words fail when we try to express our gratitude to the many wonderful people that have helped so much since the fire in our home last Friday. It would be impossible to give a list since there have been so many—some I am sure that we do not know about. Everything has been received with a grateful heart. We pray the blessings of God on each one of you.
My wife and I believe that these things are for a purpose and will somehow bring glory to our Lord. One thing is sure. Slaton is a town with a heart and a place we are happy to live.
Again, our heart felt thanks. Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Summar Rickey and Clifford Douglas Hampton of Spur visited with Mr. and Mrs. Max Jackson over the week end.

What They Write

Dear Slatonites:
We the seniors of Slaton High School, wish to take this opportunity to thank the citizens of Slaton for their wonderful support and backing in our many fund raising projects. The profits from these projects went toward financing our graduation exercises and also our trip, which we departed on May 19. This was a wonderful experience we will never forget and are deeply grateful to you for making it possible and our senior year a success.
We also wish to thank the many parents that helped prepare and serve our chili and turkey dinners. We know this was very hard and tiring work and we sincerely appreciate your cooperation.
We will never forget Slaton, good 'ole home town, and all the wonderful big hearted people that live here.
Again we all join together in saying, Thanks . . .
Sincerely,

Mrs. E. N. Jones Is Club Guest Day Speaker

Almost 100 women attended the book review given by Mrs. E. N. Jones of Lubbock at the annual Guest Day meeting of the Civic and Culture Club at the clubhouse last Wednesday afternoon.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. M. L. German and Mrs. Martin Collins, Mrs. A. L. Robertson was program chairman for the day.

Mrs. Jones reviewed Anna Seton's latest book, "The Winthrop Woman." She gave the historical background of England and America for more than 100 years prior to the time of the story which has as its setting England and New England when the Winthrops came to America. John Winthrop later became governor of Massachusetts. The story has for its leading characters the Winthrop families who were strict Puritans.

Refreshments of pinwheel sandwiches, cookies and lime punch were served from a table laid with a white linen and a cloth centered with an arrangement of yellow and white irises and bells of Ireland. Mrs. S. H. Adams presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Fred Schmidt, president of the club opened the meeting and gave a word of welcome.

Mrs. R. E. McReynolds introduced the speaker.

Mrs. Jones was accompanied to Slaton by Mrs. A. T. Cavanaugh, president of Seventh District of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. J. W. Story both of Lubbock.

TELEPHONE TALK

A REAL BARGAIN

Telephone service is a greater bargain today than ever before. You may not feel that it is, but have you ever really thought about what you get for the few cents a day you pay? One of the best ways I know to determine what a bargain our service is, to pretend you don't have a telephone for a few days.

No one would do this of course, but each time you make a call think about what you would have to do. Let's analyze it for just a moment. Does your telephone bring you closer to your friends? Does it help you plan your day by calling and making appointments? Does it save you steps to the grocer?

I'm sure all of us use the telephone more than we realize; I know I do. Telephone service is a pretty good bargain, after all, isn't it?

WHERE ARE YOU GOING ON VACATION?

It's high time to be thinking about or planning a vacation. And when a family plans the vacation together, the planning can be almost as much fun as the "going."

To help plan their vacations better, more and more families nowadays put some dependence on the telephone.

A telephone call to a favorite vacation spot confirms reservations. Another call to an overnight stopping point guarantees accommodations for the family, permitting an extra hour or so of driving.

In the midst of the vacation, these same folks often answer the question of "wonder how everything is at home?" with a telephone call — the personal way to keep in touch.

So, this year, why don't you count on the telephone when planning and enjoying your vacation?

Remember, too, that station-to-station calls cost one-third less than person-to-person calls. And when you call by number, your calls go through twice as fast.

I'm betting that I don't run into much of an argument when I say that people like color. And just look at the bright array of color telephones we have to offer you:

You can choose from Cherry Red, Pastel Yellow, Ivory, Rose Pink, White, Moss Green, Light Beige, Aqua Blue, and Light Gray... colors to fit any color scheme!

A color extension telephone is practical as well as good-looking, too. Here in Slaton, and extension costs just $1.00 a month plus a one-time installation charge of $2.50. If you order yours in color, there's an extra one-time only charge of $10.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

as dated as the dodo?

Chances are you need more complete "coverage" on your home and furnishings than your present insurance provides.

Reason? Replacement costs are way up on homes and their contents.

Cure? Let us look over your policies and bring them in line with current values.

We'll gladly do it any time at all — but from your standpoint, the best time is NOW.

Seniors Will Attributes To Under Classmen

By Mike Davis

I, Echo White, being of shallow mind, do hereby submit my last will and testament.

To anyone who thinks they can get it, I leave my position as D. E. Club secretary.

To Patsy Downs I leave my ability to get along with Charlie. He's a pretty good guy and I hope you two get along fine.

To Gloria Magouirk I will my ability to be engaged, break it off and still go with the same boy. It was fun while it lasted.

I, Delma Tucker, being of more body than mind, do hereby submit my last will and testament.

To my dear sister, Dora, I leave my ability to stay single through my high school years. At the rate she's going now, she'll need it.

And to any dumb nut that thinks he's smart enough to pass, I leave my bookkeeping books. May you use them more than I did.

I also leave my position as D. E. Club treasurer to anyone who wants it. I hope you get more money out of it than I did.

I, Beth Lowry, being of much more body than mind, do hereby declare this to be my last will and testament.

To any poor sap who takes bookkeeping, I leave my battered Todd and Curry practice set, 100 sharpened pencils, my no-doze pills, and my automatic priper.

To Vicki Kirksey, better known as Santa Fe, I bequeath the TNM&O Bus Co., Inc. Take the bus, Vicki, it's safer.

To my little brother Jim, I leave all the fun I've had in high school and my 6th period study hall. Make the most of it Jim.

To my pals — Richard Edwards, Mike Davis, James Vardy, and Russell Cummings— I will ml book, "The Handy-Dandy Date Getter." Don't use it boys, it doesn't work.

And last but not by the least, I bequeath to my beloved Tigerettes and coach, the district championship, if you will work harder than we did.

I, Nancy Kay Castleberry, being of warped mind, weak eyes (20-200) and plenty of mangled body make my last will and testament.

To Linda McCarver, I leave my exquisite salesmanship, because you'll need it next year kid.

To Russell Cummings I leave all the space under my chair in band for that ole clarinet case. May you use that space as consistently as you have this year.

To my good ole buddy Tommie McCall I leave Russell Cummings. During band each morning he smiles so sweet.

To the students I leave all my wonderful teachers. They're all for you kids.

To Mr. Deen Jackson I leave by beloved typewriter on the first row, second desk from the left. I hope you enjoy using it. Use it even more next year.

To Ann Haddock I leave my parking place in front of the building.

To Maxine Moore I leave my ability to get all the absences in 3 minutes. That's the world's record, incidentally.

And last, but not least, to Mr. Gilbert I leave my cute little desk—hope you have a better secretary next year.

I, Clark Wood being of little mind and strong body do hereby bequeath the following:

To the person or persons who haven't got enough sense and are somewhat teched. I leave my place in bookkeeping.

To Balmano, Banks, Bagby, and Limmer I leave my ability to become a time honored second semester senior. May you do as well as the past members.

And to all of the underclassmen. I leave my ability to grow the heaviest beard my senior year—you had better start now.

I, Jerry Jones, being of sound body and weak mind, hereby

To James Murphy, I leave my unending skill in the fields of trig, botany, calculus, chemistry, and geometry.

I will my ability to be King of 3rd period study hall all year to Arlie Bownds, Be firm, Arlie.

I, Billy Castleberry, being of little body and big feet, hereby make my last will and testament. To the senior of the next year who can run the fastest.

I will my front seat with so much bubble gum under it.

To the less fortunate person whoever he may be, I will my bookkeeping desk to him.

To John Dodson, I will my typewriter in Typing II, that he might make better use of it than I did.

To Randy Sanders, I will Locker No. 69—just the bottom half, because that mean old Maxie Slone has the top half.

I, Hugh Van Pierce, being of optimistic mind, and what have-you, make my last will and stuff.

make my 112th will and testament. To Steve Smith I leave my ability to buy a Chevrolet before going broke buying wire for a Ford.

I was so shaken up by this speedster that I temporarily lost control of my rocketship. The Crasher, and dove head first into a cotton patch just outside of Brownfield.

I guess that the flash of the batterator blowing out scared one of the field hands, because she ran across the field and hopped on a trackorink with another field hand. I thought I'd apologize so I walked over to the tractorink, only to find that Jerry Jones and his wife, Pam were the field workers.

Pam said that the five little cotton choppers were Eenie, Meanie, Miney, Mo, and Jerry Jr.

I hadn't reached my destination, so I borrowed a bicyclette from the Joneses and peddled off to Slaton.

About five miles from Slaton I was greeted with something new, a rest home for frustrated old maids. Sitting on the lawn were Peggy Ray, Linda Smith, and Beverly Kercheval. Peggy informed me that they had to hog tie Beverly before she would finally give in and come to the home. It seems that she hated to give up at so young an age. I had to hurry away from this home because Linda Smith had a gleem in her eye and I got the feeling that she didn't like being an old maid either.

I peddled on down the highway and saw something else new. The Storknik Nightlillite Club. I was feeling a little bit thirsty so I slowly rushed in. The manager, Carlton Tumlinson, told me to wait a few minutes and his wife, Della Scoggins, would fix me a glass of mutterbik. As I waited, the floor show began. Opal "Bubbles" Willis, Carolyn "Fan" Brunson, Delma "Skarf" Tucker, and Echo "Feathers" White were the main attraction of the evening.

It was soon time for me to leave so I jumped on my two wheeler and took off. The odor of the fresh air was different from any I had ever smelled. Then I saw a sign that explained everything, Clark Wood's Skunk Ranch. I wasted no time exploring this piece of land, but peddled madly on.

Outside the city limits was a circus under the management of Kay and Billy Castleberry. In their spare time they perform on the high wires. Among the circus crew is Sandra Long's husband who enjoyed his wife's cooking so much that he was qualified for fat man.

I was stopped just inside the city limits for speeding. The arresting office was Alex Franco who said he received his inspiration to be an officer of the law the night of the Junior-Senior banquet.

He took me to the city jail to be booked. Inside one of the cells was Beth Lowry. I asked Alex what she was doing there and he said she was serving a ten year term for killing her lovers and incasing them in cement.

After I left the jail I went to the nearest drug store and bought a newspaper so I could catch up on the latest news. On the movie page I discovered that Dorothy Heaton had gone to Hollywood and made a great success of herself. She was starring in "I Was A Teenage Gun Maul." Her stage name is Lucy Lee.

Hugh Van Pierce was starring with her. He has recently made a big hit in "Man On The Road."

I walked down the street and saw the office of Louise Moore. I dropped in for a chat and the first thing that I saw was the motto on the wall which read: "I Always Get My Man." She informed me that her husband, Tommy McClanahan has a coaching school. He coaches young criminals. We didn't talk long because she had made plans to go out for the evening. She and her husband were going to see Jerry Gentry's toe dance recital.

I decided it was time to make plans for a place to stay so I started out in my pursuit and at the end of Lonesome Street, I registered at Heartbreak Hotel. The manager was none other than Frederick Marriott.

The bellboy, Royce Heinrich showed me to my room while I carried my baggage. He said he just couldn't get used to carrying loads. On the way to my room I noticed a penthouse, and the exclusive beauty drew me inside.

Outside on the terrace I saw Ernest Estrada who was taking a coffee break away from drawing his comic strip "The Little Lawbreaker."

I went on to my room and finished reading my newspaper. Monty Dickson made front page news as she walked across the United States on a tight rope suspended 500 feet above the ground. The great part was that she only fell twice. Her next fete is to go over Niagara Falls in a motor propelled barrel.

I became bored with the paper and reached for the book which was on the nightstand. It was entitled "My Five Years In Alcatraz." The cover stated that the author, Venita Green, is presently the editor of "The Grit Newspaper." Her slogan is "Grit Your Teeth and Buy a Grit."

I read myself to sleep and was awakened at 1 a.m. by a riot on the street below. I ran down the elevators and rode the stairs to first floor. By this time the crowd of spectators had scattered and the only person left was the root of the riot, Rodney Fulcher. He was getting an early start on his job, being a street preacher. His songleader, Jimmy Sikes was keeping things alive by singing "Shall We Gather at the River."

I knew that it would be hopeless to try to go back to sleep, so I hopped on my bicyclette and rode around.

A few night owls or early birds were still out or already out. I recognized two lovers at lover's lane. They were Alfred Blisard and

Swaminik Reveals Seniors' Future

Dear Father Time, My name is Swaminik. I just flew down to Earth in my brand new 1968 rocket to see what had happened since my last visit ten years ago. I felt it my duty to report my findings to you.

Before I reached the earth, I was almost run into by a crazy satellite driver at the intersection of Outer Space and atmosphere. I looked into his satellite with my X-ray vision and saw a license on the dash which said, Jackie Shepard, space ranger.

I was so shaken up by this speedster that I temporarily lost control of my rocketship. The Crasher, and dove head first into a cotton patch just outside of Brownfield.

I guess that the flash of the batterator blowing out scared one of the field hands, because she ran across the field and hopped on a trackorink with another field hand. Martha Gravel. I asked them if they were ever going to get married, and the said that they already were but that they had a trailer house in lover's lane because it seemed like home.

They invited me in for a midnight snack but I wasn't hungry so I didn't stay. As I turned the next corner, I had a headon collision with an ambulance. The driver, Bobby Sokoll, took me to the new Mericless Hospital. On the way, he explained that he had become so accustomed to wrecks, broken blood vessels, and Sunday morning sickness, that he felt that his calling was working with the hospital.

At the hospital I was greeted by Da Onne Duncan, who was a nurse. Bobby told me that Da Onne had decided to be nurse after being a mother to nine children. She had become accustomed to the hospital and wanted to stay around.

After bandaging my antenna they released me. By this time it was morning and people were beginning to wake up and start to work.

I met Lavoy Reed as he was on his way to his job, rainmaking. He had a bucket of dry ice and a helicopter.

The playboy of the town, Maxie Slone, was just going home after a night at the Storknik Nightlillite Club. He had lost $10,000 in a checker game to John Foster, a professional gambler. Maxie's latest flame is the rich socialite, Sunny Mudgett. She earned her millions by inventing a "Counter Feiter."

Maxie's ol' buddy, Billy Tra-week is in Egypt. He read Maxie's book "A Hint To Lovers," and went straight to Egypt where he now has a harem.

Maxie informed me that Joe Bob Jones, Jordan Hodge, and James Brooks had taken the Three Stooage's place in the movies.

I waited until evening and went to the show especially to see them in their new role. Sitting in the seats in front of me were Eva Caldwell and her eight children. In her spare time, Eva works in her store, Eva's Diaper Rental Service.

Suddenly a familiar face was flashed on the screen. It was

May Jane Lovelady's. She had made headlines as she had been fired from the Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra where she played a flute. The reason for her dismissal was that she played Tiger Rag and stomped her foot while the rest of the orchestra was playing "Clair The Loon."

The next part of the news showed Frances Flores doing her famous Japanese dance. She is starring in a remake of Sayonara. She developed her marvelous figure by going to Doug Corley's Slim and Trim Gym which he is operating in New York City.

Well I hate to close this letter but I have to get back to my wifenik and babyink up on Mars.

Your faithful spy, Swaminik

P.S. Doc. Babb retired after the 1956 senior trip. He said it would take him the rest of his days to recuperate.

REPORTER REVIEWS

The Tigerettes had a successful season. They tied for third place in district with their 17 won, 10 lost record. The Tigerettes, under the coaching of Marvin Smith, took a trophy in every tournament entered.

The only first place they made was in the McAdoo tournament. In Dimmitt they took a second place and a consolation trophy in Crosbyton.

Linda Smith made the most points during the season—360 points which was an average of 15 points per game. She was followed close by Monty Dickson with 297 points, an average of 12 points per game. Pat Schilling was third with 296 points or an average of 10 points per game.

At the beginning of the season, the Tigerettes lost to Ralla, won from Lorenzo, won over Wilson, lost to Idalou, won from Frenship, and won the first place trophy in McAdoo.

The Tigerettes' last game was with Lorenzo and lost 51-45. They defeated Ralls by a score of 58-48. They won over Frenship again 33-32.

Then they entered the Crosbyton tournament where they were defeated by Jayton and won over Petersburg and Crosbyton.

In the Dimmitt tournament they won over Dimmitt. Abernathy forfeited to them and then they met Dimmitt again and were defeated.

In conference play the Tigerettes defeated Floydada and were later defeated by Abernathy and then won over Tahoka Bulldogs 27-11. Lockney and Post were their next victims, defeating them 52-30 and 42-34 respectively. Spur fell before the Tigerettes in a two minute overtime game, 40-38.

In their second game with Tahoka the Tigerettes lost 34-32. They met Floydada again and defeated them 37-34. Their next game was with the district champs, Abernathy, which they lost by a score of 63-43. They then lost to Post and Spur, closing the season.

Coach Smith's response when asked about the team soon after basketball season was that the team would be young next year, but they should be "improved by time for district play." He also said they would be lacking in height.

SENIOR WILL

To Bronell Daniels, I will my executive position as football manager—easy on the soap, it causes skin irritation. To the person seen fit by his classmates, I will my position as senior class president. Wear it with pride and do your utmost best. To Arlie Bownds I will my ability to sneak out of school before I am 21.

To Billy Balmanno, my 1st period English desk with radio carrier, hide-away ash tray, and Chicago Smooth Scoot Roller bearing wheels. To Ronald Bagby my 4th period study hall "Neat Sleep Portable Pillow."

To James Murphy my hand book called "How to Create New Words." To Glen Taylor my "Hoot Gibson Boot-size Number Pencil with Gene Autry Light-Strike Eraser."

To Ronnie White I leave my Snappy Slap Rubber Stamp of Mr. Gilbert's signature. May all these things make your last year brighter. I, Dorothy Heaton, being of scattered mind, and a lot of body, hereby present my last will and testament.

First of all, I will to my little sister Dana, the ability to go through 4 years of high school without playing hooky. Next, I would like to will my position in the band to Alvin Ford. I would like to will my ability to always place my desk in the middle of all the smart, intellectual people in bookkeeping class to anyone who is insane enough to want it.

To Cherie Arrants, I gladly will my absolutely nerve-racking sense of humor. Handle it with care gal, it leaves some people in a state of shock. To Suzanne Neill, I will my ability to have a wreck her senior year on the first day of the Christmas holidays. Cherie, if you're smart you won't be with her.

To Martha McCormick, I will my sensational acting ability. It knocks 'em dead, Martha. I will to Mrs. M. G. Davis my ability to direct and to Mrs. Brown my great knowledge of history and my seat in the choir. To Dixie Clark I will my coffee-break with Mrs. Brown. May you get more coffee, with less trouble, than I did. To all the rest of my intellectual sophomore and junior friends I will my ability to sit on the back seat of all your classes by someone bright like Mary Jane Lovelady. In closing I would like to will to all the Juniors, my ability to have a ball my senior year. I, Charles Frederic Marriot, the I, being of minute mind and extraordinary body, do establish this to be my last will and testament before leaving Slaton Senior High School. First, to Dany Winn, I leave the honorific title of "Bird Boy." May he carry it proudly. Next, to James Murphy, I will my driving ambition to attain the height of stage management. To Dixie Clark, and friend, I leave my copy of Cool Corny Jokes. May they can get more laughs from it than I did. To Steve Edwards, Esquire, I leave approximately 1,792-322 1/2 torr show tickets and my copy of "100 Ways to Customize an A Model."

Last, but by far the least, I leave my position as art editor on the Tiger's Lair to anyone brave enough to accept it. I, John Gayborn Foster, Jr., being of weak body and weaker mind, hereby leave my last will and testament. To Robbie Schooler I leave my amazing ability to take algebra II for 3 years and fail all 3 years.

To sonnie Jones I will 3 feet of my tremendous height as he needs it very much. I also bequeath my ability to honky tonk all night and attend school the next day to Billy Snider. To Jerry Allen, Giles Smith, Bill Barry, Randy Sanders, and Sammy Wilson I leave a package of Winston's so they shall not acquire the name of Bums around the glorious realms of SHHS.

To Arlie Bownds I leave my amazing ability at the games of chance and so forth. I, Jerry Wayne Gentry, Esquire, being extremely blest with brains and body, do hereby bequeath my delapidated billfold to Ronnie White. I further will my ability to get through school without a single whipping to James Murphy.

Also to anyone who has my studious abilities to get through school in 11 years and not make an F. I will the ability to get through school in 11 year to Joe Melcher. Please do not break this will for it took me long enough to make it up. I, Doug Corley, being of skinny body and muscle-bound mind, do hereby render the following: To Bill Barry I leave my ability to grow a beard. My dirty old football pants I leave to fellow quarterback, Randy Sanders.

To (banana boy) Gordon, and Jerry Hogue I will my ability to make All District in football and basketball my senior year. To Mr. Crowley, my combination speech and geometry teacher, I leave my precious geometry tools. Last and least, I will to one history teacher Mrs. Martha Brown, one used and very, very worn out rabbit, which she has already received. I, Louise Moore, being of more body than mind, do hereby make my last will and testament. To June Johnson I will my place as cheerleader for 4 years and head cheerleader for 2 years. It doesn't take any talent, June, just move your limbs and yell. My editorship on the annual, I leave to Bill Clark. Make 'em work Bill; you're just supposed to give orders. Even though they usually aren't heeded. My place in shorthand, I will to any senior who is crazy enough to sit in there and scribble in the unknown language wohntielioGYGob-ReIIIla27HfK.

To my sister, Maxie, I will my ability to get up at 7:30 in the morning and catch the bus at 8. To anyone who can add, subtract, and especially erase I will my desk in bookkeeping. May you have more pencils and erasers than I did. I, Opal Willis, being of an injurious, confused mind and an enormous, fauble body to hereby write my last will and testament.

I leave to Pattie Montgomery my senior chair in assembly, and may she be as proud to sit there as I was. To Betty Lou Johnson, I will my long read hair to match her Special Angel's complexion. To Geneva McGinn, I leave all my old jokes. Maybe someone hasn't heard them yet. I, Monty Dickson, of the city of Slaton, County of Lubbock, and State of Texas—being of doubtful mind and abundant, well proportioned body, do make, publish, and declare the following as and for my last will and testament; that is to say.

First, I hereby revoke all wills, condicils, and testamentary instruments by me at any time heretofore made. Second, I direct that all evidences of my having ever attended Slaton Senior High be obliterated as soon after my departure as practical. I leave to my faithful comrade, Sandra Wells, my amazing superhuman ability to play basketball four years, and to be tri-captain of the team my senior year. Fourth, I leave to my fair weather friend, Vicki Kirksey, my dirty basketball socks, shorts, and shirt. Fifth, I leave the bulk of my fortunes, as obtained from the profits I made in the M&S Stock Market Club to these charities: 1. The Old Teachers Asylum. 2. The Fund for Disabled In-mates of SHS. Sixth, I will my basketball number and uniform to no one, because I want to take them with me if at all possible. Seventh, I leave to all next year seniors of the basketball team, the honor of having the traditional senior seats of the bus, the ones next to the boys—for the out-of-town games. And last, I nominate and appoint Bulgy Neill executor of my last will and testament. I, Peggy Ray, being of small mind and tall body do hereby make my last will and testament. To Ann Basinger I will my trusty chair in choral, be sure and sing on key and you will always be a song bird. I will the manager of the Tigerettes to anyone with plenty of aspirin and ability to sit and listen to problems. I will my place in shorthand to any idiot with plenty of ink and who is chump enough to take it. I will my licker to Sammy Wilson since he seems to really need one where mine is located.

Western Day Is Televised for First Time in School's History

Western day was a day of great festivities and excitement enjoyed by students and faculty. The climax of the day was the announcing of the winners of the floats and other entries in the parade. The senior class with the "First West Barber Shop" received first prize and $25 for the best float. The junior class was awarded second place and $20 for the "Joining of the Union Pacific and Central Pacific." FHA girls placed third with their replicas of "Chow Time on the Range." Mrs. Martha Brown's Texas History class placed fourth with "The First Cannibal Tribe of Indians in Texas." The Tigers Cage won the best decorated car contest. Hally Brookshire had the best novelty entry. It was a very large bicycle that was decorated. The start of the excitement of the day was the parade beginning at 10:30. The parade formed at high school and marched down Lubbock street, turned left at Eighth street and proceeded around the square. Then down Garza and back to the high school went the parade. When the parade was over there was a short assembly till lunch. Lunch was served to classes in the order they placed in the Western Day King and Queen contest. In the morning assembly the playboys, a rock and roll band from Abilene High School, played several numbers. Then J. M. Gilbert, principal of SHS introduced Sonny Curtis who has a new record out. It was not necessary to say anything about Sonny as he is an ex-student of SHS. Sonny sang several songs including one of his recorded songs, "Laughing Stock." Also on the morning assembly was the Texas History class who sang the "Eyes of Texas" and Connie Jones sang the Mead's Bread song. Venita Green pantomimed a record. Danny Winn sang a few songs, and Vicki Kirksey and Eunice Wiley sang

Slaton Students Receive Various Awards Aid Honors During Year

By Dee Allan Tucker
SHS was full of events that garnered recognition to the school during 1958.
Some of the honors bestowed upon the students are as follows.
In the Future Farmers of America club Jerry Jones was elected president with Carlton Tumlinson, vice president; Giles Smith, secretary; Maxie Slone, treasurer; James Cole, reporter; and Jerry Harlan, sentinel.

Clark Wood—"I'd study more and go out more and not live in the country, for Pete's Sake!"
Beth Lowry—"If I were a freshman again and knew some of the things that I know now, I would do some of the things that I didn't do and I wouldn't do some of the things that I did do."

Bang Up Ball Bestowed On Big Blissful Bunch At Be-Bop Banquet

By John Fincher
One of the brightest highlights of the year occurred April 24, at 7:30 p.m. at the Lubbock Hotel in Lubbock when the junior class entertained the seniors in a royal manner with a banquet long to be remembered.
Mrs. T. C. Martin gave the invocation and the junior class president, Martha McCormick, then gave a welcoming speech that tied in well with the theme which was teenage-rock and roll.
Hugh Van Pierce, senior class president, gave the response following Miss McCormick's address.

The menu for the festivities, as it was on the program in be-bop terms, was as follows: mystery meat, baked ham; be-bop bars, string beans; confusion, tossed salad; spudniks, baked potatoes; gum buns, hot rolls; slick slag; cool booster, iced tea; kat's kut, lemon meringue pie; rocks, nuts; and squares, mints.

After eating, those present enjoyed a clever program that was started off by a group composed of Richard Edwards, Suzanne Neill, Betty Clark, Vicki Kirksey, and Patsy Montgomery. This quintet sang "Catch a Falling Star" and "Goodnight, Sweetheart." Little Ann Ayers and Elbert Dee Walston gave the rendition of "Little Blue Man."

Perhaps the most startling thing on the program was when three junior boys, Bill Clark, James Murphy, and Dee Allan Tucker arose from their chairs in the middle of the activities and started telling jokes on the seniors. Hugh Van Pierce then decided that was enough on the seniors and started telling deep-dark secrets about the juniors. When things had gone far enough, Mrs. Alma Caldwell, junior sponsor, got up and put a stop to the "battle of the classes."

More songs were heard after the joke session when Jennie Lee Chriesman, Pat Schilling, and Eunice Wiley sang "Are

I, Maxie Sloan, being of questionable mind and body do hereby will my locker to anybody who will clean it out.

And to anybody who takes shop, I will my sandpaper and paint brush.

I, Albert William Traweek, being of immature mind and a body, hereby bequeath to anybody who takes bookkeeping, my bookkeeping kit; you'll need it.

I leave 1/4 of my great fortune to the loyal members of the Bridge Crew, for the excellent job they did on the night of December 11, 1957.

I leave to Comrade Banks and Comrade Howard Eugene Lee Limmer, the luck to get through high school, which they need.

Last, but not least, I leave my blasting buddy, Ronnie Heinrich, the muscles which he wants and I don't have.

To all the Post bridge crew, so long till we meet down yonder—at Post.

I, Beverly Kercheval, of Slaton, Texas, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, and capable of executing a valid deed or contract, considering the certainty of leaving SHS and the uncertainty of the time thereof, and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs, and thereby be the better prepared to leave Slaton High School, do hereby make, publish, and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and annulling all wills and testamentary dispositions heretofore made by me, in manner and form following.

First, I wish to leave to Suzanne Neill my place in the office third period.

Second, I will to Pam Henry, the ability to be one of the tallest girls in Slaton High School.

Third and last, I leave to Dorothy Kitchens, my place in shorthand next year. I hope you do better than I did and I also hope you like it—it's hard to appreciate.

In testimony whereof, I have set my hand and seal to this, my last will and testament, at Slaton, Texas, this 30th day of April in the year of one thousand nine hundred and fifty eight.

I, Robert Wayne Sokoll, being of feeble mind and questionable body do hereby make my last will and testament.

First, to Jerry Hogue, I will my courtesy card at "Mama Reys."

Next, I will after I die, my scientific mind to the Crowley and Hewett Institute for the Mentally Incompetent.

Last, but not least, I will my weak eyes and sore fingers that I received in bookkeeping to any poor student who is crazy enough to take the subject.

P.S. I want to thank Mary Jane for all the cheat notes she has provided me with in the past two years.

I, Martha Gravell, being of tired mind and worn out body do hereby make my last will and testament.

First to Arlie Bownds, I will my last Scottie, and go easy so it will last and last.

And to the next year D.E. students, I give the ability to start an argument but never win.

And to some lucky girl I will the ability to catch a football player. Don't chase 'em, just trick 'em.

And I will to my little brother the ability to stay out of trouble. You're off to a good start—just don't bungle the job.

I, Alfred Blisard, being of slim mind and fat body make my last will and testament.

I will to "Monk" Glen Taylor, the ability to make a direct hit on all the boy's chests. Take aim, then fire.

I will my most prized possession which I also inherited, to Arlie Bownds. This consists of my "I Love Nubby" pin, my two fingers, brass knucks, and two links of rusty chain. Take care Arlie, there'll be another war.

I will to my little bitty brother my ability to not listen in class and still pass.

luck with it than I did.

I, Mary Jane Lovelady, being of dilapidated mind and mutilated body, do hereby make my last will and testament of Slaton Senior High School.

First, I leave my position in bookkeeping to any idiot that wants it. That includes my beat-up book and about a hundred pencils to two or three bottles aspirins. You'll need 'em.

Second, I want to will my chair in band to Lynn Hurst. It's thrilling, believe me! Oh, yes, don't forget to pester Dora for me.

I want to will all my chest notes to Howard Limmer in case he runs out of his own.

To Lola Faye Hopkins I will the ability to be a big girl. That means you can be sixteen, Lola Faye.

To my little brother Mike I leave all my teachers and back seats. May he take over where I left off. I also leave him all the fun I've had in high school.

I will to Linda McCarver all my meanness. Have fun but be careful with it. I may want it back.

To all other sophomore and junior buddies of mine, I will my ability to always be able

Last, but by no means least, I leave my ability to receive my state degree to Betty Haliburton which will entitle her to go to the state meeting. Don't forget to go to the zoo, Betty. Also watch that Shirley Kitten because Mrs. Brown puts some wild ideas in her head.

I, Jackie Shepard, hereby allow to remain my supreme and conclusive legal document and disposal of my personal property.

Being a poor miser I'll take my money with me.

I'll leave my sling shot, frog, snake, and cockroach to Mrs. Caldwell for stage properties.

To Doc Babb I leave my pleasant disposition and ability to take a hint and shave my mustache.

Lastly I leave my "Penumbra" on the passageway of SHS to anyone who is smart enough to know what a "penumbra" is.

front seat in every class (I'm not there because I want to be.) I also leave my ability to take algebra II three years and still not pass and to make 6 Fs in algebra my junior year, to Connie Jones.

To Mackie Klattenhoff I leave my ability to never get caught playing hooky but once.

To Kenneth Melcher I leave my 3 lockers. Saves a lot of walking.

To Ronnie Heinrich I leave the slick tires on my car. Better watch it cause the air is showing now.

To Ann Basinger I leave a candy wrapper.

To Ronald Mangum, my first chair in band.

And to Mrs. Martha Brown, our beloved Texas History teacher, I leave a book—"Why I Am A Republic" and an "I Like Ike" pin.

To the rest of the poor unfortunate people of SHS I don't leave anything. I'm keeping it for myself.

I'm me, Carlton Tumlinson. Me an of Be and E mind—B stands for broad and E stands for empty and of a body with a big chest (which fell to my waistline) would like to leave to me ole buddy Glen Taylor my jumping rope which I used for skipping—(classes that is)—it looks like a pink corridor pass, but don't be fooled.

Next, I will my paint brush and sand paper in shop to any poor soul who is wacky enough to take them.

I will my unabridged and uncorrected English notebook to James Murphy—it ain't much but it might get you out of that rut you're in.

Next I will to Giles Smith, my leaky fountain pen along with the extras—a blotter, wash rag, and box of Kleenex.

I, Linda Smith, being of sound mind and small stature, do hereby make my last will and testament.

To anyone who doesn't have any shorts to a Tigerette suit can have my top because with that, one doesn't need any shorts.

I will to Vicki Kirksey, my place as official "Tigerette Bubble Dancer."

I will to Pat Schilling my captainship on the Tigerettes. And to the entire team I leave you the happiest times of your life, playing for ole Slaton High School.

To Judy Dunn, I leave 20 pounds, so you will be able to bump those girls around next year.

I, Ernest Estrada, will my unfailing ability to get into more trouble than quilts on a porcupine, such as getting caught AWOL from school (thanks to an untimely phone call). And above all, but far from the last or least, getting my billfold flattened on my way to the banquet, to anybody who feels like talking to those blues.

To my benefactor of a certain 3-day vacation but above all still my buddy, Doc Babb, I leave him the satisfaction of knowing that he will no longer have the satisfaction of putting me in such jams or getting me out of them. Good luck on the scrapbook, Doc, and take good care of the little-doo-flee-chee or bubble head, whatever you want to name him.

Also I leave my chair in band to any third coronet who thinks that he deserves the honor of sitting in it.

To anybody who has the ability to fill in an art editor's place in the Tiger Lair I gracefully give him my place. Man, you'll have a pleasant position.

And to James Buskemper, who at this very minute is looking over my shoulder with his goggled pea-picking eyes as I write this will, I will him nothing for being of such an inquisitive nature. (Bless his pea-picking heart).

I, Venita Green, being of technical mind and geometrical body (study of straight lines) hereby bequeath my first will and testament.

To Irene Tomlinson I leave an absense excuse, hall pass, and tardy excuse which I have used all year, but be careful—it is a little ragged.

To John Fincher I will my ability to stay in trouble (as if he needed it), and my speed of I word a minute in typing—he's off to a good start.

To Mike Davis, I leave everything in this school that is nailed down, if it wasn't nailed down, Butterfingers Green got off with it.

And to somebody, probably June Johnson, I have already left my good looks, nice figure, intelligence, pretty blond hair, dainty little features and good speaking voice. I must have left them with her because I certainly don't have them.

I, Royce Thomas Joseph Heinrich, being of all brain, no muscle and exceedingly dumb do hereby will my study halls to anybody who refuses to work and likes to sleep. I will my locker to anyone who wants to walk themselves to death—it is No. 6.

I leave my place in journalism class to anyone who is dumb enough to take it and make Mr. Jackson mad. I will my place in Mrs. Brown's class to David Bednarz and you're bound to learn more than I did or you might as well quit.

I will my place in Doc's class to anyone who won't co-operate.

I, Sandra Long, being of ample body and sound mind, do hereby make my last will and testament.

To Dee Allan Tucker, I leave my place on the Annual Staff, and may you always have a pencil handy!

To Betty Haliburton I leave my desk in shorthand, and may it serve you well! You'll need some kind of help!

I will to June Johnson, the honor of getting her State Degree her junior year. You've worked hard for it!

To Tommie Karen McCall I leave my 6th period study hall!! Good luck, Tommie!!!

I, Carolyn Brunson, being of sound mind do make my last will and testament.

To Mike Davis, I will my bookkeeping book and materials in hope that he will have better ment. I will to any narrow-minded and puny person the right to use the "idiot stick" of old SHS. May you have better luck than I did.

I will my office as Student Body President to any person who is elected.

And to any idiot minded person who takes bookkeeping, my ability to cut corners and leave some of it out—Mr. Martin won't know the difference.

I, Da Onne Duncan, being of skimpy mind, Longfellowish feet, and unearthly octagon figure, heremake my last will and testament. (Test are just what I mean.)

To the brainy elephant (of course none other than Betty Lou Johnson) I leave the ability to walk down the hall without yelling at some one at the other end of the hall.

To Jerry Kitten, I will that huge pile of dirt Mr. Walker left in Mr. Smoot's room one morning all period to grow cabbage. To any junior who is engaged I will my ability to be a perfect wife, being strong enough to do all of the work and not having enough sense to put up any argument about what I'm told to do.

I, James Allen Sikes, being of sound mind, small body way hair, beautiful eyes, empty pockets, and low morals (due to Colene) do solemnly make my last last will and testament: (I hope!)

To my friend Giles Smith, I leave the ability to have a small argument with the little girl at least three times a week. (This will keep her from getting over-confident).

Being very generous and believing very strongly in charity, I leave to Howard Limmer, Billy Balmanno, Ronald Bagby, and Wayne Banks my ability and intelligence. (I know it isn't much, but it will make a great difference when it is divided among the four of you).

To all the junior boys I leave the right to become "Second-semester seniors."

And in these final moments I must be sure to add that I will to any junior, with the aptitude to accept, my seat in bookkeeping, my pencil, my "Little Juty Hair Puller," my tranquilizer pills and with no sentiment whatsoever—I very graciously leave Mr. Martin. May God help, Mr. Martin have mercy on, and the Board of Internal Revenue be kind to your poor bookkeeping souls.

I, Pam Maxey, being of little mind and sound, sound, body, hereby give my last will and testament.

I will my basketball suit, No. 15, to Eunice Wiley. May you use it more than I did Eunice, but be sure and keep it clean.

I will my secretary-treasurer office of the choral to Suzanne. I hope you don't keep the Choral in the hole all of the time from buying candy during office hours.

To Irene Tomlinson, I want to leave my front seat in the auditorium.

I would like to will my ability to graduate to Pat Schilling and Ophelia Bloxom. Be careful with it girls, cause I had to strain it a little bit to graduate and I know it will take all the care you can give it to get you out next year.

I, Frances Flores, being of little mind and sound body, hereby write my last will and testament.

I will my chair in the office to Sandra Wells, and may you make letter use of it while you are studying than I did, Sandra.

To Carmen Perez, I will my locker and the picture of Elvis Presley that has been in there for the last 3 years.

To Roy Strube, I will my strength in helping freshmen with their English.

And to anybody who wants to give D.E. a try, I will my desk in D.E. class. Since there's not very much left, I'll just take the rest with me.

I, Rodney D. Fulcher, being of diminutive ability, miniature amount of physical fitness, and an alarmng quantity of undeveloped cerebrum, do bequeath my last will and testament.

To anyone who can endure it, I leave my 5th and 6th period seat in study hall.

To Sammy Wilson, I would like to pass on my ability to pass Texas History with flying colors.

To Wayne Banks, I would like to will my mistakes in the Speech plays, try to smooth them out and use them for your advantage.

To Giles Smith, I would like to leave my football jersey—'ole number 20. May you always wear it much better than I did.

I would also like to will to anyone and everyone my ability to get along with all the teachers.

Sorry, but I can't afford to will any more. This senior year cost me plenty. (In case of a serious subalternate condition, this document will automatically become void).

I, Alex Franco, will-skip all that stuff of having a mind and body and get down to "brass tacks."

I will my first chair sax in band to Dick Martin and may he have better luck than I did and not get suspended from a "musical organization" just before a contest.

I would will more if I had anything else but I came to a sudden conclusion I don't have anything else to will.

I, James Brooks, being of little mind and body, do hereby will my Boy Scout knife (with opener) to Mackie Klattenhoff, and to anybody who takes shop I will my sandpaper and paint brush.

I, Sunny Jean Mudgett, do hereby make my first and last (I hope) will and testament.

I will to my sister Dixie my place as driver of the car and to Terry, my steady grades throughout school.

To anybody who has the ability to figure numbers I leave my 4th seat, front row in bookkeeping.

To some poor senior next year I will my ability to get out of shorthand and still pass.

To anyone, boy or girl, I will my position as librarian of the 6th period study hall and may they keep Alvin Ford occupied with books to read.

Lastly, I will to Betty Joyce Green the ability to graduate unmarried.

I, Lavoy J. Reed, being of an intellectually incompetent mind and puny under-nourished body do hereby make my last will and testament.

I want to leave a record from the Junior-Senior banquet to Lyndon Maeker who has already obtained it.

I want to leave my position on the athletic teams to anyone who wants them.

Last I will my baseball suit to Pat (Dee) Fondy. It is surely to be a good fit.

I, Joe Bob Jones, with a body like Cheta and a mathematic brain like Lassie, hereby leave my first will and last testament.

To Connie Jones I leave my (Continued On Page 10)

Future Plans Of Graduating Class

By Russell Cummings The Slaton High seniors have listed their future plans, and many found it was a difficult question to answer while others know now what they want to do. Here are their hopes and plans for after graduation: Venita Green—work a year then study medicine or journalism in college. Frances Flores—work during summer and go to Draughon's
