Traffic Dangers Increase With Use Of Bicycles

With the ever increasing use of bicycles as transportation the number of accidents is becoming a very dangerous hazard warns Chief of Police Austin Yates. While there has not been any serious accidents so far several bicyclists have collided with automobiles, one boy had his bicycle demolished and there have been many narrow escapes.

While motorists seem to be driving more carefully the bicyclists are riding more recklessly and the Chief of Police predicts tragic results unless extreme care is taken.

All bicycles that are ridden at night or early in the morning should have lights upon them, in fact it is a law that bicycles should be equipped with lights.

Motorsists are also becoming very lax about double parking, especially in front of the Post Office which is not only against the law but is very inconsiderate of other people who are driving cars. This habit by a large number of people has caused a number of small accidents which at a time like this when an automobile and a set of tires is a most precious possession it is causing damage that cannot be repaired.

This appeal by the police chief is made with the hopes that the people of Slaton will respond to the traffic regulations that have been made for our own protection, if they do not stringent laws will in all probability be passed.

Many cyclists are ignoring the city ordinance forbidding riding of bicycles on the sidewalk and many complaints have come into the police department about bicycles being left sprawling in the middle of the walks. Both of these bad habits are dangerous to the public and harmful to the machines. Continuance will bring on strict enforcement of the law.

Farmers Part In National Defense Is Discussed

By Mrs. C. Z. Fine

A number of visitors from Lubbock met with the Posey people Thursday evening March 5th at the school house, for a discussion on the farmers part in National Defense.

Mr. Nathan Johnson introduced Harvey Poole who was Master of Ceremonies for the evening.

The main address was given by Dr. Joe Ellsworth of Tech College, who talked on the importance of saving. He sought to show that the love of country and the heritages of the people should make everyone willing and glad to sacrifice, if need be, to protect and preserve these.

Walter Wells of the AAA division told of the necessity of repairing all farm implements possible and scrap all that were of no further use. He also discussed the increased acreage as the means of securing seed.

Miss Clara Pratt insists on better care of poultry in order to reach the goal for poultry products. Plenty of fresh clean water and green feed are two vital necessities. If no grazing is available, alfalfa hay soaked in water is a good substitute. She warns to beware of internal parasites.

Harvy Poole talked on pork production. A good ration for growing pigs is composed of 50 lbs. concentrates, 25 lbs. of cottonseed meal, 25 lbs. finely ground alfalfa, 2 1/2 lbs. ground limestone 2 1/2 lbs. bone meal and 1/2 lb. salt. These are used to supplement grain kept in a self-feeder. Also he urges care of the sow at farrowing time to save the new born pigs.

A. C. Strickland of Slaton talked of dairy cows. He stressed improved pastures and the use of silos.

Mrs. C. Z. Fine discussed gardens. She told how the use of fresh tomatoes, which is a rich source of vitamin C and is usually lacking in the farm diet, could be increased by pulling the vines in the fall before frost and storing in a building or stacking and covering. Also the increased use of frame gardens was urged.

Mrs. O. R. Patterson discussed the varieties of vegetables best suited to this section and the amount of seed needed.

This meeting was one of a series held in the county. Posey was complimented on having the largest crowd present.

SUGAR RATIONING SOON

Sugar rationing, one of the necessities of war, is a week closer, and in the Southwest the planning machinery for registering every man, woman and child for ration books already is working. Almost any day now the Office of Price Administration in Washington is expected to designate a four-day period in which everyone is to register.

In the meantime, the region Price Administration Office in Dallas is making extensive plans for the registration to be carried out without undue confusion in Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana. The three State Ration Administrators—Mark McGee of Texas, Bert McDonald of Oklahoma, and U. S. Goodman of Louisiana—met with region APA officials in Dallas last week. They discussed and studied the national plans for the four "R-Days" and conferred on how these plans can best be applied in the three Southwestern States.

JAMES KIRKSEY ENTERS OFFICERS TRAINING

James and Byron Kirksey, sons of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Kirksey of Slaton, visited their parents last week. James, who has been in training at Camp Callan in San Diego, California for the past thirteen months, has been transferred to Camp Davis at Welington, South Carolina, where he will enter an officers training school. Byron is employed at Temple, Texas in the engineering field.

Chanters Present Sacred Cantata

The McMurray Chanters from McMurray College, Abilene will present a sacred cantata at the Methodist church here in Slaton Friday evening, March 27.

The cantata, "The Seven Last Words," by Theodore Dubois will be directed by Mrs. Gypsy Ted Sullivan Wiley. It will be open to the public.

P.T.A. TO COLLECT READING MATERIAL FOR SOLDIERS IN LUBBOCK

At the regular meeting Wednesday of the Slaton P. T. A. those present were addressed by Highway Patrolman Wright, who urged the citizens of Slaton to entertain Soldiers stationed in Lubbock in their homes and to collect reading materials for them. Mrs. P. G. Meading was appointed chairman of a committee to secure the magazines, books, etc. for the men at Lubbock and to encourage the program.

New officers for the coming year were elected. They were Mrs. R. L. Smith Jr., to succeed Mrs. R. C. Mathews as president; Mrs. Roy Mack, to succeed Mrs. Smith as vice president; and Mrs. Joe Bob Stevens to succeed Mrs. W. D. Hardy as treasurer.

Briggs Robertson assured the Commerce would give their moral P.T.A. that the Slaton Chamber of support to their effort to secure the next District P.T.A. meeting for Slaton.

Refreshments were served by the girls who attend Mrs. Wilhite's classes.

Slaton Men Answer The Call To Service

Among the Slaton men who will be working for Uncle Sam in a few weeks are Leonard Lott, Orle Glascock and Jimmy Flemmons.

Mr. Lott has been in Slaton since 1917 and has been the city night-watchman for the past two years. He is well known and liked by every one. He passed all the Texas exams an expects to be called for service within the next twenty days.

Mr. Flemmons received his induction notice Wednesday and will leave today for Tioga, Texas, his home town. He is to report March 20th. Jimmy has been in Slaton for the past two years as pharmacist at the City Drug. He passed his exams for the Air Corps; however, he plans to transfer to the corps from the Army.

Orle Glascock is known by many people in Slaton and he has been informed that he has passed his exams for enlistment in the Army. He has no more available information as yet.

BRIGGS SAYS "THANKS"

It's just natural for any fellow to always have a pride in his own home town. His pride just naturally pops out when his town wins a foot-ball game or a baseball game or something like that, but when his town steps out for a cause like they did Monday night in our "BONDS FOR BOMBERS" program it just makes a guy like me feel prouder than I ever did in my life of my home town. It just goes to show folks that when it comes to pinch hitting for a sure "nough" worthy cause you can't find a town in the United States that will furnish more punch than Slaton. It seems that everybody just forgot their little old petty grievances and all got in there together to do a job. And believe that, that's Americanism from the top root. I am proud of my town, and I am proud of my citizens, every one of them, and I wish I could just pat every one of them on the back for that swell job of buying "A Share of America." And too, I want to congratulate and thank every one who had a part in the program. Every individual "STARRED" The colored folks from the Colored school had a fine and entertaining number. Their participation reminded us that we are "AMERICANS ALL." And don't forget this, "WITH THE SPIRIT AND DETERMINATION THAT SLATON SHOWED MONDAY NIGHT, WE CAN GO TO TOWN AGAINST THE WORLD, I BETCHA."

Obediently,
Briggs Robertson.

FARM BUREAU MEETING AT LUBBOCK SATURDAY

Farmers in this county are urged to attend the farm bureau meeting at Lubbock, Texas, on March 14, Mr. R. L. Hooten, president of the Lubbock County Farm Bureau, announced today.

This meeting will be one of a series of nineteen similar gatherings called by the Texas Farm Bureau Federation. Mr. Hooten pointed out, "Farmers must realize their position and responsibility during this war," Mr. Hooten said, "We will produce all possible foods and fibers for victory, and we ask only for fair prices and other equalities."

Mr. Hooten stated that the American Farm Bureau Federation was organized by farmers of 36 states in 1920, following World War 1 when farm prices "hit the bottom." At present, 42 states have Farm Bureaus with a membership of near 600,000 farm families. Farmers in 182 Texas Counties belong to the federation.

The local leader reports that J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, Mr. Bill Tilson, district director, R. C. Arnold, director of organization for the American Farm Bureau Federation, and other state farm leaders will speak on the day's program.

Topics which will be discussed are: price control and its effect upon the farmer; gaining appropriations for government loans on cotton; wheat, peanuts and rice; extending parity prices to other farm products; protecting our farm program and other services; and the means of preventing a collapse of farm prices after the war.

The meeting will be held in Hotel Lubbock ball-room from 10 a. m. to 3:30 p. m.

NOW IS TIME TO TRIM TREES, SAYS MAYOR

Mayor Teague wants to remind property owners that now is the ideal time to trim trees and especially those that have overhanging limbs that obstruct the sidewalks and streets.

While the Mayor is no doubt making the appeal for the pedestrians of the town he is also probably looking out for his own comfort, for our mayor is the kind that can easily get his chin hung over the lower limbs of a tree.

"Slaton has many beautiful trees and had more before one property owner on Lubbock Street made stumps out of all the trees in front of his house and I would not advise anyone to trim trees as much as his, but it certainly would make it much safer walking to have some of the lower branches cut so that a medium sized man can walk along our streets without having his hat and spectacles knocked off every ten feet," said the mayor.

Paul Stevens, in commenting on the proposed elimination of cuffs on men's pants and vests with double breasted suits, says that they might as well eliminate the pockets too as the way things look we will not have anything to put in them.

Bugg Guinn is very much in favor of the City giving a rate for the spring and summer on water so that we can plant vegetable gardens. Bugg says that with transportation facilities working at capacity on war needs, there is a likelihood of a shortage of green stuff this summer, and every one should be encouraged to plant their own.

It sounds like a good proposition to me for I have made up my mind to plant a dozen tomato plants and I want water for them. If I have to pay for water at the rate I have been paying during the winter months I will have to water my tomatoes with an eye dropper.

Just how my bill got so high in January I have not figured out but I do remember taking an extra bath that might have shot it up and our fox terrier seemed to drink a lot of water during that month. When I put up a howl at the City Hall they told me that it is impossible for a water meter to register too much in fact it seems that according to their figures, all of them register low. I left there feeling that I had cheated the City out of a bucket of their precious fluid.

It seems that the Government has finally come to the aid of the public by putting a ban on the rental of old typewriters. As a former user of rented typewriters I know just what kind of typewriters are sent out for rent and it should be against the law. Most of them were brought over on the Mayflower or had been dropped out of a second story window. Several that I used were made from parts that were left over in a tractor factory and I can readily understand why the Government has put a stop to it and I have hopes that the law will be in effect after the war is over.

And when you come to think of it the typewriter factories have not changed so much in the products they are making when they turned to manufacturing war munitions for there is no machine in the world that has probably caused as much damage as a typewriter. They may make some deadly weapons in the former typewriter factories but they'll never equal the typewriter.

Like the sailor who fell overboard and came up for the third time I would like to know "Where do we go from here?" Every direction you turn you find things restricted, frozen and eliminated from the market. If you buy merchandise to sell you wake up one morning and find that it is against the law to sell it, yet if you do not buy in advance you do not have anything to sell; if you buy bonds you cannot pay your income tax and if you pay your income tax you cannot buy bonds; if you buy in quantities you are a hoarder and if you don't buy in quantities the price doubles on you every three days; if you make money you're a profiteer and if you do not you're a deadbeat; if you work hard you're a nervous wreck and if you do not you're a loafer; if you eat too much and get fat the doctor puts you on a diet, if you do not eat and get thin the doctor tells you to eat but his fees are so high that you do not have enough money left to buy groceries; if you keep reading and listening to the war news you'll go mentally off balance and if you do not read and listen you'll go haywire just the same. Pass the aspirin bottle please.

Just what the rationing of sugar will cause our sweets loving public to do can only be surmised but we have one indication. Last week when a local man went into a certain grocery store to buy a cold drink he was told that the quota for that day had been sold out but when he went back to the meat counter he saw three bottles of the cold drinks hidden way back behind a stack of hams in the meat refrigerator. The drinks could not be bought at any price for the grocery man was an addict himself and was taking no chances of having to go through the day without his refreshments.

There is a big red stick of candy stuck way back in a secret drawer of my desk and I'm saving it and there is no telling what I can trade it for in six months.

Here is some sentimental poetry that G. H. Orr clipped from a Clayton, N. M. paper. Mr. Orr thinks it very fine stuff.

"HITLER PHONES THE DEVIL!"
Hitler called up the Devil on the telephone one day.
The girl at central listened to all they had to say.

"Hello," (twas Hitler speaking).
"Is Old Man Satan at Home?"
"Just tell him it's the Dictator who wants him on the phone."
The Devil said, "Howdy Dolf," and Hitler said, "How are you?"
"I'm running your hell on earth, so tell me what to do."
"What can I do," the Devil said, "dear old pal o' mine;
"You don't need any help from me—you're doing mighty fine."
"Yes, I was doing fairly well until some time ago, when a man called Uncle Sam told me to go slow. He said to me: Dear Hitler, we don't want to be unkind, but you've raised hell enough so you'd better change your mind. I thought his lease-lend plan was a bluff; he'd never get it through. But soon he put me on the spot when he told me what to do. So that's why I called on you, Satan—I need advise from you; For I know that you can tell me exactly what to do."
Satan said, "Dear partner, there is not much left to tell; For Uncle Sam will make it hotter than I can here in hell. I have been a real old Devil, but not half as mean as you, So the minute you get down here the job is yours to do; I'll be ready for your coming and I'll keep the fires all bright; I'll get your room all ready as soon as Sam begins to fight, For I know your days are numbered, and there's nothing left to tell. Hang up your phone; put on your hat; and come on down to hell!"

Dr. Elbert Loveless, his big, beautiful bull dog and his wife are certainly sitting up straight and turning corners in a grand manner since they got in under the wire for a new automobile.

Just the fact that very few privileged people can take on the debt of a new automobile must add to the thrill of driving a new car, but ordinary folks will have to do their strutting on a new bicycle or in a new pair of socks from now on. And when they take the lapels, pleats and extra room out of the men's suits the clothes we are now wearing will make us all look like a picture out of the album, in fact I believe a change in styles of men clothing will cause more clothing to be discarded than the factories can make in months to come. It will be with regret to give up pants that will go on over a pair of shoes with legs that will accommodate a set of pockets to accommodate a set of tire tools, a pocket knife, three dimes, and a note book, but if skin tight pants are the things to wear I'm going to have a pair if I have to carry a suit case around with me in which to carry my belongings. Of course it will not be long before I will not need the room for the three dimes and if my tires give out I can discard the tire tools and if things slow up too much I can discard the note book and if they get still worse I might have to discard the pants.

Adjustments are still being made in Slaton because of the War Savings time. Last Saturday when I opened one eye and took a bead on the clock it was five minutes past eight so I slumped out of bed, hopped around in the cold and finally got into my clothes and went to the restaurant for breakfast. As I draped myself on a stool the door flew open with a bang and Squire Peavy came floating into the place, his overcoat tails were up over his head, he was rubbing one eye with his fist and his glasses were on crooked. Hardly had the Squire gotten perched when Leonard Harral dropped in and he was followed by Loyd Tucker. Last Saturday three trains were late, two motorists had a hard time getting their cars fixed and gasoline deliveries were off schedule but as far as the newspaper business was concerned I might as well have stayed in bed.

Our Weekly Sermon—

Salvation Simplified
 By the Rev. J. O. A. Luckman, Acting Director of Extension Department Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

Two questions are ever before us these days: How can I save? How can I be safe?

We are urged to save paper, tin, time, and money. Think of what was done to same men at Dunkirk, to save Singapore, and how much is done to save life. Doctors try to save the sick, even though it means prolonged life as a cripple.

To the question, How can I be safe? many suggestions are offered—safety devices which are planned for tenants, travelers, and employees. How much time, effort, and money is spent to develop these in order that people may feel safe.

But there is one thing we cannot save and which cannot be safe apart from the work of another—it is our souls. The ordinary things of life and their keeping are given much time and thought, yet we often give little thought to the welfare of our souls, even though their salvation is very simple. Indeed, it is as simple as the Lord Jesus Christ could make it. Let us look at Luke 23:39-43 which tells in three simple statements how our souls may be saved and safe now and forever.

"And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us. But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this man hath done nothing amiss. And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, Today shalt thou be with me in paradise."

In the first place, the penitent thief could not lift himself a cross; but he did confess his guilt—"We indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds."

In the second place, he acknowledged Jesus as Lord when he said, "But this man (speaking of Jesus) hath done nothing amiss." Do you have such high regard for the Son of God?

Following this, we read that he cried saying, "Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom."

Do you see its simplicity—confess of guilt, seeing the Saviour, and believing in Him?

Yes, we can be sure of our safety. But you ask, Can we be sure? For Jesus said, "Him that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out." He proved that this is true by this example when He said to the penitent thief, "Verily I say unto thee, Today shalt thou be with me in Paradise." Who but the Son of God could, while nailed to the cross, impart eternal salvation to others?

As we lay our lives beside this simple plan, we should ask, "It the most precious thing I possess—my soul—saved; is it safe?"

SEARCH FOR MINERALS TO BE MADE IN TEXAS

Urgent need for strategic war minerals has resulted in certification by the U. S. War Department of a $220,579 grant from the WPA for a statewide survey of vital mineral resources in Texas, to be sponsored by the University of Texas Bureau of Economic Geology.

Minerals to be sought include manganese, barite, iron ores, tin, celestite, fluorite, high alumina clays, graphite, tungsten ores, lead and zinc ores, titanium ores, dolomite for magnesium, and mercury ores. The survey will be conducted by counties, about eight or twelve county units operating simultaneously, using an average of 12 WPA workers for each.

Cotton Crop Insurance Deadlines March 16, 31

College Station, March 5—Two deadlines up and two to go is the status of cotton crop insurance in Texas, Donald L. Cothran, state cotton crop insurance supervisor, said this week.

Remaining deadlines in the state are March 16 and March 31.

Federal cotton crop insurance protects farmers against all unavoidable hazards such as drought, hail, wind, rain, boll weevils, and other insects. It does not protect growers from losses due to defective or poor seed or bad farming practices, damage to quality, loss by theft, or failure to irrigate when insurance is written on irrigated basis, Cothran explained.

Either 50 or 75 percent of the normal production may be insured, he said, with Federal Crop Insurance making up the difference in what the crop is insured for and the actual production.

"The important thing about cotton crop insurance is that each farm will carry its own risk. If previous losses have been high, premiums will be high. If they've been low, premiums will be low. There is no overlapping of crop failures," he explained.

Premiums may be paid in cash or cash equivalent on or before maturity date or may be deducted from loss payments, if any are made, cotton loans, if available, or from AAA payments.

"People don't carry tornado, life, health, liability and accident insurance just once in a while and hope to collect the year they happen to have it. They take it for protection, and that's the same principle with cotton crop insurance—protection every year, not just now and then," Cothran said.

Have you asked your equipment dealer about repair parts for your farm machinery? If you haven't, do it now; the manufacturers need to know how much metal should be held out for this purpose so they can go ahead with military contracts.

WILSON - FERGUSON NUPTIALS AT FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

The marriage of Miss Janet Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silas G. Wilson, and Travis Ferguson, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Ferguson, took place here Saturday at 7 p. m. at the First Methodist Church. A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride.

Rev. W. F. Ferguson, pastor of the First Baptist Church and father of the groom, read the ceremony before an altar banked with rubrum lillies, carnations and pink roses. Woodmardia, simplax and huckleberry. Palms furnished the background. The altar rail was canopied in white and decked with huckleberry; Garlands of pink satin ribbon marked the family pews. The color scheme of May-time pink, dubonet and white was carried out in decorating. Pre-nuptial musical offerings were offered by Bernie Howell of Lubbock, organist, who played a medley of "Because," "O' Promise Me" and "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice." Howard Hoffman, violinist, of Slaton was accompanied by Mr. Howell as he offered Evening Star from Wagner's "Tannhauser." Mr. Hoffman played "Leibestraum" during the ceremony.

Mrs. James Baker was matron of honor and Miss Marn Ann Wilson, sister of the bride, attended her as maid of honor. Misses Betty May Haynes and Marion Ferguson, of Waco and Sara Gillett of Whitewright, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. All the attendants wore identical redingotes of crisp organza over slips of fraillie taffeta with bodices and midriffs of lace insertion. The bonnet brims were of matching blue taffeta. Mrs. Baker and Miss Wilson carried bouquets of lilies tied with American Beauty satin streamers reaching to the hems of their gowns. The bridesmaids had bouquets of pink carnations tied with similar ribbons.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of gardenia white slipper satin with a fitted basque and ruffled peplum of chantilly lace from which fell a full gathered skirt, which was followed by a long train. The elbow length sleeves were finished with lace ruffles and bound in velvet and she wore long white kid gloves and carried a bouquet of hybrid orchid and freesias, interspersed with white tulle. Her two tiered veil of bridal illusion was attached to a coronet. It was also of chantilly lace and it fell the length of the train.

Waylon Ferguson, brother of the bridegroom acted as best man. Ushers were Zack Browning of Cochran, Ga., D. M. Ferguson of Terre Haute, Ind., R. A. Abell and James Baker.

At the reception in the Wilson home Misses Helen Ruth Ferguson, sister of the bridegroom and Vendee Lewis of Brownfield presided at the brides book. Bunches of gardenias surrounded the three tiered wedding cake.

The bride graduated from the University of Texas last June where she was an active member of her sorority, Gamma Phi Beta. She was chosen as the best dressed girl on the campus.

The bridegroom will complete four years of study in the Kirksville College of Osteopathy and Surgery in June and he plans to return to Texas to practice. Mr. Ferguson is a member of the Iota Tau Sigma fraternity and Sigma Phi honorary scholastic fraternity. He completed his pre-med work at Baylor University in Waco.

The Movie Reporter
 He's back again. With a new glamour ghost. Topper's a super-snooper with a new ectoplasmic playmate—what fun as they make a mirthquake out of a mystery—and a madhouse out of a murder. Who done it to who? That's the question that has Topper in a stew in this chiller-diller. JOAN BLONDELL, ROLAND YOUNG, BILLIE BURK, EDDIE (Rochester) ANDERSON in "TOPPER RETURNS" showing Friday and Saturday March 13-14.

OUCH! MY BACK
 Relieve muscular back-ache with penetrating OMEGA OIL
 When your back aches from tired, stiff muscles—just rub in Omega Oil. It penetrates! Goes right into the skin. Pains should fade away and muscles get limber fast. The secret is extra-strength—and extra-safety. Omega is used by athletes in every sport for fast relief. Won't burn—try it tonight. Only 35¢, all drug stores.

Mystery Man, the magician. Such Saturday, March 14. "Morton's tricks as the vanishing cage and the canary bird, the garden of unseen flowers, and birds from nowhere.

Thirty minutes of fine magic entertainment. This is a guaranteed attraction. A big double show with no advance in admission.

Dramatic T.N.T.—When a high born beauty meets the icy-hearted gangland Big Shot!

Romantic T.N.T.—When lovely, luminous-eyed Lana whispers: "Hold me close, hold me tight in your arms, Johnny Eager."

Taylor's tough. Turner's terrific. They're dynamite in "JOHNNY EAGER." There's the most exciting teaming since Clark Gable kissed Lana in "Honky Tonk." The most explosive thriller since "Little Caesar's" roaring reign. And together they're terrific. Showing Prevue Saturday night, Sunday and Monday, March 15-16.

"SULLIVAN'S TRAVELS" that should be enough. But we will let you in on what the critics and the people are saying. First, "Sullivan's Travels" has smashed every house record in its first date at the Michigan Theatre in Detroit. For three days running! Second, critics and public are turning hand-springs about Preston Sturges newest, like the trade papers said they would. Can you imagine Joel McCrea trying to run away from lovely Veronica Lake? Can you imagine anyone trying to run away? That is what Joel does in "SULLIVAN'S TRAVELS" showing three big days, starts Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, March 17, 18 and 19.

Next Sunday starts "HELLZAPAPIN," starring OLSEN, JOHNSON and MARTHA RAYE. Glorious spectacle. Gorgeous girls. Gags so goofy you'll never be as sane again. The funniest entertainment blast that ever shook the screen. It's poppin' with pippins—sizzlin' with songs—the merriest, maddest, most magnificent entertainment ever made. March 22-23.

POSEY ITEMS
 Mrs. S. N. Gentry, Correspondent

Rev. O. M. Addison of Lubbock is visiting in the Posey community last week.

A quarterly conference of the Methodist church was held at Posey Sunday afternoon. Supt. Clark of Lubbock brought a fine message from the 25th chapter of St. Matthews. Some very interesting reports were given from the church and societies from Smyer, Hurlwood and Posey. A large number attended the conference.

There was a large crowd out for singing at the school house

NOW IS THE TIME TO MAKE PREPARATIONS

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their country! Now, as never before, these words have a meaning other than words placed one after the other. Every person, man or woman, boy or girl, wants to do his or her part for our country. Today any person who has something to offer has a good opportunity to play his part. The greater number of vacancies will be in the business world. Your education must be inclusive enough to cope with the people you will be compelled to associate with.

Your employer expects to save money by saving time, you, as a responsible employee, will be expected to do this effectively.

If you are asked to take dictation you must be able to understand that speed is the essential thing. If your position requires that you keep books you must be able to do that as quickly and correctly as possible.

Draughon's is the place to prepare yourself to meet the world of today. There you can be sure of first class preparation in any field of business. Many graduates have been placed in responsible positions and calls are coming in every day for more.

A letter addressed to Draughon's Business College in Lubbock, Texas will bring you all the information you desire.

Sunday night. Each second and fourth Sunday nights have been reserved as singing nights. Visitors are always welcome.

There will be an all-day meeting of the Home Demonstration Club at the home of Mrs. C. Z. Fine Tuesday, March 17. Each lady attending is to bring a covered dish. Quilts will be quilted for the Red Cross at this meeting.

Most of the children are back in school after a siege of measles and mumps. There are a few cases of measles at present. The school census is being taken this month. We hope the parents will be expecting this and be ready to give their children's ages.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Morrison and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Shafer have installed Butane gas in their homes.

Mesdames T. A. Johnson, J. M. Morrison, W. T. Pickett and S. N. Gentry attended a zone meeting at First Methodist church at Lubbock Wednesday. The Annual Conference of the Northwest Texas Methodist W.S.C.S. was announced to be at Midland, Texas, April 8 to 10th. A chartered bus will leave Lubbock at 8:45 a. m. on the 8th to carry delegates.

Mr. W. M. Joplin received word Sunday of the serious illness of his father at Meadow.

Mrs. W. T. Pickett from near Houston spent last week with her niece, Mrs. S. N. Gentry. She left Friday to spend a week with Mrs.

L. B. Britton, a daughter, of near Post. Mrs. Pickett spent last month with a sister, Mrs. R. L. Johnson of Levelland. She will return home Saturday.

A Farm meeting, sponsored by Lubbock County U.S.D.A. War Board, was given at Posey Thursday night. C. C. Johnson, county farm agent, had charge of the speakers committee. Speakers were things of interest to the farmers. Dr. Ellsworth stressed the idea of saving and buying Defense Bonds and Stamps.

Dr. Ellsworth, Tech College, Walter of Wells, secretary of A.A.A., Mrs. C. Z. Fine, Mrs. O. R. Patterson, Miss Clara Pratt, Home Demonstration Agent, Mrs. L. K. Hart, Mr. C. C. Jobson and A. C. Stickland of Slaton. This was a very interesting meeting on how to save and grow our own vegetables at home. Lessons were given on how to care for livestock, and

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Porter and his mother from Slaton visited in the Sam Gentry home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Arnold spent the weekend visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Smith Shaw of Idalou.

Jim Gentry of our community has been transferred from an Army camp in California to a camp in Washington.

America placed an order with Texas farmers for 615,763,250 gallons of milk; Texas farmers pledged 663,000,000 gallons.

America called for 207,274,000 eggs; Texas pledged 231,585,721 dozen.

America asked for the marketing of 3,531,287 head of beef cattle; Texas promised 3,776,431 head.

America ordered 2,017,462 hogs; Texas pledged 2,676,694.

America wanted 1,056,000 acres of peanuts planted in Texas; Texas farmers promised at least that many.

All down the line of increased production of crops needed to win the war, Texas farmers have responded wholeheartedly.

Behind this program for increased production are the U. S. Department of Agriculture War Board, composed of representatives of all USDA agencies in the state. These boards, set up by Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard last July, have been assigned the task of aiding agriculture to shift from a peace-time to a war-time economy, from peacetime production to war-time production. The boards were set up in each state and each agricultural county in the nation.

Heading the war board program in the state is the Texas USDA War Board which directs the various agricultural war programs, such as scrap iron collections, machinery repair and food production, of the Department of Agriculture. Each agency of the U. S. Department of Agriculture is represented on the Board by one member.

January Defense Stamp purchases of State Department of Public Welfare employees totaled $6,972.60 which was $1,327.44 above the minimum of one day's salary per month required by the government.
