Self Furniture Changes Hands

J. Stephens and C. E. Magers have purchased the Self Furniture Company stock of new furniture and have combined it with the former stock of the Stephens Furniture and will do business under the name of Stephens Furniture Company in the same location from which the Self Furniture Company operated, at 235 West Garza St.

Mr. Stephens is a furniture man of long experience and Mr. Magers, who until recently operated a grocery business here in Slaton, is well equipped through his experiences to make the new concern aggressive and successful.

The new concern will handle both new and used furniture and with the combined stocks, will offer a far larger showing than either the Self Furniture Co., or the Stephens Furniture Co., could have offered in the past.

"While it is becoming more difficult each day to secure new home furnishing," said Mr. Stephens, "we are receiving new and exclusive items every day and believe we have one of the best showings on the South Plains."

ISSUING OF RATION BOOKS IS IN FULL SWING

The Slaton schools were closed all day Thursday and will be closed all day today, in order that the teachers and many of the students may help in the issuing of the new Rationing books.

The work is being done under the direction of Superintendent M. S. Kavanaugh, who is being assisted by many individual citizens, including the teachers from the schools and many of the pupils.

All of this work is being done as a patriotic contribution and Professor Kavanaugh says that those applying for ration books can be of great help to those doing the work by having Ration Book No. 1 with them and by having the Consumers Declaration filled out at the time they make application.

These are requirements that must be met before books can be issued and better service can be had when applicants have them when first request is made.

The work is being done at the Slaton Club House and will continue through today and tomorrow. One person in a family can secure books for other members of the same family.

The Consumer's Declaration blank is printed again this week and applicants may cut this application out and fill in information required. It will be accepted by those issuing the books.

Entire Program Is To Be Open To Public

The Drive to sell $100,000 in War Bonds in ten days will end next Tuesday night when Company C of the 39th Battalion of the Texas Defense Guard ends its Defense Guard Day with a parade, public speaking and address by Captain George S. Berry, and a Bond Rally at the High School to which the public is invited. The parade will start at 7:30 p. m. from the American Legion Hall, will tour the business section of town and end at the Slaton High School when the indoor session will start. Features of the program will be musical numbers under the direction of Mrs. Allen Ferrell, discussions by Briggs Robertson and Odie A. Hood, the Bond Rally when bonds will be offered for sale and the address by Captain George S. Berry, who is commanding officer of Co. A, 39th Battalion T. D. G., Lubbock. Efforts are also being made to secure one or more men to talk who have seen service on the battle fronts in this War.

A feature of the Bond Drive is the thermometer on the North side of the square, which will indicate from day to day the progress of the Bond Drive and the people of this vicinity, particularly the farmers, are invited to help make things hot for the Japs and Nazis by making extra purchases of Bonds and Stamps before Tuesday night.

One outstanding feature of the Bond Drive is the part the school children are taking, which was stressed at an assembly meeting held last Tuesday at the High School when an organization was formed to sell Bonds during the Drive. To encourage the school children in their efforts, the Plains Lumber Company is offering an Archery Set to the student selling the greatest amount of Bonds, D. L. Kent is offering $5.00 in Defense Stamps as second prize, O. Z. Ball is offering $5.00 in merchandise as third prize, Kessel's Department Store will give a $5.00 pair of either boys' or girls' shoes as a prize, and Carter Hardware is offering $3.50 in merchandise as another prize. The only restriction in the contest is that the children must not include sales made to their own parents to win prizes.

Particular credit should be given to C. W. Henderson and Maurice Powell, who are working among the colored people of Slaton on the War Bond Drive. A most creditable showing has been made and if the other people of Slaton do as well as the colored people appear to be doing, then the Drive will be a decided success.

W. P. Florence Offers Help In Identifying Last Week's Whosit

It was a remarkable coincidence when I carried to the Slatonite a picture of our first school to see if it could go in the "Whosit" column and get my old pupils identifying and found the editor puzzling over an old cut of the same picture, which he was planning to put in "Whosit".

Being Slaton's first and my last school, I am very desirous of getting help to remember the members of that lively school and to reorganize those in that picture. Several of that group live here now.

In addition to the enlarged photograph placed at the Public Service office, I am placing another one in the Chamber of Commerce office, so that it will be convenient for everyone to see them. Those who can recognize any of the group are requested to report to the Slatonite all they can recognize, designating by row and position in the row, and to give present name and location, if possible.

We had over 100 enrolled, but I can count only 61 in that group: 15 in the bottom row; 19 in the second row; 13 in the third row; 8 in the top row, and three in each window.

METHODIST TO HOLD SERVICES NEXT WEEK

Next week services will be held each evening at eight o'clock.

These services will be dedicated to our boys who are in military camps and on battlefields. Our Allies, who have suffered the terrors of invasion, will be remembered also.

All the people in and near Slaton are invited to attend and join with us in responding to the call for help and in rededicating our lives to the things that are good. Youth Services will be held each afternoon at four-thirty.

A. W. Gordon will arrive Sunday afternoon and will do the preaching through the meeting.

F. F. A. Annual Banquet Is Held

The annual agriculture Father and Son Banquet was held in the Slaton Club House Monday night, February 22, 1943, with eighty-eight present.

The Home Economics girls of Slaton High School, under the supervision of Miss Ross, their teacher, who prepared and served the delicious dinner, were Maudine Harper, Marian Bain, Billie Burns, Dora Caldwell, Ruth Doherty, Nina Ray Hickman, Billie Jean Jarman, Evelyn Scroggins, Virginia Nell Smith, Loreta Stevenson, and Emma Young.

Following the dinner some very interesting and educational talks were given.

Tolbert Coleman of Cooper, who is a graduate of the Cooper High School and one of the few persons known in this district to have attained the American Farmer degree in agriculture, told how important it is to each student to follow the advice of his instructor and to cooperate with him, as well as other individuals.

Mr. Johnson, Tolbert Coleman's former instructor in agriculture, who also lives at Cooper, and who teaches agriculture in the Cooper High School, told of Tolbert's ingenuity and willingness to work on his different enterprises as a student under him.

Mr. Ray Chappelle, instructor of agricultural education at Tech, spoke to the fathers and sons about the important part that farming will play in the year of 1943 in helping to win the war. He also stressed that the farm youth of today would have much to do with keeping the boys alive on the fighting front.

Tribute Paid To Jim Elliott

A tribute to Jim Elliott was given by officials and members of the Southwestern Public Service Co., last Tuesday night at the Club House, when an informal dinner was served by the ladies of the Methodist Church.

Short talks were made by those in attendance as H. L. Allen acted as toastmaster. "Jim", who has been manager of the Slaton outlet for Electric power ever since he constructed the first power plant here over 20 years ago, was given much credit for the work he has done and presented with an outdoor motor as a token of the high esteem the officials of the Company and the local force have for him. He was also presented a billfold by the ladies of the office force. Jim is retiring on the first of March after many years in the Public Service business, having been employed in this line of work for more than 40 years. Mr. W. L. Pearson will take over the duties of local manager of the Southwestern Public Service on the first of March. Those present at the dinner were as follows:

L. M. Grow, Jason Patrick, R. F. McClure, Don Loden, H. B. Earthman, A. R. Watson, Glenn Chase, all of Plainview; Jack Wadley, Sam Campbell, H. L. Allen, W. S. Jones, W. L. Pearson, of Lubbock; R. B. Holland, Mace Casey and Walter Crider, of Post; R. L. Richardson, Walter Anglin and C. G. Franks, of Tahoka; Jim Elliott, Earl Brock, J. R. Thompson and Elbert Wilson, of Slaton.

Those interested in entering war work training should see Miss Lomax at the Chamber of Commerce office on March 5 or write to her at 1207 - 18th St., Lubbock.

Guy Ely Opens Service Station

It's "Guy Ely's Service Station" now and Guy Ely is the man who will greet you at the corner of the Square and Lubbock Street, where Gaither's Service Station was formerly located.

Guy is one of the best known Service Station and automobile men in Slaton, having been in this line of business in Slaton for around twenty years.

"We will give the folks of this section prompt and efficient service on their cars and have the famous Magnolia Gasoline, oil and other products to sell," said Guy, as he rolled up his sleeves and hustled out to wait on the many cars that stopped in his drive-in station. "We will have many more items to offer soon. Our opening hours will be 8:30 a. m. to 8:30 p. m., on every week day except Wednesday, when we will be closed all day, but we will be open at these hours on Sundays."

OUR BOYS WITH THE COLORS

First Class Seaman Clyde Doherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Doherty of Slaton, writes that he is fine. Clyde is stationed in the South Pacific.

Melvin Henzler, who has been stationed in Lubbock, is now temporarily at the Blackland Flying Field at Waco. Melvin is serving as an airplane mechanic and reports that he likes his work.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Verkamp have received notice from the War Dept., that their son, Pvt. Martin Verkamp, has arrived safely somewhere in the South Pacific, and another son, Sgt. Roman Verkamp, is in North Africa.

Plains Army Flying School have elaborated on the "victory garden" idea in a fashion which may point the way to many other groups in alleviating food shortages.

Led by Mrs. Norman B. Olsen, wife of SPAFS' Commanding Officer, the women have banded together in a cooperative farming effort, with a plot of ground already chosen and the professional advice of local farm experts asked. Instead of individual backyard gardens, they will band together to plant, care for and harvest a crop, doing all the work themselves; and canning the products for use by both military personnel and civilians.

This is believed to be the first action of its kind by "army wives". If followed by wives of personnel at all other army camps throughout the nation, the project might do much to help the country through a period of shortages and rationing, especially in sectors affected more severely by large war-time populations.

For those women with children, plans are under way for the wives to take turn about caring for the "kid pool" while the mothers are at work stocking up the "commun-

3 More Slaton Women WAACS

FORT DES MOINES, Iowa.—Three women from the Slaton area have just begun training at the First Women's Army Auxiliary Corps Training Center here.

They were immediately assigned to a Receiving Center company for a week of elementary training. Here they were issued clothing and equipment, instructed in rudiments of drill, and given Army classification tests. For the following four weeks, they will be assigned to a Basic company for more detailed military training preparing them to replace a man in a non-combat Army job.

They are: Auxiliaries Marie Belle Saage, Route 2; Jessie Faye Dunlap, 225 West Crosby; and Fannie E. Castleberry, 405 W. Garza St., all of Slaton, Texas.

Our "Whosit" Department

Our "Whosit" for last week, which seemed like a winner to us before we printed it, has been a dud so far and not a single attempt has been made to identify the children who were the first to attend school in Slaton. However, it must be admitted that when the teacher, who taught all of the children, cannot identify them and is offering prizes to those who can, then we must have printed a Whosit that has stumped everyone.

The original photograph of the children is still on display in the Southwestern Public Service window and another can be seen at the Chamber of Commerce office. If possible, we would like to get as many children identified as possible. There are three passes being offered to the three people who can identify the greatest number of children whose pictures are in the group.

This week we have three men, none of whom we have known, and to the first person who identifies them all, or to the first one who identifies the largest number of the three or even one, we will give a pass to the Palace Theatre. Phone or write the Slaton Slatonite.

OFFICIAL TABLE OF POINT VALUES FOR PROCESSED FOODS

No. 1—Effective March 1, 1943

Pursuant to Ration Order Number 13

Table with columns for Weight (0 to 12 lbs) and Point Values for various food categories including Fruits and Fruit Juices, Vegetables and Vegetable Juices, and Other Processed Foods.

THE FOLLOWING ITEMS ARE NOT INCLUDED: Canned Fruits, Jams—Jellies, Potato Salad, Chili con Carne, Olives, Preserves, Fruit Cakes, Pickles, Relishes, Fruit Puddings, Frozen Fruits in containers over 10 pounds, Frozen Vegetables in containers over 10 pounds, Fruit Juices in containers over one gallon, Meat Stews containing some Vegetables, Paste Products—such as Spaghetti, Macaroni, Noodles, whether or not they are packed with added Vegetable Sauces, Vegetable Juices in containers over one gallon, By-products of fruits or vegetable such as soy bean oil, soy bean milk, fruit and vegetable dyes, and similar products.

INSTRUCTIONS—To find the Point Value of an item: 1. Find out the net weight of the contents (from the label, if any). 2. In the line across the top of the chart, showing the weight in ounces and pounds, find the column in which this weight belongs. 3. Find the item in the listing of items in the column to the left. 4. The POINT VALUE of the item appears on the same line as the item and in the column listing the correct weight. All Point Values must be determined by weights. If no weight is marked on the item, the item must be weighed. In finding the Point Value of a container whose contents are given in fluid ounces, consider 1 fluid ounce to be the same as the equivalent weight ounce. One pint is one pound; one quart is two pounds.

The Point Value of any item weighing over four (4) pounds shall be arrived at by multiplying the number of pounds of that item by the Point Value per pound of that item as given in the "Per Pound" column. Fractions of a pound should be figured in quarter-pounds. Fractions of a quarter-pound should be figured in the next higher quarter-pound. Thus, a item weighing 4 pounds 3 ounces would be considered as weighing 4 pounds 12 ounces for the purpose of getting the Point Value of the item.

COTTON FIGHTS ON EVERY FRONT

The Quartermaster Corps of the U. S. Army recently Stated:

"Cotton Is Second Only to Steel as the Most Vital War Material"

No wonder that the Quartermaster Corps says that—when you consider the hundreds of uses of cotton in the war. In addition to cotton lint's importance, cottonseed supplies four basic products, all helping to supply essential needs of those who fight and work for freedom.

No other crop supplies all of these materials, either—Cotton linters, for example come only from cotton and a single bale of linters makes enough powder to fire 100,000 bullets.

That's why it's so important to plant every acre of cotton we can in '43—to fight weeds and insects as hard as we can—and finally, to grow every possible pound of cotton to use in helping to win this war.

As an industry producing basic war materials, the farmers, ginners and oil millers of the Cotton Belt have a common task and a common goal in '43—WE'RE GOING TO FIGHT HARDER BY PRODUCING MORE AND BETTER "VITAL WAR MATERIALS".

A combined Operations Conference, such as precedes every Commando raid, has been authentically portrayed for a scene in Lester Cowan's Columbia picture, "Commandos Strike at Dawn," which stars Paul Muni at the Palace Theatre Prevue, Sunday and Monday. High officers of the Royal Canadian Navy, the Army and the Air Force stepped before the camera and reenacted, for the production, an actual last-minute gathering for final instructions before a raid got underway.

The odd part of it is that the men who listened to these instructions were in uniform, too—and virtually all of them had a right to be in uniform, for acting as Commandos were troops of the Canadian Scottish, Sault Ste. Marie and Sudbury, Royal Rifles of Canada and Rocky Mountain Ranger Regiments.

Sabu, the former elephant boy whose main ambition is to pilot an airplane, recently arranged to take flying lessons from one of his countrymen, Phroze Nazir, India's foremost aeronautical expert. Nazir flew to Hollywood from Canada, where the RCAF was experimenting with a revolutionary type of airplane wing which he invented. He was Sabu's houseguest for several days during the making of Walter Wanger's "Arabian Nights" at Universal, in which Sabu is co-starred with Jon Hall and Maria Montez.

On completing his role in "Arabian Nights," which is at the Palace Theatre Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Sabu made plans to join Nazir in British Columbia and begin his preliminary flying instruction under the noted Indian airman. Sabu's role in "Arabian Nights" is regarded as one of the youthful stars most spectacular achievements. Appearing with him and his co-stars in the Technicolor production are Leif Erikson, Billy Gilbert, Edgar Barrier, Shemp Howard, Thomas Gomez and Turhan Bey.

rying me and a lot of folks, is whether clothes will be rationed or not, in fact it has me so upset that I got out both of my pants and held them up toward the sunlight. One pair shows distinctly that I have been squirming around in my swivel chair a lot and the other pair is beginning to look as if it were tastefully trimmed with lace around the pockets and the bottoms of the legs. After long and careful consideration, I have worked up the nerve to ask my wife if the worst comes to the worst, if she will half sole one pair of pants, and as for the other pair, if things get that tough there will be no use in my putting my hands in my pockets for there will be nothing there to jingle anyway.

Last week I saw a nose that looked rather familiar stick out from a bristly bunch of whiskers and on close investigation I found that it belonged to H. E. Woods. His is the first full grown set of whiskers that I have seen in a long time and I want to compliment H. E. on getting up nerve enough to let nature take its course. He is the first man I have known in a long time who looks like a man instead of a slick faced onion.

Every mail brings me pamphlets describing some kind of a bookkeeping system emphasizing how anywhere from ten dollars to fifty smackers could save me a fortune on my income tax exemptions, but one look at the sample copies with the hundreds of ruled spaces to keep records in so discourages me that I feel feverish all day, mumble in my sleep at night and jump up every few minutes to look at my wife's records which show that the news paper business is fine for a person who might like it as an amusement, but for something that would cause a heavy income tax it is a very poor investment.

FIRELESS COOKERS BACK IN DEMAND

Hazel Phipps, specialist in food preparation for the A & M College Extension Service, says reports are reaching her about increased home-construction of this inexpensive, safe and efficient fireless cooker. In Denton County, for example, Mrs. Edna Trigg, County home demonstration agent emerita, has been besieged with requests for help in making fireless cookers.

A fireless cooker is simply a well insulated box which keeps the heat in and the cold air out, Miss Phipps explains. It is best suited to the preparation of dishes that need long slow cooking—such as baked

Kidneys Must Work Well—

For You To Feel Well

24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly. Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling. Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulates the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

A George Keller poem that describes most of the men one meets on the streets these days:
It ain't the gray in his hair
That makes a man old,
Nor that far-away stare
In his eye, I'm told.
But when the mind makes a contract
The body can't fill, you're over
The hill, brother,
Over the hill.

Sam Staggs, after looking over my 25 pound increase in weight, told me that I had been accused by Mrs. Barry, who bosses the Pember Insurance office, of being a food hoarder.

Up until that time I had felt rather pleased with myself because I had not smoked for over four months and because my face and belt line had expanded which I imagined was giving me an important appearance similar to Roy Mack and Reverend Ferguson, but if I am going to be accused of being a food hoarder, I think I'll go back to smoking.

Whether the removal of the light at the corner of Lubbock St. and the Square was a good idea or not is a little doubtful, for the motorists are making some fancy turns and I have swallowed my heart several times when making that hazard, but at least the folks who were all in a dither about the removal of the signal lights can sleep better for a while, and another worry that can be put on the cancelled list is the disposal of the tree limbs that littered the streets after the last wet freeze. If something does not happen soon I'll be all out of something to howl about, which is a very bad state to get into.

Up to date the Rationeers have not upset me to any great degree, for the string beans that come out of cans taste like so much blotting paper to me anyway, and the canned fruits resemble the real thing in taste as much as a rubber bone will satisfy the appetite of Rover, but I am trembling with fear at what is going to be done to the butter and meat supplies. And another thing I would like to know is how they expect the people who are not in the army to keep fit and healthy and eat plenty of nutritious foods when every morning we wake up and find out that another long list of food articles have been added to the rationing program. However, between having to get out my old dog eared algebra book from those I saved when I graduated to try to figure out how many cans of asparagus I am entitled to get and

To conserve vital materials, the War Production Board has ruled that you cannot obtain a new household appliance except under special conditions. That's why you must take extra care of your gas appliances. It may be a long time before you can replace them.

Put your appliances in tip-top operating condition, keep them clean, take care of them and they will help take care of you.

HERE ARE SOME SUGGESTIONS ON THE CARE OF YOUR WATER HEATER:

1. Keep burner adjusted properly.
2. Do not let pilot light burn too high.
3. Be sure vents are unobstructed.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson
Dear Sir:
Drop you a line to tell you to send my paper to 2660 National Ave. San Diego, Calif. I was working on the Santa Fe dam in the edge of Los Angeles. We had so much rain it nearly washed the dam away. And it was shut down for a while. So now I am working at the Destroyer base at San Diego. I am working in the construction part. They are making the world's largest base out of it.

Dear Editor,

We have been taking the Slaton Slatonite and have been laughing a lot at the Whosit in the paper. Being this far from home, I would like for you to know I still know my friends and remember them.

I would like for you to answer and tell me how many of the girls I missed.

damaged and sank the heavy cruiser Chicago, but lost in this attack 12 out of 13 planes. On February 1, enemy planes sank a U. S. Destroyer. But all through the week U. S. planes struck back, attacking Japanese shipping whenever and wherever it could be found. And when the totals were added up at the end of the week, the enemy had lost two destroyers sunk 13 other ships probably sunk or badly damaged, and at least 60 planes. U. S. losses were set at 22 planes and 3 motor torpedo boats, in addition to the cruiser and destroyer sunk earlier in the week.

Meanwhile our air attacks continue—against Munda Bay, against Kolombangara, against positions in the Shortland Island area and Bougainville, even against Kiska in the Aleutians. And American submarines operating in the Pacific and far East last week sank five more enemy auxiliaries, probably sank a cruiser, and damaged a cargo vessel.

Germans Attack in Tunisia
The enemy attack started at dawn Sunday, February 14, when two German columns moved westward from Faid and Sened in Central Tunisia, advancing on Sbeitla and Sidi Bou Zid with tanks, infantry, dive bombers and motorized artillery. This was apparently a drive to expand their corridor along Eastern Tunisia—the corridor leading from the Mareth line in the South to the Tunis-Bizerte triangle in the North.

By the middle of the week the Germans had succeeded in forcing American units to retreat 35 miles from their foremost positions and evacuate three forward flying fields. Gafsa was taken, then Sbeitla, then Feriana, only 14 miles from the Algerian border.

According to Secretary of War Stimson, the attack against our central positions was timed to occur

Thirty more stars were seen on the Service Flag Monday afternoon. And about fourteen more names have been turned in, making a total of 144

Melba Greer and Virginia King who each have three brothers in Service, sang, "There's a Star Spangled Banner Waving Somewhere". Wayne and Winifred Hallman will leave this week, to join their brother, H. D., in the employ of Uncle Sam. These, together with the Anthony, Hancock, Altman and Fletcher boys, make a total of seven groups of three brothers in Service. Dorothy Dell Oats is the first girl to enlist.

As soon as the Flag is finished and sent to the cleaner, it will be displayed in the window of Hemp-hill-Wells in Lubbock.

Roy King failed to pass his physical examination.

J. M. Corley's seven day leave will be up Thursday.

The third daughter of the I. J. Duffs will soon be working in an aircraft factory. Pauline resigned as teacher at Wilson, to take training at Tech and will be employed by Douglas Aircraft at Ft. Worth.

Last Monday night Mrs. S. B. Edwards and daughter, Ruby, were near Amarillo, when an intoxicated driver's car collided with theirs. The Edwards had to remain at the scene of the wreck while a patrolman took the other driver and several others in the car to the authorities at Amarillo. These former residents were bruised and scratched and their car was damaged, although they managed to drive it home.

Last week's sales of Bonds here amounted to $131.25 and sale of Defense Stamps was $40.60.

The Methodist parsonage received a new roof last week and much work has been done on the cur while the British Eighth Army was preparing to press its drive in the South against the Mareth Line and the British first Army on the Northwest was mud-bound. Thus the Axis was able to concentrate a large formation of armored troops against the relatively more lightly held and more extended American lines. Indications are, Mr. Stimson said, that the Germans were employing two armored divisions—a force considerably greater than our strength in the area—but although the fighting is continuing, the Germans apparently have been slowed down.

Army Casualties
The President has called the battle for North Africa "one of the major battles of this war," and as warned that it would cost us heavily in casualties. Last week Mr. Stimson told the press that U. S. forces in the current fighting in Tunisia have suffered substantial losses in personnel and equipment. Exclusive of these recent losses, the Army has had 41,858 casualties in the war; 3,442 killed, 6,509 wounded, 25,684 missing, and 6,123 prisoners of war.

Tests Show Cotton Dusting Pays Dividends

COLLEGE STATION, — Dusting cotton pays dividends. This was established by complete returns from demonstrations conducted during 1942 in nine counties under the supervision of the A & M College Extension Service. According to Paul Gregg, assistant extension entomologist, the demonstration acreages ranged from one to 100, and in each instance the dusted plots were checked against adjacent undusted plots.

Comparisons of average acreage yields of treated and untreated cotton showed striking contrasts. A demonstration in Hamilton County yielded a gain in production of slightly more than 100 percent for dusted cotton against the return from undusted check plot. This comparison was made solely on lint produced. Other comparisons were made on the yield of seed cotton.

Outstanding yields for treated cotton in other counties included: Milam County, 488 pounds an acre; Hamilton County (No. 2 demonstration) 480 pounds; Haskell County, 370, pounds; Taylor County (one of three demonstrations), 230; Cooke County (one of two demonstrations), 219; and Johnson County, 200 pounds.

The demonstrations began in 19-

Last Wednesday night a feed stack on the place occupied by the Roy Tollisons, burned.

Monday morning Clyde King was operated on for appendicitis at the Slaton Hospital.

Ben Elta Mining of Hackberry is also in the Hospital with an attack of appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Donahoo were back from Falls for a Saturday afternoon visit.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Losses incurred in the operation of farms as business enterprises are deductible from gross income. If farm products are held for favorable markets, no deduction on account of shrinkage in weight or physical value, or by reason of deterioration in storage, is allowed, except as such shrinkage may be reflected in an inventory if used in determining profits.

The destruction by frost, storm, flood or fire of a prospective crop is not deductible loss in computing income since it represents the loss of anticipated profits which have never been reported as income. Likewise, a farmer engaged in raising and selling livestock such as cattle, sheep and hogs, is not entitled to claim as a loss the value of animals that perish from among those that were raised on the farm, except as such loss is reflected in an inventory, if used. If livestock has been purchased for any purpose, and afterward dies from disease, exposure or injury, or is killed by order of the authorities of a state or the United States, the actual purchase price of such animal or animals, less any depreciation allowable as a deduction in respect of such perished livestock, may be deducted as a loss if the loss is not compensated for by insurance or otherwise. The actual cost of other property [with proper adjustments for depreciation] which is destroyed by order of State or Federal authorities may likewise be claimed as a loss. If reimbursement is made by a State or the United States in whole or in part on account of livestock killed or other property destroyed in respect of which a loss was claimed in a prior year, the amount received is required to be reported as income for the year in which the reimbursement was made. The cost of any feed, pasture or care which has been deducted as an expense of operation must not be included as part of the cost of the stock for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of a deductible loss.

If gross income is ascertained by the use of inventories, no deduction can be taken separately for livestock or products lost during the year, whether purchased for resale or produced on the farm, as such losses will be reflected in the inventory by reducing the amount of livestock or products on hand at the close of the year, which has been the effect of reducing gross income from business by the amount of the loss.

If an individual owns and operates a farm in addition to being engaged in another trade or profession, and sustains a loss from the farming operations, such loss may be deducted from gross income received from all sources in determining the taxpayer's income provided such farm is not operated for recreation or pleasure.

If a farm is operated for recreation or pleasure and not on a commercial basis, and if the expenses incurred in connection therewith are in excess of the receipts therefrom, the entire receipts from the sale of products may be ignored in rendering a return of income, and the expenses incurred, being regarded as personal expenses, will not constitute allowable deductions for Federal income tax purposes.

THE ASS THAT STARVES WITH HIS MASTER

Both are hungry. For both there is not much promise of food. Why? Because they live in Greece.

Because in Greece the Axis took every scrap of food and every source of food—and deliberately left the people, the dogs, and a few useless burros to starve and to die.

Remember the farmer of Greece as you eat your Friday evening supper. Remember him the next day, as you market your produce. Remember—and buy Bonds. All the U. S. War Bonds that you can. Buy Bonds with every cent that you don't actually need to run your farm.

Buying Bonds will not only help win the war, but will provide you with a nest-egg for the future. They are the best investment in the world today. They never sell for less than you paid for them. Weekly Sermon - -

Deliverance
 By the Rev. Will H. Houghton, D.D., President Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.
 In ancient times prisoner of war were kept in open pits. Prison houses and internment camps were unknown. Exposed to the sun and rain, with nothing in the way of provision for the care of the body, the prisoners would be unbreakably filthy, weakened by disease, and only the strong would survive. One day peace would be declared by the warring nations an armistice would be signed, and there would be an exchange of prisoners. Then a little line of stragglers delivered from the pit of corruption would wind its way out of the city toward the homeland. It is thought that David stood one day on the roof of the palace after peace had been declared, and saw a few frail survivors helping each other along, and he thought of the awful conditions under which they had lived—disease, desolation, despair. And then he remembered the pit of immorality in which he was once a captive.

One day as he had been standing on the roof of this very palace his eyes had seen a woman, whom he immediately desired to be his own. She was the wife of another, he caused the husband to be placed in the front line of a battle, and to be killed. David's eyes had seen, his will had consented, he had fallen into the bondage and corruption of sin.

He remembered now, however, not only his sin, but also his glorious deliverance, and cried out in the words of Psalm 40: "He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings" [v. 2].

Deliverance! Salvation! This is the experience of a multitude who like David have been rescued from the enslaving power of habit, and the conquering force of evil desire. "Thou shalt call his name JESUS; for he shall save his people from their sins" [Matt. 1:21].

This joyful exclamation of David tells us further of security—"He . . . set my feet upon a rock." Here is salvation par excellence.

The picture here is not of a man pulled up to the edge of a pit, only to find the rope slipping through his grasp, and the bed of slime again his resting place. The accent with David is on the word He . . . "He brought me up," and "He set my feet upon a rock." God only is able to give salvation.

And now we are prepared for David's final statement: "And He hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God." Differ with me you may, but I am persuaded that the human voice is constructed as it is that men redeemed and saved may some day join in the song, "Unto Him that loved us, and loosed us from our sins by his blood."

IN DEFENSE WORK.

Mrs. Dan Liles, writes from Orange, Texas, that she and Dan got a big thrill out of the ceremony Sat. Feb. 13th when Rear Admiral E. L. Cochrane awarded the Army-Navy "E" to the Consolidated Steel Corp. Ltd. where Dan is now employed.

There are more than 17,000 workers in the yard and Dan feels like he is doing most of the work since he took over his duties there.

THIS WEEK'S LESSON

"Christ Jesus" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 28.

The Golden Text is: "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever" [Hebrews 13:8]. Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgement and justice in the earth" [Jeremiah 23:5].

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Abraham, Jacob, Moses, and the prophets caught glorious glimpses of the Messiah, or Christ, which baptized these seers in the divine nature, the essence of Love," page 333.

Salvation, security, and a song—all yours as the free gift of God's grace!

DO NOT WRITE THE SOCIAL SECURITY BOARD

If your husband left home to find work in a defense plant or if your brother who, when last heard from, was employed in the shipyards or airplane factory and you have not heard from him for some time, don't write to the Social Security Board for information regarding his whereabouts because they can't tell you, said John D. Palmer, manager of the Lubbock Social Security Board field office. Palmer explained that many people think that the board can locate workers through social security account numbers, which is not the case.

It was emphasized that regulations of the Social Security Board adopted in accordance with the act, do not permit the disclosure of information pertaining to the records of the board except in specific cases. Such cases must be for use only in connection with the administration of the old-age and survivors insurance program, unemployment compensation, and public assistance programs.

Social Security account number cards are used in connection with the posting of wage credits to the account number holder and should not be accepted by banks or merchants as identification of individuals seeking to secure cash or merchandise on checks or orders, according to Palmer.

WEST TEXAS NOT SUPPLYING WAAC QUOTA

Lieutenant Colonel Marvin B. Durette, Commander of the West Texas Recruiting and Induction District, states that West Texas is failing to heed its quota of enrollments for the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps.

Lt. Col. Durette said, "It is true that a few counties of the District have met their quota for the entire period, several have met their quota to date, but thirty counties of the West Texas District have not produced even one enrollee on their quota."

"The Women's Army Auxiliary Corps needs women in uniform and under discipline," Lt. Colonel Durette added, "the WAAC has a military mission. It is composed of women, serving with the army, to fill non-combatant jobs, and thus release thousands of soldiers for active duty against the enemy."

Governor Stevenson has urged Texas women to enroll in the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps in order to back up Texas' fighting men. Texas has between 300,000 and 400,000 men in the Armed Forces. Complete information concerning enrollment in the WAAC may be obtained by writing the U. S. Army Recruiting Office in Lubbock.

fronted east towards our playground which was soon spoiled by the house that is now A. L. Brannon's residence. But we had plenty of playground in all other directions, not even marked by streets. Our greatest trouble was losing all our balls in prairie-dog holes. We divided the house into two rooms with canvas partition which made good hiding places for the boys and a room for the girls, with generally a human receiver for the sharp ends. We used three assistants at a time. They were, Miss Mary Howell of Tahoka, Miss Lela Grantham of Snyder, until she married a Slaton bachelor; and finally, Miss Tula Berry, sister of Mrs. Alcorn.

The assistants taught 1st, 2nd and 4th grades, while the Superintendent taught the 2nd, 5th, 6th, 7th and 9th grades.

One of the liveliest features of the school was a literary society, with Viola Talley, president, and Theo Champion, secretary. It was run democratically by the students and furnished much entertainment for the town. At the school's opening morning, seven of the girls sang the song, "Texas, Pride of The South," paraphrased to "Slaton, Pride of The Plains," which made quite a hit. That was the beginning of the literary society, which has been famous throughout her history. The school ran from October to April and ended with a picnic on the canyon which was the first of the many of its kind held in those romantic breaks.

I suggest that the school have some of its students search out and collect into a permanent volume

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

It's not a pleasant picture to contemplate, but War calls for "blood and sweat and tears." And the Army Medical Corps, with its efficient nurses and its volunteer Red Cross "Angels of Mercy," needs thousands of surgical beds for field and base hospitals on every front.

These beds cost approximately $22 each. They are the latest thing in modern hospital beds, with elevating springs. In some instances surgical cots are used in temporary field hospitals and there is a folding bed which may be used in ambulances. Your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps can buy many of these beds for the Army. You'll sleep better if you know our boys have every hospital comfort. Buy War Bonds every pay day.
