Leon Walston Brings In First 1946 Bale Receives $301.05

Leon Walston of northwest of Slaton brought in the first 1946 bale of cotton at 2:15 Monday morning. It was ginned by the Slaton Cotton Company early Tuesday morning, and has been on display in front of the Citizens State Bank. The gin weight was 1800 pounds and it produced 490 pounds of lint cotton. This cotton was planted April 18 and 19, and was produced without irrigation.

Harry Bryant, local cotton buyer, bought the bale, paying 35c per pound. It brought $171.50; the seed brought $25.55; and the premium donated by the business men of Slaton was $104, bringing the total realized from the bale by Mr. Walston to $301.05.

Walston was crowded by B. W. Patterson, who lives north of him, as to time. Patterson brought in the second bale of cotton to Slaton.

The first bale for Lubbock County was ginned Thursday of last week in Lubbock and was auctioned off there Wednesday afternoon of this week.

Local Man Will Attend Liberty County Celebration Honoring Pioneer Ancestor

Among the 300 descendants of Aaron Cherry to attend the centennial celebration in Liberty County on the 200th birthday of the pioneer settler there will be a great-grandson, J. E. Cherry of 445 West Panhandle Street of Slaton. He will be accompanied by his wife and daughter, Mrs. W. W. Watson, also of Slaton. His two daughters of Amarillo, his six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren will also attend.

Aaron Cherry has the distinction of having been the first white man from the United States to settle permanently in Texas. The Cherry family came from France to settle in the United States to escape religious persecution. This pioneer, born in Virginia, September 22, 1746, came to Texas in 1819, settling near what is now the town of Shepherd, Texas. He later built his home on the league of land granted him by the Mexican government in Liberty County and established the post office of Grand Cane in 1834.

Aaron Cherry served in General George Washington's army in the American Revolution. His three sons were soldiers in the Texas Revolution. John Cherry, father of J. E. Cherry, Slaton, was interpreter for General Sam Houston when a treaty was made with the Indians. Aaron Cherry, Jr., was one that followed Ben Milam in the siege of San Antonio when Milam was killed. He was also in the battle of San Jacinto and with the party that captured Santa Anna. Another national figure is William T. Cherry, who was the pilot of Eddie Rickenbacker's plane which was forced down at sea and its passengers stranded for 21 days on a life raft in the Pacific before being rescued. William T. Cherry's great-grandfather was a brother of Aaron Cherry.

On September 22, 1945, the Cherry family met at the Cherry cemetery on the east bank of the Trinity River in Liberty County for the unveiling of the monument erected by the United States government at the grave of the pioneer and soldier. He died October 2, 1856, and was buried under a spreading oak tree near his home. Approximately 100 descendants gathered for the unveiling last year, and over 300 are expected to be present at the celebration this year. Among the prominent speakers who will be present at the Liberty County Centennial will be Governor Gregg Cherry of North Carolina.

Homer Cherry nephew of the local man has collected information for the past 10 years concerning the family tree dating back to 1407 family tree dating back to 1407, and has travelled extensively in eastern states collecting documents. Many of these documents are now in the University of Texas Archives. One of the most interesting ones relating to Texas is the original check signed by Sam Houston given to John Cherry for his work as interpreter when the treaty was made with the Indians.

"Saratoga Trunk" — Coming.

Called Meeting Of JC's Saturday

Vern Johnson, local Hardware man was elected president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce that was organized here last Wednesday night when a group of Lubbock representatives of the organization came to Slaton for the purpose of sponsoring the Slaton unit.

Eldon Smith was made first vice president, Dave Sanders, second vice president and Leroy Holt secretary-treasurer. Invitations were sent out to all eligible men to attend the first meeting, about twenty were present. Preliminary plans were discussed and the purpose of the organization explained.

Over the Wire

An emergency call to Post last Saturday was made by members of the Slaton Fire Department when the Gasoline truck and several buildings caught fire after the truck was in a collision with an automobile. The truck driver, Cecil Wisdom, of Lubbock was killed. The firemen who went from here were Fire Chief Elbert Wilson, Carl Self, R. R. Gentry, J. L. Miller, Jess Barton and Vilas Tudor. The pumper from here was taken to the scene of the disaster.

Considerable improvements are being made in the interior of the Eaves Produce Co., and the Higginbotham Bartlett Company has just about completed an addition to their lumber storage buildings which has doubled their storage capacity.

The Slaton Chamber of Commerce is planning on publishing a folder on the advantages to be found in Slaton with illustrations of the leading industries and an outline of the town in general.

Pete Pearson has eight peach trees on his place and this is the first year that they have ever all borne fruit, he has peeled peaches, eaten peaches and smelled peaches until he is peach sick and hopes there will be a late freeze next spring so there will not be any more peaches, however he says his peaches are the very best that have ever been grown, this however is contested by C. L. Adams who claims to have better peaches than were grown in the Garden of Eden.

Even in the hottest weather the kiddies seem to be enjoying the play ground at the Slaton Club House park. Last Sunday evening one father stood under the one, lone branch of a tree that grows near the play ground, with the sweat rolling down his nose, while his little daughter made all the play ground appliances at the full speed and oblivious of the thermometer.

The past week or two has seen several businesses change hands in Slaton. Cecil Long has leased the C & H Oil Co. formerly managed by Keith Caldwell and Tom Herrod and has been operating it for the past two weeks. Petition For Beer Being Circulated Don Shelby, returned World War II Veteran, reports that he has a petition that he is presenting to the people of this part of Lubbock County.

The petition is asking the Commissioners Court to submit a vote on the legal sale of beer not to exceed 4 per cent alcohol contents to the people of Lubbock County.

He reports that there are several thousand signatures to the petitions that are being circulated in Lubbock and in Slaton.

Mr. Shelby wished it to be known that no local veterans organization is sponsoring his actions. He feels that the people of the County will legalize the sale of beer if the question is put up before the public. The petition requests that the election be held sometime in the early part of September 1946.

Slaton Texas Guard Unit, Company C, Receives Official Recognition

Lt. Col. B. C. McCasland of Lubbock, commander of the 39th Battalion, and Mayor T. B. Craig of Lubbock, Battalion executive officer were in Slaton Monday night to make an official inspection of the Slaton Guard Unit, Company C. This Company has received official recognition from the office of the Adjutant General of the State. The local unit has been operating without official mustering-in, and this recognition now makes its operation official. No doubt this official recognition was due in no small measure to the untiring efforts of the commanding officer of Company C, Jay W. Moore, since this is the only official recognition granted to a local unit this year by the Texas State Guard.

The recognition was issued in general order no. 40 and the officers of the local unit were appointed in a special order no. 72, part of which reads as follows:

Upon the recommendation of the Commanding Officer, 39th Battalion, the appointment of Staff Sergeant Jay W. Now Is The Time To Wage War On Johnson Grass

More real work has been done this summer than at any time since the program of Johnson grass eradication was started two years ago, according to H. P. Read, special assistant to County Agent J. O. Gordon. Mr. Read is devoting his time to the program. His duties are to visit farms and to advise farmers on methods of killing Johnson grass. His services and advice are available at any time, and he may be contacted either personally or in writing at the County Agent's office at 14th and Q, Lubbock.

The most effective methods, according to Mr. Read are to apply dry salt or to spray with atlatide. The former method may be used at any time, but the atlatide is effective only when the plant is in the present blooming stage.

The Santa Fe is co-operating with the movement by spraying the right-of-way with fuel oil, and the county is keeping the barrow ditches clear of weeds and grass. The State Highway Department is using mowing machines along the highways in order to keep the grass from seeding.

It is fast becoming evident to the farmers of this area that they must co-operate in this movement or the most fertile farms will soon be worthless except for grazing. The extremely hot and dry weather has made it possible to do the most effective work against Johnson grass, according to Mr. Read.

SPECIAL PICTURE TO BE SHOWN AUGUST 26

The special attraction, "Mom and Dad" which is coming to the Palace theatre for a limited engagement, Monday only, August 26, puts an end to ignorance. It deals with all the delicate subjects of hygiene and the facts of life, in a cold, honest, frank, outspoken way.

This film tells its story—a story that thousands of high school girls "lived" last year—and then it goes on to prove where, in most cases, the evil lies—who is to blame. But it doesn't stop there—it keeps right on going—proves its point and suggests the solution.

"Mom and Dad" is more than a motion picture—in fact it's three motion pictures in one—plus a hygiene commentator, Mr. Elliot Forbes, in person. It is a vital and tremendously important event in every community thruout the nation, today.

Conditions which existed before the War, but which have increased manifold because of it—yes, shameful conditions—are its subject matter. "Mom and Dad" is powerful screen-far.

Sparkling new and full of modern zest and catchy dialogue, "Mom and Dad" is first of all entertainment, secondly an impressive warning, and finally proof that immoral living doesn't pay. It has its highly educational moments, in

Many of the fine things you are enjoying and are about to enjoy on the Santa Fe are the direct result of riding the line rather than riding an office chair.
You can see more railroad from the cab of a locomotive than you can from a typewritten report. It all goes to prove that foresight is better than hindsight.
That's why you so often find the top executives of Santa Fe at the "head-end" of Santa Fe trains. They ride in front by desire and design to see what lies ahead.
The modern railroad executive, who has grown up with tracks and trains and who has spent a large part of his life in railroading, looks at a section of track not in terms of ties and rails but in terms of the possible improvements for better service to shippers and passengers.
Coupling long experience with mature vision, he translates new ideas into action with immediate decision which is both practical and timely.
This practical "Management's-eye-view" has led to the straightening of curves, improved roadbeds, new bridges and many other things which pay off in terms of better service for both passengers and shippers. It has led also to improvements of design and handling in the locomotives themselves.
During the next few months, Santa Fe will announce a number of new features improving its service and equipment. Watch for them.

Club House Park and that adults who wish to play after work hours may now do so.

Now Mr. Max Arrants is a member of the Lions Club and I am sure he did not mean to infer that the Chamber of Commerce installed the lights at the tennis courts but that is the way a person would take this article I am sure unless they knew better so to keep the record straight I am giving an explanation.

The Mothers Club which has disbanded was behind the laying of concrete slab for these two courts. Their job was not finished and the Lions Club agreed to take over and finish the project. We had the poles moved and set up with reflectors at the tennis courts and had one tennis court marked off also we built concrete curb for croquet court and had sand put inside court and had wickets made and set them in concrete. Before the concrete got dry children playing around court in the sand we had placed there pulled these wickets out of wet concrete. We decided it was a waste of time and money to try to do anything else there until soft ball season was over. We are going to put lights there but have not devised means of paying for the electricity. We also will put wickets in croquet court when soft ball season is over.

If the Chamber of Commerce and/or city has some plan for the electricity at the tennis and croquet court we think they would be doing a good public service.

The Lions Club has assumed the financial obligation due the area council for Girl Scout organization in this city for the fiscal year beginning Sept. 1st, 1946. We have been unfortunate in our fund raising activities to date but hope to have better luck in the future. We are trying to serve a useful purpose in this community and will appreciate the support of every one.

If you can make sense out of this jumbled mess of words we would appreciate your giving a little publicity to our efforts.

Yours very truly
C. E. Willis
Past President
Slaton Lions Club

Who wants to live in a place without lawns and flowers? To be sure there are some people who don't care. The people who want those things would never settle here. When there wasn't a drought, you could hardly get a bath in the summer time.

There are many aspects of better living which cannot be accomplished single-handed. They are civic improvements which affect the way we live inside our homes. Make lots of them your personal responsibility—better highways, adequate parking space, municipal water softening, modernized building codes. Even though such matters are known as public problems, they will never be satisfactorily solved unless you start thinking of them as your own personal problems. For don't they directly affect the health, safety, and welfare of you and your family?

Turn your back on problems, blindly trusting that the "people who run things" will settle them all in due course, you run the risk of seeing no improvement at all. The quality of a city is never determined by its mayor or commissioners. It is determined by the people who live in it. If it is a good town, it is only because its citizens recognize their obligations as citizens by informing themselves speaking out strongly and constructively for the correction of wrong and the establishment of right voting for public servants who will serve the public by deed instead of by promise.

Yes, if you are seeking good living, you must have a better city. You cannot achieve this alone. You must feel personally obligated to study your local problems intelligently, to watch the ways other towns are improving their social environment, to interest other citizens in what needs doing and what can be done. Then you must join actively with others in making your demands known and seeing that they are executed. Attend your town meetings and budget hearings. Join or organize a neighborhood association, a taxpayers' association, an aggressive women's club, or a merchants' association. And don't be afraid to speak your mind. You and your town can have better living only if you ask for it.

with the report that they have spent several nights sleeping, or trying to sleep in their cars, others have had to pay seven to fifteen dollars for auto court accommodations, those who have gone to fishing resorts in Colorado and New Mexico say that the fish are not biting and it is very discouraging for I wanted so badly to think about what a good time I would have had if I had gone fishing this summer.

It is my honest opinion that practically all of the mountain trout over six and one-eighth inch long have been caught years ago, probably the last twelve inch trout was caught in 1933, but since I once caught a trout that was nearly fifteen inches long I have spent enough money to build a six room home trying to catch another. The big one I caught made it's mistake on a big grasshopper. I was using a two dollar fly rod, (fishing pole in lower fishing circles) and I threw the fish out on the bank like I would an old shoe or a hunk of drift wood, since then I have accumulated a basket, (known in higher fishing circles as a creel) it cost me seven dollars and fifty cents, a new fly rod that set me back $21.00 and some rubber boots that were a bargain at $7.50. I now look down upon any one who would use a worm or a grasshopper, and buy artificial flies at twenty cents each and I have snagged flies in trees all over New Mexico and Colorado and the biggest fish that ever got on my flies were about six inches long but my memory goes back to that fifteen inch fish and I often wonder what in the dickens I would do if a big fish should grab one of my fancy flies, and I live from one summer to the next in fond anticipation, buy more flies each summer and very seldom go fishing.

About the best most folks can hope for in this country is part of a crop and there is not much hope for that. Those farmers who have not prepared for hard luck are going to be in a tight fix this winter. With prices so much higher than they have been in all history the farmers are going to have to trim their sails considerably but as far as business conditions are concerned it is my opinion that inflation has set in and will not stop until we have a big tumble, probably within the next three to five years.

Most of the business firms cannot get enough merchandise to supply their customers now so even if a big crop were harvested very little more business could be done than will be done. With women's shoes at twenty dollars a pair, bacon at 65c per pound and other things in proportion the farmers will be worse off than they were in the depression in many ways and the merchants and business men of this area should do everything to help them pull through until next year. The farmers are Slaton's main stay and if we show them now that we are their friends then when good crops again come we'll have better business than ever before.

I'd like to take my hat off to men like P. H. Appling, J. H. Brewer and Judge Smith, they are always trying something new. P. H. experiments a lot with live stock, J. H. with different kinds of grains and Judge with everything that will grow. So far as I know none of them have gotten rich out of their hobbies but they have had a lot of pleasure giving advice to folks about what not to do.

then I am sure that my blood pressure could not stand the strain.

Several weeks ago a salesman came into the office when my resistance was down and sold me some stuff he called Mystic Foam. He took a little liquid out of a bottle and whipped it up into something like whipped cream and sloped some of it on a convenient ink spot on my pants. The ink spot immediately disappeared and I bought two bottles, since then I have whipped up enough of the stuff to make a gallon of ice cream and I have put it on ink spots, gravy spots and just ordinary spots but the stuff does not seem to work for me, there is just a little gone out of one bottle and I'll sell out at fifty cents on the dollar to anyone who is in serious need of Mystic Foam, it's the only bargain I have heard of since 1940.

Nature's Forces Hold the Rings Around Saturn...

and OIL-PLATE Your Engine!

NO one knows just why Saturn is the only planet to have rings around it. We do know, however, that mighty forces of gravitational attraction hold them there. Through extensive research into the forces of attraction between molecules of liquids and solids, Conoco scientists are able to bring America's motorists the benefits of new and better oils.

Using the force of molecular attraction (basic force that holds things together), a special ingredient in Conoco Nth motor oil is attracted to working surfaces of your engine. In fact, so strong is this attraction that cylinder walls are OIL-PLATED.

And because molecular attraction holds Conoco OIL-PLATING up where it belongs . . . prevents it from all draining down to the crankcase, even overnight . . . you get these benefits:

- added protection during the vital periods when you first start your engine
- added protection from corrosive action when your engine is not in use
- added protection from wear that leads to fouling sludge and carbon
- added smooth, silent miles

That's why you'd be safer to OIL-PLATE your engine now . . . at Your Conoco Mileage Merchant's. Look for the red triangle. Continental Oil Company

ALLAN SHIVERS RUNS FOR LT. GOVERNOR ON QUALIFICATIONS

Senator Allan Shivers, leading candidate for lieutenant governor, is seeking election to that office solely on the basis of his qualifications of wide training and experience.

In every way, Allan Shivers, the legislator, lawyer, farmer and World War II combat veteran, is exceptionally qualified for the No. 2 state office. As a state senator for a number of years, he established an excellent record of public service. A loyal Democrat and native Texan, he is a man of highest character and splendid personality. The majority of Texans believe he will reflect credit and honor on the State of Texas.

Shivers a war veteran of two years overseas, during which time he earned 5 battle stars, did his best to make this a free country for a free people. He will continue that course as lieutenant governor.

He has conducted a dignified campaign, free of mud-slinging and personalities. His platform appeals to every Texan: Better farm-to-market roads, better salaries for school teachers, enlarged public safety facilities, a thorough public health program, redistricting of the state for legislative purposes, greater aid to the aged, real assistance to war veterans, reorganization of the pardon and parole system, a first class university for the colored, and equal responsibility from both labor and management. He is against a sales, state income or any form of new taxes.

Allan Shivers will be the lieutenant governor of all the people. In addition to integrity, sincerity and ability, he has a background of training and a record of public service already performed which gives him the right to ask for pro-

Baptist WMS Has Regular Meeting

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church met Monday evening, August 19, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. L. Smith for its regular monthly missionary program.

The meeting was held in the lovely yard of Mrs. Smith's home. The scene was a vine-covered rock well, where the two women met with water-pitchers to draw water. Their conversation developed the plot of the story, the title of which was "Go Ye." The time was the first century, two days after the ascension. The role of Susanna was taken by Mrs. Smith, and that of Eunice by Mrs. C. W. Wilks. Mrs. Arthur Dennis announced the program and read the Scripture.

A quartette composed of Anna Doris Phillips, Nancy Teague, Jolene Tate, and Mrs. Neida Merrell, sang "We've a Story to Tell to the Nation." Mrs. James Halliburton and Billie Jean Tucker sang a duet, "The Hymn of the Crucifixion." Mrs. I. C. Tucker was the accompanist. The closing prayer was given by Mrs. Carter Shaw.

Refreshments were served picnic style, with sandwiches and cookies served from a table laid with a colorful picnic cloth, and cokes from a wheelbarrow.

Hostesses were Mesdames Fred Stottlemire, Guy Brown, and Arthur Dennis.

Insects Chief Problem in Making Dog Comfortable on Hot Days

Summer "dog days" would not nearly be as uncomfortable for our canine pets were they given adequate protection against insect parasites, states the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City. The flea-ridden dog, scratching, biting and squirming, is a pathetic sight. In addition to causing the dog extreme annoyance, the flea carries dog tapeworm and also appears to be connected in some way with canine summer eczema. The tick is another culprit preying on dogs that has come to the fore in the past several years. An insidious individual of tenacious habits, he makes a practice of hiding in underbrush and grass along paths and trails, waiting to attach himself to the first passing animal.

According to the Center, DDT powder of 5 per cent strength, used as a dust, has been found extremely effective against fleas. The powder should be scattered through the hair next to the skin, especially in the region of the abdomen, inner thighs and tail areas. The treatment should be repeated at two-week intervals during the summer months. Washing the animal in water containing derris or cube powder is another excellent method of control. Two ounces of the powder and an ounce of neutral soap—preferably in flaked form—are mixed with a gallon of water. This is applied to the dog either by dipping or sponging, or may be used as a final rinse following an ordinary soap-and-water bath. Control measures for the tick are not much more difficult, but do require persistence. The simplest method of removal, when only a few ticks are present, is to pick them off with tweezers. Dogs should be examined frequently for re-infestation, with special attention given to the ears, the neck and the spaces between the toes. A dusting powder containing 10 per cent DDT is usually very effective. Care should be taken that the powder penetrates the hair and reaches the dog's skin. This treatment should provide protection for as long as two weeks. The use of DDT in liquid or spray form may not be safe. Where 10 per cent DDT powder is not obtainable, a twice-weekly use of a derris dip is suggested. For this dip, dissolve one ounce of mild soap in a gallon of warm water, then stir three to four ounces of fine derris or cube powder (5% rotenone) into the solution. Pour the liquid over the dog and work into the coat with the fingers. Keep repouping until the hair and skin are completely saturated. Long-haired dogs require more care than other breeds in the control of ticks. Clipping the coat is helpful but by no means necessary. A daily brushing with a stiff bristled brush is advisable, followed by use of a steel-toothed comb. The comb should be repeatedly dipped in pine oil or a light turpentine solution. In combatting fleas, ticks and other parasites, periodic attention should also be given to the dog's sleeping quarters and accessories, states the Gaines Dog Research Center. Wooden or wicker dog beds should be carefully wiped with a cloth dampened with pine oil or a commercially prepared dip, and blankets and cushions sprayed with fly spray and put outdoors to air. Outdoor kennels are best treated by spraying with creosote oil.

THIS WEEK'S LESSON

"Mind" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 25.

The Golden Text is: "The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass, and as I have purposed, so shall it stand" (Isaiah 14:24).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof. For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven" (Job. 28, 23, 24).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. "Divine metaphysics, as revealed to spiritual understanding, shows clearly that all is Mind, and that Mind is God, omnipotence, omnipresence, omniscience, that is, all power, all presence, all Science" (page 275).

Why

DO THEY FENCE ME IN?

Geel The room is full of tempting objects . . . that China dog on the coffee table, for instance. If I could get my hands on that, think of the fun I could have!

But no! They fence me in. And it's just as well . . . for I sure do get into trouble when they turn me loose.

Later on, when I grow up a bit, I won't have to be fenced in. You see, I'm going to learn what's right and wrong. And I'm going to form convictions and live by them. Yes sir—my Daddy is sure of this—I'm going to be a man of character.

How can Daddy be so sure? Well, he's already planning to send me to Sunday School . . . to the church that he and Mother attend. And Daddy says that every little boy who has the advantage of religious education in the church and the right Christian example in the home can become a man of character.

My parents are giving me the right start. Then it will be up to me!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday.

Few Aware Of Menace
The rats' role as a disease carrier and predator stamps him as a menace which should never be tolerated—in the poultry house or elsewhere. Unfortunately, the importance of controlling rats has never been fully comprehended by most people. As a result the rat population of the U. S. today is about equal that of our human population, and constitutes a tremendous destructive force. Estimates of the annual damage range as high as 2½ billion dollars. Every poultryman with rats on his place is going to pay part of that bill, and the damage will continue to mount so long as he fails to adopt control measures to get rid of the pests.
