West Texas Roundup

The first official street numbering in Hereford's history got underway yesterday as a crew from the Jaycees and B. and P. W. Club went out to designate the house and business addresses.

Armed with steel measuring tape, maps and metal numerals, Ellen Carter, B. and P. W. Club's chairman of the project, Harold Loerwald, Jaycee's chairman, and Frank Miller, Jaycee's representative, began at the hub of town, the intersection of First and Main, and worked east on First.

The new street sweeper was given a trial run Tuesday morning around the square. Business firms were highly impressed with the good results obtained, and hoped that the city will be able to buy the sweeper.

In recognition of the achievement of operators of family-type farms who have paid their loans and continued to operate their farms, the State Fair of Texas has designated October 13, 1948, as "Farm Ownership Day."

An "Achievement Award" in the form of a certificate will be awarded to approximately 1400 families who used improved agricultural practices to produce income to repay the loan advanced through the Farmers Home Administration.

The Levelland elevators' records show that 8,600,000 pounds of grain has been handled this season by the four elevators.

In other parts of the county it was learned this week that 2,155,000 pounds have gone through the Whiteface elevators, and Ropesville shows 2,350,000 pounds handled in that area, bringing the total to 4,505,510 pounds in the southern half of the county.

The three gins up to Wednesday night had ginned only 886 bales of cotton which is quite a disappointment to the ginners and farmers. It seems that the town will not receive more than nine thousand bales which will be about one half as many bales ginned here last year.

Progress on Garza's long drawn-out project to obtain more paved roads was noted in County Judge J. Lee Bowen's announcement this week that the Texas Highway Department has agreed to finance the paving of nine miles of road funds which will be available July 1, 1949.

It was disclosed that in all probability the contracts can be let in May or June.

The Levelland gins have processed 1489 bales of cotton up to Wednesday morning. Other sections contacted in the county this week were Lockettville, 495 bales; Whiteface 40 bales; Ropesville 1,158 bales; McNabb gins 889 bales; Smyer 272 bales; Opydke 255 bales, making a total of 4,598 bales.

Much of the soil on W. C. (Mutt) Graves' farm in the Cross Roads Community is worn out. Some of it is so bad, he had not planted it in cotton for 10 years.

He had just about decided to quit farming the place, until last year when he was able to buy some fertilizer in Lubbock.

He had no fertilizer spreader at the time, and so he laboriously put the fertilizer in the ground with his planter. It was a tedious job and, although he will never use the planter for the purpose again, he is glad that he did it last year because his efforts are bearing fruit.

Mrs. C. E. Hicks of Meadow spent Monday visiting with her sisters, Miss Cora Sealy and Mrs. L. B. Wootton.

Texas Grocery Changes Owners

Mrs. H. G. Sanders announced this week that she has sold the Texas Grocery to W. F. West, who took over the management the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders opened the Texas Grocery here in January of 1923 and had operated it continuously until his death in March of this year. They have received a generous patronage from the people of Slaton and Mrs. Sanders has expressed her gratitude for all of their friends and customers. She is retiring from the business because of ill health, and has asked her friends and customers to continue to patronize the new owners of the store.

The Texas Grocery has a wide reputation for fair dealing and courtesy and Mrs. Sanders will be sorely missed by the business people of the town, although she will have more time for visiting with her friends and neighbors.

Mr. West and his family come here from Lubbock where Mr. West has been a building contractor, Ed West, his son, has had over four years experience in the grocery business in Lubbock and in Brownfield, both with individual stores and with the chain stores. Ed West, his sister Helen West, and both Mr. and Mrs. W. F. West will work in the store to give the best of service.

New Highway Is Near Completion

A report from Colorado City is that Highway 108 is open from Robert Lee, 75 miles to San Angelo and that the road has been completed from Robert Lee all the way to Lubbock, a distance of 173. The new road is a shorter and better road than U. S. Highway 87 and should eventually take a considerable part of the traffic that now goes over the older established route. The new highway goes through Slaton, Post, Snyder and Colorado City.

Over the Wire

Old Timers say that it is getting close to the time for a freeze and the merchants who sell heating equipment report gas and butane stove sales active.

There are more transient laborers being employed in this area than was first thought possible. Local merchants report active sales for the past two weeks and the Post Office has had a brisk pick up in business having to stay open all day Saturdays to accommodate the influx.

Most business men say that they expect business to be erratic until after the Presidential election but to settle down when that question is settled. Most of them say that they expect Texas to go Democratic even though the Dixiecrats will likely get some of the most disgruntled ones. So far as could be discovered there are no Dixiecrats in Slaton.

The infection was so great that Dr. McSween recommended that the child be in the Slaton Community Iron Lung and taken immediately to Plainview to the Polio Hospital for immediate attention. The three men who accompanied the iron lung, Dr. McSween, Elbert Wilson and Jess Burton operated the lung manually all the way to Plainview. The child was taken to the Hospital in the Williams Funeral Home ambulance.

An operation was performed soon after she reached Plainview but she died last Wednesday morning.

This is the second case of polio that has occurred this season in area but there is no connection between the two. While the winter season is the off season for polio it should not be forgotten that polio is a disease directly traceable to sanitary conditions and every effort should be made to protect the lives of the young people and the death of this young girl should serve as a warning to every one of the dangers that lurk in our midst.

Tigers To Invade Morton Tonight In Conference Game

The Lubbock Cowhands really threw the Slaton Tigers for a loss last Friday night at Tiger Field. The Tigers came out on the blank end of the 18 to 0 score, being unable to get across the Lubbock goal line. The Cowhands had a fast and tough team; with a strong line and the Tigers were handicapped by injuries suffered recently by some of the first string men. They seemed to lack their usual fight and power; although at times the line stiffened and held, showing some of the stuff they are capable of putting out.

Tonight Slaton fans will be going to Morton. This is a conference game and it is hoped the Tigers and fans will all be in there with their usual enthusiasm and make this Friday night a different story. Morton lost to Levelland by a score of 37 to 0 last Friday night and they will also be out to redeem themselves.

Slaton people are backing the Tigers better this year than for several years and a large crowd is expected to go with the boys to Morton tonight. The team will be doing their best to win and with the cheers of their schoolmates and friends, it is believed they will come out on top.

The Tiger Band is especially deserving of praise for the fine music they furnished at the game last Friday night. They gave an extra fine rendition of our national anthem, which is a difficult number for even an experienced band, and the Slaton school patrons were very proud to note the rapid improvement they have made. Their director, Mr. Vic Williams, is to be complimented for their splendid performance.

EIGHT ARRESTS MADE

There were two arrests over the week for drunkenness, five arrests for traffic violations such as running red lights, reckless driving and driving without licenses and there was one man arrested and turned over to the County authorities for driving while intoxicated.

New numbers for cup and saucer collectors, Slaton Decorator and Gift Shop.

WATCH BIRDS FOR DISEASE SYMPTOMS

All through the fall and winter your laying flock should be watched with careful eye for signs of disease or parasites. Just a little negligence on your part during the cold weather months may jeopardize the health of your birds and throw your profit prospects for a serious loss.

Heavy Losses Possible

Never is good management of your flock any more important than it is during cold weather—for this is the time when sudden heavy losses due to disease may be expected.

What are some of the things to be done to encourage better health and livability among your chickens?

First, see that your flock is not too crowded. Allow at least four square feet of floor space per bird for heavy breeds and three square feet for light breeds. Disease is more easily spread when chickens are crowded.

Keep the litter dry and clean, removing any that becomes damp. Add clean litter periodically. Stir it often.

See that the roosts are clean and sanitary and that they are constructed so that the birds are unable to contact the droppings underneath the boards. It's a good idea to remove the droppings at frequent intervals.

Cleanliness

Waterers should be kept clean. And there should be enough of them to eliminate crowding among birds vying to drink.

At Least 12 Feet Wide

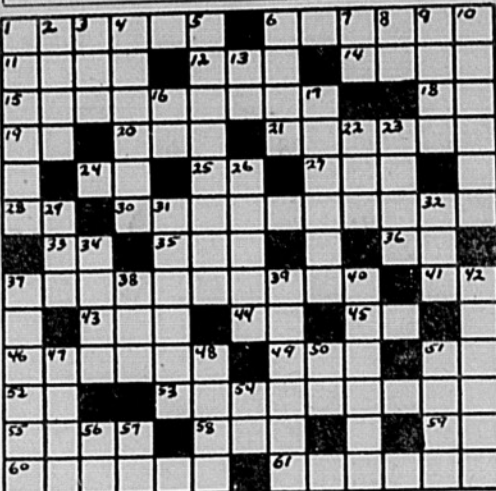

No poultry house should be so narrow that it is difficult to place the equipment. A small house should be at least 12 feet wide. Long houses should be partitioned into units at 30-foot intervals to prevent drafts and to keep the flocks of these units segregated. Partitions should be flush with the floor, solid, and at least 2½ feet high.

The house should be big enough to provide about 3 square feet of floor space for each bird—4 square feet for heavy breeds.

Heat Values

The actual heat units in the different fuels are approximately as follows: anthracite, 12,500 per pound; oil, 140,000 per gallon; natural gas, 1,000 to 1,100 per cubic foot; manufactured gas, 550 per cubic foot; mixed gas, 700 to 800 per cubic foot. In each case the heat values given must be multiplied by the actual operating efficiency of the heat generator (boiler or furnace) to obtain the actual number of heat units.

Clear Water Absorbed
Clear water seeps into the ground 10 times faster than muddy water. Keeping the ground covered with crop residue or cover crops helps clear water soak into soil instead of muddy water running off land.

Future Cropland
Most recent department of agriculture suggestions developed in cooperation with the states, are for 418 million acres of cropland by about 1950, or 8½ million below the 1935-39 average, assuming prosperity conditions and desirable changes in practices. Improved agricultural methods, including conservation practices, account for the allowable decrease. If full advantage were taken of all technological improvements, actual cropland in 1950 possibly could drop to 330 million acres.

Illinois Farm Output
The major crops grown in Illinois are corn, soybeans, oats, winter wheat and tame hay; they account for over 95 per cent of the total acreage of crops harvested.

JUST TALK

by
A.M.J.

There are a few folks who have a very contagious laugh and one of the outstanding individuals in Slaton along this line is Superintendent Lee Vardy of the Slaton Public Schools. There is no telling when he is liable to explode or for what reason.

Every time I see the Superintendent I try to think of a good joke so that I can feel better the remainder of the day, or at least until noon after hearing him whoop and howl.

We will not say anything about some of the folks I run across who are as low as I usually am and who make me feel even worse.

And there is no other class of business folks who have more right to be sour pussed than a person who has anything to do with teaching school. My mother taught school for most of the time I was in my childhood and she was usually stirred up like an electric ice cream freezer and I am sure I did nothing to calm her nerves. Superintendent Vardy is fortunate in having his sense of humor so close to the top.

It is a saddening sight to stop at the Post Office on the first day of the month and watch the folks as they get their mail. A couple of weeks ago I opened my box and letters fell out all over the floor, while I was stooped over gathering them up. Doctor Payne opened his box, that is near mine, and it was like Fibber McGee's closet, too. The Doctor and I pulled the trash can from under the bow legged desk that leans against the South wall at the Post Office and he took one end and I took the other, between us we filed away a considerable amount of information for next month.

It is heartening to know that Doctors have a few expenses too. It had always been my opinion that all a Doctor is out is his lights, water, gas and rent, and all the minimum. They have some 1946 magazines in their waiting rooms but I have always figured that they were left by folks who are still trying to get to see the Doctors.

Mrs. J. H. Teague, sr., is crowding Charley Whalen for the blue ribbon on dahlia raising. She brought my wife a tub full of them the other day and my wife said that when she presented them she looked very much like a dahlia herself.

Mrs. Teague is one of the finest ladies in Slaton and a visit to her flower garden is said to be well worth the time. She spends a lot of time making things grow and her flower garden is one of the beauty spots of Slaton.

In last weeks paper I stated that it had been reported that P. G. Meading had a spider painted on his dome so that the flies would not bother him when he takes his noon day nap. This I quoted as mere hear say and P. G. phoned early Friday morning to say that he does not take a noon day nap. He claims that he is usually very busy all during the noon hour and never takes a nap, in fact according to P. G. he has a hard enough time going to sleep at night much less trying to take a nap in the middle of the day. He never did say whether he had ever tried the spider idea and I am disappointed for if things keep going from bad to worse I am afraid that the flies will start making a skating rink out of my noggin and I'll need something to scare away the flies when I take my noon day snooze, and I'll tell the world I take one every time I get a chance.

It is said that every one should rest after a heavy noon day meal. While all of my noon day meals are not heavy, I do enjoy sinking down on our living room couch.

My wife always suggests that I would be much more comfortable on the bed and I have suspicion that she is more concerned about the couch than she is of my comfort but for some queer reason I still like to snooze in an uncomfortable position on the couch. The man who designed it must have also invented the electric chair.

Most every one who is doing any predicting say that they expect a war or a depression with most of them leaning more toward war than the depression.

Personally I believe we will get into a war soon and that it will not last long but will be far more destructive and there will be more fatalities than in any war in history with the civilian populations suffering the worst.

If war does come it will be an air war with the outmoded navy and army trying to justify their existence but they will play a very small part. If the Russians have the atom bomb in any great quantities and also have the air force to deliver them the United States will not escape damages.

A lot of folks have probably heard the story Judge Smith tells on E. R. Legg, whether it is the truth I would not say. Those who know the Judge will have to pass on its validity. Here is what the Judge tells.

It seems that Mr. Legg was talking to a salesman who asked him if he ever took a drink. Mr. Legg turned down the invitation and said he did not drink, he also refused a cigar with the excuse that he did not smoke. "Do you eat hay?" inquired the salesman. "No," said Mr. Legg. "Then you are no company to man or beast," said the salesman.

Stew Covers
The home economist say that by making a cover for stews, we can stretch the servings of meat even further. A pastry top not only stretches the flavor but adds a nice body to the stew. A layer of mashed potatoes, rounds of biscuit dough or corn-meal roush brushed with melted fat all can be used successfully on top of a deep dish of stew. Of course, the crust is browned in the oven just before serving.

Latticed Meat Pie
Try a lattice top on a meat pie, using strips of cheese pastry. This is especially good with ham or corned beef.

Preserve Saplings
Fresh-cut saplings to be used for farm posts or poles will drink enough chemical solution to prolong their length of service. The solution can be made from two pounds of zinc chloride, chromated zinc chloride, or copper sulphate to each gallon of water. A half gallon of the solution will treat a four-inch pole which is 30 feet long. The bottoms of posts or poles are placed in a tank or tub of the solution, which is poisonous to livestock or human beings.

LIONS CLUB MET IN REGULAR SESSION TUESDAY

The Lions Club met in regular session Tuesday night. The program was furnished by Norman Lamb, a member of the club. He offered a selection of songs and was accompanied by Miss Betty Jo Gentry at the piano. The Club was delighted to learn they had so talented a member.

The forthcoming Lions Club play, "Ye Village Skewl of Long Ago," was discussed.

Prin. Freeland Shows Film For P.-T.A. Program

The Jr.-Sr. High School P.-T.A. met last Thursday night at the Slaton Club House. The Sophomore Class won the prize offered for the largest number of representatives present. Mrs. Seaborn Teague presided, with Mrs. R. M. Shepard as secretary and Mrs. C. Young as program chairman.

The meeting opened with the singing of a P.-T.A. song and "America," with Mrs. M. L. German leading and Mrs. Clyde McGinley at the piano. Miss Nancy Teague sang two solos, accompanied by Miss Betty Gentry, High School Principal J. H. Freeland then presented a film on proper foods for the health and growth of the child.

Coffee and pie were served following the program.

The P.-T.A. voted to send two delegates to the State Convention to be held in El Paso. The annual membership drive is to be held this month.

Mrs. Mabel W. Hughes, President of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, has issued a membership proclamation in which she states the following:

"The National Congress of Parents and Teachers is faced this year with a new and direct challenge. All over the nation there has been such an awakening to the importance of children as a national resource that we cannot fail to see in it a priceless opportunity for making our purposes known and our long-range program effective. The health, education, and welfare of children and adolescents today represents the state of the nation tomorrow. All the military and diplomatic strength in the universe cannot preserve a nation whose children are neglected. No nation is stronger than the strength of its youth.

"It is no new thing for us to think and speak of our children as a national resource. Our Four-Point Program covers all essentials. We hope that in a very short time every parent and every teacher in the nation will have realized the need of united, organized effort and will have found a place in the ranks of the National Congress. When that time comes, we shall have done far more than increase our membership. We shall have provided thousands of children with innumerable benefits otherwise beyond their reach and we shall have provided thousands of men and women with a worthwhile purpose in life. We shall have contributed the cornerstone for the building of tomorrow's world.

More than 300 members are already enrolled in Slaton's P.-T.A.'s for this year. If you have not been asked to join, attend the next meeting, Nov. 4 for the High School and Nov. 8 for the Elementary, and enroll in this very worthwhile endeavor.

Remember our schools are what the community of patrons help make them. Join your P.-T.A. and help boost your child's school.

Ohio Water Cover
Rain and snow provide Ohio with an annual average of 38 inches of water over each foot of surface. Since weather records have been kept, the most water precipitated in Ohio in one year was 59.4 inches in 1890; and the least amount was 26.6 inches in 1934, when the deficiency compelled farmers in many areas to haul water for livestock, and to see their crops wither.

Slatonite And Daily Papers At Bargain Rates

Daily papers all over the nation have raised their subscription rates and trends are still upward however both the Star-Telegram and the Lubbock Avalanche are allowing special rates for a limited time.

The Slaton Slatonite is offering the following combination prices on the Star-Telegram and on the Lubbock Avalanche.

Star-Telegram, seven days per week, including Sunday, a regular $15.00 value and the Slatonite, regularly $2.00 per year, all by mail for the bargain price of $15.45.

Star-Telegram, six days per week, no Sunday, regularly $14.00 and the Slatonite, one year regularly $2.00, both by mail for only $14.10.

Lubbock Avalanche, six days per week, including Sunday, a regular $9.00 value and the Slatonite, a regular $2.00 value, all by mail for one year, for $10.50.

The Lubbock Avalanche, five days per week, no Sunday, a regular $8.00 value and the Slatonite, a regular $2.00 value, both for one year by mail for only $9.50.

New subscribers will be accepted for all of the above mentioned papers. The Sunday Star-Telegram only can also be secured at the Slatonite office for $5.00 per year or in combination with the Slatonite for one year for $7.00.

If you wish to save money on your daily papers and on the Slatonite it would be advisable to subscribe at once as the bargain rates this year will not likely be in effect as long as in past years. Expiration dates on the papers do not have to be the same as the Slatonite to secure the bargain.

AT SELF'S SERVICE STATION

Howdy Folks: We had a talk with editor Jackson of the Slatonite about writing columns and he gave us some advice about the popular profession.

He said there was money in writing, but he had never made much at it because he didn't have any rich relatives to write to.

He encouraged us, though. He said that by the time we had written long enough to discover we had no talent for writing, we'd probably be too successful to quit.

Of course, we know how to write successfully for a magazine. Just write 'em a check for a subscription. They never reject that kind of writing.

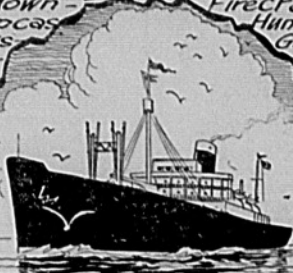

Our neighbor wished us success. He said he was certain we'd be able to turn out a column a week on our typewriter.

We are certain that you will like our service if you'll give it a try. Drop in next time you're down our way.

Stew Covers

The home economists say that by making a cover for stews we can stretch the servings of meat even further. A pastry top not only stretches the flavor but adds a nice body to the stew. A layer of mashed potatoes, rounds of biscuit dough or corn-meal mush crushed with melted fat all can be used successfully on top of a deep dish of stew. Of course, the crust is browned in the oven just before serving.

According to the Encyclopaedia Britannica, the famous astronomer Galileo disliked science when he studied it as a school boy.

Mr. A. M. Jackson
Slaton, Texas.

Dear Mr. Jackson:

Please find enclosed a check for the SLATONITE for another year. I had rather get your paper than the San Angelo Standard-Times and I wouldn't miss getting the Slatonite for anything. I am interested in all the people there and in all the towns' happenings. The six years we lived in Slaton were the happiest I ever spent and I truly enjoy reading every thing in the paper and especially your editorials.

Hoping all is well with you and Mrs. Jackson.

Yours respectfully,
Mrs. Ed Hill.

Narcissus, Daffodils Same
 All daffodils are narcissus and all narcissus are daffodils. Daffodil is the English word, and the narcissus, the Latin word, for the same flower. The term jonquil, when properly applied, refers to one specific group of narcissus which are miniature daffodils with dainty fragrant yellow flowers, borne two or more on a stem, perfectly hardy, with onionlike instead of flat leaves. "Jonquil" should be used only for this one class of narcissus.

Refresh Feet
 A hot soapy foot bath is a wonderful way to refresh tired feet.

Big Frogs
 Ten-inch frogs are found in South Cameroons, Africa, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica. Some frogs in the Solomon islands grow to be eight and a half inches long, and the bull-frog of eastern North America reaches a length of nearly eight inches.

Chinese Blanket
 Yellow is a favorite color for blankets manufactured by the spinning and dyeing co-operatives in North China. The reason—yellow is the simplest color to make from acid found in dud Japanese bombs scattered around the countryside.

Rail oddities

Freight Trains of the American Railroads TRAVELED 616 BILLION MILES IN 1947—EQUIVALENT TO 24,750 TIMES AROUND THE EARTH.

ON EARLY DAYS, WHEN A TRAIN FROM ONE DIRECTION WAS LATE AT A MEETING POINT, A TRAIN FROM THE OPPOSITE DIRECTION COULD PROCEED AFTER WAITING HALF AN HOUR BUT IN SUCH CASES A TRAINMAN HAD TO WALK OUT AHEAD AND "FLAG" HIS TRAIN AROUND EACH CURVE.

LAST YEAR THE RAILROADS RECEIVED LESS COMPENSATION FROM THE GOVERNMENT FOR HAULING NEARLY 94 PER CENT OF THE FIRST CLASS MAIL THAN THE AIR LINES RECEIVED FOR HAULING ABOUT 6 PER CENT.

FOR THIS THEY RECEIVED $21,700,000

FOR THIS THEY RECEIVED $22,800,000

Forest Air Cleaner
 Forest air is much more free from bacteria of all kinds than is the air just outside the forest. According to the Encyclopaedia Britannica, there are generally 23 to 28 per cent fewer bacteria in the forest air, since the foliage acts as a kind of filter, retaining dust and other particles in the air. The bacteria on the leaves are then readily killed by exposure to the sun.

Offset Oversalting
 When a dish becomes too heavily salted by mistake, the addition of small amounts of sugar may be helpful in counteracting the flavor.

SOUTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY
 24 YEARS OF GOOD CITIZENSHIP AND PUBLIC SERVICE

Casual Comment

By Mrs. Nora Billingsley

I knew that prices had gone up, but I did not realize how much, till I found an old Star Telegram printed in Sept., '39. The price of choice fat yearlings and heifers is quoted at $9.25 to $9.50. Today the price is from $20.00 to $24.00. Then good medium weight butcher hogs were $7.40 to $7.50, today they are $24.00. Butcher and beef cows were then $4.25 to $5.75, and now they are $14.00 to $17.50.

But no, we don't raise them. Feed is much too high.

On the reverse side of a map of Finland that I had clipped out of a Feb., '40 issue, was the following news item:

Senator Pittman asserted on Thursday that Great Britain "made an excessive and very foolish use" of its rights as a belligerent to censor American mail by sending armed marines aboard the Pan-American Airways Clipper at Bermuda.

The disclosure that 2,600 pounds of mail had been seized in Bermuda on Jan. 18 at the point of bayonets after censorship officials had been ordered off the flying boat, brought a wave of protest in congressional circles. Included in the censored mail were letters to Germany, Italy, Sweden, Portugal, the Azores and other points.

Senator Truman of Missouri suggested, in commenting on the incident, that the United States retaliate by canceling future clipper flights to Bermuda and by prohibiting the landing of British planes in this country. Truman said he thought the interference with American mails could be stopped if this country took a "firm stand" and retaliated for the Bermuda incident.

It seems that somebody is always "pushing us around."

An old fellow who lived up in the hills of Arkansas, used to say of people whose actions he disapproved, "It shows they are both green and ignorant." This expression was often quoted in our family. A short time ago I decided that, in view of the fact that the price of groceries being what they are, and the cotton fields burned to a cinder, that I was "both green and ignorant" if I didn't look out for the "specials," and make my dollars go as far as possible.

Now, I was never a thrifty shopper, that is, I never remember, by the time I've used up a bag of flour, what it cost or how much the next should cost, and I never know how much any container contains. However, when I looked over advertised grocery lists, the most intriguing item was "3 lbs. Crisco, 93c", as priced at a Lubbock store, and I resolved to get this bargain the first time I went to Lubbock, but when I did go, and had the bargain in my basket, the grocer patiently explained that it was $1.08 if I did not have a "coupon", that names were taken from the city or telephone directories by the Crisco people, and that coupons worth 15c

POSEY H. D. CLUB MEETS

The Posey Home Demonstration Club met Oct. 6 in the home of Mrs. Henry Guetersloh, with twelve members present.

After the business meeting, Miss Clara Pratt gave a very interesting demonstration on harmonizing colors and your fall wardrobe.

The meeting closed, to meet Oct. 20 in the home of Mrs. Bill Guetersloh. Delicious pie, ice cream and coffee were served to the group.

ALATHEAN CLASS MEETS

The Alathean Class of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. A. E. Clack Wednesday, Oct. 6.

Meeting was brought to order by Mrs. E. E. Culver, president, and opened with the song, "Our Best," followed with a prayer by Mrs. J. S. Vaughn.

Roll call was given with memory verses of Bible Scripture.

Devotional was brought by Mrs. G. W. Bussell, followed by prayer. New hostess and co-hostess were drawn for the coming year. Sunshine pals were revealed and new ones drawn.

During the social hour a spelling bee on the Books of the New Testament was enjoyed by all.

Refreshments were served to ten members.

R. C. Sanner, 830 W. Lubbock, free pass to Slaton Theatre.

Glen Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson is doing nicely after an operation in Mercy Hospital.

Mrs. J. D. Sargent, free pass to Slaton Theatre.

Irvin Reed, Rt. 2., free pass to Slaton Theatre.

each were sent them, and they could with their coupons, get Crisco for 93c. As I did not have a "coupon", and never expected my name to be in the Lubbock directory, Crisco advertised at 93c was, as far as I was concerned, just so much "bologna".

My other bargain was entirely my own fault. As I have said, I pay as little attention to the amount printed on a container as if I was buying my first bill of groceries, and when I picked up a fat jar of Folger's coffee marked $1.05, and which I "assumed" weighed 3 lbs., I knew I had found a bargain. Not wanting to act "greedy," I did not buy several jars, but resolved to go back soon. I complacently counted up on the way home, that I had saved 18c a pound—54c on a three pound jar of Folger's, and I thought, "Well! the Slaton profiteers!"

Yes, I looked at the label more closely, a few days later, "just to be sure." It was printed quite plainly, Contents, 2 lbs., and I had paid exactly what it would have cost me in Slaton.

Moral: If you don't save even a penny by going to Lubbock, buy it in Slaton.

Texas Tech Notes

With a record 6,000 visitors expected, Texas Technological College this week was preparing for the largest annual Homecoming of its 23-year history.

The Oct. 30 Homecoming program will include a giant parade, a luncheon, an afternoon football game between Tech's Red Raiders and Rice Institute Owls, and a dance.

Ordinarily only two sections of Tech's stadium are required at the Homecoming to handle ex-students but officials said three sections were reserved this year and these are sold out.

Only about 2,000 general admission seats remain to be sold, and indications are that nearly 25,000 persons, the largest crowd in Tech history, will witness the game.

Final plans have been laid for operation of a Texas Tech booth at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas during the week of Oct. 18-23, the office of Dr. D. M. Wiggins, Tech president, has announced.

Members of the Dallas Tech Ex-Students chapter will be in charge of the booth, located in the Hall of Agriculture.

A report of an advanced class in archeology at Texas Technological College on the findings in Fingerprint Caves, eight miles southeast of O'Donnell, will be a highlight of the Oct. 23 meeting in Austin of the Texas Archeological and Paleontological society.

The archeology class, under the leadership of Dr. W. C. Holden, head of the Department of Anthropology at Tech, uncovered evidence in the caves of a prehistoric culture, which before had been thought to exist only in the Big Bend area.

A four-man judging team from Texas Technological college won three places at the National Dairy Cattle congress held Oct. 4 at Waterloo, Ia.

The University of Tennessee won in overall judging; with Tech 17th. The Tech team placed sixth in the judging of Brown Swiss dairy cattle and Ralph Harbin, Tech student from Levelland, won fifth place in individual judging of Guernseys.

Mrs. Lila Kinchen, assistant professor of clothing and textiles at Texas Technological College, will attend the Oct. 13-16 conference of college clothing and textile teachers in Chicago.

The meeting, sponsored by the American Home Economics Association, will include teachers from the central region of the United States.

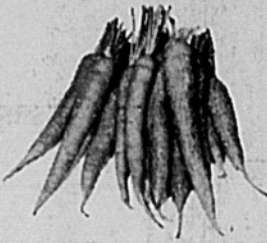

At the meeting Mrs. Kinchen will report on research work she has done the past year at Tech.

Mrs. D. J. Neill, 625 So. 11th, free pass to Slaton Theatre.

Bently Page, 250 W. Scurry, free pass to Slaton Theatre.
